Heavy Rains Soak County

Steady rain Saturday dumped up to two inches of moisture on parts of Deaf Smith County, delaying harvest of feed, lettuce and carrots. Some farmers said the moisture was not too good on young cotton but did help winter wheat.

The rain did not harm the lettuce crop, but with the going price of $4 per carton, some growers were having the crop carried out of the muddy field by hand instead of trucking it out.

In downtown Hereford, 1.68 of an inch was recorded, bringing October's total to 2.75 inches and the year's total to 14.03, the wettest year in draper a spell.

Tom Drake, eight miles south, T. M. Cox, 2 1/2 miles south of Dawn, and E. N. Retwert, 12 miles southeast, all measured an even inch.

J. S. Stocks, 35 miles northwest of Hereford, counted two inches. James Murphy White, 10 miles north of Dawn, measured 1 1/2 inches. J. W. Stengel, 2 1/4 miles south of the Westway store, had 1.3 inches. Stengel said if it had rained much more it would have damaged his grain crop.

Foibles--Fancy and Plain

By KENT SNARE

It is related that Eddie Cochems, a Wisconsin back around the turn of the century, perfected the football forward pass while coaching at St. Louis University in 1906. It is understood that other types of forward passes have long been extant, one rumored to have occurred in the vicinity of Eden some time back. However the FF pass got no national prominence until little Notre Dame was scheduled as a breather for a great Army team and came to West Point in 1913. The Irish Combo of Dorais to Rockne upset the Cadets and the pighide manufacturers that day, for eventually the latter had to redesign and slenderize the football so that it would fit the hand and the new mood of the game. That dieting procedure also did in the drop kicker, who no longer could properly direct the pointed pighide. Mr. Wilkinson of the Oklahoma probably will favor inducement of the Mr's to build in directional finders, radar or a seeing eye in their pighides, after what the Texans did at him Saturday, for they caught more Sooner passes than the Oklahomas did. While it is not in black and white yet, I imagine the Texans also caught the Soomers number one national ranking and brought it below the Spartans who clobbered Michigan before 101,001. I wonder how they come by that last digit, same must be he/she who does the counting. For this week's slate, here are last years results, plus SURPLUS MATERIALS CREATE DISPUTE—The United Daughters of the Confederacy and the State Board of Control were at odds over the storing of salvage materials on the State Cemetery grounds at Austin. The salvage material came from buildings near the Capitol grounds which were levelled to make room for new structures. In background are graves of Confederate veterans and other Texas heroes. had trouble getting together on a water program because they reflect the conflicting ideas of their constituents, said Carr. He urged cooperation.

Governor Daniel recommended a water plan to take care of needs up to the year 2000. "We can go forward," he said, "and guarantee the future growth and prosperity of our state, or do nothing and face economic stagnation."

WATER AMENDMENT — Governor Daniel has expressed great pleasure over the widespread interest in passage of the Constitutional Amendment for water development.

He pointed out that the measure, which is third on the Nov. 5 ballot, has received the endorsement of the state's leading organizations and associations.

"Each day's mail brings additional support from local chambers of commerce and other civic organizations, as well as private citizens interested in the welfare of Texas," the governor added.

ROD AND GUN STATISTICS — Texans spend twice as much money to hunt and fish as they do for admission to all football, baseball and basketball games, plus all other spectator sports, plus all the movies and other theatrical attractions combined.

So said L. A. Wilke of the Texas Game and Fish Commission at a Rotary Club luncheon in Austin.

Here are some other facts with which Wilke surprised the Austin Rotarians: Anglers and hunters outnumber golfers 9 to 1. They also spend more on hunting and fishing than all Texans spend on medical and dental care and hospitalization insurance.

FLU CASES PILE UP — "That foreign flu" is getting familiar to Texans. Reported cases doubled in a week, according to the State Health Department, bringing the total of flu-like illnesses to 62,319. A number of schools had to close after absences skyrocketed. Many others canceled football games, band concerts and other special events.

COTTON FORECAST UP — Texas' 1957 cotton crop will be 83 per cent of normal, says the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. October estimate is for 4,100,000 bales — a half million bales more than was expected in September.

USDA also reported that mild fall weather was helping farmers in many areas. Scattered showers brought up winter wheat on the plains and encouraged volunteer oats and other pasturage for cattle over wide areas. Weather also was favorable for harvesting peanuts, rice and sweet potatoes.

APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR — Named by Governor Daniel to serve on state boards are:

W. W. Heath, Austin attorney, rancher and banker, to the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools.

Dr. B. B. Brown of Dallas (re-appointed) and Dan McKnight of Rocksprings, to the State Board of Pharmacy.

Dr. Elmer C. Baum of Austin, Cyrus Hill Lambert, a pharmacist of El Paso, and Dr. William Hibbits of Texarkana, to the State Board of Health.

Dale Broussard of Beaumont and Norman Bratcher of Denison to the State Board of Morticians.

SHORT SNORTS — People in Brazos County, home of Texas A&M, are unhappy. Their county was assigned auto license plates with the prefix letters TU. That, to Aggies, sounds too much like the initials of their arch-rival, the University of Texas. What they don't know is that tags with AM letters now are appearing on Austin cars. Texans leaving the Armed Forces in September were more than double the number entering service, reports State Selective Service Headquarters. Despite an attorney general's ruling that the House speaker and lieutenant governor are legally entitled to Capitol living quarters, former State Sen. Joe Hill is still trying to get them thrown out. Hill has carried his fight to the Court of Civil Appeals where he contended the practice was unconstitutional and "ridiculous," besides.

to run 1,600 yards as some sort of penalty.

Dad thought this was a good idea and would indelibly impress the youngster.

"Well, after running that many yards I'll bet you won't forget that basket again," he said.

"That reminds me, Dad, take me back to the gym quick I forgot my basket."

WACO — A Baylor coach almost did not get a chance to read the final reports of the game with Villanova.

When Line Coach Harden Cooper stepped out on the front porch he came eye to eye with a skunk between him and his newspaper.

Quickly retreating he called police, who in turn called Bill Berry. Berry had reported Cologne, his pet deodorized skunk, missing.

BAY CITY — He wouldn't think of an alibi, but a speeder who failed to appear in Bay City traffic court explained in a letter that the Angleton sheriff wouldn't let him.

The man wrote: "I can't come over and appeal my case because I am locked up on a charge of assault to murder and the sheriff won't let me out to come. I guess I'll just have to plead guilty and pay you when I get out of jail."

ABILENE Abilene police can usually depend on Mike Gariety to stop in for a visit when things get slow.

Recently he came by, with the assistance of eight Negro boys who found him loose about 9:30 p.m. near Lincoln Junior High. They dropped him at the police station. He was armed with a toy double-barrel shotgun.

Mike is 7, and a regular visitor with the city officers. Every few weeks, police say, his bare feet itch and he goes for an unauthorized stroll. A while back he got on a tricycle and rode across Abilene to a feed mill building, which he promptly climbed.

Another time Police Radio Operator Allen Hatchett encountered Mike. On a borrowed tricycle he had left home and pedaled the vehicle three miles to Municipal Airport. Hatchett saved him the trip back.

After his last trip an officer jokingly told Mike he might have to spank him if he caught him gallivanting around again. They boy studied the policeman a few moments, then replied, "My mother will do that when I get home."

SOVIET TRAINS PHYSICIANS
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union now has 73 medical colleges giving training to over 140,000 student physicians.

BOOKING BPROBLEM
HILO, Hawaii (AP) — T. C. Dryman of Hilo was stopped by police for doing 62 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone.

He didn't have a driver's license. Police, who suspected he had been drinking, urged him to get a friend to drive the car home. Dryman refused, and ran away.

In a few minutes, a former owner of the car, who had been following Dryman, pulled up and repossessed it for non-payment.

When an officer caught Dryman, the motorist punched him in the nose.

Police said they haven't decided how many charges to file.

ed in the price it can ask from the Germans for French wheat.

Some analysts feel that the concessions gained by France may cause trouble in carrying out the terms of the Treaty but all admit that it is a beginning to a cure for an economically sick Europe. They point out that Italy with its unemployment problem, Belgium with its low production costs and Holland with its agricultural surpluses will insist upon early exchanges of labor and goods in a free movement and seek the expanded market and increased prices for food. It was also pointed out that even those outside of the community but allied with it will want to speed up the operation of such a program so that British automobiles may go into Europe duty free, as well as Danish bacon and butter.

Whether the full 12 to 15 year trial period is required or whether the Common Market is in full force and effect in less time, there will be an economic impact on this country and it would be well for the matter to be thoroughly and completely debated in the early days of the coming session of Congress and before the time for extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act.

PASSENGER PENALTY

The commercial airlines have recently adopted a plan to penalize passengers who fail to show up for a flight on which they have a reservation. This plan is bound to run up against trouble. The fact is that the airlines have had trouble for some time with passengers who promiscuously make reservations and then fail to show up. This means that some other person who wanted to make the trip is not able to get a confirmed reservation and doesn't know whether he will be able to go until time for the plane to take off.

There is no doubt that this has been a serious problem, but I feel that the airlines are going to be in for considerable criticism when they start collecting a money penalty from a passenger.

This matter was discussed at length in the Congressional hearings when the Civil Aeronautics Board appeared before our Committee. At that time I asked the chairman, about this plan and why it was that nothing had been done in the nature of providing a penalty to be paid by the airline to the passenger when the airline sold a ticket and then denied transportation to the passenger at the last minute because the plane had been oversold at some other point, or because of some other reason in which the passenger had no control. The chairman was unable to answer the question and, in fact, indicated that no thought had been given to it by the Board. I pointed out to him that it was my understanding the CAB had been set up to protect the traveling public, as well as the airlines, and that if the passenger was going to be penalized for not showing, then by the same token, the airlines should be penalized for failing to provide the service it should provide.

COMING HOME
Mrs. Rogers and I will be at home by the time this reaches you. We made the trip by automobile stopping at Nashville, Tenn., for hearings before a subcommittee of which I am a member. We then proceeded on to Bonham, where we attended the dedication of the Sam Rayburn Library. It is a beautiful structure and filled with many, many mementoes and records that have come into the hands of this great Texan in his long years of public service. Bonham and Fannin County are certainly proud of this splendid monument to their native son. I hope all of you will have an opportunity to visit it. Nothing would please the Speaker better than to have you stop by if you are in that section of the State.

GOVERNOR KEEPS PROMISE—Gov. Price Daniel is welcomed to the pulpit of the First Covenant Church in Dallas by the pastor, Dr. J. A. Lovell, thus fulfilling a promise made some 30 years ago. When they were high school chums in Fort Worth, Daniel vowed he would some day be governor and Lovell said he wanted to be a preacher and would like the governor to speak at his church. Daniel promised he would if their dreams were realized. The governor of Texas delivered the morning message to the congregation of Dr. Lovell's church. (AP Photo) o

Resettlement of Frontier Areas Is Plaguing Czechs

By HANNS NEUERBOURG
PRAGUE (AP) — Thousands of houses stand empty in rural and small-town areas of Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia while the capital, Prague, is packed to capacity.

Referring to the "housing shortage," Premier Viliam Siroky last summer promised a 50 per cent increase in construction of state-owned apartment buildings.

At about the same time, Rude Pravo, Communist party mouthpiece, told its readers that hundreds of "fine little houses are waiting" for occupants outside of Prague.

Czech newspapers report that 120,000 Prague apartments are overcrowded and 11,000 people live in "emergency" quarters. And yet, between January and June, only 134 Prague citizens moved out of the capital into some of these "fine little houses."

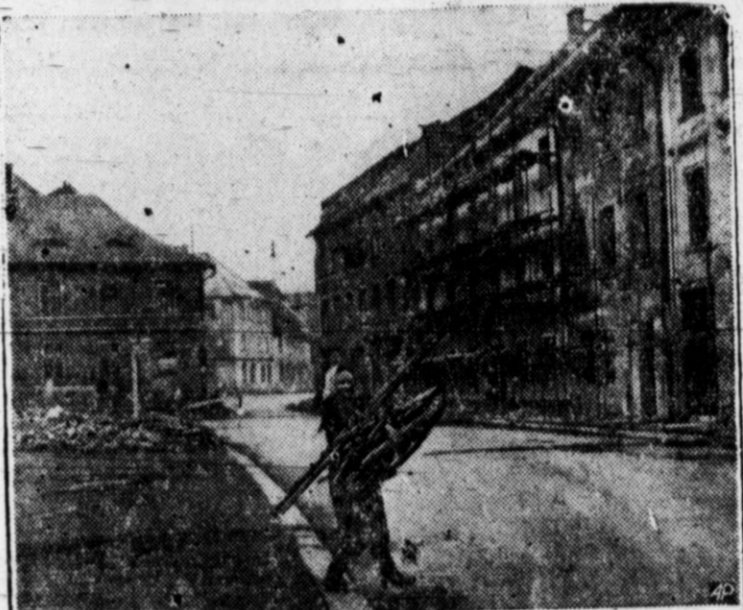

Contradictory? "Frontier resettlement" is the keyword denoting the problem. It means the resettlement of the areas from which nearly two million Sudeten-Germans fled or were expelled after World War II.

Up to now, frantic Czech repopulation efforts have had little success. Most of the Sudeten towns now have half or even less of their prewar population.

The latest edition of the municipal directory of the Czechoslovak Republic lists 348 communities as no longer in existence. These include towns of 2,000 and more inhabitants.

Villages immediately adjacent to the border were razed to eliminate hideaways for refugees fleeing the country. Other abandoned communities are slowly crumbling or form part of large military training areas. The government has denied published reports that Soviet rocket bases have been set up in these areas.

Why are people hesitating to move into the frontier areas? Most Czechs agreed with the answer of a former Nazi persecu-tee: "People don't feel safe there."

This feeling is fanned by recurrent warnings of German "revisionism" and is apparently the chief motive keeping people away from the "fine little houses."

Revisionism, in Czech official terminology, may mean either a revision of the present border — although the Western Big Three have given assurance it is final — or a return of the Sudeten Germans to their former homes.

Students Get Job Credits in California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — When school bells rang this fall at San Juan Union High School there was something special for juniors and seniors: they can get scholastic credit for working at part-time jobs.

The new program gives students an opportunity to find out what work is like while still studying toward graduation.

The plan was the idea of Mrs. Viola Kamena, a student counselor, and Dr. Russell M. Esvelt, assistant superintendent.

A student isn't permitted to work unless he has had satisfactory grades the last semester. And he must be at least 16. He must take at least four school subjects and Mrs. Kamena investigates the prospective job. She makes sure it presents the possibility of learning something of value and that the student won't be exploited. She evaluates the work record twice each semester.

Credit is given for such jobs as store and office clerks, carryout boys in supermarkets, service station attendants and typing.

Mrs. Kamena plans to get community support — and more job offers — by naming an advisory board of civil leaders.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What is a good exercise for firming and strengthening the thigh muscles?

A. Here is a very simple, but effective, one: Stand on tiptoes with hands on hips. Bend knees to a squatting position, then rise to a standing position again, on tiptoes always.

Q. What colors of dress are most becoming to medium-brown-haired women?

A. They look best in tones of brown, various shades of blue, greens from lime to leaf green, turquoise, pink, fuchsia, magenta, reddish orchid, and mauve.

Q. How can I mix myself a good, general facial beauty mask?

A. Add three teaspoons of powdered milk to the white of an egg, and apply this to face and throat. Let dry, then remove with some tepid water.

Q. What is the best rouge plan-cement for the heart-shaped type of face?

A. Since the greatest width is across the eyes, accent the rouge at the lower half of the face to balance it. Blend the rouge wide at the lower half of the face, and fade it out upward towards the eyes. Keep the rouge away from the hairline.

Q. How can I prevent breath odor after eating onions?

A. Drink a glass of milk, or suck a slice of lemon, then drink a glass of cold water. Another method is to chew a sprig of parsley dipped into vinegar or salt.

Q. How can I eradicate blackheads and whiteheads from my back?

A. By scrubbing frequently and vigorously with a stiff brush and soap after the back has been allowed to soak for a half-hour or so in cream or oil.

Q. Can you tell the oldtime internal remedy for dry and itching scalp?

A. This consisted of the practice of taking a teaspoon of codliver oil daily for 30 or more days. It's still a good one, and tends to tone up the skin of the entire body.

Q. What is a facial mask especially good for an acne-infested face?

A. Spread a paste made of milk and one yeast cake over the face, and leave on for 30 minutes. Then remove with warm water, and sponge the face with a warm boric acid solution.

Q. Just how is eyeshadow correctly applied?

A. Like rouge, it must be used almost imperceptibly to make you look more beautiful. Apply it in a fan-like line just over the lashes, extending about one-eighth of an inch from the lash line toward the brow line. This gives your lashes a flatteringly sooty frame when they are lowered, and adds color lift to the eyes when they are lifted.

Q. I have a rather flat type of nose. How can I make up to give my nose more height?

A. With a tiny brush, draw a lighter shade of foundation in a line down over the bridge of the nose, from between the eyes to down under the tip of the nose.

Q. What is really the best way to brush the hair?

A. From the roots to the tips. Any tangled locks should be gently loosened, never yanked or pulled. Brush firmly so that the bristles reach through the hair without scratching the scalp or pulling the hair out. Daily brushing morning and night for three to five minutes is an excellent hygienic practice.

Oh, how important they are! No music would be sweet without them. No life can mean much until it first suffers them.

It takes discords to prove the true beauty of the finer harmonies.

Without discords we have stagnation...no opportunity for comparison. One must see them, concords and discords, alongside each other if one is to have the full picture. Compare the selfish with the unselfish; the cactus with the rose; the christian life with the life of the wayward.

Compare the touch of the beginner with that of the concert pianist.

Ah, there it is. Now you understand. God put His church right in the middle of all this and furnished it with a pew and an altar where men might pray.

He offers His grace to sustain us in our darkest hour — when discords disrupt and darkness dulls our way. The doors of His church are ajar and He invites all men; even men of disrepute — men who still question His authority. Won't you come to church?

"YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU"

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that that fortify and influence are showered with benedictions stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

The Whole Joint Is Jumping

AP Newsfeatures
Maybe you think you've seen everything. But have you seen a living room in which every article of furniture is wired to give you a massage?

Well, such a room is a current reality, not a science-fiction fantasy. You can buy four styles of easy chairs, a sofa and a chaise lounge with built-in "cyclo-massage" motors, to slenderize the whole family while they sit or recline.

The proud parents of this new line of "living furniture" are Mr. and Mrs. Owen K. Murphy, who bought the patents and set up shop in a chicken house on their Admsville, Pa., farm in 1949. Now they have five manufacturing plants and expect to sell 25 million dollars' worth of their massage furniture this year.

'LIVING' FURNITURE—The sofa, long chair and chaise lounge pictured in this modern living room all have built-in motors to give you a massage while you sit or lounge.

Quiet Lady Barbers Keep Russian Beards Trimmed

By STERLING SLAPPEY

MOSCOW (AP) — Beard and Communists — often in conjunction — currently are highly popular in the Soviet Union.

The reason for the popularity of Communists is that they own the joint. Much of the popularity of beards, however, is because of the barbering.

Most Moscow beards and practically all heads are taken to barber shops for trimming. Lady barbers do much of the work. They charge 20 cents per beard, 20 cents per head and they use meticulous care.

Moscow's plushiest tonsorial establishment is an 11-seater on Gorky Street. You sit facing the mirror, not with your back towards it, and on most occasions the emporium is still and quiet.

The lady barbers seldom talk about politics, the weather, why Dynamo is the second division of the Soviet Soccer League or how many goals Alexei Alexandrovich Abakumov has kicked for Spartak. Instead they let you sit in peace while they shape up the head and weed out the beard and they send you away not much poorer and smelling wonderfully of old-fashioned lilac water.

Moscow barberesses get a range of hair to work on which is unmatched in the United States and possibly the world.

Hundreds of goatees come in for trimming.
There are still devotees of the Stalin mustache droop, proving just how deep went the roots of the "Cult of the Personality."

Lenin has been dead for 33 years but you still see dozens of little shovel shaped tufts of hair on the chin and the blob on the upper lip which he favored.

One of the Soviet Union's top nuclear scientists has let his chin whiskers run for years. All he ever seems to do is brush them into two long strips — one flowing down near his right hip and the other near his left hip.

An imminent chemical scientist favors letting his chin be covered completely with a growth shaped like the blade of a fulldozer. This type of thing makes for a forceful appearance and in some cases has been known to camouflage a receding chin.

Many members of the government and Communist party favor some sort of face hair, either a bit on the lip or the full works. To curb unwanted growth barberesses have various size special scissors with curved cutting blades. They nip smoothly around the edges of the beard on the Uzbekistan collective farmer and on the mustache of the Turkman steppes rider.

Like many other things in Russia, barber shops look like their counterparts of 25 years ago in the United States.

About 25 years ago have passed since you could get a decent haircut in the United States for 25 cents.

FILIBUSTER ENDED

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — Shortly before morning services a bluejay flew into Memorial Methodist Church here, perched on a chandelier and noisily awaited the sermon. Fearing a vocal contest between bird and minister, church members called police. Officer N. C. Dowdy knocked the bird from his perch with a 22 without damaging the chandelier.

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history. But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress... Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

OPTIMISTS PLAN SHOW—Making plans for a "Hypnotic Marvels" show featuring Russell Barron, Hereford Optimists this week have been aided by Miss Peggy Rich of Kansas City. Jeff Davis, left, and Bill Hardwick discuss with Miss Rich the staging of the show on Nov. 4 in the high school auditorium. Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

The organization of an exclusive social club by the young men of Hereford marks a new era in the social life of the city. While not intended for unmarried men only (there are a few married members), the number has been limited to 30. The members invited a select number of their friends last Monday night to participate in what might be called the formal opening of the Club Rooms. The rooms are located in the Bogard Building, occupying the entire second floor. The front room will be used as a ladies' parlor, and the large rear room for general reading and recreation. On occasions the members will entertain their friends with a social function in which the conventionalities of good society will be observed, and the members look forward to many pleasant events this season. A program was presented at the formal opening consisting of speeches, readings and music presented by the following: Mr. and Mrs. West, Ralph Smith, Judge Knight, Misses Oberthier, Gallaher and Dunn, Mrs. Kelly and W. E. Dameron. A letter from the Hon. Joe J. Good, Borden County Judge, advocates that the state take steps to exterminate the prairie dogs and he invites all commissioners courts to pass resolutions and for the citizens of the different counties to memorialize the legislature to pass a bounty law covering the counties infected.

Misses Martha Duncan and Lucile Hicks will manage publicity. Mrs. J. M. Gilliland and Mrs. J. C. Ricketts are chairmen of costume and property committees.

The name of Mrs. Miriam E. Ferguson will appear in the November election as the Democratic nominee for governor of Texas. The State Supreme Court last Saturday held that the suit filed by Governor R. S. Sterling contesting Mrs. Ferguson's right to the nomination was moot and ordered Mrs. Jane Y. McCalloun secretary of state, to certify Mrs. Ferguson immediately to the county clerk as the nominee.

Sammy Lesly Is Given Promotion

LEXINGTON, Mo., — Cadet Sammy Lesly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lesly, Route 4, Hereford, has earned a promotion at Wentworth Military Academy, it was announced today.

Lt. Col. H. E. Linn, professor of military science and tactics at the school, said that Sammy has been advanced to the rank of cadet first sergeant for displaying outstanding leadership qualities and for assuming major responsibilities.

McCaslin's Kin Killed in Wreck

Robert Roy McCaslin, 25, nephew of Carl McCaslin of Hereford, was killed in an auto accident near Boise, Idaho, last Friday.

Carl McCaslin left Hereford for Boise Sunday. Funeral services were held Monday.

Robert Roy was the son of R. J. McCaslin, a brother of Carl's.

FIRE DRINKERS

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — A drink known locally as a "flaming Purple Passion" certainly lived up to its name recently. The bartender was mixing the drink and started to light it a second time after it had gone out once. The concoction burst into more flame than expected, set fire to the blouse of a waitress and sent her to the hospital with second-degree burns.

Messenger H. D. Club Has Project To Raise Money: Plans Supper

The finance committee of the Messenger Home Demonstration Club announced that the club would have a "grab bag" to raise money at its next meeting. Each member is to bring a gift and then buy one for 25 cents. This was announced at the regular meeting of the club Oct. 11, when it met in the home of Mrs. Bruce Coleman. The club also discussed making plans for a family supper. The program, which was given by Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, was about mending, patching and reweaving. Mrs. Brown showed how to match a patch and how to make a four minute patch. Mrs. Thweatt showed how to reweave and how to quick patch by cement.

Members present were Mesdames W. D. Howard, S. N. Thweatt, Floyd Brown, Bob Howard, Ernest Brown, N. A. Brown, N. A. Brown, J. E. Rouse, E. M. Jack, Elmer Northcutt and Bruce Coleman. Miss Wanda Northcutt was the only visitor present.

By JIMMIE GILBERTINE
SHERIFF CHARLES Skelton was educated this week on a point which all peace-officers must soon or later be enlightened: the "arm of the law," although strong in the halls of justice, is often muscle-bound in the home

It all came about as a result of Charles' interest in cooking. Right now, he is enthused over the old fashioned Sourdough Biscuits and therein lies his troubles. Charles can't get "his starter dough" to level off. At first it just wouldn't swell up at all. He messed around with it all Sunday afternoon and wound up putting it in the living room in front of a low fire. During the night his dough decided to cooperate — and made up for lost time. The final result was that Mrs. Skelton roused Charles out early Monday morning and, after considerable personal comment, left him with strict orders to "get that mess out" — regardless of bandits, supenas, thievery, or murders — and including any other felony or misdemeanor which might develop. What's more, Charles did just what you would have done. He cleaned up.

JOE EVANS was kind enough to take me out to the oil well west of town the other day. Joe says it is a "closed well" which means that they won't tell what is going on in the way of tests. He says he wanted it "open", but everyone else voted him down. However, he did say that they were down 1,000 feet Sunday. They were setting pipe the day I was out — and I was amazed at the speed with which the operation is handled. Fact is, they dropped in the "more than a mile" of pipe in something like six hours. The pipe, they estimate, costs a little more than $19,000. From now on drilling will be made with a smaller bit, which is dropped down through the pipe.

If everyone is like me, the "closed" business is unnecessary. I couldn't understand it, even if someone explained it to me. It is a liberal education, though, to see the cooperation, efficiency and application of power machinery in the drilling business today.

WOR HAD I realized that the wildcat is located on the old Evans "home place." Joe says he always told Wayne and Raylan that they were farming on top of a huge oil deposit. He says that he dreamed on three separate occasions — about a year apart — that oil was gushing all over the cattle pens. The location is on a high spot adjoining Tierra Blanca Creek. The well also boasts its own landing strip, bladed out chiefly for convenience of the geologists who fly in for regular checks. They also have a good water well, which Joe says makes a big difference. He says they sometimes pay from $3,000 to $4,000 to get water hauled to locations in places where they cannot drill their own water wells.

All in all, it was quite interesting to an old boy who never got closer to oil than the "40 cents-a-quart" they charge you at the service station. If they do get production, I can see where it will make a tremendous difference in this area.

PAK LONDON was telling me that Clay Angelo told him that Maama Jersig's son-in-law, who is a barber at Dumas, got into a $10 baseball pot during the World Series and won $1,000. I don't know the old boy — and neither did Pak — but we figured that he is now beating off insurance salesmen and car dealers. Hereford is suddenly becoming "air minded." It is maybe due to the fact that the city airport is under construction. Anyway, there are numerous people who are taking flying lessons — and dozens more who are talking about it. Bill Decker recently acquired a four-place Beech and is pretty much of an enthusiast these days. I wouldn't be surprised to see Hereford blossom out with 12 or 15 planes by the time the new airport gets into full swing.

Some people say there is no substitute for hard work, but it doesn't pan out that way. Monk Johnson was upstairs in his office loafing Monday when he happened to glance down and notice a woman customer scooping a half dozen shirts into a shopping bag she carried. Monk picked up the telephone, called the police and within a few minutes they had recovered merchandise from a half dozen Hereford stores. One of the offenders even got Pick Harman to wrap some articles which, he presumes, were taken from Sam McLallen's store.

Personally, I like these kind of stories. They make for better inner-family relations. The moral to this one, of course, rests on the fact that had Monk been down on the floor working — as he undoubtedly should have been — nothing would have happened at all.

When he fell and broke his hip while cleaning out his garage a couple of years back, Fred Baird performed the greatest community service seen by the male population in a long, long time. I felt sure that he would be named "Man of the Year", but he wasn't. I know he suffered a lot, but it sure was worth it to me. Often these ensuing heroes do a lot more than the ones who are glorified.

The F. H. A. magazine, "Teen Time" will carry a long article about Hereford's experience with foreign students on the American Field Service exchange plan. Hereford was one of the earlier small towns in the program and is widely publicized among other Panhandle Schools. In addition, the local F. H. A. chapter is one of the few, if not the only F. H. A. chapter, to sponsor a foreign exchange student.

The cost is approximately $700 per year, plus an approved home for the exchange student. So far, everyone is happy with the program. Many people consider it a step toward world peace, and certainly they have a point. This year Hereford hopes to export a local student on the foreign exchange plan. The plan will be highly similar to that used to bring in foreign students. One difference, though: WE pay the $700 for travel of the incoming student and, when we send one to Europe, WE still pay $700. This is on a par with our other European dealings. Students, teachers and administrators avow that the present program is a wonderful thing for Hereford High School and, from those I have seen, I will go along.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

A RECEPTION PATIO is a feature of this ranch style house with a square footage of 1,672. An island type fireplace between the living and dining rooms is an attractive divider and its projection to the exterior adds design interest. The plan, HA2-H, is by Architect Peter S. Hopf, 118-20 Queens Blvd., Forest Hills, N.Y.

Betty June Euler, Gerald Day Are Married in Tucson, Ariz.

A single arrangement of white gladioli and pom-poms flanked by candles graced the celtic cross on the altar of Trinity Presbyterian church, Tucson, Ariz., Saturday evening, Oct. 12, when Betty June Euler and Gerald Irving Day repeated their wedding vows. Rev. George R. Hinshaw officiated.

Preceding the double-ring ceremony, Dr. Robert Lamm, church organist, played pre-nuptial selections including Ava Maria, Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life, Bless This House, and Because. Miss Eleanor Pratt of Pasadena, Calif., sang Through the Years, O Perfect Love, and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Euler of Summerfield, was given in marriage by her father. For the formal rites, Betty June chose an exquisite ivory white silk brocade gown fashioned along empress lines. The lines were also carried out in the jacket with stand-up collar and back design dipping to a point. Buttons were self-covered and the long sleeves tapered to points below the wrists. The smooth front skirt fell into back pleats which tapered to a chapel train.

A full tulle was gathered to a clasp of simulated orange blossoms forming the waist-length veil which also tapered to a point. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings—a gift from the groom. She carried a Bride's Prayer book with white orchid and cascades of stephanotis.

Miss Marianne Schaefer of Tucson was maid of honor, and Miss Doris Ryan of Alhambra, Calif., and Miss Sheila Ann Malone, Tulsa, served as bridesmaids. The three attendants wore turquoise chromespun taffeta gowns fashioned with skirts similar to the bride's. The high, boat-neck tapered to deep points in the back, and small matching head bands held short veils. Their flowers were white carnations.

Don Acers of Lancaster, Mo., served as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were John Doyle and Harold Lee of Tucson. Serving as candlelighters and ushers were Bill Campbell and John Martin, also of Tucson. The men were attired in white dinner jackets.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Day of Metuchen, N. J., parents of the groom, were present for the wedding and reception which followed at the church patio. The mother of the bride chose a heather blue dress for the wedding. Mrs. Day wore beige. Both had white orchid corsages.

Mrs. Bill Campbell presided at the guest book, and Mrs. George B. Hinshaw cut the four-tiered wedding cake. Serving at the punch bowls were Mrs. Robert Tiffany, Questa, N. M., sister of the bride, and Miss Olga Korn of Tucson. Around three hundred guests attended.

Miss Euler graduated from Hereford High school and received a degree in fine arts from West Texas State college. For several years she was a teacher in the public schools of New Mexico. She also did graduate study at Colorado State college and the University of Hawaii. She completed a master's degree in guidance at the University of Hawaii. She completed a master's degree in guidance at the University of Arizona and has been a counselor at Alice Vail Junior High school the past three years. While at West Texas Miss Euler was a member of Alpha Chi honor society, Student Christian Assn., Student Senate, Art club, chorus, newspaper staff and was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. She is also a member of Pi Lambda Theta educational honorary, Beta Sigma Phi, and the American Assn. of University Women.

Day attended New Jersey schools and served with the army in Korea. He studied at Union Junior college, Cranford, N. J., and was graduated from the University of Arizona. He is doing graduate research in wild life management while employed as biologist with the Arizona Game and Fish department. As a member of the Arizona Game and Protective service, he also is affiliated with the Range Management and Tucson Bow club.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a heather blue, sheath dress in raw silk with orchid corsage. After the wedding trip to Hermosillo, Mexico and points south, the couple will be at home at 3414 East Lee street, Tucson.

Out of town guests for the wedding included the parents, Misses

Hereford Garden Club Meets with Mrs. E. W. Young

Several of the ladies from the Hereford Garden Club attended the District One meeting which was held at Wellington last week. Mrs. W. C. Hromas gave a response to the welcome address and Mrs. R. T. Rutter brought back a report of the meeting. They reported that Hereford had been named guest city for the zone fall meeting for 1958.

This report was made to the Hereford Garden Club at its meeting Oct. 11, in the home of Mrs. E. W. Young.

The program for that meeting was designs in flower arrangement, mechanics and containers to be used, such as China, pottery, crystal, metal, shells, drift wood and many others. They also studied how test tubes could be used for a water supply.

Mrs. S. S. Williams told how to pot African violets. She advised members to use one-third part each of soil, coarse sand and peat moss. A teaspoon of phosphorus and a little charcoal should be added. They thrive best in 60 to 75 degrees room temperature and do best placed in a north window, she said.

Two new members were elected to active membership. They are Mrs. Cecil Hart and Mrs. I. O. Brown.

Twenty members were present for this meeting.

Guests present were Prissy and Betsy Crume, Jean Ann Gore, Donna Feay, Marlene Tooley, Linda, Yvonne and Bob Merrill, Lanis Regar, Jackie and Gwen Welch and David Watts. Karen Sue Bell was not able to be present but she sent her gift.
