Weather, Illness Keep Pupils Home

Muddy roads and illness accounted for 460 absentees in Hereford public schools Monday but the rate has been decreasing since that day.

Walcott School was closed Monday and Tuesday because buses could not run on muddy roads. Classes were resumed Wednesday.

The 460 absences Monday accounted for 18 per cent of the total enrollment of 2,577. Tuesday the count was down to 418 and only 302 were out Wednesday.

Report Burglary at Fraser Office

A burglar forced his way into Fraser Oil Co., 103 S. Lee, sometime Monday night and took $109 in cash from a cash register.

Entry was forced by prying off the lock hasp on the front door of the building. The burglar took the locked cash register into another room and broke the register open.

Sun Comes Out To Aid Harvest

The sun returned to the Hereford area Tuesday afternoon to give promise of relief from rainy, damp weather that has hampered the harvest of most crops for more than two weeks.

Many farmers had become very uneasy over chances for harvesting good maize crops when the clouds hung on and on. But the prolonged interruption of harvest is expected now to have its greatest effect in that "all of the maize is going to come off at once," according to farmers and grain handlers contacted by The Brand.

Only the lettuce harvest continued through all of the rains, which have totalled 3.43 inches here this month. The difficult harvest conditions, both here and on the West Coast, contributed to a bonanza price which soared up to $4.50 for a brief period.

Carrot harvesting continued sporadically, but was greatly hampered by the muddy fields.

CONGRESSMAN ROGERS REPORTING

Rogers Expects Farm, Tax Law Changes Ahead

Congressman Walter Rogers, speaking before a small group of Hereford men Tuesday noon, predicted Congress will pass laws in the coming session that will improve the economic position of farmers.

His remarks came in an address devoted primarily to discussion of

Creek Survey Is Promised

A survey of Tierra Blanca Creek, to determine the possibilities of establishing a dam or series of small dams, was promised by Congressman Rogers during his visit here Tuesday.

With Bill Lenderman, manager of the chamber of commerce, and a small group of businessmen and farmers, Rogers looked over several sites on the creek just west of town following a luncheon at the Jim Hill Hotel.

Flood control, water conservation, replenishment of underground water stratas and recreation are merits such a development might afford, the Congressman was told.

Illness Fatal for Lester H. Newton

Funeral services for Lester H. Newton, 33, of Phoenix, Ariz., were held at the First Baptist Church here Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. Howard Scott, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Newton died Friday in the Los Angeles, Calif., veterans hospital. He had been ill for several months.

Mr. Newton was born in Chico, Tex., on Jan. 7, 1924, and moved to Hereford in 1951. He married Rena Rae Renfro of Hereford on Nov. 16, 1951 at Canyon. They moved to Phoenix this year.

Interment was in West Park Cemetery. Gilliland Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are his wife of Phoenix; four children, Nicky Nan, Johnny Neal, Carol Rae and Tommy Lester; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Newton of Roosevelt, Okla.; three brothers, E. Newton of Oklahoma City, Lloyd and Robert, both of Hereford; four sisters, Mrs. Hardy Glasgow of Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. Durwood Stafford of Roosevelt, Okla.; Mrs. Stanley Davis and Mrs. Blain Davis, both of Hobart, Okla.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Archer

Final rites for Mrs. Ethel M. Archer, 63, who died Tuesday in Deaf Smith County Hospital, will be held today in Glen Rose, Tex.

Mrs. Archer lived at 229 Ave. D with her son, O. H. Archer. She came to Hereford in October, 1956, from Arlington. She was a member of the First Christian Church in Glen Rose.

She was born Oct. 22, 1894, in Tennessee.

Survivors other than the son are two grandsons. Gilliland Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements here.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Upsets Wreck Contestants; Bryant Wins

Staggering through a mass of football upsets, John David Bryant, lately of Hereford but now quarterbacking the Texas Tech freshman team, picked 15 winners in 25 games to win The Brand's weekly contest.

Gene Waits had the first tie-breaker most nearly correct and edged Henry Aycock for second place. Both had 14 winners. Bryant wins $5 in trade, at Jones' Service Station and Waits and Aycock take $3 and $2 in cash respectively.

It was a good week for Bryant, what with winning the top prize and scoring two touchdowns for Tech against West Texas State's B team last Friday night.

Waits won by predicting New Mexico 27-7 over Arizona. Aycock had selected New Mexico by 21-7. The score was 27-0 for N. M.

Mrs. Wanda Ginsley, 610 Ave. K, and Jane Kirby, 115 Ave. H, both had 14 winners but were off on the tie-breakers.

Upsets all across the country fouled up the national experts as well as the local guessers and Bryant's 15 is the lowest winner yet in the contest.

This week's top prize will be $5 in trade from Main St. 66 Station and will be supplemented by the usual cash prizes for the next two places.

Rites Tuesday for Pioneer Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Crawford, former resident of Deaf Smith County, were held Tuesday afternoon in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home with the Rev. Alby Cockrell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Crawford died Sunday in Belin, N. M., at the home of her son, Oscar Crawford, where she had been living for the past two years. She was 77 years old.

Mrs. Crawford was born May 16, 1880, in Paris, Texas. She was married to the late D. W. Crawford, June, 1896, in Oklahoma and came to Deaf Smith County with her husband in 1903.

Survivors include two sons, Oscar Crawford of Belin, N. M., and Frank Crawford; two daughters, Miss Pauline Crawford of Houston and Mrs. L. L. Lasater of Cincinnati, Ohio; seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Ailing Whitefaces To Meet Clovis Here Friday Night

Still ailing after two weeks' rest, the Hereford Whitefaces will take on the Clovis, N. M., Wildcats here at 8 p.m. Friday.

Colds and injuries have weakened the Hereford lineup and head coach Jack Harris had to miss workouts Monday and Tuesday because of flu.

Starting right end Steve Slagle will be out for two more weeks

Rites Pending for Mrs. Hoffman, 72

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Hoffman, 72, of Hereford died Wednesday morning in Deaf Smith County Hospital. Funeral services are pending at Kreig-Marcum Funeral Home.

Mrs. Hoffman was admitted to the hospital Tuesday night. She suffered a heart ailment.

Rosary was said Wednesday night at the Kreig-Marcum chapel. Mrs. Hoffman was married to Joe Hoffman in 1905 at St. Henry, Ind. They came to Deaf Smith County from Happy in 1922.

Survivors include her husband; four sons, Robert of Pryor, Edward, Alfred and Anthony, all of Hereford; five daughters, Mary Louise Lueb of Boulder, Colo., Anna Schulte, Lucille Diby and Ida Schulte, all of Hereford, and Josephine Guggemos of Inloa, Okla.; four brothers, Louie Kuper of Jasper, Ind., William Kuper of Evansville, Ind., Bruno Kuper of Indiana and Leo Kuper of Hereford; 31 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Games Tonight for B, Frosh Elevens

Two football games will be played at Whiteface Stadium tonight with the Hereford freshman meeting Sundan's trosh at 8:30 p.m. and the B team playing Friona's B squad at 8 p.m.

Both Hereford teams originally had an open date, but coach Cuby Kitchens filled the schedule.

CITY DADS APPROVE BUYING FIRE TRUCK

Table Action on Gas Rate Raise

Hereford is again in the market for a new fire truck as the result of city commissioners' action during their session Monday evening. The commissioners were considerably less positive in stands they took on the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. minimum rate raise request; and on management of the airport.

Fire Chief Earl Phillips and Bill Patton, insurance man, discussed insurance rates and the fire truck with the commissioners.

An argument developed between Patton and City Manager Dudley Bayne, over interpretation of the fire insurance key rate changes that can be expected here for the next year.

Patton contended that the property owners here can expect raises of about $10 in their annual fire insurance rates unless more attention is given to complying with State Board of Insurance recommendations.

Bayne objected to Patton's list of possible key rate changes, and at one point said, "I'm not fighting you, I'm fighting a worthless fire insurance code."

WHILE BICKERING obscured points the two men raised, Patton was loud and clear in his declaration that Mr. Hawley of the insurance commission "told me over the telephone this morning that unless some changes are made, Hereford can expect a 25 per cent raise over the $78,800 paid for fire insurance this year."

Fire Chief Phillips apparently got through, too, with his message: "We're fixing to get our insurance raised. How much depends on what we do."

Phillips pointed out that while a new pumper will give the city only a two cent credit on the fire insurance key rate, not getting the pumper as recommended by the fire insurance commission might bring a larger penalty.

Bayne said that he wanted "to be shown how that will make $20,000 difference in one year."

COMMISSIONER Dr. R. R. Wills early in the discussion stated that, "In reading the insurance commission recommendations I believe what we need most would be a new fire truck."

He soon had Commissioner Don Little and Troy Moore in his "buy a fire truck camp."

Phillips said he felt the city is deficient in its fire fighting equipment, having at the present only one truck that meets state standards for pumps. The city owns a 1928 model LaFrance, used as a standby pumper, a 1942 model Ford that falls short of state standards for 500-gallon per minute pumps by only a few gallons, and a 1949 LaFrance pumper.

HE RECOMMENDED buying a 750-gallon pumper, and "fixing up" the Ford for use on rural fires, "those rough roads will shake a big truck to pieces."

Commissioner Wills made reference to the point that the city now has a greater obligation to provide fire protection to rural residents since making a contract with the county commission last February.

Ultimately it was decided that Bayne and Phillips would observe the opening of bids for a new fire truck at Canyon this week, then determine whether to take new bids or to select one from those opened by the city board here last April. Bayne said that he believes the April bids will still be honored, none having been formally withdrawn.

MINIMUM GAS RATE changes were discussed at length by the commissioners with Pioneer Natural Gas Co. officials. No action was taken pending the consideration of additional information on the company's profits during the past 10 years.

Final Rites Held for H.J. Roberson, Pioneer Resident

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church for H. J. (Jack) Roberson, 70, a resident of Deaf Smith County since 1901.

The Rev. Howard Scott, pastor, officiated. Interment was in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mr. Roberson died at 1:40 a.m. Tuesday in Deaf Smith County Hospital after an illness of several months.

He was born Feb. 2, 1887 in Johnson County and came to Hereford from there. He was a member of the First Baptist Church. He lived at 212 Higgins.

Survivors include his wife, Minnie; a son, Billy, of Amarillo two daughters, Mrs. Russell Pogue of Wellington, Mrs. Mollie Joe Schofield of Buena Park, Calif.; six brothers, Clyde of Fontana, Calif., Wiley, Obe, Miles, Dock and Jeff, all of Hereford; two sisters, Miss Mary Lou Roberson of Lubbock and Mrs. Lillian Smith of Amarillo and four grandchildren.

Maynard Buck Is Injured When Car Hits Bridge

Maynard Buck, 47, 116 Bertram, suffered a broken and dislocated shoulder Sunday night when his car went out of control and struck a bridge abutment near the city limits on E. Highway 60.

He was taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital by a Kreig-Marcum ambulance. After emergency treatment, Buck was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for treatment by a bone specialist. He also suffered facial cuts in the mishap.

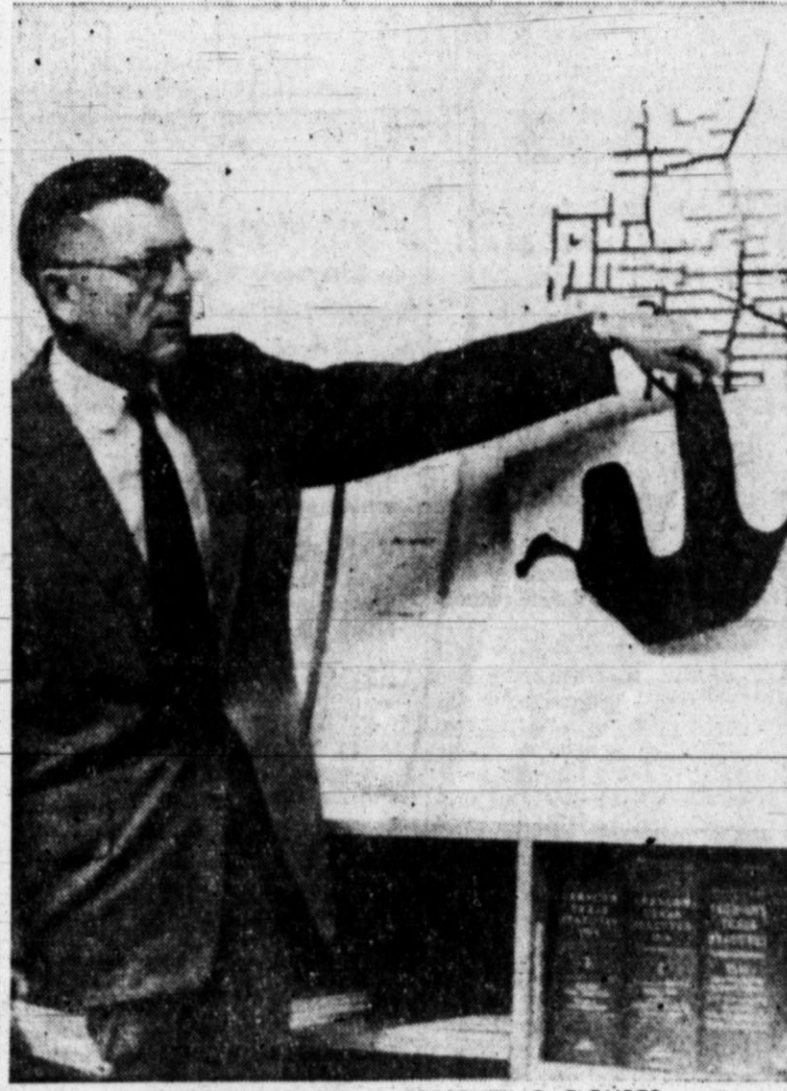

Investigating city police said Buck apparently was going west on Highway 60. They said his car was on the road for 273 feet before it hit the abutment and then travelled 309 feet after the collision. Buck was thrown from the car. Buck was accompanied by his wife, who was not injured.

New Manager for Furr Food Store

Joe Costner, 36, is the new manager of Furr Food, 603 E. Park Ave. He assumed his post here Monday, replacing Cotton Clark who had resigned to take a job in Portales, N. M.

Costner comes to Hereford from Guymon, Okla., where he managed a Furr store. He has been in the grocery business for 20 years.

He is married and has two daughters.

PIONEER'S OLDHAM PRESENTING FIGURES

United Fund Progress Will Be Charted Daily

A big thermometer to register the daily progress of Deaf Smith County's first United Fund will be erected Monday, the day the drive opens.

Two feet wide and 16 feet tall, the thermometer will be put on the First National Bank building at the intersection of Third and Main.

At the top of the thermometer will be the goal, $21,975, and progress toward the goal will be marked. Advance contributions will be posted on the thermometer when it is erected.

United Fund officials hope to reach the goal by Friday, Nov. 1.

A kick-off coffee will be held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Hotel Jim Hill ballroom. It is open to the public.

Dan Eddy, public relations director for the Salvation Army, will speak. Woody Wilson, general campaign chairman of the United Fund, has urged all Fund workers to be present.

PIONEER BUILDER J. A. Buckner, 90, Claimed by Death

Funeral services for Joseph Alexander Buckner, 90, a resident of Hereford since 1902, were held Tuesday afternoon in the Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home with the Rev. H. V. Fields, Grace Gospel Church pastor, officiating.

Mr. Buckner died at 11 a.m. Sunday in Deaf Smith County Hospital after an illness of several years.

He was a carpenter and helped construct most of the early buildings, including the county jail, in Hereford.

Coming to Hereford from Missouri in January of 1902, he helped erect the second brick building in Hereford and worked on the Panhandle Christian College buildings.

He was born in Tennessee on April 23, 1867 and was married to Harriett Foss in March of 1889. He became a Mason in 1891 and served as high priest of the Hereford Royal Arch Chapter for 15 years. He was a member of Knight Templars and a charter member of Khiva Shrine. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, J. J., and a daughter, Mrs. Verdine Cowan, both of Hereford; 14 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and six great-great grandchildren; a sister, Eliza Powell of Springfield, Mo., and two brothers, Lewis of Springfield, Mo., and Ira of California.

THE CLOVIS CLASH will be the last non-conference game for Hereford. The Whitefaces open District 1-AAA play against Littlefield here on Nov. 1 and play Dumas, Levelland and Phillips in that order.

Clovis has had an unsuccessful season thus far, winning two and losing four.

The Wildcat attack features the running of fullback Tommy Watson and the left-handed passing of quarterback Larry Dameron.

Clovis uses a winged-T formation as well as the standard T.

who described himself as an engineer with Pioneer, presented in much detail the story of Pioneer and the reason behind its request for a 25 cent boost in the minimum gas rate. If granted, Hereford home and commercial users of gas would pay $1.50 for the first 2,000 cubic feet of gas used, compared to $1.25 now.

Oldham nine times prefaced his remarks with the request that they be kept "off the record" by the Brand reporter attending the meeting. The city commission took no action on the requests, and the newspaper representative in considering the fact that the session was an open public meeting has chosen to delete only such facts as presented by Oldham as considered irrelevant to the reasons behind Pioneer's request.

Pioneer's raise request appears to be based primarily on the fact that inflation of wages and prices for other commodities has begun to pinch their profits.

OLDHAM graphically illustrated this point. And he showed charts to point up the fact that gas rates now charged are below those of the depression years. "We reduced gas rates in 1935, 1937 and again in 1940 and have made only one small increase since then, in 1952." The increase at that time was on the amount of gas used above the basic minimum of 2,000 feet.

In answer to a commissioners question, Oldham said that the present raise request was made on the basic minimum rate as an equitable distribution of costs, the larger users having borne the largest share of the previous raise.

City Attorney Earnest Langley did much of the questioning of the Pioneer representative. He centered his queries on statements made in 1954 by Stoney Wall, Pioneer president, regarding the value of securing summer users — primarily irrigation well owners — to balancing out gas use rates.

Oldham admitted and indeed showed charts to indicate that irrigation wells now provide a market that overcomes the problem that low summer use of natural gas once presented for Pioneer. But he pointed out that the increased use has presented many other problems.

NATURAL GAS costs to Pioneer have gone up three cents per 1,000 cubic feet since 1953; all gas used in Pioneer's 47 city system on the Plains is produced south of Amarillo; Amarillo's rate is based on contracts made in the 1920's and that city's gas comes from the North Plains; 27 cities have given or begun the process of approving the requested rate increase, and at $1.50 for 2,000 cubic feet the gas rates will still be lower than those in practically all other areas were points stressed by Oldham.

But it was on the company profit side that the Hereford commissioners achieved a tactical delay. Commissioner Nell Cooper wanted to know what were the company's profits in each year for the past 10 years. Oldham said that the rate last year was 5 1/2 per cent. He said that the 25 cent raise, which would be an average of 3.8 per cent for Hereford customers, would not put the figure over 6 per cent. He said he would obtain the 10 year figures to present at a later meeting.

AIRPORT MANAGEMENT was a question introduced to the commission by the presence at the session of Hereford Flying Service owners Holly Schunter, Morris Easley and Don Steele.

Bob Hill of Hart, who asked the commissioners earlier this month for the managership, was not present, but information he has since supplied was presented by Langley and Bayne. Hill has since told Langley and Bayne that he desires an exclusive franchise for aircraft service, flight instruction and charter service operations on the Municipal Airport, now under construction.

THE LEGALITY of such a franchise was challenged during Monday's session, and no action taken pending a ruling from the city attorney.

Hereford Flying Service's Steele, who recently moved here from Lubbock to join Schunter, a resident since 1953, and Easley, a native, in the flying business venture, said that he would favor open competition at the airport.

The necessity for service hangars was debated at some length. The fact that the city has a shortage of funds for any construction work aside from runways and parking areas at the airport was described as a major factor affecting the city officials' thinking on the matter.

IN OTHER ACTION, the commissioners approved a new electrical code — described as not as good as the city's present code — to meet a state insurance recommendation. It is supposed to give a 5 cent key rate credit for fire insurance, but will not supercede the existing code.

They opened but tabled action on bids for heating, air conditioning systems for the second floor of City Hall. The bids were $2,212 for a water cooled system, or $2,573 for an air cooled system from Brown Sheet Metal, and $3,063.98 for water cooled or $3,442 for air cooled system from Carl McCaslin Lumber Co.

Approval was granted to a request from golf cart owners to erect a sheet iron parking and storage building at the golf course. City equipment will be stored in about one-third of the building, and the city will pay a third of the $1,500 total cost.

The commissioners also okayed a change in the tax assessment of Warren Bros., after Bayne explained that they were overassessed for the current year after they failed to render taxes on personal property.

plan: The human being. "I think Benson, and I'm sure True Morse (secretary and assistant secretary of agriculture, respectively), carried pride of authorship too far."

Forcing too many people off farms, Rogers charged, cuts the number of buyers for industrial products. Some persons in authority, he added, have overlooked the fact that the cost of products is not determined by the law of supply and demand but by the law of maximum hours and minimum wages.

HE COMMENDED the Grain Sorghum Producers, Inc., as a regional commodity group that has gained ground and stature in representing farmers. And with aid from Southern and Western interests, he predicted the end of "King Corn's" domination of farm legislation.

The congressman predicted Congress will undertake a reevaluation of the nation's tax structure. He said he felt sure some changes will be made, and indicated that he believes tax cuts at some levels would lead to a more vigorous economy and ultimately to more government revenue because of economic growth.

He warned that the reevaluation is needed to plug loopholes in the tax laws, and that some legislators will favor reduction of the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance for oil and gas production.

AS FOR ECONOMY in government, Rogers said he believed that failure to provide money by appropriations is the only way to economize. He said that Congress will probably be asked to raise the national debt limit above the 275 billion dollar point when it reconvenes in January. "I'm against raising the limit," he said.

The Russian satellite "sputnik" was deprecated by the 18th District representative. While sputnik was described as giving great propaganda value to the Communists, Rogers said he believed our earth satellite and missiles program is on schedule and that our satellite will be of great value in determining things we need to know to conquer space.

He flatly declared that the Defense Department cannot truthfully say it fell behind in the rocket and missiles race. "I can't see how more money would help unless they were going to build a rocket out of $10 bills," Rogers quipped.

He said a hush-hush Congressional investigation will be held to determine whether or not any dereliction has been apparent in the development of rockets and the earth satellite.

In touching on our relations abroad, Rogers predicted the U. S. is entering a period when intense economic wars must be carried against some nations friendly to us, in addition to the continuation of the cold war with the communist nations.

He added that the Arab nations are apparently being used as pawns by the Russians but that he has been informed by Arab leaders that they will never become communist due to its conflicts with their people's religious belief.

B&PW Club Has a Salad Supper

The Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday at the home of Kathleen Baker for a salad supper. The group ate on a table covered with a linen cut work cloth which displayed a centerpiece of red roses.

The health and safety committee, whose chairman is Della Stagner, and the career and advancement committee, whose chairman is Hazel Bruner, were responsible for the program which was introduced by Hilda Havens.

A review of books was given by Mrs. Olen Leggett, high school librarian. The joys of art were discussed by Mrs. Lottie Wertemberger, a member of the Hereford Art Guild and a teacher at Stanton Junior High.

Mrs. Ruby Carmichael of the Music Study Club gave her views of the delightful pleasures to be derived from good music.

Mrs. Marion Rutter of the Hereford Garden Club explained the correct method of arrangements using two that she had made from dried materials. One sprayed with a copper paint and the other first sprayed with the flat white paint and then finished with the snow spray to give a Christmas effect. Both were arranged with the line arrangement.

Three new members and five guests were welcomed to the club. The new members are Dr. Nina Sisley and Mrs. Guy Carter from the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic and Mrs. Mary Louise Haseloff from Mode'O Day. Mrs. Carrie Mae Doak and the guest speakers were the visitors.

Mrs. Whitehead Feted by North Hereford H.D.

A birthday luncheon was given for Mrs. C. L. Whitehead at her home Oct. 16, by the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club.

Following the luncheon, the club held its regular meeting. The program, which was on repairing clothing, was given by Mrs. R. A. Fullwood, Mrs. O. L. Williams and Roberta Campbell.

During roll call the theme was followed by answering with how to mend a frayed button hole, when I get my mending done or my most difficult garment to patch.

At the business meeting the club voted to contribute to the United Fund.

Visitors present were Mrs. A. E. Wolf of Van Duren, Calif., Mrs. W. B. Beach and Mrs. Ida Bennett.

Members present were Mesdames R. A. Fullwood, A. E. Hodges, Paul Hoff, Tony Hoffman, R. E. Barrett, Frank Brinkman, Mary Bodkin, W.-N. Rieger, Otto Masie, W. H. Russell, Otto Olson, C.

L. Whitehead, O. L. Williams and Miss Roberta Campbell.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Otto Olson on Nov. 7. A demonstration on gift wrapping will be given.

Met Opera Opening to Strains of Tchaikovsky's 'Onegin'

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — It is Monday night we've been waiting for — the biggest sociable-musical night of the year, indeed the biggest musical night.

All the broughams, landaus and town cars, all the top hats, opera capes and canes, all the diamonds and tiaras, all the young men with gold dust powdering their hair and wearing their leopard skin waistcoats, all society's deepest cleavages — they will turn out this year, or at least they have in the past, for the opening of the Metropolitan Opera.

If they are not going in order to see and hear one another, they are going to see and hear Tchaikovsky's "Eugene Onegin."

One year it was "Don Carlos," then "Norma," then it was "Aida." Why with more than 100 standard operas to choose from does Rudolf Bing pick this work instead of that? Would more people come to one opera than another on that gala occasion?

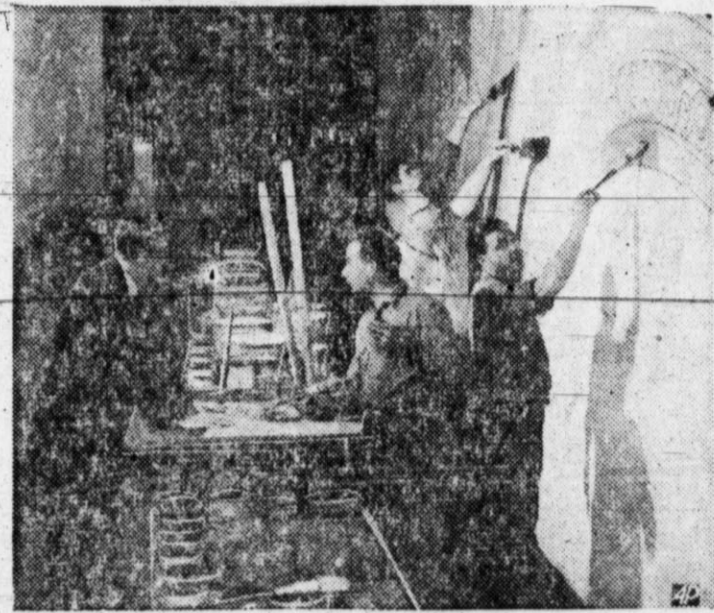

The shrewd, popular and, it begins to seem, permanent general manager of the Met was inclined to think:

"Now, they come anyway." He went on: "There are innumerable angles to the choice of the first-night work, and before telling you why I picked 'Onegin,' I must explain how this repertory theater chooses its whole season's programs."

First of all, the Met must decide how many weeks it will run. Then it faces these questions: How many new productions are possible, how much money will there be, how many different works are needed for the various series of subscribers?

Furthermore, the house carries over successful works from the past season. It may find usable sets and costumes in the warehouse to permit an inexpensive revival. Finally, one number is box office and another isn't; for one work there is a cast and for another, the Met hasn't the right singers.

So for the coming season it

shaped up this way:

"We are doing a brand-new work, Samuel Bjber's 'Vanessa.' A friend gave us the money for a new authentically Japanese 'Madame Butterfly.' We decided we must modernize 'Don Giovanni.'"

"Then we considered what it was possible to do further. It occurred to me we had not done much Russian opera, and nothing new for a long time. Looking more closely, we realized we had the cast for 'Onegin.' George London in the title role, Lucine Amara as Tatjana and Richard Tucker as Lenski. We got a new English translation."

"Now there were runners-up. We studied 'Onegin' and the other contenders. If for instance Dimitri Mitropoulos had said he hated 'Onegin' and wouldn't conduct, I might have changed my mind. But he wanted to do it. So that's it."

Peter Brook is stage manager, Rolf Gerard is doing scenery and costumes. The decision was reached the end of last year, the people in charge got together and discussed their problems, they went to work.

Last given here in 1921, "Onegin" was no great hit then though Claudia Muzio, Giuseppe de Luca and Giovanni Martinelli appeared in the leading roles. But as Bing pointed out, the opera has lavish ballroom scenes, Tchaikovsky is a great name, there is some lovely music.

WATERCOLOR SKETCH by Metropolitan Opera Designer Rolf Gerard depicts a costume to be worn by the title character in "Eugene Onegin," opening production of the Met season.

Sherlock Holmes Now Solving Mysteries for Hi-Fi Addicts

By HUGH MULLIGAN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Mystery fans will be happy to know that Mrs. Baker's cozy rooms on Baker Street have been acoustically refurbished so their most famous tenant, Mr. Sherlock Holmes, can exercise his massive deductive powers in the hi-fi medium.

Except for the inoffensive presence of a few pick up microphones, the sound engineers have left the old place pretty much in tact. The old violin still rests on the bookcase, the Persian slipper of choice tobacco is in its usual place on the mantle, and sound of a horse carriage approaching down the cobblestone streets announces that once again murder and mayhem are about to be committed and detected in the foggy depths of Victorian London.

Sherlock Holmes, who began as a short story character, successfully moved to the theater, the movies, radio and then television, has no trouble weaving his old mystery magic from a long playing phonograph record.

London Records gives him a splendid debut in the hi-fi field with Sir John Gielgud in the role of Holmes, Sir Ralph Richardson as the humbling Dr. Watson and Orson Welles as the sinister Professor Moriarty.

Even the most diehard William Glette and Basil Rathbone fans, for whom there can be no other Sherlock Holmes, will be forced to admit that Gielgud gives an exciting, charming performance, bringing just the right combination of sarcasm and devilish arrogance to the role.

The only fault, and it is a small one, that could possibly be found is with the selection of stories. The album includes a portion of "The Study in Scarlet," where Watson first meets Holmes, almost all of "The Affair of Charles Augustus Milverton" and all of "The Final Problem," where Holmes and Moriarty presumably go to their doom after a hand-to-hand struggle on the edge of a deep canyon.

Oddly enough, in not one of these selections do we hear Holmes solving a case or exercising his famous deductive powers, except to note that Watson has been to a Turkish bath because his shoes are tied a certain way.

It is to be hoped however that, like Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, London Records and Sir John Gielgud can be persuaded to bring Holmes back to life again after the so-called final problem and set his nimble brain to work on many more cases. Doyle tried killing his

Bud To Blossom Has Flower Clinic

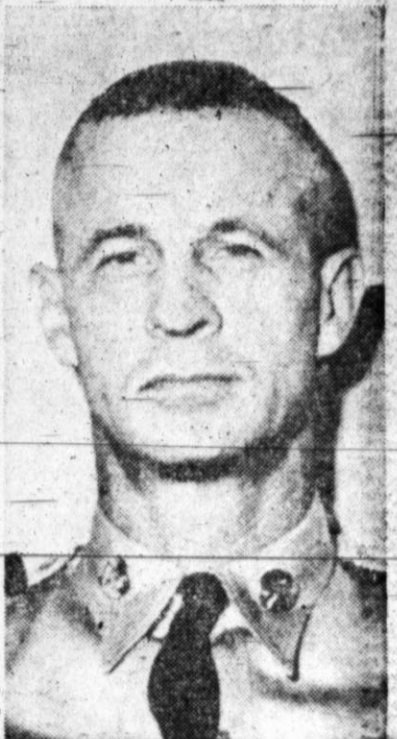

A fall flower arrangement clinic was held in the home of Mrs. W. H. Patton Friday morning for the Bud To Blossom Garden Club. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. served as judge and each member submitted an entry.

The fall flowers were arranged with distinctive lines and containers. The placement was discussed.

The name of Mrs. Don Steele was voted on and she was accepted as a new member.

Members present were Mesdames Irving Alexander, Glyn Bilibrey, R. A. Daniel, Ray Godwin, Preston Higgins, E. R. Kendall, Don Martin, J. F. Martin, W. H. Patton, Pat Robinson, Lloyd Sharp, Clinton West, Jimmy White, Glenn Williams and R. N. Yarbro.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Glyn Bilibrey. Mrs. Jimmy White will be in charge of the program which will be on holiday candle making.

Disaster Clinic Is Set by Red Cross

A disaster clinic review will be held in the Deaf Smith County Red Cross chapter today and tomorrow. All chairmen have been alerted for the meeting and will be notified their special time to report and instructions.

Miss Henrietta Brocksmith of St. Louis, Mo., will conduct the clinic, aided by the local field representative, Robert Blackburn. Miss Brocksmith heads this department from the area office and has done actual duty on many disasters.

This review follows the clinic which was held here in 1955. It had been set for this past spring but was postponed because of so many disasters occurring that all personnel were out on active duty.

George R. Jowell is local disaster chairman, Wayne Edwards, first vice chairman and Louie LeGrand, second vice chairman and Mrs. Charles Seed, third vice chairman.

detective off and the public wouldn't stand for it. Record fans will no doubt react the same way.

This must be Gielgud month on records. The noted English actor dons his deerskin cap and steps into Hamlet's black sable robes for a memorable four-record Hamlet performance with the Old Vic company. The RCA Victor album ranks as one of the finest dramatic accomplishments in the realm of hi-fi and one of the most complete Hamlets found anywhere.

Dallas Police Hold Man Wanted Here

Dallas County sheriff's officers arrested Harley Stone Saturday on a charge of theft by conversion of an automobile. Stone is wanted in Hereford on a felony worthless check, theft and a misdemeanor worthless check.

Deaf Smith County sheriff's officers and city police had been looking for Stone since August of this year when he gave a hot check for $171 to Western Auto here. Last week Stone paid another visit to Hereford and allegedly stole a TV set, wrote a hot check to Orsborn-Norwood Chevrolet for $31.10 and failed to pay a three-day bill at the Plains Motel.

Sheriff Charles Skelton said Stone, 39, would be prosecuted in Dallas on the theft by conversion charge and then would be turned over to Deaf Smith County.

City Gets Rubber Check, Collects the Cash Fast

An audacious itinerant vendor, who gave the City of Hereford a bogus $25 check for his license, was arrested in Grand Prairie Tuesday and agreed to pay off the check rather than be returned here to face prosecution.

The man, who lives in Grand Prairie, gave the rubbery check on April 16 of this year, sold his goods and skipped town before the check bounced.

Charles had been alerted to watch him and Grand Prairie police had been alerted to be on the lookout.

"That guy was diving off like a slot machine," Chief Henry Avcock said after talking to the man over the phone. The charges were dropped.

YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

Corinne J. Neely

YOUR RED CROSS CHAPTER OFFERS MANY SERVICES TO THE COMMUNITY AND INCLUDES WELFARE, AS IN THE CASE OF DISASTER AND TO THE SERVICEMAN AND/OR HIS FAMILY; ALSO HEALTH AND SAFETY PROGRAMS.

If you are not familiar with some of these programs, read the following reports which cover the summer months and early fall activities:

WATER SAFETY: This is the swimming program which began early in June and was completed in mid-August in which 113 boys and girls completed courses to earn certificates. There were 72 beginners, 31 intermediates, 7 jr. Life Guards and 3 Senior Life Guards and many others had lessons which did not merit certificates. This is a safety program which furnishes fun and past-time for youths and adults which some time may save a life!

FIRST AID is another safety program for youth and adults and fall classes will begin soon in this service, pending the arrival of revised text books. Instructors, Marlin Gilliland and Mrs. J. E. Dyer recently attended a school in Amarillo studying the revised books and will aid other instructors here in teaching. The Motor Cross Service Group plan classes soon in the Advanced First Aid along with some others ready for this class. Henry W. Avcock and Lee Newman are other instructors who will be helping with classes.

NURSING SERVICE: The chapter has two instructors in the health service. Mrs. Earl Springer, RN, instructs "Mother and Baby Care" classes and has taught three such classes since she became an instructor a little over a year ago. Mrs. Joel Hodges, Homemaking teacher in High School, is the instructor of "The Care of the Sick and Injured" and has recently completed two classes of 39 girls, with 2 more classes planned for early part of the year. These girls took the course early anticipating the Asiatic Flu, so could use their information in home care of the ill.

DISASTER is one of the two welfare services the chapter offers the community which it is chartered by the government to do. The other is Home or Family Service which is given the serviceman and veteran and their families. Disaster may mean one man or family which is a local one up to five families involved, that many or more the community acts help from the National office in funds and help. This past year over $500.00 was spent locally in this Disaster program. October 24 and 25th the chapter will be having a Disaster Clinic Review of their Preparedness Plan in which over 50 persons in the community have assigned jobs to do in case of disaster.

JR. RED CROSS is the Junior edition of chapter workers and they have their own projects, funds, and trained personnel as well as adult volunteer committee for guidance and help. The Juniors are mostly inactive in the summer but organize when school begins and carry on their work there. Mrs. H. A. Cavness, newly elected chairman has for her committee: Mrs. Jack Brudley, Hinh Scholt; Mrs. Lee Kent, Jr. Hieh; Mrs. Bill Waldron, Shirlew; Mrs. Stanley Simman, Aikman; Mrs. Bill John Messick, Cantal; Mrs. Gerald Banner, St. Anthony's; Mrs. H. B. Whitten, Parkview; Mrs. Waldron Melton, Walcott; Mrs. Gayle Neal, Dawn; Mrs. W. L. Davis, Fowlkes Kindergarten. They will be working with the teacher-sponsors and the trained workers in the year ahead. The Juniors are the adult workers of tomorrow.

UNITED FUND: Your local chapter belongs to the United Fund, the newly organized group in the community and many Red Cross workers of the past are taking an active part in the campaign. They and your chapter personnel will help in every possible way to make this drive a success.

Other Services are being considered as the community shows a need for them, as Gray Ladies, Canteen and Nurses Aides under the volunteers program.

CONGRESSMAN

Walter Rogers, in addition to his development in the political world, is also becoming quite an interesting public speaker. He talked to a small group of city, county and C-C leaders at a luncheon Tuesday - and even the doctors stayed over an extra 30 minutes to hear his remarks.

A new joke included in Roger's talk concerned a man in the hospital, who heard a gentle knock on the door of his room and said, "Come in."

A lady doctor entered the room and told him that she was there to give him an examination. The man protested to some extent, but was finally stripped of his clothing and placed on a table, whereupon he was given a thorough physical examination. When the lady doctor finished, she efficiently tabulated her findings and announced that he was apparently in excellent health. She closed her remarks by inquiring if he would like to ask any questions.

"Yes, one question," said the patient. "Why did you knock on the door when you came into the room?"

"LITTLE ROCK, Sputnik and National Economy" were cited by Rogers as the topics most often discussed these days. In a nutshell, he figures Congress can and will prevent another "depression" - if necessary. He says that U. S. delay in launching its satellite is not due to a lack of money, adding: "They will have to come up with some other excuse." He also said, "The team that makes the first score does not necessarily win the ball game," pointing to Pearl Harbor as an example of a national come-back.

Walter seems to have traded part of his hair for 18 or 20 pounds of extra weight while in Washington. A lot of old boys around here have managed to achieve the same result. This, of course, indicates that the atomic fall out must be as bad back east as in this country.

MANY PEOPLE fall for different things, but Mrs. Oliver Streu is a gal who really fell for the Rotary Club. When she stood up to be introduced by her pop, Francis Hardwick, someone slipped the chair back - and she sat down all of the way to the floor with a resounding bounce. Husband Oliver indicates Francis pulled out the chair, while Francis grins and points at Oliver. Joan wasn't hurt, and says she believes it was good salesmanship. Nearly every member and guest bought one of the club calendars she was selling.

in behalf of L' Allégria Club. However, she says it was a wee bit embarrassing - at the moment.

Hereford will apparently be well represented in the South Dakota pheasant shooting this year. Luther Lesly and a group have been gone all week. Lee Carter, John Pool and N. D. Bartlett have an other delegation which left Wednesday. Also on the way are the old timers: Otis Hall, Ray Godwin, Dub Reeves, Dale Tinnin, Gene Moore, Jack Brown, Cameron Gault, and H. A. Close.

DEER HUNTERS are so numerous that it would be impossible to track them all down. Lowell Sharp says hunting is the best of this year. He got a buck near Pagosa Springs a week ago and is threatening to go back for a second round.

C. R. SMITH probably has more oil leases and royalty in this area than any other man, woman and child. He has been picking them up down through the years. He definitely thinks there is oil in this country, and he thinks the time is drawing near when some production will come through. If not this year, maybe the next or the next. Sounds like a good deal. After all, there are few crops that can successfully compete with a good stand of oil derricks.

Seems like "when it rains" is becoming more important than "how much it rains." Such, at least, is the currently popular philosophy of most farmers in the area. This is especially true among the lettuce growers as they sit back, helpless to get into their fields, and watch the prices soar. Milo growers, too, are getting more and more restless as the drizzle hangs on to keep them out of the fields. It is equally rough on the itinerant laborers who, in many cases, need the work to buy food, clothing and other necessities. All of these things, in turn, produce the same handicap for the local merchant who is anxious to sell merchandise.

Assembly of God Church Revival Begins Sunday

A revival meeting will begin at the Assembly of God Church Sunday and will continue through Sunday, Nov. 10. Services will be held each day at 7 p.m., except Saturday.

The Rev. O. B. Hunnicutt of Panama City, Fla., has been engaged as the evangelist for the revival campaign. Until recently he pastored one of the Assemblies of God churches in Panama City. He is now engaged in evangelistic work, and this is his first campaign in Texas since resigning from his pastorate.

The Rev. V. W. Marcontell is pastor of the local church which is located on the corner of Ave. G and Union.

Graveside Rites for Slater Baby

Graveside services for Hazle Jean Slater, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Slater of Hereford, were held Monday afternoon in West Park Cemetery.

The baby died Sunday afternoon in Deaf Smith County Hospital after a short illness. She was born Oct. 10, 1956.

Surviving other than the parents is one brother.

During one session of Congress 46,000 bills and resolutions were introduced.

LETTUCE BUSINESS BOOMING—Bad weather, which has plagued this area's farmers in their efforts to harvest crops, has not been too unkind for lettuce growers. Despite rain, drizzle and muddy fields, a steady stream of packaged and cooled lettuce has been moving from Hereford to the nation's market centers. ABOVE—A lift truck snakes a load of 180 jumbo cartons out of a vacuum cooling tube at the Polar-Vac plant in southeast Hereford and minutes later, below, the cartons—at 32½ degrees, roll off a conveyor belt into a refrigerator car. Field packaging and vacuum cooling have completely replaced the old system of crating and icing lettuce for shipment from Hereford. Brokers report a saving in packaging costs, improvement in the quality of vegetable shipped. The bad weather here and in California sent lettuce prices to a $4.50 per carton of 24 heads high here two weeks ago and much of the crop moved at prices in the $4 range. The price began to come down last Thursday, but was quoted at $2.75 to $3 per carton on Tuesday. Some lettuce has been carried out of fields by hand as growers and brokers worked to continue shipments despite the sloppy harvest conditions. (Staff Photos)

Viewing the Wrestling

Slipped on a banana peel?

HAVING OBSERVED some extra notice of the coming attractions at the Bull Barn for Oct. 19, the editor was not adverse to the suggestion of a Brand photographer that he sit in on the soiree. In due time he reported back that he had been well received by Hereford Lions Club members, sponsors of the program, who said the crowd of 800 was below expectations. He entrusted one roll of exposed film to the care of the darkroom technician, who at presstime was the only man available to caption the pictures thus produced.

If she was coming down . . . no, nobody would mistreat a pretty girl that way. These lady wrestlers were billed as Helen Hild versus Loraine Johnson. Miss Johnson wore a dark gym suit.

Grapplers To Vie for Title

Dory Funk and Country Boy, a 552-pound wrestler, will challenge the Great Bolo and Art Nelson for the world's tag team championship in the Bull Barn Saturday night. The same four grapplers tangled last Saturday in a non-title bout and Bolo and Nelson won it, taking the first and third falls.

The championship match is scheduled for two out of three falls with a 90-minute time limit. The Great Bolo will wrestle without his mask for the first time in Hereford. Tommy Phelps will referee.

Two preliminary bouts have been set for one fall or 20 minutes with Funk taking on Bolo and Country Boy meeting Nelson.

With 800 people watching last Saturday, Nelson and Bolo took the first fall in 9:50 with Bolo pinning Funk. Funk then pinned Bolo for the second fall in 12 minutes and Bolo won the match for his team by pinning Funk.

Two blonde female wrestlers met in a preliminary last Saturday. Helen Hild defeated Loraine Johnson, winning the first and third falls.

DRILL STOPPER

HOBART, Okla. (P) — Everything stops in this Southwest Oklahoma area for the wheat harvest, even Army training.

The Hobart National Guard dispensed with weekly drills until after the harvest so all hands could help.

The Spaniards who accompanied Columbus on his fourth voyage gave Costa Rica, or "rich coast," its name when they saw Indians there wearing gold ornaments.

Unladylike use of the hair. Where wuz the cops?

We heard somewhere that Country Boy, left, all 552 pounds of him, has never been knocked off his feet and assume that no one could actually tell whether he was upright or prone due to his more than considerable girth. The man with his back to us, identified by his blond locks, is the sometime resident of Umbarger, Dory Funk. Art Nelson is mistreating him while the Great Bolo, masked, flails about on the floor. Man in T-shirt is probably the referee. (Staff Photos)

Homemaking Teachers Have Busy Session Here Saturday

Homemaking was described as the "greatest of all professions" by Bill Lenderman, local chamber of commerce manager, as he welcomed 128 delegates to the all-day meeting of Area I homemaking teachers at Hereford High School Saturday.

Mrs. Frances Jones of Littlefield presided during the morning session, and Principal Bill Stanford and Mrs. J. J. Durham added their words of welcome to the group. Mrs. Durham introduced members of the local homemaking advisory committee and homemaking students and their mothers who had helped with arrangements for the meeting.

Norma Lantz of Lefors presented sidelights on the national meeting of homemaking teachers and displayed several tables of suggested materials and helps for the homemaking program.

delegates to take part were emphasized in Mrs. Patricia Scribner's report from the national FHA meeting. She described especially a panel presented by an actual family whose members discussed topics introduced by a moderator. Mrs. Scribner is homemaking teacher at Tom S. Lubbock High School.

Members of the local advisory committee were hostesses for a coffee honoring the visiting teachers during the break at 10 a.m. An autumn theme was emphasized in table appointments, and pouring was Mrs. F. L. Alexander, president of the committee, and Mrs. H. E. Wester, president of the high school P-TA. Assisting were Mesdames Colby Conkright, Edward Roberson, George Paetzold, John Blocker, and girls from the local homemaking department.

Miss Esther Sorenson, area supervisor, conducted a discussion period in the high school study hall following the coffee. Under consideration were policies and regulations affecting vocational homemaking teachers.

Special guests at the luncheon in the Shirley School cafeteria were two foreign exchange students, Feliza Silvana from Italy who is studying here, and Margareta Sunstrom from Sweden, who is enrolled in Ralls High School. They were accompanied by their American sisters, Dolly Paetzold and Betsy Lyle.

Presiding at the afternoon session was Gladys Armstrong of the Home Economics Department, West Texas State College, Canyon. Hostesses were Mesdames Juanelle Thomsen, Cooper School, Lubbock, and Velma Bourland, Clarendon. Hostesses at the morning session were Mrs. LaVerne Sarradet, Springlake School, Earth, and Mrs. J. T. Barnett, Tulla.

"Using the Working Guide in Developing Homemaking Education Curriculum in Local Communities," was the topic for a discussion work session conducted by Doris Nesbitt, Home Economics Education Division, School of Home Economics, Texas Tech, Lubbock, and Miss Sorenson.

The concluding number on the program was a panel discussion, "Enriching the Way with FHA," presented by Mesdames Ima Dora Haile, Slaton; Pearl Paramore, Roosevelt School, Lubbock; Anice Naylor, Smyer; and Panzie Biggs, Atkins Junior High, Lubbock.

Both objects can be accomplished by using the following application: Melt a little beeswax and add enough sweet oil to make it pour. Then warm the shoe soles and pour on the mixture while it is hot. Hold the shoes near the fire until the mixture is absorbed into the leather.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I treat a cork that has shrunk, and is too loose for the bottle?
A. Place the cork in a pan of boiling water and allow it to remain until the water cools. This will make the cork expand to its original size, and it will fit the bottle snugly.

Q. How can I remove rust that has formed on scissors?
A. Kerosene will remove rust from the scissors.

Q. How can I remove blackheads from my face?
A. Use soap and water freely. Gently massage a thick lather on the face, and when it has dried, rinse off thoroughly. The larger blackheads can be pressed out with the fingers, using care not to bruise the skin. Then sponge the skin with witch hazel to avoid infection. This treatment should be used daily.

Q. How can I prevent new shoes from burning the feet?
A. In most instances, if talcum powder is shaken into the shoes, it will stop the burning sensation.

Q. How can I prevent a bowl from moving all over the table when beating the contents?
A. This can be prevented if a folded towel is placed under the bowl.

Q. How can I clean steel?
A. A good way to clean steel is to rub it with a paste made of emery powder and oil, mixed to the proper consistency.

First Baptist Church Revival To Begin Sunday

The Rev. Homer Martinez will be the evangelist during the series of revival services at the First Baptist Church, beginning Sunday.

The Rev. Martinez, 26, is a graduate of Georgetown College in Kentucky, and is presently a senior student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He preached his first sermon at age 11, and began his evangelistic travels at 15. He has been actively engaged in this work since that time, and has preached in many churches from New York to California.

While living in Kentucky, Martinez entered the Golden Gloves tournament. Fighting as an amateur, he succeeded in winning the Kentucky state crown and was runner-up in Chicago at the national tournament. Martinez showed such promise in this field that he was approached by promoters and managers with offers to box professionally. His response to their offers was, "I want to preach the Word of God as my life's work."

Although he had a record of 40 wins in 47 amateur fights, he left the ring to devote his life to the gospel.

Accompanying the Rev. Martinez will be Joey Caldwell who will direct the singing for the revival. Caldwell was former soloist to the United Nations in the renowned San Francisco meeting. He is presently a recording artist for Echo Records.

Services will be held daily. The morning services will be at 7 a.m., and the evening services at 7:30 p.m.

IN COLLEGE—Mrs. Sallie Darnell, above, of Denison, is looking forward to a new career and is studying for it at Austin College at Sherman. But there is a considerable age difference between Mrs. Darnell and other juniors on the campus, she's 73. Mrs. Darnell returned to college this fall to resume preparation for home mission service. She last was in the school in 1952. (AP Photo)

GARCIA NEWS

Wheat Growers Welcome Rain

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT

Around 1/2 inch of rain fell in the Garcia community Thursday night and there has been a fine mist or fog since. The ground has begun to get a little wet on top. The people in the dryland can use more rain and the farmers and ranchers are very proud of what has already fallen.

Mrs. Ruth Coleman who is in the Deaf Smith County Hospital is reported to be improving. The oxygen tent has been removed and chances are she will be able to return home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman and children made a trip to Elk City, Okla., on Sunday night to tell Mrs. G. E. Pinkington, mother of Mrs. Ruth Coleman. Mrs. Pinkington returned home with them Monday.

Mrs. Pinkington has been staying at the Coleman home so she could be near her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt had house guests the past week. They were Mrs. Thweatt's sister, Mattie Lue Hays, and a friend, Ida Eppinson, both of Levelland. They returned home Friday.

Mrs. Jack Buse visited her mother and other relatives in Wellington last week. She returned to Hereford by bus where she was met by a daughter, Mrs. Betty Lady. After having supper with her, Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Markham took Mrs. Buse to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown, Barbara, David and Denis spent the weekend in White Deer visiting Mrs. Brown's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Broxton. Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Tommy, Earl and Roger all attended the wrestling match in Hereford Saturday night.

Mrs. Bob Howard and Dona visited Mrs. Floyd Brown Friday afternoon. James Roy Coleman of Crested Butte, Colo., brother of Bruce Coleman of Garcia community, wrote his brother that he had sawed his leg while sawing a piece of lumber. A number of stitches were taken in his leg, but this failed to stop the infection and it is taking some time for the cut to heal. He is able to get around on the leg a little now.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown and family visited in the home of Brown's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Potts of Rosedale, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Head spent Friday in the home of N. A. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Potts visited with the Brown family Sunday afternoon.

Messenger Home Demonstration Club will meet Friday, Oct. 25, at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. D. Howard. The program will be good grooming. Mrs. Floyd Brown and Mrs. E. M. Jack will give the program.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt made a business trip to Levelland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman and children made a business trip to Lubbock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Newman and family attended the wrestling match in Hereford Saturday night.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to everyone for the thoughtful deeds of kindness and deepest sympathy during the loss of our loved one.

We also extend our sincere thanks to the Gilliland Funeral Home and the Rev. H. V. Fields, Mr. A. H. Swigart and family.

POSTAL ERA ENDS

Ottawa, Ohio (AP) — An era ended in nearby North Creek when Miss Grace Ball retired after 36 years as postmaster. Her homey little post office was closed up forever under a reorganization program. The post office, in a building owned by Miss Ball, had knotty pine paneling, lounge chairs, rugs and curtains and was a favorite gathering place for the villagers.

GENESIS 32:24-26 — "And Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until the breaking of day. . . and he said unto him, What is thy name?" (RSV)

Jacob believed if you knew a man's name you could also know his power. He wrestled at midnight saying, "Tell me your name?"

What's in a name? Let us think of the name Jesus. Other men had worn this name but there came a man called Jesus of Nazareth who so honored the name Jesus that it would be called, "the saving name given among men." Living at the same time was a man called Judas and he so dishonored his name as to practically wipe it out of the vocabulary. Later two men would also live as contemporaries — Paul and Nero — and each would so honor or dishonor his name as to cause us to this day to name our sons Paul and our dogs Nero. In our time a man named Quizling could bring such infamy upon his name as to turn it in to a common noun denoting one who is a traitor.

Indeed, there is much in a name.

Argen Receives Service Award

By DOROTHA PROWELL

Argen Draper is attending the National Conference of County Home Demonstration Agents Assn. in Minneapolis at which she will receive a coveted recognition for distinguished service. Distinguished service is truly what she has given Deaf Smith County during her 10 years here.

We hope that all you 4-H members, parents and friends are planning to attend the 4-H Achievement Banquet on Monday, Oct. 28 at 8 p. m. in the Shirley School Cafeteria. The committee headed by Mrs. H. H. Miller and assisted by Mrs. LaNoy Tooley and Mrs. W. H. Wiseman is planning an occasion that will be well worth your time. If you do not know what food to bring, be sure to contact your local leader as soon as possible. Mr. Sam Thomas, agriculture development manager of Southwestern Public Service Co. in Amarillo will give the main address.

We would like to thank the following business firms for the ham they are providing for the banquet: First National Bank, Jack Renfro, Deaf Smith County Rural Electric Cooperative, Uhlman Elevator Co. and the Dawn Cooperative.

The Hereford State Bank has given medals for some of the awards. Others are contributed by various businesses and individuals on a national basis.

Everyone is talking about the weather. In every conversation someone remembers back in 19—when the weather was similar. We have never seen such wide smiles that the people in the north and west parts of the county are wearing these days. They almost make up for the grumpy greetings you get from the maize and vegetable farmers.

Dawn Boys 4-H Club Has Meeting

The Dawn boys 4-H Club met in regular session at the Dawn schoolhouse Oct. 10, with 100 per cent membership present.

Jody Bezner, president, conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for club participation in the 4-H Achievement Banquet and Awards Program to be held at Shirley School Oct. 28, at 8 p. m. Hugh Clearman presented a slide program on the selection of swine with comments by Jody Bezner and Pete Plank.

Robert Galley and Randy Tooley served refreshments to Jody Bezner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank, Dick and Pete, Wesley Reznik, Robert and Richard Reznik, Tim Hoffman, Hugh Clearman, Orval Galley, Lanoy Tooley and Mrs. H. H. Miller and Jon David.

Fancy party clothes are out of place at a football game. The girl who wears high-heeled sandals that look like bedroom slippers, invariably wears them on a rainy or snowy day when you must trudge a long way from your car to the football field.

YOUNG MODERNS

Boys List Date Dont's for Girls

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
If you want to be a popular campus belle, better learn the ways and wherefores of dating. There are many ways to irritate the boy who takes you out. Here's a list compiled by two boys, seniors at a Westport, Conn., high school, who prefer anonymity in their confession.

1. Why does a girl become insulted if you even talk to another girl at a party or at a dance? And for some reason or another, most girls think you are supposed to dance every dance with them when you take them out.

2. Is there any reason why a girl must call you a silly pet name when you are with your buddy or another? Such names as "Cookie", "Poochie" sound endearing until they are overheard by others.

3. Why does a girl think she makes you jealous by playing up to the orchestra or a group of boys she doesn't know? It just makes her look cheap.

4. Must she always make decisions? Can't she wait until you give the waiter her order or until you make a suggestion for the evening before she tells you what she'd like. This type of girl opens doors, and always leads the boy to the table, too.

5. Why do some girls on that first date, anticipate that you've just taken her out for a necking engagement? They are scared that you are going to "demand" a kiss before the evening is over.

6. Isn't it considered reasonable to expect a girl to ask you in to her home once in a while, perhaps for a sandwich after a date? There shouldn't be any harm if parents are home.

7. Why does a girl write you a mushy letter just because you've given her a little encouragement. And why is that particular letter always opened by your mother or sister by mistake?

8. If a girl wants to put on make up why doesn't she leave the table. It's disgusting to watch some girls slather on lipstick, and even eye makeup at the table. And combing the hair at the table, certainly means she is carrying the idea too far.

9. Why does the average girl feel obliged to round up a girl you've just paid a compliment to, acting insecure just to have the other girl praised?

10. The spoiled brat type of girl who can't be a good sport when things go wrong — flat tire, deflated wallet, a case of flu on the night of the big dance — is just ruling herself out of future dates.

11. Why do girls bore you with a lot of frilly chit-chat, and then get insulted if you discuss baseball or some sport in which you are interested.

12. A girl doesn't have to be dressed to kill when you take her to a party, but she should find out what she is supposed to wear so that she doesn't overdress.

Dead Batteries
Dead flashlight batteries can be somewhat revived by keeping them in a warm oven overnight. Results also can be obtained by removing the paper cover from the batteries, punching a few small holes in the bases with a nail, then putting them into a strong salt water solution for three or four hours. Remove and dry them, dip into melted wax, and replace the paper covers when they are cool.

Caution!
Always be sure that the hands are perfectly dry before handling an electrical appliance, and never turn an electric light on or off while standing in the bath tub.

New Shoes
If the pair of new shoes are put in a warm place for a few minutes before using them, it will make the leather more pliable.

Paint on Windows
Paint spots on window panes can be removed by first soaking with hot vinegar. Allow the vinegar time to work in, then rub or scrape off with a putty knife, or even with a penny.

The Percolator
When the percolator becomes coffee-stained, put a cupful of salt in it, add water, and let it percolate the same as when preparing coffee. The percolator will be as bright as when new.

Cleaning Paint Brushes
Clean the varnish and the enamel brushes in turpentine, the shellac brushes in denatured alcohol.

Dusting Radiator
Before beginning to dust the inside of a radiator with a brush, lay a wet cloth on top of the radiator. The loose dust will rise and cling to the cloth, rather than travel about the room.

Baking Fish
Line the pan in which the fish is to be baked with two layers of waxed paper, and there will be no greasy or fish-smelling pan to clean.

Mosquito Bites
A little household ammonia added to the water with which mosquito bites are washed will take the sting out of the bite.

Pickling Meats
If in doubt as to the correct amount of salt to use when pickling meats, place the meat and water in a pot, then put in a medium-sized potato. Now keep adding salt until the potato rises to the top of the water and the brine will be just right.

Every Child Deserves the Fun of Halloween

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

Is there to be a Halloween party in your child's school? If your youngster is not too talkative about such things, better make a phone call or two and find out. Most schools do have Halloween parties. The important thing about the party is the costume — that's what it's all about. The children parade about and win prizes for the most outstanding costume. Often there are several categories — the prettiest, the funniest, the most original and so on.

If every child in the class, except one, has some kind of a costume, it's going to be very hard indeed on that one child. Don't let it happen to your youngster. Mike had just entered school in September. He was in first grade. He was pretty overwhelmed by this whole business of school and lots of the time he wasn't quite sure what was going on. There was talk about a party next Thursday. He was all for it. Mother didn't seem too interested in what went on at school, so he didn't say anything to her about the party. Thursday came and every child in the class, except Mike, came in with a big bundle. Mike was a little surprised at all these packages, but there were lots of things he didn't know, so he didn't pay much attention. Ten o'clock came and the teacher said:

"Now everyone can put on his costume and we will all go into the assembly room."

THERE was a great bustling about, the bundles popped; open, witches, ballerinas, clowns, Davy Crocketts appeared all over the room. The teacher was jumping about helping Mary with her sash, Bob with his holster and Timothy with his boots. Poor Mike, he just sat there; nobody paid any attention to him.

Finally Miss Fullerton did see him.

"Where's your costume, Mike?" she asked.

Mike just looked blank.

"Didn't your mother get you anything?" Miss Fullerton was very busy and annoyed at this new problem. Her voice was sharp and condemning.

Mike began to cry.

Miss Fullerton was a good teacher, and a warm friendly girl. Quickly she said:

"Here, Mike, you wear my hat and scarf and gloves, and you can be the schoolteacher."

Mike took the things, but he wasn't happy. He felt left out and somehow different from everyone else.

As all the children were marching into the assembly room, Mike heard Tom say to Bill:

"Look, Mike's wearing Miss Fullerton's hat 'cause his mother didn't get him anything. That's no costume."

THAT WAS too much for Mike. He tore off the hat, gloves and scarf, threw them on the floor, and ran back to his room, where he began throwing all the books from the bookcase on the floor.

Miss Fullerton's new fall hat was ruined. She had lost her hat and hadn't accomplished a thing for Mike.

Children, especially little children, must be like the other children if they are to feel comfortable. You have to be very grown up and mature to be able to be different.

See to it that you never let a child of yours suffer as Mike did — and so needlessly. Halloween costumes do not have to be elaborate nor costly.

HOME REPAIR

DOS and DON'TS

By ANDREW C. LANG

LEAKY FAUCET

DO. . . know that the first step in the repair of a leaky faucet is the loosening of the packing nut under the handle — but not until the water has been shut off, either under the sink or at the main cut-off valve.

DO. . . turn the faucet handle in the same direction as though you were turning on the water, which will enable the entire faucet assembly to come loose. DO. . . take off the screw and washer at the bottom of the spindle and replace them with new ones, which can be purchased inexpensively. DO. . . replace the faucet assembly, tighten the nut and turn on the water, which will stop the leak 9 times out of 10.

DON'T. . . forget that, when this repair fails to halt the leak, the valve seat probably is worn and needs a refacing, which can be done with a tool known as a faucet redresser.

DON'T. . . neglect, when turning the packing nut, to place adhesive tape or some other covering around it to prevent marring the metal with the wrench.

DON'T. . . try to get by with the old screw at the bottom of the spindle; using a new one with the new washer will insure a better and more lasting repair.

DON'T. . . bother with the washer at all if the leak is coming from the sides of the faucet rather than the opening, in which case new packing is needed under the packing nut.

DAWN NEWS

Residents Visit, Travel

By DELLA RUTH DOW H. C. Dow went down to Elk City, Okla., last weekend to bring Mrs. Dow and Della home. They had been down there two weeks taking care of Mrs. Dow's mother, Mrs. E. L. Ray, while Mrs. Dow's sister was ill. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stickney of Amarillo accompanied Dow on the trip.

Nearly everyone here in the community has been sick or is sick now.

Mrs. Ruth McDuffy of Cheyenne, Okla., is here visiting her daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Murl Little and sons.

Ralph Neal and Larry Dale Oglesby of Canyon spent Tuesday visiting in the J. B. Caraway home. Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Russell and Elizabeth visited with the Dwayne Stewart family recently in Mesalero. N. M. Dwayne is teaching in the Mesalero school system this year.

Visiting in the Lloyd Airhart home last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Airhart and family of Dumas and Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Airhart and family of Canyon.

The Dawn Music Club met in the home of Mrs. Ray T. Stewart on Tuesday afternoon. Their theme was religious music. Those present were Mesdames Melvin May, R. L. Johnson, Ray Polan, Jim Alston, H. V. McCabe, Lloyd Airhart, Carl Wimberley, J. B. Caraway, Orval Galley and the hostess.

Later in the afternoon the Dawn Musettes met in the Stewart home.

Those present were Jon David and Audri Miller, Lucy Beth Miller, Linda Stewart, Bob, Billy and Nan Neal and Glen Polan.

Visiting in the J. B. Caraway home Thursday were Denise and Melody Kay Caraway of Hereford.

Guests in the L. A. Smith home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hewitt of South Plains, Mr. and Mrs. James Poe and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Weeter and family of Borger, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Roy and Connie.

Among those in Amarillo last week shopping and on business were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McCabe, Mrs. Marion Russell and Elizabeth, Mrs. Zed Stewart and Miss Bertha Frye.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Russell and Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart visited in Pampa Sunday with Mrs. Brunetta Stewart and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Hill attended the annual Buckner Homecoming in Dallas recently. They had a nice time seeing old friends and meeting new friends they said. If anyone in Hereford attended she would like to get in touch with them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McClung of South Gate, Calif., and Larry Bob McClung of Compton, Calif., visited with the Rev. and Mrs. Paul McClung and family recently.

One night while the McClungs were here they all went to Witharrel to see the Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Durham and Marvelynn.

Kenneth and Nathan Stark of Hereford spent the night with Bob Gentry last week.

The Rea Coxes visited in Plainview with the T. B. Coxes on Sunday.

There isn't anyone cutting maize, but Mr. Friemel. He hasn't cut for the past few days because of damp weather.

H. H. Miller underwent eye surgery Friday morning and returned home Monday. He is doing very well.

The Edgar Lemons family recently visited in Earth with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barlow. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow are Mrs. Lemons' parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Benson of Roswell, N. M., are the parents of a baby girl. They named her Debra Jody. She was born Oct. 7, and weighed four pounds and 10 ounces. They are in the Alfred Smith home. Mrs. Benson is the former Jeanette Smith.

PERSONAL PLEA

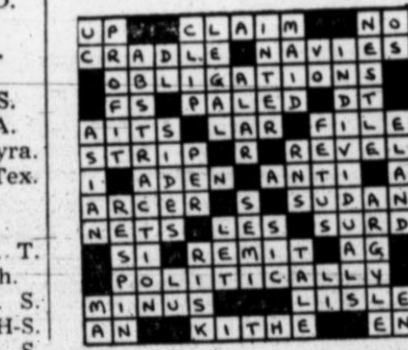

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A kitchen worker, unloading the weekly food shipment from state penitentiary at the governor's mansion, found a scribbled note.

Addressed to Gov. and Mrs. J. P. Coleman, the note read: "When your heart overflows with mercy, remember me."

It was signed "Lonzy Hareis, 20227."

Coleman remarked to his wife: "He didn't ask me to remember him when my heart overflows with justice."

In Nero's time the public slaughter-house was one of the most imposing structures in Rome.

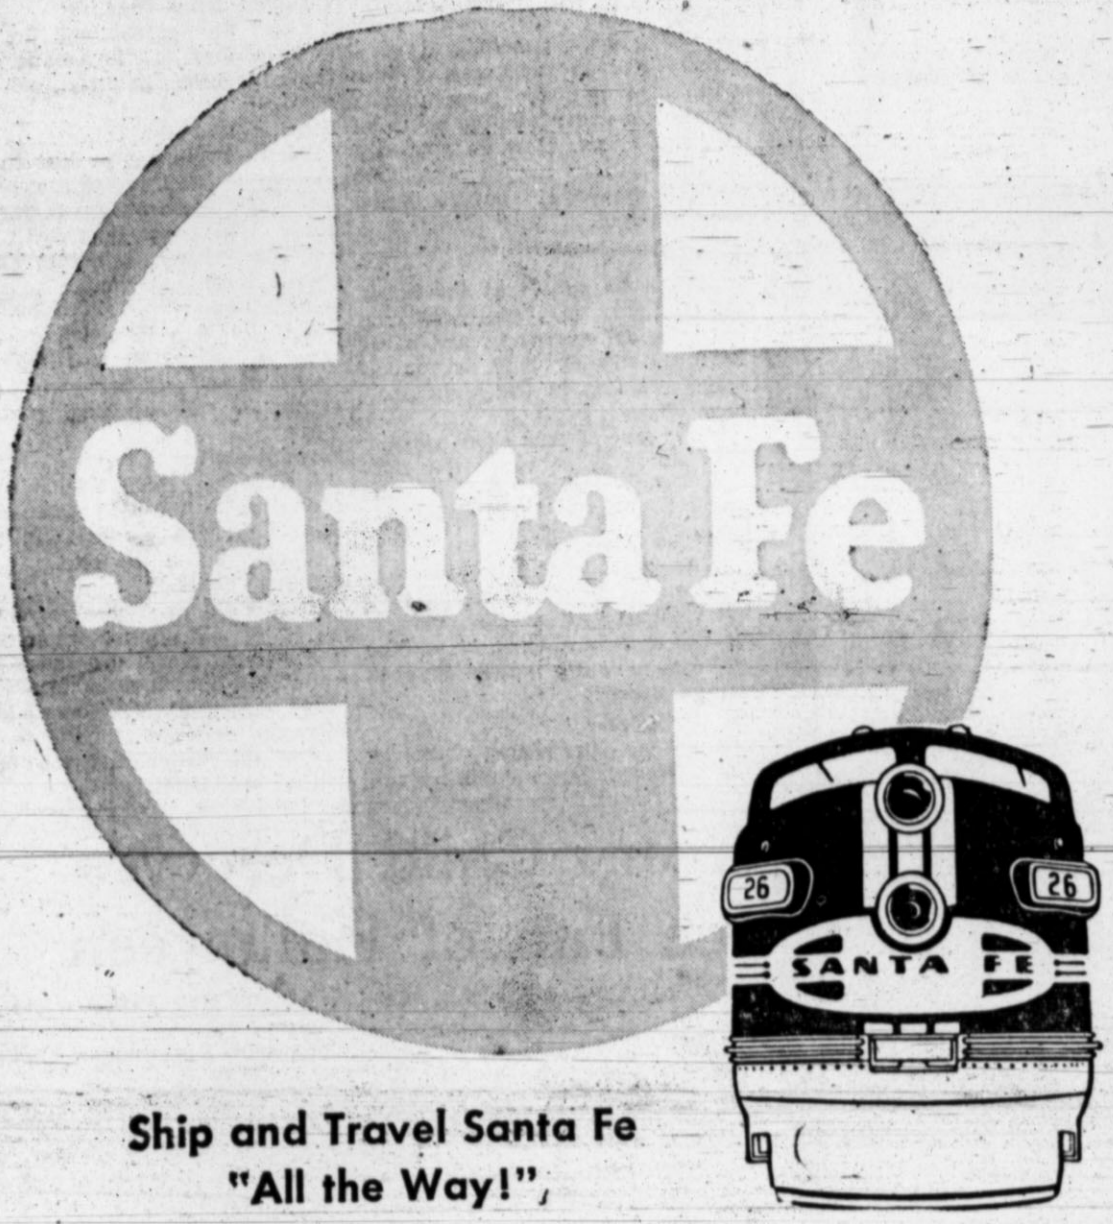

Foibles--Fancy and Plain

By KENT SNARE

It is related that Her Higness, Queen Elizabeth, who witnessed the North Carolina-Maryland game Saturday as her initial gander at American type football, was confused at the proceedings. Ditto for the Limey press, who ramified through their reports without even bothering to stipulate the score. And if you think the aforesaid were confounded, think on Jim Tatum's consternation. He returned to his old proving grounds and not only had it proved to him, but the Terns insisted on rubbing it in. Mr. T. having always been on the gabby side, probably by now, has deduced the situation in 10,000 words or more, if he has any listeners left. The undefeated list of major college footballers was constricted considerably last lap. Michigan State, Minnesota, Oregon State, Arkansas, Princeton, Wisconsin and Holy Cross had their unsullied records scarred and in some instances, most re-soundingly. There'll be more to follow, but the list is thin, with Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Duke, Iowa, Mississippi, Auburn, Notre Dame and North Carolina State will sans demerits, altho NCS was tied last week by Miami. Anent this week's goings-on, here they be, with last years happenings or no, followed by the consensus pick, which recently has been as useless as last week's mush. . . 45 Years Ago

Twelve men representing irrigation interests in Lubbock visited the Hereford area this week as guests of D. L. McDonald to inspect the irrigation wells. They have organized a stock company and will put in a big well on a tract near Lubbock and operate a demonstration farm. When not used on the crops, the well will water trees on the main boulevard and square of the town. On the farm every variety of fruit, vegetable and field crop will be grown.

William Frazer arrived in Hereford Tuesday from Mobile, Ala., making the entire trip in a run-about auto, doing the actual running in 15 days. He owns some land in this country and came to see about it.

Albert Rush of Albert, Okla., is another Oklahoma man that will farm by irrigation in the Hereford district. He bought some weeks ago 160 acres of the Long property southeast of town. The town is up and as soon as the outfit can be moved, the McDonald Company will put down the well and equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Doolittle of Sabetha, Kan., have moved to Hereford to make their home.

They own a fine tract of land just two miles from town and are having the premises put in condition this week.

25 Years Ago

One hundred forty-nine members, friends and guests of the chamber of commerce joined in its program of good fellowship and constructive planning for community development last Thursday evening in the Baptist Church. Music for the occasion was furnished by selected members of the high school band under the leadership of the director, Ralph Smith.

A. O. Thompson, vice-president, presided. W. E. Dameron, retiring president, introduced the new board of directors. Judge John P. Slaton, newly-elected president, gave a response. County Judge Earl Wilson was principle speaker for the evening.

The cast has been announced for "Oh Professor," musical comedy set for Oct. 20-21 in the High School Auditorium. Included are Marlin Gilliland as the professor, Guilford Miller, Clifford Kester, Lueta Bordon, Marie Seed, Mrs. Margaret Witherspoon, Edith Jackson, Melvin Harris, Robert Corbett and a host of others for the musical numbers.

WIRED FOR THIEVES

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Any thief who tries to take the hubcaps from a car belonging to Eldo McLaughlin of Albuquerque is in for a surprise.

McLaughlin has not only wired his hubcaps with a stiff electrical jolt but has rigged a device to shock anyone who tries to open the doors, the hood or the trunk.

And if the circuit is interfered with at all, the horn begins to blow.

HISTORIC HARVEST

BOSTON (AP) — The Massachusetts Department of Commerce, after historical research, has come up with the conclusion that the first recorded apple-picking in America was the harvest on Governor's Island in Boston Harbor in 1640.

Future Teachers Hold Meeting

The F. T. A. meeting on Oct. 14, was called to order by Gladys Lee, president. She also led the club in the pledge of allegiance.

Martha Bookout led the club in the teachers prayer and then Glenna Gault presented the new members. Betty Ferguson then gave a short history of the club, which was followed by short speech on "What the Club" seeks to do, told by Charlotte Moore.

The sponsor, Mrs. McDougal, led the club in the teachers pledge and then the new members were given recognition.

Glenna Gault read the minutes of the last meeting, and called the roll. Martha Bookout chose a refreshment committee for the next meeting. They are: Glenna Gault, Charlene Bowen, Bonnie Wagner.

Recognition given to the people who have taught. The meeting was then adjourned.

Possible Careers

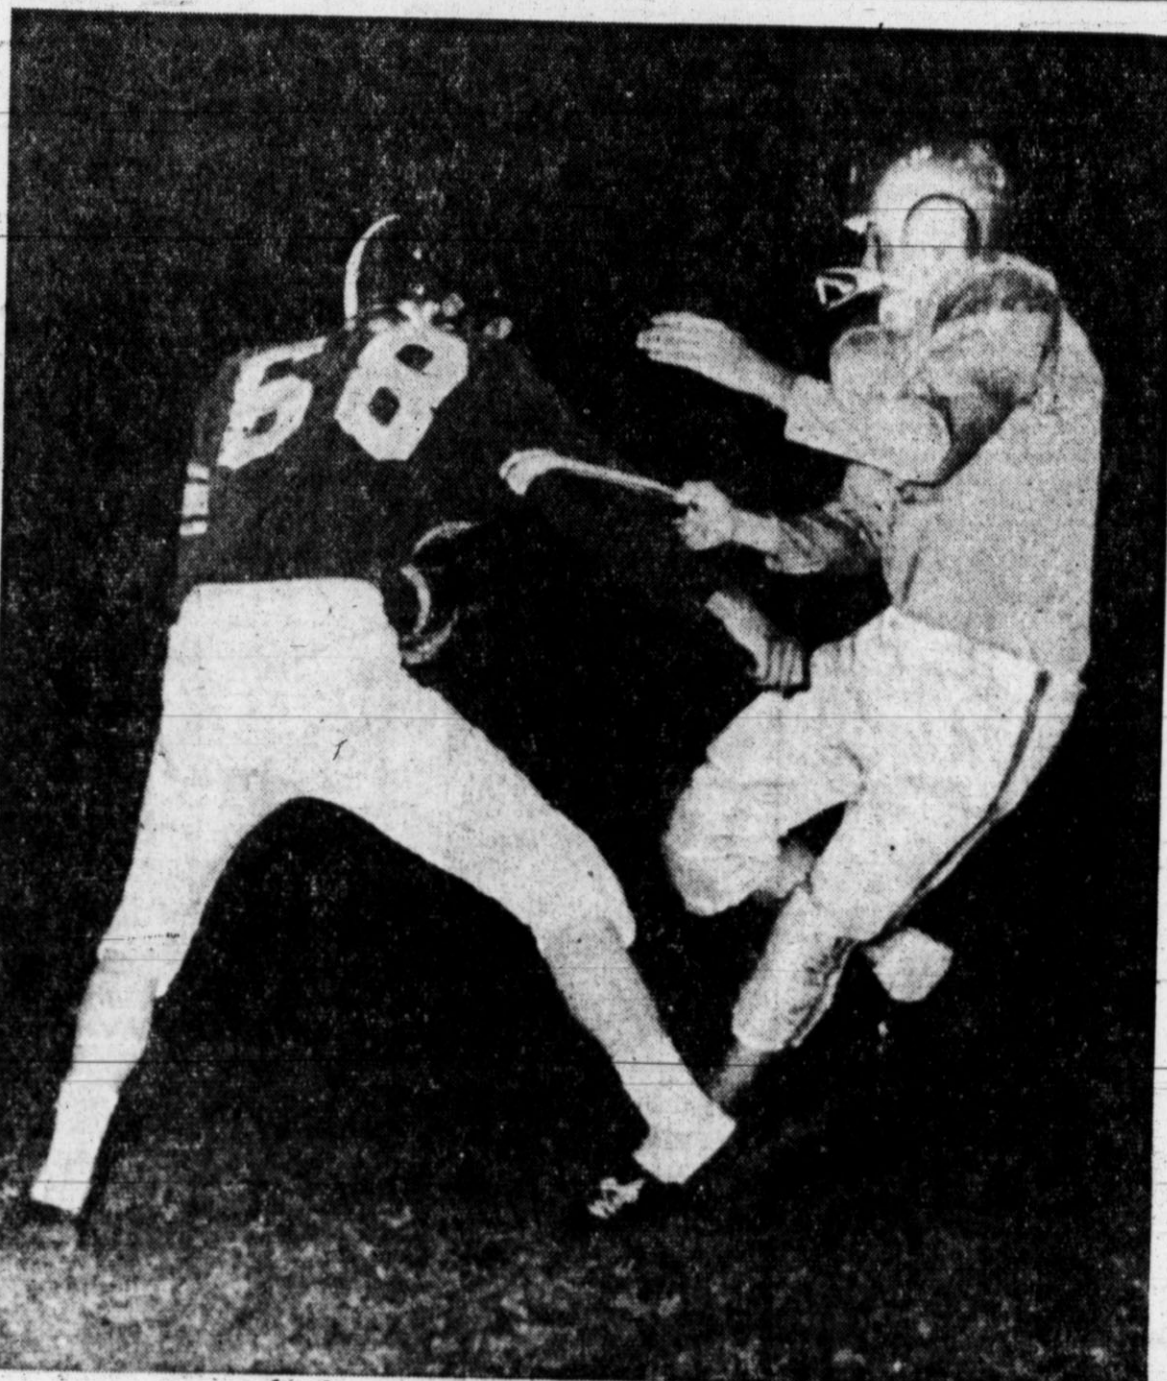

Pharmacists - Supply of new graduates about equal demand. Four years of college usually required. Best opportunities for pharmacists with graduate training. Knowledge of store management often helpful. Jobs in industry, hospitals expect to rise. Starting salary: $4,000 to $5,000 a year.

Dentists - Opportunities good in all except some very large cities. Six years of college and professional training required. Keen competition for admittance to dental schools. Demand for dental services is up. Average income: $12,000 a year if self employed, $9,000 if salaried.

Medical X-ray Technician - An expanding field, with 15,000 new jobs opening up annually for the next five years. Duties include operation of X-ray equipment and development of film. Cost of training is low. Earnings: $300 to $400 a month. One hazard: Possible exposure to effects of radiation.

Optometrists - Less competition in the next few years for desirable locations. Demand for eye care services expected to continue to grow. Five years to study beyond high school required. Income: low for first two years or three years of practice, rising to an average of about $11,000.

Veterinarian - Demand high for both private practitioners and government employees. Pet population keeps increasing. Incomes vary. Some "vets" in big cities earn $20,000 a year. Hours often long, with some danger from injury, infection.

TUG OF WAR—Hereford B team halfback Paul Harrison, (68) tries to pull away from a Dalhart end after a short gain. The Dalhart player won this tug of war in the first quarter, but Harrison scored two touchdowns as the Hereford Bees lost to Dalhart, 25-19, here last Thursday. (Staff Photo)

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What Do You Think of 'Going Steady'?

SANDRA STORY—Well!!! If the boy and girl both want to it's all right, I guess. There are a lot of advantages and disadvantages to it. I would say it depends on whether you like the boy well enough.

LINDA SMITH—It's according to the individual. Some kids are ready for it and some are not.

DOLLIE JO PROWELL—It all depends on the person.

JIM McDOWELL—Oh, it's all right, I reckon.

BRENDA GALLAGHER—It is for the birds "tweet tweet."

JANICE JACOBS—It's all right if you want to go with one person, personally I don't.

JOHN GANDY—Pretty good idea if you have someone to go steady with.

BOBBY SHELTON—It will do until something else comes along.

MRS. BUCK—"Going steady" seems to be more popular now than in the past, however, young people should have the wholesome experience of knowing and associating with a variety of boys and girls and wait until later to "narrow the field."

NANCY GODWIN—I like to go steady. You are always sure of a date to the banquets and parties.

MELBA GAY LAWRENCE—I think that going steady is a wonderful thing if you are sincere in doing so. But I don't think you should go steady just because everyone else is.

SHIRLEY SCHULTE—I do not think it is right for Freshmen and Sophomores to go steady, but with Juniors and Seniors I think it is all right for them, because they are more mature about such things.

'Whiteface Whims'

By JANICE JACOBS

Visitor - "What was your mommie's name before she was married?"

Young Innocence - "I think it must have been 'Savoy.' That's the name on our towels."

Son - "Papa, are you growing taller all the time?"

Father - "No, my child. Why do you ask?"

Son - "'cause the top of your head is poking up through your hair."

"How is your little brother, Johnny?"

"Sick abed. He hurt himself."

"That's too bad. How did he do it?"

"We were playing who could lean furthest out of the window, and he won."

Teacher - "Sam, can you tell me how iron was discovered?"

Sam - "I heard Dad say yesterday that they smelt it."

A visitor asked a little girl, "And what will you do, my dear, when you are as big as your Mother?"

"Diet," said the child.

"Dear Teacher," wrote an indignant mother, "You must not whack Tommy. He is a delicate child and isn't used to it. We never hit him at home except in self-defense."

Teacher - "Tommy, why are you late for school every morning?"

Tommy - "Everytime I come to the corner a sign says 'School - Go slow.'"

A six-year-old youngster had seen his first football game. The feature that caught his chief approval became evident when he concluded his prayers that night with:

God bless mama,
God bless papa,
God bless Freddie,
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Freshman - "Say, what's the idea of wearing my raincoat?"

Roommate - "Well, you wouldn't want your new suit to get wet would you?"

Judge - "It seems to me that I have seen you before."

Prisoner - "You have, your Honor, I gave your daughter singing lessons."

Judge - "Thirty years."

Fruits and Cheese Dieters' Lunch

WEIGHT-WATCHER'S SNACK—Fresh Bartlett pears and a sherried blue cheese spread are ideal for dieters who munch or munchers who diet.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

FRUIT AND CHEESE are particularly good to choose for snack food these days because there is usually a weight-watcher or two among a group of guests.

A combination we like to serve consists of fresh Bartlett pears, seedless grapes and a sherried blue cheese spread. You can have some potato chips on hand, if you like, for munchers.

We use salad-size plates and fruit knives for this snack so eaters can spread the cheese on slices of pear and put a dab of it on a grape or a chip. The recipe for the spread calls for only three ingredients — more would distract from its heavenly flavor. Make up this spread a couple of days to a week before you serve it, then refrigerate it in a tightly covered container. This storage allows the three ingredients to blend with each other so there's a mellow, delectable result.

SHERRIED BLUE CHEESE

Ingredients: 1/2 pound cream cheese, 1/2 pound blue cheese, 1/2 c. cooking sherry.
Method: Have the cream cheese and blue cheese at room temperature; scrape off any brown outside covering from blue cheese. Blend together in a large bowl with an electric mixer at medium speed, or use a mixing spoon. Gradually beat in the sherry. Continue to beat until very smooth. If you want the mixture super-smooth, force it through a very fine sieve. Store in tightly-covered container in refrigerator for a couple of days to allow flavors to blend. Makes about 3 cups. To use as a dip, allow to soften at room temperature, stirring in any liquid that seeps up to top, before serving. To serve as a spread, turn into a small container surrounded with crushed ice; the ice will help keep the cheese mixture firm.

OTHER TWOSOMES

Another fine way to serve fresh pears is with cream cheese to which grated orange rind and silvers of preserved ginger (in syrup) are added.

Or accompany the pears with a bowl of creamstyle cottage cheese to which grated lemon rind and chopped raisins are added. Wash the raisins in very hot water and drain well before chopping. Currants may be substituted for the raisins if you like; wash and drain them but do not chop.

Or offer the pears with soft cheddar cheese mixed with toasted

Housewife Knows Her Hits, Runs

ATLANTA (AP) — Who said women and math don't mix? Mildred White dotes on calculus.

The only figure this graying, bespectacled housewife shies away from is her age.

"If anybody asks I just tell them it's none of their business," she says with good-natured firmness. "But otherwise numerals are Mrs. White's meat."

As far as she knows, she is the only woman who is official statistician for a baseball league. She holds the post for two: the class AA Southern Assn. and the class D Alabama-Florida League.

As such, she's up to her neck in hits, runs and errors (diamond variety) from early April until the end of the baseball season.

"I have my office in my home and all those box scores and sheet walnuts broken up coarsely. Soft cheddar may be bought in a roll-type package in most large food markets.

after sheet of figures disrupt everything," she said. "But it is fascinating. I thoroughly enjoy it."

Mrs. White, Atlanta representative of Howe News Bureau, a national statistical agency, moved into her post gradually.

She started about 20 years ago helping her husband, Roy, then the Howe statistician in Atlanta. When he resigned, she took over and for the past two seasons Mrs. White has been the "boss lady."

"Baseball is my favorite sport," says Mrs. White, "but Roy and I don't get to see many games. No time."

"Oh, yes. One more thing. I've never met a baseball player."

STEAL, BUT PLEASE RETURN

ST. VINCENT, Minn. (AP) — The St. Vincent village council ran this notice in the New Era, weekly newspaper at nearby Pembina, N. D.:

"To anyone knowing the whereabouts of the ladders from the St.

Vincent Fire Hall: Would appreciate having them returned. Anyone using these ladders should return them to the fire hall each evening so in case of fire they can be readily found."

P-TA Planning Homecoming for Exes on Nov. 30

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL

The Adrian Parent-Teachers Assn. met in its first regular session Tuesday night in the high school auditorium. The meeting was presided by an executive session in the superintendent's office where further plans for the Nov. 30 Homecoming were made. The program was offered by Mrs. F. A. Kromers' first and second grades. It was a musical entitled "Jack Frost's Dream."

In the business meeting the president, Mrs. Johnnie Williams, announced plans for the program accompanying the Homecoming and announced 79 cards from 79 families had already been returned to her for reservations for the supper.

Hostesses for the after program festivities were Mesdames L. E. Garrison, Bobby Speed, George Worshn and Carroll Gruhkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jewett and Tammy returned from their vacation in Oklahoma and Missouri Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Joe and L. J. of Rudley, Calif., visited Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gruhkey. The ladies are all sisters.

The Baptist WMC met Wednesday afternoon in the church for Bible Study under the direction of leader, Mrs. Irene Brown. The book being studied is entitled "Soul Winning Experiences in the Bible" by B. O. Herrin, president of Howard Payne College. The chapter for study was "Jewish Maid" and was greatly enjoyed by Mesdames Earl Brown, Shag McCown, Roy Fisher, B. L. Kinsey, Elmer Weldner, Bob Caldwell, Slick Gruhkey, E. B. Pounds, W. B. Betts and Irene Brown.

Judy Pinnell and R. C. Chism spent Saturday night and Sunday with R. C.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Chism of Dimmitt. Tom Sloan, employee of the Phillips 66 cafe suffered what was thought to be a stroke Monday morning at his home in the Davis boarding house. His brother, Lucian Sloan, was summoned from Slaton and Tom was removed to a Lubbock Hospital.

Word has been received from the Eugene Sprouse family of La-Crescenta, Calif., that their son, Sammy Gene is a senior student at a college in Springfield, Mo. The family will be remembered as former Adrian residents.

Those attending the funeral of H. A. Gudgell from surrounding towns included Mr. and Mrs. Cord Hammoek of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Joy Crafford, Mrs. C. W. Edwards and Mrs. Elmer Carlson of Hereford.

Mrs. Bobby Speed was in Plainview Thursday to pick up Bobby who was delivering a plane to their crew at Muleshoe.

Jo and Pauline Speed returned from their fishing trip to south Texas Tuesday evening.

AMBITION FULFILLED

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — When he was a 7-year-old in Glubokie, Poland, David Swindler watched his dad make the rounds as village policeman. He dreamed of one day becoming an officer, too.

Now that dream has come true — but in Oklahoma City, when he becomes a rookie scout car officer.

A lot happened in the intervening years. There was World War II, occupation by the Russians, forced labor in a camp in Siberia, then release to relatives in Germany and emigration to the United States.

Most of the young officer's family died in the Siberian camp.

CHANGE OF SCENE

PAINTSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Anyone summoned to appear in Johnson County Circuit Court just heads for the local theater. That's where Judge W. D. Sparks is holding court while a new $300,000 courthouse is being built.

WINDS of GOD

This is God's world and the soul who expects "smooth sailing" must learn the ways of the "Winds of God." We must know how to chart our course and man the sails. Stop for a moment, as you start every day, and ask the Great Pilot what course He recommends. Be sure you have read the Guide Book for mariners... The Sermon on the Mount. Here, you will learn how to meet the winds and how to make them drive your ship where you are going. You must know how to tack as you face the difficult journey ahead. See that your compass is working and that you have chosen well your passengers... companionship is very important. In the long ago a dozen men sailed a difficult sea and feared the storm would founder their little craft. But they had asked a master sailor — The Great Pilot — to go with them. When they had to awaken Him to face the storm, they were amazed to hear the command — "Peace, Be Still" but more amazed to see the raging waters calmed under His authority. Their companion made the difference. The Great Pilot will be at your church Sunday when you dock — He is anxious to meet you.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. Do you think that boys mind seeing their girls in pin curls?
 A. Most of the boys I have consulted are against this. Of course, a girl might have an afternoon date to play tennis and a date that evening for a big dance, and thus be tempted to meet her afternoon date with her hair up in pin curls. Never do this. There is always another way for a girl to get her hair in shape for the evening without sacrificing appearances in the afternoon. A boy could feel insulted by the appearance of his date in pin curls!

Q. What can I do about a mouth that is inclined to droop at the corners?
 A. Perhaps you could try to form the habit of smiling more often. For an artificial remedy, turn the corners of your mouth up with your lipstick, and make a soft, curving bow, widening BOTH the upper and lower lips just a bit beyond their natural outline.

 Q. How can I, with my make-up, camouflage bags or puffs under my eyes?
 A. Use a darker shade of foundation base on the puffs to absorb the light, then apply a highlight base on the rim just under the puff. This heightens the illusion of smoothness between the two. Pat the colors together gently and smoothly.

Q. How can I treat stubborn calluses on my feet?
 A. After giving the feet a good soaking and brushing in hot soapsuds, apply some cuticle remover to the calluses. Then, after 20 or 30 minutes, rub the spots with the fine side of an emery board or a moistened pumice stone. Be careful to take the dead cuticle off gradually so as not to injure the healthy flesh beneath it.

Q. What powder tone is best for the fallow-type of skin?
 A. A warm powder tone, one with plenty of rose in it to normalize your skin coloring. If you are fair and fallow, a rose cream tone will do for you; if you are dark and fallow, experiment with a dusk rose tone.

Q. How can I exercise to build up the thin calves of my legs?
 A. Stand barefooted on tiptoe with arms outstretched for balance. Lower your heels, then rock forward on toes again. Repeat this heel and toe movement ten times daily. Besides benefiting the calves, this will strengthen the ankles and feet. Walking about on the balls of the feet is another good exercise for the same purpose.

Q. How can I make an emergency repair to my makeup without removing it and applying new?
 A. If you'll pat over it lightly with a cotton pad dampened with skin freshener or astringent, this will remove much of the oil, grease, and grime.

 Q. Is it advisable to use the type of hair-coloring rinse which is simply poured over the head?
 A. Only if your hair is in very even color and good condition. For streaked or sun-bleached hair, and for ends made porous hair will absorb more of the color than the normal hair — so watch this carefully.

Q. What special care can I give to a very oily complexion?
 A. Use a complexion brush at least three times a week. The oily complexion is partly due to a sluggish circulation — so whip up the bloodstream by scrubbing. Try to get sunshine on your face whenever possible — when the skin is free of all cosmetics.

Neatly Shod Dogs Patrol U. S. Airbase in Germany

DANGER, MEAN DOG! This snarling schaeferhund demonstrates his way of chasing uninvited visitors from the U. S. Air Force base at Landstuhl, Germany. To protect his feet from concrete runways, he wears shoes.

By JOHN BAUSMAN
LANDSTUHL, Germany (AP) — I anyone comes prowling around the big U. S. Air Force base here he runs a good chance of a rough encounter with a big sharp-eyed and sharp-toothed watchdog.

And what's more, that dog will probably be wearing shoes! German sheep dogs, or schaeferhunds, have been enlisted in the big job of patrolling this sprawling airbase. The schaeferhund has a long tradition as a faithful shepherd's helper and watchdog. Gentle and responsive to handlers, he can be trained to attack intruders with fierce courage.

Much of the airbase patrol duty takes the dogs over hard concrete runways. Shortly after they were first assigned to the important guard duty, their German handlers noticed that the constant padding over the concrete was giving them sore feet.

The problem was solved with shoes.

Expert German shoemakers fashion each set of dog shoes from tracings of the animal's foot print. At first the dogs fussed at the footgear but by now they have become accustomed to the idea and would no more go on duty without them than would their two-legged human buddies.

Furthermore the pampered and valuable watchdogs have a choice of footwear. Each one is equipped with several sets of shoes.

And when it comes to inspections the privileged animals are even luckier than their soldier buddies. The handlers do the polishing for them.

PAYING BACK THE LOOT

WAUKESHA, Wis. (AP) — Two boys admitted to police that they stole $3.50 from the poor box of St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

But they already had spent the money — at the annual St. Joseph's church festival.

POTPOURRI

Observations on Sputnik

By SANDRA GLENN

Sputnik is the most talked about item since the invention of the atom bomb, but even the atom bomb didn't cause quite as much confusion.

Maybe you haven't heard of some of the latest inventions since Sputnik and, of course, deriving their names from the satellite which circles the world every 96 minutes, closely shadowed by its rocket. The newest thing out since Sputnik is the Sputnik sandwich. Ingredients: Russian dressing and a whole lot of balony.

Some people have expressed the idea that we shall no longer fight our wars in another country but over the moon. Transportation? Why individual satellites, of course. However, as we understand it the Russian people did not intend for this to be used as a means of transportation.

What does Sputnik mean? You tell us!

A new resident in Hereford is Carolyn Thompson who is living here with her father, J. T. Sanerson. Carolyn moved here from Tulsa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrick of San Diego, Calif., visited friends in Hereford over the weekend.

Martha Heard and Ruben Ramon, who are attending college at Lubbock, were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Witherspoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hardwick spent the weekend in Amarillo with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cheshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sharp left for Pogosas Springs, Colo., for more hunting and possibly more luck. It seems that last week while Harold Shearhart, Earl Cole, and Lowell Sharp were hunting in Colorado that Sharp shot an 8 point deer. He left with his wife for Pogosas Sunday morning and had even better hopes in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly left Friday for Detroit, Mich., where they will be entertained with sight-seeing and different other types of entertainment which will be provided for them. Kelly won this trip early in the fall when he won the district, which consists of the Texas Panhandle and part of Oklahoma, contest for tractor sales. He is an employee for the Farm and Home Supply. Their son, Mike, is staying with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fraser, while his parents are away.

What father upset his daughter at Rotary Monday? Joan Streu might remember since it was her father, Francis Hardwick, who was being polite enough to pull out the chair for her, not realizing that at the moment Joan was sitting down, instead of standing up. However, Joan made a landslide selling engagement calendars for L'Allegria Club.

Pogosas Springs seems to be attracting several of the Hereford men. Roy Bodkin, Kenneth Christie, Delbert Banium, C. J. Lance and Gerald McCathern left Saturday afternoon in a station wagon packed to the brim with guns and gear and pulling a trailer, also loaded. They plan to kill some deer before returning to Hereford some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Cawthon Byrant were in Ralls Sunday. Martin was there for a meeting concerning the Lions Club. Mr. and Mrs. Byrant and Mrs. Martin visited with Mrs. Byrant's mother, Mrs. J. D. Smith. Bud Martin and John David Byrant met them in Ralls Sunday. Bud spent Saturday night with John David at Tech and the two boys attended the Tech-Baylor football game Saturday night.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to all the wonderful people who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and the going of our beloved husband and father. We appreciate so very much the beautiful flowers that were sent, the delicious food that was brought in, the men who sat up at the hospitals at night and the wonderful work Dr. Mims and his nurses staff did during his illness.

May God bless each and every one of you.

SWITCH EVIDENT

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — They are still talking about the big one that got away at Van's Tavern and wondering how it happened. A 50-pound, four-foot dolphin disappeared from its display spot on the tavern wall. In its place someone put a small, sad-looking salt mackerel. The mackerel wasn't treated for display purposes and the management soon got wind of the switch.

POOR CHINING BARS

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (AP) — This city has discovered that its new aluminum street markers are poor chinning bars. Boys have been asked to shift their muscle-developing activities elsewhere to save strain on both the markers and taxpayers after a dozen markers had been snapped off.

American Motors Means More for Americans

It's a dear bargain if you can't get immediate insurance service in time of need, if you can't get quick help after an auto accident or other loss.

We have a hunch you'd rather BUY FROM AN AGENT who can have a man on the job quickly, prepared to give you personal assistance in settlement of any claim. After all, that's the true test of insurance.

That's how this Agency conducts its business.
