XMAS SEALS CAMPAIGN IS INTENSIFIED

GIRL SCOUTS TO WORK HARD SATURDAY TO PUT IT OVER

TWO SEALS DAYS

Saturday and Monday Designated as Specials For Hereford

Next Saturday and Monday are Monday are Christmas Seal Days for Hereford. It is hoped that every letter, every Christmas card, every package, that goes out of the city through the postoffice or otherwise will bear the stamped emblem of mercy thereon.

The Girl Scouts, who have volunteered their services to Mrs. Homer Wilkinson, county chairman of the Seals campaign, will establish sale booths in the postoffice and the banks Saturday and do their bit toward putting the Seals drive over the top. The teachers of all rural schools have been supplied with Seals for sale in their districts. All the Hereford drug stores and most of the dry goods stores also have supplies of Seals on hand for the convenience of those who will purchase them.

A Seal costs only one cent. The proceeds from this annual drive go toward the prevention and cure of tuberculosis in Texas and in the United States. Surely there can be no more worthy cause offered for the consideration of the people during the glad Christmas season.

Captain Estes' Son-in-law is Associate Judge

The announcement Monday that Governor Neff had appointed Judge E. L. Klett of Lubbock Associate Justice of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo was of peculiar interest in Hereford owing to the fact that Judge Klett is a son-in-law of Captain John Estes, and well known here.

The appointment came about through the death last week of Chief Justice S. P. Huff. Judge R. Walker Hall, associate justice, was promoted to fill the vacancy, and Judge Klett is to succeed Judge Hall.

Judge Klett was graduated from the University of Texas law school in 1906 and began practice in Lubbock. He is a member of the firm of Bean and Klett, one of the best known law firms of the South Plains. He is well known as a "thorough and capable lawyer," according to local attorneys who know him.

MRS. E. H. SHORE DIES AFTER LONG SPELL BAD HEALTH

Mrs. E. H. Shore passed away Thursday about 11:30 a. m. at the Hereford Sanitarium, after a lingering illness of several months.

Mrs. Shore was born in Kansas City September 6, 1870, and was united in marriage to Mr. Shore twenty-seven years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Shore and family moved to Hereford about four years ago. Mrs. Shore is survived by her husband, three daughters and two sons. The two sons, Eddie, of Kansas City, and Silver, of Chicago, will be here to attend the funeral. The funeral services will be held next Sunday, interment in the City Cemetery.

MIDLAND CATTLE MAN BUYS SEVERAL HEAD GOOD STOCK

Ray Parks, of Midland, Texas, reached Hereford the first of the week and is the guest of Charles Donald and family. Mr. Parks is in the cattle business and while here bought 200 head of the Stubbs cattle from Jno. L. Wilson, paying $40.00 around, eight of Mrs. L. R. Brady, and three of W. T. Womble.

All Kinds Santa Claus Letters In The Brand Mail

Letters to Santa Claus, addressed to him at the North Pole, in care of The Brand, and in various other ways, are coming in through every mail. There is no doubt about the interest in old Santa among the little folks of the Hereford community.

Don't forget, Kiddies, that the letters will be published in The Brand in its issue of Friday, December 22, and letters should be in the office not later than Thursday morning, December 21.

Harrison Complimented on Work Of Fair Judging

E. W. Harrison served as judge of the agricultural section of the Dallas Fair this fall, a job that is not always the most agreeable in the world and one that cannot please everybody interested. However, Mr. Harrison's labors were appreciated by the Agricultural Exhibitors Association, as is evidenced by the following letter from Secretary Jennings, at Lubbock:

"Dear Mr. Harrison: At the annual meeting of the Agricultural Exhibitors Association at Dallas, October 13, ult., a resolution was unanimously adopted thanking the judges for their careful, painstaking efforts and impartial decisions rendered in judging the county exhibits at the Texas State Fair.

"With possibly one exception, everyone was entirely satisfied with the results of your earnest labor, and a better feeling existed among the exhibitors after your decisions were announced than for many years.

"Please accept our sincere appreciation for your good work, and trusting that you may again serve in the same capacity, I am

Very truly yours,
J. W. Jennings, Secy.
Agricultural Exhibitors Association."

CUPID IS GETTING BUSY AS RESULT OF XMAS SPIRIT

There has been quite a bit of business in the way of marriage licenses issued by County Clerk Biggs of late, and several marriages where licenses were obtained elsewhere. And there are rumors that more licenses will be issued between now and the first of the year. The records since December 1 show the following:

December 1—Willis Parker and Miss Clara Norton, Bovina;
December 8—Edwin Golladay and Miss Eva Roenfeldt, Amarillo;
December 9—H. A. Barrett and Miss Dora Sumanthy Roberts, Hereford;
December 11—C. D. Woltman and Miss Dorie Taylor, Texico, N. M.;

Holberg informed The Brand that the stork visited their home, Dec. 4, with a boy, named Arthur E. Jr.

AN EDITORIAL GETTING THE HEN ACROSS THE ROAD

FROM A BY-PRODUCT—AN INDUSTRY

Time was when every house had its yard full of scratching chickens. As a food supply for the family, they helped.

With the passing of time and the subsequent development of the country, cities grew where communities had existed. Quite naturally, neither time nor room could be spared for tending chickens.

On the other hand, the farmers, in their efforts to appease the ravenous appetite of the busy cities, turned their attention and labor to producing profitable provisions. Poultry raising as a paying business was unthought of, or carried on on a small scale.

With the advent of the poultry fancier—generally a rich man with a hobby and some knowledge of chickens—came the first step in the recognition of the farmyard fowl as a possible source of profit.

As the fancier took to breeding and cross-breeding, gradually he produced stronger and better chickens—better layers, better flesh, better feathers, better breeders.

Close on his heels came the business man—eyes wide open for a paying proposition. His shrewd intellect saw a great future in poultry, and he stepped in.

The breeder and the business man combined. The former donated his knowledge of breeding and raising—the latter applied his commercial instincts to the marketing. The result was inevitable.

Interest has grown to the extent where national and state farm organizations have begun to co-operate with the breeders. Colleges have established poultry farms, where science is applied to the culture of chickens.

Poultry raising has come into its own.

SECOND ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW WILL OPEN IN SALE PAVILION NEXT THURSDAY

UNUSUAL INTEREST BEING MANIFESTED HERE IN DISPLAY OF CHICKENS AND TURKEYS. MANY ENTRIES ARRIVING

BIRDS WILL BE COOPED THURSDAY

Several Recruits Added to Staff at Show to Handle Many Details. Judge Duke of Amarillo Will Again Place Ribbons. Biggest Show yet now Seems Assured

The Second Annual Show of the Hereford Poultry Association opens next week, Thursday, December 21, and continues through Saturday. Last year over 600 birds were counted and this year advance prospects point to even more than that for exhibition. The poultry and turkey business has taken a wonderful hold on this country the past two years. In fact the spending money of many families has depended upon this "chicken change" during that time, and the farmers are rapidly awakening to the fact that it pays and pays big to pay some attention to pure blooded poultry and turkeys as well as to blooded stock of other kinds.

Much interest is already being manifested in the coming show and several entries have already arrived. Mrs. R. A. Campbell of Canyon, winner of the sweepstakes last year, has the honor of being the first formal entrant from out of the county. Friday morning Mrs. Campbell sent in her entry of two pens of her prize-winning buff Orpingtons. Other breeders at Canyon, at Amarillo, at Hart and at Frons have written Secretary Vogele about details.

The firm of Jones & McLean have announced in advance that they will offer a special prize of a 100 pound sack of Purina Chowder for the best pen of five capons shown. They will show some capons of their own, but these will not be allowed to compete for the prize.

The complete staff for the Show, as selected to date, are announced as follows:

- A. L. Biggs, acting president, in charge;
- N. C. Vogele, Secretary;
- H. L. Broadwell, assistant secretary;
- Richard Kimmons, assistant secretary;
- Geo. E. Burns, assistant secretary;
- Charles Smith, assistant secretary;
- Dr. J. M. Farrell, sales manager;
- Andy Godwin, superintendent;
- J. W. Houston, assistant superintendent;
- Chas. Hicks, assistant superintendent.

E. J. Newell, feeding overseer.

Thursday will be entry day and the birds will be received, penned and leg banded as they arrive. There is a lot of work connected with this, and accurate records have to be kept, hence the appointment of several assistants to aid the secretary and superintendent in handling the multitude of details. Entries will absolutely close at 10:00 a. m. Friday morning, when the judging will begin.

The big Sale Pavilion is being arranged by these men and other volunteers, the coops from Amarillo, as well as the local coops used last year, will be erected, and some of the cattle stalls wire-covered to be used as turkey pens. There is plenty of room in this structure, and the coops will not have to be double-decked as last year, giving everyone a better chance to see the chickens, and giving the chickens a better chance to be seen.

The judging will be done by Dr. Duke of Amarillo, who officiated so pleasingly last year. Dr. Duke has judged eight Panhandle shows so far this year and is widely coming to the front as one of the best in the business.

Admission to the Show will be free. No charges are made for entering birds, but every one that enters one bird or one hundred birds will be required to join the association, paying $1.00 for dues for the year 1923.

A big "three days" is ahead of the poultry lovers of this section, and it is hoped that everybody will turn out and see the wonderful exhibition that is certain to be made.

For information concerning the Show see or telephone secretary Vogele at the Brand office, or Lee Biggs at the county clerk's office.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE, PLAN

Friends of Mrs. W. R. Williams (nee Ceel Guiland), were planning a Kitchen Shower in her honor at the home of Miss Johnny Estes Friday night.

Another Touch of Cold Weather Predicted

That pecky Weather Man got himself in bad again Thursday afternoon by predicting another cold snap for Friday. His wire read: "Cold wave, Panhandle, temperature 12 to 18 Friday."

Friday morning was mild, but toward the middle of the day it began to get cooler, with a promising bank in the north and east, and prospects were that the prophecy would be fulfilled by Saturday morning. Moisture is the big thing Hereford folks are interested in just now, and a prediction of cold weather would not be nearly so unwelcome if it was accompanied by the magic word, "snow!"

Randall Co. Swine Men Plan School To Help Industry

The Randall County Swine breeders are contemplating holding a special school in swine husbandry sometime in December to further their knowledge of hog production. As outlined at the present time by those in charge, the school will likely last two or three weeks. However, it is planned to have only two classes per week. A large part of the class-time will be devoted to feeding problems. The present price of grain is forcing breeders to give attention to economical rations and pastures for pork production.

According to Prof. Phillips of the West Texas State Normal College Department of Agriculture, the unit course in special live stock production is proving more satisfactory than the old type of farmer institute. The Farmer Institute was run with the idea to get someone from a distance to make an inspirational speech, and then the interest was lost until the next year's meeting; on the other hand, the unit type of instruction simply means that a group of farmers come together and discuss problems in connection with their work.

GENUINE SURPRISE FOR P. W. PRICE ON HIS BIRTHDAY

A genuine birthday surprise that was a real surprise indeed, was a dinner given P. W. Price by his wife last Tuesday night, December 15. Mr. Price had even forgotten the day of the month and had gone hunting in the afternoon. Returning about six o'clock he stepped into a roomful of Masonic friends invited for the occasion.

A real birthday dinner followed, after which the crowd adjourned to the living room and told stories and smoked and joked until a late hour. Those who had the pleasure of surprising Mr. Price were: J. H. Buckner, Geo. L. Muse, H. B. Webb, J. S. Jones, W. H. Ray, Geo. P. Garrison, E. B. Black and Albert Herbst.

POSTOFFICE GETS A XMAS PRESENT WITH REAL VALUE

The postoffice is blossoming out in new furniture this week, a Christmas gift from the Panhandle Lumber Company and the E. B. Black Company. The new additions consist of two twelve-foot writing desks, slantly but neatly made, the lumber and carpenter work being supplied by the Panhandle people and the varnishing and touching up done by the E. B. Black Co.

The new desks will do much toward the looks of the postoffice, not to mention the convenience to the general public.

Grand Jury Cites Young Men for Violations Of the Laws

Judge Reese Tatum adjourned district court finally for the term Thursday and returned to his home at Daltart Friday. In the case of Gracie H. Hughes vs. Louis L. Hughes, a divorce was granted, after a trial which began last Monday.

The grand jury also completed its labors after returning seven indictments, five for unlawfully transporting intoxicating liquor, one for unlawfully selling liquor, and one for assault and battery. All of these indictments are against local young men. Sheriff Purcell stated Friday that while he regretted the necessity which compelled these charges he was left no choice in the matter by his oath of office, and that the intervening months before their trials will give these young men a chance to show whether or not they have the right stuff in them.

Wilkinson Motor Co. Installs a Radio Receiver

Homer Wilkinson returned from Oklahoma City Friday and announced that he had acquired the agency for another radio concern. His first outfit reached here by express Friday morning and by three in the afternoon he was sitting down trying to get the news of the world, which is some record for speed.

The name of the radio is Magnavox, Crosley model. It is a four tube affair with a loud speaker and Mr. Wilkinson says he can give a concert to a hundred people when he gets it to working right. A large and interested audience stood around all afternoon studying the latest invention.

C. O. Lee, who also handles radio equipment, has "listened in" on Minneapolis, San Diego, Los Angeles, and an unknown station in West Virginia, Wednesday evening during a concert from Los Angeles the concert was stopped long enough to broadcast the news that a Buick roadster had just been stolen there, No. 142499, and was headed for Pasadena!

The radio promises to make car stealing a precarious venture hereafter.

Joe Heydon of Melrose will furnish the entertainment, together with an old fashioned program of "back and wing" dancing by a man who counts with a reputation. The school children of Dimmitt will also aid in entertaining.

After a short visit at that place, Mr. and Mrs. Sheffy arrived in Dimmitt on the 2nd day of this month where they are now at home in the West part of town. Mrs. Sheffy leaves a host of friends and associates at Sweetwater who wish her all happiness in her new home. The Sweetwater has lost one of her most pleasant and charming young ladies yet her loss is our gain and we are glad to welcome Mrs. Sheffy into our midst. Mr. Sheffy is one of our most popular and prosperous young men. He has resided here for several years and is highly esteemed for his character and business ability. FRIONA
 John Giesler is building a comfortable camp house with a wagon yard adjoining it near his elevator for the convenience of his New Mexico patrons. This is something the town has been badly in need of and Mr. Giesler's enterprise is worthy of our commendation.
 H. S. Houlette spent a part of last week with his son, Eustace, over in New Mexico assisting him with some carpenter work. He took quite a lot of his carpenter tools with him and when he started home Saturday evening he placed the tools in the back part of the car. When he reached home he discovered that every one of the tools had disappeared from the car. It is supposed that they were jostled from the car and perhaps strewn along the road. The tools were valued at about twenty-five dollars.

 The people of the Congregational Church were rejoiced to be able to hold their first services in the new church building last Sunday. None of the doors were hung and there was considerable wind which, with a shortage of fuel made considerable discomfort.

The new piano was purchased by the Young People's Class of the Sunday School. This same class also donated $100 to the building fund of the church which has all been paid in.

The secretary of the board of education has received inquiries from non-residents wishing to know whether or not certain tracts of land are located in the Friona consolidated school district. Some people claim that a good school with suitable transportation facilities for reaching it means nothing to a locality or town, but the fact that others will move into our community or stay out of it is determined by whether or not their land lies within the limits of a district which supports a good school and furnishes suitable transportation, seems sufficient to upset all such reasoning.

VACATION'S HERE
(By Lawrence Taylor)
When you hear the words "Vacation's here", As a rule in school you hear Children voicing and rejoicing far and near. But 'tis not so with those who go To school to learn to sing. And by that way to make His praises ring. But 'tis vacation to us to hear vacation's o'er. Then we can get to sing some more. As you know the rules And regulations are so arranged. They cannot be changed.

So the best thing for us to do Till vacation's thru Is to hope and trust that The coming year will bring. Joy and pleasure Beyond great measure To all who love to sing.

And as the chilly months are silently Creeping o'er the land Winter announced on every hand. November and December seem to get To cold to bear While January and February Fur lined coats we must wear.

And in these winter months Snow and rain Cover up the fields. Of growing grain.

But in the spring we sing. For a little sunshine to melt the snow. And often buds and flowers. Then we may be counting The days and hours When on that chilly but Delightful day.

Then, 26 days March winds have been blowing.

You and I will be going. To that little city of Dimmitt. To raise our voices to their limit. With our minds on things above. Telling of our Redeemer's love. And singing, but where? Dimmitt, that's where. You may look for me for I'll be there.

Compassion's Loving Cup

When you're feeling sort o'blue like
And you think you're out o'luck
Did you ever stop to ponder
On some other fellow's pluck?

There are heap's o'folks around you
Who have found the way up hill
Who have kissed the cross of failure
And come up a-smiling still.

There are those who toil and suffer
That another's hope may live,
Who have buried self forever
In the effort just to give.

Yours are not the only troubles;
Count the other fellow's up,
And you'll drown that germ o'blueness
In compassion's loving cup.

It may be of interest to know the origin of the word, "sandwich." It is said that this popular form of refreshment was invented by and named after the Earl of Sandwich, about 1781. The earl was so fond of gambling that he would not take time off for his meals, ordering his servants to give him slices of meat between pieces of bread, so that he might eat, without leaving the card table.

It is with deep regret we hear of the serious illness of Buster Lewis at Clovis. Only a few days ago, Buster left with his parents for Clovis where they expect to make their home.

Misses Lorena and Lillian Taylor, members of the class of '22, made the High School a visit Wednesday afternoon.

One more week until "Santa" comes. The teachers, as well as the pupils, are looking forward to the Christmas holidays with visions and dreams of what is in store for each of them when Santa makes his rounds.

More than 56 percent of the graduating class of "1922" are either going to school or teaching at the present time.

A number of new pupils have been enrolled since the last report.

We are told that the buffaloes of our continent have been almost exterminated. As late as forty years ago, trains often had to halt upon the prairies, and even steamboats were, occasionally obliged to wait an hour or two in the Missouri River until enormous herds of buffalo had crossed their path. Now only about two hundred of these animals are in existence—the sole survivors of the millions that once thundered over the western plains, and disputed with the Indians the ownership of our great continent. The four principal places this small remnant is found are: Lincoln Park Zoo, Chicago; A Zoo in Des Moines, Iowa, in Yellowstone National Park, and on the Goodnight Ranch at Goodnight, Texas.

We hear that Daniel Bell, of the class of '21', is distinguishing himself as a student in A. & M. the present school year.

The art of bridge-building in some form or other, is one of the earliest necessities of civilization. Even the apes in equatorial regions will link themselves together and swing their living line across a stream to trees on the opposite bank, thus forming a connected path of bodies along which other monkeys pass in safety. Bridges of ropes or reeds were also made by the most primitive of men. The Romans were the first to fashion magnificent viaducts.

Mrs. M. A. Hastings Survived by A Large Family

The Clarendon News of last week gives the following account of the death of Mrs. Margaret Ann Hastings, mother of Henry Hastings of Hereford, which will be of interest to her many relatives and friends throughout this section:

Funeral services of Mrs. Margaret Ann Hastings were conducted at the Methodist church at 3 p. m., Friday by Rev. J. T. Griswold, pastor of the Methodist church, and Dr. G. S. Sloyer, president of Clarendon College. One of the largest funeral processions ever seen in Clarendon attended the remains to the cemetery for interment.

"Grandma" Hastings, as she was affectionately known in Clarendon, died about 5 p. m., Thanksgiving day after having been confined to her bed for about eighteen days. She had been in ill health, however, for several years.

Deceased, who was 81 years, 1 month and 12 days of age, was the mother of thirteen children, all of whom are living and were at the funeral. They are: Mrs. M. E. Green, Santa Anna; Mrs. L. G. Oxford, Duffan; Mrs. I. J. Frazer, Estelline; J. A. Hastings, Clarendon; J. R. Hastings, Dimmitt; W. E. Hastings, Hedley; J. W. Hastings, Canyon; W. S. Hastings, Canyon; Henry Hastings, Hereford; C. F. Hastings, Bovina; H. T. Hastings, Bovina; Mrs. H. J. Derrick, Clarendon, and Luther Hastings Vigo Park. Mrs. Hastings is also survived by 91 grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Mary Bobb of Tullahoma, Tenn.

Her husband preceded her in death on the 14th of August, 1919.

Mrs. Hastings was formerly Miss Margaret Ann Philpot. She was born in Bedford county, Tenn., October 18, 1841, and was married in that county to Mr. Hastings on December 3, 1857. They moved to Texas in 1876 and settled in Tarrant county, later moving to Wise county. They came to Tulla as one of the pioneers of the Panhandle and moved from that city to Clarendon fifteen years ago. "Grandma" Hastings was a beautiful christian character, a tireless, unselfish worker, and was actively identified with the activities of the Methodist church until she became incapacitated. The News joins her many friends in extending condolence to the bereaved ones.

GRANDMA HASTINGS

We the members of the Senior Class of the Methodist Sunday School offer condolence to the bereaved family of our dear Grandma Hastings, who has gone to her Heavenly Home to dwell with God and the Holy Angels. We miss her in our class today, but know that she is with the Great Teacher above whom she trusted until the last breath. Let's strive to meet her in the Happy Land. Grandma, like Him who went about doing good, was known for her many deeds of kindness and love for every body. She lived the religion that she professed, by bringing joy and sunshine into the lives of those she met. Weep not for Grandma for she has gone where there is no more pain or death.

Messrs. Emmett Rothwell and K. Roberts left Monday for Floyd county to help more Rev. Fort to the ranch at Big Square.

Irvin Hamilton expects to leave for Plainview to take the remainder of his cotton to the gin.

George Bagwell and Miss Mildred Bagwell are visiting in the home of Jim Bagwell.

The program committee is working hard on the Christmas program to be given Saturday evening, Dec. 23.

The Sunday School had a good attendance Sunday. It was decided to get some new song books and the money was made up right then. We surely needed this as our old books were getting badly torn and were inadequate. Messdames Jim Bagwell, K. Roberts, Glen Smith, Leslie Womack and Vera

Lust spent last Thursday with Mrs. Boyd Kimball. They pieced almost two quilts and report the time of their lives, with an exceptionally good dinner. All the ladies of the neighborhood were invited, but some had to cook for themselves and the others had sickness in the home.

Kathleen Rothwell was sick the latter part of the week.

Quite an interesting coyote chase took place here this week. He was discovered in the Hamilton cotton patch, ran out into Ham Lambert's field, the last pasture and finally killed in the cotton patch. The coyote found that one Ford, one grey horse and one gun was too much for him.

Rev. Fort visited in our neighborhood last week.

Don't forget we have church on the third Sunday afternoons.

Loyal Lust is sporting a runabout at Big Square Saturday evening. This Ford now, having traded car bodies

Mrs. Arthur Haberer of Big Square was quite sick the first of the week.

Another telephone meeting was held at Big Square Saturday evening. This seems to be going through all right.

Agricultural Train On the Santa Fe During March

A. & M. College Will Furnish Lecturers and the Exhibits

Amarillo, Texas, December 14.—The Santa Fe Railway is planning to run a demonstration train in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural College over its lines in Texas this winter, announces F. A. Lehman, General Manager and Vice-president of the Panhandle lines of the Santa Fe Railway.
"The schedule will be announced in the near future. It is planned to have the train run in the Panhandle and the South Plains late in March", said Mr. Lehman.
The Agricultural College will provide the speakers and the exhibits necessary to make the demonstration, while the Santa Fe Railway will finance and operate the train. The Agricultural College is doing a great work for better farming and better live stock in the state. It is the purpose of this train to give the State College an opportunity to carry its message directly to a larger number of farmers and stockmen.
The importance of the cow, the sow and the hen in the farm program will be emphasized. The farming industry was hard hit in the depression of 1920. But the farmer who was milking a few cows, raising hogs and keeping chickens suffered less than the exclusive grain farmer. Therefore, diversified farming which includes the cow, the sow, the hen, will have particular attention in the program of the

Don't WASTE
Don't throw away your old shoes. You don't discard your Automobile because a tire wears out. Why throw away a pair of shoes because the soles wear out? We can make them like new at a very nominal cost.

"SHOE REPAIRING INSURES HEALTH, ECONOMY, COMFORT." H. E. C.

New shoes cost so much these days that it pays to get the very best step out of every pair of shoes. Don't add to the infantile mortality of the shoe by discarding yours before they are worn out.
