DOUBLE AT-TRACTION IS WELL LIKED

LYCEUM AND BAND PLEASE LARGE AUDIENCE

THAT FINE BAND

Astonished Patrons With Finished Work. Gave Leader a Watch

In spite of the unusual number of sick people in the community and the suddenly cool weather a fair crowd turned out Thursday night to the joint program of the lyceum committee and the Hereford Band at the Star Theatre. Owing to the length of the combination entertainment it was around eleven o'clock when the last curtain was rung down.

The Henderson Trio was the last lyceum offering for the season. Three young men, a pianist, a saxophonist and a singer and impersonator, entertained the crowd with novelty stunts, songs of various kinds and readings, until about nine o'clock after which the Band came over from the courthouse and carried through the program printed in The Brand last week, with one slight change. There were many people in that audience who had never before heard the band play a regular concert and many new friends were added before the evening was over. It was the last appearance of Prof. E. N. Brothers, leader, who for the past two years has labored hard and earnestly to develop the band that today, according to well-merited criticism, stands heads and shoulders above any similar amateur organization in this section of the world.

Only one jazz number was rendered, the remainder of the program being surprising renditions of standard marches, overtures, etc. A feature was a solo by Rev. Paul J. Merrill of the Christian church who sang the Rosary in place of Mrs. Carl Mountz, who was indisposed. Rev. Merrill has a pleasing voice and his effort was encouraged liberally by the audience. Picking out any particular number on the program is a matter of taste with individuals, but perhaps the old classic Poet and Peasant and that other standard concert waltz, Wedding of the Winds, elicited the most praise from the attentive audience.

Prior to the concert the band met at the courthouse and had two flash-light pictures made. Mrs. Brothers and son were included. Then D. L. McDonald, in an honest-to-goodness presentation speech, told Mr. Brothers how much Hereford and the Hereford Band appreciated him, how they hated to lose him, what good luck they wished for him in the future, and handed him a beautiful gold watch, suitably inscribed, the gift of the members of the band.

It was a splendid and effecting ending to a long and cordial association that will remain in the hearts of all who participated for all time.

PEP CLASS PLANS PLAY WRITTEN BY REV. PAUL MERRILL

The Pep Class of the Christian Church are planning a unique local entertainment for the night of February 15, at the Star Theatre. A play, "The Redemption of David Brown," written by the Rev. Paul Merrill of the Christian church, will be presented to the public on that occasion by members of this hustling Sunday School class.

A cast of ten characters will be utilized and the rehearsals are being coached by Rev. Merrill himself. More complete details and programs will be announced at a later date.

JACKSON RANCH IS TO BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER TUESDAY

It is believed that there will be some lively bidding when Sheriff Parcell puts up the huge Jackson Bros. Ranch lands for sale to the highest bidder on February 6.

This is one of the largest ranches in this country and is being closed out by suit of the North Texas Trust Company at Fort Worth. An unusual crowd of out-of-town buyers for a sheriff's sale is anticipated Tuesday.

With the Remarkable Amount of Tested Musical Talent Hereford Has, Why Not a Local Lyceum?

A number of Hereford citizens, all of whom stand for clean, high-grade entertainment, were heard to outline a plan of local lyceum work for next winter that The Brand thinks worthy of earnest consideration. These gentlemen point out that Hereford boasts a remarkable number of talented musicians, in both vocal and instrumental music, and if all this talent could be combined and a definite plan of work laid out for them the citizens of the community could be supplied with a course of entertainments next winter that would be the equal, if not the superior, of any outside talent that might be imported. The suggestion is that instead of signing a contract for another year for a lyceum program, the Hereford Band, the Music Study Club, and other local agencies and individuals be brought together, a program of five different entertainments laid out for next winter, and the intervening time utilized in preparing for these public performances, for which a small fee would be charged and the proceeds devoted to local needs. It is known that such an idea would be very favorably considered by both the members of the band and of the Music Study Club. With a definite program of five numbers in front of them and with the undoubted talent there is in this town available for use it seems certain that something definite will grow out of the suggestion, local money be kept at home next winter, encouragement given to the development of musical talent here, and the patrons of these programs treated to something worth while in every particular. An effort is to be made at once to realize something concrete out of this idea, advanced from several sources Friday morning.

Firemen's Frolic At Star Planned For February 12

A Firemen's Frolic—no, not a Fracas—is brewing for the night of Monday, February 12, if nothing unforeseen comes in between. It will be at the Star.

What's a Frolic, as distinct from a Fracas? Well, the fracas means all so need to be an athletic fight over, industries, etc. in the vicinities of the Frolic is a musical and general entertainment program. There's a big difference, you see, and don't make the mistake of getting the two terms confused. This Frolic on the night of February 12 is to be participated in by the Methodist church Orchestra, the Music Study Club of Hereford, the Firemen themselves, several musical soloists, including Messieurs Carl Moubitz, Louise Allen, etc., and the Rev. Paul J. Merrill. Then there will be a feature comic picture and, if the stifle is not bad that night, a special short concert by the Wilkinson-Radio artists, next door.

There are a lot of details to work out yet and Chief Rockwell is busy lining up his talent and his program. The Firemen always put on a good show and this one is to be no exception. More details later—meanwhile—get ready!

SMITH ESTATE IS TO HAVE BIG SALE ON FEBRUARY 8TH

Another general farm sale of large dimensions will be held on Thursday, February 8, beginning at 11:00 a. m. on the Geo. W. Smith Irrigated farm, two miles east of Hereford. This sale will cover the property of the W. H. Smith estate, and will include about fourteen head of horses and mules, twelve head of cattle, mostly dairy stock, standard-bred poultry, and a long list of farm machinery, implements, household goods, etc. A detailed sale bill will appear in next Tuesday's Brand, and preparations are being made for a big crowd and a big sale.

H. D. REED COMES BACK TO PANHANDLE FOR LOCATION

H. D. Reed and Hille Bennett returned to Hereford this week after a brief visit via automobile to points in Alabama and Mississippi. Mr. Reed, who recently sold out The Fair racket store to C. A. Skelton, had intended locating somewhere in that country, but says after a brief look around he found nothing that approached the Panhandle of Texas and he is back in this section to stay. It is understood that he and his sister, Miss Lucy, may locate in Amarillo.

WEATHER MAN HAS ANOTHER GUESS—NO MISSED IT AGAIN

The Weather Man wired The Brand Thursday that it would be a very cold Friday morning and that it might snow. This cheering news was promptly belittled about town. "Yep, he missed it again. It was pretty cool Friday morning, though not as bad as he prophesied. And there most emphatically was no snow."

Friday Mr. Weather Man again wired as follows: "Cold wave, with temperature 10-20 Saturday a. m." Use our own discretion.

Grist Mill Will Be Erected Here Soon, is Report

Hereford is soon to have a real grist mill. J. L. (Roy) Rogers bought a half interest in a grist mill of W. E. Jergins located in Cloudercroft, New Mexico, and is making preparations to move the mill to Hereford in the next thirty days. The mill is of the Midway Marquette type and its capacity is 25 barrels per day. The new mill is to be located on the street from the Harris Co. Gas and South on Main street. Mr. Rogers is giving the lot to the new company, W. E. Jergins, former owner of the mill, is erasing the machinery and will also tear down the building preparatory to making shipment to this city. Mr. Rogers said the mill will be ready to grind in the next sixty days.

MORE INFORMATION ON MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST NUMBERS

Franz Schubert, of Vienna, (1797-1828) the greatest song writer who ever lived, wrote his melodies seemingly without effort, much as an inspired poet would create his verses. Most of his songs are settings of poems of the great masters: Shakespeare, Goethe, Heine and others. "Hark, Hark, the Lark" is a setting of the morning song from Shakespeare's "Cymbeline." The lover stands beneath his lady's window at dawn and calls to her in this love serenade, to awake and behold the beauties of the sunrise. The melody is bright and graceful, the rhythm spirited and gay, the poem charming. One senses all of the freshness of a morning breeze, its twittering birds, and the gorgeous colorings of the sunrise. Be sure and read the poem in connection with the study of this selection.

"March Militaire." While Schubert is known as the greatest song writer, having written in his life 600 songs, he also wrote for orchestra and for piano. The "March Militaire" was originally written as a duet for piano forte but it has been transcribed for orchestra with wonderful effect. The march is in rather idealized style and suggests a fete or concert. The woodwinds are used to advantage and give rich coloring to the melody at frequent intervals.

The number opens with an introductory phrase which is really part of the theme. The rhythm of this introduction suggests the booming of the brass drums thundering out the march time. Following this comes the melody, a pleasing theme for woodwinds, which on its second appearance, is backed by brass in a bugle-like fanfare.

Unfinished Symphony—"A symphony" or a "sonata," for an orchestra is written in several parts called movements, usually four in number. The reason the "symphony" is called "unfinished" is that only two movements were completed. Schubert, the composer, began to write this symphony as an expression of his gratitude to a musical society for bestowing an honor upon him. Two movements were completed and nine measures of the third jotted down on the paper when something interrupted him, and he put the work aside. In the six remaining years of his life he never resumed the "unfinished" work, and after his death it was found in a heap of his masterpieces that even he had never heard played by an orchestra. Little the probate agent knew of the worth of these gems of beauty when he valued them in the inventory of Schubert's estate at ten florins, or less than fifty cents in our money.

Baptists Had a Great Convention Here on Tuesday

The Workers Conference of the Terra Blanca Baptist Association, held at the local Baptist church on Tuesday, was a very great success. Notwithstanding the prevalent illness throughout the section, there was a fine attendance from Tulla, Canyon, Summerfield, Bovina, Friona, Happy, Dimmitt, and some other points. Pastor Hall, of Happy, presided during the session.

Interesting addresses were made on subjects drawn from the times of Samuel to David in Hebrew history by pastors Morris of Summerfield, Aulek of Canyon, Hall of Happy, Dawson of Tulla, Lindley of Dimmitt, and Manager Fronabarger of Cota Canyon Assembly and Mrs. Johnson of Canyon. Pastor W. R. Hill of the local church, made an address on "Evolution or Creation" which received the expressed approbation of the congregation. Mr. Hill used no meaningless terms in his condemnation of evolution. His contention was that evolution was an unproven theory, and belongs in the realm of speculative philosophy rather than science, which is to do with facts.

One of the most important, and perhaps the most interesting, part of the meeting was the ordaining to the Gospel Ministry of Rufus Brasill, of Hereford. Young Mr. Brasill has recently graduated from Wayland College at Plainview, and at present has charge of the Baptist Church at Bovina. The community is highly honored to have one of her young men enter the high calling of the ministry. Dr. E. B. Atwood, Pres. of Wayland College, brought one of the most powerful messages in the ordaining sermon ever heard in Hereford. A large gathering heard him on this occasion. Mrs. Atwood accompanied Dr. Atwood on the trip here. Dr. Atwood was formerly pastor of the Hereford church, and is a popular minister with the Hereford people.

An excellent dinner was served at the church, and was a fine social affair. A most cordial expression of appreciation was given the Hereford people by the conference. The next meeting will be held at Happy, where Rev. J. M. Hall is the pastor.

Farm Bureau Day At Cordova Luncheon Next Monday

Plans are being perfected for the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce to be held at the Cordova Hotel next Monday at noon. This meeting has been designated as "Farm Bureau Day" and the entire program will be given up to discussion of the Farm Bureau, its purposes and relations to the business men of Hereford. Judge L. Gough will be the principal speaker and Ray Hershey will report on his trip to Dallas recently to attend the state meeting of the Farm Bureau as a delegate from Deaf Smith county.

JOE KILLOUGH, A FORMER RESIDENT, MARRIED SUNDAY

The following item appearing in the Amarillo Tribune will be of interest to the many local friends and acquaintances of Joe Killough, former Hereford citizen and now one of Amarillo's leading merchants: "Joe Killough, Amarillo merchant and Miss Vera E. Wells were married Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of Evangelist F. B. Shepherd, 1619 Washington Street. Only a few friends and relatives were present.

Mr. Killough is with the firm of Joe Killough & Company, men's clothing store, and is well known to the business interests of Amarillo and the Panhandle. Mrs. Killough is a sister of Mrs. James A. Morgan, 505 Wells Street. Mr. and Mrs. Killough are at home at 804 Jackson Street.

BILL McLEAN HAS QUICK IDEA FOR USING A BROTHER

Born, January 31, to Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, a boy. The father reports that when little Bill McLean was shown his new brother he examined him solemnly for a moment, then exclaimed: "O, Roy! Just wait until I get my football blown up!"

Remember the Cotton Experiment meeting, 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, February 4. Two interesting meetings are planned and it will be worth the time of anyone to attend.

FIRST DOLLAR WEDNESDAY SURPRISINGLY GOOD; WILL TAKE TIME TO DEVELOP IT

NOTICEABLE INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO CAME IN WEDNESDAY, AND CROWDS SHOULD INCREASE WEEK BY WEEK

MAJORITY OF MERCHANTS PLEASED

About Forty out of Forty-eight Report Brisk Demands Throughout Day for Bargains Offered; Second Dollar Wednesday Next Week; New Specials Featured

Hereford's First Dollar Wednesday this week was surprisingly good in its results for the first effort and shows what it can be developed into with steady persistence and attention. It had its sink spots, as a matter of course, as always happens with any new cooperative venture. Out of the forty-eight who participated about forty reported good results. Certain lines of business were not patronized much during the day, but an overwhelming majority of the forty-eight were more than pleased with the result. The people generally have not waked up to the advantages of such a day each week, but this will soon "soak in," in the opinion of the majority, and all merchants who "stick" and keep pounding at it will soon realize the results.

There was a perceptible increase in the crowd on the streets for Wednesday. It is believed that this will be more noticeable from week to week as the day becomes more generally advertised. The Golden Rule Produce, who sold a little above the current market price for chickens Wednesday, report that they bought 1500 pounds of poultry in that one day. There were a few who said they could see no particular benefit on the first day, among them being The Hereford Bakery and the tailor shops, but all are staying with the agreement and all are again offering some splendid bargains in this issue of the Brand for next Wednesday, the second Dollar Wednesday.

Read the ads, pick out your bargains, ask for your coupons! The combined interest of buyers and sellers will rebound to the benefit of all concerned. Among the comments heard by The Brand this Wednesday were the following: "A bargain, a bargain, a bargain!" "I don't see anything but bargains here!" "I got a good one!" "I got a good one!" "I got a good one!"

C. A. Skelton: "I did a nice business; this first day show what can be done with Dollar Wednesday if we stick to it and build it up."

Rex Tynes, City Drug Store: "Our business was light but we can see the possibilities of the Dollar Wednesday and intend to stay with it."

Williams Grocery: "Brisk business and satisfactory results."

Homer Fox, Fox Mercantile: "That mill cotton we advertised was all gone at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, although we thought we had enough to last three months."

George Garrison, Garrison Bros.: "A buying success—that's what we called it—because we had a good crowd and we got a good business out of it."

E. R. Black: "We sold 1000 loaves for four rooms from our ad, and consider the first effort a success in every way. Keep pushing it along."

J. J. Clark: "They made a hole in our stock of Liquid Smoke and we had a big business all day."

Homer Wilkinson, Ford Garage: "We sold a Ford and delivered a whole hostful of coupons. It's a good thing—let's keep pulling together."

Incidentally, The Brand added 47 new subscribers to the subscription list.

Frank Gyles, Groceriesman, reported a good business and optimism for the future of the Dollar Wednesday.

Mrs. Vogue, Millinery, sold several hats and reported a lot of prospects.

Officers Named For First Year By New Golf Club

Members of the newly organized Hereford Golf Club met at the Fox Mercantile Co. store last Wednesday night and formed an organization for the promotion of the royal Scottish sport in Hereford. James E. Black was elected president, Seth B. Holman, vice president, Homer E. Fox, secretary, and J. J. Clark, treasurer. J. J. Clark, secretary, was named by the president, and a grand committee, consisting of Carl Gilliland, F. H. Overman, and Clifford Acker was also appointed. The matter of securing suitable grounds is now being worked out. On next Monday it is understood that a party of Canyon golfers will come over and assist the newly organized association in getting started off properly.

JOHN W. WASSON, FORMER RESIDENT, HAS PASSED AWAY

The following account of the death of John W. Wasson, former resident of Hereford, will be interesting to his former acquaintances here. Mr. Wasson left Hereford about 1908. He was in the real estate business here and was the father of Mrs. Joe Warner. "The community was shocked to hear of the death of John W. Wasson who died last Thursday, January 11, at his home in Leon, with pneumonia. He had not been in Hereford for some time and hardly knew of his sickness until death came."

The funeral was not held until Tuesday, Jan. 16, as they waited for the two daughters who were in California at the time of his death. The funeral was presided at the M. E. church at Leon Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock and then the body was brought to Linville for burial, where the Masons took charge of the services. Linville, Iowa, Tribune.

ABOUT USUAL NUMBER POLL TAXES PAID IN COUNTY

Deputy sheriff Leonard Foster said Friday that a total of 1,622 poll taxes and five exemptions had been issued from his office through January 31, which is very close to the figures of the year previous.

Secretary Homer Davidson of the school board reports collections about the same as last year, with $4,229.73 delinquent, or about fourteen percent. Quite a lot of delinquent money from last year has also been collected and more will probably come through the sheriff's office when all is checked up. Miss Grace Skelton, city clerk, is ill, and no reports on the collections and polls in the city office were available Friday.

DIMITT
Mrs. J. C. Powell
We are sad to report the death of Mrs. J. C. Powell of the Mulkey community. She had been removed to the Plainview Sanitarium for an operation but was too weak to stand it, passing away at 10:20 p. m. January 29.

Mills Isbell Webb was born Dec. 3, 1881. At the age of sixteen years she was married to J. C. Powell. To this union were born five children, four of whom are still living. Besides the immediate family, Mrs. Powell leaves a brother, B. W. Webb of Kress, and a half brother, J. L. White of the Dimmitt community, to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Powell had been a member of the Presbyterian church for eighteen years and was a devoted Christian, always ready to help those about her. A host of friends join with the family in their sorrow. Of course we shall miss her, but we have this consolation, that we can meet her in that land where no sorrows come.
