Topsy-turvy train and truck

High winds overturned 10 cars of an empty coal train and an empty semi-trailer truck Thursday afternoon near Dawn. No one was injured in the incident. Work crews were scheduled to arrive this morning to re-rail the train cars, which were just being pulled onto a siding to allow another train to pass when the winds struck. Hereford volunteer firemen and other volunteers braced against the wind to search for damage and for possible injuries. The driver of the truck was taken by private vehicle to Amarillo.

Train, truck overturned by high wind

Ten cars of an empty coal train were derailed and a semi-trailer truck was overturned in a violent wind storm Thursday afternoon at Dawn.

The accidents occurred at 5:45 p.m. as winds associated with a thunderstorm system ripped through the region.

Very little rain fell in the area, even in the windiest areas to the east of Hereford.

Hereford and much of the Panhandle were placed under a tornado watch at 4 p.m. Thursday, and storm clouds began moving into the county at about 5 p.m.

At least one funnel cloud was sighted in the Milo Center area by the public, and the National Weather Service issued a severe thunderstorm warning for the eastern half of the county.

The storm picked up strength as it raced from northwest to southeast through the county, but most areas here received only winds gusting over 50 mph and dust.

It is believed that straight-line winds, part of a violent updraft from the storm, created a "wind shear" effect that toppled the train and the truck.

The train, returning to Amarillo from the Tolk Station power plant near Muleshoe, was pulling onto a siding at Dawn to let another train pass when the highest of the winds toppled 10 empty coal cars.

The cars were almost immediately behind the engines in the 116-car train.

"The cars were derailed onto the 'field' side of the siding, so it didn't block the main track," said Susan Metcalf, a Santa Fe Railroad spokesperson in Chicago. Metcalf said that work crews arrived at the scene at about 9:30 a.m. today to re-rail the cars, a job that will take about six hours.

The engines of the train that was to pass were uncoupled and used to haul the still-standing coal cars to unblock crossings in the Dawn area.

The truck, which was empty at the time, was jackknifed between U.S. Highway 60 and the railroad tracks. The driver of the truck was uninjured and went to Amarillo by private vehicle.

The same storm system spawned several tornadoes as it raced southeastward, causing damage in areas south and west of the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, but once it left this area, skies were clear.

Community garden dedicated

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

A group of about 30 persons gathered Thursday to review the fruits of the 1988 community garden and to dedicate this year's garden at San Jose Catholic church in Hereford.

The garden is already planted with tomatoes, corn, cilantro, peppers, cabbage, potatoes and flowers. More items like okra and squash will be planted later in the season.

"We hope that through this garden we can build more bridges in the community between the Anglos and the Hispanics and all of the people of the community," said the Rev. Darryl Birkenfeld of San Jose.

He recalled how last year's harvest was given to King's Manor and Golden Plains retirement centers, to Deaf Smith General Hospital, to persons in need in the community, and was shared by those who worked with the garden last year.

"I've always believed that when you want to share, there will be plenty," Birkenfeld said. "We shared with many people in the community, and there was plenty for everyone."

The half-acre garden uses drip irrigation to help conserve water, and the flowers are marigolds that help cut down on insects.

"We have more people who live in the vicinity of the garden who want to help us this year," Birkenfeld said. "Before we started the garden last year, we were worried about vandalism and other problems, but we really didn't have any problems. With more people interested in the garden this year, I doubt that we'll have any problems at all."

Blessing the garden

The Rev. Darryl Birkenfeld leads a group of about 30 persons in a blessing of the Hereford Community Garden on Thursday. Volunteers will be working through the summer to raise vegetables at the half-acre site.

Cinco de Mayo is special day

By KAY PECK
Staff Writer

Today is a day of feasting and dancing for those who remember the glorious days of Mexico's history and for most anyone else who enjoys feasting and dancing. Today is Cinco de Mayo.

Although no large-scale celebration is planned in Hereford, many residents will be marking this historical date.

Cinco de Mayo is to Mexico what the Fourth of July is to the United States.

The celebration commemorates the courage and glory of General Ignacio Zaragoza and his 2,000 Mexican soldiers who faced and defeated a force of 6,000 Frenchmen on May 5, 1862. The Mexican victory at the Battle of Guadalupe near Puebla, Mexico would be only a temporary delay of France's conquest of Mexico.

Despite that, the courage of Zaragoza and his men captured the imagination of the people of Mexico. Today, 127 years after the battle, Cinco de Mayo is an established holiday.

The French continued their invasion after the defeat at the Battle of Guadalupe. Eventually, Maximilian, a Frenchman, would be placed on the throne of Mexico for a short and troubled reign. Eventually, Mexico would regain the freedom from foreign rule which Zaragoza and his men fought for on Cinco de Mayo, 1862.

Reception set for doctors Sunday

A Medical Reception, designed to introduce new physicians and other medical professionals, is scheduled Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the E.B. Black House.

safety committee of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

The come-and-go affair is being hosted by the chamber to express appreciation to those who serve local residents in health care positions. Refreshments will be provided by the C of C Women's Division.

The Black House is an adjunct of the county museum and is located at 508 W. 3rd St.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Everybody wants to have class but few people know what it is. Several years ago you printed your definition in the Ann Landers Encyclopedia. I believe it is well worth running in the column.--J.V.R., Kennett, Mo.

DEAR J.V.R.: It was classy of you to ask. Here it is:
WHAT IS CLASS?

Class never runs scared. It is sure-footed and confident in the knowledge that you can meet life head on and handle whatever comes along.

Jacob had it. Esau didn't. Symbolically, we can look to Jacob's wrestling match with the angel. Those who have class have wrestled with their own personal angel and won a victory that marks them thereafter.

Class never makes excuses. It takes its lumps and learns from past mistakes.

Class is considerate of others. It knows that good manners are nothing more than a series of small sacrifices.

Class bespeaks an aristocracy that has nothing to do with ancestors or money. The most affluent blueblood can be totally without class while the descendant of a Welsh miner may ooze class from every pore.

Class never tries to build itself up by tearing others down. Class is already up and need not strive to look better by making others look worse.

Class can walk with kings and keep its virtue and talk with crowds and keep the common touch." Everyone is comfortable with the person who has class because he is comfortable with himself.

If you have class you don't need much of anything else. If you don't have it, no matter what else you have, it doesn't make much difference.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 41-year-old divorced mother of two. I work as a hospital lab technician to support my family.

When I returned to work after 10 years at home, I was shocked at the changes that have occurred because of AIDS. My hospital provides five of protective lab coats for each technician. We wear latex gloves when we work with body fluids. When we do an autopsy on an AIDS case, we wear waterproof hooded jumpsuits, shoe covers, hair covers, surgical masks, face shields and double surgical gloves. All this costs money. Since it is a government hospital, the taxpayers foot the bill.

If you accidentally stick yourself with a needle, you must be tested for the AIDS virus. If you don't get tested and AIDS symptoms appear later, insurance companies can refuse to pay for treatment.

I am in good health because I don't smoke or drink. I exercise, eat properly and get enough sleep. I am also in my fifth year of celebrity.

I, too, live with the fear of getting AIDS. Not because of anything I've done, but because everyone who has to work with their body fluids. I believe people who are sexually promiscuous are either insane or they have a death wish. Am I overreacting, as some of my friends say?--G.F. in Texas

DEAR TEXAS: Probably, but I can understand your fears. People who work with body fluids of AIDS patients must be extremely cautious. It can be a matter of life and death. I don't fault you one iota.

Is that Ann Landers column you clipped years ago yellow with age? For a copy of her most frequently requested poems and essays send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $4.85 (this includes postage and handling) to: Gems, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

Rotary contest begins today

Hereford Rotary Club is holding a Hole-In-One contest today through Sunday with a $20,000 prize offered for an "ace" scored on the No. 6 hole at Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Qualifying rounds are set each day and the top 25 qualifiers will have a shot at the $20,000 prize in the 5 p.m.

finals on Sunday. If there is no hole-in-one in the finals, the closest to the pin will receive a $300 set of Ping woods.

The entry fee is $5 for three shots in the qualifying rounds. Golfers can purchase as many tickets as they wish, which would give them more chances to qualify for the finals. Tickets are being sold by Rotarians and students in the DARE program. Proceeds from the tourney go to Hereford Youth drug programs.

If a hole-in-one should be made during the qualifying rounds, a $100 cash prize will be awarded. The closest qualifier each day will also receive a $25 gift certificate at the pro shop. It will be possible for a golfer to qualify one day, and be eliminated the next day.

Finalists will be determined by measuring the distance from the pin to the nearest 16th of an inch. Balls and clubs will be available for contestants not having their own.

Qualifying rounds will be held Friday, 4 to 5:30 p.m.; Saturday, noon to 6 p.m., and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Contestants qualifying Friday and Saturday can call the pro shop between 7 and 8 p.m. Saturday to see if they are still qualified, as contestants can enter as many times as they wish.

If someone wins the $20,000 prize Sunday, the runnerup will receive the Ping woods as a consolation prize. The first hole-in-one wins, according to the rules. David McDonald is the Rotary Club chairman for the contest.

In conjunction with the hole-in-one contest, a Scramble Tourney will be held today, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Entry fee is $25 and players will be placed in foursomes by the golf pro according to handicaps. Hamburgers will be served in the park to tourney participants.

Viola winless; Rangers lose to NY

By The Associated Press

Frank Viola is still winless and it's driving him speechless.

"I've got so many things bound up to say but I'm speechless," Viola said after going 0-5 as the Minnesota Twins lost to the Milwaukee Brewers 3-2 Thursday night despite his complete-game eight-hitter.

"I thought I threw better than I have all year. The breaks just aren't going our way. It's not just me, it's the whole team."

While the Twins were suffering their 11th loss in 12 games and falling into the American League West Division cellar, in other AL games it was Cleveland 3, Kansas City 1 as John Farrell came within three outs of a no-hitter; New York 11, Texas 7; California 3, Toronto 2, and Chicago 5, Boston 4.

Viola, the 1988 Cy Young Award winner when he was 24-7 with a 2.64 earned run average, actually lowered his ERA to 4.84. The last time Viola went this far without a victory was 1983, his first full season in the majors when he didn't win until May 18, making him 1-2 en route to a 7-15 record.

The Brewers parlayed an infield hit, a stolen base, a broken-bat single and Joey Meyer's RBI grounder into a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning, RBI singles by Gary Sheffield and Robin Yount made it 3-0 in the fifth.

Winner Don August allowed one run and six hits in seven innings. Chuck Crim retired the only batter he faced and Dan Plesac took over for his fifth save although he yielded a home run to Brian Harper with two out in the ninth.

Indians 3, Royals 1

Farrell held the Royals hitless until the ninth. Willie Wilson started the ninth with a grounder that skipped over first baseman Pete O'Brien's glove for a two-base error and Kevin Seitzer broke up the no-hit bid with a fly ball that dropped inside the right-field line for a single, Kansas City's only hit. Yankees 11, Rangers 7

Two-run singles by Rickey Henderson and Don Mattingly highlighted light-hitting New York's largest outburst of the year, a five-run third inning. Winner Dave LaPoint gave up three homers and all seven Texas runs in 5-1-3 innings. Dale Mohoric and Dave Righetti closed it out.

The Yankees chased Charlie Hough with four runs in the first inning, including Ken Phelps' RBI double and RBI singles by Wayne Tolleason and Alvaro Espinoza.

The Yankees scored five runs in the third off Brad Arnsberg. New York's Steve Balboni and Texas' Pete Incaviglia, Rafael Palmeiro and Julio Franco hit solo homers.

Doran homer gives Astros 5-4, 10-inning win

MONTREAL (AP) - Despite appearances, Bill Doran doesn't think Joe Hesketh is a bad pitcher. "I was the beneficiary of a bad pitch," said Doran, who hit a home run with one out in the 10th inning to give Houston a 5-4 win over Montreal Thursday night. "When Joe Hesketh has his slider working, he's almost unhittable, but he got one up on me."

And Doran, hitting just .212 against left-handers, sent the ball up into the left field stands for the Astros.

Hesketh, 3-1, had struck out Rafael Ramirez before Doran's second homer of the year. The left-hander, who lowered his ERA to 11.08 from 11.25 saw the outing as improvement over his last performance - nine earned runs in 1 1-3 innings against Cincinnati last Monday.

"Sure, I'm disappointed that I lost, but the big thing was to come out there mentally strong after what happened in my previous outing," Hesketh said. "I know I'm going to be in situations, as the season goes on, where the game is on the line. Overall, I felt tonight was a step forward to getting back to where I want to be."

The Expos took a 4-0 lead on Andres Galarraga's sixth home run - a two-run shot - off starter Bob Knepper in the first, and a passed ball by Astros catcher Craig Biggio and Tim Raines's RBI single in the second.

But the Astros scored single runs in the fourth and fifth innings off starter Dennis Martinez, one on a groundout and the second on Biggio's first homer.

Houston scored another in the seventh off Brian Holman as Greg Gross' pinch-hit single drove in Kevin Bass. A sacrifice fly by Glenn Davis in the eighth made it 4-4.

"I thought Gene Harris pitched well," said Montreal manager Buck Rodgers, referring to the rookie reliever who pitched 1 1-3 innings without allowing a run. "Holman at least kept us with a lead, so it comes down to (Andy) McGaffigan and Hesketh again."

"We may be looking at using Harris more down the line in a game. We'll see on the road trip."

"They have to keep their heads up," Martinez said, when asked about the woes of the relievers. "They're struggling, but hopefully they'll pick us up later on."

Hesketh described the pitch that hung him with the defeat as "a slider that was up. I was surprised he had laid off the slider before that."

"The slider was working well for me, and I wanted to come back with it, but I left it up there."

On the bright side for Los Angeles, Mickey Hatcher pitched a hitless ninth inning against St. Louis.

By that time, however, most of the Dodgers weren't looking.

The Cardinals piled up 21 hits en route to a 12-0 victory Thursday night over Fernando Valenzuela.

Hatcher, who does just about everything for Los Angeles, was called on to mop up the mess.

He walked three, hit a batter and balked. But he didn't allow a hit.

"I waited 10 years for this," Hatcher said. "I had a spitter ready to go, but I forgot where I put the lubricant. They were squeezing my strike zone. It was one of the biggest thrills in my life."

Valenzuela, trying to recover from a sore shoulder last season, allowed six runs in 1 2-3 innings in his worst outing of the season.

"I felt good," Valenzuela said. "I have no excuses. I threw all my pitches and they hit all my pitches. I'll just have to wait until my next time out. The only one who pitched well tonight was Mickey."

Ken Hill pitched a three-hitter for his first major-league shutout and Tom Brunansky and Pedro Guerrero drove in two runs each.

Elsewhere in the National League it was San Francisco 6, Pittsburgh 3; Chicago 4, San Diego 0; New York 3, Cincinnati 2 in 10 innings; Atlanta 3, Philadelphia 0, and Houston 5, Montreal 4 in 10 innings.

Hill, 2-1, finished with a career-high nine strikeouts and one walk as he recorded his first complete game in four major-league starts.

"After we got the five runs in the second inning, Jose De Leon told me to pitch like it was a 1-0 game," said Hill, recalled by the Cardinals on April 19 because of an injury to Greg Mathews.

"I had very good location on my fastball," Hill said. "I mixed in the changeup, spotted the ball here and there and everything was working well. They hit some balls hard, but they were right at people."

Milt Thompson sparked a five-run second inning with a two-run homer and Tony Pena paced the Cardinals' attack with four singles. Giants 6, Pirates 3

White happy with chance

IRVING (AP) - Veteran quarterback Danny White says he is pleased to get a chance to compete for a roster spot with the Dallas Cowboys for next season.

White emerged from a meeting with owner Jerry Jones and coach Jimmy Johnson Thursday with a chance to compete for a roster spot with no guarantees.

He said he expects to sign a contract before the start of a voluntary quarterback school May 15. White, a free agent, is expected to make far less than the $605,000 he made during the final year of his contract.

Earlier the Cowboys had declined to pick up the option year of his contract, leading to speculation that he was going to join so many other people from the Tom Landry-Tex Schramm era and be looking for a new job.

The 14-year veteran said he approached the meeting with nervous caution.

"I went in with an open mind," he said. "But actually I was pretty confident about coming back. I've planned on being a Cowboy next year all along."

"I would call it a positive meeting," White said. "I'm going to get the chance to win a spot on the team, even the starting job. And that's all any player can realistically ask for."

"It's not a sure thing I'll be on the roster come August, but I'm going to do everything I can to make it happen," White said.

"We'd like to have Danny give us his best shot," Jones said. "He's been a great performer and competitor through the years. You can never have too many players like Danny White on your team."

"We didn't guarantee him a spot on the roster, but we'd like to see him come in here and compete at his best," the new owner said.

Johnson, who has said he would take three quarterbacks to training camp in July, said White was impressive during the team's recently concluded three-day minicamp at Valley Ranch.

"Danny showed us some positive things," Johnson said. "He's a competitor and has been all his career. He's done some great things for the Cowboys, and he wants to play football again next year. I think he deserves that chance, and he's going to get a fair shot at making this team."

White will have to compete against No. 1 draft pick Troy Aikman last year's starter, Steve Pelluer, and second-year backup Scott Secules.

Aikman, who signed an $11.037 million contract, is assured of making the team.

Post draw provides early Derby drama

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Silently, they stood and waited for the tiny pills to be pulled from the drum, small numbered discs that would assign the post positions for Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

On one side, there was Shug McGaughey, trainer of odds-on favorite Easy Goer. On the other, there was elderly Charlie Whittingham, who has Sunday Silence, widely believed to be the only horse with a chance to upset McGaughey.

The ritual, always stays the same at Churchill Downs. Two days before the run for the roses, the crowd of owners, trainers and officials gather in the Kentucky Derby museum.

One by one, the posts are assigned in a blind draw. Here, in this setting, a thoroughbred's bloodlines count for nothing.

What if Easy Goer got stuck outside, in the auxiliary gate? What if he got lucky and drew the inside post?

The first pill pulled was No. 13, assigned to Awe Inspiring, who will run as an entry with Easy Goer.

The crowd gasped. Unlucky No. 13. Poor Awe Inspiring. McGaughey chuckled at the response.

"I don't have any superstitions," he said. "When the first horse got called for No. 13, everybody oohed and aahed. But it didn't mean a thing to the horse. I'll bet he doesn't know if he's in No. 12 or No. 13 or whatever."

The trainer knows, though. And this trainer knew he didn't want any post problems for his 2-year-old champion, who has enjoyed problem-free preparation for the biggest race of his young thoroughbred life.

Longshot Faultless Ensign, listed at 50-to-1, got the No. 8 post. Clever Trevor, a 30-to-1 gamble, drew the inside No. 1 post.

Now the man pulling the pills called No. 15, Wind Splitter. He's another 50-1 horse in a race immen-ed with longshots taking their chances against the odds-on favorite. Then No. 16 went to Northern Wolf. His odds are also 50-to-1.

The auxiliary gate was filled. McGaughey sighed.

"Somebody said they heard my heart pounding through my shirt," the trainer said.

At least the odds-on favorite would be somewhere in the main gate. That was a relief.

Western Playboy, nursing an infection on his hind leg and listed at 8-to-1, got No. 5. Irish Actor, a 50-to-1 horse trained by LeRoy Jolley, was assigned No. 11.

Still the favorite and the opponent waited.

Until Derby week, Lukas expected to run just Houston. He has the credentials with four victories in five career starts. Shy Tom was a last-minute addition, not because Lukas gives the grass specialist much of a shot, but because his owner, William T. Young, wanted him in the race.

They waited and waited and now the post position draw was down to the last few pills. Finally, Easy Goer got No. 14, leaving No. 10 for Sunday Silence.

"When it got down to two, I thought maybe Whittingham forgot to enter," McGaughey joked.

There was no chance of that happening. Despite Easy Goer's nearly flawless record, Whittingham is not in awe of the favorite.

"Favorites aren't the only horses that win races," he said.

MVP WINNERS TALK

WASHINGTON (AP) - What happens when two MVPs get together for a talk?

Orel Hershey of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the MVP Award in the 1988 World Series as the Dodgers knocked over Oakland, winning four of five games. One month later he dropped into the dressing room of the Washington Redskins to talk to Doug Williams, the MVP of the 1988 Super Bowl.

The two stars spent most of their time discussing the Disney commercials they had done.

The lowest number of points scored by a team in the first 22 Super Bowls was three, posted by Miami in losing to Dallas in 1972.

From 1908 to 1968 the United States won 13 straight gold medals in the Olympic pole vault.

Della Stagner honored by LAE Club

La Afflatus Estudio Club members honored Della Stagner during a salad luncheon held Tuesday in the home of Emily Suggs.

Following the closing meeting of the club season, it was announced that the next meeting will be Sept. 5.

Others present were Virginia Beasley, Opal Elliston, Lydia Hopson, Bea Hutson, Lola Jewell, Louise Kinsey, Etoile Manning, Aileen Montgomery, President Mary Williamson and Pet Ott.

Alberta Higgins read a poem entitled "Learning How To Live Again" and Suggs told of Miss Stagner's accomplishments during her school career and during her club membership. Although the honoree was not present due to illness, cards and a plaque of appreciation were taken to Miss Stagner at Deaf Smith General Hospital where she had been admitted as a patient.

Child Welfare Board meets

Members of the Child Welfare Board met Wednesday afternoon in the Commissioner's courtroom.

Minutes were read and approved as was the financial report. Also, the board decided to continue using radio time for May to spotlight child abuse awareness and the need for foster homes in this area.

The board discussed the S.T.E.P. program that will be implemented in September. The Parenting Action Committee will steer this program as part of the parenting classes that were being sought for the community.

Several ideas for fundraisers were brought to the attention of the board and short-term goals for the summer months were discussed.

Board members in attendance included Jim Haile, Maria Garcia, Fidel Reyna, Alva Lee Peeler, Herb De La Rosa, Danny Jackson, Judy Baker and Judge Tom Simmons.

VIETNAM VETERANS
NEW YORK (AP) - The average age of an American soldier in Vietnam was 19, seven years younger than his counterparts in World War II and Korea.

In 1982, a group of Vietnam veterans who were successful in business started the New York Vietnam Veterans Leadership Program to help other vets get started on careers.

Thus far, the organization says it has helped more than 800 veterans complete an eight-week counseling and support course and to get jobs. The program has generated over $14 million in salaries.

RECORD SEASON

ATLANTA (AP) - More than 2.3 billion seedlings - nearly 10 trees per American - were planted in the United States during the 1988 planting season.

Forest-industry nurseries produced nearly 60 percent of the seedlings planted, says Georgia-Pacific Corp., a forest products company.

An average of 1.9 seedlings were planted each year during the past decade, it says.
