Area Gets Sugar Quota, But...

Slash Causes New Concern

By H. A. TUCK
Brand News Editor

Ultimate status of a sugar beet refinery in Hereford remained in doubt Wednesday, despite an announcement that a commitment for 50,000 tons of sugar had been made to the area by the United States Department of Agriculture. "Disappointment" seemed to be the key word both from area workers and from Holly Sugar Company officials, who have been planning to build the refinery here. Reason for the disappointment is that the commitment was for 15,000 tons less than the requested 65,000 tons.

Holly officials now feel they will have to study the matter further before announcing whether they intend to go through with their plans to build the plant.

A news release was made about 10 a. m. Tuesday from Sen. Ralph Yarborough's office in Washington, D. C. It said, "The Agriculture Department signed this morning an authorization for an extra 50,000 tons of sugar beet production for the area near Hereford for the year 1964 to be used in a proposed sugar beet mill to be built by Holly Sugar Corporation near Hereford. This will involve production in the counties of Castro, Deaf Smith and Parmer in Texas and Curry County in New Mexico."

Elation at the announcement was tempered quickly by a statement from Holly officials, indicating that the allocation was not sufficient. An announcement from Don Moore, director of public relations for Holly, Tuesday afternoon said, "We are disappointed that the acreage commitment is substantially less than requested in a joint application filed by Holly, the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association and the Curry County Sugar Beet Association and that we are giving the secretary's determination a thorough study and examination at the moment to see what it means to our overall plans. Frankly, at this moment, we are standing on the statement made by Merrill E. Shoup, president of Holly, at the time formal application was submitted to the Agriculture Department last September, when he was asked what Holly's reaction would be should commitment of acreage be less than the full 65,000 tons acreage reserve. He said then, 'We would have to then give the whole matter a good, hard look.'"

However, Wednesday morning, a Holly official said, "Holly still hopes to go through with their project in Hereford, but is taking a good, hard look at the situation in view of the decreased commitment."

The whole matter began more than two years ago when the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association was formed to work for a large allocation of sugar beet production in this area. After forestalling attempts to renew the Sugar Act for a five-year period on two different attempts, the Association was instrumental in getting the Sugar Act changed to allow for increased production in "new growing areas."

The increase is based only on the anticipated need for additional sugar due to larger consumption and increased population. It does not include any of the quota formerly assigned to Cuba, but since reassigned to other foreign countries.

In September, Holly joined in an application with the TS-BGA and the group from Curry County for the commitment for 1964. The 1963 allocation recently was assigned to Spreckels Sugar Company, which has a plant near completion in California.

Lee Benefield, president of the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association, and two of his legislative committee workers, Jimmy Witherspoon and Henry Sears, plan to go to Colorado Springs this week to talk with Holly officials. Already, they have been in contact with Texas legislators in Washington and with USDA officials about the cut in commitment.

City Commission Discusses Grand Avenue Paving Costs

Three topics — the paving of Grand Avenue, water, and the leasing or purchasing of police cars for the city — were the main order of business for the regular meeting of Hereford City Commission on Monday. In a cost estimate furnished to the Commission on the paving project, total cost was placed at $32,220.94. The figure included assessment costs. The proposed project calls for the paving and construction of curb and gutters on Grand from 25 Mile Avenue eastward to Avenue F. A breakdown of the cost figure lists grading, 15,053 square yards, $3,311.66; base, 12,970 square yards, $8,430.50; triple asphalt paving, 12,970 square yards, $8,430.50; and curb and gutters, 5,250 feet, $8,400. Also included in the project will be concrete valleys, 3,000 square feet, $1,650; adjustment of seven manholes, $150.50; adjustment of 14 valves, $154, and engineering, $1,693.78. New paving on the street is to be 44 feet wide and will replace the 20 feet of strip paving. It was pointed out in the meeting that homeowners along Grand Avenue be given special consideration since they had already paid for the original paving. Also brought out in the discussion was the fact that normal procedure in street paving calls for the construction of 36-foot-wide streets. Under the proposed plan, Grand Avenue will be widened an extra eight feet since it is considered a main thoroughfare. Five plans were considered by commissioners on the property owner's and city's share of the paving costs. However, no proposal has as yet been adopted.

City Manager Dudley Bayne was instructed, at the close of a discussion on whether or not to purchase or lease police cars, to include purchase prices in the budget for the 1963-64 fiscal year. However, it was pointed out by Mayor Ray Cowert that "the money may or may not be used." During the discussion, it was brought out that the city now pays $1800 a year for each car. "It would be to the city's advantage now to buy cars for the police department," commented Bayne. In discussing water development for the city, Bayne reported on the progress of the new city well No. 11 on property south of Tierra Blanca Creek. He stated that the well looks a lot better than it did since one of the formations has "broken loose" after being acidized and the well surged. During first tests the well was only pumping 400 gallons a minute. However, after the recent work on the well, production is expected to increase, he stated. During the discussion of future water development, Mayor Cowert stated that Robert Scott of Vega had offered to sell the city a 10-acre tract of land with a producing eight-inch well. The land is located south of (Continued on page 6)

SANTA CLAUS WARNS youngsters to be nice, because he'll be back Christmas Eve with goodies for those who do. Summed up briefly, the sugar beet situation still is confused. Holly Sugar officials indicate that they aren't pulling out, but think they'll have to take some time to review an investment of $15-20 million for somewhat less marketing ability than they had anticipated... and you really can't blame them for that. Locally, everyone is shocked, but a lot of people already are working to get the commitment increased. Holly has a big stake in Hereford already, what with their contact work, agreements with farmers and a tentative construction contract, not to mention the cost of advance planning and engineering of the plant. They don't want to back out any worse than we would want them to. It seems that it's going to take a while longer to work out the situation. But, eventually, we still think Holly will see their way clear to build a plant here. Somehow it seems a little bit like giving a youngster an electric train for Christmas, but failing to include the engine. He has something, but it's not at all what he had anticipated. Oh well, the first notion to put a sugar beet mill in Hereford was more than 25 years ago, so I guess we can wait a few more months if necessary. There will be a live Nativity scene at St. Thomas Episcopal Church on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 21 and 22, from 6:30 p. m. until 8:30 p. m. each night. The tableau will include realistic costumes and live animals. The church is located on Harrison Highway. The public is invited to come by and look at the scene. All Hereford college students are being invited to an open house Sunday, Dec. 23, at the Claude McDougal home on the Harrison Highway. It will be from 3-5 p.m. Sunday. Hereford Whitefaces will try to break their three-game losing streak Thursday when they entertain the Palo Duro Dons from Amarillo. The B game will start at 6:30 p. m. with the varsity tilt at 8 p. m. Tascosa and Amarillo High have beaten the Whitefaces in their last two outings and the Herd will be trying to knock off at least one of the Amarillo Schools. On Friday and Saturday, Hereford will play three games in the Ft. Sumner, N.M. invitational tournament. Men, we are down to four shopping days now, so it's time we at least started making our shopping list. From the crowds in town the last few days, it seems that most folks are finishing up their holiday buying a bit earlier. (Continued on page 6)

Some Open, Some Close On Monday A survey by the Brand this week shows some establishments will be open and others will be closed on Monday, which is Christmas Eve. Closed from Friday afternoon at 5 p. m. until Wednesday at 8 p. m. will be all city, county and governmental offices. Only exception will be the law enforcement offices, which will be working intensively on traffic control. Both banks will be open Monday, as will be Pioneer Natural Gas Company and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The Southwestern Public Service Company will be open until noon Monday. The Hereford Clinic will be closed all day Monday. Hereford merchants last week voted to remain open until 8 p. m. Thursday and Friday, Dec. 20 and 21, and until 9 p. m. on Saturday, Dec. 22. They will close at 6 p. m. Monday, Dec. 24.

Sandies Dump Herd, 67-56; Palo Duro, Tournay Ahead

Hereford Whitefaces, hitting a miserable 3 of 17 field goal attempts in the first period, fell behind the Amarillo Sandies early Tuesday night and then failed in their catch-up bid. The Sandies coasted in to a 67-56 victory, their sixth against two losses. It was Hereford's third loss against four wins. On Thursday night, Hereford will host the ball-controlling Palo Duro Dons, the third Amarillo team in a row, and will be looking for more success than they have had in their last two outings. Hereford will be in Ft. Sumner.

N. M., for a pre-holiday tournament. That will be the last action for Hereford until it goes to Dimmitt on Jan. 4. The Whitefaces will open a ten-game district slate here on Jan. 11 against Perryton. In the Ft. Sumner tournament. (Continued on page 6)

AMAHL AND THE NIGHT VISITORS

Slate Yule Opera Friday

The Bible tells the story of three kings who visited the young Christ Child. This same story forms the basis for the plot of one of the most popular Christmas productions of modern times. Operatic composer Gian-Carlo Menotti bases "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on the travels of the three rich kings. Members of the Hereford High School Mixed Choir will present his short opera in the High School Auditorium Friday at 7:30 p. m. Also featured in the 45-minute opera are members of the Hereford High School Band and the Amarillo Symphony, who form a live orchestra which accompanies the presentation. Director Don Moore points out that the opera was originally staged for a nation-wide television broadcast, and has since become a Christmas program classic. "Amahl and the Night Visitors" tells of the three kings' visit in the home of Amahl and his mother. Portraying the famed kings are Charles Kelly (who was recently named a member of the All-State Choir) as King Balthazar, Ronnie Gray as King Jasper, and Dick Combs as King Melchior. Young Amahl is portrayed by Cy Moore, while Mamie Silvertooth (also an All-State Choir member) sings the role of Amahl's mother. Billy Smith is cast as the king's page. Ronda Neff and Jay Boynton appear as dancers in the opera.

All other members of the high school mixed choir appear as a chorus of shepherds who come to see Amahl's miraculous gift. Members of the Hereford High School Band who will appear in the orchestra are Merle Carmichael, Kathy Knox, Charles

Mims, Jerry McCathern, Chuck Schneider, Tyler Thompson, and Ben Gollehon, high school band director. A chorus of five string players from the Amarillo Symphony will also be featured in the orchestra. The opera will be presented for one performance only, according to the director. The choir is staging the opera in order to offer a program which will add to the local Christmas spirit. Tickets may be obtained at the door. Proceeds from the box office will be used to pay royalties and costume rental fees. "Amahl and the Night Visitors" promises to give a unique bit of Yule spirit as it tells the story of two unusual Christmas gifts.

STEALING GOLD from the three rich kings who are on their way to find the new-born Christ child in the Christmas opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors" is Amahl's mother, portrayed by Mamie Silvertooth. The 45-minute opera will be staged Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Hereford High School Auditorium. The opera will feature members of the high school Mixed Choir, under the direction of Don Moore. Fondling Charge Lodged Against Hereford Man

Charges of fondling were filed here Tuesday against a 52-year-old Hereford man and bond was set at $5000 in Justice of the Peace Court, Judge C. B. Miles presiding, as the man was arraigned. Alleged to have committed the offense is Lee Ernest New, 328 Ave. J. According to a complaint filed at Hereford Police Department, the incident involving an eight-year-old girl is said to have happened about 10 a. m. Sunday. New was arrested by police officers Sunday as they investigated the reported offense.

Santa Letters Must Be Here By Noon Friday

Children! Have you written Santa Claus yet? If not, you'd better hurry. The deadline for accepting Santa letters locally will be noon Friday, Dec. 21, in order that they might appear in the Brand before Christmas. Just address the letters to Santa, Box 673, Hereford, and they will be rushed to the Brand for printing, then sent straight to the North Pole so Santa can read them. Many of the letters which have been received have not yet been printed, but will appear in the Christmas edition of the Brand on Sunday, Dec. 23. But all of them have already been sent on to Santa.

Carlisle Resident Faces Auto Theft Charges Here

A Carlisle, Tex., man is being held here on grand jury indictment for auto theft and bond was set at $1,000 as the true bill was returned during the last grand jury session. Charged with the offense is J. C. Perkins, 41. He is alleged to have taken a pickup truck belonging to a Hereford business firm. Perkins was arrested by a Deaf Smith County deputy sheriff at the Lubbock County Sheriff's Office on Saturday.

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Jet Noise Problem Poses Difficult Legal Question

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

A wag once defined a small boy as a "noise with dirt on it." She was assuming that everyone knew the meaning of the word, "noise."

However, in modern day activities with the advent of supersonic devices, the meaning of the word "noise" may become of the utmost importance and if noise is associated with annoyance, the question will probably be "when does a sound become a noise?"

One aircraft manufacturer has gathered together data on the problem and I include here in certain excerpts from these findings.

"It would be difficult to understand or attempt to alleviate any problem associated with noise without some comprehension of the complex character and characteristics of sound. This requires a clear definition of the acoustical expressions commonly used by experts who assess aircraft noise and its effect on people.

"It should be noted first that some words — such as 'intensity,' 'sound level,' 'amplitude' and 'loudness' — often used synonymously by laymen have technically important distinctions in the vocabulary of sound.

"What is sound? It is a physical phenomenon created by vibrations from some source — a slamming door, a bell, flowing water, a violin, turning propellers or spinning turbine engines. These vibrations may be transmitted through any medium, but usually we are interested in sound transmitted through air. At normal temperatures they travel through air at a velocity of about 1100 feet or 335 meters per second — the 'speed of sound.'"

This may sound somewhat silly to many people but it could have an effect on the pocketbook of the taxpayers throughout this country. One of the major problems presently faced by many municipal authorities stems from the noise generated by aircraft taking off and landing at the local airport. There are many lawsuits presently pending having to do with damages growing out of such noise. One of the major questions involved is as to the party responsible.

There are many suggestions as to the responsible party but as yet there are no fixed regulating guidelines as to all circumstances.

Many feel that the Federal Government should be responsible because of its regulatory jurisdiction over the operation of aircraft but others feel that the municipal authority operating the airport should be responsible.

Some feel that the municipalities benefitting from the traffic generated through the airport should accept the responsibility. But others are of the opinion that the airlines themselves should be responsible.

All of this adds up to a very complicated legal problem which will be of great concern in this country, which concern

Lutheran Women Have Yule Party

Mrs. Wleido Gronemann of 310 Western Street was hostess to the Lutheran Women and several of their guests at a Christmas party on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15. Highlight of the program was the singing of Christmas carols.

The Rev. Fred Beversdorf, pastor of the Lutheran Church, gave the devotional and read the Christmas story recorded in Luke. Afterwards he conducted a Bible quiz pertaining to Christmas.

Refreshments of coffee, punch and dainty Christmas cookies were served from a lace-covered table decorated with a Christmas theme.

Each lady brought cookies, which were later packed and distributed among the sick and those who were unable to attend the party.

Seventeen women and five children attended the party.

Thus Saith the Lord

"Unto you is born in the city of David, a Savior, which is Christ, the Lord." Luke 2, 11.
A beautiful little baby had been baptized in church on a Sunday morning. There was big family gathering afterwards at the child's home. Relatives, friends, and sponsors were present. All thoroughly enjoyed each others fellowship.
After dinner someone asked, "Where's the baby? They looked and looked and looked. Finally they found it. Where? On the bed. Under all the guests' coats. Dead. "How sad," you say. It certainly was.
What about us at Christmas time and any time for that that matter? Do we know and understand and believe who the Babe at Bethlehem was, and what He came to do? Or do we bury him under the wrappings of everything else we do so that His life does not come to us?
That Babe at Bethlehem was the Only Son God ever had or has. He came to be a baby and then a man to save us from our sins. Thank God He did that for you and me.
Christmas is the remembrance of the beginning of the unfolding of that plan of redemption. May that joy be yours this season. Then He will not have come in vain.

Christmas Cards, With Photos, Are Appreciated

By Argen Draper

The week before Christmas and people are really busy, however some merchants have told me that they think people have been doing Christmas shopping all year. This is a point in favor of good management both for time and energy and finances.

It seems that the Christmas cards are prettier than ever. Too, we've had a few "souper douter" cards, that means a picture was included with the Christmas greeting. Shirley and Teddy Fangman sent Scott's picture. Also a picture of David Layman, son of the Jay Laymans and Nina Gilleland, daughter of the W. C. Gilleland. The Goose Rameys of Dimmitt have a picture on their cards of their four grandsons. They sing their card "Mr. & Mrs. Goose Ramey and the four gossins."

Christmas is the only time we hear from some of the family and friends. Mrs. A. E. Jury sent a Christmas greeting with the good news that their son, George Jury, received his doctor's degree at Missouri University in June and is now in Fredricksburg, Tex. Their son, Gene Ray, is still in Kansas City.

Mrs. Blanche Hardin, mother of Mrs. Gene Anderson, has served some very delicious chocolate candy. She told us that this is potato candy. Here is the recipe.

POTATO CANDY

2 tablespoons creamed potatoes
1 1/2 pound pow. sugar (approx)
1 teaspoon paraffin
Melted chocolate (Melt in double boiler and make sure no water gets into chocolate)

Knead potatoes and sugar into firm balls. Mix chocolate and paraffin. Dip balls into chocolate and put a nut on top.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Don't forget to attend "Amahl and the Night Visitors" Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium. It should go down as another in a series of outstanding choral productions for the school. One thing is sure, the students really have put in a lot of work on the Christmas opera that has become a tradition in a very short time since it was written especially as a television production.

It caught us, as it does rarely: Our nose is red, we hear just barely And we'd really like to be in bed. In short, we have a cold in the head.

Bees Claim Third Place In Tourney, Lose Third

Hereford High School B-Team was forced to split up in order to get in four games in three days last week.

B-teamers capped third place honors in the Phillips B-Team Tournament, but lost to Tascosa Bees in Amarillo.

Earning the third place trophy in the Phillips meet, the Herd gunned down Stinnett Bees by 54-27 Thursday in the opening game, Friday night Dumas edged Hereford in a thriller which went into overtime by 49-47.

But the Herd came fighting back in the final game Saturday to outrun their host team, Phillips, for the third place trophy. Hereford downed Phillips by 57-46.

Meanwhile other members of the B-Team squad traveled to Amarillo, where the Tascosa Rebels dished out a 65-35 loss to the Herd.

Following the week-end's action, the Bees still command a respectable 5-3 record, with their only losses to Clovis, Dumas, and Tascosa.

Hereford played host to the Amarillo Sandies in Whiteface Gymnasium Tuesday night. Next action for the Bees comes Thursday, Dec. 20, at 6 p. m. as the Palo Duro Dons come to Hereford.

Reviewing the action in the Phillips tournament, Hereford cinched third place with a 57-46 win over Phillips Saturday in the consolation finals. Frank Cain led the Herd by ripping in 19 points during his best game of the year.

Ronnie Welty contributed ten points, while Kenny Justice hit for nine and Gary Robertson got eight. David Stevens tallied seven, and Charlie Moreno tacked on four.

For a while the outcome was uncertain, as the Herd managed only a one-point margin at 14-13 after the first quarter of play. The Whitefaces edged out to a 23-24 lead before the half, but still had only a four-point margin by the end of the third quarter.

Entering the final period with a 39-34 lead, the Whitefaces poured on the steam to win by 11 points. Frank Cain garnered six to head the final outburst, while the Herd limited Phillips to just 11 points in the last quarter.

Hereford was forced into the consolation match after Dumas won by a single point in a game Friday night.

Hereford might have had better luck had it not been for big Wayne Ebbinett, who accounted for 36 of the 49 Demon points.

The two teams raced neck and neck all the way into the final quarter, and the game ended at a 47-47 deadlock. The Demons managed the winning two points during the first overtime period.

Leading the Hereford scoring was Ronnie Welty, who hit for 18 points. Moreno and Justice both garnered eight points while David Stevens chalked up six. Cain hit for four, and Gary Stagner added three.

In the opening game, the Herd had little trouble in topping Stinnett by 54-27. Every one on the squad had lots of action during the game.

Leading scoring was Welty again, with 14 points. Gary Roberson dumped in ten points for his high-point game of the season. Also rating scoring columns were Stagner with seven, Stevens with six, Moreno and Justice with four, Childers with three, and Cain, Minks, and Cook with two each.

At Tascosa Gym Friday, the Bees ran into their biggest problems of the year as they met a 35-65 defeat. With half of the team in Phillips, the Bees drafted a couple of varsity men to fill the ranks.

Danny Cates paced the Herd, with 13 points. Mike Ferguson added 11, and Wayne Edwards first quarter, the only lead they had during the game. Then Amarillo dumped in 11 straight points for a 13-3 lead. Billy Hill, Robert Strange and Dwight McGee finally hit two points each for Hereford, but the Sandies led 17-9 at the end of the quarter.

Hereford pulled within five points early in the second quarter, trailing 14-19. But the Sandies again came through and pulled in front by 10, 25-15.

Jim Haney and Mike Ferguson combined for three points to close the margin slightly but Amarillo hit from the field to gradually increase its lead to 34-22 at halftime.

Hereford rallied momentarily in the third period, getting four field goals two a pair of them for Amarillo. That left Hereford behind, 30-38, before Amarillo pumped in seven straight points: Trailing by 15 points, 35-50, Hereford made a valiant effort in the fourth period. Strange hit for a field goal and Haney got a free throw before the Sandies could hit for two free tosses.

Then Hereford really made its move as David Dowell hit two free throws, and Haney got a field goal and two more free ones. Amarillo then led 52-44. Amarillo got one free throw line and Hereford was behind 46-53.

But Jim Hill netted two free throw and Wendell Hilton stole the ball for two points before Danny Cates hit a long set shot.

Jim Hill hit a basket and Ronnie Walker got two good free throws for a commanding lead with 1:50 left in the game. Strange made two free throws which were matched by Hilton. Haney got a pair of free ones but Leonard Lopez stole the ball and raced for a lay-up.

Ferguson hit a field goal. Walker made two charity tries and Cates hit another long shot just as the buzzer sounded.

Wendell Hilton led all players as he netted 24 points. Ronnie Walker had 13 and Jim Hill got 10 for the Sandies. Jim Haney was the only Whiteface in double figures, as he got 17, 11 of them on free throws.

By Audni Miller

Hi, everyone! Well, here we are, five days away from Christmas Day, the day eagerly awaited by children and grown-ups alike! And this last week has been some week — preparations and more preparations! So, if you'll just read on, I'll try to "clue you in."

And at the same time, in another room, Mrs. Heiman's French students were enjoying a "French Dinner." The Club Room of the Center was overflowing with "atmosphere" — tables were covered with red-and-white checked cloths, and in the center of each table was what one would expect to see in a French restaurant: a wine bottle used as a candle-holder.

The menu for this exotic meal featured Canapes, Noisettes, Soupe a L'orignon; Puree de Pommes de Terre, Aux Croustons, Escalopes de Viande, Dindon Farci aux Indes, Oie Sauvage Farci, Choux - Fleur au Gratin, Pommes de Terre Bateau, Pommes de Terre Gratin Asperges, (Sauce Hollandaise), Epinards aux Croustons, Haricots Verts aux Champignons, Roquefort, Brie, Camembert, Petits Fours, Partes aux Cerises, Eau Frape, Jus de Baisin — now, in case you're wondering just what was on the menu: grape juice was served (rather than wine!) followed by appetizers, soup, a main course, cheese, vegetables, and dessert. Quite a change from the ordinary mealtime fare!

Sixteen members of Hereford High's National Honor Society and three sponsors enjoyed a tour (led by Ronnie Botkin, graduate of HHS and now a sophomore student at Tech) of Texas Technological College in Lubbock last Friday. Those who "took" the jaunt to Lubbock were Jim Grubbs, Gloria Covington, Ike Persons, Dorald Payne, Kathy Knox, Steve Conway, Louise Axe, Nelda Botkin, Janis Higgins, Juddy Wiman, Kathy Boston, Carolyn Aven, Heather Gordon, Janice Hagan, Joe Parker, Mrs. Glyn Persons, Mrs. Jane Westberry (HHS teacher - sponsor), Mrs. Preston Hagans, and yours truly.

After hearing Mrs. Geraldine Conway, the youth leader who was recently a speaker here, several teenagers from various churches decided to follow her suggestion of organizing a Prayer Group. This group meets each Wednesday at 6 p. m. in one of the churches. It is the hope of these young people that the group will continue to grow in number — the Prayer Group is non - denominational. You are invited to come each week and participate in this prayer service. Information regarding the place of meeting can be obtained from Connie Kent.

And Barbara Neff, along with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Neff, was in Hereford for a visit from Sunday, Dec. 9, until Sunday, Dec. 16. As most of you know, the Neffs now live in Canada where Barbara is a cheerleader — and according to her accounts, life in Canada can be termed "rough and rugged." Canadian scholastic requirements are also very high. Nice to have ya back for a while, Barbara!

One of the most important events in Hereford High took place last Friday, Dec. 14, when honor positions for the Roundup were presented in the annual Koobraey Assembly. The yearbook staff set the scene as "Santa's Workshop" where members of the staff were seen working on toys and decorating a Christmas tree.

Senior class favorites are Dwight McGee and Connie Kent, with Austin Hodges and Sandra Vaught as runners - up; junior favorites are Luanne Witkowski and Jimmy Higgins and runners - up are Kathy Boston and Ronnie Duncan; chosen as favorites of the sophomore class were Merle Carmichael and Lynn Cook with Brenda Shelton and Larry Minks as the runners - up.

Selected as Personality King and Queen were Charles Kelly and Suzanne Higgins with David Dowell and Shari Carmichael as the runners - up. Candidates selected for Most Handsome honors were Austin Hodges, Charles Mims, and Arnold Powell; Shari Carmichael, Dianna Robinson, and Judy Kreighshauer have been chosen as candidates for Most Beautiful (the Most Handsome and Most Beautiful will be selected by "outside" judges); finally, the honors of Mr. and Miss Hereford High were bestowed upon Arnold Powell and Judy Kreighshauer, with Ron Gray and Janie McBroom as the runners - up. Congratulations to you all!

Hereford High School is just bubbling with Christmas spirit! Members of the Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America, Future Nurses of America, the Tri-Hi-Y, the Distributive Education Club, and the National Honor Society, along with the office girls, began arriving bright and early last Saturday morning to put up decorations in the halls and in the principal's office. The Student Council sponsored this effort which can surely be called a huge success! There are even three Christmas trees — one in the hall, one in the home-making display case, and one in the office — angels are suspended from the ceiling, arrangements of greenery and pine cones are above each door, and a Kissing Ball is hanging from the ceiling in the vicinity of the library!! Ooooh! (Never fear, it's not yet equipped with mistletoe — which properly activates it!) — But what's even nicer than the decorations — is the fact that everyone really has that wonderful intangible thing known as Christmas Spirit — and we hope you have it, too!

Here's something that all of you might be interested in: The youth groups of the Presbyterian, the First Christian, and the First Methodist churches are having a Christmas Caroling Fest beginning at 7 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 22, on the Courthouse lawn. The public is cordially invited to attend. Do come! Following their appearance at the Courthouse, the group will sing carols to the shut-ins and to the people at King's Manor, after which they will meet at the Community Center for refreshments.

College students who have already arrived home for the holidays are Drew Kershen, John Buck, and Jim Pavlicek from Notre Dame, Linda Edwards from Colorado Woman's College, and Maribeth Gilliland from Colorado State University. Maribeth brought a visitor with her, Terre Gerhardt from Aurora, Colo. Terre is a sociology major at C.S.U. — she will be Maribeth's roommate next "quarter" (which, I am told, is a period of 12 weeks). And, on Christmas eve, Terre will fly home to Aurora — doesn't that sound exciting? Come back to see us, Terre!

Heather Gordon was in Abilene from Friday, Dec. 7, until Wednesday, Dec. 12, visiting with Mrs. B. Wilson, whose son stayed in South Africa in the home of a mutual acquaintance. While in Abilene, Heather attended a philharmonic concert, heard lectures at McMurry College, visited Hardin - Simmons University and Abilene Christian College, viewed an art exhibit and met the artist, appeared on television, addressed an MYF group and a class of fourth grade students whose questions were unusually acute! These fourth graders wasted no time in asking questions to gratify their insatiable curiosity about South Africa! One question was, "Tell me now, what effect did the Second World War have on South Africa?" Of this question Heather says, "Believe you me, it had me stumped!" Other questions were, "What is the average life span of a South African?" and "Why do so many South African towns end in the suffix 'burg'?" I'd say,

"Advanced fourth graders, eh?" Heather says that the whole trip was "just fabulous!" And we say that we're glad to have Heather back with us! We didn't realize that we could miss anyone so much in such a short time!

Hey, all you high school and college students — remember the first dance of the holidays which will be Friday, Dec. 21, from 9-12 p. m. at the Community Center. Ray Ruff and the Checkmates will be there to get your holiday dancin' off to a real swingin' start — admission price is $1 per person. See you there!

Don Moore, director of "Amahl and the Night Visitors," has had more than his share of obstacles during the preparation of the opera — first, Mamie Silvertooth, who is cast as Amahl's mother, became ill with influenza, accompanied by laryngitis — then, Dick Combs, who was assigned the part of King Melchior, had to undergo an emergency appendectomy on Monday, Dec. 11 — and, as if all this weren't enough, the part of the Page had to be reassigned... oh, the perils and problems of a director! Despite all these unexpected "catastrophes," the mixed "choir" opera will be presented Friday night in the high school auditorium — curtain time is 8 p. m. Certainly this production merits your attendance!

And here, expressed in the words of Edgar A. Guest, is my Christmas wish for you and yours: "God bless you all this Christmas day; may Bethlehem's star still light the way, and guide thee to the perfect peace when every fear and doubt shall cease, and may thy home such glory know as did the stable long ago."

Motorists Urged To Follow Three Rules Of Travel

Motorists are being urged by the Texas Highway Patrol to follow three simple "rules of the road" while traveling during the holiday season.

Travelers are urged to allow ample time for the trip, stop occasionally for rest breaks, and report unsafe acts by other drivers, commented Major Harry Hutchison, regional commander of the Highway Patrol for this area.

"By allowing plenty of time for the trip, motorists will not have to speed to get to destinations on time," Major Hutchison said. "Occasional stops for rest will keep a person mentally alert, and by reporting to law enforcement agencies the unsafe acts of other drivers, a life may be saved."

It is estimated that 180 persons will meet violent death in traffic, murder, suicide, and other fatal accidents during the 11 day Christmas - New Year holiday.

The Department of Public Safety forecast recently that 92 persons would die in traffic accidents on Texas highways during the holiday season.

In efforts to curb, and even lower the holiday death toll, uniformed officers with law-enforcement powers from the License and Weight and the Motor Vehicle Inspection Divisions will be used to strengthen the regular patrol force, the major commented.

He also pointed out that a round-the-clock schedules for a 11 enforcement officers have been planned and that radar units would be in constant operation on as many highways as possible.

It was announced here recently by Highway Patrol Sergeant Bill Wells, Hereford area supervisor, that patrolmen shifts at the minimum as the Highway Patrol attempts to curb holiday highway deaths. He explained that regular enforcement policy would be maintained.

"However," he added, "more time will be spent on the highways to discourage violations and assist motorists as most will be traveling out of their home territory."

Also to be in operation during the Christmas - New Year holidays is "Operation Deathwatch"

The Whitefaces had another moderately successful week as they won one and lost one.

The Herd trampled Dimmitt but the Tascosa Rebels were a different story. The Rebs jumped to a 22-9 lead before Hereford could do anything. They held a 38-17 halftime margin. The Whitefaces fought back the second half but they could not overcome the Rebel lead as Tascosa held a 51-46 margin at the end of the game. Jim Haney was high scorer with 11 points.

Tuesday night the Whitefaces were to play the Amarillo Sandies in Hereford. Tonight the Herd will meet the Palo Duro Dons on the home court. Tomorrow Hereford begins the Fort Sumner Tournament. This will end the action for a while as Hereford takes a break for the holidays. The Whitefaces resume action on Jan. 4, 1963 in Dimmitt.

The B - team opened the week by trouncing Dimmitt 55-31. Ronnie Welty scored 20 points for the Herd.

Thursday, the Whitefaces began the Phillips B - team Tournament by whipping Stinnett 54-27.

This set the stage for the Herd's semifinal game against the Dumas Demons. (As there was a conflict with the Tascosa game only seven players made the trip to Phillips for this game.) The Demons had so much height that it seemed there was little chance for (Continued on page 4)

Communist Party Is Built On Falsehood

By JIMMY WEATHERS
Whiteface Co-Editor

Have you heard that Premier Khrushchev has claimed the Cuban question was a Russian diplomatic victory? Ridiculous as it may seem, that is the statement the Soviet chieftain made to the press. Obviously, this is not true due to Soviet submittal to our demands in relation to the removal of missile bases in Cuba. Any educated person in the world can quickly see through this false remark. However, what about the illiterate?

Communism's greatest asset through the post-war years has been the element of illiteracy. Any person who is not educated or informed on a subject will, the majority of the time, be gullible enough to believe any issue set forth concerning it. Once this person is informed, he or she quickly sets this down as a part of their mental doctrine. When this happens the possibilities of changing this person's opinion are very slim.

The communists twist, deform, obliterate, and destroy anything in their path through propaganda. Communist propaganda is nothing short of a glorified lie. This party has developed so convincing a system of operation that it is difficult for the average person not to believe all or some of its views.

Communism is generally based on its theory of the nature of the state. This theory states that all of the history of mankind has been devoted to a class struggle. This no doubt is partially correct. The theory goes on to state that the party wants a democratic form of government as soon as the people of the land are educated enough to govern themselves. However, until that time the people must develop their education and ability under the supervision of the Communist Party. Naturally, this is very convincing to the common peasant and laborer. This conception is one of the most brilliant political moves in the history of the earth. That is why it is working so efficiently.

The next problem is how to stop it. All means attempted thus far have virtually failed. They have slowed the process to some extent but have been far from suppressing it. The only way possible to totally annihilate communism is to destroy its highest officials, agitators, collaborators, and principal partymen. This move is quickly denounced as an "aggressive action."

Americans are not an aggressive people; they want peace. This is understandable, however, it does not stop the bloody machine that is slowly destroying them. Perhaps someday in the future we Americans will find a final solution. Until such a time, every citizen of the United States is urged to participate in any drive to stamp out this deadly and contagious disease. You, as an American, are responsible.

OPEN HOUSE was held Friday in the office practice room of the high school. Featured during the events were displays of various makes and models of typewriters and addi-machines. High school students viewed the display, which was arranged by local office supply retailers.

High School's Counselor Offers Aids To Students

By Donita Allred

Whiteface Reporter

"Counseling is necessary because everyone has problems at some time or another," states Mr. Robert Thompson, Hereford High School Counselor and Spanish teacher.

Mr. Thompson is available to help students solve any problem almost any time of the day in his office at the south end of the first floor. He is qualified to aid in solving problems about education, college choices, applications for scholarships, choices of careers, and personal matters.

The counselor does not solve the problem, but merely aids the student to be self-sufficient in solving his own problems.

The counselor is a friend that one can go to with any question that might be bothering one. Conferences with Mr. Thompson are confidential within discretion on the counselor's part, except for information that he may be given permission to pass on to others. His duty is not for discipline or punishment, but merely to assist in solving problems.

Questions which are brought to him are about such things as: "Should I go or not go to college?" "I have difficulty making and keeping friends. What should I do?" "How can I find out what career for which I am best suited?"

Not only does the counselor help students with their problems but he conducts individual conferences with those wishing to discuss their cumulative records which contain in addition to the students grades, scores of all tests taken from the first through the twelfth grade.

His files maintain complete abstract information on every institute of higher learning in the United States and a file of all colleges and universities that serve this area including business, electronic, and other vocational schools. The counse-

Santa Visits Teachers During Annual Party

Santa Claus was a guest at the annual Christmas Texas State Teachers Association dinner held Monday night, Dec. 11. The members present sang Christmas carols under the direction of Don Moore.

Donnie Blankenship read letters to Santa Claus from the schools. Roy Hartman, president of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the Texas State Teachers Association, was master of ceremonies.

The other guests present besides Santa Claus were members of the school board. This annual meeting was attended by all the teachers in T.S.T.A. in this area. Members of F.H.A. assisted in the serving of the meal.

Christmas has a two-fold significance — the religious, commemorating the birth of Christ, and the social or festive, celebrating the seasonal practices of many people.

Thus, since it is at the same time a holy day and a holiday, Christmas is celebrated reverently at times and gaily at others.

Some of the varied traditions of Americans are revealed in a view of the holiday plans of members of the faculty and students of Hereford High School.

Teachers are going to be very busy during the Yule season.

Mrs. Neil admits that she never begins her Christmas shopping until after school is dismissed for the holidays. Then she frantically shops, wraps, and tags the gifts.

She spends Christmas Eve with her relatives in the home of her mother, where gifts are exchanged under a large tree, and everyone enjoys a festive meal.

The first thing that Mr. Sneed, student teacher for biology this six weeks, has listed on his agenda for the holidays is to eat. Then he plans to go to Corpus Christi.

It has been a custom in Mrs. Howell's family to open gifts on Christmas Eve. Since her husband's family opens gifts on Christmas morning and has its celebration on this day, she plans to spend Christmas Eve with her family and Christmas day with his.

Kathlene Kuper says that her family begins its celebration on Christmas Eve by preparing for Santa's arrival. They open the gifts from the members of her family and friends before they go to bed. At 12:00 they go to Midnight Mass at the church, singing carols on the way to town. When they get back, Santa has already arrived and they enjoy their gifts.

For the families that open their gifts on Christmas Day, there is even more suspense than for those who open them on Christmas Eve. Barbara Barrett's family always spends Christmas Eve at her grandparents with the rest of her relatives.

They cook a large dinner of turkey, dressing, ham and trimmings. The children are given gifts from each family while the adults draw names. They open their packages there and then each family goes to their

After the discussion the girls spent the rest of the period making the decorations for the doors. Several girls also volunteered to serve at the Lions Club dinner which was held Thursday, Dec. 13.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

News Media Help Praised

By Vern Sanford
In his final press conference as attorney general, Will Wilson paid tribute to Texas newspapers for helping expose graft and corruption. Wilson said that Texas newspapers, large and small, deserve a lot of credit for the progress he made during his six years of administration. "In our system," he said, "the light of day, brought through the news media, is the most efficient enforcement agency we have."

He gave special credit to the press for bringing the slanted hole oil well probes of East Texas into the open, exposing the anhydrous ammonia tank maneuvers of West Texas, and calling for fast action in other scandals. He remarked that he considers a probe for corruption of local governments the field that offers the most investigative opportunity to his successor, Waggoner Carr.

MAN HUNT
Meanwhile, incoming AG Waggoner Carr is involved in a search for able assistants for the attorney general's department. He wrote Leon Jaworski, president of the State Bar Association, that it's very difficult to find trained men.

Number of assistants now has dwindled from 80 to 68. Carr said he needs capable men with good courtroom experience, as there are 4,000 cases pending in the attorney general's office, and the "eyes of the nation" are on the slanted-hole well investigations.

A major problem is finding experienced attorneys willing to work for low pay. Beginners make about $400 a month. Nine division heads draw $10,000 annually.

Bar association promised to help Carr with the man hunt. First step was to name a 19-member committee to work with the incoming attorney general.

COURT BACKS COMMISSION
Railroad Commission's new "Rule 54", which restricts slanted wells, passed its first legal test when Dist. Judge Jack Roberts upheld the commission's order for a directional survey on a deviated well in the East Texas field.

Roberts turned down an application from attorneys for the L. G. No. 2 Alexander lease in Gregg County, who sought an injunction against the commission, and against Tidewater Oil Company. Tidewater wants to determine whether the L. G. is bottomed under its own lease or under Tidewater's adjoining property.

FAREWELL PARTY
Amidst a pine tree setting some 2,500 public officials, state and federal employees, and other friends of the outgoing governor staged a $10 a plate honor banquet for the Price Daniels.

Location was Austin's Municipal Auditorium. Included among a long list of headliners were Vice Pres. Lyndon Johnson, Gov. - elect John Connally, Lt. Gov. - elect Preston Smith, RR Commissioner Ben Ramsey, former Atty. Gen. John Ben Shephard and State Bar Pres. Leon Jaworski.

All paid tribute to the retiring governor for his work while a legislator, Speaker of the House, Attorney General, U. S. Senator and Governor. Mrs. Daniel was presented with the keys to a brand new

Lincoln. LARGEST PARADE
Largest inaugural parade in the state's history is planned for this capital city. Date is Tuesday afternoon, January 15.

Parade will follow the noon swearing-in ceremonies for Governor John Connally and Lt. Governor Preston Smith. Many Texas cities plan to enter floats.

J. J. Pickle, parade chairman, says that high school bands throughout the state have been invited to participate, as have college and military bands and drill teams.

The U. S. Navy also has requested an opportunity to march in the parade, in salute to its ex-secretary.

SMALL TOWNS INDUSTRIAL TARGETS
Gov. - elect John Connally breakfasted with members of the Texas Industrial Commission and representatives of industry in an effort to get a broad picture of the state's industrial needs.

He approved the commission's goal to get small industries for 250 small towns. E. B. Germany of Dallas, chairman of the commission, pointed out that this plan would offer eight-hour-a-day employment to local people and leave time for them to tend to small farming and ranching operations.

"If we could have 250 little towns with little industries," Germany said, "we would have more solid citizens."

Connally has proposed establishment of a Bureau of Commerce to carry on the work of tourist and industrial agencies. He suggested that this be financed with state funds, rather than by the present plan of asking industry to share the cost of exploiting the state's resources.

Commission presented a seven-year plan to expand the present number of 10,581 plants with 488,250 workers to 14,750 plants with 802,250 workers. A copy of its report will be sent to local industrial development groups.

LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS
Study committees for the Texas Legislative Council - official bill-drafting body for the state - offered these recommendations to the 58th Legislature:

1. That the attorney general's job be limited to a "strictly legal" capacity by removing him from all ex-officio memberships on boards and commissions, except those created by the Constitution. He now serves on 18 boards, in addition to his duties as attorney for the state.
2. That health and accident insurance firms be required to refund premiums if the insured asks to cancel within 10 days after he receives his policy.
3. That state agencies be prohibited from denying jobs on the basis of age, except for certain law enforcement posts. A study revealed a great age barrier in most industries, with a special problem for workers in the 40-55 age bracket.
4. That the Legislature consider granting greater autonomy to local governments and that it remove from the statutes county and city laws no longer in force or effect.
5. That county officials convey court-committed, mental ill patients to state hospitals immediately and not hold them in county jails. Eleven committees offered some 50 pages of suggestions to the council. Many of the bills proposed already have been drafted.

STUDENT COSTS UPPEP
Committee of Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities endorsed the Commission on Higher Education's recommendation for an increased budget for the next two years.

But they also saw an even larger need.

COLLEGE SPENDING URGED
A proposed additional outlay for high education is overshadowing Legislature hopes for a session free of tax increases. A jump of $83,700,000 in spending on state colleges and universities in the next two years has been recommended by the Commission on Higher Education.

Commission says additional funds would go for increases desired by the commission's staff, and supplemental appropriations for maintenance and custodial services for new buildings to be completed in 1963-65.

According to the commission, more money also is needed for teachers' salaries for the anticipated enrollment increases during the period.

SCHOOL LAW INVALID
Attorney general has ruled that a Texas law requiring an election prior to integration of a public school system is unconstitutional.

Wilson says the Texas law conflicts with the decision in the original U. S. Supreme Court desegregation case in 1954.

About 50 Texas districts have voted to desegregate since the act was passed in 1957. Several others voted against the change.

HEALTH HEAD RE-ELECTED
State Board of Health has re-elected Dr. J. E. Peavey as state commissioner of health and executive head of the Department of Health.

At its quarterly meeting, the board also earmarked $550,000 for the new 60-bed Guadalupe Valley Community Hospital at Seguin.

Also allocated was $105,000 to provide 35 additional beds and extensive renovation of the child psychiatric unit of the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

SAFETY APPEAL
In a traffic safety appeal for extreme caution on the highways during the holiday season, Governor Daniel urged Texans to "drive like your life depends on it" and set a new all-time life-saving record.

CHILD HELP
Texas Legislative Council has recommended state financing of public school classes for emotionally disturbed children.

Cost of the program would range between $320,000 and $373,000 the first year, according to Rep. C. W. Pearcey Jr. of Temple, who headed the recommendation.

OIL NEEDS HIGHER
Texas Railroad Commission has revealed requests for a January production average of 2,489,249 barrels daily. This is 15,809 barrels over the December total.

Indications are that the commission will continue the eight-day schedule, in effect for pro-rated wells since Jan. 1, 1962.

SLANTED WELLS
So far a total of 243 crooked hole oil wells has been found in nine Texas fields, reports the Texas Railroad Commission.

After our children are grown each one will have his own special memories of Christmas time at home. Christmas is a time in the household of Mrs. Bill (Hazel) Messick for everyone to share a special time together in many different ways. One of those special ways comes two days before Christmas, since the family spends the holidays in Plainview with parents and grandparents.

Just before the presents are opened and a big Christmas dinner is served, the family, Bill, Hazel, Jane (14) and Robert (10), gather in a circle and open all the Christmas cards that have been received. In this way all the family can enjoy the cards together for the first time.

Hazel is not only busy at Christmas time with many varied ideas, but all through the year. She is active in club work, church and school activities, plus many more. With the bubbling spirit that Hazel possesses all the time, it is always a pleasure to visit with her and hope some of it will rub off.

All the recipes that Hazel wants to share during this Christmas season are good and so easy to prepare for relatives and friends that might be dropping in about Christmas time. Nothing would be more welcome, too, as a large box of homemade candy or cookies as a gift of remembrance.

Martha Washington Chocolates
4 cups chopped pecans
1 stick oleo
1 1/2 boxes powdered sugar
1 (7 1/2 oz.) box coconut
1 can Eagle Brand milk
2 cups chocolate chips
1/2 box Gulf wax
1 teaspoon vanilla

Melt butter, pour over nuts and let stand, mix milk, sugar, coconut and vanilla. Add nuts and mix well. Put in refrigerator until cold, roll in balls size of walnuts, put back into refrigerator. Melt wax and chips in double boiler. Put balls on toothpicks, dip in chocolate mixture, put on wax paper. Store in refrigerator.

Chocolate Fudge
Mix two large (50 cents) Hershey bars (crumble)
1 large package chocolate chips
1 pound pecans
1 pint marshmallow creme

Put on very low heat with a lid till all melts.

Put 4 1/2 cups sugar and 1 large can Carnation milk in another pan—bring to boil and simmer 10 minutes. Mix together and pour in buttered pan and refrigerate till firm. Use 2 (8 x 12) pans.

Apricot Coconut Balls
1 1/2 cups dried apricots, ground
2 cups shredded coconut
2/3 cup Eagle Brand Milk

Mix apricots and coconut together. Add Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk and blend well. Shape into balls and roll in confectionary sugar. Let stand until firm. Makes 32 1 1/4 inch balls.

Date Tart
1 package or pound of dates (heaping cup)
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon soda

Put water and soda over dates and let sit.
Mix:
1 large tablespoon butter

UH-UH-HHHHHHHHHH not before Christmas. At least that is the idea that Mrs. Bill (Hazel) Messick is trying to get across to son, Robert but somehow, when the Christmas candy is made around the Messick home, some of it can never be accounted for.

Add dates
1 cup flour
1 cup nuts
1 egg

Bake in moderate oven at about 300 degrees. 50 minutes.

Peanut Brittle
1 1/2 cups shelled raw peanuts
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Karo
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon extract

Sprinkle the nuts with salt and warm in an oven. Put sugar, Karo and water in a pan and Wash down sides of pan with wet rag and cook to 295 degrees or until mixture is brittle when tried in cold water. Add butter, flavoring and nuts. Pour into shallow buttered pan. As soon as it can be handled, turn the mass over and pull and stretch as thin as possible. Break into pieces.

Chocolate Clusters
1 package (6 oz.) semi-sweet-chocolate pieces
1/4 cup corn syrup
1 cup raisins
1 cup salted peanuts
Red cinnamon candies
Angelica

In top of double boiler, combine chocolate pieces, corn syrup and 1 tablespoon water. Oven hot, not boiling, water, melt chocolate.

Remove from heat. Divide into two parts. Add raisins to one part of chocolate mixture, mixing well. Add peanuts to the other. Drop by teaspoons onto cookie sheet covered with waxed paper. Top with candies and angelica. Refrigerate, to harden chocolate slightly, 1 hour. Makes about 3 dozen.

This cookie recipe has been in the family, beginning with Hazel's grandmother, for about 150 years.

Cookies Made of Sour Cream (Make the Kiddies' Faces Beam)

1 cup shortening
2 eggs
5 - 2/3 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon baking powder
2 cups sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup sour cream
1 cup soda
1 teaspoon lemon extract

Cream the shortening and add sugar and eggs. Beat for one minute. Add sour cream and dry ingredients and lemon extract. Mix carefully and roll out very thin on well floured board. Place on baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven for 12 minutes.

Sand Tarts
1 cup butter
6 tablespoons powdered sugar
2 cups flour
1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup nuts rolled fine

Mix all ingredients together and blend well. Shape with hands and bake on greased cookie sheet at 350 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes.

While still warm, but not hot, roll in powdered sugar and they are ready to serve. These remain crisp to the last crumb.

Homemakers See Giftwrapping Hints At Meet

Members of the Texas Young Homemakers of America met recently in the Hereford High School home economics lab for a session on Christmas gift wrapping.

Mrs. Howard Hunter had charge of the program. She said, "A little time spent on packages is well worthwhile. Everyone likes to receive gifts that are done in smart-looking wrappings. You can make gifts more meaningful this season by putting a little extra work on the package."

"Spend some time thinking about the package that will best compliment the receiver. List the recipient's interests, background and personality, along with their favorite color, then wrap the package to suit this outline."

"For odd-shaped gifts that you simply can't get into a box, use a plain paper sack. Cover this with crepe paper or decorate with tempera paint and add other frills."

"Animal packages always delight the youngsters. For small packages that are easily lost under the tree, attach them to large name tags. Gifts for men should always be masculine in decoration."

During the business session, Mrs. Hunter was selected as the club's voting delegate to the state convention.

Those attending were Mesdames Wyatt Harmon, George Zetsche, Sue Andrews, David Brumley, Layton Sawyer, Bob Hicks, James Dobbs, Larry Dobbs, J. J. Durham, Jess Robinson and Mrs. Hunter.

Christmas... School...

Louise Axe, Cynthia Seed, Gay King, and their families also open their gifts on Christmas morning. Louise states that her family usually stays at home over the holidays. They have turkey and dressing each year and open their packages on Christmas morning. Her brother and sister and families will be visiting them during the Christmas holidays.

"We get our tree about a week before Christmas and decorate it," states Gay King. "The first thing that we do on Christmas morning is open our presents and for the rest of the day we go to see some of our friends or stay home."

Cynthia Seed and her family decorate the tree about a week before Christmas. A few of her relatives come from Austin to spend the holidays with them. On Christmas Eve they go to a special church service and then on Christmas morning they open their presents. After eating a huge meal, they spend the afternoon at their grandmother's house opening more presents.

Scott Ramsey, Billy Johnson, and Ronnie Collier give some short summaries of their Christmas vacation. Scott says that his family usually stays home on Christmas. His relatives from Colorado spend the holidays with them. He says that his family decorates its tree about two weeks before Christmas.

"The entire family comes to our house for Christmas," remarked Billy Johnson, "and we will all have a blast. Usually the gentlemen go into one room and play cards while the ladies exchange gossip."

Ronnie Collier and his family go to his grandparents' house and have a "jolly good time."

The Christmas holidays for Mary Betzen and family are spent in the wrapping of gifts, decorating of a tree, and setting up a manger scene. On Christmas Eve, they usually go to her grandmother's for a while, then come home to find that Santa Clause has already come. Then they stay up and go to Midnight Mass.

"The Christmas gaiety at our house usually begins at least a month before Christmas when all of our brothers and sisters draw names," states Rosemary Hershey. "By Christmas Eve the excitement is at a high pitch, and everyone goes to one of the family homes for a party and exchange of gifts."

Of course, she says, "there is much more excitement as everyone returns to his respective home to see how good Santa thought he was this year. After the packages are opened everyone is clam again and by 11:30 p. m. all of us prepare to celebrate the Christ Child's birthday by worshipping Him at Midnight Mass."

Doris Andrews and her family eat Christmas dinner at home and sometimes have relatives with them. They open their gifts on Christmas Eve and save a few for Christmas Day. They decorate a tree outside the house and send Christmas cards to friends and relatives.

Cleta Kay Rutter says that at Christmas her family usually stays home or goes to visit relatives. They have the usual Christmas dinner and gifts to be opened. This year they are planning to go to Arlington, Virginia.

As the individuals of HHS go to their respective homes for the Christmas holidays, a tremendous variety in atmosphere, significance, and traditions are found. But one factor ties all differences together and gives it the same basic meaning — The birthday of the Christ Child.

C OF C SCOUT 'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: The Spirit Of General Sam Houston
FROM: The Spirit Of Erastus "Deaf" Smith
SUBJECT: Scouting Report On My Chamber Of Commerce
There have been so many activities going on all the time, Sam, that I just haven't had time to write my weekly scouting report. But this week, with a meeting of the Board of Directors to report on just what I better bring you up to date.

of the Christmas gift packs of Arrowhead Mills products to be sent to a list of distinguished people to be selected by the Executive Committee.

In other discussion, the fact that the local financial institutions have resisted the trend towards closing on Saturdays was commended. The Manager was directed to write to each of the Hereford financial institutions expressing the appreciation of the Board for their attitude on this matter. In discussion it was pointed out that in our agriculture-based economy and with the payroll checks of the labor crews to be serviced the banks and other institutions are performing excellent service in remaining open on Saturdays.

J. D. Kirkland, Delbert Kinsey, Clint Formby and Bill Thompson reported on the Institute for Chamber of Commerce Officers and Directors held recently at Lubbock. Each reported that the meeting was well worthwhile and gave them many new ideas on Chamber of Commerce activities.

Coupled with this award was a discussion of the need to recognize other senior citizens who, while because of age or health, are not as active as they once were but who have been leaders in the growth and development of Hereford in past years. A plan will be voted at the January meeting and is under development now.

Outside of the meeting of the Board of Directors, Sam, I need to report on one other item of interest. The Texas Division of the U. S. 60 Association and the National U. S. Highway 60 Association both are purchasing large ads in the special Rose Bowl edition of the Milwaukee Journal inviting Rose Bowl-bound Badger boosters to take U. S. 60 to the west coast. A similar ad placed several years ago by the Hereford Highway Development Association brought glowing results to the area.

A suggestion that the by-laws be amended to permit the president to appoint a specified number of members to the Board over and above the normal election procedures was tabled. In support of the suggestion it was pointed out that if adopted this proposal would permit the President to appoint one to the Board people who for one reason or another could not get elected to the Board, to appoint people to represent segments of the membership which lacked representation, and to secure people with particular information or skills that were needed on the Board. Opponents suggested that these people would perhaps not be in a good relationship with those who had stood for election, that the proposal was a violation of the democratic principals of the organization and would seem to evidence some mistrust of the judgment of the membership.

Wayne Phillips reported on the plans to remodel the Chamber office. Plans now call for the construction of another office for the Manager separate from the Directors' room, for a reception counter, for certain adjustments to the heating and lighting system, and the addition of some furniture to make the office more attractive and more useful. The present lease on the building will be extended for five years.

A major feature of the Board meeting was a discussion of the background and present status of the Veterans Memorial Park. It was agreed that much work was needed in order to secure for the people of the county the necessary park facility in that area. President Formby appointed a committee consisting of Austin Rose Jr., Wayne Phillips and himself to meet with the Veterans Park Board and attempt to work out some acceptable plan for cooperation towards reaching the desired goal.

In discussing public relations of the community and the Chamber of Commerce it was decided to purchase a quantity

Guests present were Mrs. Dixie West, Mrs. Couch, Mrs. Primm, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. C. W. Beavers of Snyder.

... and Happy Birthday, to our Lord. It is traditional but more significant than any birthday in human history. There is more to Christmas than tinsel and glittering gifts. On that day, the word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. Love literally came down at Christmas... a new birth to cheer and redeem. It is the birthday of the greatest teacher—the sublimest preacher—the “Good Shepherd,” the “Son of God,” the “Saviour of Men.” Then, let us not disgrace this Holy Day, Christ's Birthday, through sinful celebration or ‘cheap’ living. Happy Birthday, Jesus!
