Murder suspect sought here

A suspect in the murder of a Canyon man found bludgeoned to death in his home Wednesday morning is believed to have spent the day shopping in Hereford before abandoning his vehicle and leaving town on foot, local law authorities report.

Sheriff's deputies, city policemen and Department of Public Safety officers joined the Special Crimes Unit out of Amarillo to continue the search here for Shad Leith, 24, who shared a mobile home with Howard Terry Drake, also 24.

Drake's nude body was found by his mother at about 10:15 a.m. Tuesday. An autopsy at Northwest Texas Hospital will determine whether Drake was beaten to death or shot.

A 1967 Chevrolet truck, believed to have been driven by Leith was impounded Tuesday afternoon after it was spotted at Sugarland Mall. Local lawmen assisted in a stakeout to wait for the driver, however he never appeared.

Fingerprints were taken from the truck, according to a Deaf Smith County deputy.

A spokesman with the Special Crimes Unit said today he could not release any information about fingerprints "or anything else taken out of there."

Giving Leith's description - 6'2", 190 to 200 lbs., brown hair, blue eyes wearing glasses - dispatchers and investigators learned that Leith had been to several stores and car dealerships in Hereford. He was last seen heading west on U.S. 60 on foot. Lawmen believe the man purchased new clothes to change.

Felony theft charges were filed yesterday on Leith for $3,000 reported missing from Mrs. A.J. Drake's home, next door to the two men.

Grocery bills increase slightly

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Grocery bills increased during November after three straight monthly declines, according to an Associated Press marketbasket survey which shows that higher prices for meat and eggs were to blame for much of the jump.

The rise was relatively modest, however - less than one-third of 1 percent - and left prices at the start of December only about 3 percent above the level at the beginning of 1982.

The AP survey covers a randomly select list of 14 food and non-food items. The items were priced in one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973 and have been rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month.

The latest survey showed that the marketbasket bill increased during November at the checklist store in eight cities and decreased in five. Overall, there was an average increase of two-tenths of 1 percent in the marketbasket bills last month.

The marketbasket bill decreased by just under one-tenth of 1 percent in October, by six-tenths of a percent in September and by one one-hundredth of a percent in August.

Looking at prices today compared with those at the start of the year, the AP found that the marketbasket bill has increased at the checklist store in eight cities and has decreased in five. The overall average boost since the start of the year has been 3.2 percent.

Many of the bargains during the fall came at the meat counter, as retailers ran promotional specials to boost meat sales which had been lagging because of generally high prices and recession-weakened consumer demand. Economists had been predicting that the specials would not last because supplies of pork and beef have been declining, and the predictions came true in November.

Meats represented for 21 percent of the items on the AP checklist, but they accounted for 31 percent of the November increases.

Egg prices also rose last month, increasing at the checklist store in seven of the cities surveyed by the AP. The price of a dozen eggs decreased in four cities and was unchanged in two.

No attempt was made to weight the AP survey results according to population density or in terms of what percent of a family's actual grocery outlay each item represents. The day of the week on which the check was made varied depending on the month. Standard brands and sizes or comparable substitutes were used and items temporarily out of

Heart replaced by polyurethane device

Artificial heart implant 'success'

By GEORGE TIBBITTS
Associated Press Writer

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Surgeons removed the failing heart of a 61-year-old man today and implanted a polyurethane device in the first operation to replace a human heart with a permanent mechanical substitute. Doctors called the operation a success.

Barney B. Clark "is being sustained entirely by his new heart," said University of Utah Medical Center spokesman Mark Sands shortly before the operation was completed at 6:35 a.m. MST.

Another spokesman, John Dwan, said he had talked with the head of the surgical team by telephone from the operating room, and the doctor "sounded very tired but very pleased." And the man who developed the heart said he didn't "think it could have gone much better."

Once he recovers, Clark will spend the rest of his life connected by 6-foot-long hoses to an air compressor that sits on a wheeled cart about the size of a shopping cart.

described the attitude of the surgical staff as "cautiously optimistic."

The critical period will come over the next two to three days. "We want to be sure we're not developing pneumonia and that the pump is able to work well," he said.

"Mechanically, it's entirely a success now. This thing is doing what it is supposed to. Beyond that, we have no right to say more."

Surgeons had experienced complications in the later hours of the operation while they were weaning Clark from a heart-lung machine and placing him entirely on the new device, powered by air, said Peterson.

He said Clark suffered swelling from the lungs due to an earlier heart failure and there was bleeding in the chest cavity which Peterson attributed to earlier cortisone treatments. He did not say how the swelling and bleeding complicated the operation.

Clark, a former dentist, was taken off the heart-lung machine at 4:09 a.m. The artificial heart sustaining his life makes a soft clicking sound that is audible through

California cleans up mess, storm trudges past Rockies

By BETSY BROWN KRAFT
Associated Press Writer

A storm that dumped 4 feet of snow in the Rockies, flooding roads and schools, took aim on the northern Plains today while tornadoes and thunderstorms toppled barns in Missouri and Kansas and heavy rain caused floods in Alabama.

At least 15 people were dead or missing in this week's outbreak of violent weather.

In Southern California, 46,700 people were still without power today after heavy wind and rain cut off power to 1.5 million electric customers Tuesday. Crews worked around the clock to clean up thousands of downed trees and secure seaside homes from additional damage from this morning's high tides.

Workers sandbagged levees in Northern California, where a broken dam resulted in $6.5 million damage to the 3,000-acre Venice Tract. More than 8,000 Northern Californians were without power Wednesday night.

In Birmingham, Ala., more than 7 inches of rain flooded streets and forced dozens of families to evacuate. The water was receding late Wednesday, prompting flood warnings for nearby rivers.

The storm had swept in from the Pacific, ripped across California and the northern Southwest, blasted the Colorado Rockies and aimed northeast. Ahead of the storm, warm, moist air caused thunderstorms and tornadoes in the southern Plains, said Hugh Crowther of the National Weather Service in Kansas City, Mo.

In western Missouri and southeastern Kansas, out-of-season tornadoes Wednesday night toppled mobile homes, knocked down barns and killed animals. At least six people were injured. In Barton County, Kan., trees and power lines also were knocked down.

In Liberal, Kan., a house was blown into the road by a tornado, and a woman and three children were injured near Nevada, Mo., when a tornado overturned their mobile home.

Severe thunderstorms also swept across Oklahoma, flooding streets and knocking out power lines. Eastern Oklahoma City reported 1 1/2 inches of rain in 30 minutes and police said "a hard peppery rain that comes down in spurts" hit the town of Waurika.

Cars stalled in flooded streets in Norman, Okla., where 1.73 inches fell Wednesday, most of it in two hours.

As the snowstorm began heading north and east, winter-storm warnings were issued today for the northern Rockies and parts of South Dakota, Montana and Wyoming. Storm watches were posted for parts of North and South Dakota and northwestern Nebraska.

Eleven people had died in the storms since Tuesday.

SIPCO plant draws
2,288 applicants

The opening of the Swift Independent Packing Co. plant in Hereford brought a deluge of applications to the local Texas Employment Commission office.

A total of 2,288 applications have been completed at the TEC office through this morning, it was reported by Lester Rape, office manager.

Although there were only an estimated 200 openings remaining for production workers, the TEC office is still taking applications. About 200 workers have already been employed as the plant started operations Monday.

Rape said the majority of applications were from Hereford. "I would estimate that 300 to 400 applications were from out of town, and most of those from Amarillo," said Rape. A few applications came from out-of-state job seekers.

The Swift personnel officials have already interviewed for second-shift production workers, said Rape, but he assumes they will continue to interview applicants to get the best qualified people.

"We explain to applicants that there are very few openings," but many of them go ahead and fill out applications, said the TEC office manager.

Representatives of the United Food & Commercial Workers Union were on hand Monday to distribute literature about the union. Deaf Smith County sheriff's deputies were at the plant site but reported no problems.

The union organizers reported a meeting would be held "after work" Thursday at Garcia's Restaurant on US-60.

Clements spent biggest bucks

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Gov. Bill Clements spent more than $13 million on his unsuccessful campaign for re-election - more than any previous candidate in Texas history, according to records in the secretary of state's office.

The final tab of $13.1 million for the Republican incumbent's ill-fated effort for a second term amounted to nearly $9 a vote for each of the 1.47 million ballots he got on Nov. 2.

Clements' final campaign report was filed Wednesday, a day before the deadline. It showed he raised $13.3 million, including $3 million in loans.

Gov.-elect Mark White's most recent report, filed seven days before the election, showed the successful Democratic challenger had spent $5.2 million and raised $6.4 million, including a $1.4 million loan.

White's final campaign expense report was expected later today. Candidates have until 5 p.m. to file the reports with the secretary of state. White, the state attorney

starts here with $760

The young Hereford couple has been struggling to make ends meet and to feed three children in recent months. The baby had been on water for two days before she took it to the health clinic last week. The family is not receiving food stamps.

The father was scheduled to start on a fulltime job this week, but there are hospital bills and other payments which will need to be taken care of as soon as possible.

It is for the less-fortunate family such as this case that the Christmas Stocking Fund was launched in Hereford two years ago. Sponsored by an anonymous group of men, the funds are strictly for the needy and the group has a screening committee to make certain this is the case.

At this time, CSF is providing only food and clothes for the truly needy families. The opportunity for Hereford and Deaf Smith County citizens to share with less fortunate neighbors began Sunday and will continue through the holiday season.

The funding drive is now underway and the CSF starts with $760 for the first report. A total of $365 was carried forward from last year in unredeemed certificates.

The Hereford Brand is handling the fund-raising campaign and accepting applications for the needy families. There are no administrative costs deducted from the fund - all contributions are used to help families in the city.

Only monetary donations can be accepted, and checks should be made payable to the Christmas Stocking Fund and sent to Box 673, Hereford, Tx., 79045. Cash contributions, or checks, may be brought to The Brand office at 313 Lee St. Needy persons can only apply at The Brand office - no gifts are being distributed from the newspaper office.

Names of contributors will be published on a regular basis and the total of the contributions will be listed. Persons who wish to remain anonymous should so designate when making their contribution.

Ben Childers is again serving as treasurer of the fund, but persons are asked to send their contributions and requests to the CSF, Box 673.

'Coke' lab found in Garland

DALLAS (AP) - Three Dallas men were jailed today on allegations of smuggling unrefined cocaine from Brazil and processing it in one of the few cocaine laboratories ever discovered in the United States, authorities said.

Federal, state and county officials seized equipment from what they described as "a disassembled cocaine lab" in the Dallas suburb of Garland late Tuesday. The Dallas Morning News reported today.

The equipment was found in a self-storage warehouse, officials said.

"It (the lab) is pretty sophisticated for what we're used to seeing here," said spokesman Larry Hahn of the Drug Enforcement Administration. "It's unusual, and the main reason they do it is the profit margin."

A DEA spokesman in Washington said the seizure marked only the second time officials have uncovered such a lab in the United States.

"The norm is to bring the finished product into this country," spokesman David Hoover said Wednesday. "It's highly unusual. I can only think of one other instance where a laboratory was set

Rabies confirmed in Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — A wild rat captured at a southside residence last week had rabies, the first confirmed case of the dreaded disease here in the past 15 years and only the second documented case of its type, authorities said.

The rodent bit a man who was working on his house, according to Dr. Larry Magnuson of the city-county health department.

"A fellow who was installing a light in his garage had a rat fall through his ceiling," Magnuson said Wednesday. "He grabbed it and it bit him. He brought the rat in to be examined and it was found to have rabies."

The rabies diagnosis was made by the State Health Department was confirmed by the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, according to Magnuson.

The man is undergoing a two-week series of anti-rabies shots, Magnuson said.

Dr. Kenneth Bernard of the CDC said finding a rabid rat is rare. One rat with rabies was found in South Carolina in 1980, he said.

"I don't know why rodents don't get rabies," he said. "It's just not part of their cycle, although they can be infected in a lab."

Another CDC doctor, George Baer, said there had not been any documented cases of rabies in wild rats prior to the 1980 case.

Bernard said that less than .08 percent of rodents examined have rabies. The CDC almost never recommends anti-rabies vaccinations for people bitten by rodents, he said.

Rat traps were being set in residential areas here, according to Tex Villarreal, director of vector control for the city-county health department.

Plainview farmer ousts incumbent

DALLAS (AP) — S.M. True Jr., a Plainview cotton, soybean and feed grain farmer, won the presidency of the Texas Farm Bureau by ousting incumbent president Carrol G. Chaloupka of Dalhart.

True, who has been elected to the TFB board in 1975, received the nod Wednesday during the organization's convention.

Chaloupka has served as the group's president for the past eight years.

Wayne Cranfill of Hooks was elected vice president and George White was selected as secretary-treasurer.

About 1,400 delegates also completed consideration of state-related resolutions as the meeting closed Wednesday, taking a hard-line stance on water rights issues and drunken driving punishments.

The delegates supported a resolution stating that "under no circumstances" should land owners be restricted in the use of water under their land, or charged a fee for the usage.

The delegates also opposed any law charging landowners for using water on their own property, and state opposition to agrarian reforms and land-use planning.

On Tuesday, the delegates endorsed banning open containers of alcoholic beverages in motor vehicles, raising the drinking age from 19 to 21, and requiring first-time drunken driving offenders to serve at least 50 percent of their sentences.

Unemployment benefit claims pile up

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The end of a term and illness leaves only one of three Texas employment commissioners on the job, and since he can't act alone, unemployment benefit claims are being held up at the rate of 225 a week.

"We're a week behind, and we'll be two weeks behind by the end of this week — about 450," Commissioner Kenneth Clapp said Wednesday.

Former chairman Nolan Ward's term expired Nov. 20, and Clapp said Ward chose to open a law practice rather than stay on the commission until Gov. Bill Clements appoints his successor.

Commissioner Richard Mellado had a heart attack during the commission's Nov. 9 meeting and has not returned to work.

Clapp said he had heard Clements was on the verge of appointing a new commissioner, but the governor's press secretary, Jon Ford, said Clements is not even scheduled to meet with staffers who screen appointments until next Wednesday.

Ford also mentioned that possible appointees might not be too anxious to accept a position in view of recent Senate opposition to late-hour gubernatorial appointments.

Clements, who was defeated in November, goes out of office next month.

TDA settles issues over insurance claims

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Dental Association said Wednesday the Federal Trade Commission has issued an order settling a four-year-old complaint over guidelines for filing dental insurance claims.

The association said the order allows dentists to deal with dental insurance carriers in a way in which they feel is in the best interest of their patients.

The original complaint charged that the association had developed guidelines telling dentists to refuse to send radiographs (X-rays) to insurance companies.

Puerto Rico dumps food stamps, prefers cash

Puerto Rico is a "commonwealth," is much a part of the United States. Yet, the people of Puerto Rico enjoy a unique constitutional relationship; its residents pay no federal income tax. Puerto Rico was once considered "the poorhouse of the Caribbean."

Then, under Governor Luis Munoz Marin, incentives offered to United States manufacturers encouraged many to relocate plants on the island. During the '50s and '60s Puerto Rico enjoyed a measure of prosperity. That has spent itself. Poverty in Puerto Rico is again widespread. Unemployment, 23 percent, is more than double the mainland rate. This has encouraged a sustained tide of emigration to the States. And more than half of all Puerto Ricans remaining in Puerto Rico, 56 percent, are on food stamps. Supplying these food stamps has cost United States taxpayers more than a billion dollars a year. More significant is the fact that this easy source of mainland food discouraged small-scale farming in Puerto Rico. Further, food stamps could be used to buy almost anything. It was obvious that food stamps were undermining the initiative of the people, the people became "addicted" to them. So now, to try to counter that addiction, present Governor Carlos Romero Barcelo says Puerto Ricans will be given cash instead of stamps. I don't know if there's anything the rest of us can learn from the experience of Puerto Rico, but let's try.

Violence soars on freeway

HOUSTON (AP) — A motorist in an orange Cadillac drives along the Southwest Freeway, swerving dangerously close to other cars to try to force them off the road.

An off-duty police officer riding a motorcycle on the North Freeway was motioned to the roadside. An irate motorist pulled a pistol, fired four times into the gas tank and then told the officer he didn't like motorcycles.

A truck driver recently was in such a hurry to get somewhere that he deliberately rammed a car traveling the 55-mph speed limit. Seconds later another car in another lane was rammed from behind by another 18-wheeler.

The incidents were among innumerable other cases of freeway violence reported to police this year. In fact, police estimate, fights, assaults and shootings on this city's heavily traveled freeways have increased up to 400 percent in less than one year.

general, received 1,697,527 votes, defeating Clements, the first Republican governor in Texas in 104 years, by 231,575, according to unofficial final returns.

The governor's final report left Clements, the wealthy founder of an oil drilling equipment company, as the second-highest spender among gubernatorial candidates in the nation's history.

Louis Lehrman, another Republican loser in November, spent $13.9 million in his bid to become governor of New York. Lehrman, former president of a drug store chain, took out $9.6 million in loans for the campaign.

Democrat Mario Cuomo, who beat Lehrman by 170,000 votes out of 5.1 million cast, spent $4.8 million and wound up with a campaign surplus of $1.2 million.

The pioneering operation was originally planned for this morning, but doctors rushed the patient to the operating table Wednesday night when his condition deteriorated rapidly, officials said.

up in this country, and that was in New Mexico a couple of years ago." The chief suspect, described as a 51-year-old Brazilian native, was arrested about 2:45 p.m. Tuesday in the parking lot of an apartment house after he allegedly sold one pound of cocaine to an undercover police officer, investigators said.

Police said the man "had a very big business, a very profitable business" that catered to clientele in the "high social scene" in Dallas. The News reported. A Richardson woman also was arrested Tuesday by police, who said she acted as a lookout during a drug transaction.

The man was ordered jailed by a federal magistrate in lieu of $500,000 bond and the 23-year-old woman was being held on $50,000 bond, authorities said. Two other men, ages 36 and 23, were being held on allegations they sold 2½ grams of cocaine to the woman. The 36-year-old man was jailed in lieu of $100,000 bond, while bond for the other man was set at $75,000.

Wood trial winding down

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A surprise alibi witness for the man accused of killing a federal judge may signal the beginning of the end of a trial so long one lawyer once joked prosecutors may have decided to let defendants serve any sentence in the courtroom.

Defense attorney Tom Sharpe Jr. appeared close today to resting his case after calling 20 witnesses over 12 days in an effort to bolster Charles Harrelson's contention he was in Dallas during the morning U.S. District Judge John H. Wood Jr. was assassinated in San Antonio.

Attorneys for co-defendants Jo Ann Harrelson and Elizabeth Chagra indicated they possibly could present their cases before the weekend. However, the government — which called 83 witnesses and introduced 281 exhibits during its 23 days of testimony — still will get a chance to counter defense testimony with rebuttal witnesses.

It appeared that the jury, which attorneys began selecting on Sept. 23, may not begin deliberations before sometime next week. Harrelson, 44, is accused of killing Wood on May 29, 1979, for a $250,000 payoff from Jamiel "Jimmy" Chagra. Harrelson Wednesday end-who is serving 30 years without parole for his conviction on a drug charge that had been set for trial before Wood. Both co-defendants, who are the wives of Harrelson and Chagra, are accused of conspiring to obstruct Justice Mrs. Chagra, 28, also is charged with plotting to kill Wood. Chagra, 39, will be tried later for murder. Attorney Charles Campion, representing Mrs. Harrelson, indicates his defense may last no longer than a half day, while Warren Burnett, Mrs. Chagra's lawyer, said his defense may last two days.

Campion Wednesday would not comment on whether Mrs. Harrelson, charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice, would testify in her own defense. Burnett told the jury in his opening statement that Mrs. Chagra will testify. Campion's and Burnett's roles in the trial have been minor so far, with testimony concerning Harrelson taking most of the time.

Burnett has wandered from the courtroom during some of the routine testimony and once jokingly remarked the government may have decided to have the defendants serve their sentences right in the courtroom. Harrelson Wednesday ended 33 hours of testimony over seven days, contending that he was in Dallas at the time Wood was shot with a high-powered rifle outside his San Antonio townhome. Next, the defense called the latest alibi witness, Plano, Texas, sunglasses dealer and gambler Richard Thomas. He told the jury he knocked at Harrelson's Dallas apartment between 8:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. the day of the killing and Harrelson answered the door. However, on cross-examination by prosecutor John Emerson, Thomas admitted he gave several previous statements that the incident could have happened anytime from 9 a.m. to "evening" of that day.

During his testimony, Harrelson weaved for the jury a complicated scenario which closely paralleled the government's theory that he was "stalking" Wood for two weeks prior to the fatal shooting. But Harrelson said he was only involved in a "scam" with his longtime friend, George Edward "Pete" Kay, to fleece Chagra out of money by falsely claiming credit for the Wood slaying.

When elected president of Westway Extension Homemakers Club recently Nancy Nixon took it all in stride. Besides working full-time as a legal secretary, she is also involved in several other organizations.

Nancy is administrative assistant to Judge David Wesley Gulley, setting jury dockets, handling correspondence with lawyers in Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties, and working closely with the District Clerk's office.

She has been a legal secretary for five years, working for a criminal lawyer in Decatur, where she moved from in 1979, and then in the Witherspoon-Aikin & Langley law office for two years.

Her husband, Loran, is employed at Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative Inc. as Operations Manager.

Their children are Beverly, a junior pre-med major at West Texas State University; Pam, a senior at Hereford High School; and Lori, a seventh grader at Stanton Junior High.

Nancy taught kindergarten in El Paso several years before beginning her work as a legal secretary. She attended the University of Texas at Arlington and UT at El Paso, and has her kindergarten endorsement.

The Westway Extension Club is made up of women from Hereford and from the Westway Community, says Nancy, where the club was originally started. "Many of the women work," she continues, "so we meet once a month in the evenings."

Nancy has been involved in the club for about two years, and has also served as vice-president. The club is sponsoring its annual Country Christmas Bazaar, the main money-making project of the year, this Saturday at the Community Center, and club members have been busy planning the event.

Related to her profession Nancy is a member of the Deaf Smith-Castro Counties Legal Secretaries Association, which meets every second Tuesday.

She has just finished compiling information to become a member of the local chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, an organization which promotes citizenship and sponsors an American history essay contest in the schools each year.

In order to be a member of DAR, you must have had an ancestor who fought in the American Revolution," says Nancy. "The ancestor I traced back about 9 or 10 generations was Samuel Auvenshine. It's really been interesting working on it."

As a family, Nancy says they all like to snow ski. They attend First Baptist Church. Loran is training two Weimariners for hunting dogs and hopes to breed them. "He likes to go pheasant hunting, and we really like to eat it," comments Nancy.

A good recipe, which Nancy wants to share with others whose husbands will soon be bringing home pheasants, is printed below.

"The chicken-asparagus casserole is from a Dallas Cowboys Cookbook," says Nancy, "and the mincemeat pudding was my grandmother's recipe which she made every year for the holidays."

PHEASANT WITH WILD RICE STUFFING

- 2 stalks celery, cut in 2-inch pieces
- 3 lb. ready-to-cook pheasant
- 2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
- 3/4 c. diced celery
- 1/2 c. chopped onion
- 2 Tbsp. chopped parsley
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 3/4 tsp. rosemary (optional)
- 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
- 1 1/2 c. cooked wild rice
- 1 can (10 oz.) condensed cream of mushroom or chicken soup
- 1/4 c. sauteur or milk

Place celery pieces in bottom of crock-pot as "flavor rack" for pheasant. Rinse pheasant and pat dry with paper towel.

In medium skillet, melt butter and saute diced celery, onion and parsley until lightly browned (about 10 minutes). Add remaining ingredients, except soup and sauteur or milk. Mix together thoroughly.

Spoon stuffing lightly into neck and cavity of pheasant. Truss pheasant with skewers. Place bird with breast down on celery pieces in crock-pot. Pour in soup which has been mixed with sauteur or milk.

Cover and cook on low for 6 to 8 hours. (High: 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 hours.)

Remove pheasant carefully with metal spatula to serving platter. Serve with sauce poured over roast pheasant and rice.

MIKE DITKA'S CHICKEN-ASPARAGUS CASSEROLE

- 3 pkg. frozen or fresh asparagus
- 6 chicken breasts, cooked
- 3 cans condensed cream of chicken soup
- 1 1/2 c. mayonnaise
- 2 tsp. lemon juice
- 6 Tbsp. cooking sherry (or more)
- 3/4 c. sharp cheddar cheese, shredded
- 3/4 c. soft bread crumbs
- 2 Tbsp. melted butter

Arrange cooked asparagus in 9X13 inch pan, or in large flat casserole. Cut chicken in large bite-size pieces and place over asparagus. Mix together soup, mayonnaise, lemon juice and sherry; pour over asparagus and chicken. Sprinkle with cheese; then

- crumbs, and drizzle melted butter over top.
 - Bake (covered) at 350 degrees about one hour, until bubbly and hot. Serves eight.
- MINCE MEAT PUDDING
- Mix:
- 1 pkg. mincemeat
 - 1 c. boiling water
 - 2 c. bread crumbs
- Add:
- 1 tsp. soda
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 1/2 c. sugar
 - 1 c. chopped pecans
 - 1 tsp. vanilla
- Put in greased baking pan and bake 30 minutes in slow oven. Serve with whipped cream.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

One of our sons is a teacher. The other night he was on the phone with a contemporary when I heard him say, "Only my parents."

When he hung up, I said, "What's up?" He said, "Steve said his class was having nostalgia day and wanted to know if we had anything old hanging around from the '50s and I said..."

I wish I hadn't asked. I'll never figure out why this generation has been so intrigued with the '50s. It was a nothing decade style-wise. Men spent their entire time buttoning and unbuttoning those miserable double-breasted suits. Women dragged around in Dior length skirts looking like Russian street cleaners, and in 10 years I never saw anyone who looked like John Travolta in "Grease."

What you saw in the '50s wasn't unique. What we were was. Morality-wise, we were Neanderthal compared to today's youth.

You want nostalgia? Play this on your components. Girls never called guys. Ever. If they did and their mothers answered the phone, they hung up on you and said "What kind of girl calls a boy?"

When you left the house in the morning for school, you spent the whole day there. If you didn't a teacher checked on you every period and before you got home, your mother received a phone call.

Mothers were home to receive the phone calls. No one knows what they did all day, but you never had to have a door key to get in and they always nagged at you not to put your books on the kitchen counter or something awful would happen to you.

Television was just getting into the home in the '50s and not all homes had them. Those that did had sets that were dinky and usually two men sat about six inches from them on a piano bench to watch a televised game while the rest of the room talked.

In the movies everyone who was married slept in twin beds. When men set on the edge of the bed and kissed their wives, one foot had to remain on the floor.

Not only did kids not call their parents by their first name, most of them didn't even know the name.

It must seem like a weird period to today's youth: License plates didn't spell out anything, clothes didn't have labels on the outside and parental discretion hadn't been invented yet.

Don't laugh. In 30 years, you'll be nostalgic.

The brown Indian muntjac, or barking deer, is said to bark like a dog. The buck is 30 inches tall and has two-tined antlers, about four inches long.

Legion Auxiliary to sponsor bake sale

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary are busy making preparations for their Christmas activities. Saturday the group will sponsor a bake sale in Sugarland Mall. Members have been contacted for a contribution to be sold and to assist with the sale.

The booth will be ready by 10 a.m. and will be located in front of the M.E. Moses store. Money derived from the sale will be used for many community projects.

On Sunday afternoon a gift shop will be set up in the V.A. Medical Center in Amarillo for the convenience of the patients. The gifts are all donated by auxiliaries and other interested people and groups.

The gifts are free to the patients, and are sent to their families. The gift shop will be open to the patients Monday and Tuesday Dec. 6-7.

Members who can help with this project are asked to call Beverly Jesko, Department Hospital Representative.

Santa's Helpers

Members of Boy Scout Troop 52 will trim the community Christmas tree Monday evening at the tree lighting ceremony with decorations they have made. The event, which is sponsored by the Women's Division, will begin at 7 p.m. on the lawn of the Courthouse and will feature special music, a bell choir performance and a visit by Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. From left are scouts Steven Sims, Shawn Moore, and Cody Wilson.

Lodge charter draped in memory of international past president

In memory of Mrytle Russel, past president of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, the lodge charter was draped by members of Hereford Rebekah Lodge No. 228 Tuesday evening.

Ms. Russel has served in all elective offices of I.A.R.A. except secretary, and was a past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas. Presenting the service were Helen Bishop, Lavita Fitzgerald, Verna Sowell, Lydia Hopson, and Susie Curtsinger.

Twenty-one members were present as Noble Grand Sadie Shaw presided over the regular business meeting. Second nominations for new officers were held. A donation was voted for two new Theto Rho Clubs which have been chartered in Texas.

The garage sale was discussed, which is scheduled Friday and Saturday at 1.0.0.F. Hall. Baked and canned goods will be for sale along with a variety of other items.

Dorothy Lundry was hostess to Edna Mathes, Faye Brownlow, David Rettman, Irene Merritt, Karrol Rettman, Roberta Combs, Gene Bishop, Nellie Beauford, Billie Sims, Glessie Shelton, Ada Hollabaugh, Fred Ruland, Peggy Lemons, Kee Ruland, and Mmes. Shaw, Bishop,

Secretary authorizes full investigation

BROWNSBORO, Texas (AP) — U.S. Interior Secretary James Watt has authorized federal officials to spend what they need for a thorough investigation into the starvation deaths of at least 38 horses "adopted" by an East Texas rancher, a spokesman said.

John Gumert of the Bureau of Land Management also said authorities are checking out tips placing some of the missing mustangs are as far away as Missouri.

"Certainly (the federal horses) are not all accounted for," Gumert said Wednesday.

Investigators believe some of the carcasses may have rotted away or may be hidden by underbrush, Gumert said.

B.L.M. officials said 38 horses are confirmed dead.

Meanwhile, a ranch sheltering 150 of the surviving, but malnourished horses has been flooded with offers to adopt the mustangs, but the ranch director says the mustangs won't be up for adoption for some time.

"The response has been tremendous," Black Beauty Ranch director Jerry Owen said. "The phone has been ringing from daylight until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning."

Last week, officials discovered the remains of about 30 dead horses and more than 150 other horses that appeared to be starving. A lost deer hunter reported finding the carcasses in an overgrazed pasture about three miles east of Pittsburg.

"It will be a while before these horses are ready for adoption," Owens told The Dallas Morning News. "But we can use donations of hay and money to care for them."

About 170 horses from Nevada had been adopted under a federal program intended to save wild mustangs from starvation, officials said.

Four West Texas teams still in playoffs

BY LES GILES
Sports Editor

As the schoolboy playoffs head into the quarterfinal round, only eight teams which reached that point a year ago are back this time around.

At this point, only Bremond, in Class 1A, has a chance to repeat as state champion.

And, the odds of a rematch pitting Bremond against Wink for the crown, appear pretty good.

Pilot Point's hopes of defending its Class 2A crown were shattered last weekend when Eastland came away with a 21-20 victory.

Cameron, last year's 3A state champion, bowed out two weeks ago when Waller came away with a 19-7 victory.

In 4A, Brownwood (the defending champion) was eliminated two weeks ago by Gainesville.

And, in 5A, Lake Highlands didn't even make the playoffs this year.

Teams that reached the quarterfinals last year that are still alive this season include San Antonio Churchill in 5A, Fort Bend Willowridge in 4A, Littlefield in 3A, Hale Center and Eastland in 2A and Wink, Italy and Bremond in 1A.

Churchill lost in the semifinals a year ago, while Willowridge reached the championship round.

Littlefield has seen its season end in the quarterfinals the past two years - losing to Stamford in 1980 and to Kermit last year. The Wildcats get another chance at Stamford this weekend.

Hale Center, which plays Shallowater this week, beat Hamlin last year in the quarterfinals, only to lose to Pilot Point the following week.

Only one Panhandle-area team is still in the playoffs - Follett in 1A. This week, Follett meets Knox City, which eliminated Vega last weekend.

THE HEREFORD BRAND SPORTS

Page 4-The Hereford Brand-Thurs. Dec. 2, 1982

Odessa Permian saw a 41-game non-losing streak come to an end last week when Eules Trinity came away with a 8-7 victory.

That sets up a rematch of teams from the same district in this weekend's quarterfinals when Trinity meets Hurst Bell.

During the regular season, Hurst Bell won to claim the district championship. Trinity got in the playoffs as the league's runner-up.

The two other games this weekend pit teams from the same district - Waco Robinson vs. McGregor in 3A and Bremond vs. Granger in 1A.

Last week's Harris Rating System poll correctly guessed 28 of 35 games for 80 percent. In the 5A games, Harris was 5-3; it was 4-0 in 4A matchups; 6-1 in 3A games, 8-0 in 2A contests and 5-3 in 1A games.

Five of last week's games were rated as toss-ups, so they weren't counted right, or wrong.

Follett staged the biggest upset, according to the point spread. Motley County was a 17-point favorite.

Permian, which Harris earlier this season said was "the best team in the history of the state," had been favored by 7 points.

Post, the top-ranked team in 3A all season long, was a 9-point pick over Stamford, but lost in the final moments 18-14.

If this week's Harris guesses are correct, Eules Trinity, Plano, Dickinson and San Antonio Churchill will advance to the semifinals in 5A; Cleburne, Corsicana, Willowridge and New Braunfels will reach the final four in 4A; Stamford, McGregor, Waller and Refugio will become semifinalists in 3A; Shallowater, Eastland, Grand Saline and East Bernard will move to the 2A semis and Knox City, Roscoe, Union Hill and Bremond will advance in 1A.

Seven WTSU team records fell during the 1982 season, as well as 17 individual records which were either tied, or broken.

The Buffs finished the season as the top passing team in the country for Division 1-AA, averaging 313.7 yards a game - well ahead of Columbia, which averaged 305.9 per game. WTSU was fifth in total offense (393.3), finishing well back of No. 1 Drake (444.8).

Quarterback Vic McGee completed the season fourth in total offense (293.7). Brent Woods of Princeton was first at 307.9. McGee was 21st in passing efficiency with a 120.5 rating.

Tight end Mark Manley ranked 9th nationally in receptions per game (5.2) as he caught 57 in 11 games. Manley, by the way, needed one more catch to tie the single season mark of 58 set by Dave Szymakowski in 1966.

If either Curtis Bennett or Earl Wilson had caught one more TD pass they would have set a single season mark in that category.

Manley wound up one punt shy of the season record of 65 set by Carl Birdsong (presently the punter of the ST. Louis Cardinals) in 1978.

As a team, the Buffs ran 807 total plays, one short of the record set in 1980.

The following team records were either broken or tied this past season:

Passes attempted - 486 (previous record was 309 in 1966).

Passes completed - 253 (174, 1966).

Net Yards passing - 3,451 (2,328 in 1966).

First Downs passing - 142 (107 in 1966).

Total first downs - 214 (tied, 1977).

Most points scored by opponents in a season 367 (297 in 1978).

Paul Bell wound up the club's leading rusher with 347 yards on 80 carries. The former Hereford High standout also caught 39 passes (which ranked 2nd on the team) for 336 yards, giving him 683 all purpose yards.

WT loses 17 players from this year's 3-8 team. That means next season the Buffs will return three offensive starters (as well as the placekicker) and six from the defensive unit.

Reynolds still bitter toward Los Angeles

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) - Linebacker Jack Reynolds, who holds the distinction of playing in the Super Bowl for both Los Angeles and San Francisco, will be on the 49ers' side tonight when they take on the Rams in a crucial National Football League game for both teams.

Reynolds remains bitter about being dropped by Los Angeles after the 1980 season following a contract dispute. He played with the Rams for 11 seasons and led them in tackles several times, including his final year.

Reynolds played with the 1979 Rams, who went to the Super Bowl. After being signed by San Francisco as a free agent last year, he helped the 49ers win last January's Super Bowl over Cincinnati 26-21.

Against the Rams last year, Reynolds made 18 tackles. He gets another chance for revenge tonight in a nationally televised game at Anaheim Stadium. Kickoff time is 9 p.m., EST.

The loser will have an extremely difficult time making the expanded playoffs with eight NFC teams qualifying for post-season action. Both clubs bring 1-3 records into the action, and both will have four games remaining afterwards.

Many wonder why Reynolds was released and he is outspoken in saying he doesn't believe the Rams' management treated him fairly. He says it was the treatment rather than the money that brought the split.

He remains so unhappy that he refused interviews with the Los Angeles media this week.

San Francisco Coach Bill Walsh, who installed Reynolds as his inside linebacker on the strong side, has said, "If there is one key factor or individual that we can point to for our success in 1981, it is Reynolds."

The Rams were forced to switch quarterbacks for this game. Bert Jones aggravated a nerve problem in the team's 20-14 victory over Kansas City last Sunday and the team physician ordered him to stay out of action. So the job goes to Vince Ferragamo, who played on the Rams' Super Bowl team and set several passing records in 1980.

Then, after a contract battle, he went to Montreal of the Canadian League for an ill-fated 1981, but returned to the Rams when a money agreement was reached.

Hereford's Gary Long (14), in action against Levelland during the season opener, is averaging 13.5 points a game. The Whitefaces meet Morton today at 5 p.m. in an opening round game of the Levelland Tournament.

Whiteface cage teams play in Levelland tourney today

LEVELLAND - Hereford's boys will be trying to get in to the win column for the first time this season, while the girls will be trying to square their season record as both play first-round games today in the Levelland Tournament.

The boys, 0-2 (having lost to Levelland, 66-56, and Dimmitt, 66-60) meet Morton at 5 p.m. today, while the girls (1-2 following Tuesday's district opening loss to Palo Duro) tangle with Odessa Permian at 6:30 p.m.

First-round games in the boys' division matched Lubbock Estacado against the Levelland JV at 11 a.m. this morning; Monterey against Snyder at 2 p.m. and Levelland against Muleshoe at 8 p.m. (in addition to the Hereford-Morton clash).

While the boys' division has eight teams, the girls' bracket finds a dozen clubs competing.

First round games (besides the Hereford-Permian clash) include Lubbock High vs. El Paso High (8 a.m.), Levelland vs. Odessa (9:30 a.m.), Post vs. Clovis (12:30 p.m.), Vernon vs. Pampa (12:30 p.m.) and Dimmitt vs. Snyder (1:30 p.m.).

Hereford's boys have been led by 6-2 forward Steve Welch and 6-1 forward Brian Taylor the first two games.

Welch, who got 22 points against Dimmitt last Friday, is averaging 16 thus far. Taylor, who also has been in double figures both games, is averaging 13.5 a game, as is 6-1 guard Gary Long.

Stephanie Foster, a 5-7 senior, is averaging 16.3 points a game to pace the girls. Sherri Ellis, a 5-10 senior, is scoring 11 points a game, in addition to leading the club with seven rebounds a game.

The girls have lost to Levelland (63-38) and Palo Duro (53-41), while beating Dimmitt (46-40).

Texas, Navy, FSU are picked

By Major Amos B. Hoople
Wizard of Odds

Egad, friends, the last weekend of the regular college football season is short on quantity, but definitely long on quality.

All four games on the abbreviated schedule figure to be crowd pleasers, with three of them real nail-biters. And only the Nebraska-Hawaii clash is considered a "sure thing."

Leading off the Saturday festivities is the stored Army-Navy game in Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, on CBS-TV. Later in the afternoon, Texas and Arkansas will collide in Memorial Stadium in Austin, on ABC-TV.

Saturday evening, the powerful Florida State Seminoles will entertain the tough Florida Gators in Tallahassee, Fla., in the battle for Sunshine State supremacy. Earlier this year both teams topped the fine Miami Hurricane team.

The late, late show will emanate from under the lights in Aloha Stadium in Honolulu where the Hawaii University Rainbow Warriors will entertain the talented Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Here's how the Hoople System figures these exciting matchups:

In the "battles" waged by Army and Navy to date, the Middies hold a 38-37 margin in victories, with seven contests in the standoff category. Last year's game was a 3-3 defensive classic.

Going into Saturday's fray, the Army Cadets stand 4-6 for the year while the Navy crew is all even at 5-5. Against mutual foes, both teams lost to classy Boston College and to the Air Force. In an extremely close contest, the Hoople choice is Navy to prevail, 28-24.

The Texas Longhorns and Arkansas Razorbacks have met 63 times. The Longhorns hold a commanding lead in the series, 47-16. Rather lopsided, eh?

Last year the Razorbacks jolted the then-No. 1 Longhorns in friendly Fayetteville by an amazing 42-11 score. So, the Texas lads have plenty of incentive this week.

We look for Fred Akers and his Texas stalwarts to delight the home folks by downing Lou Holtz' fine team, 17-14, in a spirited defensive struggle. In total defense for the year, the Razorbacks have limited all foes to an average of less than 250 yards a game. Texas is almost stingy, limiting its opponents to but 272 yards per game. Those are rugged statistics.

Florida has one of the country's best passers in Wayne Peace and an All-American ball carrier in James Jones. With a little help from the other nine Gators, they figure to get some points on the board against the FSU Seminoles.

However, coach Bobby Bowden's Seminoles can counter with not one, but two excellent passing quarterbacks — Kelley Lowrey and his backup Blair Williams. FSU also boasts a fine tandem at running back — Greg Allen and Ricky Williams are averaging a combined 155 yards per game.

The Gators will give it their usual shot, but when the lights are dimmed at Tallahassee's Doak Campbell Stadium the Seminoles will be in front, 42-27.

The stars of the late, late show at Aloha Stadium will be the Nebraska offensive 11 — and sprinter Mike Rozier, in particular.

The crushing Cornhusker attack has averaged 42 points per game and an awesome 531 yards per contest. Rozier has rambled for 153 yards a game.

The Rainbow Warriors will be hard pressed to contain the Nebraska attack directed by quarterback Turner Gill, an exceptional field general. So, we give it to the Cornhuskers, 49-21.

This, by the way will be Nebraska's 12th game of the season, with still another remaining — the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1 against LSU.

Now, dear readers, after Saturday's games there are only 17 shopping days until Christmas. Where did 1982 go?

Sutton, Rizzo named golf's top rookies

NEW YORK (AP) — Hal Sutton, winner of the recent Disney World Classic, and Patti Rizzo were named rookies of the year by Golf Digest.

Sutton and Rizzo were the magazine's top-ranked amateurs in 1981.

Sutton, 24, earned a rookie-record $237,434 on the PGA tour this year.

Kentucky rips Irish, 58-45

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

Whether playing in Louisville, Ky., or South Bend, Ind., the Kentucky basketball team has been beating up on Notre Dame for some years now.

And the beat went on Wednesday night.

Virtually toying with the Irish at Notre Dame's Athletic Convocation Center, the third-ranked Wildcats cruised to a 58-45 victory and drew this amazed response from Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps:

"Kentucky doesn't need Sam Bowie. They're better than they were in 1978 (when the Wildcats won the NCAA championship). We played three different defenses and couldn't stop them."

Bowie, the injured 7-foot forward on the shelf for another year, surely wasn't needed as the Wildcats wrapped up another decision over the Irish — their 25th in the last 29 games. Most of those were played on "neutral" ground in Louisville until Phelps got fed up with the situation and had the series moved back to home-and-home sites.

Derrick Hord scored 18 points to lead the Wildcats, who made 75 percent of their shots, both from the field and foul line.

Martin files for bankruptcy

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Cowboys football star Harvey Martin has filed for federal bankruptcy court protection from his creditors, saying that he needs to reorganize his finances so he can concentrate on his game.

Martin's three-page petition filed in bankruptcy court in Dallas lists six major creditors to whom he owes more than $211,500. Martin has invested in restaurants and nightclubs in Dallas and El Paso, and in a project to renovate a commercial district in San Antonio.

There comes a time when you do too many things in your life and you do nothing," said Martin. "I owe it to the fans of the Dallas Cowboys. I need to keep my mind on the 50-yard line ... and not on small forest fires created out of ignorance."

Martin's assets include his 1975 Mercedes-Benz, a 1981 Jaguar, his duplex in Carrollton, clothes, and jewelry. Martin's lawyer, Harold C. Abramson, said the assets totaled from $245,000 to $270,000.

Abramson said his client decided to file for bankruptcy protection partly because of lawsuits that are "hovering"

Faced with Kentucky's overwhelming talent, Notre Dame tried to slow down the game at first. But the Wildcats eventually changed the tempo.

Kentucky took a five-point lead at halftime, 24-19. The Wildcats then hit their first five shots of the second half, including three baskets by Jim Master, and built an 11-point lead before John Paxson led a final Notre Dame rally that fell short.

In other action involving the nation's Top Twenty teams, top-ranked Virginia defeated James Madison 51-34, No. 5 Memphis State routed St. Louis University 76-56, No. 7 Louisville belted Santa Clara 84-56, No. 11 Houston tripped Mississippi State 74-65, 12th-ranked St. John's walloped Columbia 72-45, 14th-ranked Tennessee stopped Chattanooga 55-49, No. 16 Arkansas defeated Texas-San Antonio 78-59 and No. 17 Marquette hammered Florida A&M 91-58.

Othell Wilson scored 14 points and Ricky Stokes added 11 to lead Virginia over James Madison.

"Our shots weren't going in, but our defense still played great," said Virginia Coach Terry Holland. "Any time you can hold the other team to that low of a production, you know your defense is doing the job."

The Cavaliers held James Madison to its lowest point total since the school started its intercollegiate basketball program in 1969. The Dukes' 26.8 percent shooting standard from the floor was also their worst ever.

Keith Lee scored 19 points and Phillip Haynes added 18 to power Memphis State over St. Louis.

After trailing 32-19 at the half, St. Louis pulled within nine at 36-27 in the first 2½ minutes of the second half. But Baskerville Holmes scored a free throw, Lee hit a basket and Holmes scored another field goal to put the Tigers on top 41-27 and the Billikens never threatened again.

"We shot well — particularly in the first half, and we executed very good," said Memphis State Coach Dana Kirk. "Our defense was excellent. St. Louis couldn't do what they wanted to."

Rodney McCray had nine rebounds, five assists, five steals and 14 points and Lancaster Gordon scored 17 points to pace Louisville over Santa Clara. McCray and Gordon were two of six Cardinal players in double figures, while none of the Broncos managed to reach double figures.

Michael Young led an early second-half surge and hit his last four shots to score 20 points and pace Houston over stall-minded Mississippi State. Young and Clyde Drexler combined for 10 straight points to start the second half that finally helped the Cougars break away from the Bulldogs, who clogged up the quick Cougars in the first half before falling behind 30-26 at intermission.

"Thank goodness for Michael Young," Houston

Coach Guy Lewis said of his junior forward. "He was getting the ball in a little more comfortable position in the second half, and I thought Reid (Gettys) was getting the ball to him a little quicker."

Young found his spot on the side.

"I practice on that jump shot very hard," Young said. "They told me the guys were sagging and I felt like I'd have to take it. In the second half, we just went out there with a lot more heart, played hard and won as a team."

Chris Mullin scored 15 points to pace a balanced St. John's attack as the Redmen overcame a sluggish start and defeated Columbia. The Redmen did not have a field goal in the first 5½ minutes and trailed 10-4 with 12 minutes remaining in the first half. But they scored 13 straight points to take command with five different players scoring during the streak.

Jerald Hyatt scored four points on a layup and two foul shots with five seconds remaining as Tennessee held off a comeback by Tennessee-Chattanooga. His four-point play overcame Chattanooga's final thrust at winning the game when junior Willie White sank a jumper to cut Tennessee's lead to 51-49 with 29 seconds left.

Darrell Walker scored 13 of his 20 points in the second half as Arkansas came from

Basketball arrives as television sport of 80s

By DAVE GOLDBERG AP Sports Writer

Pity the poor young men who play basketball for Seton Hall and Pitt. When they take the court Jan. 22 at Fitzgerald Field House in Pittsburgh, it will mark the only time this season that a Big East Conference game is played without benefit of television cameras.

In case you weren't looking, (and that's hard if you get cable television), college basketball has arrived as the television sport of the '80s. There is a televised game somewhere nearly every day of the 134 days between the Hall of Fame game and the NCAA final — 245 national telecasts alone, many on cable networks; countless local and regional games.

To the fan, it means cold winter evenings watching tall young men in shorts jump up and down. To the college administrator, it means money, lots of it. To the coach of top-ranked teams, it means a tougher schedule — there's just too much TV money in playing top-ranked opponents to load up on East Pugwash States.

For example, just four years ago, the prestigious Atlantic Coast Conference received $650,000 from television for an entire season's games. The ACC's television take this year is estimated at $5 million, Georgetown and Virginia will receive $700,000 for their Dec. 11 game from the Turner Broadcasting System. Then there's the Big East, just four years old, coming off a season in which three of its teams made the NCAA's final eight and with teams in five of the nation's top dozen TV markets. No less than 112 games involving Big East teams will be televised this year, including all but Pitt-Seton Hall game of the 72 regular season league contests.

That's just a starter. Next year, all the individual contracts between Big East schools and local outlets will have expired and the league office will handle all television deals. It's already negotiated contracts with CBS and NBC that will bring in an estimated $10 million over three years.

College basketball has always been a popular viewing pastime. NBC will carry 88 games this year, national and regional, CBS will have 27. Most major conferences have their own networks carrying at least one game regionally each week, and independently powers like Notre Dame and DePaul market their own games for television stations.

But cable has introduced a whole new factor. Turner outfit NBC and CBS for Georgetown-Virginia, also known as Ewing-Sampson and has sold it to a number of independent over-the-air stations. His network will also carry 11 other games.

ESPN will have 164 games, including 24 in the first two rounds of the NCAA tournament. It has contracts with most major conferences, including the Big East, ACC, Big 10, Big 8, Southeast and with individual schools, including Notre Dame, DePaul, Marquette and UCLA. This week's ESPN schedule contains Kentucky-Notre Dame and UCLA-DePaul.

Boxing is easy; but not training

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Boxing comes easily to Wilfredo Gomez. Training is another matter.

The 25-year-old Puerto Rican is one of six men to win three world titles and he has a 43-1-1 record, with 26 knockouts.

Yet, his reputation is of a fighter who doesn't like to pay the price of training, a price he says he has paid for his World Boxing Council super welterweight title defense against Thomas Hearns Friday night.

Also on the Superdome card, which will be seen in this country on pay-per-view and closed-circuit television, will be Wilfredo Gomez' WBC super bantamweight title defense against Lupe Pintor, the WBC bantamweight champion.

The 24-year-old Benitez, whose first championship, at age 17, was the World Boxing Association junior welterweight title, suffered his only defeat when he lost the WBC welterweight title to Sugar Ray Leonard, the only man to beat Hearns.

Ann Landers

Why ridicule others?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a wife, mother, grandmother and registered nurse, so you know I have been around for awhile. I have read your columns for years and decided most of your fans are idiots.

I cannot understand how an intelligent woman like you can believe in "God." Do you also believe in Mother Goose? You often refer to "the power of 'prayer' and 'God's help.' If you do some serious research you will discover many outstanding people throughout history were atheists and have said so publicly.

No one, to my knowledge, has ever been able to prove that God does exist. A great number of things that have happened in the last several centuries have been so horrible that if there were a just and good God he would not have allowed it.

I don't want any of your sarcastic answers. Respond sensibly if you can think of something to say. - Ohio Atheist

DEAR O.A.: I respect your right to be an atheist. It is one of the privileges guaranteed you by the Constitution. But why do you ridicule those of us who find strength and comfort in our religious beliefs? I choose not to print the name and address of your organization for "free-thinkers" who believe in "reality." I am not opposed to their right to exist, but I have no interest in promoting them.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Several weeks ago a woman wrote to you about a delicate problem. She wet her pants when she sneezed unexpectedly or laughed hard or stepped up on a high curb. You suggested the Kegel exercises to strengthen a certain muscle and said greater sexual enjoyment might result.

Your recommendation was that the woman should ask her gynecologist about it - and if he didn't know about these exercises, you advised her to get a new gynecologist. You said you had printed the exercises in your column twice in the past and did not want to bore your readers to death.

Well, my gynecologist doesn't know about the Kegel exercises, but he is willing to learn. Please print them one more time. You audience changes, Ann. No matter what you print, it is new to many of us. Thanks in advance. - Grateful In Greenwich

DEAR GRATEFUL: OK. Here we go again. The Kegel exercises were designed to strengthen the pubococcygeus muscle. (This is the muscle that rims the vagina.) To firm up the p.c. muscle, do this: When you urinate, try to stop - in midstream, so to speak. Then start again. Then stop. Then start again. Then stop. The muscle that controls the starting and stopping (the p.c.) will be strengthened by this exercise. Do the squeezing in and relaxing out procedure 18 times (squeeze hard), three times a day. As I said, it will not only help with incontinence, but it may enhance your sex life.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You sometimes use the expression "well-bred." What does it mean? - G.L. In Georgetown.

DEAR G.L.: Jonathan Swift said it best. Whoever makes the fewest people uneasy is the best-bred man in the group.

MX facing new test

WASHINGTON (AP) - The MX missile, a project which has survived years of government indecision and verbal attacks by opponents, is facing a crucial test now that the time has come to decide whether to pay for it.

The House Appropriations Committee, taking up a $230 billion Pentagon spending bill, is being asked by the chairman of its defense subcommittee to delete $988 million earmarked for the intercontinental nuclear weapon.

Both the chairman, Rep. Joseph P. Addabbo, D-N.Y., and opponents of his move predicted a close outcome, but none was willing to declare victory in advance.

Addabbo said Wednesday he had thought for a time that he had the votes among the 55-member committee for his proposal, but "now I don't know."

His own lobbying efforts had been aided by various church groups and advocates of a joint U.S.-Soviet freeze on deployment of nuclear weaponry.

Pentagon officials, who declined to be identified, said based on their checks within the 55-member committee, they had "a definite chance to win."

In an indication of how seriously the administration regarded the vote, President Reagan and Defense Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger - both thousands of miles from Washington - reportedly telephoned committee members to urge them to preserve the MX money.

Reagan was in Brazil and Weinberger was attending a NATO meeting in Brussels.

In advance of the vote, a House Republican aide said the high-level lobbying, which reportedly also involved Secretary of State George Shultz and Vice President George Bush, could be crucial because "it is hard for some members to vote against the president."

HEALTH
Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

More sun, more damage

DEAR DR. LAMB - I am interested in keeping up my tan during the winter. I am a redhead and burn easily so if I can keep what tan I have I won't have that problem in the spring.

I read this article about tanning booths and thought I would try it. Is it safe? Is it the same as a sun lamp? I own a sun lamp but am wondering if they are dangerous. Are sun lamps or the tanning booths worse for my skin than the natural sun?

Would a sunscreen be helpful if I use a sun lamp to reduce the damaging effects? Does the faithful use of a sunscreen with PABA eliminate the risks of getting skin cancer?

DEAR READER - Whether you are using a sun lamp, a tanning booth or lying in the sun, the effects are all caused by the same type of radiation. The ultraviolet rays in sunshine activate pigment cells in your skin. The cells produce more pigment and you get tan.

The formation of more pigment is really a protective action in response to injury from the ultraviolet radiation. The problem is that these same rays can cause damage to the elastic fibers and other tissues deep within the skin. The damage is cumulative. The more sun you are exposed to the more damage occurs.

The tan helps to prevent the damage and sunscreens such as those containing PABA act on the skin to help prevent damage. But a person repeatedly exposed to the sun will have early wrinkling and look older than a person not exposed to excess sunlight.

And the accumulative effects in causing skin cancer apply to sunshine, sun lamps and tanning booths. About the only difference between sunshine and tanning booths or sun lamps is the time involved and the location. You can do it fast with a sun lamp and you can burn yourself and damage your skin.

You need to read The Health Letter 7-10, Your Skin: Sun, Aging, Spots and Cancer, which I'm sending you. Others can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I wondered if you could help me. We are having a guest over for a couple of weeks. He just got shingles. Is it contagious? What is it? How do you get it? Do any precautions have to be taken in bedding, dishes etc.? We are all over 60.

DEAR READER - Herpes zoster or shingles is a skin eruption caused by reactivation of the chicken pox virus that has lived all those years inside the nervous system. The rash follows the distribution of the nerve involved.

You won't catch shingles from a person who has shingles. But a person who has not had chicken pox or is susceptible to chicken pox may catch the chicken pox from a person with shingles. It is estimated that close contact can cause chicken pox in about 15 percent of susceptible persons. So unless you never had the chicken pox (in your age group you probably did), you won't catch anything.

The fresh blisters can contain the virus but the scabs from the herpes zoster do not. You needn't take any special precautions with bedding or dishes.

4-H'ers to participate in district food show

County 4-H members are making final preparations for the Panhandle District 4-H Food Show, scheduled Saturday at Dumas High School, W. Third at Klein, in Dumas. A total of six 4-H'ers from the county will compete. They include Robin Conkright, daughter of Jim and Janice Conkright; Polly West, daughter of Bill and Dixie West; Camille Betzen, daughter of Thomas and Cheryl Betzen; Trisha Teel, daughter of Jerry and Denise Teel; Monica Grotegut, daughter of Joe and Gertrude Grotegut; and Christina Fritz, daughter of Lee and Ruth Fritz.

Entrants from 20 counties will compete in senior and junior divisions. Each division has four food classes: main dish, fruits and vegetables, breads and cereals, and nutritious snacks and desserts. Contestants in the district event are all winners of their county food shows. Senior division winners in each category will advance to the state 4-H food show next June in College Station. County extension agent Louise Walker said the contestants will report to the high school in Dumas at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. The dishes will be on display in the cafeteria from 1 to 1:30 p.m., and the public is invited to view them. Ribbons and trophies will be presented during an awards ceremony at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Cookbooks containing all the recipes prepared in the district show will be on sale at the competition, said Agnes Taylor, Hartley county extension home economics agent and the chairman of the show committee.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Paper drive scheduled this weekend

St. Anthony's School Parent-Teachers Organization will hold its monthly paper drive this weekend. Residents are encouraged to bring bundled newspapers and other non-glossy papers to a truck parked on the school parking lot anytime Saturday or Sunday.

"Lack of pep is often mistook for patience."

Preparing Food

Members of Alpha Iota Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will have a concession at the "Country Christmas Bazaar" scheduled from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday at the Community Center. The bazaar is being sponsored by the Westway Extension Homemakers Club. Stuffed potatoes will be served by chapter members and a variety of toppings will be furnished. Preparing for the event are from left, Ginger Wallace and Tonya Gilliam.

Home Tour

Linda Reinauer and daughters, Lee, 8, and Jill, 6, warm up beside the unique white brick fireplace in the den of their home at 1908 Plains. The Reinauer home is one of three to be featured on the tour of homes sponsored by La Madra Mia Study Club the evening of Dec. 7.

Pastel shades decorate featured home interior

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reinauer, Jr., of 1908 Plains, is one of the homes to be featured on La Madra Mia Study Club's tour of homes this year. The annual event is scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 7. Linda Reinauer has decorated her home in pastel colors. The formal living room and dining room are combined, and light blue airy floral print loveseats first catch the eye. In the den, a white brick fireplace is set into one wall, another is a solid wall of bookshelves, and a third wall is one large glass paneled window opening out onto the patio.

Music Study Club and she enjoys needlepoint and playing the piano. Tickets for the home tour, which will also feature the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cavin, 316 Elm, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett, 301 Douglas, may be purchased from members of La Madra Mia Study Club, at the Hereford State Bank, or at the door of any of these homes on the night of the tour for $2.
