

Junior High Bomb Scare Is Hoax

A report of a bomb in Stanton Junior High School shortly before noon Wednesday turned out to be nothing more than a hoax.

The bomb scare was created by an anonymous caller who phoned the junior high saying, "You'd better get out. There's a bomb."

City Attorney Earnest Langley pointed out that incidents such as the bomb scare at Stanton Junior High School are punishable by both Texas and Federal statutes.

Under Texas law, a person shall be tried for the misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $200.

If the mail, telephone, telegraph or "other instruments of commerce" are used in such cases, the incident may be tried as a federal offense. Persons convicted may be imprisoned for not more than a year and fined up to $1000 or both.

Even though school officials thought the call may have been nothing more than a hoax, they were unwilling to take a chance and immediate emergency measures were taken.

The school was evacuated by a fire drill and the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office and Hereford Fire Department were alerted.

"Even though such calls may be 'crank calls,' the situation is serious," said Sheriff Lowell Sharp. "And we must take the necessary precautions which included evacuation and a thorough search of the building."

Concerning the "scare," Paul Stevens, school superintendent, said, "We feel like it is a prank, but you never know when someone is dead serious and you have to check the building out."

"There is always some element of doubt and the building had to be searched," he added.

The "bomb scare," the first in Hereford, sent the students and teachers out into the 30-degree weather where they waited for law enforcement officers, the fire marshal and school officials to check the building.

Classes were interrupted for about 20 to 25 minutes as the call came just before the noon hour.

In commenting on the seriousness of the prank, Stevens pointed out the loss of time to school students saying, "There was a serious loss of school for the 400 students and consisted of 200 hours of instruction alone."

He also called attention to the fact that such "pranks" may cause a panic and result in injuries to some students.

As the building was searched, the bomb went through every "nook and cranny."

Participating in the search besides Stevens, Sheriff Sharp, and Clay Angelo were Cuby Kitchens, L. B. Russell, Alex Glass, Kendall Williams, Marvin Tisdale, W. C. Allen and Wendall Maloney, according to reports.

After the call was received by Mrs. John Sims, school secretary, action began immediately to evacuate students from the school as quickly as possible.

A fire drill was called and law enforcement officials were notified. The group went through the building "in a hurry" but found nothing.

What might have been thought of as a bomb, turned out to be only a shoe box containing two water filled balloons.

School Board Okays Teacher Contracts For 1962-63 Term

BID TOTALS $61,639

County Contracts Wing For Hospital

County Commissioners signed a contract Monday for the construction of a small addition to the Deaf Smith County Hospital. The matter had been tabled for two weeks pending further study after bids were higher than had been anticipated.

Randall Building Company of Amarillo was the low bidder and will start work on Monday, March 19. Base bid was $59,987. Also accepted was one alternate, calling for the addition of terrazzo flooring, at an additional cost of $1,652.36. Total construction cost will be $61,639.36. The addition will include of-ice and record space, a new emergency room, with conversion of the present emergency room into another operating room, waiting room, library and staff conference room. It also will change the entrance to provide closer control over visitors.

Commissioners approved request from a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce beautification committee. The group asked that county prisoners be used when possible on improvement and beautification projects. The request had the strong approval of Sheriff Lowell Sharp. Commissioners endorsed the request, leaving its actual operation to the sheriff.

The court also approved the use of a county prisoner on custodial work in the court house. Custodian Raymond Bean and the sheriff both approved of the request. It was pointed out that the prisoner would replace the assistant custodian, who had resigned. This will eliminate $3600 in salary cost per year.

Vernon Inmon, manager of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc., and Knox Farr of Amarillo, with the Texas Highway Department, talked with the court about the Faculty members of the Hereford Rural-High School District were approved, for the most part, by the board Tuesday night for one-year contracts.

Board members heard recommendations in writing from the principals and superintendent. Previously approved for one-year contracts were school principals, coaches, special teachers and administrators. They also heard a report on the integration of five sixth grade Negro students.

Five teachers will retire at the end of the school year.

'Bring 'Em Back' Austin Adds To Capture Feats

Patrolman Ake Austin, the Hereford Police Department's "unusual animal man," has been at work again.

And, the Hereford law enforcement agency looked for the owner of a burro for two days. A white-faced cow was also apprehended at the same time, but its owner was located.

Austin, who added the burro to his growing list of animals Sunday, is also credited with bringing in a squirrel, an armadillo, and an opossum.

The burro, described as being light tan with zebra-like markings on its legs, was cornered Sunday afternoon in an alley. The animal was running loose in an area north of Union between Avenues I while letters of resignation, effective at the end of the term, have been accepted from five others.

Retiring are Olean Leggett, librarian and Latin teacher in high school; Byron Durham, junior high mathematics teacher; Mona McMaster, fifth grade teacher at Central Elementary; and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Killingsworth, teachers at Dawn School.

Those who have submitted letters of resignation include Jean Williams, high school English teacher; Alex Glass, junior high coach and social studies teacher; Sophie Snare, fourth grade teacher at Shirley Elementary; and Dale Stevens, sixth grade teacher at Northwest Elementary.

Alex Glass was approved by the board to become junior high assistant principal next fall.

Superintendent Paul Stevens announced that contracts for all first-year teachers in the system would be considered later, following additional observation and evaluation. He also announced that all teachers would be subject to re-assignment to the best interests of the school system. Those approved for new contracts Tuesday included: Billie Margaret Buck, Viola Chisholm, Jean Collard, Margaret Ann Durham, Kenneth Holt, James Hinkley, Charles Holt, Aldene Hudson, Martha Mackey, Margaret Madison, Mozelle Neill, David Patterson;

Harvey Penner, Dorothea Prowell, Jess Robinson, Alvin Smith, Joe Smith, Robert Thompson, Virgil Young, B. H. Baldwin, Caudie Ola Brown,

Seven-Year-Old Injured As Auto, Bicycle Collide

A seven-year-old girl was hospitalized and a Muleshoe resident received emergency treatment following the collision of an automobile and a bicycle on U. S. Highway 60, at its intersection with Lawton St. late Sunday afternoon.

The girl, Billie Jo Lemon, was thrown about 60 feet as the two vehicles collided. She was hospitalized with "multiple lacerations and abrasions on her head and right leg, a broken leg, and abrasions on her body," according to the investigation report.

Deaf Smith County Hospital authorities reported that she was in good condition at the hospital early Wednesday morning.

Hereford Loses 17-3, Slates 3 During Weekend

It was too cold Tuesday for football, much less baseball, but Hereford and the Amarillo Sandies played anyway in Amarillo. Hereford was as cold as the biting wind, while the Sandies took advantage of every opportunity.

When it was over, Amarillo had won 17-3. It was the second win against as many losses for the Sandies while it was the first loss after two wins for the Whitefaces.

Hereford will be trying to get back into the win column with three games this weekend. They will host the Berger Bulldogs here Friday, March 16, at 4 p.m. and journey to Pampa for a double-header Saturday, with the first game set for 1 p.m. (Continued on Page 2)

Campfire Girls Mark Birthday

"Wo-He-Lo" is the life's story of 297 girls who are celebrating their 52nd birthday this week.

Around Town

Mrs. Gertrude DeKock-Keehn, one of the country's best known spiritual life speakers, will be in Hereford Thursday, Friday and Saturday for a series of talks. She will speak at the Presbyterian Church at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. each day, will speak at the Episcopal Church at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and will be honored with a covered dish luncheon at the First Methodist Church fellowship hall at noon Thursday. The public is invited to attend the luncheon.

As part of Campfire Birthday Week observances here, Bluebirds will sponsor a "Heirloom Style Show and Exhibit" at the Campfire Hut from 2-4 p.m. Saturday, March 17. The public is invited to see the antiques and fashions handed down to Campfire Girls, Bluebirds, and Horizon Club groups have been practicing "work-health-love" since their formation in 1910 on the national front.

Campfire Girls were first organized here in 1928, and the first Campfire Council Charter was granted here in 1945.

Since that time, "Wo-He-Lo" has been in frequent practice by the girls who wear the Campfire or Bluebird uniform. Campfire girls, in their own way, have played an active part in community projects, and their activities have been responsible for training many of the housewives in Hereford today in the traits of personality and crafts.

Hereford girls are celebrating

Campfire Birthday Week this year, since they can point to one of the most successful years in the history of the local group.

Membership in the three Campfire levels here increased more than one-third, and members have been pointed out as one of the fastest growing groups in their district, including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas.

As one of the highlights of Campfire Week, five of the 20 groups will host an "Heirloom Style Show and Exhibit" at the Campfire hut Saturday from 2-4 p.m.

Bluebirds of Mrs. John M. Gooch will host the event, featuring exhibit of antiques and a fashion show of yesteryear's attire that has been handed down from generation to generation.

Also aiding in the presentation which is open to the public are Bluebird groups lead by Mrs. Bill Cargio, Mrs. Robert Hickman, Mrs. W. H. London Jr., and Mrs. Arthur Stoy.

Campfire girls strive for moral development, as well as training in many crafts, and will attend the church of their choice during Campfire Birthday Week this week. The girls will be in uniform.

"Hereford has been very good to Campfire Girls," says Mrs. Phillip Barkley, administrative secretary of the local group. "This year, for the first time, the Campfire organization said 'Thank you' to the United Fund and the Community for their support." (Continued on Page 2)

Water Heaters Said Cause Of Two Fires Here

Two hotwater tanks were apparently responsible for two separate fires resulting in heavy smoke and water damage in blazes Monday night and Tuesday afternoon.

Hereford Volunteer Firemen extinguished a small fire in an apartment located over a garage at 121 Ave. B Monday night.

The fire starting from a hot-water heater located in the garage, and worked its way into the insulation between the ceiling of the garage and the floor of the apartment above.

Although damage from the fire was light, heavy smoke damage resulted in the apartment, occupied by Ellen Messer and Ruby Stacy. The building is owned by Garland Cox. Ironically, the two occupants were preparing to move out of the building the next day.

A stubborn, smoldering, smoky blaze broke out in a hot-water heater closet in the home of H. V. Parvin at 235 Ave. B about 4:15 Tuesday afternoon. Volunteer firemen were at the scene for some time attempting

Man Sentenced To 30 Days On Weapon Charge

A 19-year-old Friona youth arrested here Sunday evening, was tried in County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding, Tuesday on a charge of carrying a prohibited weapon. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail and court costs.

Arrested after a complaint was filed, was Gordon Weldon Massey of Route 1, Friona. He was picked up in the 1100 block of 14th Street.

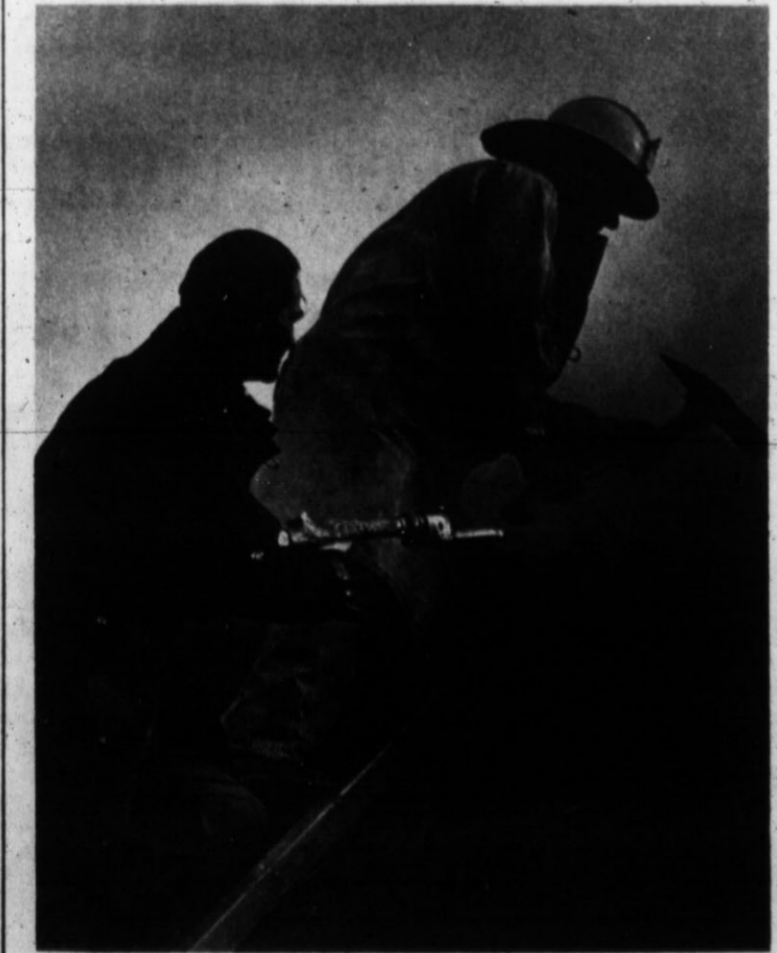

Massey allegedly was found driving out of the alley between Avenue I and J. Police officers, searching his car, found what was described as a hoe handle loaded with lead, according to the police report.

Probated Terms Given Two Men

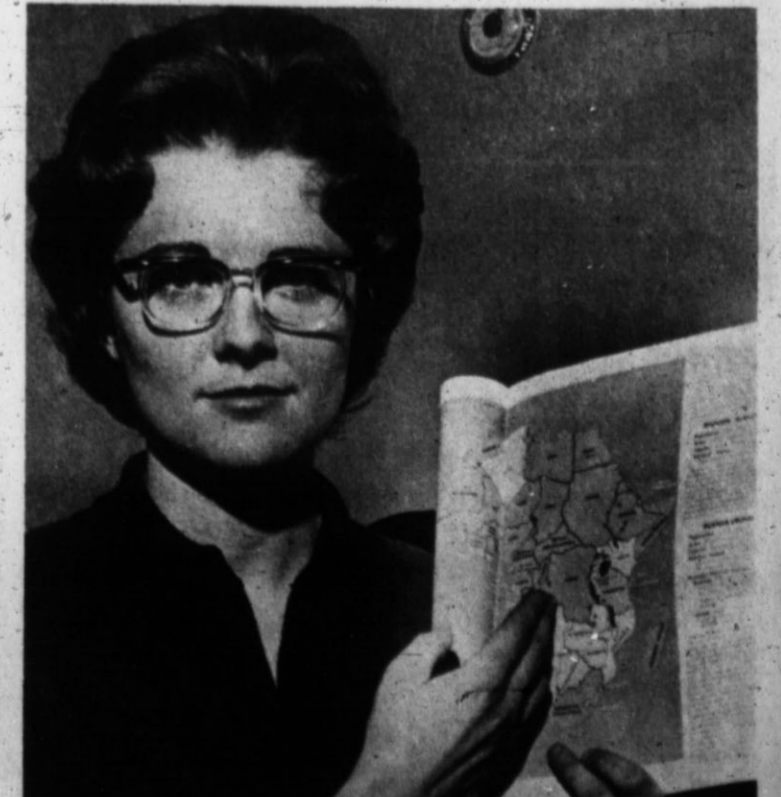

Two men appearing Monday in 69th District Court before Judge Harry Schultz received probated sentences of two and three years as court convened in regular session.

Sentenced to three years probation after entering a plea of guilty was Raquel Munoz, 31, 303 W. Second. Munoz had been charged by the Hereford Police Department for driving while intoxicated, second offense.

Willie Kerney Adams, 62, of Hereford, pleaded no contest to a charge of aggravated assault on a juvenile and was given two-year probated sentence. The charge against him had been reduced from fondling.

FIGHTING A STUBBORN BLAZE in the roof of a stucco dwelling at 235 Ave. B are Hereford Volunteer Firemen Glenn Nelson and Jap Dickerson, assistant chief. The fire, blamed on a hot water heater, caused heavy damage to the roof and ceiling of the H. V. Parvin home. The smoldering, smoky blaze broke out about 4:15 p.m. Tuesday and was the second fire in two days caused by hot water heaters. (Staff Photo)

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
I doubt if last Saturday was exactly what Donald Hicks had in mind when he said "we need rain", but the newcomers at least know what I meant back in January when I was predicting excessive high winds and dust for this spring. Fact is, even the old timers are talking about this one, and I have heard several compare it to the "dirty 30's." Elmo Fridley says he has seen it much worse, though, and that settles that.

I was smart enough to get out of town before it hit, but even then you can't win. I carried my father-in-law to Tucson, Ariz., and we got into four or five inches of snow the very first day. I wore my overcoat about half of the time, and spent the other half trying to figure out why so many people go to Arizona for the winter, when it was actually much warmer in the Panhandle. The country is really growing, though; they estimate the Tucson population at 250,000 these days — and are still building like mad. Alamogordo, Las Cruces and Deming, N. M., are some more towns which have enjoyed sensational growth during the past dozen years. I would have also mentioned Tularosa, but that's where I hit one of those speed traps and got fined $15 by a Latin American J. P., and I don't want to say anything good about that place. If you ever start out on U. S. 54, be double careful. The cop said he knew "a fat boy" in the insurance business in Hereford, but he kept right on filling out the ticket... even after I mentioned a name or two.

Charley Holt is just back from California, where he says the weather is not exactly the best. He had one of those 2 1/2 pound lemons, almost as big as a basketball, but I never could figure out what he plans to do with it.
Earnest and Mrs. Langley are back from the East Coast, where they attended the national Rural Electrification meeting, and also encountered considerable weather in the big blow which tied things up. The story is that they were on the 15th floor of a big hotel — and had no elevator service, due to loss of electric power in the area. They furthermore found it a bit tough to read by candlelight. All in all, the point I am trying to make is that the windy dust storm, bad as it was, could have been worse. But my wife insists if I had to clean up after one of those dusters I would see things otherwise, and she might be right.

Out in Arizona they say the wild horses are fast 'disappearing,' and folks are beginning to wonder what will happen to the dogs, when there are no more horses from which to make dog food. A big segment of our grocery dollars go for dog food, and some observers say it would affect our national economy.
Meanwhile, the fertilizer business seems to be picking up these days, which is a little bit rough on the coffee spots, and you can see tail water running down the bar ditches most any direction you drive. All of which indicates that spring is just around the corner, regardless of a late Easter this year. I wouldn't be surprised any day now to have Ike Crosthwait or Wallace Cox report that they have spotted a robin or two. One thing for sure, though, we won't have to listen to folks brag about their fruit crops. This particular situation appears to be fairly well out of the running, due to late cold spells.

For a long time I have been wondering if they withhold the tax on salaries of congressmen, senators and other government officials? It seems to me that they should, but you never can tell.

is better to receive than to give. Both customs seem to grow stronger with age, however, so I guess I am jumping to the wrong conclusion again.
Housewives should be on guard concerning student solicitation for magazines, cards, stationary and other gimmicks. The Wall Street Journal reports that more and more big companies are turning to school groups and juveniles to boost product sales. The situation, they indicate, will expand tremendously within the next few weeks and months.
People do like Negro Minstrels, according to the Lions Club bulletin, which showed a total income of $1,587.71 from the recent Hereford club production. Expenses still have to be deducted, but estimates leave from $1,000 to $1,100, which Lions Club boss Cleo Meharg says will be used on community benefit projects.

There was quite a bit of excitement around Stanton J. High Tuesday when the building was evacuated as the result of a telephone call declaring that a bomb had been planted on the premises. Authorities "almost knew" it was hoax but, like the airline crews, they could not afford to take even an off chance. I do hear, however, that such hoaxes are subject to heavy fine and severe penalties — and under the circumstances I'll bet the offenders would get the works. Anyway, they should, especially when you stop to think how much a prank of this kind costs the tax payers of the school district.
Meanwhile, if you can remember back when every question had only two sides, you don't have to worry about the draft.

Biscuits Are Baked At Workers 4-H Club

Mar. 9, Friday, members of the Hereford Workers 4-H Club met in the home of Jane Wilhelm for the regular meeting. Vicky Koelzer, president, presided at the business session.
Donna Nivens called the roll. The meeting time was changed from the second Thursday in the month to the fourth Thursday in the month. The next meeting will be in the home of Vicky and Barbara Brownlow, 105 Emma Street. Connie Hoover was welcomed as a new member. Partners were chosen for the method demonstration to be held on Saturday, Mar. 31.
The program chairman, Ruth Koelzer, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Loretta Fowler, who gave a demonstration on sweet milk biscuits. She gave some pointers in the baking of sweet milk biscuits and ways that they differ from other types of biscuits. Biscuit making and baking will be one of the projects featured in the bake show that is to be held soon. The club members judged the biscuits that were baked.
The hostess, Jane Wilhelm, served a cake that she had baked and punch to those present who were Connie Hoover, Kaylanette Battenfield, Barbara Brownlow, Vicky Brownlow, Marsha Horton, Vicky Koelzer, Ruth Koelzer, Glenda Sims, Miss Loretta Fowler, the guest speaker, and the leaders, Mrs. Battenfield and Mrs. M. Rites Held For Mrs. Viola Nunn

Last rites in the memory of Mrs. Bessie Viola Nunn, 66, long-time Deaf Smith County resident, were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday, Mar. 12, at the First Presbyterian Church.
The Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.
Mrs. Nunn died at 1:15 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 10, in Deaf Smith County Hospital. She had been ill for about four months.
She was born Feb. 4, 1896, in Carlton and was married to W. H. Nunn in Jacksboro on July 17, 1917. The couple moved to Deaf Smith County in 1918 from Swisher County. Mrs. Nunn made her home at 501 East 9th. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.
Survivors include two sons, W. H. (Bill) Nunn Jr. of Friona; Elmore Nunn of Amarillo; a daughter, Mrs. Rosa Lee McBride of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. May Ardis of Tulsa; and 11 grandchildren.

Members Of 4-H Club Study Hair Styling

Mrs. George Turrentine presented the program on "Hair Styling" at the regular meeting of the Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H Club on Mar. 2 in the Westway Community House. Mrs. Turrentine showed the girls many different types of pin curls and varied hair styles.

gen Draper. Mrs. Draper, in her program, tested water for hardness, which is a great help in choosing the right kind of detergent and determining if a water softener is needed. She had a display for the members to see of the different kinds of detergents, soaps, water softeners and bleaches available through the local stores. The discussions brought out the advantages and disadvantages of different products, explaining personal preferences for certain merchandise.

Visitors present were Mrs. Jerry Northcutt and Wanda Northcutt. Members present were Mesdames Ruth Coleman, G. E. Pinkerton, J. E. Rouse, Elmer Northcutt, Argen Draper and the hostess, Mrs. E. M. Jack.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jack Buse.

The Deanery chairmen were reminded to get their reports completed before the spring meeting.

The convention will be held on Tuesday, April 3, with members of St. Mary's Parish in Umberger as hosts. The program will begin at 9 a.m. with registration and coffee. A Mass will be offered at 11:30 a.m. for the success of the Ecumenical Council.

Theme of this year's convention is "That All May Be One." Seventeen ladies attended the meeting.

Happy Homemakers Study Safety Belts

The Happy Homemakers Home Demonstration Club met Mar. 5 in the home of Jeanette Hodges for a program on "Safety Belts".

Kay Bell, president, presided at the business meeting at which time Helen Polvadore was elected chairman of the scrapbook committee. Secret pals were chosen.

The program began with roll call that was answered with ways of improving youth and adult relations. "Safety Belts" was the topic of the program given by Kay Bell. She gave reasons why safety belts are recommended by the American Medical Association, U. S. Public Health Service, National Safety Council, and others. The speaker gave a demonstration on how seat belts can save lives and discussed the installation of belts in cars.

Visitors to the meeting were Mrs. Charles Brown and Mrs. Leroy Wilson. Members present were Mesdames Kay Bell, Sandy Pierce, Beverley Ruland, Natha Carroll, Jean Collier, Jeanette Hodges and Helen Polvadore.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Witherspoon the past weekend were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bowe Sr. of San Jon, N. M.; Forrest B. Bowe of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. George D. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Larue Fuqua and daughter, all of El Paso; F. G. Witherspoon, George D. Young and Mrs. Ted Roberts, all of Albuquerque, N. M.; and Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Withers of Amarillo. They were here to attend funeral services for their brother and uncle, Harold G. Bowe of Happy, a former pioneer resident of Hereford. All of the guests returned to their homes Sunday and Monday.

Plants and animals that die in peat bogs, called muskogs in North America, are preserved for posterity. They retain their shape indefinitely.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Music Lessons, Three Busy Sons Keep 'Pic' Occupied

Mrs. W. T. (Bill) Thompson, who resides at 518 Avenue J, is the busy mother of three sons. Pic, (as her friends call her), teaches piano lessons in addition to all the duties of managing an efficient household, still finding time to visit with sick neighbors and practicing "good deeds" each day.

Mrs. Thompson is active in the community social affairs, being a working member of the Hereford Music Club, La Plata Study Club, a couple's bridge club, and many other activities in conjunction with her husband's work as manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

The activities of their children are important to them: Boy Scouts for both Tyler and Kerry; science projects that Tyler works with, using his chemistry set; Kerry, his paper route, his current interest in magic tricks and his pet cat, Duchess; and Brian Lee, Brian Lee's favorite toy, at the moment, is Kerry's rubber bands if Kerry forgets to put them away before going to school.

Mrs. Thompson is a native of Ohio but feels that she can now be called a "full-fledged Texan" after living in the state for a number of years. The Thompson family has several favorite foods they wish to share with everyone. Won't you try them?

(wet weather) lakes in the area. They will make detailed studies of nine such lakes, which collect huge amounts of water, most of which evaporates before being used by man.

Just as soon as possible, we would like to forget Tuesday's baseball game. It was far too cold to even be playing. Tascosa and Dumas cancelled their game for a day. Leveland must have felt the same way we did. They lost to Lubbock, 18-1. Most of Hereford's fans came expecting to sit in cars, but found that wasn't allowed. Among those who shivered and shook for the game were Mr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and their daughter, Ed Skypala, and Debs Knox. We felt particularly sorry for cheerleaders Toni Parker, Jan Reese, Joyce West and Joy Story. Even the players were wearing cotton gloves when they batted and practiced in a futile effort to stay warm.

Perhaps things will be different when Hereford plays Borger here Friday. Then the Whitefaces make the long trek to Pampa for a doubleheader on Saturday. Their schedule calls for four more games next week, so they will be getting lots of opportunity to play.

Campfire Girls have a birthday. And a special treat on Saturday. They're putting on a heirloom show about things from "the good old days". So make your plans, now, to go.

The board also approved the recommendation for hiring of Mrs. Marie Gordon as a fifth grade teacher in Aikman School for the 1962-63 term.

Stevens said enrollment was climbing again, with 2,889 students Tuesday, compared with 2,839 for the same day in February and only 2,731 for the same time in March, 1961.

Also reported was the annual school census total, which shows 3,365, compared with 3,258 for the same time last year. This total shows the number of children who will be of school age for the 1962-63 year.

Stevens also discussed the district's obligation to the Texas Permanent School Foundation for the coming year. It will be seven per cent higher than the current amount paid by the district, he pointed out.

Obligation for 1961-62 was $187,060. This will be increased to $210,657, he said. A change in the state law is needed, Stevens commented. He described how the economic index is figured and declared that it is unfair. Each district is figured on a number of factors, including payroll agriculture, sales, and manufacturing. The inequity, he said, comes as agriculture is figured on the total gross production income, without any allowance for the cost of production. Manufacturing, on the other hand, is figured only on the net value added by the manufacturing process.

Stevens also reported that five Negro students had been moved from the sixth grade at Parkview into classes at Aikman and Central Elementary Schools. This had been recommended by the citizens' study committee, the Parkview Parent-Teacher group and concurred by the board. Still remaining in the Negro school are 53 students, with two teachers.

Stevens said the remaining students from Parkview would be integrated as the occasion arose. Hereford's junior and senior high schools have been integrated for several years.

Board members voted to purchase two 48-passenger buses, at an approximate cost of $10,000.

Trustees reviewed the current budget and expenditures. They concluded that they will end the school budget year with a slight reserve.

League Contest Entrants Eligible For Scholarships

Each year the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation offer a number of other groups offer scholarships to participants in League contests. To be eligible, one must be at least a representative at a regional meet. The more entries, the better the chance of procuring a scholarship.

The following is a schedule of the events, the place where they are held, and the date. Also included are the sponsors to contact to enter any specific contest. As an entry, one may be eligible for any of a number of scholarships in an area, so all the groups sponsoring-tuition fees will be given also.

All literary events will be held in Frank Phillips College in Borger, on March 29. These include journalism, debate, persuasive speaking, prose reading, poetry interpretation, science, extemporaneous speaking, number sense, slide rule, and declamation ready writing. The teachers sponsoring these applicants are Mr. Hinkley, Miss Mackey, and Miss Ward.

The track and field meets will be held April 7 in Levelland. If anyone is interested in this, contact one of the coaches for additional information. The Golf meet will be in Hereford on April 3, and the tennis meet (singles or doubles) will be held in Amarillo if it is not

Choral Entries Win Awards At League Contest

The Interscholastic League Solo and Ensemble Contest was held in Amarillo on Saturday, March 3. The entries are divided into three classes; the first class is the hardest, and if a "I" is made on it a gold medal is received. The second class winner gets a silver medal; and the third, a bronze.

The following is a list of the people who entered, the class in which they sang, and what they made. Donna Rogers and Mamie Silvertooth were the only two girls from Hereford to make "I" on class one songs. Ted Wimberly sang a class one song and made a "I", as did Mickey Bonasio, Dick Combs, and Ken Loerwald made "ones" on class two songs. Troy Gandy made a "II" on a class one song. Ruth Ann Allison and Carolyn Watkins made "II" on class one songs. Linda Martin, Diane Wilson, and Donna Cole all made "III" on class one songs. Linda Lemons and Fred Henry made "III" on class two songs.

The girls quartet from the girls' choir made a "I" on a class one song. The people who made "II" on class one songs go to state in the summer, but since there is no arrangement for ensembles there, the quartet's honors are going to be limited to the gold medals.

Hereford High School had very good representation at the contest, and the whole school should be proud of the entries.

Girls Have Waa Dee Going Out Of This World

Waa Dee Hudson took a flight into orbit this week to decide exactly who would be the ideal girl. After 4 hours and 55 minutes we received a report from him. His ideal girl would be friendly like Sammie Tisdale, and would have hair like Rhonda Neff. He thought Judy Fowlkes had sparkling eyes. The funniest of all these girls was Janie McBroom and Toni Lea Parker was his choice for the prettiest mouth. Nicky Bradford had the best personality and Audri Miller was the wittiest.

The intelligence went to Suzanne Langley and the most ambitious was Joyce Ann Johnson. After chatting with Kathryn Burrus, he decided that she was the bashful type. Judy Stone seemed to be the cutest, and Shari Prowell was very likeable. Martha Russell had a very dainty nose, and Mary Russell had pretty teeth. Geneva Logan was in the spotlight for the silliest, and Janie Noland was the number-one flirt.

The most mannerly of these girls was Nancy Edwards and the greatest was Judy Fowlkes. Kay Lemons seemed to be very thoughtful, Diana Robinson had very pretty hands, and Cynthia Seed was his choice for walk while Kathy Boston caught his eye for feet. To sum up his report Waa Dee said the best all-around girl was Judy Stone.

possible to hold the contest in Canyon at West Texas State. All regional meets will be in Odessa April 12, 23, and 14.

The following scholarships will be awarded regional representatives: Jesse H. Jones Interscholastic League Foundation Scholarships, $500 awards to ten participants in journalism, debate, persuasive speaking, prose reading, poetry interpretation, science, extemporaneous speaking, number sense, slide rule, and ready writing, who are planning to attend the University of Texas or Texas Western University.

Storybook Hero Found In Joy Story's Ideal

Joy Story brought out her storybook to find an ideal boy. In the first chapter she finds the combination of Joe Schultz's hair, eyes of Danny Cates, nose of Dennis Hodges, lips of Walker Parris, John Buck's hands, a smile exactly like Jerry Curt-singer's, and the walk of Butch McCaslin make up a real prince charming.

In the second chapter, she found the personality of Lynton Allred, the flirtatiousness of Jimmy Kassahn, the versatile personality of Charles Kelly, bashfulness of Joe Don Noland, friendliness of Butch Walterschied, talent of Dick Combs, silliness of Mickey Bonasio, the good sportsmanship of Randy Dowell, the manners of Jay Carter, and the wittiness of David Dowell made for a perfect hero, indeed!

In the next chapter all she found was the additional handsomeness of Dan McDowell and the cuteness of Ronnie Duncan.

The last chapter was indicative of the best-all-around guy, Dan McDowell.

Earl Smith Resigns High School Post

Hereford High School lost the services of Mr. Earl Smith as of Wednesday, March 14. He resigned to take the post of executive director of Kids, Incorporated, in Amarillo. In his new position, Mr. Smith will direct all the activity of the boys and girls' constructive athletic program in Amarillo. He also benefits from a substantial salary increase. Since he is very fond of youngsters, Mr. Smith will be well suited to do his work.

During the past year, Mr. Smith taught algebra and biology, and sponsored the journalism staff. He will be replaced by Mr. H. D. Yarbrough in all phases of his school activities.

Monday, March 12, the journalism staff honored Mr. Smith with a party held in his honor at the Community Center and

Hereford Wins Over Bulldogs

By Jerry Curtisinger
Whiteface Sports Writer

Led by the clutch hitting of Eugene Green, John Buck, Arnold Powell, Dan McDowell, and Mickey Stevens, and the combined pitching of Drew Kershen and Richard Casas, the Whitefaces dropped the Plainview Bulldogs 3-4 Tuesday afternoon, March 6, to win their opening game.

Fielder Arnold Powell led the hitters with three hits in four trips to the plate. Also having good days at the plate were John Buck going two for four, Dan McDowell getting two hits in four tries and catcher Mickey Stevens connecting two times out of three tries.

Drew Kershen going six innings, yielded the 1-AAAA Bulldogs only two runs on four hits before Casas took over in the top of the seventh inning to finish the game. Casas finished the game facing only five batters. Out of these five he struck out two and gave up only one hit. The Whitefaces got a scare thrown into them in the first inning as Plainview took the lead on a home run. The Bulldogs contained the lead until the final inning.

Leading 4-1 going into the last inning, the Bulldogs suddenly saw the Whitefaces come alive. With a man on first base, pinch-hitter Eugene Green blasted a home run over the left field to tie the score at 3-all. A couple of hits set the stage for a thrilling climax. First basemen Joe Mack Hale laid down a well-placed bunt to score the winning run by Arnold Powell.

Coach Williams said he was well pleased with the team's final effort. He is confident that after the Herd plays a few more games they will turn into a top notch ball club.

GUARDING THE PLATE, Pampa Harvester catcher Ricky Stewart kept Hereford outfielder Joe Cabrera from scoring in the bottom of the eighth inning in dusty action here Friday. Hereford gained the lead in the eighth, went behind in the ninth but came back to win 9-8 for its second victory of the season. (Brand Staff Photo)

Members of the junior class were busy Tuesday taking National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests. Some seventy juniors took the tests, the results of which should qualify them for college scholarships.

Tests covered a wide range of students' knowledge and abilities, with high concentration in science, math, and English, as well as social studies.

Scores from the test will be used to select deserving students for National Merit Scholarships and also used by other concerns who give scholarships in selecting recipients.

EDITORIAL

Words--Index To Your Inner Mind

BY MARTHA PONDER
WHITEFACE EDITOR

Little minds discuss people; average minds discuss events; great minds discuss ideas.

Stop a minute and see what sort of mind you are exposing before you speak. It doesn't take an original or intelligent mind to run somebody down or talk about them behind their back. Anyone can criticize and everybody does to some extent. When we speak in a degrading way about someone else, we are only degrading ourselves and advertising the fact that we have a mind.

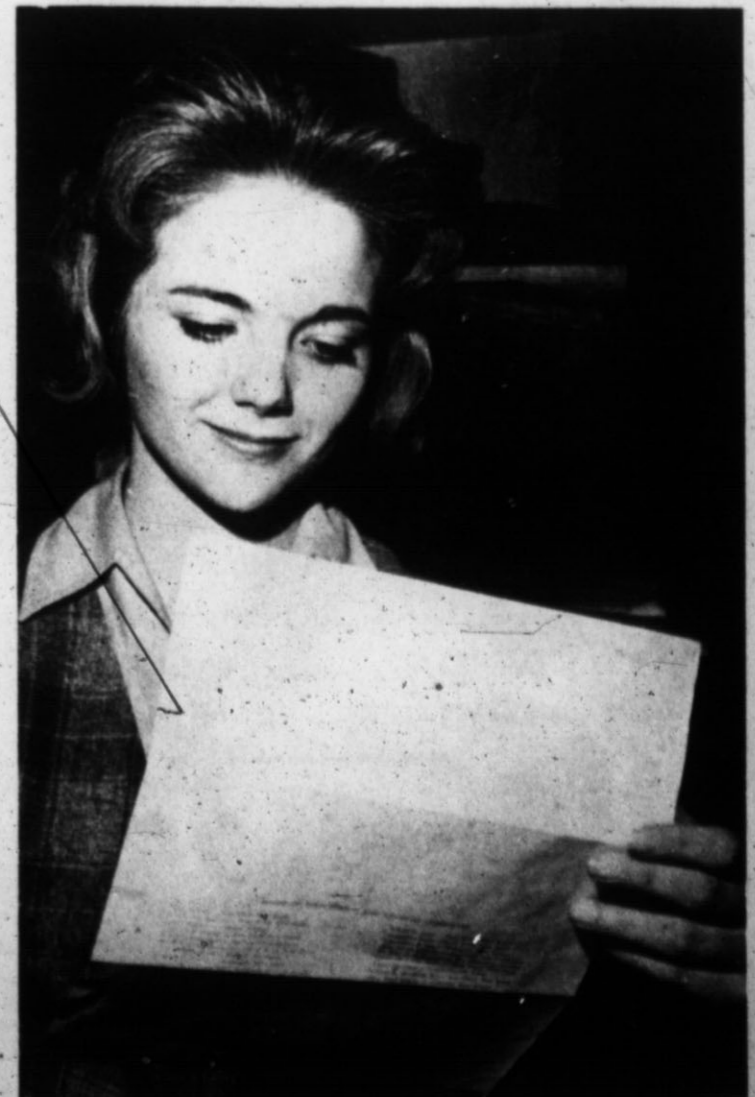

Now, an average mind can consider events that have happened and relate a series of facts. That, too, does not require much intelligence or originality. Most people can read, so it is necessary to do more than just discuss events to give an enlightening viewpoint. We must strive for a great mind.

In doing this, we are discussing ideas, suggestions for improvements in the world around us, and there is much to work for in that field. One thing is obvious to me, and that is the fact that it takes more foresight and more thought to bring a new idea into light and to support that idea with logical and valid reasons than any other thing. In this way, we train ourselves to be upbuilding to all around us, and build up ourselves mentally and morally as well.

Putting these thoughts into practice, it would be indicative of a small mind to say, "Teachers can certainly make it hard on us students when it comes to geometry tests!" An average mind would remark, "That geometry test was surely hard; I wish I hadn't flunked it," but a truly great mind might put all three into one comment: "Pythagoras was wise, but if he hadn't been as smart as he was, I could have passed my geometry test."

Answers Given To Students On College Problem

By Whiteface Staff

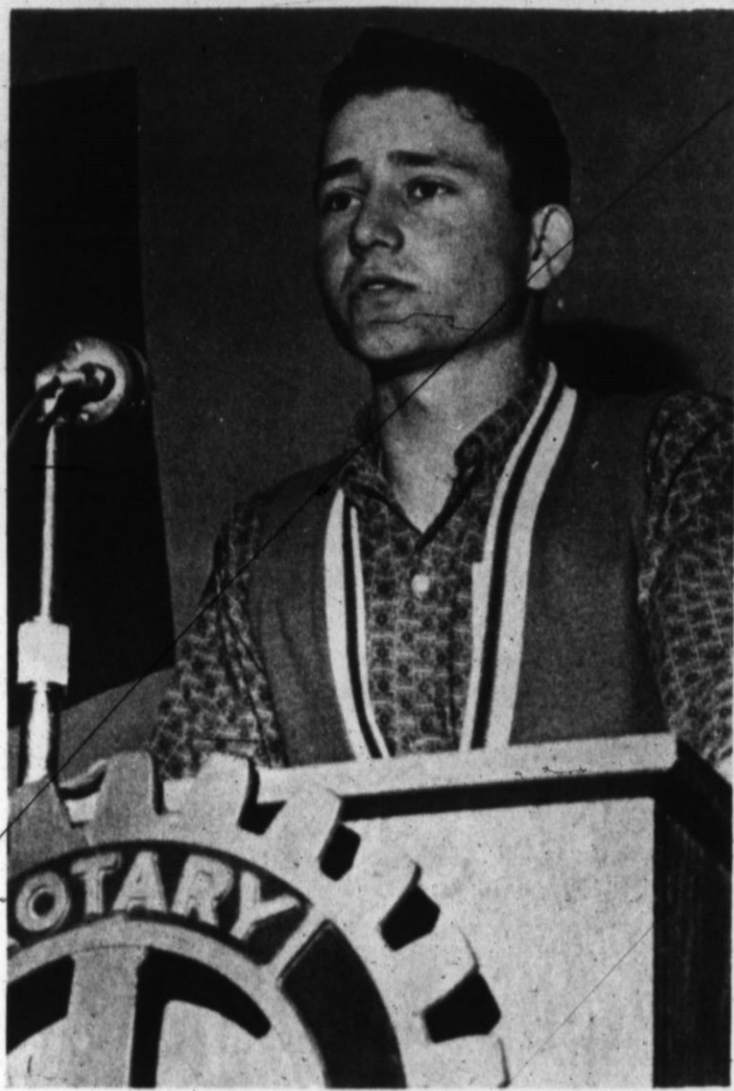

Some of the Whiteface Staff decided to acquire some information that will probably be helpful to all high school students, especially seniors. The staff inquired at several colleges in order to help pupils understand what some of their problems will be when they enter college. The colleges were West Texas State College, Texas Technological College, University of Texas, Baylor University, Abilene Christian College, and Trinity University.

The first of the three questions asked the colleges was what subject freshmen find the hardest. Their answers were that English and science were the hardest. The reason was because the students did not know how to study.

The second question was why there are so many students to drop out of college. Their answers were because they would lose their interest, they would run out of money, and some would get married.

The third question was what preparations should students make for college. Their reply was that the students should start studying as much as possible in high school, and really learn the right way to study.

The staff hopes this will help the students of Hereford High School start preparing for college.

KEY CLUB PRESIDENT, Drew Kershen, spoke recently at the regular meeting of the Hereford Rotary Club outlining the program and activities of the youth service organization at the high school. Drew Kershen, president of the Hereford High School Key Club, speaking at a recent meeting of the Rotary Club, outlined the history of the club and told of its activities in Hereford.

As he spoke, Kershen told the group that the activities of the club are not limited to the high school. Club members can get out and work in the community.

He cited as examples the club's participation in the United Fund Drive and March of Dimes as well as helping sell tickets to the Sugar Beet Forum held here in November.

The club, he continued, has also helped the Kiwanians sell mops and brooms and with the Embarrassing moments are many in Maribeth's life, but she declares the most embarrassing one was when she had two dates out at her house at the same time.

Maribeth's ambition is to graduate from Hereford High in 85 more days, go to college, and major in home economics.

Her high school career has been distinguished by being honored with the title of "Farmer of the Year." Seriously, she has acquired the titles of Senior Class Favorite, Senior Class Secretary, and D. E. Sweetheart this year.

Advice to underclassmen that Maribeth has to give in this "When you become a senior, stay at home on Sunday afternoon."

Donna Rogers

Donna Rogers, the bright-eyed opera star of Hereford High School, has decided that her ambition is to teach music in public schools. She plans to get her education at Baylor, where she'll major in music.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of 311 Irving St. in Hereford. She was born on Nov. 22, 1943.

Her versatile personality is verified when Donna says, "I don't have any dislikes in high school." She enjoyed choir trips and putting on South Pacific more than anything else in high school.

Donna has many favorites and among them are these: food, fruit; book, The Robe; colors, green and blue; song, "Moon River"; class, choir; and teacher, all of them.

She has one pet peeve. "People who don't try to do their best." So, you loafers had better behave.

Donna's beautiful voice has taken her many places. One place of which she is very proud is to the All-State Choir this year. She was an alternate last year. As such, she has been in the All-Regional Choir both years. This year, the sextet couldn't get along without her.

Donna is a member of the mixed choir, Tri-Hi-Y, journalism, and National Honor Society, in which she is historian this year.

"My most embarrassing moment," says Donna, "was when we were at Corpus. I was running up the stairs to go to my room. I banged on the door and a boy came out and asked me what I was doing on their floor. I had made a small error."

Being an All-State choir member was one of her most exciting moments. Another was when she was able to play "Bloody Mary" one night in South Pacific.

"Pack just as much fun as you can into your high school days," is Donna's sensible advice to underclassmen.

annual barbeque during the Harvest Festival.

Each year, the club also sponsors a leadership banquet to better acquaint high school club leaders with the activities of the school, he stated.

"The club is planning to sponsor a career day," said Kershen. "It will be most helpful and important since students need to think about what they are going to do."

In discussing what the club has meant to him, Kershen said, "I think Key Club is the greatest thing that ever happened to me. It is just the feeling that I am going to grow up after all."

"The club has taught me how to meet all kinds of people and not be scared," he continued.

Kershen pointed out that the club has helped make the high school better.

"Key Club has made the high school better," he said. "We are always working on school spirit and like to brag that we had something to do with improving it."

"It helps to have a winning football and basketball team, too," he added with a grin.

Kershen expressed his thanks to the Kiwanis Club for help and advice saying, "We are not able to measure how much they have helped us."

He also singled out the work of Robert Thompson, club advisor, Bill Patton and Markem Waddill in assisting the club.

Group Foods For A Closer Study Of Grocery Expense

BY ARGEN DRAPER

Women are interested in studying the food dollar. There are two steps to take in keeping food accounts. Take everything on the grocery list that isn't eaten (By people, that is. Pet food doesn't count in the food bill). Divide the grocery tape items into the four food groups: Milk, Cheese; Meat, Fish, Eggs; Vegetables, Fruit; Bread, Cereals.

MILK GROUP
Some milk for everyone. Children . . . 3 to 4 cups
Teen-agers . . . 4 or more cups
Adults . . . 2 or more cups

MEAT GROUP
Two or more servings. Beef, veal, pork, lamb poultry, fish, eggs
As alternates — dry beans, dry peas, nuts

VEGETABLE-FRUIT GROUP
Four or more servings
Include — A citrus or other fruit or vegetable important for vitamin C
A dark-green or deep-yellow vegetable for Vitamin A — at least every other day.
Other vegetables and fruits including potatoes

BREAD-CEREAL GROUP
Four or more servings
Whole grain, enriched, or re-stored

MILK GROUP
Included are:
Milk . . . fluid whole, evaporated, skim, dry, buttermilk.
Cheese . . . cottage; cream; cheddar-type — natural or processed.
Ice Cream.

Contribution to Diet:
Milk is our leading source of calcium, which is needed for bones and teeth. It also provides high-quality protein, riboflavin, vitamin A, and many other nutrients.

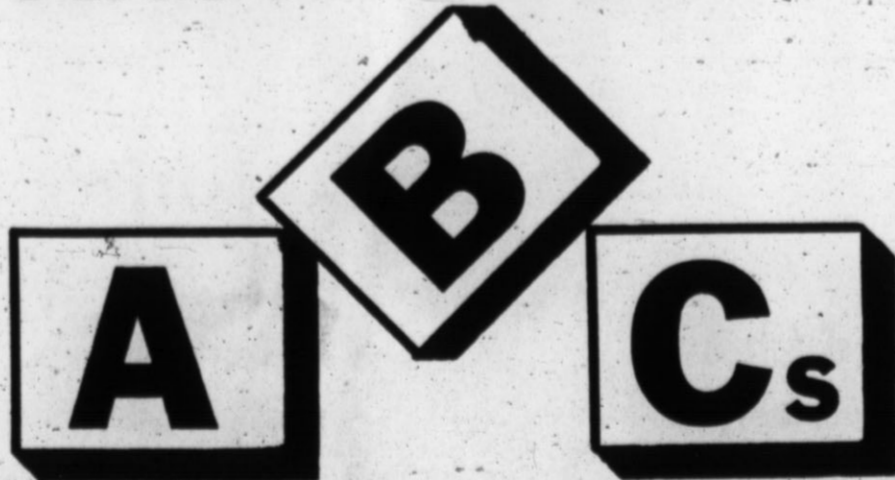

Amounts Recommended
Some milk every day for everyone.
Recommended amounts a re given below in terms of whole fluid milk:

- 8-Ounce Cups
- Children . . . 3 to 4
- Teen-agers . . . 4 or more
- Adults . . . 2 or more
- Pregnant women . . . 4 or more
- Nursing mothers . . . 5 or more
- Part or all of the milk may be fluid skim milk, buttermilk, evaporated milk, or dry milk.
- Cheese and ice cream may replace part of the milk. The amount of either it will take to replace a given amount of milk is figured on the basis of calcium content. Common portions of various kinds of cheese and of ice cream and their milk equivalents in calcium are:
- 1 — cube cheddar-type cheese equals 2/3 cup milk
- 1/2 cup cottage cheese equals 1/3 cup milk.
- 2 tablespoons cream cheese equals 1 tablespoon milk
- 1/2 cup ice cream equals 1/4 cup milk

REP. ROGERS WRITES

House Bill Three Again Set For Congressional Action

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT:

On June 24, 1959, the House of Representatives passed a Bill numbered H. R. 3. This Bill had a deliberate and primary purpose to prevent Federal laws from striking down and overriding State laws in the absence of an irreconcilable conflict, unless the Congress affirmatively stated the contrary. H. R. 3 was called by the popular title "The States' Rights Bill." Its author was the Honorable Howard Smith of Virginia, Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House.

The need for this legislation grew out of the application of the doctrine of Federal preemption by the United States Supreme Court. H. R. 3 simply provides that no act of Congress shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the Congress to occupy the field in which such act operates, to the exclusion of all State laws on the same subject matter, unless such act contains an express provision to that effect, or unless there is a direct and positive conflict between such act and a State law so that the two cannot be reconciled or constantly stand together.

It has long been the recognized rule that acts of Congress take precedence over State laws where there is an irreconcilable conflict between the two. It has only been in recent years that the application of this doctrine has been extended to the nullification of State laws by the mere existence of a Federal statute, and where there is no conflict and where the Congress has not so expressed itself in the act being construed.

H. R. 3 simply spells out the proper application of the doctrine. It would not change the law where there is an irreconcilable conflict between a Federal statute and a State Law. It would not change the law where Congress, in passing an act, expressly stated that it was the intention of the Congress that the act superseded all State laws in that field.

It would nullify the decisions of the Supreme Court which have struck down State laws not in irreconcilable conflict with Federal law and when the Federal law does not expressly preempt the field.

Probably the most famous case involved and the one that prompted the introduction of H. R. 3 was the Steve Nelson Case. The Steve Nelson Case decision nullified a Pennsylvania sedition statute on the basic theory that the Federal Government had preempted the field between passage of the Smith Act of 1940 and various other Federal statutes dealing with National security. It is a strange coincidence that the author of the Smith Act referred to here is the same Howard Smith of Virginia who is author of the present H. R. 3.

Certainly Congressman Smith never intended that the Smith Act of 1940 should be so construed by the Supreme Court as to result in nullifying sedition laws in 42 states.

Congressman Smith has always been one of the leading advocates of States' Rights. He is a southern gentleman of the highest degree, and a man who has always subscribed to the dual sovereignty form of government with complete separate of powers as provided under the Constitution. Those of us who have supported him in his long and difficult fight to correct the decisions of the Supreme Court in this particular are looking forward to many obstacles and difficulties.

It is true that we were successful in passing H. R. 3 on June 24, 1959, by the vote of 225 to 192. It is regrettable that further action was not had during that session of the Congress in the Senate. Whether or not the lack of action at that time was due in whole or in part to the vigorous opposition to the measure expressed by the then President Eisenhower, I do not know, but I do know that this is a measure of tremendous importance insofar as the basic policy of government in this country is concerned.

H. R. 3 is AGAIN before the Congress and has been recently approved by a subcommittee of the House of Representatives. It is my hope that it will soon be approved by the full Judiciary Committee. It should then be passed upon promptly by both Houses of the Congress and laid on the desk of the President of the United States, regardless of who he is or what he represents.

Until this matter is finally determined by the Representatives of the people of this country, it will no have been passed upon by more than one Branch of our Government. Certainly the Legislative Branch and the Executive Branch should assume their full responsibilities in the determination of this vital question.

Don't Swear!

It's a Bible command... a common-sense law of life. "Thou shalt not take the name of The Lord Thy God in vain." THEN WHY DO YOU DO IT???

Careless habit? Limited vocabulary? Calloused soul? ... JUST WHY DO YOU DO IT? "The Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain." Man, too, will hold you guilty. The members of your family, — the fellows in your office, — the stranger on the street ... none of them like it! Your family deserves better of you. Your neighbors expect better of you. God requires better of you. Go to church and break the swearing habit. Learn to respect and honor and reverence God's name. Please don't swear!

The Food Dollar Is Study At HD Club

The regular meeting of the Progressive Home Demonstration Club was held in the home of Mrs. Alvis Jolly on Mar. 6.

The president called the meeting to order. The opening exercises were given by Doris Burges. Roll call was answered by "How I make the most of my food dollar." Ten members and one visitor were present.

Mrs. Tom Draper gave the program on "Making The Most of Our Food Dollar." She stressed that we must not ignore good nutrition when we stretch our food dollar. Potatoes may be substituted for fruit, if prepared correctly. She urged each member to keep an account of her grocery bills, dividing them in the following groups: milk and cheese; meat, fish and eggs; vegetables and fruit; bread and cereal; and miscellaneous. She suggested that this account be kept over a period of at least two weeks and preferably four weeks.

Mrs. Pete Carmichael gave the council report. She asked that reservations for the District meet in Pampa to be in by April 5. Mrs. Alvis Jolly and Mrs. E. C. Hammett were nominated for the "Woman of the Year" delegate. Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Juanita Hershey were appointed to secure the information and prepare the story for the nomination. Serving lunch at a farm sale was discussed.

Present were Mesdames C. V. Burges Jr., C. V. Burges Sr., P. L. Carmichael, Leon Coffin, Lester English, Dale Hallows, E. C. Hammett, Alvis Jolly, Derral Thomason, Fred Autry, and a visitor, Mrs. Jackson.

'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: The Spirit of General Sam Houston
FROM: The Spirit of Erasius "Deaf" Smith
SUBJECT: My Chamber of Commerce Looks at Migrant Labor

One of the very foundation stones of the agricultural economy in my county, Sam, is the availability of migrant farm labor. This is probably one of the least understood and most discussed problems of our area. The Chamber of Commerce has this year undertaken to find some understanding of the situation and to then determine what needs to be done.

This last week I went along in spirit (of course), with Virgil Dodson and Ed Dzuik Sr. to a conference in Austin. Sponsored by the Texas Committee on Migrant Farm Workers and the Good Neighbor Commission of Texas, the conference was called for the purpose of studying education for adult migrant farm workers. It was held in the House of Representatives on Thursday and lasted all day long.

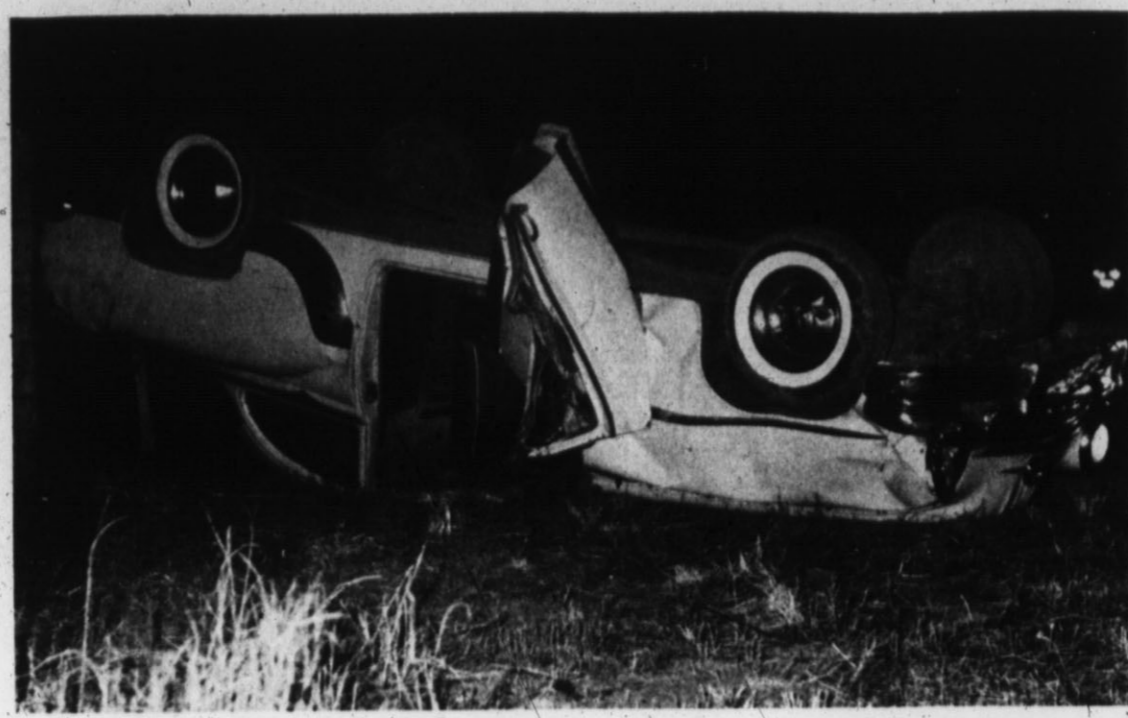

Following the usual welcoming ceremonies the conferees heard an address by Governor Price Daniel in which he pointed ed up the challenge which Texans have in facing up to the complexities of the situation in relation to migrant farm labor.

Following the Governor, Dr. David W. Brown, Extension Economist in Farm Management, the Extension Service, Texas A & M College, spoke on the "Present Agricultural Scene in Texas" in which he pointed up the fact that mechanization is replacing the migrant farm worker in many agricultural jobs and that this trend will continue.

"Cultural Factors Involved in Reaching Migrant Workers Through Education" was the subject of a very interesting talk by Dr. William Madsen, University of Texas Anthropologist and Director of the Hidalgo Project of Differential Culture Change and Mental Health. Dr. Madsen pointed out some of the very deep-seated cultural differences existing between the migrant of Mexican descent and the dominant Anglo culture in the communities in which he works. He pointed out that the problem was more than one of simply education in the sense of implanting facts, but that there was involved a very complete change in moral values, in culture, and in human relations.

The morning session was then summarized by Glenn E. Garrett, Executive Director of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission, in which he reviewed the varying needs of domestic migrant farm workers from the

TWO YOUTHS WERE INJURED early Sunday morning two miles north of Hereford on the Old Airport Road as the car they were riding in missed a curve and overturned. Driver of the 1954 model two-door, Melecio Franco Urias, 18, 202 Brevard, was one of the injured. The other occupant was Lafuent Arnulfo, 18, 302 Norton. Both received injuries as they were thrown from the vehicle. A third youth, Junior Gomez, remained in the automobile and was not injured. The car was a total loss. (Staff Photo) viewpoint of state agencies. A question and answer period, followed with a number of resource people participating. These resource people included: Egon R. Tausch, Executive Secretary for the Texas Council of Migrant Labor; Frank Von Zuben, Chief Engineer for the Program of the State Department of Health; Zola Williams, Director of the Division of Employment Agencies of the State Bureau of Labor Statistics; Weldon Watson, Assistant to the Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare; J. Warren Hitt, Deputy Commissioner of Education of the Texas Education Agency; M. A. Browning, Assistant Commissioner of Vocational Education of the Texas Education Agency; Henry LeBlanc, Chief of Farm Placement Department of the Texas Employment Commission; Henry Munoz of the Bishops' Committee for the Spanish Speaking; and Clarence Fuqua, Field Director for the Migrant Ministry of the Texas Council of Churches.

Following the question and answer period the conference broke up into six study groups to consider specific aspects of the question. Literacy and the use of the English language, education for citizenship, family life education, health education, human relations and job training were explored by the groups. These study groups met until late in the afternoon after which their reports and recommendations were consolidated into one report.

Among the recommendations coming from the study groups was one to the Texas Legislature urging the licensing of crew chiefs. Other recommendations were for the preparation of usable visual aids such as movies that would dramatize some of the problems, the new facilities, the cultural differences that the migrant would find in the community where he works. Retraining in the use of the native skills of the migrant worker was urged so that he would be better equipped to enter industrial employment. Summarizing a very informative day the three who attended from Hereford agreed that most of those attending the conference were practical people rather than starry-eyed reformers with little practical knowledge of conditions as they existed. The conference tone generally indicated a desire to make the reforms necessary on the state and local level rather than from a Federal level. The transcript of the meeting will be available in the Chamber of Commerce office in the near future for anyone desiring to study the complete recommendations of the Conference. Sam, that's my report for this week.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

It was with pleasure that I read Mrs. Bill Hutson's letter in last Sunday's 'Brand'. All over the state of Texas, young men and women are coming to life, politically, and the result is going to be better government, regardless of which party one chooses. In visiting with people throughout this Southwestern area of the Texas Panhandle lately, I have been pleased to find a real groundswell of interest in better political life, especially among working young people, who are forming the heart of my campaign for office. And indeed, we have the most to lose if present trends are not halted. Times have changed, and many young people are realizing that irresponsible government spending is the greatest threat to our future.

As some of you know, my own convictions led me to run for the Texas Legislature on the Republican ticket. Here is my logic on the situation: By providing the voters of this state an option in November and strengthening the two-party system, our government can be made more responsible to us. The disadvantage of the one-party system is that all of us have sometimes been taken for granted by that one party on the national level. I was surprised to read in the Littlefield and Olton newspapers a few weeks ago that I was the first Republican in history to ever file for office in Lamb County. There have been several more since, and they are young, well-qualified, dedicated men who are willing to stand up and be counted.

It is a well-known fact that I don't desire to draw anyone out of the Democratic Primary

HERE And THERE

With Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil P. Walker were surprised with a housewarming at their new country home south of town last Friday night. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Howard Hunter, Mrs. Dwan Walker, Mrs. George Olson, and Mrs. John Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker were entertained to dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crawford and when they arrived home the guests had arrived. They were presented with a shower of useful and beautiful gifts after which everyone made a tour of the spacious house. Refreshments were served by the hostesses after which games of "42" were played.

Those present included the honor guests, their daughter, Mrs. Howard Hunter, her husband, and children Gina, Kristi, and Scott, their son Dwan and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McGee, Birdie D. Fellers, Hugh Clearman, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Olson, Donna and Steven, Gladys Setliff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duvall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huckabee, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McIver, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holt, Mrs. Charles Bell and David, Mr. and Mrs. John Torbit, Mrs. Margaret Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lomenick, Mrs. Fay Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sowell, Mrs. Opal Bookout, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrison and Judith of Westway left Friday morning for Bonham where they are spending the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrison and the new granddaughter, Melanie. Their son, Ralph, is also working in Bonham and staying in the home of his brother, Ray. Judith was a participant in the Junior Music Festival at the First Baptist Church before they left Hereford.

Mrs. J. M. Simpson and her mother Mrs. Pearl Harrison of Amarillo were business visitors in Hereford Thursday. They also visited with Mrs. Bess Werner of Westway.

Mrs. Clarabelle Wyckoff and her brother Joe Severance spent several days last week in Manitou Springs, Colo., on business.

The General Session of the 1962 District IX, TSTA Convention began at 9 a.m. in the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo Friday. The theme of the convention this year is "Education: Freedom's Fortress." Speakers were Dr. D. D. Darland, Assistant Executive Secretary, National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards, NEA, Washington, D. C., who spoke on "New Horizons For the Teaching Profession"; and Dr. John H. Furbay, Director, Cultural and Education Programs, Trans-World Airlines, who spoke on "Four Dreams of Man."

Hereford schools were dismissed so that teachers could attend the sessions. Robert Thompson is president of the local TSTA and was a platform guest at the sessions. He and Roy Hartman, newly elected president of Hereford TSTA for next year, were elected to attend the meeting of the House of Delegates which was a dinner meeting held at the Amarillo High School Cafeteria Thursday night.

Mrs. Clarabelle Wyckoff who moved last week into her new home at 516 Avenue J. was honored at a party last Tuesday afternoon to celebrate the event. Mrs. Wyckoff who is a retired teacher, says this is the first party she ever had and she was "thrilled as any child would be" over the arrival of the guests and the lovely gifts which were presented to her.

She began her teaching career in Idaho where she taught ten years. She then moved to California where she was instructor in English in Franklin High School in Los Angeles for 30 years. She retired two years ago and made a business trip to Texas — to Hereford — and as she says "I liked it so well, I decided to move here to stay." And so far she says she hasn't been disappointed in either the country, the town or the people. For the past year she has done substitute teaching in the schools in this area.

Acting as hostess for her party were Mr. Ed Blakney, Mrs. C. A. Saucy, and Mrs. Carl Smythe, who served refreshments and registered the guests.

Those attending included Mesdames Clifford L. Arnold, Ed Blakney, E. E. Bishop, Doc Carter, J. C. Caster, Margaret Cook, Byrdie Dee Fellers, Paul Harvey, Sue James, Merlin Kaul, Cuby Kitchens, Francis Miles, Norman Moore, Grady Morton, Mattie Pierce, Evalie Potter, Eula Pittman, Jess Robinson, Brucie Rose, Doyle Rose, C. A. Saucy, Joe Severance and Carol, Paul Schroeter, Sadie Shirley, Clara Shore, Carl Smythe, Bill Thompson, Roy Vaughn, Joe Wagoner, Virginia Wallace, Bess Werner, S. S. Williams, and the honor guest Mrs. Wyckoff.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Saucy are spending the weekend in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lester Mullins, and other relatives and friends in Roaring Springs. They are looking after business interests there.
