Miss Beverly Jacobs of Houston, bride-elect of Joe Mack Angel, was feted Friday morning at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Richard Winget, 211 Ave. J.

Miss Jacobs and Angel are to be married Dec. 23 in Canyon.

Receiving guests during the morning coffee, were the honoree, her mother Mrs. Herman Jacobs of Amarillo, her fiance's mother Mrs. Bill Angel and the hostess. Corsages of white carnations were worn by Miss Jacobs and the two mothers.

Mrs. Wayne Winget poured coffee and hot apple cider from a silver service on the main table, draped in white organdy. Also served to guests were cinnamon rolls, sausage balls and candied walnuts. The centerpiece was an angel figurine holding a large white candle, dressed with carnations, babybreath and burgundy lace streamers. Encircling the arrangement were six small cherub figurines.

Byrdie Dee Fellers presided at the registry and in displaying gifts. Carnations and babybreath were combined with burgundy ribbon in a bud vase at the registry. An angel figurine continued the Christmas theme of decor.

Special guests in attendance were Miss Sue Switzer, who will be Miss Jacobs' Maid of Honor, and Mr. and Mrs. James Angel of Plainview, the uncle and aunt of the future bridegroom.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Winget were Meses. Joe Reinauer, Jap Dickinson, Bartley Dowell, Shirley Garrison, Claude McGowen Jr., Labry Ballard, Manson Waits and Byrdie Fellers.

4-H'ERS GIVE MACHINES A WINTER CHECKUP

Fall and winter is a good time for 4-H'ers to help get farm and lawn machinery into top-notch condition. An ounce of preventive maintenance now can pay big dividends in safety and operating efficiency next spring.

Young people 9-19 in the national 4-H petroleum power program offer these suggestions:

- Clean and adjust the machine; apply a coat of paint if necessary.
- Replace worn or broken parts and sharpen cutting edges.
- Check to see that shields and other safety devices are in place and working properly.

participation: six $1,000 scholarships nationally; an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, for one winner per state; and four medals of honor in each county.

Awards are donated by Amoco Foundation and arranged by the National 4-H Council. Amoco also supports the annual Eastern and Western U.S. 4-H Tractor Operators' and Small Engines Events.

For more information on the 4-H petroleum power program, contact the county Extension office.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

Some of the most lasting relationships in my life have been made while standing in lines.

I met my present gynecologist while waiting in a line at the bank one day. I exchanged recipes with a wonderful woman in a restroom line at the fairgrounds. And I still correspond with Pat, whom I discovered in a line for "Star Wars."

You can't imagine how upset I was to discover that in Florida they have set up rules for people standing in lines. It all came about with the energy crisis and the high cost of heating in the North, which created a real stampede for homes in the Sun Belt.

When a new housing development opened for sales recently, people were standing in line to hand over anywhere from $80,000 to $100,000.

The trouble started when some people hired stand-ins to camp out in line all night for them. So they issued a set of rules for line-standers.

Only blood relatives could act as stand-ins.

Anyone who left the line to freshen up, have a bite to eat, or call his banker, had to sign out and return again in person to reclaim the place in line.

I contend we line-standers can take care of our own. We don't need a lot of rules and regulations.

Once I was in a line to see an old movie classic, starring Orson Welles in "Citizen Kane." When the theatre emptied a man went along the line saying in a loud voice, "ROSEBUD IS THE NAME OF THE SLED!" We knew how to deal with him.

Another time a person tried to get into a line in front of a lot of other people who had been waiting by striking up a conversation with someone near the front of it. We got her out of there in no time flat. (I told Mother, this is no time for nepotism.)

Dedicated line-standers know a fake when they see one. Fainting from heat/hunger/old age just isn't good enough to get you a spot near the entrance.

Lines have become a way of life for Americans. I hate to see them get all tangled up in bureaucracy and red tape. I mean without a code of ethics and standards, we're just your plain, common, ordinary...loiterers.

Ann Landers

Ticket Out of the Ghetto

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm black, a guy and will be 16 years old in two months. I have been waiting for this birthday for quite a while because it will mean I am legally old enough to quit school and get a job.

My pa took off six years ago and we haven't seen him since. Mom works two jobs to keep us four kids going. I'm the oldest. She refuses to go on welfare. My sisters cook and clean, and none of us kids have ever been in trouble. Our religion is important to us and has helped keep us straight.

My grades are good, but I feel I owe it to Mom to get out and make some money. She wants me to stay in school. She told me to write to you, which is why I'm doing it. What do you have to say, Ann?--Should Be A Breadwinner

DEAR SHOULD BE: Education is your ticket out of the ghetto. Don't blow it. Stay in school and go to college if possible.

Unemployment among teenage blacks is very high. You might get a job immediately, but it could fold in a short time and then where would you be?

What you do with the next two to six years of your life will determine what you will be doing 30 years from now. Get as much education as you can, son--you'll never regret it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: We hear a lot these days about how uncaring, selfish and cold people are these days. No longer is there a community spirit or a love of one's fellow man. I'm beginning to think people damn well deserve the shabby treatment they get.

Drivers on the city streets are like animals. No one will give you a break. Shopping is a nightmare. During a sale people act like barbarians. They push, shove and grab garments out of your hands. Yesterday I tried to help a very obese woman onto a bus, and she looked at me and said, "Get your hands off, you creep--I'm no cripple."

Whoever said, "Nice guys finish last," knew what he was talking about. From now on, that's my motto--Fed Up

DEAR FED: Forgive me for being so trite, but it takes all kinds of people to make a world. Sorry you're running into so many of the wrong kind.

Why let the behavior of a few slobbs sour you on the whole human race? I see rude and inconsiderate people around me, too, but I'll be darned if I'll let them make me one of THEM.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What advice do you have for a mature 19-year-old woman, who is planning to marry a man 44? The facts are these: "Bill" will have to pay child support for six more years. He will also have to pay alimony unless his wife remarries. (Slim chance--she's a real dog.)

"Bill" is in sales promotion.

What is the average earning capacity for a man his age in that field? Is it likely to go up, or down?

If his health fails, could he be covered by insurance (taken out now) that would provide for his second family?

DEAR UN: The faint praise with which you damned poor "Bill" in the postscript takes your problem out of the human relations category and puts it into the financial section. For his sake, as well as yours, forget it. Toots.

Alaska and Siberia have the dubious - and surprising distinction of having probably the highest mosquito content per cubic foot of air.

Seahawks Crush Jets As Zorn Sets Records

SEATTLE (AP) — It's as if Jim Zorn and the Seattle Seahawks can't do anything wrong. They're streaking right along with the best of them in the National Football League.

With Zorn setting two more club passing records in the first-ever Monday night game in Seattle, the Seahawks crushed the New York Jets 30-7 for their third straight victory and fifth triumph in six weeks.

"I'm really confident now," said Zorn. "I wouldn't say I'm in any kind of a groove but I feel like when the receiver makes his move, the ball is going to be there."

"He's a pretty effective quarterback," said Jets' Coach Walt Michaels of Zorn.

Coming off a club record 384-yard passing performance against New Orleans, Zorn once again was in command, picking apart the Jets' secondary behind an offensive line that didn't allow him to be sacked once.

He completed 25 of 32 passes for 285 yards and three touchdowns, including 14 straight completions. The 25 completions and 14 straight completions were Seattle club records.

Because of the strength throughout of the American Football Conference, the Seahawks, now 7-6, will have a hard time making the playoffs in their fourth NFL season.

They virtually have to win all three of their remaining regular season games.

"All we can do is play like we have a chance," said Seahawks Coach Jack Patera.

"I've got to give our line and our receivers credit," said Zorn. "Our line really has been blocking well and our receivers have been running great routes."

Zorn's touchdown passes were 14 yards to his favorite target, Steve Largent, in the second quarter, 16 yards to running back Sherman Smith in the third period and 11 yards to Sam McCullum in the third quarter. All came on third-and-10 situations.

The victory gave the Seahawks a 2-0 Monday night record. They won at Atlanta 31-28 four weeks ago.

"It's great any time you win," said Zorn. "but it's even more fun when you win in the only game of the day."

"They (the Jets) play pretty conservatively on defense," Patera said. "They take away the long stuff so you just throw in front of them."

Richard Todd, the Jets' quarterback, was 19 of 36 for 226 yards and drove his team to a touchdown in the third quarter. Kevin Long tallied for New York on a 1-yard run.

Efren Herrera accounted for Seattle's other points on field goals of 49, 45 and 42 yards.

Three Seattle players were injured. Special team member Don Dufek broke a leg, offensive guard Bob Newton left the game with a knee injury and guard Tom Lynch suffered a back injury.

The shot put ball is made of iron and weighs 16 pounds.

Final Week of Contest 36 Vie for Grand Prize Grid Awards

The Hereford Brand's Football Contest, sponsored by local merchants, comes to a close this weekend with two separate contests—for one the "Circle of Winners" and one for the regular weekly prizes.

Thirty-six people have qualified for the Grand Prize Contest by winning cash prizes sometimes during the season. These 36 contestants will vie for grand prizes of $100, $35 and $15 in this week's guessing game. Other entrants who have not won a cash prize this season, will compete for the regular weekly cash prizes of $25, $15 and $10.

Last week's winners were Johnny Galan, who took first place with just three misses, and Jerry Collier and Lela Duggan. Collier took second prize by coming closer to the tiebreaker total score. These were the final three contestants to enter the "Circle of Winners" and become eligible to try for the grand prizes.

Galan missed only the Oklahoma-Nebraska, Oakland-Denver, and Washington-New York games last week. Other contestants who missed just five games last week included: Judy Mitts, Marie Cogdell, Lani Walterscheid, Natividad Torres, Jim McNaney, Bill Sanders, Mal Manchee, Felipe Segura, Linda Ramaekers, Carlton Richardson, Gail Richardson, Joe Bradley, Ricky Klein, L.L. Shultz, David Coakley, Linda Coakley, and A.J. Phillips.

Those who have earned cash prizes during the contests, and are eligible to compete for the grand prizes are:

Whiteface Strategy Session

Hereford Coach Bobby Decker explains the strategy he wants employed in the game during this time-out session at the Pampa game Saturday night. The Whitefaces, looking much improved over the opening-game loss, downed the Pampa team by 65-61 in a close battle. The win evened the Herd record at 1-1 as they travel to Dimmitt tonight. The Whiteface boys and girls host the Hereford Invitational Tournament Thursday through Saturday. It is sponsored by Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Battered Miami Set For Showdown With Pats

By DAN SEWELL
AP Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami Dolphins, battered but rejuvenated, began preparations today for their Thursday night showdown with the New England Patriots.

Don Strock, whose debut as the No. 1 quarterback was interrupted by a head-adding tackle, will start against New England, assuming his head wasn't damaged.

"In the event that Strock is healthy and given the okay to play, then he'll start," Miami Coach Don Shula said. "I felt he did a good job in the quarter he played, he was sharp — his passes were outstanding on that first touchdown drive."

Strock was sent to a neurologist for tests, but was expected to practice today.

"I was so nutty that while I was sitting talking with (Bob) Griese on the bench later, I figured I couldn't possibly be making any sense. So I said, 'If I'm bothering you, Bob, just let me know. He didn't say anything, so I guess I might not have been as goony as I thought,'" Strock recalled.

He said during the game he looked at the scoreboard and saw: "Buffalo 0, New England 0 — Overtime." The score was actually 13-13, before the Bills won on a field goal.

"I kept sniffing the ammonia and oxygen, and I had flashes of brilliance," he said.

Strock hit three of his six passes for 50 yards before Griese, coming off the bench for the first time since his rookie season, directed the victory.

Shula said Strock had the offense running smoothly and "that's the way we're going to go; of course, acknowledging the great effort Griese gave off the bench."

"I think Don deserved the chance to start. It didn't work out Sunday because of the injury, so let's move it on ahead to the next game," Griese said.

Shula decided to give his team Monday off after Sunday's 28-24 victory at Baltimore lifted them back into a tie for the AFC East lead at 8-5. And with many of players slowed by injuries, he plans little physical activity in the next two days.

"It's going to be a problem physically for the players because Sunday's game was so tough physically," he said. "We're going to give them the mental preparation, but with no physical hitting."

"We don't want to leave it out on the practice field," he explained.

The Dolphins have yet to win an "important" game, playing their worst in losses to New England, Houston, Oakland and Cleveland. Their offense has sputtered and they've been beset by injuries.

"We've had a miserable season, but justice is about to prevail," veteran tackle Bob Kuechenberg said. "New England has let us back in the ballgame one time too many. We won't lose again."

Sims Leads Grid Panel

The Brand's "Fearless Forecasters" were inadvertently omitted from last week's sports page, but it probably didn't bother panelists Rick Grossman, Bob Nigh and Speedy Nieman.

Editor Paul Sims has taken an unsurmountable lead in the panel's predictions. Sims has hit 222 out of 312 for the season, giving him a percentage of .712. Nigh is in second place, 11 game back. Sports editor Grossman is 12 games out of five place, while Nieman [last year's champ] is 16 games back.

Sims picked 20 of the 26 games last week to stretch his lead, while Nigh hit on 19, Nieman picked 18 last week, and Grossman got 16 correct.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Football Coach Joe Paterno of Penn State has an outstanding record in opening games.

In the past 14 seasons, Paterno's Nittany Lions have a record of 12-2 in openers. Their latest was a 43-10 victory over Rutgers on Sept. 15. Penn State's last loss in the first game of the season came in 1972 when the Lions dropped a 28-21 decision to Tennessee.

SARATOGA, N.Y. (AP) — Jerry Fishback, a 31-year-old star among steeplechase jockeys, decided on the spur of the moment to retire after riding New Look to a victory in a "jump race" at Saratoga.

"It seemed like the right time," Fishback said. "I was still in one piece. I have plans for the future. And I was able to retire on a winning note."

Talk is cheaper than you think.

How to save up to 60% on Long Distance.

If you're one of those who thinks a Long Distance call is a luxury, read on.

The trick to saving money while keeping in touch with family or friends is knowing when to call, and calling One-Plus.

make a ten-minute call to Atlanta for only $1.55. That's almost worth making a new friend in Atlanta for.

Call between 11 pm and 8 am.

Before you groan about how you can't stay up late or see straight in the morning, think about it.

You'll be saving up to 60%! If you're a night person, you probably don't start counting sheep until after 11 pm anyway. And if you've got friends and family to call out west, it'll be a perfectly civilized 9 or 10 pm when their phone rings. If you like to see the sun rise, and you know folks back east, it'll be an hour later on their end.

Even on weeknights, save up to 35%.

Sometimes you can't wait for the weekend. Or you don't want to. But you can still save plenty Sunday through Friday from 5 pm to 11 pm. Think about what a bargain it is to call someone 1900 miles away, talk it up for ten minutes, and only run a tab of about $2.00. There's just no other way to get close to a faraway friend or relative so quickly, so cheaply.

Call out of state anytime before 8 am and you can talk all day if you want and still save 60%. In-state calls are also greatly reduced. Just remember to dial One-Plus.

On weekdays it's still a bargain.

Here's a surprise. From 8 am to 5 pm, a Long Distance chat still doesn't cost very much. A five minute call out of state, to anywhere in the continental U.S. is only about $2.50 when you dial One-Plus. Think of how good the sound of your voice would be to a friend (not to mention your mother!) right in the middle of the day.

Reach out on the weekend and save up to 60%.

Now this is a stroke of good luck: a really cheap Long Distance phone call just when you may want it most. Call any time between 11 pm Friday and 5 pm Sunday and really save. For instance, dial One-Plus and you can

Herd Edges Pampa; Fems Fall, 51-45

Suarez, Hazelrigg Lead Whitefaces

Ernie Suarez hit four pressure free throws in the final 1:20 of the game to thwart a Pampa comeback try and clinch a 65-61 Hereford victory in non-district basketball action Saturday night at the La Plata gymnasium.

Hereford rolled to a 29-16 halftime lead, but Pampa pulled within five, 44-39, at the end of the third quarter and to within a point, 61-60, with 1:20 remaining in the game.

Suarez twice hit both ends of a one-and-one free-throw situation to boost the Whitefaces to their first victory in two outings this season. Pampa fell to 1-1 with the loss.

Jeff Hazelrigg scored nine points for Hereford in the final four minutes.

The Whitefaces, behind the early scoring of Keith Adams in the first period, led 17-12 at the start of the second quarter. Adams tallied nine points in the first quarter to lead Hereford.

"I was really pleased with the kids," Whiteface Coach Bobby Decker said. "We had a slow third quarter after we played so hard in the first half. I guess we just got a little overcautious, trying to protect our lead."

"In the fourth quarter, Pampa started pulling up on us, but our kids did a good job holding on. Pampa's fourth-quarter press hurt us because of our lack of experience and total workout time against the press."

Suarez led all scorers with 15 points. Hazelrigg added 11 and Joe Walker eight for the winners. Bradford led Pampa with 12 points, followed by Ronnie Faggins and Jim Again with 11 apiece.

Alan Wartes scored 11 points to lead Hereford's junior varsity to a 42-40 win over the Pampa B-team in an earlier contest. Chris Schumacher added eight points for Hereford, now 1-1 for the season.

The Hereford sophomores made it a sweep against visiting Pampa with a 47-29 victory in the season opener.

The sophomores will compete in the Borger Junior Varsity Tournament Thursday through Saturday, while the junior varsity is off this week.

The Whiteface varsity visits Dimmitt, 0-2, tonight, then hosts the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Invitational Basketball Tournament Thursday through Saturday, get 6 pt.

Jeff Hazelrigg [12] scored on this layup shot Saturday night to help Hereford record its first victory of the season in a 65-61 decision over the Pampa Harvesters. Ernie Suarez who scored 15 points, and Hazelrigg with 11, were big factors in holding off the Harvesters in the closing minutes of the contest. Hereford [1-1] travels to Dimmitt tonight for a non-conference game, then returns to host the annual Hereford Tournament Thursday through Saturday.

JV Girls Salvage Victory at Pampa

Hereford's varsity and JV teams split a pair of games with Pampa Saturday night in basketball action.

A total of 32 turnovers proved costly for a still-young varsity team as the fems saw a lead they carried through three quarters dissolve into a 51-45 loss to Pampa.

Hereford held a 24-12 lead at the half, and was still 32-37 going into the fourth quarter, but Coach Larry Sowers saw his charge fall to the turnover plague in the fourth quarter.

"Pampa really came on in the third and fourth quarter. They played a pressing defense and they capitalized on all our turnovers in the second half. We were getting away with the turnovers in the first half. We have a young team and that may be part of the reason for the turnovers, but we can't beat people turning the ball over that many times," commented Sowers.

Cathy Lane, sophomore post-forward paced the Hereford scoring with 12 points while sophomore guard Amy Schumacher bucketed 8 and sophomore forward Lori Albracht came off the bench to pop the nets for 6.

Saturday night's loss gave the girls' varsity a 1-2 record on the season.

In the JV game Saturday, Hereford took a commanding lead in the first quarter and cruised to a 41-20 win over Pampa.

Hereford led 21-11 at the half and carried a 32-11 lead into the fourth quarter, holding the Pampa squad to only two points in the entire third quarter.

Joyce High, sophomore guard, led Hereford scoring with 14.

Junior post Theresa Schilling added 7 points for Hereford.

The win gave the JV a 1-1 mark on the season.

Both the varsity and JV squads will be in action tonight against the Dimmitt Bobbies at 6 p.m. Thursday.

"If we play well without mistakes, we could do okay in the tournament. If we get by Dunbar, we'll probably meet Pampa and I think we can play with them in a rematch. We've got a good chance," stated Sowers.

Following tonight's contest, the Hereford fems will participate in the Hereford Invitational Basketball Tournament, which gets underway Thursday.

The JV squad will see initial action at 9 a.m. Thursday while

Olympic Plan Allows Two Chinese Teams

By GEOFFREY MILLER
LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Lord Killanin has won his longest battle, and the athletes of China are in the Olympic Games at last.

The jolly Irish president of the International Olympic Commission, after years of resistance from conservative members, was given overwhelming backing for his plan to let both parts of China compete in the Games.

Athletes of mainland China may now take part using the name, flag and anthem of the People's Republic. But the politically stubborn Taiwan authorities must abandon the name and flag of the old Republic of China and use a special flag to be approved by the IOC.

Killanin knows now that when the full IOC meets before the Winter Games at Lake Placid in February, he can get rules 64 and 65 changed to fit the situation, if necessary.

In the past, Killanin has failed to break heavy support for Taiwan. Its "champions" have claimed that it always obeyed Olympic rules and that its choice of name and flag and anthem were its own affair.

But at last the IOC has come to see that unless it turns away from its traditional course it might have never ending trouble over Taiwan whenever the Games are held.

The absence of China, the world's most populous country, has been the biggest gap in the IOC's idealistic bid to bring the youth of the world together in sport.

Team entries close Dec. 1, so the Taiwanese have five days to decide whether to send their athletes, — or their lawyers — into action.

COLLEGE
NEW YORK (AP) — Alabama held onto first place in The Associated Press college football poll for the seventh week in a row as Southern Cal inched past Rose Bowl opponent Ohio State into second place.

Alabama, which winds up the regular season against Auburn on Saturday, received 34 of 62 first-place votes and 1,193 1,240 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Southern Cal, which completed a 10-0-1 regular campaign by trouncing UCLA 49-14, jumped from fourth to second with 12 first-place votes and 1,142 points. Big Ten champion Ohio State, which finished 11-0 a week ago, was one point back after receiving 13 first-place votes.

Florida State climbed from fifth to fourth with 997 points followed by Oklahoma, Texas, Nebraska, Arkansas, Brigham Young and Houston.

The Second Ten consists of Pittsburgh, Purdue, Washington, Auburn, Michigan, Tulane, South Carolina, Clemson, Penn State and Baylor.

BASEBALL
NEW YORK (AP) — Third baseman John Castino of the Minnesota Twins and shortstop Alfredo Griffin of the Toronto Blue Jays were named joint winners of the American League Rookie of the Year award, the Baseball Writers Association of America announced.

Castino and Griffin each received seven votes from a 28-member BBWAA committee. It marked the first time the AL rookie balloting ended in a tie. In 1976, Pat Zachry, then with Cincinnati, and Butch Metzger, then with San Diego, tied for the National League award.

IOC members voted by 62-17 to back the plan and Peking already has accepted the plan. Now the national Olympic committee of Taiwan has until Jan. 1, 1980, to swallow its pride and change its name.

No one can guess what Swiss judges might make of the situation if it reached the courts because the IOC is a law unto itself. It is answerable only to itself.

The Olympic committee in Taiwan has screamed defiance, claiming that the IOC's new plan contravenes rules 64 and 65 of the Olympic charter.

These rules spell out quite clearly that every team in the Olympic Games must march behind its national flag in the opening parade, and that its national anthem must be played at the medal presentation ceremonies.

But rule 23 of the charter says: The IOC is the final authority on all questions concerning the Olympic Games and the Olympic movement.

Lawyers might argue that this gives the IOC the right to bend its own rules any time it wants to.

Vinegar won't help

DEAR DR LAMB - I read that taking three teaspoons of vinegar in a cup of water three times a day will reduce the measurements of a person's waist in two or three months.

About the only way it could reduce your waistline measurements would be if you drank water with the three teaspoons of vinegar in it instead of eating foods that provide calories.

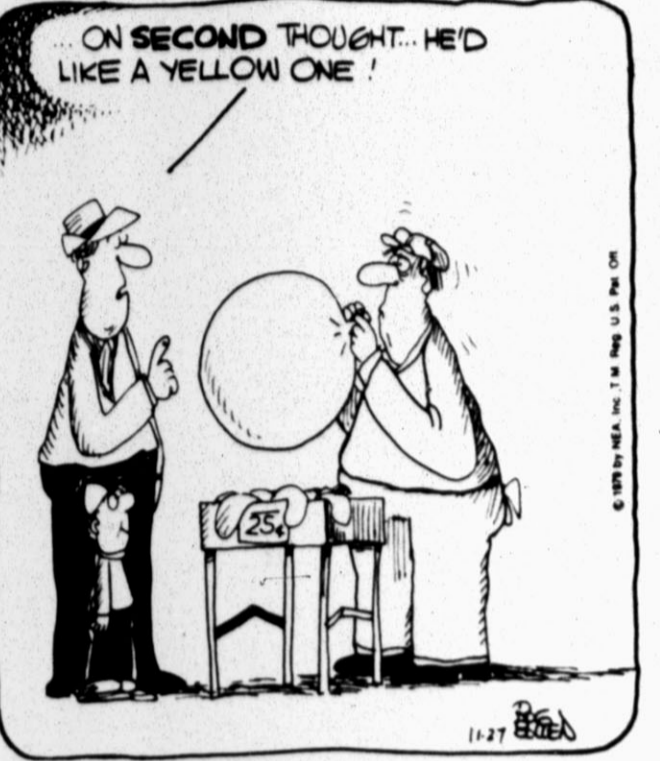

As far as the bowels are concerned, if you don't drink much water or liquids, it might be a minimal aid but, other than that, I don't think you need to expect much in that department either.

The best aid you have in reducing your waistline measurement is weight control, accomplished by proper dieting and sensible exercise.

Warning Signs Given for Family Budget Trouble

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Warning: Your family budget may be headed for trouble. Here are some of the danger signals:

—Delaying payments a little bit each month.
—Charging necessities and little things. Using credit to buy groceries. Or pulling out a piece of plastic for a $5 purchase.

—Paying only the minimum due each month on revolving accounts.

—Using savings to meet current expenses. You should keep an easily usable savings account equal to one or two months of income.

—Letting debts pile up. As a general rule, your monthly installment debt — not counting the mortgage — should equal no more than 20 percent of your monthly take-home pay.

—Regularly writing checks for more than you have in your account, then rushing to the bank a day or two later to deposit money to cover yourself.

Families in trouble can get help from local affiliates of the National Foundation for Consumer Credit, 1819 H St. N.W., Washington, D.C., 20006. The 190 local counseling centers — listed in the white pages of the telephone book under "credit" or "consumer" — work out budgets and help people plan extended debt repayment programs.

Thousands of people from all walks of life are jamming credit counseling centers in a last-ditch attempt to get out from under a personal mountain of debt.

"We've had attorneys. We've had doctors. We've had CPAs. There's nobody exempt from this," said Harry Strain, head of the counseling office in Portland, Ore.

There are 190 nonprofit centers like the one in Portland. They operate under the umbrella of the National Foundation for Consumer Credit and they try to help families who have stretched their budgets as far as they will go.

In 1978, the centers held 114,000 counseling sessions. No figures are available for this year, but Robert Gibson, the director of the Washington-based foundation, said the number of applications has "increased dramatically."

Gibson and other counselors say there are lots of reasons for the increase: Inflation. High fuel bills. The loss of a job. Too many credit cards. An income that doesn't stretch quite as far as you thought it would. The total outstanding consumer installment debt today — not counting mortgages — is over $1,300 for every man, woman and child in the country.

For some people, counseling is enough. A little advice — sell the second car, spend less on non-essentials — is all it takes.

For about half the applicants, however, the problem is more serious. They need debt management programs.

These families are put on strict budgets: no credit cards, no extras. Each month, they set aside a lump sum of money and turn it over to a counselor who, in turn, uses it to pay the bills — a little at a time. The counselor works with creditors to reach an arrangement that will be fair to both sides. People who can afford it pay a small fee, but local businesses often underwrite counseling programs. Once the centers offer them a chance to recover money they otherwise might never collect.

Strain's office in Portland is typical. "We have shown quite an increase in our requests for counseling," he said. "It's a lot of things ... A lot of people have ... gone ahead and spent as they would have ordinarily and that dollar didn't bring what the other dollar did."

Credit cards are the downfall of some, Strain said. "What so many people have not realized is that they use this card as phony money — and it isn't money at all. And they have that day of reckoning."

Gibson said the inflation psychology — buy now before the price goes up and pay for your purchase with cheaper dollars — is dangerous, particularly in an economy as uncertain as today's. "If we do indeed get into an unemployment situation where the percentage of unemployment grows to 8 or 9 or 10 percent, those families ... will have no dollars — cheap or otherwise."

Mayneen Dykstra of the Central Illinois Consumer Credit Counseling Service in Peoria said that a comfortable income is no insurance against debt. "In Peoria, the economy is good. The take-home pay really is good. But I think families believe they can do more with their dollars than what they can actually do ... They've never taken home so much money and they think it'll buy more than what it really does."

A profile of the families in trouble in Peoria in the first six months of this year shows an average annual income of $17,049 and an average outstanding installment debt of $10,627. Both income and debt are about 20 percent higher than they were in 1978.

The 1979 families are older than last year's: The average age of the client is 31 as opposed to 29. They have more creditors: 13 instead of 12. And more are buying homes: 34 percent versus 28 percent.

It takes most families from one to three days to get out of debt, Mrs. Dykstra said. There are few repeaters.

Strain said the transition from red ink to black isn't easy. "It's the first two or three months that's the hardest," he said. All credit cards must go. "We take them and cut them in half and mail them back to their creditors..."

Strain said cooperation from creditors has been "excellent." They are willing to wait for their money; in some cases, they suspend finance charges. "We're dispersing nearly $2 million a year out of this one office to creditors so we've proved it works," he said.

Optimists Not Getting Their Way

NEW YORK (AP) — Those who foresee in the 1980s a re-discovery of old economic values, such as the importance of profits and the necessity of the work ethic, aren't getting much encouragement from events.

There are many such optimists in business and investment life, and some are risking reputations that took years to develop. They reason that the chaos and uncertainty of the 1970s just cannot continue.

Having tried other methods, Americans will return to what works. They will save, thus providing capital for expansion; they will reduce their demands on the marketplace, and prices will tend to stabilize.

Or so it is hoped. Business hates uncertainty, because it adds to existing risks, and so the hope is that with stability the entire economic community will be able to lay out plans and work toward them.

This will not result in a boom, they say; in fact, some look forward to a rather sluggish rate of growth as just the antidote to all the ups and downs of the 1970s. Boom leads to bust; it cannot be tolerated.

Instead, these seers say, America will be satisfied with straightening itself out. We will put our finances in order. The Federal government will cease to grow; the budget finally will be balanced.

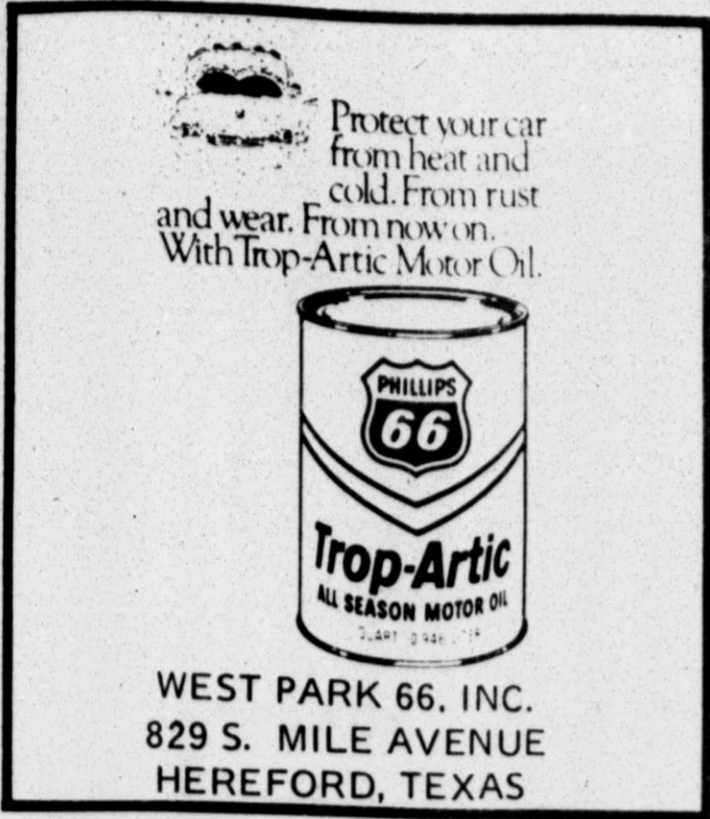

That theme, or something akin, is found in a segment of long-range forecasts now circulated by, among others, an economic consulting firm, several insurers and one of the biggest investment advisers.

Wishes, however, do not command events, and the hoped-for pattern isn't emerging from the loom. As the new decade nears, all the threads are grey and the pattern is one of question, and exclamation marks.

Inflation vies with recession as the No. 1 economic problem. Personal income falls. Interest rates are at all-time highs. Productivity has almost ceased to improve. Oil is scarce. Profit is a dirty word.

The stability that business and consumers seek is nonexistent, either domestically or on the international scene. Geopolitics has become a study in aberration. And forecasting has become nothing but guesswork.
