Foresee Expanded Livestock Feeding Operations Locally

Around Town

It was a strange-looking sight: the normally dignified trustees of the Hereford Schools system, dressed for the most part in suits, out pushing a tiny pick-up at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday. Dr. L. B. Barnett brought his new two-cylinder Lloyd (English-made) pick-up to the meeting. But it got flooded after the meeting, while the other board members stood around and made useless comments. Finally they pushed the bug off the parking lot and down the street until it putted under its own power.

It's going to be hard for the youngsters to take, but there won't be any school on Friday. That's the day the teachers attend the Region IX meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association in Amarillo. Mrs. Claude McDougal of Hereford is president of the regional group.

An important meeting of the vegetable raisers is scheduled for Thursday. It starts at 9 a. m. and lasts until 3 p. m., with all sessions in the Bull Barn.

Potentially, one of the most important meetings of the month is scheduled for Friday at 8 p. m. when the livestock feeding school will be held in (Continued on Page 2)

Moore And Wills Unopposed For City Re-election

Troy Moore and Dr. R. R. Wills will share a ballot unopposed when they seek re-election to Place 3 and Place 4, Hereford City Commission, in the April 5 city election.

Deadline for filing for the posts was midnight Saturday. Election will be held in Hereford City Manager's office from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. April 5.

Filing intention to run for re-election in February were Moore to Place 3 and Dr. Wills to Place 4.

Absentee balloting will begin 20 days prior to election day, on March 15, and will continue up to election day.

Poll committee includes Neil Cooper, election judge, and Mrs. Nona Jowell, Mrs. Grant Fuller and Mrs. C. Ora Cockrell, clerks.

School Slated Friday Night

An outline on probable expanded cattle feeding operations is expected during a livestock feeding school scheduled in Hereford Friday.

Meeting at 8 p. m. in the Jim Hill Hotel ballroom with local persons interested in commercial feeding operations will be three men from the Lincoln Packing Division of American Stores Company, with headquarters in Pueblo, Colo.

Heading the group will be Dr. F. W. Blamey, plant manager in Pueblo; Cardell Webster, head of the Pueblo livestock department; and Walter Swearingen, one of the company's cattle buyers. The meeting has been arranged by the Hereford Livestock Committee in cooperation with the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. Dr. L. B. Barnett is head of the commercial cattle sub-committee.

Man Pinned By Trailer House

Condition of Dewey F. Foster, a farmer who lives nine miles south of Wildorado, was reported as "good" at Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday morning after he was pinned under a mobile home for 40 minutes on his farm Tuesday afternoon.

Foster, 62, was placing a 40-foot mobile home on blocks Tuesday when wind blew the home off the blocks and pinned him underneath. He was admitted to the hospital at 2:30 p. m. for treatment of a cracked pelvis.

The farmer said he had finished placing the mobile home on blocks and had just released the jack under the frame. As he was crawling out from under the trailer, he said, the gusty wind and soft ground caused the home to topple over.

His wife tried to jack the mobile home up, but was unsuccessful. Wayne Higgins, Paul Cornette and another man came to his aid and jacked the trailer up while Mrs. Wayne Higgins called for an ambulance.

A Marcum-Scott ambulance took the man to the hospital. Foster said he bought the trailer for a farm hand.

Call Vegetable Meet Thursday

All growers and other persons interested in the vegetable industry of Deaf Smith County are invited to attend a special meeting Thursday in the County Bull Barn.

The meeting, which will feature reports from three Texas A&M Extension Service specialists, will be held from 9 a. m. through 3 p. m.

The A&M specialists include Dr. Harlan Smith, pathologist; Dr. Clyde Singletary, horticulturist; and Joe Cole, horticulturist, all of College Station.

Cole, horticulturist of Extension Districts 1 and 2, and Dr. Singletary will discuss production, and Dr. Smith will speak on plant diseases.

The program will be centered around vegetable production and its problems of disease and insect infestation, according to County Agent J. W. "Lefty" Thomas.

A county farmer, Raymond Higginbotham, will discuss the Texas Vegetable Growers Council which is now in the process of organization in Texas.

Similar Extension Service meetings are held in the county each year, Thomas said. Last year, more than 25 growers attended sessions of the meeting.

Industry Expert Retained By C-C

Directors of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Wednesday voted to retain M. E. Blanton of Dallas as an industrial consultant.

Blanton last year did an industrial survey for the chamber. His retainer fee will be $500 per year. "This, in effect, will give us full-time industrial engineering on our staff," commented C-C president Palmer Norton.

Director Les Combs was named by Norton to head a committee on water reserve. He will investigate the possibility of Hereford buying water from the Candian River Dam Municipal Water Authority after the dam is completed.

Combs also will look into the feasibility of erecting a dam across Tierra Blanca Creek as a possible surface water source for Hereford.

Burglars Strike 2 Hiway Firms

Hereford police Monday investigated burglaries of two businesses on Highway 60.

The week end burglaries occurred at the T - Bone Cafe, on W. Highway 60, and at Warren Brothers Motor Company, 1219 E. First.

The cafe burglary occurred sometime Sunday night or Monday morning. An unknown amount of pennies was taken after entry was gained through a rear door.

Investigating police Sgt. L.B. Bartlett reported that the glass was removed from the rear door and that an attempt was made to replace it. He investigated at 7:15 a. m. Monday.

Entry to the motor company was gained through a broken window on the west side of the building. The door latch was released from the outside.

Investigating patrolman Don Metcalf said nothing was believed to have been taken by prowlers, who entered the business sometime between Saturday evening and Monday morning. He investigated at about 9 a. m. Monday.

City Election Officials Named

Hereford City Commission appointed poll judges and clerks for the April 5 city election in regular session Monday evening.

Appointed election judge was Neil Cooper, who will be assisted by Mrs. Nona Jowell, Mrs. Grant Fuller and Mrs. C. Ora Cockrell.

In other business, the commissioners heard a report on plans for formal opening of the newly constructed Community Center, to be held at 2:30 p. m. March 20.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said all Hereford residents are invited to attend the opening, and that letters of invitation have been sent to city officials, Chamber of Commerce offices, newspapers and radio stations in the surrounding area.

The Rev. Gilbert Davis, pastor of the First Christian Church of Hereford, will give the dedication address. Bluebird girls and a few senior girls from Hereford High School will serve as hostesses to guests.

Also slated for the opening are exhibits by Bluebirds and by Hereford art clubs.

Due to unfavorable weather, formal opening was postponed until March 20 so that parking lot facilities would be ready for use.

Bayne also told the commissioners there would be a regional meeting of Texas Panhandle City Officials at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo March 23. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m., he said.

REPAIRING OF STREETS within Hereford city limits went into full swing this week after thawing of snow last weekend. Alternate freezing and thawing of ice this winter created a great deal of work for the city street repairing crews, work which will continue through spring and into summer. A city employee is shown operating a clay spade, powered by an air compressor unit purchased by the city recently. (Staff Photo)

Adopt Rules For Golden Age Home; Call Special Meeting

Preliminary rules and objectives were adopted Monday by a committee working to build a home for elderly people in Hereford.

The group also voted to name itself the "Hereford Area Foundation." Ten members of the permanent committee were present for the 90-minute meeting.

Included in the rules and objectives was a provision that persons would be admitted only through an examining board, which would include at least one medical advisor.

Allocation of space was voted on the following basis: a minimum of 75 per cent of the available space would be on a "first come, first served" basis for those qualified persons, at a charge of actual cost, plus 20 per cent. A maximum of 25 per cent of the rooms would be available on a charity basis, with a charge of actual cost less 10 per cent.

Only charity patients from Deaf Smith County would be qualified for admission, the group agreed.

The initial building, the group felt, should have central service facilities for 100 persons, with rooms for 50 persons. A minimum room would be 12 by 18 feet, with closet and bath.

Also approved was a retirement plan for the building of cottages at no cost to the foundation. Cottages would be the property of the Foundation, with a life-time contract entered into with the builder. At death, the cottages would revert to the Foundation, which would rent them to other persons desiring separate living quarters.

J. C. McCracken earlier had submitted his report on possible sites. He listed four possibilities, all adjacent to Hereford. They ranged from 10 to 24 acres in size and from $20,000 to $50,000 in cost. His report also stated that a water well large enough to handle all needs would cost about $10,000.

The group asked further investigation about securing part of the Veterans' Park land.

Marlin Gilliland, in his building committee report, said his group felt the building should be one-story, fire-proof, with dining area, kitchen, office, living and reception area, individual rooms and two small wards for residents who need constant attention or are bedfast.

Formed in January, the Hereford Area Foundation has been organized to work toward building a home for Golden Age residents in Hereford. Although the Hereford Business and Professional Women's Club originated the plan, the group's permanent committee includes representatives of all civic clubs, plus other interested individuals.

$1,000 Bond On Check Swindling

A 42-year-old Perryton man was released on $1,000 bond Saturday after being charged with swindling by worthless check, which is a felony offense.

Charged after arrest by the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department Friday was Bob Spence of Perryton. Arrest was made by County Deputy Sheriff Bill McCarver in Perryton.

Bond was set in the office of Justice Of The Peace Berry Miles Saturday. Next session of 69th District Grand Jury is April 11.

Levelland Man's DWI Bond Set

Bond for Winard A. Buck, 39, of Levelland was set at $1,000 Tuesday morning after he was charged with driving while intoxicated, first offense, by Hereford police.

Arrest was made at 1:41 a. m. Tuesday between Avenue J and Star St. Hereford police Sgt. L. B. Bartlett made the arrest.

Go-Kart Safety Urged By Chief

Hereford Police Chief Henry Aycock Wednesday expressed concern for the safety of children who operate Go-Karts on public streets, and asked parents' cooperation in restricting their child's karting to areas segregated from moving traffic.

He pointed out that a Go-Kart is a motor vehicle and is subject to motor vehicle laws when operated on public streets. State laws require that a vehicle have proper insurance, be registered, inspected and be operated by a licensed driver if operated in moving traffic areas.

Aycock explained that as Go-Karts are so small and low, they are difficult for other drivers to see. By no means, he said, should an unlicensed driver operate any motor vehicle on a city street.

Hereford Trustees Approve Teachers For Coming Year

At the close of a lengthy, four and one-half hour meeting, the Hereford Rural High School District trustees voted to approve all recommendations for teacher contracts.

Principals of all the schools in the district appeared to discuss faculty needs and other considerations for the next school year.

It was also moved by the board that High School football coach Bobby Williams be permitted to hire two more assistant football coaches. At present, Jess Hodges is the only assistant coach on the faculty.

A special meeting to discuss applicants for the post of school superintendent was called for Tuesday, March 15, at 8 p. m. The board has interviewed a number of top candidates for the post during the past two weeks. A decision is expected about April 1.

A proposal from an Amarillo firm to evaluate all property within the school district was presented early in the meeting. A representative of McMorries and Associates, consulting engineers and appraisers, explained how the firm would appraise all property.

of the firm would be turned over to the Board of Equalization, which would set the appraisals.

Board members took no action on the proposal.

D. C. Martin, principal of Aikman Elementary, recommended the following teachers be given one-year contracts: Miss Vida Hicks, Mrs. Leta Kaul, Mrs. Juanita Moore, Mrs. Elizabeth Bonesio, Mrs. Della Martin, Mrs. Roselle Reese, Mrs. Thelma Chisum, Mrs. Dixie Murphy, Mrs. Audrey Powell, Mrs. Patricia Hagar, Mrs. Doris Rojé, Mrs. Hazel Stewart, Miss Madeline Bell, Mrs. Ellen Bryant, Mrs. Stella Wester and (Continued on Page 2)

STILL TOO WET to plow was the finding Monday as warm weather brought farmers and their tractors into the field. Pat Ranspat, above, tried to break up his field west of Hereford, but had to give it up, since surface and sub-surface moisture was still too great for field work. Continued sunshine and dry winds have changed the situation since Monday and most fields now are being readied for spring planting. (Staff Photo)

Prompt Payment Goal Of Office

One of the goals of the Social Security Administration is to pay benefits as promptly as possible to those local persons entitled to payments, Hal Geldon, Manager of the Amarillo Office, said.

To do this, Geldon said, a person interested in claiming benefits should notify the Amarillo Social Security Office by letter approximately two months before retirement. This action will give the Amarillo Office and the person claiming benefits time to get the information and evidence together to establish his rights to the payment before the time his first check is due.

Generally, evidence will be required to prove the age of the retired person and the age of his wife. This may be a birth certificate established shortly after birth or other record of age that is old and reliable. Also evidence of the worker's earnings for 1959 is necessary. This may be a copy of the income tax return for self-employed persons or the W-2 forms for wage earners.

Geldon stressed that for prompt payment of the first social security check "inquire before you retire" by writing the Amarillo Social Security Office.

two years ago. "He has a sound livestock background and will probably represent American Stores as a buyer in the Hereford area," Webster declared. "At the present time he is buying fat and feeder cattle in parts of Kansas, Colorado and Texas."

American Stores Company is the fourth largest chain store in the United States with general offices in Philadelphia, Pa. All of the retail outlets are confined to the Eastern seaboard with Pittsburgh, Pa., being the most westerly point.

Several years ago this company purchased two packing houses, one at Lincoln, Neb., and the other in Pueblo. "It was the company's objective," Webster said, "to obtain quality meats that would meet very rigid standards. They felt this could best be done by obtaining their own packing houses and slaughter cattle and lambs that would meet their specifications. It has been a rather successful venture in that they are able to keep quality meats in their stores at all times."

"As the management people here in Pueblo, we make every possible effort to fill the desires of our Eastern officials by setting up programs that would enable us to acquire the necessary numbers and qualities of the livestock that is needed. We therefore institute programs such as feed lots of our own on a small basis and assist any and all interested feeders in our general area."

"We attempt to offer sensible, sound information that would be profitable to the farmer, feeders, commercial feeders, the Jim Hill Hotel ballroom. This, if it develops, could provide a use for the sugar beet pulp that will come from the sugar refinery, take up some of the extra grain surplus and help make Hereford the "Hereford Capitol of the World". Local livestock feeding has an almost unlimited potential in this area.

Hereford High's baseball team is due to swing into action for the first time Saturday, with a doubleheader at Portales, N. M. First game is set for 1 p. m., Mountain Time, which is 2 p. m. here. Coach Joe Smith finally got his players outside over the week end and they are beginning to round into shape.

The Deaf Smith County Farm Management group will meet in the Bull Barn Friday, March 11, at 7:30 p. m. Chairman Raymond Higginbotham said the group would hear tips on making records for farm management and filing of income tax Hereford Garden Club will observe a guest day in the Hereford Community Center on Friday, March 11, at 3 p. m. Mrs. G. W. Newsom will show color slides made during her trip to Europe last summer. Members are asked to bring guests to the meeting.

Had a nice chat last week with a master Sergeant William Hines and his family while they ate breakfast in Hereford. Mrs. Hines is German and the four children, Peter 13, Michael 10, Vicky 8, and Billy 2½, were having a ball in the United States after being gone so long. They were enroute to Fort Huachuca, Ariz., where he will be a First Sgt. in a Military Police unit. In addition to the friendliness, the Hines family said they enjoyed Texas because Hereford was the first place in the States where they had been able to get potatoes for breakfast.

You could sure sort out the West Texans Tuesday. They had big smiles plastered on their faces while they watched the wind blow. To a true Texan, at least one from this part of the country, anything is preferable to a steady diet of rain, snow, fog, sleet and drizzle.

Future Homemakers of America girls are sponsoring a chili supper on Saturday, March 26, from 5 - 8 p. m. in the high school cafeteria. Proceeds will go into the exchange student program.

No matter what the weatherman sends us from now on, we will be able to grin and take it after Tuesday. Truly, it was like old times.

Luther Lesly, the soil conservation expert, is quite happy about the sand. Like the physician who could do little about the common cold, but could give penicillin for pneumonia, Luther says:

"This sand and wind, we have seen before and know how to fight. All of that moisture was something we didn't know much about in this country - and if it kept on, it might have become serious."

Personally, I figure we will have some more cold weather - maybe even snow - before winter is over, although the worst is probably behind us. Anyway, it is too early to buy moth balls or send any fur coats to cold storage.

People just naturally expect a little bit more of a minister than of the average fellow. Russell Wingert, Presbyterian pastor, walked over to a magazine rack the other morning and selected some reading material. He got so much conversation and static that he finally held the copy of "McCalls" up high over his head so all of the coffee sippers could see it.

Country club advocates are beginning to wonder what is happening on that front. Clint Formby, board chairman, says that a set of plans has been approved by the board - and turned over to contractors for bids. Meanwhile, board members have their fingers crossed, and are hoping for a figure which will come within their financial means. Another week or so, and the board will open bids. After that, nobody knows.

Hereford Rotarians had their eyes opened a notch or so when Geo. C. Warner gave the program Monday on certified seed. Seed form this area are finding their way into practically every state in the Union, plus some 13 foreign countries, according to Warner, who pointed out that air freight rates on seed to Pakistan run more than the seed. Miller, WAC and Scott seem to form the "Big Three", and the industry is providing a livelihood for hundreds of local people during a 12 - month period. Incidentally, this is an interesting and educational program which any club can profitably use.

The Lions Club brass, meanwhile, is battling it out to see who is the best salesman. Joel Hodges, according to the grapevine, has sold more than 350 pancake tickets for a clear - cut lead. Slim Wester and Debbs Knox are both reported above the 100 mark. Even I have sold four.

The following item was clipped from the "Dear Abby" column and mailed to The Brand. Abigail says she would like to give credit, but does not know the author herself. Anyway, it does provide food for thinking teenagers:

"We hear teenagers complain, 'What can we do? Where can we go?' 'The answer is: Go home! Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk. Wash the car, scrub some floors. Help the minister, rabbi or priest, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick, the poor. Study your lessons. And when you're through, if you're not too tired, read a book.'

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city doesn't owe you a recreation center. The world doesn't owe you a living. You owe it your time and energy and your talent so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick or lonely again. 'You're supposed to be mature enough to accept some of the responsibilities your parents have carried for years. They have nursed, protected, excused and tolerated you. They have denied themselves comforts so that you could have luxuries. This they have done gladly, for you are their greatest treasure. In heaven's name, grow up and go home!'"

A few more pretty days and those green thumb addicts will be forcing themselves on their neighbors and friends. They plant everything from okra to rose bushes and can't understand why others do not join the fun. Already, my wife is trying to brainwash me on the subject but, as usual, I am not overly excited. Even Mayor Wilson is a garden addict, despite which he seems to be doing a pretty good job. I wish someone would keep books on their home garden, including seed, fertilizer, water and time (at say, $1 an hour) - and let me know how much it costs to grow the average meal.

The best gardening deal I have found includes three helpers: Red Coffin, who gives me cabbage (regardless of the market), Frank Bezner, who gives me potatoes (when the price is not very high), and Clarence Morrison, who gives me roasting ears (when I go out and pick them). Like I tell my wife, these fellows are my friends - and I don't like to compete with them. Gardening has undoubtedly contributed more toward popularity of the game of golf than probably any other single factor.

I can always tell when the gardening seige is ready to start, because it always happens at the same time I begin to yearn to go fishing - and fishing has been on my mind for the past three days. Dale Litsch, Mark Benefield and the Otis Halls are just back from Falcon Lake - and Dale tells me that the bass and crappie are really getting hungry.

Health Of The Population Improves With Research

To the people of the 18th District:
 The population of the United States on March 4, 1960, was, according to the best estimates of the U. S. Department of Commerce, 179,713,377. Of course, the decennial census will be taken next month and an exact head count of the American people will result.
 Unquestionably, however, one fact is certain - the population of the country continues to increase rapidly. Many factors have a bearing on this situation, not the least of which is the fact that people of the United States live longer than their forebears.

expectancy can be attributed primarily, it seems to me, to the fact that considerable headway has been made and is being made in the control of crippling diseases.

In the period 1944-57, deaths from pneumonia declined 24%; infant deaths declined 34%; deaths caused by acute nephritis declined 65%; deaths from influenza declined 74%, as did deaths from syphilis; appendectomy deaths declined 78% and tuberculosis deaths dropped off 81%; maternal deaths and those from acute rheumatic fever both showed an 83% decline in the period.

The state of people's improved health, our ability to better control crippling diseases and our increased life expectancy can likely be attributed in large measure to the products of research. The development of antibiotics, Salk vaccine, psychic energizers, antihypertensive drugs are but a few of these products.

In my opinion, considerable of our progress is also due to improved health education. Many voluntary local, community and state organizations have organized in a determined effort to advance an awareness of the cause, treatment and cure of many illnesses.

In taking stock of the state of the nation's health, it is apparent that much has yet to be accomplished toward nominal control of fatal and crippling diseases. The number one cause of deaths in the United States today is arteriosclerosis which is the main factor in heart attacks, strokes and other heart diseases. This disease is responsible for over 50% of our deaths today. Of 1,564,476 deaths in the United States in 1956, major cardiovascular - renal diseases accounted for 854,152 of them, as compared with 658,165 in a total of 1,401,719 deaths in 1945.

Cancer, the number two killer, of which there are twenty main types, took 247,357 U.S. lives in 1956 to account for 16% of the deaths. Eleven per cent of the deaths are associated with childbirth while accidents account for 6%. Both of these are on the decrease.

Pneumonia is responsible for 3% and diabetes for 2% of our deaths, while cirrhosis of the liver and suicide each account for 1%. The death rate for tuberculosis has declined so that it can be attributed to less than 1% of all deaths in the United States.

Let us hope that with American ingenuity, which is born of the free enterprise system, we continue to progress in control of fatal and disabling diseases to the end that all of our people can enjoy a fruitful and healthy life.

Teenarama

By WHITEFACE STAFF

DEAR SAM: An acquaintance was (is?) engaged to a fellow stationed in France. She has accepted the ring of another boy. She will not write to her former beau and tell him about her new fiance. Nor will she return the ring because she feels she may change her mind again. It is not that we feel interested in going with either boy, but we feel she is being unjust. How can we open her eyes? B & H.

DEAR B & H: Tell her a girl who would eat her cake and have it too, often ends up without even a crumb. Juggling two fiances is risky - they're likely to resent it. And the sour grapevine is no respecter of miles.

DEAR SAM: Our son is a very normal kid whose only beatnik tendencies are an affinity to bongo drums and the word

"like." We figure we are getting off lucky because with all the junk being written, produced and spouted about the beats, it is a wonder most teen-agers have not gone all-out for the bearded cult. That is, we thought we were lucky until Bruce spent his pay check on a set of bongo drums! Now he is happy as a toddler with a toothpaste tube. Need I say - we aren't!! Short of taking a BB gun to the skins, how can we adjust to that bon-go beat? - LIKE VIBRATION.

DEAR LIKE: Cool it, woman, by making him practice in his pad, or better yet - in the garage. You let him buy the bongos, so now let him ear out the urge, but not where the noise will wear out your eardrums. You lived through hula hoops, didn't you?

DEAR SAM: I have such a terrible time because I'm always thinking of the impression I make. After I come home from a party I think back to all my mistakes and wonder how anyone could possibly have missed them, and whether they're all laughing at me now. I always have fun at parties and people seem to like me, but I'd be a lot happier if I could get rid of the inferiority complex I have. Janette.

DEAR JANETTE: The only persons who do not worry about the impression they make are those who think they are perfect, and, believe me, they have the most to worry about. Yours is not an inferiority complex, but merely a sensitivity to others. Be glad it is there, for it averts smugness, makes you aware of your errors, and gives you an edge on popularity because you can see yourself as others see you - and change accordingly.

If we made Gladiola Flour for Sharpeye, O...

we wouldn't have to work so hard.

...but we make it for you

Just Texas and a little bit more—that's Gladiola Land. Here live the best home bakers in America—known far and wide for their biscuits, cakes and pies.

Naturally, when it comes to flour, these ladies are hard to please. We have to make Gladiola Flour their way—or else. It keeps us on our toes, but it's worth it. Every day, every year, Gladiola outsells every other brand.

Folks in Sharpeye, O., have to be satisfied with something less, but you don't. Gladiola quality is your best bargain in flour. Remember—snow-white Gladiola costs, the average family, only about 1/2¢ a day more than the cheapest flour at your store.

Bake and be Glad—with Lest We Forget: Faith is not a mere speculative assent but a confident truth in the Savior for everything we need, for wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption. Lesson Outline: 1. He will come literally 2. He will come visibly 3. He will come in demonstration of Power 4. He will minister to our physical needs.

Note: Jesus is to return to his followers in a literal, visible, audible manner, in such a manner that every inhabitant of the earth will know it is He.

... The Golden Rule. And what a world this would be if men would only live it! There would be no more necessity for preaching and the jails could rot down. Observance of the "Golden Rule" would bring in the Age of Gold. Hillel, the Jewish lawyer, called it "the whole law." Leo Tolstoy, "discovered those clear simple truths," gave up a most successful profession and spent the rest of his life crusading for the welfare and understanding of his fellows.

"Do Unto Others," was made more Golden by the American Indian when in his memorable words, he counsels us to travel "A moon in his moccasins," before we criticize another. The Golden Rule carries the secret of a good society... A Democratic society. But don't forget the man who uttered the rule in the Gospels. That makes it different. His message includes the parable of the Good Samaritan and of the Last Judgment... feed the hungry, clothe the naked and remember the man in jail. It all boils down to a most significant question... "Will you keep it in good conscience?" In your home, your business, your social affairs, will you "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD BE DONE BY?"

Note on the Golden Rule next week.

Did you know that there are more boys than girls in Hereford High? Why? Because the girls are dead, or rather it sounds like that.
The following are bits of conversation overheard in the halls and class rooms from the girls:
1. I thought I'd DIE when he said that.
2. Oh! He KILLS me by the way he acts.
3. If my mother finds out: one SLIT THROAT coming up.
4. That SLAYS me.
5. If looks could kill I'd be DEAD by now.
6. Oh! She'll MURDER me.
7. I could have SHOT her for that catty remark.
8. I almost died of HEART FAILURE when he asked me to go steady.

'Deaf' Smith Says

Sam, those are the working folks there in my county that any one ever did see. Now just take this week for example. On Monday a group of mighty fine citizens met to hear some further reports on their plans to provide a home for senior citizens. Those Texas gals really know how to get things done and that Hereford Business and Professional Women's Club is tackling that project like experts. They are finding out all the angles, the experience of other communities, and everything they can find before making any recommendations.

On Wednesday morning the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met to consider some of Hereford's long range water problems and some possible solutions. Thursday night, 16 of my good citizens will meet at the new Community Center for the third workshop in the Action Course in Practical Politics.

Friday morning, County Attorney Ed Line will discuss some new procedures in the enforcement of the hot check law before a meeting of the retailers at ten a. m. in the Hotel Jim Hill. At noon a group that calls themselves the "Intra Service Club Council" will meet for luncheon at the Western Wheel to discuss plans for their welcome signs.

The Chamber of Commerce office has been mighty busy also, trying to find furnished apartments for the fine people who are laying a gas pipe line across my county, Sam.

On Monday nearly 900 invitations to attend the annual meeting of the International Parks Highway Association, to be held in Hereford on May 19, 20 and 21, went into the mail. On Tuesday all the seniors at Hereford High School were mailed an invitation to participate in an essay contest with a chance at a $250 scholarship as the grand prize.

Right now I am looking forward to seeing the big Kiddies Easter Parade that the business men are sponsoring for all the youngsters of ten years of age and under. That parade will be held on Saturday, April 2, at two p. m. Sam, I reckon that's a pretty full report for this week except for the most important meet of all and that is the meeting Friday night for all of the people interested in learning more about feeding cattle and sheep. That meeting, sponsored by Dr. Barnett's commercial livestock committee, will help area livestock men to develop a market for heavy heifers and prime lambs.

Slagle, Hodges Are Fraternity Pledges

CANYON. — Keith Hodges and Steve Slagle are pledging Lambda Chi Alpha, national social fraternity, at West Texas State College. Formal rush activities ended with some 45 students pledging the four national fraternities on campus.

Hodges, senior business management major, is the son of Mrs. Velma Hodges, 117 Kibbe Street. He is a member of the Buffalo football team, the Society for the Advancement, Circle K Club, and the WT Golf Team.

Slagle, son of Mrs. Billie Slagle, is a freshman business major. A graduate of Hereford High School, he is vice president of the WT freshman class.

Poor No More, carries on the tradition. With 700 - odd pages, it is as long as his celebrated Something Of Value.

Craig Price became a billionaire, at least on paper. The story of his climb to the cover of Time, Life and Fortune is a clinical study of the man behind the face.

Born into a family of moderate means, chubby Craig Price became a "loner" early in life, preferring solitude but able to fight to defend himself. But his world crumbled during the depression and Craig found himself at the age 15, standing outside the University of North Carolina with his tuition paid and $50 to see him through.

Befriended by semi-pro football players he scrounged, connived and scrambled to stay in school. During a Christmas holiday, he met John Grimes, owner of a textile mill.

Grimes financed some of Craig's college before he died. Craig then went to sea, fighting and kicking and even killing to stay alive. He came home a rugged, vicious man with a fantastic charm for the girls.

Losing no time, Craig wooed and married Maybelle Grimes, who owned shares in the mill. He battled his way into ownership of the mill, kicking people in the teeth and setting up an affair with his new red-haired secretary en route.

From that time, Craig was really on his way up as he moved to New York and started building the Price Empire. Textile mills formed the foundation, upon which he built an oil operation, banks, insurance companies, airline, motels, investment companies. He was living high, while a former football coach was doing the dirty work and looking after the wife and daughter, who had no place in Craig's life.

When Craig met Mrs. Susan Strong sparks flew. They had a love affair that sizzled until Craig gave his wife $1,000,000 cash and $50,000 a year for a divorce, granting another $50,000 annually to his 17-year old daughter. It was a steep price for Price, but he married his Susan.

Through the years, Craig's good-luck charm had been a young Negro companion and doer-of-all-things: bartender, valet, chauffeur, confidant and friend. But Craig's parlor trick of shooting a cigarette from Jazbo's mouth failed one night and Jazbo fell with a bullet in the his brain.

With his good luck charm gone and overextended financially, Craig's empire started to crumble. The government started looking at his handling of trust funds. In a final coup, Craig rigged the stock market on his mills.

But his trusted lieutenant, ex-coach Jimmy Wilbur, crossed him and sent Craig almost to

BOB FISHER of T.V. Fame with 'ZOGI' VARIETY REVUE

Zogi Revue Is Slated Thursday

The Zogi Revue, a variety show sponsored by the Hereford High School Band, will be staged in the high school auditorium here Thursday evening. The show will begin at 8 p.m., according to band director George Hill.

The show features Prince Zogi, a magician. It will include novelty acts, music, dancing, comedy and feats of magic.

Scenes included in the production include such acts as the Hindu Sack Mystery, the Silver Sphere which floats in the air, the London Ghost Cabinet and a European Flower Garden the bottom. His first wife committed suicide and his beloved Susan left him. His daughter was a Continental tramp. He had come a long way in less than 30 years since he had entered college, in short pants, determined to be Poor No More... but he had fallen a long distance.

Ruark knows how to dissect people. His knife is subtle, but sure, as he chronicles the amazing climb of Craig Price. But he is as deft when he describes a lonesome city, such as Washington, D. C., or when he logs the bitter, dirty battle for survival on a tramp freighter. He is a suave when he writes knowingly of clothes and food and resorts and stock markets.

The reader can't help but be rooting for Craig, yet realizing such tactics can't be successful forever.

Poor No More is another Robert Ruark masterpiece: brutal, dirty, candid, yet often amusing. What is most important, with its length, is the absorbing flow of words that carry the reader along with young Craig Price.

The book is available at Deaf Smith County Library.

spectacular. A full baggage car of equipment and scenery is used in this production.

PLAYER PIANOS A PASTIME PALISADES PARK, N. J. — John F. Duffy has turned a turn-of-the-century rage into a modern pastime. Duffy, a tugboat captain, rebuilds old player pianos into new ones that can operate manually or electrically, rewind themselves and shut themselves off automatically. The piano rolls on his models can be geared to play chimes, drums, cymbals, triangles and even mandolins. "These pianos have really come back," he says. "I think they were brought back by basement recreation rooms."

HAMLET NO HELP TUSCON, Ariz. — William Malsh, an attorney, called on Hamlet in pleading a court case. Malsh, who was defending Frank Castillo in a car theft trial, paraphrased Hamlet, "Alas poor Castillo... He was a joy to his children whom he kissed I know not how oft." Hamlet wasn't much aid. Castillo was sentenced to 18 months in the state prison.
