Baseball Opens Here Tuesday With Plainview

The 1962 edition of the Hereford Whiteface baseball team will play its first game here Tuesday, March 6. Game time is 4 p.m. as the Herd faces the Plainview Bulldogs in the opener for both clubs.

Coach Willie Williams Friday named a tentative line-up that includes starters from the 1961 high school team or the 1961 American Legion club.

Right-hander Drew Kershner, a senior and two-year letterman, is likely to start on the mound for the Herd. Mickey Stevens, another senior, will be the opening catcher although he will be named for pitching duties later.

Infielders will include Joe Mack Hale, senior, first base; John Buck, senior, second base; Ronny Duncan, sophomore, third base; and Ken Loerwald, senior, shortstop.

Senior Dan McDowell will be in the left field with the other two-outfield positions still in doubt. Coach Williams said either junior Arnold Powell or senior Joe Cabrera, a transfer

$3.5 MILLION PRICE TAG

Jack Renfro Buys Huge T-O Ranch

A ranch sale of exciting proportions was in the process of being "wrapped up" in Denver Saturday night as final touches were applied to transfer the famous T-O Ranch of New Mexico to Jack Renfro of Hereford.

The deal included sale of the entire 126,370 acres in the ranch, along with 3,327 head of cattle at a total cost of 3 1/2 million. Negotiations on the deal have been underway for several weeks.

The T-O Ranch has been in the Alexander Thompson family for the past 87 years, and is one of the larger and better known ranches in the nation with headquarters some 12 miles from Raton. In addition to ultra-modern quarters, the ranch includes 72 pastures and 295 miles of fence.

Renfro, who was visiting in Stillwater, Okla., Saturday night, said that he has not completed plans for operation, but has added that he and Mrs. Renfro expect to continue making their home in Hereford.

The Renfros came to Hereford in 1946, when he entered the vegetable business as a grower, later adding processing and shipping facilities to the operation.

"I have always been interested in the cattle business," Renfro said, "and this ranch represents the culmination of many dreams."

As early as 1946, he started "dabbling" in cattle, along with his vegetable enterprises, and in 1955 got seriously into the business. Some of his current holdings, prior to the T-O Ranch, include the famous Cimarron Ranch in Oklahoma, and the Eskimo Ranch here at Hereford, where he currently has the Ross holdings under lease east of the Eskimo spread.

Hereford Man's Dam Application Has Opposition

Application of a Hereford man to build a small dam on Frio Draw for irrigation purposes has drawn opposition from Amarillo.

Harland H. Frye of Hereford submitted an application to the Texas Water Commission recently, seeking permission to build a dam to impound 492 acre-feet of water. The Commission heard the request Tuesday in Austin but took the matter under advisement. A decision is not expected for at least two weeks.

The application is for an earthen dam on Frye's property about three miles south of Black in Farmer County and about 35 miles from Buffalo Lake in Randall County.

Frio Draw comes into the south portion of Deaf Smith County, joining Tierra Blanca Creek before flowing into Buffalo Lake.

Frye contends that the dam would have a negligible effect upon the water level at Buffalo Lake, and further asserts that water for irrigation and farm use is more important than water for recreational purposes.

It would be a number of years before the dam would justify its cost, Frye said. He made application in order to use surface water which runs off, saying that underground water is lost forever after being pumped out of the ground, but that using some surface water could help conserve underground supplies. He admits that the dam would be justified only on a long-term basis.

But the board of directors of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce went on record Wednesday opposing the construction of barriers on the watershed of Buffalo Lake "until and unless it is proved such barrier will not affect the level of water in the lake."

Candidates File For School And City Elections

Politics in the county and the city picked up Friday as one incumbent on the Hereford City Commission filed for re-election and another candidate filed for Hereford School Trustee.

Filing deadline for the commissioners race was Saturday with the deadline for county school district races set for Thursday.

Dr. E. E. Wills, City Commissioner Place 4, filed for re-election to the Hereford City Commission late Friday afternoon, just a day away from the Saturday filing deadline.

Dr. Wills has served on the Commission for the past five years. Opposing him this year for the place on the city governing body is Dale "Pappy" Tinnin.

Tinnin announced his candidacy for the office in February. The other incumbent on the Commission, Troy Moore, serving in Place Three, had not announced for re-election. As of Saturday morning, he had not filed.

At noon Saturday, only one had filed for the office. Running unopposed for the place to be vacated by Moore is Bill Howard. (Continued on Page 2)

Make Savings Need Survey On Area Migrant Workers

A thorough survey was made this week at the Labor Camp in Hereford regarding the savings services offered to migrant workers by the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union.

Making the survey was Gilbert Trujillo of Santa Fe, N. M., organization specialist of the Credit Union National Association, Inc. Trujillo specializes in working with low income groups and migrant workers.

Recommendations based on the findings of the survey were presented Friday morning at a meeting of the Labor Camp Board. Members of the board are Joe Martinez, Ed Dzulc Sr., Dr. Lena Edwards, Domingo Pesina, Concepcion Aguirra, Abe Davis, Joe Solis, J. A. McAndrews, Father Raymond Gillis, Virgil Dodson, Brother Christopher, Mike Castro, Ernest Tijerina, Juan Valdez, Mrs. Rita De Leon and Dyalitha Benson.

In outlining the overall plan to establish a credit union at the Labor Camp, Trujillo made three recommendations to the board.

His recommendations were to make the migrant workers and community leaders conscious of the fact that the services are offered; to streamline the operation so it can be understood; provide literature on the credit union (Continued on Page 2)

Earl Smith To Head Kids Inc.

Hereford High School algebra and biology instructor Earl Smith was released from his contract this week in order that he might accept his new position as executive director of Kids, Inc., in Amarillo.

Smith will direct the entire program of the Amarillo youth organization. During the Spring and summer, Kids, Inc., furnishes recreational opportunities for some 4000 youngsters, according to Smith.

"My first job will be to organize summer soft ball leagues, which will have some 140-150 teams," stated Smith.

As executive director of the organization, Smith will be in charge of maintaining the Kids, Inc., program, and supervising its activities. Smith will direct coaches in the league, and also will be in charge of all equipment.

Kids, Inc., is an organization for young people sponsored by the United Fund, the city of Amarillo, and many civic clubs in the city.

"I hated to leave during the school term," stated Smith, "but the job just could not wait. I will replace Bill Epps, who has resigned as director in or-

King's Manor Will Be Built As Negotiations Are Okayed

King's Manor, a home for older adults, will go into construction in the very near future, it was decided here Saturday afternoon.

Members of the executive board and advisory board of the Methodist-sponsored home agreed to negotiate with Knox and Galley, Lubbock contracting firm, to get the price within specified limits. It had been feared that construction might be delayed after bids were over the estimated costs.

They pointed out that Knox and Galley were low bidders on the project with a base bid of $186,419, although this price will be cut before the contract is signed. Another major factor brought out at the meeting is that the firm estimated 190 days for completion, while other bidders said they would need considerably more. Next low bidder estimated 275 days for completion.

Architect L. H. Kirby of Amarillo went over a breakdown of the low bid and pointed out places where costs might be cut. The group then authorized the building committee to open negotiations in order that the home might be built as soon as possible.

Simultaneously, it was announced that groundbreaking for the home in northwest Hereford had been set for Friday, March 23, at 10 a.m. Officially starting the project will be Bishop Paul V. Galloway of San Antonio, of the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, and Dr. V. N. Henderson of Amarillo, Superintendent of the Amarillo District.

Kirby told the group that a minor change in the type of individual room controls could cut about $2,000, with a major change in the roof and ceiling design from steel beams and concrete slab ceiling to wood framing with sheetrock ceiling estimated to save $12,000 or more.

Find Hereford Bills After 15 Years

By Gardner Collins, Brand Staff Reporter
A 15-year search along with a little advertising and finally a trade was ended last week by coin collector Ed Skypala for national bank notes issued in Hereford.

The two old notes were traded for and purchased by Ed Skypala, who has been collecting coins and bills since he was a boy. Skypala says that he has been a "serious collector" for the past seven or eight years.

Both the bills are the old-fashioned large notes which were discontinued in 1928 by the government with issuance of the smaller bills now in circulation.

One of the bills was issued by the Western National Bank on May 20, 1908, and signed by F. B. Fuller, cashier, and G. A. F. Parker, president.

The second is a note issued by the First National Bank on Sept. 29, 1920, with the signature of E. B. Posey, cashier, and George L. Muse, president. Skypala found the bills by advertising in a national coin magazine, which is circulated widely throughout the U.S. His first offer came from a collector in Elgin, Tex.

"There is a story behind this bill," says Skypala. "The collector has had the bill since 1934. He had a friend who was an undertaker and he got the note from him. A couple paid for a funeral there in Elgin with old large bills, and the Western Bank note was among them."

The second bill, according to Skypala, came from a collector who lives in Silver

None of the changes would affect the quality of the building or its fireproof rating, he said. Kirby said that he had talked with the apparent low bidders and that they were agreeable to negotiation in order to get the project started.
About 60 persons were present in the Hereford Community Center when the bids on King's Manor were opened at 3 p.m. Thursday. Included were architects, members of the executive committee of the home, contractors and interested citizens.
Architect L. H. Kirby of Lubbock, partner in the design firm of Kirby and Haynes, opened the 11 bids which were received.
Of the bidders, six were from Lubbock, three from Amarillo and one each from Snyder and Big Spring.

Apparent low bidder was Knox and Galley of Lubbock, with a bid of $186,419 and estimated time of 190 days to complete.
Other bidders on the job included the following, with base bids and estimated days to complete:
H. A. Padgett Jr., Lubbock, $188,188, 275 days; Claude Martin and Sons, Lubbock, $189,374, 240 days; Hunter Construction Co., Lubbock, $189,459, 210 days; H. R. Bundock Inc., Lubbock, $189,876, 210 days; C. M. Pharr, Lubbock, $191,400, no days.

Barfield Construction Co., Amarillo, $192,000, 270 days; A. P. Kasch and Son, Big Springs, $192,660, no days; M. B. Allen, Amarillo, $193,333,300 days; T. E. Shelburne and Son, Snyder, $193,440, 270 days; Penhall Construction Co., Amarillo, $193,814, 220 days.
Also included in the bids were estimates on seven alternates, all of which were deductions from the base bid.
Alternate One would eliminate some paving work, with bids to deduct from $2600 to $4271. Alternate Two would eliminate other paving work, with bids to deduct from $2910 to $4731.
Alternate Three would change the type of wall covering, with bids to deduct from $225 to $332. Alternate Four would replace vinyl floor covering with asbestos floor covering, with bids to deduct from $411 to $310. Alternate Five would substitute plaster for ceramic tile wainscoting in the hall, with bids to deduct from $2250 to $575.
Alternate Six would eliminate the room buzzer call system, with bids to deduct from $580 to $385. Alternate Seven would substitute overhead electrical connections for underground connections, with bids to deduct from $1150 to $675.
Among those on hand Thursday were Walker Watkins of Rails, chairman of the Methodist Homes for Older Adults building committee; J. C. McCracken, Earnest Langley, C. Palmer Norton, Mrs. Dyalitha

As far as is known, Skypala pointed out, there are only two other Western Bank notes in Hereford. One is owned by Elmer Patterson, and the other by Myron Morgan. Neither of the bills is for sale.
The history of the national bank note, said Skypala, started in 1862. The bills were issued by national banks as the banks bought Treasury bonds for security. The notes were finally discontinued in the 1930's.
Skypala has one of the most extensive coin collections in Hereford. However, his main hobby now is collecting notes issued by national banks.
Among the rare coins in the collection, according to Skypala, are the shekel and the widow's mite from biblical times as well as other old Roman and Greek coins.
Not only does the Hereford coin collector search for old bills and coins, he speaks about the money he collects.
"I have three talks," says Skypala, "One is on currency, another on collecting, and a third on the history of money."
Recently he has been traveling and speaking at coin conventions and civic clubs throughout eastern New Mexico and the Panhandle.
One of the trips that he remembers most was to the 5-C Coin convention in Portales, N. M.
After he finished his speech, he was presented with a product of the area — a 25-pound bag of peanuts.

Hereford's schedule calls for 13 games against District 3-AAAA teams, including Pampa, Amarillo, Tascosa, Borger and Plainview.

that the people can understand.
In an interview, Trujillo said that establishing services to migrant workers and low income groups is new as far as credit unions are concerned. Work in this field was started only a year ago.
Among the projects he listed were those in San Angelo, South El Paso, California and Nebraska as well as the project here in Hereford.
He called these "pilot projects" and commented, "I am doing surveys and research with the intention of making a plan that will guarantee the probable success of credit unions for these people."
During his stay in Hereford, Trujillo has been talking to the people of the camp. His main objective was to get their reaction — to find out what they needed and what they wanted — to set up educational programs, and provide information answering their questions.
In discussing the reaction of the migrant workers, Trujillo said, "The first thing they say is that they need loans, but how do we get them? They feel they are not able to get loans because of their irregular salary."
In general, the migrant workers feel that the credit union is the answer to their problem, he explained.
"If the services had been available before, some of these people feel they would be better off now and would be settled."

ed," he commented.
In explaining his findings, Trujillo pointed out that most do not feel secure and will not until they have a little "shack" of their own.
"It would mean much to them," he continued, "if they could set down roots and have a home."
As he discussed the problem of getting the migrants to save, he said that a lot of education is needed. The main problem is simplifying the information and explaining the problem in a language they will understand.
I believe that saving will help these people," he said. "But, most don't know what the word means. Some make good money, but have no place to put it. They paint the town red and eat like kings until it is all gone. Then they don't eat."
The two main factors of the problem, he continued, are the lack of opportunities to save and education. The movement from camp to camp is also another problem.
"Many have a tremendous urge to have a lot and a little home," he stated. "There are others, however, who have no urge to settle."
"As far as I can see," Trujillo said, "if these people settle here, there will be a large enough labor force for farmers without bringing in outside help. But they need the facilities and encouragement to save."
"There is a fine opportunity here for actually helping these people," he commented. "The fewer problems these people have, the less problem they will be in the community."

Farmers Union Members Hear State President

FARMERS UNION STATE PRESIDENT, Jay Naman of Waco, spoke to a group of some 60 members of the Deaf Smith County chapter at the Community Center on Tuesday. Naman, during his informal talk to the group, explained why the organization is supporting the 1962 Food and Agriculture Act and urged their support. He described the bill as being "Magna Carta for farm prosperity." (Staff Photo)

Members of the Deaf Smith County Farmers Union meeting in the Community Center on Tuesday heard the proposed Food and Agriculture Act of 1962 described as "the most imaginative and comprehensive" plan so far by Jay Naman, state president, Waco.

Naman, in his talk to the group, urged their support for the passage of the new bill proposed by Orville Freeman, secretary of agriculture.

"The most important job we (the Farmers Union) have is the passage of the bill," he said. "The bill has the necessities for a good farm program from now on."

In discussing the attitude toward the bill and the organization in Washington, Naman told the group that the attitude "was favorable." He based his remarks on a recent trip to the Capitol.

He pointed out that members of the organization can help get the bill passed by expressing their opinions to members of the House and Senate.

In his discussion of the proposed farm program, Naman commented: "We either have compulsory supply management or no program at all."

It was brought out during the meeting in a question and answer session that the needs for feed grain would be determined in bushels and pounds. This would be broken down into an acreage allotment to the farmer. The bill would aim for a 10 per cent cut in the yearly carry-over.

"If we can bring down production and regain our bargaining power," he told the group, "we should control our own markets and reach a point where price supports are not needed."

"I think, in good conscience," he continued, "that passage of the bill would bring down the surpluses."

If there is one area for criticism of the new bill, he commented it is because "no definite net profit goals" have been set.

"I have had questions from Farmers Union members because the goals are not spelled out," Naman explained. "Because of the need for economy in government, no goals for increased income have been set as yet."

Even though he termed the bill "somewhat muddy in spots," he lauded the bill and praised the Secretary of Agriculture.

"It is not true that the Secretary has 'lost face' in Washington, Naman commented. "He is greatly respected by the President. If we lose him it is because he is so highly respected."

If Freeman is given another post, he continued, it will be because it is felt he needs another position more favorable for advancement.

In urging the passage of the bill and support in the Deaf Smith County area, Naman told the area members that they have more at stake because of their high relative prosperity, the area has young people interested in farming, and family farms.

As he discussed other programs, Naman voiced approval of the medical care for the aged bill saying, "Farmers, on the average, are older and more susceptible to disease and are less able to pay for medical care."

He also told of Farmers Union opposition to an "anti-co-op" bill now in Congress which would place a "tremendous burden on co-operatives" and may "even destroy them." The main opposition was to a "real evil rider" attached to the bill.

Naman was introduced by Jay Boston, chapter president, following a covered-dish supper. In other business, the Farmers Union approved the minutes of the last meeting.

Those elected were Barbara Buck, president; Gwen Cargo, vice-president; Charlotte Babione, secretary; Ruth Davis, treasurer; Cynthia Ann Knox, reporter; and Toni Beauchamp, sergeant-at-arms.

At a previous meeting the girls worked on finishing four cupboards each for the Needlecraft Guild in New York.

and honor beads were given to the girls.

The service project for February was discussed and an announcement was made that 82 pieces of clothing were sent to Macao, Casa Ricci.

Mrs. John Gooch, the group guardian, made her Trail Seekers Rank.

Punch and cookies were served to the following girls: Susie Woodall, Sharon Roberson, Camelia Pavlicek, Margaret Phipps, Pamela Miller, Kathryn Miller, Mrs. Bruce Miller, Mrs. Marcus Bell, Pat Hill, Mrs. Foster Hill, Sherrill Hill, Mary Sue Gooch, Cindy Cavness, Lannie Buck, W. The Leaders Association of the Campfire and Bluebird Groups met Friday at 9:30 a.m. in the Campfire Hut.

Letters were passed to the leaders present reminding them of the Birthday Week observance in which every girl will attend Church on March 11 in their Campfire and Bluebird costumes. The leaders that were not at the meeting will receive theirs through the mail.

The possibilities for the Campfire Camp for the girls this summer was discussed. A motion was made and seconded for each leader to report back at the next meeting as to what their particular group wishes to do about camp for this summer.

Mrs. Nickie Dameron presented the program on "Child Behavior Patterns" using Dr. Gesell's books on Child Behavior and Youth, Ten to Sixteen.

During the discussion she brought out both the good and the bad habits of our children between the age groups of from five to twelve. She stressed the fact that our children go through different stages during the years of growing up. If at this particular time your child is going through a particular stage that is difficult just wait, it will all pass and there is probably a better year ahead, she advised.

Herefordites At Committee Meet On Shrine Drama

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carver were in Amarillo Monday night to meet with the executive committee of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc. The committee approved plans and viewed a small-scale model of the proposed permanent outdoor theatre designed by Hucker and Parge, Amarillo architects.

Mrs. Ples Harper of Canyon, president of the foundation, presided at a general meeting of the group at the fine arts building on the West Texas State College Campus in Canyon Tuesday. Those from Hereford attending that meeting were Mrs. Henry Sears, a member of the board of directors, and Mrs. Elmer Patterson. Mrs. H. A. Cavness is also a member of the board of directors.

Mrs. Harper explained that the Heritage Foundation had been accepted as a project of the Amarillo Area Foundation, which will help with the financial campaign to come up later. The theatre, when completed, will be under the complete control of the Heritage Foundation which will supervise the presentation of the drama.

It was emphasized that the original play being written by Paul Green, Pulitzer prize winner dramatist, is based on authentic history of the Panhandle area and is intended to help preserve the area's heritage.

"It is something we can and should give our children," one speaker commented.

Pete Cowart, former manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce and now concessionaire at Palo Duro, explained the new management of Committee meetings are coming thick and fast, now, Sam, with all of the new committee chairmen getting their committees organized. Just this past week since I made my last scouting report the Trade Promotions planning committee met and adopted a seven point program of work. Chairman Harold Kids and his committee had 100 per cent attendance when they examined some proposals for their group. A Spring promotion was adopted as the first priority on their planning agenda. They also approved a trade area survey which would develop valuable information on area shopping habits amongst other things.

Mrs. Bessie Patterson met with her small committee to study ways of getting Hereford more in the news. Discussed were plans for some feature articles for magazines, means of getting little items on the wire services, and other publicity media. It was suggested in the committee that a Hereford dateline tagged to unusual news from the area would help. Among the many suggestions for story leads were: a Follow-up on the Town Without A Toothache story twenty years after; a weather story comparing Hereford climate with the so-called air conditioned city, Denver; a story on Angus cattle in the Hereford Capital area, and a story on the changes in irrigation practices.

Mrs. Elizabeth McDowell had 17 enthusiastic workers present at the Country Club for a meeting of the Beautification committee. Committee members discussed various projects they hoped to achieve results on during the year. J. D. Kirkland, Department Head of the Community Betterment committees, appeared before the group and asked support of the committee when the Recreation committee went before the County Commissioners' Court on March 12 for the purpose of requesting permission to use County prisoners for beautification and clean up help.

Les Combs, H. A. Tuck and Bill Lankford met Friday to discuss ideas for a special presentation to distinguished visitors. It was pointed out to the group that Dumas had its Ding Dong Daddy certificate and Muleshoe its Official Muleskinners Certificate, both of which were not only unusual keepsakes for the recipients but also were newsworthy pegs to hang Hereford publicity on.

Neil Cooper's Industrial Development Committee will meet next Wednesday and will consider some new approaches and ideas to boost Hereford's year round payroll economy. Paul Stevens committee on Human Relations in the county will meet soon to study this very complex problem.

The membership committee had three new members to report in Allied Elevators, O. G. Hill Jr., and Morgan Construction Company. Increased pledges in line with the work of the budget re-evaluation came from Carl McCaslin Lumber, Pitman Grain, American Dusing, Jacobsen Brothers, Austin Rose Jr. and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Rumors persist that Hereford will soon have a local furniture moving and storage firm along with a freight warehouse. The Chamber of Commerce has had three different groups visit along these lines within the last six months.

Efforts to start a new class in the Chamber's Action Course in 'Practical Politics or the new Freedom Versus Communism course have stalled so far, but chairman Glenn Williams promises an early registration date for these discussion groups.

The radio program "Your Chamber of Commerce in Action" will again be heard over radio station KPAN starting Sunday, March 11, at 12:45 p.m.

The new edition of Thomas Register has arrived in the Chamber of Commerce office. Business men or others needing information on the manufacturer of most of the products made in the United States will find it listed in this four volume set. The Chamber of Commerce carries an industrial development advertisement in this widely used publication.

That's my report for this week, Sam.

the automobile, driven by Harold Allyn Shaffer, 67, was estimated at $200. The strange accident occurred as Shaffer, driving toward Hereford, turned out of a roadside park and landed in the culvert. He was not injured. (Staff Photos)

The verse on the birthday card said:

"We've had a few birthdays in our time, guess that's easy to see. So I'll button my lip about your age, if you'll do the same for me."

The centenarians became acquainted when they were 100.

GRABBERS AND WAITERS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Do you pass up small pleasures now to enjoy bigger ones later?

The Harvard University Center for Research in Personality is studying this subject—the ability to delay gratification.

Tests with children indicate a majority will grab a bag of candy immediately rather than rely on a promise of double that amount if they will wait a week.

Dr. Walter Mischel, who heads the project, says people can train themselves to delay taking something favorable immediately in order to gain something more desirable later on. However, he adds, not every adult gives himself this training.

WHEN DOZENS FAILED

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Dozens of cars parked in the student parking lot at the University of Wyoming failed to start when the temperature dropped to -44 this winter.

Just one car out of the bunch had no trouble getting started. It had Florida license plates.

Alcohol Council Tabs Committees

The Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism had a large attendance at its monthly breakfast meeting at the Western Wheel Inn, Wednesday, Feb. 28, at 7 a.m.

President of the Council, Frances Hardwick, presided over the business meeting.

A committee of Herb Boardman, the Rev. B. H. Baldwin, and Mrs. Jewell Smith was appointed to make arrangements for the forthcoming Fifth Annual Institute on Alcohol Studies in Austin. Plans will be made for a group from Hereford to attend the Institute being held July 8-12.

Mrs. Lois Rutter reported she had given two programs on alcoholism, one to the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club and to the business women's circle night meeting of the Baptist W.M.U.

Bill Hardwick, acting as chairman, the Rev. Gilbert Davis, the Rev. B. H. Baldwin and the Rev. B. L. Davis were appointed by the president to serve as a committee to obtain programs for the council meetings.

The program was presented by Bill Hardwick on the "Thirty Eight Steps to Alcoholism." He emphasized the fact that five per cent of the adult population will become alcoholics—but the cause is not known. One out of twelve persons is becoming an alcoholic.

He said, "The alcoholic can be anything, but absolutely not a mature individual. One drink will change the personality of the alcoholic."

"The surprising thing," he remarked, "is that only three per cent become Skid Row alcoholics and that the other 97 per cent never make it, but go through all the 38 steps."

During his talk, Hardwick stressed the fact that the alcoholic may not deliberately refuse to help himself—he cannot help himself—every 500 can reach total sobriety by himself, he declared.

Attending the breakfast were: the Rev. B. L. Davis, Mrs. Jewell Smith, the Rev. B. H. Baldwin, Herb Boardman, the Rev. Gilbert Davis, Mrs. Mary Jane Pitman, Lowell Sharp, the Rev. Joel Treadwell, Paul Stevens, Bill Hardwick, Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., Mrs. Esther Springer, Mrs. Nora Gillis, Mrs. H. E. Miller, Mrs. Lois Rutter, Mrs. Ramona Noel, the Rev. F. M. Bevesdorf, a new member, and Frances Hardwick.

Schulte, J. E. Stengel, Frank Annen, A. J. Bezner, Ed Dziuk, W. J. Albracht, J. E. Pavlicek, Walt Warren, Leon Vinton, Mabel Wagner, Joe Brorman, Cornelius Drerup, Misses Mary Green and Agnes Hellman, and guests, Mrs. Josephine Schneider and Chris Looney.

March 4-10 is being observed as Four-H Club Week and it doesn't take much effort to find that this is certainly one of the most active of the many groups in the county. We have some information inside this issue about the work those youngsters did last year. On Thursday, we'll have a lot more about their work and achievements... most of it in the members' own words.

Old Jokes, old songs made a new hit With those at the Lions Minstrel show. They started on time, knew when to quit. And for King's Manor made a pile of dough. Congratulations!

The Episcopal Youth Group will sponsor a pancake supper on Tuesday, March 6, at the St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Proceeds will be used to finance the group's trip to an area youth meeting. Serving hours will be 6 p.m. until 8 p.m.

this year, emphasis is being placed on the open house, instead of the noon lunch hour in the past.

A panel discussion and open house will highlight Public Schools Week at Central Elementary School, according to principal L. C. Thomas. During a Parent-Teachers Association meeting Tuesday night, a panel discussion concerning proper mental development of school children will be featured. Following the discussion, visitors will tour the school, visiting with teachers and viewing student work.

Films will provide entertainment for children, leaving parents free to visit and "get acquainted." Members of the panel discussion group include Denzil Pulliam, Mrs. Earl Springer, Mrs. Helen Coffman, the Rev. B. H. Baldwin, and Dr. C. E. Hicks.

Northwest Elementary School schedules open house Tuesday, beginning at 7 p.m., when parents may get acquainted with teachers. "We have several new families in our area," states principal Charles Duval, "and this will give everyone a chance to meet."

Alkman will also stage an open house Tuesday night, following the P.T.A. meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. Election of officers for the coming year will highlight the meet. Parents will tour the school following the meeting.

"We plan to have a 'Back-to-School' night at Stanton Junior High School," states principal W. C. Quattlebaum. "Parents will come to school at 7:30 p.m. Monday, and follow the schedule

Charge Filed Against Youth For Burglaries

A 16-year-old Latin-American youth is being held in the Deaf Smith County jail awaiting a hearing as a juvenile delinquent.

The youth is suspected of burglarizing Hereford Fertilizer in December and the ICX Warehouse recently. A radio was taken from the fertilizer concern and CO2 pistol and some pennies from the trucking firm.

A charge of juvenile delinquency by burglary has been filed against the youth following his arrest Friday by the Hereford Police Department.

of their students." Parents were also invited to visit the school anytime during the week. "We'd particularly like to have every parent visit school at least one day, to see the activities and evaluate the school," he said.

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE

I notice where everybody is giving parties and extending congratulations to "Pete" Petersen on his retirement from the rural carrier service. Not me. I sympathize with the old boy. He works like a dog for 33 years to get a swell job and, Wham!, it's gone! If he was totting around one of those big heavy bags and doing a lot of foot work like the city delivery boys, he would get my congratulations, but as things stand I figure his wife will find so many chores for him around the house that he will wish many a time he was back driving Rt. 1. I cannot think of anything worse than having no excuse at all when your wife starts coming up with all of those menial tasks around the house.

Instead of sitting in his comfortable car, Pete will be emptying the trash, mowing the lawn, fixing the screen doors, or feeding the dog - and this doesn't include anything big, such as painting the house, pouring concrete walks, and spading flower beds.

These RFD boys today are the elite and envy of the mail service, thanks to modern transportation. If you don't think it has changed a lot in the past 30 years, just ask Pete. Nevertheless, I honestly am real happy for him, and I know he means it when he says he expects to contribute much of his time to church work and similar endeavors.

I was reading where Russians have sugar running out their ears in an effort to absorb the Cuban output. Already, they have had considerable spoilage, and sugar seems to be the one agricultural commodity in-over-supply in the communist world. Relief is just around the corner, however; Cuba is expected to drop to 4 million tons this year from 6 1/2 million tons last year; this the communists will appreciate, but the Cubans will lose in gross income. The drop, by a large measure, is attributed to mismanagement under the Castro regime - and is fairly well what usually happens when communist nations attempt agricultural production. The Russians probably wouldn't admit it, but agriculture is one point where we whip them down beyond any shadow of a doubt.

Meanwhile, basketball is hardly over and I notice they already have the new high school baseball schedules posted. The district has three teams, including Hereford, Dumas and Levelland. We should have a good chance to cop this title.

Marshall Formby boosters got a shot in the arm Thursday night when Formby appeared on KGNC-TV. Everyone seemed to feel that he put his finger on the pulse of several questions which need ironing out in Texas. Mostly, though, his back-ers began to realize that Formby does have a good chance for the Democratic run-off, due to his platform and presentation. Formby is limited on funds, but he is unhampered by pressure from various groups - and he did lean back and take a couple of pot-shots at LBJ and Washington domination of state affairs. All in all, Mr. Formby accounted for himself very well, and most of his backers were elated over the appearance.

If you doubt spring is just around the corner, here's proof. Bill Patton and Jim Roberts got together the past week and swapped boats, which is a surer sign than the first robin.

You just can't trust those Lions, especially if you happen to be one of them. Those who saw the Friday night performance of the 1962 Minstrel may recall how the Lions cast, early in the first scene, laughed loudly and made more noise than the audience. Here's why. Light-in' (J. W. Robinson) handed Mr. Interlocutor (Earnest Langley) a telegram to read which said: "Yo wife just had triplets." Not satisfied with a good thing, the cast substituted a special telegram for Earnest, which read: "Don't look now, but your pants are unzipped." Langley knew the part, but when he glanced at the telegram, he almost dropped his upper teeth and stammered a couple of times before he could recall the correct line. Needless to say, the entire cast, in on the deal, really came unbound.

Ronald Reagan seems to have created somewhat of a stir in Amarillo. The incident will be interpreted two ways, depending on which side of the fence folks lean. One side will hail the event as a great victory, while the other will deem it another example of minority aggression. One thing about it, however, this is the only country in the world where such diverse opinions could result.

Never before has there been such a clamor for efficient, qualified help - and I keep reading about all of this unemployment. Perhaps the rest of the nation is different from our area; here, there seem to be plenty of jobs for those who are willing to work. One reason could be the short hour demands and the federal minimums which force industry and business to substitute machines in order to make a pretense at competing on national and international levels. Imports from Japan and Europe continue to make inroads, due chiefly to high U.S. labor costs. Meanwhile, the Dallas, Oklahoma City and Denver papers carry around 25 "Help Wanted" ads for each "Situation Wanted." All in all, unemployment seems to be the puzzle of the century.

Clothing Consumer Program Held Tuesday, February 27

"YOUR CLOTHING DOLLARS" was the topic being discussed by the speaker, Mrs. Argen Draper, Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Agent, at the Clothing Consumer Program presented Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 27. (Staff Photo)

The District Courtroom of the Deaf Smith County Courthouse was the scene Tuesday, Feb. 27, for one of the most successful consumer day programs presented in this county. It was attended by over one hundred home demonstration club members and other interested persons.

The program was opened by the Mistress of Ceremonies, Miss Edith Lois Wilson, District Agent of District 1, with headquarters in Amarillo. She has been in extension service for 22 years.

"Fibers In The News" was the topic of the talk given by Mrs. Dorothea Prowell, Homemaking teacher in the clothing department of Hereford High School. Mrs. Prowell is serving her first year as chairman of the clothing committee. She is a graduate of New Mexico State University. She is now doing graduate work at Texas Woman's University.

Miss Fannie Brown Eaton of College Station, Clothing Specialist with the Extension Service, discussed "Finishes On Fabrics." Miss Eaton is a graduate of Texas Tech and Columbia University. She served as County Home Demonstration Agent and District Agent before her appointment as clothing specialist.

"Dry Cleaning News" was presented by Woodie McDermitt, manager of a local dry cleaning shop. He is a graduate of the National Dry Cleaning Institute of Silver Springs, Md.

The program continued with an unusual presentation of "Your Clothing Dollars" by Mrs. Argen Draper, Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Agent. Mrs. Draper has served as county HD agent in Deaf Smith County for fifteen years. She is a graduate of Texas Tech and is presently doing graduate work through project courses from Texas Woman's University. She works with 13 Home Demonstration Clubs and 10 4-H Clubs.

Exhibits by seven local merchants were set up and a special exhibit by Miss Sharon Bezner was shown, displaying wool garments of her own construction and her accomplishments in 4-H work.

The Clothing Consumer Program was arranged by the Clothing Sub-Committee of the County Program Building Committee. This committee includes Mrs. Dorothea Prowell, chairman; Miss Sharon Bezner, secretary; Mrs. E. C. Hammett, Woodie McDermitt, Mrs. R. L. Wilson and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, committee members.

SEVEN LOCAL MERCHANTS had set up clothing exhibits for the many visitors attending the Clothing Consumer Program. Garments, made of many different materials, and accessories that would be suitable for wearing with the garments were displayed. Many bolts of piece goods were shown too for those of the viewers who are seamstresses. Guests viewed the exhibits after the conclusion of the program. (Staff Photo)

Exchange Students Give Program For B & PW's

The February meetings of the Hereford Business and Professional Women's Club have featured the informal talks and showing of films of their homelands by the exchange students, Gillian McArthur of Scotland and Peter Lantz of Sweden.

The students told the group about the process gone through in being chosen to come to America; and the meeting of many exchange students from all parts of the world as they gathered together in Rotterdam for the boat trip to America. There were 850 students making the boat trip. They landed in New York City; then visited the United Nations Building, Times Square and other points of interest. The remainder of their trip to Hereford was made by plane from LaGuardia Airport in New York to Amarillo where they were met by their American parents and representatives of the American Field Service in Hereford. They came the rest of the way by car to Hereford and their new homes. Gillian is living with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Higgins and Peter Lantz is living in the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Mims.

Swedish rye bread, tasted by the club members, was brought by Peter Lantz. Colored movies and slides were shown of the two countries, Scotland and Sweden, by the students.

Mrs. Sue James, club president, presided at the business meeting. The session included reports from the sunshine committee by Della Stagner, the finance committee by Bea Barrett, and the public affairs committee by C. Ora Cockrell. Minutes of previous meetings were read and approved. An announcement was made that Mrs. Margaret Ann Durham, member of the club, had been nominated as the county club

SUCCUMBS ANYWAY
PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Money in the bank and special care failed to save a 150-year-old elm tree.

The tree became the victim of Dutch elm disease despite the fact the late Jennie M. Arms Sheldon had set up a trust fund for its preservation. The tree — on the campus of Deerfield Academy — was even equipped with a lightning rod. The small trust for the 110-foot-tall tree had been administered by the school since 1938.

Frances Hardwick, manager of the Star Theater, has been in the theater business in Hereford for the past sixteen years. But... this is only a small portion of his theater experience. He comes from a long line of theater people, dating back to his father in the early 1900's.

Hardwick began his theater career at the age of 13 and became a manager at the unbelievable age of 15. After a spell of ranching he moved to Hereford 16 years ago to reenter the theater business.

He believes that the theater should definitely be an integral part of the community and he has lasted through hard times to prove his point. Through his cleverness he has presented many unique promotions in the past.

Recently, Hardwick retired as the manager of the Star. He cordially invites you to meet the new manager, George Phillips.

tered the district contests in Canyon and Kay James; was named winner of the county Bake Show contest.

The county was well-represented with winners in the State 4-H Roundup. Sharon Beizer won in public speaking; John Perrin and Larry Minks presented their work on beef production and marketing; Jim Higgins went to the contest with a display on soil and water conservation; while Larry Hill and Dick Plank presented information on cooperatives.

Junction as the district winner. Dick Plank was elected vice chairman of the state 4-H Council during the council meeting in Huntsville. Jim Shearhart placed first and Bill Cole third in the state grain sorghum production contest. Six booths were set up by 4-H Club members during the Hereford Harvest Festival.

Six district Junior Leadership winners attended the Junior Leadership Training Lab at Lake Brownwood during August. Making the trip were Sharon Beizer, Luane Higgins, Danforth Award for leadership; Larry Hill, yard improvement; and Dick Plank, field crops. Dick Plank was elected chairman of the District 1 4-H Council. At the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, Steve Robbins was second in the 4-H Wheat contest and 34 county 4-H members won individual awards for vegetables exhibited.

Two state winners from Deaf Smith County were named during October. During the month, Larry Minks showed the Grand Champion calf at the International Livestock Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Dallas.

November was highlighted by the annual Achievement Banquet. Sharon Beizer was named the Gold Star Girl and Larry Minks was chosen the Gold Star Boy. Luane Higgins was named as alternate winner for the Danforth Leadership Award. Three persons attended the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Caroline Brumley attended as the state Home Improvement winner while Dick Plank went as the state Field Crops winner. Accompanying them was County Agent Lefty Thomas, chosen as the only county agent from the state to attend.

December ended a busy year with the county-wide Christmas Party and the traditional Sharing Project.

Lefty Thomas, Mrs. Argen Draper and Miss Loreta Fowler are advisors for the various county 4-H Clubs, but they insist that much of the credit for the work and progress must be given to the men and women who serve as volunteer leaders for the clubs.

Time's Coming: Mom No Longer Asks Or Cares How Dad Will Vote

Editor's Note: The following letter concerns women and women voters. It no doubt heralds a trend which is about to sweep this area in coming years. Women, more and more, are beginning to vote their thoughts, rather than follow in the footsteps of husbands, fathers and brothers. Mrs. Hutson, it seems to us, is going about the matter of politics in a sensible, logical manner — and some of her conclusions are thought provoking, indeed.

February 27, 1962

Dear Mr. Editor,

Last night I kept a promise that I have been making to myself my whole adult life. I attended a political meeting. It was a most exhilarating experience and I wish to share it in the hope that it may spur other women to similar action.

The time is fast approaching when every voter in Texas will have to decide for sure whether he (or she) is a Democrat or a Republican. I have chosen to be a Democrat — but that is neither here nor there for the purpose of this letter. What I wish to put across is that more women need to get out and see for themselves what politics is all about.

Maybe you have qualms about the respectability of such activities? Well, I can't speak for the Republican club, but our meeting last night of The Democrats of Deaf Smith County was the ultimate in respectability. If you doubt me just come to our next meeting. We welcome visitors.

There were people of all ages, from the very young on up toward the sunny side of seventy. Our mayor was there and several others you might call pillars of the community.

The only thing that may have cast a shadow on the goings-on was when I stood up to read the minutes. I was quite a contrast to the poised men who are my fellow officers.

From my earliest school days whenever I've had to appear in front of a group of people, I have experienced violent stage fright. Anyone opening the door to come in late last night might have thought he was witnessing a demonstration of the Twist or maybe St. Vitus's dance from the way I shook. But I knew when I accepted the position what I'd go thru and I intend to overcome it while I learn firsthand about candidates, political organizations, and such.

Again, I can't speak for the Republican club, but I imagine their efforts will be similar to ours. We intend to acquaint ourselves with all the information available about each of the candidates whose name will appear on the ballot in the coming election.

How many times, when the big moment has at last arrived and you are standing in the voting stall clutching a ballot in your own two hot little hands, have you started down the list using your pencil in a most violently partisan way and then come upon a group of names you never in your life heard of? Huh? Well then, come on down and learn with us.

Last night we heard speeches from four local office-seekers and a most enlightening speech by Mr. B. M. Nelson of Dimmitt who is a candidate for state representative from the 91st district. Also Mr. Billy Clayton dropped by and said several words on behalf of his candidacy for the same office.

While Mr. Clint Formby was telling us about his adventures traveling with his Uncle Sam last week in the opening rounds of the race for governor I found myself doodling a picture of Lincoln in his stovepipe hat. I was thinking about the Lincoln-Douglas debates and how exciting that must have been. We had nothing quite like them last night — but with the crazy mixed-up field in the governor's race this year — who knows?

Our predecessors, the Bloomer Girls and other suffragettes, raised Cain with the men until they gave us the vote. I, for one am embarking on a campaign to learn to use mine a little more intelligently.

You don't have to be some sort of crackpot with a burning cause to be interested in politics. Good government should be enough incentive for any of us. Politics can only be as honorable as those participating. If you consider yourself a particularly lily-white shade, then mix yourself into this activity that is sometimes called dirty and you can't help but bleach it to a grey a few shades lighter than it was before.

Yours truly Mrs. B. D. Hutson

Vending Law Is Public Safety

Two out-of-town solicitors were arrested and fined last week on itinerant vending charges, all as the result of a telephone call by the lady who was contacted concerning roof repairs.

Some people, we feel sure, will criticize the action, while others may feel that Hereford is trying to build a fence against the outside world. On the contrary, the law was actually passed for protection of those very people who may be the first to complain.

Probably the most important phase of the law is requirement of a $2,000 bond on behalf of the operators. This bond protects local people who do business with outside firms, and certainly no reliable firm which may do thousands of dollars in business in the community could object to posting a performance bond. Licenses and fees are likewise required, and seldom if ever draw criticism from legitimate operators. Failure in having this type of protection has, in years past, been expensive to scores of local citizens.

Firms which meet the simple requirements are accepted and welcome to operate in the community and, let us add, they still bear a minute part of the obligations which local business firms and representatives are required to fulfill.

The lady who made the telephone call, however, is the true heroine of the occasion. No matter how many laws a city or county may pass, there are absolutely worthless unless they are enforced — and the only way in which they can be enforced is through cooperation of the citizens they seek to protect.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Albert Schweitzer manifests his belief that we experience God in our lives as a "Will to Love." Although a renowned organist, theologian and authority on Bach, he has dedicated himself to suffering humanity. After studying medicine, he founded a hospital for natives in Africa, on the theory that "man belongs to man." There in the jungle, his reverence for all life brought him fame. The world has given him awards including the Nobel Prize, and has invited him to head up a proposed peace conference of world religious leaders. Yet, this humble man usually travels third class. At 87, his heart and hands still serve in his hospital in Lambarene, French Equatorial Africa.

Some Coin Schemes Are Come-Ons For Catalogs

Although coin collecting is to be encouraged as a worthwhile hobby and incentive to the study of history, art and economists, prospective coin collectors are warned against a scheme currently used to exploit the public's gullibility: According to Bill Thompson,

Manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, numerous promoters are advertising that they will pay large sums for rare coins, so as to imply that they are coin dealers, when their primary purpose is to lure the uninformed into buying a catalog.

The National Better Business Bureau, with which the Chamber is affiliated through membership, has charged in a report just released that this advertising creates the impression that these rare coins, worth fabulous amounts, are in general circulation and are being used in making change only because the public doesn't know their numismatic value. "The facts are," Thompson stated, "the rare coins cited are in the hands of collectors, and the possibility of finding any of them in circulation is non-existent."

On the other hand, Thompson noted, some of these catalog promoters quote prices for coins which are available through legitimate dealers, and which may be in limited circulation at prices substantially less than the market price. According to the American Numismatic Association, any coins purchased at such prices would be virtually "steals."

The Post Office Department has had occasion to examine into some of this promotion advertising, and the following finding of fact in one case in which a fraud order was issued, aptly summarizes the scheme:

"The evidence shows the pretenses, representations and promises of this promoter to the effect that his concern is a bona fide dealer in coins, that certain coins are wanted by it, and that its 'listings' will enable purchasers to procure the sale of various coins to it at substantial premiums are false and fraudulent, and the whole scheme is designed and intended to procure remittances through the mails for the so-called 'listings' under the guise of dealing in coins."

Thompson recommended to those interested in coin collecting as a hobby that they read some of the many books available on the subject, and that they deal with established coin dealers.

A copy of the National Better Business Bureau's expose of the Coin Catalog Scheme is available upon direct request to the Bureau, at 75 East 45th Street, New York 17, N. Y. A stamped return address envelope should be enclosed.

50 YEARS AGO

Heavy Snow, Blizzard Conditions Hit County

The big snow of Monday night, Feb. 19, had scarcely melted and in many places large drifts still remained, when another equally as much came as a surprise Saturday night and Sunday morning. The east winds of Saturday brought a rain, beginning at 9 o'clock Saturday night, which continued for nearly three hours when the wind veered a little to the northeast, bringing a fall of snow. At daylight Sunday morning the snow was still falling and the wind began to increase in velocity so that by noon a 40-mile gale was sweeping the plains, driving the snow in a blinding blast that defied the traveler, the sheep herder and the cowboy. Nearly all day and far into the night the gale continued, piling up the snow in great drifts where there was any obstruction such as fences, houses or trees, and in many places reached a depth of six to ten feet. The average depth on a level would not exceed six to eight inches. This added to the half-inch rain would make something like one and one-quarter inches of precipitation. The stock suffered considerably in the storm.

25 YEARS AGO

Communication from Washington, D. C., this week indicated that details of the proposed Rural Electrification program for Deaf Smith County should be worked out in the near future. Present information indicated action as soon as a rate agreement can be arranged. Considerable delay in beginning the project here led H. V. Hennen, chamber of commerce secretary, to wire Washington to know if further surveys were needed. Boyd Fisher, director of development division of the Rural Electrification Administration, replied with the following letter which arrived here Tuesday morning: "Dear Mr. Hennen: Your telegram has just been received and we are anxious to let you know that we are doing all within our power to effect a satisfactory settlement of the rate question which is holding up any decision on the above-mentioned project. On February 17, we received the following telegram from Mr. H. L. Allen of the Texas-New Mexico Utilities Company: 'Don A. Henry, our New York office will confer with you soon relative Hereford project Texas 47, Deaf Smith, to submit our proposal to serve wholesale electric energy.' As yet, Mr. Henry has not made an appearance at our office and as soon as he does we shall be able to proceed with our further analysis."

TRUSTEES PROPOSE TAX STUDY

Littlefield School Trustees met in a special called session Tuesday evening for the purpose of calling an election and discussing a report requested from the business manager regarding valuations of taxable property in the district. Sid Hopping, business manager, after taking all the property on the rolls throughout the district arrived at a figure of $52,231,000 valuation. He also reported that the present tax value on the rolls was $17,588,755 or about 33 per cent of the actual value. After a thorough discussion by the board, it was decided to appoint a committee composed of Byron Douglas, Delbert Ross and Hopping to choose a tax equalization study team of seven local citizens to investigate the present tax rolls and decide if they feel it is equal to all or if a re-evaluation of district property is needed. The study team is to report to the trustees as soon as they complete the survey. —LAMB COUNTY LEADER (Littlefield)

NEW ELEVATOR SLATED FOR QUANAH

The Kimbell Milling Company with headquarters in Fort Worth announced plans today to construct a 125,000-bushel storage elevator in Quanah. The new elevator will be erected at the location of the present 15,000 bushel capacity installation. Luther Baker, a company official, in releasing the story this week, said that the new elevator would have temperature controls and all the latest equipment for drying grain. The present 15,000 bushel capacity elevator will be refitted with modern machinery also. —QUANAH TRIBUNE-CHIEF

GREENBUGS DAMAGING WHEAT

Greenbugs are doing serious damage to wheat in an area southeast of Canyon. Producers are beginning to have their fields aerial sprayed to control this pest. In 1961 more than one-half of the wheat in Randall County was sprayed for greenbugs. Weather conditions for the next two or three weeks will determine how serious this could develop. The area about 10 miles southeast of Canyon seems to be hardest hit. It is believed that the bugs will be increasing within the next few weeks. All wheat growers are cautioned to follow periodic inspections of their fields and follow accurate and proven measures if necessary. —THE CANYON NEWS

CITY MANAGER PLAN WINS APPROVAL

Canadian citizens gave a ringing two-to-one vote of confidence to the City Manager's plan Tuesday in a special city election which had been called by die-hard opponents to do away with the city manager form of government. Turning out in near-record numbers for the special election, city voters voted 207 "for abandoning the city manager plan," and 427 "against abandoning" the plan. —THE CANADIAN RECORD

COACH REQUESTS HEARING

Coach Bill Taylor, who was fired last week by the Muleshoe Independent School Board of Trustees, this week asked the board for a hearing at its earliest convenience. Only two charges were listed by the board in its dismissal of Taylor from the head coach and athletic director's position, and specific proof of the charges has not been found in a canvass of the board and school officials. "I'd just like to have those charges explained," Taylor said. "I don't want to leave with something on my record I know nothing about." The School Board failed to renew Taylor's contract last Monday by a vote of 3-2. The reasons listed were "Dissention" and "Lack of control of outside groups and the athletic setup." —THE MULESHOE JOURNAL

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm is off in space this week, his letter indicates.

Dear editor: The trouble with conquering space is that I'm not sure it's going to stay conquered.

Like nearly everyone else, I arranged my work so I could watch Col. Glenn take off in that rocket, and I was pulling hard for him although I'll concede Col. Glenn was the one taking all the risks. Naturally, anybody who stops to think is amazed at what we've done and is proud of the achievement and it gives the Russians something to think about, namely, that this country can do anything it sets out to do, once it puts its mind to it, and that if you can set an orbiting capsule down in the ocean with a man in it, you can set one down in Moscow with a bomb in it.

And there's more to come, as one of the scientists responsible for the success of the flight said a few years from the type of rocket ship used to put Col. Glenn into orbit will look about like a modern airplane looks compared with the Wright Brothers' plane.

But here's the thing: people are always talking about conquering space, and I'm all for it, but conquering space may turn out to be about like conquering this darn Johnson grass. You can do it for a while, but if you don't keep conquering, it'll close in on you, and sometimes it'll beat you even when you're trying. I can't imagine a worse job than trying to conquer space when it extends outward forever in any direction you look, endlessly, beyond the fringes of the imagination. If I ever heard of permanent employment, that's it.

As I see it, there are two main things wrong with space: there's too much of it, and there's nothing out there to breathe.

For example, I'm all for going to the moon. That is, I'm all for somebody else going, but I think man ought to prepare himself for the possibility that going may be sort of like a trip to the Sahara Desert. The main thing about it is having gone and come back, and if anybody brings up the idea of a second trip, you may want to change the subject.

I don't know why man thinks he can make a go of living on the moon, taking his oxygen with him and manufacturing a new supply after he gets there, when he hasn't made too good a showing on earth, where the air is free.

Actually, though, conquering space has its interesting points and I'm as eager as you to see what those scientists do next. The fact you can't actually conquer it is no drawback, at least this has never stood in the way of forming.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

County Studies Are Worthwhile

With more than passing interest, many citizens have carefully studied recent recommendations and findings centered around the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department. Like the County Judge and Court members, it appears to us that the department is due recognition for a job well done.

Foremost in the department survey, too, was the indication that all other county departments will be given the same careful scrutiny and study, and we hope they all turn out equally well.

Meanwhile, our court members will have become better acquainted with the needs and problems of each department and, no doubt, will be able to offer worthwhile suggestions from time to time. An analysis and report on the roads and maintenance, for instance, should result in the exchange of numerous worthwhile ideas and methods and this, we presume, is where most of our money goes.

By pursuing this policy, our judge and court are definitely accomplishing one of the primary purposes of their election. Government today is big business, and we feel that these officials are following in the footsteps of other "bosses" throughout industry and business. It should be the first step toward efficiency and economy.

Schools Change, But Need Remains

The need for the public school never changes, but times and conditions may change, and be required to change methods and practices of public education. This is inherent with anything that grows, for growth is the result of change.

Our Texas public schools were created 108 years ago. In 1854 the first law was passed establishing the public school.

It is a healthy thing in our democratic way of life to have intelligent understanding of the important functions of our basic institutions. This is especially true of the schools. The initiative and resourcefulness and the wisdom and leadership that our schools are inculcating in the youth of today are the answer of the problems of citizenship in the years ahead.

Yes, "bring me men to match my mountains". That is the need of our times and must come from the public schools—schools that are strong in virtues required for building strong men and women.

We can be assured of this and do our part in understanding and helping the public school to fulfill their great obligation to our times by being a participant in the annual Public Schools Week, March 5 through March 9, 1962. Schools will hold open house; accept their hospitality, and you will enjoy the experience of going back to school—if but for a day.

Pioneer Club Host Luncheon And Program

The Pioneer Study Club met for the regular luncheon meeting, Feb. 27, Tuesday, at 12:30 p.m., in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Company. Mrs. Ralph McCullough, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. C. R. Walsler brought the devotional taken from Proverbs 3:1-16. She compared this scripture lesson to the life of a busy Christian woman and her work in the home and the community. Prayer was offered by Mrs. H. E. Miller.

The tables, set for family style serving, were decorated in a birthday motif, honoring all members on this one occasion. February is usually referred to as the National Birthday Month. The pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr.

The program on "Education and Conservation" was presented by Mesdames Delmar Sigle and Ray Johnson. Mrs. Johnson talked on "Your Money's Worth In Schools." She stressed the fact that "We want good schools, but still we want to get our money's worth. If the schools in your town do not help able students to prepare for higher education then the state and even the national level will suffer as has been proven by the armed services. Many young men, called for service, failed their IQ tests."

Continuing she said, "Much more is spent on alcoholic beverages and riotous living than on schools and public services. We spend a little less than four per cent of our total income on education where the Russians spent about 15 per cent. Our national average per pupil is $390 but this does not necessarily apply to our local schools as the Texas average is $330 per pupil and is 3.4 per cent of our total income. The national average is 3.5 per cent. Texas is number 35 in current expenditure. Per capita income for Texas was $1908 in 1959. On our local average we spend only $388.88. We fall below the top level but above medium, which places us in a group with a very good average." Reports on the recent citizens committee meeting were given at the business session by Mrs. Delmar Sigle.

Present for the luncheon and program were Mesdames Fred Barrett, Allen Bell, Buri France, N. E. Gass, O. G. Hill Sr., W. C. Hromas, E. S. Ireland, Ray Johnson, L. H. Lookingbill Sr., C. N. McClure, Ralph McCullough, H. E. Miller, John Pat-
-terry Seigler, Delmar Sigle, M. L. Simpson Sr., C. R. Walsler, Beas Werner, R. L. Wilson, Paul Rudd, one visitor, Mrs. R. J. Smith, and the hostesses, Mesdames J. M. Gilliland, Henry Hastings, A. L. Manjeot and Myrtle Wright.

Key Clubbers Travel Far In Busy Weekend

Members of the Hereford High School Key Club traveled over 500 miles during the weekend last week in a flurry of club activity.

Hereford Key Clubbers were guests at a banquet in Levelland Friday night, attended the annual Key Club Spring Rally in Plainview Saturday, and two of the club members were featured on a program in Pampa Sunday.

As a direct result of efforts by the local club, Key Club was organized in Levelland recently. Hereford Key Club members were guests at the Levelland charter night banquet Friday, when the new club received its charter from state officers and held its officer installation.

After a brief night's rest back home Friday, Key Clubbers attended the annual Spring Rally in Plainview. John Buck of Hereford, District VII Key Club Lt. Governor, played a key role in the program.

Election of officers was held, and Buck, who graduates this year, will be replaced by Chipper Garrison of Plainview. John Buck and local Key Club president Drew Kershen attended the District VI Key Club Spring Rally held Sunday afternoon in Pampa. Buck was the featured speaker at the convention.

Accompanying members of the Key Club were Bill Patton, Texas-Oklahoma chairman of the Kiwanis boys and girls committee, and Markham Waddill, Division VII Kiwanis Chairman of Key Club, both of Hereford.

DUTY FROZE BUGLER
BUFFALO, N. Y. P — The bugler was the only casualty when a group of Boy Scouts camped out on a church lawn here overnight and the temperature plunged below zero.

The bugler's metal mouth-piece froze to his lips. Other Scouts got him inside the church, where the heat separated him from the bugle.

Meetings Inspire Others To Spring Sewing Action

BY ARGEN DRAPER
This has been a busy week; the meetings were good with good attendance. Congratulations and thanks to the merchants who put up exhibits. They were inspiring and most everyone present left determined to begin spring sewing.

Sharon Bezner's exhibit was quite a tribute to 4-H work. I wish that Sharon's former adult homemaking teachers could have seen the exhibit of the loom wool ensembles with proper accessories. It was a tribute to all the adults, including her parents, who have inspired her, taught her clothing selection, color combinations and sewing.

Deaf Smith County has always had the best 4-H adult leaders. This is one of the biggest reasons for our outstanding 4-H accomplishments.

It isn't how much money is spent on clothes but how much thoughtful planning and good management go into the manipulation of the clothing allowance.

Have you ever noticed how many kinds of laundry aids are on the local market? I was amazed when we started collecting the laundry aids for the laundering programs. I could find only 4 soaps — a flaked, a granulated, and two bar soaps. There are 16 kinds of detergents, some special washing compounds, four water softeners, water conditioners and fabric conditioners.

Could you use some information on how to launder wash-and-wear woollens? Then perhaps the results of a study conducted by the Wool Bureau may be of interest to you.

It was found that methods similar to those used on other wash-and-wear fabrics could be used in washing woolen fabrics which are labeled washable, the specialists said.

Recommendations made for woollens labeled washable are: slow agitation and spinning speeds, high water level, low fabric load, and short sudsing time.

Wool was found to be not particularly sensitive to the temperatures encountered in washing and tumble drying. And tumble drying resulted in less wrinkles but more fuzz formation than did air drying.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT CLOTHES??
1. What do I need?
2. How much can I spend?
3. Why do I need it?
4. What color?
5. Will I sew or buy ready made?
6. Where will I shop?
7. When will I shop?

TO ANSWER YOUR CLOTHING QUESTIONS
1. Keep in mind what you think you want, or what you think you need.
2. Look at what you have. Consider possible ways of altering, changing, or making wearable garments on hand. Think about where you go and what you do to determine the type of clothes you need.
3. Know how much money you can afford to spend. Consider your sewing skills or ability to make or alter your clothing. Having time to sew may be a limited factor. Your time may be well spent making school and sports clothes. Your ability to sew may convince you to buy best dresses, suits, and coats ready made.
4. Set down possible choices of selections of the items that you are thinking of getting, keeping in mind colors that will be suitable to you and that will go with the other things you have. You could buy ready made or make it. You might buy on lay-a-way if planning is done early enough. You might "charge" on a 30-day account if your budget will allow. You could use the revolving or budget account if you are willing to pay the extra costs. You might make the garment if you have the skill and time. You may decide you don't need it at all.
5. Decide what you will do. Your decision will only be as good as your best choice or alternative.
6. Be happy with your decision.
7. Could you have improved on your decision? Better luck next time!!

Careful planning can reduce the cost of your clothing. The expensive items in your closet are:
1. Shoes that do not fit.
2. Hats and shoes that can be worn with few outfits.
3. Garments that need altering or repairing.
4. The sweater that will not go with anything.
5. The dress you bought "on sale" that was a mistake.

Invitations, Giving Programs Are Topics Of Kappa Iota Meet

Members of Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met Tuesday evening, Feb. 20, in the Club Room of the Hereford Community Center.

The opening ritual was recited in unison by Mesdames Irving Alexander, Delbert Bainum, Frank Barrett, Don Baugous, Doc Carter, Gene Cope, Bruce Fink, Howard Gore, Noland Grady, J. D. Greeson, V. A. Nichols, Hicks Roberson, John Schneider, Larry Summers, Jim Thomas, Howard Walker, Delmo Williams, Glenn Wilson and Bob Fillpot.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Hicks Roberson, president. The date for the Preferential Supper was set for Mar. 17, with chapter members and their husbands honoring the new pledges and their husbands. A discussion was held on the spring style show scheduled for April 6 to be sponsored jointly with the Xi Epsilon Exemplar chapter of the sorority. Chapter members voted to make donations to the Beta Sigma Phi International Endowment and Loan Funds.

Programs for the meeting were given by Mrs. J. D. Greeson, who gave an amusing performance on "How to give and how not to give a program"; and by Mrs. J. Howard Walker, who presented some of the "Rules Of Etiquette On Formal and Informal Invitations." Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Van Nichols.

Fodder Box

By Judy Crume and Gary Payne
The Dogie staff met recently and elected Gary Payne assistant editor and he will be editor next year. Gary will be a regular contributor to this column.

Judy Crume, what were you doing sprawled out on your front lawn at one o'clock one Saturday morning?

Steve Hodges, what do you mean by "look at those two?"

Dan McWhorter, where did you go during lunch period one Wednesday?

Mandy Moore, don't you know that the punishment for shoplifting is from one to three years?

Brant Knox and John Lesly, who were you baby-sitting at the show Saturday?

John Lesly, Sandra Thomas, Gene Drummond and Cynthia Leasure, what were you doing in a car at dancing lessons?

Mr. Mercer, where did you find your magnets?

Mr. Maloney, why were you cleaning your walls in shop?

Peggy Neff, who were you with in that little turquoise Oldsmobile going toward the country out by Northwest? Was it A. H. by any chance?

There has been a lot happening around school the last month. We'd like to start out by recognizing our assistant editor, Gary Payne. Gary will have the paper next year; I am sure he'll do a good job.

Now to the business at hand. Janis M. what were you doing in the cemetery, Feb. 19; digging your own grave? ... Say, Debbie B., don't you think two boys at a time are a few too many? ... Hey, Beth B., were you cold Friday night? ... Mrs. Sullivan, do you always get such "compliments" on biscuits. What about this third period? ... G. W. the boy has to ask the girl for dates, just try and see ... Hey, Brenda S., what's the secret you told Myrna and Becky on the way to the library? ... Tim G., whose board did you saw in half? ... What's this about a broom, Lewis B.? Hey, first kitchen, fifth period, who forgot the baking powder? ... Lewis, what's Mr. Jones always asking you about? Is it Connie? ... There seems to be two freshmen who can't get together, how about it, W. J. and M. G. ... Mr. Martin, do you always sleep in assembly? ... Nancy Gripp, what have you been making speeches about in Speech I? ... Sharon T., what was it you called J. D. Me? ... Library Adding More Volumes

By Sue Atchley
The Stanton Junior High School library has received a number of new books this year. The library is below par in the number of books on the shelves. This is due to two main things. First is the number of new students or increase in enrollment. Second was the moving of freshmen into junior high school two years ago.

Another problem, although minor, is the loss of books that occurs in any library from smallest school library to largest metropolitan.

If the library is able to obtain as many books in the next two or three years as have been ordered this year, the number of books will equal the number recommended by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools.

Recently the library received 60 new books. These books are fiction, non-fiction, and a few reference books.

Ideal Boy

By Barbara Langley
If I had my ideal boy he would be as cute as Stan Sigman and have the physique of John Kriegshauser. I would want him to have the bright eyes of Gary Stagner, the cute nose of Terry Hill, and the cunning smile of Gayland Ward. His voice would be that of Steve Siegler and his ears would be like George Muse's. His hair would be like Jerry Don McCaslin, but wherever you might see him he would be as friendly as Frank Cain and as likeable as Dan Thomas. He would have the feet of Johnny Mac Dowd and his walk would be that of Lynn Cook. He should have the intelligence of Doug Watson but the wit of Lewis Barnett. When it comes to the most fun Mike Moore has it made and John Kriegshauser would be best-all-around.

Jerry McCathern Band Personality

McCathern Is Band Personality

Jerry McCathern has been picked as the band personality for the month of February. He lives on Route 5 and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCathern.

Jerry's hobby is collecting records. His ambition is to make all-state band.

Jerry sits first chair cornet in the Stanton Junior High School Dogie Band. He joined the band because, "There are so many interesting things to do in it." His advice to young band members is "Keep practicing, and don't argue with Mr. Gollehon."

Teachers Praise Students For Their Class Attitude

Jerry Don George was born in Turkey, Tex. His present address is 611 Bowie. He has one son, whose name is Mitchell, and his wife's name is Sue. He teaches three seventh grade mathematics classes, eighth grade athletics, and helps coach both the freshmen and the seventh grade. Mr. George thinks that the students in Stanton are very cooperative in bringing up their grades and their homework and they also have a good attitude toward learning. He also thinks that Stanton has a very well-organized athletic program. The boys are very cooperative as a team and they strive to do their best to the end that Stanton had a very successful season for both the athletes and the students of the school, he says.

Mrs. Eleanor Hudspeth became a teacher because she enjoyed helping her teacher grade papers while she was in grade school; however, this is one thing that she doesn't like now.

Mrs. Hudspeth received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from West Texas State College. She has been teaching for 21 years with 17 of those years being spent in Hereford. Other than math she is qualified to teach social studies, and likes to teach both. She has taught at all levels and likes them all. In her spare time she likes to sew, read, knit, and do her own gardening. She says that we have a very good student body. She is glad that she teaches here because Stanton has such a nice school spirit.

Mrs. Inez Welch, an English teacher here at Stanton was born in Coleman, Tex. She received her bachelor's degree and Master of Arts degree from West Texas State in Canyon. She also attended Arkansas State Teacher's College. She has

The Roving Reporter

By Cynthia Leasure
This week we asked several students the question: "If you could be anyone in history, who would you choose to be?" The answers were varied and interesting.

Sidney Bayne is 13 years old and lives at 514 Star Street. Her favorite foods are pecan pie and steak. Her favorite colors are gold and brown. She likes all her teachers, especially Coach Glass. Her favorite subject is social studies. When asked the question of the week Sidney responded, "I would like to have been Allen Sheppard, because I would have liked to have been the first American in space."

Cherrie Hill is 12 years old and lives on Route 1. She likes chicken and baked potatoes. Her favorite color is blue, and she likes all her teachers and can't list a favorite. Her favorite subject is math. Cherrie would like to have been Cleopatra because she was surrounded with luxury and had very little work to do.

When we asked Brant Knox our question, he replied that he would have liked to have been Rockefeller because he was so wealthy. Bryant's favorites are food, steak; color, pink; book, "Our Incredible Civil War"; movie, Giant; and his pet peeve is people who act childish. Also Brant's life's desire is to be a physician.

When Gayle Newell was asked the question of the week she stated John Glenn because his ride must have been exciting. Gayle is the brown haired, blue-eyed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Newell. Among her likes and dislikes are color; blue; food, steak; book, "Whirl of Fashion"; movie, "Breakfast at Tiffany's." Gayle's pet peeve is people who try to be something they aren't.

Marsha Robinson said, "If I had the privilege of being anyone in history I would be Judy Garland because she leads such an interesting life." Marsha is a brown-haired, blue-eyed eighth grade girl. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Robinson. Marsha's life's desire is to get as much education as possible. Her pet peeve is people who act silly no matter where they are. Her favorites include color, blue; food, chicken; book, "Three Faces of Eve"; and movie, "Raintree County."

CANAL-DIGGING MEETING HONOLULU — A local construction firm and several other companies are investigating the possibility of building a 30-mile shipping canal in Thailand.

The canal, estimated to cost between $300 and $500 million would link the Indian Ocean with the South China Sea. This would reduce the Europe-Asia route by 830 miles.

K. Y. Chow, managing director of the Kra Canal Co., a Thailand firm which would operate the canal, has called a meeting of representatives of all interested parties — the Honolulu firm, two companies from San Francisco, one from Los Angeles and two from France.

Candidates Speak At Democrat Meet

Four candidates for County Commissioner and two for State Representative spoke at a meeting of the newly-organized Democrats for Deaf Smith County in the Community Center Monday night.

President Louis Woodford introduced the other new officers: Jack Williams, vice president; Mrs. Bill Hutson, secretary; and Bill Massie, treasurer.

Woodford said the object of the organization was to strengthen the Democratic Party in the county. Immediate aims are to build membership and gather information about state candidates for voter information.

First speaker was Glenn Allred, candidate for County Commissioner from Precinct Four. Allred emphasized that he was not running against anyone, but was in favor of the progress and betterment of the county. He asked that the county be put on a more sound financial basis and that an effort be made to get more paved roads than just those allocated by the Farm-to-Market program.

He also asked that primary and secondary roads be better maintained and that efforts be made to eradicate Johnson grass and noxious weeds from roadsides.

Finally he asked for better cooperation between rural and urban residents in the county.

Donald Hicks, seeking re-election as County Commissioner from Precinct Four, spoke of the opportunity he had to serve and the pleasures of working with the county, school and city governments.

HEADING THE NEWLY-FORMED group, Standing are Bill Massie, left, treasurer, Democrats for Deaf Smith County, are and Jack Williams, vice president, four officers. Seated are president Louis Woodford and secretary Mrs. Bill Hutson.

plained the Democratic Party in the state since 1952. He told of the bid of some party leaders in 1952 and 1956, but said that he felt that the loyal Democrats had regained control of the State Executive Committee.

Nelson and Bill Clayton of Springlake, both candidates for State Representative from the 91st District, spoke briefly on their qualifications and platforms.

Clint Formby talked of his work with gubernatorial candidate Marshall Formby and his views on the race.

About 50 persons attended the meeting.

REMEMBER WHEN?

BY CHARLIE SEEDS

This was the year of the Chicago World's Fair. Oh, the Windy City had had a previous Fair, way back in 1893 . . . but this was bigger and better than ever. And the country needed a pageant that helped people to look ahead to a better future.

The fair had a lot of features . . . from striking modern architecture to rickshaw boys pulling the tourists around the Fair grounds. But visitors to the Fair that year probably saw as much of one show-girl as they did of anything else.

Her real name was Helen Gould Beck, and she did a dance in which she wore a collection of fans . . . and not much else. She was an unknown up to that year . . . but not afterwards. Her stage name was Sally Rand . . . and she was the hit of the Fair!

Remember the year? When a new car made a big hit with a buyer that year, he still made sure he scored a good deal . . . one that meant real savings. He shopped for the best deal he could find on the car of his choice.

The year was 1934. America's choice in a new car this year is the beautiful new FORD. And we can offer you the best deal on the model of your choice in this brilliant new line.
