DEAR ANN LANDERS: I Write again and let me know how you're doing.

> DEAR ANN LANDERS: Many people have written to you about tinnitus, an ear problem that generates noise in the ears. It can be very annoying. My type of tinnitus sounds like crickets chirping and it never stops. This has been going on for several years, and I have learned to live with it.

> Several months ago I began to hear music. Sometimes it is classical, sometimes pop. Often I get vocal selections. I was reluctant to mention this to my husband for fear he would think I was getting loony. When I told him, he checked out the radio and sure enough, Ann, I am tuned in!

Spikers defeat Caprock

The Hereford Lady Whitefaces closed out their home schedule Saturday with a 15-6, 15-5 win over Amarillo Caprock.

The win, which was the eighth in a row for Hereford (17-6, 8-1 in District 1-4A), sends the Herd into today's regular season finale at Canyon Randall still tied with Dumas for the district lead.

Lady Whiteface coach Brenda Rech said she was pleased that the team was still showing improvement with each match heading into the playoffs.

"Our hitters worked this week on attacking the blockers," Reeh said. "Our kids learned to wipe the ball off the blockers' hands. We were successful with that attack numerous times in the match. Once their blockers braced for a soft shot off their hands, we would hit hard at "Hopefully we can keep learning and adding to what we're already able to do. That will help us against our playoff opponents.

"Our cross-court, off-side blocker defense also picked up a lot of tips and sharp cross-court shots. That is another area where we're much improved."

In the first game, the Longhorns managed to stay with the Herd early, trading points until Hereford led 6-5. After that, the Herd allowed only one more point and took command when Shantel Cornelius served for four straight points to give Hereford a 13-6 margin. Senior Jayme Moore, who had a three-point service run earlier in the game, served the last two points for the win.

The Herd jumped out to a 6-0 advantage in the second game as Kyanne Lindley and Cornelius each served for a pair to go with single points from Brek Binder and Robin White. After Caprock broke the string with a single point from Teffney Sampier, Moore added two more for Hereford to go up 8-1.

Caprock pulled closer with a 4-1. run to make the score 9-5 for the Herd, but White put the match out of reach with four in a row to give Hereford a 13-5 lead. Cornelius then served the Herd to match point before Moore finished the 'Horns off with Cassie Brooks getting the final kill.

For the match, Moore and White led the Herd with eight service points each and both added an ace. Cornelius served for seven points three games. with Binder and Lindley getting three apiece and Lori Sanders one.

Netters bop Borger, 15-3

The Hereford Whiteface tennis team closed out its season Saturday with a 15-3 win over Borger to wrap up the fifth straight District 1-4A champion-

The Herd took eight of nine boys matches and seven in girls competition in their last performance before the Region I-4A Tournament.

Coach Luis Zavala said the win was somewhat surprisingly easy, especially in light of the day's blustery conditions.

I didn't think we would beat them that bad," Zavala said. "But there were quite a few upsets. We had at least three matches go the opposite way of what you would think.

Three of the upsets came at the top of the ladder. Hereford's No. 1 boys singles player, Randy Robbins, knocked off Barry Thrutchley, 6-4, 0-6, 6-3. Thrutchley won the District 1-4A single title last spring.
Robbins and doubles partner were the victims in another upset, losing to Jeremy Mebane and Mark Cash, 5-7, 7-5, 6-3.

Another upset involved Hereford's No. 1 girl, Brenna Reinauer, who lost for the first time in district play. Reinauer suffered a 2-6, 6-2, 6-2 loss at the hands of Dannette Jordan after racking up four consecutive 6-0, 6-0 wins over 1-4A opponents.

After Robbins picked up his win over Thrutchley, the Herd's other players completed the sweep in boys singles. Coplen defeated Cash, 6-1, 6-3, while Torey Sellers beat Marc Cheauveaux, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4. Jamie Kapka added a 7-5, 6-3 win over Mebane with Eric Cortez downing Shane McNeese, 6-4, 6-2, and Donny Perales winning 6-4, 6-4 over Nathan White.

In the other boys doubles matches, Sellers and Cortez dropped Thrutchley and Jan Eismann, 6-3, 6-3, and Kapka and Perales beat Cheauveaux and McNeese 6-3, 6-4.

In girls singles, Gina Alley held Mireles downed Scott Barnes, 6-4, 6off Stephanie Gilliam, 6-7, 6-4, 6-4, and Trisha Munoz swept Angela Green, 6-1, 6-3. Robyn Sublett suffered the only other Hereford loss, 6-7, 6-3, 6-2, to Lindie McNeese while Trisha Teel beat Debby Denny, 6-2, 6-1, and Bri Reinauer downed Heidi Holt 6-3, 6-0.

Boosters to honor Herd tennis team

The Hereford Whiteface tennis team will be honored at tonight's Whiteface Booster Club meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Hereford High School cafeteria.

The Whiteface Boosters will recognize the team for its accomplishments during the 1990 season, including winning a fifth straight District 1-4A championship. The Herd netters have not lost a district match in the last five years.

The meeting will also include a showing of the game film from the Herd football team's 38-6 Homecoming win over Canyon Randall.

Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

The Herd girls swept the three doubles matches with Brenna Reinauer and Alley dropping Gilliam and Green, 6-2, 6-4, while Sublett and Munoz came back to beat Jordan and McNeese, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4. Teel and Bri Reinauer added a 6-2, 6-1 win over Denny and Holt.

The netters also got plenty of court time for the alternate players with 13 matches being held. In boys singles, Brandon Flood beat Eismann, 7-6, 6-3, and Mickey new starting fullback when the Dallas Cowboys take on the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday in Texas Stadium.

Alonzo Highsmith, obtained from the Houston Oilers in an early September trade, was demoted on Monday and Tommy Agee was named his replacement for the high noon clash.

"It was too much for Alonzo to come here and have a feel for our offense right away," said Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson. "He still needs to get a feel for our passing game."

Johnson gave the Cowboys the day off Monday so they could celebrate Sunday's 17-13 comeback victory over Tampa Bay, their second over the Bucs in three weeks.

pass to Michael Irvin with 23 seconds left secured the victory.

"I had a feeling in the huddle we were going to do it," said Aikman, relishing only the third victory of his pro career. "I didn't have that great a day but we won and that's what matters.'

Aikman hit only 13 of 29 passes for 159 yards and suffered two interceptions.

But he made three big plays on the 80-yard scoring drive that started with less than two minutes left. Aikman completed an 18-yard pass snowballs.

IRVING (AP) - There will be a to Jay Novacek on third-and-10 at the Dallas 34. Then he scrambled 20 yards for another first down before hitting Irvin for the game-winner.

"I guess that's what matters the most," Aikman said. "I've had better days and we lost."

The second triumph over Tampa Bay tripled the Cowboys victory production over 1989. It also kept Dallas' record against the Buccaneers perfect at 8-0. It was the Cowboys' first trip to Tampa.

On Mondays, the team usually has a light workout and looks at films, but Johnson figured the comeback Cowboys deserved some time off.

"I told 'em up front that if they won they'd get the day off," Johnson said. "It's something I might try again later in the year. It was a Troy Aikman's 28-yard touchdown change of pace. I thought it might be good for the team to get away from football for a day or two."

Johnson said the Tampa Bay victory was a matter of winning on an off day. "We didn't play well but we hung in there," Johnson said. "The defense kept us in there."

The Eagles come to Dallas a disappointing 2-4. Dallas is 3-4. "I'm anxious to have Philadelphia come into Dallas," Johnson said. "I think we'll be motivated." On the Dallas visit to Philadelphia last year, Johnson was bombarded by

Oilers show character in win over Saints

HOUSTON (AP) - The Houston Oilers have proven they can win with quarter, the Oilers scored 20 straight precision or they can win with character.

Sunday was definitely a character check for the Oilers, who got 305 total yards against the New Orleans Saints but managed to score 20 consecutive points en route to a 23-10 victory. computer perfection in a 48-17 victory over Cincinnati.

Against the Saints, Warren Moon resisted throwing into the teeth of New Orleans' defense that was geared to stop the long plays. Instead, he threw underneath the Saints coverage and got the same results.

"I think we showed a lot of character," wide receiver Drew Hill said. "Things didn't go well right off but we kept pecking away. We were patient. In the past, we might not have been willing to dink and dunk. But Warren is smart, and a game like this shows just how smart he is."

Oilers coach Jack Pardee liked his team's consistency in winning for the fourth time in five weeks after an 0-2 start.

"What drives me crazy is a team that plays well one week and then inconsistent the next week," Pardee said. "We are awfully pleased. Since the first two weeks we've had the consistency that it takes. We're getting better each week in our work habits.

"We've reached the point where we can predict somewhat how we're going to play."

After falling behind 3-0 in the first points and the defense, led by a career game from linebacker Johnny Meads, throttled the Saints (2-5).

Pardee thinks the Oilers' are overcoming the inconsistency that surfaced early in the season.

'It takes discipline to play for 60 minutes and to keep from losing your A week earlier, they resembled mind," Pardee said. "You have to develop a self-discipline to work hard even when you don't want to."

Pardee saw a pleasing example of the team's discipline during last week's practice.

"We had a bad practice on Thursday and I told them we couldn't have that and they turned it around on Friday and without working very hard on Saturday it was one of the best we have had," Pardee said. "When this team identifies something we want to get done, they really go at it."

The Oilers lost kicker Tony Zendejas for four to six weeks with a broken (non-kicking) leg, suffered in the fourth quarter.

'It's not hard to get another kicker, it's just hard to get one that's not in a slump," Pardee said. "If they're out of a job it's probably because he's in a slump. We've got to get someone to come in hot.'

I should never have tried to make that tackle," Zendejas said. "I got into the crowd, and they rolled over on my kneed and ankle. At first, I thought my knee was broken."

The Oilers close out a four-game homestand Sunday against the New York Jets (2-5). The Jets lost to Buffalo 30-27 Sunday.

Vincent supports possible SF move

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) - Baseball commissioner Fay Vincent tossed his support behind a plan to take the San Francisco Giants south, calling a move to Silicon Valley the best solution to the "dire" situation created by San Francisco voters.

Vincent, who announced his support on Monday, said the "Santa Clara Giants" had a certain ring to it and would provide a "ready-made franchise" for the Silicon Valley, about 40 miles south of San Francisco.

"It has a certain cadence," Vincent said of the name that makes skin crawl in San Francisco, where the Giants have played for 33 years. "If you get the vote, it will be a big-league name. I guarantee it."

During comments in San Jose, Vincent said the move was the best option left when San Francisco voters last fall narrowly defeated a measure to build a new ballpark in the city.

Next month, voters in Santa Clara County will decide whether to build a new $153 million stadium in Santa Clara. A "yes" vote on three ballot measures in the county and various cities would guarantee that the Giants move from Candlestick Park to a new Team owner Bob Lurie wants out of Candlestick, an aging ballpark where foggy gusts of wind chill fans and swirl garbage around the stands. Lurie has cited surveys showing that fans don't support the team enough because they don't like Candlestick.

Vincent said he hates to see teams move, but noted the Santa Clara proposal was the only decent option. The alternatives are keeping the team at its "outdated" ballpark or moving out of the San Francisco Bay area, Vincent said.

"I don't think there are many communities in the United States who get a chance at a team and turn it down. San Francisco seems to be the exception," Vincent said. Last October's earthquake, he said, took attention away from a ballot measure that would have funded a new stadium in San Francisco's China Basin area, and the measure failed. Lurie said before the election he would move the team if voters rejected a downtown ballpark.

The Santa Clara stadium would be financed by a 1 percent utility tax assessed against businesses and homeowners in 10 Santa Clara County cities, including San Jose, Santa Clara and Sunnyvale.

Marshall living up to expectations

By MIKE DRAGO

Associated Press Writer Four weeks into the Texas high school football season, the Marshall Mavericks looked as if they would not live up to their 1990 billing as state title contenders.

Marshall, at 2-2, was without the core of its defense, linebackers Tremayne Greene and Londell Johnson, due to medical reasons and had just been run over by Louis Fite and the Waco Lions, 36-7.

The 1989 state semifinalist hardly was playing like a preseason No. 5 choice.

But four weeks and a 28-14 spanking of District 12-5A rival Tyler coach Dennis Parker has maneuvered of Houston North Shore. The first-place votes to Carroll's 11.

Nacogdoches, which beat No. 3 Longview 33-12 to knock the Lobos back to eighth, is next up for the Mavericks, and Parker makes no promises.

'We're getting a little bit better every week," Parker said. "I'don't know if we can beat Nacogdoches. I don't know if we can beat anybody else all year."

No. 2 Arlington Lamar has one first-place vote. Nobody else has any.

A&M Consolidated in 4A, Vernon in 3A, Groveton in 2A and Munday in 1A crushed their opponents by a combined score of 185-10 to remain unbeaten and top-ranked in their

A&M received 259 votes, including 25 first place, to lead runner-up Bay City, which got 214. Groveton garnered 24 first-place and 258 overall votes, compared to No. 2 Pilot Point's 217.

The top 10 teams in 3A remained in the same order. Vernon and No. 1 Aldine tightened its grip on Southlake Carroll each received 242 John Tyler later, Marshall is 5-2 and the top spot after its 63-7 thrashing votes, but Vernon captured 14

John Tyler was one of six ranked teams to suffer defeat last week.

In 4A, Athens fell to 1989 state champion Chapel Hill 42-12 and dropped out of the poll. No. 10 San Antonio Alamo Heights (7-0) replaced Athens in the rankings.

Lubbock Estacado, the former No. 2 team, was tied by Lamesa 14-14. and fell to sixth.

Farmersville fell from fourth to ninth in 2A after a 21-13 loss to Celina (6-1), which replaced Panhandle in the No. 10 spot. Panhandle lost to Wellington 10-6.

In 1A, No. 2 Italy whipped No. 9 Coolidge, 36-0. Valley Mills (7-0) replaced Coolidge at No. 9.

Marshall's defense was depleted before the start of the season when it lost Johnson to a chronic neck injury and Greene reported overweight and was forced to sit out the first five

"When we started the season, I thought we had two of the best linebackers in the world." Parker said. "Then we didn't have either

One sign that Greene and Johnson were sorely missed came in the loss to Waco, when Fite scrambled for 220 yards and three touchdowns and the Lions began a climb to their current No. 4.

"I think we went to Waco and a lot of things happened," Parker said. "We did not fall apart against Waco. We had two touchdowns called back in the first half and we were down "To me, it's the same getting beat 36-7 as 21-7, so we took a lot of chances (in the second half).' The return of Greene and simultaneous resurgence in Marshall's defense now has opponents taking chances.

John Tyler managed only a season-low 180 yards, including 91 rushing yards, against the Mavericks, a caliber of defense that could carry

Marshall into the playoffs. Parker maintains guarded optimism, which seems to be his

The typically blustery winds of the West Texas plains won't even compare to the typhoon-like offense of the No. 8 Miami Hurricanes, who blow into Lubbock Saturday, said Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes.

"I don't think we will have any trouble getting anybody ready to play against Miami," Dykes said Monday.

"With a break here or there, they would be coming in here 6-0 and No. 1 in the country.'

Dykes said Tech (2-5) will have Tech. to play a flawless game against the

And even that might not do it. "I don't know if we are good enough to win if we go play perfect," Dykes said. "But I know one thing,

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) George Romero, director of "Night of the Living Dead" and other cult classics, has started shooting "The Dark Half," a film adapted from the Stephen King novel of the same

Shooting began last week at Washington & Jefferson College in western Pennsylvania, an area the director has favored in making low-budget flicks.

The $15 million Jekyll-and-Hyde story will be Romero's most expensive film.

In "The Dark Half," Oscar-winner Timothy Hutton plays a professor who can't sell his books under his own name but whose horror novels written under a pseudonym become best sellers. The pseudonym becomes a separate personality.

The plot was inspired by King's own career. King has had success under the name Richard Bachman, a pseudonym he adopted because his publisher feared a glut of his material on the market would hurt sales.

Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: My aunt is severely bothered by arthritis. She has had one knee joint replaced and has trouble with all of her joints. Recently she purchased a book on arthritis which advised using pure peanut oil with alfalfa seeds and other ingredients. Also listed was a half pound of fresh cherries daily.

I actually helped her try to find these in health-food stores, but we were unsuccessful. I'm sure she will pursue this idea. What can I say to her and how can I help her with this problem?

Please discuss how diet affects arthritis and give some sound guidelines on coping with it. Is there any medication that helps the swelling and pain caused by arthritis?

My mother has arthritis in her knee joints too. Her doctor prescribed Dolobid which she takes four times daily. The pain has subsided almost entirely, but I'm wondering what the side effects of this drug are. She is 82

DEAR READER: I'm sorry such books are on the market. They take advantage of people with such difficult problems as your aunt has. There is no evidence that peanut oil or alfalfa seeds help arthritis. Anyone who does feel better following the use of such diets do so because of the placebo effect and would feel better if they took colored sugar pills instead and had faith in them.

The truth is, there is no special diet for osteoarthritis - the type of degenerative arthritis that is particularly common in older people. Both your aunt and your mother should follow a sensible, well-balanced diet and not expect it to affect their arthritis.

Your mother and aunt both might benefit from reading Special Report 80, Help for Arthritis. Those who want this report can send $2 with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to THE HEALTH LETTER/80, P.O. Box 787, Gibbstown, NJ 08027-9908.

Both should be under the care of a rheumatologist or a physician who votes much of his pre treating arthritis. Surgery is important in some cases. Physical therapy is important. Medicines such as Dolobid On Stress to control the pain are very helpful. It is related to aspirin and has similar have fewer of these side effects that aspirin has.

DEAR DR. LAMB: Our son, age 40, was recently diagnosed as having Raynaud's disease. He was told that nothing could be done for this condition, but to keep his body warm and he needs a warm climate. His hands or fingers turn blue and very cold, also his feet. Can something be done? At times he hurts terribly and yet the doctor said nothing can be

DEAR READER: You can't cure it, but there is a lot you can do to avoid the attacks. Raynaud's causes severe constriction of the arteries to the skin, usually of the hands, but sometimes to the face and even the feet. When it is the hands, they turn pale at first from lack of blood. As the attack persists, they turn blue from a small amount of stagnant unoxygenated blood. Finally, as the attack subsides, the arteries dilate excessively and the hands turn red. The attacks can cause

Keeping the whole body warm, including the face, is important. If any part gets cold, it can trigger reflex spasm of the arteries. Electrically powered hand and feet warmers are advisable. Medicines such as Procardia may be used to prevent arterial constriction. If your son smokes he should stop because that contributes to the arterial constriction.

DEAR DR. LAMB: My son suffered for one full year with excruciating pain in his eye and headaches to the point 'he would pound his head gainst the wall. They would also wake him up at night. He was beside

He went from one eye doctor to another and was told the aches were just allergies. He went to 13 different doctors and finally went to a headache clinic. A young doctor brought out his medical journal and read his symptoms as my son described his trouble. He said my son has cluster headaches and prescribed Verapamil. He took this for three weeks and finally it tamed down the pain about 50 percent. Most of this summer he was doing real well. He had relief until this week when it has started to return full strength. The doctor told him that it would come and go with the change of the four seasons we

Dr. Lamb, please can you send me some literature for my son to read to know more about it. Can you advise a better medication for him to try to get associated with tearing and a runny nose. The attacks last sometimes several hours and disappear, only to recur later in the day or night. Most attacks do occur at night. This usually continues for a few weeks and then the problem disappears. Another cluster of headaches may occur months or years later on an unpredictable basis. It is rare for a cluster of attacks to last a year, but it does

They are hard to treat. Many different medicines have been used and it is often a task of trying different things to help control the pain. It is important not to use any nedicines that dilate the arteries and that is why alcohol is strictly avoided during an attack of clusters. In between attacks alcohol does not bring on the headache.

The cause is unknown. I have discussed them in more detail in Special Report 85, Headache and Facial Pain, which I am sending you for your son. Others who want this report on headaches can send $2 with long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to THE HEALTH LETTER/85, P.O. Box 787, Gibbstown, NJ 08027-9908. DEAR DR. LAMB: I play bridge with friend whose stomach always seems to rumble like she had a tornado in it. Occasionally I have this distress, but it is not as loud or severe as hers is. What causes this type of distress? Is there anything a person can do to avoid it?

DEAR READER: While it may be socially embarrassing, it is of no importance to your health. It is sometimes referred to as your stomach growling. The noise is caused by air passing through liquid, usually in the small intestine. The gaseous distention people experience is different, usually of the colon or large

Your friend's internal rumbling is caused by strong frequent contraccan stimulate it, and that is why something to eat may quiet it. Char-coal tablets may help by absorbing gas. But remember not to take charcoal too close to any medicines you may be taking or that will affect your medicines. The condition is called borborygmi, in case you really wanted to know.

Agriculture discussed by club

Texas Department of Agriculture District Director, Harold Bob Bennett, of Amarillo was guest speaker at the October meeting of Pioneer Study Club.

Bennett told members that the American public, not just farmers, should be concerned and speak out against the United States proposal for the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade talks if it does not want to see their food policy follow in the footsteps of the fuel policy.

Recently agriculture leaders of the area met in Amarillo to discuss U.S. GATT policy and what could be done to prevent what they considered a disaster. Winder GATT policy farmers would lose 56 to 103 percent of their income depending on the size of their farms. Food quality standards would be weakened--eating toous imported into this country that were grown with pesticides which are banned for use by U.S. producers.

Americans would be paying higher prices because most of the food would be imported. We could no longer limit the imports of beef, cotton, sugar and other ag-products.

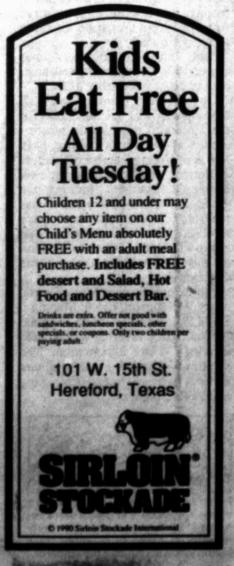

There is no need to turn over our food safety and security to an international agency. After deregulating the oil, we should know better than to deregulate our food industry. Mary Jane Burros and Rosemary Thomas were hostesses and had decorated tables in Autumn colors at the Caison House. Lunch was served to Bennett, Jeanic Caison, Nell Culpepper, Maria Escamilla, Bellee Johnson, Helen Langely, Gladys Miller, Mary Panciera, Mildred Sheffy, Fern Segle,
