

Early Campaigning

Jimmy Carter, the expected nominee of the Democratic Party at its convention in New York, mingles with delegates on Hudson River's Pier 88. He grabs a bit of refreshment during his hectic schedule this week. His main chore now is the selection of a vice presidential running mate to be announced Thursday.

Jordan Excites Convention; Carter To Decide Running Mate

NEW YORK (AP) - Jimmy Carter was expected to decide on a running mate today after the Democratic convention heard keynote Barbara Jordan's rousing call for a new "national community" to fulfill America's purpose.

Carter intimates indicated he would make his choice today although it probably won't be announced until Thursday, following Carter's own presidential nomination Wednesday.

Speculation centered on Sens. Edmund S. Muskie, Walter Mondale and John Glenn as the leading prospects for the No. 2 spot. Also under consideration are Sens. Frank Church, Henry Jackson and Adlai Stevenson.

Meanwhile, the first real excitement of the convention was added by Miss Jordan, the black congresswoman from Texas, who brought yawning delegates to their feet with a speech that took some pages from the Carter stylebook.

"We must restore our belief in ourselves," Miss Jordan said. "We must address and master the future together."

"It can be done if we restore the belief that we share a common national endeavor, if we restore our sense of national community," she told the cheering conventioners.

"We are a nation in search of a national community," she said. Such a search is an attempt "to fulfill our national purpose, to create and sustain a society in which all of us are equal."

Deaf Smith County commissioners took care of purchases and other routine matters, appointed election judges and alternates and authorized the purchase of some land in Precinct 2 during their regular meeting Monday.

COMMISSIONER Austin Rose reported that he desired to acquire approximately two acres of land at a cost of $2000 per acre for construction of a new county barn in Precinct 2.

The commissioners voted unanimously to authorize the purchase of up to three acres of land for the building.

The commissioners also voted to call for bids on a 60 horsepower tractor to be used in Precinct 1, and a small economy model pickup to be used in Precinct 4.

Election judges and alternates for each of the county's precincts were also approved by the commissioners.

JUDGES and alternates include: Precinct 1-Frank Bezner, judge, Mrs. Louis Woodford, alternate.

Precinct 2-Tony Hoffman, judge, Mrs. Tony Hoffman, alternate.

Precinct 3-Frank Zinser, judge, Mrs.

Frank Zinser, alternate.

Precinct 4-Doris Jackson, judge, Bill Gudgeon, alternate.

Precinct 5-James Gentry, judge, Mrs. N.E. Milburn, alternate.

Precinct 6-L.J. Strassus, judge, Don Hicks, alternate.

Precinct 7-Mrs. H. B. McCabe, judge, Jerry Parker, alternate.

Precinct 8-S.N. Thweatt, judge, Mrs. Ernest Brown, alternate.

Precinct 9-C.F. Homfeld, judge, Buna Homfeld, alternate.

Precinct 10-Mrs. C.L. McBroom, judge, Lorraine Fite, alternate.

Precinct 11-Raymond Higginbotham, judge, Mrs. John Seiver, alternate.

Absentee Precinct-Bill Davis, judge, Cynthia Vines, alternate.

COMMISSION members also set the dates for the county and Hereford Independent School District Board of Equalization pre-hearings and hearings.

The pre-hearings were slated for July 26-28, with the regular hearings scheduled July 29 and 30 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hearings at Walcott school will be held July 23.

The purchase of a spare wheel and tire for the county agent's pickup were also approved by the commissioners. The new 3/4 ton pickup acquired for the county agent did not come equipped with a spare tire, thus making the purchases necessary.

A request for camper hook-ups at the Bull Barn during square dancing jamboree to be held here in August was also considered by the commissioners.

THE COMMISSION moved that no trailer or camper parking facilities be offered at the Bull Barn, but pointed out that electrical hook-ups for campers would be available at the Hereford rodeo arena.

Rep. Mahon To Visit

Hereford To Host

Amarillo Ag Tour

The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee is sponsoring a tour on agriculture in the Hereford area this afternoon (Tuesday).

The tour will be followed by a dinner at the Hereford Country Club tonight at 7. Special guests on the tour include 19th Congressional District Representative George Mahon and Congressman Jack Hightower.

Congressman Mahon will meet with members of the Deaf Smith County ASCS committee at the local ASCS office at 4 p.m. this afternoon, prior to boarding a bus for the tour.

A busload of tour members from Amarillo will arrive at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce at approximately 5 p.m.

Five local agriculturalists representing the grain and cattle industries, vegetable processing, farming and ranching will address tour members on the status of agriculture locally.

Tour members will have the opportunity to observe center pivot irrigation and other agricultural practices during the bus tour.

Following the tour, the bus will proceed to the Hereford Country Club, where a crowd of approximately 100 is expected for a dinner.

Underground Complex To Be

Constructed By Hereford Builder

A Hereford home builder has announced plans to construct a complex of underground homes in the tornado-conscious city of Lubbock, with work on the project to begin before the end of the year.

JAY SWAYZE, formulator of the plan points out that the multi-home complex, all earth covered, would offer controlled environment, low maintenance and energy requirements and security from the ravages of nature, such as tornadoes.

The two and three bedroom homes would include double walls and underground front yards, and best of all, costs would be about equal to conventional homes of the same size and features.

"We hope the cost of the homes would be under $60,000," Swayze commented. A constant humidity factor and year around temperatures in the low 70's are cited as favorable features of the underground homes which would cut the expenses of heating and cooling the structures.

EACH OF the homes would have approximately 3,000 square feet of living area with the front yard contained in the controlled underground environment.

Solar bubbles would allow sunlight into the yard area, while excluding trash and dust.

Filtered outside air would also keep the home fresh.

The fear of nuclear fallout triggered the Hereford builder's interest in constructing underground homes, and he built his first in Plainview 15 years ago. He has also built underground homes business, the commissioners went into an executive session with District Attorney Andy Shuval and County Sheriff Travis McPherson.

The commissioners and county authorities were planning to discuss the county's efforts to confiscate a twin-engined which crash landed northwest of the city last month.

The plane was being used to haul marijuana into the country. And officers seized the craft after they found it loaded with about $500,000 worth of the weed.

County officials began efforts to confiscate the plane for Deaf Smith County shortly after sheriff's officers seized the craft.

Board Meets

The Hereford School Board of Trustees was to meet in regular session at 4 p.m. today at the schools administration building. A lengthy agenda awaited school board actions.

The priority considerations of the trustees include the tax percentage of evaluation (presently 60 per cent), discussion of the tax rate, selection of a date for the budget hearing, and resignation and election of teachers.

Other items on the agenda include a presentation from the High School business department, evaluation of the Title I Summer School Program, a Title VII update, a follow-up report on the 1974-75 senior class, a special report on Title IX (Sex discrimination) and routine reports.

Weather Says

Fall In July

It may have seemed more like football weather than baseball weather to local residents the past two days as overcast conditions, cool temperatures and light rainfall offered a reminder of fall in July.

Rainfall in the wee hours of Monday morning was relatively light over most areas of the country, although a report of two inches of rain at the Ford community was received by The Brand Monday.

KPAN radio logged .10 inches of moisture for the city Monday, with an additional trace early today (Tuesday).

The Holly Sugar Corp. plant here recorded .08 inches of moisture early today.

A spokesman at Easter Grain reported "only a sprinkle" in that community Monday, and .02 inches of moisture was reported by Dawn Co-Op.

Witkowski Named

'Man Of The Year'

COLLEGE STATION.....Leo V. Witkowski of Hereford, an outstanding wheat farmer in Castro and Deaf Smith Counties, has been named a "Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture" for 1976 by the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association.

One of seven Texans selected for the honor, Witkowski was nominated by county agents in District 1 (the Panhandle) of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The awards are presented annually to outstanding leaders in agriculture and related industries, said Dawson County Extension Agent Lee Roy Colgen, president of the state association. The awards also recognize the contributions made by these leaders to improving levels of living and economic growth in their communities, counties, state and nation.

Witkowski will receive his award during the association's annual meeting August 1-3 at the Knights Inn in Waco.

Witkowski's initiation into the wheat business began at an early age as he helped in his father's custom combine business. After graduating from college, he went into business cutting wheat with two Model P Case combines.

He went on to become one of the major wheat farmers in Castro and Deaf Smith counties and was one of six men who drew up the charter for the Texas Wheat Growers Association in 1950. He served as president of that association from 1963 to 1975 and during the same period was on the executive board of the National Wheat Growers Association.

Last year he served as chairman of the Great Plains Wheat Public Relations Committee.

Witkowski was a member of the 17-man Study Committee on Agriculture for Texas A&M University, the High Plains Research Coordinating Board and the Committee of Five from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico which met with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson in 1954.

The wheat farmer has served as past president of the Texas Milling Shorthorn Society, the Panhandle-South Plains Dairy Show, the Castro County Farm Bureau and the Deaf Smith County Farmers Union.

A supporter of the Extension Service for more than 30 years, Witkowski has also served as a member of the Corps Committee and 4-H and Youth Committee of the Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee, and as a director of the Panhandle Economic Program.

He is active in the Knights of Columbus and Chamber of Commerce and has been a trustee of the High Plains Research Foundation.

Witkowski holds a degree in agronomy from Texas A&M University where he also played football and ran track.

County Grand Jury Begins Session

The Deaf Smith Grand Jury began meeting in regular session today to consider cases presented by Criminal District Attorney Andy Shuval and his assistant Schalan Atkinson.

The 12 jurors convened on the third floor of the county courthouse in the jury room. Indictments, and no-bills were to be decided by this afternoon although the jury could convene longer if enough cases are presented.

The Brand will carry the results at the earliest possible time.

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says show me a man who walks with his head held high, and I'll show you a man who hasn't quite gotten used to his bifocals.

The Hereford area hadn't received much rain at this writing Tuesday morning, but many folks were welcoming the damp weather, at least. Most of the recent heavy rainfall has been recorded on the South Plains, and most farmers and ranchers are hoping the thunderstorms move up this way.

A FACT we wouldn't have known if we hadn't opened our mail: In 1975 there were 25,372 holes-in-one made on U.S. golf courses. Not all were the results of skill. One man, playing in Nevada, sliced a low ball across a water hazard. It skipped twice, came out of the water and hit a rake near the sand trap, then bounced onto the green and rolled into the hole!

Also: We learned that a Zony would be performing at a printing clinic in San Antonio. What in the world is a Zony? It is a genetic hybrid—a cross between a zebra and a pony.

It's difficult to predict the future of an economy in which it takes more brain power to figure out the tax on one's income than it does to earn it.

THE NEED for a water source in West Texas is a vital issue, so we'd like to reprint an article by Joe Don Hancock in the Plainview Reporter-News:

It's been almost seven years since Texas voters rejected a constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of $3.5 billion in bonds by the Texas Water Development Board (TWDB) to finance the Texas Water Plan, a bold venture which would have resulted in the importation of water to the High Plains.

It was called a pipe dream by some

Brand Adds 2 Popular Comics

Two of the hottest daily comic strips going—Peanuts and Marmaduke—have been added to the daily editions of The Hereford Brand. You'll find them on today's comic page.

"Peanuts" means little folks, youngsters, according to Charles Schulz, creator of Charlie Brown and the other delightful characters in the strip. The strip Marmaduke features a Great Dane who is beloved by millions of newspaper readers.

Both strips rank near the top in cartoon surveys across the nation.

Ford To Appear At Game

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Ford will join the "Bird" watchers at baseball's All-Star game tonight to cap a series of appearances that may be designed to steal some of the nation's attention from the Democratic convention. With Mark "The Bird" Fidrych, who talks to baseballs, on the mound, more American television viewers may see Ford at the All-Star game in Philadelphia than will tune in on the Democrats' convention in New York.

Poteet City Secretary Free After Theft

POTEET, Tex. (AP) - A former Poteet city secretary is free on bond of $15,000 following her arrest on charges of misapplication of public funds.

Sylvia Wyrick, who was dismissed from her post last month, was charged before Peace Justice J.D. Oliphant after Mayor Demetrio Uribe filed a complaint against her through Dist. Atty. J. Taylor Britte.

Poteet City Auditor William Havins told City Council last month that $7,061 was missing from property tax money. The council later fired Mrs. Wyrick.

Mrs. Wyrick was arrested Saturday after turning herself in to Sheriff Ray Strickland. Her case is expected to be presented to the Atascosa County grand jury in September. She was hired as city secretary in 1974.

Embezzlement charges against Mrs. Wyrick were set aside by a state judge in San Antonio in 1970 after she made restitution of $590.

Educate the Educators

Oh, that was funny! But it sure shows you the kind of people who have moved into certain echelons of state government.

The California State Board of Education conducted a survey of seventh graders—then berated the youngsters for not knowing better.

But the youngsters proved smarter than the educators who were asking the questions.

California State Board of Education sample-surveyed 12,656 seventh graders. One of the multiple-choice questions on the survey was:

"Is the United States a representative democracy, a parliamentary democracy, a direct democracy or a dictatorship?"

Now the board published, with a proclamation of chagrin, the results of the survey.

The state educators say they are distressed to learn that "only 43 per cent answered correctly that our country is a representative democracy."

Twenty-eight per cent had said a "parliamentary democracy." Sixteen per cent had said a "direct democracy," and nine per cent had said a "dictatorship."

But California State Schools Superintendent Wilson Riles expressed official embarrassment that only 43 per cent had "answered correctly" that "ours is a representative democracy."

board will be further distressed to learn that the 43 per cent were wrong—and the California State Board of Education is wrong.

Ours is not a "representative democracy"; never was. Ours is a "representative republic."

You'll not find the word "democracy" in any of our nation's cornerstone documents; not once. Nor is it included in any of our several states' constitutions.

Ours is a "representative republic."

...and to the Republic for which it stands...

What's happened is that the California State Board of Education allowed its survey to be prepared by some people who grew up believing anything F.D.R. said.

And it was he, with the willing compliance of his partisan compatriots, who adopted the designation "democracy" hoping that it would thereafter be equated with the "Democratic" party.

It was a political embarrassment to F.D.R. to be reminded that our nation is a "republic." This tended to endow the republican Party with a prior claim which F.D.R. envied.

public utterance.

Webster never did go along with the fraudulent definition. The dictionary continues to identify "democracy" as what it truly is: "majority rule."

Majority rule, of course, is the same as mob rule.

Ours is a "social democracy" perhaps. But politically, our carefully designed tripartite government is a "republic."

Another significant inheritance which is being dissipated by disuse:

With the specific exception of the Constitution (which purposely confined itself to civil law) each of our nation's cornerstone documents called upon the guidance and blessing of Almighty God.

If, in the name of separating "Church and State," we also divorce "God and Country" we pervert our founders' most noble purpose.

Ann Landers Beatings Aren't Healthy

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from the man who didn't believe some women actually beat up their husbands hit very close to home. It also gives me an opportunity to get something off my chest. I've never mentioned it to a soul. Please, Ann, no name or city must appear with this letter.

My sister confided in me several months ago that her husband INSISTS that she hit him with a belt when he does something that displeases her. She said at first she was shocked and refused to do it, but he begged her until she agreed. When she hits him he often says, "Harder, I deserve it!" - or, "Don't stop. I need more."

This has been going on for five years. She beats him about every two or three months. Afterwards, she says he is very loving and sweet and behaves like an angel for several weeks.

To all the world they appear to be an ideal couple. What do you make of it? - Strictly Entre Nous

Dear Nona: The guy is sick. Like very. His mother probably beat him with a belt when he was growing up and periodically he has an uncontrollable urge to go back to those days. There are more people like that around than you think. Usually it's the wife who wants to be beaten. It's interesting that severely neurotic people seem to marry partners willing to satisfy the neurotic need.

Dear Ann Landers: I found a definition for success in a library book at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center about 25 years ago. I have recopied it many times because I carry it in my wallet and have worn out several. Perhaps you would like to share it with your readers. No one seems to know who wrote it.

SUCCESS

"To laugh often and love much; to win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children; to earn the approbation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to give of one's self; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to have played and laughed with enthusiasm and sung with exultation; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived - this is to have succeeded." - A Devoted Reader

Dear Reader: I printed that beautiful definition of success in my column several years ago but it is well worth repeating. Thank you for sending it along.

Dear Ann Landers: Is there anything wrong with "soul kissing"? I'm sure you know what I mean. Older people call it French kissing.

My boyfriend says it's a health hazard. I say it isn't. We are both exposed to a lot of people during the day but we usually have a couple of drinks before we engage in soul kissing. I contend that the alcohol is enough to kill any germs that might be in a person's mouth.

I become very upset when he begins to lecture me about how unsanitary my kisses are. Please print this letter and your answer and I sure hope you are on my side. - Sarasota Kisses

Dear Sarasota: Soul kissing is no more of a health hazard than brother-sister kissing unless one of the parties has an infectious disease. Heavy petting after a few drinks could lead to another problem. Pregnancy.

Going to a wedding? Giving one? Or standing up in one? Even if you're already married Ann Landers's completely new "The Bride's Guide" will answer questions about today's weddings. For a copy, send a dollar bill, plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope (24 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120.

At Wit's End...

By ERMA BOMBECK

Next to the oarsman on a slave ship whose captain wanted to water ski, the most maligned person on the face of this earth is the teenager who has just landed his first full-time job.

No one suffers more and is appreciated less.

Many of these "slaves" have heard stories of men who got up each morning, were fully clothed by 7:00 and on the job by 8:30, but they discarded these as venomous rumors - the kind circulated in Berlin in the 1940's.

My son considers himself a "human sacrifice" on the altar of the Church of the Establishment. He was 15 before we could use the word "employment" in front of him. The word broke his face out and he preferred we spell it. The way he explained it to us on the eve of his marriage to a paycheck, "This is an exercise in group persecution, isn't it? All of you have run the course and now before I come of age, I have to prove that I can hack the 9-5 number, is that it? Okay, you win. If I have to prove that I'm mature, I'll get the dumb full-time J-O-B ... jii ... jiooo... joob!"

Maybe a lot of you know my son - or at least have heard of him.

He's the only employed person who has to work all day and then come home and feed himself.

He's the only dedicated teenager in North America to work when the "gang" went tubing down the river one Wednesday afternoon.

He's the first person to ever have half of his paycheck withheld for some service which he has never requested (federal income tax, hospitalization, Social Security, etc.). As he stated, "Someone is going to hear about this!"

He stands alone as the only worker who is dominated by a senile boss (age 35) who engages in office brutality by insisting he arrive on time in the mornings, and after lunch.

He's the only full-time worker in the country who has not gained the respect of family and friends for his contribution to labor.

Last Saturday, I tapped him on the shoulder. "hey, George Meany, out of the sack. It's the crack of noon."

My son rolled over. "I do not believe this is happening to a working person," he said. "All week long, I work five days a week, eight hours a day, and what do I get for it?"

"You get all your meals served like a sultan, your bedroom cleaned, your clothes washed and ironed and a full-time old family retainer - me!"

Something tells me I'll have the first kid to retire three years before he has anything to retire from.

Family Gathers For Reunion

Fifty-nine relatives and friends gathered at the Hereford Bull Barn Sunday for the annual Cocanougher-Curtsinger family reunion.

An informal covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by all and the afternoon was spent viewing colorful slides, some of which were the old home place and a Cocanougher family cemetery in Kentucky. Local Girls Earn Regionals Berths

Five Hereford girls have earned qualifying spots in the Region IX AAU Track Championships to be held July 24 at San Jacinto College in Pasadena.

All five Hereford youngsters earned the honor by finishing second in their events at the West Texas AAU Junior Olympics at Borger last Saturday.

Beverly Nixon was a double qualifier as she raced to second place finishes in the 100-yd. low hurdles and 220 in the Girl's Intermediate Division.

Nixon posted a 16.1 in the 100 LH to finish second behind

Other Hereford competitors finishing in the top six of their event were Michelle Osborn, third in the 50-yd. dash; Barrier, fourth in the high jump; and Alfred Ball, sixth in the Midget Boys 100.

Fidrych, Jones Tabbed To Start All-Star Game

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mark "The Bird" Fidrych of the Detroit Tigers and Randy Jones of the San Diego Padres, two youngsters in a hurry, are the starting pitchers tonight in the 47th All-Star Game.

President Ford will join 61,000 fans at Veterans Stadium who will attend the game, which will be viewed by a national television audience.

Fidrych, the "Gee Whiz Kid," says he can't imagine pitching in the majors, let alone starting an All-Star Game.

"There really are no words to describe it," the 21-year-old Fidrych said as the two teams held brief workouts Monday.

"My body is feeling it but it's hard to get the words across. I thought that maybe I would get in an inning, but starting... Wow!"

American League Manager Darrell Johnson picked Detroit's Ron LeFlore as his leadoff hitter. Following the left-fielder will be Rod Carew, Minnesota, first base; George Brett, Kansas

City, third base; Thurman Munson, New York, catcher; Fred Lynn, Boston, center field; Toby Harrah, Texas, shortstop; Rusty Staub, Detroit, right field, and Bobby Grich, Baltimore, second base.

In addition to Jones, National League Manager Sparky Anderson said he would have his own Pete Rose, Cincinnati, at third base and leading off, followed by Steve Garvey, Los Angeles, first base; Joe Morgan,

With Fidrych and the 26-year-old Jones, the All-Star Game has two young pitchers who dash madly from dugout to mound, and mound to dugout. They not only run fast, they pitch well.

Poke Camp Moves Into Full Swing

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — The entire Dallas Cowboy team-41 rookies and 45 veterans-were to practice for the first time here today as training camp moves into full swing.

One veteran off last year's National Football Conference championship team, reserve tackle Bruce Walton, is not in camp. Walton, who underwent off-season knee surgery, told club officials he was trying to decide whether to report.

Six free agent rookies are also no longer in camp, as they were cut Monday morning. Released were defensive back Darnell Adell of North Carolina State, running back Andy Dixon and tight end Craig Shanor, both of Wyoming, kicker Max Roth of the University of Wisconsin-Superior, linebacker Mark Spivey of Drake and running back Ralph West of Macalester.

The veterans arrived Monday, underwent physicals and attended their first team meeting of the summer. Full two-a-day drills were to resume today.

While the veterans were going through the opening day procedures, the rookies began their second week with a full-speed, two hour workout Monday afternoon.

The club also announced that the Cowboys have traded the rights to the contract of tight end John Kelsey to Kansas City for an undisclosed draft choice.

Kelsey, a fifth-round draft choice from Missouri in 1974, elected instead to play in the World Football League and never wore a Dallas uniform.

The veterans ended their first day in camp on a happy note as they were presented their 1975 National Football Conference championship rings.

Bi-Products Takes Tournament Crown

Hereford Bi-Products fell to Baca Duke 9-1 in the first of two finals contests but came back in the nightcap to down Baca Duke 8-4 to win the Men's Open Slow Pitch Softball Tournament at the Martin Road Complex in Amarillo last Saturday night.

Bi-Products, led by Dan Jackson, the tourney's most valuable player, eased to four victories before dropping the 9-1 decision.

Jackson rapped two doubles in the first finals game, and Gary Washington added a triple. Jackson and Alan Lyons each blasted a triple in the second game to lead Bi-Products to the title.

Both Bi-Products and Baca Duke advance to the Regional Tournament in Lubbock next Saturday as a result of their first and second place finishes.

Budweiser and Truck City finished third and fourth respectively at the tournament. Budweiser won three games in-a-row before dropping decisions to Bi-Products and Baca Duke.

Tips on shooting, reloading, and ballistics, are the subject of a new gun column, "Point of Aim," which is scheduled to appear regularly in the Sunday issue of The Hereford Brand.

Sponsored by the A&M Gun Shop, 715 So. 25 Mile Avenue, Hereford, columns are by Millard L. Murray, owner, and deal with controversial and little-known firearms facts on a semi-technical level. Topics are frequently suggested by area shooters, Murray said, who raise questions that can't be answered in-depth during store hours.

Examples of scheduled column subjects are: "Shooting the Angles," should you hold high or low when firing uphill or downhill; "The Best Handgun for Home Defense;" "Why Shotgunners Miss," the importance of correct choke and stock fit; "Reasons for Reloading,"

It's Too Easy The nation's productivity problem stems from smarter people doing dumber work, according to Conference Board studies. The U.S. educational level is rising at the same time job content is declining. As a result, studies show that more than 70 per cent of all working people feel they are underutilized. Among the suggested solutions: redesign certain jobs, improve the working environment and union-management relations, and involve employees more in decision-making.

Radio, Valuable Tools Taken In Thefts

Thieves made numerous break-ins over the weekend in Hereford as city police were faced with the frustrating task of trying to find those responsible once again Monday morning.

POLICE RECEIVED a report Monday concerning the theft of several items from a car parked at Neal's Body shop at 128 Schley sometime late last week.

Ronnie Wagner of 433 Ave. C reported that a CB radio, an eight track stereo and two speakers were taken from his vehicle while it was parked on the lot at the shop. The thieves also struck the vehicle numerous times with a sharp instrument.

The estimated value of the stolen items and the damage to the vehicle amounted to about $625.

A number of tools valued at over $90 were taken from a pickup parked at the John Drake home at 712 Irving Sunday and a rock was thrown through the glass in the front door of Suit's Auto Supply at 115 Schley Sunday.

Two impact wrenches valued at $179 were taken from Hereford Frame & Axle at 116 South Ave. K Sunday night. Burglars apparently pried open the south door to gain entry.

BURGLARS ALSO broke into the Tony

Carter home at 620 Ave. J Sunday, but nothing was reported missing.

Vandals damaged a vehicle owned by Beatrice Maldonado of 109 East 6th Sunday by pouring black paint over it.

A window at the N.W. Livesay home at 209 East 5th was broken Sunday as burglars entered the home, but nothing was taken.

A joiner valued at $650 was taken from the LaPlata Drive apartments which are currently under construction sometime over the weekend.

THIEVES PRIED a sheet of plywood away from a doorway to enter the apartment area.

Mary Foreman of 416 Ave. G reported that a rear door handle on her car was torn off sometime between 6 and 6:30 p.m. Monday while the vehicle was parked at T & Y on West Park Avenue.

Police were unsure if the incident was an accident or an act of vandalism.

Troubled Loner Kills 7

FULLERTON, Calif. (AP) - The picture of a quiet, clean-cut loner troubled over breaking up with a wife a bit younger than himself has emerged as authorities try to pinpoint the motive for a shooting spree that left seven persons dead and two wounded.

Edward Charles Allaway, 37, turned himself over to authorities shortly after he allegedly shot down nine persons Monday morning at the California State University at Fullerton library.

The shooting spree left bodies strewn throughout the basement of the library building. One policeman said later, "It was just so damn gruesome. It looked like Vietnam."

at the time, and from what we've read on the matter in recent years there are still many who feel that it remains impractical because of logistics, economics and environmental damage that might be incurred.

Be that as it may, TWDB members and others refuse to say quits. A revised version of the Texas Water Plan will be submitted to the 65th Legislature early next year, according to James M. Rose, TWDB executive director.

Mr. Rose points out some interesting and vitally important facts concerning Texas water needs. Among them are:

-Texas' population is projected to exceed 17.3 million by the year 2000 and is expected to double the current figure of 12.3 million in the next 50 years. With no increase at all in irrigated acres, water needs will increase by 43 percent by the year 2020.

-Of the 10 million acres now irrigated in Texas, more than 60 percent of the crops produced come from irrigated land—70 percent of which is in this High Plains area. This area also produces 66 percent of Texas' cotton, 53 percent of grain sorghum, 72 percent of the wheat, and 82 percent of the grain feed beef.

"Without this area in full production, it is useless to even think about what the price of food might be—there won't be enough to go around at any price", according to Mr. Rose.

He also says the TWDB is studying "alternatives to find the best plan to achieve goals of importing water to the Texas High Plains and other areas."

We hope it's not significant that "irrigated agriculture" is listed thirdly among the board's six-points for water development. First, and we suppose their number one priority is to "meet the water supply needs of small towns and communities." Second is to "provide municipal and industrial water supply as a tool in economic development."

Providing fresh water inflows to bays and estuaries is fourth while seeking importation of water from outside Texas is listed fifth. Sixth is to "formulate a strategy for integrating water development planning in framework of overall state resources, economic and social planning."

The 64th Legislature last year authorized Gov. Briscoe to negotiate with other states with surplus water which might be used in an importation plan. Also authorized was a constitutional amendment, which if okay'ed by voters in November, will increase the bonding authority of the Water Development Fund by $400 million to finance design and implementation of a long range water plan.

That's quite a step down from 1969 when the $3.5 billion requested at that time. The wheel of fortune, as it were, is spinning and where it will stop nobody knows... or do we?

keynote speaker."

Since the first Democratic convention in 1832, she said, "it would have been most unusual for any national political party to have asked a Barbara Jordan to make a keynote address - most unusual."

"The past notwithstanding, a Barbara Jordan is before you tonight," she said. "This is one additional bit of evidence that the American dream need not forever be deferred."

Carter finished a series of personal interviews with the potential running mates Monday and said he would sort all the information and impressions he had gathered and make his choice.

"I don't know how to describe the procedure," he said, "except as a thought process."

"It's undoubtedly the most important decision that I will make this year," Carter said, "perhaps one of the most important in my whole life."

Rosalynn Carter disclosed Monday night that she has sat in on all of the interviews and that she also looked over the wives of each prospective ticket mate.

One of those on the list took himself out of consideration Monday. Rep. Peter Rodino of New Jersey, who headed the House Judiciary Committee impeachment hearings on Richard Nixon, said he withdrew because of a recurring glaucoma from which he suffers. That left six, all members of the Senate.

Carter revealed Monday that private polls taken by his campaign organization showed that only two of these would actually help his chances in the fall. He identified them as Glenn and Muskie.
