

Hereford Trio Held As Burglary Suspects

BY GARDNER COLLINS
BRAND STAFF REPORTER

Two Hereford men and a 14-year-old Hereford youth were arrested here Tuesday afternoon by the Sheriff's office in connection with a series of burglaries in Lamb, Farmer, Swisher and Cochran Counties.

Suspected of committing the burglaries are L. D. Locke, 21, Wayne Dickerson, 16, and Jackie Dickerson, 24, all of 204

N. 25 Mile Ave.

The trio was identified by the car in which they were travelling. It was reportedly used Monday night in the attempted burglary of the Bledsoe School, according to Hazel Hancock, Cochran County Sheriff.

The car was spotted, he continued, by the school superintendent as the youths drove around the school. The superintendent and the janitor, who lives near by, found it parked behind the school.

As the men drove away from the school, the janitor fired a charge of birdshot from a 12-gauge shot gun at the vehicle hitting it in the front end, Hancock stated.

A description of the car was given to Sheriff Hancock. It fit the description of a car that had been seen in Morton, where the license number was noted.

Department of Public Safety offices in Lubbock and Amarillo were checked Tuesday to determine ownership of the vehicle. It was discovered that the vehicle was registered to one of the suspects.

The Department of Public Safety notified Sheriff Lowell Sharp and 15 minutes later, after the description had been broadcast over the radio, the car and the suspects were spotted within the city by the Highway Patrol.

An investigation of the residence of one of the men turned up several thousand dollars worth of stolen property. Included in the property taken were tools, clothing, sporting goods, a movie camera, watches, billfolds, tape recorders, money sacks and radios.

The loot found in the house is said to have been taken from cars, stores, homes, grocery stores, bowling alleys, and schools.

The trio is believed to have pulled burglaries at the Amherst School, Bovina, Morton and Friona.

Two of the men are being returned to Cochran County by the sheriff on warrants issued there for their arrest in connection with the burglaries.

Wildcat Drilling Is Dry Hole

Another dry hole ended a drilling attempt to find gas or oil production in Deaf Smith County as the test was closed out as a wildcat Tuesday.

Ashmun and Hilliard, Ltd., of Midland, officially closed out its rank wildcat test five miles east of Hereford after drilling more than 9,500 feet.

The No. 1 T. Vincent Op-penheim well was drilled to 9,505 feet and finished its test in granite. The well was on a 163-acre lease in the southeastern part of the county.

Operators moved equipment to the test site on Oct. 16 and started drilling about two weeks later.

The dry hole ended another minor flurry of drilling activity in the county, which doesn't have a single producing gas or oil well. Wildcats have been drilled in almost all parts of the county, but almost always end in granite formations between 9,000 and 10,000 feet.

The well which was closed out Tuesday is one of a pattern of six test wells in the immediate area. Norwood Drilling Company of Wichita Falls is the contractor on the explorations.

Operators took a farmout from the Pan American Petroleum Corporation for the six wells.

One of the four Castro County tests, the No. 1 Witkowski, is reported drilling at nearly 5,000 feet in dolomite lime formations. Projected depth is expected to be about 9,000 feet on this Palo Duro basin wildcat.

No production has been reported on any of the other four.

City Will Stay With Wooden Poles For Lights

City Commissioners decided Monday night to have wooden poles installed in new subdivisions, rather than steel poles. The price of wooden poles for street lights is $1.85 per month, opposed to $2 per month for steel poles.

Under agreement, the city pays Southwestern Public Service Company so much per pole per month. Commissioners felt that the added cost would not be worth the difference in appearance.

Mrs. Glenn Boardman requested the city consider a lower rate for signs located on city property. The city recently adopted a standard rate of $16 per year for all signs located on city property.

The request by Mrs. Boardman was denied. The signs are located on old city dump ground property just east of the city. The policy excludes signs on city airport property.

The commission discussed insurance for all full-time city employees, but tables the proposal pending further study. The proposal is for term life insurance with double indemnity, either on or off the job.

Under the proposal the city would have to pay 25 per cent of the cost, with a minimum of 75 per cent of all eligible employees would pay the remainder of the cost if the city decided not to pay the full amount.

Not included in the plan, if adopted, would be part-time employees, the mayor or city commissioners.

City Manager Dudley Bayne told the Commission that major projects for the coming year must be decided so that preparation of the city budget can be completed.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Commission will

Living Nativity Scenes Set By Two Churches

Two living Nativity scenes will be presented by Hereford churches this weekend, it was announced Tuesday.

Both the First Methodist Church and the St. Thomas Episcopal Church have announced plans to present large Nativity scenes with local persons and live animals in scenes to portray the birth of Christ.

The Nativity scene at the First Methodist Church will be located facing Main Street and will be presented from 6 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 21-23.

This Nativity scene is being planned by the Junior high group of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Background music will be Christmas carols played through the church's chimes.

At St. Thomas Episcopal, the living Nativity scene will be presented from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday nights, Dec. 21 and 22.

It will be located on the side porch of the church, at the northeast corner. The church is located on Harrison Highway.

Both pastors, the Rev. Joel Treadwell, vicar of St. Thomas, and the Rev. Herschel Thurston of the First Methodist, cordially invite the public to view these living Nativity scenes.

Find Dumas Man Guilty Of DWI, First Offense

A Dumas man, 54-year-old John Henry Evans, was found guilty Monday of driving while intoxicated, first offense.

He was sentenced to a fine of $100, court costs of $26.70 and a term of seven days in jail. The case was heard in County Court with Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams presiding.

Evans was arrested Friday, Dec. 15, at 6:15 p.m. by Carol Parker, Texas Highway Patrolman. The arrest was made on U. S. Highway 385, one-half mile south of its intersection with Farm-to-Market Road 1412.

county agent Lefty Thomas; Bill Gunter; George Warner, county program building committee; and James Murphy. (Staff Photo)

Stress Farmer's Importance At Agri-Business Meet Here

Four agricultural specialists speaking at an agri-business meeting at the Hereford Rotary Club at noon Monday pointed out the importance of the farmer to the economy of the High Plains and the Deaf Smith County area.

The speakers on the program were James Murphy, farm management; John McHaney, economist; Dave Sherrill, irrigation specialist; and Bill Gunter, agronomist.

Murphy in his discussion of agri-business in the area noted that until a few years ago there was an entirely different concept. Now it is realized that the economy is dependent on the farmer.

A number of trends and changes are taking place, Murphy stated. A rapid adjustment must be made to keep up. If the economic level is to remain as high as it is, these adjustments must be made.

In noting the big changes going on in the agri-business he pointed out the continuing reduction of the number of farmers and the increasing production as well as the increase in the number of people engaged in agri-business.

"It is a great challenge for you and me to stay abreast of the changes which are taking

County-Hospital Special Meeting Slated Friday

County Commissioners will have a special meeting Friday, Dec. 22, to talk about a proposed minor expansion for the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Members of the Hospital Board and manager T. E. Seigler will be on hand to talk with the Commissioners about the proposal.

Basically, the board is seeking approval to add a small wing on the east side of the hospital to provide new office and emergency facilities, plus another operating room, library and doctors' lounge. Also included would be a surgical waiting room.

The meeting is slated to start at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the Commissioners Courtroom, according to County Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams.

place," he commented.

In discussing the economic outlook for 1962, economist McHaney stated that the farm income will be somewhat lower than the record 1960 income due to cuts in feed grain and wheat acreages.

He pointed out that even though production has been increasing since 1945, prices have been declining.

The domestic market may be somewhat stronger with exports remaining about the same after a six per cent rise in 1961, he noted. Prices, in general, are not expected to increase.

In speaking on irrigation in the South Plains, Dave Sherrill noted the rapid increase in the number of irrigation wells since the first in 1911 saying that it has meant an increase in the value of agricultural products.

Since about 20 to 25 per cent of the underground water is estimated to have been used, Sherrill urged the use of conserve the supply.

Beet, Cotton, Maize Harvests Resume Again

Sugar beet farmers in the Deaf Smith County area have returned again to their fields as sunny weather and strong winds dried them out during the week.

Bad weather since the first of November has been mainly responsible for holding up the harvest of the crop. As fields became dry enough to support the equipment, winter storms again would strike dumping unwanted moisture over the area.

It is estimated that only about 30 per cent of the crop produced in the county has been harvested since the beet dump opened here Nov. 1.

Some damage to the crop has been reported as beets have rotted in the fields. The damage is said to be spotted across the county and no great loss is anticipated.

The harvesting of other crops in the county is continuing as farmers are trying to get remaining grain sorghum and cotton out of the fields.

All area gins have loaded cotton trailers stacked in the yards and are operating around the clock.

Most of the grain sorghum in the county has been harvested but combines are now in the fields as the dry weather continues.

Harvesting operations in the county will probably be completed within the next two weeks if the weather remains as it is.

Are people really a little nicer in this Christmas season, or is it just my imagination? It seems that everyone has a little different outlook on life, a few more kind words and a little more friendliness. Even the harassed store clerks, who have every reason to be a bit short-tempered, seem to bring an extra amount of patience and enthusiasm to work with them each day. What a shame that this glow of good-will toward all men doesn't seem to carry through all the rest of the year.

Leave it to Hereford to do things in a big way, though. For instance, Amarillo has a live Nativity scene this year. In Canyon, members of the Beta Sigma Phi have one on the courthouse square that impressed us Tuesday night. But here comes Hereford with, not one, but two live Nativity scenes for the final evenings before Christmas. Neither the folks at the Episcopal Church nor the ones at the First Methodist were aware that another church was planning such an impressive Christmas event. But we are truly gratified that they did decide to bring to life the oft-seen manger birth of Christ. We are disappointed that neither of these resourceful groups was able to produce a real, live camel for their scenes. But the way people do things in this town, we'll probably have a whole herd of camels here in a year or so. Hereford doesn't like to do things half-way.

Usually we announce a number of approaching events in this column, but the final days before Christmas are here this year. The County Commissioners will have a special meeting with the hospital board at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the courthouse and that is the only meeting we have listed on our calendar.

Hereford basketballers, on the road for a couple of weeks, will play before the home crowd for a change when they host the steamrolling Plainview Bulldogs at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 22. Strong Plainview Visits Here; Herd Drops Canyon

Hereford took a decision from Canyon Tuesday night but it was a tougher job than had been anticipated. The Herd dropped Canyon 58-38 in their first encounter, but had to struggle for a 55-48 win at Canyon.

The Plainview Bulldogs will be in town Friday night as Hereford returns to its own court after four rugged road games. Plainview is rolling along since the Bulldogs opened their season with a 55-46 win over Hereford. They beat Dimmitt 69-53, dropped Lockney 63-39 and Canyon 89-48 en route to the finals of their own tournament.

In the El Paso tournament last weekend, they took the first place trophy by dropping El Paso Bowie, 56-47, El Paso Austin 49-44 and Odessa Permian 73-53. Plainview was slated to play Dimmitt again Thursday night before tangling with the Whitefaces.

Hereford had its troubles Tuesday night in the spacious Eagle gym before taking a first quarter lead that it maintained throughout the game.

Ronny Harris whipped in two field goals for Canyon, matched by a pair from Dennis Hodges before Mack Canaler put Hereford in front 7-4 on a fast break and a free throw. Harris earned a free toss and Bob Berger got a field goal to tie it up again. But Hodges, Jerry Curtzinger and Canaler hit again to give Hereford a 14-10 lead at the end of the first eight minutes.

Hereford had trouble finding the basket all during the game, particular on the easier shots. Canyon whittled away at the deficit during the second period, pulling within three points, 22-19, with 70 seconds left. But Curtzinger dropped in a two-point shot from the far reaches of the court and Mack Canaler hit another to give Hereford a 26-19 lead at halftime.

It looked for a time, as if the maroon-clad Whitefaces were in for another poor third quarter. Dwight McGee hit a

HAMPERED ALL FALL BY bad weather, farmers are taking advantage of drying fields to finish up their harvest of sugar beets, cotton and maize. Hereford's sugar beet dump is beginning to take on its usually busy look as trucks haul the huge tubers from the field to the dump, where they are loaded on gondola cars and shipped to Colorado for processing. A CHRISTMAS PARTY for all Hereford Brand and Amarillo Newspaper carrier boys was held Monday night in the community room of the First National Bank building. Circulation manager J. R. BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
If you are one of those smart alecs who did your Christmas shopping early, this should be a wonderful time of the year. Right now there seems to be a rash of Christmas parties, lots of homemade candy, plenty of fruit cake, and an abundance of good wishes. Like I decided last Christmas, it really does pay to shop early but, somehow, I never seem to get around to it. My only consolation is that quite a few other folks find themselves in the same boat. I noticed a quotation somewhere about an old boy who always waited until the last minute because it was easier; he figured it like this:

"On Christmas Eve there are only two things left; one of them I wouldn't have, which leaves no choice about the other."

nager at the Chevrolet - Olds house for a number of years before moving to Colorado, and later to Dumas. John is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kinsey, a fact which either of them will admit at the drop of a hat. If you doubt it, just give them an opening.

Mrs. J. W. Kirby is a wonderful lady, who usually arrives at sensible and practical conclusions, and this is what worries me. She told me confidentially the other day she couldn't see why my wife didn't hang me up by the thumbs. She figures it is disgraceful the way I talk about her in the column, and says if anyone ever had a right to be indignant, it is certainly Mrs. G.

Mrs. Buddie Evans further figures that I probably owe Tom Anderson an apology concerning the things I said about him. However, she required that I listen to him Sunday while the pro football game was in progress, so I allow Tom and I should be about even. Actually, I did not intend to demean Mr. Anderson, who is a wonderful writer of terse prose and a foremost speaker of the times. He has a message every American should hear. However, I do wish he would offer some sort of solution, along with his abundance of criticisms. Mr. Anderson apparently does not aspire to run for office, but he will likely be drafted before everything is said and done. He is a sort of "Barry Goldwater of the South," and strikes me as most sincere in his talks and articles.

Ray Conway, who is known all over the area as the Panhandle's No. 1 Santa Claus, is back in circulation following a slight mishap. For the first time in the history of the Lions Club ladies' night, Ray was unable to perform last week. He was all set and ready to go, but banged his head against a post, bent his glasses and finally had to go home before the big event. Dr. Roy Grubbs took over and did a swell job, but scores and scores of people have been asking about Ray. Everyone, including the good doctor, is expecting him to be back on the job next year. This is the first time in more than 20 years that Ray has not donned the red suit and pranced in to handle the Santa Claus stint. Needless to say, he was missed. After all, Santa Claus is one old boy we want to keep in tip top shape.

School turned out Wednesday, and pity the poor barbers. It looks as if every kid in the country has been saving up for a Christmas haircut. The tonsorial experts say, however, that they like it very much. A good run of business always makes for a merrier Yuletide.

Tess Fox, who rates in my books as one of the best cooks in the country, is in high spirits this year. She is cooking a 20-pound turkey with all of the trimmings, due to expected company.

Jack Rentro was telling me that Joanne Fowlkes has been selected as one of four young ladies in the United States to compete for a special $2,500 post graduate scholarship in fashion design at a New York University. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lorraine Fowlkes and a graduate of Hereford High. She has been attending Oklahoma State University, where Jack says Deaf Smith County is represented by 27 students, second only in number to Dallas, Texas.

Hereford is developing a tremendous reputation for creating singers and thespians. I hear nothing but laudatory remarks concerning the "Diary of Anne Frank," which is a tough one to produce and carry out. The same thing was true when a high school cast presented "South Pacific." Not too many years back, the community sponsored outside talent for this type of entertainment, but rare indeed were the occasions when they measured up with the local boys and girls.

I see where the drug stores all plan to stay open Sunday, which is Christmas eve. According to law, there are some things which they are not supposed to sell, and I think toys are on the list. On the other hand, it would be a hard-hearted jury that would jail a fellow for selling a last-minute dog to make some little tow-headed girl happy on Christmas morning.

Right now, I am a bit dubious about this White Christmas business, despite the forecast on those bank matches. I notice that the experts missed a big one Tuesday, which was scheduled to have snow and 25-degree weather. I can't see White Christmas right now, but reserve the right to change my mind by the time the next paper comes out Saturday.

field goal as the period opened and then Canyon came storming back. A free throw and three straight field goals put Canyon within two points, 28-26. McGee came through again with a field goal, while Jim Haney contributed a two-point goal.

Big Bob Begert pulled the Canyon crowd to its feet as he countered with three points and Warren Rutherford added another field goal to put Canyon within a single point, 32-31.

But Hereford wasn't about to play dead. Hodges got a field goal as Curtisinger added four points and Haney contributed a free throw. Wayne Rutherford hit a field goal for the Eagles to make it 39-33 at the end of the three quarters.

Three free throws by Hereford opened the final eight minutes. Hereford got a ten-point lead but Canyon kept coming back. Whistles shrilled frequently as play got rougher. Three technical fouls were called, two against Canyon and one against Hereford. Dennis Hodges hit eight points during the final quarter to protect Hereford's lead.

Reserves finished out the last two minutes of the game for Hereford.

Dennis Hodges continued to pace Hereford scoring efforts as he netted 18. Jerry Curtisinger came through with 14. Canyon scoring was evenly divided as Warren Rutherford hit 14, twin brother Wayne Rutherford got 13, and Bob Begert and Ronny Harris hit 10 each.

In the B team game, Hereford won 60-55. Eugene Green hit 18, Bill Hill got 15 and Austin Hodges added 11.

Glenn Metcalf, with 15, Don Brithing, with 14, and Eddie Poole, with 10, were high for the young Eagles.

Friday night's game will be Hereford's only home game until Jan. 2, as the Whitefaces will be in Lubbock Dec. 26, 27 and 28 for the annual Caprock Holiday Invitational tournament.

the game. They would like nothing better than to win this one before entering the tough Caprock Holiday tournament in Lubbock the three days following Christmas.

Our "Drama Editor" (he also has another half dozen assorted titles) Wain Miller reported an excellent production of "The Diary of Anne Frank" here Monday night. The crowd was scanty the first night, but picked up on Tuesday evening. It should be remembered as another in a series of outstanding dramatic efforts by the Hereford High School.

Princess Tuck has presented her humans with five more puppies. We appreciate the thought, but wish she had been a little quicker, since they are too small to be given away as Christmas presents.

As if it weren't apparent, we have been reminded the last couple of days that Christmas is near. We have gotten greeting cards from friends in other parts of the country... and our cards have already been mailed. In short, it's too late to send them for arrival before Christmas.

Speaking of mail, postmaster Nolan Grady says the only way you can mail now and be assured of delivery before Christmas is by Special Delivery. He and his clerks are too busy to stop and count now, but they think they are handling more mail than last year. All mail trains are running two to four hours late through Hereford and the big Highway Post Office van is even later most of the time. In spite of all the warnings, it seems that too many of us just can't "Mail Early for Christmas."

This year, two living Nativity scenes will be dressed in solemnness and green. But for authenticity, they really need a camel. For which, more than a mile they'd have to travel.

THELMA RITTER HONORED
NEW YORK (AP) - The American Academy of Dramatic Arts, the country's oldest theater school, has awarded its annual Alumni Achievement trophy to veteran actress Thelma Ritter. Previous recipients were Edward G. Robinson, Cecil B. de Mille, Garson Kanin, Howard Lindsay and Kirk Douglas.

Among the measures, he discussed the use of underground pipe rather than open ditches to carry water to crops in the field. Approximately 25 per cent of the water pumped can be lost when this open ditch system is used.

The wise use of water through proper timing in watering crops in the fields is important, he pointed out.

Improved varieties of crops and the better use of fertilizer will also help to conserve the water supply as well as the use of wet weather lakes, he stated.

Agronomist Bill Gunter, speaking to the group, stated that the economy of the High Plains is prosperous because of the right kind of farm people.

They are willing, he said, to put up the money to help solve the problems facing the farmers today.

The underground water supply and the native fertility of the soil are the next two things mainly responsible for the strong agricultural economy, he commented.

In discussing the soil fertility, he noted that even though the type of soil found in the High Plains is deep and fertile, the fertility level is dropping because of use.

He urged the use of a good program which included soil testing, the use of commercial fertilizer and crop rotation to restore the fertility.

Fertilizer input must be held in line with other ingredients, to reach the best productive levels, he stated.

Following the short talks by each, the meeting was opened for questions by master of ceremonies Lefty Thomas.

Another blessing is the reasonable price of turkey. This all-American preference is one of the cheapest meat items on the market for 1961. I know several people who are buying up the birds and putting them in the freezer for future use because of the current low price. This is rare indeed; when I like something, it generally runs sky-high - and I do like turkey, even turkey hash.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES

Anti-Communist Measures Before Congress Reviewed

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

The Congress this year had before it for consideration a number of anti-Communist proposals. Several of these were for the purpose of amending present law to correct defects pointed out by the courts and which had to be corrected in order to bring about future convictions.

One of these was H. R. 470 which passed both Houses and is now Public Law 87-366. This particular law was for the purpose of amending the Foreign Agents Registration Act so as to include within the definition of a "foreign principal," domestic organizations which are substantially supervised, directed, controlled, or financed by a foreign government or foreign political party.

It also sought to clarify the commercial exemptions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act by providing that a foreign principal, in order for its agents to be eligible for exemption from registering and for the act, must be engaged in activities which are either private and nonpolitical and financial or private and nonpolitical and mercantile.

It measurable expanded the coverage of the law with regard to individuals and organizations that could have previously technically avoided its requirements. Its effects are already being felt, and its results will be measurable.

There are two other laws that passed the House of Representatives last year but which have not yet passed the Senate that will add measurably to our strength in opposing Communism. One of these is H. R. 3247. It is the result of an extensive study of recent Supreme Court decisions by a special subcommittee of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives.

The particular decision creating the need for this measure was the case of Yates v. the United States (354 U. S. 298). In that case the Supreme Court of the United States had reversed convictions of several defendants on the charge of conspiring to overthrow the United States government by force and violence and with organizing groups for the same purpose. The Court held that the term "organize" referred only to the

Model Ts Drop One-Point Game To Springlake

Springlake edged the Charlie Seeds Model Ts in a tense game Monday night, taking a 62-61 decision. It put the Model Ts into a record of one win and two losses in the independent league basketball action.

The Model Ts will play a make-up game in Cotton Center Thursday night before taking off for the holidays.

Bobby Shelton hit on his jump shots frequently from the top of the keyhole to pace the Ts with 24 points. Teammate Donnie Renfro pumped in 11 points. High for Springlake was Carroll McDonald with 24, aided by 17 from Jim Castleberry.

The Hereford squad jumped in a slight 11-10 edge at the end of the first period, but Springlake roared back with two 19-point quarters to lead 29-26 at halftime and 48-42 at the end of three periods.

In the last quarter, the Model Ts started hitting on all four as they racked up 19 points, but it wasn't quite enough as Springlake mustered 14 and a one-point victory.

Ann Gallagher Brock Dies In Wreck Saturday

Mrs. Clifford Brock, (Ann Gallagher), formerly of Hereford, was killed instantly about 3 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 16, when her automobile struck an icy spot on the highway and crashed. Her small daughter, Sylvia, was injured and is in a hospital in Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Brock was traveling from Denver to La Junta, Colo., when the crash occurred near Denver.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Dec. 20, at 2 p. m. in La Junta.

MOTHER IN HOSPITAL
Mrs. J. W. Whitesides, mother of Mrs. D. C. Kinsey of Hereford, is a surgical patient in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Mrs. Kinsey is staying with her mother.

official organization of the Communist Party and not to a continuing process of organization. The Court pointed out that the organization of the Communist Party of the United States in 1945 and that the indictments returned in 1951 were barred by the three-year statute of limitations.

Hence, in order to close this technical loophole that was created by the Supreme Court, the House of Representatives adopted H. R. 3247, which reads as follows:

"As used in this section, the term 'organize', with respect to any society, group, or assembly of persons, includes the recruiting of new members, the forming of new units, and the regrouping or expansion of existing clubs, classes, and other units of such society, group, or assembly of persons."

Another measure which was passed by the House of Representatives and which will be of interest to the people of this subject, is H. R. 4469. This measure was considered by the House Committee on Un-American Activities and is for the purpose of amending the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 "so as to provide that no individual who willfully fails or refuses to answer, or falsely answers, certain questions relating to subversive activities, when summoned to appear before certain Federal agencies, shall be employed on any merchant vessel of the United States or within waterfront facilities in the United States."

This Bill attempts to deal with the problems of Communists on vessels and related areas such as waterfront facilities. The very nature of the waterfront industry makes it most vulnerable to infiltration by subversives. Armed with this legislation, the United States Coast Guard can do a thorough and complete job of screening seamen from merchant vessels.

This Bill is patterned after a California statute which has been held valid by the United States Supreme Court. Hence, it is anticipated that once it becomes law, no measurable difficulty will be encountered through the courts. It will effectively break off one of the most important links in the world-wide Communist communication system and will do great damage to many espionage activities.

There are other measures pending, one of which is the prohibition against the shipment in interstate commerce of goods brought from Cuba. It is my hope that these measures will all be passed and implemented in the early days of the coming session of Congress.

Holidays Deserve Special Salad Treats For Meals

BY ARGEN DRAPER
The holidays are almost here and I have three easy to make salads recipes. You will enjoy these with Christmas foods. Mrs. D. B. Robinson, Route 5, gave me this one.

Frozen Salad
Mash three bananas and add one can cranberry sauce, 1 pkg. of miniature marshmallows. Whip 1/2 pint of cream, add three of chopped pecans. Put in the freezer and will keep for 2 to 3 weeks.

Lime Fruit Salad Dressing
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup honey
2 Tablespoons dry mustard
3/4 cup lime juice
1 cup salad oil
1/2 c. pineapple juice
1 teaspoon ginger
Mix all ingredients except oil; beat well. Gradually add oil, continuing beating until all oil is added. Store in refrigerator.

Yum-Yum Salad (Marshmallow)
24 large size marshmallows
1 package of Lemon Jello
2 cups crushed pineapple (drained)

1/2 lb. grated cheese
1 cup cream (whipped)
1 cup nuts (chopped)

Dissolve Jello in one cup hot water. Then add drained juice from pineapple with water to make 1 cup. When the mixture begins to congeal, add; pineapple, cheese and marshmallows, which have been cut in pieces. Fold in whipped cream & nuts. Put in refrigerator to set. Serve on lettuce.

We have just received a new shipment of the bulletin, "Cake Making at High Altitude." Also, we have plenty of bulletins on "Christmas Time at Home."
MERRY CHRISTMAS

People and Customs Of Alaska Studied at Meet

Members of the Farm and Ranch Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Harold Bass for a luncheon.

Place cards, made by Mrs. John Hill, were sketches of each member's home. Luncheon was served from a table laid with a white linen cloth, appointed with amber crystal and china. Holly and red berries decorated the table.

Mrs. Jack Weaver gave the program on "People and Customs of Alaska."

The floating prize was won by Mrs. Joe Wagoner. Names were drawn for the Christmas gift exchange to be held at the next meeting in the home of Mrs. Glenn Burrus.

Members present were Mesdames Jack Weaver, Glenn Burrus, Herschel Burrus, N. E. Tyler, Paul Rudd, Joe Wagoner, John Hill, Phillip Miller and Harold Bass, the hostess.

Music Study Club Has Yuletide Party

Festive yuletide decorations greeted members of the Hereford Music Club as they met for their annual Christmas party on Monday afternoon, Dec. 11. A small green-clad elf perched on the side of a small tree, trimmed with twinkling lights, welcomed the members to the home of Mrs. Paul Lyons, hostess for the party. Mrs. Joe Hacker served as assistant hostess.

North Hereford HD Club Hosts Yuletide Party

The Hereford Community Center was the scene on Thursday, Dec. 14, at 2:30 p.m. for the Christmas party and gift exchange for members of the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club.

Roll call was answered with comments on "my favorite Christmas."

Secret pal gifts were distributed and names revealed. New secret pal names were drawn for the coming year.

Mrs. Dorothy Klein read a Christmas story called "Christmas Night Long Ago." The group sang Christmas carols to complete the program.

Refreshments of punch, cookies, and candies were served to Miss Roberta Campbell, Mesdames W. H. Russell, C. L. Whitehead, R. A. Fullwood, Mary Bodkin, J. R. Watson, Alice Nivens, Wilma Bryan, O. C. Williams, Nell Hodges, Marie Ward, Lena Olson, Marcella Hoffman, Otto Masie, Dorothy Klein, Martha Finch, Clyde Smithers, Mary Gooch, Zella Kendrick, Belle Williams, Martin Wagner, Bonnie Brandt and 15 children.

Veleda Club Members Hear Family Traditions

Members of the Veleda Study Club had their annual Christmas party, Monday, Dec. 11, in the home of Mrs. Gerald McCaskill.

Roll call was answered with a "family tradition and how it came to be used." One special family tradition related was the Christmas time baking of a birthday cake, celebrating the birthday of Jesus. The family used this method of teaching the children the real reason for the celebration of Christmas, thus eliminating the feeling that Christmas is only the time for Santa Claus to come and bring new toys.

A box was planned for a needy family. Small gifts were exchanged. Mrs. H. A. Tuck Jr. was welcomed as a new member of the club.

Mrs. Gid Brown presented the program by telling a story called "A Pint of Judgement."

Christmas refreshments were served to Mesdames Don Baugous, Charles Bell, Bill Brady, Gid Brown, Wendell Burdine, Hugh Clearman, Charles Hoover, Kenneth Malone, Gerald McCaskill, Gwynne Owen, Don Johnson, Gene Matthews, John Seiver and H. A. Tuck Jr. Visiting followed the refreshment hour.

Letters To Santa

Dear Santa,
May I have a sled and a pair of over-shoes. If you would like to leave anything else you may. P. S. I would like a world globe to help me in geography. A Merry Christmas to you.
Yours truly,

Yearbooks Given To Club Members

Members of the Westway Home Demonstration Club met Dec. 14 in the home of Mrs. George Turentine with Mrs. Bess Werner assisting as hostess.

Mrs. Bess Werner presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Argen Draper explained the new yearbooks, Mesdames George Turentine, Harold Rudd and R. W. Mitchell were appointed to fill out the yearbooks.

The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Joe Landers. Mrs. Joe Wagoner gave a Christmas story, explaining how Christ's birthday is observed. She then read a humorous story called "The Five Year Plan." She also read a Christmas editorial explaining the true meaning of Christmas. Mrs. Merlin Kaul and Mrs. R. L. Wilson led the group in singing carols.

Guests present were Mesdames P. B. Sowell, Joe Paetold and Argen Draper. Members present were Mesdames D. Robertson, Homer Rudd, C. A. Saulcy, R. L. Wilson, R. W. Mitchell, Joe Wagoner, J. C. Morrison, Bess Werner, George Merlin Kaul.

Services Held For Pioneer Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Edwards, 91, were held at 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 19, in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home with the Rev. H. V. Fields, pastor of the Grace Gospel Church, officiating.

Burial was in Rest Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Edwards died at Deaf Smith County Hospital at 9 a.m. Sunday, after a long illness. She was born Nov. 19, 1870, in Greenville County, S. C.

She was married to A. E. Edwards in South Carolina in 1889. He died Dec. 1, 1961. They were married more than 70 years. The Edwards moved to Floydada in 1906 and then moved to Deaf Smith County in 1917.

Surviving are four sons, D. Y., and H. J. Edwards, both of Hereford, R. E. of Plainview and G. H. Edwards of Muleshoe; one daughter, Mrs. C. A. Lindsey of Hereford; three sisters, Mrs. Summie Stayton, Mrs. Alice Jones and Mrs. Liddie Johnson, all of South Carolina; 30 grandchildren, and 79 great-grandchildren.

Service Of Lights Conducted Sunday

A White Gift service, (a service of lights), was held on Sunday evening, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church for the giving of gifts to the Juliette Fowler Home in Dallas.

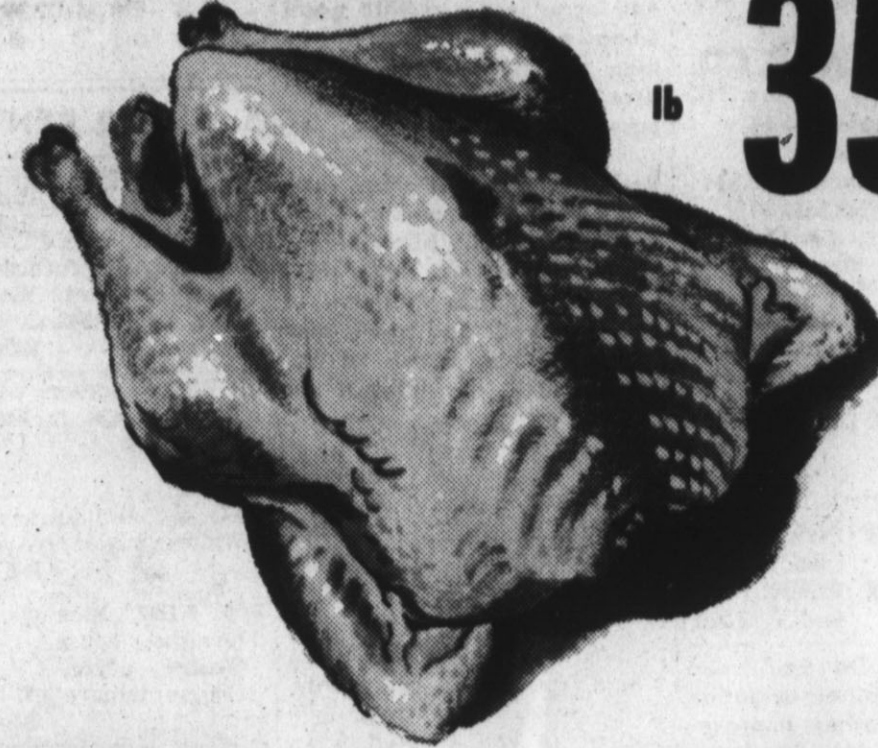

Juliette Fowler Home is a home for young and old. This service is an annual affair of giving in addition to the regular giving of the church members.

Participants were Troy Don Moore, Jean Roberson, Glen Nelson Jr., Arvel Williams, Bruce Coleman, Mickey Stevens and the Rev. Gilbert Davis Jr. The choir presented a Christmas anthem under the direction of Ben Gollehon. Mrs. Joe Hacker served as organist.

Mrs. Ted Panciera had charge of arrangements and planning for the service. Giving for Juliette Fowler Home is handled through the World Outreach committee of the church, with Bruce Coleman as chairman.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

These Christmas Candies Will Fill A Sweet Tooth

Everyone has a sweet tooth sometime — a sudden craving for a batch of home-made fudge, divinity or some other toothsome sweet. No one can be completely immune to the aroma of bubbling fudge in a cozy warm kitchen on a winter's night. What family doesn't have nostalgic memories of such events and what wonderful family fun gatherings have been built around them. Here's the golden opportunity for teenage sister to show her skill and even brother can get into the act, if there's taffy to be pulled — or pans to be licked.

The following recipes are for the whole family. Mother can try the special candies for Christmas or birthday boxes, as well as the old standbys; all the family can lend a hand in the packing and decorating — and everyone will enjoy them, family and friends.

APPLES
Dissolve 4 tablespoons plain gelatin in 1 cup cold unsweetened applesauce. Stir 4 cups sugar into 1/4 cups unsweetened applesauce.

Combine these two mixtures, stir well and boil for 15 minutes. Remove from heat — add 2 cups chopped nuts and 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Pour into buttered pan and let stand all night. Cut in squares and roll in powdered sugar.

Here are a few little "wrinkles."
Cook applesauce slowly with little water and apples will be more firm.

Use 2 teaspoons lemon juice or 3 if apples are mild flavored and just one teaspoon of vanilla. If you do this, add the lemon juice 5 minutes before removing mixture from the heat.

Apples are nicer, particularly for packing, if they stand 2 or 3 days after they are removed from the buttered pan. They dry just a little on the surface.

LEMON CREAMS
2 cups sugar
1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar
2 tablespoons corn syrup
1 cup buttermilk
1 teaspoon lemon flavoring
(Grated lemon rind is dried) Mix ingredients as listed, except for the flavoring. For best results use churned buttermilk as cultured milk sticks to the bottom of the pan. Sour milk is preferred for tang but lemon juice can be added to the milk if it is not very sour. (2 or 3 tablespoons). Cook to the soft ball stage.

Remove from the heat and add 2 tablespoons butter. Beat until creamy. Candy will become snowy white with beating. Drop on waxed paper of if you prefer, pour into buttered pan and cut in squares like fudge.

If you want to make it real pretty, add yellow cake coloring and top each drop with a piece of candied pineapple. If you do not like a strong accent of lemon, omit the 1/4 teaspoon of

Womble Kinship Circle Meets For Yule Party

The Womble Kinship Circle met Saturday, Dec. 9, in Amarillo for its Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Joyce Meeks, with Mrs. Madge Holly assisting as co-hostess.

Roll call was answered with news of out-of-town relatives. Secret pals were revealed after gifts had been distributed from the Christmas tree.

Refreshments were served to Nona Deen Dowell, Ruby Lowe, Dola Phillips, Brucie Rose, Lona Rose, Clara Shore, Sally Strain, Alice Thompson, Elaine Trew, Carlyn Williams, Zoe Williams, Nell Williams, Ethel Womble, Eula Womble, Ruth Womble, Lynn Thompson, Jean Cursinger, Wilma Cursinger, Madge Holly and Joyce Meeks. Six children also attended.

grated rind.
This is a delightful home-made candy. It is not too sweet or too rich. Very good for TV snacks or card parties, it is very good after dinner instead of mints.

This candy should be very soft and creamy so avoid over-cooking and over-beating. If stored in tins, it will keep fresh for a week or ten days.

CHRISTMAS BROWN CANDY
3 pints of white sugar (6 cups)
1 pint of top milk (or coffee cream)
1/4 pound butter
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla
4 cups chopped pecans

Mix 2 pints of sugar with the milk in a deep kettle. Stir until the sugar dissolves, set over a low fire and let it cook slowly as you melt the remaining sugar. This last pint of sugar must be melted in a heavy iron skillet, stirring constantly with a wooden spoon. Do not scorch. It should be about the color of light brown sugar when melted. When this sugar is melted, begin pouring it into the large kettle of boiling milk and sugar, keeping it on a very low heat and stirring constantly.

The real secret of mixing the ingredients is to pour a very fine stream from the skillet and stir across the bottom of the kettle. If you have a few lumps, do not let it bother you, but keep on stirring and they will dissolve. Continue cooking until mixture forms a firm ball when dropped in cold water. After this test is made, turn out the fire and add the soda, stirring vigorously as it foams up. Then add butter, allowing it to melt as you stir. Now set off the stove, not in a cold place — for about 10 minutes. Then add vanilla, and begin beating with the wooden spoon or electric mixer. You can use an electric beater until it begins to thicken and then finish with a spoon, until the mixture is thick and heavy, having a dull appearance instead of a glossy sheen. Add nuts and turn into pans. Cut when cool. You can cut it several hours later; don't try to cut too soon.

OPERA CREAMS

Combine:
4 cups light brown sugar
1 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
Cook until a sample forms a soft ball in cold water (236 degrees on candy thermometer). Remove from heat.
Add:
2 teaspoons butter
Cool without stirring until lukewarm (110 degrees).
Add:
1 teaspoon vanilla
Beat until thick enough to be kneaded. Break off pieces the size of chocolate drops; roll in palm of the hand until smooth, or drop mixture from the end of spoon onto waxed paper. Press out half in the center of each cream.

SOUR CREAM FUDGE

1 cup light brown sugar
2 cups granulated sugar
3 teaspoons white corn syrup
1 cup sour cream or creamed buttermilk
1/2 teaspoon soda
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cook in a 4 quart kettle; the sugar, syrup, milk and soda over a low flame and stir until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils. Continue cooking without stirring until a very soft ball (232 degrees). Remove from the fire, and add butter and vanilla. Cool to 110 degrees then beat until mixture begins to thicken and loses its gloss. Pour at once into a greased pan. Nuts may be added just before the mixture is ready to pour.

FUDGE

3 cups granulated sugar
3 tablespoons cocoa
3 tablespoons white syrup
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 large tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup coarsely chopped pecans
Mix sugar and cocoa together, add syrup, salt and milk. Mix thoroughly. Put over high flame on stove, and stir constantly until mixture comes to a boil. Turn flame down low and continue cooking slowly, without stirring, until mixture comes to soft ball stage (238 degrees). This will take from 20 to 30 minutes. Remove pan from the stove, add butter, and put pan of fudge into another pan of cold water to cool for approximately 15 minutes. When fairly cool, add vanilla and beat until it loses its gloss (about 3 to 5 minutes with an electric mixer.)

Add nuts and quickly pour onto a buttered 8 x 8 inch pan. (It is not necessary to put this fudge into the refrigerator to harden. It can be cut in approximately 10 minutes and eaten immediately.)

DATE LOAF

3 cups sugar
1 1/2 cups milk
1 package of dates (stoned)
1 cup nuts (chopped)
1 small bottle of cherries (chopped)
Cook sugar and milk until it forms a soft ball in water. Stir in dates and stir until they are melted. Add nuts and cherries and beat until creamy. Pour onto a wet cloth and roll into shape.

BOLOGNA CANDY

2 cups sugar
1 cup thin cream
1 package of dates
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup nuts
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Boil sugar and cream until it forms a soft ball in cold water. Now add dates, which have been stoned and chopped, continue cooking until it separates from the pan. While being stirred, add nuts and coconut, remove from fire, let cool, then put in vanilla and pour onto a cloth that has been wrung from cold water. Roll up in the form of a bologna sausage. Cut off as needed.

FRALINES

(An original recipe of the world - famous New Orleans delicacy.)
Makes from 12 to 15.
1 pound yellow sugar
9 tablespoons evaporated milk
3/4 teaspoon butter
As soon as the mixture boils add:
1 1/2 cups pecan halves
Cook to a firm ball stage, (about 4 minutes), stirring frequently. Remove from the fire, add:
1 teaspoon vanilla
Beat about 2 minutes. Drop from tablespoon onto marble or porcelain top table, (freezer paper with wax side up may be substituted). When cool wrap individually in waxed paper. Serve as a candy treat.

TRUFFLES

2 tablespoons soft butter
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
1/4 pound semi-sweet chocolate, grated
1 tablespoon cocoa
1 teaspoon rum flavoring
1/3 cup chocolate shots (tiny pieces of chocolate used in decorating)
Cream butter and egg yolk together. Add grated chocolate,

Mon Amis Study Gift Wrapping

The Mon Amis Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Billy Bell on Wednesday, Dec. 7, with Mrs. Lawrence Jackson serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Bob Noland gave the program on gift wrapping. Those present were Mesdames Raymond Wiley, Ted Godfrey, Jim Lookingbill, Bob Noland, Billy Gene Cotton, Kenneth Christie, Billy Bell and Lawrence Jackson.

A Christmas party for the members and their husbands will be on Dec. 21 in the home of Mrs. Billy Gene Cotton. The next regular meeting will be the second week in January with Mrs. Jamie Clearman giving the program on "tips on china, silver, and crystal."

CHOREOGRAPHER DIRECTS

NEW YORK P — Choreographer Jerome Robbins enters the ranks of drama direction with staging of "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad." The odd drama, written by Arthur L. Kopit while still in Harvard, was tested last summer in England. That production was soundly panned by the critics. The sponsors feel a different conception may do the trick here. Broadway arrival is scheduled for February.

and stiff. Add nuts to suit and pour into buttered pans.
Martha Washington Chocolates
1 can Eagle Brand Milk
3 cups chopped pecans
1 can of flaked coconut
2 boxes powdered sugar
1/2 pound butter
2 packages of chocolate chips
1 bar paraffin
Melt butter and add milk; blend well. Add nuts, coconut, and sugar; mix thoroughly and shape into small balls. Chill. Melt chips and paraffin in double boiler. Stick toothpicks in balls and dip into chocolate. Drain well and place on wax paper. Wrap candy in foil and chill until ready to serve.

DIVINITY CANDY

2 cups sugar
1/4 cup white syrup
1/4 cup cold water
2 egg whites
Boil sugar, syrup and water until stringy (test in cold water). Pour a little at a time into the beaten egg whites, beating in the meanwhile. Beat until cool and dip into chocolate. Drain and place on wax paper.

2. Omit coconut and add 1/4 teaspoon maple. Shape and dip in chocolate.
3. Omit coconut and nuts. Add 1 tablespoon orange extract. Shape and dip in chocolate.
4. Omit nuts and coconut and add 1 tablespoon lemon extract. Shape and dip in chocolate.
5. Omit nuts and coconut. Use well drained maraschino cherries or pineapple tidbits as the center of the ball. Shape and dip into chocolate.

Overseas Candy

3 cups sugar
1 cup evaporated milk plus 3 tablespoons
1 cup white syrup
1/4 pound butter
1/4 pound pecans
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Boil all together, except vanilla, until it forms soft ball when tested in cold water. Let mixture partly cool in pan, then pour into mixer, add vanilla and beat until thick. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto buttered wax paper. Cool.

Pattience
1 cup sugar, caramelized
3 cups sugar
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon butter
Boil the sugar and milk, then add to the caramelized sugar. Cook to the hard ball stage. Add butter and beat until creamy. Add chopped nuts, and pour into a well greased platter. Cool and cut into squares.

Speeded Nuts

2 tablespoons cold water
1 slightly beaten egg white
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups pecan halves
Add water to slightly beaten egg white. Add sugar, cinnamon, cloves, allspice, and salt to egg-white mixture; mix well. Let stand until sugar is dissolved, about 15 minutes.
Dip the nuts in the mixture. Spread on a greased cookie sheet. Place the flat side of the nut down. Bake in a slow oven (250 degrees) until golden, about 1 hour.

Lollipop
2 cups sugar
2/3 cup light corn syrup
1 cup water
1/2 teaspoon oil of peppermint
5 drops of red food coloring
Combine sugar, corn syrup, and water. Place over heat; stir until sugar dissolves. Cook, without stirring, to hard-crack stage (300 degrees). Add oil of peppermint and coloring. Cool slightly.
Lay 24 skewers 4 inches apart on greased cookie sheet. Drop syrup from tip of teaspoon over skewers to form 2-inch discs.
Testing Candy
To make cold-water test, remove pan of syrup from heat. Pour small amount of syrup from spoon into a cup of cold water, not ice water. Hardness of ball formed indicates temperature of the candy. A candy thermometer gives more accurate results.
Test with thermometer while candy is cooking; have eye on level with the part of scale being read.

To check the accuracy of candy thermometer, let stand 10 minutes in boiling water. Thermometer should read 212 degrees, if there is any variation, subtract or add to make the same degree of allowance in testing candy.

Students List Hints To Santa

Something For Filling Many Stockings So Full

Dear Santa,
Well, here it is time for your yearly visit again, and it seems as if you were here only four years ago — but anyway there are a few things that I would ask you to bring this

Darrell Garrett

Senior Personality

Football is the favorite sport of Darrell Dean Garrett, probably because he was on the '61 Whiteface squad.

Besides weighing 170 pounds, 17-year-old Darrell has brown hair, green eyes, and is 6 feet 2 inches tall. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garrett of Route 4, Hereford. His birthday is April 10.

As a hobby, Darrell chooses hunting, but his most unusual pastime is "trying to find out why everyone calls Bill Miller, Ralph."

Some of Darrell's favorites are: movie, "Giant"; book, "Exodus"; song, "Small Sam"; color, orchid; teacher, Mrs. Buck; and subject, civics.

Darrell has been an F. F. A. member for four years, holding the office of reporter one year. He's also been in the Key Club two years and football four years.

His pet peeve is work and his most embarrassing moment is "was a certain day in plane geometry class."

Darrell advises all underclassmen to "become upper classmen," and he seems to think that H. H. S. is great.

After graduation he plans to attend West Texas State College.

year. I think I have been a pretty good boy, Santa Claus, but I am not going to be selfish this year; however, there are many things that I would like to see you bring to Hereford High School.

First of all, Cuby Kitchens, Joe Brooks, and all of the basketball boys have really worked hard this far this season.

Although the Whitefaces have not won all of their games, we think they have been real winners in good sportsmanship and effort. For them, we ask only one thing — could you bring them a good season, wrapped with loads of support from students and fans, for they truly deserve it.

For Ben Gollehon and Don Moore, their choir and band could surely use a good rating at contests this year. Both groups have worked real hard, and have been real good all year and made their school proud of them.

So please, dear Santa, couldn't you find a "Sweepstakes" trophy like the one that they haven't had in so long to brighten up their eyes on Christmas morning.

Santa, these are the main things that I want. About the only other things I would ask would be two front teeth for Mickey Stevens and a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year for All . . .

Thank you Santa,
—The Editor

Dear Santa:

The thing I want most is a class of Homemaking II girls that can read a ruler and be able to tell 1/4 inch from 1/8 inch. I would also like to have a special parking place in the faculty row so I won't have to walk so far to school.

Please, Santa, bring me some shirts in various sizes to replace the ones the boys Homemaking class brought to practice their skill in ironing. I would also like for you to bring those boys some new socks. I am afraid they won't be able to wear the ones they are darn- ing.

Thank you and give my regards to Mrs. Santa.

Your loving friend,
Dorothea Prowell

Dear Santa,

Please send me a First Division for the band for Christmas. I have not been very nice, and I yell a lot, but I love those

JUST IN TIME FOR Christmas, members of the Hereford High School band are proudly wearing new jackets received last week. Bandsmen are also asking Santa for one more present—a First Division at contests next Spring. These are only a few things students are requesting from Mr. Claus this Christmas, which is only five days away. Modelling new jackets are from left: Peter Lantz, Beverly Boyer, and Donita Allred.

By Toni Parker
And Sammie Tisdale

Santa Claus is coming to town . . . next Monday. Say, Santa, best you feed your reindeer a lot of supper, 'cause that sleigh is gonna be pretty heavy if you bring all the things Hereford High School students are wanting to fill their stockings.

First of all, Santa, we hear that there are about 475 kiddies in Hereford High would like to find the title to a district championship for the Whiteface basketball boys.

To get her to class on time, Kay Reeves begs for a watch, while Billy Smith aims to make his own music at Christmas with an electric guitar — he hopes. "Clothes", moans Barbara Barrett (as if he didn't have enough of them . . . and we think John Kovacs is hinting when he says he wants a "good pen to keep my little sister out of my hair."

Kaki Barnard is not only little in stature but in her thinking, yet! She is asking for a little cowboy doll and a red Impala (toy) car — but grown up, just wants to pass Mary Betzen, being very her music theory class. Bookworm James Corbett wants a biology book, of all things — probably knows a few bugs he can't identify; but Mike Hagar is practical, he chooses a .22 rifle.

A copy of "Mein Kampf" for James Otts, please; Buz Gillentine wants transportation in the form of his own car; while Jodie Lytal (with his eyes on a girl) wants "Dolly"; and Tim Gallagher goes even further and asks for two "Dollies." Clifton Corley is also vehicle minded in asking for a new car — Jim Kassahn is way out with his request for a Geisha girl, and practical Linda Edwards just wants a diploma.

Another boy wants a car. Marcus Jacobsen, but Wanda Cornelius just wants to get her insurance re - instated. Betty Thomas hasn't grown up yet, and actually wants to see Santa; Jimmie Davis wants a cowboy (we don't know whatever for); and Don Tice has a good idea, "lots of girls."

Convertibles come in lots of colors but we never heard of a pink and purple one — however, if John Hubbard actually gets one he'll probably turn that color . . . Jackie Walsen wants a freight train - load of model cars; Gerry Bybee, a 456 rear - end (whatever that might be) for a '62 Chevy. Mystery of the season, Jackie Andrews wants "Lou" . . . Charles Calloway will be easy to satisfy, just 500 pieces of bubble gum (and who will want to be around him then?) . . . Joanne Carlson yearns for a teddy bear (call the psychiatrist); Anna Evans dreams of a new house; Dennis Rickman has his heart set on graduating; Shari Jo Carmichael wants a "visitor" from Pleasanton; Linda Martin would add to her ring finger, and Alice

McClain says she'll take "any- things!"

Now here is the thought of the week: Jerry Moss is asking for a life-time supply of gasoline; but Jimmy Weathers will take another kind of liquid, "10 gallons of Jack Daniels." The hardworking cheer leaders ask that the boys and the coach cooperate with Santa to get everybody to state in basketball; Sheri Damron wants a little less, it seems, just to "pass bookkeeping" (never could have made it ourselves!)

A new English teacher is the request of Jim Dzuik (maybe the teacher needs a new student); Janalee Drager wants a "big boy" (doll, that is); and

Until Next Year

With this, the Christmas edition of The Whiteface, the staff extends to each and every student sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas.

Because of the Christmas holidays, there will be no editions of the school paper until school convenes again Jan. 2, 1962. And so — until next year, the Whiteface also sends hopes for a happy new year.
MERRY CHRISTMAS!

FOR '62 ROUND-UP

Reveal Yearbook Honors At Koobraey Awards Day

A Santa Claus with red hair??
Yep, ol' Saint Nick, complete with red hair and cowboy boots, was on hand Friday morning to highlight one of the most important events of the year at Hereford High School.

During the annual "Koobraey Awards Assembly," personalities for the 1962 edition of the Hereford High School "Round - Up" were announced by members of the yearbook staff.

Aided by Santa Claus, who had a striking resemblance to David Dowell, "Round - Up" editor Nancy Edwards and assistant editor Jan Story revealed yearbook honors for the 1962 edition of the Hereford High School annual.

Selected in a recent election, Nancy Edwards was crowned "Personality Queen" of Hereford High School, while Lynton Allred was named "Personality King."

Runner - ups for personality honors went to Jan Reese and Joe Mack Hale.

Announced as "Mr. and Miss Hereford High School" were Suzanne Langley and Walker Parris, with runner - ups for the honor being Judy Fowlkes and John Buck.

Candidates for "Most Beautiful" were announced as Joyce West, Kay Lemons, and Sharon Hill. Contending for "Most Handsome" are Walker Parris, Mack Casler, and John Buck.

Selected as "Senior Class Favorites" for the class of 1962 were Maribeth Gilliland and Joe Schultz. Mary Russell and Eddie Gallagher took the runner - up title.

Jan Story and Dick Combs were tabbed "Junior Class Favorites," as Connie Kent and Arnold Powell received the runner - up honor for the class.

Elected "Sophomore Class Favorites" were Judy Wiman and Joel Lytal. Honored as runner - ups were Tim Gallagher and Ruth Ann Allison.

Judy Means, who had previously been named as Annual Queen, was also honored during the program.

Dinners Honors Special Panel

Members of the third year Homemaking class honored guests at a dinner held Thursday night in the Homemaking room. Members of a special panel who aided the girls in a personal adjustment course were special guests.

There were 20 people present at the dinner, including 14 girls in the class. The girls have just finished a course entitled "Personal Adjustment in Marriage and Family Living," led by members of the panel.

Panelists included Ernest Langley, lawyer; Dr. Bruce Beene and Mrs. Joe Story. Mrs. Earl Springer narrated the panel and taught a unit on mother and baby care, which was accredited by the local Red Cross chapter.

Patience, Please...!

Patience, boys patience!! No matter what was said, though, all football boys grew quite impatient during past weeks. Hoping that Santa Claus would oblige, boys demanded the delivery of their prized football leather jackets. At any rate, football boys really worked hard to earn letters during the 1961 season. Is it any wonder that one of their remarks, "they are as slow as Christmas getting here!"?

MORE TRUTHS ARE OUT!!

Santa Better Beware... ...For Kids Who Prepare

BY MARTHA PONDER

Whiteface Feature Writer

Due to an expose published in the "Whiteface" last week about the childhood activities of some well - known classmates, some ill - feeling has resulted.

Unfortunately, the real identity of the source of that information leaked out, and the animosity thereby created toward Santa Claus is hard to describe accurately — without sounding as if one were exaggerating. Some dreadful plots have been planned in revenge against these revelations.

For example, I hear Jim Reinauer is going to loose even more sleep. It seems he is planning to stay awake all night, if necessary, to get even with Mr. Claus.

I can't imagine what he will do, unless it is to stuff the poor man with "NO-DOZ" pills.

The Hardware Store reported that Marcus Jacobsen bought two large rat traps — and a pair of stockings at the dime-store large enough to hold them, to hang on the mantle.

Instead of leaving hot chocolate by the fireplace this year, Sharon Hill is leaving a cup of hot cod liver oil for the unwelcome guest, complete with marshmallow on top.

Quite the contrary, Suzie Woodford is serving Mr. Claus a glass of lemonade — carefully omitting a main ingredient, sugar! Oh, how bitter can you get?

David Stevens, it was rumored, is planning a nice warm welcome for ol' S.C. — indeed, a 212 - degree welcome . . .

garbage can of boiling water under the chimney. (And HE was talking about cold feet and chilly toes!)

Such a range of reactions to these vengeful students have toward one known to be so benevolent is astounding. When Mr.

Claus learned of them, he decided to let out more of his little secrets (he knows ALL, you know!).

We were speaking of Carl Stapp's appreciation of monetary values when Mr. Claus remembered the following:

About six years ago, Carl overheard his father and another man discussing the market value of onions being "so much per hundred." Contemplating this a moment, Carl got a tow-sack from the garage and went across the road to the neighbor's onion field. Mrs. Stapp noticed that he was carefully picking up an onion, inspecting it, and then dropping it into his sack. At length, he dragged his sack to the door, and called, "Hey, Dad! (Continued on page 2)

A HIGH-SPEED PRESS is the object of much attention as members of the Whiteface staff tour the huge Amarillo Globe-News publishing plant during a field trip last Thursday, before continuing to Boys Ranch.

A DINNER HONORING members of a panel who helped third year Homemaking girls in a course entitled "Personal Adjustment in Marriage and Family Living" was held Thursday. Honored guests included Earnest Langley, lawyer; Dr. Bruce Beene; the Rev. B. H. Baldwin, Mrs. Joe Story, a parent; Mrs. Earl Springer, and coaches Joe Brooks and Ray Todd.

Students Tour Amarillo Paper And Boys Ranch

A tour of the modern Amarillo Globe - News publishing office highlighted a field trip taken by members of the Whiteface staff last week. Following a view of the modern newspaper office in action, the 24 staff members visited at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa.

Students were treated royally while being guided through the newspaper plant and were honored as special guests for the noon meal at Boys Ranch.

From reporter's copy to the composing room, where the type is set, to the printing press which shells out hundreds of newspapers per minute, the students watched as an issue of the daily paper was assembled.

Journalism students were introduced to the pressures of daily newspaper life, while "getting the inside story" of journalistic work.

An hour later, the group of 24 students arrived at Cal Farley's famous Boys Ranch. Following lunch with the boys, staff members toured the modern school and dormitories.

Whiteface staff members were special guests of the journalists at Boys Ranch, who publish their own newspaper.

Kay Neill

Senior Personality

"In Junior High School, when I asked a certain Jr. High teacher what a certain word meant, out loud in class, and later found out the meaning of it, I got pretty embarrassed," says cute, blonde-haired Kaye Neill. She is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Neill of 121 Avenue C.

Kaye's pet peeve is people who show - off or put on. She likes people who aren't afraid to be themselves. All the kids at Hereford High School like

District Honors Go To Eight Herdsmen

Eight members of the Hereford Whitefaces were named as All - District and Honorable Mention gridsmen in a recent poll by District 1-AAA coaches.

Names as All - District gridsmen were Hereford's Mack Casler and Butch Walterscheid, Bill Steele, John Bob Drake, Joe Schultz, Dennis Hodges, Arnold Powell, and Jim Haney were selected for Honorable Mention for the All - District honors.

The Whitefaces compiled a 7-3 season record, and a 2-2 mark for district play. One of the Herd's two district losses was at the hands of the Dumas Demons, who rolled on to claim the State Championship for AAA football in a playoff against the Nederland Bulldogs Saturday.

Students...

Brenda Beasley, mumbling to herself, wonders if she can't get a book which will explain that blasted Latin, while Linda Reed doubles the suggestion with a request of a new (and preferably easy) way to learn shorthand.

A good-looking girl is all that; Wayne Edwards would desire; Jessie Wright is quite specific in asking that she get a "ring with 7 pearls" — on December 22 (guess she doesn't know that Christmas comes on Dec. 25). Tired of waiting, Ronnie Duncan asks that the football jackets get here; Jim Higgins is also on the girl-minded side with his request of "a girl."

Members of Mr. Holt's home room are begging Santa to give teacher a hearing aid (surely they don't make as many mistakes as he thinks he hears); Linda Tooley (braced for the season) wants her "two front teeth while Margie Kershen figures she could do with a better algebra grade.

Mary Brorman would settle for a half-way good grade in biology; Sharon Summers wants a trip to Kansas (for sunflowers, no doubt); Cheryl Neill is interested only in having a visitor from California, while Jay

Boynton, on the other hand, wants to "stay home for Christmas" (must not be any girls where his family is figuring on going.)

Lynton Allred — as crazy as he was in "South Pacific" — wants a "scrumptious, glamorous, exquisite, beautiful — cow"; Dwight McGee — you figure this one out — wants "A.W.H." Dyan Duvall, a sailor; and Mr. Hart, the long-suffering D. E. teacher, has about exhausted his supply of yardsticks and wants a year's supply of same.

A new head (and he's been needing one for years) is on the list for David Block; Coach Meredith gets down to business in wanting two 6'8" guards, a 240 lb. fullback; 10 linebackers you have to cage during the winter — watch out next season, Dumas.

She's dreaming but good, an "engagement ring" for Judy Schulte — and another dream that probably will remain that, a yellow Impala for Diana Robinson. Sandra Vaughn has her eyes on a big blue-eyed doll; Ann Gentry asks for something easier to get, a Teddy Bear (big, if you please).

Coach Brooks would gladly settle for a new T-Bird; and Patti Skypala just wants a car; (any kid will do), while Margaret Frerich thinks a trip to Dallas would make the holidays perfect. Sylvia Tijerina, baffled by geometry, wants a tutor for the subject. Conney White, on the lighter side, asks for a pea shooter; and James Burrus would settle for a pool table.

Paul Hoff is working on his car and wants a new transmission; while Larry Hair has games on his mind and wants a new Pontiac pool table (didn't know there was such an animal, but anyway, he wants it).

Kay Seamon and Jennie Holt would settle for a vacation trip down Southeast, they weren't specific about the destination; Jimmy Weathers wants a bottle of cold tablets so he can give them to Joyce Ann (she can't buy her own); and figuring he might as well smell as good as the girls, Richard Connally wants 5 gallons of cologne.

Raymond Skypala gets his gas the easy way — he wants a new 5-gallon can and a hose (or maybe he needs it when he runs out of gas); Glen Fuller would spend the holidays in Dimmitt (that's easy; just start walking). Christine Skypala wants a '62 pink T-Bird.

Jeanett Walterscheid wants to get rid of Butch and Larry (hear that girls), and wants to know if anyone will oblige. And Santa, Sylvia Ivie thinks Christmas would be just perfect if a certain person were to come home.

James Keese and Joe Coffman are both asking for shotguns, and we wonder what they are after. Dennis Hoffman needs a Cadillac, while Billie James wants a '62 Buick Special, while Dale Hershey will settle (??) for a '62 Corvette. (Having trouble finding a ride, boys?) Milton Meharg severely needs a new set of hubcaps... all right boys, who got his old ones? Larry Padilla joins the billowing ranks of those desiring, quote — "a girl." A watch would come in handy for David, so he could tell how late he is... Scot Ramsey demands a "Gunnels" (???)

An electronic brain would surely aid Joe Parker when it comes to semester examinations which are coming soon (ugh!!)

Along with countless others, Roy Rodriguez requests that Santa Claus use his influence in obtaining an extra week of Christmas vacation for all us good little kiddies.

And so, that is what some of the children would like to find in their stockings, in their garages, or even in their arms, — depending of course upon what they have in mind... a hint for any would-be Santa Clauses.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

little horn players.

Batoningly yours,
Ben R. Gollehon

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a Zorro suit, a fascination game, some jumping shoes, lots of candy and nuts, and a large case of Metreol. I have been a good boy.
Robert Thompson

Dear Santa,
I want so many things that I can't quite separate the few you might bring me from the rest. But I'd be much happier if you would see that:

My Latin I class would study the principal parts of all the verbs, and that — a certain little girl in the class would ponder awhile before she says, "But I don't understand," and that — there is less noise and more study in the library.

These are only minor irritations, Santa, since I think the students in Hereford High School are the nicest in the world. So please fill all their stockings brimful with the things they want. Be especially generous to my library and audio-visual assistants. They have been VERY good little boys and girls.

Your old-time friend,
Olean Leggett
P. S. Member when you used to come down the chimney to see me, Santa?

Querida Santa Claus,
Hay muchos cosas que quiero para mis amigos y para mi. Hagame el favor de traer a Senora Buck algunas pelucas para sus clases. Senora Leggett necesita libros perdidos. Juan Buck quiere mas cartas al Presidente. Traiga a Senor Kitchens mas noches para juego de balon. Los alumnos de Senor Smith necesitan otras lombrices para estudiar. Susie dice que Senor Stevens necesita un termometro. Senor Russell quiere mas alumnos como Carlos Mims y Glenn Nelson. Por favor traiga a Lynton Allred una muneeca hermosa. Quiero examenes faciles para mis alumnos Senorita Mackey necesita mas delices para vender. Yo deseo un vestido rojo, un automovil azul, y un diamante grande.
Con amor y besos,
Mrs. Neill

I've got my hundred onions, now where do I get my money?"

Linda Reed is a familiar sight around HHS, and it is common knowledge that she comes from the farm. Mr. Claus commented that he could have been fooled once, when at a rodeo, Linda remarked, "Look at the pretty horses!"

This was an intelligent comment in itself, but she was referring to the brahma bulls in the arena. Oh, well, maybe she thought the humps were saddle-horns.

All that could be found out about Suzanne Langley from our distinguished guest, was in connection with food. It seems that when Mr. Langley went to school at Texas Tech, and Suzanne was several years old, the family lived in an apartment with several other couples on the campus.

Always an early-riser, Suzanne would finally give up trying to pry her father's eyes open, and wander around until she built up enough sympathy among the other tenants to get them to feed her something for breakfast.

At restaurants, however, she being the daughter of a lawyer, showed it, and reversed her decision. She meticulously dropped her beans one by one to the floor. Maybe Mr. Claus' sympathy was aroused — he left her something to eat each Christmas.

Mrs. Claus knows that at least once all boys must try smoking. However, not all have such disastrous results at Jerry Don Whitaker.

Of course, Jerry Don had to try his luck on the fly, so he and some of his playmates used an old building that served them as a clubhouse. He was not content to make a cigarette smoke, but the clubhouse should smoke, too. It did. The firemen could not save a timber.

Did you ever notice Darrell Garrett's interest in cars — no, I don't mean interest in what's in cars — but the vehicles themselves? It is quite different from other people's, for his is in their values as targets.

Mr. Claus said that the B-B gun left him one year for Christmas was promptly tried out. Within a matter of hours, all the windows in a convenient truck were shattered. Do you suppose he is still such a good shot? Mr. C. and I certainly hope not.

Why even the neatest of us have our moments! It may surprise you to learn that when "the Twins," Mary and Martha Russell, were about two years old, they were visiting their paternal grandparents in Hereford. They wandered to a mud puddle in the street and prepared for war... for that was what ensued.

Every time their grandparents would start to get them out, the girls would begin to throw mud at them. This kept them at their distance for quite a while... and long enough to get a crowd gathered for a whole block to watch the battle.

Finally, Mr. Russell bravely it and recovered the girls. That was the time they got their one and only spanking from their grandfather.

So, that is about all Santa had time to tell us this week... but some people had best beware when preparing tricks for Mr. Claus. And for those who do not believe in Saint Nick, we offer the same warning.

Kaye and enjoy being around her because she isn't afraid to act natural and be herself.

Her most exciting moment occurred when she was a freshman. She fell through the crack in the bleachers at a pep rally. She got pretty excited.

Kaye is in several activities in school. Some are: The Splains, Tri-Hi-Y, National Honor Society, and Choir.

She hasn't had much spare time lately because she was in the all-school play. Kaye played the part of Mrs. Frank in the play "The Diary of Anne Frank." Her favorite pastimes are playing the piano and listening to the radio.

Kaye likes all the games we have won but she thinks that if everyone would try a little harder the school spirit can still be improved. She has only one dislike and that is too much homework.

To attend college is among her plans after graduation. She plans to enter Howard County Junior College and major in elementary education.

Kaye's last words to the underclassmen are, "Study hard because some day you will wish you had."

Telephone service never stops improving

These 6 communications improvements, now in effect in many communities, are some of the hundreds being made each day — to give you the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

FASTER

Direct Distance Dialing permits you to dial your own Long Distance calls as quickly and easily as you do local calls. This service improvement is spreading rapidly. By the end of the year, one fourth of our telephone customers will be able to call Long Distance this faster, easier way.

PLEASE HANG UP YOUR RECEIVER

Recorded Announcement helps prevent lost calls. Should someone forget to hang up an extension or accidentally knock the receiver off the hook, a recording reminds you to hang up the receiver. This enables you to be reached once again by those trying to call you.

STORMPROOF

Automatic Line Test is made periodically on most telephone lines. This equipment tests your line and your telephone for electrical defects. If it locates trouble, information is recorded so that the trouble can be promptly fixed and disruption of service prevented.

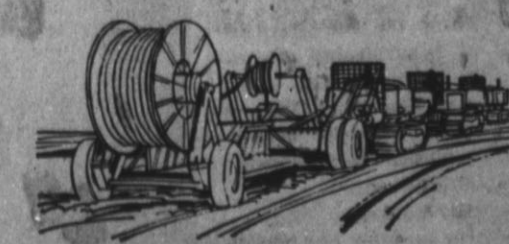

Electronic Voice Boosters keep your voice at a strong, clear conversational level, prevent fade-out caused by distance. Loss in transmission has been cut nearly in half in the last five years. Today, you hear better than ever.

Pumping Air in Cables helps keep your telephone trouble free. Air pressure in the cable holds out moisture should a small leak occur. Reduced pressure as air escapes provides warning of leak so it can be repaired before it affects your service.

Burying Telephone Cables makes them weatherproof, gives you more trouble-free service. Today, 55 percent of telephone wire is underground, providing stormproofed express routes for your local and Long Distance calls.

Connally Causes Confusion In State Governor's Race

BY VERN SANFORD
Announcement that John B. Connally was resigning his post as U. S. Secretary of the Navy to run for governor caused a bit of confusion and conjecture in the Capital City.

Attorney General Will Wilson, also an announced contender, referred to Connally's candidacy as "a Washington fairytale."

Houstonian Don Yarborough has a lot of liberal encouragement to run for governor, but may run as lieutenant governor.

Governor Daniel says he appreciates Connally's courtesy in advising him of his decision before making it public. He told Connally he would extend the same courtesy "when my decision is made."

Already in the Governor's race is Marshall Formby of Plainview.

Nearly 600 paid $12.50 each to hear Republican gubernatorial candidate Jack Cox and Republican Senator John Tower at a dinner in Austin's Municipal Auditorium.

Tourist Council Ready
The 22-member executive committee of the proposed Texas Tourist Council has drafted a bill for advertising funds.

Chairman W. Price Jr. says the bill will be introduced at the January 3 special session of the Texas Legislature...

Harold Robbins of San Antonio was named chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee. Others on the committee include Rep. Joe Ratcliff of Dallas; Callan Graham and H. C. Pittman of Austin and J. W. Burton of DeCatur.

Steve Matthews of Austin will head an organization and nominations committee which includes Scott Hardy of San Antonio, John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, J. A. Jameson and Charles Simons of Dallas, Ed St. John of Austin, and Bob Conwell of Corpus Christi.

Price and Tom Taylor, Highway Department Travel Director, will serve as consultants to both committees.

Legislative List Grows
Texas Legislative Council is considering the report of its Small Loan Study Committee, and Will Wilson still insists "Loan Shark" legislation should be on special session agenda.

Texas Youth Council has a few matters it would like the Legislature to consider. They are: the problem of extending the state juvenile parole program; a discretionary bill for revision of court procedure on juvenile offenders; and an interstate compact regarding parolee exchange.

Rep. Charles Bailman of Borger says he plans to move for immediate adjournment of the special session. "Unless I am fully convinced that there is a need for a special session, I plan to introduce a resolution the first day of the session, calling for an adjournment on the second day."

Employment Up
Total employment in Texas hit an all-time high in October, according to the Texas Employment Commission. By mid-month, 3,494,100 Texans were employed.

Increase was largely due to heavy agricultural activity. Seasonal farm employment rose to an estimated 280,600 workers, with cotton activities accounting for 66 per cent of this total.

Although 4.4 per cent of the total labor force was jobless, the unemployment situation was more favorable than at any time since April, 1960. People having most job troubles continue to be those who are unskilled.

School Attendance Ruling
In answer to an inquiry from Lubbock County Attorney Alton R. Griffin, the Attorney General ruled that while a child over 16 years of age is not required to attend school whether he has completed 9th grade or not, a child under 16 who has completed the 9th grade is subject to the compulsory school attendance law, even if his services are needed for the support of his parents.

Population Changes
Populations estimates prepared by the Population Research Center at the University of Texas reveal that 94 of the 143 counties which lost population between 1950 and 1960 registered an increase during 1960-61.

Forty-nine counties continue to lose population. Research Center figures only 23 counties lost population between 1960 and 1961, as compared with the 143 during the previous decade.

A geographical pattern indicates the counties which have grown in the past 11 years are concentrated in the Gulf Coast region, the Northwest and in a belt running from Cooke and Grayson counties on the North Central Texas border to Travis and then curving southwest toward Maverick.

Counties with an 11-year loss are scattered, but tend to be concentrated in a wide belt running from southeast to northwest in the center of the state.

Health, Welfare Consultants
Governor Daniel named two appointees to an advisory committee on a study of state health and welfare services to be conducted by the Legislative Council.

Appointees are Dr. W. C. Smith of Carthage; Dr. C. M. Phillips of Levelland; Eldred Thomas of Dallas, president of the Texas Nursing Home Association; Mrs. Louise Evan Bruce, editorial page editor of the Amarillo Globe-News; Roderic M. Bell, administrator of Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas; and V. H. Hackney, president of the Marshall National Bank.

Dr. J. B. Copeland of San Antonio was re-elected chairman of the State Board of Health.

Dr. Hampton Robinson of Corpus Christi and Joe B. Winston of Mercedes were re-elected to respective posts of vice-chairman and secretary of the health board.

Short Snorts
Many Texans are urging that the National Legislative Conference hold its 1964 meeting in Texas. Executive committee members including Speaker James A. Turman met this week to discuss 1962 agenda for Phoenix, Ariz., meeting. Hawaii will be site of 1963 session.

Everett J. Grindstaff of Balminger has been appointed to the board of the Upper Colorado River Authority.

Malcolm L. Quick of Austin, Irwin R. Salmanson of El Paso, and Felix Salazar Jr. of Houston have been named Assistant Attorneys General. Acting District Attorney Gail Walley of Beaumont has asked the Attorney General's office to hold a court of inquiry concerning the empanelling of a grand jury by Criminal District Judge Owen Lord.

His Natal Day

... it is Christmas, the birthday of Jesus the Christ.
 It is Hallelujah time ... a day when joyful reverence reigns in the hearts of His people. It is the hour for Carol singing and merry making in simple, serious celebration of the birthday of the Lord. Then, may your Yule-log burn brightly as you and yours jubilantly, in age-old custom, exchange gifts made possible through thought and treasure. Let us make merry but may we not forget to keep Christ in Christmas ...
 For unto us a child is born, and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

DIVIDE AND CONQUER is an old rule of warfare and Dennis Hodges found it worked equally well in basketball as he drove between Sandies Allen Lyons and Raymond Roy on the small Amarillo Army court Friday night. Hodges poured in 20 points, but the Sandies rallied to win 59-58. (Staff Photo)

Hereford Riders Invited To Ride In Show Parade

The Hereford Riders, Inc. has been invited by F. M. Dougherty, parade chairman, to participate in the opening day parade of the 1962 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. The Western parade through downtown Fort Worth will start at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 26. More than 10,000 head of livestock will vie for honors at the 66-year old Fort Worth Stock Show, scheduled Jan. 26 through Feb. 4. The Southwestern Exposition is the nation's oldest major livestock show and site of the world's original indoor rodeo.

Jacobs Selected For Role In Tech Stage Production

Durwood Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jacobs, 212 Kibbe, has been cast in one of the five leading roles in the Texas Tech speech department production of Peter Shaffer's New York and London stage success, "Five Finger Exercise." "Five Finger Exercise" will be presented at 8:15 p.m. on the nights of Jan. 25-27 and 29-31 in the Tech Speech Auditorium. Ticket office opened Monday, Dec. 18, and reservations may be made by calling PO 5-8541, Ext. 356.

Letters To Santa

Dear Santa,
I am six years. For Christmas I would like a wagon, a basketball, a hula hoop, a truck, a train.
Love JAY

Dear Santa:
I am 4 years old and have been a good boy. I want a fire truck that I can ride in and a tractor. I want some candy and nuts. I have 4 sisters that have been good so please bring them some nice presents too.

with his wife since 1955. He was a member of the West Amarillo Christian Church. Survivors, in addition to his wife, are one daughter, Mrs. R. C. McKinney of Amarillo; four sons, Willard and E. H., both of Manitou Springs, Colo.; Gene of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Bobby of Syracuse, Kan.; one brother, S. T. of Pampa; five sisters, Mrs. J. D. White and Mrs. Vesey Dotson, both of McKinney, Mrs. Lake Spurgin of Crosbyton, Mrs. Clem Wall of Paducah, Mrs. Nell Revis of Dallas; and 15 grandchildren.

LIVED THE PART
NEW YORK (AP) — Eugene Wood fits his role in "Subways Are for Sleeping" to a T. The actor was formerly chairman of the drama department of Ithaca, N. Y., College. His role in the musical is a college professor who has forsaken the scholastic life.

Maj. Paetzold Completes Army Casualty Course

Army Nurse Corps Maj. Alma M. Paetzold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Paetzold, Hereford, recently completed the one-week mass casualty management course at Brooke Army Medical Center's Field Service School, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

Major Paetzold was familiarized with the effects of nuclear weapons, the types of injuries probably resulting from the use of such weapons and emergency procedures for treating these injuries. The course placed emphasis on prior planning and practice for survival after a nuclear attack and the necessity for each individual to care for his own medical needs and those of companions until professional medical personnel become available. Brooke Medical Center, the Army's largest medical installation, carries out all aspects of professional and technical instruction, as well as patient care and selected projects of medical research. The major entered the Army in May 1941 and is a graduate of Hereford High School.

COBURN SCHOLARSHIP
STRATFORD, Ont. (AP) — A Shakespearean scholarship is being set up in memory of Charles Coburn by the Festival Theater here and the Avondale Playhouse, of Indianapolis, Ind. The veteran actor died last summer shortly after an engagement at Avondale. The announcement of the award cites Coburn's "exceptional influence on classic drama and unparalleled devotion to the theater."
Two apprentices at Avondale will be chosen each season for a two-week study course at the Shakespeare festival here.
