With two opposition teams back in competition after a lapse of one or more years because of war conditions the Hereford Whitefaces are sign-ed up for one of the best schedules in recent years, according to announcements this week.

The schedule promises real thrills for local football fans, with six home games and some of these with teams which traditionally provide the stiffest competition on the Whiteface schedule.

The schedule, announced this week by Superintendent Strickand is as follow

Some Household Appliances At 1942 Price - OPA

Chester Bowles has told household consumers that washing machines, ironers and aluminum kitchenware will be back in the stores this fall at 1942 prices, OPA has anounced.

The Office of Economic Stabilization approved extension of the price program for consumer durable goods to the entire reconversion. In outline, the program is to grant increases at the production level to compensate for cost increases since 1941, when necessary to assure maximum production. Wholesalers and retailers, not the consumer, will absorb a substantial amount of these increases where their margins reasonably permit them to do this.

Price Administrator Bowles told housewives this is what they can expect in the durable goods field during the next few months.

The output of household washing machines should reach pre-war levels this fall and shoppers should be able to find them in the stores in quantity by the end of the year.

The picture is pretty much the same for aluminum kitchen ware. Of course, shoppers should remember that washing machines and cooking utensils have been out of stock for some time and probably will be bought up very quickly.

- Production of ironers will come along more slowly.

The facilities, technical advancements, and experience developed by this independent corporation during war years are now being converted to the production and improvement of Shamrock's new gasoline and other motor fuels, according to Shamrock officials. These products are handled by independent Shamrock dealers here in Hereford and elsewhere.

To back up its postwar marketing program, Shamrock has released an extensive newspaper advertising campaign, first insertion of which appears today in The Brand.

EVER REACH INTO AN EMPTY SOCK?

Well, I have.

And it's a tough feeling when you need money and don't know where to get it.

That's why I'm putting every dollar I can rake or scrape into War Bonds now.

They're the best insurance I know against finding the old sock empty if I ever have to dig down into it again.

And I may have to, you know.

You can't help but win by putting War Bonds away. In ten years I'll get back 4 dollars for every 3 I put into E Bonds. And in the meantime, the money is always there if I need it.

And every time I put another War Bond in the sock, I think of the sock that it helps to give those Japs.

What better proposition could you want ... for yourself ... for your family ... for your country . . . than War Bonds?

Draft Office to Close All Day Saturday

The Selective Service Office hereafter will be closed all day Saturday it was anounced to-day by Board Chairman Frank Givan. The change is in line with a new policy putting all Federal offices on a 40-hour

The local board is now going forward with the work of put-ting all men over 26 years of age in a deferred classification. Men in the 18-26 age group will continue to be used to answer draft calls until further action on the entire question of the draft is taken by Congress.

(Continued from Page 1) Concerning activities of the local chapter, Eubanks points to a number of fields in which local programs will expand.

"The Red Cross is one of several agencies authorized by the government to deal with veteran's needs for hospitalization, pensions and other legal benefits. Assistance to families of veterans, as well as those of servicemen, will also claim a large share of Red Cross effort." "Local sewing rooms will continue to have quotas of hospital supplies," Eubanks stated,
