CHANGE MADE IN POULTRY SHOW DATES

MOVED UP TO DECEMBER 21-22-23 BY OFFICERS

AMARILLO TO AID

Promises to Send Here 75 Birds. Cooperate Nicely

The officers of the Hereford Poultry Association, after considering the matter from all angles, have decided to change the dates of the annual Poultry Show from December 4-5 to December 21-22-23. Notice of this change will be mailed out to all members and poultry raisers in this section at once.

The change was made for several reasons, but one of them was in order to cooperate more fully with the Amarillo Poultry Association. The Amarillo poultry men have manifested a spirit of cooperation in the past that has been splendid and this year they desire to again show here. However, the dates of the two shows came so close together that the Amarillo men could not come here, and for this reason the Hereford dates were moved up. Amarillo has promised to send at least seventy-five birds to Hereford this year, and besides, Judge Duke and Sec. Curry will again aid the Hereford Association in the judging work.

The Amarillo show dates are December 7-8-9, and the Hereford breeders are planning to send several pens of chickens up there to help the Amarillo show as well as to advertise their own stock.

J. S. Wyche, Pioneer, Dies Suddenly Thursday

J. S. Wyche, aged about 72, one of the Plains pioneer settlers, expired suddenly at his home, eight miles southeast of Hereford, about 8:15 o'clock Thursday night.

Mr. Wyche had been falling in health for several months and had suffered greatly from rheumatism. He was sitting up Thursday night with his family after supper when he complained of feeling ill and he was put to bed, dying peacefully as he laid down. Funeral arrangements had not been completed Friday afternoon, pending information concerning the arrival of relatives, although it was expected he would be buried Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Wyche has been a resident of Castro and Deaf Smith counties for thirty-five years and leaves a great concourse of sorrowing friends scattered all over this country. At one time he was tax assessor of Deaf Smith county, and was held high in the esteem and good will of every man and woman who knew him. Besides his widow he is survived by two sons, Tucker Wyche of Laredo, Texas, and Tate Wyche, of Guyton, Colo., and two daughters, Miss Jennie, of Laredo, and Miss Nellie Lee, who is at home.

Well, It's Rained All Around Here; Our Turn Coming

It "almost but not quite" rained the past few days. Thursday morning it sleeted and rained together for a short time but not enough to do much good. Thursday night it rained at Amarillo and Canyon and a few miles this side, but stopped short of Hereford. Travelers report that rain fell all the way from Kansas City to Canyon the past week.

The local weather is windy, snappy and threatening from hour to hour, and the long-delayed moisture must come soon—say the newcomers.

SISTER OF MISS PAULINE HAISLIP MARRIED NOV. 12

Miss Pauline Haislip and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Brown, reached Hereford Monday from Memphis, Texas, where Miss Haislip attended the wedding of her sister. The marriage ceremony took place at the Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Haislip home in Memphis, November 12, at 5 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left Hereford Thursday morning for their home in Tucson.

General Pershing Goes And Gets 'em

Gen. John J. Pershing would have been quite a boy in the front line trenches with a rifle—had he not been busy bossing our A. E. F. in France. Last week on the lower Mississippi he went duck hunting with Gov. Parker and Bernard Baruch, using a 10-gauge gun, dropping his first eight birds without a miss. Then he posed for this exclusive photo.

Army Captain in Philippines Has Interesting Trip

Miss Evelyn Jackson, daughter of H. C. Jackson of Hereford, has an uncle in the United States army, stationed in the Philippines. The Uncle, Captain R. F. Hall, has written his niece a most interesting account of his travels and his surroundings, reproduced, in part, below:

"Manila, P. I., Sept. 6, 1922.
Dear Little Niece,
Miss Evelyn Jackson, Hereford.

Have thought for a long time that I would write you but something always happened to prevent it.

"If you answer this I would like to know if you are still living on the ranch or in town. And tell me all about the rest of the family, how they are getting along, and in fact, all about everything you can think of.

"We came over here in March; last year while I was in New York on a shooting trip I happened to be in the War Department and found out that I knew one of the principal officers there. He asked me if I would like to come to the Philippines, and I told him that nothing would please me any better. I didn't tell the family about this when I got home to Vancouver, Wash. But in about a month I received orders from the War Department to sail from San Francisco in March for the Philippines. Tee and the children were tickled to death, for they knew that I was not due for foreign service yet for there were so many officers in the States that had never been out of the country, and as everyone wants to go on foreign service we have to take our turns at it.

"But anyway we left Frisco on March 7th at 12 noon, everything went well till we were outside the bay, when the ship struck the long big waves and began to roll and toss about, everyone began to disappear below decks. This lasted for about two days and nearly all were seasick. I had made my boast to the family that an old sailor like me never noticed a thing like that and it took a big storm to even bother me. Well I honestly believe that I was the sickest person on that ship. The rest of the family were over with theirs in less than a day and were up on deck having a good time, while I was in my stateroom for two whole days. And they have never let me forget what a good (1) sailor I am.

"After a week out of Frisco we came to Honolulu. I had told all about what a beautiful place it was, but they didn't pay much heed. We stayed there two days and took in the city and surrounding country as far as possible. We hated to leave. It is, without doubt the most beautiful place in the world. Everyone was wild (Jazzy word) about it. The climate there never varies but a few degrees throughout the entire year, big coconut trees and banana trees, in fact about everything that grows is growing in Honolulu.

The rest of our trip to the island of Guam was without interest. About all we did was to watch the flying fish and seagulls. Every night there was a moving picture show on the deck and of course all the passengers went to see it, and about twice a week we had a with their wives and children on board and we had a great time.

"About two weeks after leaving Honolulu we came to the little island of Guam. Guam belongs to Uncle Sam and a small force of U. S. Marines is kept there. About the only thing the island is used for is for a coaling station for our warships when they are over here in the Asiatic waters. The island is very beautiful in a tropical way, about everything that grows in the tropics is there in abundance. We stayed there part of one afternoon, had to go ashore in small boats as the water was not deep enough for the transport. Guam is about twenty miles long and twenty wide, and besides our Marines there are about five thousand natives there.

Four days after leaving Guam we came to the Straits of San Bernardino, just south of the island of Luzon (the largest of the Philippine group). This is very pretty coming through here and as we turned north up the west coast of Luzon we could see a great volcano rising about eight thousand feet from the sea, this was early in the morning and it looked simply terrible it was so big. It was all the more interesting to us for years ago when I was over here I had climbed to the top of it. We came into Manila Bay the next night at midnight, when morning came the next day we were anchored out in front of the city about one half mile, and as the sun came up behind it I believe it was the prettiest sight I have ever seen and you can imagine what it was to Tee and the children who had never seen anything—in the (Continued on Last Page)

REV. MERRILL WAS CALLED AS MINISTER

FORMER PAMPA PASTOR TO TAKE CHARGE HERE JAN. 1

SPOKE THURSDAY

Made Good Impression in Address to Members Thursday Nite

Rev. Paul Merrill, former pastor at Pampa, Texas, has been formally called as pastor of the First Christian Church of Hereford, has accepted the call, and will bring his family for permanent residence here beginning January 1.

This was all determined Thursday night following a sermon by Rev. Merrill and his appearance before the official board of the church.

Rev. Merrill's address Thursday night was more in the nature of a get-acquainted talk than a set sermon, and he made a most favorable impression on the congregation. At the present time he is engaged in revival work and left Friday morning for Perryton, Texas, where he is scheduled to hold a series of meetings. It is understood that he has a wife and one child. Members of the church who have heard him declare him to be perhaps the ablest pulpit man the local church has yet called for service.

Thoughtful Help For Sanitarium Is Appreciated

One of those too rare thoughtful christian acts which brings cheer and joy where they are needed most, was reported this week by Mrs. W. A. Price of the Hereford Sanitarium.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. B. F. Guthrie of the Christian church purchased the materials and made three attractive white curtains for the windows in the Convalescent room at the Sanitarium. They have added greatly to the attractiveness and home-like atmosphere of the room.

Mrs. Price expressed herself as being very grateful for this thoughtfulness and of the spirit of community and christian helpfulness which prompted it.

DR. MAY RETURNS TO HOME PRACTICE AT WHITEWRIGHT

Dr. Ross R. May and wife left Hereford Wednesday morning overland for Whitewright, Texas, where Dr. May will again take up the practice of surgery with his father. The altitude and climate were unsuitable in Hereford for Dr. and Mrs. May.

THREE YEARS FOR POULTRY THEFT CASES

TWO MEN CONVICTED BY JURIES IN TWO CASES

ONE ACQUITTED

Ed O'Mary Declared Not Guilty by Juries in Two Charges

The poultry theft cases which have been on trial in District Court this week, and which have attracted quite a bit of interest, have been wound up, with two of the three men convicted by juries and with one defendant, Ed O'Mary, acquitted on two separate counts.

Charles F. O'Mary and Earl Moore were given two years in the penitentiary by a jury Wednesday in the case in which the state charged them with burglary in connection with the theft of chickens from Cliff Hicks in September. Thursday they pleaded guilty to another charge in the case of O. L. McKee's poultry, and the jury gave them three years. Judge Tatum stated that the concurrent sentence in each case would run for three years.

All three defendants made hard fights with an attorney from Amarillo, while the principal prosecuting witnesses were sheriff Percell and Deputy Sheriff Chesser of Amarillo, who handled the cases and the arrests, and the produce dealers at Amarillo who purchased the chickens.

Band Concert is Planned on Night Of November 29

The Hereford Band is planning a regular, formal concert, with a special program of pleasing music, and aided, perhaps, by vocal talent with which Hereford is so richly endowed. While not announced as a fact, it is rumored that the splendid Hereford Music Study Club may be asked to join with the band in rendering this concert for the benefit of the music-loving people of this vicinity. The date set is Wednesday night, November 29.

It costs money to support and build up the right kind of band music, and a very small admission charge will be made to this particular concert for the purpose of aiding in defraying the cost of instruction, uniforms, music, etc. The Hereford Chamber of Commerce stands behind the band, but it is felt that the heavy majority of music-loving citizens will not object to adding their mite, in the way of a small charge, in order to listen to a real musical treat and to help the good cause along.

The band is getting ambitious. Thursday night they actually began preliminary practice on the famous overture, William Tell. For an hour they hammered it. After which Will Smith ejaculated: "Bye, fellows, we can ALMOST play that thing right now!" Which caused a laugh all around. But the truth is, as Prof. Brothers put it, there are a lot of bands right now that do not play the famous and difficult overture nearly as well as the Hereford Band rendered it Thursday night after only one hour's practice.

The Band is developing. It takes time to manufacture musicians. It is the kind of an organization that Hereford ought to be very proud of, and is. There is no question in the minds of the boys that the people of this community will show their appreciation of their hard and steady work by their attendance at the concert on the night of November 29, the night before Thanksgiving.

ANOTHER HARRISON BLUE RIBBON WINNER IS ANNOUNCED

Another one of E. W. Harrison's red pigs is making a name for himself and his producer in the show rings of this section. The boar, a three-fourths brother to Mr. Harrison's herd boar, Harrison's Pride, was sold to E. A. Poe, of Tulsa, and won the blue ribbon over a good boar shown by Webb & Hinkle at both the Plattview and Lubbock fairs, taking Junior Grand Champion ribbons at both places.

This pig was raised at Hereford and again demonstrates what comes of good breeding and good care.

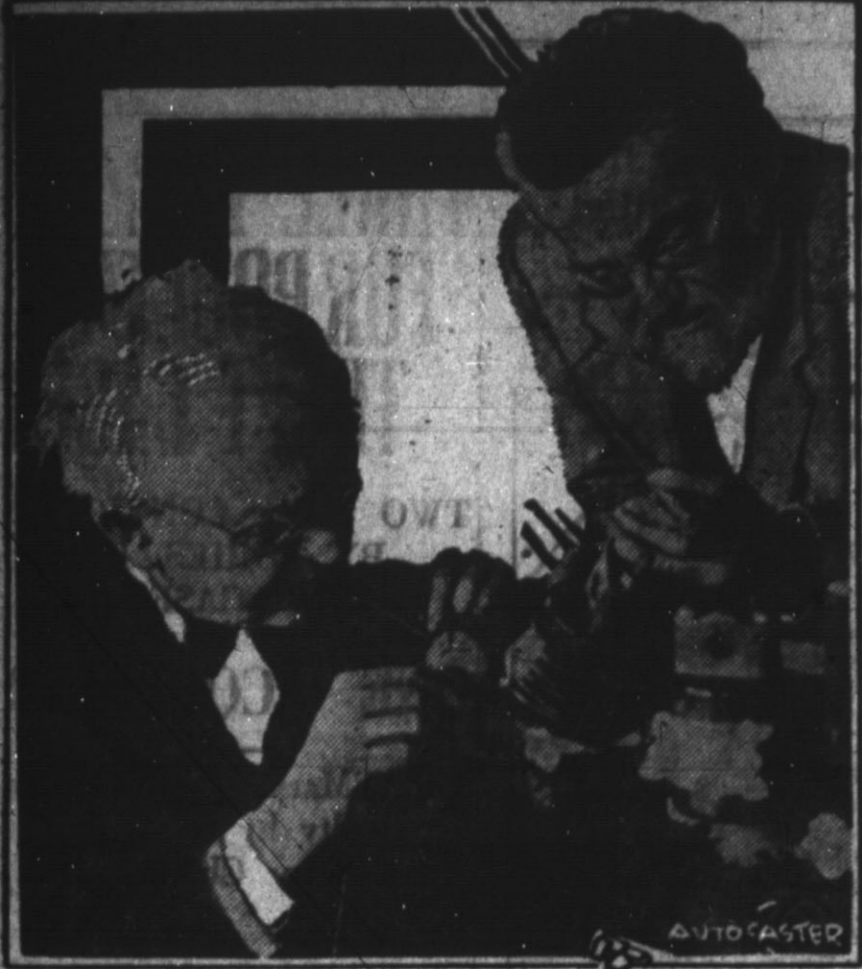

Exclusive Pictures of Amundsen in Arctic Snows Making Ready for Air Trip to North Pole.

In a door of a little hut 80 miles from Point Barrow, in the Arctic wastes, stands the grizzled and gray explorer, Capt. Amundsen, awaiting what seems an opportune hour during the long Polar night for the first airplane flight over the Top of the World—to the North Pole.

These exclusive photographs are the first brought back of the hearty Norwegian explorer since his ship "Maud" anchored off Point Hope. Lower picture shows Capt. Amundsen helping his crew unload the motors for his airplane. To the right, Capt. Amundsen in the door of his hut at Wainwright. Amundsen will fly to Thomas A. Edison made a pilgrimage to Schenectady, N. Y. last week, the first in 25 years. He was met there by Dr. Chas. P. Steinmetz, the only man in the world his equal in electrical knowledge. Photo shows Edison examining parts of tree and porcelain insulators shattered by Steinmetz a few moments before with his newest invention—a lightning making machine. It is the first picture of the two great inventors together. It is to be preserved. Edison is now 75 years old and Steinmetz is 57.

 Several of our young people attended the box supper at Black last Friday night. They report a good time and one of the boys purchased enough boxes to give the whole group a feast.

The members of the B. Y. P. U. were entertained at a pie supper by Mrs. Elmer Euler at her home last Friday night. Besides eating pie the young people entertained themselves with various games.

The ladies of the town and surrounding country joined in giving a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. George Messenger last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Kinsley. Seventy-five invitations were issued and forty-five guests were present.

Misses Frances Drake and Lola Goodwine came down from Canyon Friday evening and spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks. These young ladies are students at the W. T. S. N. this winter and their Friona companions were glad to have them with them again.

Monday morning being the coldest morning so far this season, gave the school trucks a good trying-out for comfortable warmth, and it is said they gave entire satisfaction as the cold was not felt inside the trucks. The truck bodies are so arranged that perfect ventilation is given, even with all the windows closed.

Wm. Britt, of Petersburg and J. E. Staley of this place, completed their land deal last week and on Tuesday evening Mr. Britt arrived here with his family and household goods to occupy the Staley home and on Thursday morning Mr. Staley and family departed for their new home near Petersburg. Mr. Staley has for the past year been one of the new owners in the Santa Fe Grain Company and now retires from the grain business to devote his time exclusively to agricultural pursuits. His many friends here wish him success in his new location.

The quoted price on cane seed on the Friona market is now $4.50 per cwt. The farmer who has cane seed for sale considers himself fortunate in having at least one crop for which he can receive a reasonably fair price.

John Wilson Staley, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Staley, entertained the boys and girls of his grade at a farewell party at his home on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Most all the youngsters of the town were present and spent a very happy afternoon. They will miss John Wilson very much as a play fellow.

The girls of the Canyon High School came over Monday afternoon and engaged the Friona girls in a game of basket ball. The game resulted in a victory for the Canyon girls.

BOVINA
 Sunday night at the M. E. Church the Missionary Society gave an interesting program. Mrs. R. B. Ezell, President, opened the meeting as usual and gave a very instructive talk. Mrs. Preston Florence gave an interesting talk on different subjects of missionary work. Mrs. Frank Hastings, on finance. Mrs. Theo. Davies, on influence of fields in home and foreign countries. Mrs. J. B. Belew, on educational work.

Saturday night the music club gave a recital. Mrs. Gourley, in her intelligent, efficient and faithful work, presented songs and drills. Miss Margaret Larr gave "In Flanders Fields," and a talk was given by Prof. J. B. Belew on ancient, modern and present day history. The school girls were stationed near the entrance with their candy booth. They had on display a fine assortment and a quick sale was made, and all was ready for the program.

The members of the M. E. Church gave their pastor, Rev. Florence, a good old-fashioned "pounding" Saturday night. The night was pretty cold but all enjoyed going.

Arthur Davies, of Atchison, Kan., expressed a barrel of fine winter apples, vineyards, to his mother, Mrs. Davies.

Armistice Day was observed here. The soldier boys marched to the cemetery followed by a string of thirty cars. The only soldier boy, Forest Ross, laid to rest here a year ago. The mothers of the soldier boys, Mesdames McDonald, Davies, Kennedy and Looney, placed the flowers on his grave. The service at the grave was very impressive.

The Dimmitt boys played the Bovina boys a game of basket ball, Dimmitt winning the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Raff of Encino, N. Mex., are here. Mr. Raff sold his mercantile business at Encino and is out here looking for a new location.

Mrs. Sam Lively gave a turkey dinner for her four daughters, Mesdames Gregory, Raff, Martin, and Miss Bernice Lively.

Mr. Richardson, garage man, has had shipped in from Mountair, N. Mex., a car of wood. It comes sawed in stove length ready for the furnace.

R. B. Ezell and small son will thresh next week. The son and wife will move out on R. B. Ezell's farm south of town and farm the coming year.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells About Future Supplies.

A SCHOOLBOY whose awakened conscience and interest in the world as it is, mixed his arithmetical and geographic knowledge into a long list of questions that perplexed him.

"What are we going to do for shingles and boards when the trees are all cut down?"

"What are we going to do when the coal is all burned up?"

"Where are they going to go when the land is all swamped and used?"

It is a wise boy that puts such questions to himself. He is thinking in terms of conservation. That young man is going to be a useful citizen. He is not going to be a waster. He is to help solve our conservation problems.

Thank goodness, the world is full of just such boys who do not wish to live a Nero life, to spend what there is now and let those who follow suffer the Deluge. Such boys are going to save the needs of life from devastation, and long before a need is exhausted they will find its substitute.

We thatched our roofs with straw before the shingles came. Because we have the shingles we now burn the straw. When the trees are all gone we will make a better shingle from the straw.

Geologists tell us that there is coal enough to last through several centuries of time. Already we are toying with great condensers that gather many sunbeams into one strong ray of heat.

We have found it possible not only to get heat from the sun, but to store it. Its only impracticability is the cost of operation. The same genius that found the process will cheapen it. We have found the radio wave carries the sound. Physicists tell us that same wave will carry heat.

Long before the coal is gone we will cease to mine it. A cheaper and better process of heating our furnaces will come direct to us from the sun whose flames rise above its molten mass surface to the height of the circumference of this earth. That old ball has been burning a long time, and mathematics haven't ciphered enough to calculate the endurance of its flames.

And what will we do when the land is all owned and used? Look upon so rich a state as Oklahoma. Only one-thirtieth of its tillable land is now under the plow. There is Florida, a tangled mass of verdure, a peninsula warmed by the sun and cooled by the sea, moist and temperate where everything will grow. Yet only one-third of its tillable land is under the plow. Ninety-seven per cent of its acres have not yet felt the harrow. It will take several centuries before even our good country will be crowded.

As our great interior desert has been brought to bloom, so will the mammoth island of Australia flower, Africa will be gardenized. The lowlands of the Amazon and the highlands of the Himalayas will be swamped. And as we close in, we will learn how to grow more in less space.

This is a good old world we are in. It meets our needs as our needs appear. It meets them because we always have boys who grow to manhood with the inquiring mind that wonders how they can help the good old world to make all things better for man.

Baptists at Canyon

The regular monthly meeting of the Worker's Conference of the Tierra Blanco Association will have their next meeting at Canyon on Tuesday, Nov. 28. The program begins at 10:00 o'clock in the morning and will last till 3:30 in the afternoon. The Canyon church will take great pleasure in entertaining their brethren and sisters for the day. Also our church insists that all our Baptist people from all over the association shall attend and all other visitors who will come.

One of the greatest ways of building up the spirit of our workers is to get them together for these special days. It builds up fellowship and love and puts new life into the work. If you are interested in the enlarging of our denomination's work and having better churches and better workers everywhere, then come and put all you have into this program.

The program is a fine line of subjects taken from the wilderness wanderings of the Israelites and have many stirring lessons in them for us. The Canyon church welcomes you and insists that you come and let us have a high day in the kingdom.

"If things are going a little slow. Get the pep, get the pep; It always helps to make them go. If you have the pep. Don't sit around and always wait. And talk about the things you hate. The time will come when it's too late For you to get the pep."

This Column desires to express its appreciation and to thank the business men of Hereford for closing their stores on Friday during the Armistice Day program.

We are sorry to lose Olga Evers from our school. She goes with her uncle and aunt, Reverend and Mrs. Evers to their new home in Amarillo.

Miss Pauline Halslip, history teacher in the High School, left for her home in Memphis, Texas Friday evening, to be present at the marriage of her sister on Sunday evening.

A number of High School pupils attended the football game on Saturday between the Boswell Military School and the Canyon Normal, the game being played at Canyon.

It affords us great pleasure to know that Sam G. Bratton of Clovis was elected Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico by a large majority. Judge Bratton was a former pupil in the Hereford schools, and a member of its first graduating class.

Baron James V. Auriemma visited the High School on Friday morning and highly entertained both the faculty and the pupils with his wonderful voice in song.

We are all so anxious about our little friend and pupil, Dollie Ward, who met with such an accident on last Friday morning at the Christian Church when she fell from the ceiling to the floor. She is reported as getting along very well, but is very nervous and restless at times.

Messrs. Dameron and Prewitt of the High School faculty, attended the ball game at Canyon on Armistice Day.

Lois Lipscomb entered the ninth grade as a new pupil on Monday.

The following pupils in Mrs. G. F. Parker's division of the sixth grade made 100 percent in spelling during the month of October: Wilbert Carroll, Jack Miller, Charles Newell, Louisa Roberts, Maggie Lee Roberts, Nannie Walton.

A family in Missouri had packed their belongings to move to Texas. It was the last night in the old home and the little 5-year old daughter knelt to say her last prayer in Missouri, and when she had finished her little prayer she said, "Goodbye, God: we're going to Texas."—Ex.

Poem
by UNCLE JOHN

When you see a feller a-mopin' around, a-huntin' for somethin' that's on the ground,—that never could whistle or sing a song,—you can bet a doughnut there's somethin' wrong! When a feller is huntin' fer things of worth, in the dirty filth of the heartless earth,—and can't aspire to the stars in sight, you can safely bet that he ain't built right!

So-So

God loves the man that can lift his face with a constant faith in the higher place.

Whose step is timed to obey His will, and who ain't afeard of the path uphill. . . . Who'd rather climb where the storm-clouds frown, than to jine the crowd that's a-goin' down!

God loves the man with the heartenin' song—who can change his tune if he gets it wrong,—that can fit his soul to the all-wise plan, with somethin' to spare fer his feller-man.

And—beyond the clouds, and toil and strife, there's a crown of joy—and eternal life!

John

Pierce were visitors in our school on Tuesday afternoon.

Edith Chandler entered school on Monday.

From the Wyche School

Three new enrollments have been added to our school of late, making now a total of twenty-nine.

The pupils in Miss Henderson's room were beaten in department average last month by the pupils of Miss Knox's room, and the lower room was entertained with a program by Miss Henderson's pupils.

Lucille Hoffman of the third grade and Victor Elliston of the fourth grade have been perfect in spelling for the past two weeks.

Our Halloween program was attended by a nice crowd. A fee of 10c was charged and we took in $8.00, which will go to the upbuilding of our library.

We are planning a Thanksgiving program to be given on Wednesday night before Thanksgiving. We are expecting a good crowd and no fee will be charged.

Our pupils are doing fairly well in their work so long as we can keep their minds from being engrossed in skunk hunting, which feat is about to take possession of the community.

Miss Henderson was absent last Monday on account of a rushed business trip to Floydada. Miss Knox took charge as Principal and Miss Edith Elliston substituted as assistant.

Remember not to disappoint us by not coming to our Thanksgiving program.

The Hippopotamus

Of this extraordinary animal there are several varieties found in all parts of Africa, always in proximity to rivers and streams of water, in which they spend more than half their time sleeping or floundering, a terror to both land and marine animals. Their legs are short, but their bodies are of enormous size. Their skin is of a dark reddish-brown color, full of cracks and cross-etchings, with dapplings of irregular dark spots on the sides and upper portions of the body. The skin is from one to two inches thick, full of pores, through which exudes a disagreeable oily substance—perhaps the animal's only antidote against disease.

They have been known to grow seventeen or eighteen feet in length and from five to six feet in height. The enormous teeth and tusks are formed scissor-like, with which they clip the vegetation upon which they feed, like a pair of shears.

The tusks of the hippopotamus are very solid and compact and are admirably adapted for making many articles of commerce. It is an expert swimmer and like the elephant can sink or rise in the water at will. At night, it quits its watery residence in search of its food, which consists of the herbage that grows near the banks of the rivers and the surrounding pastures. It is not confined to rivers and inland lakes, for it is sometimes seen even in the sea, though it will not drink salt water, prey on fish, or eat any kind of animal food.

Its voice is described as a peculiar kind of interrupted roar, between that of a bull and the braying of an elephant. When on land it moves in a somewhat slow and awkward manner but if pursued can run with considerable speed. It is extremely cautious of making its appearance by day in places much frequented by man. It is naturally of a harmless disposition, not attacking other animals, but merely committing havoc in plantations of rice, sugar-cane, etc.

The hippopotamus sleeps in the small reedy islets which are here and there found in the rivers it frequents. In such places its young is born, having only one at a birth, which it nurses with great care. The skin from its great thickness and strength, when dried is formed into shields and is said to be bullet-proof. The living animal if shot anywhere except on the head is scarcely vulnerable.

The cold wave didn't keep many from attending Sunday School Sunday morning. After classes some business was taken up. It was decided that each family shall take their turn at building fires this winter and take the names alphabetically. Announcement was made that Mrs. K. The agitation for cotton acreage in this vicinity has turned the minds and thoughts of local business men to the study of cotton and its future outlook, particularly with reference to supply and demand, which determines the price, in the year 1923. The Brand's attention has been called to the following significant and authoritative comment by H. Kampner of Galveston, Texas, cotton expert:

"To our mind, the present cotton situation carries with it an element of serious danger to the cotton spinning world as to where the necessary supplies will come from, not only this season but for the future as well, until the boll weevil is subdued. The spinner realizes the situation and is laying in his supplies. The farmer and merchant is overlooking the opportunity of a lifetime by selling his cotton at present prices."

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Hereford woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Hereford woman's experience:

Mrs. T. B. Rector says: "Don's kidney Pills have been used in my family for some time for weak and disordered kidneys. Some time ago my back was giving me trouble; was sore and ached a good bit right through the small of it. My kidneys also acted too frequently and caused me considerable trouble at night. Whenever I have felt any sympoms coming on I have stated using Don's Kidney Pills and in a short time they have relieved me. Another member of my family has also used Don's with good results."

ARMY CAPTAIN IN PHILIPPINES HAS INTERESTING TRIP

tropics before. The day was clear, and as the spicy air drifted to us and we could see the banana and coconut trees on the shore, we knew that we were indeed in the tropics.

"The transport pulled up to the wharf and we all went ashore. We went to a hotel and stayed there till the next day taking in the sights of the city. Next day we caught one of the Army transports for our post on Corregidor island at the mouth of Manila Bay. And so here we have been ever since.

"The boats run to Manila every day from here and as we can go free any time we wish some of us make the trip pretty often. It is about thirty miles to Manila and takes about two hours and a half to make the trip. Manila is a most interesting place. I will tell you something about it in my next letter if you want me to write to you.

This little island we are on is three miles long and averages one mile wide. It is one of the most powerful forts in the world and altogether there is about two thousand five hundred men on it, and all kinds of big guns. No ship, no matter how strong, could come into Manila unless this island was first taken, and we here don't believe it could be captured, at least while we were still alive. In case of war all the women and children would be sent to Manila, where we have other troops. We have lots of fun here, all the children and Tee have learned to swim. There is one of the finest bathing beaches in the world here, and the children are all the time going to something, some kid party or something like that. There is a morning picture show here, and we all take it in pretty often. But the worst part of the whole thing is that there is always some dinner party, or dance, or some kind of social doing going on almost all the time, and we have to take our part in them to entertain when our time comes. I don't mind the dances so much because I get to dance with lots of pretty girls, but I sure do not like to sit for an hour or two through a several course dinner with very stiff uniforms on and listen to a lot of women, no matter if they are pretty and accomplished, and officers too. Tee likes it though and seems to be having the time of her life. But no matter whether I like it or not I have to go. Many a fine hunting or fishing trip I have had to forego just for something like this. But we have to be sociable in the army. Oh you don't simply have to go to all these things but everyone expects you to.

"Right across north of this island on the mainland of Luzon is a wild country, full of game of all kinds that they have in the Philippines, such as deer, wild hogs, monkeys, all kinds of birds, such as parrots and wild chickens, and lots of others, and I like to forget to mention, all sorts of big snakes. These snakes are called pythons and sometimes grow to be twenty-five feet long. I have been over there hunting, but you may be sure I had my eyes open. Next time I will tell you about them, and about one that caught and swallowed an officer of the army here on this island.

"All the big ships that come to Manila have to come right by us here and we do love to sit on the porch and watch them come in. The harbor of Manila is the most mysterious in the world. At all times there are many ships from all parts of the world in her docks. It is an interesting sight to see.

In order to get this off on the mail that leaves here this p. m. will have to stop. This letter will get to you about the 10th of October if it gets on the ship today.

"Write to me if you would like to, and tell me all the news. There is a young officer here by the name of Jones. He is going to get out of the army before long and was wondering where to go in the States to make a home. I told him about the Hereford country and I believe he wrote to the Chamber of Commerce there for something about the place, and no doubt he will come out there to settle down.

"Tee and Kiddies join me in sending love to all.

Your Unc. Roy.

Roy F. Hall, Captain 43rd Infantry, Manila, P. I."
