Hereford PD Buys 'Plain Vanilla'

Managing Editor

The fact that Don Brush's family car is a white Chevrolet had nothing to do with the color of the five new police cars Hereford is about to receive.

The five 1977 Ford LTD's, which will be on Hereford streets in about six weeks, are white, replacing some of the colored cars now used by the police department

"Now don't go saying anything about my family car--it might look bad," laughed Brush. Hereford's chief of police and the man who chose the color for the new cars. "I do like white, though. It doesn't show dirt so bad and it's cooler in the summer.

These cars we drive have so many different drivers driving them that it's a lot harder on the cars. One thing about these new cars is they won't have 55 (55,000) or 60,000) miles on them."

Brush tries to schedule patrolmen to the cars they are used to driving.

"We try to keep them assigned to the same car all the time. If they abuse it they'll still have to drive it. It encourages them to take better care of it. Usually, the brakes go first--there's so much stopping and going here in town."

Pollution Continues in North Sea

STAVANGER, Norway (AP)- Troubleshooters failed in three attempts today to choke off the runaway well in the North Sea in what was described as a severe

Phillips Petroleum officials also disclosed that a "blowout preventer" had mistakenly been placed upside down on the wellhead before last week's accident. Phillips officials acknowledged that today's failure to shut off the well was a severe setback in their efforts to save the North Sea from further massive pollution.

The oil company said that the half moon-shaped steel discs called "blind rams" that were used today to try to close off the well had been tested to withstand only 4,000 pounds per square inch of pressure, but that the force of the oil spurting to the surface from the seabed was estimated at 4,350 pounds of pressure per square inch.

YMCA Schedules Supplement, Sunday Open House

Claude Huard, general director for the Hereford Young Men's Christian Association, has announced an open house for the YMCA's new facility and offices from 2-5 p.m. Sunday in Sugarland Mall.

The YMCA's summer programs for Hereford's youth will be outlined in a supplement to The Brand Sunday.

The YMCA office is located in the old Hereford Travel Center. Open-house visitors may enter the mall through the door next to J.C. Penney. The new headquarters includes a game room with Foosball tables, pool tables, table tennis tables, air bockey and miscellaneous other games. There also is office space and club rooms for meetings. "I think with this program we've planned for the summer--the variety we have-- and the Kid's Incorporated, program and the other programs in Hereford designed for youth, there shouldn't be a young person in Hereford saying he's bored because there's nothing to do," Huard said.

Senate Demos Refuse Tax Cuts, Back Carter

WASHINGTON (AP)-Senate Democrats are determined to back President Carter's economic plan, turning down repeated Republican efforts to had American immediate cuts in their income taxes.

Carter has insisted on holding any tax cuts until later, when he plans to offer his own plan for a comprehensive restructuring of tax laws. He has threatened to veto any immediate tax cuts tacked on to his economic proposal.

Still, Republicans spent Wednesday trying to get their Democratic colleagues to accept two amendments that would have provided workers with across-theboard individual tax cuts.

Backers of the Carter measure are hoping to complete action on it this week. it would then go to a conference committee, which would work to settle differences between the Senate measure and the House version.

The Senate has approved Carter's request to scrap his original proposal for a one-shot $50 rebate to nearly every American, but has voted to leave in the bill a provision expanding tax breaks for

Carter opposed the business tax breaks, but backers of the provision say they hope the President will back off his threat to veto the bill if the provision is not deleted.

Despite the President's threat to veto the Republican tax cuts if they s in the bill, GOP leaders argued Wednesday that the economic climate demanded the tax cuts.

Annual Children's Clinic Scheduled For Saturday

Hereford's Oasis Shrine Club will conduct its 21st annual Children's Clinic Saturday at the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinc.

THE CLINIC IS conducted each year for the purpose of detecting medical deficiencies in children who might not ordinarily be able to pay for complete examinations.

Registration for the clinic will get underway at 8 a.m. Saturday at the Southwestern Public Service building at 4th and Lee Street.

Shriners, medical staff members and other individuals involved in the clinic are invited to attend a breakfast prior to the clinic. The breakfast will be held at 6:30 a.m. at the Civic Club Center.

Prior to being registered for Saturday's clinic, all children must have registered with their family doctor. Registrations are available from private physicians, any Shriner, or Dr. A.T. Mims of the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic.

REX EASTERWOOD is president of the Oasis Shrine Cub, and Dr. Mims is coordinator for the project.

Medical fields in which physicians will be available Saturday include orthopedics, speech and hearing, radiology, cardiology, pediatrics, opthalmology, plastic surgery, otolarynsology, oral surgery and neurology.

The Hereford Lions Club will cater a noon luncheon for clinic participants at the Hereford High School cafeteria Saturday.

Individuals who know of a child might require specialized medical help are urged to contact Easterwood or a local physician as soon as possible.

Crop Outlook Generally Good; Dryland Wheat Needs More Rain

By JIM STEIERT Brand Farm Editor

Recent showers have brightened the crop production outlook in the Panhandle considerably.--In fact, production prospects for one commodity may be too good, in view of the current depressed market situation.

COUNTY AGENT Juston McBride explained that Deaf Smith County remains one of the few areas in the Texas Panhandle which hasn't received sufficient rain to insure the harvest of a dryland wheat crop.

'Counties near Amarillo and to the east of it have received as much as three inches of rain," said McBride. "their dryland wheat looks excellent, and it appears that a pretty good dryland wheat crop will be harvested in some areas. Production will apparently be up, just when there is already too much wheat on the market," said McBride.

Deaf Smith County farmers failed to harvest a dryland wheat crop in 1976, due to a prolonged drought, and additional rainfall may yet determine whether local farmers harvest any dryland wheat this

Last week's rains were a lifesaver for much of the dryland crops here. Severe winds and blowing dust caused heavy damage to much of the wheat in the western areas of the county in February and March, and what remained of the dryland wheat crop was virtually on its last legs when the rains began.

THE SORELY-NEEDED moisture has given the wheat a new lease on life, but there's no assurance of grain in the bin this summer unless more rain falls.

"Some of the dryland farmers will probably cut a little wheat, even without another rain, but another inch of moisture would certainly perk up all of the remaining dryland wheat and insure that While the prospects for the county's dryland wheat crop still remain uncertain, the irrigated crop is holding its own, and McPherson indicated that no serious insect problems have been encountered in the crop thus far.

Sugar beets which were planted in late March have emerged well, according ot Calvin Jones, assistant agricultural manager at the Holly Sugar Corporation's Hereford plant.

"OVER 85 per cent of the beet crop is already planted, and the cool damp weather, which we have encountered lately hasn't hurt the beet crop at all. In fact, I'd say the moisture has defintely helped us with the germination of beet seed," Jones commented.

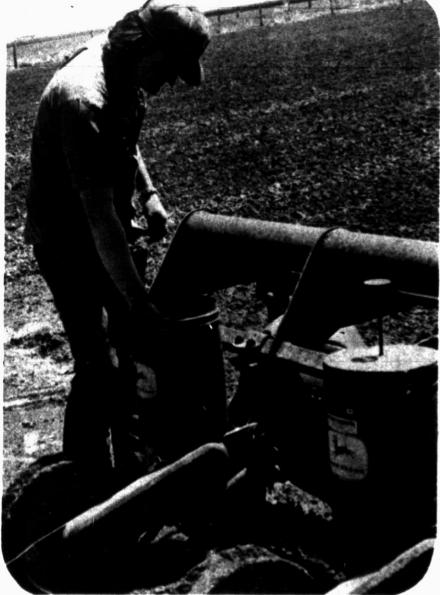

The Holly official indicated that some 21,400 acres of beets have been planted this year, and added that thinning of the crop should get underway soon.

Last week's rains also augmented topsoil moisture for the county's corn crop, which is now going in.

McBride indicated that corn planting was underway on a small scale before the rains, but is now gathering steam as fields have dried sufficiently to allow resumption of field work.

"SOME 10-15 per cent of this year's corn crop is probably planted at this time," said McBride. "We should see another increase in corn acreage here this year, possibly as much as 20,000 acres. Overall corn plantings this year should amount to about 150,000 acres. This increase in corn will mean a proportional drop in sorghum acreage, although there will be more sorghum in some of the limited water areas," he added.

On the vegetable production front, onion sets have begun to register good growth and emergence of the potato crop should begin soon.

Corn Planting Time

Joe Flood checks corn seed in the planter box on a farm located two miles west of Hereford. Flood, like many other local farmers, was busy getting seed in the ground Wednesday afternoon after rains delayed corn planting here for about a week. According to Juston McBride, county agent, corn acreage could increase by as much as 20,000 acres locally this year. [Photo By Jim Stelert]

Kids, Inc. To Hold Light Bulb Campaign

The summer baseball program for the Deaf Smith County Kids, Incorporated this year should be one of the best ever with 950 youngsters expected to participate this year, an crease of 110 over the 840 which played last year. While the ball fields again be crowded this season, relief is on the way with a new park complex scheduled to be constructed here soon.

To help defray some of the cost of the complex the organization will be selling light bulbs this year under the

Elementary Track Meet Set Today

The annual elementary school track meet, sponsored by the Hereford Noon Kiwanis Club, got underway today with the field events beginning at 1 p.m. and the running events at 2 p.m.

The meet, held at Whiteface Field, caters to 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students in all six local elementary schools as well as students at St. Anthony's According to Bobby Byers, spokesman of the sponsoring Kiwanians, the meet "goes back 10 or more years."

A total of 18 team trophies and 450 individual ribbons will be awarded as the meet progresses. Trophies for the first, second, and third best teams in each grade will be awarded in both the boys' and girls' divisions.

Points will be awarded on a finish basis, just like regular University Interscholastic League (UIL) track meets.

In addition, ribbons for first through sixth place will be awarded in each event. Events to be conducted include boys only high jump, boys only shot put, girls only softball throw, and the long jump, 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 440, 880, 440 Relay, and 880 Relay for both boys and by co-chairmen Opa! Walters-scheid and Marcie Hughes.

The two ladies, along with Kids, Inc. president Chuck Cosper, will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room with the team mothers to help get the lightbulb campaign underway.

"The purpose of this meeting is to distribute material to each team mother for the pre-sale campaign," Mrs. Walterscheid said. The lightbulbs have been obtained from a source that enables the organization to sale them at less than the factory price, she indicated. Kids, Inc. will be offering an eight-pack (125 volt) assortment of bulbs which include four 60 watt, two 75 watt, and two 100 watt bulbs. In addition, they will offer a 3-bulb pack of 3-way bulbs and an outdoor flood light.

In an aid in getting the campaign underway Hereford Mayor W.B. Dowell has proclaimed the week of May 1-7

as "Lightbulb Sales Campaign for Deaf Smith County Kids

The mayor's proclamation

reads as follows:
PROCLAMATION Whereas, the Deaf Smith Co Kids, Inc. is holding a fund-raising drive to support it's deserving project, New Ball

Park Complex. Whereas, members of the organization are going from door to door in our city sellin lightbulbs to raise funds for this project; and Whereas, this effort in behalf of an important and worthy cause merits citywide attention Now, therefore, I W.B. Dowell Mayor of Hereford Texas do hereby proclaim the week of May 1- May 7 as "Light Bulb Sales Campaign for Deaf Smith Co. Kids, Inc.

'Whackers Rip Noon Kiwanis

The Bullwhackers continued to keep their unbeaten mark intact Wednesday evening with a 8-15, 15-5, 15-7 victory over the Noon Kiwanis Club. The 'Whackers lead the YMCA Men's Volleyball standings with a 3-0 mark. The Lions kept pace with a victory over the Rascals, and are in second place along with the Noon Kiwanis with 2-1 marks. The Breakfast Kiwanis took a pair of 15-0 wins over the Tumbleweeds after a forfeit situation arose, while the Lions were in a battle before finally downing the Rascals 16-14, 12-15, 16-14.

Two rounds remain on the mens' schedule before the league tournament begins May 17 in the Central School gym.

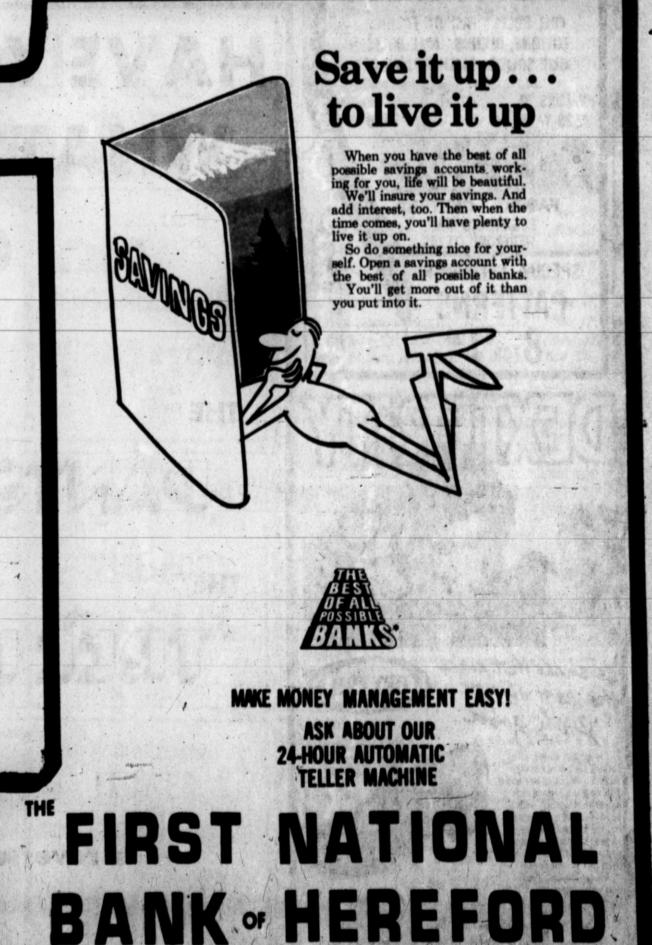

The tourney will be double-elimination affair, and will run on four consecutive nights beginning the 17th.

CLEVELAND (AP)-Outfielder Charlie Spikes, who said he was not feeling well when he reported to the Toledo Mud Hens last weekend, has returned to Cleveland for an examination by the Indians' team physician, Dr. William When he arrived in Toledo, Spikes told Mud Hens' General Manager Charlie Sanger that he felt light-headed and "saw stars" when he moved quickly.

Sanger sent Spikes to a doctor, and it was discovered that the player had high blood pressure and a heart murmur.

Program to Stroll Memory Lane

By JAY SHARBUTT AP Television Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) - In one of TV's periodic navel inspect-ions, CB$ News tonight looks bake at network television of the 1950s in a two-hour show, When Television Was Young," reported by Charles Kuralt.

It's a sharper-than-usual memory tour of TV in that it goes beyond the usual collection of drama and comedy highlights and self-serving salutes to them good old black-and-white days.

Sure, it has its share of Ernie Kovacs clips, quick glimpses of young struggling thespians like Chariton Heston, the late James Dean, Jack Lemon and Grace Kelly going about their dramatic

But it also goes into the early days of TV news, including the use of government-narrated film which then was aired under the guise of news, not propaganda. And it recalls the big quiz show scandals, using House testimony to illustrate how some contestants on CBS' $64,000 Question" got answers to the big and lesser questions in advance.

Alas, that is only a recitation of quiz show history, not an attempt to see if such scandals can occur today in the daytime and twilight world of game shows, as they're now called.

The program also dwells on the sogdid 1950s practice of blacklisting, when frightened networks, advertisers and individuals denied work to artists accused by anti-Commnuist zealots of Communist sympathies. Kuralt cites a few examples of the blacklists victims, among them actor Philip Loeb of "the Goldbergs" and dancer Paul Draper, who did a quick tapdance number on the late Ed Sullivan's variety show on CBS.

But vagueness flaws Kuralt's narrative when he notes that "in the eyes of some people Loeb was either a Communist or belonged to a Communist

An 11-inning slugfest finally ended with Amarillo besting San Antonio 12-10 in their Texas League game Wednesday night. On other fronts Midland outlasted El Paso 12-9, Shreveport beat Tulsa 5-1 and Jackson downed Arkansas 9-6. Steve Smith's single and Kurt

A three-run homer by Bill Chew was the big blow as Midland scored five times in the second inning, and the winners tallied four more on one hit in the sixth as El Paso pitchers issued three walks with the Antonio. Amarillo grabbed a bases full. Steve Davis

Ekker Announces Expanded Slate

16-game schedule in the Missouri Valley Conference and home dates with Oral Roberts, Southern Mississippi, the Oklahoma City universities highlights West Texas State University's 1977-78 basketball schedule announced by head coach Ron Ekker.

The Buffs add four games to league title chase next year. Both the Sycamores, who beat the Buffs twice last year, and the Bluejays participated in the National Invitation Tournament

"We've got a real bearcat to open the season in the conference," Ekker says. "On Thursday (Jan. 5) we open at home against New Mexico State: Saturday (Jan. 7) we're at Indiana State; and Monday (Jan. 9) we're at Bradley. That's three games in five days, two of them on the road.

"Then we come back the next Saturday with Creighton at home. Those first four games are a pretty rough way to go."

Another tough December schedule will hopefully get the Buffs prepared for that MVC challenge. WT will have non-conference home games with Oral Roberts (Dec. 5) Southern Mississippi (Dec. 29) and will go on the road to meet North Texas State (Dec. 8), Colorado State (Dec. 17), and Utah State (Dec. 19). The Buffs also play four small college opponents early in the month.

But it is the Valley slate that has Ekker excited. "The conference schedule this year really makes it tough," he explains. "The two teams that weren't in the league last year. will probably be rated 1-2, and I don't see a team (among the returnees) that isn't going to be better."

West Texas State was a good team at the close of the 1976-77 season, ending up in the finals

Shreveport's Harry Saferight went three-for-four at the plate, belting a home run and driving a pair across the plate, in the victory over Tulsa. The Louisiana club went ahead to stay in the seventh inning as three of its pitchers teamed to twirl a five-hitter.

Doubles by Keith Bodie and Felix Minaya keyed a five-run Jackson splurge in the sixth frame which overcame a 6-0 Arkansas lead. Jim Lentine socked a solo homer for the losers in the first inning. George Milke, 1-0, was the winner in relief and Steve Wojick picked up a save.

West Texas State will be a slight favorite over Texas Tech though the Raiders won last year's meet with 140 points to 1251/2 for WT. Wayland was third with 671/2 and Eastern New Mexico scored 60. Also in the field will be Lubbock Christian, McMurry, New Mexico State and Southwestern, Oklahoma.

Prelims and field finals start at 3 p.m. with running finals at 5:15, beginning with a Master's Mile for local businessmen. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Last year, West Texas and Tech each won seven events in the 17-event card. Kenvan distance runner Joseph Kemei won the mile and three-mile while Tech was led by William Peirson's double victory in the 220 and 440. Wayland's Randy Lightfoot leads the nation's NAIA high hurdlers with a 13.65 while Zach Cummings of WT has run 13.75 and David Willis of the Canyon school has done 13.9. Kemei recently ran a 4:01.5 mile and could be the first ever to break the magical 4-minute barrier here. WBC's Kevin Shaw, top three-miler in the NAIA with a 13:46.1, will battle Tech's Greg Lautenslager who has turned 13:51.79.

Matching afterburners in the 100 will be WT's Alvis Wright who has clocked 9.4 and Charles Green of Tech with a wind-aided 9.5. LCC's Ricky Moore has high jumped 6-11, Canadian Olympian Jim McAndrew of Tech has long jumped 25-11/4, J. O. Omoah of Eastern has triple jumped 48 feet, Wayland's Bruce Basye has thrown the the shot 55 feet, Tommy Humphries of WT has pole vaulted 15-3, and Marc Taylor of Tech has thrown the discus

Green and Pierson of Tech and Alvis and Karl Wright of WT have run under 22.0 in the 220. Randy Wilkowich of Wayland has timed 1:53.0 in the 880, WT, Tech and Wayland are in the 40-41-second range in the 440 relay and Tech has run a 3:11.59 mile relay. javelin 210-3, Dennis Diaz of

He cultivates it. Waiting his turn to putt, he'll search the gallery with his eyes, smiling to a familiar face here, nodding to another there. Walking to the next tee he'll spot still another fan and inquire "How are you?" with an emphasis on the word "you." He'll stand for hours pleasantly, patiently signing autographs after a dreadful dreary round and give way to locker-slamming frustration and anger only away from the public

He's almost certainly the most popular player the game of golf has ever known. His popularity, as exhibited in the$200,000 Houston Open which began today, is undiminished despite the eroding skills that give to his gallery a memory more than ahope of the dymanic, quick-stepping, pantshitching charge of old.

He's now 47. The hair is growing thinner and the waist is thicker. He seems to miss the cut as often as he makes it.

But he's still searching for some of that driving drama that only he seemed able to generate. At times it comes

"Sometimes I fee that I'm really close to it," he said. "i'm driving well, sometimes the best of my life. Sometimes my putting isn't all that badgood-but that's been my big uble over the last few years. It's just a matter of getting it all together. Everytime I seem to get close, get something going. I do something stupid to mess it

At time it's almost embarassing. There are no signs of improvement. Last year was the worst of his career. Right now he ranks 109th on the money-winning list going into the start of this 72 holes over the 6,997-yard Woodlands Country Club course in suburban

Sexless Marriage Fails DEAR ANN LANDERS: 1 doing whatever makes us happy. My "bride" is an wish I had sought your advice years ago. You could have saved me a lot of agony. May I give your readers the benefit of my experience? I married a girl who didn't want sex before marriage. I tought I had a jewel until we went on our honeymoon. Then I learned she didn't want sex AFTER marriage, either.

I did love her dearly and decided to be patient and wait for her to grow up and be a wife, but she never did. When I couldn't stand it any longer (I was then 50) I left. She said she wanted me back and agreed to joint counseling if I would come home. Our counselor was a woman who said my wife's undressing in the closet was NOT abnormal and I must be a Peeping Tom to want to see a woman unclothed. I was dumbfounded. The counselor suggested I not approach my wife sexually for a month.

Three sessions later did it. The counselor said to my wife, "Wasn't it wonderful not to be bothered with sex for a whole month?" I decided at that moment to get a divorce.

The following year I met and married a wonderful widow who helped me forget the nightmare I had been living for too long. We plan to spend whatever time we have left adorable and loving lady and I feel so fortunate to have found

Maybe your readers will see themselves in my letter and not waste 25 years, like I did. -- It's Great To Be Alive

DEAR ALIVE: That counselor was a real lemon, but I must say you're a pretty slow study. I'm happy your life has taken such a joyous turn! Congratulations.

DEAR ANN: My parents were divorced when I was ten. I'll be 16 soon and have not seen my father for four years, although he has visiting rights. I think about him a lot.

Just before Christmas I asked my teacher if I should write him a letter telling him about my interests. She said, "Yes, but don't let your mother know." I wrote a long letter and sent a small picture of myself. I haven't received an answer. Should I write again and ask if my letter got lost in the Christmas rush? -- Hopeful

DEAR H.: You teacher gave you bad advice. If you know where your dad is, he knows where YOU are. Let him be. It's not hard to build fantasies around a daddy who isn't there. Don't let your imagination trick you into thinking he is something he is not, honey. DEAR ANN LANDERS: Your usual sharp eye must be getting dimmed by age. You missed a humdinger recently. I was disappointed.

I refer to the letter from the woman who was miffed because her son-in-law was still calling her "Hey, you" after four years. She said, "Wouldn't you think the lunkhead would know

Why didn't you nail her in your typical Landers style and tell her that "Hey, you" is plenty good enough for a mother-in-law who calls him a lunkhead? -- Canton Carl

DEAR CANT: I got the impression that the mother-inlaw called him a lunkhead after opinion "Lunkhead" is plenty good enough for a son-in-law like that.

Americans May Return On American Band From Mexican Jails

SAN ANTONIO (AP)- Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill says he is nistic that Americans now eld in Mexican jails can begin returning to the United States

Hill made the prediction at a news conference here Wednesday after spending a day conferring with congressional leaders in Washington about prospects for a speedy U.S. Senate ratification of the proposed Prisoner Exchange

The Mexican government already has ratified the treaty. Hill said there appear to be no major hurdles for the treaty to clear, although it currently is being studied by the President's Office of Management and Treaty.

Budget. The treaty would allow Americans to serve out the remainder of their Mexican prison sentences in jails in this country. Hill acknowledged that many of the prisoners would be eligible for immediate parole under U.S. laws.

appealing their Mexican convicns, since the treaty requires that they would have to return to Mexico to make the appeal.

Mexicans in U.S. prisons ould also be able to return to their home land and serve out their sentences, also.

The Texas attorney general said he is interested in speeding the exchange because of situation he is familiar with involving four American women in a Mexican jail.

Hill said more than half of the 604 American prisoners held in Mexico are from Texas or California. He said about 75 Mexican nations are currently held in the Texas State Prison System.

During the news conference, Hill, who is considered an almost certain candidate to oppose Gov. Dolph Briscoe next year for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, unleashed a strong attack on Briscoe's reaction to parts of President Carter's energy plan.

Hill said he disagrees with within the producing statentrastate gas.

"But you don't challenge the President of the United States legally for exercising his right of free speech," Hill said.

Hurray for Hospital Week!

Seven days in May (May 8-14) will be National Hospital Week. After that we can go back to taking for granted our nation's 7,156 hospitals--unless or until we visit in pain or in tears. Before and after National Hospital Week some will mean-mouth the medical profession generally and mention hospitals only to repeat some story relayed through some friend of a friend of a neighbor's relative.

But-if only this once a vear--let's hear it for the hospital!

You parents had a life expectancy of 47.3 years. You can expect to live half-again that long. We must be doing something right.

In just the past five years our nation's death rate has been reduced by nearly 5 per cent!

diminished every major death threat except two-and for those two we have mostly ourselves to blame: suicide and lung cancer.

The cost of hopsitalization? Dreadful!

Until you recognize that hospitals operate around the clock, seven days a week at a per-hour cost to the patient which is half what we pay the TV repairman.

Let's hear it for the hospital? Nationwide, hospitals employ 3 million people--five times more than the automobile industry. Those payrolls nourish our public treasury and our

In 1929 hospitals contributed 3.6 per cent to our nation's GNP; today 8.3 per cent.

Your hospital charges more for patient care? Hear this: Hospitals spend more than ever before. In 1929 $3.6 billion. This year more than $120 billion.

Your hospital bill has increased 300 per cent in the past 20 years; the costs of operating a hospital have increased 300 per cent in the past 10 years.

And hospitalization would cost you much more than it does except for the ceaseless efforts by administrators and personnel to share services, share equipment and improve personnel efficiency.

In the last seven years there has been a 45 per cent increase in the number of clinical laboratory tests performed per

Yet despite improved efficiency, overhead is such that only 1-in-10 of America's finest teaching hospitals is able to operate in the black--and those by less than 2 per cent.

Much of the increased overhead reflects more sophisticated technology.

But these costs have to be measured against the harvest: transplants, bypass surgery, megavoltage therapy.

Your grandfather had to go to Mayo's for specialized treatment now commonly available in your hometown community hospital. There are now 400 American hospitals with bypass p.m.

of a few decades ago, is available now in 63 per cent of our hospitals; 31.9 per cent are equipped for cardiac intensive care; 69.8 per cent for respiratory therapy; 31.3 per cent have nurseries for

Let's hear it for the hospital! So far I've said nothing about the punishing effects of inflation and arbitrary hiring quotas and mandatory government safety modification. To comply with just one bureaucratic edict last year cost Florida hospitals $50

And the malpractice insur-ance menace has multiplied that cost in some places 1,000 per cent in one year!

And while you and I are staggered by the increased per-day cost of hospitalizationbalance that against this: Our hospitals, whether beds or more than 3,000, general or specialized, are now able to expedite treatment and-or-therapy so that the average patient is out of the hospital in fewer days.

American hospitals, at what-ever cost, are by all measures the world's finest. They have given us back workdays we would have lost and have credited our personal account with additional pain-free years of life itself.

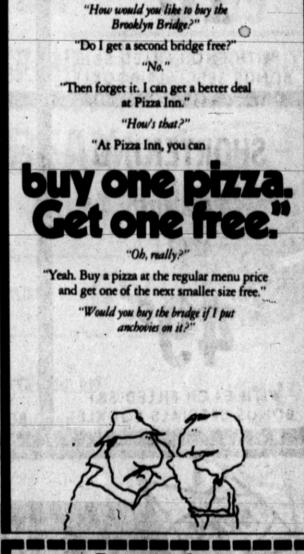

If only for this seven days in May, let's hear it for the

One hundred years of women's fashions are covered in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum's new Hall of Fashions display on the second floor of the main building.

Opening May 1, the display will showcase a permanent collection of dresses, as well as exhibit selections from the smaller clothing collection.

Funds for the display came from a grant from the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation.

The museum began developing its women's fashions collection three years ago with the assistance of Mrs. Leonard Wilson of Canyon, then secretary to the museum

The collection now has 900 to 1,000 individual pieces, according to Carol Cline, exhibits designer. Restoration work is being done by Mrs. Cline, Mrs. Wilson and assistant Ann. Worley of Dallas.

Dresses permanently on display are an 1860's handmade homespun pioneer dress and an 1870s wine-colored cotton velveteen winter town dress with small crocheted buttons. Generally, I find people very forgiving.

If you inadvertently drive your car through their picture window, catch their neck in an elevator door, or go on a Scout Jamboree and lose one of their children, they're real good

But if there is one human being for which there is not one ounce of compassion, it's for the driver who parks in two

You can tell a lot about the man (or woman) who sees two parking spots and pulls his car squarely in the middle of them, without ever meeting him. He's the type who eats all of his cake and leaves the icing until last so that everyone around him will feel rotten. He comes in last at church and then makes 15 people move over to the center so he can have the seat on the aisle. He leaves the price tags on his Christmas gifts, and goes to a concert with a bad cold. He sits next to you at your favorite musical for which you've just paid $16 a ticket, and hums the overture.

He holds his kid up in front of everyone at the zoo so he can see the animals and no one else can. He borrows a pound of butter from you for a cookout-- and returns oleo. He saves seats for eight people at the World Series.

He wouldn't pay for a flu shot unless he could get it wholesale. His mother begs him not to visit her at the home.

I'm trying to talk my congressman into having these drivers register, so we can keep track of them, know where they are, and how many there are of them, because there are no physical characteristics to set them apart from your ordinary

In fact, I had lunch with one the other day and didn't even realize it until we went to the parking lot for his car. The lot was crowded and his little sports number was centered squarely, between the lines of two spots.

He looked a little embarrassed about it and said, "It's my doors. You park next to another car and you get your doors beat up.'

"May you get sideswiped by a drunken camel," I said.

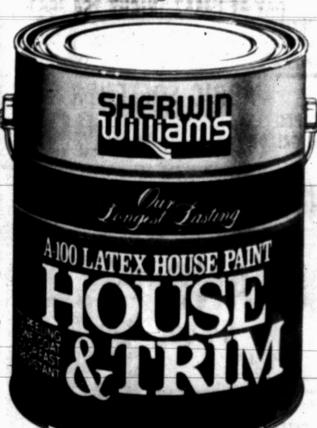

"Hey, do you blame me?" he said defensively. "I mean, why should I take a chance on getting my doors scratched?"

"Don't tell it to me," I said. "Explain it to that woman who has been circling around this parking lot for 20 minutes trying to find an empty spot." As I fold my Congressman, if you can't get these drivers to register, at least have them wear a bracelet of some kind like the ones saying, "I'm a Methodist" or "Blood Type AB." This one would simply say, "I'm a parking hog." "What's the point of all that?" he asked.

Ronnie Wood Listed As Outstanding Man

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Men of America Awards' Program announced today that Ronnie Glen Wood of 619 Stanton has been selected for inclusion in the 1977 edition of "outstanding Young Men of America."

This awards program is co-sponsored by the United Stated Jaycees and numerous other leading men's civic service organizations throughout the nation. Wood was one of three Texas men to be so honored. Serving as chairman of the program's 12-man advisory board is Doug Blankenship, US Jaycee past president.

The three Texans, along with approximately 11,000 fellow outstanding Young Men from the United States, will be featured in this prestigious annual awards publication.

An awards program spokesman said," In every community, diligently to make their cities, as well as their country, better places in which to live.

"These men, having distinguished themselves in one or more fields of endeavor, are outstanding and deserve to be recognized for their achievements.

The criteria for selection include a man's voluntary service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments, civic and political participation.

The program's Board of Advisors and Editors "salute all individuals chosen as Outstanding Young Men of America and take great pride in bringing their accomplishments to the attention of the American Wakan Ki Lo Discovery Club, sponsored by Marsh Cattle Company, met for their final session of the year recently.

Club girls, wearing their ceremonial gowns, performed a ritual beginning with the processional with Lori Parker playing the drum. The program was based on the club name 'Wakan Ki Lo" and the group symbol. The Camp Fire law and symbolism were explained and while Jill Paschel read the law, a creative movement was perfor-

Leaders Glenice Thom and Paula Eubanks presented the following Torch Bearer awards to those girls earning them: 14 receiving special interest beauty and grooming aids: 13 receiving interior decorating; 12 for cookery; six for defensive awareness and four for operation birth right. Ruth Fariss was recognized as special guest for her assistance with the group cookbook. Sarah Lawson was named "Mother of the Year" and Theima Marsh was thanked for her seven years of support as a sponsor. Each of these women was presented a Camp Fire pin and group cookbook. The ceremonial was concluded with the recessional and Deanna Pool played the drum. Each girl served cookies and punch to her mother from a table decorated with red, white and blue, the official colors of Camp Fire.

Members' mothers present included Mmes. Windel Burdine, Alan Parson, Pat Parker, Larry Paschel, Jau Don McCathern, Reece Lawson, Sid Kellough, Jerry Don George, Mike Gamez, Charles Brown, Lex Rhodes and Paul Graves.

Other guests included Mmes. Fariss, Marsh, Don Houle and W.R. Van Leuven. Also, Jill and John Ward, Devany Paschel, Debra Pool and Tammy Rhodes.
