Officers Net Two Burglary Suspects

Hereford police and Deaf Smith County sheriff's officers had only one warrant outstanding on a suspect in the Oct. 1 and Oct. 2 burglaries of TagCo Industries and the Pizza Hut at presstime after one suspect turned herself in to sheriff's officers over the weekend and a second suspect was arrested Friday.

Mrs. Linda Teagarden of 132 Ave A. was arrested by city police Friday afternoon and charged with one count of burglary in connection with the theft at the Pizza Hut. Her bond was set at $2500.

Mrs. Teagarden is the wife of Jerald L. Teagarden, 22, who was arrested here Oct. 6, and charged with two counts of burglary in connection with the thefts at the two local firms. His bond was set at $5000 on each of the two counts.

A spokesman for the county sheriff's office indicated that, Jean Hay, 39, of Hereford surrendered to sheriff's officers Monday and was charged with two counts of burglary. Her bond was set at $5000.

Between $2000 and $2500 was taken in the Oct. 2 burglary of the Pizza Hut on West Highway 60, and cash, a radio and office equipment was taken Oct. 1 at TagCo Industries, also located on West Highway 60.

"FREEDOM OF THE PRESS... a mandate from history" is the theme of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 10-16. The observance was initiated in 1939 to focus public attention on the function and importance of newspapers to their communities and the nation, but—most important—to remind all Americans that the Freedom of the Press exists in the nation not for the benefit of the press... but the benefit of the people!

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press."—1st Amendment, U.S. Constitution.

THE UNITED WAY of Deaf Smith County has launched its campaign to raise $102,274 to fund the worthwhile activities and programs of 11 participating agencies. Volunteer workers started making calls last week, stressing the importance of "fair-share giving" and of using the payroll deduction plan to make one contribution for 11 agencies.

A few people have expressed amazement that United Way leaders adopted such a high goal this year. But the truth of the matter is that local residents, despite some successful campaigns, haven't been giving enough on a per capita basis. The average has been around $3 to $3.50 per person, compared to $6 to $8 in many other communities.

UW leaders believe the secret is in getting more people involved in the community-wide effort. The easiest way for the employee to give his fair share is through payroll deduction, but the solicitor and the employer must invite and encourage employees to participate!

One thing is certain: United Way directors and drive workers won't ask anybody to give any more generously, on the basis of ability to contribute, than they are willing to contribute themselves. That's the United Way.

THIS IS A WORLD in which each of us, knowing his limitations, knowing the evils of superficiality... will have to cling to what is close to him, to what he knows, to what he can do, to his friends and his tradition and his love, lest he be dissolved in a universal confusion and know nothing and love nothing. It is at the same time a world in which none of us can find sanction for any ignorance, any insensitivity, any indifference... J. Robert Oppenheimer.

School Trustees Gather Today At Board Meet

The Hereford School board of trustees was scheduled to meet in regular session at 4 p.m. today at the central school administration building.

The trustees considered a curriculum matter concerning the process of accreditation, a community education report, a proposal to reappraise property by a quadrant method, and heard a policy review for identifying bilingual students.

Also, the board considered the direct affiliate program of the National School Board Association, discussed enrollment figures, reviewed a cafeteria report, heard a transportation report, and received a tax office report.

It was the first meeting in Hereford for Dr. Harrell Holder, the new superintendent. He was hired September from the Bishop Independent School district.

Adcock Wins Grid Contest

Mike Adcock of 903 Sioux grabbed first place in the weekly BRAND football contest on the basis of his tie-breaker guess of 37 after tying one other entrant with six misses.

Phyl Moten of Hereford also missed six games, but was ten points short of Adcock's tie breaker guess to take the second place prize. The Hereford-Dumas point total was 64.

Fourteen other contestants missed only seven games in last week's contest. Dennis Goheen took third place on the basis of his 42 point tie-breaker guess, the highest estimate among the top finishers.

Games for this week's contest appear in today's issue. Entries must be turned in or mailed to the BRAND office by 5 p.m. Friday in order to be eligible.

VP Debate

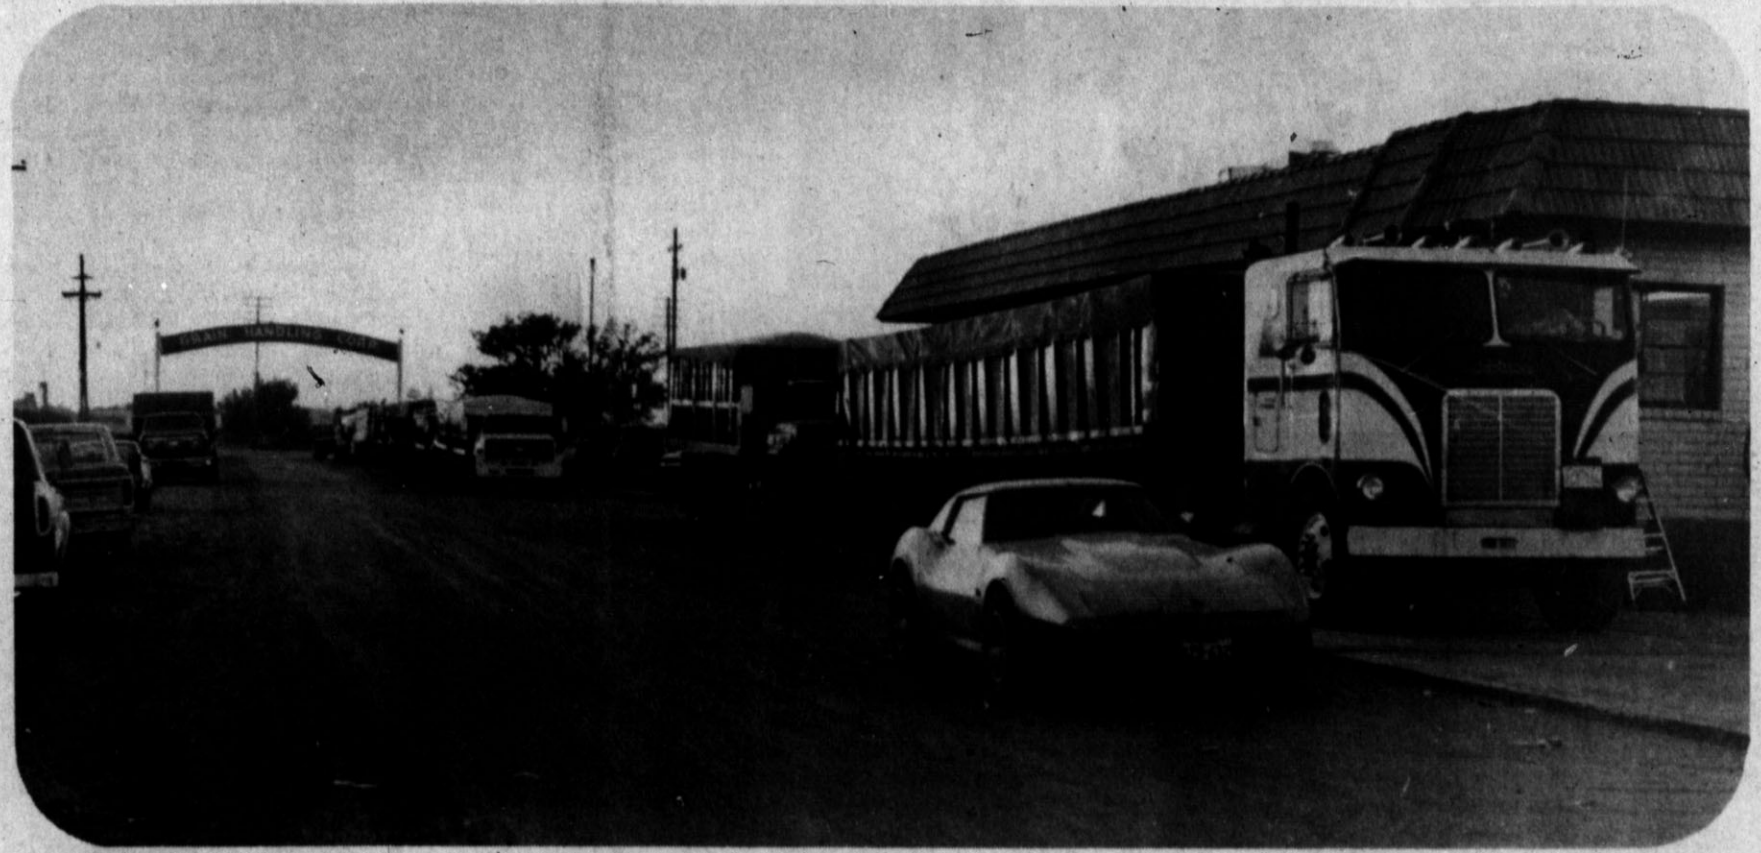

Tickets Valued

HOUSTON (AP)—Veta Winick, national public relations director for the League of Women Voters, says "people are crawling out of the woodwork wanting tickets" for the vice presidential debate Friday night.

Republican Robert Dole and Democrat Walter F. Mondale are to appear at the Alley Theater in downtown Houston for the nationally televised debate.

The public relations-director said Monday, "Actually, your best seat is at home in front of the TV set. Mainly that's what it is for. It's for the television viewing audience."

The Alley Theater sets only 800 and has been narrowed to 600 with the state setup for television cameras.

Truck Stop

These trucks at the Hereford Grain Handling Corporation form the beginning of a two-mile long line composed of vehicles waiting Monday evening to unload corn grain which was combined from area fields. The elevator handled 10 million pounds of corn Saturday and expected to do the same several days this week. The harvest has been continuing for the past two weeks and is expected to progress another two weeks according to an elevator employee. The extra large harvest has been the result of larger amounts of acreage devoted to corn. Drivers had to wait as long as three or four hours to unload as the line stretched down the road outside the elevator.

Quadrant Method of Reappraisal Presented To County Officials

By JOBBY TEMPLETON, Brand News Editor

The Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court Tuesday reviewed a proposed quadrant system of reappraising taxable property and allowed a special plan whereby county employees may deduct contributions from their pay checks for the local United Way Campaign.

Also, the commissioners decided to table action on a possible change in the county retirement policy, tentatively accepted a state transportation for Deaf Smith County, agreed to let bids on county-wide communications equipment, and accepted a fire report issued by the city.

JIM McMORRIES, tax appraiser and consultant to the county, explained that two possible methods of appraising were possible. Either the county could continue as present with a periodic reappraisal every few years or it could move to the quadrant system, which would revalue a fourth of the land every four years.

He recommended the quadrant method since it would keep land value more current and possible satisfy expected changes in the state law governing ad valorem taxes and school financing formulas. A reappraisal, the first in 15 years, was just completed and the long range plan for reappraising is designed to implement a continuous process for updating land values.

The method is also recommended by the ad hoc committee on the reappraisal project.

The court delayed action until commissioner could investigate it further. McMORRIES asked for a decision within about 30 days to help the tax office proceed with its tax roll preparations.

HE ADMITTED that an error was made during the original reappraisal in reference to the irrigation water well capacities. Farmers are finding out that wells aren't pumping as much as initially thought. Flow meter readings have been taken and these are being rendered to the tax office to correct any inaccurate valuations.

"I wasn't aware of the water situation," McMORRIES said. "As water declines, values will be reduced by as much as $10 million next year."

This would result in the county having to change assessment ratios upward to offset any lost value. The taxes were figured accurately enough to cover the 1976-77 county budget, but a quadrant system of appraisal could correct any lost value by the 1978 tax year.

Candidate Representatives Will Man Farm 'Hotline' Tomorrow

SPRING LAKE--K.B. Parish, Spring Lake area National Director of the Agriculture Council of America, has announced that top level representatives of both President Ford and Democratic candidate Jimmy Carter will man the expanded Agriculture Council of America's October "Farm Line" entitled "Decision '76."

Richard Lyng, Director of the Farmers for Food Committee and P.R. "Bobby" Smith, Chairman of the Carter/Mondale Food and Agriculture Committee will head the teams of spokesman representing both candidates who will hear comments from all parts of the country on major farm issues. Officials of the Democratic and Republican National Committees also will participate as each party will man an equal number of ACA WATS lines throughout the program.

ACA has doubled the Farm Line's normal operation time from four to eight hours. The ACA leader said anyone can express an opinion on this timely topic by calling ACA's toll-free number (800/424-3510) on Wednesday, October 13, between noon and 8 p.m. E.D.T.

"The objective of the program is to enable rank and file producers to speak directly with influential decision makers about their views on important farm issues," commented ACA Chairman-Elect Dale Hendricks, who is also Chairman of ACA's Issues Identification Committee.

"This is a good way to help put farm issues exactly where they belong—high

He suggested another category in the schedules in between total dry land and land subject to irrigation. The current problem exists with land watered by wells pumping four inches and under and wells delivering water above the five-inch level.

Cost of the plan is estimated at 1/4 the original appraisal expense.

Under the quadrant system, the southeast quarter of the county would be appraised in the first year, followed by the northeast quarter, where the value is already lost. The southwest portion would be appraised in the third year and the northwest section would be appraised on the list of national priorities regardless of who wins the election," added Dale Hendricks, a dairyman from Bloomfield, Iowa.

"The views and positions expressed and discussed in this program will be strictly those of the participant's—not ACA's," Hendricks emphasized. "We are only providing this as a means of affording the individual at the local level an opportunity to express his views to top decision makers at the national level."

The non-political and non-legislative ACA operates the monthly Farm Line series to provide a forum for the discussion of important agricultural issues. Earlier programs have covered topics such as "Estate Taxes", "Government Regulation", "Land Use", and "Drought Problems." ACA WATS lines were busy from the beginning of each program as callers talked directly with experts on the subject.

ACA suggests that people reaching a busy signal, place a call later during the Farm Line's extended hours of operation.

The Agriculture Council of America, founded in 1973, is made up of individual farmers, farm and commodity organizations and companies that supply the farmers. Its purpose is to improve communications between farmers and urban consumers.

Reese to Campaign Here Wednesday; Office Opened

Jim Reese, Republican Candidate for the 19th Congressional District seat, will be in Hereford Wednesday to campaign.

He is coming here in connection with the opening of the local Republican office. It was established Monday for all Republican candidates from the presidential race down to local candidates.

Volunteers will man the office from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. It is located at 1503 E. Park.

Reese will attend the Hereford Lions Club meeting at noon Wednesday at the Civic Club Center. No speech will be given. He will then be present from 1:30-3 p.m. at the Republican campaign headquarters for any interested voters who may want to talk with him. Reese is opposed by George Mahon, incumbent Democrat from Lubbock. Reese is the former mayor of Odessa.

A meeting for Reese campaign workers is set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Hereford Community Center. It will be conducted by Wes Fisher, county Republican Party chairman and Reese campaign organizer.

Ford Strike in Question

DETROIT (AP)—Hopes for an end to the 28-day-old Ford Motor Co. strike remained clouded by a possible veto from skilled workers, as union officials began tallying votes from around the country today.

United Auto Workers leaders have given the 25,000 tradesmen authority to reject the new three-year accord even if a majority of the 145,000 UAW Ford production workers ratify the agreement.

Deaths Follow Flu Shots

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Allegheny County Health Department today shut down all 13 of its swine flu inoculation sites following the deaths of three elderly people hours after receiving the vaccine at a Pittsburgh clinic.

"As a precautionary measure, we have closed the sites pending a study by the coroner's office and the two physicians who are here from the federal Center for Disease Control," said a Health Department spokeswoman.

Stock Market Falls

NEW YORK (AP)—If the recent poor showing of the stock market is any guide, American investors' hopes for economic recovery have under-gone a bit of a shakeup lately.

The best-known measure of stock price trends, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks, fell 11.56 points Monday to 940.82—its lowest level in nearly nine months.

Pat Nixon Recovering

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—Patricia Nixon, wife of ex-President Richard M. Nixon, is reported recovering on schedule from the stroke she suffered last summer.

A spokesman for the former first lady said Monday that Mrs. Nixon, recuperating at her home here, has not returned to Long Beach Memorial Hospital since July 23, when she left after a 15-day stay.

SS Checks Increase For People Here

The number of Deaf Smith County residents who are receiving monthly retirement checks through Social Security continues to rise, according to the latest Government report.

It shows that some 2,138 persons in the local area, more than ever before, are now getting payments. Four years ago, by way of comparison, the total was 1,821.

The majority of the recipients are retired workers. The others include disabled workers, widows, children and other dependents.

The growth is attributed chiefly to amendments to the law, made from time to time by Congress, which have brought more people under coverage.

And the amount of money that is going to them is also increasing. With the payment scale now rigidly tied to rises in the cost of living, this year's boost, which went into effect on July 1st, amounted to 6.4 per cent.

That was because the Consumer Price Index rose to that extent between the first quarter of 1975 and the first quarter of 1976.

The findings, for the local area and for every other part of the United States, are contained in the annual report of the Social Security Administration.

Nationally, it shows, more than 80 million workers—or about 9 out every 10 in the labor force—have been brought into the program.

As for the beneficiaries, there are over 32 million. They are receiving approximately $70 billion a year.

In Deaf Smith County, the average annual payment per recipient was $1,848 in the past year, well above the $1,113 paid in 1971.

The combination of more beneficiaries and bigger checks has greatly increased the flow of cash into the area in the last few years.

Total payments to local residents, as of the beginning of 1976, were at the annual rate of $4,284,000, as against $2,028,000 four years before.

It was a 100 per cent rise, which topped the 90 per cent rise in the United States and the 96 per cent in the state of Texas.

There has been no hike in payroll taxes in the past year to compensate for the increase in benefits other than to apply them to the first $15,300 of income instead of to $14,100. It continues to be 5.85 per cent for the worker and the same for the employer.

Safe Drivers Recognized

Employees of Deaf Smith Rural Electric Cooperative were recently honored for their combined record of 94 years of driving without an accident during a breakfast at the Caison Steak House. Certificates were presented to the drivers, who logged a total of 539,378 miles from April 1, 1975 through March 31 of this year. Pictured at left, front to back are Boyd Collins, Sam Garrison, JoDan Harrelson, Lonnie Noyes, Calvin Stevens of USF&G, Loran Nixon and Don Cox. At right, front to back are Marion Carter, Jimmie Holmes, Bud Eades of Plains Insurance, Ed Hartley and Bill Feagley. Not pictured are Harold Finch, Don Reives, David Pruitt and Tommie Weemes. Feagley and Collins were cited for 15 years without an accident, and Weemes was honored for 14 years without an accident.

WT Chamber Backs Water Amendment

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce believes there is a need for additional water bonds, a matter which will be before the voters of Texas in the Nov. 2 election, according to WTCC President Bill Collins of Midland. Appearing on the ballot as Constitutional Amendment No. 1, the proposal would, in part, authorize the issuance of an additional $400 million of Texas Water Development Boards with certain projects approved by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Texas House of Representatives and Senate.

"Water for the future long has been one of the major concerns of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce," Collins said. "Over a period of several years, the WTCC has developed a water program for West Texas, which includes developing all possible water storage sites, and intra-site pipeline moving water from areas of surplus to areas of shortage."

The WTCC feels that the availability of water bonds is crucial if we are to move ahead in these areas," Collins pointed out that the WTCC Water Program for West Texas has been endorsed by Governor Dolph Briscoe, and that the WTCC has an audio-slide presentation entitled, "West Texas' Water Needs for the Future," which outlines the water program and is available for use by groups of organizations at no charge.

Bob Scott of Fort Worth, chairman of the WTCC Water Development Committee, emphasized the future water needs of cities and towns, industry, energy, agriculture and recreation. "One out of every three Texans has been affected by the loans from previous water bond issues since the Water Development Fund was created in 1957," Scott said.

"The WTCC Water Development Committee believes that the proceeds from the sale of additional bonds are necessary to satisfy water needs throughout the state. We're talking about future job and profit opportunities for everyone, which boils down to our quality of life and that of our children."

Loans from the sale of the bonds are made available to cities, river authorities, water districts and small communities. More information can be obtained from the Office of Information of the Texas Water Development Board in Austin.

Reachin' High

There was action a plenty as the men's flag football league sponsored by the YMCA opened play Sunday. Six teams are playing in the adult league. Twelve boys teams have been playing for three weeks in the first league activities put together by the new area Y, which is headed by director Claude Huard. [Photo By Bob Nigh]

Booster Club Time Changed

The Hereford White-face Booster Club will shift its meeting time to 7:30 from the regular 8 p.m. starting with tonight's meeting, club president Dick Montgo-merly has announced. The Boosters will meet at 8 p.m. through the rest of the year. The meeting place will continue to be the high school cafeteria, Montgomery said.

Men Kick Off Flag Football

YMCA activities are in full swing this fall with the boys flag football league about halfway through the season, and the men fresh off their start Sunday.

Lots of salves, ointments and saunas were the order of the day Monday for many local men who opened the flag football season Sunday afternoon.

The six-team league opened with three close contests. The Longhorns began the afternoon with a 14-8 win over the Farmers, and the Squirrels followed that up with a 21-12 conquest of the Bombers. Bad Company ended the first play with a 20-12 win over the Turkeys.

The men, like the boys, will play a five-game round robin schedule before capping off the season with a tournament to determine a champion.

The boys completed week three of their schedule Saturday, and after three weeks, only two teams hold unbeaten, untied records. The Cowboys of the National Division remained unbeaten with a 41-7 romp over the Packers, while the American Division's Saints downed the Redskins 25-14 to keep their perfect record.

Other games Saturday saw the Jets nip the Vikings 31-30, the Bengals edge the Cardinals 27-26, the Chiefs rip the Dolphins 33-0, and the Oilers stun the Rams 47-6.

Following the Cowboys in the National Division are the Jets (2-1), the Vikings and Bengals (1-1-1), the Packers (1-2), and the Cardinals (0-3).

The Redskins, Chiefs, and Oilers follow the Saints in the American Division all with a 2-1 mark. After that come the Rams and Dolphins at 0-3.

Nigh Best In Week Of Upsets

Six upsets and a pair of ties knocked the wind out of the sails of the Fearless Forecasters panel last week. BRAND Sports editor Bob Nigh posted the best record of the quintet of prognosticators with a 16-10 record.

Irene McKinster was one choice behind Nigh with a 15-11 mark, while season-leader Speedy Nieman and Tom Simons both wound up 14-12. BRAND editor Bobby Templeton broke even on the week with a 13-13 record. Nieman still leads the panel despite his faltering the past three weeks. Nieman led the second-place member by six picks three weeks ago, but has seen the lead cut to one.

Nieman has a 105-51 season mark for a .673 percentage. McKinster is one behind at 104-52 and .667. Simons, who has been waging a heated battle with McKinster for second place, is third with a 103-53 record and a .660 percentage.

Golf Team Finishes 10th

The Hereford high school boys golf team continued its fall schedule by participating in the Plainview Tournament last weekend. The Herd linksters combined for a 658 team total to take 10th place in the event.

Some 17 teams played at Plainview, and the host Bulldogs showed little hospitality in taking the title by ten strokes over the runner up. Plainview won the event with a 593 total, ten shots ahead of second-place Midland Lee. Abilene Cooper finished third at 604.

District 4-4A members Monterey and Lubbock High finished ahead of Hereford with the Plainsmen winding up fourth with a 605 total, and the Westerners finishing sixth with a 617. The fifth district member, Coronado, finished behind the herd with a 661 total.

Plainview's Greg Weathered and Kelly Raper tied for medalist honors in the two-day tourney. Both combined for a 144 total for the 36 holes.

Tech Jumps To 10th

Michigan remains on top in The Associated Press major college football poll and Nebraska, the No. 1 preseason pick, has moved up to third place.

Fresh from a 42-10 romp over Michigan State and facing Northwestern on Saturday, the Wolverines drew 57 first-place votes and 1,194 of a possible 1,200 points from a nationwide panel of 60 sports writers and sportscasters in balloting announced Monday.

Pittsburgh got three first-place votes and 1,057 points after its 27-6 triumph over Louisville and held onto second place.

Nebraska jumped from sixth to third with 848 points following its 24-12 triumph over Colorado.

UCLA, which topped Stanford 38-20, leaped from fifth to fourth with 834 points. Maryland received 660 points and advanced to fifth from seventh last week after a 16-6 decision over North Carolina State. Oklahoma fell from third to sixth with 611 points after a 6-6 tie with Texas.

Missouri, ninth last week, beat Kansas State 28-21 and advanced to No. 7 with 485 points.

Completing the Top Ten were Southern California, rising from 11th to eighth; Ohio State, up from 10th to ninth, and Texas Tech. It marked the first time in the Top Ten this year for Texas Tech, 15th last week. Southern Cal beat Washington State 23-14, Ohi State routed Iowa 34-14 and Texas Tech up-ended Texas A&M 27-16.

Georgia, No. 4 last week and knocked out of the unbeaten ranks by Mississippi, fell to 11th. Then it was Florida, Texas, Notre Dame, Kansas, Louisiana State and Mississippi tied for 16th, followed by Arkansas, Houston, and Alabama.

Last week, it was Southern Cal, Florida, Boston College, Notre Dame, Texas Tech, Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas, North Carolina and LSU.

Ole Miss returned to the Top Twenty after its upset for Georgia. Houston made it for the first time after a 50-7 romp over West Texas State and Alabama came back after a one-week absence, its first since 1970, with a 24-8 victory over Southern Mississippi.

Boston College fell from the rankings by losing to Florida State 28-9, Texas A&M lost to Texas Tech and North Carolina's idleness cost it a spot.

Ozark Says Phillies Were 'Out-Luckied'

By RALPH BERNSTEIN AP Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Danny Ozark discovered what was wrong with his Philadelphia Phillies, but it may have been too late to save the Eastern Division champions for elimination in the National League playoffs.

"We've been out-luckied," Explained Ozark, the master of the malaprop.

Ozark hoped the Phils' luck changed in today's third game of the best-of-five series in which they trailed the Cincinnati Reds 2-0. Left-hander Jim Kaat, 12-14, pitched for the Phils, and Gary Nolan, 15-9, tried to put the Reds in the World Series for the second straight year.

The Phillies, who won 101 games enroute to the East title with the help of an often spectacular defense, have fallen apart in the field during the playoffs. They made only two physical errors in the first two games, but mental miscues—throwing to the wrong base against the aggressively running Reds was very damaging.

Ozark insisted at Monday's workout at Riverfront Stadium that the Phillies had not been intimidated by Cincinnati's tactics. He pointed to his players, who were bantering as they worked, and asked if it appeared they were tight.

"If they were standing around quietly, I'd be very embarrassed having them out there," he said.

The Reds' Joe Morgan, however, disagreed with Ozark. "When we're doing our thing we create pressure," said Morgan, who walked five times in two games but has yet to get a hit.

"It's not the pressure of the playoff that has been forcing Philadelphia to make mistakes. It's been us," Morgan said.

Morgan said the Reds' strategy would be different for the third game. "We can play for the big inning now, because we're two games up. That doesn't mean we'll take it easy. We're going to play like it's the seventh game of the World Series. But we can take more chances."

The 37-year-old Kaat, who at Minnesota pitched in one championship series and one World Series, believed the Phillies were in a relaxed position.

"We're two down, and nobody gives us a chance to win the series now," Kaat said. "No one expects us to win three here. We just might shock a lot of people. If we win tomorrow, Tuesday, we have a good chance of going all the way."

Kaat was prepared for the Reds' basestealing game.

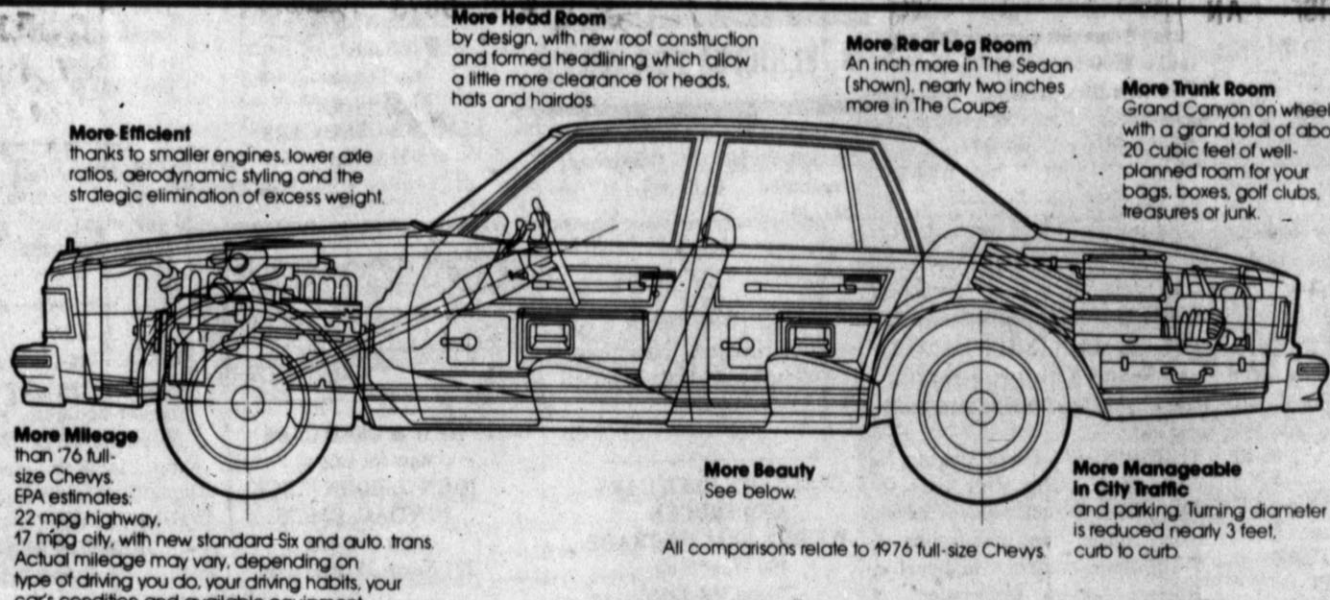

"I'll have to hold them in close," said Kaat, who has a good pickoff move.

It was clear that cars had to become more efficient. Not just small cars. All cars. It was equally clear that plenty of people still preferred cars of size and substance, and were not about to settle for less. So we gave them more. More economy and common sense on the one hand, more head room and rear leg room and trunk room on the other. All in a crisp, clean, beautiful new package we call The New Chevrolet. A whole new kind of 6-passenger car that's more manageable in size, more responsible in its use of fuel and materials, yet retains "big car" room, ride, comfort and pride. It's more than a new car. Musical Comedy Opens Tonight

A new production entitled "Dames At Sea" will open tonight at the Country Squire Dinner Theatre in Amarillo, 1-40 at Lakeside, running through Nov. 6.

Performances are Tuesday through Saturday evenings, with a buffet beginning at 6:30 p.m., preshow entertainment at 8 p.m. by the Country Rogues' and live stage production featuring a professional cast at 8:30 p.m.

On premiere nights, Oct. 12-14, the dinner theatre features a special reduced ticket price of $7.50 for the complete evening's entertainment.

"Dames at Sea" is a musical comedy based on the Hollywood musicals of the Thirties, and is filled with humor, song and dance.

The scene is big-time New York. A sweet little girl comes from a faraway hometown to make it big on Broadway and meets the Hometown Boy who has ambitions as a songwriter. Despite obstacles, true love wins out and all ends happily.

Critics raved about this family musical. A long-running off-Broadway hit, "Dames at Sea" won Outer Circle Critics Award as Best Musical of the Year and was noted best musical by Time, Look, Newsweek and the New York Post.

At Wit's End ...

By ERMA BOMBECK

You always hear about fashion's success stories.

But what about the losers? The fashions that came in and went out the same day? The hopes and dreams of designers that were shattered by the sound of 50 million women... laughing.

Some styles, for one reason or another, just don't make it. These are some of them.

Scratch and Smell T-Shirt. This should have been a smash. The principle was great: you scratched and viola... a scent was circulated that ran the gamut from perfume to pizza. Unfortunately, there were too many imposters. People scratched for status and stirred up only perspiration. This gave the official scratch-and-smell shirt a bad name...not to mention the smell.

The Gladiator Boots. Remember them? They were the polished leather boots that hit just above the knee. You could look stylish in them or sit down. You couldn't have both.

The Diaper Bikini would have been a real seller if wearers had been able to keep their weight down to under 8 1/2 pounds.

fit a hanger and not the human body. The name was deceiving. It suggested that everyone who had a fanny should cover it with a sweater. In many instances, that's all the sweater covered and the sides and front were left wide open.

By actual count, there were only three women in the country who could actually button a fanny sweater. They were ill.

The Satin Pillow Stomach: I'm not making this up. A few years ago a manufacturer came out with a fake satin stomach that you tied around your waist for thin girls who wanted to look healthy.

I looked so healthy in it, two men on the bus hoisted me into their seats and another called the police who reported I was in the final stages of delivery.

The "fake" sotmach now resides on the living room sofa.

This year, once again, we'll be looking over the nominees for the fashion losers. What will it be? The cigarette jeans for legs that don't need circulation? The jump suits for people who swear off liquids after 4 p.m. the night before? Or the tube dress for women who want to be mailed?

May I have the envelope, please?

Ann Landers Look to the Stars

Harvest Supper Scheduled

DEAR ANN LANDERS: In a recent column someone asked if you believed that the positions of the stars (at the time of birth; or the phases of the moon had any effect on people's lives. You were noncommittal in regard to the stars but said the phases of the moon must certainly affect behavioral patterns and cited the word "lunatic."

I am serious student of the relationship between cosmic influence and man's behavior. Recently I came across a fascinating study made in Florida from 1956 through 1970. The researchers also studied crime statistics in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, from 1958 through 1970.

Nearly 35,000 criminal offenses were examined and the findings prove you were correct. Under a full moon there was a disproportionate number of robberies, rapes, assaults, burglaries, offenses against relatives, auto thefts and arrests for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Does this suggest something to you? --a Regular Reader.

DEAR REG: Yes. People should take extra safety precautions when the moon is full. They should also be aware of their own tendencies to be a little "loony."

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have an urgent problem that I cannot recall ever seeing in your column. Please help me at once. I was engaged to marry a man I thought the world of. I was certain he respected me completely. Now I'm not so sure. We aren't children. I'm a widow with four children. G has been divorced for five years and has married daughter.

He knew I didn't approve of extramarital sex unless there was devotion, admiration and a commitment to marry. We went together for over a year before we became intimate.

I knew G was a man of the world and had known many women. But after we met he had no more affairs and spent all his free time with me and the children.

Last week G suggested that I invite one of my women friends (it didn't matter which one) to come to bed with us. My chin dropped to the floor. He said I shouldn't be upset because every man has a secret desire to do this.

I broke the engagement then and there and told him I never wanted to see him again.

He has been begging me to take him back. He swears he will never suggest such a thing again. I love him but I'm afraid he is not normal. Are ALL men like this: Should I take him back? I really do love him and he is a fine person in so many ways. Please, Ann, give me some answers. I am Un-able To Think Straight.

DEAR UN: All men are NOT like that, but this doesn't mean he isn't normal. Let's just say he went a little haywire.

You've made your position abundantly clear. Now be careful that you don't throw the baby out with the bath water. I believe Mr. G. is sufficiently chastened and that he will behave himself from now on. Give him another chance.

CONFIDENTIAL To What's Happening in Our Country?: Your guess is as good as mine. In 1975, the death rate was down--so was the birth rate and the number of marriages as compared with the previous year. The divorce rate was up, however. The number of legal splits has doubled in the U.S. since 1964. What does it mean? The scene is changing. It's a whole new world out there.

Is alcoholism ruining your life? Know the danger signals and what to do. Read the booklet, "Alcoholism-- Hope and Help," by Ann Landers. Enclose 50 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120.

Polly's Pointers Adhesive squares stuck on wall

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem DEAR POLLY -- We had a picture fastened to the wall that had been painted with latex paint. To hang it, we used those small adhesive squares that are sticky on both sides. Now we have removed the picture, but the adhesive squares remained on the wall. I wonder if anyone knows how to remove them, so we do not have to repaint the wall. -- MRS. J.S. DEAR MRS. J.S. -- My personal experience with such squares has been sad. When I have removed them, all the paint has come with them and often left a square indentation where paint had been. This had to be filled with paint before a final coat would be smooth with the rest of the wall. If any reader can help us we would like to hear from you. -- POLLY

Highway Construction Fund Importance Given Emphasis

The importance of dedicated funds to plan highway construction was stressed during a recent speech in Amarillo by Reagan Houston of San Antonio, Chairman of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

Houston told the 120 persons gathered for the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee dinner that planning for highways is difficult "unless we know what money is going to be available."

Houston's remarks emerged from his speech concerning the current financial position of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation. The department is in serious financial trouble under the present funding level, Houston said.

Among proposals to increase funding at the state level is the dedicated tax, "something you'll be hearing a lot about in the next legislature," Houston said.

The commission chairman told his audience that the department employed a noted management consultant firm, McKinsey and Company, to study the highway funding crisis in Texas.

The State Highway and Public

Transportation Commission has a backlog of $11.8 billion in highway construction and right of way projects, he said.

Anticipated state and federal construction revenue during the next 20 years will be only $1.9 billion, most of which will have to be used in the next 6-7 years.

Houston said the department along with McKinsey and Company has studied each individual project. Some projects have had to be eliminated and some downscoped.

The department has reduced its work force from about 20,000 employes in 1972-73 to under 15,000 today. McKinsey has recommended a state "bare-bone system," that is, a system of highways given priority in construction, reconstruction and maintenance.

Houston said the Governor Dolph Briscoe has accepted one of the McKinsey study's proposals for increasing state highway revenues. That proposal includes dedicating three-fourths of the motor vehicle sales tax to the State Highway Fund. Under present law the tax on motor vehicle sales is dedicated one-fourth to the public schools and three-fourths to the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund. Gov. Briscoe proposes that the portion of revenues now going to the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund be dedicated instead to the Highway Fund, without changing the allocation to the public schools.

The governor also plans to dedicate revenues from the present sales tax on tires, tubes, automobile parts and accessories to the Highway Fund. At the present time these highway user taxes go into the General Fund.

Financing the Texas Department of Public Safety from the Highway Fund would also be limited to $20 million per year. The DPS now receives most of its funding from the Highway Fund at a level of approaching $70 million per year. Under the proposal, the bulk of funding for the DPS would come instead from the General Revenue Fund.

In addition, Gov. Briscoe has stated he will recommend to the next legislature that $100 million per year in federal revenue sharing funds be set aside during the next biennium as an emergency fund for capital improvements on the highway system.

This proposal would provide $398 million in additional highway financing for 1978 and $427 million for 1979.

Rotarians Here About United Way

The Hereford Rotary Club listened to a presentation on the Hereford United Way Campaign during a weekly luncheon Monday afternoon.

Lynton Allred, president of the campaign, and Speedy Nieman, chairman of the fund drive, emphasized the fair share giving method of payroll deductions. This, they explained, would effectively raise the $102,000 goal sought by the United Way for 11 benefitting agencies.

A slide presentation on the local agencies was presented. Some of the organizations receiving funds are the Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, Salvation Army, Y.M.C.A., Big Brothers-Big Sisters, Kids Inc., Red Cross, Council on Alcoholism, USO, Children's Rehabilitation Center, and the Family Services Center.

The Y was added this year for 29 per cent of the contributions and this caused the goal to increase. However, Nieman and Allred noted that the per-capita giving in Hereford is not as high as other towns.

October is set aside as the United Way Month.

last. By this method, all land would be reappraised every four years.

Within the city, the northwest and Bluebonnet addition would be appraised first, then the northeast section, followed by the property south of Park Ave. and east of Highway 385 and finally the downtown area.

THE SCHOOL BOARD will be approached concerning the reappraisal plan at a meeting set for 4 p.m. today.

Commissioners unanimously approved a resolution calling for the implementation of a use tax on about 11,000 county automobiles. It will have to be approved by the legislature.

If passed, the use tax would require payment of car taxes at the time a license tag is purchased. Since license sales are moving to year-round transactions, taxes could be lost to the county. This amounts to about $4 million in taxable values.

The court briefly considered the income tax approach to agricultural land and expressed opposition to the Peveto Bill for restructuring school finance. The commissioners favor a sales tax school finance method.

The new payroll deduction policy will allow employees to contribute to the United Way through weekly amounts rather than with a one-time gift. It was accepted.

Commissioner James Voyles asked court to consider the purchase of a county communications system to allow contacts between workers all over the county. The court responded by letting bids which it hopes will provide extensive information on all available systems that might serve the county's need.

THE TEXAS DEPARTMENT of Transportation and Highways prepared a map of construction priorities for the county. It was tentatively received except for the order of priorities and a change requested in precinct four.

Since the map and associated data was too extensive to absorb in a brief meeting, the court considered the plan pending a with representatives of the state agency.

Commissioner Bruce Coleman asked for a review of the county retirement system to allow an employe in his precinct to rejoin the county system after all his funds were drawn out of it. The employe returned to work for the county after trying to farm for awhile.

"I want to help this employe, yet I don't want to penalize the county," Coleman said. He will sent the case to the state for its consideration and then the court will review it.

The fire report listed three county blazes and 11 city fires. These occurred in September.

Carter, Ford Heard Most Of 174 Choices

WASHINGTON (AP) - Of the 174 people running for president, you probably hear the most about Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter. But if you're looking for something different, check the platforms of Ernest Whitford, Paul Trent, Eddie Collins of Paul T. Lanyhow.

Or is you are attracted by persistence, you might like Lar Daly, who's making his seventh try for the White House, or Gus Hall, perennial Communist party presidential candidate.

The names of most candidates for president aren't likely to turn up on any ballots on Nov. 2. But they are on file at the Federal Election Commission, which dutifully records the minor along with the major candidates.

There are candidates, other than Carter and Ford, whose names will appear on many state ballots. They include former Sen. Eugene McCarthy, an independent; former Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox, the American Independent party candidate; Tom Anderson, the American party candidate; and Roger MacBride, the Liberation party nominee.

The only tax reform that interests MacBride is abolition of the income tax, something he views as a long-range goal of a MacBride administration. More immediately he would abolish the CIA and FBI and the Federal Reserve System.

MacBride also advocates repeal of laws against what he calls victimless crimes such as gambling and smoking marijuana.

Daly supports legalizing gambling and prostitution. Another plank in the Daly platform would direct police to shoot on sight all dope peddlers.

Plight Of The Poor

There is an issue this election. The issue is "poor people." Jimmy Carter champions the huddled masses. In most every public utterance he is pleading the plight of the poor, the "disadvantaged."

While President Ford thinks government preoccupation with uplifting the poor has caused us to discriminate against taxpayers.

Since the political conventions, Jimmy Carter has been telling his audiences that it's time to bypass the big shots and to concentrate on the disadvantaged. He speaks of his home county in Georgia where poor women, mostly black, have 20 times more cervical cancer because there are no doctors in the county.

"Two hundred yards from my house," he "there are people who are very poor and when they get sick it's almost impossible for them to get a doctor."

Carter says President Ford with his vetoes of social legislation has contributed to needless human suffering. He says his, Carter's concern is for the poor and the black and those who speak a foreign language, and those who are not well educated and those who are inarticulate and those who are timid.

Further to identify himself as a champion of the underdog Carter has demanded that the Secret Service stop hauling him to speeches in Cadillac limousines. He demands to be transported in ordinary passenger cars.

He says, "Longtime Washington politicians have lost touch with poor people because they stay in power too long and ride in limousines too long and eat expensive meals in private clubs too long."

At the Chicago Grand Central Market in Los Angeles and at a Watts Neighborhood Center, Carter said there are 10 million blacks and 4 million Spanish-speaking who are not registered to vote. He urged them to register and to vote.

But vice presidential nominee Bob Dole has been challenging

Carter to be specific.

Which of the President's vetoes does he, Carter, find objectionable?

Dole asks, "What can government do for poor people that government has not already done for them?"

To this Carter responds with references to "health, housing, welfare and jobs."

But political strategy—which once called for emphasizing the "full employment" theme—is now being downplayed. It has become increasingly obvious that a substantial percentage of the individuals Carter hopes will register and vote are not really interested in "jobs."

So if an observer can sort the specifics from the rhetoric; Carter's compassion for his Georgia neighbors who have less is genuine.

Now, what does he propose that government do for them which government is not already doing? And who is going to pay for it? This has been made a paramount campaign issue. It deserves debate.

Rural Health May Get Boost From Legislation

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - A conference on rural Southern health was expected to recommend today federal legislation to encourage states to allow Medicare and Medicaidicaid payments to physician assistants and nurse practitioners.

The federal government decides on the reimbursement of medical claims by the elderly, covered by Medicare, and states decide for the needy, covered by Medicaid.

A preliminary report of the Tax Force on Southern Rural Development outlines the problem this way:

"While a greater proportion of rural residents are elderly, and Medicare has been of considerable assistance to them, the program systematically penalizes physicians practicing in rural areas by setting lower reimbursement levels for them."

Additionally, the report said, health insurance companies generally do not pay "for services rendered by nurse practitioners when a physician is not physically present. Medicare does not pay for services under these conditions."

"Even most of those states covering these services under Medicaid require the payments to be made directly to the sponsoring physician rather than to the health center."

Nonetheless, because of shortages of doctors, the conference has been told, nurse-practitioners and physician assistants frequently are the primary health care providers in rural areas.

"I think the group will recommend that they back some enabling legislation that will influence the states to adopt direct reimbursement to physician extenders—the physician assistants and health care providers," said Dr. Dana Copp.

Copp is chief of family health for the Dallas, Tex., office of the Health, Education and Welfare, Department. The Dallas regional HEW office serves Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

The Southern Rural Health Conference, with health leaders from 14 states, ends today. The conference has been exploring ways to improve health care in an area in which:

- General death rates are 22 per cent higher than the national average.
- Life expectancy of migrant farm workers is 49 years, 23 less than the national average.
- Infant death rates are higher than the national average for both blacks and whites, but the rate of infant deaths for rural blacks is 65 per cent higher than for rural whites.

Dr. Copp said scholarships designed to attract physicians to rural areas are beginning to pay off in medical graduates for doctor short areas. But he said, the effort will be in vain unless rural communities upgrade their own quality of life.
