WHITEFACES ARE REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

Around Town

An Army Reserve Training Unit is to be organized here in the "very near future," according to Attorney Earnest Langley.

A group of Hereford citizens are trying to raise funds to send the Whiteface basketball team to Austin — win or lose at Lubbock.

Dr. H. A. "Hap" Cavness Friday was elected to the board of directors of the Panhandle District Dental Society for a one-year term.

According to Louis Woodford, county Democratic chairman, Earnest O. Northcutt of Amarillo has filed for nomination for re-election to the office of associated justice of the court of civil appeals for the Seventh Supreme Judicial District for a six year term.

Correction if you please. Mrs. R. B. Hudson has informed The Brand she and her husband are not R. B. Hudson, paternal grandparents.

Man Gets 60 Days In County Jail

Allen Johnson, 29-year-old Hereford Negro, was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail Saturday morning by county judge Homer Henslee after pleading guilty to charges of carrying a deadly weapon.

Johnson, according to the Hereford City Police Dept., allegedly got into a fight with Andrew Daniels at the latter's home, 211 Kibbe, Thursday about 11:30 p.m.

Hereford Schools Observe Texas Public Schools Week

Schools all over the state this week will be observing Texas Public Schools Week, and here in Hereford a number of different observances will be held throughout the entire period.

The main feature of the occasion, according to superintendent of schools Fred Cunningham, will be visitation of parents and civic organizations in the schools, whether or not special programs are going on.

Every school in the district, from elementary through high school, has planned programs for the public, either during the day or at night time.

Following the P-TA meeting, a program will be held in the audi-

FOR '58 SEASON

Dr. Channer Named Little League Head

OFFICERS FOR the 1958 Little League baseball season in Hereford were elected Thursday night at a public meeting in the Hotel Jim Hill.

Dr. John Channer was elected president, B. F. Cain, vice president, and Joel Hodges, secretary-treasurer.

Hodges retires as president and Ralph Hastings is outgoing vice president and C. B. Russell is retiring secretary-treasurer.

HODGES GAVE a report on the financial standing of the Little League, saying it has $497.61 in the bank from last season and will receive $900 from the United Fund.

It will be up to the new officers to set an opening date for the season, and appoint an umpire-in-chief and official scorer, and draw up a schedule.

Woodrow Ireland Dies in Dimmitt

Final rites for Woodrow W. Ireland, 44, a member of a pioneer Hereford area family, were held Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Ireland died Thursday morning at his apartment in Dimmitt. He had been ill and under care of a physician, but his condition had not been considered serious.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ireland. The senior Ireland came to Dimmitt in 1889 and moved to Hereford in 1920.

Woodrow Ireland was born Aug. 29, 1913, at Dimmitt and came to Hereford with his parents. He was a graduate of Hereford High School and attended West Texas State College in Canyon.

He lived in Hereford until August of 1957 when he moved to Dimmitt to operate a farm machinery business. He was in business with his father as co-owner of the Ireland Motor Co. in Hereford for about 10 years.

Mr. Ireland was a member of the First Presbyterian Church here.

Survivors include his parents of Hereford; a son, Ashton Ireland of Ohio; two brothers, Edgar Ireland Jr. of Sweetwater and Richard Ireland of Estancia, N. M., and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Bonesto of Hereford and Mrs. Rachel Henslee of Albuquerque, N.M.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery. Gilliland Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

son, and appoint an umpire-in-chief and official scorer, and draw up a schedule. The season probably will open in the latter part of May.

Hodges said the board of directors has recommended that the $900 from United Fund be placed in a savings account to draw interest and be used to buy new uniforms for the 1958 season.

He said the present uniforms will last for this year's play.

Hodges said the local league's charter and hospitalization insurance have been purchased for this year.

The Little League here sponsors a major and a minor league with four teams in each circuit. Each team plays 18 games during the season. Last year the league played a split season, with nine games each half.

The Hereford Little League All-Stars, composed of top players from each of the major league teams, won Area I and District I play-offs before being beaten in the Region I tournament at Abilene by Big Spring, Joe Smith, manager of the champion Yankees, piloted the all-stars.

Where Did You Say You Lived?

Ever go looking for a certain house on Ave. K? If you haven't, but plan to do so, brace yourself. It isn't always easy.

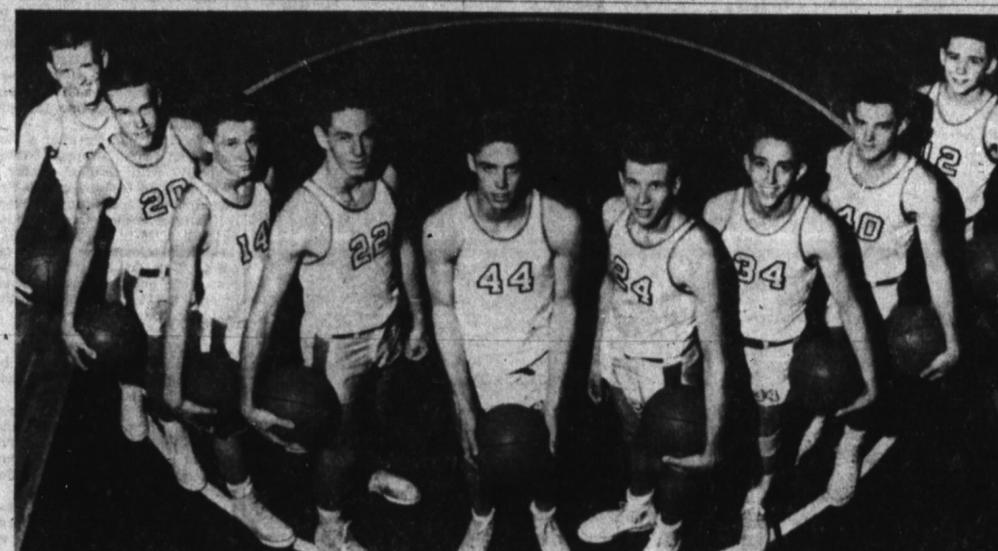

On the west side of the street, from Park Ave. to 13th St. are three blocks, number 100, 200 and 300. Long blocks.

On the east side there are eight blocks, numbering from 100 block (west side) can have neighbors across the street living in houses numbered from 100 to 400.

Someone living in the 100 block (west side) can have neighbors across the street living in houses numbered from 100 to 400. The 200 block (west) can see part of the 400, all of 300 and 600 and about half of the 700. It's easier from the 300 block, all they have there to consider is part of the 700 and all the 800 blocks.

Making a "U" turn can be mighty confusing to out-of-owners in the 180-degree turn the driver can see as many as three different block numbers.

The City Hall residents say it just happened that way. "More intersections on the east side than the west side, so we just numbered them that way," said a city employe.

James Bradley Appointed Member State FHA Board

State Director Walter T. McKay of the Farmers Home Administration at his office in Dallas today announced the appointment of James H. Bradley as a new member of the agency's 5-member state advisory committee. He succeeds John H. Mead of Richardson whose term expired Dec. 31, 1957.

Torres Is Given 4-Year Probation

Matilde (Frank) Torres, 32, pleaded guilty to charges of assault with intent to murder and was sentenced to four years adult probation by 69th District Court Judge Harry Schultz Wednesday afternoon.

Torres was arrested and charged on Jan. 19 with attempted to kill Lupe Rodriguez, 25, in a knife fight at the Labor Camp. Torres was indicted by the county grand jury on Feb. 3.

James Bradley Appointed Member State FHA Board

Bradley is primarily engaged in farming and lives in Hereford. He is known throughout the State as a prominent agricultural leader and is highly qualified to assist the State Director and his staff in adapting the agency's credit policies to meet the needs of Texas farmers and ranchers.

BRADLEY HAS been in the farming business in Deaf Smith County since 1940, and has a variety of other business interests.

The other members of the committee are Joe L. Culbertson of Hamlin; Mrs. Walter Judge of Mineola; Frank M. Montague Sr. of Bandera, and L. L. Kinnebrew of Harlingen. John E. Hutchison, Director of Extension Service for Texas, is an ex-officio member and meets with the state committee in an advisory capacity.

The Farmers Home Administration has 141 county offices serving farm families throughout Texas. The agency's loans and farm management service help eligible family-type farmers establish themselves in sound systems of farming. With the loans, farmers operate, buy, enlarge, or improve their farms.

Harris Resigns As Head Coach

Jack Harris resigned as head football coach of Hereford High School Thursday to accept a similar job at Pharr in the Rio Grande Valley.

The Hereford school board will hold a special session at 6:30 p.m. Monday to consider a replacement for Harris.

The board met in special session Thursday afternoon to accept Harris' resignation. Assistant Coach

Ken McCullough also resigned. He will accompany Harris to Pharr as line coach.

Harris, 35, came to Hereford from Nocona as head coach and assistant high school principal in April of 1957. During the 1957 season, his team won two, lost seven and tied one.

Drop Graham 53-51 In 2nd Overtime

By STERLIN HOLMESLY

Fred Lookingbill sank a 25-foot field goal to hand Hereford an uphill 53-51 upset victory over the Graham Steers in the Region I basketball finals here in Lubbock Saturday afternoon, with more than 800 delirious Hereford fans watching.

Lookingbill's shot came in the first 23 seconds of a sudden death overtime period, and sent the Herd into the state class AAA tournament at Austin Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

THE SCORE was tied 51-51 at the end of regulation play. Graham had an opportunity to win the ball game when star Bobby Bernard had a free shot with only two seconds left in the first overtime period. Bernard missed the shot, a charity toss, and Ken Clearman grabbed the rebound and killed the clock.

Both coaches keyed the sudden death overtime with the first team to get two points winning.

Terry Higgins tipped the jump to Bobby Shelton, who passed off to Clearman. After several passes back and fourth, Lookingbill took the ball just outside the free throw circle, took dead aim, and dropped the ball through without touching the hoop with a one-hand set shot.

The Hereford team was immediately mobbed by Hereford students and fans. The floor had to be cleared for presentation of trophies.

Lookingbill and Jim Curtsinger both made the all-tournament team. They were selected unanimously. Bobby Bernard, 6-5 Graham forward, also was selected unanimously.

Three other players tied for fifth spot on the team. They were Mike Rice, 6-1, and Sunny Gibbs, 6-6. (Continued On Page 2)

Braceros Must Be Paid 'Prevailing Wages,' Says Court

Farm wages which the U. S. Secretary of Labor finds to be "prevailing wages" must be paid by employers of braceros when the prevailing wages are higher than the contract rate.

That is the essence of a Feb. 25 decision by the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. It reversed a district court judgment involving J. H. Morris, a cotton grower in Fisher County, Texas.

Morris employed eight raceros during the cotton harvesting season of 1955. His contract with them was to pay the workers at the rate of $1.55 cwt or the prevailing rate, whichever was higher. Midway of the season, the Secretary of Labor determined that the prevailing wage for the area was $1.75 cwt.

The government sued to recover the difference between the contract rate and the determined prevailing rate which it was obliged to pay the Mexican government under the terms of an international agreement between the United States and Mexico.

The case is said to have wide-spread significance because a large number of other employers have refused to pay the established prevailing wage rate when it was higher than the rate mentioned in their contracts.

Man Charged With Indecent Exposure

Bond was set at $5,000 yesterday morning on Robert Eddins, 51, who allegedly committed an act of indecent exposure to a minor close to one of Hereford's elementary school two weeks ago.

Eddins appeared before Justice of the Peace Berry Miles, waived hearing and was bond over to the grand jury.

After being picked up on drunk charges in Friona last week, Eddins' description checked with a bulletin sent out by the Hereford Police Dept., and Chief Henry Aycock transferred him to the Hereford city jail Friday.

Eddins had not made bond by early afternoon Saturday.

TAKING OVER—Mrs. Florence Trawek, temporary Hereford postmaster replacing retiring Jim Lipscomb, talks with A. W. Pfannmiller, postal inspector from Amarillo in her office yesterday morning. She was sworn in the previous evening. The three are shown going over some of the technical paperwork the postmaster office has to do, Lipscomb, right, is retiring after 18½ years postal service. Postmaster Named

Mrs. Florence Trawek was installed as acting postmaster of the Hereford post office Friday taking the place temporarily of Jim Lipscomb, who is retiring after 18½ years of service.

Mrs. Trawek and her husband Curtis, a local farmer, moved to Hereford in 1945 from La Union, N. M. They now live at 6 Cheyenne Rd. She has been enactive in the business field since moving here. She has, however, taught school for nine years while in New Mexico.

This is the first post office experience for Mrs. Trawek. She graduated New Mexico A&M, where she received her BS in biology.

Monday, at 1 p.m., the McMurry Choir from Abilene will present a program in the high school auditorium.

Shirley Elementary will host the Rotary Club at their regular Monday noon luncheon, after which a tour of the building will be held.

Tuesday at 6 p.m., past and present school board members and their wives will be honored at a dinner meeting at the Shirley cafeteria. Dick Bivins of Amarillo, a member of the state education board, will be the guest speaker.

AT 8 P.M., the same evening, a special program honoring teachers will be held in the high school auditorium. Superintendent Cunningham will assist administrators of each school present service pens (Continued On Page 2)

Elementary and junior high school students have been writing letters during the past week to their parents, extending invitations to attend classes and other special events in their rooms.

Those parents who are expecting to eat in a school cafeteria sometime during the week are asked by the cafeteria administrators to contact the schools early so preparations can be made for extra servings.

Following the panel discussion, parents and others attending are invited to visit various departments in the high school buildings, where teachers and students will be on hand giving demonstrations.

Pharr High School serves three towns in the Valley, including Pharr, San Juan and Alamo. Harris said the school is in Class AAA, the same as Hereford, but will become AAAA in 1960. He said more than 1,000 students are enrolled in the school.

Harris said he had accepted a two-year contract at Pharr. The school board met for two hours Thursday afternoon. In addition to accepting the resignations of Harris and McCullough, the board interviewed one applicant for the head coach's job.

Board President Tom Robinson said the Monday meeting will be limited to finding a replacement for Harris.

Joe Silveri, who was hired as line coach by Harris, said he probably will remain at Hereford. McCullough served as backfield coach here.

He was head coach at Nocona for three years before coming here. Prior to that he had coached at Breckenridge. He holds both bachelor's and master's degrees from Hardin-Simmons University.

McCullough, 25, is a graduate of Oklahoma A&M. He played professional football in Canada and coached one year at Bartlesville, Okla., before coming to Hereford.

Harris and McCullough said their families will join them later at Pharr.

"I have sure enjoyed working here. The people and kids in this community are the finest I have ever worked with," Harris said. "It was an awful good offer, and I couldn't turn it down," he added.

CIVIL SERVICE testing, called open competitive examination, will be held in the future to find a permanent postmaster. Mrs. Tra-week said she would not compete for the position, having applied only for temporary duty.
Retiring Lipscomb, 62, said he plans to go right into farming. "I was a farmer before I started in the Post Office and I'll go back to being one. You never run out of work on a farm." Lipscomb owns a 1,040-acre irrigated farm and grows grain, sorghum, wheat and cotton.

Lipscomb became postmaster here in 1939, when the city's population was about 2,500. At that time there was only one daily rural route, three tri-weekly routes and one Star route, totaling 210 miles. Now there are five daily routes and one Star route covering 330 miles.

Lipscomb has lived in Deaf Smith County almost all his life. His father, A. J. Lipscomb, filed a claim here in the early '90's. Jim's mother went home to Wood County to give birth to him in 1896 because there were no doctors in this area at the time. She came back to Deaf Smith County as soon as she was able to travel and Jim has been here every since.

LOOKING BACK at the past 18½ years, Lipscomb considers the expansion of city and rural routes the biggest accomplishment of the Post Office here.

"Every block that can qualify is getting city delivery now and all those tri-weekly routes are daily now," he said.

MRS. FRED MULKEY, fourth and fifth grade physical education instructor at Shirley, will hold open house for visiting parents each day of the Public Schools Week, between 1:15 and 2:35 p.m.

Park View and Dawn schools are emphasizing on visitation of their school buildings and classes.

Aikman school has set up a schedule for visitation and parents' eating with their children. First and second grade parents are scheduled for Monday; third and fourth grades Tuesday; fifth and sixth Wednesday.

Aikman will also host two civic clubs during the week. The Optimist will hold their regular weekly meeting there Tuesday, as will the Kiwanis Thursday.

Hereford Lions Club will hold his Wednesday luncheon at Stanton this evening, between 7 and 9 p.m. Stanton will hold open house. Principal W. C. Quattlebaum has issued a special invitation to all parents to visit the rooms. Home room teachers will be on hand to welcome all visitors.

CENTRAL SCHOOL is concentrating on visitation of parents. Special invitations have been sent out to parents asking first grader parents to eat at the cafeteria on Monday, second grader on Tuesday, third on Wednesday, fourth on Thursday and fifth and sixth on Friday.

The B & P W Club will hold its luncheon at Central School on Monday.

both of Graham, and Gene Williams, 6-2, of Kermit.
Graham led Hereford from midway in the first quarter until one minute and 15 seconds remaining in the final period, when Lookingbill put the herd ahead, 50-49, with a 20-foot jump shot.

SHELTON MADE it 51-49 with a free throw. Bob Edwards, 5-9 guard, tied the game with 40 seconds to go, after being fouled by Higgins.

THIS IS Hereford's first Regional title in about two decades. As the first overtime period began Graham grabbed the tip and stalled the entire three minutes without making a field goal effort. Bernard was fouled with two seconds remaining, and missed, throwing the game into the sudden death period.

In the first quarter after a slow start both teams swapped baskets rapidly, with Graham taking a 14-13 edge at the end of the first period. With Rice hitting frequently from the corner, Graham pushed to a 31-26 halftime advantage.

Hereford closed the gap to one point, 40-39, at the three-quarter rest stop, and outscored the tall Steers, 12-11 in the final regulation period.

CURTSSINGER DUNKED in 17 points to lead the Whitefaces, but Rice took high point honors with 19. Lookingbill scored 12.

Graham's two big men, Gipsch and Bernard, were well contained by the smaller Whitefaces. Gibbs chalked up 11 points and Bernard 10. Bernard had scored 27 against Kermit Friday night.

Accuracy from the field played a major part in Hereford's victory. In the first half the Whitefaces hit 10 of 27 attempts from the field, and then notched 10 of 24 in the second half, a 39.2 percentage.

From the free throw line Hereford made only 13 of 26. Graham hit 12 of 34 in the first half and only seven of 27 from the court in the last two quarters, for a 31.1 average. However, the Steers sank 13 of 22 free shots.

The aggressive and towering steers grabbed 45 rebounds to Hereford's 32, thus controlling the ball the majority of the time. Gibbs and Bernard grabbed 12 and 10 rebounds respectively, while Curtssinger was the high rebounder for the local victors with eight.

Hereford's chances for winning the ball game were seriously hampered when Curtssinger fouled out with 2:15 minutes remaining in the fourth period. Slagle was rejected with five fouls with two seconds remaining in the first overtime.

Snyder defeated Kermit, 54-52, in an overtime period, throwing the Hereford-Graham late.

The Whitefaces gained the finals by knocking down the Snyder Tigers from District 3-AAA, 65-47, Friday night.

After a slow start the Herd pulled into a 15-12 lead at the end of the first quarter and expanded it to a 33-21 half-time margin. Hereford continued to move ahead, leading 50-32 at the three-quarter turn.

Jim Curtssinger pumped in 19 points to lead the Hereford scoring. The 6-4 forward hit nine field goals and one free shot. Steve Slagle hit 17 points for runner-up honors. Fred Lookingbill, dropping in long two-handed shots, counted 14. Bobby Shelton, shooting mostly from the corner, hit 11 markers.

High man for Snyder was Bill Phillips, with 13.

The contest was a rough one with 16 fouls called on the Herd and 18 on the Tigers. Hereford dropped in 19 free shots of 26 attempts.

Snyder took an early lead, holding a 10-8 margin until Lookingbill hit a 25-footer to tie it up. Slagle counted twice from the free line and then Lookingbill swished in a gain from 25 feet and Shelton added another free point before the Tigers could tally again. After that it was all Hereford.

Snyder staged a mild threat in the third period pulling from a 38-23 deficit to 38-31. Paced by Curtssinger, the Herd pushed its point spread to 44-31 and then 50-32 at the end of the stanza.

Give a school girl enough skirts, blouses, sweaters and jumpers, and her wardrobe problems are solved.
An outfit consisting of full gored skirt, plain skirt and jumper-type weskit is easy to make, and can be switched and mixed to make a lot of combinations. Local sewing center experts suggest making it in kelly green polished cotton, with a pale yellow blouse. The weskit is reversible, with striped fabric on the reverse side. Most pattern companies have standard patterns for these always-popular styles. Decorative stitching and a little ingenuity can add individual touches. For instance, green leaves may be applied on the blouse front, and a series of cartwheels may trim the skirt. Use a dinner plate to trace big circles on felt or left-over blouse fabric in pale yellow. Use a bread-and-butter plate to trace smaller circles on green fabric, and a saucer for the smallest circle, in white or another contrasting color, such as orange.

Mrs. Draper at Westway H. D.

"The secret to any entertainment is the planning made ahead of time," Mrs. Tom Draper told the Westway Home Demonstration Club at its meeting in the home of Mrs. Ernest Flood Thursday.

Other points which Mrs. Draper told the members to be sure and keep on their list of important items was to send invitations early and to have all details stated clearly. Hospitality is of great importance in entertaining.

During the business meeting the club voted to serve for Mrs. Cliff Potter's farm sale which will be March 6. Mrs. R. L. Wilson gave the Finance Committee report. The club also voted to have a "42" tournament March 14, 21 and 28 at the Westway community house.

The Council report was given by Mrs. C. A. Saucy. Mrs. P. B. Sowell read a poem for the conclusion of the program.

Present were Mesdames A. Drager, J. C. Morrison, J. B. Odum, Charles Owen, Harold Rudd, Paul Rudd, Ken Rudd, C. A. Saucy, P. B. Sowell, George Turrentine, R. L. Wilson, T. B. Thomas, Bess Werner, Ernest Flood, Howard Walker and Tom Draper, agent.

When your decorations button on, you can change them at will. Other suggestions are autumn leaves, flowers or a space theme, with stars, moons and satellites buttoned on to the skirt.

Paris Crowns New King

YVES SAINT-LAURENT—The new king of the French haute couture chats with AP correspondent Nadeane Walker.

PARIS (AP) — France has a new national hero. He is 21-year-old Yves Mathieu Saint-Laurent, and it is considered that he has saved the reputation and prestige of French fashion, just as his predecessor, Christian Dior, saved it after the war. Those who cried, "Christian Dior can never be replaced," when the fashion king died unexpectedly last Oct. 23, now are hailing young Yves' debut collection as the best Paris has ever produced. Scenes bordering on joyful hysteria followed the opening of his "Trapeze Line" show this week. Behind all the fuss is a quiet, shy and painfully thin youngster who was 21 on Aug. 1. Yves Saint-Laurent was born in Oran, Algeria, the son of an insurance salesman, and he came to Paris to seek his fortune in designing theater decor at the age of 17.

Instead, he entered an international fashion designing contest, and won. Presented to Christian Dior with samples of his sketches, he was hired on the spot as understudy to the master. Great fashion designers are said to draw inspiration from the air of Paris, and Dior apparently decided that young Saint-Laurent had the stuff of greatness when he saw that the boy's sketches were basically the same as his own still top-secret "A-line" for that year.

Without fanfare or credits, Yves worked with Dior for three years. Nobody had ever heard of him when the world's top designer suddenly died of a heart attack on holiday in Italy.

For a few weeks the fate of the vast Dior fashion empire was in the balance. Then a rumor went round that a young man named Yves Saint-Laurent, not even old enough to have done his military service, might be named by Marcel Boussac, the French cotton king who owns and backs the house, to take over.

Loud scuffs greeted the unlikely suggestion, but on November 15 the announcement was officially made that Saint-Laurent would carry on with three women who had been with Dior from the beginning. They are Madame Raymond Zehnacker, Madame Marguerite Carre and Madame Mitzi Bricard, and the most knowing fashion experts say that this quartet should get exactly equal shares of the credit for the tremendous success they have brought off.

Young Saint-Laurent's first presentation to the press and radio did not inspire confidence. Pale, apparently frightened and with little to say, young Yves won only a condescending description as "a good little boy" ("enfant bien sage") from the French press. But the big build-up was under way by the time he got home to his parents in Oran to sketch the new Dior collection before Christmas.

In an interview with this correspondent a few days after he was named Dior's new designer, Saint-Laurent expressed a few firm opinions:

"You can't impose fashions unless women are willing to let you," he said. "Skirt lengths ought to depend on the women who wear them; one length doesn't suit everybody."

But skirts in the first Saint-Laurent collection are uniformly just at the knee, and his ballooning silhouette is a drastic extreme of fashion. The audience loved it, so it may be assumed that women are willing.

The hero of this new French fairy tale still lives or did up until his opening day — in a modest one-room-with-bath in a dead-end street near the Trocadero.

Since Dior took him under his wing, Saint-Laurent has been practically the hermit of the house of Dior, working there constantly. But to some friends he confided that his first love was still stage decor and "I don't know how long I will be able to stay away from it." Dior frowned when the subject was mentioned. Now the tender trap of success may have closed the door to that ambition.

It might have been his two young sisters, Bridget, 12, and Michele, 15, who inspired the "little girl dresses," very full from bust to hem, which are the biggest success of the Trapeze collection. It was reported that Yves took time to design some new dresses for Bridget and Michele while he was working on the Dior sketches.

OUT WITH THE OLD
MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Lefebvre Brothers general store of suburban Wauwatosa, one of the few still existing metropolitan areas, has decided to call it quits.

Cornelius Lefebvre, whose father founded the store in 1882, said he will sell the midwestern landmark because "all my best customers are in the cemetery."

In the old days the store sold coal, sewer pipe, machinery, and even hot stew, in addition to the regular general store items. "People don't want this kind of store anymore," said Lefebvre. "They go to the shopping centers where nobody even says hello."

Bling
It would not be advisable to use bluing in the water which is used for rinsing green, pink, yellow, or orchid colored garments.

Baby Has a Tooth

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

Judy opened her mouth for a bit of cereal one lovely, bright morning and, as the spoon went into the eager little mouth, Mother heard a peculiar hard click. She jumped in surprise. Soon as the mouthful was swallowed she looked at Judy's gums. Sure enough there was a tooth, poking up from Judy's lower gum.

Mother didn't even know that Judy was about ready for a tooth as the baby had not been fussy. Many babies get teeth just this way. The teeth push their way through the gums and then one fine day they are there.

Some babies do not accomplish teething quite so easily. The first set of teeth — the baby teeth — are all present in the child's gums by the time he is born. During the first year the teeth begin to push up and break through the mucous membrane. Occasionally a baby will push his first tooth through as early as three months; other equally healthy babies may be entirely toothless until after the first birthday.

When the tooth is beginning to get ready to erupt the baby usually drools a lot. His salivary glands just pour out their fluid. Some of it goes down the throat, but a lot dribbles down the chin. This is a sign teeth are on the way. If the saliva is very excessive it may choke the baby a little when he is lying down. The saliva pours down his throat so fast the baby cannot swallow it and he coughs. When the baby is sitting up the extra saliva dribbles out of his mouth and he does not choke or cough.

If your baby coughs a little when he is lying flat on his back, if at the same time he drools a lot when he is sitting up and if in other ways he does not seem sick at all, you do not need to worry about the cough. Should there be any doubt in your mind, check with your doctor.

During the time a baby drools he also chews on everything he can get his hands on — toys, crib, fingers, blanket. The chew-holos push the teeth through. Give him things to chew on such as a bone, a piece of raw celery, a teeth ring. The teethers that contain a liquid you can freeze are especially good. The cold feels good to the baby. Try rubbing the baby's gums with your finger after you have dipped your finger into cold water.

Occasionally the baby's gums hurt him just before the teeth come in, and he will cry and fuss. Take a look at the gums. If they are red and swollen they probably do hurt. But if the gums do not look sore, take your baby to the doctor. Something else is making him irritable and you should find out what it is.

If your baby is fussy because his teeth hurt, you can help him by giving him cold things to chew and by rubbing his gums. Do not put teething lotion on a baby's gums without the doctor's orders. No medicine is absorbed into the baby's system by putting it on the gums. Teething lotions produce their soothing effect by the amount of substance the baby swallows. They have to contain strong drugs in order to quiet a baby. If your baby needs a strong sedative of this sort, it should be one prescribed by the doctor.

Terry Higgins Awarded Certificate of Merit

TERRY HIGGINS, Hereford high senior, has been awarded a Certificate of Merit as a result of his outstanding performance in the 1957-58 National Merit Scholarship Program, according to Principal Bill Stanford.

Higgins' high score on two college aptitude tests led to the nationally recognized academic honor. Less than one half of one per cent of the seniors in each state receive the awards.

The local senior is among 7,300 finalists in the current National Merit Scholarship competition which began last October with the 7 pounds and 5 ounces. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Erdman of Hereford are paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Robertson of Earth are maternal grandparents.

At 2:07 a.m. on March 1, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bolinger. The child weighed 7 pounds and 7 1/4 ounces at birth. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bolinger of Hereford are paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hucks of Edinburg are maternal grandparents.

testing of 256,000 of the nation's most able high school seniors. Over 1,000 of the finalists will be awarded $5 million in Merit Scholarships, as a result of final judging now being conducted. Winners will be announced about the first of May.

THE NAMES of the students will be sent to over 1,500 colleges, universities and other scholarship-granting agencies for consideration for thousands of other scholarships.

Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins, of Dawn.

Winners must submit a financial statement before the exact scholarship amount is determined.

"We believe this year's Merit Scholarship Finalists compose one of the most talented group of high school students of this size that has ever been identified," declared John M. Stainaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the annual competition.

"AS A GROUP, they rank at the highest ability levels of the national senior class, and I hope that each of them receives scholarship help in accord with his need. Through the help of 80 business and industrial corporations, foundations, and individuals, we will be able to provide Merit Scholarships to 1,000 of them this year, and we hope that many of the remaining finalists will receive scholarship help from other sources as a result of our circulating their names to other scholarship sources."

Merit Scholarships are the most sought-after award on the high school academic scene. Each is a four-year award and each Merit Scholar may choose any accredited college in the United States, and any course of study leading to a baccalaureate degree. Gaining admission to college is each scholar's own responsibility. Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the student's need. The stipend is variable and is determined for each Merit Scholar individually. The amount awarded is based on family resources, summer earnings and college costs.

The Sears Foundation alone is providing $500,000 in Merit Scholarships this year, and other organizations such as IBM, the Shell Companies Foundation, Lilly Endowment, Standard Oil (Indiana) and many others are providing major programs of Merit Scholarships.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation was established in 1955 through grants of $20.5 million from the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Corporation of New York. The current program is the third that has been conducted. Some 1400 Merit Scholars from the 1956 and 1957 programs are now in college.

HIGH RETURN

BUCKNER, Ark. — Mrs. Jack Hensley bought a can of oysters and prepared them as a birthday treat for her husband. As they were eating the oysters, Mrs. Hensley bit on something hard and removed a pearl from her mouth. A jeweler appraised its value at $250.

BURNING RESENTMENT

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — No wonder firemen at a suburban station here were burned up. The entire crew turned out to answer an alarm and found that the address given was non-existent. When they got back to the station, they discovered someone had broken into the petty cash box and escaped with $2.

A LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN

LAKEWOOD, Colo. — Mrs. Wesley Rynearson has 201 little angels around her house in this Denver suburb — and she'd like more of them. They're made of ceramic, wood and brass.

POTENT MIXTURE

HOMINY, Okla. — Fellow Masons aren't sure they're going to let J. H. Jacobs do any more cooking at their meetings.

He made the coffee, which turned out a little strong. After several gulps, and screams, members

Basketball Team 'Going To Town'

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL
The Adrian boys met the Kress Kangaroos in Bi-district play Tuesday night at the fieldhouse on West Texas Campus. The final score was 64 to 41, Adrian's favor.

The Cub Scout Blue and Gold Banquet was held Monday night in the High School Gym. The decorations were very appropriate for young scouts. On the head table was a huge birthday cake made in the shape of an old medieval castle. There were hershey bar windows, caramel bricks around the base with downturned ice cream cone spined topped with miniature flags. Several tiny soldiers stood at alert guarding the grounds. Each table had a scene depicting cub scout life. These were made by the boys and their mothers. Each nutcup bore either a bear or a wolf. The programs were made in the shape of bears. The yellow napkins were folded as a boy scout neckerchief with a bear head for the tieclasp.

Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Bob Gruhkey. The flag ceremony was presented by the Cub Scouts. Invocation was by George Harwood. Welcoming address was by Mike Horton and the response was given by Bill James. After the meal the boys saluted themselves by singing, "Happy Birthday."

GEORGE HARWOOD, Mike Cullender, David Williams, Ricky Gruhkey and Billy James entertained the group by reciting the poem "When Father was a Boy." The principal address was given by the Rev. Johnnie Williams. This was followed by the presentation of awards by Head Scout Master, Weldon Teague of Amarillo. Boys receiving awards were Clinton Brown, Ricky Gruhkey, David Williams, George Harwood, Richard Harwood and Mike Cullender. New scouts are Larry Loveless, Larry Pridmore, David Lee Taylor and David Gruhkey.

Mrs. W. C. Briggs visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Briggs, in Lubbock last week. Mrs. Briggs has been ill.

Visiting with Mrs. Irene Brown over the weekend were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson and Douglas of Portales, N. M.

DONALD PINNELL and Roy Reynolds of Canyon are participating in the Houston Rodeo this week. Mrs. Pinnell is staying in the home of Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Pinnell.

The Methodist Congregation observed the World Day of Prayer Friday. They had a devotional service under the direction of Mrs. Anna Witt. Mrs. D. W. Morgan played Organ selections during the entire program. Attending were Mesdames Nellye Davis, Grace Baker, Johnnie Williams, John Skaggs, D. W. Morgan, Lorin Creutz, N. L. Jacobson, Vic Lemke, Charles Evans, Leland Burns, Bessie Shipp and George Baucum. The Rev. Bill Lewis was guest speaker for the Vega Methodist Brotherhood Wednesday morning.

Sunday was the last quarterly conference for our local Methodist congregation. District Superintendent E. D. Landreth of Amarillo was speaker for the morning service.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Jacobson were the Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams and Marlene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jacobson, Dr. E. D. Landreth of Amarillo, Mrs. Anna Witt and Jeannie Youngblood. In the evening they were joined by Mrs. Wilson Arder and family and Mrs. Johnnie Conway and children of Amarillo. They visited the complete Jacobson clan before night.

Mrs. Fred Taylor remains in Northwest Texas Hospital with severe asthma and pleurisy. It is not known when she will return home.

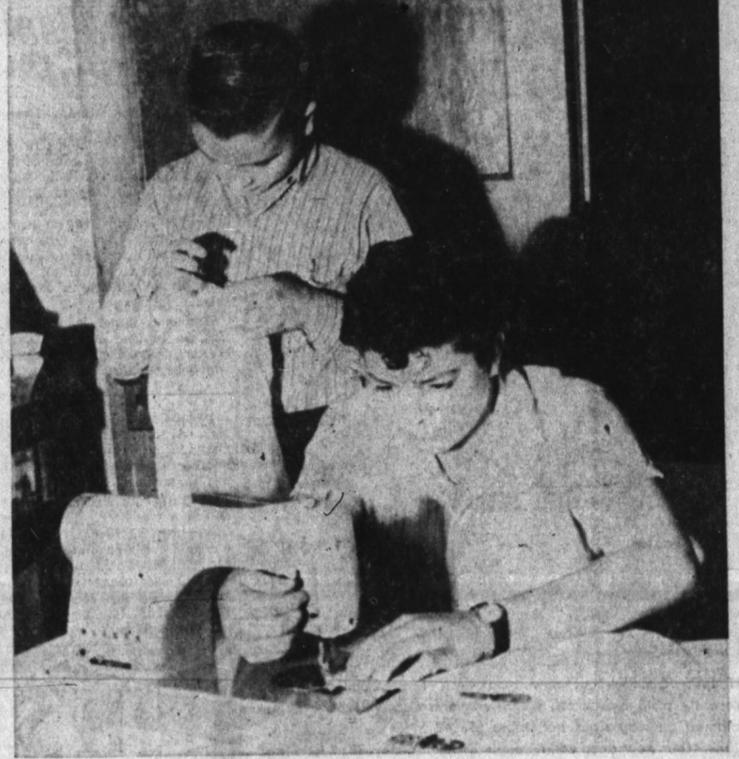

Joe Speed is with his 88-year-old mother, Mrs. W. L. Speed, at Roswell, N. M. Mrs. Speed fell Monday and is suffering a broken leg.

MRS. BESSIE SPANDE is enjoying a brother's visit, Jack McLeod of Tyner, Saskatchewan Canada. He arrived some 10 days ago for an extended visit. They drove to Albuquerque, N. M., last Friday to visit Mrs. Spande's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lane. Mrs. Joe Speed accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perry visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Perry, from Thursday until Sunday. Accompanying them were Mrs. W. B. Betts and children. The Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams joined friends from Plain-

Lobster Tails Good Dish for Lent

ROCK LOBSTER TAILS teamed with a piquant sauce make a saucy dish for a Lenten ladies lunch.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

FROZEN ROCK LOBSTER TAILS, available all over the country, make a saucy dish for a ladies' lunch during Lent.

The tails are boiled first, then the lobster meat is removed, diced and marinated in herb vinegar. Finally the lobster is added to a creamy sauce, colored a faint pink with paprika, and served with steamed rice.

If you like, you can pile the lobster meat and just a little of the thin sauce back into the shells, cover with tiny buttered bread cubes and broil until flecked with brown. The sauce and any lobster that remains should be served piping hot atop the rice. Or forget about the shells and serve the heated lobster and sauce as is over the rice; we like this way best because it's easiest to eat.

LOBSTER PIQUANT

Ingredients: 6 South African rock lobster tails (4 or 5 ounces each), 4 1/2 quarts boiling water, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 tablespoons fresh garlic-flavored red wine vinegar, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 1/2 cups homogenized milk, 1/4 cup heavy cream.

Method: Place lobster tails, boiling water and 1 1/2 teaspoons salt in a kettle over high heat until water begins to bubble; if tails are thawed continue to boil gently 5 to 6 minutes or until meat is opaque through; if tails are frozen add 3 minutes more to the boiling time.

Drain and rinse with cold water. With kitchen scissors, cut down both sides of soft undershell. With thumb inserted between shell and meat at top of tail, pull lobster meat away in one piece. Dice lobster; sprinkle with wine vinegar. Melt butter in 2-quart saucepan over moderately low heat; stir in flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt and paprika; add milk all at one time. Cook and stir constantly until bubbly and thickened. Stir in cream and lobster meat, including any of the wine vinegar not absorbed. Reheat slowly; do not boil. Serve with hot steamed rice. Makes 6 servings.

Note: If you wish to serve the lobster in the shells, reheat lobster in sauce as directed, then fill the shells with the lobster meat, draining it lightly with a spoon, so

Cotton Disappearing On the High Plains

DISAPPEARANCE of cotton in the United States in the 1957-58 marketing year is estimated at about 13.5 million bales, as compared with disappearance a year earlier of about 16.2 million bales, but is still slightly above the average for the marketing years from 1947-48 through 1956-57, George W. Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice President of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. announced this week on receipt of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's "The Cotton Situation," published bi-monthly by the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Domestic mill consumption in the first five months of this season was at the lowest level since 1939. The total for the marketing year probably will be around eight million bales. This would be about 600,000 smaller than consumption during the preceding season and smaller than in any other marketing year since 1948-49, Pfeifferberger pointed out.

Stocks of gray goods have been high in relation to unfilled orders for several months. This indicates consumption will continue low for several months. Some decline in personal disposable income per person during recent months also as to add only a little of the thin sauce; if you add too much sauce it will run over. (Serve remaining sauce, and any lobster, separately.) Melt 2 tablespoons butter in an 8-inch skillet and mix with 2 slices of bread that have been cut into tiny cubes. Sprinkle lobster with the buttered bread cubes and place on aluminum foil about 5 inches from medium broiler heat until bread cubes are lightly toasted.

indicates consumption will continue relatively low, the publication states.

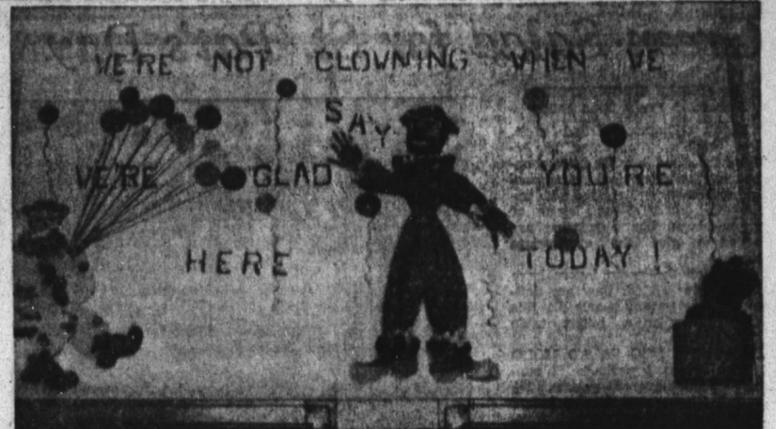

EXPORTS OF COTTON during the current season are expected to be close to 5.5 million bales. Exports from Aug. 1 through November were 1.7 million running bales or about 84 per cent of those during the same period a year ago. However, the rate of exports which prevailed during the first four months of the season is not expected to continue during the entire season.

Sales of cotton by the Commodity Credit Corporation for export during the 1957-58 marketing year were 4.8 million bales as of Jan. 14. This cotton must be exported between Aug. 16, 1957 and July 31, 1958. In addition, cotton which was exported between Aug. 1 and 16, 1957 from CCC sales for export during 1956-57 must be added to CCC sales for export in 1957-58. Although there are no official figures on the amount of cotton so exported, the New York Cotton Exchange estimates that about 185,000 bales were exported between Aug. 1 and Aug. 15.

Foreign spot market prices for foreign-grown cotton continued slightly above U. S. export prices in December. This situation has prevailed for several months.

CCC HELD about 4.7 million bales (owned and held as collateral against outstanding loans and excluding stocks sold for export and for unrestricted use) on Jan. 24. This compares with post-world war II peak stocks of about 14.2 million bales on Jan. 20, 1956. CCC loans on the 1957 crop through Jan. 24 covered about 2.4 million bales. About 4.1 million bales of the 1956 crop were under loan a year earlier.

The average 14 spot market price for Middling, 1-inch cotton in January averaged 34.83 cents per pound. This compares with 34.89 cents in December and 33.41 cents in January 1957. On Feb. 3 the average price at these markets was 34.69 cents. The high during the preceding season was 34.69 cents on July 1, Pfeifferberger concluded.

Beauty At Home

Q. How do jewels help or detract from the appearance of one's hands?
A. Diamonds and pearls are the most exacting jewels to wear, for the brilliance of diamonds and the pale purity of pearls show up any roughness, coarseness or drab color of the skin surrounding the jewels. These jewels demand a smooth, white, unblemished hand. Coral makes a red hand look white, and so do emeralds. Never wear a sapphire on a sun-tanned hand, but instead choose topaz or jade. Rubies and sapphires are for white hands only. A large black ring is usually flattering to almost any hand. Amethysts, moonstones, aquamarines, and star-sapphires are becoming to most hands.

Q. What is a quick, but effective, "homemade" beauty mask for the face?
A. Just paint the white of an egg over face and throat, allow this to remain on for about ten minutes, then remove with warm water. It will prove a cleansing and revitalizing treatment to your complexion.

Q. The upper parts of my thighs do not meet. Is there an exercise I can practice which will help to develop the inner line of my legs?
A. Very good for this condition are deep-knee bends. Also, the following: Lie on floor and back with legs straight and arms resting on floor. Raise your legs half-way up, holding them in this position as you swing them apart and together again.

CAUGHT CAT
QUINCY, Ill. (AP)—J. Carl Menke's car purred like a kitten and then meowed as he drove downtown. He didn't mind the purring of the engine, but the meowing got under his skin.
He drove to a garage.
"My car meows," he said to a mechanic. "Is there any place that a cat could hide and I couldn't find it?"
The mechanic checked and discovered that, between the hood hinge and the air-conditioning unit, a little gray kitten was caught and happy to be discovered.

REAL VACATION
OTTAWA (AP)—Fourteen boy scouts from Port Hope, Ont., made a 6,400-mile 30-day trip to Victoria, B. Boy scout headquarters here said the boys financed the trip by paper salvage and scrap metal drives.

Green Salad for St. Pat's Day

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Here's a Shamrock Salad for St. Patrick's Day entertaining. The body of the salad is made from chopped eggs, mayonnaise, grated carrot and seasonings molded with unflavored gelatin. Then layers of green-colored lemon gelatine are added to give the appropriate touch.

Although the green layers have lemon juice added, they are definitely sweet; many people like this sweet flavor on a buffet table starring ham.

SHAMROCK EGG SALAD MOLD
Ingredients: 1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 1/4 cup lemon juice, blue food coloring, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish, 2 tablespoons lemon juice or cider vinegar, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon white pepper, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 6 hard-cooked eggs (chopped), 1/2 cup finely grated carrot, chicory, ripe olives.

SHAMROCK SALAD—Egg salad layered with green gelatin for St. Patrick's Day.

Method: Dissolve the lemon-flavored gelatin in the boiling water. Cool slightly. Stir in lemon juice and enough blue food coloring to color pale green. Pour enough into a 1-quart shamrock-shaped mold to give a layer about 1/4-inch deep. Chill until firm. Cool remaining lemon gelatin until a little thicker than the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Soften unflavored gelatin in the cold water. Dissolve over boiling water. Add horseradish, lemon juice or vinegar, mayonnaise, onion, salt, pepper and mustard; mix well. Stir into eggs and grated carrot. Complete the mold in layers as follows. Place half of the egg salad over firm green layer, half the remaining thickened green gelatin, the remaining egg salad, and lastly the remaining green gelatin. Chill several hours until set. Unmold on a chilled serving plate. Garnish with chicory and ripe olives. Makes 10 to 12 small servings suitable on a buffet table where there are main other dishes.

Note: Make sure the green-colored gelatin is just thick (or set) enough when added to stand up in a layer when it is turned over the egg salad mixture. If it is too thin, it will not make a distinct demarcation; if it is too thick, the layers will not adhere well.

YOUNG MODERNS

Teen-agers Cram Culture In Russia

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Russian teen-agers are so busy soaking up culture that they barely have time to rest, says opera star Blanche Thebom, who spent six weeks in that country recently while she performed at concerts and in the operas "Carmen" and "Aida."

"The acquisition of education is the primary concern of every person in Russia," Miss Thebom says. "There is no 'the world owes me a living' type of thinking by the young people. They know that later gains depend on their educational background."

The educated Russian may own a car, property, or a house in the country, but he cannot even advance in shop work unless he goes back to school, she says.

"Even the young girls working on elevators, 16 or 17 years of age, study as they ride up and down. The libraries are open 24 hours a day. The worst thing you can call a person in Russia is uncultured."

The most imposing building in Moscow, she says, is at the University of Moscow which has an enrollment of 22,000. The museums are jammed all the time and young people in great numbers are at the opera and ballet, which is less expensive than our own opera. Dates are held in cultural atmospheres, such as at concerts.

"Young people do go dancing. Folk dancing is held in the opera houses, and there is ball room dancing, a vintage of USA 1937 perhaps. There are record parties at home with classical and pop

World's Biggest Book Store Indulges Browsing, Thievery

LONDON (AP)—In her snug office in Charing Cross Road Christina Foyle opened a letter and was astonished to read:

"I have been stealing books from your shops since 1944. Their weight on my conscience has become unendurable, so I wrapped them in bundles and deposited them in the luggage department of the Charing Cross railway station. Enclosed are the claim checks so you may recover them. Thanks for years of pleasant reading." There was no signature.

records. Young people drink fruit juices and eat ice cream."

The school day is long and there are about five hours home work. Young girls wear jumper-type dresses over ski pants, sweaters, coats and boots. Temperatures in winter often reach 18 degrees below zero.

"But in my visit to Sunday church services," says Miss Thebom, "I did not see any young people at church. Except for a few, all the church-goers were over 50."

That observation is important. It means the well educated Russian of tomorrow may not have spiritual values to guide him.

The letter was an incident in a busy day of the attractive woman of 45 who is proprietor of the world's biggest book store. The stolen books were recovered and placed where they belonged, among the 4 1/2 million volumes which stretch in endless shelves in five buildings in London's Soho district.

"A conscience fund is one of the interesting little facets of this lively business," said Miss Foyle. "Thieves don't always return books. Some prefer to send money to pay for them. It comes mostly from students and broken-down scholars — poor dears. But a few clergymen have contributed to our conscience fund."

Miss Foyle loves books, like a proper florist loves a rose. So there is a bit of compassion in her heart for a book thief. She doesn't usually prosecute anyone, unless thievery has been on a commercial basis.

The many hundreds of yards of Foyle shelves are open to the wide world, and hundreds of browsers devote thousands of hours reading until their arches ache.

"Some of them seem to get a liberal education on their feet," Miss Foyle said. "The other day

I was fascinated by a man laboriously copying a musical score, which must have cost about half a crown (35 cents). But maybe he didn't have half a crown."

It's all regarded indulgently by Miss Foyle, because browsers now may become customers later. Herbert Morrison, former Labor foreign secretary, said once that he acquired much of his education in the Foyle aisles.

The shop was established by Miss Foyle's father, William, in 1904, and enjoyed a fabulous growth.

At the age of 18, while he was a clerk in a barrister's office, he looked at some text books with which he was finished and decided they were frozen assets. He sold them with surprising ease and looked around for other volumes. One book led to another and many millions passed through his hands in the next four decades.

Thirteen years ago, at the age of 60, he withdrew from active management of the business. He acquired historic Beeleigh Abbey in Essex and made it his home. Now he comes in about once a week to see how things are going. If it's a book, old or new, it's Miss Foyle's business. One of her special little problems now is to decide what to do with 400 volumes which are separate printings of Oliver Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield."

"One of our friends collected Vicars, hunting them down with great industry in every part of the world," Miss Foyle said. "Fat and thin books, big and tiny — but all the same story. Now he is tired of it and here is his hobby, covering one of my tables."

Miss Foyle has about 500 employees and one of her jobs, in a room big as a gymnasium, is to deal with the 30,000 letters received daily. A post office spokesman said recently that Foyle's gets more letters than any organization in London except the football pools.

The books go out to every nation and Miss Foyle has just returned from Japan to investigate a big, new demand for technical works, some of which she buys in the United States.

Work Habits Are Topic for Young Mothers Meeting

Mrs. L. J. Jones served as hostess for the Young Mother's Study Club Tuesday evening. Roll call featured answers to the question, "Do you pick up your children's toys?"

Mrs. Stanley Slagle presented the program on "Forming Work Habits," saying, in part, "If you can enlist a child's interest and help him to see the worthiness of the task, the problem of forming good work habits is more than half solved."

Implanting attitudes toward a task is more important than the actual method of procedure. Whenever one discovers the incomparable satisfaction of regular honest effort, the beginning of achievement is at hand."

During the business session members made plans for a husbands party to be given on March 25. Mesdames Bill Stanford, L. J. Jones and Clinton Massie were named to an arrangements committee for the party.

Members present included Mesdames Jimmy Bownds, Bill Bradley, Gid Brown, Hugh Clearman, Arthur Dean, Gerald McCaskill, Jess Robinson, Stanley Slagle, Wayland Smith, Bill Stanford, Jay Hammond, Hugh Trimble, Wendell Burdine, a new member, Mrs. Joe Silveril and the hostess.

Lone Star Club Studies 'Islam'

Mrs. Louie LeGrand gave the program on "Islam" at the Lone Star Study Club session held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Vivian Major. Mrs. E. W. Hobson was assistant hostess.

Continuing the study course on The World's Great Religions, Mrs. LeGrand defined the word Islam as meaning the submission to the will of God.

"Mohammed was the greatest of all the believers who practice prayer, alms giving and fasting. Each Islamite is supposed to make the journey to Mecca once each year. Their religion is very strict as to the habits of its followers and women are being given more freedom today," she said.

Among those present were Mesdames T. G. Blue, Roger Corbett, Jim Higgins, John Jacobsen Jr., C. D. Kelton, Joe Kendall, Louie LeGrand, G. W. Newsom, Coy Phillips, Charlie Sowell, Robert Thompson, Jack Grady, S. S. Williams, C. O. Wilkins and the hostess.

Wedding Vows Said Saturday in Church at Dawn

Sara Jo Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Dawn, and Ronald E. Graham repeated vows in the Dawn Baptist Church Saturday evening, Feb. 22. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Graham of Johnstown, Ohio.

The Rev. Paul McClung, pastor, conducted the double-ring ceremony. Jan Hargis played a brief concert of wedding music as guests were arriving and played the traditional wedding marches. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dear of Amarillo. Mrs. Dear wore a brown fallie suit with eggshell blouse and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white lace princess style dress topped with a white linen jacket. She wore a white straw pill box and carried gardenias surrounded with white feathered carnations.

For the wedding trip, she wore a rose crepe suit with black accessories and the gardenias lifted

Buttrill-Davis Rites Held Friday at First Methodist

BASKET ARRANGEMENTS of white gladioli and emerald foliage were highlighted by candelabra in decoration of the First Methodist Church for the wedding of Miss Donna Buttrill and Billy Vern Davis Friday at 7 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Buttrill, Rt. 1, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davis of Haskell.

The Rev. S. M. Dunnam, pastor of the Dumas Methodist Church, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. William J. Stanford, organist, played a brief concert of nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Colline Brown of Dumas who sang "Because" and "Always."

ALVADEE BUTTRILL, attended her sister as maid of honor and Paula Beth Corbett served as bridesmaid. Their princess styled dresses were waltz length in blue and pink respectively, and they wore head bands and shoes to match their dresses. They carried white carnations fashioned into a nosegay.

Candlelighters were Jerry Lynn and Randy Buttrill, sister and brother of the bride. Jerry Lynn's dress in pink, was fashioned identical to those worn by the other attendants.

Kay Nunn of Canyon served as best man and Bobby Henshaw and James Fowler of Haskell, Charlie Dowlin, Gene Hubbard and Bob Vaughn of Canyon served as ushers.

WEARING A gown of Chantilly lace and bridal satin, the bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. The dress featured a lace bodice coming to a deep point in the front, with a square neckline outlined in sequins and long petal point sleeves. The waltz length skirt was of tiered ruffles of lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught with seed pearls to a crown of lace and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of white rosebuds carried on a white leather Bible.

The bride's mother wore a navy

Marriage Rites Are Said in Home

Miss Delores Trace of Topeka, Kans., and Ebb Martin Jr., were united in marriage in the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Bonnie Martin, Tuesday evening. Rev. Eugene Naugle was the officiant.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munson of Topeka, Kan. Martin has recently returned from a three year stay of duty with the United States Army in Germany. He will report to Fort Hood for further duty Monday.

Relatives and close friends attended the wedding.

shantung dress trimmed in white lace with navy and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue shantung with black and white accessories. Their corsages were of white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts at a reception in Fellowship Hall of the Church, honoring the couple. The bride's table was laid in lace over blue and centered with an arrangement of white feathered carnations.

MEMBERS OF the house party were Mesdames Cecil Billingslea, P. L. Carmichael and Earl Plank, Eva Woolbright secured names for the bride's book.

For traveling the bride wore a spring suit in blue knit with black accessories and she wore a small black straw hat with brow veil.

Mrs. Davis graduated from Hereford High School and attended Bob Jones University at Greenville, S. C. and West Texas State College.

Davis graduated from Haskell High School and attended Texas Western College. He received his degree from West Texas State College.

He spent nine months in service, having been released recently. The couple plan to make their home in Farmington, N. M., where he will be employed by the El Paso Natural Gas Co.

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD WEST CELEBRATE WEDDING DATE

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West were honored Monday evening in their home, 1410 N. 25 Mile Ave., by relatives and friends in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Games provided diversion for the evening and refreshments were served.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Telchick, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Axe, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis West, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knox, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Birch West, Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Wester, Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Kelly Jr. and the honorees.

Mr. and Mrs. West were married in Clovis, N. M., Feb. 24, 1933. They lived on a farm 30 miles northwest of Hereford until 1950 when they moved to their present home in Hereford.

Their three children are Mrs. John Dale Kelly Jr., and Tommy of Hereford, and a son Kenneth who is a student at Abilene Christian College, Abilene. They have two grandchildren.

New Officers Are Named by Music Study Club Here

New officers were elected at the Music Study Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. Howard Scott Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. W. Roberson was assistant hostess.

Mrs. W. T. Carmichael, second vice president, presided over the business session.

Officers chosen were Mrs. W. J. Stanford (re-elected), president; Mrs. Homer Fox, first vice president; Mrs. T. W. Roberson, second vice president; Mrs. J. R. Allison, (re-elected) recording secretary; Mrs. Cliff Estes, (re-elected), corresponding secretary; Miss Frances Dameron, (re-elected) treasurer; Mrs. A. O. Thompson, reporter; and Mrs. Cliff Estes, (re-elected) historian.

During the business meeting members voted to present Don Moore an album recording of the opera "The Flying Dutchman," as a token in appreciation of his influence for better music in Hereford, and for the many programs he has sponsored for the club.

Miss Frances Dameron was in charge of the program on "Beethoven." She told of the deaf composer's life and his great agony in his affliction; how he came to compose as self expression for his most sacred emotions and how he rose to fame through his need of music as a field of expression was summarized.

In conclusion Miss Dameron said, in part, "During the latter part of his career he was almost forgotten and it was not until his last illness, did people recollect that they possessed a Beethoven. His principal title to fame lies in his superlative place as a symphonic composer. In the symphony, music finds its highest intellectual dignity. In Beethoven, the symphony has found its loftiest master."

Musical selections "Lift Thine Eyes to the Mountains" from Elijah, sung by Mesdames Dick Godwin, J. C. McCracken and Howard Scott with accompaniment by Mrs. A. J. Schroeter; "Invocation to Hope Op. 32" played by Mrs. A. J. Schroeter; and "Those Evening Bells" sung by Mesdames Homer Fox, C. J. Mount, A. J. Schroeter, Steve Clements, Cliff Estes and S. O. Wilson with Mrs. Bill Stanford at the piano.

Miss Eugenia Alexander, special guest, played three movements of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata."

Members present were Mesdames J. R. Allison, W. T. Carmichael, Steve Clements, R. P. Conaway, Cliff Estes, Homer Fox, Dick Godwin, J. C. McCracken, Norman Moore, C. J. Mount, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, A. O. Thompson, Joe Hacker, Bill Stanford, S. O. Wilson, J. D. Neill, and the hostess.

Medicine, Past And Present, Is Topic for Club

Decorations for the luncheon table carried out the theme of the program when the Pioneer Study Club held its February luncheon session Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Delmar Sigle. Mrs. J. E. Beyer, Mrs. Burl France and Roberta Campbell were assistant hostesses.

The program dealt with "Medicine - Then and Now" and table decorations included apothecary jars and mortar and pestle. Place cards were in the form of a doctor's prescription.

A short business session followed the luncheon when members selected Mrs. Ralph McCullough to serve as delegate to the Seventh District, TFWC convention to be held in Childress April 12-13-14.

Miss Roberta Campbell, program leader, discussed Medicine in the days of the horse and buggy doctor with members of the club taking part in a round table of personal experiences.

Mrs. O. H. Herring discussed modern medicine and modern methods of treating diseases. She told of the many diseases now conquered and gave some predictions for medicine of tomorrow.

Members in attendance were Mesdames Fred Barrett, A. G. Bell, J. E. Beyer, Burl France, Henry Hastings, O. H. Herring, O. G. Hill, E. S. Ireland, F. M. Kester, L. H. Lookingbill, Ralph McCullough, H. E. Miller, John Patton, Wirt Phillips, Mary Selger, Charlie Walser, Bess Werner and the hostess.

COFFEE TIME—Mrs. H. A. Cavness, center, and Mrs. L. B. Barnett are shown serving coffee to a student nurse from Borger. The table gave accent to George Washington's birthday observance with red and white flowers and the table cloth in blue which is also the Future Nurses Club Color. Other doctor's wives assisting were Mrs. M. W. Nobles and Mrs. Wesley Owen. (Staff Photo)

Future Nurses Club Hosts Panhandle Area Meeting

Future Nurses from the Panhandle Area came to Hereford Friday, Feb. 21, to take part in a "Get Acquainted Day" program sponsored by the local Future Nurses Club and wives of local doctors at Hereford High School. Mrs. Earl Springer, local school nurse, served as leader.

The session at 9:30 a.m. with the superintendent of schools, Fred Cunningham, presiding and giving a welcome to the visitors.

Miss Azalee Brown and Miss Marian Voit of Borger presided over the morning session which was divided into four buzz sessions with Mrs. Wanda Reed, Mrs.

Bayne, Mrs. Lois Rogers and Miss Kay Sims, all of Amarillo, and Mrs. Marie Carroll and Mrs. Paul Springs of Friona directing the study groups.

Motto for the day was "Light Your Lamp For Service." GROUP 1 studied types of nursing schools and entrance requirements, the varied fields of the profession and approximate salaries. They also discussed the various agencies now in operation for the improvement of community health.

GROUP 2 discussed parliamentary procedure under the direction of Robert Thompson, consultant of the high school government and history department. Roberts Rules of Order as a basis for discussions and examples of forum procedures, duties of officers and constitution and by-laws were considered.

GROUP 3 studied "Programs - Media For Learning" including organizational meetings, lectures, films, field trips, social functions and the development of personality and character building through the field of nursing.

GROUP 4 devoted the time to "Service Projects," key words in the life of a club, discussing such topics as supervised duties and caring for hospital patients. T.V. and Radio programs and ways of assisting the school nurse. Scrap books and fund raising also were considered.

Luncheon was served at the noon hour at the Shirley School cafeteria with Supt. Cunningham as supervisor.

The afternoon's program was devoted to business. The president of each club and its sponsor were elected to formulate plans for an area organization with Miss Kay Sims, Amarillo High School nurse, selected as chairman.

Highlight of the afternoon was a talk given by Miss Williams of Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo on "The Life of a Student Nurse."

Reports from the buzz sessions were summarized and a film, "The High Wall" dealing with racial intolerance, was shown.

JUDY PINNELL

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Pinnell of Adrian are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Judy Gretchen, to R. C. Chism, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chism of Dimmitt.

The wedding is being planned for April 4, in the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Pinnell attended Adrian High School and West Texas State College. Chism attended Dimmitt schools and is presently employed by the Fulton Cattle Co. of Chandler.

Well, How Do You Feel About It Now? IT'S: HER POINT OF VIEW

By BETTY BABIONE

IF YOU ARE among the Herefordites who are enthusiastic fans of the Whiteface basketball team, you are now very elated or very sad — depending on the outcome of the Friday tourney at Lubbock, and of which I have no knowledge at the time of this writing.

I sure do hope our local cagers came out on top; but no matter what the contest outcome, you can bet the Hereford fellas played a bangup game and deserve lots of praise.

HAVE YOU been reading the weekly progress reports from our individual school administrators, which The Brand has been running? I noticed in Jack Harris' report that present plans in the athletic department call for the inauguration of an extensive health program, including vitamin pills and flu shots for the participating athletes. And how about that?

Besides the general interest of these progress reports, there is an occasional item, like this vitamin business, which I find rather intriguing.

GEE, I wish I could have to Lubbock to be in on all the excitement of the tournament. I happened to see Mrs. Coy Phillips Friday morning — she and Mrs. Steve Williams were busy and enthused in preparations for the trip. Their party was to spend the night and return the next day — no driving in the sleepy hours for them.

Say, I must tell you about this super-duper sewing machine that Mrs. Phillips has — it's the only one of its kind in Hereford. She uses it to alter knitwear — a process which usually presents many problems, even to the tailor shop. The machine is perfectly fascinating and I think Mrs. Phillips must be a genius to be able to operate it. Anyway, you know now whom to call if you have a sweater or knit suit that needs altering.

OUR TOWN is just full of nice people. And we're always glad when nice things happen to nice people. For instance: the recent reunion of the Bert Coffin family on the occasion of the visit here by Bert's grandmother, Mrs. Perry Grogan of Albuquerque. Don't you know that family will cherish the photographs which were made while all five generations were together.

Then, there is Mrs. J. F. Ward, who is so happy over the nice things that are happening to Ted Clancy. You may have read or heard about the fine award given to Ted for his service to the field of Scouting — among other things, it cited him for "the good influence exerted by him in the lives of all boys who have had the benefit of his leadership." And you can surely understand why Mrs. Ward can be proud, since it was in her home and "under her wing" that Ted lived during the formative, teenage years. Now grown and with a family of his own, Ted makes his home in Ciebume, Tex.

And Miss Jean Gilliland has given her Hereford relatives many reasons for being proud that she is in the family — the most recent being her official recognition as a campus beauty and being chosen for honor of having her picture appear in the beauty section of the Texas Tech yearbook. So we aren't surprised to see Jean's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gilliland, and Mrs. Henry Hastings with a twinkle of pride in their eyes.

FRIENDS OF Hilga Davis think she has a priceless anecdote to tell concerning a certain morning when she was soooooo tired and just didn't think she could drag herself out of bed — it's one of those "cute things my child says" stories, but nevertheless amusing. It wouldn't be half so funny if I tried to repeat it and besides, Hilga has too much fun telling it herself for me to spoil that pleasure. But it is a goody!

I may as well go on record now as being one who is mightily pleased that the new City Budget includes the purchase of a water heating unit for the swimming pool. Am I the only one who enjoys a swim without popping out with goose bumps?

SURELY, AT one time or another, everyone has unconsciously goofed when he thought he was making a good impression or, at least, was being inconspicuous. But one local man will say you don't know what it is to be embarrassed until you've walked through the lobby of a big city hotel with a pajama leg dangling from your suitcase.

from the wedding bouquet.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the bride's home northwest of Dawn. Mrs. Bobby Jones, sister of the bride, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Tony Benson, another sister, served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Graham was graduated from Hereford High School and is a junior student at the Northwest Texas Hospital school of nursing in Amarillo.

Graham graduated from Johnstown, Ohio, High School and is a member of the United States Air Force. He will leave March 15 for Hawaii where he will be stationed with the Air Force Supply Station.

Out of town guests included Barbara Reed, Jo Magness, Ruthie Neaville, Deanna Cook, Spike Statts, Douglas Cook, Darrell Cook, all of Amarillo.

Aikman's Choir Entertains P-TA

Aikman's Grade School Choir entertained parents, teachers and guests in the Aikman auditorium Thursday night. Mrs. Doris Holmes directed the choir in several numbers.

Numbers which the choir sang were "Today's The Time for Singing," "Crusader's Hymn," "Old King Cole" and "Stodala Pumpa."

Subert's Waltzes one and two were played by Judy Wiman, who also accompanied the choir. Gerald Ingalls entertained the group with two accordion solos, "O Suzanna" and "La Traviata."

Don Martin introduced the guest speaker, Fred Cunningham, who spoke briefly on "Criticism of Your Public Schools."

"It is not to be said," stated Cunningham, "that criticism is always bad, sometimes it is good, as it stimulates thought. However, the school system cannot profit from destructive criticism."

There will be only one more meeting of the Aikman Elementary P-TA and it will be April 24 at 7:30 p.m. At this time officers will be elected and installed for the coming year.

Miss Sue Ollinger of Groom

Miss Ollinger To Wed Gerald Diller

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ollinger of Groom have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Gerald Diller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Diller of Hereford.

Vows will be exchanged in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Groom on May 31.

Mr. Diller graduated from Price College, Amarillo, and is a senior student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock. The couple will make their home in Lubbock.

Mrs. Hoff Gives H.D. Club Program

Mrs. Paul Hoff presented a program on "Planning a Party" to the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club when it met in the home of Mrs. Frank Brinkman recently.

During the business meeting roll call was answered with different ideas on party preparation.

Present for the meeting were Mesdames Fred Barrett, Mary Bodkin, R. A. Fulwood, Paul Hoff, Lena Olson, C. L. Whitehead, Bill Williams, Clinton Ward, Ray Roberts, Wilma Bryan, O. C. Williams and Brinkman, the hostess.

DAWN NEWS

Area Receives .06 Moisture Recently

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY

The rain and snow flurry early Wednesday morning resulted in .06 inch of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart, Mrs. Marion Russell and daughter, Elizabeth, went to Bowie Saturday to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Robinson. Sunday they attended the 50th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boyd in Nocona. Boyd is Mrs. Stewart's brother.

The members of the Girls' Auxiliary, Royal Ambassadors and older Sunbeam group will have a mission study Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. H. Gentry will teach the Sunbeams and Mrs. Carl Wimberley will teach the older groups. A filmstrip, "Come and See," will be shown.

March 3 through 8 is National 4-H Club Week. In observance of this week some of the members of the Dawn Club will speak over KPAN at either 8:40 a.m. or 1 p.m. sometime during the week.

THE LOCAL CLUB will meet Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Carence Betzen.

Gwen Owens of Hereford recently purchased the house where Mr. and Mrs. James Alston live. The house will be moved to Hereford. The Alstons have bought a house on Irving Street in Hereford and will move in the near future.

Carl Wimberley returned home Wednesday from Marlin where he has been taking mineral baths the past three weeks. Mrs. W. W. Wimberley Sr., his mother, came as far as Colorado City with him to visit with her sister Mrs. G. L. Morris, who is recovering from a recent heart attack. Mrs. Morris had been visiting a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon H. Baker, at Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Crist and daughters of Progressive visited in the Orval Galley home after church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Galley who are here from Center, Colo, were also visiting with the Orval Galley family.

Miss Irene Galley who has been attending West Texas State College in Canyon is now employed by the ASC office of Deaf Smith County.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Caraway was recently remodeled. A large kitchen and new bathroom were added. Thursday morning friends of Mrs. Caraway honored her with a kitchen shower. Those present were Mesdames Shorty Fowler, Leo Hoffman, L. W. Tooley, R. T. Stewart, H. S. Fuller Sr., Muri Little and Zed Stewart. Gifts were sent by Mrs. Reece Stewart and Mrs. R. L. Johnson.

MARK McCABE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCabe, has been confined to his home with the measles.

J. N. Killingsworth, principal of the Dawn School, urges parents to take advantage of Public School week and visit the school.

DEAD DOG

DES MOINES (AP) — In Iowa, a dog that bites a postman could be executed on the spot by the postman.

The privilege actually extends to others. The Iowa statute says that when a dog is caught in the act of worrying, chasing, maiming or killing any domestic animal or attacking or attempting to bite any person, it may be killed forthwith.

But that's "a lot more than we would ever do," said a Des Moines postal official.

MISINFORMATION

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A group of eight grade students at a Little Rock school were being tested on the question: "What was the first message Morse sent over the telegraph after he invented it?"

One student knew the answer — "What hath God wrought?" — and whispered it to a desperate student next to him, who in turn whispered it to another, and so on until everyone in the group had the answer. However, about half the answers came out: "What has gone wrong?"

Beauty At Home

Q. What astringent can you suggest which will help to absorb dandruff on my scalp, my hair being of the extremely oily kind?

A. Witch hazel is good for this, and has a drying effect, too. Apply, then follow with a good scalp massage, then your shampoo.

Q. What treatment will soften and bleach the skin, as well as help to refine the pores?

A. Rub well into the skin a mixture of two-thirds warm olive oil and one-third lemon juice. Rub this into the skin with the outer skin of the lemon, using an upward and outward movement. This brings a healthy glow to the skin, and any drying effects of the lemon will be offset by the olive oil.

Q. I have quite a small nose, but a protruding chin. How should I make up?

A. Shadow your chin with a darker shade of foundation cream, and highlight your nose with a lighter shade.

Q. What is a good cleansing compound for a skin that is infested by blackheads?

A. The abrasive quality of this treatment should help to dislodge these blackheads: Mix a tablespoon of oatmeal and one of cornmeal with soap and water, and rub this over the infested area. Then scrub and rinse.

Q. How can I convey the impression of whiter teeth than I really have?

A. A slightly darker shade of lipstick, preferably one with just a little blue, will do this. Avoid the orange tones, for they make the teeth look yellow.

Q. What can I do about the skin on my throat, which appears darker than my face?

A. Try bleaching this skin with regular buttermilk massages.

Q. What will remove some rubber cement stains from one of my dresses?

A. Sponge with carbon tetrachloride, gasoline or benzine, or dilute the stain in it. If the cement has dried, rub petroleum jelly into it to loosen it, then sponge with solvent; or rub first with dry cleaning soap.

WET AREA HATFIELD, England (AP) — Families wanting a house near a river have been offered an ideal site in this Hertfordshire town — there are 28 public houses within a few minutes' walk.

How Can I?

Q. How can I make sandpaper?
A. Sandpaper can be made by coating stout paper with glue, and then sifting fine sand over its surface before the glue sets. Emery paper can be made in the same way, only that powdered emery is used instead of sand.
Q. How can I make smelling salts?
A. Break one ounce of rock vial into small pieces, then cover it with eau de cologne and allow it to stand for a few days before using.
Q. How can I remove brown stains from the steel fittings of the gas range?
A. By using a rag dipped in vinegar. Then polish in the usual way.
Q. Is it all right to dilute a cough syrup with water?
A. It is not well to do so unless instructions direct that it be done. The soothing qualities of the syrup are to lubricate the sore spots and stop the coughing. This is lessened if diluted or followed by water.

Q. How can I take proper care of ferns?
A. A fern should not be moved from place to place, and should not be kept in a very strong sunlight. Do not water it every day, but soil it thoroughly every third day.
Q. How can I prevent wooden utensils from cracking?
A. When drying any wooden utensils, place them where they are not near a fire. The heat will crack them.
Q. How can I make a good skin softener at home?
A. A good method for softening and whitening the face, neck, and arms, is to mix a little raw cornmeal with sour milk, and apply regularly.
Q. How can I treat a rag rug that has been washed, so that it will lie flat on the floor?
A. Try starching it somewhat heavily. This will make it lie flat, it will keep clean longer, and will be much easier to wash next time.
Q. How can I remove the melted wax from the sides of good candles?
A. Try dipping the candles in hot water.

Q. How can I avoid the spattering of hot grease?
A. Try placing a little salt in the frying pan.

DAME NATURE is an exacting task-master and, generally manages to survive against overwhelming odds. Occasionally, however, the Old Girl slips up and things fail to work out right. Such will probably be the case with the budding Elm trees you see around town these days. The Elms seem to be on the "eager beaver" side this year — and I figure they are due for a damaging freeze before everything is said and done.

Not that I am particularly unhappy. A year or so back everything hit just right and there were millions of little Elm trees sprouting all over town. Some got so far along that they became a serious problem.

Apologies to Mrs. Bill Hutson. Beatrice finally became a grandmother when Mr. and Mrs. Billy D. Hutson announced the birth of Christopher Adam this week, and we spelled the name with a "d" instead of a "t." Just to keep the record straight, the young man is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Hutson.

Most local school teachers will be glad when Public School Week (March 3-7) has come and gone. They have been plenty busy cleaning the rooms, adding decorations and getting ready for the annual visitation. The cafeterias are also making plans for the special week. It's a lot like the deals when your wife has club at your house. She wants everything spic-and-span. It takes a couple of weeks to get ready and about one hour to have club. The family eats out the day club meets, then survives on leftovers for the remainder of the week.

Public School Week is a good deal. It is the only time a lot of folks get out to the schools but, I still say, if they would take the time to drop in unexpected and unannounced, they could get a much clearer picture of actual school life. I sure hope the women's clubs never start meeting on this basis.

If they do, most husbands will learn first-hand what they mean when they say a fellow "leads a dog's life."

NOTICE WHERE the City and County finally got together and worked out a practical plan on rural fire protection costs. The system is based on actual cost, per call, on a yearly basis and the best thing seems to rest in the fact that everyone is happy with the new deal. Relations between county and city officials and employees, generally speaking, are in good condition, creating a desirable situation. The same people pretty well pay both sets of expenses — and they definitely appreciate harmony between the governing bodies.

The resignation of Jack Harris as top coach came as a shock to his many friends. Jack has done an unusually good job and, although most folks hate to see Jack and Mrs. Harris leave Hereford, they are happy to see them move into a little faster league.

FIVE BUSES hauled approximately 200 students to the district basketball games in Lubbock Friday. George Muse said he was taking his wife along for protection. The kids took sack lunches to help hold down the costs, which were $1 per student, including transportation and admittance to the courts. A real bargain if you like basketball, and our school officials merit a word of praise for making the trip available to students. Without the student interest there would be little excuse for existence of high school sports on the present scale.

Old timers who remember the ill-fated Graf-Zeppelin and the Hindenburg, lighter than air craft of pre-war days, were probably surprised to notice that Germany plans to turn out a new 200-passenger dirigible in the near future. Interest in air travel in 1958 indicates that the dirigibles have great potential, considering the large number of passengers they can carry. Use of helium will be of considerable help over the old ships, which were filled with inflammable gas. The Germans have been right about a lot of things, including rockets, and they may make a real comeback with the new dirigible. Anyway, it will be interesting to watch.

A bunch of fellows were enjoying the currently popular pastime of watching the workmen on the bank building when someone brought up the question of why practically no soy beans are grown in this area. Soy beans are grown and do produce well, but have never threatened to become a major crop. Is this due to allotment of acres, freight differentials or just plain lack of interest?

Right now the biggest boom in this area is certified seed. I never knew we had so many certified growers. There must be 8 or 10 active in the field — and the interest seems to be spreading.

I keep on hearing rumors, about a packing plant for this area. Bill Lenderman says the C-C will try to get a committee together and get an appointment with Armour & Co. in the near future. Everything is in the talking stage but, where there is so much smoke, there is bound to be a little bit of fire. I keep hearing that the company is interested in Hereford and Lubbock, along with several other West Texas towns. Some people figure the plant would employ 2,000 people, which would just about double the overall population of Hereford. It would also alter the economy of this area tremendously. However, it is nothing to get excited about at this stage of the game. I mentioned it once before and got a dozen phone calls from people wanting to sell land. Honest, I don't know any more than what I have already said. It sounds like a good deal, but it appears to be quite remote.

OIL PROSPECTS, likewise, are an unknown factor. Folks aren't talking oil much these days, but some more wells are in the mill. They will probably do some more work on the Lamance test west of town, maybe even another test well. I wouldn't be surprised if we don't have four or five tests in the county during 1958.

I always thought some of those folks around Littlefield had a good deal with an irrigation well and one or two oil wells on a quarter section. In fact, this seems like one type of diversification that should pay off — even during a drought.

Why Not Let The People Decide?

Do We Need A New School Plant In Northwest Area?

Hereford school trustees, in addition to a few hundred other headaches, will be confronted at the next meeting with a petition seeking to establish a school in the northwest part of the town. The petition is now reported to have 400 signers and sponsors hope to make it 480 by the time the board meets on March 18.

How the board will view the petition is a good question. How the voters will view it is another good question. Such petitions are not mandatory but, naturally, will receive extensive study and comment from board members.

The question of school location appeared as far back as the construction of Shirley elementary school; it played an even more important role when Aikman elementary school was built. As the result of surveys and other material presented before the Board of Education, Hereford's two new elementary schools were located east of town, rather than west. The board has, however, acquired substantial acreage in the northwest area for the ultimate purpose of locating a school, and possibly the football field.

Cost-wise, location of a complete school in the northwest area at this time would be more expensive than additional classrooms at Aikman, as recommended by the board in the recent bond election. This would be due to necessity of constructing a gymnasium and a cafeteria, which already exist at Aikman. In addition, they have been the two points most bitterly attacked in recent bond elections. The gymnasium and cafeteria at Central School also appear to be the most highly criticized circumstances by the 400 parents who are now petitioning the school board for the new elementary school.

Construction of a new school is certainly not the cheapest way to solve our educational problems, especially when you pause to consider that it will require another elementary principal, supervisory staff and physical training staff. On the other hand, we can understand why families in the northwest area are somewhat upset when the schools are consistently moved further away each time. Their automobile expenses in hauling their children would, no doubt, offset considerable tax money which might be used to construct the school.

Anyway, the school board faces a new situation. Instead of recommending school construction to the people, they have a group which is recommending construction to them. They also have a nucleus of 400 people, many of whom voted against the last bond issue, who would no doubt support a school bond issue for the northwest area.

Whether the plan is economical or consistent with previous building, it is the people who ultimately pay the bill. If we were on the school board, we would vote to call the election—and let the voters make the final decision.

What Should Our Schools Achieve?

The annual trek of parents to schools is scheduled March 3-7, when Texans will observe public school week. Chiefly, the occasion is sponsored in order that we may know more about our schools, take more interest in our schools and, generally, better contribute to their improvement.

Some people will be happy about Hereford schools while others, no doubt, will be prone to criticize. How many parents, though, fully realize the objective of education in Texas? In order to answer this question, we reprint below a release which appears in the special kit produced for use on the occasion of Public School Week in Texas:

"Provide all children with a knowledge of the traditionally accepted 'fundamentals.' These fundamentals were defined in the early elementary schools as reading, writing and arithmetic. As the pupil advances in school, these three R's should be accomplished by a study of such courses as higher mathematics, science, history, and English. Upon graduation from high school a student should have had specific training to do something—to go to work and be successful on a job—in the event he finds it impracticable to continue his education.

"Enable each child to develop the power to think constructively and critically, and to solve problems.

"Provide citizenship education opportunities that emphasize the American heritage and include knowledge and acceptance of the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship. More effective training for citizenship usually results where the school, home, church and community work cooperatively.

"Provide experiences for children and youth from which they learn self-direction and responsibility for their own behavior.

"Assist in the development of moral and spiritual values, acceptable social skills and attitudes, and the ability to get along with others.

"Assist each youth in his efforts to make a place for himself in the community. Some students prepare themselves for higher education; others work upon leaving school; and still others prepare for homemaking. Programs of vocational education and of counseling and guidance are needed in achieving these goals.

"Provide educational programs which take into account individual differences. Each child has the right to experiences which will assist in his optimum growth and development within his capacity. This includes programs of enrichment for the gifted as well as opportunities for other exceptional children, including the mentally retarded."

THE GOLDEN YEARS

H. D. Culpeppers Were Wed in Indian Country

By MRS. E. L. CRISWELL
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Culpepper of 602 E. Third in Hereford have been married since Dec. 22, 1904. They were married in Indian Territory, now known as Oklahoma.

"We have known each other since we were children," said Culpepper. "Why, we went to school together in a shinnery brush arbor for the schoolhouse. Of course we only went to school three months of the year in those days, so it was not necessary to have it heated as our school term was during the summer. This was so we could harvest crops during the fall.

"In those days the children had to help gather crops or there would not be enough food for us to live on until the next crop came in. We did not have money to buy everything we needed so we raised and preserved it in various ways to have food through the winter months."

"HE CAME to borrow mother's butter molds," said Mrs. Culpepper. "He was dressed in tight legged jeans. I thought he was real cute then but I guess we became interested in each other at a party that his sister had given for him.

"He has been a wonderful husband. He never forgets birthdays, anniversaries or Valentine's Day."

To this Culpepper said, "If you have found the one woman in the world for you, why forget the tactics with which you won her? If she was worth winning, she is worth keeping and I planned to keep her."

"She was all dressed up with a ribbon in her hair," said Culpepper. "I knew she was the girl for me. I began planning right then to win her and one of the first things I knew I must do was to get some money saved up so I could ask her to marry me.

"I had left a few things in Texas, but they were just a beginning. I had been courting her for some time before I bought my new buggy. It was a stick back with red wheels and rubber tires. Hug me tight? Of course, no self-respecting young man of that day would have bought any other kind.

"MY STICK BUGGY was made on the same order of the old fashioned love-seat. It had a circular rail from the two sides around the back and the sticks were up and down as in a kitchen chair. It was very comfortable and I was very proud of it. Why I paid $65 for that buggy and it was the finest you could buy.

"We had known each other for a long time but had never grown serious until after that party where Hettie was so pretty I couldn't help but get serious.

"A friend of mine and his girl went with us to be married. We sat in that stick backed buggy with the red wheels and the rubber tires and were married. Our teacher, who was a full-blooded Indian and a Protestant minister, read the ceremony for us.

"We began housekeeping in a small two story house of three rooms. Right after our marriage we made a trip to Texas in a wagon to get the things I had left out there. On our way back to Territory a "blue" norther blew in. It was really cold! We nearly froze. Hettie wrapped up in all the quilts we had and I walked most of the way to keep from freezing. With that loaded wagon it was the longest 25 miles I have ever traveled.

"WE MOVED to Wilbarger County and did not do so well there so we moved to Silvertown in Briscoe County. Hettie and the children came on the train to Amarillo. I met her there and we came on to Tulla. Again we ran into a blizzard.

"I drove from Tulla to Silvertown in four hours. I was afraid I had killed the horse, by driving him so hard but he lived to be 28 years old, at which time I gave him to a nephew who sold him and we have never heard from that horse again.

"We came to Hereford in 1921 and moved to the Walcott community. We made a fine crop that year. For five long years we made nothing and the sandstorms were terrible. We always had a garden but it was necessary to keep it fenced in.

"The next morning after one of those terrible dust storms I could walk over the fence it had piled so high. At times we had to spread sheets over the bed in an effort to keep enough of the dust out that we might sleep. We would walk the floor from room to room, wondering if we would survive.

"Another incident I remember from those days was how George Bippus mowed Russian Thistles when they were 12 to 14 inches tall and stacked them for feed. The cattle ate them with relish. There was just nothing else to eat. I have seen stock try to eat thistle when it was dry and crisp because of their hunger during the drought."

CULPEPPER WAS commissioner of Precinct three for 12 years, however he still managed to run the farm.

"We rented an apartment in town but I wasn't satisfied in town. I longed to be in the country with my farm."

"Dee forgot to tell you about the horse which he drove when we were married," said Mrs. Culpepper. "He was a beautiful white horse which we called Sam. Dee had taught him to run if the reins were held tight. I had to be very careful about the reins when I was out with the children. He had one trait that was a source of frustration to me and that was the fact that he was afraid of a burro. If he saw one in the road ahead, he would stop before he came near it and then he would turn around and go back the other way, in spite of all I could do.

"Of course when Dee drove him, he always knew he couldn't get away with anything like that, so we never had any trouble. Dee could manage him real good but I just never could."

"Deaf-Smith County had no paved roads of any kind when we came here, but now they are all over the county. The commissioners had a tough time keeping the roads passable, because the sand blew so much and it would drift," concluded Culpepper.

About Our Schools

School Counselor Gives His Report

By BILL PHILLIPS
(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth in a series of reports and recommendations by administrators in the Hereford Public Schools.)

THE POSITION of Secondary Co-ordinator and Counselor is new both to me and to the school system. Progress in determining the duties and responsibilities of the position; and in establishing the necessary working relationships with the principals and the faculty members of junior high and high school has been rather slow. Progress has been made in collecting resource material both for the use of teachers and the school staff. Some of the high school teachers come in rather frequently to examine the material that might be of use to them. Much of the material is valuable in planning the overall school program.

In comparing our program with that of other schools, and in interpreting and evaluating our school program. The continued collection of such material will soon require additional facilities for displaying, filing, and storing the material.

The high school faculty is now studying the courses offered in high school and the prerequisites and state requirements, etc. for the courses. They plan to write course descriptions that will be of value to students, parents, faculty members, and staff members as the students plan their choice of courses. In some departments the teachers are doing some very good work in evaluating their courses, in planning changes, in co-ordinating the program when one subject is taught by more than one teacher.

All of the tests planned for the junior high and high school in the twelve-year testing program will be administered this year. Some additional tests, mostly aptitude tests, have been provided for specific groups at the request of the teacher. Such tests have been given to the Future Teachers Club, the bookkeeping classes, the secretarial training class and some will be given to other groups later in the year. A summary of the test results to date is attached to this report.

THE COUNSELING activities have been largely limited to testing and to group guidance. It will require time for the students to begin to make use of the counselor for personal problems though some students do come to my office for conferences now.

I have not spent as much time at junior high as I should. Being in the high school building has contributed to this condition as has my previous connection with the high school and the greater complexity of the high school program. It has appeared to me that the high school principal has needed more assistance this year than has the junior high school principal.

I feel that the combination of positions of Secondary Co-ordinator and Counselor spreads my efforts too thinly. It seems possible to carry through to completion many of the projects in both positions. I would recommend that the school obtain a full-time counselor each for junior high and high school.

Secret Ballot Will Be 'Something New'

Action of the Commissioners Court this week in ordering purchase of voting booths for heavily populated precincts is a movement which should meet with popular acclaim.

It means that residents of the county will for the first time in recent years be accorded the right of secret ballot as cited and guaranteed by our U. S. Constitution. It also means that many people will be interested in voting who, sometimes in the past, may have objected to the open methods as practiced in some precincts.

Newcomers to the area have consistently been amazed and have often protested voting conditions, especially in Precincts 1, 2 and 11.

The voting booths, coupled with recent policy of checking poll tax receipts, indicates that the county is making a sincere effort to pursue voting regulations of Texas. In the long run, it is logical that these methods will increase public interest in voting, without which it is impossible to operate a democracy.

Therefore, we feel that the commissioners have earned a "few archids" from all concerned. The only criticism is that it didn't happen sooner.

HIGH SCHOOL DEDICATION SCHEDULED

A dedication program of Shamrock's new high school building has been scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday, according to an announcement made last week by Supt. Kenneth M. Laycock. Open house will be held at the building from 1 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. and all high school faculty members will be in their rooms to greet the visitors. The public is invited to attend the dedication program and open house which will climax a two-year school expansion program in Shamrock. The occasion will mark the opening of Public Schools Week.—THE SHAMROCK TEXAN.

NEED FOR ADDITIONAL TEACHERS SEEN

At least 163 additional teachers will be needed in Lamb County schools within the next five years. This was the estimate made by the Teacher Supply committee of the Lamb County Hale-Aikin Committee which met in the Littlefield High School library Thursday night. Edgar Chance of Sudan is chairman of the group. According to Chance, the committee also found a definite need of salary hikes for county teachers but have made no decisions on what basis they will recommend the raise. Teacher retirement needs a boost, according to the committee. They also discussed teacher housing and the additional load county teachers must carry due to the Latin American language barrier.—COUNTY WIDE NEWS.

OLTON MAN JOINS TEXAS FARMERS IN WASHINGTON

Emmett Harper, Olton farmer, is a delegate from the Texas Farmers Union to Washington, D. C., this week and next. The farmers group will present various projects to the congress. Harper left from Wichita Falls Friday after a briefing there with Alex Dickie, state FU president, and other Texas delegates. The party traveled to Washington on chartered bus, via Rolla, Mo. and Columbus, Ohio. They will return by Knoxville, Tenn., and Little Rock, Ark.—THE OLTON ENTERPRISE.

FLOYD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS SELL ROAD BONDS

Floyd County Commissioners, in a surprise move that jumped the gun on their plans, sold the county's $294,000 road bond issue Saturday, at a net interest rate of 2.98941 per cent, but a $3,000 premium to cover cost of legal service and bond printing brought the figure up to 3.09733 per cent. Members of the court had anticipated setting an advertised day asking for bids from several sources. In the bidding Saturday were representatives of only three firms; all Texas organizations, but the rate offered justified going ahead with the sale at this time.—FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm claims he's found Russia has a farm problem. Anything to get the spotlight off his own farm problem.

Dear editor:
I know it's customary these days to believe the Russians can do anything, they just press a button and order up a satellite, they can pause between two sips of vodka and send off a guided missile so accurate it could knock the braces off the corner post in any corner of my pasture out here, if they hadn't already fallen off on their own before it got here, etc., but while I never like to discount the power of the other fellow, still I've always had my doubts about some things in Russia.

For instance, doesn't Russia have a farm problem? I don't care how smart his own newspapers say he is, there never was a dictator so smart he could farm out in the open and never get wet, for example. O run out of gas, or blow a gasket, or have a flat.

Well, yesterday I was reading an article in a newspaper I found caught on a fence in my pasture—I don't suppose the publisher aimed it there that accurately, but it was lodged there, none the less—that bears out my suspicions about Russian farming.

According to it, the Russian government was having a little trouble with its grain farmers. As I understand the system, all the land belongs to the government over there, and a farmer has to work as many acres and as many hours as he's told to, and can keep only a small amount of the grain for his own use, the rest going to the government.

Well, that's the way the farmers have been farming, but it turns out most of them don't have room for much grain storage, so naturally they put their own grain in what barns or sheds they have, and carefully pile the government's share out in the open. And just when it came time for the government trucks to pick up the grain, it started raining and the roads over there got muddy, since any dictator knows it's more important to conquer space than build roads, and the grain got rained on, and if you don't know what that does to grain, turn the faucet on a loaf of bread and see for yourself.

You don't have to go to Russia to know it has a farm problem, so long as farming is done out in the open.

What this proves to me is that while the farm problem may not be bigger than any political system, it'll last longer.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

By CORINNE J. NEELY

March has been proclaimed again Red Cross Month. The slogan is "Your Red Cross on the Job for You." Your local chapter will be observing the month with special events though last fall we combined with other agencies in the United Fund to have our fund campaign.

Our last complete report was made in December and was on Jr. Red Cross activities. Since January and February have been such busy months we now have reports for these months:

The Board of Directors met January 16, for a regular meeting and reports and will meet again March 16. Robert Blackburn, our Field Representative from Amarillo made two business visits in this time. Bill Decker, acting as delegate, attended a meeting of the Panhandle Assn. of Red Cross Chapters, which met at the Air Force Base. This was the fourth meeting of the newly organized association formed for mutual aid of chapters in case of disaster and other needs.

Mrs. H. A. Cavness, Jr. Red Cross chairman, and your executive secretary attended the Jr. Red Cross Talent Show at the High School and decided the whole program should go to the V. A. Hospital in Amarillo, if and when a date could be arranged. It was that good! Also since our Jr. report the Jrs. at Allman completed their project for Valentine, with Valentine favors and decorations for the V. A. Hospital. A surplus was given to the Day Nursery there.

Mrs. Steve Clements chairman of Nursing Services and this writer attended a meeting of nurses at the hospital seeking to add to our enrolled nurses for Red Cross. At this time we have only three on our roll.

Under First Aid program, Marlin Gilliland, chairman and instructor, with instructor Henry W. Ay-cock completed their second class of recent date with a number of the B & P W women making up the standard class. (They now plan an advance class about mid-March). Since this is one of their projects for the year and wishing to show appreciation, the club as a whole donated funds to replace old charts with new ones and a stand to the local chapter.

Bill Hardwick, Water Safety Chairman, continues his work on plans for summer classes in swimming. He is looking for instructor material and life-guards to be Red Cross trained. This is a community service offered by the chapter to the Municipal Pool management.

In the Disaster Program (and this is the time to begin on plans) the executive secretary was scheduled to speak to 10 Home Demonstration Clubs on Mass Care in Disaster. We have gotten ideas to incorporate into our chapter plan, incooperate into our chapter plan, from the club members and feel they now have made plans of their own to work out in case of disaster.

The Home Service committee, with Pauline Howard, as chairman, held one emergency meeting. January was a big month in which aid was given to 12 service men and/or families. The chapter spent $123 for emergency needs and other services were emergency leaves, aid in obtaining allotments etc. The February expense went mostly to local veterans for emergency needs, in actual cash $60. Neither of these include cost of telegrams and such needed to care for the emergencies.

Motor Corps group celebrated the completion of the Advance First Aid course with a dinner of appreciation for their instructors Marlin Gilliland and Henry W. Aycock and their wives.

In the next report plan to give you an idea of what can happen in a day at the chapter office.

GARBAGE HAULER RETIRES—A Dallas garbage man, James J. Dabbs, who claims to have worn out 17 hours and more trucks than he bothered to count, receives a cake from pretty Exer Eudy in a double ceremony marking his 70th birthday and retirement after 32 years with the Public Works Department. On hand to help Dabbs celebrate his last day on the job, are L. C. Walker in truck, and Henry F. Jackson, right, fellow-workers. (AP Photo)

H. D. Council Names District Delegates

Mrs. H. L. Hershey was elected to fill the post of T. H. D. A. chairman at a special meeting of the Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Council Monday afternoon in the District Court room.

Delegates for the District I convention were also elected. They are Mesdames Ernest Brown, Louise Olson and H. L. Hershey as delegates and Mesdames Otto Olson, Jim Perrin and J. B. Caraway as alternates. They will go to Stratford April 30.

Preceding the special meeting the council held its regular meeting, during which time the council committees gave reports and accepted reports from the club presidents that all committee recommendations for 1956 were accepted by a majority of the clubs.

Mrs. LaNoy Tooley read the 4-H club recommendations, and announced the "Share The Fun Festival" will be held by 4-H clubs on March 7 at the Bull Barn from 7:30 to 10 p.m. They plan to carry out the St. Patrick's Day theme. Highlighting events will be the crowning of the 4-H King and Queen, Candidates will be judged on basis of their record books. Council agreed the home demonstration clubs would furnish the refreshments of punch and cookies. Mrs. Tooley also told of the demonstrations contest soon to be held with both junior and senior divisions. This will give the younger 4-H members experience in showmanship and competition here in the county.

The clubs were urged to elect their nominees for club woman of the year and submit a letter of recommendation to Mrs. Tom Draper to be passed on to a special selection committee.

Mrs. C. A. Saulcy, civil defense chairman reported more work is being done with the civil defense organizations. She urged that everyone check their accommodations in the event of an emergency such as tornadoes. "Do something to get ready if nothing more than make a pair of pajamas as one woman did so that she wouldn't be caught in her old ragged ones as she was last year by a tornado."

Mrs. Jim Perrin of the Bippus community read two poems. They were entitled, "Debt and Credit" and "Mumps."

Those attending were Mrs. Jim Perrin and Mrs. Elmo Hall, Bippus; Mrs. Louie Olson and Mrs. M. W. Sumner, Cultural; Mrs. H. S. Fuller, Mrs. L. W. Tooley, Mrs. Ray Stewart and Mrs. J. B. Caraway, Dawn; Mrs. Bill Gilleland, Mrs. Hardy Benson and Mrs. Edgie Charlton, Ford; Mrs. J. W. Rouse, Mrs. Ernest Brown and Mrs. N. A. Brown, Messenger; Mrs. H. L. Hershey, Mrs. Floyd McGee, Mrs. Taft McGee and Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Progressive; Mrs. O. L. Williams, Mrs. Paul Hoff and Mrs. Otto Olson, North Hereford; Mrs. Clara Shore, Mrs. S. S. Williams and Mrs. W. H. Goetsch, South Hereford; Mrs. Vern Witherspoon, and Mrs. Carlos Vaughn, West Hereford; Mrs. George Turentine and Mrs. C. A. Saulcy, Westway; Mrs. Wilburn Axe and Mrs. J. V. Pickens and Mrs. Tom Draper, Wyche.

ROMANCE AMONG THE VEGETABLES

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. — Large cases of canned food, draped with a white sheet and backed with velvet, served as an altar. White meat-wrapping paper was used to form the aisle leading to the altar. The scene: Mills Food Market. The event: The wedding of deli-v-ry boy Everett Farmer of Bluefield and Charlotte Richardson of Bluefield, W. Va. The Rev. # Huge Local Crowd Watches Team Win

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL

The Adrian Matadors met the Happy Cowboys in a play-off to break the tie between the round-robin win and District Tournament tie on the West Texas basketball court Saturday night.

The game was to start promptly at 7:30 p.m., but the fans started pouring into the stands by 6:45. They were from Portales, Clovis, Rosedale and Glenrio, N. M., on the west; Claude and Groom on the East; Hart and Hereford on the South, and Amarillo to the North.

Many from Vega joined the group including Oldham County's sheriff. Some ex-basketball stars were Charles Banks of Groom, Jimmy and Billy Don Brown of Amarillo and Canyon, Bob Lot-speich and Grady Skaggs of Amarillo. Many local people attended who have not been attending the home games.

All in all, it was a very gratifying scene to see such local support. Scores at quarter were 12-2, half 26-12, third quarter 48-28 and final score was 64 to 38, Adrian's favor.

The Adrian boys went into bi-district play against Kress Kangaroos Tuesday in West Texas' new fieldhouse. The Adrian boys were bi-district champs last year.

Coach Cullender announced recently that one of our local boys was placed on the All-District Basketball team at Lazbuddie. He is Edward Pinnell, six foot Senior who plays Forward. He, along with Davis Brown, was nominated last week for a spot on the All-State roster.

Mrs. Horace Betts, Jolene and Sammy spent Sunday in Lockney with their new grandson who was born Feb. 19 to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hammit at the local hospital. He was named Donnie Joe and weighed 8 pounds and 10 ounces at arrival. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hammit of Lockney.

Baptist Brotherhood met Monday morning in the church annex for a social hour. J. E. Burkhead, pastor of Bushland Baptist church, was guest speaker. Attending were Horace Betts, R. M. Gruhkey, E. B. Pounds, Rev. Bill Lewis, John Horton and Mike, Dale Gruhkey, Rick Banish, W. B. Betts and a guest from Bushland, Shorty Jackson. An extensive business meeting followed the meal, during which John Horton was elected president for the new year.

MILDRED HARRIS was a weekend guest of Roberta Larson of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Jones of Dallas arrived Thursday for several days visit with his brother, Supt. A. P. Jones, and family. He also visited at Friona with other relatives. They attended the play-off game at Canyon Saturday night.

Jeannie Youngblood, who is sponsored by the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church, is directing a three day Educational Institute at the local church. The sessions are Sunday night, Monday night and Tuesday afternoon.

News from Germany about Lyla Mae Fagan is that she was able to sit up on her sixth day. Her speech is slowly improving and so are her movements. Doctors think she may be able to fly home by the original discharge date in late March.

EMA LOU JORDON, 1957 Adrian graduate who is attending Northwest Texas School of Nursing, has been elected as representative delegate to the Texas State Convention of Nurses which convenes in April. Miss Jordan, daughter of Miss Jessie Jordan of Amarillo, was awarded a three year nursing scholarship by the Vega American Legionnaires and was also Salutatorian of her graduating class.

The "Hill-Hare" Sub District WSCS met Thursday in the Friona Methodist Church with eight participating churches present. These were St. Paul of Amarillo, Canyon, Hereford First and Hereford Wesley, Vega, Wildorado, Adrian and Friona. The theme was "These Paths of Service." Mrs. Leland Burns, local president, gave a five minute high-light talk of the years work here. Mrs. Johnnie Williams presented the Devotional. Attending the day's meet from Adrian were Mesdames Vic Lemke, N. L. Jacobson, E. N. Jacobson, Anna Witt, Johnnie Williams and Leland Burns and Chris.

lings, laid four eggs the first day, two the next, and one on the third. Then, proud of her rocket-age production feat, she crowed like a rooster about it. The eggs were all normal in appearance and size. (AP Photo)

ily were dinner guests of the Bill Jennings at Lazbuddie.

Haley Shaw and family returned to their Bonanza, Ore., home Thursday after their vacation here and at Steed, N. M. Returning with them was Haley's mother, Mrs. Frankie Shaw, who will visit other sons in Las Vegas, Nev., and Northern Oregon.

There was a collision just west of Adrian's intersection Thursday afternoon. Involved in the wreck of a 1956 Cadillac and a 1957 Ford pick-up were Manuel Tafaya, employee of Bill Leslie, and Curtis Walker of Kentucky. Both cars were completely demolished but no one was seriously injured. The Kentucky people were taken to an Amarillo Hospital but dismissed soon after. Bill Leslie is now driving a new 1958 Chevrolet pickup as a result of the accident.

Methodist Men gathered for the morning meal Monday morning in the Fellowship Hall. Guest speaker was the Rev. Bill Parks of Vega. Cooks were Leland Burns, Don, D. W. and Kippy Morgan and Wilbur Harris. "Building Foundations" was the subject of the Rev. Parks message. He said, "We carry on where others have built so we build for those who came after." Nineteen men were present.

Household Scrapbook

Placing Rugs
Never place a small scatter rug at the top of a flight of stairs. There have been many serious accidents caused by this poorly placed rug; and even if it is tacked down, it is dangerous, as a person may catch his feet on its edge and thereby cause a fall.

Scratches
If there are scratches on furniture, dissolve some beeswax in turpentine until the consistency of molasses. Apply this to the scratches, using a woolen cloth, and it will remove them.

Beating Eggs
When desired to beat the whites and the yolks of eggs separately, beat the whites first, then add a little to the yolks before beating. This will cause the yolks to thicken more readily and prevent sticking to the whip or dish, as so often experienced when they are beaten separately.

Brooms
Another month or two of service can be had from a broom when the bristles begin to wear down. If the two lowest rows of binding cord are cut away.

Slender Figure
An authority, who keeps her figure slender, and her weight perfect, takes only liquids for breakfast, salads for luncheon, and "anything she chooses" for dinner.

Furs
Time, cleaning and storage will dry out the oil in furs. To restore the oil use neat-foot oil or glycerine very sparingly and rub into the back or leather side of the fur.

W. Hereford H.D. Studies Parties

Mrs. Argen Draper presented a talk on "Club Party Preparations" to the West Hereford Home Demonstration Club when it met Tuesday in the home of Miss Evelyn Bell.

During the business meeting roll call was answered with a favorite recipe for sandwiches or cookies or ideas a centerpiece. Present were Mesdames Twell Awtrey, Wes Bradley, Edna Bowe, Alice Cox, N. B. Hood, John Jacobson, Mary King, Norman Livesay, Carlos Vaughn, Wood Vaughn, Vern Witherspoon, J. B. Shirley, Argen Draper, P. H. Luck and Miss Bell, the hostess.

The next meeting will be March 11 in the home of Mrs. West Bradley.

STAR THEATER

Tin Star: Morg Hickman is a sheriff in need of money who turns to bounty hunting, the tracking down of wanted fugitives for the price on their heads. He becomes a hardened professional, who takes the "dead or alive" posters at their word and always brings his men in dead, at the cost of being shunned by both lawful and lawless. In the small-town sheriff, Ben Owens, he finds a mirror of his younger self, a raw novice with only courage as qualification for his job, and he stays on to teach him his deadly trade. Involved, in spite of himself, in the town's violence, he discovers he himself still has something to learn, and that through the beautiful though out-cast Nona Mayfield he still has a chance to make a place for himself in a world he has come to hate. Stars Henry Fonda and Anthony Perkins. Booked for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter: Rockwell Hunter writes TV commercials for a New York advertising agency. He is in love with his secretary, Jenny Wells, but cannot afford to marry her as he is supporting his 15-year old niece, April. Rock's immediate boss Henry Rufus, tells him that unless he delivers a bright idea for the principal account, Stayput Lipstick, they will both be fired by their President, LaSalle Jr., whose ambition is to leave the agency and raise prize roses. The result promises to be a hilarious spoof on everything from Hollywood and TV, to radio and Madison Avenue. Jayne Mansfield and Tony Randall and booked for Wednesday and Thursday.

Coming attractions: Kiss Them For Me, Cary Grant and Jayne Mansfield; Ride A Violent Mile, John Agar and Penny Edwards; Decision At Sundown, Randolph Scott and Valerie French; Hard Man, Guy Madison and Valerie French.

Amor, the Roman god of love, was a brother to Hymen, god of marriage.

AUSSIE DOLLARS?
PERTH, Australia — Speakers at the Australian Teachers' Federation here condemned Australia's currency system. They supported a motion to introduce a system of decimal coinage in place of the present 12 pennies to a shilling and 20 shillings to a pound. The conference recommended that: The present 10 shillings be made a dollar. The shilling be one-tenth of a dollar. The penny be one-tenth of a shilling.

Public Invited To Visit School

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS

P-TA met at the Walcott School Friday night, Feb. 21, at 7:30 p.m. In the absence of both the president and vice president, Mrs. Waldron Melton, secretary, was in charge. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A. L. Shelton brought one of the recently purchased aluminum framed nylon coats to show the group.

The third and fourth grade were in charge of the program. On the program were Ronnie Buse, Gay Wily, John Perrin, Thomas Davis, Adair Melton, Johnny Avera, Keith Henderson, Phyllis Tice, Billy Henderson and Ronnie Henderson.

The group presented two plays entitled "The Scales of Friendship" and "The Valentine Nobody Wanted." Jokes were read by the entire group. Three choral readings which were taken from their English books were given. To conclude the program a "February Parade" was presented.

The principal, Thomas L. Collins, extended an invitation to the parents of students who attend Walcott school to visit in the school this week. This is to observe Texas Public Schools Week. Each pupil's work will be displayed in his or her classroom.

School will be dismissed Mar. 14, in order that the teachers may attend a teachers' meeting in Amarillo that day.

The FHA girls of Hereford High School held the annual Sweetheart and Beau Party at the Bull Barn Friday night. Attending from this community were Margaret and Cecelia Burrus, Judy Jones, Royce Lee and Merry Kay Pruitt, Janell Weaver, Don Bomar, Butch Connally and Bill Johnson.

Leonard Pittman of Fritch visited with his uncle, Thomas L. Collins, Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hall and family had as their guests Sunday Marion Perkins of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Ott Perkins and Donny of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins of Tulsa and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Perkins of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Perrin, John and J. V. and Lee Myers attended church services with the FFA boys of Hereford Sunday morning in the new Church of Christ.

Cliff, Bill and Wayne Johnson, Wayne Bomar and Jess Robinson left Sunday for Houston to attend the fat stock show. The Johnsons will show a commercial pen of five cattle. Wayne Bomar will show his Whiteface club calf.

Travis Shields was home from Albuquerque, N. M., where he attends school this past week end. Mrs. Virgil Bomar and Don drove to Portales, N. M., Sunday morning. They attended church there and then went to a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Bomar. It was given in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lott and family. Others present were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whorton of House, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Upton and daughters, also of House, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Melton, Denise and Adair met Melton's cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dukett, Susan and Betty of Amarillo, at Buffalo Lake for an outing Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Payne, Darla and Larry of Hereford attended a birthday celebration for Mrs. Rader's father, J. M. Thomas, who is 90 years old. Present for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Pick Thomas and family of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Durham and family of Spade, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Gurtz and family of Littlefield and Mrs. J. M. Thomas.

Don Bomar attended the annual Junior and Senior Banquet held at the First Baptist Church in Hereford Monday night.

Mrs. N. E. Tyler has improved nicely from an operation which she underwent in the Deaf Smith County Hospital a few weeks ago. She was able to go home Tuesday morning.

A film, "Wheels A-Rolling," was shown to the students of Walcott School Wednesday morning.

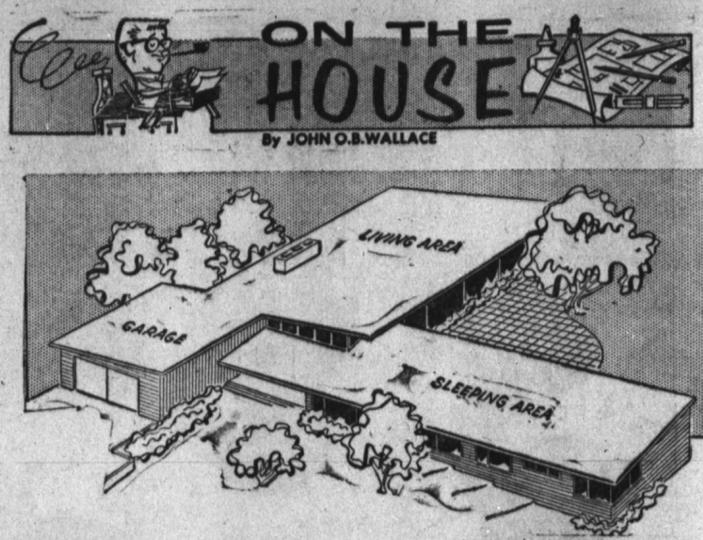

Game and hobby night will be held at Walcott School Friday March 7, at 7:30 p.m. Bring cookies for refreshments.

LET'S BE PRACTICAL

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — The scene was the children's department of the Roanoke Public Library. A mother was searching for a book suitable for her young daughter. Finally she pulled a volume from the shelf.

"Here's one you'll like, dear. It's about Niagara Falls."

"Oh, Mother," the child replied. "You know I can't swim."

TWO THERMOSTATS are needed to gauge the heating needs of a house such as this one. One controls the living area wing, the other controls the sleeping wing.

By JOHN O. B. WALLACE AP Newsfeatures

Your home may not be as comfortable as it should be unless you have multi-zone temperature control.

Modern homes are spreading out more horizontally, and often on different levels. In this type of structure, the lack of proper temperature control may become an acute problem, creating large areas of discomfort.

Multi-zone temperature control simply means having more than one thermostat in the house — a separate thermostat for each separate area with varied temperature needs.

Bedrooms, for example, do not need to be heated to the same degree during the day as living areas of the house. And during the night, proper temperature control in the bedrooms is more important than it is in living areas.

In sprawling areas of today's ranch houses and split level homes, a single thermostat for the entire house usually cannot provide adequate temperature control.

A single thermostat also can be costly because of wasted heat in areas not occupied for large portions of the day or night.

Experts give these tips for proper regulation of home temperatures:

The more a house spreads out, the greater its wall and roof exposure to outside effects of sunlight, wind, heat or cold. The sunny side of the house may be warm, the shaded or windward walls cold.

For maximum comfort, a heating or air conditioning plant should serve each side separately, providing more heating or cooling as required.

Picture windows and glass walls are even more susceptible to outdoor effects, and separate thermostatic control is needed to provide proper indoor temperatures.

Rooms over a basement tend to be warmer than those over a slab, over an open carport or over a garage. Means are needed, therefore, for controlling temperatures in these rooms.

Basement rooms are virtually unaffected by daily weather changes, but they are influenced by ground temperatures. Again, separate provision is needed for control of rooms above ground and those below ground to offset the separate effects to which each is subjected.

Ideally, a house should be heated or cooled in the same manner as it is lighted, with separate controls for each room. Individual room temperature control may not be economically feasible in the average home, but all houses should be divided into zones of like conditions and heated or cooled accordingly.

A division between the sleeping zone, the living zone and the recreation zone is practical. Thus, it becomes possible to control the supply of heating or cooling in one zone to meet unusual heating or cooling needs in other zones.

A separate control device also may be needed to meet unusual requirements in a nursery or office or a room occupied by elderly people whose comfort demands are different than younger persons.

Expansion areas and built-on rooms often have unusual exposure problems and their temperature requirements vary greatly.

Odd-shaped houses, built for example in an L, T or U, have different heating and cooling requirements.

The advice of an architect or heating contractor should be obtained to get maximum results from separate controls.

Generally, multi-zone temperature control can be achieved by using automatically controlled dampers in furnace ducts (or by using valves in a team or hot water system) and separate thermostats for control of each zone.

NO CHANCE AT ALL
CONCORDIA, Kan. (AP) — It cost Richard Patrick Ahrendads $50 and 30 days to sell chances on a washer and dryer to residents of this Kansas town — but police scratched their heads before they came up with a charge.

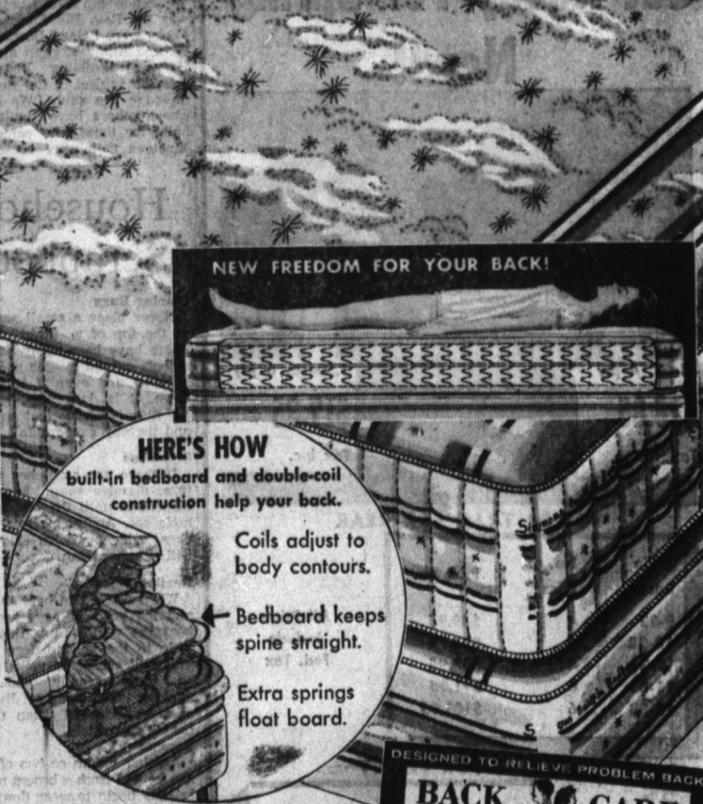

He was convicted of "soliciting and canvassing without a city license."

It wasn't gambling, they decided, because the enterpriser's $1 customers didn't have a chance. The washer was a small metal one with a hole in the middle; and the dryer was a paper napkin.

4-H work builds for tomorrow

County 4-H Clubs Planning To Observe National Week

Deaf Smith County's 250 4-H Club members have planned a full week's activities in observance of National 4-H Club Week which began yesterday and ends Saturday.

Theme for National 4-H Week is "A Salute to Parents."

Highlight of the week's program here will be the annual "Share the Fun Festival" Friday from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the Bull Barn. The county 4-H king and queen will be crowned at the Festival.

MONDAY, 4-H members will present a program to the Hereford Rotary Club when it meets at Shirley School at noon. Tuesday, the Optimist Club will hear a 4-H program.

Radio broadcasts on 4-H work will be made at 8:40 a.m. at station KPAN on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Another program also will be aired Thursday at 9:45 a.m. The talks will be made by 4-H members.

On Sunday, March 9, the 4-H boys and girls will attend services in a group at the First Christian Church. The 4-H Queen will be chosen from a field of entries from 16 clubs. Three boys clubs have entered King candidates.

THE QUEEN candidates and their clubs are Linda Tooley, Argen Draper; Glenda Homfield, Caprock; Sandra Townsend, Doris Manatey; Lena Williams, Happy Homes; Becky Duncan, Happy Workers; Peggy Browning, Jou. Girls; Becky Jackson, Merry Maidens; Jackie Nunley, Sadie Lee Oliver; Kathryn Burris, Walcott and Lu Ann Higgins, Wiling Workers.

King candidates are Jimmy Shearhart, Hereford 4-H Boys Club; Pete Flank, Dawn Boys.

Church Service Time Changed

By CHRISTINE FORTENBERRY

The Rev. R. D. Evans filled the pulpit for Sunday morning and Sunday evening services at the Hippus community house last week. The night service has been changed from 6:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Clinton Homfield and family, Jimmie Perrin and Elmo Hall attended the basketball game at Canyon Saturday night between Adrian and Happy. Adrian won.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Homfield and family, Julian Perrin, Jim Perrin, George Hall and Elmo Hall attended the basketball game between Adrian and Kress at Canyon Tuesday night. Adrian defeated Kress.

Mrs. Elmo Hall and Mrs. Jim Perrin attended H. D. Council at Hereford Monday afternoon.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rogers were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burk Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson and family were visitors in the George Hall home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Perrin were dinner guests of the Elmo Hall family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Parker of Adrian were guests in the J. G. Fortenberry home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rogers and daughters are new residents of the Bippus community. They live on the J. G. Fortenberry place.

and Joe Rehnauer Jr., Westway Boys. Walcott Boys Club did not enter a candidate. Another 4-H boys club is being organized in the Ford community.

The King and Queen will be selected on a basis of 4-H club work. The girl and the boy with the highest achievement records will be named. Last year's King and Queen, Jody Bezner and Nancy Parsons, will do the crowning.

4-H clubs have been active in Deaf Smith County since 1946. One club was in existence then and now there are 14 with the proposed 4-H club making 15.

Mrs. Dorothea Prowell, assistant county home demonstration agent, is 4-H supervisor.

The 111,535 Texas 4-H club members were recognized by Gov. Price Daniel in his greeting to them when he said, "As 4-H members you have contributed much to the material wealth of Texas and the Nation in raising the quality of agricultural production, but you yourselves are our richest resource. May you continue to build yourselves, your homes and communities during the coming year, and thus help build a greater America." The Governor also saluted the parents, adult leaders and friends of 4-H for the contributions they have made to the 4-H program in Texas.

The Texas 4-H members last year completed more than 154,000 demonstrations involving practically every phase of farming, ranching and homemaking. They are members of 4,627 local 4-H clubs and received assistance from 10,068 local adult leaders and 3,219 junior leaders. Local county extension agents provide the leadership for 4-H club programs in the counties.

Members of 4-H clubs, individually and as a group, participate in community service activities. Any boy or girl between the ages of 9-21 years of age may become a member by agreeing to follow 4-H ideals and standards. The chief requirement is a willingness

FRIEND IN COURT
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Luther Edward Creech, unhappy after receiving a speeding ticket when he was checked going too fast in a radar check zone, decided to get even with the cops.

He circled the block and went through the zone at 10 miles an hour, waving a sign warning others of the trap. The miffed officers arrested Creech again — on charges of driving too slow, and disorderly conduct.

However, in court, Creech found a defender in Judge James Demopolos. The judge told police, "He slowed traffic down, didn't he? That's what the radar was for, wasn't it?"

All the great rivers of Central Europe originate in the Alps.

IN WITH THE NEW
ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — City employees here this January began getting paid by check instead of cash.

In the past, the employees had to call on a downtown bank for their pay envelopes. Under the new system, department heads will distribute the checks.

"We're finally catching up with the times," said City Auditor John Fenton who proposed the change.

OWNER BUYS
PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — A man approached by a group of youths here bought two automobile fender skirts. He then reported it to police who arrested five and charged them with stealing auto parts. The buyer of the skirts noted they had been taken from his parked car.

Insects Are Big Problem Says Cotton Man

LUBBOCK, — (Special) — Insect pests contribute to many and are directly responsible for some of the problems of cotton production on the High Plains of Texas, Dr. H. G. Johnston of the National Cotton Council said today at the fifth annual Agricultural Chemical Conference.

The entomologist said rapidly changing production practices have made effective insect control even more important and, in many cases, more difficult. He added that these changes have caused a re-evaluation of certain phases of insect control programs.

Although irrigation often increases the stability of production, Dr. Johnston said, it also prolongs the fruiting and maturity period and makes conditions more favorable for insects. On the High Plains the short growing season often becomes a serious limiting factor.

DR. JOHNSTON said that breeders have made tremendous progress in developing earlier fruiting and maturing varieties of high quality cotton. But all the advantages gained may be — and often are — completely nullified by uncontrolled infestations of early season insects.

Thrips, aphids, fleahoppers, and spider mites are the pests most often involved in early season infestations. The intensity and duration of the infestation is extremely variable, he pointed out, and both determine the amount of damage that may be done.

"In case of heavy infestations, significant increases in yield may be expected from early season control," Dr. Johnston said. "But increased yield should not be the only factor for evaluating early season control. Because of the short growing season, early fruiting — which in general means early maturity and better quality cotton — may in some years be far more important than increased yields."

Thrips often delay fruiting for two or three weeks and fleahoppers for an even longer period, the speaker said.

With the short growing season and delayed maturity, defoliation as an aid to mechanical harvesting has not proved to be practical on the High Plains, he pointed out. But if and when earlier fruiting and maturity is attained, defoliation may be an essential factor in the production of better quality cotton.

DR. JOHNSTON said that early season insect damage may contribute to excessive plant growth. Such growth makes conditions more favorable for late season infestations of other insects. Also it makes late season cultivation and application of insecticides with ground equipment more difficult, reduces efficiency of mechanical harvesting, delays the opening of mature bolls, and may cause boll rot fungi to discolor or stain the lint.

The speaker said that since early fruiting and maturity are such important factors in efficient cotton production, there is an abundance of good evidence to indicate that blanket control programs for thrips and fleahoppers every year will be profitable.

"It is obvious that such a program will pay less dividends some years than others," he stated. "But when the advantages in relation to other production practices are considered, it is a sound practice over a period of years."

He added that three or four applications beginning with the four leaf stage of cotton, or earlier if necessary, should insure vigorous growth and early fruiting. He said the cost for insecticides and application should be less than four dollars per acre.

The Black Home Demonstration Club met Thursday at the Community House with Maxine Price as hostess.

The club's constitution and by-laws were read and approved. Geneva Ivie drew the hostess gift.

Carrie Tatum reported on sewing school at Farwell that she attends every Friday.

Program was turned over to Altha Presley and Christian Braxton who gave a demonstration on pruning and suitable scrubs for this country.

Next meeting will be March 6 at the Community house with Carrie Tatum as hostess. The Agent will demonstrate, "One Dish Meals."

Refreshments of chocolate doughnuts, sandwiches, coffee and tea were served by the hostess to Mildred Welch, Ann Carthel, Lucille Rockey, Lois Whitaker, Opfi Cobb, Carrie Tatum, Emma Elmore, Christian Braxton, Altha Presley, Geneva Ivie, Anna Mae Hays and Anna Lee Sims.

Police reported a man broke into a liquor store and helped himself to $20 in cash and more than 20 bottles of scotch whiskey valued at $170.

Harvard's most prized award, the competitive National Scholarship, was given to one freshman and four upperclassmen. Four upperclassmen also received National Merit Scholarship. All three types of scholarships may carry a stipend or be honorary to indicate an outstanding student who has no financial need at present.

Son of the local high school's choir director, Ted was a National Merit Scholarship winner here last year and was given a General Motors scholarship to Harvard on the basis of winning.

All scholarships other than the National Scholarships are Harvard College Scholarships, which are made possible by a number of endowed funds. The Harvard College Scholarships include two funds which give preference to Texas students. The Harvard Club of Houston Scholarship is given to freshmen entering Harvard College from Houston and vicinity.

The Leon A. Harris gift prefers Texas students with no discrimination "among individuals on the basis of color, race or creed."

The Bronson Cutting Harvard National Fund gives first preference to New Mexico students but extends to candidates from Arizona, Texas and Oklahoma.

TELEPHONE TALK

by W. L. Leavy, Manager

DIRECT DIALING WORKING
We tested every line of the dial system in every way we could think of before the cut-over. But we still had some misgivings as to how well Hereford folks would accept such a big change in their telephone system.

I'm glad to say that any worries were unnecessary. From the first day everyone began dialing with a minimum of difficulty. As people are finding how easy and pleasant it is to dial long distance calls, the number dialed is increasing to around 10,000 a month. Only a very few mistakes are made in direct distance dialing, too.

If a wrong long distance number is dialed, it's important to find out the city you've reached. Then by dialing the operator and giving her the information, the error will be kept off your bill. If you want to dial some one in another city and don't know the number, the operator will be glad to get it for you. There's no charge for that service.

AT YOUR SERVICE
Some friends of mine are high in their praise of the telephone for its dependability in practically any kind of weather, day and night. They're happy with their telephone service and we're glad they are. But we're not content to rest on our laurels.

To improve their and your service, new ideas to improve telephone equipment are constantly tested by telephone scientists. Now methods are continually put to work to help your calls go through faster and easier. Behind the scenes, experienced telephone employees work "around the clock" to give you the best in telephone service.

These three reasons, new ideas, new methods and experience, are why telephone service never stops improving, yet remains easy on the family budget.

OUT OF THE PAST
I was thumbing through some old magazines the other day and found some household hints that had been published during the war years. One column suggested using an egg-timer to limit your Long Distance calls to three minutes.

I started wondering if anyone is still using an egg-timer out of a force of habit. I hope not because you certainly don't need to. Today, there are plenty of Long Distance lines. You can talk as long as you like and as often as you like. In fact, it's wiser to take your time on Long Distance calls and say everything you want to say. One six-minute call always costs less than two three-minute calls. The longer you talk, the less it costs on a per-minute basis. And, you save an additional one-third when you call station-to-station.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
