Cowsert, Brown, Davis Win In Record Hereford Turnout

Hereford attorney Ray Cowsert Tuesday outdistanced two opponents in the race for mayor of the city. Cowsert won the election without a run-off, polling 625 votes, while Troy Moore had 167 and Howard Gault 111.

A record vote for a general city election totalled 961 ballots, keeping election officials busy counting until almost 9 p. m.

County Goes For Tower; Wright In Second Place

Deaf Smith County generally went along with the state-wide a substantial margin over a field of 64 other candidates for U. S. Senator.

Republican Party candidate Tower polled 610 votes in Deaf Smith County's ten voting boxes. Second place in the county went to U. S. Rep. Jim Wright, who got 412; and third to William L. "Bill" Blakley, interim U. S. Senator, who polled 219.

Gid Brown was successful in his bid for re-election to the City Commission from Place Two. He polled 466 votes, while his opponent, J. T. Boynton, got 258.

Also elected was W. L. Davis Jr., who was running unopposed for Place One on the City Commission. He polled 944 votes. There were a few write-in votes. Davis was the only aspirant for the post being vacated by Don Little.

The three successful candidates were sworn in Tuesday night immediately after a special election.

Ricocheting Slug Hits Man's Jaw

Condition of Ivy Whitney, 48, of Hereford, who was accidentally struck by a ricocheting .22 calibre bullet while working on a farm southeast of Hereford Monday, was listed as "good" at Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday morning.

Whitney was working on the Claude Damron farm, eight miles southeast of Hereford Monday afternoon, when his left jaw was struck by a ricocheting bullet, fired from a quarter mile away on the far side of a hill.

Whitney's left jaw was broken by the nearly spent bullet. The bullet was fired by James Manning of Fort Worth, brother-in-law of Whitney. Manning had been hunting rabbits, out of sight of where Whitney was filling the ammonia applicator on his tractor.

After the accident, which occurred about 2:30 p.m. Monday, Whitney drove his tractor a half mile to the Damron home, where Mrs. Damron telephoned for an ambulance.

The man was taken to the hospital by Gilliland ambulance. Deaf Smith County Sheriff Lowell Sharp said the bullet came over the hill, struck the ground flat, and then ricocheted into Whitney's face.

The shot was fired from a .22 special rifle, Sheriff Sharp said.

Explosion Ruins Home

An explosion which shook a neighborhood in west Hereford Tuesday morning destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas, 513 Knight St.

It was theorized by firemen that the explosion of the home was caused by accumulation of natural gas, possibly ignited by the pilot light of a gas stove in the kitchen of the residence.

Most of the impact of the explosion was through the roof of the six-room wooden-frame stucco home. When Hereford Volunteer Fire Department arrived on the scene at about 10:10 a.m., the west half of the roof had caved in under the east half.

Although damage to the home was estimated to be total, damage to furnishings was minor, Fire Chief Dub Reeves said.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were at work when the explosion occurred. Thomas is employed by the West Park Cemetery Association, and Mrs. Thomas is an employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Their dog, a French Poodle, sustained flash burns in the explosion, although there was little damage to the home by fire. Firemen found the dog hidden behind the refrigerator in the kitchen, and it was taken to a local veterinarian.

Four windows on the south side of the residence were blown out. The kitchen, dining room and a bedroom are located on the south side of the home.

Damage to furniture was caused by debris from the attic, plus dust and soil. Windows in other parts of the home and a television set were not broken.

Kenneth Ruland, 18, 401 E. Fifth St., was first to enter the house. He and another person extinguished flaming curtains in the kitchen.

Ruland, who was making estimates on the remodeling of a home in the neighborhood, said the explosion sounded like a "sonic boom." He called the fire department, and 18 volunteer firemen answered the call.

Mrs. Thomas had left for work at 6 a.m., and Thomas left the home at about 8 a.m. Portions of the ceiling throughout the home were ripped out by the explosion. Wall paper through the house was either singed or torn from the wall or ceiling.

Building Activity Shows An Increase

Due to generally favorable weather during the first three months this year, Hereford got a good start in building activity as permits for new homes or buildings and additions to existing structures issued in January, February and March show a total valuation of more than a quarter million dollars. Permits issued through March 31 show a total of $271,430 for 36 permits issued in Hereford City Hall. That figure is a $35,345 increase over the $236,085 in valuation for the same period in 1960.

Six permits were issued for the building or new residences for a total of $73,000 — two permits in January, three in February and one in March.

Largest single permit issued during the first quarter of the year was for the building of a concrete and masonry law office building at the corner of E. Third and Sampson streets. The $86,000 structure will house the Witherspoon and Associates law firm, and the permit was issued on Jan. 17.

Twelve permits issued in January totaled $125,400; 13 permits in February accounted for $59,930; and 11 permits in March totaled $86,100.

Monthly permits last year included: 11 permits for $67,850 in January; 12 permits for $83,500 in February; and 13 permits for $84,735 in March.

Other permits issued during the recent three-month period included: building of a church for the Jehovah's Witnesses, $5,000, Jan. 23; a masonry storage building on March 8, $32,000, and addition to a motel on March 28, $30,000.

Permits issued in 1960, totaled a valuation of $1,068,415. That figure was shadowed by $1,519,361 for permits issued in 1959.

Most permits issued this year were for additions and alterations of homes and businesses in Hereford.

Charge Man In $155 Burglary

Bond for Donald Lee Jones, 21, 206 Whittier, was set at $1,000 Monday after he was charged with burglary by Deaf Smith County authorities.

Jones was charged with burglarizing Sunset Lanes Bowling Alley on March 26. He was arrested at 8:32 a.m. Saturday in Hereford by city police.

The case was turned over to county authorities Monday, and the $1,000 bond was set by Justice Of The Peace C. B. Miles.

A total of $155 in cash was taken in the burglary, it was reported by police during the investigation. The cash, all in paper currency, was taken from a cash box which had been placed in a locker. The locker door apparently was opened with a key and the metal cash box was pried open, police reported.

A total of $47.71 in silver was left in the cash box, according to investigating Hereford policeman Jim Neal Entry to the building apparently was gained through the rear door, the investigation reported.

The man was arrested at 1:14 a.m. Sunday in the 700 block of W. First St. Making the arrest was city police officer Arthur Findt.

Presiding in Corporation Court was Judge Henry Benson.

Umbarger Man Fined $100 Here

Herd Wins 10-2 As Collier Hurls Two-Hitter At Swifts

Jim Collier limited Nazareth to a pair of singles as the Hereford Whitefaces won a 10-2 decision here Tuesday. The victory gave the Whitefaces an even 4-4 record.

On Saturday, April 8, the Herd will be in Clovis for a doubleheader with the Wildcats. The first game will start at 1 p.m., Mountain Standard Time (2 p.m. Central Time.)

Dan McDowell and Charlie Burrus were virtually the only hitters for Hereford Tuesday. Out of the team's five hits, McDowell hit a homer and a single to drive in three runs, while Burrus got two singles in two trips.

Started under ideal conditions, the game was finished in the face of a cold wind and blowing dirt.

Two errors and a walk loaded the bases for Nazareth as the game opened, but two strikeouts and a fly to center field got Hereford out without any scores.

The first three batters for Hereford struck out swinging at Raymond Schmucker's roundhouse curve.

Hereford's second sacker Greg Combs engineered a double play in the second inning to keep the Swifts off the bases. He caught a hard line drive hit by Philip Brockman and threw to Charlie Burrus at first to double off Lester Schulte, who had walked.

With tighter fielding, Hereford should have had more runs.

Second Offense DWI Is Charged

Bond for Eska Lee Rogers, 27, Route 4, Hereford, was set at $1,000 Monday morning after he was charged with driving while intoxicated, second offense, by the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department.

The man was arrested at 12:48 a.m. Sunday six miles north of Hereford on U. S. 385. Making the arrest was County Deputy Sheriff Bill McCarver.

Bond was set Monday morning by Justice Of The Peace C. B. Miles.

One-Act Players Defend Title In District Meet

"The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" will be presented by Hereford High School in University Interscholastic League one-act play contests in Canyon Friday afternoon.

The Hereford High Thespian Society will present its one-act entry, a play written by Sir James M. Barrie, at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Branding Iron Theater at West Texas State College.

Hereford will be competing in UIL District I-AAA, with Phillips, Levelland and Dumas high schools.

The local thespians have won first place in the annual competition for the past two years. In 1959, they presented "All My Sons," by Arthur Miller, and last year they presented "Queens of France," by Thornton Wilder, to place first in district.

Winner of the district meet will be entered in regional UIL one-act play contests in Odessa April 20-21.

"The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" is probably the most moving and tender war story ever written, according to play director Burney McClurkan, speech and drama instructor at Hereford High and sponsor of the Thespian Society.

Setting is in London in 1914. The play concerns a problem confronting an old maid who

Plat, Changes In Zoning Get City Approval

Approval of an industrial area plat and two zoning changes were the major items of business for the City Commission on Monday. Meeting in regular session, the Commission approved a plat submitted by Sam Nunnally for a ten-lot industrial area. It is to be located about one mile south of Hereford on the Dimmitt Highway, U. S. 385. To be known as the South Park Industrial Subdivision, the area is located on the west side of the highway behind a curved buffer lot. All the businesses which locate there are to have minimum set-backs and be fenced. Commissioners said that right-of-way for the street must be 60 feet, instead of the 40 feet which had been planned. Two recommendations by the City Zoning Commission were approved by the Commissioners. One changes a lot in the 100 block of Avenue E from B (two family residential) to D (restricted local retail). The other zoning change is from B to D for a lot on North 25 Mile Avenue adjacent to the Brown Supply Co. office.

Ordinarily, the programs of these legal meetings don't sound very interesting. But we got one this week that promises to be one of the most exciting meetings for attorneys ever held. Among the principal speakers will be the former Prime Minister of Cuba, Miro Cardona. Two attorneys, one from New York City and one from Buffalo, will talk on the prosecution and defense of the trial of the so-called "Apalachin Case" that resulted after a raid on what was mentioned. This is one we would like to attend.

We think you will like the Spring Band Concert program at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, April 6. It will be held in the High School auditorium.

Hereford's baseball team, after scrubbing off a half-inch of dirt from Tuesday's game, will play a doubleheader at Clovis on Saturday.

Also scheduled for Saturday is the second annual Rotary Club Stunt Night. It starts at 8 p. m. in the High School auditorium.

Let me take a minute to explain the new substitution rule in baseball. It allows one substitution for each starting player, with the starter allowed to return later. Thus, coaches can substitute a pinch hitter, a runner or can even put a different team on the field and then return any or all of his starters to the game. I don't know how it will work out in professional ball, but it helps at the high school level, since the coach can insert players briefly for experience and then return his regulars again.

We were amazed, and delighted with the strong turnout of voters for the city and Senate elections Tuesday. Really, we didn't know so many people cared so much.

Voters turned out in masses, Crossing party lines and classes. Some campaigned for John Tower.

Others backed Wright for power.

Blakley, some thought, was for Texas. But the voters all want a cut in taxes.

Man Slightly Hurt In Wreck

A 25-year-old Hereford man was treated for minor injuries in the emergency room of Deaf Smith County Hospital Monday night following a one-car accident south of Hereford on U. S. 385.

Trinidad Ramirez, driver of a 1953-model car which hit a culvert a half mile south of the city, was treated for minor lacerations and released from the hospital emergency room shortly after the accident occurred.

The accident was investigated at about 7:30 p. m. Monday by Texas Highway Patrol officers Charles Skinner and Caral Parker, both of the Hereford patrol unit.

Officer Skinner said the Ramirez car was headed north on U. S. 385, crossed the highway to the left, hit a culvert and came to a stop in a lawn. The automobile did not overturn.

The right front of the car was damaged considerably, but no estimate was made by the investigating officers. The injured driver was taken to the hospital in Hereford by private car.

KIT CARSON RELIC

WETMORE, Colo. (AP) — Residents of this south-central Colorado community are convinced that Kit Carson, frontier scout, left his calling card at Hard-scrabble Creek near Wetmore. The letters "Kit C" are carved on a large rock that jutting from the stream. Several years ago someone broke off the section of the rock that bore that inscription and carried it away. But it apparently was too large to hide safely, and the stone was found in a weed patch beside a road. Now it is set in cement and protected by iron bars at a picnic ground near the creek.

Owen Discusses The John Birch Society Aims

Homer Lee Owen of Hereford was guest speaker at the Optimist Club meeting Tuesday. After projector trouble prevented him from showing a film on "Our Two Great Documents," he talked with the group about the John Birch Society.

He quoted an article written by Borger editor J. C. Phillips about the Society. Phillips reviewed the requirements for membership in the group, saying that they are required only to take an oath of allegiance to the United States.

Owen told the club that the Society members were at liberty to reveal their names, but usually do not to keep them from being attacked by "anonymous telephone calls, poison pen letters and threats to get them fired."

Hereford Riders Enter Play Day Activity Sunday

Members of the Hereford Riders Club and the Hereford Junior Riders will participate in a District 2 Playday on Sunday, April 9. The Playday will be held at the Will Rogers Range Rider's Arena in Amarillo under the direction of the American Association of Sheriff's Possees and Riding Clubs.

Those who are attending will have their horses at the Hereford Riders Arena at 8:30 Sunday morning. The horses will be loaded on the truck at 9 a. m. The trucking will be in charge of Robert Wagoner, a member of the Riders Club.

Church services will be held on horseback in the Will Rogers arena at 11:30.

After the service, all the contestants attending the Playday will register and then eat at the Range Rider's Club House.

The Hereford Riders and Hereford Junior Riders will be well represented with 34 members going. There will be about 21 horses on the truck, and seven more will be taken in trailers.

YOU CAN'T TAG WITHOUT THE BALL, the umpire ruled on this play as pitcher Jim Collier slid in for a Hereford score Tuesday. Note, Collier is still between the ball and Nazareth pitcher Raymond Schmucker, who was covering the plate after a passed ball in the second inning. (Staff Photo by H. A. Tuck)

Beauty At Home

Q. What exercise is good for developing the bust?

A. Stand erect, toes out, chin up, and hold a yardstick with your hands near each end. Raise the stick above your head with elbows straight, then slowly lower your elbows, trying to bring the stick down in back of you. You should feel the muscles pull in your chest.

Q. How can I prevent the constant splitting of my fingernails on my typewriter at the office?

A. One good way to add greater strength to the ends of your nails is to apply your fingernail polish over the ends of your nails clear to the other side.

usual manner, lather some green soap into the skin. Steam the face for five minutes with a wash cloth wrung out of hot water. Then rinse face well with warm water.

Q. What is a good exercise for slim ankles?

A. Stand with heels together, toes pointed forward. Rise on balls of feet and bend knees slightly. Keep this position and raise both arms with palms facing. Now hop forward, landing on toes with knees still bent, but swing arms out in front to keep balance. Repeat.

Q. What can I do to increase the gloss or shine in my hair?

A. The beaten white of an egg, added to your regular shampoo, helps. And be sure to keep up that daily brushing!

Q. How can I treat blackheads and enlarged pores in my skin?

A. You must be extra-conscientious about washing your skin at least twice daily with soap and water, and scrub it well. It is thorough cleansing and stimulating of the skin that discourages blackheads and enlarged pores.

Q. What is the best way to pencil very light eyebrows?

A. With little backward strokes against the "grain" of the hair, then brush down. Avoid drawing a line that will impart an artificial look and harden your eyes and general appearance.

PACKARD'S Checkerboard News

by Charlie Stone

This cattle demonstration today is uppermost in my mind but I will not dwell on it too much. If you were too busy to make the meeting and would like to find out more about the results of these two demonstrations, come by the store and get one of the booklets which has all the details.

R. W. Hairgrove at Westway is feeding some of his own calves on his own grain. This is his first group of calves to feed. In the event you do not have the time or facilities for feeding why not check with Charles Skelton or Joe Easley about using your grain and feeding a group for you.

After having been out of chicks for several weeks we now have some Leghorn Cockerals. Charlie Holt wants to raise his own eggs so he bought about a half dozen hens then bought himself a high powered rooster. This rooster did not like living at this bachelor farm so he hung himself. (Get Charlie to tell you about it!)

If Tommy Carnahan moves about that farm like he does when he is in town there is probably a dust cloud even in wet weather. David Brumley is a nice fellow to visit with, he is going to Tech and was telling me about the new Meats Lab being built down there.

Virgil Marsh is always full of ideas and has more fun expressing them than anyone I know. He sure does like to talk cattle feeding, probably the reason I enjoy listening to him. Jim Easley nearly always has some kind of cattle for sale and right now he has a set of 3 & 4 year old cows with calves for sale.

Walter Seed came by the store and bought him an armload of garden tools. I guess the next two weeks will be yard beautiful at his house. By the way we have 4 dozen garden hoses that are a real buy at 1.95 each.

Do you notice the warm friendly treatment you receive at either of the two banks. I understand that this holds true even through you owe them money.

I spent Monday in Lubbock attending Purina's Health Aids School. We reviewed the uses and recommendations of the products we have had before as well as being introduced to some new ones. We can help you on many preventive Medicine Aids but your Veterinarian is still the man for professional advice and help.

If there were a market for rats, this would be the way to make money. Start with one pair and in three years you could have 350,000,000. One rat would only eat enough feed to produce 8 lbs. of pork or 11 dozen eggs. Purina Rat Kill is THE bait to kill 'em.

CULINARY ERROR

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Police Sgt. Leonard Dansby sent a fellow ham operator in South Africa some Mexican food recently and received a letter from the man saying "the covering on the tamales was a bit hard on the stomach." Dansby recalled he failed to advise the man that one does not eat the corn shucks in which tamales are wrapped.

'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: The Spirit of General Sam Houston

FROM: The Spirit of Erastus "Deaf" Smith

SUBJECT: The Chamber of Commerce and the Tourist Industry

A payroll of one and a half million dollars per year coming from a single manufacturer would be really noticed and appreciated in any town of the size of Hereford; but when you spread it out through many small businesses it tends to be overlooked, Sam.

There are 23 service stations, 5 motels, 4 hotels, 13 cafes, and 12 garages listed in the current yellow pages of the telephone directory. These businesses get the biggest share of their annual business volume directly from non-residents — people just travelling through on our highways.

There are about 125 rooms available in our hotels and motels. Not all of these are filled every night but about sixty per cent are. National averages indicate that each overnight guest in a town will spend $20. Some quick arithmetic will show that just an average of 75 guests per night is equivalent to a half-million-dollar industry.

Add to this the many people who daily stop for gas and for meals in Hereford and it is not difficult to accept one and a half million dollars as a conservative estimate of the value of the tourist "crop" harvested in Hereford each year.

Too often though, Sam, the downtown business man is heard to say "Tourist traffic is no benefit to me." Perhaps if he would examine his customer list and note the names of those who operate or are employed by the tourist service businesses he would be more inclined to agree that the traveling public is a major crop for Deaf Smith County.

Some of those business men on our highways have been soliciting their fellow businessmen for memberships in the Deaf Smith County Highway Department Association during the last few weeks. This is an association affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce but semi-independent from it.

It was formed specifically for the purpose of promoting increased travel over U. S. 385 and U. S. 60 and to promote conventions for the area. They started out to just match the funds that the Chamber of Commerce general fund was able to allocate to this activity but found so much interest for the work they were doing that they more than doubled that amount.

Funds of the Association specifically have gone to pay dues in the International Parks Highway Association serving U. S. 385 and in the U. S. Highway 60 Association. Funds have gone to purchase the miniature water bottles containing samples of the famous Hereford water which have been used as convention give-aways all over the country.

We know that in 1960 there were over 2,000 of these put out from Regina, Saskatchewan, on the North to Big Bend National Park on the South; and from New York City on the East to Riverside, Calif., on the West.

Welcome banners, registration costs, delegate badges have all been paid for from this fund. Also the expenses of the chairman of the association and other official representatives have been paid to the conventions and meetings of the highway associations.

With the funds appropriated by the Chamber of Commerce, over $2,000 was spent during 1960 to make this industry, the tourist industry, a bigger factor in the economy of Deaf Smith County.

Many people have contributed financial help but special tribute for many hours of volunteer effort should go to Guy Lawrence, Jimmie Allred, Sam Bell, Gerald Hale, Virgil Dodson, Ernest Kendall, Glen Nelson, Del Bainum and Lloyd Widdifield.

Good Thurs., Fri. & Sat., April 6, 7 & 8

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE

Many, many people will tell you that Ivan Block is the best dressed farmer they know. You hardly ever see him in khakis. Usually, he appears in a fresh suit and has an immaculate shine. What a lot of folks can't understand is how Ivan can be such a good farmer and so seldom appear in work clothes. The other day I discovered his secret. He merely uses my weather forecasts, and properly organizes his work. This saves him untold hours and gives him a chance to get the most out of every hour he works!

I figured out his system when Ivan asked Sunday about the rainfall in April, and mentioned that he wanted to know if he should pre-water or not. I told him I figured he had better go ahead and irrigate. Usually we get very little moisture in early April, and I don't think this one will be any big exception.

The pretty weather was bringing the fishermen out of their holes Tuesday. Every one of her person you saw was talking about Spring Fever, and they usually would up with something about fishing. John Pakton, Jim Lipscomb and Reed Williams are beginning to get the bug. Funny thing, too, you seldom see a fisherman who isn't a talker. Most of them will even tell you the spot where they made a big catch, but folks are generally afraid to believe them.

When you do find one of these big, silent type fishermen, he is usually a good one. Slats Gilliland says this is because he realizes that a fish wouldn't get into trouble if he kept his mouth shut.

Gladys Cavness says there is no justice. She digs dandelions all of the time and no one ever notices, but Hap digs one 15-minute spread in five years and gets his name in the paper. She says Hap one time mowed the lawn in the same five-year period—and 12 neighbors rushed over to find out if she was seriously ill. Anyway, that is the beauty shop version of one yardman's achievements.

I run across a lot of people who get worked up about birds, but I guess I have no appreciation of nature. All I ever see are those English sparrows which, along with the Russian thisles, seem to be about the only thing we get for our land-lease money. If they ever take a vote, I figure Scotland would be the only one left on our list.

I see where the Rotarians are throwing their big "Stunt Night" Saturday. This is always good entertainment, and invariably renews my admiration for the Rotarians, chiefly because they are sharp enough to talk the other clubs into putting on the show, while they get the dough.

Joe Rojek was telling me that the barber shops are opening on Monday, which is a sign of progress. At least some of the merchants indicate that they just rural customers when the shops started closing. The barbers do have to stand on their feet a lot, but it seems logical that at least part of the shops might stay open Mondays and close on say, Thursdays. If the shops swapped out this way, some would be open all week—and folks would have six-day barber service. The result: sure-footed barbers and happy people!

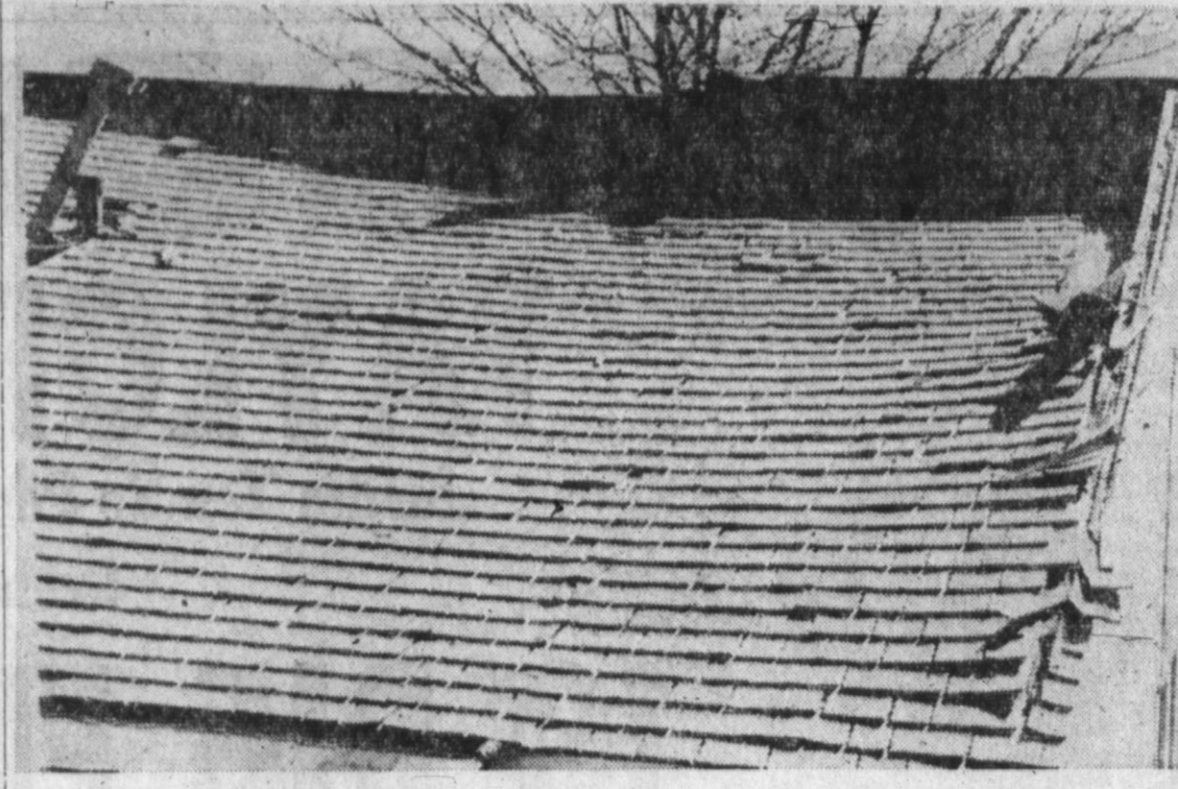

Automation is with us. Paul Harvey and Jim Roberts recently mentioned how many cranes you see at work around town. They are right, too. I believe you can put up an average store building these days with one-half the number of men you need 10 years ago. Certainly, this would be true when it comes to those steel trusses and big beams.

I realize that it is not the best of taste to say, "I told you so," but this time I can't help it. Recently The Brand carried an editorial in which we mentioned as the four likely top Senatorial candidates: "Blakley, Tower, Wilson and Wright." As a result, we received and printed last Sunday a letter from two Hereford boys in Austin in which they branded me as "dogmatically provincial" (my wife says this means narrow minded) because I didn't include their favored candidates, Gonzales and Maverick, who they said were recognized as leaders by the Belden Poll and the Dallas News. They seemed especially upset because I did not rate Mr. Gonzales above Wright.

For once, it turned out just like I predicted in my own dogmatically provincial way. It isn't easy to compete with professionals like the Belden Poll, but it is still a free country and, once in a while, some old country boy will get lucky and hit the nail on the head. After all, predicting politics is not nearly so hard as predicting Panhandle weather, where I have to buck the U. S. Government and three network TV stations.

Another thing, don't kid yourself about the run-off. The Democratic nominee will win unless something drastic develops. Tower got 610 votes in this county, while the other 70 Demos polled 903 Tuesday. In the November elections Tower got

A HOUSE BLEW ITS TOP during a fierce explosion that wrecked the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas Tuesday morning. The back part of the roof settled back some

1,703 and Lyndon Johnson got 1,608. I don't have the state figures, but they will likely swing more toward the Demo columns. On this basis, Blakley should be the victor and Wright, in case he gets in the run-off, will likely win hands down. The biggest thing in Tower's favor is the certain fact that the Republicans will vote in the run-off, while many of the Democrats may not. In the case of Blakley, some of the Demos may even want Tower to win so they can come back and knock him off with a more liberal Democratic candidate when the next election rolls around.

And did you ever see anything like the way Ray Cowser got a landslide into the office of mayor? He is the first lawyer we have had for mayor in a long time—and I predict that he will make a dandy. He has all of the qualifications, plus intense interest, integrity and honesty.

Whitefaces Sweep Doubleheader

Hereford Whitefaces swept a doubleheader here Saturday afternoon, winning 8-7 and 7-2 in a pair of regulation games from the Portales Rams.

The victories raised Hereford's season standings to 3-4, while the Rams are 1-6.

Catcher Wesley Poarch slammed a hard single into center field in the last of the seventh inning of the first game to push across the winning run from second base.

Hereford had a 5-0 lead after blanking the Rams for four innings, but Portales rallied to tie the game in the seventh.

Edwin Thomas was hit by the pitcher and John Buck walked to set the stage for Poarch's game-winning smash.

It was Hereford all the way in the second game as Drew Kershen limited the Rams to five hits, all singles. Sparkling defensive plays by Hereford also nipped Portales rallies in the bud.

The Herd lost no time in scoring in the first game. Lead-off hitter Greg Combs sliced a double and Dan McDowell sacrificed him to third, where he scored on a wild pitch. Charlie Burrus walked with two out, stole second and came in on Jim Collier's single.

Hereford added two more runs in the second, Ronnie Botkin walked and Poarch got on by error as Botkin went to third. Poarch stole second and Combs singled in both runners. The score went to 5-0 in the third as the Whitefaces added another marker. Charlie Thomas singled, Burrus singled and Collier doubled.

Both teams went down in order in the fourth.

In the fifth, Portales got three runs as reserves took the field for Hereford. A single was followed by two outs, before the roof fell in. Two force-outs at second became runners and errors before Melvin Hobbs doubled in two runs and Tommy Rea singled to push in another.

Charlie Thomas went around for Hereford in the last of the fifth on a walk, a balk, a stolen base and a passed ball.

Portales added three more runs in the sixth to knot the score, 6-6. Two singles, two errors and a wild pitch were responsible.

Hereford got in front again in the sixth, Mickey Stevens walked, McDowell and Charlie Thomas walked to load the bases. Ram hurler George Dick was relieved by Tommy Rea, who promptly walked Burrus to push in Stevens.

But the Rams weren't through as they tied it up again in the seventh. Rea doubled, went to third on a single and came in on an error.

That set the score at 7-7 with Poarch's game-winning single to come.

Mickey Stevens went all the way to take credit for the victory. He gave up seven runs on 10 hits, struck out four, walked one and made a wild pitch. Portales did not have an earned run in the game.

Losing pitcher was George Dick. He pitched 5 2/3 innings, gave up seven runs on six hits, struck out five and walked seven. He was charged with one balk and one wild pitch. Tommy Rea relieved with two out in the sixth and pitched in two that inning and three in the seventh. Rea gave up one run on one hit, struck out none and walked two.

Ram catcher Melvin Hobbs was charged with one passed ball.

Both teams turned in neat double plays, and both were in the second inning. Portales used the combination of Tommy Rea at third to Dale Parrish at second to Corky Lamb at first.

Hereford's twin killing went from Edwin Thomas at third to Greg Combs at second to Charlie Burrus at first.

Hereford was charged with six errors in the game, while Portales had just one.

The Herd kept Portales runners off the base paths with three outstanding defensive plays in the second game and slammed out three doubles and two triples in eight hits to win easily.

Second baseman Greg Combs circled wide behind second and took a fly ball in shallow left-center field behind the short-stop position in the first inning to rob Jerry Haines of an almost sure hit.

Burrus backed him up with a long stretch for the throw to first for the third out of the inning.

Both teams were scoreless until Hereford pushed across one run in the second. Jim Collier smashed a triple down the right field line and came in on Ronnie Botkin's single. Portales evened it up in the third on a single, a balk and an error.

Hereford went in front 2-1 in the third as Burrus got on by fielder's choice and scored on Collier's double. But Portales evened it up once more in the fourth on two walks, a single and a hit batter.

In the last of the fifth, Hereford roared out in front, taking advantage of Ram miscues. Dan McDowell got on by error, stole second and came in on Burrus' double. Burrus scored on two errors, making the score 4-2.

Charlie Thomas made a leaping catch against the fence as Ram Harry Jasper had one flying over the barrier that would have been a home run, Portales then went down in order.

But Hereford wasn't through, as it added three runs on two hits in the sixth. Poarch walked and Dan McDowell tripled with two out, Charlie Thomas then got on by error and Burrus doubled in both runners.

Portales again went down in order to close the game.

Drew Kershen became the second Hereford hurler of the day to go the full distance. He allowed just five singles, two runs, struck out three and walked three. They were his first walks of the season. He was charged with one balk, and hit one batter.

Gerald Hill was tagged with the loss. He gave up seven runs on eight hits, walked two and struck out two.

Greg Combs and Jim Collier were the leading Hereford hitters in the first game. Combs got two-for-four, including a double while Collier hit two of three times, with a double.

Corky Lamb was the power hitter for the Rams in the first game, hitting three of four times.

In the second game, Tommy Essex hit three singles in three times up for the Rams.

Collier and Burrus were the big stickers for the Whitefaces. Collier hit a double and a triple in four times, while Burrus got two doubles in four trips to the plate.

Portales had four errors and Hereford two in the second game.

SAFE AT HOME was the decision as Greg Combs scored Hereford's first run in the opening game of a double header here Saturday. Combs doubled and scored on a wild pitch. Portales pitcher George Dick has just taken the throw from the catcher while umpire L. J. Clark looks on. Charlie Burrus is going to first base on a walk. (Staff Photo)

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Many Groups Seem To Seek Aid Of Government

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

It seems that we are living in the age of "aid." The dictionary in my office defines this much-used word as follows: "To help; to further; that which promotes or helps in something done; an extraordinary subsidy."

I suppose there must have been eras of seeking "local aid," which were, no doubt, followed by eras in which people were seeking "state aid." But for the last several decades the trend seems to be away from the local and state levels and advanced to the Federal level.

It seems that all segments of the economy are pointing their efforts toward Washington for aid of some kind. And I would point out that there are no exceptions when all of the facts are brought out in the open. It is not only the poor and the low income groups that are seeking aid from the Capital City.

The fact is that many very wealthy individuals and giant corporations who daily preach free enterprise and contribute generously to publications and programs bitterly denouncing government help and aids, maintain high-paid lobbyists in the Nation's Capital for the sole purpose of obtaining fat contracts and lucrative purchase orders that are to be paid for out of taxes wrung from the individual American.

During the recent debates on the area redevelopment bills, letters and telegrams were received by Members of Congress from Chambers of Commerce and municipal corporations all over this country, many of whom have soundly denounced excessive Federal spending and socialistic trends in the Federal government. It is difficult to understand how a socialistic program becomes less socialistic simply because one is allowed to participate in it. Let us take a look at some of the measures with which Congress has been faced in the past several years and will be again faced with this year.

FEDERAL LAID TO EDUCATION. This proposal is not new. It has been vigorously pushed for a number of years. The only reason that it has not been adopted on a wide front during the past 10 years is because of an amendment which provided that Federal funds should be denied to any school practicing segregation.

Yet each year, the difference between the years and days narrows. It seems to be generally assumed that there was nothing wrong with Federal aid as a general proposition. This, of course, was starting from an assumed premise that was false. Under our Constitution, it was undoubtedly intended that education would be the responsibility of the states under the dual sovereignty form of government — dual sovereignty meaning that the Federal government would be a national sovereignty composed of the several states as separate sovereignties joined together in one united sovereignty.

As time moved on, attempts have been continuous to reduce the powers of the state sovereignty and weld them into the Federal sovereignty. The field of education is no exception. Since we are all deeply interested in the welfare and education of our children and in seeing that they obtain the best possible education, this furnishes a fertile field for the advocates of centralized government.

Federal aid in the form of money, whether it be loans or direct grants, if practiced on a wide scale general program, must eventually result in control of the educational processes of this nation. Once the Federal government assumes the responsibility of providing the funds (probably supplemented in the first instance), it cannot escape the responsibility of controlling the expenditures of those funds and, hence, dictating the educational procedures.

It is the yielding in the first instance which creates the foothold that eventually ripens into full conquest. The transition could come very quickly in this country even though it is a government of law rather than man. It must be remembered that the laws are made by man. Once the Federal door is opened in the field of education, it would require only one session of a Congress manned by a simple majority of centralized government advocates and a friendly President to complete the conquest.

The same rule could be applied in almost any other area of our general economy. A good example is the recent situation brought into focus by the debate on the minimum wage bill. The real purpose behind the minimum wage bill was not the amount of wages that a person received, but the attempt by the centralized government advocates to expand the coverage of Federal law; that is, to provide that Federal law would supersede state law insofar as certain employes were concerned.

There were three bills before the House. Insofar as the principle involved is concerned, there was no difference in any of the bills. The principle sought was for the Federal government to invade state jurisdiction. None of the bills took in all employes, but the passage of any one of the bills means that the difference between interstate commerce and intrastate commerce as far as the Fair Labor Standards Act is concerned has been broken.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thursday, April 6, 1961

Hence, it is only a matter of time until amendments would be made to cover all employees of the United States under the Federal law. This may seem very good to many people, but it must be remembered that once this course is followed in regard to one segment of the economy, that same rule would be applicable to all over segments of the economy.

Carrying it out to its logical conclusion, the end result would be the complete abolition of the effectiveness of state government and the vesting of omnipotent power in the central government of the United States. Once this is done, complete control of our entire operations, both governmental and private, could be secured by the election of 219 Members of the House of Representatives and 51 Members of the United States Senate by a power-seeking individual or small group of individuals. There are many, many things that can be and probably will be furnished by the Federal government to the individuals, to corporations, and to cities and towns that may be looked upon by the recipient as most beneficial.

But I would admonish each and every one before counting such blessings, if blessings they are, to consider well the price that is being paid. Many of you will find it much too high. I do.

In Spite Of Mud, Children Have Class Easter Parties

BY MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Classroom Easter parties were held at Walcott School on Thursday afternoon. In spite of the cloudy, chilly day with mud underfoot, the first and second grades had an Easter egg hunt and relays in the schoolyard. They played games and heard stories read by their teacher, Miss Paula Green.

Present were: Mesdames Bruce Coleman, the chairman, Ernest Brown and Dennis, Tom Nance and children, Don Kirby and Larry, J. E. Sorrels and Debbie, J. T. Tice and James, Grady Cook, LeRoy Cupell and Brenda, Sue and Donna Tucker. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Jim Monroe, chairman of the third and fourth grade party, gave each child the paper cutouts and pipe cleaner handle for making an Easter basket. She and the other mothers helped those needing it. Later these were filled with candy Easter eggs. Several relay games, carrying boiled colored eggs in a spoon, etc., were played.

Punch in Easter paper cups and cookies were served to each pupil by those attending. Mesdames Melvin Henderson, Buel Monroe and Joe, N. E. Tyler, H. D. Buse, B. E. White and Sharon, Joe Merrill and Paul Timberlake and Kerry Hall.

The fifth and sixth grades enjoyed several party games. They were served refreshments. Present were Mesdames G.V. Hall, Elton Wylie, Paul and Deloris, Jack Weaver, Thurman Davis and Bertram Jack.

Mrs. Julian Perrin was chairman of the seventh and eighth grade Easter party. Various items from about the home such as ribbons, lamp shades, flowers, pie tin, feather, Easter baskets, etc., were used to fix Easter bonnets for the girls and bow ties for the boys to wear. Other mothers present were Mesdames Leland Burns, Thurman Davis, Bertram Jack and Wayne Bean. Refreshments of jello, coconut cake and punch were served on gay colored paper plates.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins and Bruce had Easter dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Kay and Royce. Bob Ritzel from Amarillo Air Force Base was a guest also.

Mrs. Jim Perrin and children were accompanied by Mrs. Julian Perrin when they drove to Haskell on Friday to be with relatives for the Easter holidays.

Walcott's March P.T.O. meeting was held on Thursday. The president, Mrs. Jack Weaver, called the meeting to order and led the business session. The secretary, Mrs. Melvin Henderson, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. The treasurer, Mrs. Leland Burns, gave a financial report. She introduced the idea of setting aside some of this money to be drawing interest and to be used for some additional building on the Walcott School. Mrs. N. A. Brown made a motion that this discussion be tabled until the next meeting.

The program this time was brought by the school boys and girls in the form of Declamations they have learned. There were story telling, 4-H demonstrations and piano selections that were presented recently in the Spring Music Festival held in Hereford.

These third and fourth grade children gave their declamations: Linda Merrill, Charlene Weaver, Sheldon White, Danny Hall, Billy Henderson, Tom Timberlake, Jerry Tyler, Glen Jack, Barbara Brown, David Buse, Mary Alice Burrus, Robert Davis, Margaret Minks, Tommy Brown, Willetta Wylie, Nancy Minks and Charles Bass.

Mrs. T. L. Collins read a story, "The Hare that Lived Upstairs." Then Margaret Minks and Barbara Brown told it to the audience.

Marla Jack played "Balky Mule" and "Barnyard Frolics" on the piano. Dianna Jack played "Sonatina in F Major" and "Sea Mist."

These students for the upper classes gave their declamations: Nancy Tyler, Marilyn Tice, Mary Ruth Weaver, Ronnie Buse, Marsha Burns and Elizabeth Burrus.

McGee, instructor from Hereford, and Mesdames Jim Stocks, Thurman Davis, Noel Berry, John Hill, J. V. Perrin and G. V. Hall were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stocks and Ernest Brown held the trustee election at Walcott School Saturday. Jim Monroe was elected as the new member on Walcott's School board to replace Jack Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins had dinner with Mrs. J.F. Ward in Hereford on Saturday. That afternoon they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cherry in Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Alston at Westway, who have just returned from a visit in Dallas.

Miss Margaret Burrus was home for the Easter holidays from West Texas State at Canyon.

Mumps are still with us. Janie Burrus has them now. Mrs. Waldron Melton is about over them.

These fifth grade children were given Gideon New Testaments on Thursday morning: Regina Steward, Mary Ruth Weaver, Sharon Tice, Marla Jack, Alice Myers, John Hall, Ronny Henderson, Kelly Tyler and Clyde Wylie.

Art class met again on Tuesday morning in the Walcott School auditorium, Mrs. Ernest

May we make this suggestion. Before delinting, have your seed germinated on both at 78 and 65 temperature. We have both at no cost. 1960 seed have fair germination but very low in vigor. We suggest saving your 1960 seed for a later planting if necessary. If your ginner can't furnish you with strong seed we have a few Lamesa grown Gregg that are very reasonable in price.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

'Loophole Bill' Is Passed By House

BY VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — Texas Senate now has a tax bill — one designed to wipe out about half the deficit that is expected to be about $63,000,000 when the new fiscal year starts Sept. 1.

Revenue-raising measures must be passed by the House before they can be considered by the Senate, and the upper chamber has waited with House to send it something to work on.

Passed 85-to-60 by the House was the so-called "loophole bill" by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger.

It is a sort of catchall bill that (1) plugs up some leaks in the revenue bill passed last session, taxing central air conditioners, juke boxes, etc., (2) provides for a transfer of 1 per cent of the permanent school fund to the available school fund, (3) sets up a two-factor formula for corporate franchise taxes and (4) levies a state gift tax of one-half the federal gift tax.

Caption of the Ballman bill is broad enough that a variety of other money-raising plans could be added to it should legislators be able to agree to them.

Meanwhile, the House Revenue and Taxation Committee still has a lot of other tax bills in the mill. Three sales tax bills were sent to subcommittee, as well as a hotly debated proposal to levy a 10 per cent tax on trading stamps.

A trading company spokesman said there is only a three per cent profit on the operation and that a 10 per cent tax would put them out of business.

On the other hand, stamps were attacked as "counterfeit money" and an unnecessary burden on both merchant and consumer.

STRIKE THREE — Texas Supreme Court made short work of a 1959-passed tax law that many lawmakers had hoped would be a potent future revenue raiser.

Without issuing an opinion, the high court agreed with the trial court and civil appeals court that the severance beneficiary tax on gas is unconstitutional.

Although three state courts have turned thumbs down on the gas tax, the last chapter remains to be written by the U. S. Supreme Court. As passed in 1959, the gas tax was low (1 1/2 per cent of market value), but supporters had indicated that if the law survived its court battles, the rate would be raised to bring in more money.

LADIES SCORE IN HOUSE — House has passed and sent to the Senate a proposed constitutional amendment that would automatically erase all statutes that treat women differently from men.

Rep. Ben Atwell's very brief amendment states that "equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex." It passed the House 135-to-10.

Senators have misgivings about causing such sweeping changes in the law. Some 44 statutes would be affected.

LOAN FIGHT SHAPES UP — House members are coming to grips with one of the session's toughest issues — regulation of small loan companies.

House Committee on Banks and Banking reported to the floor a bill authored by Rep. Criss Cole of Houston. It is being subjected to widespread criticism, but Cole, long-time veteran of the loan regulation effort, declared that no bill was going to satisfy all the interested factions.

Cole's bill sets up a sliding scale that would allow interest rates of just under 40 per cent on loans of $100 and dropping gradually to about 11 per cent on a $3,000 loan. It also allows for "reasonable insurance charges," at rates set by the State Board of Insurance.

Abner McCall of Waco, spokesman of a statewide committee for sound loan laws, said the interest rates were too high and that the limit on credit insurance charges should be clearly defined.

BREWERIES (PRO & CON) — Legal restrictions on breweries and the desirability of having breweries at all came up for spirited discussion before the Senate State Affairs Committee.

Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth is author of the House-passed bill that would give brewers of ale the privilege, as beer makers, to continue their operations in a territory after it is voted dry. It would also increase from one year to three years the time allowed a brewery to begin production after it got its license.

A large out-of-state manufacturer of ale is planning to build a $20,000,000 plant in Tarrant County. Any change would, of course, affect the whole state.

Supporters of the bill emphasized the new jobs and payroll it would create. Opponents, mostly ministers and church leaders, declared it would contribute to the problems of alcoholism.

PHONE RATES STUDIED — House State Affairs Committee is studying a bill by Rep. Don Struve of Campbellton that would place regulation of telephone service within the state's borders, in the hands of the Texas Railroad Commission.

Representative Struve says Texas is one of two states that do not have this sort of regulation and that other states have lower rates.

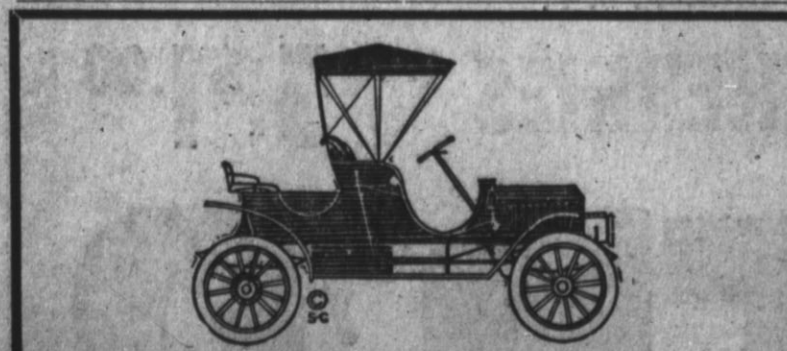

PRE-PAID FUNERALS DEBATED — Funeral directors and cemetery operators clashed before both House and Senate committee over a bill to restrict pre-paid funeral arrangements.

Funeral directors declared that their only desire was to protect the public by requiring that money paid in advance for funeral expenses be put in a trust fund.

Cemetery and mortuary operators retorted that the funeral directors wanted to discourage pre-paying of funeral expenses. They contended that families who make funeral arrangements at the time of bereavement spend more money than if arrangements are made in advance.

Residents Attend Club Anniversary

Mrs. Ed Warren and Mrs. Otis Dickey returned recently from a trip to Moriarty, N.M., where they attended the tenth anniversary dinner of the Moriarty Garden Club.

Featured speaker was Mrs. Rosalee Doolittle, who is Southwestern Editor of Better Homes and Gardens and author of "Southwest Gardening." Mrs. Doolittle, who is from Albuquerque, also is a National Rose Judge.

The event was held in the home of Mr. Moriarty, for whom the town was named. The picturesque old homestead is over 100 years old and is constricted of sawed logs.

Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Dickey also were entertained at a breakfast with Mrs. Garland Tillery and Mrs. Frank Sanyer sharing hostess duties. Also present at the breakfast was Mrs. Richard Ireland, a former resi-

For her pastime, Mrs. Buck enjoys reading. She doesn't read any particular books — just the current best sellers.

"Her favorite food is any kind of salads. She likes beige and certain shades of greens as her favorite colors."

Mrs. Buck's opinion of Hereford High School is that the students she has had have left a lasting impression on her. She says all the teachers are fine and very cooperative.

She really hadn't planned on being a teacher. She said it was just part of a perfect plan.

The two women were also guests in the home of Mrs. Willie Pogue.

Mrs. Langley Is Speaker At Club

Mrs. Ernest Langley was guest speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the Mon Amis Study Club of Summerfield. Mrs. Langley spoke on the topic of "Wills" to the group, which met in the Community Center for their regular meeting.

Mrs. David Hudgins was presented to the club as a new member.

Those attending were Mesdames Cliff Allmon, Bill Bell, Kenneth Christie, Charles Jacks, Jim Lookingbill, Bill Cotton, Raymond Wiley, Bob No land, Ted Godfrey, Laurence Jackson, the hostess, Mrs. Roy Botkin, and Mrs. Ernest Langley.

spring, Frank's ambition is to "get through college." He would like to go to West Texas or Texas Tech.

According to Frank, H. H. S. is a pretty good school. "Its standards are a little higher than most high schools, but I think that will help out a little in college," says Frank. Changing the lunch hours back to one period would be an improvement which he is all for.

"Get in good with all of your teachers," suggests Frank to any unfortunate underclassmen. His favorite subject is physical education because, "we get to talk more and fool around."

Of all his teachers, Frank enjoys Mr. Moore most because he gets along well with all the students. His pet peeve, are people who don't wave when riding around.

Riding around, whether it is in town or on his tractor, seems to be his biggest pastime. He likes to ride around town when he isn't at home driving the tractor.

Planning

Most of us understand the importance of good materials, proper location of heating units and well arranged rooms, when we are to build a house. But a life? Doesn't that just plan itself? Is not a man's life determined in the stars? Is he not the victim of fate? Or do we have something to say about it? The poet challenged himself, "Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul." Am I in some measure the "master of my fate"? To ask such questions is to answer them. Our inquiry proves our sense of freedom and our sense of responsibility. Then, how early should I start my plans? The answer is now! Of course, we should plan for today, tomorrow and for eternity. We must determine what to aim for. Whether we are young or old, with the help of the church and God, we may live forever.

You In The Church The Church In You

Do-It-Yourself Vacations

Make Hit With Families

A record-breaking number of families in America are bound for camping expeditions in the country's national parks this summer.

Last summer's figure of 4,738,947 days of camping is certain to be topped in 1961, say officials of the National Park Service in Washington.

This enthusiasm for the country's natural wonders has overwhelmed the service.

Parks like Yosemite are faced with an ever-increasing demand for campsites. Officials have been forced to limit the length of stay during June, July and August.

Friday at 7:30 p.m. is the Service Meeting Ministry School.

The National Park Service is working hard on its program to develop 30,000 additional campsites by 1966. These should accommodate more than 90,000 campers each night. But planners say the national park's alone cannot cope with the demand for camp sites.

And best of all, says Miss Musselman, a family camping trip is inexpensive, a boon to budgets in this inflationary period.

The Newest Developments Is HYBRIDS

SCOTT 500

Here is a short-stalked, red grain hybrid with great yield potential and wonderful stand ability. Stalk height is about 12 inches shorter than RS 610. Red Grain (darker than RS 610 grain) on very large medium-dry heads. About same maturity as TX 660 and outstanding in ability to stand and to yield. Adapted to dryland or irrigation. 110 days to mature.

SCOTT 450

An early grain hybrid of about the same maturity as RS 610. It is very similar to Scott 500 (above) but earliness makes this an outstanding hybrid for areas needing this factor. Red grain, large heads, high yield and shorter stalks make Scott 450 a highly desirable early grain hybrid. 95 days to mature (12 to 18 shorter than 610).

A GREAT PAIR OF TRUE COMBINE HEIGHT HYBRIDS.

Up In the Air

BY BENNY WOMBLE We have had quite a lot of local news as well as having some prominent visitors at the airport the last two weeks.

There is a new instructor at the airport now. He is John Walters and he comes here from Dallas. He is employed by a local spraying concern and is giving instruction when he is not flying a sprayer or duster. I think everyone will like John as he is quite friendly. I understand he has been an instructor for over ten years.

Among our visitors are Bob West from Ft. Sumner, N.M., for a dental appointment; L.S. McCarty and H. C. Williams from Morton, Tex., in a Beech Bonanza on business; Glenn E. Miller flying a Piper Super Cub from Lincoln, Neb., and is with Miller Seed Co; Bob Kleberg in a Mooney from Kingsville, a foreman of the famous King Ranch in here to inspect cattle; Will Wilson in a Twin Beech doing some campaigning; B. F. Block from Sunray, flying a Bellanca and B. F. is in the Machine Shop business;

Kelly G. Newman from Plainview flying a Bellanca and he is in the grain storage business; Harry Buffington, a coach from Stillwater, Okla., in a Bonanza in here to interview prospective ball players; Lindal Kenley and W. A. Renfro from Lubbock in a 180 Cessna and they are in the printing business; and last, but not least, Jim Wright, another politician in Bill Decker's 310 Cessna.

The boys at the airport have started just recently keeping a log at the airport of arrivals. I am sure that the above-mentioned flyers are only a fair sample of the kind of businesses represented here by the visitors. Everyone of the above named are here on business; not a one on pleasure. The airplane is continuing to be an efficient business tool every year that passes.

The boys are doing a lot of shop work. They have about six airplanes down for repair and, maintenance now. They are working on a Comanche, a 140 Cessna, a Stinson, a 182 Cessna, a 120 Cessna, and a Funk. All but two of these six are local airplanes.

In case it is still news, Bud Paetzold and his wife had a forced landing Sunday near the old Amarillo City Lake. I do not know exactly what happened except it was reported engine trouble. The important thing to me in this is the fact that through proper forced landing training, Bud and Mrs. Paetzold were not even scratched, and the airplane wasn't either.

Flying an airplane, to me, is like driving. You can either be safe or you can be unsafe in either one. In this article, I don't pretend to gloss over the fact there is danger in the air. I simply think that there is danger in any moving vehicle, re-

LACKLAND AFB, Texas — Airman Joseph A. Wilhelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilhelm of Hereford, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic military training.

He has been selected to attend the technical training course for Aircraft and Missile Electrical Repairman at Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois. He is a graduate of Hereford High School. Upon completion of specialized technical training at Chanute Air Force Base, Airman Wilhelm will be assigned to an operational unit of the USAF Aerospace Force.

And the Monza Club Coupe, with its bucket-type front seats, lets you in on some ultra-comfortable driving.

Did you know Gasoline is Taxed at a Rate 5 Times as High as Diamonds?

IN TEXAS, YOU PAY 90¢ TAX ON 10 GALLONS OF GASOLINE

Gasoline taxes will be lowered— if the latest temporary Federal gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled by the 1959 Federal Highway Act.

Along with all good citizens, we are in favor of building the roads that the motoring public needs. But, in the last 10 years alone, Federal and State taxes nationwide on gasoline have skyrocketed 51%—skyrocketed to a point where gasoline, a basic commodity, is actually taxed at a rate five times as high as luxuries like diamonds and mink coats.

Must gasoline taxes be so high? Most people believe that gasoline taxes are high because the money is needed to pay for our national highway program. This is not so.

The fact is that out of every highway-user tax dollar collected last year by the Federal government, more than 40 cents was diverted to non-highway purposes.

If these highway-user tax revenues were spent for highways—as they should be—gasoline taxes could be lowered, and the highway program given a boost.

In fact, the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1959 provides that when the added temporary Federal gasoline tax expires on June 30th, 1961, as scheduled, some $802 million a year in highway-user taxes—now diverted to the U. S. Treasury's general fund—will instead be deposited in the Highway Trust Fund.

As a result, if the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled—the national highway program will actually get $225 million more each year than it now receives from the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase.

In January of this year, after an exhaustive 2-year survey of national transportation policy, a special U. S. Senate study group confirmed the wisdom of this decision.

This will be good news for you. You will be able to enjoy a steadily improving highway system, at a lower gasoline tax-rate.

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT TODAY'S HIGH GASOLINE TAXES

- In Texas, you pay 90¢ tax on 10 gallons of gasoline.
- You pay 9¢ tax a gallon—4¢ in Federal taxes plus 5¢ in State taxes.
- Gasoline is taxed at a rate 5 times as high as diamonds.
- The average Texas motor vehicle owner pays $78 a year in gasoline taxes.
- Since 1951 there have been three increases in the Federal gasoline tax alone.
- In the last 10 years, gasoline taxes nationwide have skyrocketed 51%—yet the national average price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period.

Up In the Air

BY BENNY WOMBLE We've had quite a lot of local news as well as having some prominent visitors at the airport the last two weeks.
