Farmers Union Adopts New Resolutions

The Bailey County Farmers Union met Monday night, October 23, in the home of Cecil Jones at Enochs to adopt resolutions to be considered by the state convention. Among the resolutions finally adopted were:

"That the support price on cottonseed be set in relation to other oil seed crops and not be less than 80 per cent of parity.

"We urge the administration to have the Secretary of Agriculture set the loan price of cotton at 90 per cent of the world market for the last two years, as legislation now on the books would allow.

"We feel that it would not be good for the government to buy cotton unless the resale would be restricted to 55 per cent of parity, plus storage and carrying charges.

"That idle land in any skip-row pattern be counted as set aside or diverted acres.

"To ask the administration to forego the ruling that a farmer would have to plant a percent of his allotment in order to keep the base history and yield, and to comply with the program all you would have to do would be to meet your set aside requirements. These unplanted acres could not be planted to any other allotted crop."

The delegates appointed to the state convention to be held December 7 - 9 in Arlington were: Nolan Harlan, president; Fay Jones, Florence Fine, M.L. Fine, Betty Harlan and Mrs. V.C. Weaver. Alternates will be J.D. Rowland, Ila Fay Rowland, Dalbert Watson and Beth Watson.

I Am A Sick American

There are those that claim ours is a "sick" society; that our country is sick; that we are sick. Well, maybe they're right. I submit that I'm sick . . . and maybe you are too. I am sick of having policemen ridiculed and called "pigs" while cop killers are hailed as some kind of folk hero.

I AM SICK of being told that religion is the opiate of the people . . . but marijuana should be legalized.

I AM SICK of being told that pornography is the right of a free press, but freedom of the press does not include being able to read the Bible on school grounds.

I AM SICK of commentators and columnists canonizing anarchists, revolutionaries and criminal rapists, but condemning law enforcement when such criminals are brought to justice.

I AM SICK of paying more and more taxes to build schools while I see some faculty members encouraging students either to tear them down or burn them.

I AM SICK of Supreme Court decisions which turn criminals loose on society - while other decisions try to take away my means of protecting my home and family.

I AM SICK of being told that policemen are mad dogs who should not have guns - but that criminals who use guns to rob, maim and murder should be understood and helped back to society.

I AM SICK of being told it is wrong to use napalm to end a war overseas - but if it's a molotov cocktail or a bomb at home, I must understand the provocations.

I AM SICK of not being able to take my family to a movie unless I want to have them exposed to nudity, homosexuality and the glorification of narcotics.

I AM SICK of pot-smoking entertainers deluging me with their condemnation of my moral standards on late-night television.

I AM SICK of riots, marches, protests, demonstrations, confrontations, and the other mob temper tantrums of people intellectually incapable of working within the system.

I AM SICK of hearing the same phrases, the same slick slogans, the cries of the people who must chant the same thing like zombies because they haven't the capacity for verbalizing thought.

I AM SICK of reading so-called modern literature with its kinship to what I used to read on the walls of public toilets.

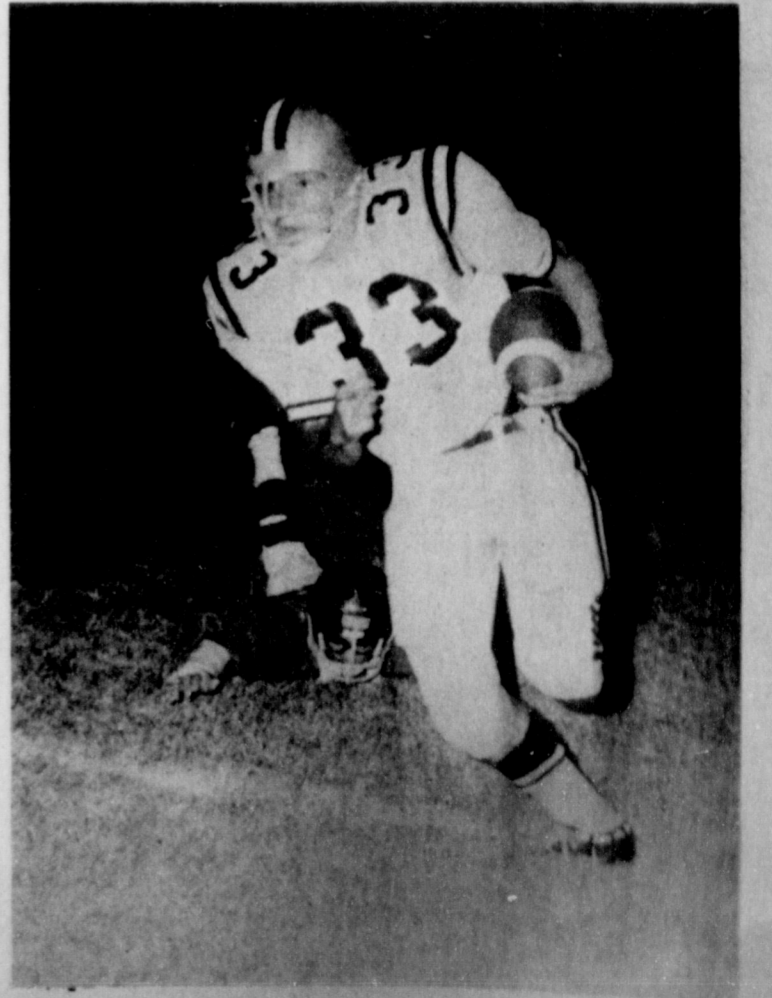

I AM SICK of those who say I owe them this or that because of the sins of my forefathers - when I have looked down both ends of a gun barrel.

ALL ALONE FOR SIX POINTS . . . David Wheat is all alone as he outruns a Levelland defender for six points. Wheat scored two touchdowns Friday night against Levelland and rushed for a total of 76 yards. The Mules defeated Levelland, 27-12 at Levelland.

EDITORIAL

In view of President Richard Nixon's past record of accomplishments both at home and abroad, the Journal is pleased to endorse this outstanding presidential candidate for a second term. President Nixon has been instrumental in lowering the rate of inflation, initiating revenue sharing with the local governmental bodies, establishing a constructive foreign policy with China and the Soviet Union, as well as standing firm for an honorable peace in Vietnam.

John Tower is our choice for United States Senator. Towers' voting record has been consistently conservative and has backed President Nixon on major policies. Tower, in fact, along with Goldwater, long ago urged that a stepped up bombing program in North Vietnam would give us a strong position at the peace table.

For Governor both Grover and Briscoe are supposedly conservative candidates. Briscoe, the Demo hard core hero that put down Cissie Farenthold in the run off hasn't told us much from our point of view. Should Ramsey Muniz capture a large number of former Democratic liberal votes the picture for future elections could change considerably.

Governor Preston Smith is due a card of thanks for his immense effort in securing a medical school for Texas Tech. This school of Medicine which is designed to produce general practitioners will be alive and growing when the contamination of the Sharpstown scandal that surrounded Smith is dead and gone.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS
The 92nd Congress finished its business and adjourned October 18th after two years of work which was highlighted by enactment of a $20-billion revenue-sharing bill and giving 18-year-olds the right to vote.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following report is one of a series of articles on the thinking of "typical Texans" in small towns—the voters who may decide who is elected in the presidential campaign.

By MICHAEL O. WESTER
MULESHOE, Tex. (UPI) — Roxanne Street has the sweetness that only age 16 can bring to a face, and her heroes are the Mules — the boys who wear the gray and black of the high school football team. Her blonde hair hangs to her shoulders and there is a certain twinkle in her eyes.

Roxanne is a working girl — for 90 minutes every weekday as part of her home economic studies, and all day Saturday and Sunday, she hauls platters of steaming beef ringed with heaps of French fries to the customers at the XIT Steak House.

Because she is only 16 she must wait another four years to vote for president. But if she could vote Nov. 7 she said her teen-age ballot would be easy.

"I'd go for Nixon," she said, smiling. Then she got serious. "I don't like McGovern, and I guess I don't like Nixon either. But I'd take Nixon as the lesser of two evils. I don't like what McGovern says. It sounds too communistic."

Roxanne Street is typical of the youth in rural West Texas and Muleshoe is a typical town in an area where the economy generally is good and growing — for a small community. Muleshoe was one part of the XIT Ranch, the largest fenced spread in history, covering 10 counties. Its past and present is agriculture — cotton, corn, grain sorghum and ranching. "We have a lot of pride in our past, and we look forward to the future," said Mayor Irvin St. Clair, who runs a department store.

"It concerns me to hear everyone calling for change — in dress, in religion, in customs and in politics," said St. Clair, a staunch Bailey County Democrat. "Sure, we need to improve and make things better — but that doesn't call for an all-out about-face."

The mayor is not enthusiastic about George S. McGovern, his party's candidate for president.

"I've been fortunate enough to have served as chairman of the state Democratic convention a couple of times, but I don't believe the old members of the party are fully behind McGovern this year," St. Clair said. "This year I fear many will cross over and support President Nixon for re-election."

There is a billboard just east of town for Sen. John Tower. And a Nixon-Agnew sticker on a downtown car, but that's about the extent of politicking. "It could be that people here are just disgusted with the whole idea of politics," said Harvey Bass, Democratic party county chairman. "We feel like there will be a large voter turnout, and we hear a lot of talk on the streets, but people certainly are not as interested this year as they have been in past elections."

RUSSIA TO PAY DEBT

The Soviet Union has agreed to pay a total of $722 million, including an unspecified interest charge, over the next 29 years. It is repayment of their wartime Lend Lease debt to the United States.

For the past 18 years Grady Edelman has pumped gasoline at the town's main intersection — where U.S. 70 and Texas 214 cross U.S. 84.

"The people supporting McGovern are a new breed," he said. "McGovern will get more votes than people give him credit. But I can't believe anything either of the candidates promise. It wouldn't surprise me if a lot of the people just stay away from the polls. Neither Nixon or McGovern will do what they say they will — so why should we vote?"

Local Man To Attend Water Short School

As 1972 comes to a close, five local water associations, the Texas Water Utilities Association, Texas State Department of Health, Texas Water Quality Board, Texas A&M University and the City of Lubbock, will sponsor the last of six short schools which are scheduled every year. It is the 25th West Texas Regional Water Utilities Short School to be held at the Public Works Service Center in Lubbock, November 7, 8 and 9.

The basic courses, which enable students to become highly trained utility operators, will be available for those who desire to take examinations for the D, C and B levels of certification.

The first two sessions will offer math computations while the remainder of the school will teach different processes of handling water utility problems. After the training session, representatives of the Texas State Department of Health will supervise examinations for certificates of competency.

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m., Tuesday, November 7. The fee will include a Barbeque Luncheon at 12:00 noon on Thursday.

The basic water and wastewater courses are to be conducted by J.W. Hayes, Jim Cates, Charles Wall and Leon Holbert from the Engineering Extension Service of Texas A&M University.

The mineral IRON is an essential nutrient in a person's diet. The iron requirement for females is greater than that for males. In general, meat sources of iron are superior to vegetable sources. Liver is by far the best food source for this mineral; although other red meats are also excellent sources.

Your VOTE FOR AMENDMENT 1

IS A VOTE FOR Better GOVERNMENT

AMENDMENT ONE RAISES LEGISLATIVE PAY TO $8,400 ANNUALLY. HERE IS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR AMENDMENT ONE:

MORE PAY MEANS MORE INDEPENDENCE FROM SPECIAL INTEREST LOBBYING.
It follows as clearly as day follows night that the less financial pressure a legislator feels, the less likely he is to succumb to the influence of special interests. For this reason, any legislative reform program which does not include a reasonable salary program is almost certain to fail.

PRESSURES FROM OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT WILL BE REDUCED.
Conflicts of interest are always a matter of concern. However, the less a legislator must rely on outside employment, the more independent he can be in making important legislative decisions.

LEGISLATIVE SERVICE IS A FULL TIME JOB.
A State Senator serves over 360,000 people and a House Member serves more than 74,000 and on any given day—whether the Legislature is in session or not—you can be assured there are from a dozen to several hundred persons who will call on their legislator for information or assistance or to request his participation in conferences, meetings, or official functions. Incidentally, week-end requests are the rule rather than the exception. Moreover, the increasing complexity in the problems of state government and the demands of standing and interim committees meeting between sessions leaves the legislator little time to devote to a private business or profession. The legislator who must depend on income from a business will, on any given day, be forced to neglect either his legislative responsibilities or his business—or both. And whereas his salary has been fixed for the past 11 years, the legislator finds himself considering more than twice as many bills—from around 1,500 ten years ago to something like 4,000 during recent sessions.

THE EXTRA COST IS VERY SMALL.
The proposed increase will cost each Texan about 4¢ per year, surely a small amount to pay for what is truly not an expenditure at all but an INVESTMENT.

LOW PAY KEEPS MANY QUALIFIED PERSONS FROM BECOMING CANDIDATES
With increased pay, the number of qualified individuals who would be willing to offer themselves for legislative services would definitely increase. (Try asking a few individuals who you feel would be great legislative timber if they would take the job for $92.31 per week—before taxes—even if they didn't have the expense and agony of trying to get elected every two years.) While $8,400 would probably not be sufficient to sustain most legislators and their families, it would certainly reduce the amount of money they would have to have from other sources. To put it another way, if you had a million dollar business would you hire $400 a month clerks to make policy and management decisions? Well, the State of Texas is a $3 1/2 billion business, and we apparently expect to get long management talent for $400 per month. Does that really make sense?

HOW TEXAS COMPARES WITH OTHER STATES
STATE	POPULATION	SALARY
California	19,953,134	$19,200
New York	18,190,740	15,000
Pennsylvania	11,793,909	15,600
Texas	11,196,730	4,800
Illinois	11,113,976	17,500
Michigan	8,875,083	17,000
New Jersey	7,168,164	10,000

Oklahoma	2,559,253	9,000
Hawaii	769,913	12,000

Why You Should Re-Elect President Richard Nixon Nov. 7

LET'S LOOK At AGRICULTURE And STOCK RAISING

WE HAVE one of the most abundant supplies of food in history. Our exports of livestock, fresh meats, grain sorghums and grain are going to add many dollars to the general economy.

WE'RE SELLING COMMODITIES of which we've had surpluses—and we're helping provide jobs on trucks and ships at the same time.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE REASONS

PRESIDENT NIXON'S AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1970 gave producers more flexibility and freedom in operations.

PRESIDENT NIXON'S ADMINISTRATION has turned around the farm situation that saw farmers get an increase in income of 6 per cent between 1951 and 1969 while wage rates went up 6 per cent every year.

PRESIDENT NIXON gave agriculture one of the most effective spokesmen in recent history by appointment of Earl Butz as Secretary of Agriculture.

Opening the season under the handicaps of inexperience and a lack of weight, the Yellow-jackets progressed through a six game schedule in an admirable fashion. Practically none of the boys had had previous experience. They were all light--much lighter than the average high school player. But despite these handicaps, they have won two games, tied two and lost two--a good record. They have played return games with the eleven which defeated them -- Sudan and Morton -- and in these return engagements have tied their opponents in score and defeated

J. J. Machalk To Visit Local Jehovah Witnesses

The Muleshoe Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be host this week to J.J. Machalk, Circuit Supervisor for the group in parts of two states, including Southeastern New Mexico and Northwest Texas, according to Warren Meeks, local presiding minister.

"Machalk will take the lead in all the activity of the local congregation this week," Meeks pointed out. "Special efforts are being made to contact residents of every home in Muleshoe. Jehovah's Witnesses are interested not only in inviting persons of interest to the Kingdom Hall, but we would like to see all study the Bible and understand its contents. Mr. Machalk's visit will be beneficial to us as Jehovah's Witnesses as he instructs us in ways of improving our doorstep and home study methods of teaching the Bible." Meeks concluded.

Additionally Machalk is conducting several meetings this week at the Kingdom Hall, Friona Highway. The highlight of his visit will be 9:30 A.M. Sunday, when he discourses on the topic, "Who Is Your God?"

Constitutional Amendments

LAST OF A SERIES --

AMENDMENT NO. 13--H.J.R. NO. 82 (Increasing the maximum interest rate which may be borne by certain bonds issued under constitutional authority by adding a new Section 65 to Article III)

The proposed Amendment No. 13 would add a new Section 65 to Article III of the Texas Constitution. This new section would provide that agencies, instrumentalities, and subdivisions of the state that are authorized to issue bonds whose maximum interest rates not to exceed a weighted average annual interest rate of 6 percent. The proposed Section 65 would be effective on adoption of Amendment No. 13 by the voters, and all constitutional provisions which set conflicting interest rates would be repealed. (For full text of the resolution proposing Amendment No. 13, see appendix.)

BACKGROUND: A number of provisions of the Texas Constitution place a maximum limit on the amount of interest which may be prescribed by certain public agencies for bonds which they issue. Most of these limits are set at less than 5 percent.

At present, the prevailing rate of interest on bonds which can be sold on the open market is higher than the maximum interest-rate limits set by the Texas Constitution. Since the interest rate borne by bonds is an important factor in making them easy to sell on the open market, bonds issued by various public agencies in Texas which bear interest-rates below the prevailing rate on the open market are very difficult to sell. The purpose of Amendment No. 13 is to increase the maximum interest rate limitation to an amount not to exceed a weighted average annual interest rate of 6 percent.

Among programs that would be affected by this amendment are the parks program of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and the veterans' land program managed by the Veterans' Land Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 14--H.J.R. NO. 57 (Amending Article VII of the Texas Constitution by adding a new Section 6b to permit the commissioners court of a county to reduce the county permanent school fund and to provide for the per scholastic distribution and use of the money obtained from this reduction.)

The proposed Amendment No. 14 would add a new Section 6b to Article VII of the Texas Constitution which would allow the commissioners court of a county to reduce the county permanent school fund and to provide for the per scholastic distribution and use of the money obtained from this reduction.)

The new Constitution of 1876 declared that the land which had been patented to a county was the property of that county, and the original section required that the proceeds from any sale of these lands must be invested in bonds of the State of Texas or of the United States, the revenue from which was to be used for current county school expenses. By amendment in 1883, this section was changed to permit the proceeds from the sale of land to be invested also in county bonds or in any other securities which may be prescribed by law, the counties being responsible for all investments.

Thought For The Week

"They that won't be counseled can't be helped."

Where Else?

The young lover was obviously reeling out a heavy line trying to impress the beautiful young girl at his side. "Those warm lips and those beautiful eyes! Where did you get those eyes?"

The girl, unimpressed, "They came with my head."

Eighth Grade Girls Start Work-Outs

The eighth grade athletic girls started their work-out to get in shape for the approaching season. The girls have had three work-outs so far and hope to have several more before the season starts. The practices lasted for two hours. In this, the girls did such things as: the wave drill they worked on jump shots and free shots, they did some one on one guarding and various other things. After this took place, Coach Flowers made the girls run a few sprints to get them in shape for the season. The first practice did not go so well according to Coach Flowers, but the next two went better. The girls worked hard in each of these practices, Coach Flowers said that although the first practice went bad, it was because they weren't used to it. The next two practices were more what she expected. Also the girls are getting a better attitude, which causes improvement in all the girls. The Journalism staff would like to extend the best of luck to these girls and Coach Flowers and also Coach Clifton. Also that they may win all of their games, good luck!!!

Prussic Acid Can Kill Livestock

College Station --- Although recent summer - like weather tends to indicate that winter is still a long way off, it's just a matter of time before the season's first freezing temperatures arrive. Such a killing frost can spell danger for livestock producers that have cattle grazing on sorghum - sudan hybrid pastures.

The reason is prussic acid poisoning of the animals," points out Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

"The danger of prussic acid poisoning exists mainly in pastures and fields where sorghum stubble is making regrowth and where there is vigorous, young growth generally has a high content of prussic acid, especially if produced under stress of dry or cool weather."

According to Armstrong, the main danger to livestock is grazing such pastures and fields immediately after a killing frost.

He advises livestock producers to wait a week to 10 days following a killing frost before allowing cattle to graze suspect pastures and fields. If only a light frost occurs, the veterinarian recommends removing the cattle until plant growth is killed by a heavy freeze.

"Each year numerous animals are lost from prussic acid poisoning. These losses are needless and rob the producer's pocketbook. Giving special attention to grazing management and staying abreast of changing weather conditions can avoid cattle losses to prussic acid poisoning," contends Armstrong.

18th Congressional District

CANADIAN - Congressman Bob Price today told friends and supporters "that the voters on November 7th will decide not just a contest between the 'ins' and the 'outs,' but the very course and destiny of our government and nation for generations to come."

Price said, "The contrast between the position of the President and the McGovern position on the various issues is so clear cut that the voters need not fear that they will be faced without a choice. This same contrast exists between my opponent and myself."

"I have been labeled a conservative and that's probably a pretty good description. My opponent is the opposite. Any man who will publicly endorse a man like George McGovern for the highest office in the land cannot be interested in conserving or preserving our Nation."

"How could anyone agree with and support the philosophy of crawling to Hanoi to surrender; of expanding the give-away welfare program of eliminating the depletion allowance and incentives for finding new supplies of vital resources; of appointing Ramsey Clark as Secretary of State; of adopting the O'Leary approach to drugs; or most shocking of all, of raising the white flag of surrender by committing suicide with our Nation's defenses?"

"How could any person support these ideas and proposals? I do not, I never have, and I never will," Price said. "And I do not believe that these radical ideas are representative of the beliefs of the people of the new Thirteenth District."

"In 1972 the choice is clear; if you believe as I do in the rule of reason, instead of the rule of the mob; if you believe in government not only for the people but also of and by the people; if you believe that criminals should be punished instead of their victims or the police; if you believe that national defense is a life insurance policy instead of a drain on our Nation's resources; and if you believe that the President and not George McGovern has earned the trust of the American people to lead this Nation in our troubled world, then I ask your support to be your representative to the United States Congress."

Bombing Finale

Now that a ceasefire in Vietnam is at hand, one should review claims and counter-claims concerning President Nixon's decision to get tough with Hanoi earlier in the year.

The President blockaded North Vietnam's harbors and resumed the bombing of North Vietnam, of course, in retaliation to the blatant North Vietnamese offensive against South Vietnam.

Many at that time lambasted the President's move as certain to prolong the war, and hinder peace negotiations, etc. It was claimed the North Vietnamese would never negotiate under military pressure, etc. It was said the U.S. military retaliation would not appreciably hurt Hanoi.

Now it turns out to be clear the President's tough action helped bring Hanoi to its senses and to the peace table. One cannot yet say how any agreement will turn out, in the long run, nor indeed whether it will be kept. But the goal of ending the killing was brought closer by firm, forceful action. The Communists, as always, respect determination and military power more than anything else in dealing with the West. And while the resumed bombing campaign claimed lives, ending the war by doing so will have saved many lives in the long run.

November 7th

Back in 1942 American troops made their first thrust at Germany in World War II on November 7th. Hitler had declared war on America several days after the Japanese had sneak-attacked Pearl Harbor in December of 1941.

United States military forces were not ready for war, much less a two ocean war, but there was a desire to do something in the first year. U.S. Marines invaded Guadalcanal in August of 1942 (after the great victory at Midway in June) and U.S. forces landed in French-administered North Africa November 7th. Thus in the first twelve months of the conflict U.S. forces were on the offensive against both its major enemies.

North Africa gave U.S. military forces the bleeding they needed for tougher fighting that lay ahead. U.S. fighters, P-39's, P-40's and P-38's, were roughly handled by the Luftwaffe's Me 109's. U.S. ground troops suffered sharp defeats in some cases, though outnumbering the enemy heavily. The British Eighth Army was there—coming from the east—to close the pincers and do the greater part of the job.

In the landing at North African ports, Washington and London had assured the French there was no design on their territory, but many French military commanders opened fire on the Americans and it required several days to defeat the French.

had decided to vote on election day—history would have been different!

Remember the Truman-Dewey race in 1948? The vote was so close that first reports gave the victory to Dewey. It could happen again.

So don't let anyone tell you that it does no good to vote, that one ballot is just a drop in the bucket. Don't let the other guy decide who will govern both of you.

This is even more true in local elections than in presidential races. Local races are most often won and lost by just a few votes; your vote, your husband or wife's, your neighbor's vote made the difference.

So even if you do not actively support a candidate or a party, use your right to vote, so one can do it for you.

Dr. George Willeford is state chairman of the Republican Party of Texas. This is one of a series of articles presented in the public interest.

By George Willeford
State Chairman, GOP

Q. Can vote fraud be stopped in Texas?

A. Probably not. That is the realistic answer.

But this year the Republican Party and other groups are working as never before to assure that this election is as honest as honest men and women can make it.

The GOP program is called variously ballot security and voter rights. Your rights as a voter are what are threatened when ballots and voters are tampered with.

Alan Rash of El Paso was recently appointed as head of ballot security for the Republican Party of Texas, the Committee to Re-Elect the President and the John Tower campaign. In a statement he promised "to saturate the Texas landscape with honesty at the polls."

Political parties in each precinct are allowed to appoint poll watchers or election supervisors, under the authority of the Texas Election Code. This year Republicans have organized these election monitors and others into a massive assault on election fraud.

The program is already in full swing and the pitch will increase up to election day to preserve your rights as a voter and the integrity of every honest ballot. Often "fraud" can be simply a matter of not knowing what the law is.

This may not be a cure for election fraud, but it is a beginning.

Q. Does it really make any difference if I vote on November 7?

A. It certainly does! Every vote counts. That is what government by the people is all about. Your single vote is no less important now than a single vote was in the first election ever held in this country.

America will never become large, or so populous that a vote of its citizens no longer matter. That has been proved in past elections, it is no less important now than a single vote was in the November 7 general election 4 years ago.

For example, in 1968 President Nixon failed to carry Texas by less than 8 votes per precinct—and won the nation less than 3 votes per precinct.

And in 1960, it would have been less than one more vote per precinct nationwide for President Nixon to have won! Give what would have happened if just those few people

Farmers Union Registers Strong Protest With Butz

Waco, Texas - Farmers Union registered today a strong protest with Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz over his failure to raise the cotton price support loan in the 1973 program. In a letter to the agriculture secretary, Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman said that "maintaining the same programs and price supports for the '73 season that have caused the low production-cost prices this year indicate a callous disregard for the nation's cotton producers. Your decision to retain the 19.5 cent price support is clear evidence that once again your administration of the cotton program is based on the welfare of the cotton trader at the expense of cotton producers." The letter noted that under the law the secretary of agriculture can at his discretion set the loan at 90% of the two-year average world market price in this case would be 24 cents per pound.

Naman said that both the cotton trade and the USDA had urged farmers to increase cotton acreage this year and gave assurances that prices received would permit a reasonable profit. "Following that advice," he said, "farmers produced a large surplus and now cannot sell their cotton even at the present loan level of 19.5 cents per pound."

"An increase in the price support loan level is clearly possible under existing law. As your own spokesmen have indicated, the loan level could be raised to 24 cents per pound." Naman said, "Failure to increase the cotton price support loan level will assure the cycling of all unsold cotton through the Commodity Credit Corporation at great cost to taxpayers and to the disadvantage of producers. By increasing the loan level, prices would be stimulated and producers would be able to market their crop this year through traditional trade channels."

The protest to Secretary Butz expressed strong agreement with the views of House Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage who personally urged an increase in the price support level and said, "In January Congress must begin working on a new farm bill. The Department can do a better job with some of the freedom of action Congress has granted it. But if that freedom is to be abused at the expense of producers, Congress may consider taking this discretion away."

The Marines

Throughout the history of the United States the flag and defense of the nation has been superbly served by the U.S. Marine Corps. The Corps dates from November 10th, 1775. On this day the Continental Congress in Philadelphia authorized formation of two battalions to aid in the war against England.

There had been companies of marines in America, but under British command, and the two battalions were the first American marine units. The first Captain commissioned was Samuel Nicholas. He opened recruiting headquarters in the Tun Tavern in Philadelphia, since considered the birthplace of the U.S. Marines.

Though the Corps was re-commissioned shortly after independence was won, Congress reestablished it in its present form in 1798. Since that time the Corps has gained a worldwide reputation as the toughest fighting force under American command. Its gallant spirit and devotion to duty and country has done much to protect and preserve every American's liberty and freedom for two centuries.

NEWS REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

Nixon's Press-The Editors-Walking Press-Media War

Washington, D. C.—The overwhelming support President Nixon has received from the nation's editors is unprecedented in the history of America.

Daily editors have favored Mr. Nixon about 12 to 1 and the margin may be higher among the weekly press. Although many favorites of the editors have lost in recent years (about as many as have won) never has the margin of support from editors been so great.

Yet Mr. Nixon remains the object of savage depreciation by much of the working press in Washington, New York and abroad.

The line pushed by these writers is almost identical; they claim the President is all politician, and a good one, but that he isn't really talking with the voters.

Of course, this falling is attributed to all Presidents. But the ironic part of today's political picture is that so much of the working press damns Mr. Nixon on a bitter, damn Mr. Nixon on a bitter, personal basis while editors support him 12 to 1.

The working press is traditionally made up of hard nosed liberals. Some say the most successful are the most nepotistic and self-serving. Editors tend to be less toward the left. That presumably accounts for some of the contrast.

The Nixon Administration's crack-down on the mafia in New York City was timed nicely for the election, admittedly, but it has been in progress for more than a year.

The mass serving of subpoenas and grand jury proceedings are described by those in the know as the heaviest blow the federal government has ever struck at the famed gangster organization.

Republicans, of course like to note that gang support in most cities in the past has usually gone to Democrats.

DISNEY EXPANSION

Orlando, Fla.—Disney officials have announced a $50-million expansion program for Walt Disney World, including a new hotel and 300 campsites. Construction is to begin as soon as the Disney World Open Golf Championship ends in December.

Richard Nixon, President of the United States will be in the forefront of efforts to achieve a reform of the international monetary system.

Pros And Cons Of Amendments Discussed

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake has submitted the following proposed constitutional amendments with pro and con statements for the public to read and for them to use in deciding how they will vote on the 14 amendments.

Every voter should read these and decide on the way they wish to vote for these amendments before going to the polls on Tuesday.

AMENDMENT NO. 1--This proposal increases the annual salary of members of the Texas Legislature from $4800 to $8400. No changes are made in the mileage or per diem allowances.

THOSE FOR the amendment argue that $4800 is not sufficient to compensate a legislator for the time he must spend in the regular and numerous called sessions that our complex state government now calls for. In addition many interim duties are imposed upon legislators in studying specific problems and framing legislation to solve them. They further argue that $4800 is scarcely adequate to meet present day cost of living.

THOSE AGAINST claim that it is a part time job, that it should not be compensated on an annual basis and our resources have sufficient drain on them now without adding an additional cost in legislative salaries.

AMENDMENT NO. 2--This proposal is local in nature and abolishes the Lamar County Hospital District and authorizes the Commissioner's Court of that county to provide for the transfer or disposition of assets of the district. Hospital Districts used to be created by constitutional amendment and those so created can be abolished only in the same manner.

AMENDMENT NO. 3--This proposal would require all justices of the peace to be compensated on an annual salary basis rather than on a fee basis. The Constitution now requires all justices of the peace in counties of 20,000 population or more to be compensated on a salary basis and this proposal would put all justices of the peace on the same footing.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that justices of the peace should be taken off fee basis and put on some equitable salary system related to all other officers of their same classification in the state.

OPPONENTS of the amendment argue that doing away with a fee basis will discourage diligent justices of the peace and will make them dependent upon the commissioner's court which provides their salary.

AMENDMENT NO. 4--The proposed amendment would add an authorization for the 63rd Legislature to establish a constitutional revision commission. The only restriction as to subject matter would be that the existing Bill of Rights must be retained in full. If the Legislature could agree on a proposed constitution it would then be put before the voters of Texas for approval or rejection.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that there is a real need for a more workable basic law which would require less periodic revision and since the Legislature has always been entrusted with the function of proposing constitutional changes, the Legislative body is the logical choice for responsibility in the preparation of a new or revised constitution.

OPPONENTS of the amendment argue that constitutional reform should not be through a new document but through revision of the existing document and the convention called for has a totally new constitution as a possible alternative.

AMENDMENT NO. 5--Tax exemptions of any sort must of necessity be by constitutional amendment because Article VII, Section 2 of the existing constitution requires that taxes be equal and uniform. This amendment would provide additional exemptions.

THOSE FOR the amendment say that persons disabled in military service should be compensated for their sacrifice to this country.

THOSE AGAINST the amendment say that compensation of disabled veterans is a federal matter and that there are already adequate and generous programs available to disabled veterans.

AMENDMENT NO. 6--Presently the constitutional homestead exemption from ad valorem taxes stands at $3000 and is applicable to both state and county taxes. This proposal would extend the homestead exemption by allowing a county, city, town, school district or other political subdivision of the state to make a like exemption.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that the ad valorem tax is the basic form of taxation supporting local governmental units and the present homestead exemption gives no relief, as neither the state nor county taxes compare to any degree with the burden of local taxation.

OPPONENTS of the amendment say that this would be a substantial reduction in revenue to local government and school districts and again violates the principal of equality and uniformity in taxation.

AMENDMENT NO. 7--The equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits a state from legislating different treatment to persons because of sex. This is known as the women's equal rights amendment.

PROPOSERS say that there is still substantial discrimination and that only a constitutional change prohibiting such discrimination can effectively change the status quo.

OPPONENTS argue that the proposed amendment is not necessary because all discriminatory legislation is now prohibited by the federal constitution and additional constitutional comment on the subject can only cause confusion as to the meaning of discrimination.

AMENDMENT NO. 8--This amendment would provide four-year terms for the offices of Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of State and certain statutory state offices. These offices now have two year terms.

THOSE FOR the four-year term argue that officials would have an opportunity to grasp the operation of the job and be more efficient in it before they were forced to go back into campaigns for re-election. As this amendment would become effective with the General Election in 1974 it would perpetuate elections for state offices in non-presidential years and generate a stronger interest in state politics. Thirty-nine states have four-year terms for governor including several of our immediate sister states.

THOSE AGAINST the amendment point out that long terms of office lead to corruption. That too much power is inherent in long terms and they make the official less responsive to the rise and fall of public opinion.

AMENDMENT NO. 9--This amendment would permit soil and water conservation district directors to serve in other offices. Presently any public official is prohibited by the state constitution from holding more than one office in state, local or federal government.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that in the less populous areas of the state there is a shortage of qualified people to hold responsible positions and the amendment would increase the available manpower by permitting public officials to fill them. The common law would provide an adequate protection against persons holding two public offices where there might be a conflict of interest between the duties.

OPPONENTS of the amendment insist that the present prohibitions were intended to prevent the concentration of public jobs among a relative few and that multiple office holding would be greatly divided the time and attention of officials.

AMENDMENT NO. 10--This amendment would involve two basic changes. Presently, the constitution can only be amended by a resolution submitted in the regular legislative session.

This amendment would also permit constitutional amendments to be considered in special sessions of the legislature. The second phase of the amendment deals with the manner of publication of proposed amendments.

PROPOSERS argue that the amendment would permit greater flexibility in the submission of amendments and provide better information to the general electorate as to what they are voting on.

OPPONENTS of the amendment insist that basic changes should be considered carefully and thirty-day special session would not provide enough time for proper consideration of proposed amendments.

AMENDMENT NO. 11--This amendment would provide a $22,500 salary for the Lt. Governor and the Speaker of the House. They each presently draw an annual salary of $4800 per year.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that the leadership and administrative ability demanded of presiding officers puts these offices in the same relative importance as other full-time state officials and they should have equal pay. The past few years the jobs of both presiding officers have become full-time.

OPPONENTS of the amendment argue that the Speaker of the House should not receive the same amount of salary as the Lt. Governor as he is not elected on a state-wide basis but is selected by the members of the House of Representatives.

AMENDMENT NO. 12--The proposal broadens the exemption from the prohibition of dual office holding and compensation for non-elected employees. It is similar to Amendment No. 9.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that in some cities, school districts or other governmental subdivisions state employees are a large percentage of the population and the amendment would allow these persons to serve on city councils and school boards in such communities without sacrificing their state salaries.

OPPONENTS insist that there is sufficient number of qualified citizens in any community to fill local offices and that service in two capacities would result in heavy work loads.

AMENDMENT NO. 13--This proposal would permit constitutional bonds to be sold with maximum interest rates not to exceed a weighted annual interest rate of 6%. These are Veterans Land Board Bonds--Water Development and Water Quality Bonds--College Opportunity Loan Program Bonds.

PROPOSERS of the amendment argue that its adoption would permit certain state and local agencies now under restrictions to compete for sale of their bonds in the open market on an even footing with other entities, enabling them to continue to enlarge upon many state and local programs.

OPPONENTS argue that increasing the constitutional limit would provide higher interest rates and therefore require more revenues to pay off the bonded indebtedness.

AMENDMENT NO. 14--The proposal would allow the commissioner's court of a county to distribute a portion of the county permanent school fund to school districts in the county on a scholastic population basis for the purpose of reducing bonded indebtedness or making permanent improvements.

PROPOSERS argue that many school districts need new facilities and lack funds to finance them. Some have already issued bonds to the statutory limits and others have reluctantly refused the issuance of new bonds. Utilization of a portion of the county permanent fund would relieve the financial strain on school districts and provide adequate educational facilities in the counties.

OPPONENTS argue that a reduction in the funds would reduce the income to the available school fund and therefore create a need for a larger state expenditure in the support of education.

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm offers his views on high campaigning costs this week.

Dear editor:
I was sifting through a batch of campaign literature that turned up in my mail box, each piece of which claimed the country is headed for ruin if its candidate is not elected, makes no difference what he's running for, and among all this I found a non-partisan leaflet which reported that there are some 500,000 elective offices to be filled on Nov. 7.

After figuring up what it cost those 500,000 people to run, using detailed cost analyses on radio and television time, newspaper ads, barnstorming, air travel, telephones, printing, postage, buggering devices and other routine campaign outlays and guessing at what was sheltered out in unaccounted-for cash, the leaflet estimated it cost 400 million dollars to fill those 500,000 offices.

Now a lot of people are saying the cost is too high, but they're forgetting that of all the people running, only half will get elected. Some argue that's money well-spent.

Nonetheless, the cost is high, particularly when you remember that 400 million dollars is just the cost of getting them in, the real expense comes in keeping them there afterwards, and I have been giving the matter some thought.

The thing to do is to set aside one night a week during say the last two months of the campaign when all television and radio stations, on penalty of forfeiting their licenses, are required to turn all their air time over to the candidates free of charge, allotting time on a democratically worked-out schedule, 5 minutes to Justices of the Peace, 8 minutes to County Judges, 10 minutes to State Representatives, 15 minutes to Governors, 20 minutes to Congressmen, 25 minutes to Senators, an hour to Presidential candidates, or some such arrangement. Do this every Tuesday night, say, from 6 o'clock to midnight. Show nothing else on television, cancel all the programs that one night a week and turn the candidates loose.

I don't know whether this

PERRYTON - In an address to a Farm Bureau meeting in Perryton Saturday night, Congressman Bob Price of Texas said he is pleased with the increase in the price of wheat and as far as he was concerned, any more phony investigations of the sale of wheat to Russia could possibly damage further foreign sales and jeopardize an equitable farm program next year. The time for action is when prices are lower—not when the price has increased 60% in 60 days. The American people are not stupid; they can recognize a credibility gap.

"Time Magazine said the hearings accomplished nothing and were ineptly handled. This eventually makes the farmer look bad in the eyes of the American buying public. A few more foolish acts by those who are not familiar with the agriculture industry and the US farmer will bear the brunt of a consumer backlash. To make a political issue out of selling mistake.

"We are working hard every day to get Texas beef and livestock sold to foreign markets. If we do develop this market and the price of cattle happens to go up, Purcell would probably call for a hearing on it.

"There are only five of us on the House Agriculture Committee that have any actual agriculture experience and yet the committee chairman took the word of a lawyer and said, 'Yes, we had better look into the matter because the price of wheat is finally going up.'

"And, of course, George McGovern was the first to raise the cry. George McGovern knows about as much about farming as Purcell, and, as Barry Colwater says, Purcell doesn't know the difference between a soybean seed and a full grown square cactus.

"Now, let's discuss the facts about wheat. . . the wheat outlook has undergone some market changes this summer. Unprecedented world import demand and tightening supplies around the world have boosted the sales of US wheat in the export markets. We now foresee a record export of 1 billion, 125 million bushels. In addition to larger purchases by regular commercial customers, sales to the USSR, estimated to total around 400 million bushels for 1972/73 are much larger than were anticipated when it first was announced that Russia would buy some US grain this year. A recent purchase of 15 million bushels by the Peoples Republic of China accentuates the turn in export events.

"Domestically, the use of wheat has dropped from 805 to 767 million bushels. As the price of wheat rises, it ceases to be competitive with feed grains and as a result we expect wheat feeding to decline this year.

"We now foresee that the total disappearance of wheat this year for all uses will be 1,892 million bushels, nearly a fifth above the previous record set in 1965/66, and well above the 1972 crop of 1,560 million bushels.

"This rate of use suggests we will probably have a carry-over at the end of this 1972/73 season of 534 million bushels. To give you some idea of the suddenness of this unexpected turn in exports, this would be nearly 300 million bushels below the estimate published by the USDA in August.

"Hard Red Winter wheat is accounting for a larger share of exports than usual. A record disappearance is expected to result in the lowest carryout for Hard Red Winter wheat since 1951/52. It could place this class of wheat in a relatively tight supply position prior to the start of the new crop harvest next May. While wheat exports continue to increase with consequent increase in the price, we are working on increasing the exports of grain orghum.

"While we are interested in increasing exports, we are still trying to improve the domestic situation. My amendments to the Rural Development Act provide for an increase in the farm operating loans from $35,000 to $50,000 and the farm ownership loans from $50,000 to $100,000 to be financed on an insured loan basis rather than an appropriation of tax dollars.

"It was my amendment that value of grain sorghum from 85 to 95% of the feed value of corn. This has meant an estimated $30 million to the grain sorghum producers.

"The fact that my opponent failed to support the 80-20 funding for our state to maintain its own meat inspection will cause the closing of hundreds of rural meat plants and processors—and will help the Amalgamated Meat Cutters to unionize the state meat inspectors and full Union pockets full of money.

"Purcell votes in favor of the Union but talks in favor of the farmer.

"This is the only bill he returned to Washington to vote on in 3 weeks. He missed approximately 40 votes in the last 3 weeks, but the bills he failed to vote on were bills like the Debt Limit, the President said was necessary to avoid an increase in taxes—the Military Appropriations Bill providing for funds to defend this country—the Social Security bill to help provide assistance for our working senior citizens—the River Pollution legislation—I don't consider taxes, national defense, people, or water pollution very 'routine.'

"The contrast between the position of the President and McGovern on the issues is so clear cut that the voters have an easy choice. This same contrast exists between my opponent and myself.

"I have been labeled as a conservative and that's probably a pretty good description. My opponent is the opposite. Any man who will publicly endorse a man like George McGovern for the highest office in the land cannot be interested in conserving or preserving our Nation.

"How could anyone agree with and support the philosophy of crawling to Russia to surrender; of expanding the give-away welfare program; of eliminating the depletion allowance and incentives for finding new supplies of vital resources; of appointing Ramsey Clark as Secretary of State; of adopting the O'Leary approach to drugs, or most sickening of all, of raising the white flag of surrender by committing suicide with our Nation's defenses?"

"How could any person support these ideas and proposals? I do not, I never have, and I never will," Price said. "And I do not believe that these radical ideas are representative of the beliefs of the people of the new Thirteenth District.

"In 1972 the choice is clear: if you believe as I do in the Golden Rule, instead of mob rule; if you believe in government of the people and by the people; if you believe that the President and George McGovern, should be President, then I ask your support on November 7.

"A pre-season overhaul can assure that cotton harvesting machinery will give trouble-free performance—a must to maximize profits from the cotton crop," says Roy Childers, area agricultural engineer-cotton mechanization, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock.

The first step in pre-season preparation is checking out the power unit. The ignition system should be checked to see that all wires, coil, points and spark plugs are in good condition. Any water and/or dirt should be removed from the fuel tank, sediment bowl, filter and carburetor. The cooling system should be checked for proper coolant level and condition of fan belts, hoses and radiator cap.

The transmission needs to be checked to see if it is operating properly, the oil level is correct and the oil is in good condition. The condition of filters, filler cap, hoses and cylinders should also be inspected. All cylinders should operate properly without leaks.

After the power unit is ready, the harvesting unit should be thoroughly inspected. Parts of cotton strippers such as brushes, augers, grates, bearings, belts, bushings, springs, and chains should be checked and replaced if worn. Plant lifters and all adjustments such as header height control, row spacing, stripping roll pressure, fan inlet baffles, and elevator deflectors should be in good working condition. Worn or damaged parts should be replaced to factory specifications by trained personnel.

Efforts spent on pre-season re-conditioning of cotton harvesting equipment will pay significant dividends in minimizing down time. As a rule of thumb, an hour of machine time lost during the harvest season will cause loss of 2 to 4 bales of harvester output. This volume of cotton could be severely degraded or lost due to bad weather. Thus, an hour of harvest equipment. Do it early and avoid costly delays.

The condition of the battery cables and battery water level should be inspected. Also, check the ammeter and voltage regulator for proper operation. The rear safety lights and running lights need to be operating properly.

Tires, tubes, and valve stems need to be examined closely for evidence of dry rot. Look for cuts, excessive tread wear and proper inflation.

The hydraulic systems (power steering, basket dump, head adjustment, etc.) should also receive proper attention. Check the oil level and condition in all reservoirs. The condition of filters, filler cap,

WTCC Gives Recommendations On Constitutional Ammendment

The Constitutional Amendments Study Task Force and the State Affairs Committee make the following recommendations to the membership of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in regards to the proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments to be submitted to Texas voters on November 7, 1972:

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - " . . . TO PROVIDE ANNUAL SALARIES OF $8,400 FOR MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES." - FOR

Arguments for are that this is no longer a part-time job, that many qualified persons will not run because of financial sacrifice, and that salary encourages other employment which could create a conflict of interest.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - ABOLITION OF LAMAR COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT - FOR

This is purely local in nature. The Lamar County Hospital District operated the County Hospital. Use and operation of the County Hospital has been discontinued and Lamar County Commissioners request authorization for the transfer or disposition of assets of District.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 - " . . . REQUIRE THE COMMISSIONERS COURT IN ALL COUNTIES OF THE STATE TO COMPENSATE ALL JUSTICES OF THE PEACE ON A SALARY BASIS . . ." - FOR

This would do away with the fee basis and is supported by several state agencies and law enforcement bodies in belief that it will help abolish speed-traps. Would also provide uniformity in compensation of justices of peace and could reduce the number of cases appealed.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 - " . . . PROVIDING FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION COMMISSION WHICH PRECEDES THE CONVENING OF THE MEMBERS OF THE 63rd LEGISLATURE AS A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION IN JANUARY 1974 FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE VOTERS A NEW CONSTITUTION OR REVISIONS OF THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION." - AGAINST:

Main objection is that constitution would be sole responsibility of legislature and that committee appointed would have only a few months to do a tremendous job which would need ample time and study. Legislature is only one branch of government and any revision study committee should consist of finest talent available. Also timing could not be worse with present lack of confidence in legislature and practically 50% turnover. If constitution is to be revised, there should be plenty of time and thought given to drawing up a planned program and not through a jumped-up amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 5 - CERTAIN PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR DISABLED VETERANS, THEIR SURVIVORS AND SURVIVORS OF MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO LOSE THEIR LIFE WHILE ON ACTIVE DUTY. - AGAINST:

Constitution provides for equal and uniform taxation. Any deviation would set a bad precedent and pave the way for other exemptions endangering a major source of income for school districts and local governments. Compensation of disabled veterans is a federal responsibility and generous benefits are already provided.

AMENDMENT NO. 6 - " . . . VARIOUS POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS OF THE STATE MAY EXEMPT NOT LESS THAN THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($3,000) OF THE VALUE OF RESIDENCE HOMESTEAD OF ALL PERSONS SIXTY-FIVE (65) YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER FROM AD VALOREM TAXES UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS." - AGAINST:

This amendment would extend further the homestead exemption by allowing a city, county, town, school district or other political subdivision of the state to exempt not less than $3,000 of the value of residence homesteads of persons at least 65 years of age from all ad valorem taxes levied by the political subdivision.

This would reduce tax revenues of political subdivisions, is contrary to basic concept that property taxes shall be equal and uniform, and would benefit many in age group who are not needy. Other existing programs provide assistance for those over 65 and any further extension should be only for the needy.

AMENDMENT NO. 7 - " . . . THAT EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW SHALL NOT BE DENIED OR ABRIDGED BECAUSE OF SEX, RACE, COLOR, CREED OR NATIONAL ORIGIN." - AGAINST:

This proposed amendment is redundant as discrimination is already covered by the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution and The Civil Rights Act.

AMENDMENT NO. 8 - " . . . PROVIDE A FOUR-YEAR TERM OF OFFICE FOR THE GOVERNOR, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, ATTORNEY GENERAL, COMPTROLLER OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, TREASURER, COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE, SECRETARY OF STATE, AND CERTAIN STATUTORY STATE OFFICERS." - AGAINST:

Gives state officials more power and makes them less responsive to public opinion. Long terms in office breed political corruption. Proposed amendment includes no restrictions on election to consecutive terms. Four years too long to retain a poor public official.

AMENDMENT NO. 9 - TO EXEMPT DIRECTORS OF SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICTS FROM PROHIBITION AGAINST DUAL OFFICE-HOLDING AND DUAL COMPENSATION. - NO RECOMMENDATION

AMENDMENT NO. 10 - " . . . REVISING PROVISIONS ON THE TIME AND METHOD OF PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION AND THE TIME AND METHOD OF PUBLISHING NOTICE OR PROPOSED AMENDMENTS." - AGAINST

AMENDMENT NO. 11 - " . . . PROVIDE A SALARY OF $22,500 FOR THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES." - FOR

The responsibility and ability demanded of these two officers places these positions on a level with other full-time state officials. Although these offices originally were not intended to be full-time, they have by fact become full-time jobs; therefore, these positions should receive salaries commensurate with their duties and responsibilities.

AMENDMENT NO. 12 - EXEMPTION OF STATE EMPLOYEES FROM BAN OF DUAL OFFICE HOLDING. - AGAINST

If a state employee is doing his job properly, should not have time for another job and it creates a potential conflict of interest. Legislature should be allowed to retain power to prohibit or restrict the holding of more than one non-elective state or federal office.

AMENDMENT NO. 13 - INCREASING TO SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM ALL SPECIFIED MAXIMUM INTEREST RATES ON BONDS ISSUED PURSUANT TO CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY. - FOR

Adoption of this amendment would allow future state bond issues to compete for sale on the open market with bonds issued by other governmental entities, thus forestalling lack of funds for state programs financed by state bond sales.

AMENDMENT NO. 14 - PERMIT THE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF A COUNTY TO REDUCE THE COUNTY PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE PER-

SCHOLASTIC DISTRIBUTION. - AGAINST

Reduction of the county permanent school fund corpus could cause an increased demand for additional financial aid from the state thus increasing the need for more state taxes. It is conceivable that this money would be directly involved in the results of the Rodriguez case and thus should not be disturbed until the future of school financing in Texas is more clearly defined.

WOODSY OWL HOOTS:
Soil is for plants,

have by fact become full-time jobs; therefore, these positions should receive salaries commensurate with their duties and responsibilities.

If a state employee is doing his job properly, should not have time for another job and it creates a potential conflict of interest. Legislature should be allowed to retain power to prohibit or restrict the holding of more than one non-elective state or federal office.
