Jury selection continues in Ramirez trial

Jury selection was scheduled to resume at 1 p.m. today at the Randall County Courthouse in Canyon in the murder trial of Paul Ramirez.

Ramirez, a former Hereford police officer and Potter county sheriff's deputy, is accused of murder in the Nov. 22, 1987 shooting death of his 44-year-old wife, Mary.

Randall County officials said several threats had been made against Ramirez several months ago, hence the tight security.

Mary Ramirez died of multiple gunshot wounds to the face and upper body. She was found dead in her car at a roadside park about three miles west of Umbarger, just east of the Deaf Smith County line.

A passing motorist notified authorities that he saw a man waving a gun near the car. When authorities arrived, they found Mrs. Ramirez.

Later that day, Ramirez was apprehended following a high-speed chase along the Canyon E-Way. Murder charges were filed against him on the following day.

Ten jurors were chosen Monday under tight security in the courtroom. 47th State District Judge David Gleason ordered that the public be excluded from court proceedings until a full jury was seated, and potential jurors passed through a metal detector before entering the courtroom.

Phillips, Bivins to debate tonight

31st District state senate candidates Mel Phillips and Teel Bivins will face off in a one-hour debate at 9 p.m. today on KACV-TV (Channel 2, Hereford Cablevision Channel 5).

The debate is co-sponsored by KACV, the Panhandle's Public Broadcasting System station at Amarillo College, and the League of Women Voters. The debate will focus on budget, taxation, and state-supported programs.

The candidates will be questioned by a panel including Susan Coleman of the League of Women Voters; Cathy Martindale, assistant managing editor of the Amarillo Globe-News; Steve Ray, editor of the Borger News Herald; and Bill Ellis, publisher of the Friona Star.

"This program is intended to provide the public with an in-depth look at the issues involved in the race," said Joyce Herring, KACV-TV director of broadcasting. "The format is designed to provide complete neutrality to both candidates. We hope the program serves as a public service for the voters of this area."

"The Amarillo League of Women Voters feels the upcoming state senate race is crucial," said League spokesman Chris Bell. "We encourage voters to view the debate, then vote for the candidate of their choice."

Canadian grows greatest gourd

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Nova Scotia gourd grower pounded the competition with a super-heavyweight pumpkin that tipped the scales at a near-record 633½ pounds — an international victory he says came without steroids.

Keith Chapel, 56, gleefully denied a mischievous suggestion that he may have used anabolic steroids on his entry to win Monday's International Pumpkin Association World Weigh-Off.

"Oh, no!" said Chapel, responding to the allegation.

The question came in light of drug scandals that plagued the Summer Olympics at Seoul, including the case of Canadian sprinter Ben Johnson, who was stripped of his gold medal when officials found he'd used the banned drug that bolsters muscle building but has many harmful side effects.

His entry, which competed with plump pumpkins from the United States, England and Japan, won him $2,000 and a trip to San Francisco.

Chapel, a schoolteacher when he's not growing pumpkins, spoke over a loudspeaker during an international conference call from Canada heard on the steps of San Francisco City Hall.

Japan's Shoji Sijrai wasn't so lucky. His 513-pound pumpkin broke into pieces on its way to the scale. The international contest accepted the 313-pound entry from Hiroshi Sawa, instead.

Perez seeks help

New tax assessor-collector Margaret Perez asked Deaf Smith County commissioners for more help in her overloaded office.

County waits for contract on abatement

By ANDREA HOOTEN
Staff Writer

Deaf Smith County commissioners learned Monday that the county can't give Whiteface Ford a tax abatement until the county signs a contract with the business.

Johnny Latham, county commissioner and chairman of the Hereford Area Tax Abatement Board, said the county's contract will spell out the terms of the tax abatement and will include a recapture clause.

"This clause is there just in case Whiteface Ford defaults on the conditions of the tax abatement," said Latham. "If they did default, they'd have to come back and pay the taxes."

The Hereford Area Tax Abatement Board voted last Thursday to offer Whiteface Ford a 100 percent tax abatement for two years on the dealership's new building at U.S. Highway 385 and 15th Street.

The city and school will have to sign a similar contract with the business.

The commissioners declined a request for a part-time clerk in the tax assessor-collector's office because of this year's tight budget.

Margaret Perez, the new tax assessor-collector who replaced Nell Miller on Sept. 30, asked for the extra help because "no one has taken any time off because of the work load. We need to have a person at least three-fourths of the time. We have people that have jobs that come in here (to do business) and they can't afford to wait 10, 15 or 30 minutes."

The office has $12,215.76 budgeted for extra help, but the commissioners voted to wait three months to see if the office could operate without the added help.

"I think we all know where we're headed on this new budget and we're gonna have to cut somewhere. I'd like to see if we can go a while without any help and see if it works," said Latham.

Other action by the commissioners included:

- Adoption of a plan of electronically selecting jurors;
- Approval of a $350 state bond for the tax assessor-collector's office;
- A vote to transfer $50,000 of the county's sales tax revenue to the general fund to cover the general fund's $18,000 deficit incurred after bills were paid.

'88 UW campaign at 40%

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

The 1988 campaign of the United Way of Deaf Smith County is practically even with the 1987 campaign, and officials are hoping the current campaign will see a similar push over the top this year.

The 1988 campaign has raised $49,365.60 through Monday's weekly report luncheon. That is 40 percent of the $123,500 goal.

"Last year we had a big push at the end," said UWDSC President Ladean Henry. "We're even right now with last year, but we have 69 new contributors who have never given to the United Way before, and they are to be congratulated."

The biggest increase in the past week came in the Metro Division, chaired by Donna West. The division almost doubled its total, going from $6,704 to $12,065. The division's goal, with many pledges still out, is $18,000.

The Agriculture Division, led by Susan Robbins and Judy Williams, got a boost this week when the Deaf Smith County Farmers Union, which has become inactive, donated the remaining money in its treasury to the UW campaign.

The ag division has received $2,811. Its goal is $4,500, and includes 27 new accounts.

"The ag division proves one thing: If you work all of your accounts and pursue new ones, you are going to get your dollars," said UWDSC executive Wayne Amstutz. "The key to any campaign is working your assigned accounts, having division chairmen follow up on their volunteers, and let us know if they need help."

Another sizeable increase came in the Whiteface East Division chaired by Ruben Gutierrez. That division rose from $810 last week to $1,497 at Monday's report meeting.

Other divisions, their chairmen, goals, and amount received, include:

- Corporate Gifts, James Hull, $4,165, goal of $6,500;
- Golden Age, Helen Sprinks and Homer Garrison, $6,577, goal of $9,000;
- Major Gifts, Roger Eades, goal of $40,000, received $10,509;
- Pacesetters, Wanda Cobb and Doris Taylor, $6,280, goal of $24,000;
- Professional, Helen Langley, $2,130, goal of $8,000;
- Special Gifts, Bill Bankston, $2,490, goal of $7,000.

Whiteface West, Donna Gooch and Jean Patty, received $570 with most of the cards to be picked up this week, goal of $3,000.

Any business or individual that has not received their UWDSC cards should contact their division chairman or the UWDSC office at 364-5220.

These are business who are 100 percent contributors to the 1988 campaign of the United Way of Deaf Smith County:

- George Warner Seed, Little's
- Summerfield Fertilizer
- Gilliland Agency
- Hereford Butane
- Goodin Fuels
- Tip Top Oil Co.
- Beli Agency
- Southwestern Public Service
- Dr. Milton Adams

Texas taxpayers are getting short-changed on money sent to Washington to fund federal grants-in-aid to state and local governments. Consider this: Texas contributed $6.8 billion in 1987 and got back $4.8 billion. Many of our dollars are going to assist people in other states.

The Tax Foundation, a Washington-based governmental research organization, released a report that lists Texas as one of the top 10 losers. In fact, the report showed only one state—Florida—getting a worse return.

Waldo Baxter, one of our friends over at Hereford State Bank, recently had to make a business trip to Las Vegas. Waldo admits to spending some time in a hotel casino, but he claims to spend most of his time just watching people.

It was at a casino, according to one of Waldo's friends, that a lovely young lady passed by Baxter and winked at him. A few steps past, she turned and handed him a note which read: "I'll do anything for $200!"

Waldo couldn't resist. "You're not kidding, are you?"

"I really mean it," she said as those silky eyelashes rose a trifle.

Baxter couldn't contain his smile any longer. He beamed at his good luck. "How soon can you paint my house?" he asked.

Carter wins contest

Laura Carter of Hereford missed just four games and is the winner of last week's Hereford Brand Football Contest. Carter will receive $25 in Hereford Bucks.

Larry Watts placed second and Mike Watts was third in the contest. Each missed five games, but Larry, who wins $15 in Hereford Bucks, was closest on the Hereford-Levelland tiebreaker. Mike receives $10 in Hereford Bucks for placing third.

Seventeen contestants missed six games, and 14 missed seven contests. There were 135 total entries.

This week's contest appears in today's Brand.

School board meets today

The Hereford school board will meet at 6 p.m. today at the Hereford school administration building.

The board is expected to pass a resolution naming November "I'd Rather Read Month," and will consider a career ladder policy change, sale of a school bus, and the 1988-89 graduation date.

Fair weather

Tonight will be fair with a low of 43. Winds will be light and variable.

This morning's low at KPAN was 43 after a high Monday of 72.

Homecoming parade is Friday

The annual Hereford homecoming parade will be held Friday at 3 p.m., and Hereford businesses and community groups are invited to enter the parade.

Fee for entry is $5, payable to the Hereford High School student council. Entries should be centered around a patriotic theme.

Entries should be in the HHS parking lot by 8:30 a.m. Friday. There will be no actual competition between entries, but the opening of entries will afford the community an opportunity to support the school and Hereford students.

County arrests two

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office arrested two men, ages 22 and 25, on charges of public intoxication.

Reports include livestock trespassing at Coronado Acres Subdivision in which goats were loose on a private yard, an advertisement sign worth $325 was broken on South U.S. Highway 385, a billboard was reported lost at the Country Store; a mail box was destroyed five miles south of Wildorado and aggravated assault with a motor vehicle was reported in the 1600 block of 18th Street.

TSTI registration

Late registration for truck driving and freemill and elevator technology will be Thursday at 6 p.m. in Room 122 of Hereford High School. TSTI is also accepting registrations for auto body, auto mechanics and welding classes in Hereford which will start Nov. 1. For more information, contact Bob Wallace at 364-8733.

Promises

Bush, Dukakis make pitches to working class

By DONNA CASSATA
Associated Press Writer

George Bush and Michael Dukakis appealed to working class Americans with pledges to crack down on criminals and help first-time buyers purchase homes as the two White House contenders crammed for their second and final presidential debate.

The Republican presidential nominee, hammering away at his preferred topic — crime — accused his rival of being more concerned about the fate of criminals than their victims and vowed a different approach if elected.

"I'm going to bring an attitude to the White House that has more sympathy for the victims of crime than for the criminals," Bush told an audience Monday at a Knights of Columbus hall in Trenton, N.J.

While the vice president courted votes in Trenton's Italian-American neighborhood, Dukakis traveled to a community built on the premise that affordable housing should be available to post-World War II families.

The Democratic nominee used a visit to a typical family in Levittown, N.Y., and a speech at the local high school to introduce his plan that would allow first-time buyers to use up to $10,000 of their IRAs or pension plans for a down payment.

Dukakis was meeting with Vietnam War veterans today in Cambridge, Mass., and delivering an economics speech at Tufts University in nearby Medford. Democratic vice-presidential nominee Lloyd Bentsen was campaigning in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, two key electoral states with 16 and 25 votes, respectively.

Bush was heading to Seattle where he was giving another tough-on-crime speech — white-collar, that is — to business students at Seattle University.

With the presidential debate on Thursday, barring a rainout in the National League baseball playoff series, the two candidates were flying to California to prepare for their 90-minute, prime-time confrontation.

The nationally broadcast debate will begin at 9 p.m. EDT in the Pauley Pavilion at the University of California at Los Angeles campus.

With Election Day exactly four weeks away, the latest nationwide poll showed the presidential race too close to call.

Bush leads Dukakis 50-47 percent in the ABC News-Washington Post poll conducted Wednesday through Sunday. The survey of 600 likely voters had a margin of error of plus or minus five percentage points, statistically negating the lead.

A Los Angeles Times poll released Monday found that Republican vice-presidential candidate Dan Quayle remains a drag on the GOP ticket. Bush-Quayle leads Dukakis-Bentsen 44-41 percent, but Bush alone leads his Democratic opponent 48-39 percent.

The weekend survey of 893 registered voters had a margin of error of five percentage points.

But the poll also found that Dukakis' negative rating was higher than Quayle — 45 percent to 40 percent.

Quayle, who campaigned in Michigan and Ohio, gave what he described as the "final word" on his answer to last week's debate question of what he would do if he was suddenly propelled into the presidency.

Quayle said he would make a request to address the nation and would consult with allies, but other steps would depend on the situation.

"Obviously you do different things under an assassination. The first thing you do in an assassination — I would still say a prayer for myself and the nation — but the first thing you do is you get on the phone and call the head of the CIA and see what he thinks it was," Quayle said during a question-and-answer session after an economics speech in Detroit.

Quayle said he would have "contingency plans under different situations."

The Democratic nominee on Monday also marched in the Columbus Day parade in New York City where he was joined by New York Gov. Mario Cuomo, Mayor Ed Koch and John F. Kennedy Jr.

Although he received a warm reception from the thousands who lined the streets in the traditional Italian-American event, Dukakis received some disheartening news from Il Progresso, the Italian-language newspaper.

In its Columbus Day edition, the 85,000-circulation daily endorsed the candidacy of George Bush.

Williams, Oslin win top awards

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Hank Williams Jr., the son of a music legend, and K.T. Oslin, who launched a career at age 44 and still does the chores at home, each won two Country Music Association awards.

Williams was voted entertainer of the year for the second straight year, joining Barbara Mandrell and the group Alabama as the only performers to have won it more than once. His "Born to Boogie" won top album in Monday night's presentations broadcast nationally by CBS-TV.

Oslin was voted the year's top female vocalist and won best song for her poignant "80's Ladies." The awards came just two years after she began singing country music professionally following minor singing roles on Broadway and making television commercials for items like denture products.

Randy Travis, whose album "Always & Forever" has sold 3 million copies, won No. 1 male vocalist for the second straight year at the black-tie ceremonies at the Grand Ole Opry House.

Williams, 39, whose father, Hank Williams Sr., sang country weepers like "Your Cheatin' Heart" in the early 1950s, said he performed more than two decades before he began winning awards three years ago for his rousing blend of country, rock 'n' roll and blues.

"The longer the wait, the sweeter the sugar," Williams said after Monday night's 22nd annual presentations.

"I love to entertain. When I'm on that stage I'm right at home. It's a family tradition, you know."

Oslin, 46, ended a four-year reign by Reba McEntire by winning the bullet-shaped trophy as the top female vocalist. She has become known for writing well-crafted songs from the viewpoint of a middle-aged woman and said her life is middle-class.

"I'm still going to the grocery store and picking up laundry and sweeping and raking and doing all that," she said.

"I watched this show (on television) for two years; one year I watched it crying, and another year I couldn't watch it at all," Oslin said about past career disappointments.

McEntire, a former rodeo barrel racer, won nothing this year though she has five previous CMA awards to her credit, including entertainer of the year in 1986.

US offers money for bases

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — U.S. and Filipino officials have reached tentative agreement for Washington to provide compensation worth more than $550 million a year to use its six bases here, official sources said today.

The sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity, told reporters that the two sides had nearly finished reviewing an agreement governing the bases, which are the largest U.S. garrison in southeast Asia. An accord on new compensation terms through 1991 is expected within a week.

Negotiators agreed on a basic annual compensation package of between $550 and $580 million in economic support, military assistance and commodities, mostly wheat, said the sources, who are close to the negotiations.

Filipino negotiators in Washington were bargaining for an additional loan of $100 million to purchase U.S. Treasury bonds, said the sources. The bonds would be used to pay off $200 million of the Philippines' $28 billion debt.

Three Manila newspaper said such a loan would be made, but they did not say for how much.

Economic Planning Secretary Solita Monsod told reporters that the proposed loan figure was too insignificant to even negotiate at all.

"It will be able to buy back at most $200 million, which is not worth talking about," she told reporters. "We should be talking about a $700 million buy-back scheme."

Cross-country trio posts bests at Lubbock

Three member of the Hereford girls cross-country team posted their best times of the year to finish seventh in a tough field at the Lubbock Invitational Meet held Saturday at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock.

Alina Benitez (21st, 12:57), Yvonne Padilla (29th, 13:13) and Sally Garza (44th, 13:31) posted their best times of the 1988 season as Hereford finished seventh in the 25-team field of mostly 5A schools. Hereford, Saginaw Boswell and Randall were the only Class 4A schools in the meet.

Also pacing the Hereford girls, who are ranked ninth in the state in 4A in the latest edition of Texas Track and Field News, were Lisa Zepeda (43rd, 13:31) and Denise Davila (71st, 14:08).

The Hereford boys finished 16th in the varsity boys division, paced by the eighth-place finish of Benny Carrasco (15:59).

"This is Benny's best time on the Lubbock course, which is an Olympic qualifying course," said Hereford cross-country coach Martha Emerson. "We will run our district meet here, and the Region I meet will be here. His best time on this course was last year at regional, 16:21."

"We still have two of our varsity girls out with injuries, but we should be back to seven runners by Saturday, when we run at Dumas."

Here are the results of Saturday's meet:

HHS volleyballers begin stand tonight

The Hereford High School volleyball team begins a four-game homestand tonight when it hosts Lubbock Dunbar in a District 1-4A match at 7:30 p.m. at the HHS gym.

Hereford, 13-6 on the season and 6-2 in district, will attempt to bounce back from a 15-11, 15-9 loss to league-leading Dumas on Saturday. The Whitefaces, in second place, are a game ahead of a surging Lubbock Estacado team in the conference.

"Our kids played a great match Saturday," said Hereford coach

Brenda Reeh. "It was certainly one of our best matches this year. We were aggressive from the beginning to the end. We hit hard, served well and hustled on defense."

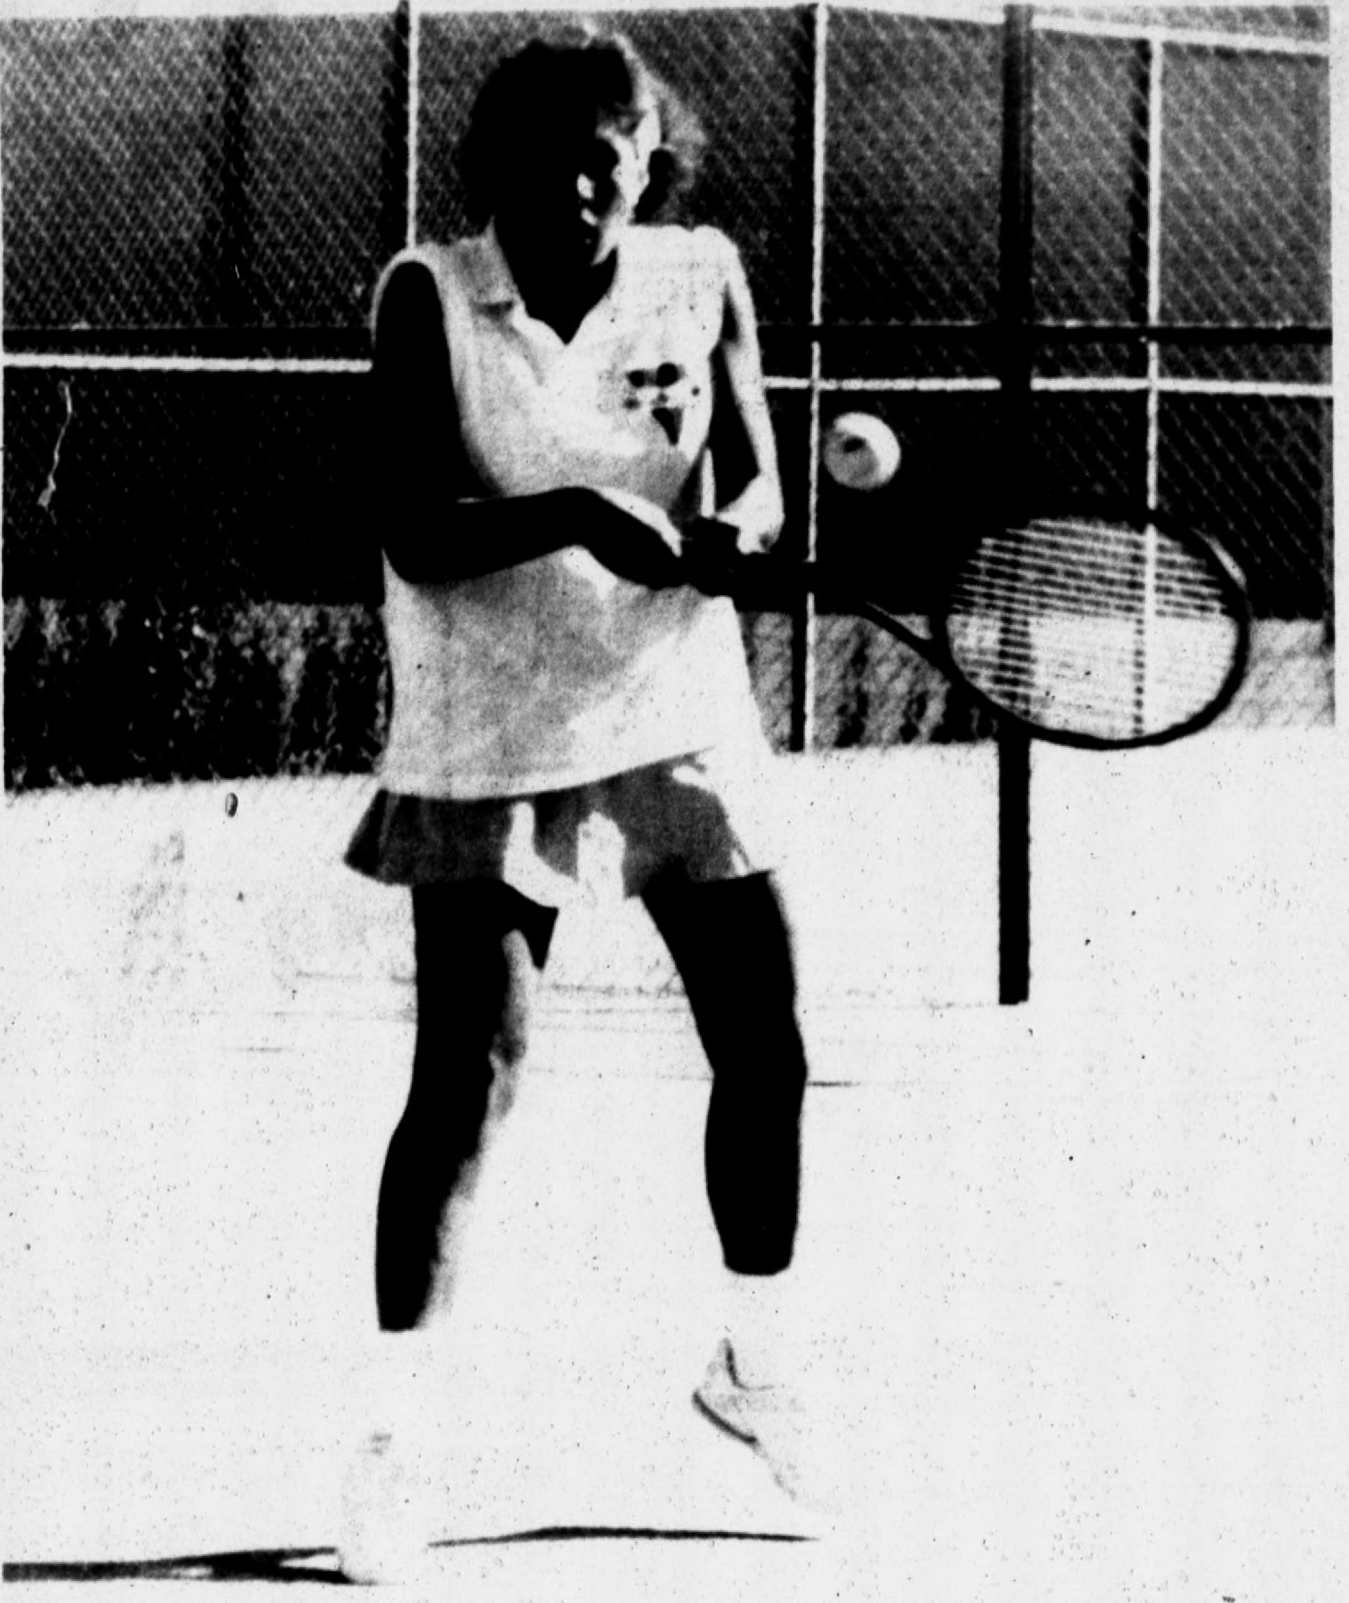

"The only area we were shaky in was our blocking, and in a match between first- and second-place teams in a district, one area can mean the difference."

"Libby Kosub played great on the net with nine kills. She has really come on strong for us in the last two matches. Jill West and Cande Robbins were also strong with six kills apiece.

"Although we didn't win, our kids certainly didn't have any reason to hang their heads. I'm proud of them. We've got to work hard these next three weeks to maintain our playoff hopes, but I think we'll get over our disappointment and rise to the occasion one match at a time."

Tonight's action begins with the junior varsity match at 6:30 p.m.

Looking for a place

Brenna Reinauer of the Hereford High School tennis team aims for a spot for her backhand return during last Saturday's match against Dumas at the HHS tennis courts. HHS maintained its undefeated team record with a 17-1 win, and will face Canyon in a non-district match today at the HHS courts.

Cunningham smashes Giants

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Randall Cunningham was a smash as a TV pitch man.

The Philadelphia Eagles quarterback sold himself and his team to the nation's pro football fans Monday night, throwing for 369 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Eagles to a 24-13 victory over the New York Giants.

"I just try to go in and play the best I can," Cunningham said. "If I go into a game thinking I'm one of the best, that just puts a lot of pressure on you."

"I guess it was seen on TV what I could do."

What the fourth-year pro did in the Eagles' first Monday night appearance since 1981 was complete 31 of 41 passes against one of the NFL's toughest defenses. And he led the Eagles, 3-3, into the thick of the NFC East race. The Eagles are tied with the Giants and Washington Redskins, one game behind the Phoenix Cardinals.

"I think it's the best I've ever played," Cunningham said. "I don't remember when I've thrown so much in a game."

The key to snapping a six-game losing streak against the Giants was to attack the defense with short passes.

"The Giants always run a two-deep coverage, and people try to beat them deep," Cunningham said. "You have to get them underneath because you won't get enough time. So we spread the ball around to everyone."

Cunningham threw to six different receivers, with tight end Keith Jackson and running back Keith Byars catching nine each. Wide receiver Cris Carter caught five.

Cunningham set the tone of the game in the second period when he made an improbable play.

With the Giants leading 3-0, the Eagles moved to a third down at the New York 5-yard line. Cunningham rolled to his right, appearing to stumble. Then he was hit by linebacker Carl Banks. Cunningham kept his feet, however, and flipped a four-yard touchdown pass to Jimmie Giles.

The Eagles led after that as a sellout crowd of 63,736 roared its appreciation of the 6-foot-4, 203-pound quarterback and his receivers.

"It amazed me," Cunningham said of the ovation.

The touchdown play amazed Banks.

"I thought I made a tackle, but I didn't," he said.

The Giants cut a 17-6 third-period deficit to 17-13 and were driving toward another score when the string ran out. Phil Simms, who passed 324 yards, put a pass on the hands of All-Pro tight end Mark Bavaro, who had already caught nine passes for 148 yards. Bavaro dropped the fourth-down pass at the Eagles' 8-yard line with 2:22 to play and Philadelphia was home free.

"They played well, but we had our chances," Giants coach Bill Parcells said.

"It was a great victory over a heck of a team, one we needed very bad," Eagles coach Buddy Ryan said.

The Giants took a 3-0 lead 8:32 into the first period on Raul Allegre's 47-yard field goal.

Then came Cunningham's pass to Giles, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Cunningham completed eight passes in the drive.

HHS tennis squad wins

The Hereford High School tennis team is now 11-0 going into a non-district match today against Canyon High School at the HHS tennis courts after defeating Dumas, 17-1, on Saturday at the HHS courts.

Today's matches are the last home matches of the season for Hereford, who will finish the regular season on Saturday in Lubbock. Hereford will face Estacado at 10 a.m. and Dunbar at 3 p.m.

McWhorter defends LGA championship

Helen Ann McWhorter successfully defended her Hereford Ladies Golf Association championship during the LGA's third annual tournament on Saturday at Pittman Municipal Golf Course.

McWhorter had a low gross of 87 to win the championship in the medal-play tourney. Dorothy Charest, with a 66, had the low net of the tournament.

After the tournament, the HLGA elected its 1989 officers. The new officers include Cindy Simons, president; Cathy Bode, vice president; Lois Jones, secretary-treasurer; Martha Jones, parliamentarian; and Yvonne Horton, reporter.

Electricity is a prize DON'T

DON'T MAKE IT A PROBLEM!

TV aerials making contact with overhead electric wires constitute a real danger for homeowners. Accidents of this nature are far too common because all such accidents can be avoided. If you are installing an aerial, steer clear of electric lines. Safe, dependable, indispensable electricity can kill if it's treated carelessly. Don't let a prize become a problem. Follow the guidelines provided by the electric cooperative.

Between the Covers

By REBECCA WALLS

V.C. Andrews returns with another in the saga of the Casteels.

Fallen Hearts sees the return of Heaven to Winherow. As Heaven begins to live her childhood dreams, she becomes a respected schoolteacher and marries Logan Stonewall, her childhood sweetheart. Their wedding trip takes them back to Farthingale Manor, and there Tony Tatterton persuades Heaven and Logan to stay, offering Logan a fabulous job and promising Heaven a share of the Tatterton wealth and privileges.

Heaven's fragile happiness begins to fade as old ghosts appear and she is faced with scandal and jealousy.

The author of Light a Penny Candle, Maeve Binchy, is back with another endearing story entitled Firefly Summer. With an unerring perception of family life Maeve tells the story of Mountfern, a small Irish village.

No one in Mountfern is expecting anything special to happen; Kate and John Ryan are working side-by-side in their small but adequate pub, "Ryan's Licensed Premises"; twins Dara and Michael race off each day to play in the ruins of the once great house at Fernscourt; farmers stand in the pub nights, and the spinster ladies gather at "Rosemarie Hair Salon" exchanging gossip. Then the American millionaire Patric O'Neill buys Fernscourt to transform it into a magnificent hotel and tourist attraction. As the hotel is built, progress comes to Mountfern as never before.

Priscilla, Elvis and Me by Michael Edwards is a love story told with honesty and passion, an intimate look at two glamorous people torn apart by a legend. Michael Edwards lived with Priscilla Beaulieu Presley for seven years. As her lover, friend and mentor, Michael helped Priscilla blossom into a woman of elegant independence.

Lisa Marie, Elvis' only child, saw Michael as a father figure as she grew from childhood to adolescence.

"Our love of Elvis brought us together, but his ghost drove us apart" says Michael. I hope this book will be of interest to the Priscilla, Elvis and Michael Edwards fans.

Other books of interest include: The Deeds of the Disturber by Elizabeth Peters. Amelia, Radcliffe and son Ramses make up the Emerson household. Radcliffe, an archaeologist of irascible temper, is known as the Father of Curses to the Egyptians. The Emerson family is caught in the intrigue of a British Museum's night watchman found dead, lying at the foot of a "haunted" mummy case with a look of horror frozen on his face. "Can Fear Kill?"

Cults that Kill by Larry Kahaner was on the best seller list for several weeks.

Threshold of War by Waldo Heinrichs is about Franklin D. Roosevelt and the American entry into World War II.

Upcoming events are: Public Story Time, 10 a.m.; Family Film at 7 p.m., Oct. 20; and Friends of the Library Book Sale, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Oct. 22 and 2-5 p.m. Oct. 23 at the Deaf Smith County Library.

Betty Crocker's Cooking Tips

Q. Why do my baking mix drop biscuits get crumbly? L.C., Oak Forest, IL.

A. Drop biscuits typically have a crumbly texture. Crumbling is more noticeable in cold drop biscuits; serve warm. The crumbly texture is less noticeable with rolled biscuits because kneading distributes ingredients evenly and develops the gluten in flour.

Q. How do I keep my cream puffs from getting soggy? Mrs. K.O., Maple Heights, OH

A. Puncture small puffs to release the steam immediately after baking. Slit large puffs and remove the moist parts in the centers.

Q. Cakes stick to my glass baking pan that I grease with butter. What's wrong? M.W., Reno, NV

A. Butter or margarine can cause sticking as you experienced. We recommend using solid shortening for all baking pans, including glass and nonstick pans. Use a generous amount of shortening. Dust with flour, tapping pan to remove excess.

Do you have a question? Write Dear Betty Crocker, Box 1113, Dept. Betty, Minneapolis, MN 55440.

In 1802, Portuguese navigator Ferdinand Magellan reached the Philippines, where he was killed by natives.

Here's some coffee facts

With cold weather right around the corner, more and more people are going to be keeping warm with an old favorite—a cup of good, hot coffee.

The following are little known coffee facts.

Legend has it that a young goatherd in the land of Arabia discovered coffee. Upon losing his goats, the young goatherd, Kaldi, went searching. Kaldi found his goats dancing in abandoned glee near a shiny, dark-leaved shrub with red berries. Kaldi soon determined the red berries were affecting his goats behavior and it wasn't long before he too was dancing.

Most all of the coffee trees growing in South and Central America today are believed to be descended from just one tree. In 1720, Chevalier Gabriel Mathieu de Clieu stole some coffee trees from the royal gardens in Paris and underwent a grueling voyage to bring coffee to the New World. First, a fellow passenger tried to destroy his plants. Later, after eluding pirates and living through a terrible storm, the plants and de Clieu nearly died of thirst in becalmed seas. According to the story, only one tree survived and went on to parent trees for not only most of the islands of the Caribbean. Colombia is the second largest producer of coffee in the world as well as the principal grower and exporter of mild arabica, generally acknowledged to be the most aromatic and flavorful variety of coffee.

The mountain-grown Columbian coffee trees still are cultivated individually, hand-picked by more than 300,000 small owner-farmers. The average coffee plantation is less than 8 acres.

If it hadn't been for the Boston Tea Party, Americans might not be the avid coffee consumers they are today!

CLASSIFIED
ADDRESS: 313 N. LEE

CLASSIFIED ADS
Classified advertising rates are based on 14 cents a word for first insertion ($2.80 minimum), and 10 cents for second publication and thereafter. Rates below are based on consecutive issues, no copy change, straight word ads.

TIMES	RATE	MIN.
1 day per word	.14	2.80
2 days per word	.24	4.80
3 days per word	.34	6.80
4 days per word	.44	8.80

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY
Classified display rates apply to all other ads not set in solid-word lines-those with captions, bold or larger type, special paragraphing, all capital letters. Rates are $3.95 per column inch; $3.25 an inch for additional insertions.

LEGALS
Ad rates for legal notices are 14 cents per word first insertion, 10 cents per word for additional insertions.

ERRORS
Every effort is made to avoid errors in word ads and legal notices. Advertisers should call attention to any errors immediately after the first insertion. We will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. In case of errors by the publishers, an additional insertion will be published.

Forming of Constitution topic of extension program

Mary Williamson discussed the forming of the United States Constitution when members of North Hereford Extension Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Marcella Hoffman.

Williamson explained that in 1787, the United States celebrated the Bicentennial of the Constitution. She also said that the work of 55 men in Philadelphia in 1787 marked the beginning of the end of the concept of the divine right of kings. In place of absolutism of monarchy, the freedoms flowing from this document created a land of opportunities. She said, "Every since that time, discouraged and oppressed people for every part of the world have made a beaten path to our shores."

Williamson concluded, "It wouldn't be America, if we didn't all share this belief in the critical importance of the individual, if we couldn't through hard work and determination turn our own dreams of happiness and success into reality. May it continue to last through the countless ages."

During the business session, minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and it was announced that the club's Thanksgiving supper will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Higgins.

Naomi Brisendine, who served as presiding officer, won a gift during the meeting.

Those present included the hostess, Peg Hoff, Martha Lueb, Evelyn Crofford, Brisendine, and Edell Higgins.

A jury in Los Angeles recommended the death penalty in 1971 for Charles Manson and three female followers for the 1969 Tate-La Bianca murders. The sentences were eventually commuted.

Lite-A-Bike program held

A bicycle safety program was held Friday at West Central School with 400 children participating.

Sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary, the Lite-A-Bike program featured pamphlets and reflective decals that were distributed to the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Officer Roy Rector spoke on bike safety as members of the VFW Auxiliary assisted with the program.

"I want to thank Principal George Ochs and Officer Rector for making the program such a success," said Betty Boggs, VFW Auxiliary safety chairman. "We hope to take the program to a different school each year."

The United States and Panama agreed in 1964 to resume recently severed diplomatic relations and seek prompt settlement of the canal dispute.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Using a pseudonym and having a staff shields you from a problem that the rest of us have. I am talking about "begging mail."

Every week I am bombarded with requests to save the land animals, rescue sea life and give to AIDS victims, the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, birth defects and cancer research—and that's only the tip of the iceberg.

Little Jimmy won't go to sleep unless I shell out. Well, I have news for Little Jimmy. Nobody sent me to camp and I turned out just fine.

Every celebrity has a pet charity, but guess who is supposed to keep it going? If they want the glory, I say, let them use their own money.

The real problem is how do we know which charities are really on the level? They all sound worthy.

I'd like to know how much of my dollar goes for the cause and how much goes for so-called "administrative" expenses, public relations, lobbying in Washington, mailing, etc., etc., Help me, Annie.—San Luis

DEAR LUIS: You say I am shielded from requests for money because I have a pseudonym and a staff to protect me? Oh really? Actually I get a double whammy. Mail comes to me under both names.

The following organizations will send you a guide listing hundreds of charities and whether they meet review standards (the first charges $1). You can also request more detailed information on specific charities.

Write to: Philanthropic Advisory Service, Council of Better Business Bureaus Inc., 1515 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, Va. 22209, and National Charities Information Bureau, 19 Union Square West, New York, N.Y. 10003, Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: While shopping in a discount store yesterday I noticed a little boy standing alone, crying his eyes out, looking very frightened. "Are you lost?" I asked. He nodded his head yes and then said his mom went to the bathroom, left him outside, and she didn't come out so he started to look for her.

I said, "Come on, I'll help you find your mom."

I took the little guy to the front desk and had the clerk page his mother. I waited with him and dried his tears. The mother appeared, quite promptly, looking very angry. The child was so relieved to see her, he broke into a big smile, but she would have none of it.

"Git over her," she yelled. "When I tell you to wait I mean wait!" She then gave him a whack across the bottom.

Why did this mother leave her kid alone? Someone could have easily walked out of the store with him. The boy trustingly took my hand although I was a total stranger.

I'd much rather have seen that child in the ladies room than kidnaped. Comment, Ann.—Rockford, Ill.

DEAR ROCK: Of course you're right. Little boys should never be left alone while Mom goes to the bathroom. Better to take him along, even if he's over 6.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I think it's petty of speakers to lift lines from others and fail to give them credit. Last night a lecturer did just that. Who said the following—first, that is? "The nice thing about being a celebrity is that when you bore people they think it's their fault."—Beaver, Pa.

DEAR BEAV: Henry Kissinger—who gets stolen from a lot.

What are the signs of alcoholism? How can you tell if someone you love is an alcoholic? "Alcoholism: How to Recognize It, How to Deal With It, How to Conquer It" will give you the answers. To receive a copy, send $3 and a self-addressed, stamped business-size envelope (45 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.
