PONY LEAGUE ALL-STARS were named Friday night following the last regular game of the season...

Bright Outlook For Potato Crop And Other Vegetables

Bulging sacks of Hereford potatoes began streaming in from the fields last week as harvest got into full swing.

Many processors were beginning to work crews during the night in order to keep up with the heavy work load as truck after truck brought potatoes in from the fields.

Vegetable growers and dealers here termed the 1963 harvest as excellent and were enthused over the size and quality of the potatoes which

Pony League's All-Stars Are Revealed Friday

At the end of the regular season Friday night, 15 players were named to the Hereford Pony League all-star baseball team.

Players were selected by team coaches earlier in the week.

Selected were: Jim Allison, White Sox; Felix Albiar, Indians; Roger Beasley, Red Sox; Phillip Cain, Tigers; Gene Duvall, White Sox; David Evans, Tigers; Jerry Fowlkes, Red Sox; John Gilmore, Indians; Lane Hallows, Tigers; Mike Horton, Indians; Brad Johnson, Indians; Lee Robinson, Tigers; Gene Sparks, Red Sox; Robert Wagner, White Sox; and Bill Watts, Indians.

Coaching the All-Star team will be L. B. Russell. He will be assisted by Cuby Kitchens.

It was announced that first tournament action would start in about two weeks. It is hoped that some practice games will be held prior to the team's entry into play that points toward the Pony League World Series.

have arrived so far. They also were satisfied with the market, which is holding at about $2.50 per hundred right now. Indications are that the market may go higher, which would mean that 1963 could be the best year for potatoes since 1957.

Generally, the potatoes are running larger this year than for the past few years and are grading slightly higher in quality.

Most of the growers have beaten off their vines and are beginning to dig potatoes each day. At least one area farmer used a broadcast flame cultivator to dry his field before he could beat the vines.

Hereford's potato market price generally is determined by the availability of potatoes from other areas. If the crop in California and the Rio Grande Valley are finished and the Alabama harvest hasn't started, Hereford potatoes generally command good prices.

Other crops also are doing well here this year. A large number of onions have already been processed. Many others will be reaching the sheds here within the next week or two.

Carrots are still a few weeks away from the harvest stage, while no lettuce is expected to be cut for several weeks. Early lettuce was tried here last year on an experimental basis and was successful. However, no early lettuce was planted here this year.

In other aspects of agriculture, the wheat harvest ended almost as soon as it started. Dryland yields were down with a large amount of dryland wheat plowed under for lack of moisture.

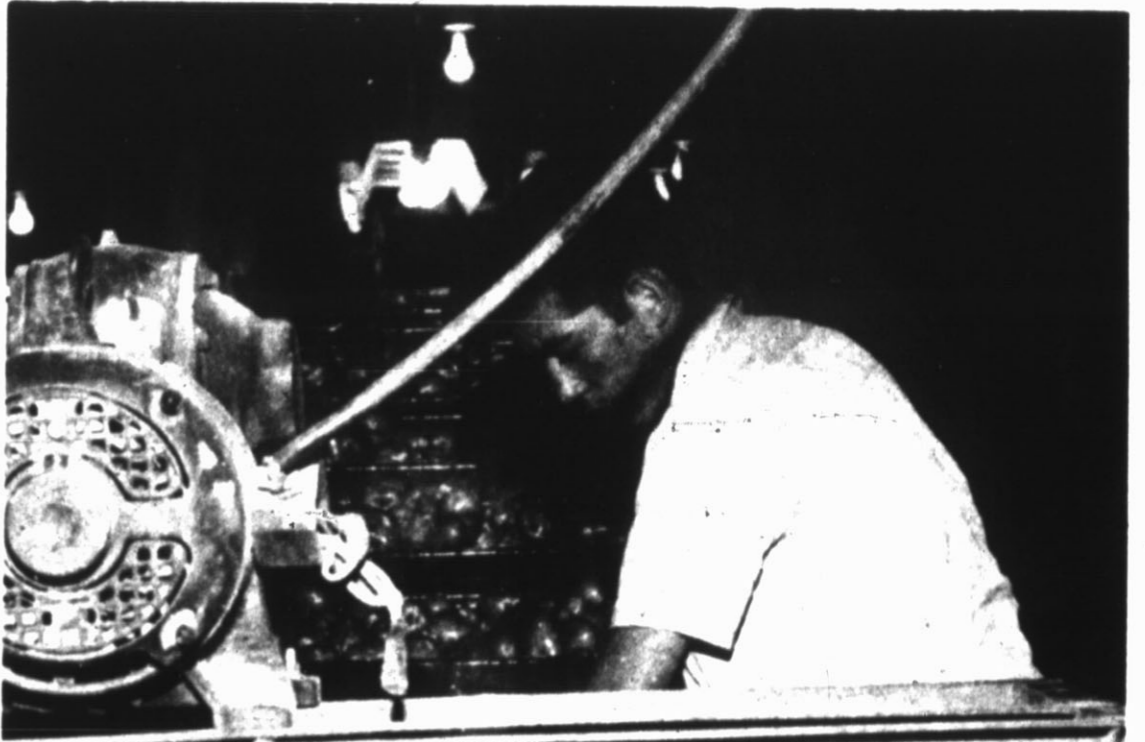

Corn sorghum yields, however, are being forecast for a new high with lush stands all over the area. The early summer rains gave them a big boost and all planting has been completed.

Cotton will be short this year due to the rains. Many farmers replanted cotton three and four times.

Queen Contest Sponsors Seek More Entries

Wayne Fuller, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce's Harvest Festival Queen Contest has announced the contestants who have entered to date.

They are Janice Medley, Dierdra Thomas, Barbara Barrett, Beverly Roberts, Ann Braddy, Connie Renfro, Gerry Lynn Wheeler, Katherine Barnard, Kay M-Ke, Debby Beene, Judy Crume and Joyce West.

LARGE HEREFORD POTATOES come streaming through the processing line after getting a good scrubbing. From this point they are sorted both manually and mechanically, then bagged in 50 or 100-pound sacks for shipment by truck and rail all over the United States.

Little League Selects Its Stars In Majors, Minors

Hereford Little League named its major and minor league all-stars Saturday night.

According to a bracket released by District 1 administrator B. K. Grider of Dumas, Hereford will participate first in the Canyon area tourney.

First opponent for Hereford will be the Amarillo Air Force Base team. The game will be played Thursday, July 18, at Canyon.

Other area tournaments will be held at Memphis, Fritch and White Deer. The four area winners will compete in the district tournament at Dumas on July 22 and 23.

Marvin Knox was named to manage the Hereford All-Stars. The coach will be Dale Young.

Chosen for the team were David Huckert, Yankees; Sidney Shaw, Giants; David Vinces, Cardinals; Rusty Duncan, Dodgers; Jim Rakestraw, Yankees; John Stagner, Cardinals; Jim Loeferwald, Yankees; Russell Phillips, Giants; Frank Hernandez, Dodgers; Jack Merdith, Giants; Johnny Wall, Cardinals; Tom McGowan, Yankees; Santra Rush, Yankees; and Denny Brown, Dodgers.

The all-stars from eight minor league teams will be divided into two squads for their All-Star Game, which is slated for Little League Park on Friday, July 12, beginning at 8 p. m.

Coaching the other team will be Archie Jones. Braves coach His team will include boys from the Braves, Cardinals, Athletics, and Orioles, who finished second, fourth, sixth and eighth.

Following are the all-stars for Hardin's team: Lonnie Noyes, Lynn Martin, Bill McMinn, Greg Whitaker and Steve Whitaker, Giants; Ronnie Babione.

Herbert Paul Lovan, Robert Grady, Steve Olson and Daniel Heversdorf, Dodgers; Tommy Tuck, Loy Wylie, Sheldon Alexander, Ross Hardwick and Lynn Chisholm, Yankees; Randy Cassthan, Dale Noyes, Jeff Deavenport, Bobby Banner and Tim Northcutt, Pirates.

Jones all-stars will include Roger Barrett, Rusty Babione, Steven Vines, Harold Schmucker and Eddie Robertson, Braves; Johnny West, Dana Rush, Andy Scott, Chip Formby and Larry Lomas, Cardinals; Kevin Patton, Leslie Joe Wiggins, Dore Wiggins, Gary Riddle and Allen Cornelius Athletics; Jimmy Dickerson, Kenneth Laing, and Robert Holmes, Orioles.

Birds Take Title With 6-4 Victory

Hereford's American Legion Redbirds clinched themselves a place in the District 18 playoffs with a 6-4 victory over Palo Duro.

The Redbirds host the second place Caprock team here at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, July 7, for the final game of the season.

So far as Hereford is concerned however, it doesn't really matter, since the top two teams in the south half will enter the meet in Amarillo with the best two teams in the north half. This marks the third year that Hereford has gained the play-off, as it placed second in 1961 and tied for first last year.

Palo Duro started strong with a single and a double by Darrell Shew that drove in one run. Hereford countered in the top of the second with two runs on a double by Eugene Green, a single by Joe Coffman, a walk and an error.

Palo Duro made a fight for the game with three runs in the last of the second for a 4-2 lead. The runs came on three walks, a single and a sacrifice fly.

But Hereford was not to be denied as it grabbed the lead, 5-4, with three runs on a single by John Willoughby, an error, a triple by Garry Smith and a single by Steve Hodges.

In the top of the fifth, the Redbirds added an insurance run on a single by Smith and a triple by Hodges. Hodges almost got an in - the - park homer, but was called out on a loose play at the plate.

The Palo Duro team drew gooseeggs for three innings, then got two singles in the sixth, but couldn't score.

Ed Mims started for the Redbirds and last one and two-thirds innings. He allowed four runs on two hits, walked four and struck out two. Jim Haney got credit for the win as he went two innings. He allowed no runs on one hit, walked one and struck out one.

Around Town

After a couple of weeks of hot, sultry weather, there were a few showers Saturday. It didn't amount to much in the way of moisture, but the cloud cover was real nice for a change.

It was interesting to note that despite a short wheat crop the bank deposits continued to climb and there wasn't any superficial indication that something was wrong. That is one of the nicer things about a diversified economy, even if it is just diversified agriculture.

Some observers feel that there will be a campaign in the next legislature for a law on the sale and installation of safety seat belts in automobiles.

Fourteen states now have laws requiring installation of the safety belts in new cars. Thirteen states have enacted regulatory laws on sale of the belts and eight more on methods of installation.

Progressive Community will have its annual reunion on Sunday, July 14, at the Hereford.

Two Are Hurt As Pickups Collide

An early - morning wreck Friday resulted in slight injuries to two persons.

The wreck occurred at the intersection of Plains and Ranger Drive. Glen Allen Wilson, 32, of Route Five, was driving a 1960 pick-up which was hit by a 1951 pick-up driven by Domingo R. Zamora, 55, of 319 Sampson.

Zamora and his six-year-old son were given first aid treatment for minor cuts sustained in the collision.

The accident took place at 6:10 a. m. when Zamora failed to yield right-of-way to Wilson. Zamora received a ticket from the investigating officer.

Wilson's vehicle received an estimated $350 damages, while $100 damage was estimated for the Zamora vehicle.

Ten Days, $50 On DWI Charge

A New Mexico man pleaded guilty Friday to a charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense. He was sentenced to a fine of $50, court costs and ten days in jail by County Judge H. C. Williams.

Entering a plea of guilty was Kenneth Eugene Groves, 48, of Artesia, N. M. Groves was arrested Thursday, July 4, by Texas Highway Patrolman Charles Skinner. The arrest was made one-half mile west of Dawn on U. S. Highway 60 about 4 p. m.

Bank, Saving Deposits At High Second Quarter Mark

Deposits in Hereford banks and savings institutions hit a new high for the second quarter of a year, but were down slightly from the record total at the end of the first quarter of 1963.

Total deposits at the end of the second quarter of this year were $24,965,026.96. This is $1,118,767.35 less than the total for the first quarter of the year. But the deposits at the end of June were higher by $3,324,347.79 than the total of $21,640,679.17 recorded at the end of June, 1962.

The two banks, Hereford State and First National had combined deposits at the end of the first half of the year of $18,425,094.56. This is an increase of $2,519,773.46 over the same period last year but down $1,534,600.00 from their total at the end of the first quarter of this year. Total at the end of June, 1962, was $15,905,321.10.

The two savings and loan institutions, Hi-Plains Savings and Loan and Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union, recorded an increase not only for the year but for the past quarter. They had total deposits of $6,339,932.40, which was $415,832.65 higher than the first quarter. It also showed a gain of $804,484.33 over the total for the first half of 1962, which was $5,535,448.07.

Bank officials said that the deposits reflected the general upturn of business in the area. They noted that deposits at the end of the second quarter generally are lower than they are after the first quarter.

However, the total recorded for all four institutions at the end of June was the highest ever for them at the end of the first six months of a year.

They pointed out that the second quarter usually shows a drop due to needs of farmers who have not marketed spring crops or who are engaged in expensive planting for fall crisis. Demands on savings also are made for vacations during the first part of the summer.

Hi-Plains Lets Contract For $75,000 Building

A contract for the construction of a new office building was let last week by officers and directors of the Hi-Plains Savings and Loan Association of Hereford.

The building is to be constructed on the corner of Fourth and Sampson. J. Allen Ritter, Construction Company of Amarillo, is to be general contractor. Actual construction is to begin within three weeks.

Cost of the building will be about $75,000. It will include about 3,650 square feet and will be of brick and glass construction. The building was designed by Hucker and Parge Architectural Firm of Amarillo.

Included in the construction will be a customer drive - in window, a large parking lot, board - conference room, two major offices, lobby, tellers, counter and work room.

At present, it is expected that Hi-Plains will move its operations into the new building about Dec. 1 of this year.

The savings and loan company was organized and put into operation here in August, 1957. It has been leasing quarters in the 100 block of East Third since that time.

Since that time, the organization has grown to include more than $4,000,000 in total assets.

Stubble Mulch Offers Several Big Advantages

Stubble mulching is a year-round way of managing plant residues on cropland. Harvesting, seedbed preparation, planting and cultivation are all done so as to leave residues of the previous crop on top of the soil until after the next crop is seeded.

With the stubble left on the surface, the plant residues keep the wind from getting at the soil and the rain from compacting it. There is less runoff because the soil takes in water more rapidly. There is also less soil washed away because the mulch slows down the speed of the water that does runoff. And as the residues turn to humus they improve the soil.

In most cases there will be less wheat stubble this year than in the past few years. Dryland farmers should plan their farming operations so as to leave adequate residues on the surface or serious wind erosion may occur during the coming winter and spring.

Cost-sharing assistance is available through the ASC office for carrying out stubble mulching. According to the ASC office, if the wheat was grazed this past winter, it could be very hard and a chiseling operation to loosen the soil may be necessary for the first operation. Use sweep type implements for the next operation to be eligible to earn the $1.25 per acre cost-sharing assistance. This practice offers an economical and effective method for controlling erosion and conserving moisture in the dryland part of the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District.

15 Years Of Customer Satisfaction

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

When we saw a new book with Jean Kerr listed as the author, we grabbed it. That probably is what the publisher of Mary, Mary had intended. We expected something on the order of Please Don't Eat the Daisies, but got something entirely different.

Mary, Mary is nothing more than the dialogue of Jean Kerr's Broadway play of the same name.

The publishers contend that the book was printed so people could read all of Mrs. Kerr's rapid-fire wit, some of which is obscured by laughter in the theater.

But we enjoyed reading the play because we probably won't ever get to see it performed on Broadway. The plot is a simple one. Bob, the ex-husband, is about to marry a young, rich and completely uninhibited diet-faddist named Tiffany Richards.

When he and his tax-lawyer find that Bob's publishing house is going in the red, there are complications. Mary, the ex-wife, is summoned to help them go through cancelled checks in hopes of finding some deductible expenses dating back to their marriage.

Another complication arises with the entrance of Dirk Winston, a tall-dark-handsome movie actor and friend of Bob's. Dirk makes a play for Mary. Tiffany thinks Bob is having a last affair with Mary (and approves) and Bob turns green with jealousy.

Mary, the lovable heroine, had talked her way out of the marriage months before. Now she finds herself trying to talk her way back in, against terrific odds.

It doesn't take long to read the book. It's only 181 sparse pages, including stage directions. But it's packed with vast amounts of Kerr humor that many readers have come to love.

For a light, summer change-of-pace in your reading, you could do much worse than Mary, Mary by Jean Kerr.

The fire crackers popped, the flags flew and the fiddlers fiddled.

It was a carnival atmosphere Thursday, July 4th in the little town of Hale Center, Texas as some three thousand residents, former residents and visitors turned out for their annual observance of Independence Day.

We were frankly amazed at the number of people who came to watch and listen; to eat watermelon and cotton candy; to ride the ferris wheel and to visit with old friends. Hale Center is located squarely in the center of Hale County and boasts not more than 2,000 residents. Yet half again that many people were on hand for the celebration. The fiddlers played until midnight Wednesday, tuning up for the big day ahead, and the old timers sat around the park talking over days gone by.

And as usual, Hereford citizens had a hand in the affair. J. L. Marcum, Hereford resident and Hale Center merchant, was chairman of the "Miss Fire Cracker" contest and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Coffey of Hereford served as judges. A job they may keep as far as we're concerned. Other Hereford residents spotted at the celebration included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Odom of the Westway community, Mrs. Jay Fortenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boggs. The Boggs are former residents who have moved from Hereford to Plainview.

"Cotton John" Smith, KGNC Farm and Ranch director, was also on hand with his staff.

— HB —
Actually, we enjoyed our outing on the Fourth very much. We have relatives in the Hale Center area and were invited down specifically to hear the fiddling contest, which, in our opinion, is the big drawing card for the celebration. Old time country fiddlers from all parts of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma were present, and at least two from as far away as Missouri. We didn't realize that people would drive that far to participate in a "Fiddler's" contest. The publicity received from this event has literally put the little town of Hale Center "on the map".

Here is a little town that has long stood still, but now appears to be moving ahead. The merchants are beginning to dress up the buildings and the town has come alive with activity. All due, we suppose to a revival of community spirit stemming from the success of the Fourth of July celebrations. Perhaps other small towns in the area can take a lesson from Hale Center.

— HB —
Some people have all the luck. Bad luck, that is Cletis Corlis, new manager of J. C. Penney Company, has been with us less than a month and already he's confined to his home. With the mumps, no less. To top it off, this is the vacation season, and the store was short of help anyhow.

But perhaps things will get better without getting worse first. We hope that Cletis can return to the job shortly and that the next time he gets sick, he can at least come down with something more respectable than the mumps. After all, no self-respecting adult wants to be confined to his home with a child's disease.

Meanwhile, the company employees are carrying on with "business as usual" stifling a chuckle now and then when they think of the boss and his swollen jaws.

— HB —
We would like to compliment band directors Ben Golehon and Clyde Wilson for their efforts with the Hereford Beginners Band. They have done a marvelous job in shaping up the kids in such a short time. We were amazed at how well the children played, particularly after enduring the solo cornet playing of our eldest daughter.

Joe Ed Campbell, sophomore at West Texas State, has also been helping with the summer program.

Do you know what a "square" is? Charles H. Brower, president of Batten, Barton, Dur-

... & Osborn, Inc. of New York City defines a square this way:

"He is the man who never learned to get away with it. A Joe who volunteers, when he doesn't have to. A guy who gets his kicks from trying to do something better than anyone else can. A booby who gets so lost in his work that he has to be reminded to go home. A guy who doesn't have to stop at a bar on his way to the train at night. A slob who still gets all choked up when the band plays 'America the Beautiful.' A 'square, and strictly from Squaresville.'"

Mr. Brower, in a speech originally delivered before the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, says that there is a definite trend towards the "return of the square." And he likes the idea. In fact, he has suggested that we all join the S.O.S. — the Society of Squares. It is not a left-wing organization, nor a right-wing organization. Just an organization with wings.

Mr. Brower states that "we would be for participation and against sitting life out... for simplicity and against sophistication... for laughter and against sniggering... for America and against her enemies... for the direct and against the devious... for the honest way against the easy short cut... for a well-done job and against the goof-off... for education and against the pretense of learning... for building and against tearing down..."

We like Mr. Brower's idea. Perhaps it's time for "The Return of The Square."

Marline Gililland Charles Watson Repeat Vows In Lubbock Church

After their return from a wedding trip to Dallas, Charles Watson and his bride, the former Miss Marline Gililland, will live in Ralls, where he is band director and she will teach in the Ralls Public Schools.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Gililland. She is a graduate of Hereford High School and Hardin-Simmons University and has taught for the past three years in Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson of Levelland are the parents of the bridegroom, who is a graduate of Levelland High School and Texas Western College in El Paso.

Dr. Howard Scott, pastor of the Field Street Baptist Church in Cleburne, read the double ring ceremony for the couple Friday evening, July 5, in the Second Baptist Church, Lubbock. He was assisted by the Rev. Arthur M. Brewer, pastor. On each side of the altar were baskets of white gladioli, branched candelabra, and stands of greenery.

Candies were lighted by Larry and Suzanne Watson, nephew and niece of the groom. Debra Watson, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. As the wedding party assembled, the organist, Mrs. Roy Van Hoove of Lubbock, played "March, Dear" by Purcell. "I Love Thee, Dear" was sung by Bob Lawrence of Denver, Col.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white silk bombazine, styled in princess effect. With long petal point sleeves, the lace bodice featured a Sabrina neckline outlined in sequins and pearls. The voluminous flared skirt fell in a fan-shaped train, with a fan of lace extending from the waistline the full length of the train.

Her three-tiered veil of scalloped illusion was held by a crown tiara of seed pearls, iridescent sequins, and crystal teardrops. The bridal bouquet was a single white orchid surrounded by Stephanotis atop a white Bible. Fashioned into the bouquet were an antique brooch, which belonged to her great-grandmother, and a white handkerchief given her by a treasured friend.

...ing his brother as best man was Gerald Watson. The ring bearer was Timothy Watson, nephew of the groom.

Bridesmaid was Miss Brenda Watson, sister of the groom, and the bridesmatrons were Mrs. John Gililland, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Jack Dalrymple, sister of the groom. Serving as groomsmen and ushers were John Gililland, Jack Dalrymple, and L. D. Williams of Ralls. Each of the feminine attendants, including the candlelighter and flower girl, wore mint green brocade taffeta dresses with cap sleeves, scoop necks, and bell skirts. The maid of honor, bridesmaid, and bridesmatrons wore pill box hats made of the dress fabric and veiled with scalloped mint green net. They carried cascading bouquets of white daisies and English ivy.

Mrs. Marlin Gililland, mother of the bride, wore a dress of pink imported silk, with straight lines and a tunic skirt. Her hat was of blending pink petals and her accessories were black patent. The groom's mother, Mrs. Ray Watson, chose a dress of blue jersey with straight lines, matching hat, and black patent were cymbidium orchids.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony. Guests were registered by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Wade Wolfe of Oklahoma City, Okla. Miss Marlene Legg of Hereford and Mrs. Leon Cohorn of Lamesa served. Others assisting were Misses Linda Hair, Marilyn and

Noted Educator Speaks At Clubs

Dr. C. Q. Smith, noted speaker, educator and preacher, spoke to two Hereford service clubs last week. On Monday he addressed the Rotary Club and on Wednesday he spoke to the Lions Club. Smith, past president of McMurry College, past vice president of Southern Methodist University and president emeritus of Oklahoma City University, was in Hereford on business. He has been listed in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Education and Who's Who in American Hospitality. He spoke on the subject, "Our American Heritage and the American Challenge." "There are over 10,000,000 people in America today that are planning to take over the nation within the next 14 years. These people are backed by over $500,000,000. They are not, as you would probably imagine, a communist organization; rather they are our youth who are presently in the high schools and colleges of our land. He continued, "The top strata of our business society turns over about once every 14 years and the new leaders do not stop and ask the older generation what to do with it."

He also stated that the founders of our country were very courageous men who came to a country which they knew nothing about and were greeted with wild animals and Indians. They did not turn around, and go back home, Smith continued, but they stayed in America and gave us the privilege to worship God.

He quoted Lincoln as saying, "Pull down the Christian flag and the American flag will fall of its own weight." "There has been more learning in the labs of scientists since the beginning of this century than ever before in the history of the world. They have developed machines that will do or make easier nearly every kind of work. The main danger in this is that we will become a bunch of nuts attached to machinery. In vain we build a world unless the builder also grows," emphasized Smith.

He said that the pioneers set to work immediately to build a nation and did so even at the cost of a war, but the greatest obstacle was not England, it was the colonies themselves. After the Revolutionary War, delegates met in Philadelphia to revise the Articles of Confederation. At this convention, the colonies could not agree and they were about to adjourn when Benjamin Franklin said, "I no longer I lived the surer I am that there is a God." He also said that when they were in war they prayed every day, but now that the war was over they had ceased to pray and that was one reason that they were having so much difficulty.

"With this prayerful attitude, the signers of the constitution went about their duties in an efficient and successful way," Smith added. "No nation has ever been destroyed by outside forces; they have all committed suicide when they were drunk internally - drunk on their own self-satisfaction, achievements or even on wine. This is caused by a decline in morality, religion, or integrity. George Washington said, 'Religious morals are indispensable for political forces.'"

Smith also said that there is no creature more helpless than a new-born baby. A colt can outrun his mother within three months and even the animal that takes the longest to develop outside man, the orangutan, is fully grown at 14 months. However it takes a man about 18 years to reach his total development and it even takes some as long as 30 years.

"Human life when it is complete cannot be found outside the total truth and if America stands she must have something to stand upon," Smith emphasized. "The difference between our government and the governments of other countries is that they are run on Secularism and the United States is run by Divine Providence," he said. He went on to say that power without control is dangerous and that power with control is useless without technique. In this case the technique is synonymous with know-how. If America is going to live we must have the knowhow and the power, he stated. He continued, "Democracy demands an intelligent applied citizenship and learning offers a sure preservative against mistake and error, and the further knowledge goes, the closer it comes back to religion."

He said that the pioneers set to work immediately to build a nation and did so even at the cost of a war, but the greatest obstacle was not England, it was the colonies themselves. After the Revolutionary War, delegates met in Philadelphia to revise the Articles of Confederation. At this convention, the colonies could not agree and they were about to adjourn when Benjamin Franklin said, "I no longer I lived the surer I am that there is a God." Yankees Rally For Seventh Inning Win Over Cardinals

Friday night's Little League game couldn't have been any more hair-raising. The Yankees scored twice in the bottom of the sixth with two out to tie the score. Then they picked up one run in the last of the seventh to defeat the Cardinals 4-3.

It was a tight game all the way as both teams finished their play for the year. The Cards used three walks and a single in the top of the second for their first score.

They added another in the fourth on two singles, a walk and a hit batter.

The Yankees got their first run in the fourth on a walk and a double by Otis Robinson.

Final run for the Cards came in the fifth on a single, a walk and an error.

Then the Yankees tied the score in the last of the sixth.

A walk was followed by a ground ball for an out and a strike-out. Another walk was followed by a line-shot single by Jim Rakestraw and a Texas League blooper single by Jim Loerwald. That sent the game into an extra inning.

The Cards went down in order in the seventh. Keith Anderson, a tall 11-year-old who started the year in the minors, came on to pitch as the other Cardinal pitchers had completed their reliability.

Anderson, throwing surprisingly well for his first mound appearance of the year, walked the first batter on a full count. He struck out the next hitter, but walked Reese Dawson. Otis Robinson's sharp hit to third was scooped up to force the lead runner.

But the throw to second in a double-play attempt was low. It scooted into center field as Dawson came in to score.

Paul Loerwald pitched six innings for the Yankees. He gave up three runs on four hits, walked eight and struck out three. Tom McGowan came in to retire the side in order in the top of the seventh, including one by strike-out.

David Vines started on the mound for the Cards. David Alvarado came on after three, with Bobby Wiman coming on late in the sixth to put out a threatening rally.

Each team had four hits with no one getting more than one.

In one of the minor league games, the mighty Giants almost got knocked off. The Giants managed three runs in the last of the third inning to beat the Pirates 20-19. It was the 17th victory without a loss for the Giants, who had expected little trouble from the seventh place Pirates.

The Pirates opened with three runs in the first, but the Giants picked up seven in their part of the first inning.

Then the Pirates picked up 12 runs in the second for a 15-7 lead. The Giants tied the score as they got eight runs in their part of the second.

Pirates garnered four runs in the third inning but the Giants got three to go one-up as the game was called by time.

Fidel Vigil and Jay Fielder pitched for the Giants with Charles Keys going for the Pirates.

The other minor league game was equally as exciting as the Cards edged the Athletics 9-6 in a real duel as the Cards had to pick up four runs in the last of the fifth.

There was no score until the last of the third, when the Cardinals got four runs on six hits.

The Athletics got two of those back in the fourth on three hits. In the fourth, the Cards pushed in one run on one hit.

Then the Athletics began their big effort as they struck for four runs on four hits. That put them in front 6-5.

But the Cards were equal to the challenge as they tallied four runs on five hits in the fifth as the game was called because of time.

Johnny West and Dana Rush pitched for the Cardinals with Mike Albiar going for the Athletics.

Bruce Miller has just returned from a quick trip to Dallas to attend a meeting of a special Texas Bar Association committee that is discussing law that affect publication of news and legal notices. The committee is to meet again in August or September with a group from the Texas Press Association in Austin. We hope the two groups can work out some solutions to problems that have been real puzzlers.

The County Commission is to meet Monday, July 8, at 10 a.

College Student From Cuba Will Talk Tuesday

Elizabeth Ramos, junior at Wayland Baptist College from Havana, Cuba, will speak following a salad supper at 7 p. m. Tuesday, July 9, in Fellowship Hall at First Christian Church.

Miss Ramos, daughter of a Cuban minister, is in much demand for speaking occasions at the college and in the Plainview and surrounding communities. She frequently addresses groups on Communism in Cuba, as she witnessed the birth of Castro's regime.

At Wayland Miss Ramos is a member of the Cosmopolitan Club which has members of international and local students. Last year she was foreign student representative on the Freshman Baptist Student Union Council. Miss Ramos is attending summer school at Wayland.

Music has been the center of Miss Ramos' interest for many years and she now is enjoying organ lessons under a Wayland music professor.

Miss Ramos is a graduate of Institute of Havana and Havana Conservatory of Music, where she studied music for nine years. The 19-year-old Wayland junior also attended the University of Havana, studying in the School of Pedagogy for a year until Communism usurped the institution. She taught music in high school for a year.

Following completion of college work, Miss Ramos plans to resume her teaching career.

A special invitation has been issued to high school and college age young people and all interested persons who wish to bring a salad and hear the program.

m. for a regular session. We expect to hear a lot about their trip to New York to get a bond rating for the county, but not too much about some of their extra-curricular activities. But I'll bet that Ralph Houk would like to have them come back real soon. The Yankees won every game while the group was in New York.

The Hereford school board has a regular meeting slated for 8 p. m. Tuesday, July 9, and probably will have a full agenda.

Sunday, July 7, is the last regular game of the season for the American Legion Redbirds, who have already earned a berth in the district tournament. They will host Caprock here at 2:30 p. m. It should be a fine game. Caprock is coached by former HHS baseball coach Harlan Voyles.

An upholstery class will be held in the Junior High School July 8. It is another in a series of summer home economics courses sponsored and directed by the school home instructors.

Almost before I was ready, the Little League and Pony League baseball seasons are over. The All-Stars of both groups, however, will be needing our support as they go into tournament play. Hereford has had some outstanding teams in the past, and we feel that this year's groups should go a long way.

Mrs. Spencer particularly likes her electric kitchen — "It's clean!", she says. The built-in range and oven and the automatic dishwasher, plus the many smaller appliances, like the blender she is using here, makes her time spent in the kitchen easier and more enjoyable.

The Spencer's modern Gold Medallion Home, features an all-electric heat pump for year-round comfort. Electric water heating, an all-electric kitchen and a modern electric laundry take the work out of housework for Mrs. Spencer, allowing her precious additional time with her family. Mr. Spencer, a busy automobile dealer, likes the convenience, economy and complete comfort of the Gold Medallion home.

Wheat Harvest Ends While Vegetables Just Beginning

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
Wheat harvest has been completed in this community, and vegetable harvest is just beginning. Farmers are irrigating again as well as cultivating maize, cotton and soybeans. The cotton is beginning to look a little better, although it is far inferior to the average quality at this time of year. A lot of cotton was plowed up and the land was replanted with other crops because the hails and wet weather damaged it badly.

Dr. Carlos Gruver of Plainview spoke at the Frio Baptist Church Sunday. He also showed films that he made during the recent Christian Crusade in Japan and gave accounts of his experiences.
Recent visitors at the Arthur Blackburn home were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Blackburn, of Sherman and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Besbitt and baby, of Borger.
Participating in the Beginner Band Concert at Hereford on Tuesday, July 2, were Linda Blackburn, Ediana Vinson and Stevie Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Sargent of Summerfield visited the Arthur Blackburn family on Sunday, June 30.
Joy Cheatham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cheatham, of Lincoln, Ark., was visiting Linda Blackburn last week. Joy was also visiting other relatives and friends in the area.
Visiting the W. H. Andrews family on Monday evening, July 1, were newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Boyd of West Plains, Mo. They were married last week and are on their honeymoon.
Mrs. Henry Dobbs and Mrs. James Dobbs went to Lubbock Wednesday, July 3, to visit the Clark Dobbs family. Mrs. Clark Dobbs and children returned to Frio for a short visit.
Mrs. Joe Autry and Mrs. Linda Welty had coffee with Mrs. Earl Harkins Friday morning.
Bradley Morris, of Canyon, was visiting his daughter, Mrs.

Glenn Andrews and family, on Tuesday, July 2.
Mr. and Mrs. James Dobbs and daughters, spent last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jay, of Elk City. Mrs. Jay came home with the Dobbs to visit her daughters, Mrs. Dobbs and Mrs. Jim Cassels.
Mrs. Homer West and daughters, Mrs. B. H. Baldwin and Miss Viola Keene went to Levelland Thursday, July 4, to visit friends. They also visited their relatives, the Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Baldwin and family of Earth. Miss Keene is living with Mrs. Baldwin and is employed part-time at King's Manor.

Bonnie Sparkman went to Jal, N. M., Wednesday, July 3, to visit Nancy French. They planned to return Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews and Mrs. Alma Andrews visited the W. F. Andrews at Melrose, on Sunday, June 30.
Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Andrews were visiting the George Zetsches in the Frio Hospital Sunday and Monday. The Zetsches' two and a half year old daughter was bitten by a rattlesnake on Saturday evening. The incident took place as Mrs. Zetsche and the children, Ann and Cay, were walking along a turnrow as they waited for George, who was running a potato vine beater. The infection was kept at a minimum by the quick action of the parents as they drove the girl immediately to the Frio hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miles have been visiting the Coles in this area. She is a sister of Earl Cole of Hereford. They have been in India for three years and are now on leave. He is with the Ford Foundation and is a farm method instructor.
Visiting the Joe Autrys and the David Yandells, is their mother, Mrs. A. N. Yandell of Seminole.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brooks attended a ballgame at Frio on Monday, July 1. Their grandson, Kenny Taylor, was one of the players.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stringer and family, ate Sunday dinner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stringer, at Ropesville and visited in the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Alton Leomon, at Shallowater.
Carl Miller spent Saturday night, June 29, with Gerald Harder.

HERE And THERE

With Mrs. Merlin Kaul
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson and daughters Marilyn and Diane and son Steven, have returned to their home in Newark, Cal., after spending several days here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, on North Miles Avenue. Bill, a former farmer in the Westway Community, has been a Corpsman in a Navy Hospital for the past 13 years. He grew up in this community, graduated from Schriener Institute, attended Southwest Texas State at San Marcos, Baylor University, and West Texas State College at Canyon. He served several years in the Navy before he started to farm, then decided to return to the Navy to make it a career. The family plans retirement in this area. "to get away from all those freeways," says Mrs. Jackson. Another daughter, Carolyn, is married and lives in Beaufort, S. C., where her husband Guy Tinkham is also associated with the hospital unit of the Navy. She and her small son had planned to meet her family here but were unable to do so because of illness. The Jacksons visited many friends and relatives while in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrison were hosts at a Fourth of July picnic at their home Thursday night. A hamburger fry, homemade ice cream, and fireworks provided entertainment. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Thomas, Diedra, Dan and Debra, John Bob Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Don Heddins, Donna and Rhonda, Judith Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Larry Kaul, Marvin Morrison, and the hosts.

Mrs. Morrison has been in bed the past ten days as the result of an injury from a lawn mower. She was just finishing mowing when the mower hit some object and it struck her leg about the ankle. Besides a severe cut, the bone was badly bruised.

Mrs. Joe Paetzold who lives at 713 Blevins, is hospitalized with two broken arms and numerous bruises as the result of a fall at the Catholic Church Tuesday morning. Mrs. Paetzold has charge of the flower arranging at the church and had put some flowers near the altar. Somehow she missed the steps on ascending, fell, struck her head against the wall, and was momentarily knocked unconscious.

One of the Brothers at the church found her and called her daughter, Mrs. George Turrentine, who rushed in to the church. Another daughter, Mrs. Margaret Beal, was called and they took her to the clinic and then to the hospital. Luckily, daughter Margaret is a nurse and can be with her mother several days. She with her children, John, Lisa, and Jim came several days ago from their home in Los Angeles, Cal., for a visit here with her parents and other members of her family.

Her sister, Mrs. Turrentine, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herman Paetzold, will care for her children while Mrs. Beal cares for her mother at the home for the next two weeks.

Another daughter, Alma, also a nurse, is expected home about then to care for her. With one break at the wrist and the break in the other arm just above the elbow, it will be some weeks before Mrs. Paetzold will be able to do anything for herself.

Nathan Wilson, who took his basic army training in Fort Polk, La., is now stationed at Fort Rucker in Alabama. He has just returned to his base after spending a couple of weeks leave here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson of Star Street. Visiting here while he was home were his brother, Vernon and family from Panama, and Miss Doan Lusk of Amarillo.

Rodney Wilson of Pampa is with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson. He is helping out with farming activities.

Mrs. Pat McCullough and sons Clay and Don of Odessa have returned home after spending the past ten days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCracken, and other relatives and friends. She and the boys spent one day in Bovina in the home of her brother, Jack McCracken. They were also guests in the home of Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough.

Mike McCracken of Bovina was a guest Thursday night in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCracken.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Parsons and LeAnn are moving this week to Amarillo where Don will be associated with Southwestern Investment Company. They have been living here since school was out. Don was a coach in the school at Hartley last year.

Mrs. Dan Evans and son Kirk of Lubbock were visitors last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons. Her sister, Doris, returned home with her to spend a few days and will then visit in the home of her brother, Lloyd, at Hale Center before returning to Hereford.

John David Bryant, who is stationed at Camp Polk, La., spent last weekend here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Caython Bryant. On his return to camp he took his mother to Dallas for a check-up at the hospital there. She returned home by jet plane, on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ranspot were hosts at a "cook-out" the night of the Fourth. Fireworks were enjoyed after the supper. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lassiter, Barbara Barrett, Henry, Mike, Patricia and Rita Ranspot.

Mickey and Toni Stagner of Phoenix, Ari., are spending several weeks here in the home of their aunt, Della Stagner.

Buck Cunningham of Amarillo has returned to his work as patrolman in Amarillo after spending a few days here helping Buren Sowell with harvest. His wife, the former Margaret Sowell, came last weekend to visit with her parents and Buck returned with her. Margaret is employed by the Lincoln Insurance Company.

Mrs. Edna Bowe of San Saba is spending the summer here looking after business. Mrs. Bowe makes her home with her brother B. J. Park, in San Saba.

Mrs. Minnie Roberson Mike Clark and sons Bob and Michael of Pampa left Saturday morning for a fishing trip to South Fork, Colo.

Mrs. Ed Crowe and children have returned home to Brownfield after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell of Houston were guests last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Dement. Campbell is a brother of Mrs. Dement.

Benny Dement is working at First Supply Auto Parts Company for a few weeks. He has been in school at West Texas State University and will return again in September to continue his studies.

The Rev. and Mrs. Russell Pogue and family of Petersburg were visitors in the home of Mrs. Minnie Roberson Sunday night and Monday. They also visited in the Billy Roberson home in Amarillo before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Hoff of Levelland spent the fourth here with her mother, Mrs. Ocie Altman.

Vacation Notes: The Gene McMillans are leaving Monday for a vacation in Colorado and California; the Ed Line family is vacationing in California; Margie Bone and her family have returned after a trip to California.

Ideals' Poetry Program For Sunshine Club

"As You Go Through Life," by Ellen Wheeler Wilcox, "Believe in Yourself," by Edgar A. Guest, and "Outlook," by Priscilla Leonard were some of the poems read by Mrs. Clint Landry during a program of selected poetry from Ideals Scrapbook.

The program was prepared by Mrs. Elmer Jones for the June 24 meeting of the Sunshine Club.

Mrs. Thurman Cole was honored with a handkerchief shower. The hostess, gift was received by Mrs. George Miner. There was also a short business meeting. Mrs. Clois Kemp was the hostess.

Members present were Mesdames George Miner, Willadyne Brooks, Clint Landry, and Clois Kemp. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clint Landry.

Mark Woodall Is Program Speaker For B&PW Club

Investments were discussed by Mark Woodall during the July 1 meeting of the Business Professional Women's Club in the Community Room of the First National Bank. He suggested that a small salaried person invest in a mutual fund, because he would have to invest a certain amount regularly each month.

He then pointed out the advantages of bank trusts for administration of personal estates. For a young person between the ages of 21 and 30, Woodall recommended as a good investment life insurance which has a cash and surrender value. The president, Miss Lucille Park, was in charge of the business session. Further plans were discussed for the club's annual project of bunting sales. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. W. D. Askew and Mrs. Irving Alexander. They

Despite Rains, Moisture Short

By Mrs. S. N. Thweatt
Hot, dry, summer weather is prevailing over the community this week. People are worried about moisture, even though over nine inches of rain fell a few weeks ago. It is so dry now that much of the land is too hard to plow. The wheat harvest was very short this year because very few farmers had very little left after the hail.

Tigers Score In Late Frames For 16-6 Win Tuesday

Striking for six runs each in the fifth and sixth innings, the Tigers blasted the Red Sox 16-6 in Pony League baseball Tuesday night. Before that the game was fairly close.
The Tigers got their first run in the second on two errors.
In the last of the third, the Red Sox knotted the score as they got a run on a walk, a hit batter and a single by Jim Scott.
Larry Dearing's double and Lee Robinson's single pushed in another run for the Tigers in the top of the fourth and the team held on to the lead the rest of the way.
Six runs crossed the plate for the Tigers in the fifth on three singles, four walks and a hit batter.

But the Red Sox battled back in their part of the fifth for three runs. Gene Sparks opened with a home run over left field. A walk and an error put runners in scoring position ahead of Greg Herring's double.
In the sixth, the Tigers added to their lead with six more runs on four singles and four walks.
The Reds could get just one run in the seventh on two errors, a walk and a hit batter.
In the seventh, the Tigers picked up a pair of runs on a double by Robinson, two walks, a fielder's choice and a passed ball.
Only one run came in for the Red Sox in the last of the seventh. A walk, a stolen base, a ground ball and an error pushed in the run.
David Evans was the winning pitcher as he went the distance. He gave up six runs on seven hits, walked five and struck out nine.
Ray Martinez, Johnny Pool and Cruz Chavarria shared mound duties for the Red Sox. They allowed a total of 16 runs a ground ball and an error out 15.
Evans got three hits and Dale Hallows two in pacing the Red Sox in the last of the Sevens. Evans got three hits for the losers.

children had dinner with the Bruce Colemans Sunday, June 30, and then they all went water skiing and boating on the lake west of the Buse place.
Mr. and Mrs. James Ray Coleman and sons and Mrs. Georgia Coldiron, all of Amarillo, visited Mrs. Ruth Coleman and Mrs. G. E. Pinkerton on Sunday, June 30.

Corvair 700 Club Coupe

The hardest part about parking a Corvair is finding a nickel

That may be a slight overstatement, but such jauntiness comes easily when you're a Corvair owner.
And you can usually back it up—as easily as you can back up a Corvair. You'll find yourself doing that occasionally, if only to adjust the brakes—they're self-adjusting. That's all there is to it, and that's a good example of how delightfully easy Corvair is to own, drive and maintain.

the rear. Why the rear? It gives Corvair extra traction on any road surface. It provides a nearly flat floor for more useable interior space. Best of all, it produces steering so light, so responsive, you wonder why no other American-made car thought of it.

AT YOUR CHEVROLET DEALERS

But since we began by talking about driving, let's stick with that awhile. A large factor in the fun of driving a Corvair is the location of its engine in Corvair's engine is also air cooled, we might add, which means there's no antifreeze or water for you to add. Ever.

All that pleasure from something so practical almost makes you think Corvair is unique among American cars. Which isn't surprising, because it is!

Mr. And Mrs. James Lee Smith Will Make Their Home In Austin

First Baptist Church was the setting for the Saturday, June 29, wedding of Miss Lois Marie Christman and James Lee Smith. The Rev. B. L. Davis read the double ring ceremony for the couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Christman of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith of Cherokee.

White satin wedding rope connected two seven-branch Swedish steel candelabra, which held small sunburst of greenery, on each side of a central large sunburst of greenery. Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Joy Wiman, organist. The soloist, Jack Walton of Baytown, sang, "Always," "Wither Thou Goest," "All the Things You Are," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her college roommate, Miss Dixie Wilbanks of Ballinger, as maid of honor and Miss Ida Teague of Sherman a bridesmaid. Best man and groomsmen were Harry Krennek of Elgin.

Cousins of the bride, Miss Betty Joyce Waldrop of Pottshoro and Miss Dianne Gill of Sherman, were candlelighters. Miss Chelli Ruland was the flower girl. Ushers were Paul Christman, brother of the bride, David Smith, brother of the groom, Joe Harold Childers, and Kyle Kendall.

Carrying a crescent bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, and a yellowthroated white Cattleya orchid, the bride wore a gown of silk organza with a modified crescent waist and princess side panels. Embellished with clusters of pearls, the bodice featured a sweetheart neckline with an overlay of Venetian lace and capped sleeves with long fitted mitts.

The skirt was appliqued with medallions of Venetian lace in front with cascades of loose pearls. Bustle bows and streamers applied with the same lace accented the back of the skirt, which terminated in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to an appliqued crown encrusted with tiny sequins and crystals. Miss Wilbanks and Miss Teague wore identical yellow dresses of peau di soie, which were fashioned with gently belled skirts, cap sleeves, and necklines deeply scooped in back. Three-tiered tulle covered rosettes of yellow peau di soie served as their headpieces. They carried nosegays of white daisies.

Bouffant dresses of yellow peau di soie with bow-trimmed side pleats and headpieces matching those of the maid of honor and bridesmaid were worn by the candlelighters. Little Miss Chelli Ruland wore a bouffant dress of yellow with matching headband. All three girls wore floral wristlets.

Wearing a suit dress of blue Italian silk and chiffon and accessories of blending shades of blue, the bride's mother carried a white lace handkerchief and wore a white cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of beige lace with matching accessories. Her corsage was a Nile green cymbidium orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, there was a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. A miniature bride and groom were placed atop the wedding cake. The table was laid with a net cloth over satin and set with crystal and silver appointments. Forming the centerpiece were the attendants' bouquets. Candles and napkins echoed the bride's chosen colors of yellow and white.

Guests were registered by Mrs. E. J. Gill, cousin of the bride. Miss Linda Hair and Miss Marlene Legg presided at the table. Assisting with the reception were Mesdames Clyde Rayburn, E. L. Davis, Cecil Boyer, and Dub Hair.

For the wedding trip to Austin, Mrs. Smith wore a two-piece linen suit with white accessories and the Cattleya orchid lifted from the bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Austin at 4112 Avenue D.

A graduate of Hereford High School, the bride received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Howard Payne College in the spring. She was a member of Alpha Chi, national honor society, Kappa Delta Pi, a national education honor society, Cap and Gown, senior women's honor society, and during her senior year she served as a college cheerleader.

The groom is a graduate of Cherokee High School. He attended Howard Payne College, where he was a member of the college track team and Jackets for Jesus, an organization for college athletes. He will attend the University of Texas in the fall.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gill Jr. and Dianne of Sherman; Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Waldrop and Betty of Pottshoro; Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith and David, Cherokee; Harry Krennek, Elgin; Jack Walton, Baytown; Tommy Sikes, Bangs; Dixie Wilbanks, Ballinger, and Ida Teague, Sherman.

COLORFUL READING
SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Many San Quentin prisoners may learn to read by use of colors.

Charles, Reinhart, Sonoma State College teacher, and Stanford University professors developed a system using colors to represent vowel sounds.

Rhinehart said the system enabled a non reader to identify a sound with a color and the confusion of several sounds for the same letter was avoided.

Messinger Home Demonstration Club Hears Food Talk

The Messinger Home Demonstration Club met Friday, June 28, at 2:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. E. M. Jack for the final meeting of the summer.

Two Walcott 4-H girls gave the program on baking. Barbara Brown demonstrated drop biscuits and Marnel Jack explained rolls. Then there was a round table discussion on frozen foods.

Present were Mesdames N. A. Brown, G. E. Pinkerton, H. D. Buse, Butrom Jack, W. C. Beene, Miss Barbara Brown, Miss Marnel Jack and the hostess, Mrs. E. M. Jack.

ON THEIR 60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin Edelman were honored with the presence of their six children, their husbands and wives, 12 of their 15 grandchildren, and six of their nine great-grandchildren. Their wedding portrait is on the wall behind them. (Staff Photo)

Edelmans Celebrate Sixtieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin Edelman celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last weekend in their home at 209 Fuller Street. Their six children and their families, including 12 of their 15 grandchildren and six of their nine great-grandchildren, were present to honor the couple on this occasion.

James Milton Edelman and Cora Belle Davenport were married on June 28, 1903, in Milam County while sitting in a buggy under a pecan tree in front of the home of the Methodist minister. After two years they moved to Lampasas and their six children graduated from high school. In 1945 they bought a ranch near House,

N. M., and then moved to Hereford in 1950.

An open house attended by many relatives and friends marked the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Edelman's 50th anniversary. At the time the Edelmans had no great-grandchildren, but their first was born July 1 of that week.

The Edelman sons and their families who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edelman and Becky, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Edelman, Friona; Mr. and Mrs. Grady E. Edelman of Mulshoe and their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Callam, Edwin and Phyllis of Post, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Edelman, Billy and Judy of Friona.

Daughters and their families who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Finis Cannon of Elida, N. M., and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Quenten Cannon, Dennis and Stephanie; Mr. and Mrs.

Giants Blast Past Yanks 7-3

A three-run homer in the fifth inning helped give the Giants a 7-3 win over the Yankees in Little League Park Tuesday night.

The Yankees put a runner on third base in the first on a walk and two passed balls, but he didn't score. The Giants picked up three runs in the first on a walk, an error, a single and a double by Lonny Coffey.

In the top of the third, the Yankees narrowed it by getting two runs on a fielder's choice, two errors, a walk and four passed balls.

But the Giants used a pair of doubles by Russell Phillips and Coffey, to move ahead a bit more, 4-2. Only a double play by the Yankees kept more than one run from coming in. The Play went from Ricky Adams at short to Tom McGowen at first and then to David Huckert at third.

In the fifth, the Yankees again got within one run as Huckert, singled and scored on a walk and an error.

But the Giants still had power to spare. In the last of the fifth, they turned it on. An error and a fielder's choice put two runners on and two out when Sid Shaw blasted one over the fence for a three-run homer.

Shaw also was the winning pitcher as he gave up two runs on no hits in three innings. He also walked two and struck out six. Jack Meredith came on in relief and gave up just one run on two hits, walked one and struck out four.

Jim Rakestraw was charged with the loss as he went all the way for the Yankees. He gave up seven runs on five hits, walked three and struck out four.

Lonny Coffey was the top hitter of the night with two doubles in three times up. Russell Phillips got a single and a double in three attempts. In one minor league game, the Cardinals made a valiant effort to knock off the undefeated Giants, but saw the effort fail as the Giants won 12-6.

The Cards scored one run in the first inning, another in the second and held a 2-0 lead going into the bottom of the third. The Giants tied the score at 2-2 then.

In the top of the fourth, the Cardinals picked up three more runs. But the Giants tallied five times in the fourth and five more in the fifth. They closed out the Cards in the fifth and allowed them one run in the sixth.

Lynn Martin pitched for the victory, going all the way. Johnny West, Dana Rush and Andy Scott hurled for the Cardinals.

The other game was halted after three innings in protest to a disputed call at home plate. The Orioles were called off the field as they trailed 5-3 halfway through the third inning. The Pirates were leading the game at that point on the strength of two runs in the first and six in the second.

Cultural Club Hears Program On Tornadoes

A program on tornadoes and protection from such storms was presented recently to members of the Cultural Home Demonstration Club.

Guest speaker was Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent. She told the group that tornado warnings had been given as early as 1870.

"Tornadoes travel at an angle," she said, with the peak season for such storms in May and June, primarily between 4-7 p. m. The area east of the Rocky Mountains is more likely to have tornadoes than the western states.

She said that there was no universal protection from tornadoes, but that storm cellars and underground excavations offered the best protection. Such a shelter should be equipped with an air vent to allow for pressure equalization. It should be stocked with food, water, tools and be built with a door fastened with a chain.

During the business meeting, at which Mrs. Grady Parsons presided, it was decided that the club would hold a rummage sale on Saturday, July 13, on West Highway 60.

A reading, "No House is Ever Empty" by J. J. Metcalf, was given by Mrs. Lee Olson.

The hostess, Mrs. Earl DeHart, served refreshments to the following members and guests: Mesdames Louie Olson, Grady Parsons, J. J. Gandy, George Parker, Perry Houser, Ira Scott, J. D. Love, Argen Draper and Mrs. Joe Johnson and daughters.

ON HONOR ROLL

Linda Hair of Hereford qualified for a place on the honor roll at Hardin - Simmons University during the 1963 spring semester. Miss Hair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hair, 209 Star, received her Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education during spring commencement. She is a graduate of Hereford High School, where she was valedictorian, and maintained a grade point average above 3.58 in order to qualify for the honor roll.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." How can this basic premise of American ideals (taken from the Declaration of Independence) be construed as the foundation of "Communist inspired crusades"? Can you honestly say that Communism is inspiring the American Negro to demand the rights he is due because of his human dignity? I rather believe that it is the true American ideals that thus inspires our fellow Americans.

Your editorial, "All Negroes Not Radicals", was completely prejudiced and inaccurate. You advocate that the American Negro be kept in his servitude; to "earn their daily bread and continue to demand respect" from the depths of abject poverty.

America is confronted with a grave moral crisis concerning all minority groups. We shouldn't be forced to give to any of our fellow Americans their rights. America must act like the nation of freedom it claims to be.

Sincerely yours,
Drew Kershen

Whites Beat Reds 8-7 In A Thriller

In one of the most interesting games of the season, the White Sox nudged the Red Sox 8-7 at Pony League Park Thursday night.

The White Sox picked up two runs in the last of the second. Charles Stone opened with a double, followed by two singles and a sacrifice bunt that failed to get anyone.

In the top of the third, the Reds went in front as they got three runs on three walks and two singles. That was the inning that saw the league leaders make their second double play of the season as Robert Wagner took a ground ball, touched third and threw to first to Gary Story in time to get the runner. They had gotten their first twin killing in the first from Gene Duvall to Story.

That heartened the White Sox, who regained the lead with three runs in the third inning on two singles, a double by Jimmy Allison and a triple by Wagner.

But the Red Sox came right back to tie the score 5-5, in the top of the fourth on two singles and a double by Jimmy Fowlkes.

The White Sox again took the lead as they came to bat in the fourth on doubles by Larry Brown and Allison. Wagner hit a lead-off homer in the fifth for the White Sox to put them in front 7-5.

In the sixth, the Red Sox got one run back with a walk and two singles.

Final run for the White Sox came in the last of the sixth on a single, a sacrifice bunt and a double by Gene Duvall.

The Reds made a determined effort in the seventh, but could push in just one run on a walk, a single and an error.

Ricky Grubbs went four innings and got credit for the victory. He allowed five runs on six hits, walked six and struck out three. Ren Lee went two and two-thirds innings. He allowed two runs on three hits, walked five and struck out one. Ronny Houston came in with two out and the bases loaded and got the hitter to ground out to preserve the victory.

Ray Martinez went all the way for the Red Sox. He allowed eight runs on 13 hits, walked none, and struck out five.

Brown, Duvall, Allison and Wagner each got two hits for the winners. Fowlkes pounded out a double and two singles in five times up for the Red Sox.

If Poll Tax Is Abolished, Another Tax Seems Likely

The AFL-CIO has recently called for a speedy gearing up of a drive for the repeal of poll taxes as a requirement for voting, warning that since the first amendment was submitted in 1879, only 11 controversial proposals have been adopted in off-election years.

Due to this pressure, plus that exerted

When Sales Pitch Is Made At Door Give Your Help

A story in Thursday's Brand points up a factor, often overlooked in Hereford. There is probably less house-to-house solicitation in Hereford than any town of comparable size in the United States.

Using a combination of tight city licensing procedures and alert police work, peddlers in the residential areas are infrequent. In fact, many new residents have commented upon how seldom their doorbell is rung by a salesman.

This is no accident. The city regulations are quite strict on peddlers or salesmen. Before a license is granted, the company or product must be proved reputable and a bond must be posted by the company or organization. This entails a waiting period of two or three days between the time of the application and the issuance of a license. The waiting period itself discourages the fly-by-night operators who like to hit a town, make a killing and then move on before complaints start flooding in.

However, there is one aspect that is usually overlooked. While the city office is responsible for issuing the license and the police for enforcing it, neither group can be in all places at once.

Occasionally, some salesman or team of salesmen manages to hit town and get away before either the city or the police is notified.

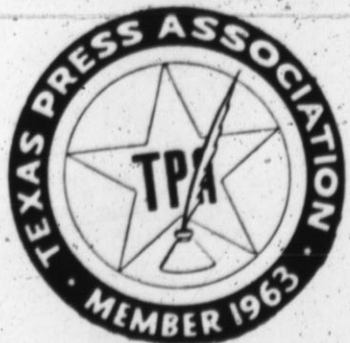

So the ultimate responsibility must rest with the individual resident. Police recommend that residents ask to see the permit to sell door-to-door when a salesman calls. If he has such a permit, he will be happy to show it. If he doesn't have one, the resident should turn the salesman away, then immediately report a physical description, type of transportation and other information to police.

This is what happened last week. It resulted in the arrest of two salesmen who had failed to obtain licenses. They were employed by reputable companies selling legitimate products at a fair price. But they had failed to comply with the law and, as a result, forfeited cash bonds for their oversight. Their arrest followed a citizen's call to police.

Hereford is fortunate not to be overrun by peddlers and itinerant salesmen. But it can continue only with the complete cooperation of its residents. If you resent being annoyed by peddlers, pressured by fast-talking salesmen or interrupted by vendors, make it a habit to check their credentials and report them if they don't have a proper license.

from many people who have long fought against the principle of the poll tax, the fee will almost certainly be abolished this year.

We think it's a mistake.

The revenue derived from the poll tax ($1.75 per person) is used to defray the cost of the general election; $1.50 going to the state and 25 cents remaining within the county. This cost, when and if the poll tax is abolished, will have to come from other sources. Perhaps a new tax will be levied to off-set this loss of revenue.

Personally, we think that $1.75 is not too high a price to pay for the privilege of voting, nor do we believe that this tax has prohibited, or will prohibit anyone from voting. We do feel however, that the paying of a poll tax makes the voter a little more conscious of his or her obligation to the people of this state, aware of his obligation to think out the issues, before him and to cast his ballot carefully; to cast it for the candidate or candidates according to the dictates of his own conscience rather than that of a political boss. Certainly, it makes it more difficult for special groups to gain control of large blocs of votes; a situation that could well be facing the citizens of this county before many more years have passed.

What then, is your vote really worth? What would a free vote be worth to the people of Russia, or Hungary or even Cuba? Can we measure the value of our vote by dollars and cents? We don't believe so. We believe a vote is worth more, much more, than money, and we believe that the people who are most interested in the causes of better government would pay more than the measly $1.75 to insure their right to a free, un molested vote.

Nothing worthwhile is really free and most of all, the so-called "free" vote.

Legislature Is Feathering Nest

It is highly unlikely that the people of Texas had any thought of making membership in the Legislature a full-time job when they approved a constitutional amendment in 1960 to pay legislators $4,800 a year. It is still farther from the realm of possibility that those who voted for the amendment had even the remotest idea that they were opening the way to payment of pensions to the legislators.

Service in the Legislature is supposed to be a part-time job. That is evidenced by the fact that until the 1960 amendment was adopted the legislators were paid on a per diem basis only for the time the Legislature was in session. Legislative service, moreover, is not looked upon as a life-long job. Rotation in office—the periodic changing of representatives and the state senators—long has been a democratic principle which is not invalidated by the fact that some legislators manage to cling to office over many, many years.

Temporary, part-time jobs are not usually thought of as being pensionable. Yet the members of the State Legislature, given an inch, have taken a mile by voting themselves generous pensions at taxpayers' expense for relatively short terms of service. Under the benefits the legislators voted themselves, any member who serves for eight years or more will receive a pension at age 60 of $10 a month for each year of service.

That makes it a cinch that virtually all future members of the Senate—where the pension scheme originated—will be able to qualify to receive this largesse from the taxpayers. For the two-term tradition also is strong in Texas, and a senator has only to stay in office for two four year terms to qualify.

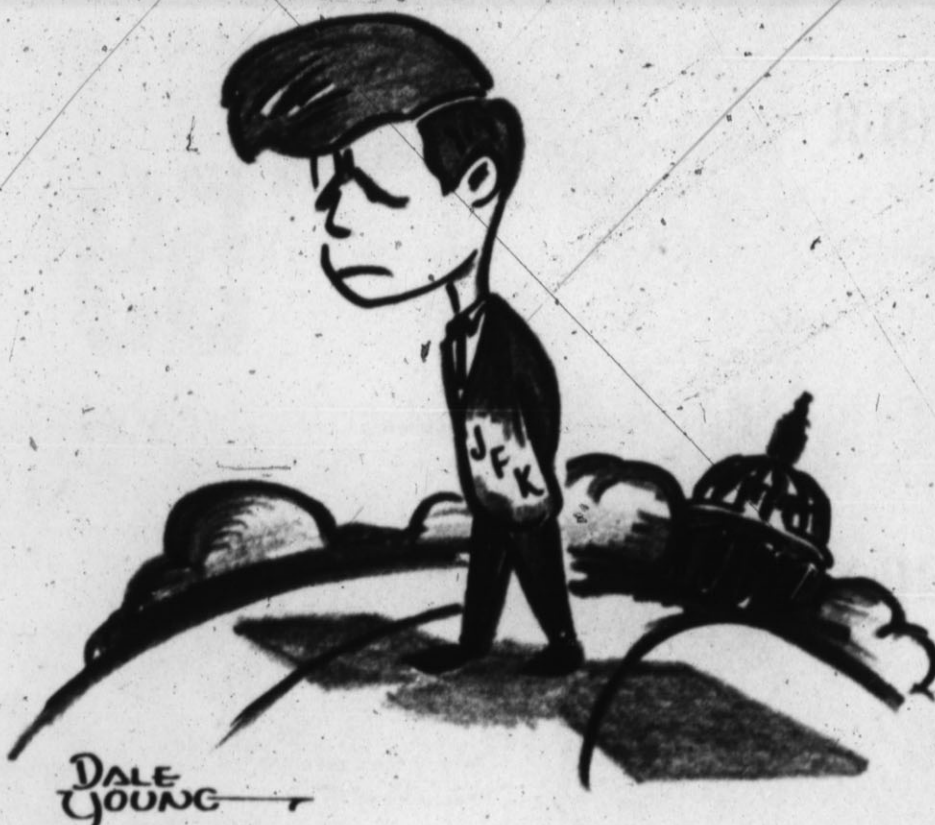

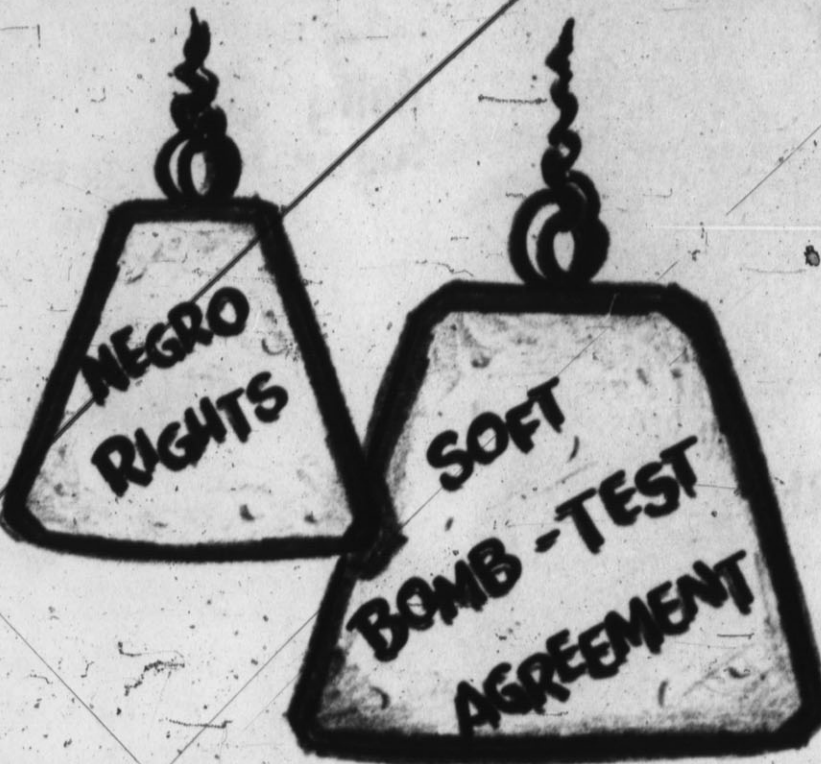

Already qualified are six senators whose service ended when this year's regular session of the Legislature began. By a quirk of language in the legislation, these senators are covered and will receive pensions ranging from $100 to $260 a month. And, as Star-Telegram Austin Correspondent Sam Kinch pointed out on this page recently, they stand to receive a handsome return on an investment of only $20—one month's payment into the pension fund.

The analogy with congressional pensions, which some attempt to make, is valid: Congressmen spend the greater part of each year in session. Most of them work at their congressional jobs year 'round. Many of them have no other occupation.

The legislative pension bill smacked of "sneak" legislation. A Senate amendment included legislative pensions in a House bill to raise the ceiling on contributions to the fund for regular state employees. When it returned to the House the changes were only slightly explained and the legislative pension provision was glossed over. When the House became aware of what it had done, it tried to recall the bill from the governor's desk but the Senate failed to go along.

Thus a bill passed somewhat furtively and launching the state on an expensive and doubtful program becomes law with the governor's unaccountable signature. We predict that the Legislature will come to rue its passage. —Fr. Worth Star Telegram

Urge Use Of Playa Lake Water When Available

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District is urging irrigators to take advantage of the water that fills the many wet-weather lakes which dot the Plains.

Most of the lakes are brim-full with rainfall runoff which will largely evaporate unless utilized in growing a crop. With the days becoming extremely hot, many farmers are cranking up their wells and have begun irrigating.

A spokesman for the Water District says, "The best way that we know to conserve ground water is to use lake water as a substitute. In fact, if a fellow has a lake filled with water on his farm and does not put it to work, he is missing a real bet. That's the cheapest water that he can use, and probably the best. You know, it is considerably warmer than ground water and when used should result in less shock to the growing plants."

Tom McFarland, Manager of the High Plains Water District, stated that he had even heard one farmer say that the lake water furnished an amount of "frog-a-lizer" to his crop that is beneficial. The "frog-a-lizer" that he referred to was the tad-poles and other organisms that live in the lake water.

McFarland continued by saying that he was not sure about the value of the "frog-a-lizer" to a man's crop, but that by pumping lake water in lieu of ground water, everyone would benefit. He stated, "The past few weeks we've noticed that several cases of encephalitis have been reported throughout the southern High Plains. The health authorities have told us that certain types of mosquitoes are carriers of the disease and can transmit it to a human being by biting him. One of our major breeding places for mosquitoes is in the wet-weather lakes."

"This is just one more reason for us and everyone else to encourage the use of lake water."

W. L. "Bill" Broadhurst, Water District Chief Hydrologist, made this observation concerning the use of lake water. "Perhaps it's not commonly known, but if rainfall runoff that collects in the playa lakes is not pumped out and used, the greater part will be lost to evaporation. We figure that about 90 percent of the lake water will evaporate directly into the atmosphere or be taken up by weeds which abound in and around most playas. The water that is saved is that small quantity which percolates through the lake bottom to the underlying ground water table."

McFarland summed up by saying, "When all is said, it's just good business to use lake water and leave the ground water for some future date when there is no lake water available to use."

Domestic Science And Manual Training Set

A petition is being circulated to raise a special fund for the purpose of installing and maintaining for the first year the domestic science and manual training in the high school. It is proposed to raise $1,000 and then to ask the State for the same amount, which under the present law, can be obtained. This will give $1,000 for the school. To meet the demands of the patrons of the Hereford High School, and in order to place our school on an equal footing with other progressive schools of Texas, we, the Board of Trustees of the Hereford High School, have unanimously agreed to add Domestic Science and Manual Training to our course of study. Further, in order to receive the donation of $1,000 from the State of Texas, as per their offer, the same to be used in installing and equipping Domestic Science and Manual Training, we, the Board, advise the raising of $1,000 (an amount to equal that donated by the state) in the following manner: First, raise what we can by popular subscription, the balance to be paid out of the available school fund.

40 YEARS AGO

The recent rains have been abundant and the weeds are awful. They seem to be ranker than ever before. They are obnoxious in every way. They are unsanitary. Mosquitoes breed under them and in this way constitute a menace to health. They detract from the general neat and pleasing appearance of the town and provoke adverse criticism and sneering remarks from visitors. Some work and a little money will rid us of these pests. Concerted effort on the part of the citizens of this community will work wonders and accomplish the desired results. The ordinances make it the duty of property owners to cut the weeds from their premises and the abutting streets and alleys. Other cities vigorously enforce such ordinances. Why should not we? I therefore suggest and request that all property owners and all tenants immediately cut the weeds from their premises and streets and alleys. If those living in every block would organize and work together in this enterprise, the town could be cleared of these unsightly weeds in a short time. Yours for a weedless town, W. M. Knight, Mayor.

AIRPLANE MYSTERY UNVEILED

For two days last week mystery shrouded happenings behind an overturned airplane at the Olton Air Strip. Not even its owner knew a strong, Thursday night wind had flipped it over, crumpling a wing. Eldon Hall, president of Idaho's Hallway Manufacturing Company, flew the plane into Olton about noon Wednesday. He staked it down and went to talk potato business with Jim Williams. When Hall roused up Saturday to fly back to his Idaho Falls home, he discovered he had a wrecked plane. He removed the radio and made plans to store the wings. What Hall doesn't know is that his Piper Cruiser has burned. It happened sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning. No one knows how the fire started but the strong wind Sunday night could have caused the battery to short out.

CITY COUNCIL APPROVES BI-RACIAL COMMITTEE

The Levelland City Council had decided to form a bi-racial committee of Negro and white residents to assist in solving race relation problems which may arise in the city. The decision to set up the committee, which probably will include five or six whites and a like number of Negroes, came in Monday night's council meeting. It was spurred by a suggestion from L. G. Griffin, Carver School principal, who appeared at the session with a group of Carver School boys who have sought admission to the city swimming pool.

CITIZENS ASK TO RATION WATER

A volunteer rationing of water by Quannah residents to help the critical water shortage was called for today by Mayor Sam Breedlove. Four weeks of dry weather coupled with a hot June sun has caused Quannah to face a critical water shortage for the second time in less than a year. At the peak of the shortage over the weekend, water pressure dropped to almost nil as many residents were without sufficient water to operate laundry equipment or even flush commodes. Some upstairs apartments and some homes on smaller lines were pressed to get water for most routine needs. Mayor Breedlove assured citizens that the water shortage is real and that the city is pumping every well at its full capacity.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm reports on a new phase of unrest in the country, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I knew there was unrest in all sections of the nation, but I didn't know how deep and how far it had gone until I read a small item in a newspaper last night which a neighbor had wrapped some vegetables in he'd brought me, a favor I'll return if anything ever volunteers to grow in my garden. You can't tell, something might come up on its own.

According to it, a judge in some state, I forget which, fined a lawyer $100 for being 15 minutes late to court.

This is revolutionary. It strikes at the heart of the whole system of jurisprudence. Everything has exploded this summer.

I had thought that if there was any right imbedded in the American system which was completely beyond challenge and incapable of ever being changed, it was the right of a lawyer to never be ready when court opens.

I had thought that the Constitution itself set forth the fundamental principle of law that the more jurors and the more witnesses called on a given case and the more time the lawyers had to prepare, the more likely some lawyer is to argue he's not quite ready and the case should be held over till the next term of court or till next Monday at least or if he can't do any better till 2:30 this afternoon instead of 9 this morning.

But for a judge to fly in the face of history and fine a lawyer $100 for being 15 minutes late in arriving at what likely could be a postponement anyway, only illustrates how deep-running the feeling of revolt and overthrow of customs has become. Enforced in all the courts of the land, it could help reduce the national debt.

I tell you, if President Kennedy hears of this, he'll be back at his desk after his European trip realizing this county is seething with more change than he had suspected.

You can fine a prospective juror if he's not sitting in court and sitting and sitting when the time comes to start a case, and so contrary to tradition that it's practically preposterous.

Believe me, I'll be glad when this summer is over and things can level off.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK
Herbert Boysen was young, handsome, heroic... and idealistic. The first three traits were fine, but the last was a detriment to a young German officer during World War II.

He thought his duty in Athens would be a relief after the rigors of battle on the Eastern front. But the sudden way all this changed forms the gripping story for Rise Up in Anger. The novel was written by Stefan Olivier, published originally in German and now translated by Sigrid Rock and Michael Roloff.

The book is a new fiction choice from the Deaf Smith County Library.

Boysen found himself "framed" on a charge of collaboration with the partisans, thrown into jail and then transferred back to Germany. Without a trial, he is confined in one of the dreaded KZ camps, reserved for criminals, religious objectors, Jews and other enemies of the homeland.

He suffers every indignity that his SS Troop captors can devise, learning to survive by sheer cunning and courage. In order to escape his tormentors, and to save his life if he can, he volunteers for a criminal labor battalion and returns to battle against the Russians.

In a matter of hours, the fight is over and he is captured. It is September, 1949, before he is released from the mines of Siberia, where he was sent by the Russians.

He finds his mother dead, his father an old man. After an attempt at school, he marries and joins a struggling construction firm.

In a few years, Herbert Boysen is wealthy. But he still seeks revenge for those who had betrayed him. The statute of limitations has run out, but that doesn't keep him from tricking one of the group into giving him information he can use against the others.

Boysen's revenge is both ingenious and diabolical. But in tracking down his enemies, he discovers much about the national conscience of the defeated Germans.

Rise Up in Anger is well done by Stefan Olivier. The translation, for the most part, is smooth and unobtrusive. The book isn't particularly pleasant to read, but neither does it dwell upon the sordid and degrading parts. It is honest and factual. But, most important, the plot is a good one and the story is interesting.

Vows Exchanged In Amarillo By Miss Marilyn Legg And Ed Ransom

Miss Marilyn Joan Legg and Ed Ransom were married the afternoon of June 30 in the First Baptist Church of Amarillo. The double ring ceremony was read by Dr. Winifred Moore as the couple knelt before an archway flanked by palms, greenery, white gladioli, and wedding candles.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tandy Legg, Hereford, is a graduate of Hereford High School and Hardin-Simmons University. She received her master's degree from West Texas State University and has been teaching at Margaret Wills Elementary School in Amarillo for the past five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett J. Ransom of Amarillo are the parents of the bridegroom. He attended Amarillo College and is the manager of Tri-State Fence Company.

I Corinthians 13, the "love chapter," was read by Berlin-Vance. Musical selections included: "Wither Thou Goest" and "Walk Hand in Hand" with Mrs. Jewell Woodward at the organ and Mrs. Bill Formby, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk bouquet taffeta. The bodice was fashioned of Chantilly lace enhanced with seed pearls, semi-scooped neck, and long tapered sleeves. Her full skirt, which featured a front lace panel, lace applique, and pearls, extended into a full chapel train. At the back of the waist there was a double puff of bouquet taffeta with lace applique and pearls.

Her fingertip veil of scalloped illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls. With her white Bible she carried a bouquet of white orchids and trailing Stephanotis.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Marlene Legg. Bridesmaids were the groom's sister, Miss Sue Ellen Ransom, and the bride's roommate, Miss Bernye Bob Woodward of Amarillo. Their dresses were of lemon yellow brocade satin fashioned in princess style with off the shoulder necklines and belted skirts. Their hats were halos of yellow flowers covered with scalloped illusion. Each carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Serving his brother as best man was Bruce Ransom. Groomsmen were Bill Ransom, brother of the groom, and Bill Legg, brother of the bride. Tim Ransom, Elo Myers of Canyon, and Bill Liles were ushers.

An antique gold Italian silk linen dress and beige accessories were worn by the bride's mother. The groom's mother chose a turquoise Italian silk linen dress with matching hat and black accessories. Each wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berlin-Vance, 6102 Gainsborough, Amarillo. Guests were registered by Miss Sybil Todd of Amarillo. Assisting with the reception were the teachers of Margaret Wills School.

White lace over yellow covered the table, which was centered with a yellow and white arrangement of flowers. Mrs. Felix Pierce of Canyon, and Miss Pauline Nunn of Amarillo served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with cymbidium orchids, and other refreshments.

AN INVESTIGATING officer of the Highway Patrol talks with two witnesses to a head-on crash 7.7 miles south of Hereford Sunday afternoon. Five persons were in each of the two cars, with all of them treated for injuries at Deaf Smith County Hospital. The 1959 vehicle in the foreground was headed in the other direction when it went out of control and crashed head-on into the 1953 car in the background. (Staff Photo)

For the wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, Mrs. Ransom wore an oyster white Italian silk suit with black accessories. After their return, they will be at home at 2024 Bonham, Amarillo.

All of Mrs. Ransom's former school children were invited to the wedding. There were many friends and relatives from Canyon, Summerfield, and Hereford present.

Other out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wells and family of Plains, Kan.; Mrs. L. P. Shaw, Santa Anna, Cal.; Mrs. John Winkler and family, Baton Rouge, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenmore, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Alta Krause, Plains, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batman, Meade, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Winchester, Munday; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Legg and family, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Legg, Afton; Mrs. Francis Dennis, Blanchard, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Ransom, Claude;

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ransom, family, Roswell, N. M., and Jerome Claude; Mrs. Al Woodburn, and Iarn-Hacker, Clovis, N. M.
