SCHOOL ANNOUNCES FACULTY FOR COMING YEAR

SCHOOL OUTLOOK BRIGHT WITH FACULTY AUGMENTED BY ABLE NEW INSTRUCTORS

Superintendent C. H. Dillehay Pleased With Lineup of Faculty Members for Coming Year. Many Former Teachers Replaced by Competent New Additions to Staff. All Come Highly Recommended.

All members of the faculty of Hereford schools for the 1928-29 term have been selected. It was made known this morning by C. H. Dillehay. Several new teachers have been added to replace some faculty members who have been here many years.

Composing the high school faculty will be the following instructors: G. M. Hudson, principal, Honey Grove; Miss Irene Crawford, Weatherford; Miss Lillian Busher, Littlefield; Miss Sadie Rigler, Plainview; Miss Bess West-Block, Powderly; C. W. Humble, Hereford; Miss Velma Reed, Blum; Thomas E. McCollum, Estelline; Will S. Keer, Hereford; and Miss Willie Mae Bagwell, Claude.

New Coach Named.
Thomas E. McCollum is the newly named athletic coach and teacher of mathematics. He is a graduate of Simmons University and has done some work there since obtaining his degree this June. An outstanding athlete and student, he received this tribute in an Associated Press article recently: "Tom McCollum of Estelline, 1928, basketball and track captain at Simmons University, is a good student as well as a good athlete. He is a letter man in football and so good in baseball that he turned down this spring an offer from the Western League. He is a member of the Simmons chapter of the Scholarship Society of the South, the highest honor in the school." He was also president of the Men's Student Council.

Miss Crawford, who will teach English and Public Speaking, has taught English in the schools of Weatherford for a number of years. She is a graduate of the College of Industrial Arts, has done graduate work at the University of Colorado and Columbia University, where she is studying at present.

Another English teacher is Miss Lillian Busher, who has been teaching at Littlefield for the past four years. A graduate of Baylor University, she is now doing graduate work at Columbia University.

Miss Willie Mae Bagwell will teach History. She is a graduate of the West Texas State Teachers College and has taught in Claude since her graduation. She comes well recommended by her teachers at Canyon and also by two superintendents at Claude.

Grade Faculty Good.
Teachers in the departmental grades include Miss Frances Fullington, Decatur; Miss Jeannette Rogers, St. Jo; Miss Ora Bell, Helmer; and Miss Dorothy Flannery, Sherman. Miss Flannery has a degree from Austin College and will probably be the first holder of a degree to teach here below the high school.

The faculty of Central school is made up as follows: Miss Edith Shields, Vega; Miss Kathleen Beach, Hydro, Okla.; Miss Hazel Rambo, Hereford; Miss Mary Bradley, Hereford; Miss Madeline Bell, Hedley; Miss Ella Alkman, Hereford; Miss Eunice Rutherford, Lockney; Miss Tullie Bell, Hedley; Miss Anna Mae Fagg, Eddy, and Miss Ruby Reffin, Silvertown.

Many Additions Made In City's Sewer System

As sure as any single indication of a town's growth and development is the amount of new sewers installed. At present city workers are busy laying several thousand feet of new pipe in many parts of town.

Four-inch pipe is being used to replace old pipe in alleys in the downtown district. All new six-inch pipes have been installed throughout the city limits west of 25-Mile Avenue.

Work will probably be completed next week, City Marshal Charlie Bennett says, on the many improvements being made on the sewage disposal plant east of town.

Henard East Named For Trip to College
One more Hereford boy will make the trip to the short course at the A. & M. College this summer. He is Henard East, member of the vocational agriculture class during the summer session of his school.

East was chosen from thirty-one competitors. His showing made this summer in agricultural projects. Judging was done by County Agent Dunkle. Young East has already won several prizes and trips for similar work.

Much Precipitation Aids Now Growing Crops
Though rain does not always fall here throughout the year, that which does fall comes in the growing season when it is needed and appreciated. Further evidence of this was furnished last week-end when heavy rains fell on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, netting a total precipitation of well over an inch and one quarter.

Row crops are said to be in better condition than for many years. Perhaps the cotton crop receives as much benefit as any from the present ideal growing weather.

Helping Daddy
Miss Alice Eapen had a shock of wheat raised on her father's farm. The Kansas State Agricultural Board found this wheat 100% pure. Her father, Fred Lapid, is a prominent wheat seed merchant. Alice is a high school student and helps in the fields.

MACHINE OVERTURNS

Tragedy Barely Averted When Three Girls Wreck Car On Highway East of Town. All Receive Several Minor Injuries.

Tragedy was barely averted here last Thursday afternoon when the Ford coupe occupied by Misses Annie and Mildred Sawyer, daughters of Bill Sawyer, and an out-of-town guest, left the road about three miles east of town and turned over several times.

VOTING LIGHT

Move to Procure More County Road Funds Fails by Big Majority In Election Saturday.

Polling a vote of nearly two to one against a measure for an additional county road tax of 15c on the $100 valuation was defeated at an election held in this county last Saturday. Total result from all ten precincts was 171 votes for and 254 votes against.

County commissioners had called the special election upon presentation of a petition signed by nearly 400 qualified taxpayers urging the election.

Proponents of the move blamed lack of accurate information for the defeat of the proposed tax. Sufficient funds to maintain roads must be obtained, they say, and the only way for this to be done now is to raise tax valuation. Half the funds obtained this way, however, must go to the state, so that property must be taxed to obtain 30c on the $100 valuation in order to leave for the county the 15c asked for in the tax election.

Harley Sadler Brings Players for Ball Game

"Worth the money," is the way manager H. K. Fox spoke this morning discussing the game to be played here Sunday afternoon between his Hereford Whiteface ball team and the famed Harley Sadler nine.

Always good, the Sadler aggregation has proved even more formidable during the current season. It boasts a record of more wins for number of games played than any other amateur team playing in the Panhandle.

Fans here are of the opinion this will be one game the outcome of which cannot be forecast. Captain Ralph Smith says his men are ready to give the visitors a game they will remember, and if possible help them lower their percentage.

MANY ENTER GREAT MEET FOR SINGERS

Castro, Deaf Smith and Randall Counties Send Representatives to Sing-Song at Jumbo Sunday.

At least 500 singers from Deaf Smith, Castro and Randall counties are expected to attend a mammoth singing convention to be held at Jumbo community, fourteen miles southeast of here Sunday, July 15.

According to Lloyd Roberson, Plateau singers are urged to be present, although the meeting next Sunday will in no way interfere or conflict with that organization.

"The aim of the organization will be to create a better interest in song in this three-county district," Mr. Roberson declared.

Arrangements are nearing completion to make this the largest district meet ever held here. An election of officers and business meeting will be an important feature of the session.

Singers are asked to bring their basket dinners, as the meeting will begin about ten o'clock in the morning and last all day. Besides members of the association, many noted Panhandle singers will bring special numbers to the meeting, officials say.

Wheat Harvest At High Point In This Region

Shipping 205 cars of wheat within the past six days, Hereford's elevators are now at the height of the harvest season, working day and night to take care of the rush. Approximately 622,500 bushels have been purchased so far from farmers within the Hereford territory.

Although rain and hail held up harvest in this region, the amount of wheat being cut indicates that the delays were profitable.

According to operators, the amount of the rush to the elevators is now in sight. Quality of the grain brought in is holding up well, so that the 1928 harvest compares favorably with any of recent years, despite pre-harvest damage.

SPECIALIST HOLDS CLINIC

Dr. Edward Owen, of Amarillo, noted throughout Texas as the discoverer of the Radium-Scope treatment of hay fever, will be in Hereford at the Corner Drug Store on Friday and Saturday. It was announced this morning by John McLean, proprietor.

ELECTION DATE SET

Hereford to Vote on Maintaining Band by City Funds In Election Scheduled Early Next Month. Petition Brings Action by Officials.

Thursday, August 9, is the date set for the election on a special proposed tax for the municipal maintenance of a band in Hereford. City commissioners determined upon this date at a meeting held Tuesday morning, at which a petition signed by 116 taxpayers was presented asking them to call an election.

If voted, it is understood, the measure will call for an additional tax of two mills on the $100 valuation, which will be used to finance a band here.

MAN WOUNDED

Friena Man Brought Here Seriously Injured After Pistol Affray On Main Street Last Saturday.

W. A. Blankenship of Friena is seriously injured and Buford Taylor, also of Friena, is in the custody of Farmer county officers following a shooting affray on the streets of Friena about nine o'clock Saturday morning.

According to witnesses, Blankenship was sitting in a barber shop when Taylor walked in carrying a gun. "I'm looking for you, fellow," Taylor is alleged to have said. "Look out, now," Blankenship replied, running out the front door. Taylor, it is said, followed him to the street and shot three times, the third bullet hitting the running man in the right shoulder and passing clear through his body.

Blankenship was rushed immediately to the Deaf Smith county hospital where it was thought that he would die within a few hours. Last reports from the hospital, however, indicated that he was recovering rapidly.

Christian Church Has Good Meeting

Preaching before a crowded auditorium every night, the Rev. J. W. Boutinghouse, guest evangelist, is drawing to the Christian church here this week what is believed to be the largest crowd to attend a revival this year.

A Yale graduate, Rev. Boutinghouse is an accomplished orator. Those who have heard him declare that his sermons are among the best heard in Hereford in some time. Services are held at the church every morning at 10:00 o'clock and in the evenings at 8:00 o'clock.

SON OF FORMER RESIDENT IN SWIMMING WITH FRIENDS MEETS DEATH HERE SUNDAY

Artificial Respiration Methods Only Temporarily Successful for Buster Thompson. Lad Had Gone to School In Hereford and Was Well Known to Many. Remains Shipped to Vernon for Burial.

Victims Make Things Hot for Check Artist

That the way of the transgressor in Hereford is hard, is the belief today of J. J. Handley, alias Jack Palmer, who is alleged to have undertaken a bit of transgression with disastrous results last week.

Life of a farm worker near Summerfield palling somewhat upon Mr. Handley, he decided to seek more lucrative fields for his endeavors. Accordingly, he came to Hereford, where he is said to have presented fraudulent checks at the Streu Hardware Company, the Popular Store and Sprovis-Cronin Company.

Comparing notes a little later, these merchants decided there must be a loophole somewhere in the story of the financial wizard. Hying themselves to the bank, they discovered the gentleman had no account; promptly they hied themselves to the office of Sheriff Claude Benton.

Learning the alleged offender had bought a ticket to Wichita, Kansas, officers here phoned and had the suspect nabbed when alighting from the train. Deputy John Cunningham made the trip to Kansas to bring the man back. He is in the Deaf Smith county jail awaiting trial charged with "swindling by bogus check."

Survey Shows Good Acreage In Cotton Crop

Survey shows a major crop in Deaf Smith county is cotton, which, regarded hitherto as an experiment, is now firmly established here and is apparently going to make a successful crop this season.

Farmers were asked to report at the Brand office the number of acres which they had planted to cotton. Too few of these reports have yet come in to make possible an accurate statement of the number of acres planted.

County Agent R. O. Dunkle this morning estimated that something over 5,000 acres is in cotton in this county, all of which is in excellent condition and should make a high yield.

One of the best fields of cotton near the city is that owned by E. Childre, three and one-half miles northeast. Mr. Childre has sixteen acres of good crop, which is already loaded with squares. He expects a big profit from his investment, he said.

TEMPORARY TRACK LAID.
Santa Fe workers are busy this week laying a temporary track here for use of a bunk train which will be located here while work is under way on grading present tracks in this region.

Artificial Respiration Methods Only Temporarily Successful for Buster Thompson. Lad Had Gone to School In Hereford and Was Well Known to Many. Remains Shipped to Vernon for Burial.

Young Thompson was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. David Thompson, former residents here, who moved to Vernon last fall. With his family he had come here a few weeks ago for the wheat harvest and had remained behind with a brother, Homer, after they had gone back to Vernon.

The remains were shipped to Vernon for burial Sunday night.

Commerce Club Begins Immigration Fund Drive

Best method to secure funds by which to meet Deaf Smith county's $1,000 quota in the Panhandle-Palms immigration movement to be inaugurated soon was chief of several important topics up for discussion at the regular Chamber of Commerce luncheon held Monday noon at the Cordova Hotel.

President T. E. Seigler holds the office of finance committee head for the organization which has as its aim securing hundreds of new farmers for this section of Texas. He expressed the belief that Hereford and this county should raise at least half the sum within the week.

Miss Mabel Gass On Eastern Tour

Miss Mabel Gass left last week for an extended tour of the East. She went first to Fort Worth to attend a convention of merchandise retailers, leaving for the North with a delegation from there who were to make the Eastern trip.

Gilliland Builds Big Apartment On East Sixth

Construction began Monday morning on Hereford's second largest apartment house, being built by J. M. Gilliland on Sixth Street, just west of the high school.

Of Spanish style, the building will be two stories in height, 38 feet square and finished in stucco. It will be divided into three separate, modern apartments. The new apartments are expected to be ready for occupancy by the middle of September, it was said.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SUBJECT OF LESSON: Saul's Early Ministry.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of God."—Acts 9:20.

LESSON REFERENCES: Acts 9:19-30, 12-25, Galatians 1:13-18.

No greater miracle of divine grace is there than the remaking of Saul of Tarsus. That soul, always brave, never hesitant about duty, "conferred not with flesh and blood," but straightway began to preach Christ in the synagogues of Damascus.

It required courage to do what Saul did. He had come to Damascus vested with authority to arrest Christians. He now had a greater authority than that of the chief priest at Jerusalem. He needed no conference with flesh and blood in order to know what to do. "That God had spoken was enough for Saul of Tarsus."

It was a difficult thing that Saul assayed to do. Having heard of his enmity towards Christianity, and having beforehand heard that he was sent to Damascus for the harassing of Christians, those Christians were afraid of him. The Jews soon conspired to kill him. Saul was between two fires. But that mattered nothing to him. He started where he was for Christ regardless of circumstances.

It was the noble Barnabas who saw into the depths of Saul's noble spirit. It was Barnabas who gave Saul a real chance to be a Christian. All honor to the noble Barnabases who can credit a new Christian with sincerity and thus open new fields of service, of great service to them.

Saul preached convincingly of the fact of the Divine Saviour at Damascus. Why not? He knew whereof he spoke. He knew

OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION.

It is with hearts filled with appreciation that we want to express our appreciation of the way Hereford people loved E. W. Harrison and the way they honored him at his death. We feel that what you did for him and for us in the love you had for him, and this makes your kindness all the more dear to us.

It would be impossible to enumerate the acts of kindness, but we might speak of the touching floral offerings, the great tribute paid by Rev. Mr. Cloyd and the heartfelt singing of Mrs. Mountz. Her song was beautiful and her heart was in every word of it. We appreciate the way citizens of Hereford cared for the brothers, and everything they did to make the blow lighter on the bereaved family, his wife and children. You have made a place in our hearts that will remain the rest of our lives. We have some new friends, and some dear friends, even if we have known them only a short time and we hope to see more of you down life's pathway.

Your sincere friends,
MRS. M. M. HARRISON,
ESCA'S BROTHERS.

CLYDE W. WARWICK

Candidate for State Representative
 123rd District.

"A Business Man for a Business Office."

Eighteen years in Canyon and the district.

Forty-three years of age.

A newspaper publisher for more than twenty years; a farm owner, bank director, with varied business experience.

Served in every capacity of Randall county as a community builder. A friend of education especially the common schools, which of necessity are the foundation of the Educational System of the state.

Especially interested in the West Texas State Teachers College, with which he has grown up in Canyon, and the only tax-supported institution on the North-Plains.

He believes in economy in Government and will work for the economical administration of all public offices.

He is a man of action rather than words; he believes in less politics in government and more business in government.

He has never asked for public office, but brings a rich business experience to an office which should be conducted on strictly a business basis.

He stands strictly behind the program of development of West Texas, and will devote his efforts along that line.

Progressive News

Our community was saddened when we learned of the tragic death of William (Buster) Thompson, of Vernon, who was drowned in Tierra Blanco creek Sunday afternoon about four o'clock. Buster, with several companions, was swimming in the creek two miles east of town near the Schultz farm. His brother, Homer, and uncle, Mr. Fellows, accompanied the body to Vernon where he was buried. Several beautiful floral offerings from Hereford friends accompanied the body. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. David Thompson formerly resided in the Progressive community and took an active part in community affairs. Buster was a general favorite with the young people and respected by all the older people because of his sterling qualities. The entire community extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

July 19, 1928.

It's picnic time again.

That's the time, you know, when you spill lemonade on your Saturday suit, or maybe sit down on a raspberry pie.

When those things happen, there is only one thing to do—send the picnic clothes to ORR'S TAILOR SHOP.

You'll be surprised how Mr. Orr and his helpers can remove stains from clothing. Even the daintiest dresses can be made to look like new.

Tea At Gregg Home Lovely Social Event

Loveliest of social events for some time was a tea given from 4:30 to 7:00 o'clock Monday afternoon at the A. W. Gregg home by Mrs. W. E. Dameron and Miss Ina Gregg, honoring their sister Mrs. Clyde Wright of Silverton, and Mrs. Timothy Tinsley of New York, Dewey Lawrence, of Paris, Texas, and Mary Monday of Dallas.

Mrs. Grace F. Guthrie welcomed guests at the door. The rooms were softly lighted and decorated with huge baskets of garden flowers.

Guests were ushered into the dining room by Meses. L. W. Hough and H. H. Hawkins. Meses. C. C. Ferguson, F. H. Oberthier, A. M. Jones and J. E. Beyer presided in the dining room, assisted by Meses. C. H. Dyar, M. B. McLean and Miss Elva Wright.

During the afternoon delightful musical numbers were given by Meses. H. K. Fox, A. C. Thompson, Carl Mountz and Miss Maurine Beyer, and a number of beautiful original poems were read by Mrs. Guthrie.

About seventy-five guests called during the afternoon.

Miss Seigler Entertains With Bridge Luncheon

Miss Gladys Seigler was a very charming hostess Tuesday morning to five tables of bridge at her home on East Fifth Street. The lovely Seigler residence was beautifully decorated with garden flowers.

High prize was won by Miss Grace Ferguson and Miss Frances Oberthier was awarded the prize for consolation. A delightful two-course luncheon was served. Out-of-town guests included Meses Imogene McIntyre of Canyon, Halle Adams of Amarillo and Dorothy Shivers of San Antonio.

Mrs. Bodkin Honored With Birthday Party

ARMIES AND ORGANIZATION. REAL MONEY. THROW OUT AMBITION. FOUND IN MOVIES.

Flour manufacturers, including Washburn-Crosby and Red Star, organized a $50,000,000 combination, largest flour milling concern in the world.

That's in the line of modern methods, big units, small overhead, powerful marketing.

This news will interest farmers and make them wish somebody could show them how to organize. The first thing, and absolutely necessary, is to organize and intensify methods of production. And old-fashioned blacksmith could not compete with a modern automobile factory.

Childish talk of "necessary competition" and prattle about keeping business from getting "too big" are out of date.

Where nations combine to monopolize world business, great American units must combine for self defense.

Possibly some one will find a way to help our farmers form such a combination. They need it.

The French settle down courageously to the drastic new money rate. Four-fifths of its value is cut from their money as a result of a war which they won. They face that situation bravely.

In place of paper money, meaning little to peasants and working people; the French again will see gold and silver coins in circulation.

The grossie piece, size and weight of our silver dollars, will not come back. Worth five francs before the war it would be worth twenty-five francs now. But ten-franc silver places, worth forty cents will be coined and the French will feel that they are working for real money.

Stabilizing the franc is a boon to all Europe, ending financial disorder that has lasted ten years. It is a great achievement by Poincaré, worthy successor of Thiers, Turgot, Necker, Sully and a long line of brilliant French statesmen.

Sir James Barrie tells Rhodes' scholars not to try for "greatness." The advice was humorous, probably. Trying for greatness produces desirable mediocrity. Men "aim high to shoot low," as the illiterate colored man said when he asked Grover Cleveland to make him librarian in Congress. He really wanted a job as porter.

A baby cries for the moon and is satisfied with a cookie. Youth reaches for greatness and is content with modest achievement and a place on the golf course.

Winfield K. Sheehan, who knows about moving pictures, says screens will be much bigger for large sized theatres now building everywhere. That will make it necessary to revise production methods.

Most important for budding genius, he says the "talking movie" will create a new army of scenario writers, knowing how to make sound effective in pictures.

In a detective story, noise of a creaking board, or a shot, might be more effective than the hero's smile.

Mr. Sheehan believes that the pictures with sound would double moving picture attendance.

S. P. McMinn of Childress, Mrs. J. E. Robinson of Canyon, L. E. McMinn and family, of Pittsburg, Texas, and W. J. McMinn of Abilene are here this week on business and visiting the J. F. Ward and J. B. McMinn families.

Gibson's Landing, B. C.—Winfield Russel claims a new strawberry picking record. In nine hours work she picked and decapped 180 pounds of strawberries.

Vernon—The first official greeting of President A. M. Bourland of the WTCC will appear in the July number of West Texas Today.

Cross Plains—Cross Plains is busy in preparation for its annual picnic to be held July 12 to 14.

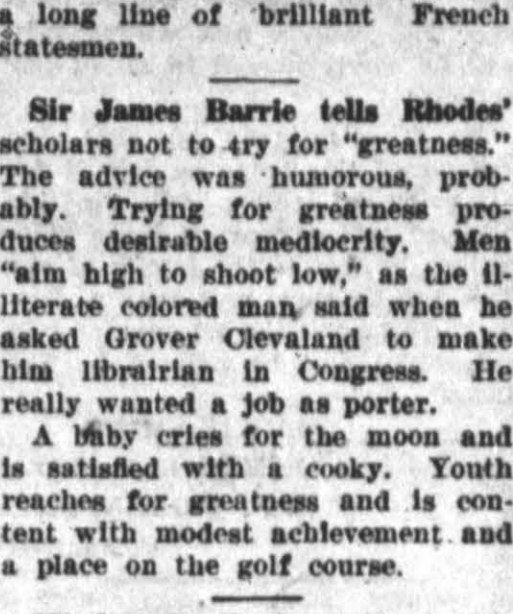

Denton—Denton will be host to the Texas Baby Chick Association annual convention July 9 and 10.

Coleman—Coleman is making preparations for entertaining the first executive session of the new WTCC board, July 16.

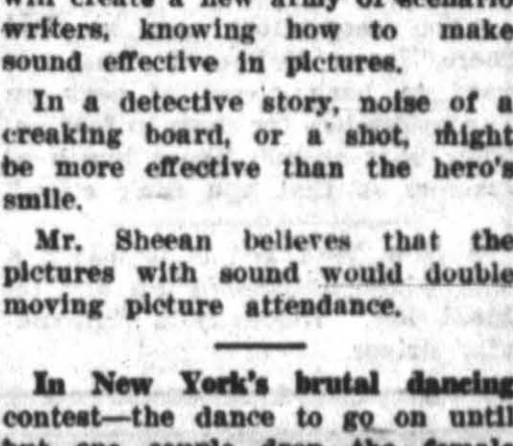

Roaring Springs—Assured of a 30,000 bale run, Roaring Springs is in need of a cotton compress.

"LES MISERABLES" COST MILLIONS.

The Universal-Film de France production, "Les Miserables," from the novel by Victor Hugo, produced by Cineromans, of Paris, is the subject of discussion on the question of its cost. A paper commenting on the fact that it cost rather over one and a half million francs to produce praised this as "sound economy and real commercial sense." However, Mrs. J. Sapone, director of Cineromans, repudiates this estimate and maintains that "Les Miserables," which was produced on a magnificent scale, really cost four times as much. He says that all the qualities essential to making this picture a world wide success necessitated extremely heavy expenditures to the tune of six million francs, which, if the franc were at par, would be equivalent to $1,400,000.

The French super-film which is conceded to be the most stupendous motion picture ever produced in France, has been booked by the Star Theatre for local showing, beginning July 23.

Texas & Texans

By WILL H. MAYES

What Causes Growth?

The Menard Messenger asks: "What Causes Menard to Grow?" The question can be answered in one word, "Activity."

Activity causes all growth. The inactive child soon dwarfs. The inactive mind soon loses power to function. Menard became inactive a number of years ago, but finally awoke to the fact that it was dying. The people decided to improve conditions and went earnestly and persistently to work to do it. Menard is now among the most progressive little cities in Texas. If your community isn't growing better, it is solely because of its inactivity.

Improving Dairy Herds.

Wherever creameries, cheese factories or milk products factories of any kind are established there is an immediate improvement noticeable in the dairy herds. This is noticeable all over the state. Marshall had no sooner secured a milk products factory than business men began to assist farmers in improving milk cattle of the county. Round Rock with its cheese factory has awakened all Williamson county to a keener interest in greater milk production. That interest has extended to Travis and Milam counties. The Buda cheese factory established last month, is already creating a demand for cows capable of supplying more and better milk.

Poultry Industry, Too.

Wherever interest increases in dairy cattle it is invariably followed by improvement in poultry of the section. Poultry thrives on waste products of the dairy. It is as easy to care for the best laying strain of chickens as the poorest. It is no more expensive to raise a large turkey than a runt. Around Cuero the farmers are said to be in doubt as to which is paying them best, dairy cows, poultry or pigs. This is a combination hard to beat.

San Marcos Waterworks.

Good examples are far-extending. Not long ago Taylor decided to own his own waterworks and to have a plant worth while. When bonds were voted by about ten to one, San Marcos sent a delegation to Taylor to see why and how. Now San Marcos, not to be outdone, has voted 308 to 30 for a $150,000 bond issue for constructing its own adequate waterworks system. San Marcos has as good water as can be found anywhere and has in great abundance.

Millions in Irrigation.

There are 549 acres under irrigation or in projects already planned in Southwest Texas. The Rio Grande Valley has some 350,000 acres under irrigation ditches. Before many years have passed every stream in West Texas that has not been given to power companies will supply valleys with water for irrigation and power companies will sell their surplus water for irrigation. North Texas is also alive to the value of irrigation and already has thousands of acres under ditches. It is impossible to estimate the future water wealth of Texas, a wealth that has so long been dormant.

Gasoline Shortage.

A state inspector of weights and measures recently bought gasoline at 64 San Antonio stations and found 56 of these gave short measure. The inspector was kind enough to attribute the shortage to carelessness rather than to thievery. It is strange, however, that in so many cases the carelessness resulted in gain to the seller and loss to the buyer. It is impossible to check up closely on gasoline supply stations with the present force of state inspectors. The secretary of the San Antonio Automobile League has given out figures that indicate that gasoline users in Texas pay annually for more than $3,000,000 worth of gasoline they do not get.

Why Burnet County Prospers.

The Marble Falls Messenger tells in a brief statement why Burnet county people are prosperous. It is because they always sell more than they need to buy. They ship granite, wool, mohair, pecans, poultry, turkeys, cotton, cattle, cedar, sand, gravel and a lot of other things that go to make up a large and constant source of revenue—greater than the people need to spend for things they have to buy. Every prosperous section of Texas is doing the same thing. Editor Faubion merely shows the items that Burnet county is supplying. Your county should do just as well in furnishing other things the world wants.

Snyder Gas Celebration.

Any town has a right to be proud of getting gas and should celebrate the event. Therefore, Snyder turned out en masse with brass band and speech making and cooking demonstrations and the like to show how it felt about the turning of natural gas into the mains. A large part of the people of Scurry county were on hand to help. Snyder has become noted for doing things of a worth while kind in a worth while way. Just now it is intensely interested in the movement to get a road from Roswell, New Mexico, to Snyder as a part of a proposed line to the Gulf at Corpus Christi.

The Wheat Harvest.

About the most interesting picture in Texas just now is the wheat harvest in the Panhandle where thousands of harvest hands, harvesting and threshing machines are busy getting the golden grain ready for market. Fully 25 per cent of the wheat fields in the upper plains are under cultivation this year for the first time. The yield is so abundant that the railroads are having trouble in getting and distributing grain cars in a way to handle the crop to the best advantage.

Cotton Pests Proliferating.

County farm agents in Central and Southern Texas report that boll weevil, cotton fleas and other pests are appearing in unusual numbers in the cotton fields and that unless farmers are alert they will suffer great loss from them. The acreage in Texas is reported about 1,000,000 in excess of last year, but late planting because of cold weather, together with activity of weevil and fleas threatens to make the production under that of last year.

Polk County Diversification.

Polk county around Livingston has awakened to the value of diversification through organized effort at growing tomatoes, cucumbers and potatoes. Experiments conducted this year have been very largely in the nature of farm schools under competent management and they have been most satisfying in their returns. Carload shipments have brought profitable returns from 80 acres of tomatoes and 75 acres of cucumbers. Next year cabbage will be added to the list of large acreage production. Restoration of much land thought to have been worn out from constant cotton cropping is one of the expected results of the new movement.

Of course you don't need your winter coal just NOW, but neither are you hungry at just this minute. Nevertheless, everyone knows that if you don't eat you'll starve, and if you don't get your coal now you may freeze later—get the idea?

Use a little common sense now and be thankful six months later. Coal is much better bought and stored DRY that purchased with a blanket of snow over it after it has been hauled around wet for several weeks. AND IT'S CHEAPER.

THE TIGER TRAIL

by Edison Marshall

 We stopped on a little landing in the stairway.
 "We won't have long to wait," he said.
 "But why wait at all? Why not chase it down?"
 "Because chasing don't work. In knows how to hide. Behind the curtains, and every place else. We've got to watch his trail."
 He blew out the candle. The only light that remained was a single candle on a little table at the base of the stairs. We stood in darkness.
 "You're the only one I could trust," he told me. "My father laughs at the stories and the Haywards are frightened almost to death."
 We waited a long time. There was a row of windows at the end of the long room, dimly lighted from the distant lightning. The flashes were almost continuous and the flickering light was gray and strange through the rain. It was just a dim, weird radiance and in no way alleviated the shadows of the room. The clock struck in the hall below us, so softly we could hardly hear.
 "Let's go back to bed," I whispered. "Evidently the walk is done."

"Be patient, old man." Then he uttered the strangest little sigh. "Look, Long! It isn't done, after all."
 His voice dropped a note; that was its only change. I knew he was pointing toward the row of windows at the opposite end of the hall. Three of them glowed dimly from the flickering lightning in the far reaches of the sky, rectangular in shape as they should be. The upper part of the fourth was lighted too, but the lower part was wholly obscured by something that stood in front. It was something low and long that stood perhaps three feet high. Something was crossing at the end of the hall between us and the windows.
 The shadow slowly changed in shape. It made an arc over the lower part of the same window we had seen before—a shape as of a monstrous flank of an animal. And the adjoining window was partly obscured now. Whatever moved at the end of the hall was creeping slowly past the windows and its body was long enough that it left dark umbrages against two of the lighted panes.
 There was no chance for a mistake. My senses were perfectly alert. It was not a delusion or an effect of shadow. Both of us kept our self control, and were rather surprisingly calm.

 "Can you hit at that range?" Ernest whispered in my ear.
 "I can, but I don't dare. I can't shoot at a shadow, Ernest. Too great a chance for accidents."
 "Then we'll stalk it. It doesn't pay to wait any more, Long. Anything is better than this suspense."
 We stepped out of our hiding place and crept down the hall. All four of the windows were clear in outline now. Our quarry had headed on, evidently into the corridor that ran at right angles to the main hall.
 But Ernest spoiled our chance of stalking the creature in the hall. We got to the windows and made the turn. Both of us knew, as well as we knew that the rain was clattering on the roof, that the creature we hunted was close in the darkness somewhere in front of us. We were trying to walk with utter silence. Ernest a pace or two in front. He forgot about a little step at the turn of the corridor.
 He tripped and even above the roar of the rain the sound was distinct. The floor shook—and it seemed to me that I heard the impact of cushioned feet as our quarry leaped. But I can't be sure of that. The imagination is known to play tricks. Perhaps there was a faint rustle and stir.

 "Quick!" my companion breathed. "It will escape us!"
 We started running down the hall. It was a tremendously long corridor, stretching almost the breadth of the great house and it seemed folly to try to overtake those swift feet. And completely at the end Hayward's door suddenly swung open.
 Both of us knew in a single instant that we would get a sight of the thing as it crossed the open doorway. Hayward had many candles in his room and some of their light flung out into the hall. But there was hardly time to receive the thought, much less to act. There was no time to raise a pistol. Our quarry was a long way in front of us and the door was scarcely wide open before it passed in front.
 Of course it was too far to see plainly. But I had no more delusions about its reality. The disease that afflicted the old manor house was surely drawing to its crisis.
 The creature we saw fitted with disturbing consistency into the old legend of the mansion. The form was low and long and although the light was dim, its general color was perfectly visible to both of us.

It was a rich, beautiful yellow, striped with black. There were no extenuating circumstances. Both of us saw it—as plain as we saw the open doorway. The posture was exactly that of a great cat creeping, with belly hung low, upon its prey.
 Neither of us stopped. I don't think either of us cried out. We simply raced on up the hall. Even then there might have been a chance of overtaking the creature if it had not been for Hayward's interference. He flung out of the door as we went past and seized me by the shoulders.
 "Good God! Did you see it?" he cried. "Didn't you see, man? It went past my door!"

 The candle light was on his face and the look was one not quickly forgotten. His ruddy color was quite gone, and his eyes were changed, too. He clutched me with great, cold, frenzied hands.
 But we shook loose and hurried on down the corridor. There were unoccupied rooms along it, many opening from rear doors into other corridors and passages to the rear stairs and to the third floor. A window opened to a little balcony at the end. We looked about and whispered to each other and then went back for candles. We held them high and peered in the corridor and among the curtains. The elder Hayward kept close behind uttering low inarticulate sentences not particularly worth listening to.

 He had forgotten our scene in the den a few hours before. His present emotion left no room for remembered anger. It looked as if he were trying to keep close to me.
 Saves in the End.
 In preserving, according to new methods the use of pectin may be specified in recipes. Although these new recipes require more sugar the yield in finished jellies and jams is much greater and the cooking time many minutes less.
