Impressive Performance

Students in the second grade bilingual classes at Northwest School entertained fellow students, teachers, and parents with a program of Mexican folk dances Thursday afternoon as part of their observance of Cinco de Mayo. Reagan stresses war on crime before NRA

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — President Reagan, behaving like a candidate even while denying that he has decided to run again in 1984, is stressing his administration's war on crime in separate appearances before the National Rifle Association and a group of senior citizen sheriff's deputies.

"People are fed up with crime," Reagan said in remarks prepared for delivery to the annual convention of the NRA today.

The president's speech stressed his desire to change firearms laws that needlessly restrict the right of citizens to bear arms, but stopped short of endorsing an NRA-backed bill to remove most restraints on mail-order gun sales, repeal a ban on import of cheap handguns and make interstate firearms sales easier.

Reagan has consistently opposed gun-control laws, even after he was wounded in an attempt on his life March 30, 1981.

Instead, the president was expected to underscore his long-standing position for mandatory sentences for crimes committed with guns.

Deputy White House Press Secretary Larry Speakes, previewing the speech, said the main focus would be on crime, including Reagan's efforts to abolish parole, toughen the insanity defense, institute fixed sentences for crimes, and combat drug trafficking and organized crime.

At the same time, Speakes said Reagan would issue a public appeal for full funding of his defense buildup as well as funding for the El Salvador government, which is fighting leftist rebels.

Before the NRA speech, the president was traveling by helicopter to Sun City, Ariz., to visit the Sheriff's Posse, a group of 200 residents between the ages of 60 and 89 who are trained and deputized by the sheriff's department to patrol neighborhoods, control traffic at public events, and watch homes for people who are away on vacation.

The president flew here Thursday from San Antonio, Texas, where he courted Hispanics by participating in outdoor festivities celebrating a Mexican national holiday, Cinco de Mayo — The 5th of May.

The outline of a bulletproof vest clearly visible under his tan suit, Reagan spoke to a crowd of about 1,000 people under a broiling sun, sampled a tostado and met with local officials.

Senate ponders CIA ban in Nicaragua

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Intelligence Committee, pressed by President Reagan to back covert aid to Nicaraguan rebels, is considering a compromise that would require him to certify again that the CIA action is in the national interest, congressional sources said.

Under the compromise, the House and Senate intelligence committees could then refuse to release money for the new covert action if they feel it had not been revised enough to meet their concerns, the sources said.

Refusing to release the money would kill the program Sept. 30, when the current fiscal year ends, said the sources, who spoke only on condition they not be identified.

The committee was expected to consider the compromise — proposed by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., the committee chairman — at a closed-door meeting today.

Meanwhile, Reagan personally lobbied against another proposal that would directly cut off CIA aid for the insurgents who are fighting Nicaragua's leftist government.

The president called one undecided committee member, Sen. Walter D. Huddleston, from Air Force One while flying to Texas on Thursday.

Although the president has publicly acknowledged U.S. aid to the insurgents, the covert action remains highly classified, and calls from Air Force One are normally open transmissions that in the past have been picked up by short-wave radio operators.

Gary Auxier, a Huddleston spokesman, said, however, that "nothing of a classified nature was imparted during the conversation and nothing was talked about that was not already part of the public record."

Anson Franklin, a White House spokesman, said that he was not aware of the Huddleston call, but added, "we would normally take special precautions on telephone calls that involve national security."

Reagan has sharply criticized a 9-5 vote by the House Intelligence Committee on Tuesday to terminate covert U.S. aid to the rebels and create instead an open $80 million fund to help governments stop leftist gun-running in Central America.

The president appears to have enough votes to turn back a similar proposal in the Senate committee. Sources said eight of the 15 committee members had lined up against the cut-off proposal, sponsored by Sen. David Durenberger, R-Minn.

Chemical firm drops waste site

AUSTIN (AP) — A chemical company says it dropped plans for a Matagorda County hazardous waste dump because it was technically unsuitable, but state officials who opposed the landfill say the company bowed to public pressure.

In letters to U.S. Rep. Bill Patman, D-Ganado; state Sen. John Sharp, D-Victoria; and state Rep. Tom Uher, D-Bay City; Chemical Waste Management president M.D. Harrison said the company had decided against seeking a permit for a dump near Bay City.

Harrison said discovery of sand formations between underground layers of clay caused the company to withdraw its plan to seek a permit for the dump.

But Sharp told a Capitol

news conference Thursday he believed public pressure played a major role in the company's decision.

"This is the official reason, and whatever reason they use is fine with us," he said.

Carrin Patman, representing her husband, told reporters that a "town meeting" conducted by her husband in Bay City in February drew 400 residents opposed to the landfill.

Sharp said local opposition was "overwhelming," with citizens demonstrating at the proposed site, at the county courthouse and holding bake sales to support their protests.

Uher called the announcement "delightful news," but said, "the matter is not resolved. The subject of toxic waste must be addressed."

Jetliner loses power, plunges

MIAMI (AP) — Teams of investigators began trying to learn why tiny rubber oil seals were missing from an Eastern Airlines jumbo jet that lost all power and glided within 2,800 feet of the ocean before limping back to land when one engine revived.

The three-engine Lockheed L-1011, carrying 172 people, dropped more than 16,000 feet in 10 minutes Thursday before pilot Dick Boddy managed to revive the tail jet and guide Flight 855 safely back to Miami International Airport.

Smoke spewed from the single working engine as the plane landed.

As many passengers — shaken but relieved, and toasting their good fortune — boarded another Eastern L-1011 to resume their journey to Nassau in the Bahamas, federal and airline officials began looking for the cause.

Eastern and National Transportation Safety Board officials said the engines stalled because of oil leakage, due to failure to install small rubber seals called "O rings," which cost pennies, during nightly maintenance.

"With the 'O ring' missing, the oil was able to leak out," NTSB spokesman Ira Furman said. "If oil leaks out, the engine will fail. Engines require lubrication."

Furman said the thumb-sized, ring-shaped seals, which cost "pennies," fit into a notch on a magnetized oil plug that is removed nightly from the engines to check for any wear that would show up in the oil. Each plug is supposed to carry two rings.

New oil plugs were apparently installed without the seals Wednesday night, he said, leaving space for oil to leak under pressure.

"We have yet to determine whether the plugs are supposed to come out of the stock room with the 'O ring' or whether the mechanics are supposed to put the 'O ring' on," he said, refusing to fix blame.

"Why they weren't there is the next phase of the investigation," said Eastern spokesman Jim Ashlock. The airline said the other 27 L-1011s in its fleet were inspected and all had the seals.

After a brief dispute between the Miami-based carrier and the NTSB, Eastern gave the cockpit voice recorder and flight data recorder to safety board investigators, Furman said.

The recorders were being hand-carried to Washington today and will be transcribed as quickly as possible, he said.

Three investigations of the incident were under way by Eastern, the NTSB and the Federal Aviation Administration.

The engine failure occurred 88 miles east of Miami, said FAA spokesman Roger Myers.

"I was never so scared in all my life, never closer to death," said a passenger, Dr. Bruce Jacobs, a dentist from nearby Hollywood.

"They came down pretty fast," said Myers. Officials later determined the aircraft plunged from an altitude of about 19,000 feet to 2,800 feet in 10 minutes, he said.

Stands at 10.2 percent

Jobless rate dips some

WASHINGTON (AP) — The civilian unemployment rate dipped slightly to 10.2 percent in April, matching the level of last September, as a burgeoning business recovery created some 360,000 jobs, the Labor Department said today.

It was the second decline in as many months and 0.6 percent below the post-Depression high of 10.8 percent set in December, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported.

Matching the decline in the overall rate was a decrease in the roster of those officially listed by the government as unemployed. That total fell from 11,381,000 to 11,328,000.

A separate unemployment rate, which includes a constant 1.7 million military personnel stationed in the United States, remained at 10.1 percent.

The civilian unemployment rate is based on a monthly Census Bureau survey of 60,000 U.S. households. The April survey showed that total civilian employment jumped sharply from 99.1 million, where it had stood essentially unchanged since October, to more than 99.4 million.

Recovery from previous recessions has been followed by a rapid expansion of the labor force as jobless Americans, believing hiring prospects were improved, renewed their search for work. Before April, however, there had been no such quick spurts in the number of job-seekers this time, even though signals have abounded that there is at least a moderate business turnaround underway.

A separate government survey of non-agricultural business payrolls last month showed that total employment in this category, which includes most workers, went up by 260,000 — from 88.9 million to nearly 89.2 million. The bulk of the 360,000 jobs created last month, the report showed, went to adult women, whose jobless rate fell from 8.8 percent to 8.4 percent.

The jobless rate for adult men, the traditional family breadwinners, rose by 0.2 percent to 9.8 percent, however.

One of the brightest spots in today's report was a statistic showing continued improvement in the number of hours put in by the nation's factory workers. The average workweek rose to 40.1 hours, the highest level since June 1981, before the recession set in.

Similarly, the number of workers forced to accept only part-time hours because full-time work was not available declined by roughly 120,000.

Within the various population groups, there were few sizable increases in joblessness from March to April. Jobless rates were:

Hearst kidnapper paroled quietly

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With his revolutionary comrades dead or in jail, one-time Symbionese Liberation Army terrorist William Harris wants to "regain a normal life" after leaving prison nine years after kidnapping newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst, his lawyer says.

Harris was paroled without fanfare April 26, and his wife Emily will be paroled May 27, lawyer Stuart Hanlon announced Thursday. The two have not seen each other except for court appearances since they pleaded guilty in 1978 to the abduction.

The revolutionary ardor that inspired some of the most sensational headlines of the 1970s has long since cooled in the Harrises, Hanlon said.

Harris is "certainly not a terrorist anymore" and he won't be seeing any of his old cohorts, Hanlon said, adding,

"His old friends are either dead or in jail."

He said Harris has "absolutely no desire" to contact the newspaper heiress, who lives in nearby Redwood City with her husband and former bodyguard, Bernard Shaw.

And when the heiress, now known as Ms. Shaw, was informed that her kidnappers were being released, she told KGO-TV, "I don't care."

Six SLA members were killed in a fiery shootout with police in Los Angeles, leaving Joseph Remiro and Russell Little as the only surviving members of the ragtag group beside the Harrises. Remiro and Little were given life sentences in the 1973 murder of Oakland School Superintendent Marcus Foster, but Little's conviction later was overturned and he was acquitted in a second trial.

Israeli cabinet approves pact

JERUSALEM (AP) — The Israeli Cabinet today approved in principle the agreement worked out by U.S. Secretary of State George P. Shultz for Israel's withdrawal from Lebanon. But the Cabinet said it had reservations on "a number of security and political problems."

The Cabinet announced its decision following a daylong debate among Prime Minister Menachem Begin and his ministers on the accord worked out over nine days by Shultz, who was sent to the Middle East by President Reagan to break the stalemate in Israeli-Lebanese negotiations.

Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor read a statement to reporters saying the government "decided to approve in principle the proposed agreement between Israel and Lebanon. Regarding a number of security and political problems, the government will act to receive further clarifications."

Meridor did not elaborate on the statement.

In addition to the Cabinet's reservations, the Israelis have said they will not pull their troops out of Lebanon until the Syrian army withdraws.

Cabinet ministers who spoke with reporters were divided on the tentative agreement.

Energy Minister Yitzhak Mordechai, apparently reflecting misgivings of some ministers over the pact, told reporters: "It's not a good arrangement. We should have had a much better one."

training began Wednesday, and will wind up May 24. Some 158 youngsters began the drills. (Brand Photos by Les Giles)

Traffic jam feared

Marfa's trainer plans no changes for Derby day

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Worries of Marfa bothering other horses hover over Saturday's 109th Kentucky Derby, and, with the field at its 20-horse limit, there are fears of a traffic jam at the head of the stretch.

Wayne Lukas, who trains the sometimes wayward colt, plans no change of equipment to keep Marfa on the straight and narrow over 1 1/4 miles at Churchill Downs.

He is putting the task of guiding the stretch-running colt home first to Jorge Velasquez, the veteran jockey who had his hands full in the Blue Grass Stakes April 27 when Marfa was disqualified from second to fourth after interfering with Copelan and Desert Wine in the stretch.

"Training horses is like tuning a violin," Lukas said Thursday after he submitted his entry of Marfa, Balboa Native and Total Departure. "You want to do it right and at the right time. There's a lot of excitement in the air this morning and Marfa senses it."

On the strength of Marfa's impressive victories in the Jim Beam Spiral Stakes and Santa Anita Derby and the lack of a full-fledged 3-year-old standout, the Lukas entry was made the 5-2 early-line favorite.

Marfa, who has three wins and three seconds in nine starts this year, will go from the No. 18 post position. The son of 1975 Derby winner Foolish Pleasure is owned by Robert French, Barry Beal and Lukas.

Balboa Native, post No. 3, is the Louisiana Derby winner, while No. 9 Total Departure, was second in last Saturday's Derby Trial here. Sandy Hawley rides Balboa Native and Pat Valenzuela rides Total Departure.

Not since 1946 has there been a three-horse entry in the field.

Trainer Woody Stephens and Bwamazon Farm have two-horse entries for the Derby, which will draw more than 100,000 people.

Carl Lauer, Robert Victor and Nancy Vanier's Play Fellow, the 19-1 Blue Grass Stakes winner by a nose over Marfa, is the second early choice at 4-1, going from post No. 2 under Jean Cruguet.

Stephens' entry of Caveat, the Derby Trial winner, and Chumming, fifth in the Trial after stumbling at the start, is listed at 5-1. August Belmont's Caveat, with Laffit Pincay board, leaves from the outside post No. 20, while Hickory Tree Farm's Chumming, with Eddie Maple up, starts from No. 4.

David Foster's Sunny's Halo, who beat Caveat by four lengths in the Arkansas

Derby, also is rated at 5-1 and is in the 10th position. Eddie Delahoussaye, who rode Gato Del Sol to victory in last year's Derby, rides the Canadian-bred whose only other start this year was a three-length win in the Rebel Handicap.

Equisequity Stable's Slew O' Gold, son of 1977 Triple Crown winner Seattle Slew and winner of a division of the Wood Memorial, goes from

No. 1 under Angel Cordero. The rest of the starters in the crowded field are lightly regarded in the quest for the $426,000 first prize from a gross of $531,000 if all go.

NBA playoffs

76er boss still worried

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

Philadelphia 76ers Coach Billy Cunningham has stopped worrying about Moses Malone's injured knees...and started worrying about Andrew Toney's bruised left thigh.

That's the current focal point for the 76ers as they prepare to meet the Milwaukee Bucks in one of two National Basketball Association playoff games Sunday. The Los Angeles Lakers meet the San Antonio Spurs in the other.

"Andrew's improved a great deal — 100 percent — from yesterday to today," said Cunningham. "I expect Andrew to work out lightly (today), and then we'll see how it feels. Hopefully, Andrew'll be 100 percent more improved by tomorrow, too." As a precaution, forward Julius Erving has been playing at guard during the 76ers' closed-door practices for the Eastern Conference finals.

Erving said he had been at guard largely because of the way Milwaukee forward Marques Johnson plays his position.

Despite their recent physical problems, which include Malone's aching knees that caused some concern in the 76ers' camp last week, Philadelphia managed to sweep the New York Knicks 4-0 in the conference semifinals.

"You get this close, there's no sense in waiting 'til next year," Malone said, shrugging off the 76ers' mounting physical problems. "We may as well go for the all the marbles now."

The Bucks are one of the NBA's hottest teams as well. They're coming off a shocking four-game sweep of the Boston Celtics.

The best-of-seven Western Conference finals, which

Wayne Rollins of the Atlanta Hawks of the NBA is nicknamed "Tree."

start in Los Angeles, feature two of the league's most dominating centers: San Antonio's Artis Gilmore and Los Angeles' Kareem Abdul-Jabbar.

"You're not going to stop him — you just have to contain him," says Gilmore of Jabbar, who averaged 23.6 points a game against the Spurs during the regular season.

"San Antonio will be a step up in class (from Portland)," said the Lakers' Jamaal Wilkes. "It will be Gilmore in the middle instead of Wayne Cooper. They outplayed us during the season and now it's time to get the vibes going for Sunday."

The Spurs took four out of five regular-season games from the defending NBA champions.

"Even though San Antonio has beaten us the last three times we have played, I don't think that will have any effect in the playoffs," says Laker Coach Pat Riley.

Norm Nixon, who scored 36 points Tuesday night in the Laker victory over Portland, said: "San Antonio is a big, strong, physical team. We're going to have to have strong outside shooting games to relieve pressure on the inside."

Magic Johnson agreed. "We can't keep going to the big fellow all the time," he said of Jabbar. "It's a big temptation because he's so good, but you have to keep the defense honest."

Johnson had to leave the Lakers' practice Thursday to be treated for a strained lower back, but a team spokesman said, "It does not appear to be serious."

U.S. Department of Energy Public Hearing

To address the proposed nomination of Texas sites for characterization as a potential high-level radioactive waste repository.

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) has scheduled public hearings in Hereford, Tulia, and Austin, Texas, to inform residents of the proposed nomination of sites in Texas for site characterization and to receive recommendations of issues to be addressed in the environmental assessments and site characterization plans. Details of the Department's plans to find a suitable site for a repository for the isolation of high-level nuclear waste will be outlined at these hearings, including a description of the studies in Texas. The purposes of the hearings are:

1. To inform area residents of this proposed nomination and to receive their comments
2. To solicit issues to be addressed in an environmental assessment which must accompany formal nomination for site characterization
3. To solicit issues to be addressed in a site characterization plan which would be used in studying the potential of the sites as a candidate repository site.

The sites proposed for nomination are in the Palo Duro Basin bedded salt formation, one in Deaf Smith County just north of Hereford and the other in Swisher County northeast of Tulia. All interested parties, including individuals and organizational representatives, are invited to attend and/or comment. Individuals may register by writing at least 5 days in advance to the DOE office listed below. If time permits, unscheduled speakers may testify by registering at the registration table. Oral presentations will be limited to 10 minutes. Written comments also may be provided for incorporation into the formal record.

McEnroe rolls on

Leconte upsets Lendl; prediction true

NEW YORK (AP) — Ivan Lendl's prediction that he wouldn't meet John McEnroe in Sunday's finals of the $500,000 Mercedes Tournament of Champions was right on target — which is more than can be said of Lendl. McEnroe, troubled by a muscle sprain in his right thigh, still has a shot at collecting his first-ever title on the clay courts at the West Side Tennis Club, but Lendl is heading for Munich after being upset Thursday by 19-year-old Henri Leconte of France 6-2, 6-3. Seeded second in this select 40-player field, McEnroe advanced to today's quarterfinal clash against Tomas Smid of Czechoslovakia with a 6-1, 6-2 victory over an outclassed Jan Gunnarson of Sweden. Earlier this week, Lendl took a verbal swing at McEnroe for the New Yorker's antics in their match last Sunday. Asked if he was looking forward to a rematch in this Sunday's nationally televised final on ABC, Lendl said, "I don't see any chance of him beating (Argentina's Guillermo) Vilas." Vilas, the tournament's No. 3 seed, moved into the quarterfinals with a 7-6, 6-3 victory over Mark Dickson and will face No. 8 Paul McNamee of Australia, a 6-4, 3-6, 6-2 winner over No. 16

Jimmy Arias. If both Vilas and McEnroe won today, they were to face each other in one of Saturday's semifinals, which also will be televised by ABC. Today's other matches sent Leconte against No. 9 Johan Kriek and Brad Gilbert against No. 5 Vitas Gerulaitis. Kriek stopped Peter Bastiansen of Denmark 6-7, 7-5, 6-1, while Gilbert pulled off the second upset of the day, ousting fourth-seeded

Kevin Curren of South Africa 6-4, 6-4. Gerulaitis, the 1980 T of C champion, won his third-round match on Wednesday, downing 1981 winner Eddie Dibbs. With the score 2-2 in the first set, Leconte reeled off the next nine games, capturing the first set and taking a 5-0 lead in the second. Then Lendl charged back. "When you get 5-love and three points and he comes back to 5-3, you're gonna be scared," Leconte admitted. But that was as close as Lendl could come as the young Frenchman, who attacked the net every chance he could get, closed out the match by holding serve at 15. "From 2-2 to 5-0, he played without any errors," Lendl said. "Then he made a few errors, but ... he was putting so much pressure on me. Leconte said his game plan, based on the way McEnroe defeated Lendl in last Sunday's title match at the WCT Finals in Dallas, was devised by his coach, Ion Tiriac of Romania. McEnroe had no problems at all, except from the leg injury he suffered during the doubles Wednesday night. "He really didn't test me too much," McEnroe said of Gunnarson. "I hit the ball really well. If I could play like that all the time and could move real well, I would be happy." Asked about Lendl's loss, McEnroe said: "He said I wouldn't be in the finals — I'm still around."

Graham, Nelford share Houston lead

THE WOODLANDS, Texas (AP) — Australian David Graham used an old putter, a new driver and accepted an assist from the weather to earn a share of the first-round lead in the $400,000 Houston Coca Cola Open. Canadian Jim Nelford, who has made 23 consecutive cuts, also took advantage of the tranquil, early-morning weather and matched Graham's 5-under-par 66 Thursday over The Woodlands Country Club's

7,031-yard, par-71 course. Six of the top eight scores over the first 18 holes were posted by golfers who teed off early. Curt Byrum, John Cook and Lindy Miller were a stroke back at 67, while Bob Boyd, Tomas Grayand Lee Trevin carded 68s. Trevino and Gray were the only afternoon starters to finish in the top eight. Defending champion Ed Sneed, who matched par, said he was pleased "considering the difference in the course in the afternoon." Graham discarded all of his experimental putters and returned to an old favorite. He ran in long putts that included six birdies in the final nine holes. He put a stiffer shaft on his driver and that helped him drive accurately. "I can't estimate how much it means to hit the ball straight," he said. "This was my best round of the year and my best nine holes since I don't remember when," said Graham, a former U.S. Open and PGA champion. "I've been having problems with my putting, not mechanically, but just thinking negatively." Graham solved his negative thinking by returning to an old putter. "I must have tried 20 putters in the last six months," he said. Graham started on the backside and struggled to a 1-over 36 at the turn with three bogeys and two birdies. Then he chipped within two feet to start the birdie run on the first hole and sank birdie putts of 12, 10 and 15 feet on Nos. 2, 3 and 5. Nelford missed only two greens, Nos. 8 and 17, but had par-saving puts of five and six feet each time. "It was one of my more comfortable rounds of ball striking," Nelford said. "I entered.

Indy 500 practice begins

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Practice for the May 29 Indianapolis 500 begins on Saturday, but the testing and fine-tuning of the hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of racing equipment at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway has already gone into full swing. Before a car turns a wheel onto the 2½-mile track, the U.S. Auto Club must give its approval through a mandatory technical inspection. And drivers, crews and cars have begun a slow, steady trickle into the infield Gasoline Alley garages. The first car to complete the inspection was the 1982 Chevrolet-powered Eagle racer to be driven by rookie Steve Chassey, a 38-year-old veteran of dirt, sprint and midget-car competition seeking his first starting spot at Indy. Chassey, a native of Indianapolis, is one of 22 rookie drivers who will try to qualify for the 33-car field. Six former winners, including defending champion Gordon Johncock and four-time winner A.J. Foyt, also are entered.

Cards, Braves win

Sutter likes wins, too

By BRUCE LOWITT AP Sports Writer

Bruce Sutter is supposed to save games for the rest of the St. Louis Cardinals' pitching staff. So far into this young season, he's been taking things — like wins — into his own hands.

Dave LaPoint was trying to boost his record to 3-0 Thursday in San Diego, but going into the eighth inning the Cardinals were trailing the Padres 3-2, thanks in part to a Sixto Lezcano home run.

Lonnie Smith's home run for the Cards in the top of the eighth tied the score, and Sutter was sent in. And, after Ruppert Jones' double-play grounder off a split-fingered fastball in the bottom of the eighth and Ken Oberkfell's two-out, tie-breaking single in the top of the ninth, it was Sutter who strode off the mound with a 4-3 victory and a 3-0 record.

In the only other National League game, it was Atlanta 6, Houston 3 Thursday night. In the only American League game, Cleveland defeated Minnesota 7-5.

"I'm going to throw the split-fingered fastball and if they hit it, they hit it," said Sutter. "If they beat me, that's what they're gonna beat me with." With the go-ahead run on third, Jones jumped on Sutter's first serve and killed the threat with his grounder to first baseman Keith Hernandez, who started a 3-6-3 double-play.

"I'd rather have saves," Sutter deadpanned, "but as long as we win, I'm satisfied."

The victory prevented the Padres from sweeping the three-game series. On Wednesday night they trounced the Cards 10-0.

Braves 6, Astros 3
Rookie Craig McMurtury yielded only four hits in six innings and Dale Murphy and Glenn Hubbard homered for Atlanta Braves.

McMurtury, 3-1, struck out two and walked just one before leaving for a pinch-hitter in the sixth. Steve Bedrosian, one of three Braves relievers, recorded his third save.

Indians 7, Twins 5
Rookie reliever Neal Heaton kept putting Twins on base — and then wiping them out by serving up double-play

Whitworth eyes another record

ROSSELL, Ga. (AP) — A year ago Kathy Whitworth captured the Lady Michelob golf tournament to claim the LPGA record for career victories, and she's back again with a chance to become the nation's all-time leader in professional golf triumphs.

"I don't know what it's going to mean if I get No. 85," Whitworth said. "But I don't want to stop at 85. It's like Mickey (Wright) said last year. 'Go for 100.'"

Whitworth's 84 victories stands atop the LPGA list and matches the number of titles claimed by the all-time leader on the men's tour, Sammy Sneed, the 71-year-old marvel of another era who still participates.

"I've never tried to win a specific number of tournaments," she said. "I just want to win, period. I'm sure Sam has won some tournaments that didn't count (officially). I've won a few, too, and I'm also sure Mickey won some that didn't count."

When Whitworth won the 1982 Lady Michelob, she moved ahead of Wright, who had 82 official triumphs.

Whitworth ranks among the favorites in the 1983 tournament beginning today on the 6,123-yard, par 72 Brookfield West Golf and Country Club course.

The field of 102 is a strong one, also featuring a pair of two-time winners this season, Nancy Lopez and Hollis Stacy, and three other players on this year's top 10 money list — Amy Alcott, Jan Stephenson and Lynn Adams.

Jackson inks pro pact with Oilers

HOUSTON (AP) — Robert Jackson, a six-year veteran linebacker with the National Football League and a former All-America from Texas A&M, has signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Oilers.

The terms of the contract, signed Thursday, were not disclosed by the Oilers.

Jackson, 28, was the Cleveland Browns' No. 1 draft pick in 1977. He missed his rookie year because of a knee injury but returned to play five seasons with the club.

In 1981, Jackson started 14 games for the Browns and had 73 tackles and 37 assists.

Last year Jackson, a native of Houston, was traded to Denver. He was released by the Broncos and played seven games with Atlanta.

Chinese minister to speak Monday night

Very few people have faced a firing squad and have lived to tell about it. The Rev. Nora Lam is one of these few and will be sharing her life story here in Hereford at the Community Center, 100 Ave. C, Monday, May 9.

REV. NORA LAM

Scheduled starting time of the meeting is 7:30 p.m. and there is no admission charge.

Mrs. Lam was born an illegitimate child in Peking, China, in the early 1930s and was adopted as an infant by the socially prominent Sung family. Her adoptive family were Christians and were extremely wealthy. Her grandfather was the chairman of the board of the Bank of China for over 40 years.

With the invasion of China in 1937 by Japan, Mrs. Lam's family was literally stripped of their wealth overnight and forced to flee from their home in Shanghai, south to the city of Chung King to escape the advancing army.

In 1945, after the Japanese surrender, Mrs. Lam's family returned to Shanghai, but when the Communists gained control in 1949 her family's safety was once again jeopardized. Their political influence and staunch refusal to deny God marked them for persecution by the new government.

After ten years of intense interrogation and mistreatment, Nora Lam was ordered to be executed and was taken to an isolated area to be shot. However, she believes that God miraculously intervened and her life was spared at the very last moment.

She was eventually allowed to leave Red China and joined other members of her previously released family in Hong Kong. It was while in Hong Kong that she met the late Miss Kathryn Kuhlman.

Miss Kuhlman was so impressed with her story that she personally sponsored her to come to the United States in 1966.

Today, Nora Lam Chinese Ministries International is headquartered in San Jose, Calif. and encompasses daily radio broadcasts on ten powerful stations in Taiwan, and a weekly television program entitled "God's Power Today."

During the last ten years, her organization has sponsored eight large evangelistic crusades to the Orient and has distributed over one million Bibles to the Chinese people of Taiwan.

Lam's organization is currently supporting 25 underground churches in Mainland China and has this year embarked on a mammoth project of delivering 100,000 Bibles to waiting Christians behind the bamboo curtain.

For further information regarding the meeting, contact Bob Huckert, 519 Star Street, Hereford, phone - (806) 365-6078.

Film shows Girls State activities

A film showing activities of the Girls State citizens from the time of arrival in Seguin until their return was shown prior to the regular business meeting of the Hereford Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening. The group met at Legion Hall.

Girls State delegates from Hereford, Jennifer Jesko and Crystal Finley, and Jo Schueler from Friona were present. Other guests were Miss Schueler's mother, Celia Schueler, and Geneva Williams of Friona.

Alice Gilleland conducted the business session, during which a report was heard from community service chairman Kay Hallows. She will chair a Bingo party at King's Manor May 12 and the hospital committee will host a recreation party at the V.A. Medical Center May 9 at 7 p.m.

The Memorial Poppy will be distributed in Hereford

May 25. A committee, including Pet Ott, Clara Trowbridge, and Mary Williamson, will plan Poppy Day activities.

The unit will serve a dinner Tuesday, May 10, to hear Boys State reports. The 1982 Boys State delegates will report and hope to inform 1983 delegates.

The unit scholarship will be awarded at the Hereford High School assembly May 17 at the school. Gold Star Mothers will be honored for Mother's Day on Sunday.

A nominating committee was elected including Ms. Trowbridge, Ms. Williamson, and Ruth King. Troyce Hanna gave a report from the 18th District Convention held in Memphis, Texas, this past Saturday.

Refreshments were served by Ms. Ott and Ethel Logan to approximately 25 auxiliary members and the legion members in attendance.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY PUBLIC HEARING
To address the proposed nomination of Texas sites for characterization as a potential high-level radioactive waste repository.

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) has scheduled public hearings in Hereford, Tulia, and Austin, Texas, to inform residents of the proposed nomination of sites in Texas for site characterization and to receive recommendations of issues to be addressed in the environmental assessments and site characterization plans. Details of the Department's plans to find a suitable site for a repository for the isolation of high-level nuclear waste will be outlined at these hearings, including a description of the studies in Texas. The purposes of the hearings are:

1. To inform area residents of this proposed nomination and to receive their comments.
2. To solicit issues to be addressed in an environmental assessment which must accompany formal nomination for site characterization.
3. To solicit issues to be addressed in a site characterization plan which would be used in studying the potential of the sites as a candidate repository site.

The sites proposed for nomination are in the Palo Duro Basin bedded salt formation, one in Deaf Smith County, just north of Hereford and the other in Swisher County northeast of Tulia. All interested parties, including individuals and organizational representatives, are invited to attend and/or comment. Individuals may register by writing at least 5 days in advance to the DOE office listed below. If time permits, unscheduled speakers may testify by registering at the registration table. Oral presentations will be limited to 10 minutes. Written comments also may be provided for incorporation into the formal record.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Sweat and senility

DEAR DR. LAMB — Help. My husband read an article stating that aluminum absorbed by the body contributes to senility so he has stopped using deodorants as all underarm deodorants contain aluminum. He perspires a great deal. He showers before he goes to his exercise class to avoid smelling up the locker room but is too exhausted when he gets home to shower again. He doesn't shower before going to bed because he sweats at night so why bother.

He will shower before going out socially or having

DEAR DR. LAMB — guests but when we are alone at home the smell gets to me. Do you think there is any justification for his worry about deodorants? Can you suggest an alternative?

DEAR READER — My first suggestion is a regular shower with a deodorant soap after exercise or at least before going to bed. Men in particular have more apocrine glands that are special sweat glands which produce an odor.

And your story makes me wonder if your husband has the proper respect for you as a wife. Is he avoiding sex through making himself sexually unattractive to you? I don't think we have any really good answers about aluminum and its effects on the brain, if any. The observation of increased deposits in brain tissue may be in response to brain tissue that is already damaged. But it is certainly an important area for research.

But even if there is a connection, aluminum compounds on the skin as in deodorants will not be absorbed. The aluminum in question is that which is swallowed from antacids and other sources.

Aluminum compounds in antiperspirants have a local action on the sweat glands. They literally damage the opening and clog the sweat gland — which I happen to think is not the best approach to the problem. And there are a very few deodorants that do not contain aluminum.

Your husband should read The Health Letter 18-2. Sweating, Antiperspirants and Deodorants, which I am sending you. It could be the basis for the two of you resolving the sticky area. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

The Patent Office has issued over 100,000 patents for amusement park rides and such.

Our blessings that have come to pass,
We tend to disregard;
Because we see the greenest grass
In someone else's yard.
The magic thing we call success
Eludes us, come what may;
And thus it seems that happiness
Will never come our way.
However, through the Church we find
That there's no need to roam,
For happiness and peace of mind
Are always close to home.
So, don't go searching all around,
And some day you'll agree:
The greenest grass of all is found
Wherever you may be!

EAT OUT TONIGHT... AT HOME

WHY EAT OUT WHEN YOU CAN SERVE THE SAME FOODS AT HOME FOR ABOUT HALF THE COST? WE RECENTLY COMPARED THE COST OF POPULAR FOODS SERVED AT "FAST FOOD" RESTAURANTS WITH THE COST OF THE SAME FOODS PURCHASED AT THE SUPERMARKET AND PREPARED AT HOME. WE WERE A LITTLE SURPRISED AT THE RESULTS. IN MOST CASES WE FOUND THE COST OF EATING OUT WAS ABOUT DOUBLE THE COST OF EATING AT HOME. THIS IS BASED ON A COMPARISON WITH POPULAR FROZEN FOOD ITEMS LIKE FRIED CHICKEN, PIZZA, AND FRENCH FRIES. SOME OF THESE PRICED COMPARISONS ARE LISTED BELOW SO YOU CAN SEE FOR YOURSELF. (COOKING FOODS FROM SCRATCH CAN MAKE AN EVEN BIGGER DIFFERENCE IN COST.) WHAT'S ALL THIS MEAN? IT MEANS YOU CAN SERVE YOUR FAMILY DELICIOUS, FAST, CONVENIENT MEALS AT HOME... WITHOUT THE COST OF EATING OUT. AND... YOU CAN MAKE SURE THEIR MEALS ARE MORE NUTRITIONALLY COMPLETE BY ADDING A SALAD, A VEGETABLE, ETC. TO YOUR "FAST FOOD" MENU. THE REST OF YOUR MENU CAN BE AS VARIED AS YOUR TASTES... FRIED CHICKEN, HAMBURGERS, PIZZA, FRENCH FRIES, SHRIMP, FISH & CHIPS, SANDWICHES, MEAT PIES, FRUIT PIES, BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, AND MUCH MORE. MANY OF THESE ARE AVAILABLE AS CONVENIENT "HEAT & SERVE" FROZEN FOODS. THEY'RE FAST, EASY, AND MOST COOK RIGHT IN THEIR OWN PACKAGE SO YOU DON'T HAVE A BIG MESS TO CLEAN UP. THE NEXT TIME YOU HAVE AN URGE TO EAT OUT, EAT AT HOME INSTEAD. CHECK THE MENU BELOW THEN STOP IN FOR EXTRA SAVINGS ON YOUR OWN "FAST FOODS" FROM JACK & JILL.

LOOK WHAT'S ON THE MENU THIS WEEK!!
