Patient Average Falls to 25

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

The average daily census at Deaf Smith General Hospital sank to 25 patients, not including newborns, in October—the worst census since May, 1978, but the hospital still managed an excess of revenue over expenses, Administrator Jim Bullard reported in this morning's hospital board meeting.

"October could have very easily been disastrous," Bullard said. "We were 15 percent below what we had as a census in October last year. And, our break-even point is usually around 30 patients."

Deaf Smith General still showed $3,074 in revenue over expenses, compared to $17,291 last year, in the first month of the hospital district's fiscal year.

Bullard said the hospital's revenue may have exceeded expenses because of dramatic increases in respiratory therapy and physical therapy treatments.

The hospital performed 1,185 respiratory-therapy treatments last month, compared to 302 last year. Physical-therapy treatments outdistanced last year's figure, 578 to 306. More surgeries and laboratory tests also were performed last month than in October, 1978.

"We weren't too displeased with the month," Bullard said. "The last time we had a census of 25, we had a $50,000 to $60,000 loss during the month."

Directors approved a proposal from Blue Cross-Blue Shield, represented by Amarillo agent Steve Willingham, to provide additional insurance benefits to hospital employees.

Under a self-insuring system, the new policy will pay 100 percent of the costs incurred by an employee, who must be hospitalized in Deaf Smith General to receive full benefits.

A special fund will be set aside to pay for the employee's hospitalization.

Dr. A.T. Mims presented the monthly medical-staff report, which stated that local physicians had not found it necessary to purchase a nuclear-medicine scanning machine. The machine, called a "gamma camera," was proposed by Bullard several months ago.

Another report prepared by Bullard revealed that between Sept. 20 and Oct. 18, there were 538 patients examined in the hospital emergency room, 384 by a physician.

The average stay in the emergency room was 44 minutes—41 for minor services and 60 for more serious emergencies.

The average overall wait on a physician was 13 minutes. The average wait for a weekend emergency-room physician was 7.5 minutes.

Overall, 51 percent of the persons examined received minimal treatment, while 49 percent had serious problems. Those figures were reversed for weekend emergency-room operations.

In the emergency room during the one-month survey period, there were 234 weekend calls, 150 persons seen by staff physicians, 66 telephone orders and 31 referrals to clinics. The daily average census was 9.75 patients on Mondays, 10.75 on Tuesdays, 7 on Wednesdays, 9 on Thursdays and 5 on Fridays.

With 234 weekend patients, the average on Saturday's or Sunday's was nearly 40 patients.

GOP Governors Back Clements' Energy Stand

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Gov. Bill Clements basked in the warm light of recognition today after Republican governors backed his "Texas Position" on energy and former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger awarded him high praise.

The governors unanimously adopted an energy resolution Tuesday calling for decontrol of oil and gas prices to stimulate domestic production, the keystone of Clements' "Texas position."

The assembly of governors also called for a change in federal rules inhibiting the use of coal.

Kissinger addressed the governors, and took the opportunity to pay homage to the host.

"We couldn't have gotten through the crisis in 1973-1976 without the strong hand of Bill Clements," said Kissinger.

Carter Considers Military Use To Free U.S. Hostages in Iran

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter is implying that military force could be used against Iran, whose leaders are threatening to prosecute 49 remaining American hostages for spying.

As the president took the tough new line in the 2 1/2-week-old crisis, the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk and five escort ships were ordered to steam from the Philippines to the Indian Ocean.

The carrier Midway and five other ships already were operating about 600 miles from the mouth of the Persian Gulf.

There was no indication that any strike against Iran had been ordered. The administration said it still seeks a peaceful resolution of the crisis, but warned Iran of "the gravity of the situation it has created."

Administration officials were striving today to get 13 released hostages returned to the United States in time to be reunited with their families for Thanksgiving, but it was unclear whether medical tests could be completed quickly enough to allow this.

The 49 other Americans who remain hostage at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran face a new threat of being tried and possibly sentenced to death.

Iran's revolutionary leader, the Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, said in a broadcast Tuesday that they will be tried unless the shah is returned. He called the embassy "a nest of spies."

Other Iranian officials said conviction could carry death penalties for the Americans. An Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesman, Abolhassan Sadeh, said, however, that Khomeini could pardon anyone convicted.

Carter quickly convened a National Security Council meeting at the White House, flying there by helicopter from Camp David, where he was spending the week.

During the nearly two-hour meeting, Carter personally approved the wording of a White House statement that shed the administration's policy of precluding any use of military force.

The statement reiterated that a trial of diplomatic personnel would be "a flagrant violation of international law" and added:

"The government of Iran would bear full responsibility for any ensuing consequences."

"The United States is seeking a peaceful solution to this problem through the U.N. and every other available channel. This is far preferable to the other remedies available to the United States."

"Such remedies are explicitly recognized in the charter of the United Nations. The government of Iran must recognize the gravity of the situation it has created."

U.S. Marine Killed In Embassy Assault

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan (AP) — Moslem mobs "shouting kill the American dogs!" burned the U.S. Embassy here today and other throngs set fire to U.S. Information Centers in two other cities. Gunfire broke out at the embassy, and reports said one demonstrator was killed and at least 37 persons, including two Americans, were wounded.

(In Washington, the State Department said a U.S. Marine was killed in the attack in Islamabad and 100 Americans trapped in a third-floor vault during the siege were rescued from the roof and taken to the British Embassy.)

The violence was touched off by the seizure Tuesday of the Grand Mosque in Mecca, Saudi Arabia, site of Islam's holiest shrine. Although the armed band which took over the mosque was reported to belong to a Moslem sect linked to anti-American Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's Shiite Moslems, the Pakistani mobs blamed the United States.

Hospital sources said police fired into the crowd at the embassy, killing the demonstrator and wounding others.

But eyewitnesses said the attackers were wounded by embassy guards. According to the witnesses, some of the Moslems then seized rifles from government troops and forced their way into the compound, firing. Others set fire to the compound's main building and nearby cars before troops dispersed them.

Firemen then battled the fire. Authorities said Americans were being guarded by troops in the embassy compound, but they would not allow reporters to talk to them.

An AP reporter at the scene said black smoke poured from the gutted structure while groups of youths roamed around, pulling down antennas from a building in the embassy compound.

The Information Centers in Rawalpindi, near Islamabad, and in Lahore, 180 miles to the south, were set ablaze. Other mobs in Rawalpindi set fire to the British Council Library and ransacked an American Express office.

As they fired the vehicles in the parking lot, the youths stoned the windows of the nearby main embassy building. Most of the embassy staff including Ambassador Arthur Hummel were reported in the building, and a number of Americans were reported lurching in the American Club on the other side of the lot. But there was no

Board Views Proposal

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

Deaf Smith General Hospital Administrator Jim Bullard this morning presented county hospital district directors a written proposal, less cost figures, for running a local ambulance service out of the hospital.

Bullard, who has spearheaded local efforts to replace the present funeral home ambulance system, told his board he would have cost figures available by Friday's meeting of specially-appointed officials from city and county government bodies.

Local officials are working to replace the funeral-home system by Dec. 1, the date given by directors of the companies for discontinuing ambulance services. Both John Gilliland, of Gilliland-Watson, and Ron Smith, of Smith & Co., have stated that it is no longer profitable, because of low collection percentages, for them to run ambulances.

Bullard's proposal states that there are three options presently available for a local ambulance service—allowing Medical Services Inc. of Amarillo to set up a subsidized paramedic system, continuing the existing ambulance system by subsidizing one or both companies and providing ambulance service from Deaf Smith General by using hospital personnel and some medically-trained persons in the city.

The report presented in today's regular monthly session of the hospital district board, primarily addressed the third option, explaining how personnel and equipment would be utilized.

The report presented at today's regular monthly session of hospital district directors, primarily addressed the third option, explaining how personnel and equipment would be utilized.

The proposal includes operation of ambulances from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through the hospital by hospital personnel already on staff. The hours of 5 p.m. to 8 a.m. would be covered by teams of medically-trained personnel, some employed by the hospital and others who are private citizens.

Three teams, each consisting of a leader and team member, would respond to calls. The team member would take the ambulance to his residence in the evenings, be on call and respond directly to the scene in the ambulance. He would be provided a pager to be used when he is not at home.

The team leader would respond to the scene in his personal vehicle.

Anyone needing ambulance service would call the police department, according to the proposal, and responding personnel would be summoned. Once the ambulance team reaches the scene, walkie-talkie communication would be established with the physician who has previously been designated "medical control."

In the early stages of the hospital-operated system, three teams are required, according to the report. Each team member would receive $25 per each day he is on call. There would be no compensation for back-up calls.

The proposal calls for an ambulance coordinator to oversee schedules and training.

The present funeral-home vehicles—a 1973 GMC van and 1977 Chevrolet Suburban, both already equipped with basic life-support equipment—would be utilized, and an advanced life-support vehicle would be purchased, Bullard's report stated.

Additional life-support equipment, insurance and an enclosure to house vehicles at the hospital also would be purchased, according to the proposal.

Bullard said the reason for three teams, instead of several, is the hospital would be able to maintain more control over the operation.

"That would limit the number of people involved in this thing in the beginning," Bullard told the board. "That means better control—it's easier to control six people than 30. We can get six

Economy Remains Recession-Resistant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Profits of U.S. corporations rebounded in the third quarter while the nation's overall economy proved even more resistant to recession than first believed, the government says.

However, government economists said Tuesday the much-anticipated recession still is on the horizon.

And they cited blemishes in the corporate profit picture that could portend reduced incentives for businesses to invest and for people to buy stock.

The Commerce Department reported that corporate after-tax profits in July, August and September increased from the second quarter at an annual rate of 6.2 percent. They had declined about 2 percent in the previous quarter.

The department also said the gross national product, after being adjusted for inflation, increased at an annual rate of 3.5 percent last quarter, rather than 2.4 percent as originally estimated.

That easily offset a 2.3 percent decline in the second quarter.

The GNP — the total output of goods and services — was at an annual rate of $1,434.4 billion in the last quarter compared with $1,422.3 billion in the second quarter, the department said. Both figures are adjusted for inflation to give an accurate comparison in actual growth.

"The upward revision will delay the advent of the recession to some extent," said Commerce Department economist William Cox. "But it's still a bounce back from the second quarter's depressed level."

That second quarter decline caused many economists to say the nation had entered a recession.

Many economists believe the GNP will fall during this quarter due largely to rising oil prices, the eroding income of Americans and tight-money policies that have pushed interest rates skyward.

The 6.2 percent increase in after-tax corporate profits was calculated on raw figures that went from an annual rate of $139.3 billion to $147.9 billion, the Commerce Department said. Before-tax profits in July, August and September increased from $227.9 billion to $242.5 billion, a 6.4 percent rise.

Fed Disaster Payments Total $10 Million for 46 Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty-six farmers have received a total of more than $10 million in disaster payments from the Agriculture Department in the last three years, Sen. Robert Morgan, D-N.C., said today.

In California, one farmer received a check last year for more than $812,836 and another was paid $721,078 to cover crop losses, according to Agriculture Department documents released by Morgan.

Under present law, grain and cotton growers who cannot plant a crop or who harvest an abnormally small one because of drought, flood or other disaster are partially reimbursed by the federal government if they have cooperated with land-idling programs.

Like other farm subsidies, the disaster program is geared to production rather than need and favors the largest operations. The size of the reimbursement depends on acreage planted, normal yields and the actual harvest.

The payments program is handled by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The House last month voted for new limits on a disaster emergency loan program run by the Farmers Home Administration, under which a few large California farms have borrowed millions of dollars despite substantial assets.

The Texas Department of Corrections received $105,002 for losses at its prison farms in 1977, when the state had a budget surplus above $100 million, Morgan said. The state governments of Washington and Montana also have received large payments.

They were among nearly 450 farmers, land companies and seed firms who received more than $50,000 each in the last three years. Altogether, Morgan said, 96,570 producers, or less than 4 percent of the nation's 2.6 million farms and ranches, received annual payments in three of the last four years.

Since 1977, 30 farms have received between $100,000 and $200,000, 9 have gotten between $200,000 and $300,000, 3 have been paid between $300,000 and $400,000 and 4 have gotten more than that.

Morgan said in a Senate speech he favors "the total elimination of this program" but would settle for a payments limit of $50,000 per producer until a new crop insurance program becomes law.

As part of a 1977 overhaul of farm programs, Congress specified that all types of payments combined should not exceed $40,000 per farm in 1977, rising to

Gunmen Take Hostages In Saudi Arabia

RIYADH, Saudi Arabia (AP) — Gunmen took over the Grand Mosque at Mecca, site of Islam's holiest shrine, and took as many as 90 hostages in an apparent challenge to the Saudi royal family's traditional role as protector of the Moslem holy places.

Some reports said the invaders were Iranian supporters of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, leader of Iran's revolution and patriarch of Iran's Shiite Moslem sect.

The official Saudi news agency said Saudi authorities took "all necessary measures" following the Tuesday morning takeover of the giant mosque. It gave no casualty figures and it was not known if the U.S.-trained Saudi national guard had been sent in to evict the gunmen.

The Japanese Embassy in Riyadh said about 10 persons had been killed, and a spokesman told the Japanese Kyodo news agency "he heard of a tense situation being brought under control by Saudi authorities."

A Kuwaiti newspaper, Al Rai Al Aam, said Saudi sources at the Arab League summit conference in Tunisia told it 60 armed men stormed the mosque and killed "a former official personality" who tried to convince them to leave. The paper said 30 hostages were taken.

Education Project

Deals With Aliens

DALLAS (AP) — A Dallas private education project may provide some answers to the sticky question of who should educate the children of illegal aliens.

Representatives of the program, called "Proyecto Educacion" Education Project say parents of more than 100 illegal alien children have contacted them about providing temporary education for their youngsters.

Directors of the program say they are trying to avoid some of the tricky legal pitfalls that killed similar programs in other cities — primarily, the possibility of getting caught in the web of immigration laws.

Program coordinate Celeste Guerrero said she has consulted several attorneys on the possibility of interference from immigration officials.

"You have to be very careful how you handle these people," she said. "It's very touchy. As it is, many feel they're taking a chance by calling you up."

"Aliens can't be arrested in a public amenity like a school," she said. "They can be picked up in a situation where they are being harbored, but public amenities like schools are off base. We have gone through all the legal steps to check that position out."

Devastating Blizzard

Stuns Rockies

By The Associated Press

A howling blizzard socked the Colorado and Wyoming Rockies with as much as 40 inches of snow, closing highways, schools, airports and factories in the worst November storm ever in some areas.

Seven deaths were attributed to the storm as it swept across the mountains into the Plains.

Wyoming Gov. Ed Herschler called out the National Guard Tuesday night, dispatching a 22-ton rotary snow plow, a tracked personnel carrier and a truck to rescue 50 motorists reported stranded on Interstate 25 south of Cheyenne.

The University of Colorado canceled all classes Tuesday and offered $3 an hour and free tickets to Saturday's football game against Kansas State to anyone who would help shovel two feet of new snow off the field.

Larimer County Sheriff Jim Black ordered the purchase of tire chains for department vehicles after he spent three hours driving the 12 miles from his home to his office in Fort Collins, Colo.

Winds gusting up to 50 mph pushed up 5-foot drifts on some highways.

"If I didn't have to be here, I would have stayed home," said Gary Franson, a National Weather Service meteorologist in Denver.

Bell Rates Placed

Into Effect Today

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. today placed into effect new rates that are expected to raise the company's income by $138.7 million.

Bell spokesman Dale Johnson said the detailed tariffs, carrying out rates authorized Nov. 9 by the Texas Public Utility Commission, were approved Tuesday by the commission's staff.

Johnson said it would be a while before consumers started feeling the full impact of the new rates.

The commission said Bell could increase rates for basic residential service by $1.15 a month and for basic business service by $3.45 a month and raise the price of pay telephone from 20 cents to 25 cents.

In addition, Bell will raise prices for a variety of business telephone services such as Centrex and PBX.

Johnson said the increase in basic residential and business rates will be applied immediately, but it would be about a month before bills show the impact of the increase.

For example, he said, a residential bill dated Friday will have added to it a pro-rated share of the $1.15 increase for two days, he said.

folks that know how to do things and how to respond and feel comfortable with them."

Bullard said a fourth ambulance option could be to run the system through the hospital for several months then turn it into a community agency similar to the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department. "That would make it more of a joint venture with all of our local entities involved, instead of just us," Bullard said.

Funding the system was not discussed this morning. Neither the city commission, county commission nor hospital district board has agreed to authorize funding for a replacement system, although it is expected that a solution to finance disagreements will be recommended to the three entities after Friday's committee meeting.

No time for that meeting had been set by this morning. A joint meeting of all officials in the city, county and hospital district likely will be held sometime next week to consider committee recommendations.

military operations, the statement was taken as a clear warning to Iran that the United States is now prepared to use American military forces if necessary.

The charter also provides for economic sanctions and joint U.N. military action, but it was understood that the White House statement was intended mainly as a signal that the administration now is considering the use of force.

Since the Nov. 4 embassy seizure, presidential press secretary Jody Powell had consistently said force was not among the choices being considered by the president. But Tuesday, asked whether military action had become a possibility, he said the new statement "speaks for itself."

Powell said no military alert had been ordered, but he and Pentagon officials declined to comment officially on what other actions might be taken.

Pentagon sources continued to rule out, on grounds of sheer difficulty, any military operation aimed at rescuing the embassy hostages. It appeared more likely that any military action would be in the form of retaliatory air strikes.

There appeared to be no progress Tuesday on the diplomatic front. U.N. Security Council members resisted a U.S. call for a statement against a trial of the hostages, according to Security Council President Sergio Palacios de Vizzio of Bolivia.

The administration also discouraged Andrew Young, the former U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, from undertaking a private mission to Iran to seek release of the hostages.

Administration officials said Young wanted to go to Iran but was told that the administration opposed such private missions unless the ayatollah agreed in advance to releasing all the hostages.

"I don't know whether he's going" to Iran, said one State Department official who asked for anonymity. "We talked about it ... and he said he was inclined not to go."

Young's Atlanta office said he planned to spend Thanksgiving there.

State Department spokesman Hodding Carter said Tuesday. "We hope to have all released hostages home by Thanksgiving — on or before Thanksgiving."

Carter said Secretary of State Cyrus Vance probably would be on hand to greet the freed hostages on their arrival.

However, U.S. officials in West Germany, where the 13 were taken for medical tests, said Tuesday it was uncertain whether doctors would complete checkups in time to get them back for the holiday.

energy problems.

One staffer said Rhodes asked for language that would make the Republicans "look like heroes" to the American people.

"If we follow this, we can elect a Republican president and a Republican congress," he told the governors.

Gov. Lee Dreyfus of Wisconsin said the governors should "go beyond Congress" in pushing for an energy program that would provide independence from OPEC.

"We ought to go over their heads to the people," Dreyfus said.

Besides decontrol and plow back of windfall profits into energy production, the governor said it was "imperative" to adopt a national policy calling for:

—Conversions of oil burning generators and boilers to coal, the use of coal in new industry and modification of existing environment that inhibit the use of coal.

—Expanded construction of nuclear power plants but with "reassuring safety standards" and "appropriate safe disposal" of radioactive wastes.

—Development of precise goals for domestic energy production for each year of the 1980s "so the people can measure the nation's success or lack of it."

Payments

$55,000 in 1980. It later exempted disaster payments from the ceiling.

"The program has two fundamental problems," Morgan said. "The first has to do with excessive payments, the second with the fact that the same farmers are in the program on a continual basis."

"The point of all this has nothing to do with who is receiving the money, but simply the fact that people are receiving money of this magnitude," he added.

Weather-related farming risks should be faced with crop insurance because it "puts all farmers on an equal footing," Morgan said.

The Senate two months ago approved the insurance program, a compromise version of a 1978 proposal by President Carter. A slightly different measure is pending in the House.

Under either plan, the government would pay part of a farmer's premiums. Rates would be set by normal insurance underwriting standards and the cost would become a regular business expense for farmers, who would choose the amount of coverage.

The Senate bill would maintain the present system for the first two years of the new system, however.

word that any of them were injured. In Washington, the State Department said there were no Americans in the Rawalpindi information center when it was burned.

"Down with the American dogs" and "Kill the American dogs," the attacking mob shouted. Huge clouds of dark smoke poured up from the parking lot.

A report received by diplomatic sources in New Delhi, the Indian capital, said gunfire was heard after the youths invaded the compound, but this could not be confirmed.

The State Department said "a few Marines" were the only American military personnel at the embassy. Pakistani military forces sent to the scene included two jeeps and a truckload of soldiers armed with light machine guns and other weapons.

Pakistan has been governed since July 1977 by Gen. Mohammed Zia ul-Haq, who ousted the late Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto and established martial law.

While Zia initially promised to restore democracy to Pakistan, he announced Oct. 21 that he would establish instead

"a genuine Islamic order," adding that "in Islam there is no provision for Western-type elections."

Pakistan and the United States at one time were close military allies, but recently there has been considerable friction between the two governments because of U.S. opposition to Pakistani nuclear programs which would make possible the production of nuclear bombs.

The Pakistanis insist they will not do this even though their chief enemy, India, has exploded a nuclear device. But the Carter administration is not convinced.

Clements Accuses AG White Of Overstepping Legal Bounds

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Protocol was the issue Tuesday as Republican Gov. Bill Clements assailed an unbothered Attorney General Mark White, a Democrat, for overstepping his authority.

In a hotly worded letter distributed by his press secretary, Clements accused White of misrepresenting his authority in regard to oil spills and of "politicizing" the issue of the Campeche Bay runaway oil well.

Attached to it was a copy of a telegram Clements said White sent to various oil companies on Nov. 12. The telegram invites the companies to send representatives to a meeting in White's office Tuesday to discuss what might be done in response to future spills.

White said Clements handed him the letter and read him part of it at the close of a meeting they had Tuesday afternoon on another matter. White described Clements' demeanor as "mercurial," but added,

"We left on very kind terms. As I have said before, I intend to get along with all the elected people."

In the telegram, White says he had been "unimpressed with the ability of the existing governmental and commercial structures" to respond to the Mexican oil spill and the collision of a tanker and freighter that has resulted in an ongoing spill fouling beaches around Galveston.

"As I told you in a telephone conversation today, I take strong issue with inferences you made in the attached telegram," Clements told White.

He said the telegram impugns actions taken during the oil spills by agencies ranging from the U.S. Coast Guard to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, as well as the governor's office.

"Your communication inviting attendance at today's meeting amounts to a misrepresentation of your authority, and I hereby urge you to limit your activities to those matters within the purview of your office. I also call upon you once again to quit politicizing the oil spill issue," Clements said.

He said White had refused the governor's request to allow either Clements' general counsel, David Dean, or Frank Cox, state coordinator of disaster emergency services to attend Tuesday's meeting with the oilmen.

"This, the governor said, 'clearly calls into question your motives and intentions in this matter.'"

White said he refused to let Dean and Cox attend because he then "would have had to let everybody else in. I was just trying to get an exchange of ideas with industry."

Clements told White the attorney general has neither constitutional nor statutory authority to involve himself in state actions to clean up oil spills.

"I take offense when you purport to exercise authority over matters outside your jurisdiction, and I will not let such actions go unchallenged," Clements said.

White filed suit recently against SEDCO, Inc., the drilling firm founded by Clements. SEDCO owned the drilling rig Ixtoc 1, leased by a driller under contract to the Mexican national oil monopoly, which drilled the well that blew out in June in the Bay of Campeche. The blowout resulted in large quantities of oil washing ashore on Texas beaches.

Office's Money Stolen

Around $1,500 was stolen from inside an office at Big Daddy's Truck Stop sometime before 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, according to police.

Entry to the office was gained through a window, which officers said was broken in the burglary.

Rufus Pesina, 453 Paloma, told police Tuesday that someone stole 40 gallons of gasoline from a truck parked at his residence.

Roy Evans, 505 Ave. H, told police that he caught three young juveniles in the act of breaking a window in his pickup Tuesday.

Officers issued six traffic citations Tuesday and investigated no accidents.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission Monday authorized Mini Coaches of Groesbeck to provide passenger and package service on its bus routes between Buffalo and Henderson.

The authorization allows the company to serve Oakwood, Palestine, Rusk, Reklaw, Laneville and all points on U.S. 79 between Palestine and Buffalo.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission Monday allowed Lone Star Gas Co. to change its gas utility rates for unincorporated areas near six cities.

The new gas rates affect 1,137 customers and will increase Lone Star's gross annual revenues by $42,509.

Areas covered by the new rates include unincorporated areas near Eastland, San Angelo, Granger, Rockwall, Childress and Hico.

The commission suspended for 120 days Lone Star's request for increased service charges in the areas, as chairman of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

There are nearly 10,000 machine and tool patents for shoe-making equipment.

Burkhalter Trial To Be in Hands of Jury

BROWNSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Jurors in the attempted capital murder trial of Dr. Archie Herman Burkhalter have two weeks of evidence to review in deciding whether the former Pasadena physician plotted to kill his ex-wife's husband.

Lawyers presented closing arguments Tuesday before the jury went home for a night's rest before beginning deliberations today.

"He (Burkhalter) is a man that if he can't have something he wants then he will do something to destroy an object that the person he is obsessed with has," assistant District Attorney Joe K. Hendley said.

Burkhalter divorced his wife Laurita, in November 1977 but continued to offer her trips to Europe and jewelry that she accepted, she has testified. She married John Hensley Oct. 30, 1978.

Hensley was shot in the face outside his South Padre Island condominium Feb. 15 as he unlocked his car. He survived the single shot but was blinded.

The doctor is accused of hiring S.J. Wilburn, an ex-convict released from prison in November 1978, and Wilburn's nephew, Scott David Minnick, to kill Hensley. Wilburn was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment in February.

Minnick's lawyer, Bob Heath, said his client knew his uncle was "mixed up in something" but he thought he was going on a fishing trip when he followed Wilburn to South Padre Island in February.

Hightower Accuses Commission of Gouging

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A candidate for the Texas Railroad Commission charges that body has short-changed the city of San Antonio by not investigating rate increases levied by the railroad that hauls coal power to city's utilities.

Jim Hightower, former editor of the "Texas Observer," said Alamo City residents are being "gouged" by the Burlington Northern Railroad.

"Burlington Northern's rates have gone from $11 per ton to more than $19 per ton in the last three years," Hightower said.

"Worse yet, despite their complaints about the rate increase, granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the railroad commission turned around in late October and kicked a little rate increase of their own — a 1.1 percent rate hike supposedly to cover the rising cost of diesel fuel," Hightower said at a capital news conference.

"It appears obvious that the railroad commissioners are more concerned with Burlington Northern fuel costs than those of the people of San Antonio," he said.

Hightower also claimed that San Antonio switched to a coal-fired utility system because the commission insisted it do so.

He also said a pair of lawyers found the railroad "has been giving preferential rates to some of its corporate shipping customers."

He said International Paper and Scott Paper have been allowed to buy timber from Burlington Northern forests at a "fraction" of the market price.

"These special low prices have cost Burlington Northern at least $84 million in lost revenues since 1973," Hightower said.

"This $84 million amounts to an illegal rebate on shipping costs to these two paper companies," he said.

Hightower is challenging Texas Railroad Commissioner Jim Nugent in the Democratic primary.

Nugent said the state, including the railroad commission, has opposed virtually every rate increase requested by Burlington Northern.

"I have personally testified before a U.S. House subcommittee investigating rail rates in San Antonio in April and provided that subcommittee with extensive follow-up information," Nugent said.

He added, "The Attorney General and the city of San Antonio and the railroad commission have worked hand-in-glove in challenging the unreasonable Burlington Northern rate increases, both before the Interstate Commerce Commission and in the courts," he said.

Nugent said the 1.1 percent fuel cost hike does not cover interstate haul — such transporting coal from out of state into Texas.

The commission approved rate increases of 10.44 cents per thousand cubic feet (mcf) of gas.

The commission also said the company can use a two cent per mcf surcharge to recover $4,958 in rate case expenses incurred when Spearman and Perryton contested the increase request.

The surcharge will amount to 36 cents per customer for less than two months.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission Monday authorized Mini Coaches of Groesbeck to provide passenger and package service on its bus routes between Buffalo and Henderson.

The authorization allows the company to serve Oakwood, Palestine, Rusk, Reklaw, Laneville and all points on U.S. 79 between Palestine and Buffalo.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission Monday allowed Lone Star Gas Co. to change its gas utility rates for unincorporated areas near six cities.

The new gas rates affect 1,137 customers and will increase Lone Star's gross annual revenues by $42,509.

Areas covered by the new rates include unincorporated areas near Eastland, San Angelo, Granger, Rockwall, Childress and Hico.

The commission suspended for 120 days Lone Star's request for increased service charges in the areas, as chairman of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

Recognition Won By HHS Orators

Honors were captured Saturday at the Muleshoe Speech Tournament by The Orators, Hereford High School's speech and forensics team. Sherry Strain competed in the prose category and earned eight "1" ratings, resulting in a third place overall finish in the area tournament. The duet team of Tim Ruland and Richard Spears won a first place in the duet category. Other Orator members participating in the tourney were Doug Strange, Laura Rogers, Willa Lawson, Shannon Klimek, Karen Jones, Alan Ajmanza, Eddie Lindeman, Kathy Geiger, Debbie Mankins and Suzie Gilliland. The Orators will attend the Amarillo High School speech tournament Nov. 30-Dec. 1.

Crew of 300 To Battle Spill

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — A force of about 300 persons was expected to attack the thick blanket of oil today that had leaked from the crippled tanker Burmah Agate and stained many areas along the entire length of Galveston Island, the Coast Guard said.

The oil flow from the tanker, which collided with the freighter, Mimosa, Nov. 1, had dropped to a trickle prior to the weekend, but winds began blowing from the south Sunday, covering the beaches with oil that had already escaped.

The pollution-control battle was dealt another setback Tuesday when four explosions rocked the vessel for the first time in more than a week, releasing more oil into the Gulf of Mexico.

"There was one explosion about 5:30 p.m. and three more around 6 p.m.," said Coast Guard spokesman Larry Clark. "There was a slight increase in the fire, but it was hard to tell what effect the explosions had on the vessel because of the fire and smoke."

Clark said there has been no more oil leaking from a crack in the left side of the ship that developed Sunday when the deck of the ship buckled. The fire spread from the right side of the vessel to the left, but went out when the crude stopped leaking on that side.

He said the offshore currents have been almost negligible, so the oil was held at sea by winds blowing from north until Sunday, when they began blowing from the south, driving the oil directly onto the beaches.

"There is heavy beach impact along the length of the island and down near Freeport," he said. "There are only spots in some places, but in other places the oil is an inch thick and eight or nine feet wide."

Clark said the winds were expected to begin blowing from the north once again sometime today, keeping the oil at sea.

He said cleanup crews were scraping and mopping up the oil from the beaches Monday and Tuesday, and as many as 300 were expected to attack the goosy mess today.

Meanwhile, Galveston County Judge Ray Holbrook was demanding that the sand being removed from the island's already badly eroded beaches be replaced at the expense of the owner of the tanker.

In a letter to Coast Guard Capt. Robert Ingraham, captain of the Port of Galveston, Holbrook said at least 640 cubic yards of sand already had been removed from the beaches.

He noted that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has a large amount of sand piled at the east end of the island that was dredged from the Galveston Ship Channel and suggested that it might be used to replace the oily sand.

The nation's first bikeway originated in Homestead, Fla., in 1962. Since then, some 25,000 to 30,000 miles of the special roadway have been established in the United States.

Marine's Release from Iran Celebrated in Prairie View

PRAIRIE VIEW, Texas (AP) — A two-minute telephone call with her son triggered elation at a home in this Southeast Texas town Tuesday.

The caller was Marine Staff Sgt. Davis Rogers Walker, 24, who was one of 10 hostages released by Iranian students who overran the U.S. Embassy in Tehran.

"He said, 'Mama, how are you doing?'" Mrs. Arle Ruth Walker, 46, said. "I told him I'm fine ... everybody here was fine."

"I'm totally elated. I saw myself on television, and I was shouting."

Mrs. Walker spoke briefly in a telephone conversation Tuesday night as she prepared to leave for Washington and a reunion with her son.

"I'm on my way out of here. I'm going to Washington," she said.

Unable to suppress outbursts of laughing, Mrs. Walker said the military was paying for her trip on a commercial airline.

She said she talked slightly more than two minutes with her son, who was in Germany, en route to Washington.

Mrs. Walker said she did not discuss the situation in Iran with her son.

One of nine children, Walker joined the Marines five years ago, he began overseas military police duty last year and was assigned to the embassy nine months ago.

They Say Poe Rises from Tomb

BALTIMORE (NEA) — When Edgar Allan Poe died here 130 years ago this month, drunk and penniless, it was said his brief life had been filled with torment and despair. So he was placed quickly in the cemetery of the Westminster Presbyterian Church where it was hoped he would at last find peace.

But did he?

Legend has it that Poe's restless spirit still walks the earth. Particularly on Halloween. People believe the storyteller rises from his tomb after sundown and shuffles through the vaults, past the overgrown graves and onto the boulevards where he laments the condition of man.

They say his ghost is dirty gray.

And slow.

Fittingly it carries a bottle. Surely all this is nonsense. But even associates of the Westminster Church admit they don't like to go out in the graveyard after dark. Though it is located on the edge of Baltimore's downtown, and is surrounded by office buildings and construction, the cemetery is a most forbidding sanctuary.

The church itself is spooky enough. It was built in the 1840s from red brick, and is bounded by a high wall. Eventually the wall gives way to an iron fence, the gates of which bang in the wind. Once a fine and prosperous temple, Westminster is now little more than a collection of relics.

And the church boneyard is the most curious relic. It's on a thin strip of land that meanders between the brick and the avenues. One of Westminster's historians says a good number of Baltimore's most honored fathers, including 15 wartime generals, are planted underneath the urban weeds.

Like Poe, some of the fathers are believed capable of nighttime posturing. One Civil War commander reportedly sits on his stone and barks about the evils of aggression; nearby residents say he's haunted by the memory of having killed too many countrymen of the Confederate persuasion.

Then there is the dilettante who surfaces periodically to host wild graveyard parties. And, too, neighborhood narrators speak of the spirit of a misbegotten soul who comes out along Fayette St. to whistle for his dog, and sobs on the curb when the animal doesn't come.

There is also an 11-year-old ghost, supposedly. She floats and plays games on the top of the cemetery's weathered crypts. The stories of her nocturnal activities were once so widespread that two parapsychologists spent a night at the church in all seriousness, in hopes of getting a glimpse.

Alas, the ghost watchers saw nothing. Yet the ghost rumors persist. And why? No doubt because of the graveyard's history. Years ago, for one thing, Westminster was a fertile ground for graverobbers, and area residents probably mistook the after-hour ghoul for departed spirits.

Aircraft Carriers Take to Waters

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is doubling its aircraft carrier striking power in waters leading to Iran to underscore President Carter's demand that the American hostages being held in Tehran be set free unharmed.

Carter's order Tuesday sending the 81,000-ton carrier Kitty Hawk and its 85 planes from the Philippines to the Indian Ocean was the first overt U.S. military action since seizure of the U.S. Embassy and 62 Americans 17 days ago. Forty-nine hostages remain.

It implies a warning that Iran risks possible punishment if the Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini tries the Americans as spies — something he said he will do if the United States does not return the deposed Shah to Iran.

Sailing orders to the Kitty Hawk and about five escorting warships were disclosed after Carter interrupted a Camp David, Md., rest for a council at the White House with top advisers, including Defense Secretary Harold Brown and Gen. David C. Jones, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

It will take several days for the Kitty Hawk task force to reach the Indian Ocean, allowing time for the Iranians to ponder the potential risks of continuing to hold the Americans and perhaps putting them on trial.

The United States already has a task force headed by the 64,000-ton carrier Midway in the Arabian Sea, about 600 miles from the mouth of the Persian Gulf. The Midway can send aloft 52 warplanes, including A-7 and A-6 bombers.

While the administration is keeping its intentions secret, military sources note that aircraft carriers would not normally serve as instruments for rescuing hostages being held 400 miles inland, as is the case in Iran.

Real Estate Tips by Tommy Bowling

We have definitely decided to sell our home. What should the first step be in getting it sold?

You have already taken the first step by deciding that you are ready to sell. Your second step should be to enter into a listing agreement with your broker. This agreement is essentially an employment arrangement . . . you're the boss, the broker works for you to sell your home. Among other things, this agreement will state that the broker will work for you on your behalf to find a ready, willing and able buyer at the price and with the terms stated in the agreement . . . or at a price and terms you later stipulate.

National Briefs

HOLLAND, Mich. (AP) — West Ottawa School District administrators have banned a children's Christmas book after complaints by parents that it portrayed Santa Claus as having a negative attitude toward Christmas.

Officials said the book, "Father Christmas" by English author Raymond Briggs, showed the jolly gift-giver grumbling about bad weather and pondering minor details like how to get into a mobile home. The book was removed from the shelves at all six of the district's elementary schools, said Ray Johnson, a West Ottawa administrative assistant.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — A 10-year-old Newark boy faces a preliminary hearing Nov. 30 on charges stemming from the stabbing death of a younger boy who called him a "sissy."

Robert Kratic, 8, was stabbed once in the back with a six-inch steak knife after an argument with the unidentified boy Monday, authorities said.

Essex County Assistant Prosecutor Norman Menz said Tuesday the youth, a third-grader, could be the youngest person ever charged in the county with juvenile delinquency in connection with murder.

BRADLEY JUNCTION, Fla. (AP) — A large kerosene storage tank blew up at a phosphate mine, killing one maintenance man and badly burning another worker, police said.

Frank Tracy, a spokesman for the owners of the Kingsford Mine and phosphate refinery, said the 50,000-gallon kerosene tank exploded Tuesday as workers were welding it. The resulting fire triggered smaller blasts and spewed flames 50 feet in the air before being brought under control after three hours. About 100 workers were evacuated.

HURRICANE, W. Va. (AP) — Tests have confirmed that a substance believed to be nitroglycerine and carefully transported 60 miles to a munitions dump was only lawn fertilizer, state police said.

Authorities had believed five jugs found in the Jim Turner home Sunday contained 2 1/4 gallons of nitroglycerine. Residents were evacuated along the route when the substance was taken to Point Pleasant. Tests showed Tuesday that the pale yellow liquid was fertilizer left in the house by a former owner.

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — A Superior Court judge has ruled that the Boys' Club of Santa Cruz violated state law by refusing to admit girls.

Judge Chris Cottle ruled Tuesday in favor of five plaintiffs — three girls and two boys, who were represented by the American Civil Liberties Union. Cottle said the 10-year-old club appeared to be discriminating arbitrarily and he did not find sufficient justification for exclusion of one sex.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Computerized radars at 20 air traffic control centers "are failing to meet today's needs" and should be replaced, says the president of the Professional Air Traffic Controllers Organization.

John F. Leyden claimed Tuesday that the radars malfunction at a "serious and increasingly frequent rate." He could provide no figures to support his charge.

The Federal Aviation Administration, which operates the control centers, defended the radar system and its backup as "totally adequate and reliable."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 18 largest U.S. oil companies would be barred by law from buying other large companies under legislation headed for the Senate floor.

The Senate Judiciary Committee approve the measure Tuesday by a 9-8 vote. The idea behind the bill by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is to see that profits from higher fuel prices are used to develop additional energy resources. The bill would prohibit the companies from acquiring other energy-producing companies with assets of $100 million or more and from acquiring non-energy-producing companies with assets of $50 million or more.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge has upheld the use of U.S. tax money to help poison Mexican poppy fields. Heroin is made from poppies.

U.S. District Judge June L. Green's ruling Tuesday rejected a suit by the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws which claimed that some of the money was being used illegally to spray Paraquat, an herbicide, on marijuana fields as well as poppy fields. The judge said her decision was influenced by Mexico's informal agreement to abide by the ban against using any of the $9 million in U.S. funds to spray marijuana fields.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Reserve Board Chairman

Paul Volcker cautions that nearly 300 banks probably will leave the Federal Reserve System if Congress fails to ease membership terms.

Volcker called for passage of legislation that would loosen those terms, primarily by reducing the amount of reserves that member banks must keep on deposit with the system. In a letter released Tuesday, Volcker said abandonment of the system by hundreds of banks would have the "serious and insidious" effect of undermining the board's control over the nation's money supply.

Campbell Seen As Factor in Cowboy-Oiler Clash

IRVING (AP) — The Houston Oilers failed to score a touchdown from scrimmage against the Dallas Cowboys in the only two regular season games they've played in 1979 and 1974, but that was while Earl Campbell was tending mama's rose garden back in Tyler.

Campbell scores touchdowns now for Houston like he used to pluck roses, by the bushel basket.

The crippled Cowboys, their Doomsday Junior Defense on the junkyard blocks, face the Tyler Rose thorns and all Thanksgiving Day in a vital National Football League game.

"Campbell puts a load on every player on the field trying to tackle him," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry, who added "And on every coach on the sidelines. I don't guess I've ever seen a team depend on one man like Houston does Earl Campbell. He is just a great player."

Cowboy assistant Eral Allen, who studies NFL players at great length for the Dallas braintrust, said of Campbell: "He has the quickest start of any back I've seen since Don Perkins left here."

"You don't gang tackle him because he is so strong and quick. Houston makes no secret about who is going to carry the ball. I told our coaches if we can hold him to an average gain of 4.4 yards per carry we might have a chance."

Campbell has scored 15 touchdowns this year and gained 1,151 yards on 264 carries for a 4.4 yard average.

"The big statistic is that he has averaged 5.5 yards on short yardage carries," said Allen. "That means you know who is going to carry the ball—he is the only back in a lot of their formations—and people still can't stop him."

Dallas was a three-point pick in the Texas backyard shootout although they have yielded an average of 151 yards rushing per game.

With strongside linebacker Thomas Henderson's sudden departure Monday, Dallas will go against the Oilers without four players that played on the strongside of the defense in the Super Bowl last January against Pittsburgh.

Mike Hegman will start in Henderson's spot while Landry will shuffle players at end Ed Jones' and tackle Jethro Pugh's leftside positions.

He said recently acquired John Dutton could be in Jones' old post. At left tackle, Larry Cole could move in for Dave Stalls.

Randy Hughes has been subbing for the injured Waters, out for the season.

Houston is tied with Pittsburgh for the lead in the American Conference Central at 9-3 while there's a three-way tangle at 8-4 in the NFC East between Dallas, Washington and Philadelphia.

Texas Stadium's 65,000 seats were sold out months ago for the 3 p.m. nationally televised CST kickoff.

 'Doomsday Defense Ceases to Exist' ***

DALLAS (AP) — Wide receiver Butch Johnson ticked off the names, Ed (Too Tall) Jones, Jethro Pugh, Charlie Waters, and Thomas Henderson.

"Let's see, we've lost the strongside of our defense now," said Johnson. "Doomsday Junior, R.I.P."

With Thomas Henderson's

sudden departure Monday, the Dallas Cowboys face the distasteful task Thanksgiving Day of trying to stop Earl Campbell of the Houston Oilers with a patchwork defense.

"Doomsday has ceased to exist," said Johnson. "It's all on the offense now. We've got to dominate the game, control the ball."

Dallas Cowboys Coach Tom Landry said Tuesday that Mike Hegman will start in Henderson's strongside linebacker spot against the Oilers.

He said recently acquired John Dutton could be in Jones' old defensive end post. At left tackle where Pugh used to hold forth, Larry Cole could move in for Dave Stalls.

Of course, Randy Hughes has been subbing for the injured

Short Jumper

Darrell Polk [55] hits a short jump shot from the baseline in Tuesday night's opening game at Amarillo. The Sandies' Orlando Gilbreath [30] attempts to block the shot, and Amarillo's Larry Van Dyke [24] comes in to assist on the play. Polk led Hereford's scoring in the losing cause as he tallied 13 points. Amarillo won by 56-43. The Herd will host Pampa in the first home game Saturday night.

Waters, out for the season.

"I think our defense can overcome all these problems," said Landry. "We have good backup people. I have a lot of confidence in them."

But Landry didn't have confidence anymore in Henderson who was fired outright rather than demoted.

"I decided he couldn't function (on the bench)," said Landry. "It would have been hard for him to handle a second string role. His ego is such that he needs to start. I definitely thought it would affect the team with him on the sidelines."

Landry told the fifth year player he was going to be put on waivers but the controversial Henderson, who had held the media spotlight at the Super Bowl in January, announced his retirement "at an emotional press conference.

"Yesterday was a trying day," said Landry at his weekly press conference. "but I believe we'll get things back in the groove."

Houston Coach Bum Phillips was asked on a telephone hook-up Tuesday if he wanted Henderson and he replied: "If a guy can't get along one place the chances of him getting along somewhere else are not too good."

Landry said Tuesday that injured defensive right tackle Randy White is "the least likely (player on the team) to play."

Pressed about lineup changes, Landry said fullback Robert Newhouse would start because of an injury to Scott Laidlaw and that recently acquired John Dutton might start at left defensive end with Larry Cole being moved into left tackle.

Rookie Robert Shaw will start at center in place of injured John Fitzgerald.

Brooks Dawson of Texas-El Paso accounted for 304 yards by both passing and rushing in one period of a 1968 football game with Brigham Young.

In a 1968 football game against Oregon State, O. J. Simpson of Southern California carried the ball 20 times in a single period.

Over a span of three seasons, 1973-74-75, Archie Griffin of Ohio State had 31 consecutive games of 100 yards or more by rushing.

Attendance at college football games in 1978 totaled a record 34,251,606.

Amy Schumacher Hits Pressure Free Shots

The Whiteface girls captured a close 43-42 win over Amarillo here last night for their first win of the season, but the varsity boys weren't as fortunate in their opener at Amarillo—losing a 56-43 decision.

Beverly Nixon and Louise Mays led Hereford's scoring attack with 13 points each, but it was the heroics of sophomore guard Amy Schumacher that clinched the victory.

Hereford was ahead, 41-40, with 43 seconds left in the game, but Amarillo cashed two free shots to take a 42-41 advantage. Schumacher was fouled with only 8 seconds left in the contest, and the young guard came through with both free shots.

Hereford's fems took a 15-10 lead in the first quarter of action, but Amarillo bounced back to claim a 24-23 lead at halftime.

Coach Larry Sowers was proud of his team. "It was a super effort...the girls played great defense and shot the ball a lot better than in the opening game."

Hereford rallied for a 35-32 lead after three periods and held off Amarillo to capture the one-point margin of victory. High scorer for Amarillo as Marcy Dale with 16.

Hereford's JV girls lost a one-sided contest, 40-23. The Whiteface girls travel to Pampa for games Saturday night. The varsity boys got off to a bad start in their opening game against the Sandies in Amarillo. The Sandies took a quick 8-0 lead in the game, and extended the margin to 16-3 in the early going.

The Herd trailed by 18-5 after one period but outscored Amarillo by 14-6 in the second period and trailed by only 24-19 at halftime. The Whitefaces stayed close in the third period, which ended with Amarillo ahead by 37-31.

However, the Sandies rattled off 19 points in the final stanza, while Hereford managed only 13. The Herd JV lost a thriller, 40-39, in the preliminary contest.

Darrell Polk led Herd scorers with 13 points, and Joe Walker was next with 8. Coach Bobby Decker used all 12 varsity team members freely in order to get a look at his team in action in the first game.

Kevin Penninger sparked the Sandie attack with 21 points. Orlando Gilbreath and Kevin Wagner each had 10 points for the winners.

The Herd makes its home debut Saturday night, hosting the Pampa Harvesters. Preliminary games are set for the sophomore at 4 p.m. and the junior varsity at 5:30. Tipoff time for the varsity clash is 7:30.

Walcott Teams Open District

Walcott opened district basketball action Monday with the girls scoring a 19-17 win over Texline while the boys lost a 51-35 decision to Adrian.

Ortencia Arias led the Walcott girls in their win with 14 points. Tony Mungia was high scorer for the boys with 20 points.

The boys had captured the consolation trophy at the Hartley Tournament over the weekend, capturing a 38-12 win over Texline and a 40-39 triumph over Felt, Okla. Mungia was high scorer in the tourney, tallying 54 points in three games.

The Walcott teams play district games at Hartley on Nov. 26. District 1-B includes Adrian, Hartley, Channing, Texline and Walcott.

'Pokes Face Big Turkey Day Test

By HAL BOCK

AP Sports Writer

After a month of playing like turkeys, the Dallas Cowboys are ready to kick the stuffing out of somebody.

Say hello to the Houston Oilers.

Here are the Oilers, coasting along with a four-game winning streak and a share of the American Conference Central lead with Pittsburgh.

And here are the Cowboys, sagging with three losses in their last four games and locked in a three-way tie with Philadelphia and Washington for first place in the National Conference.

They would seem to be two teams headed in opposite directions and their paths cross Thursday as the main course of the National Football League's Thanksgiving Day feast following the Chicago-Detroit appetizer.

The suspicion here is that being at home against their intrastate rivals will wake up the Cowboys...just in time.

Last week's 9-5 left the season's log at 104-62 for '627.

The picks: DALLAS 31, HOUSTON 24. The challenge is there for the Cowboys and they must respond now. The departure of Hollywood Henderson should shake them up sufficiently to get by the Oilers.

Remember that in spite of all their troubles, the Cowboys still have the NFL's No. 1 offense and the NFC's top passing game. Houston doesn't specialize in close-to-the-vest football and if this becomes a shootout, the Cowboys could prosper.

CHICAGO 20, DETROIT 7. The important difference here is that the Bears have the incentive of a winning streak and possible playoff berth while the Lions are playing out the string.

Detroit has been dreadful, losing 11 of 12 games while the Bears have won four straight and are 7-5, two games back of Tampa Bay in the NFC Central. So this game is important to Chicago and just another day at the office for the Lions.

Alan Thompson of Wisconsin, playing in his first varsity football game, rushed for 220 yards against Oklahoma in 1969.

Scott Gardner of Virginia completed 19 passes in one quarter against Navy in 1974.

Joe Namath threw 49 passes in an AFL playoff game in 1968 between the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders.

Billy Kilmer of the Washington Redskins attempted 49 passes in a 1976 playoff game against the Minnesota Vikings.

Florida Suffers Identity Crisis

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Florida State is like a lot of other college football teams. The offense makes headlines but the defense wins games.

Most of the Seminoles' publicity goes to Wally Woodham and Jimmy Jordan, who have split the quarterbacking chores for several years. But Coach Bobby Bowden says that "good things started to happen here in 1977 when Simmons came to Florida State."

Simmons is junior nose guard Ron Simmons, the mainstay of a defense that has led the Seminoles to a 10-0 record and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

"The first day Simmons was here he looked good and moved up to the first team," Bowden recalls. "He runs a 4.5 forty and he bench presses 530 pounds. The offense gets all the credit, but it's like that anywhere."

Despite the Orange Bowl trip, its first-ever major bowl, Florida State suffers from an identity crisis. The fifth-ranked Seminoles haven't received a first-place vote all season in The Associated Press poll.

"There's not one thing I can do about that, so I don't worry about it," Bowden says. "We haven't grown up yet."

Florida State, you see, has only been playing football since 1947 — it lost all five games to Steierson, Cumberland, Tennessee Tech, Troy State and Jacksonville State — the same year it became coeducational after a half-century as the Florida State College for Women. It was founded in 1857 as the Seminary West of the Suwannee.

"It's gonna take years and years and years of winning before we become as well-known as the traditional independents like Notre Dame and Penn State," Bowden says. "But I see some of the schools in bowl games with three and four losses and I'd rather be 10-0 and untraditional."

"The pressure now is there to win at all costs," says Charlie McClendon, who will coach his last regular-season game when Louisiana State visits Tulane this weekend.

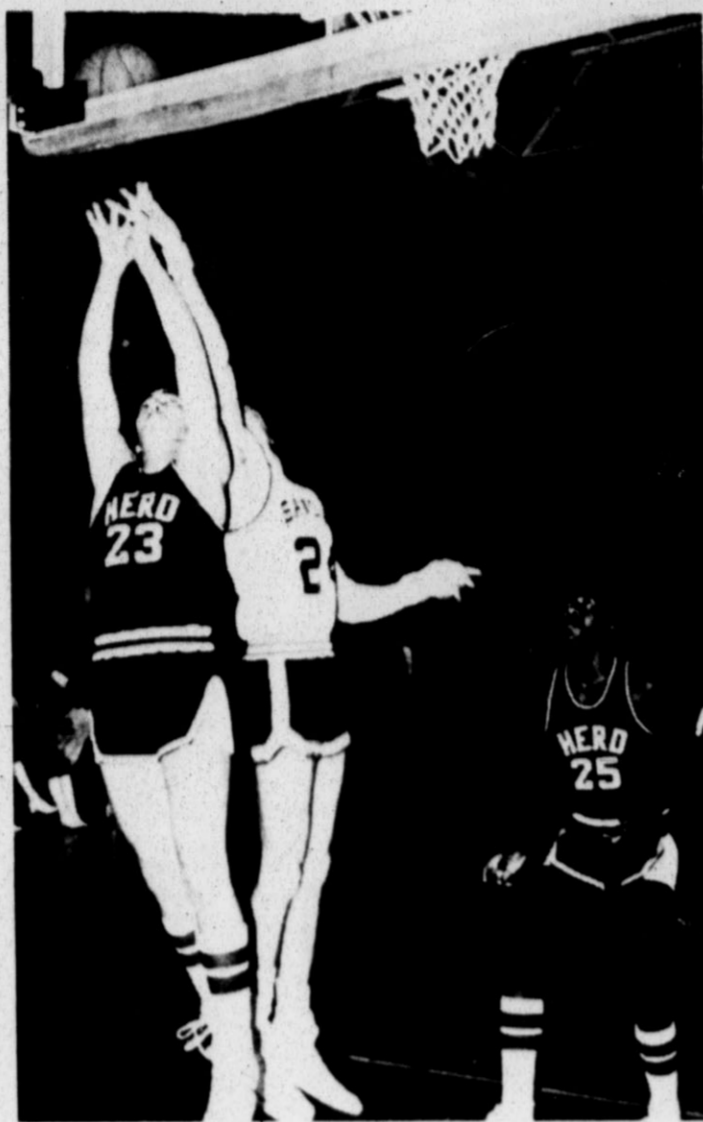

It wasn't that way when McClendon played for Bear Bryant at Kentucky 30 years ago. Of course, Mac & Co. were war veterans, older than your average present-day player.

"There were no pep talks, no meetings," McClendon remembers. "We'd sit in the locker room before the games and Coach Bryant would come in and go over to the sink and throw up. We'd nudge each other and laugh. Look at the old man getting sick."

"I never thought about emotion. I didn't need anything to psych me up or get me ready to play."

McClendon says the only ones who can stop the "win at all cost" attitude are the college presidents.

"I hope they get it back in focus or you're gonna find coaches not staying in the business," he says. "Booster groups are bad, not only for an athletic program, but for a university. No one should have the right to interfere in your operation. A man is under enough pressure doing what he thinks is right."

Carom Contest

Ernie Suarez [23] battles for a rebound against the Amarillo Sandies in the Whiteface cagers' opener at Amarillo Tuesday night. The Herd lost the contest by 56-43. Hereford's Bennie Graves [25] is pictured under the basket awaiting a possible chance at the roundball. Hereford makes its home debut of the new season Saturday night, hosting the Pampa Harvesters. The annual Hereford Tournament is scheduled Nov. 29-Dec. 1.

Peach Bowl Goes From 'Outhouse to Penthouse

ATLANTA (AP) — The Peach Bowl has gone from "the outhouse to the penthouse" in ticket sales since last year, when the post-season football game almost went under for lack of sales, bowl officials say.

The bowl's Atlanta office sold out its ticket allotment Monday for the New Year's Eve afternoon match between the Clemson Tigers and the Baylor Bears.

"I've never seen so many people before or gotten so many phone calls. It was a heck of a mess," ticket committee chairman Tommy Crumbley said Tuesday. "I think ticket demand will far exceed availability of tickets anywhere."

Things were not quite so great last year.

The game was scheduled for Christmas Day, and the Peach Bowl barely made a National Collegiate Athletic Association mandate to sell 24,000 tickets locally. The goal was reached after Janet Rodgers, wife of Georgia Tech Coach Pepper Rodgers, and other coaches' wives persuaded local civic and business groups to buy the tickets.

Georgia Tech played Purdue in the 1978 game.

"It's like going from the outhouse to the penthouse in one year," executive director George Crumbley said.

About 25,000 tickets already have been sold locally. Fans still may be able to buy tickets from the participating schools, Crumbley said.

Baylor, in Waco, Texas, was allotted 10,000 tickets, and Clemson, in South Carolina, was allotted 25,000 tickets.

"Baylor is optimistic about selling its allotment," the ticket chairman said. "But if they don't, they're already getting calls from Clemson fans asking about tickets."

"Clemson really wanted more than the 25,000 we gave them, but we had to save some tickets for local fans," he said.

The game, which will be played in the 375-seat Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, may yield a record $340,000 for each team, compared with $173,000 each for Georgia Tech and Purdue last year.

The pot was sweetened by a three-year television contract initiated last year by CBS. Crumbley said the contract has an escalating pay scale for the second and third years.

The ticket price has also increased. Last year, they cost $9 and $14, and this year they will go for $12 or $17, he said.

Hall of Famer Rogers Hornsby is listed as having the top batting average for one season for three different National League teams.

PIONEER Harvest Hotline

Lionel Lane reports Deaf Smith Co. Results

Again this year Pioneer brand seeds are delivering outstanding yields in field after field. But we know it takes more than one year's performance to tell the whole story. Look at these results, then ask your Pioneer dealer to show you records from several years. You'll see for yourself why Pioneer brand seeds have become famous for their consistency.

Farmers who planted this hybrid in the Deaf Smith area reported excellent performance in 1979. Rocky Kay, who farms near Hereford, recorded a yield of 11,638 lbs./A. Oscar Bronniman, who also farms in the Hereford area, recorded a yield of 10,809 lbs./A. with 3311. Roy Kuper reported a yield of 10,621 lbs./A. with this hybrid near Westway. In 37 locations in this area, 3311 averaged 611 lbs./A. more than the competitors. 3311 has excellent drought tolerance with good stalks and roots for very good standability. As these Hereford farmers proved, 3311 is a good choice for the Deaf Smith area.

In corn hybrid evaluation tests in this area, this hybrid has been a consistent performer for several years. In 1979 tests it averaged 10,690 lbs./A. in 35 comparisons. In the Hereford area, Oscar Bronniman reported a yield of 10,964 lbs./A. with 3360. A tall, semi-upright leafed hybrid, 3360 has proven its consistency in the Deaf Smith area over several years. And it'll be one of the leaders again in '80.

This year's yields give dramatic proof why this is one of the most popular corn hybrids in the Deaf Smith area. 3184 averaged 10,810 lbs./A. in 37 hybrid comparisons in this area during 1979...387 lbs./A. more than competitive varieties. It has outstanding drought tolerance with strong stalks and roots for excellent standability. It has medium-textured grain on strong stalks. Tolerance to MDMV and head smut is outstanding.

Ramsay, Shue Attain 500 Victory Mark in NBA Play

By The Associated Press
Jack Ramsay and Gene Shue have joined the exclusive 500-win Club in the National Basketball Association.

Red Holzman, already a member, joined an even more exclusive club when his New York Knicks did a number on the Houston Rockets Tuesday night.

Ramsay, the Portland coach, and Shue, of San Diego, each reached the euphoric plateau of 500 NBA victories after the Trail Blazers defeated the Los Angeles Lakers 114-99 and the Clippers stopped the Phoenix Suns 117-110.

Holzman, meanwhile, became only the second coach in NBA history to win 500 games with one team when the Knicks defeated the Rockets 130-125 in overtime.

Red Auerbach, who did it with the Boston Celtics, is the only other NBA coach to win that many games with one team.

The new 500 Club members joined Auerbach, Holzman and Dick Motta in the exclusive group.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Philadelphia defeated San Antonio 118-114; Denver stopped Chicago 124-91; Atlanta turned back Detroit 109-105; Cleveland whipped Utah 119-107 and Kansas City edged Golden State 112-109.

Clippers 117, Suns 116

Guards Brian Taylor, Freeman Williams and Lloyd Free combined for 81 points as San Diego defeated Phoenix. Taylor scored a season-high 28 points. Williams had 27 and Free, the NBA's leading scorer, contributed 26 as the Clippers won their third straight game.

Knicks 130, Rockets 125

Holzman's 500th triumph with the Knicks was fashioned with the help of 25 points from Ray Williams and 24 from Bill Cartwright. The Knicks were losing by as many as 18 points with 8 minutes remaining before making their comeback before their high scorers.

Sixers 118, Spurs 114
Julius Erving had 26 points and Darryl Dawkins added 24 as Philadelphia fought off a late San Antonio rally to beat the Spurs. The Sixers had led since midway through the third quarter and held a 110-102 margin with 2:13 remaining in the game.

But rookie guard Mike Evans came off the bench to fuel San Antonio's rally, collecting seven points in the final two minutes. A layup by Evans with 34 seconds remaining cut Philadelphia's lead to 112-111. But Dawkins slammed home a dunk shot and Erving hit two key free throws with 10 seconds remaining to ice the game for Philadelphia.

Nuggets 124, Bulls 91

David Thompson, playing less than half the game, scored 21 points and Bobby Wilkerson added a season high of 20 to lead Denver over the Chicago Bulls.

After grabbing a 57-47 half-time advantage, the Nuggets maintained a nine-point lead until midway through the third period. Denver then reeled off 14 straight points as Thompson collected eight and Wilkerson five.

Hawks 109, Pistons 105

Armond Hill's driving layup with 39 seconds remaining gave Atlanta its victory over Detroit. Down by 12 points early in the fourth quarter, the Pistons charged back to tie the game 103-103 on Terry Tyler's three-point play.

John Drew, whose 24 points led all scorers, put the Hawks in front with an 18-foot jump shot before Tyler tied it again at 105-

105 with 1:17 left to play. Less than a minute later, Hill put in his winning shot for Atlanta.

Cavs 119, Jazz 107

Campy Russell scored 33 points to help Cleveland beat Utah. The loss was a club record 12th straight for the Jazz, now 2-17 this season.

Utah played without Adrian Dantley, the third leading scorer in the NBA with a 28.6 average, who was out with the flu.

The Jazz' Pete Maravich, averaging 18 points a game, has been hampered by back and neck injuries and saw little action, scoring just seven points.

Kings 112, Warriors 109

Scott Wedman scored 10 of his 20 points in the fourth quarter to lead Kansas City over Golden State. Wedman scored the final six points for the Kings, who won their fifth game in a row. He put Kansas City ahead for good with a 15-foot jumper from the left side with 44 seconds remaining.

Wedman made two free throws with 10 seconds left to give the Kings their final three-point cushion.

SWC Injury Picture Bleak for SMU, A&M

By The Associated Press
The injury picture in the Southwest Conference football schedule was bleak in Dallas and College Station, but there was some good news in Austin.

Texas Coach Fred Akers said quarterback Donnie Little's foot injury was on the mend, and that Little could start against Baylor Saturday.

"The swelling is down, and he's off crutches," Akers said.

The casualty list at Southern Methodist featured the backfield, where running backs Lott McIlhenny, Charles Wagoner and Eric Dickerson were doubtful for the Mustangs' closing contest against Arkansas.

"It looks like all three will have to miss because of injuries," Coach Ron Meyer said. Wagoner has a cracked vertebra, Dickerson is nursing a sore ankle and McIlhenny has a pinched neck nerve.

Starting noseguard Charles Hunt also was doubtful for SMU because of a bruised knee.

Craig James was expected to start at tailback, Michael Charles at fullback and Waldo Theus at noseguard.

Texas A&M has a longer injury list, but free safety Elroy Steen was the only victim expected to miss Saturday's game against Texas Christian. Steen suffered a severely sprained ankle last week against Arkansas.

Nolen, Whatley Win At Honor Roll Posts

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

Clear Lake quarterback Chris Nolen and wide receiver Ronnie Whatley must have decided to save the best for their last games as high school seniors.

Nolen completed 16 of 17 passes for 245 yards and four touchdown passes to Whatley, who caught nine passes for 149 yards as Clear Lake closed out its season with a 49-10 victory over Clear Creek.

The pass-catch combination earned the duo mention this week in The Associated Press Schoolboy Honor Roll.

Clear Lake Coach Ronnie Bell says neither player has great speed but Nolen is an accurate passer who can throw all the routes and Whatley runs precision routes.

"Chris picked a good way to end it," Bell said. "He's got an exceptionally strong arm and he can throw short or long. He's been accurate all season."

Nolen completed 64 of 124 passes for a 52 per cent average this season on a team that concentrated on the run.

Whatley's touchdown catches went for 7, 29, 25 and 8 yards to give the 6-2 senior 26 catches this season. "His techniques on his pass route are exceptional and he's also a good blocker," Bell said.

Other top performances in the final week of the regular season included:

—Louis Landry of Class 3A top ranked Beaumont Hebert, who rushed only 11 times but gained 153 yards and scored on runs of 22 and 47 yards in a 44-7 victory over Crosby.

—Kenneth Green, who rushed 137 yards on 23 carries for Hardin-Jefferson despite a 9-7 loss to Port Arthur Austin in the district championship game.

—Port Arthur Austin's Sidney Arceneaux contributed to his team's title victory by recovering three of Hardin-Jefferson's fumbles.

—Tailback Rene Palacios of Bruni rushed 207 yards on 21 carries in a 20-12 victory over San Isidro. He scored on a 45 yards run and threw a 21-yard halfback pass for a touchdown and two-point conversion and added 19 tackles as a linebacker on defense.

—Klein quarterback Mike Klein rushed 195 yards and scored three touchdowns in a 34-2 victory over Humble.

—Parris Watson and Dennis Kuithe each scored touchdowns in a 35-18 loss to Hastings that marked Elstik's first touchdowns of the season.

Perez Signs $1 Million Contract With Red Sox

BOSTON (AP) — At 37, first baseman Tony Perez, a seven-time all-star in 15 years in the National League, believes he can give the Boston Red Sox $1 million worth of baseball over the next three seasons.

"I feel great, the same as I did four or five years ago," Perez said Tuesday after signing a three-year Red Sox contract as a free agent, making him an American Leaguer. "I have no physical problems, and I think I can help the Red Sox. And I think I can help for at least three years."

Terms were not announced, but the multiyear pact reportedly will provide Perez, who will be 38 next May 14, more than $1 million.

Perez, who, with agent Reuven Katz, agreed to terms as a free-agent draftee last Friday, flew to Boston with his wife, Pituka, from his home in Puerto Rico for the formal signing at Fenway Park.

"The Red Sox were my first choice, even before they drafted me earlier this month," Perez said. "I'm looking forward to playing with the Red Sox and in the American League. I saw a lot of Red Sox games on television while I was in Montreal this year. I'm pleased to be here for a couple of seasons."

"My wife and I liked the city and the people while we were here during the rained-out games in 1975. I also like the ballpark. I know I can hit in this ballpark."

Perez, who led the Reds into four World Series while with Cincinnati for 12 years, played out his option in his third season with the Montreal Expos this year. His seventh-game homer in the 1975 World Series for Cincinnati against the Red Sox sparked the Reds' victory. He became disenchanted in Montreal as Manager Dick Williams gave him frequent rests, and he appeared in just 132 games, often platooned with Rusty Staub.

Lions Near New NFL Loss Record

By HARRY ATKINS
AP Sports Writer
PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — It's not the kind of thing Detroit Coach Monte Clark likes to think about, but it's right there at the top of page 73 in the Lions' media guide for all the world to see.

The Lions' worst National Football League season before this year was 1942 when the club finished 0-11.

The Chicago Bears, who accounted for two of those 1942 defeats, will try to help the Lions rewrite their history book Thursday when they square off against their old rivals at 12:30 p.m. EST in the Silverdome.

Detroit is currently 1-11 for the 1979 season, including a 35-7 setback against the Bears earlier this month at Soldier Field. So unless the Lions can pull out a nationally televised victory Thanksgiving Day, they will have lost more games this season than any other season in the club's history.

The club record for consecutive defeats also was set during that 1942 season. In as much as Detroit defeated Atlanta eight weeks ago, the Lions would have to lose all four remaining games this season to eclipse that mark.

To the Lions' credit, however, they have not quit. Individually, they still seem to care very much. Defensive back Jimmy Allen probably put it best following the Lions' 14-7 defeat at Minnesota Sunday:

"The guys are hurting, I'm hurting, Coach Clark is hurting. 'It's like a midget coming up to us and saying, 'I want your wallet.' We hold out for awhile, but then we give the midget the wallet."

"We gave it to the Vikings. That's what it's been like all season — charity."

The Bears, meanwhile, are riding a four-game winning streak, including Sunday's 23-13 triumph over the New York Jets at Chicago.

The Bears currently are 7-5 and folks in the Windy City are thinking playoffs. And why not? Chicago is only one game behind Dallas, Washington and Philadelphia — all of whom are 8-4, and one of whom is going to win the Eastern Division of the NFL's National Conference.

One key to the Chicago resurgence has been Mike Phipps, who has compiled an NFL quarterback rating of 95.4 over the past 4½ games. In that stretch the former Purdue ace has thrown 90 passes without an interception, including six for touchdowns. Keep in mind that the Bears threw only seven touchdown passes — as a team — all last season.

"I'm playing the best football I've played in the last couple of years," Phipps said. "There's that feeling here now — that feeling that one way or another we're gonna get the win, that you can do anything."

The Lions would like to find that feeling.

'Mad Hungarian' Inks For 5 Years, $5.9 Million

ATLANTA (AP) — He may be mad but he's not crazy.

With a newly inked five-year contract reportedly worth $5.9 million, baseball's "Mad Hungarian," Al Hrabosky, hinted he was looking to the future when he chose to pitch for the Atlanta Braves next season rather than a pennant contender.

Twelve other teams bid for the services of the left-handed relief pitcher in the free agent draft, including World Series champion Pittsburgh, California, the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox.

During a news conference Tuesday, Hrabosky said he chose to sign with the Braves instead of any of the others because he was impressed with another baseball non-conformist, Atlanta owner Ted Turner.

"One thing I've noticed in Ted's association with the Atlanta Braves — everybody can say a total effort has been made to make it a much more productive ballclub," he said. "Ted has made a tremendous commitment to bringing a winner here."

It was not lost on the Mad Hungarian, who earned his nickname with dramatic pre-pitch tactics, that Turner owns Atlanta's WTBS television station, which broadcasts over a nationwide cable system.

Hrabosky wants a broadcasting career when his baseball one ends, something the Turner Broadcasting System can provide.

But he insisted that his contract, with payments reportedly spread over the next 35 years, is "strictly baseball," and does not include "a single word" about broadcasting.

"Atlanta was my first choice," he added.

"It was between the Dodgers and Atlanta," said Hrabosky, who became a free agent after pitching for the Kansas City Royals for two seasons. "My wife and I are both from Southern California, and we didn't want to go back to Southern California. This is the environment we wanted."

Hrabosky spent five years with the St. Louis Cardinals before joining the Royals. He had his best season in 1975, when he had a 13-5 record and was named Fireman of the Year.

Hrabosky is coming off a poor season with the Royals, where he had a 3.74 earned run average last season.

"I never established a pattern, and I had problems with that," said Hrabosky, a fastball pitcher who intimidates batters with his psyche-up efforts behind the mound. "I felt I had to be in a particular pitching rotation — consistently going out there — I had an awful lot of problems with mechanics out there."

Oil Spill Leaves 'Minimal Damage'

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The massive Mexican oil spill that ruined the summer tourist season on South Texas beaches left only "minimal" environmental damage, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists.

"There is no evidence of noticeable damage to Texas fish or wildlife other than possibly reddish larvae," said a department release issued Friday.

The oil coated some Texas beaches after a Bay of Campeche well blew out in June. Some scientists feared the oil would endanger the Texas fishing industry.

However, department biologists who gathered shrimp samples from water covered with the runaway oil found no damage to the shrimp. "The oil also had little or no effect on shore and wading birds, and had absolutely no impact on whooping cranes or migratory waterfowl," the release said.

Shrimp and oyster production along the coast is down this year due to flooding, according to the department.

Baylor American League MVP

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Baylor became the first member of the California Angels to win the American League's Most Valuable Player Award when the outfielder-designated hitter was made an overwhelming choice today by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Baylor collected 20 of a possible 28 first-place votes from the special BBWAA committee to win by a runaway margin over outfielder Ken Singleton of the American League champion Baltimore Orioles.

The California slugger, who led the Angels to their first title over in the AL West with a league-leading 139 RBI, 36 home runs and a .296 batting average, piled up 347 points to 241 for Singleton.

Third baseman George Brett of the Kansas City Royals was given two votes for first place and a 226-point total for the third spot.

Baylor, Singleton and Brett were the only players named on all 28 ballots.

Boston's Jim Rice, last year's MVP, finished fifth in the voting with 124 points, behind teammate Fred Lynn's 160½.

The 30-year-old Baylor's offensive totals also included 33 doubles, three triples and 22 stolen bases. The California slugger, one of the first crop of free agents in 1976, signed with the Angels on Nov. 16 of that year.

Singleton, 32, who had three first-place votes, had a .295 average that included 35 homers and 111 RBI.

Brett had a big year with the Royals, finishing second to Lynn in the AL batting race with a .329 average that included 23 homers and 107 runs batted in. Mike Flanagan, the Cy Young Award winner from Baltimore, collected the remaining three first-place votes and finished in sixth place with 100 points. He was the only pitcher to finish in the Top 10.

Rounding out the Top 10 in the voting were outfielder Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers with 87 points, second baseman Bobby Grich of the Angels with 58, catcher Darrell Porter of the Royals with 52 and infielder Buddy Bell of the Texas Rangers with 48.

The 28 voters on the poll are made up from two sports writers in each AL city.

A thin coating of glue is better than a thick one.

St. Louis has been losing population faster than any other major city, although its suburbs are growing at an average rate, The Conference Board reports. One reason: The center city dweller's average income is exceptionally low. Less than 3 percent of families in St. Louis proper make over $25,000 a year, and well over 40 percent earn less than $10,000 annually.

Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals averaged 7.22 strikeouts per nine-inning game for his 3,885 innings pitched.

Babe Ruth won or tied 12 times for the American League home-run title.

There were 336 games decided by one run in the National League in the 1978 season.

Race tracks of less than one mile in circumference are called "bull rings."

McConn Wins Houston Election

HOUSTON (AP)—Mayor Jim McConn withstood a bitter verbal attack from one of his chief critics, City Councilman Louis Macey, to win a second, two-year term and will preside over a council containing the first woman and first Hispanic in Houston's history.

McConn did what he had to do in this nonpartisan runoff—keep his support solid in the white middle-income precincts and pickup a giant share of the voters in the black and Hispanic sections.

In some black areas, McConn won as much as 80 percent of the vote.

Macey drew most of his strength from the affluent and Republican strongholds.

Although there were no party designations in the election, Macey had the backing of most GOP voters, while McConn was the choice in the Democratic precincts.

With 346 of 355 precincts reporting the vote was:

McConn 87,033, Macey 68,653.

Although the mayor's race, with its sharp exchanges between the two candidates, took the spotlight, the runoff changed the face of the Houston City Council.

Two women won council seats. Never before had a woman served on the governing body of this, the nation's fifth largest city.

Eleanor Tinsley, former president of the Houston School Board, stunned incumbent Frank E. Mann, a 20-year veteran, by some 13,000 votes.

Christin Hartung, a 38-year-old former county judge's aide, defeated insurance executive Don Hogan, 37.

The face-lifting actually began in the Nov. 6 general election.

State Rep. Ben Reyes became the first Hispanic to serve on the council and the black representation rose from one to three.

One other incumbent, Johnny Goyen, easily won re-election Tuesday.

About 25 percent of the 666,000 registered voters marked ballots.

McConn said of the outcome, "This was a smashing victory that indicates the confidence in the McConn administration. I am looking forward to working with the new council."

Macey said he would not concede "until the last vote is counted. But, if I lose, I will worry about it for about 15 minutes, go to sleep, and get up and start planning a campaign for two years from now."

"We had projected a larger percentage of the minority vote than we got. But we ran a fantastic race with a limited amount of resources."

In the runoff campaign, McConn was endorsed by the three black and one Hispanic councilmen-elect.

This apparently turned most of the vote received by Leonel Castillo in the first election into the McConn camp.

Castillo, former city controller who resigned recently as commissioner of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, received 23.6 percent of the vote Nov. 6.

Macey accused McConn of foot-dragging on the big problems facing Houston—a rising crime rate, poor city services, pot hole-marked streets, and a sluggish mass transit system.

McConn said progress had been made in the past two years and more would be made if he was given the time.

Macey also charged McConn with trying to tag him as "anti-black."

The change in the council came after the Justice Department ruled the city in violation of the Voting rights Act because recently annexed areas were diluting minority voting strength.

Houston residents then voted in August to enlarge the council from eight to 14 members, with nine elected on a single district basis and five at-large. Previously there were eight council members, all elected at-large.

FISHING HAS BEEN a favorite form of presidential relaxation at least since the time Benjamin Harrison spit on his worms for luck and cursed when the fish got away. President Hoover wetted his line in New Jersey's Pequest River with a member of the state's Fish and Game Commission. President Eisenhower braved the chilly waters of Colorado's South Platte River to hook a rainbow trout. And President Carter learned the sport in a Plains, Ga., pond.

Poerner Seeks More Oil

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Chairman John Poerner of the Texas Railroad Commission urged Americans Tuesday to "ring in the New Year" with more oil production to protect the United States and its allies.

As a backdrop for his comments, Poerner said Texas crude oil production in 1979 — for the first time in 15 years — will not reach one billion barrels.

Poerner said Texas' oil output for 1979 will total approximately 980.4 million barrels. Texas production last year exceeded 1.04 billion barrels.

He said the United States led world crude oil production from 1902 until 1974, but "Today, the role of top producer is being filled by the Soviet Union with 11.2 million barrels per day."

"Unfortunately," Poerner said, "federal disincentives in pricing and taxation have forced us to take a backseat to the Russians."

"Energy resources and adequate production have been and always will be the key ingredients for the success of this No. 1 industrial nation," he said. "Without these necessities, we cannot produce, or provide the military strength we need to protect ourselves and our allies."

Poerner concluded his brief remarks to the statewide oil allowable hearing by stating:

"Let's be positive for a change; let's oil up the rigs, dust off the pumpjacks and be prepared to ring in the New Year with a strong theme of 'Domestic Energy for the '80s.'"

The commission routinely set the statewide oil allowable for December at 100 percent. The allowable, or production factor, is geared to market demand. As usual, the commission made certain exceptions such as limiting production in the East Texas Field to 86 percent.

The commission, Texas' oil and gas regulatory agency, has maintained a 100 percent allowable each month except three since April 1972.

Major buyers of Texas crude oil told the commission they wanted to obtain 2,672,973 barrels a day in December, a decrease of 11,967 barrels a day from November.

The buyers' nominations are pegged to what they think they can obtain, and seven of the 14 major buyers submitted lower nominations, which indicated declining production.

Poerner also noted crude and petroleum products imports into the United States totaled 7,972,000 barrels per day for the four-week average ending Nov. 2.

Here are the December nominations by major purchasers of Texas crude oil, in barrels per day, with any changes from November in parentheses:

- Amoco 267,500 (down 5,000)
- Chevron 59,354
- Cities Service 90,000
- Conoco 56,000

- Exxon 375,000 (down 3,000)

Competitive Spirit Faces American Industry

NEW YORK (AP) — You can tell that American industry is up against a fierce competitive scrap in the 1980s by the people it is putting in charge, said the professor.

"They are young, vigorous and mature beyond their age. They are tough as nails," he said.

Prof. Eugene E. Jennings, who studied the executive suite for three decades while teaching at Michigan State, counseling chairmen and writing basic texts on executive careers.

"You can always tell when industry is up against the wall," he said. "It's choice of leaders always is an indicator of what they believe to be the critical problems ahead."

A critical problem, one that involves many lesser ones, will be the level of competition. "Few companies believe there will be a big expansion," he said. "Growth will come from sheer competitiveness."

To face the pressure, industry has been appointing young but tested leaders. In the past two years, Jennings found, industry opted for the youngest batch of presidents since the 1966-1969 period.

Studying the 500 largest industrial companies, he found presidents of no less than one in four concerns are still in their 40s. The average age when made president was 47. Two years ago it was 51.

Despite their age, Jennings has found them thoroughly experienced. Most were divisional managers during the recession of the mid-70s and so learned "back" management. They are survivors; they're tough.

Back management is the art or science of retrenchment, of trimming an operation lean and competitive, of making it fit and efficient. These survivors learned it well; otherwise they wouldn't be where they are.

Later in the 1970s, as the economy expanded for four years, these leaders excelled in forward management too. They showed they knew how to grow, to expand markets. They demonstrated their versatility.

"They're also going to improve with time," Jennings believes, and so he calls them "a tremendous national asset," the kind that can stand the "horrendous" pressures of competition in the 1980s.

The odds are heavy that some of the young presidents might not last in their jobs. "Always when you opt for youth there are mismatches," said Jennings.

Mismatch, he emphasized, is not necessarily failure; instead, it may mean the individual's personality or goals fail to synchronize with company expectations. Many mismatches are likely to be placed again.

Jennings explains that in many companies today the directors are less apt to let time pass while a president attempts to prove himself. And, he feels, pre-idents are less inclined to stay when not wanted.

In fact, the professor says, some openings for young presidents developed because companies recently have been flushing out mismatches, preparing for what they see as tougher competition in the 1980s.

Smithsonian Adds Tractor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Smithsonian Institution, often called "the nation's attic" because of its collection of museum pieces, has added an artifact commemorating the 75th anniversary of the first crawler-type tractor.

It was on Thanksgiving Day, 1904, that a grain harvester manufacturer, Benjamin Holt, successfully demonstrated his new machine near Stockton, Calif.

The crawler tractor demonstrated by Holt "changed farming and earth-moving industries in America" and in much of the world as it developed over the years, the Smithsonian said Tuesday.

In 1925, the Holt Manufacturing Co. and the Best Tractor Co. merged to form the Caterpillar Tractor Co., which became synonymous with the crawling machine.

As part of its historic display of farm equipment — including scythes and cradles, McCormick reapers and other pioneering implements, the Smithsonian has on display a 1929 model "Cat 110" tractor, the smallest ever built by Caterpillar.

The tractor was donated by George E. Logue of Trout Run, Pa., who says the Cat 10 was "the small farmer's tractor just as the Model A was designed for the average motorist."

Smithsonian officials noted that the early crawler tractors developed by Holt and others were adapted for the World War I military tank, opening a new dimension of warfare on the bogged-down Western Front in France in 1916. Tanks, bulldozers and other machines used the principle of crawler treads throughout World War II and are widespread today in virtually all armies and in construction projects.

Nearly 5,000 of the Cat 10 models were built between 1928 and 1931, the Smithsonian said. They sold for about $1,100 each. Today's huge four-wheel-drive tractors dominate much of American agriculture. Those commonly cost $60,000 or more.

The big tractor of today frequently includes an enclosed cab to protect the operator from sun, rain, dust, wind and cold. It often is air conditioned, has a two-way radio and sometimes includes a television and a tape deck, depending on how much money a farmer wants to spend.

But the little Cat 10, as described by one of the company's 1930 sales manuals, also had its refinements that were attractive to many farmers:

"Ten sturdy horsepower at the drawbar... 14 belt horsepower for stationary work... a little over 4,400 pounds in weight... borne on sure-gripping, lightly-treading tracks... little in size... big in power and performance."

"The comfort of the operator has not been overlooked. The driver's seat is a full upholstered seat, with coiled spring and hair-padded cushion and back and padded sides."

"The Model 10 can be equipped with a canopy top... it can be purchased with or without drop curtains."

He Talks Turkey ...and Other Birds

HATFIELD, Mass. (AP) — "Gaahle, gobble-gobble-gobble-gobble."

That's "Hello," from University of Massachusetts professor David Stemple, a man who's more than willing to talk turkey.

Stemple is a bird watcher, photographer and hunter whose ability to attract the wild birds with his voice or a special box gives him a kind of Pied Piper status among the beak and feather set.

Either way, his gobble is so good most turkeys can't tell the difference, he says.

Decked out in his camouflage hood and outfit, Stemple sat against a tree near his 100-year-old farm house in this western Massachusetts town and explained the ancient art of talking turkey.

To gobble himself, the 42-year-old computer science teacher uses a small mouthpiece. The call, which starts high and careens down the scale, sounds more like "a screeching whinny," or a series of yelps, than a gobble.

If that doesn't turn on the turkeys, Stemple has a wooden box that produces turkey-like sounds when he moves the lid. The hardest bird to attract is the gobbler, or adult male, who is accustomed to hens coming to him — not vice versa.

If the gobbler fails to respond to hen calls, Stemple calls out like another gobbler who is mating with a hen. This, he says, arouses jealousy in the turkey's heart, or possibly the Peeping Tom in him, and he moves closer.

"When they strut they swell up to twice their size," he says. "You're sitting against a tree and it's coming right at you. Looks like a dinosaur."

Stemple, who learned to call turkeys as a boy in West Virginia, says he enjoys shooting the birds with a camera as well as with a gun.

"If I'm clicking as he comes on me, he never knows it, and if I'm pulling the trigger, he never knows it either," he says.

Stemple has learned to respect the old birds. "They're wild, wary and they seem intelligent, even though they're not really," he says.

"Being 20-pound birds with enemies like the bobcat, wolf and coyote, they've evolved very good predator-evasion tools. They have almost 360-degree vision that picks up any movement, so they can get off the ground," he said.

"They seem smart because they're better than you are at what you're trying to do" — talk turkey.

Young Democrats Being Organized

A local chapter of the Young Democrats Club of Texas (YDCT) is being organized here under the direction of Lois Kershen, Panhandle Regional YDCT Organizer.

All interested persons between the ages of 16 and 35 are invited to attend an organizational meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 27 in Ms. Kershen's home at 109 Oak.

Purposes and projects of the Young Democrats will be outlined at this meeting.

The YDCT offers an opportunity for young people to be politically active with their peers while learning about the democratic process. Workshops are held for the membership on a variety of politically-oriented topics. Some YDCT chapters support one particular candidate while others allow each member to campaign for an individual candidate.

The Young Democrats are recognized on the state and national levels of politics. The YDCT will convene in March to elect state officers and formulate their political platform. Texas delegates will be sent to the national convention of Young Democrats in July.

To become a Young Democrat, an individual must sign a membership card and pay a $1 fee. After the local chapter is organized, officers will be elected.

Further information is available from Ms. Kershen, who is responsible for organizing YDCT chapters in 62 Texas counties.

Project Xmas Card To Begin Nov. 25

Members of Hereford Medical Auxiliary recently met in the home of Leona Carruth to appoint the co-chairmen of this year's Project Christmas Card, which will be officially launched

Nov. 25. Claudia McBrayer and Carolyn Canon will be in charge of this year's campaign, which benefits the health care facilities of the community.

Project Christmas Card as first conceived in Hereford in 1956 by the wife of a local doctor. It was her idea that money spent in sending Christmas cards locally to friends and neighbors might be used in a better way to demonstrate the true spirit of sharing.

Each year since that time, the local Medical Auxiliary has sponsored Project Christmas Card to benefit Deaf Smith General Hospital by purchasing items not in the budget or that otherwise would be bought with tax dollars. A portion of Project Christmas Card proceeds go to local high school graduates for an opportunity plan scholarship in health careers.

Since its inception, more than $68,000 has been contributed by Hereford residents to this cause.

Canisters will be located throughout the City during the PCC campaign to receive donations. The names of all donors will be "signed" to a full-page Christmas greeting in The Hereford Brand's Christmas issue. The newspaper donates this page annually at no cost to the Medical Auxiliary.

Full details about Project Christmas Card will appear in the Sunday edition.

Auxiliary Discusses Christmas Project

The Toys for Tots project was discussed Monday evening by the Auxiliary to VFW Post #4818 during an informal session in the Rock Clubhouse.

Marie Goheen, auxiliary president, asked all interested members to assist in making doll clothing for the Toys for Tots program. Mrs. Goheen conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Ira Ott, guest speaker, gave a brief summary of proper flag etiquette. She emphasized that the American flag should always be at the right of a speaker during public addresses.

Members present Monday were Frances Parker, Doralee Howell, Erma Myrphye, Rose Goheen, Doris Wilson, Helen Sowell and Marie Goheen.

The Auxiliary's next meeting will be a regular business session on Dec. 3.

Greater Interest In Urban Living Seen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Life in the city may become more attractive than suburban living in the 1980s, a recent study indicates.

The prediction, made by William C. Lichtenfels, president of Emhart Industries Inc., is based on a survey made for his company by seven experts in the fields of architecture, urban planning, sociology, economics, energy planning, electronics and attitude analysis.

The new interest in urban living was attributed mainly to energy, economics and demographics, he said.

Lichtenfels said that while 24 million people added to the population during the '80s would require, minimally, 20 million new homes, the cost of new homes, combined with smaller families, was making the three-bedroom suburban house obsolete.

With the cost of buying and maintaining a single-family home increasing twice as fast as the average family's ability to handle it, only one of four families will be able to buy a house. Unmarried heads of households, plus the 29 million senior citizens in the '80s and the trend toward wives going to work also are strong forces accelerating the move to the city, he said.

Explorer Ferdinand Magellan began his voyage around the globe in 1519.

The Ukraine is the most densely populated of the Soviet republics.

Holiday Party Planned By Ford 4-H Members

Plans for a Christmas party during the month of December were discussed recently by members of Ford 4-H Club during a business meeting in Ford Community Clubhouse. Annabeth Friemel called the meeting to order with 15 members and six guests in attendance.

It was announced that Dec. 8 will be the date of the club's bake sale, to be held at the Hereford Community Center. Also, Robin Conkright presented a brief demonstration concerning the use of an electric blender. Seven club members brought prepared dishes which they planned to enter the County 4-H Food Show. These were sampled by the members and guests.

Guests attending the recent meeting were Agnes Taylor, assistant County Extension agent, her son David, Kelly and Robbie Wells, Kyle Jones and Kevin Hightower.

Members present were Karen and Annabeth Friemel, Kelly Stokesberry, Heather Gee, Leslie Conkright, Bena Bronniman and Sandra Strafass.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Brand Friends,

I have missed our good paper so very much the time I was in hospitals and out-of-town convalescent homes (over four months). I did not realize what a splendid daily paper it was until I was without it so long.

My very best wishes to each of you for a happy Thanksgiving which really is every day in my heart and I hope in yours too.

Cordially,

Dora Garcia Elected State VOCT President

In late September, Miss Dora Garcia of the Hereford Whiteface VOCT Chapter #569 was elected as State Representative from District VI to represent her district at the state level of the Vocational Opportunities Clubs of Texas (VOCT).

This past weekend Miss Garcia, accompanied by her sponsor Jackie Cabbiness, traveled to Wimberly Texas to participate in the State VOCT Leadership Meet. Miss Garcia was then honored by being elected to the position of State President of the Vocational Opportunities Clubs of Texas. This office entitles her to serve on the state advisory committee which consist of representatives of Industry, state staff of the Texas Education Agency, Educators, and Teacher Education Institutions. Also included in this advisory committee are teacher advisors, counselors and the Executive Secretary of the Vocational Opportunities Clubs of Texas.

Miss Garcia will have the opportunity to make suggestions and recommendations for the betterment of the VOCT Clubs across the state of Texas. She will be presiding at the State VOCT Meeting at San Antonio, as well as serving as a representative of VOCT at other youth organization meetings at the district and state level.

Members of the Whiteface Chapter #569 of the Vocational Opportunities Clubs of Texas (VOCT) had their installation of officers for the year 1979-80.

The installation was held at K-Bob's Steak House recently. The newly elected officers were installed by Carmen Aguirre, District VI Sgt.-at-Arms of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Assisting Miss Aguirre was Chris Cardinal, president of Hereford ICT-VICA.

The officers installed were as follows: president Dora Garcia; vice-president Ricky Black; treasurer Frank Cox; reporter Oralia Cuellar; parliamentarian Bernie Dominguez; and Sgt.-at-Arms Gregory Bradford. Acting as advisor for the meeting was Clemente Galvan.

Norman Williams To Speak Nov. 24

The Hereford Texas Chapter of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship will sponsor guest speaker Brother Norman Williams Nov. 24 at 7 p.m. at Dickies Restaurant. In 1977, Brother Norman was among more than 600 persons on two jetliners which collided over the Canary Islands. This was the greatest air tragedy in history up until that time. He is one of the 60 survivors of the crash which claimed more than 600 lives.

"If there is a reason I was spared, I believe it is because I'm at least a voice who will give the glory to God," Brother Norman was quoted in saying. Born in Missouri, he attended the seminary and holds a degree in Theology and Bible. He taught and served as school administrator for 10 years and presently serves as chairman of the Board of a commercial college. He is co-author of "Error at Tenerife" which describes a survivor's viewpoint of the plane collision.

Brother Norman has shared this experience on the 700 Club, PTL Club, as well as scores of other radio, television stations and church services. The public is invited to attend and hear his testimony Saturday, Nov. 24.

WOMAN PILOT'S LIST OF FIRSTS LENGTHY
FRANKFURT, West Germany (AP) — Hanna Reitsch, the world's first woman helicopter pilot who recently died here at age 67, had a number of other firsts to her credit. She was the first pilot to fly a glider over the Alps; the first woman to fly a rocket-propelled plane; the first German woman to attain the rank of flight captain; the first woman to be awarded the Iron Cross; the first woman German National Glider Champion; the first Woman World Helicopter Champion.

The Pine Tree Flag was the first U.S. naval ensign, made at the request of George Washington's military secretary in 1775 to be flown by a fleet of armed schooners.

Ann Landers

Holiday Break

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I heard you speak in Las Vegas in August, and you said you have written seven columns a week for 24 years with never a day off. You also said when you take a vacation, the columns are written before you leave.

Today I'm going to see that you get a real rest. I am sending a clipping of a column that appeared several years ago on Thanksgiving Day. Please run it again, Ann, and put your feet up today.—An Admirer

DEAR ADMIRER: I accept. Here it is! (My feet are up and I'm enjoying every minute of it.)

DEAR ANN: I want to thank you for openly discussing all human problems—homosexuality, masturbation, abortion, infidelity, kinky sex, sadism, shoplifting, teenage pregnancies, venereal disease, alcoholism, medical problems, drug addiction, wife-swapping, child abuse, "funny uncles"—every conceivable aspect of life.

Please don't ever lose sight of the fact that you are the principal source of information for millions of people who are too timid, too unimaginative or too unmotivated to seek help elsewhere.

A whole generation of young people has grown up learning about "life" from reading your column. It would be impossible to calculate the impact you have had on millions of people—not only teenagers but individuals in every age group. You have patched up family fights, caused people to win (and lose) bets, made communication between children and parents easier, sent people to physicians, dentists, counselors and service organizations they would never have known about if it hadn't been for you.

Thank you, Ann Landers, for your terrific sense of humor. There have been days when your column was my laugh for the day. You have a way of being funny without being flip, insulting or hurtful. I have split my sides at some of the things you've written. You have also made me and thousands of others feel that we aren't stupid just because we have to ask someone for advice.

Thank you for having the nerve to call on the busiest and best-informed authorities in medicine, psychiatry and religion to get answers for your readers. Very few of us could reach these people and we certainly couldn't afford to pay them.

Thank you for the encouragement and guidance you've given the alcoholic, the mentally ill, the depressed and the handicapped. Your column has been tremendously supportive to people who secretly worry about themselves, thinking they are the only ones in the world with such "crazy" problems. It's wonderful to know we aren't alone.

Thank you for admitting when you are wrong. It takes a big person to do that.

Thank you for the many miles you travel to all kinds of audiences and for going on TV and discussing openly and honestly some very sensitive issues. This must take a great deal of energy, but it makes your newspaper column so much more meaningful when people can see the woman herself, sincere, warm and outgoing. You are for real. If you weren't you never would have lasted so long.

Have a happy Thanksgiving, Ann. You deserve it!—One Who Loves You

DEAR FRIEND: A good friend once told me that praise, like perfume, should be inhaled and not swallowed. So I'm inhaling your extremely generous letter, and I do thank you.

Community Service Scheduled Tonight

Hereford Ministerial Association will be sponsoring a community Thanksgiving service tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 p.m. in St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Local residents are invited to attend this inter-denominational worship service.

Hereford's Chamber Singers will lead the musical portion of the service. The Rev. Charles Threewit, vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, will present the sermon. Members of the Ministerial Association will process in vestments and they are asked to meet in the designated classroom no later than 7:15 p.m.

A fellowship period, hosted by the women of St. Anthony's parish, will follow in the church-school cafeteria.

Currently serving as president of the Ministerial Association is the Rev. William McReynolds, pastor of First United Methodist Church.

Versatile Cabbage Supplies Many Important Nutrients

AUSTIN—Texas cabbage is grown in several parts of the state and is marketed year-round. A member of the crucifer family, the vegetable is very nutritious with high amounts of Vitamin A, Vitamin C, potassium, calcium and phosphorus. According to Agriculture

Commissioner Reagan V. Brown, Texas cabbage "will compete with cabbage grown anywhere."

Between 30- and 40 domestic varieties are grown in the state, but most growers prefer eight or 10 of these. Production also includes red and crinkly Savoy cabbage.

Most of the round domestic types range in color from dark to pale green. They usually mature in 120 days, though one variety—popular with growers in the Lower Rio Grande Valley—can be harvested in 90-95 days.

Hidalgo County is the biggest cabbage producer in the state. Though freezes in December and January hurt the 1978 winter crop, supplies have been heavy this spring due to extensive replanting.

Some supplies will be available later this year from the Panhandle, West Texas and northeast Texas.

In 1977 Hidalgo county accounted for 7,350 harvested acres, bringing the Valley's total to 9,350 acres affil the statewide total to 14,500. The $48 million harvest was the second largest in the country.

On Indonesia's island of Java, the mythical goddess of the South Seas—Njai Loro Kidul—is so important that a room with a bath is always kept reserved for her in one of the island's best hotels.

DR. ANN BELL
...encouraging oral expression

Inservice Program Presented Recently

Dr. Ann Bell from Northeastern Oklahoma State University presented the inservice program on November 16 to the Title I/Migrant teachers. Included in the presentation was a demonstration during which time she worked with two groups of children in grades 1-6 who attend Tierra Blanca Elementary School.

The Hereford elementary schools have begun a new Title reading program this year which encourages oral language development through discussions coupled with reading and skill building. Each of the Title teachers is extremely cognizant of the need for oral language development in many of our students and deliberately addresses the situation at every opportunity.

Dr. Bell is a strong advocate of the "language experience" approach to reading. She believes that unless children learn to express themselves orally they can never have a meaningful reading experience.

Rose Couple To Call Here On Nov. 30

Square dancers and all other interested persons are invited to attend a square dance at 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 30, as guests of Merry Mixers Club at the Community Center. Dan and Lynn Rose of Pampa will be serving as callers.

Six squares danced on Nov. 16th at the Community center with J.D. Wilbanks of Spearman calling. Homemade pies and coffee were served afterwards.

On Monday night, five squares participated in the workshop at the Community Center with Freddie McKee calling. All Merry Mixers are encouraged to attend the monthly workshops, held on the third Monday evening at the Community Center.

GLASSES DONATED
SHORT HILLS, N.J. (AP) — Last year more than a million pairs of old glasses were donated to New Eyes for the Needy here, a non-profit organization that has been recycling them since 1932.

In addition to distributing reusable glasses to foreign missions, the group recycles old jewelry, gold and silver items. The proceeds are used to establish eye funds in hospitals across the United States.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

History, in retrospect, always seems more exciting, more romantic, and never as devastating as what we are living through at the moment.

Today, all over this nation, families will gather around a table to give thanks. Many will be hard pressed to think of something to be thankful for.

People who settled our land didn't have our problems or our headlines. Or did they? And if they did, what prayers would have come from their lips?

"BOAT PEOPLE LAND AT PLYMOUTH ROCK"

"Thank you, God, for bringing us safely to these shores and for the compassion of these people who today share our food. May we be the beginning of a nation where people who love freedom are made to feel welcome. May we never forget our past nor take for granted our future."

"JAMESTOWN GRIPPED BY WINTER OF SHORTAGES"

"Dear God, give us strength to accept Thy will. The cold has claimed nearly half of our number but in Your infinite mercy You have given us a summer with a harvest that is before us today. Help us to endure the long, cold nights and to never forget that below the crust of snow is life preparing to be born again."

"HUMAN RIGHTS MAJOR THREAT IN AMERICAN COLONIES"

"On this day, look kindly upon all Your people and help us make equality a reality. For those unfortunate people who were transported to this land as indentured servants, release them from bondage so they can be no less than You meant them to be."

"CRITICAL ELECTION NEEDS ATTENTION OF SETTLERS"

"Heavenly Father, without law--Yours and ours--we are a helpless people. Help us to choose wisely for our life depends upon it...what we are and who we are. Guide us to select a man who is wise and decent, but mainly a man with compassion, for that is the basis of all law."

Every Thanksgiving for the last 200 years has brought prayer at the tables of most of us...from the lips or from the heart. Styles change. Surroundings change. But I suspect the hopes are the same.

It's not a perfect land. It never was. But its potential is in our hands. My prayer for this Thanksgiving is to thank God for peace in our time. For the challenges to test our strength. For the children He has allowed me to bear. For the husband who shares my life. And for this country which I love so much.

Somehow as I write those words, I have a feeling they've been said before...maybe on a chilly day in Plymouth Rock by a woman huddled around a table with tears in her eyes.

Stanton Dogie Roundup

Boys and girls basketball practice is in full swing and football is a chapter behind us now. Plans had been made to take basketball team pictures Tuesday of this week, but the coaches needed more time to select the teams...especially the boys' coaches with football just ended. There is a large number of boys and girls out for basketball and it looks as though we have the potential for six good teams.

The three girls' teams will be playing in the Levelland Tournament next week--November 30-Dec. 1. We have not received the boys' schedule at this writing.

One of Stanton's newer clubs, the Future Artists of America Club, is responsible for the Dogie Mascot costume which one of our Dogies has been wearing at the last several games. This is a very welcome attraction at the Pep Rallies and at the games. If you haven't seen this Mascot, plan to be at the next Stanton game, and you'll see him or her (?) helping to cheer our teams to victory. Thanks, Future Artists, for a job well done.

Our band looked quite impressive Tuesday when they had their picture made for the yearbook. This is the first time in several years that we have made the picture in concert formation. They look as good as they sound and they do sound very good. (And we're not even partial.)

The choirs have begun practice on Christmas songs. We will have a concert during the week before Christmas. Stanton has three choirs: seventh grade girls, eighth and ninth grade girls, and a mixed choir. The choirs are under the direction of Douglas Morris.

The ninth grade speech class presented a class play Wednesday entitled "Dress Reversal," under the direction of Carole Robinson. The action of the play took place on a stage during a dress rehearsal and nothing seemed to go right, thus, "Dress Reversal." The cast for the play included: Roy Salinas, Jorge Medina, Brian Taylor, Kirt McDonald, Danny McBride, Edward Swain, Jesse Moreno, Frankie San Miguel and Mike Lafuenté.

The 16 acres of Manhattan Island covered by the United Nations Headquarters is international territory, not under the jurisdiction of the United States.

DR. ANN BELL encouraging oral expression

Inservice Program Presented Recently

Dr. Ann Bell from Northeastern Oklahoma State University presented the inservice program on November 16 to the 100 migrant teachers included in the presentation was a laboratory station during which time she worked with two groups of children in grades 1-5 who attend Terra Blanca Elementary School.

The Hereford elementary schools have begun a new, long reading program this year which encourages oral language development through discussion groups, reading aloud and building. Each of the 100 teachers is extremely conscious of the need for oral language development in many of the students and, naturally, addresses this situation in every opportunity.

TSCRA Issues Resolutions On Brucellosis, Ticks, Predator Control During Laredo Board Meeting

FORT WORTH, Texas — Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association released policy statements in four areas of concern during its quarterly board meeting in Laredo Nov. 9-10, according to John B. Armstrong, TSCRA president from Kingsville. Nearly 400 ranchers and their families, representing 14,000 livestock producers from Texas, Oklahoma and surrounding states, attended the work session.

"The Laredo meeting was one of the most productive and certainly one of the largest in attendance of any quarterly board meeting I can remember," says Don C. King, secretary-general manager headquartered in Fort Worth.

TSCRA developed resolutions on fever ticks, predator control, structure of U.S. agriculture and government regulations. Brucellosis and the controversial government eradication program were also major topics of discussion. Armstrong, who also chairs the Texas Animal Health Commission, reviewed the proposed changes in the Uniform Methods and Rules of the brucellosis program, passed in San Diego at the U.S. Animal Health Association meeting last month. He said TAHC would discuss them in detail at a Nov. 15, meeting in Austin, but expressed doubt about any hearings on the new changes before late January or early February 1979.

TSCRA made the following policy statements:

(1) Asked Environmental Protection Agency to abandon plans for cancellation hearings on 2,4,5-T and Silvex, chemicals used in the control of mesquite, oaks, mixed brush and toxic plants on the range. TSCRA cited a recent EPA study entitled the Scientific Advisory Panel Report, which found no significant hazard to human health or the environment from the use of the two chemicals in question.

(2) Opposes efforts of the federal government and the Department of Interior in particular, to further restrict predator control practices, eliminate all research on compound 1080, or phase out lethal control. TSCRA said these efforts impede the ability of the livestock industry to produce food and fiber at a low cost for the U.S. and global consumers.

(3) Opposes any policy

Double Take?

C.L. Hutson of Hereford found he had to look twice after this Hereford cow dropped twin calves early this week at his farm four miles west and one mile south of Milo Center. Twins are rare among cattle and Hutson expressed concern over this pair of black baldies due to a lack of milk production by their mother. Hutson indicated he'll probably buy a nurse cow for one of the calves or bottle feed one of the duo to weaning size. [Brand photo by Jim Steiert]

changes by the USDA and the federal government that would lead toward "social reform," a loosely-used term. TSCRA said, for punitive taxation, reduction of farm and ranch size and other harshly restrictive controls on what is generally agreed to be "the greatest agricultural system the world has ever known."

(4) Supports recent USDA studies on fever ticks, encourages continued research on the parasite and the rapid implementation of any regulations suggested in the study by USDA and TAHC.

Key speakers for the meeting were Lauren Carlson, president of the National Cattlemen's Association from Chokio, Minn. and John L. Huston, executive director of the Beefers' Forum, from Denver, Colo.

Carlson reviewed the progress and activities of NCA on behalf of the nation's cattlemen and asked for continued support from the rank-and-file members of TSCRA, a state affiliate. Huston explained the purposes of the Beeterendum, a proposed self-help program for ranchers scheduled for a national vote in the spring of 1980. The voluntary check-off program would raise money to fight anti-beef propaganda, expand domestic and foreign beef markets, counter extremes in the cattle marketing cycle, combat beef substitutes and promote the nutritional value of beef.

The cattlemen were given the first public preview demonstration of an electronic marketing system for feeder cattle during the marketing committee meeting, chaired by J.D. Sartwell Sr. of Houston. The trial system, funded by USDA with technical assistance from Texas Department of Agriculture and Texas A&M University, was demonstrated by Dr. Ernest Davis, TAMU livestock marketing economist; Dr. Tom Sporereder, TAMU marketing professor; and Phil Baranowski, systems analyst for TAMU's Data Processing Center.

The system, which will be used to sell cattle in Texas for nine months beginning July 1980, is expected to increase competition, centralize marketing, decrease costs for buyers and sellers and provide instant and complete market news.

Other committee reports were made by J.E. Birdwell II of Lubbock, animal health; Hilmar G. Moore of Richmond, association promotion, Kerry McCan of Victoria, wildlife; John S. Cargile of San Angelo, agricultural research; and Frates Seeligen of San Antonio, land use and the environment, and legislation.

TSCRA will hold its 103rd annual convention and trade show in San Antonio March 9-12, 1980, Armstrong said.

Local TFU Appoints Committee

Members of the Deaf Smith County Farmer's Union appointed a nominating committee and considered a number of resolutions during a meeting here Friday at the Community Center.

Steve Hoffman, Ed Schilling, Frank Bezner Jr. and Tony Hoffman were appointed to the nominating committee to select candidates for county offices in the organization.

An officer election had originally been scheduled for Friday night, but members opted to form the nominating committee and elect officers at a later meeting.

Resolutions dealing with a wide range of agricultural issues were considered and approved during the session.

Resolutions approved at the county meeting will be forwarded to the state Farmer's Union convention set for Jan. 10-12.

Between 1900 and 1972, weather extremes caused agricultural productivity to rise or drop from its normal level in one out of every three years, according to Sperry New Holland.

U.S. farmers planted nearly 80 million acres in corn this year. Other feed grains (oats, barley, sorghum), occupy another 37.7 million acres, according to Sperry New Holland.

The King Ranch in Texas encompasses 800,000 piecemeal acres.

Norman Williams

In 1977, in The Canary Islands, two jumbo jetliners collided, thus causing the greatest air tragedy in history, up until that time. Over 600 persons died in that fiery crash. Norman Williams was aboard one of those jetliners and by the Land of God was miraculously saved from eminent death.

WIFE President Blasts USDA Over Leadership in Gasohol

LUBBOCK — Members of Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) heard their leaders level a blast at the USDA and were informed of the importance of alcohol fuels as an energy alternative during the third National WIFE Convention at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center here over the weekend. In opening remarks at the session, Betty Majors of Osceola, Nebraska, national WIFE president charged that the USDA "is shirking its responsibilities to educate farmers and ranchers as to how they may become energy independent."

Mrs. Majors emphasized the bearing world developments have on the present energy situation.

"Because the USDA has chosen not to accept the responsibility, WIFE is doing all it can to educate both rural and urban people about renewable energy. The Iranian crisis has shown that we must develop alternate energy sources now," she stated.

Mrs. Majors displayed a permit which allowed the organization to operate a working still at the Civic Center for demonstration purposes and commented, "We are the only national farm organization to have a permit to operate our own still."

Highlighting the WIFE convention were presentations on alcohol production. Bob Soleta, a farmer and businessman from Minnesota who heads up the Synthetic Fuels Division of the National Corn Growers Association was one of the featured speakers.

In his presentation, Soleta refuted the argument that producing fuel-grade alcohol from grain will take food away from humans.

"Alcohol plants will extract excess carbohydrates from cereal crops and then concentrate the nutrition. This will eliminate two-thirds of the shipping costs and still provide nutrition of better quality and quantity," Soleta claimed.

"If we can accomplish this, agriculture will become one of the first industries to become energy independent. The true wealth of the nation comes from the land through the production of renewable resources," he continued.

Dr. Lance Crombie, a pioneer in the field of alcohol fuels, distributed plans for various alcohol stills and discussed distillation processes.

Crombie urged WIFE delegates to apply for permits to operate alcohol stills.

ACP Sign-Ups Open Nov. 26

By JOHN FUSTON
Executive Director

1980 ACP SIGN-UP

A sign-up for 1980 ACP practices will be held November 26 through December 7. Limited funds are available and requests for assistance will be approved on a priority basis determined by the County Committee.

COMMUNITY COMMITTEE ELECTIONS:

Ballots will be mailed soon to all known eligible voters. Mark your ballot and return it to the ASCS office by December 3. Ballots will be counted at the county office on December 6.

COMMODITY LOANS

Commodity loans are available through this office at 9 percent interest. This is a fixed interest rate and not subject to change during the loan period. If you are going to borrow some money and still have your 1979 crops, you might want to check into our loan program. The interest rate is a little better than the bank.

GRAIN RESERVE PROGRAM

All 1978 and 1979 wheat, corn, milo and oats currently under CCC loan or eligible for loan may be placed in the farmer owned reserve.

Wheat, corn and oats currently in the reserve are in a release status at this time. Producers may continue to redeem these loans without penalty. Grain sorghum has fallen below the release level.

LOW LEVEL PRODUCTION EVIDENCE

Records for low yield production evidence must be kept separate for each farm. If you feel that your farm is eligible for low yield payments, be sure to report the production and file for disaster payment within 15 days of the date you finish harvesting. If you do not harvest, then we need to look at it before you make any use of the crop, if you want to be eligible for any disaster payment.

WOOL

Producers are reminded that January 31, 1980 is the deadline for filing applications for incentive payments on shorn wool and unshorn lambs. The 1979 marketing year ends on December 31, 1979.

CROP & LIVESTOCK REPORTS

Many Texas farmers and ranchers will be receiving a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop & Livestock Reporting Service. Each person receiving a questionnaire is urged to fill it out carefully and return it promptly. Individual reports are confidential and used only for state and county estimates.

Milk Output Increases 3 Percent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Milk production in October was about 10.1 billion pounds, an increase of 3 percent from the same month last year, says the Agriculture Department.

Production averaged 937 pounds a cow, up 30 pounds from a year earlier, officials said in a monthly report.

Milk output through the first 10 months totaled 103.9 billion pounds, a 1 percent increase from the same period in 1978, the report said.

U.S. farmers planted 71.2 million acres in wheat this year, 71.7 million in soybeans, and 61.3 million in hay, according to Sperry New Holland.

New Cited With Service Award

COLLEGE STATION — Leon New of Lubbock, area agricultural engineer for irrigation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, received the prestigious Texas Superior Service Award in ceremonies at Texas A&M University Friday (Nov. 16).

The award was presented during the Headquarters Staff Conference of the Extension Service. New was cited for "pioneering innovations in irrigation methods and systems which have had a significant impact on crop production in West Texas."

In announcing the award, Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, Extension director, said New has designed, initiated and evaluated more than 70 drip irrigation demonstrations on a wide variety of plants, ranging from fruits to nuts, landscape plants to field crops.

"New serves a 79-county area consisting of about 6.6 million acres with a diversity of irrigated cropland. He has set up demonstrations with center pivot sprinklers, using soil moisture sensing devices to schedule irrigations," Pfannstiel said.

The irrigation specialist also has prepared guidelines to determine irrigation pump efficiency, conducted numerous demonstrations on how to measure pumping efficiencies, and evaluated and published results to help producers conserve energy and reduce pumping costs. Pfannstiel added.

During the 11 years that New has served as an Extension specialist, he has worked with many producers, agribusiness groups and businessmen and has become a nationally recognized authority on irrigation. As a result of his teaching, producers and others have been able to reduce labor and energy costs substantially and conserve water and fuel resources.

New assisted in the development of the ECONOCOT program in the Trans-Pecos area, prompted by high fuel costs for pumping water. The system reduced water requirements and other cost inputs through changes in cotton varieties and modifications of cultural practices.

A registered professional engineer, New has authored or co-authored numerous publications and journal articles relating to irrigation and has also written for the popular agricultural press.

He received his B.S. degree from Texas A&M University and his M.S. from Texas Tech University. Before joining the Extension Service, he was associated with an engineering firm for a year and with Central Power and Light Company for seven years.

Plains Crops, Livestock Valued At $3.4 Billion

LUBBOCK — The value of crops and livestock marketed on the High Plains of Texas and New Mexico last year exceeded $3.4 billion, according to statistics compiled by Water, Inc.

Fed cattle marketings surpassed $2 billion for the first time in history with sales over $2.1 billion. Cotton was the leading money crop with total marketings of $731 million. Then, in the order of total production value, came corn, $293 million; grain sorghum, $180 million and wheat, $91 million.

Those statistics and others are included in the annual Water, Inc., publication "Agricultural Production: West Texas-Eastern New Mexico." Copies of the production booklet are available free by writing Water, Inc., P.O. Box 367, Lubbock, Tex. 79408.

Last year marked the third time in the last six years that the total value of High Plains crops and livestock surpassed $3 billion. The 1978 level was only 0.4 percent below the record high set in 1973.

The value of the four major commodities last year totaled $1.29 billion with irrigation playing a crucial role in reaching that level because of poor moisture in 1978. While slightly more than half of the cropland was irrigated, those irrigated acres and their increased yields were responsible for 77 percent of the market value of the four major crops. Irrigated crops had a value of more than $1 billion while dryland crops were marketed for $295 million.

ICA Head Praises Approval Of Meat Import Legislation

AUSTIN — Passage of the Pickle-Bentsen Meat Import Bill in the House of Representatives was the greatest legislative breakthrough for American cattle producers in many years, said Roy Wheeler of Pleasanton, president of the Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas.

"We cattle producers owe Texas Congressman J.J. 'Jake' Pickle and Texas Sen. Lloyd Bentsen our thanks many times over for their untiring efforts in seeking passage of this bill," said Wheeler. "This Meat Import Bill has been our main objective for five years and is one of the primary reasons we organized. It will amend the 1964 Meat Import Act which has created instability in the market place for producers and consumers alike."

Wheeler praised the delegation which was instrumental in leading the long struggle to pass the Meat Import Bill.

The bill, which passed the House by a vote of 352-48, now goes to President Carter for his signature. Although Carter vetoed a similar bill last year, the present legislation represents a compromise between the Administration and representatives of the cattle industry. Carter has indicated he will sign this legislation.

In its present form, the 1964 Meat Import Act allows more imported meat into the country when domestic production is high, creating instability in the market place, depressed prices for cattlemen and windfall profits on the wholesale and retail level.

The Pickle-Bentsen bill will reverse the boom and bust cycle in the cattle industry by allowing increased imports during periods of high prices and reducing imports periods of depressed prices. This counter-cyclical control of imports will add stability to the cattle market and assure the U.S. consumer high quality beef at reasonable prices, according to Wheeler.

"We are proud of the input we have had in making the passage of the Meat Import Bill possible," said Wheeler. "Our ICA leaders have spent many hours testifying in favor of such legislation and now can see the result of such hard work."

Stock Activity Puzzles Holly

COLORADO SPRINGS — In response to recent inquiries regarding significantly increased volume and price of the Company's stock on the New York Stock Exchange, a spokesman for Holly Sugar Corporation said early this week that it had no information concerning the reasons for recent trading activity.

The company said that it had been advised by counsel for Irwin L. Jacobs, a Holly stockholder, of the mailing by Jacobs on November 9, of an Amendment to Schedule 13D in which Jacobs expressed his dissatisfaction with management of the company and called for its sale or liquidation.

Jacobs stated in his filing that he owns 155,700 shares or 9.8 percent of Holly's outstanding stock, and he also indicated that if market conditions became favorable, he would seriously consider selling his shares in the open market or to a private investor.

Grasshopper Meeting Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says it will hold a public meeting next month in Denver, Colo., to talk about its rangeland grasshopper control program.

Officials said Friday the meeting will be Dec. 4 at the Denver Federal Center and that farmers, ranchers and state, federal and local officials are invited.

An objective will be to gather information to overhaul the grasshopper-control program that is carried out cooperatively by USDA, states and local farmers and ranchers.

Earlier this year, the program involved control on 7.2 million acres in 17 western states to help fight off "the biggest grasshopper population in 40 years," officials said.

CANDIED SWEET POTATOES AND APPLES

- 2 cans (1 lb. 2 oz. each) sweet potatoes, drained
- 2 cups sliced apples
- 1/2 stick (1/4 cup) butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 t. nutmeg, optional

Combine sweet potatoes, apples, butter and sugar in a microwave safe dish. Microwave on high 10-12 minutes, stirring once.

Mrs. Roy Dale Messer (Anna)
719 Seminole
Hereford, Texas

Slice potatoes into 1/2-inch thick pieces. Place on the bottom of a shallow 2-quart glass baking dish. Layer sliced apples over potatoes. Dot with butter. Sprinkle with brown sugar and nutmeg. Cook covered on high 4 minutes. Turn dish. Continue to cook on high for 3-4 minutes or until heated through.

CORN STUFFED ONIONS

- 6 medium onions
- 1 can (12 oz.) whole kernel corn peppers
- 2 tablespoons water
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 t. salt

Dash pepper
1 cup milk
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded American cheese

Peel and hollow out onions; chop centers to make one cup. Fill onion shell with corn; reserve remaining corn. Place stuffed onions in 8x8x2-inch baking dish. Microwave, covered 10 to 12 minutes covered. Turn once; set aside. In a 4-cup measuring cup, micro-cook chopped onion in butter 2 to 3 minutes; stir in flour, salt and pepper. Micro-cook until thickened, about 4 to 5 minutes. Add reserved corn and cheese; return to boiling, about 2 minutes. Spoon sauce over onions. Micro-cook, uncovered, until heated through, about 3 minutes. (If in a hurry, use a can of cream of celery soup instead of making a white sauce.)

BEEF WELLINGTON

3 1/2 to 4 lbs. beef tenderloin
Pastry (See recipe below)
8 oz. liver sausage or liver pate
1 egg, beaten

Place tenderloin on rack in open roasting pan. Do not add water. Roast in a preheated hot oven (425 degrees) allowing a total, depending on size of roast, of 20 to 25 minutes for rare; 25 to 30 minutes for medium.

Remove from oven and let stand for 30 minutes.

Prepare pastry as directed and roll into an 18 by 14 inch rectangle, 1/4 inch thick. Spread pate over surface of pastry. Place the tenderloin lengthwise, top down in middle of pastry. Bring the long side of pastry to overlap on the bottom of the tenderloin; brush with egg to seal. Trim the ends of pastry and fold over; brush with egg to seal.

Transfer pastry-wrapped meat, seam-side down, to baking sheet. Cut decorative shapes from pastry trimmings and arrange on top. Brush top and sides with egg. If desired, check internal temperature with meat thermometer, being sure bulb is centered in thickest part and does not rest in fat. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) for 30 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before carving.

PASTRY FOR BEEF WELLINGTON

3 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup cold water

Sift together flour and salt. Cut in lard to form a fine even crumb. Add water. 1 tablespoon at a time, until dough just holds together. Shape into a ball and roll on a lightly-floured board or pastry cloth.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr.

MEATLOAF

2 lbs. ground stew meat
3 well-beaten eggs
1 teaspoon salt
16 crackers, rolled fine
Combine and bake 1 1/2 hours in 350 degrees oven. Can freeze and slice.

MINIATURE MEAT BALLS

1 pound ground beef
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
24 pretzel sticks

Combine beef, salt, pepper. Shape into balls, using 1 tablespoon ground beef for each ball. Place in shallow baking dish. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes. Insert pretzel stick in each ball. Serve hot with Zippy Sauce. Yield: 24 balls.

ZIPPY SAUCE

1 cup catsup
2 tablespoons prepared horseradish
Combine catsup and prepared horseradish, blending well. Serve hot or cold. Yield: 1 cup.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr.

CANTONESE BEEF

2 pounds boneless beef, cut into 1-inch cubes
3 tablespoons cooking fat
1 small onion, chopped
1 can (11 oz.) mandarin orange slices
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 cup soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon ginger
2 tablespoons corn starch
1/2 cup cold water
1 small green pepper, cut in strips
8 oz. fresh mushrooms, sliced
2 cups sliced celery cabbage (cut diagonally in 1/2-inch pieces, if desired)
1 can (5 to 6 1/2 oz.) water chestnuts, drained and sliced
4 cups cooked rice

Brown beef cubes in cooking fat. Remove beef. Add onion and cook until transparent. Pour off drippings. Drain mandarin orange segments, reserving segments and adding liquid to onion in frying pan. Add beef cubes, 1 1/2 cups water, soy sauce and ginger. Bring to boil. Reduce heat, cover tightly and cook slowly 1 hour and 15 minutes or until beef is tender. Blend cornstarch with cold water. Gradually add cornstarch mixture to meat and cook, stirring constantly until clear and thickened. Add green pepper, mushrooms, celery cabbage and water chestnuts. Cover and cook slowly, 5 to 7 minutes. Fold in mandarin orange segments. Serve over cooked rice. 8 servings.

SOIR CREAM ENCHILADAS

1 pound hamburger
1 onion
1 can Ranch Style Beans
Cheese
Tortillas

1 carton sour cream
1 can green chilies, diced
1 can cream of chicken soup
Brown hamburger and onion in skillet. Add Ranch Style Beans, simmer. Season to taste. Mix sour cream, soup and chilies in bowl; set aside. Fry tortillas. JOE'S SPECIAL

1 pound ground beef
dash garlic salt
2 tablespoons salt
5 or 6 eggs, well beaten
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 pound uncooked, chopped spinach (frozen spinach works perfectly)

Brown meat in skillet or cooking fat, mashing into small bits as it cooks. Season with salt, garlic salt and pepper. Add uncooked, chopped spinach or 1 package frozen spinach and cook just enough to heat thoroughly. Add beaten eggs and cook 3 or 4 minutes longer, mixing all the while, until it sticks together. A perfect meal with French bread and a green salad. Serves 4 to 6.

(This recipe is from "Chuck's On" cookbook and was created by Mrs. James G. Beagle of Bakersfield, Calif.)

RICE MEATLOAF FOR PORCUPINE MEAT BALLS

1 lb. hamburger
1 cup uncooked rice
4 tbl. chopped onion or 1 medium onion.
Salt and pepper to taste

Mix together and form into balls, put into pan leaving room to spread Cover with tomato juice and a small amount of catsup, cover and bake about an hour or until done at 350 degrees. Water may need to be added during baking.

Mrs. Ira Ott

FONDUE BOURGIGNONNE

2 to 2 1/2 lbs. sirloin steak, cut 1-inch thick
Salad oil

Cut sirloin steak into 1-inch cubes. Pour oil in a deep chafing dish or fondue pan to depth of 1 1/2 to 2 inches. (Pan should be no more than half full.) (Place over direct heat on range and bring to 375 degrees. Take pan containing oil to table (using caution) and place over alcohol burner or canned heat to maintain temperature. (If oil cools so it no longer bubbles briskly when meat is added, reheat on range to 375 degrees.)

Spear steak cubes, one at a time, with fondue fork and hold meat in the hot oil until cooked to desired degree of doneness. Cube will be rare in 1 to 2 minutes. Dip each cube in one of accompanying sauces, shown below:

CREAMY GARLIC DIP

1 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
Blend sour cream and garlic salt. Cover lightly and refrigerate until ready to serve. Yield: 1 cup.

MUSTARD-HORSERADISH DIP

1/2 cup prepared mustard
1/2 cup cooked salad dressing
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
Blend mustard, salad dressing and horseradish. Cover tightly and refrigerate until ready to serve. Yield: 1/2 cup.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr.

KING RANCH CASSEPOLE

1 lb. hamburger, browned
1 large onion, chopped
1 can cream of celery soup
1 can mushroom soup
1 can cheddar cheese soup
1 can Mt. Pass tomatoes
1 package Fritos

Drain fat from hamburger. Add no salt. Mix onion to cook with hamburger. Bake until bubbly at 350 degrees.

Mary Kaul

ZIPPY SAUSAGE DIP

2 pounds hot sausage
1 package Good Season's Garlic Dressing Mix
1 large can evaporated milk
2 pounds Velveeta
Cook sausage and crumble finely. Add dressing mix to sausage. Melt velveeta and milk together. Add this to the sausage mixture.
Serve with chips.

HINT: Hamburger may be used instead of sausage.

CRANBERRY PIE

- 2 cups cranberries
- 2 cups sugar
- 2 cups raisins
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 teaspoon butter
- 2 teaspoons vanilla

Cut cranberries in halves and chop raisins. Mix with other ingredients and cook 30 minutes. Cool, pour into pie plates lined with pastry, make lattice tops of thin strips of pastry, and bake from 15 to 20 minutes in a quick oven. If the flour is omitted, the filling may be cooked to the consistency of marmalade and used as a sandwich filling.

COWBOY PIE

1½ pounds ground beef, chuck or neck
4 teaspoons salt
3 medium onions, sliced
2 cups hot water
½ of bell pepper, chopped
¾ cup flour
¾ cup tomato sauce
3 medium potatoes, peeled
Boil potatoes with 1 teaspoon salt, drain dry. Fry sliced onion until brown in fat or butter; set aside. Fry the ground beef in same sauce pan with more fat. Stir while browning to prevent lumping. Cook until rawness disappears. Sift in flour and scrape from bottom of skillet as it browns. When the meat and flour are well browned, add the browned onions. 3 teaspoons salt, chopped bell pepper, tomato sauce and water. Stir rapidly. Simmer about ½ an hour, stirring frequently, adding water if necessary. When done, it should be only slightly thick. Pour into a shallow baking dish. Cover the top with the boiled potatoes, put through a ricer. Sprinkle with paprika and grated cheese, if desired. Bake until well heated, about ½ hour in 400 degree oven. Serves 4.

ZUCCHINI CASSEROLE

4 medium zucchini, sliced 1/2 inch thick
3/4 cup pared and sliced carrots
Water, salted
1/2 cup chopped onion
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
In a medium saucepan, put zucchini and carrots in enough boiling, salted water to cover them.
Cover pan and simmer about 15 minutes, until vegetables are tender. Drain. In a large saucepan, saute onion in 4 tablespoons of the butter or margarine until tender. Stir in 1 1/2 cups of the herbed stuffing mix, cream of chicken soup and sour cream. Gently stir in zucchini.
Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. (175 degrees C). Lightly butter a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Put mixture into casserole. Melt remaining butter or margarine. Toss gently and sprinkle over casserole. Bake 30 to 40 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

HERBED STUFFING MIX

30 slices firm-textured bread, cut in 1/2-inch cubes
1/3 cup cooking oil
3 tablespoons instant minced onion
3 tablespoons parsley flakes
2 teaspoons garlic salt
3/4 teaspoon ground sage
1/2 teaspoon seasoned pepper

Preheat oven to 300 degrees F. (150 degrees C). Put bread cubes in two 13" X 9" baking pans. Toast bread cubes in oven for 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from oven and cool slightly. Stir in oil, onion, parsley flakes, garlic salt, sage and seasoned pepper. Lightly toss bread cubes with seasonings to coat cubes.
Put in a large airtight container. Label. Store in a cool, dry place. Use within 3 to 4 months. Makes about 12 cups of herbed stuffing mix.

The GAS Advantage

Whether you're a beginner still working on the basics of a gas range or a gourmet cook, you will give you a gas range the advantage.
Fast, accurate heat control is the secret of better cooking. A gas range gives you an infinite number of temperature settings, not just a few pre-set push buttons. When you turn on a gas range, the blue flame is there. You can see it and adjust it so you'll always know the amount of heat you are using. You don't have to wait for a gas range to warm up either.
And when you turn it off, the flame and the heat instantly disappear. That's precision control for every phase of range-top cooking.

There are many optional advantages you can get with a gas range, too. Like high-speed infrared smokeless broilers, convection ovens which require no pre-heating, ovens that clean themselves while they cook, and automatic programmed cooking. All these options give you an even greater advantage in the kitchen.

The fact is a gas flame cooks better than an electric coil, and it costs less, too. New gas ranges with pilot-less ignition use up to 30% less gas than models offered just five years ago. And over its average 13-year lifespan, a new gas range will give you significant savings in operating costs. That's to your advantage too.

So whether you're just a beginner or a gourmet cook, put all the advantages of gas cooking to work for you. See your gas appliance dealer.

ALL-BRAN BREAD
 2 packages dry yeast dissolved in 3 cups lukewarm water.
 1/2 cup melted shortening
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 cup All-Bran
 1 tablespoon salt
 7 or 8 cups flour
 Mix all ingredients together. Let rise until dough doubles (about 2 hours). Punch down and put in greased loaf pan. Let rise again until double. Bake one hour at 350 degrees.

BRAN MUFFIN MIX
 2 cups plus 2 tablespoons shortening
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 5 cups flour
 4 cups Kellogg bran
 4 eggs
 2 cups nabisco 100 percent bran
 2 cups boiling water
 1 teaspoon salt
 5 teaspoons soda
 1 quart buttermilk
 Pour boiling water over both brans. Let set while mixing other things. Add flour, milk and bran. Bake in muffin pan at 400 degrees for 18 minutes. This is a large amount, and can be put in larger temperature container and kept for at least 6 weeks in refrigerator, taking out what you want to cook each time. Keep cover on bowl in refrigerator.

BRAN MUFFINS

1 1/2 cups sugar
 2 eggs
 1 cup boiling water
 1 pint Buttermilk
 2 1/2 teaspoons soda
 1/2 cup crisco shortening
 1 cup All Bran
 2 cups Bran Buds
 2 1/2 cups flour
 1 teaspoon salt
 Pour 1 cup boiling water over ALL BRAN. Let cool. Cream sugar, shortening and eggs. Stir in Bran mixture and sifted dry ingredients. Mix well, then add Bran Buds. Stir and mix well, but DO NOT BEAT. Bake 400 degrees 6 to 10 minutes in small muffin tins or 12 to 15 minutes in regular muffin tins. Fill muffin tins only about 1/2 full. Mixture will keep 6 to 7 weeks in refrigerator in sealed container.

DATE MUFFINS
 1 cup dates
 1 teaspoon soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup hot water
 1 1/2 cups flour

PUFF PASTRY
 [Peppercidge Exam type]

1 cup (1/2lb.) butter or oleo
 1 3/4 cups sifted flour
 1/2 cup ice water
 Take out 2 tablespoons of butter and work the remainder until it is pliable (not soft). Roll between wax paper about the size of 8" x 6" x 1/2". Refrigerate one hour or freeze 20 minutes.
 Mix flour and 2 tablespoons butter thoroughly. Gradually add the ice water. It makes a stiff dough. Knead about five minutes. Let rise 10 minutes. Roll dough to 15" x 9" x 1/2" (larger than the butter pattern). Put frozen (cold) butter on top of dough, fold in half and seal the edges. Wrap and chill thoroughly.
 Unwrap and roll dough until it is original size, fold in thirds, turn and fold in thirds again. (It's now in thirds.) Wrap and chill 20 minutes in freezer or one hour in refrigerator.) Repeat this three or four times. It is then ready to make into pies as Peppercidge does it.
 It seems as if there is too much butter, but it does not taste good if the amount is reduced.)

KENTUCKY BUTTER CAKE

3 cups all purpose flour
2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 cup buttermilk
1 cup butter, softened
2 teaspoons vanilla or rum flavoring
4 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
1 to 2 teaspoons vanilla or rum flavoring
Preheat oven to 325-degrees. Use a 12 inch tube pan, lightly greased and floured. In large bowl, combine all ingredients except butter sauce. Blend at low speed until moistened; beat 3 minutes at medium speed. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 60 to 75 minutes until toothpick comes out clean. In small saucepan, combine sugar, water, and butter; heat until butter melts. Remove from heat; add flavoring. Prick hot cake deeply. Pour 1/2 cup butter sauce over cake. Cool upright, for 5 minutes. Turn out; spoon remaining sauce over cake, while hot. Serve with whipped cream.
