Motorcycle - Car Crash Injures Two

Two Hereford youths sustained fractured legs in a car-motorcycle collision shortly after 9 p. m. Thursday at the intersection of 13th and Barrett.

Johnny Bran, 500 Blevins, remains in good condition in Deaf Smith County Hospital with a broken leg, while Bruce Oliver, 337 Ave. K, was transferred to an Amarillo hospital Friday, where he is being treated for leg injuries sustained in the collision.

The car was driven by Martha Villarreal, 138 Main. According to witnesses, Villarreal attempted to turn as the boys were passing him. Villarreal told investigating officers that by the time he saw the motorcycle, it was too late to stop.

Villarreal was cited by the investigating officer for negligent collision by cutting the corner on left turn.

Bran was issued a citation for not possessing a valid Texas Driver's license.

Both Bran and Oliver are students at Hereford High School.

Damage to Bran's motorcycle was set at $75 and damage to the Villarreal vehicle was estimated at $135.

Two other accidents were investigated by city patrolmen this week, the first occurring shortly after 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Vehicles driven by Jose Victor Murillo and Elias Briones, 114 Bradley St. were in collision at the intersection of 13th and Ave. A.

Both vehicles were traveling east on 13th and Briones attempted to pass.

He was cited by investigating patrolmen for attempting to pass with insufficient clearance and not having valid Texas Driver's License in possession.

In the final accident investigated by city patrolmen this week, two vehicles driven by Barbara D. Perkins, 610 Ave. K, and Tomasa M. Deleacruz were in collision in the 400 block of N. Main.

Both drivers were cited by officers for improper backing.

Grain Program Is 'Flexible,' Says ASC Head

To insure the greatest amount of flexibility in farm operation, substitution between wheat and feed grains is authorized under the 1965 program, says Frank Beemer, chairman of the Deaf Smith County ASC Committee. He offered this as a reminder Saturday for wheat raisers who also grow grain.

Beemer explained the program like this:

"The law provides for such substitution in the 1965 wheat program, but it could not be put into effect for the 1964 crop, because of the short time involved after the new law was passed by Congress."

Beemer said the substitution applies on farms only if the farm has a feed grain base, or oat-rye base, and a wheat allotment. The substitution provisions can be used by farmers who take part in both programs and make at least the minimum diversion for both wheat and feed grains.

As with this year's program, marketing certificates will be issued to wheat farmers taking part, but the number of certificates allotted to a farm will not be increased because of the wheat substitution.

Certificates will be provided for the smaller of (1) the normal production of the wheat acreage allotment, multiplied by the domestic and export allocation percentages and (2) the wheat acreage planted.

Plans Announced For Ultra Modern Motel Complex Here

Three Hereford Men Launching Major Project

Plans were revealed Saturday for the construction of an ultra modern motel-restaurant complex to be built near the intersection of U. S. Highway 60 and 385. The announcement was made Saturday by Owen Seamands, D. C. McWhorter and G. D. Calson, Jr. who stated that construction will begin around Sept. 1, 1964.

Seamands and D. C. McWhorter, Hereford business and civic leaders, announced the plans for the ultra modern 50 unit motel Saturday morning. They are operating as the M&S Motel Co.

See Drawing Below

"There is nothing like it in the Panhandle," said Seamands, and construction will begin as soon as possible. Bids will be taken soon, and if all goes well, construction should start on or before Sept. 1.

The motel-casino, designed by Vaughan-Kosyon and Associates, Amarillo, will take approximately six months to construct, and will be ready in adequate time for the 1965 tourist season.

The restaurant, to be constructed by Mr. and Mrs. G.D. Calson, Jr., present owners and operators of the Western Wheel Inn, will be located at the southeast corner of the complex, and will be of the same type construction. Both motel and restaurant will front on Highway 60 and will be located just west of Jones Texaco Service.

The new restaurant, which will seat approximately 200 persons, will include a large carpeted dining room with dividers, and a smaller coffee shop.

The establishment will have approximately 5000 feet of floor space. The restaurant parking lot will facilitate approximately 90 automobiles.

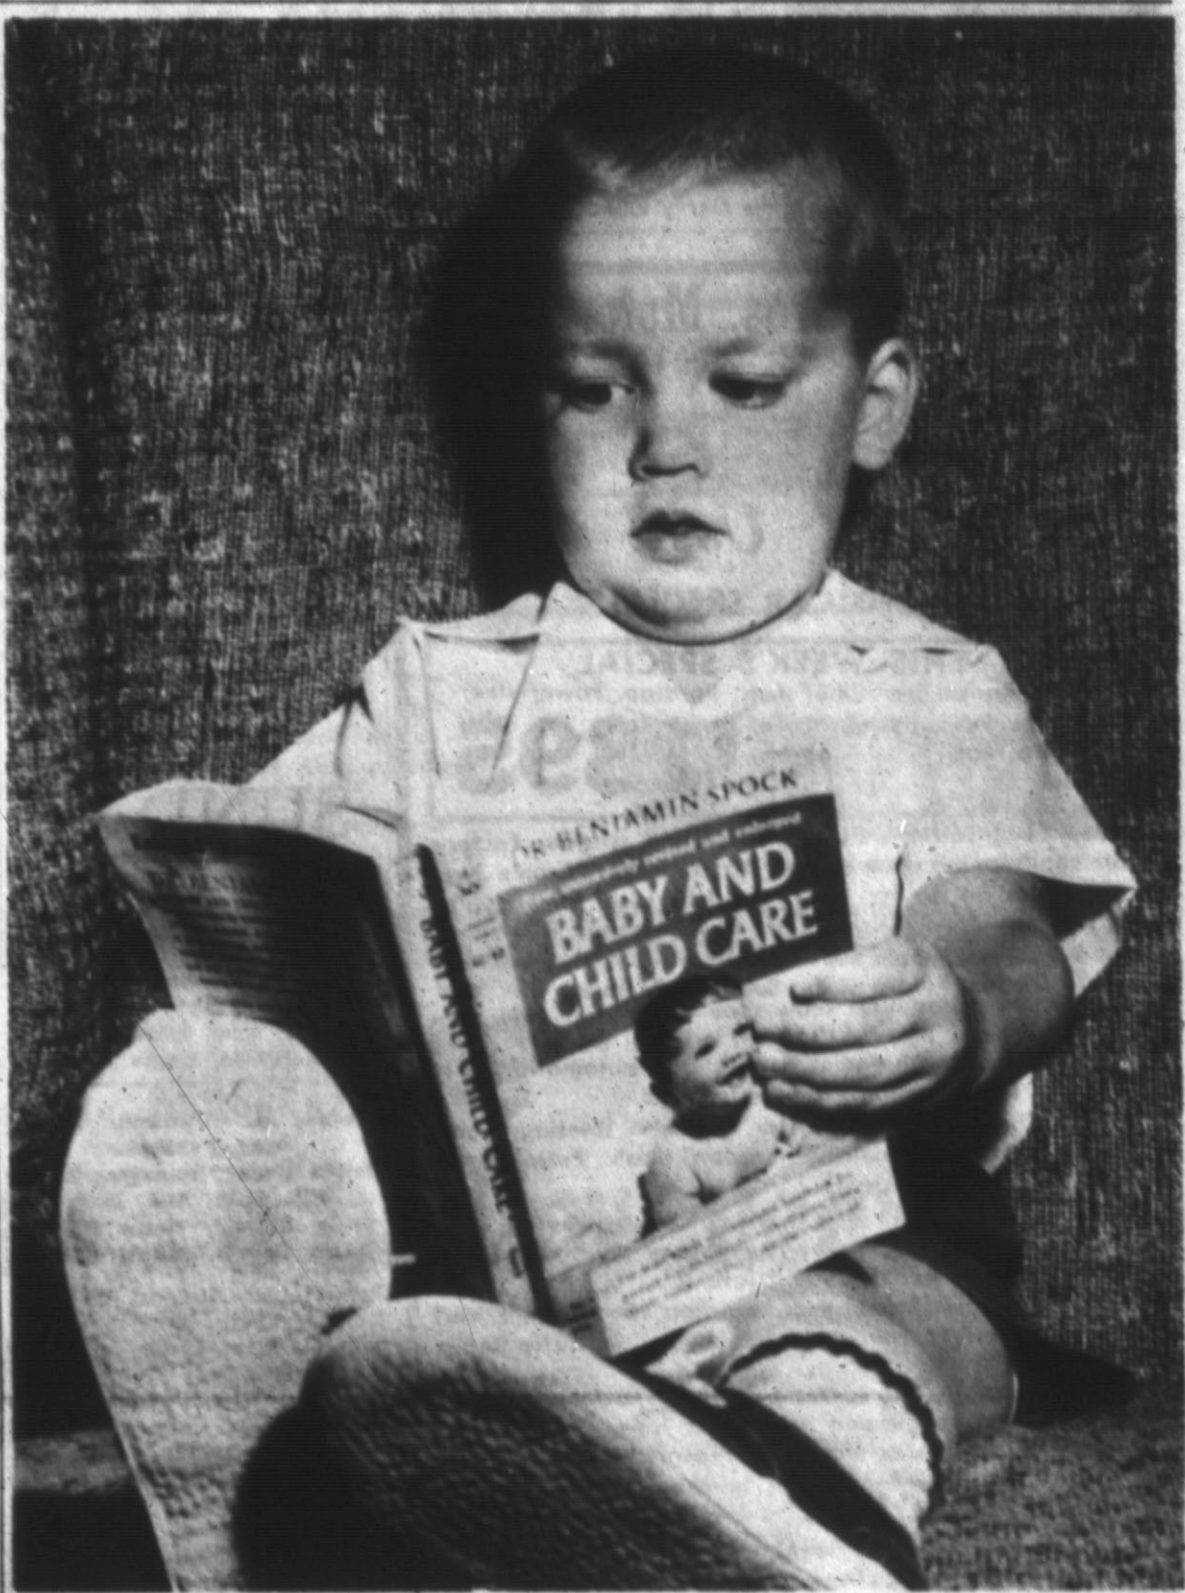

Parking for the new motel will be located behind the units. There will be no parking on the inside of the compound," said Seamands. "Guests arriving will drive through the one-way registration carport and around to the rear of the units where parking is available.

The motel will be a two-story affair, with a large modern swimming pool. All units will be fully carpeted and will include television sets in each room. The refrigerated air conditioning and heating will be individually controlled in each room for added comfort, according to Seamands. The foundation and ground floor will be constructed of monolithic concrete beams and slab concrete, with exterior masonry walls and interior walls of hardside blocks. The outside of both restaurant and motel will be of brick and stone construction.

"The motel and restaurant will be an asset to Hereford," Seamands said, and pointed out that no expense had been spared in making the units "the most comfortable" in the entire area.

G. D. Calson, Jr., owner of the proposed restaurant, stated that the establishment would cooperate in all ways with the motel in offering more service and hospitality to those who choose to stop in Hereford.

"We hope to make this restaurant the most comfortable in the Panhandle," Seamands said. (Continued on page 11)

The Civil War-It Began And Ended In Same House

APPOMATTOX COURTHOUSE PART ONE

By Sara Gilentine

Few men can make the statement that a war began in their front yard and ended in their living room but this is true of Wilmer McLean during the Civil War.

The war began near his home at Fort Sumter, South Carolina, so McLean decided to move his family to a safer position. He came to Appomattox Courthouse, Va., which was, at that time, the capital of Appomattox County.

At that time, he built a two-story brick and frame house for himself, his wife, and his daughters.

In April of 1865, Confederate troops were surrounded by Federals and on April 8, General U. S. Grant, commander of the Union forces, was notified that the Confederate troops were ready to surrender.

These buildings include the Grant sent some of his men three miles to Appomattox Court House to find a suitable spot for the surrender. Records show that the men met McLean on their way in to town and asked him to find a place for the surrender.

Apparently he showed them several places none of which was acceptable so he finally took them to his home. The men approved and on Palm Sunday, April 9, Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered his Confederate forces to Grant. This, for all practical purposes, ended the Civil War.

In 1964, the McLean house and the surrounding area was designated as a historical park. This area includes eight important buildings, some which are still standing, and others which have been reconstructed from records of that period using much of the original material.

Old County Jail, the Kelly House, the New Appomattox County Courthouse (the old one was destroyed by fire) Plunkett-Moore Store & House, the Boock-Isbell House, and the Peers House.

Park Service guides retail much of the Civil War and the histories of the different buildings. They explain that very few furnishings in the buildings are the exact ones that were in use at the end of the war but many are exact copies. Where no records exist, furniture from the period has been used.

Appomattox Court House is located a few miles from U. S. Highway 400 between Roanoke and Richmond, Virginia, and is in the midst of many historic battlefields and cemeteries.

The National Park Service has preserved the site, not because it marks the defeat of the Confederate forces but because it marks the Reunion of the North

Redbirds Win One, Lose One In Plainview Baseball Tourney

The Hereford Redbirds topped Slaton 10-5 Monday night in the Plainview American Legion Baseball tournament. They dropped the second round game to the Plainview Mustangs 3-2 Thursday night. The tournament is a double elimination affair and the local team is playing in the losers bracket Friday night. The Plainview Mustangs made up of several over-age players and some who did not make the regular Legion team, and the Plainview Thunderbirds are left in the winners bracket. Besides the Redbirds the teams from Littlefield, Slaton and the Amarillo Dusters are left in the tournament. Two of the four will be eliminated in Friday night's games. Canyon and Altus, Okla. have already been handed two losses.

In the game with Slaton the Redbirds scored one run in the first inning on three walks and a single by Frank Cain. Three strike outs ended the threat with the bases still loaded. The Slaton batters jumped on Hereford pitcher Mike Ranspot for four runs on four hits, one walk and one Redbird error in their half of the first. In the second inning both teams went three up, three down.

In the third the Redbirds scored two runs on a walk by Frank Cain and a triple by Lynn Cook. Cook scored on a sacrifice fly by Larry Minks. Two walks and a force at third base ended the inning for the Redbirds. Slaton scored one run in the third on a walk, a Hereford error, and a triple that went to the right field fence. The fourth frame saw both teams unable to get a man on base.

The Redbirds had another of their big innings in the fifth. Cook walked and Mike Ranspot tied the score with a home run over the right field fence. Five more runs came in on a double by Steve Hodges, five bases on balls, two Slaton errors, and a sacrifice fly by Mike Ranspot. Slaton got two men on base in the fifth on a walk and a single but left them stranded. In the final two innings Hereford got men on base on a single by Charlie Moreno, an error and a walk but were not able to bring a runner in. Ranspot retired the Slaton batters in order in both innings.

Hereford scored ten runs on five hits, 13 bases on balls, and three Slaton errors. Slaton scored five runs on six hits and two Hereford errors. Ranspot went all the way for the Redbirds and walked three and struck out six.

In the Thursday night game Redbird Pitcher Ed Mims retired the Plainview batters in order in the first three innings with the assistance of some spectacular catches by outfielders Danny Loerwald and Charlie Moreno. Ray Newton started for the Mustangs and gave up a single to Loerwald and walked Frank Cain and Lynn Cook to load the bases in the first. Phil Stephenson came in to relieve Newton and retired the side. Moreno got a single in the second but a force play and two strike outs ended the opportunity. The Redbirds went down in order in the third. In the fourth the lead-off batter for Plainview struck out on a high pitch that got away from Hereford catcher Lynn Cook. The runner stole second and finally scored on a sacrifice fly. The Redbirds tied the game in the last of the fourth on a double by Steve Hodges and a bunt by Charlie Moreno that was muffed by the Mustang pitcher. The Mustangs scored two more in the fifth on two singles, their only hits of the game, a walk, and a wild pitch. Jim Haney came in to relieve Ed Mims and Frank Cain stopped an attempted double steal to get the runner at home plate and end the inning. One Mustang got on base in the sixth on an error but Haney retired the side in order in the final frame. The Redbirds tallied their final run in the sixth. Ronny Duncan was hit by a pitched ball, moved up on Moreno's single, and scored on an error. In the final frame Danny Loerwald led off with a single but was thrown out trying to steal second. Two strike outs ended the game. Hereford scored two runs on five hits and three Plainview errors. Fourteen strike outs by Phil Stephenson helped keep the Redbirds from taking advantage of scoring opportunities. Plainview scored three runs on two hits and two Hereford errors. Mims walked two and struck out eight. Haney added three more strike outs. Danny Loerwald and Charlie Moreno each got two singles to account for four of the five hits for the Redbirds. Coach Lou Klein of the Chicago Cubs began his playing career with Daytona Beach in 1940. He hit .348 and the next year hit .367 for Columbus, Ohio.

Carver Wins Speaking Contest; To See LBJ

Randy Carver, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carver, won second place in speech contest entitled, "What I Would Say to the President of the United States", and will get a chance to visit President Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House, it was announced this week. Randy has been attending a Youth For Tomorrow Conference at Mackinac Island, Mich. He and three other youths attending the moral RE-armament conference won the top spots in the contest, which was entered by 30 other youths. They will visit President Johnson in Washington later this summer.

Randy, who graduated from Missouri Military Academy at Mexico, Mo., last Spring, received a scholarship to the conference.

The conference, styled as a moral rearmament meeting, is attended by about 1,200 students from around the world.

He was outstanding in speech and drama while a student at the military academy. Randy was named winner of an Optimist Club sponsored speech contest here.

He plans to attend West Texas State University this autumn.

The 1200 young Americans are attending the moral rearmament to recapture the revolutionary spirit of 1776, the theme of the conference, sponsored by the Conference for Tomorrow's America.

In an extravaganza with fireworks, skits and a barbecue for 1500, youth from all sections of the country — white, negro and Indian — decided they would make America once again "the most revolutionary nation on earth."

Carver addressed the conference July 4, "America," Carver said, "is a leader of the free world. It should be setting a good example for the other nations to follow. Instead, it is setting an example of loose morals, racial violence, corrupt politicians, gangsters, playboys, call girls, venereal disease and illegitimate children. Moral Re-Armament will remedy the situation and it already has a good start around the world."

"At seminars, workshops and with speakers in all fields of American life, the delegates to this Conference are planning how to raise up a force of young Americans more disciplined, more revolutionary, more dedicated to building a world that works than any Communist is to Communism or any materialist to his materialistic way of life," Carver commented.

The delegates are also producing the plays and films to take back to their communities to put this program into action.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, pointed out that these youths will not be considered for armed forces service at this time. Normally, a man is not reached for draft induction until about age 22.

Only about 225 of the older males will be sent for the examinations in August, and only 119 men are scheduled for induction in that month. This is the lowest induction call the state has received since April 1961, when the quota was only 65. The highest monthly induction call since then was 1,112 in September 1961, as a result of the Berlin crisis.

Males married at age 18 and those known to be continuing in school currently will not be examined. Also, high school graduates whose draft files show they intend to enter college this autumn will not be ordered.

If a high school graduate plans to enter college this autumn, he should notify his draft board immediately.

The 18-year-olds going for the examination in August will be those who registered at boards during the first part of the year.

"The 18-year-olds scheduled for examination in August," Colonel Schwartz said, "are those in class I-A, I-A-O, and I-O who became 18 this year, the oldest going first. The same rule is scheduled to apply in succeeding months."

The examination of these youths is a part of the President's actions on manpower conservation, generally referred to as the "war on poverty."

The ones who fail the examinations will be referred by draft board letters to local offices of the Texas Employment Commission where they will receive advice and counsel on jobs and preparation for jobs.

The youths who get these letters will be under no compulsion to visit the TEC offices, but may go if they feel the government's offer of possible help will benefit them.

Six former Open champions were in this year's event at Congressional in Washington, D. C. They were Julius Boros, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gene Littler, Ed Furgol and Billy Casper.

The home of Mrs. John N. Jacobsen Jr., 209 East Sixth St., was the scene of a tea-shower Monday afternoon, honoring Miss Barbara Barrett, then bride-elect of Henry V. Ranspot. Miss Barrett and Ranspot were married Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church.

Greeted by Mrs. Jacobsen, guests were presented to the bride-elect in the receiving line with her mother, Mrs. Richard E. Barrett; Miss Beverly Barrett, her sister's maid of honor; and Mrs. Pat Ranspot, mother of the groom.

Hostesses with Mrs. Jacobsen in the house party were Mrs. Elnette Milburn, Mrs. Jimmy Cramer, Mrs. L. B. Russell, Mrs. Henry Hastings, Mrs. M. L. Simpson, Mrs. Otto Olson, Mrs. Walter Kuper, and Mrs. M. T. Rutter.

Also Mrs. R. T. Glenn, Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, Mrs. M. C. Kaul, Mrs. C. A. Sauley, Mrs. Paul Hoff, Mrs. Louie Olson, and Mrs. J. C. Morrison.

The bride's colors of yellow and white were effectively accented in table covered with white net over yellow and centerpiece of yellow and white daisies.

Miss Elizabeth Burrus, Miss Ila Jean Brinkman, and Mrs. Bob Jackson poured during the tea hours.

Miss Jo Ann Carlson presided at the guest book, registering the 60 callers.

The bride-elect was favored with a corsage and special gift from the hostesses. Other principals in the receiving line and members of the house party wore corsages of yellow baby crysanthemums.

Coach Billy Hunter of the Baltimore Orioles played with 12 teams during his 12-year playing career in organized baseball.

'Fun To Travel In Texas' Says New THD Folder

AUSTIN — No matter what the season, it's fun to vacation in or visit "Texas, America's Fun-ter," declares the latest travel publication of the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department.

The point should be well taken by visitors — once they take a look at the four-color folder, rich in information and abundant with color photographs showing the scenic, historic, and recreational wonders of the Lone Star State.

The folder, sporting a red-white-and-blue cover in line with the colors of the flag of the Lone Star State, is aptly titled "Texas, America's Fun-ter."

"This folder," said Tom H. Taylor, Director of the Travel and Information Division, "answers a need for providing hundreds of thousands of visitors with a compact and information introduction to the vacation pleasure abounding in the Lone Star State. The folder is also designed for and will be made available for distribution to delegates attending convention in Texas," Taylor said.

"We hope it will whet their traveling appetites to inquire more about 'America's Fun-ter.' Anticipating this need, we've listed the Travel Division, Texas Highway Department address on the folder inviting prospective visitors to make further inquiries about the Fun-ter State. The folder emphasizes that Texas offers a brand of fun for everyone regardless of the season.

It may be the mountain country of West Texas... the spacious areas of the Panhandle

Plains... the lush, green country of North Texas... those forested acres of East Texas... the hill and lake country of Central Texas... or the subtropical vacationlands of the Gulf Coast-South Texas region.

Draft Setup Calls For 30 To Take Tests

Eighteen-year-olds here — 30 of them from this four-county area — will be called for their mental-physical examinations in August, part of 2762 in Texas who are to be given such tests under the Selective Service's new program, draft headquarters here said Saturday.

Twenty-two already have gone to Amarillo for their examinations, and 48 young men who became 18 recently, registered during the month of June. This does not mean that they will be drafted or even classified as I-A, draft headquarters here quickly pointed out.

The tests are the result of President Johnson's action early this year which ordered the director of Selective Service and the Secretary of Defense to examine all newly-registered men who are out of school and available for service.

The local office serves Deaf Smith County, Castro County, Farmer County and Randall county.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, pointed out that these youths will not be considered for armed forces service at this time. Normally, a man is not reached for draft induction until about age 22.

Only about 225 of the older males will be sent for the examinations in August, and only 119 men are scheduled for induction in that month. This is the lowest induction call the state has received since April 1961, when the quota was only 65. The highest monthly induction call since then was 1,112 in September 1961, as a result of the Berlin crisis.

Males married at age 18 and those known to be continuing in school currently will not be examined. Also, high school graduates whose draft files show they intend to enter college this autumn will not be ordered.

If a high school graduate plans to enter college this autumn, he should notify his draft board immediately.

The 18-year-olds going for the examination in August will be those who registered at boards during the first part of the year.

"The 18-year-olds scheduled for examination in August," Colonel Schwartz said, "are those in class I-A, I-A-O, and I-O who became 18 this year, the oldest going first. The same rule is scheduled to apply in succeeding months."

Green Acres Swim Club, Inc. NOW OPEN

Membership ..... $150.00
Yearly Dues ..... 35.00
Yearly Dues and Initial Membership Fee Paid Monthly ..... 16.00
First Payment Due August 1st

With the completion of the new swimming pool in Green Acres Estates, the final organization of the Green Acres Swim Club, Inc. is being put together. The membership committee, comprised of current members of the pool, pointed out this week that the membership fee of $150.00 is transferrable, and rather than an expense, it should be considered an investment. Actually yearly cost of belonging to the club is $35.00.

Property owners in Green Acres Estates automatically become members of the Green Acres Swim Club, Inc., the committee said, while others can purchase memberships (applicable to the cost of property if they should decide to buy in Green Acres Estates) for a limited time. All memberships must be approved by the membership committee.

Not only is the initial membership fee considered an investment from the financial standpoint, the committee said, but it is also an investment in the happiness of your family. At Green Acres Swim Club, Inc., a non-profit organization, you and your family may enjoy the benefits of a "private" swimming pool, entirely enclosed by an 8 foot high fence.

The stock memberships are transferred in the event that business or other interest demand that you move to another city. After the membership is full, the committee said, the stock memberships should be worth even more than the initial $150. They stressed again, that this was an investment, rather than a dead expense with the money gone forever.

The $35.00 yearly dues will be used to maintain the club and to keep a lifeguard on duty during the months that the pool will be open.

The Green Acres Swim Club, the only one of its kind in this area, is entirely non-profit. All membership dues will go towards the maintenance and improvement of services at the club.

A new club room, dressing rooms for both men and women, and a snack bar will add to the convenience of the modern club. A kiddies pool at the north end is entirely fenced from the deep water whereby youngsters cannot slip into the deeper water of the pool. Slides at either end of the pool will add to the enjoyment for the younger set. The pool will have the finest filtering system available to date, and will be heated for added comfort of club members. The 8 foot wall and fence which surrounds the pool is also solid to keep the brisk West Texas wind from blowing directly on swimmers as they come out of the water.

Modern in every respect, the pool will be a definite asset to the Green Acres Estates addition.

The addition itself will be the most modern in Hereford. Underground utilities are going in this week to the homes that are now completed. The area will be served through the network of underground utilities, eliminating the need for unsightly utility poles in the addition. Street lighting will be of modern design, said Reuben Aasland, developer of the addition.

"We believe home owners in an addition such as Green Acres will appreciate the convenience of a private pool," Aasland said, "and that was the reason we organized the Green Acres Swim Club, Inc." He pointed out that after the club is in operation, it will be operated and owned by the members, on a non-profit basis, and that the developers of the addition would relinquish all interests in the organization.

Parties interested in purchasing lots in the sub-division for future use, or those wanting to construct homes now are urged to contact Reuben Aasland for details.

"Lots will be sold on installment plan to those qualifying as well as the swimming pool stock membership," Aasland said. "We feel that there are a number of people who would like to become members of the pool corporation but prefer not to pay the entire $150. in a lump sum. This membership fee is a capital investment, since it can be applied to purchase of a lot at a future date, plus the fact that it is transferrable, with approval of the membership committee."

Please send additional information on stock memberships.

Here and There

with Mrs. Merin Kaul

The Turrentine girls had registrants from California at their Barn Museum last Sunday. They were W. W. Lemmon and his daughter Norma Lemmon from Merced, Calif. Arthur Thompson took them and Mrs. Mary Houston of King's Manor, out to the Museum which is located at the George Turrentine Farm on Harrison Highway.

Mrs. Jack Renfro has recently contributed 26 articles to the Museum. Included are two Coronado Relics, an axe head and a sword point. These were found near Tucumcari, N.M. and date to about the 16th or 17th century.

The Battle Axe is typical of those used in Europe in the 16th century. It has a hole in the middle for a handle and is elaborately engraved with a floral design. The engraving is acid etched. The Axe was uncovered near some springs on a ranch 25 miles northeast of Tucumcari. There is a rock in this general area upon which is carved what appears to be a representation of Coronado's Crest.

Open hours for the Museum is from 2 until 5 p.m. on Sundays. It will remain open at these hours for the rest of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aikin, Jack, Martha Kate, and Jim have returned home after an extended tour to points in the southern and eastern United States. They visited relatives in Texas including his sister Mrs. J. D. Dickey and Mr. Dickey at Paris, his mother, Mrs. A. M. Aikin, Sr., also at Paris, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ramsey at Detroit and other relatives in that vicinity.

Jack Aikin gives the following account of the trip from that point:

"We went from Texas into Tennessee where we spent the night at a place called Mont Eagle. Here we stayed right on top of the mountain. We went from there to Cherokee, North Carolina. This is a Cherokee Indian Reservation and the Indians control all business there. We attended a dramatic play one night. This play had all Indian players and was the history of the Cherokee Nation. It was very interesting.

"We went up Lookout Mountain in Chattanooga, Tenn., visited the Biltmore Estates at Asheville, N. C. and at Raleigh, N.C. saw Duke University and the University of North Carolina. We spent a night on Cape Hatteras and stayed at Nag's Head. This is on the coast of North Carolina. We drove on to Williamsburg in Virginia. This is called the colonial capital of America. It was here that Patrick Henry and George Mason made their stirring speeches. As we drove along the James River, we saw the large estates and at Richmond saw the 'White House of the Confederacy', the house where Jefferson Davis lived during the Civil War. This house is now a museum.

"In Washington, D. C. we saw what we could see by driving through. This included the Washington Monument, the Lincoln Memorial, the Jefferson Memorial, Arlington Cemetery (which was closed because we were there after 5 p.m.), the Pentagon Building, the Capitol, and the Government Building.

"Then we went on to Monticello, which was Thomas Jefferson's home. It is said that he worked on this house for forty years. An unusual clock which he made still works, and he had many unique and unusual gadgets in the house.

"On our trip, we visited 19 states and drove 5700 miles. We were gone 2 weeks and we were glad to get back to Texas. We still like the Plains the best."

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald James (Jimmy) Head have been recent visitors in Hereford. They were on their honeymoon having been married on June 27 at Palomita, Calif. They visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Head, his sisters, Mrs. Bobby Kirkland, and Mrs. Margaret McElroy, here and Mrs. Claude Hicks of Adrian. After their visit here they left for Carlsbad, N.M. and Old Mexico, after which they will return to California where they will make their home.

Mrs. Head is the former Miss Cathy Lee Anderson, daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Anderson of Placentia. Jimmy attended school here and is a graduate of Hereford High School. He worked here before entering military service.

Jay and Mike McCracken of Bovina were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCracken, on Wednesday night. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCracken.

Jess Russell of Houston is here to spend three weeks visiting in the home of his mother, Mrs. W. H. Russell. His wife is visiting relatives in Oklahoma City, Okla., and Clovis, N.M. and will join him here later. He is enjoying golfing here at the John Pitman Golf Course — is an avid exponent of the game. He is a brother of L. B. Russell.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Reinauer gathered at their home for the Fourth with a picnic supper in the evening and fireworks for the children. Present was Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reinauer and girls Terri and Jan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reinauer and family of Westway, Johnny Reinauer and Mrs. May Reinauer of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Louise Summers and children, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Eddie Reinauer, Jr. of Freeport.

The Bill Reinauer family will be moving soon to their farm which they have purchased near Estancia, N.M. Eddie, who has completed his college work, is now employed by Dow Chemical Company at Freeport.

Dale Sandlin, Brownsville, a buddy of Lynn Young on the Coast Guard Cutter Cape York, accompanied Young's body to Hereford for the funeral service.

He was a guest in the Leo Ohlig home while here. Others here for the funeral of Lynn included Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Shannon and Easie Wilcox of Amarillo, Jim Carmon of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Young and Delton and Mrs. Johnny Rogers and daughter, Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. Foy Carmon, Dallas, Mrs. Millie Wilcox, Abilene, Mrs. Gillis Carmon and Glen, Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hulsey, Mrs. Ida Young and Mr. and Mrs. Nell Middleton, all of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mapes and June of Lubbock.

Mrs. LaVera Greathouse and son, Ken, of California, are here visiting in the home of Dorothy Troxell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dickey, Paris, came Thursday to spend several days here in the home of her brother, John D. Aikin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Miller and daughters Linda, Lee, and Lynne of Albuquerque, N.M. spent the Fourth of July weekend here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Dean. She is the former Mary Louise Dean. Her husband, who has been head coach at Highland High School, in Albuquerque, for several years has resigned to become assistant to the principal of the same school. He was recently chosen as one of three men from the state of New Mexico to attend the International Athletic and Health Convention which was held in Hawaii. He gave lectures on basketball at the convention. Accompanied by his wife, they made the trip both ways by jet plane.

Mrs. W. E. Dameron, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Watts and Mrs. Merin Kaul accompanied Miss Irene Crawford of Amarillo, to Estes Park, Colo., last week, where they attended a CFO Conference. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fuhrmann took their vacation last week, and with Wanda, Joel and the twins, Nedra and Naomi, spent the week at Estes Park and also attended the conference. His parents, from Caldwell, Kan., were also at the Park and visited the Fuhrmanns and the other Hereford people.

Ken Venturi started the final 18 holes of the recent U. S. Open in second place, two strokes behind Tommy Jacobs. But Venturi shot a final round 70 to beat Jacobs by four strokes with a 278.

Friona Getting Spudnut Plant

A factory and central warehouse to serve 72 counties in a four-state area will be constructed in Friona. Spudnut officials have announced. "Spudnuts" are similar to doughnuts, but are made from potato flour.

The Friona factory, to be known as "The Golden Spread Spudnut Corp.", will be the first such factory in Texas. It is one of the 15 in the nation.

The Friona factory will produce raw, frozen spudnuts. Retail outlets will fry and glaze the pastry. The "flash frozen" spudnuts will be sent to retailers in an area reaching to Liberal, Kan., on the north; Albuquerque on the west; and Midland on the south. A fleet of "freezer" trucks will be maintained for delivery from here, officials said.

Taylor Construction Co. of Friona will build the factory; George Taylor, builder, will also be a partner in the business. Others with an interest in the company are Charles Allen and Dean Shilling, both of Clovis. The structure itself will be of masonry construction with a pre-stressed concrete roof.

A retail outlet will be operated in Friona in connection with the factory.

Two Men Plead Guilty To DWI

In the other case, Patricio Estrada was fined $175 and cost and sentenced to five days in the county jail, after he entered a plea of guilty to the DWI charge.

Estrada was arrested by city officials July 3 and Alvarez was arrested by a deputy sheriff of the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's department on July 5.

Both men will have their driver's license revoked for a period of six months.

'Hereford Revisited'

Hereford's First Exchange Student Feted On Return

"Hereford Re-visited" could be the title of Miss Jean Chapman's account of recent weeks in the Hereford area.

From Sudbury, Suffolk, England, Miss Chapman was joined in this tour of the United States by Miss Rosalind Kramer, London, England. During the Hereford segment of their tour, they have been guests of the Jimmie Allreds, 129 Ave. D.

Reviewing Miss Chapman's 1954-55 experiences as Hereford's first foreign exchange student under American Field Service, they have renewed old friendships and made many new acquaintances.

Tracing her travel profile to her Friday evening departure for points west, Miss Chapman probably would crystallize challenges that activated her travel plans thus:

Can a young woman make a transoceanic trip and tour much of the United States on slight funds? Can she find sufficient work experiences to supplement the cost of the tour? Can she engage in observations of social service work to enrich her volunteer efforts in her own land, at Mayflower Family Centre in London's East End, on short notice, can she arrange a time schedule permitting her to see American friends and enjoy a taste of social life in the States?

Miss Chapman and Miss Kramer have been answering these questions affirmatively. As travelers, employees, social service observers, and house guests, these British visitors to the United States have enjoyed much broader and more varied experiences than the average tourist.

Conclusion of Miss Chapman's special assignment with the London Times and the end of Miss Kramer's school year coincided with opportunity for passage on a Dutch Cargo Ship with deadline cancellation of flight tickets. Passage on the freight ship was arranged by the owner of the line who also had shared interest in promoting London's Mayflower Family Center where both young women had done volunteer work.

After their docking in Montreal, the Chapman-Kramer itinerary cleared Toronto, Niagara Falls, Boston, New York City, Washington, D.C., stopping long enough in Winston Salem, N.C., for the girls to attend the wedding of Miss Carolyn Verden, 1956 Hereford High School graduate.

The trip by automobile permitted sightseeing on the Gulf Coast and in the Houston area, where they were houseguests of the young woman who had been the United States exchange student in Miss Chapman's home in England. Their side-trip from Houston took them on a circle tour to Monterey, Mexico, and through the Rio Grande Valley.

Their cordial reception in the Hereford area by one-time friends has been heartwarming, according to Miss Chapman. She expressed gratitude for all the many courtesies extended here and Miss Kramer, including the extra efforts to show them points of interest in the Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico.

Their swing through the West — Santa Fe, Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Denver — takes them through Chicago to a work-experience as secretaries in New York for a month. Then after a tour of New England, Miss Kramer returns by student flight to England for the autumn session at Southampton University. Miss Chapman will complete her American tour and possibly add a Caribbean cruise and visit in Trinidad with missionary friends of her parents before her return to England.

Miss Chapman considered her reunion with the Edgar Telchiks, her foster family during her student days here, and with Mrs. Mozelle Telchik Morgan in Denver, and all other Texas acquaintances as a homecoming. Both Miss Chapman and Miss Kramer agreed that they will carry home with them lasting impressions of the immensity of this land, its varied people and problems, and the warmth in time of friendship and love and kindness — keys to universal understanding.

"We're not planning to make this a convention motel," Seaman stated, but pointed out that the motel, with the convenient restaurant, could handle many of the smaller conventions.

The complex should be completed by March 1, according to present plans.

Five agencies of the Panhandle will sponsor an area meeting on the subject, "Using Agricultural Chemicals Safely," to be held in the Community Center here next Thursday at 8:15 p.m., it was announced Saturday.

Heading the speakers will be Norman E. Foster, chief chemist of the Food and Drug Administration.

Sponsoring the event will be the Agricultural committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce; the farm and ranch committee of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce; Hereford Vegetable Processing Sheds, Hereford Custom Crop Sprayers and Texas Agricultural Extension service.

Foster will discuss "Problems Encountered by the Vegetable Industry with Chemical Residues."

Allen Gunter, Dallas, of Hercules Powder Co., will speak on "Safe Use of Agricultural Chemicals on Feed Grains and Other Crops," and Dr. J. C. Gaines, head of the entomology department, Texas A&M, will speak on "Responsibility to the Public of the Agri-Chemical Industry in Food and Feed Production."

Foster, Gunter, Gaines will be joined on a panel discussion by Dr. Robert Berry, area plant pathologist, Extension Service, and Don Rummel, area entomologist for the Extension Service, according to Lefty Thomas, county agent.

The total wheat production of farmers who carry out wheat program provisions will be eligible for price support loans, even though the wheat acreage is in excess of the allotment because of the substitution provisions, he explained.

By Melvin Young
With summer at the half-way mark, about all you can hear around town these days is about that "vacation", proposed or completed.
Naturally, there are always a few of the lucky folks who manage to win trips to the far corners of the earth, but with us, it's usually a "go now, pay later" proposition, and we seldom get the last one paid out before time to go again.

J. L. Marcum, one of the "Dodge boys", is getting ready to go to Bermuda. J. L. won the expense paid excursion from the Dodge Corporation for selling more automobiles than anyone else in the district. He and Mrs. Marcum will leave July 16th for the trip to Bermuda, and will return on the 21st.

We have tried for years to figure out some kind of gimmick around the newspaper whereas we could win one of those expense paid excursions — but to no avail. Our little trips are made via the credit card, and as we said before, we have to pay the piper sooner or later.

Have you been to the Carlsbad Caverns lately? Most of the folks in this neck of the woods have been at least once but in the event that you haven't you certainly should. And even if you have, it's worth another go-around.

We left Hereford Monday shortly after noon, arriving at Carlsbad, N.M. in plenty of time to secure a motel for the night and we didn't drive too hard either. The only automobile troubles being one tire which bit-the-dust before we had traveled a 100 miles from home.

Tuesday morning, we arose and proceeded on to the caverns and the tour. The tour, by the way, takes about three and one-half hours to complete, and it involves quite a bit of walking.

We had forgotten just how beautiful the caverns are. It had been several years since we had visited the caves, and although you think you remember, you'll find that many, many of the natural wonders inside the caverns have escaped notice on the first trip, or else you have forgotten all about them.

Our daughters, ages 14 and 16, enjoyed the trip more perhaps, than did their parents, since they seem to be tireless. However, the younger one was a little apprehensive about the whole deal when we first entered the mammoth cave. Her frequent remark being "when do we get out of this thing?". However, as we walked deeper into the cave, she soon forgot her fear and thoroughly enjoyed the remainder of the trip. She even wanted to stay over for another trip down.

The story of the discovery and eventual exploration of Carlsbad Caverns is an interesting one. It seems that this natural phenomenon was ignored for many years by the park services, and only through the efforts of Jim White, the cave's explorer, were the caverns ever given recognition by the federal park services. In 1924, however, it was designated as a national monument, but it was not until 1930 that it was redesignated as the Carlsbad Caverns National Park, with the subsequent government expenditures for its exploration and development into a tourist attraction.

Bat guano was mined from the "bat cave" as early as 1903, and extensive mining of the rich fertilizer was continued for a number of years before anyone (other than White) became interested in the cave as a potential tourist attraction.
Carlsbad, of course, is the home of extensive potash mining interests, and is a fairly prosperous city in its own right, but the tourist industry, thanks to the "big cave" has brought in hundreds of thousands in additional revenue.

Announcement was made this week of a new motel-restaurant complex to be built in Hereford just west of Jones Texaco Service Station.

The ultra-modern 50 unit motel will be built by Owen Seaman and D. C. McWhorter, while G. D. Caison Jr. will build and operate the restaurant.

Both units should be an asset to Hereford and the entire area.
Construction should start around the 1st of September with completion date planned for March 1.

Special Class For Girls Set To Open Monday

High school girls — and especially members of Future Homemakers of America — have opportunities for self-improvement by attending the special classes at the high school homemaking department this week. Mrs. Don Steele begins Monday her course especially designed for FHA. Classes will meet Monday through Friday one hour daily, 2-3 p.m., announces Mrs. J. J. Durham, FHA director at high school.

Through this study girls can earn additional points for their FHA degrees.
This course, Mrs. Steele

points out, emphasizes a program of self-correction from head to toe, outlined so that the girls can continue their self-improvement on their own initiative.

Divisions of this starter-program include corrective exercise, hair care, make-up, proper accessories, elements of improving personality. Practical demonstrations — such as sitting and walking properly, getting in to and out of a car, walking up and down stairs — will aid girls in attacking their own problems and setting up goals for personal achievement.

Each interested girl of high school age should register at the high school Monday afternoon. Only a small fee will be charged to cover actual cost of the series.

Barbara Ann Barrett, Henry Ranspot Marry

Miss Barbara Ann Barrett became the bride of Henry Virgil Ranspot in a Saturday evening wedding in the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Russell A. Wingert reading the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elkin Barrett, 203 Park Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Henry Ranspot, Westway, are the parents of the groom.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, daisies, mums, and greenery forming the background for candelabra with white tapers. White aisle bows securing nosegays of yellow and white marked the pews.

Miss Joanne Carlson, organist, played Mendelssohn's and Wagner's wedding music and accompanied Miss Linda Jacobsen and Miss Betty Barrett, sister of the bride, who sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white satin and peau de soie, the controlled bell skirt held by side and back unpressed pleats falling into a chapel train. Of re-embroidered Chantilly lace, the overblouse was designed with petal point sleeves, sabrina neckline, and backfastening of tiny silk buttons. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a peau de soie pillbox. She carried white roses centered with white cymbidium orchid. Her only jewelry was a gold cross, gift of the groom.

Miss Beverly Barrett was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Patricia Barrett, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid. They wore identical street-length dresses of yellow silk organza with scalloped neckline. They carried bouquets of white mums accented by love knots and streamers.

Cynthia Barrett, small sister of the bride, in yellow silk organza, carried a flower basket in yellow and white. Roger and Richard Barrett, brothers of the bride, were candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barrett chose a suit of bluebonnet blue linen; Mrs. Ranspot wore a gray silk suit. Their accessories were white, and their corsages were white carnations.

After the wedding a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall, where the bridal party received the guests. Miss Lynn Barrett presided at the guest book. Mrs. Jim Lassiter, Mrs. L. H. Carlson and Mrs. Bob Jackson served from a table laid with white organza over yellow and centered with an epergne arrangement of yellow roses and daisies.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a yellow linen suit with white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from the bridal bouquet. After the honeymoon the young couple will be at home at 311 Myrtle Ave.

A 1964 graduate of Hereford High School, the bride is attending summer session of West Texas State University, majoring in secretarial science. She was 1963-64 Kiwanis Club sweetheart.

Ranspot attended Hereford High School and graduated from Amarillo High School. He served three years with the U.S. Army; and while stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska, he took courses from the University of Alaska. He has also attended Draughtons' Business College.

Out-of-city guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Stan Barrett, Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barrett, Jr., and family, Seminole; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Owen, Dennis, Davis, and Stanford, Seminole; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McGann, Vernon; Mrs. J. M. Ranspot, grandmother of the groom, Weatherford; Mrs. Hazel Stallings and children, Amarillo; and C. H. Rhyme, Amarillo.

Nation Agrees On Edwards' Honors

Some months back, this community saw fit to recognize Dr. Lena Edwards as Hereford's "Citizen of the Year," and recently our federal government followed suit when Dr. Edwards was awarded the President's Medal of Freedom "in recognition of exceptionally meritorious contributions to the security of national interest of the United States, to world peace, to culture or other significant public or private endeavors."

All of us in this area are familiar with Dr. Edwards work, including the establishment and operation of a $50,000 maternity clinic at the Labor Camp. Because we have witnessed and seen her work, we are happy for Dr. Edwards and take pride in extending to her our congratulations.

We are also proud that our community and government agree eye-to-eye on making awards to people who have earned and deserved them. The fact that Dr. Edwards happens to be of Negro extraction makes no difference on either front, because she has unquestionably earned any recognition which may come her way through privation, sacrifice and hard work.

And therein, we believe, rests a good example for all people be they black, white, yellow or brown. The government can pass laws until they are blue in the face, but we doubt if any citizen, regardless of race, color or creed, will be fully accepted or recognized until he has earned his place under the sun. Certainly, the record of Dr. Edwards stands as a beckoning light in a world of strife — because it proves that any man or woman in the United States can make a place for himself regardless of race, controversy or strife.

To go a step further, we sometimes wonder what would happen if some of the agitators and rabble rousers about whom we hear so much, would devote their energy and abilities to sincere work in behalf of their causes. To say the least, the world would be a better place to live.

Sidewalk Sale Shows Interest

Hereford merchants are scheduled to start their big SOS sale (Sale on Sidewalk) Monday with the idea of stimulating business. In addition to the novelty of the proposed promotion, the merchants have also promised exciting bargains on the sidewalk items.

Just how well the plan will work only time will tell. We do have to hand it to the merchants, however, in view of the fact that they are trying, and if they maintain the same interest and spirit they are bound to achieve some results. Everyone likes to trade where their business is appreciated, and when a merchant goes to all of the trouble to drag his wares out on the sidewalk there can be no question but that he is really interested in getting more business — and that he appreciates what he does get. Besides, shuffling back and forth to the cash till, loss of some merchandise through exposure, and trying to remember whether some particular item is in or outside his store is bound to keep some of the boys pretty busy.

In addition, the merchants face the possibilities of dust storms and rain; the former might present a problem but, in case of rain, we have an idea that most of them would be happy to write off their loss — and settle for the moisture.

Paper Work

One of the increasing problems of our way of life is in surmounting the mountains of paper work that must be done in order to transact business.

Nowhere is paper work so reversed as by the federal government which insists upon lengthy reports, many copies, and many kinds, in order to keep operating.

They say that the cost of creating, collecting, compiling, analyzing and disposing of this mountain of paper costs this country about $4 billion a year.

The Bureau of the Census sends out a lot of forms for business people to fill out. We spent a number of hours a few months ago on the Census of Manufacturing, with a lot of information required that we didn't have, but which we had to dig up.

Many hours each month are required by a business to fill out the income tax reports, excise tax reports, franchise tax reports, sales tax reports, etc., and the problem of where to file copies of all this has become acute for a lot of people.

Big business is just about as bad. Any one who does business with a major all company knows that you have to make out invoices in six or seven copies, and it seems to take a long time for the girls at the home office to sort these out and get them to the people that write the checks.

In New York Harbor it is reported that once a ship is loaded and ready to sail, it takes 10 man hours of writing and 22 documents to fill out before the ship is cleared to sail.

A utility company received a questionnaire from the Federal Power Commission weighing some 10 pounds, containing some 438 pages and costing around $250,000 to answer. This takes a bite out of profits.

A great deal of time seems to be spent in offices, whether it be in government or private sectors, in just going through papers, looking at them, sorting them, initialing them, or filing them.

We have the feeling that our nation is sailing along on a sea of paper, and sometimes we are in danger of getting bogged down.

High Plains Is An Exception

Announcement was made this week of dedication of a new post office in Olton, Texas. To our knowledge this marks the first new federal building in West Texas in some time, and it should be the forerunner of other expansions in a growing territory.

Hereford, for instance, is sadly in need of more post office space; post office boxes have carried waiting lists for several years and local carrier delivery has multiplied many times over since World War II. To sum it all up, the present facilities are far from adequate — and we feel sure that the same condition exists in many West Texas towns and cities.

In many cases, including Hereford, expansion of present building space would suffice, and likely pay for itself within a brief period. Convincing the post office department, however, will present a problem in view of the fact that most people in Washington have a definite idea that rural population is moving into the cities. This idea is backed up by statistics but, fortunately, Hereford, Perryton, Dimmitt, Dumas and Littlefield are a few of the West Texas communities which are growing rather than declining.

While most people take the post office for granted, it seems to us that this project might well be included in the Chamber of Commerce projects for 1965 — and pushed by the entire community. Our present growth rate indicates that the condition will likely get a lot worse before it gets any better.

Every citizen should be outraged by the conduct of Harris County and Florida officers and, presumably, Texas Rangers as well in handling the arrest of Melvin Lane Powers, charged in the slaying of financier Jacques Mossier at Key Biscayne near Miami.

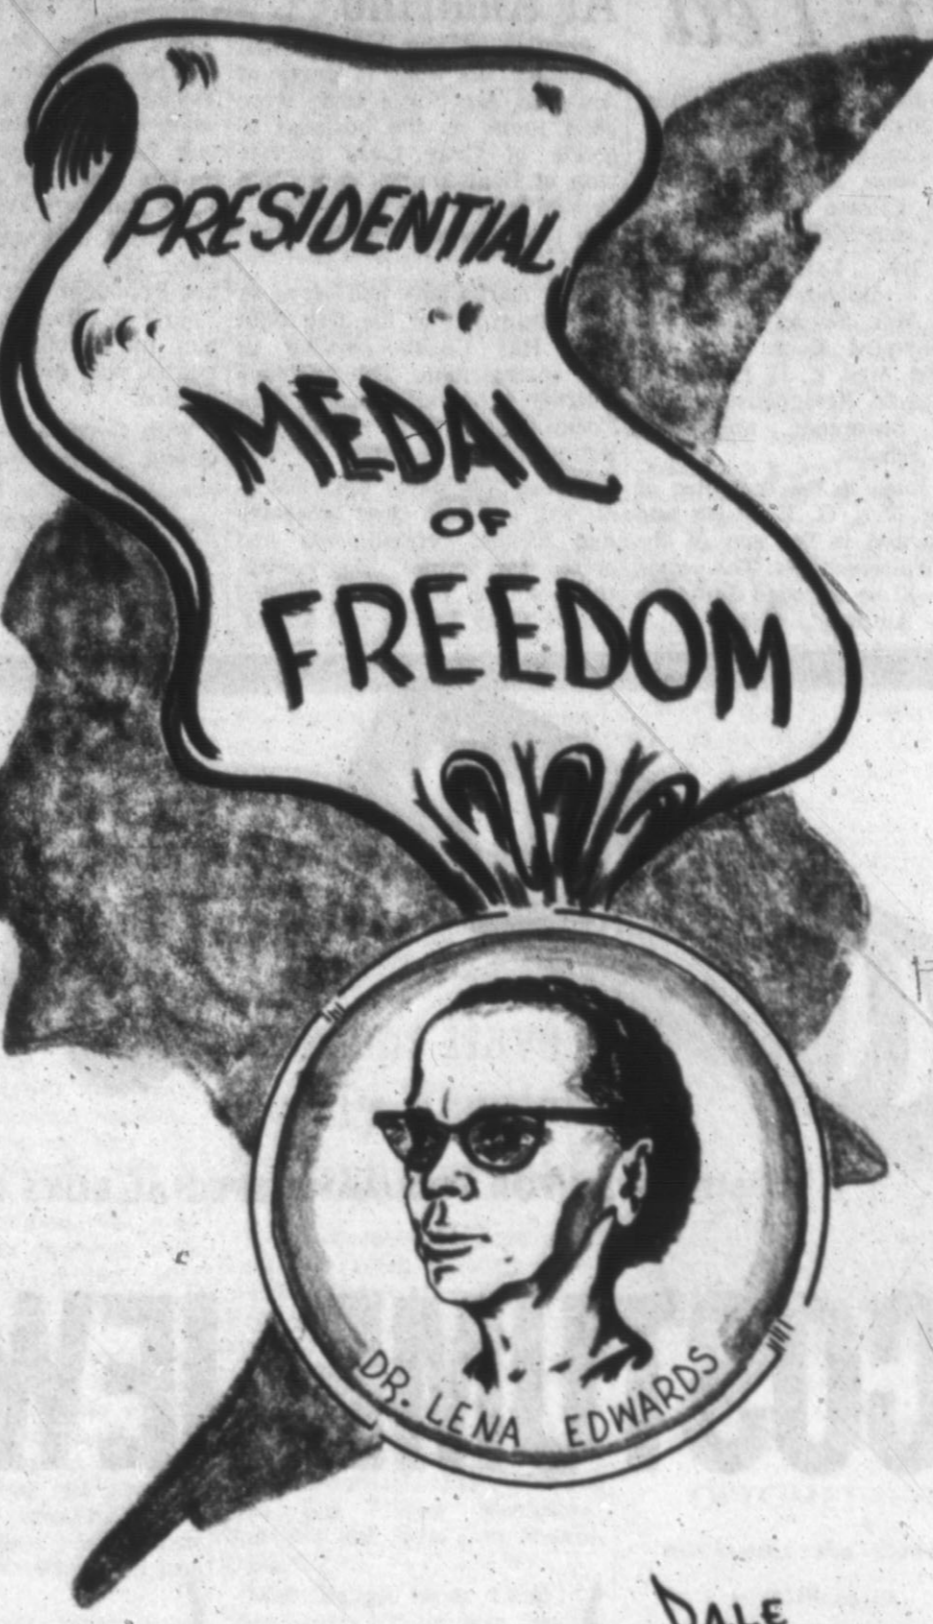

In a way, their offense was more serious than that with which Powers is charged in that it was an assault upon the basic rights of 190 million American citizens, rights which countless numbers of people have died to secure.

Powers' guilt or innocence is something that remains to be proved by legal process, but there is no question of the guilt of the officers involved in his arrest.

Powers was picked up on a traffic charge, spirited away to a secret place, presumably Ranger headquarters, and held incommunicado for some 23 hours, during which he was questioned and efforts of his attorney to find him and counsel him as to his constitutional rights were frustrated. The purpose, obviously, was to force, induce or entrap him into saying something, either orally or in writing, that might be used to help convict him of the charge later made against him.

Far from making the officers look smart or efficient, it showed them to be contemptuous of the rights of all citizens and cast a doubt on their worthiness, if not their qualifications, to exercise the power entrusted to them.

Quick Passage Of Aid Bill Boosted 'Stock' Of Mahon

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The stature of two Texas House Democrats has risen because of recent legislative actions in which they played dominant roles.

Passage of the $3.3 billion foreign aid bill, without crippling amendments which had strong backing, was a feather in the hat for Rep. George Mahon, Lubbock, the new chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

Adoption by a House Banking and Currency subcommittee of a reform program for the Federal Reserve System marked the high water mark to date in a campaign that Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, dean of the Texas congressional delegation, has waged for more than a quarter of a century.

House passage of controversial foreign aid bill — which split the 23-member Texas delegation wide open — came after Mahon had made a stirring defense of the program in answer to loud and bitter criticism. It was the first major test of Mahon's leadership since his elevation to chairmanship of the House Appropriations Committee and came at the end of a long day of debate. His adversary, who strove for big cuts in the bill, was Rep. Otto Passman of Louisiana—chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee that first considered the aid bill.

Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., commenting the next day, told the House: "We heard last night one of the most dramatic speeches ever made in the Halls of Congress, the speech made by the distinguished gentleman from Texas (Mahon). It was a speech that gripped the members of this body whether they are for the bill or against the bill, because they recognize the sterling leadership that he evidenced last night when he made his eloquent and dramatic speech."

In his speech Mahon not only defended the foreign aid program but also some of his own earlier statements in which he said he would not support foreign aid funds for fiscal 1965 unless certain reductions were made. Observing that President Johnson had asked for a substantially lower sum than the Kennedy Administration had asked last year, Mahon said:

"This is the reason why I say I can support this bill, though I have always looked with a jaundiced eye upon foreign aid programs and wanted to make reductions and save everything possible by making suitable reductions."

Then, turning to what the program has accomplished, he said: "My friend from Louisiana (Passman) keeps talking about this program in the last 13 years having cost, including the interest on the public debt, about $125 billion."

"What did we get for it?" "All of Western Europe was saved. This is valuable beyond estimation. What did we get for the $125 billion? Well, we stopped Russia from obtaining warm-water ports in Greece and Turkey, and we did not permit them to make the Mediterranean Sea a Red lake, which would dominate Africa and dominate southern Europe."

"Was that worth anything?" "The foreign aid program has had an important part in preventing World War III. Is that worth anything? World War III would cost 20 times in money what foreign aid has cost in the last 30 years."

Patman's success in convincing the Banking and Currency subcommittee to approve his reform program for the Federal Reserve system will come up as a major item of business before the full committee with the start of the new session next January. Briefly his plan calls for a reduction from seven to five in the number of governors on the Federal Reserve Board. And, he would let any incoming President name the chairman of the board. At present the chairman remains in that post until his 14-year term expires.

He is appointed by the president now, but as a holdover the chairman could be at odds on economic policies with the successor of the president who named him. Other Patman proposals call for retirement of the stock in the Federal Reserve system which is owned by commercial banks, and elimination of the 12-member Open Market Committee.

Patman contends that the net effect of his program would be to make the "Fed" more responsible to the President.

It's a pleasure to get educated. Few weeks ago it was a must to buy new tires. But each and every morning when the car was started and driven to work, there was a "bump-bump-bump," like a knot on a tire fixin' to blow out. Yes 'other day when the tires were balanced, the attendant was asked to check that disturbance. He smiled a sort of knowing smile and said, "Nylon tires always do that. When they cool off at night, a flat spot shapes up. It goes away soon as the air expands." Sure enough . . . it does!

Oldham county commissioners, since they are a $200 per month salary, should be able to show the public some better means as to how money should be handled. As of this date, Oldham county has approximately some $80,000 in a special road fund. Of this $80,000, about $40,000 is on time deposit and drawing a mere 2 1/2 % interest. The other $40,000 is in a checking account and drawing no interest, yet the commissioners say they are unable to legally withdraw any of this amount for anything except local road improvements, buying rights-of-way, maintainers and things of this nature. Surely they must know we don't need this kind of money to handle these needs.

I believe the baseball program for our young boys is outstanding, according to the turnout of players. And the businesses have supported the program generously. But, as the father of three girls and only one boy, I am also aware that our community is doing nothing for the physical improvement of the young ladies. They must travel at least 28 miles roundtrip to swim, and there is nothing else offered except sewing, cooking through 4-H.

It is understandable why Henry Cabot Lodge who calls himself a Republican, and others of his political persuasion who have taken on the image of international socialism as promoted by what was once the great Democratic party, does not want our failure in South Vietnam to become a matter of controversy in the presidential campaign. ## THE BOOTLEG

—Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm reports on another of his unworkable notions this week.

Dear editor,
According to an article I read last night in a copy of a newspaper which blew out of a teen-ager's car which came around a corner out here near my farm on two wheels to save rubber I guess, a plan is underway to conduct the next national census by mail, instead of having thousands of paid people walking around knocking on doors, and this got me to thinking.

Why not hold national political conventions by mail? Here's the deal: It'll cost millions and millions of dollars for the Republicans to travel to San Francisco and the Democrats to Atlantic City, to set up all the telephone wires, television cables and cameras, to get the convention halls ready, to handle all the traffic, feed all the people, find hotel rooms, hire more police, etc.

This seems like going to a lot of expense and trouble to get a bunch of delegates from around the nation into one spot to vote by voice, particularly when most of them already know how they're going to vote anyway. But even if they don't know how they're going to vote, it seems like they could make up their minds about as well from their desks back home and drop their votes into the mail, because if they're depending on making up their minds on the basis of a nominating speech in a noisy convention hall, you've got the wrong bunch for delegates to start with. If there ever was a delegate who was influenced by a bunch of people tearing down the aisles waving signs and beating drums, he was picked by mistake.

For $500 worth of stamps, the whole thing could be conducted by mail.

However, I'll admit when the convention opens, I'll be sitting in front of a television set watching the show. After all, it takes place in the summer and in the summer all television fans are used to seeing re-runs anyway.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Chevrolet dealers sell more cars than anybody Because they sell great cars

Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe

Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Chevy II Nova Sport Coupe

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

Chevrolet has brought a whole new kind of excitement to everyday driving this year. It's a fifty-yard-line, ten-rows-up kind of excitement.

And whether you're cushioned in the bucket seat of a luxurious Chevrolet Impala Super Sport or behind the wheel of the surprisingly roomy Chevelle, you'll feel it.

Whether you're gobbling up a hill in a thrifty Chevy II or making tracks on a sandy beach with the rear-engined Corvair, you'll feel it. Whether you're just looking at a Corvette or kicking up some dust with one, you'll feel it.

Altogether you've got five different kinds of cars and up to 45 different models to choose from. And each one is looking even more attractive as the '64 car-year closes out.

You couldn't pick a better time to build on the model you like either, for behind each one is a list of special Chevrolet options as long as your arm.

So stop in at your Chevrolet dealer's now and see what all the excitement is about. Get behind the wheel of America's most popular car. Or all five wheels. And don't be surprised if you see your neighbor doing the same thing.

Soils Effect Nitrogen Loss, Bennett Says

By W. F. "Bill" Bennett
Agronomist

A review of research recently released by TVA provides additional insight into losses of nitrogen by way of volatilization in the ammonia form into the atmosphere. The report was primarily a summary of the research work done on topdressing the various forms of dry nitrogen fertilizer such as ammonium sulphate, ammonium nitrate and urea.

The summary pointed out that nitrogen losses can occur on alkaline, calcareous soils which contain free calcium carbonate (caliche). The ammonium sulphate, ammonium nitrate or urea can apparently react with calcium carbonate to form ammonium carbonate. This compound is unstable and will break down and release nitrogen as a gaseous ammonia.

The extent of the loss will obviously depend on several factors. First, soils with a pH of soil reaction of 7.8 to 7.9 or less will contain little or no free calcium carbonate, hence, very little loss would be expected on these soils.

Soils with pH 7.9 or above usually contain free calcium carbonate. Soils with pH of 8.2 or 8.3 usually contain an excessive amount. When nitrogen is topdressed on these soils, losses can occur. Losses will usually be greater on hot days.

Losses can be prevented or decreased tremendously if the fertilizer is watered in soon after application or if it is chiseled into the soil or disked or plowed in.

The magnitude of losses of nitrogen by research workers varies considerably. Most of those reported will average around 10 to 20 percent loss of the nitrogen when left on the surface. Losses were usually greater from ammonium sulphate than from ammonium nitrate. This is because half the nitrogen in the ammonium nitrate is in the nitrate form.

Coch Pat Mullin of the Detroit Tigers broke in as an outfielder with Beaumont of the Texas League in 1937.

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Rogers Would Put Teeth Into Pending 'Clean' Bill

The right of privacy and refuge in your home is a fundamental right. Still sound law today is the principal laid down by an English jurist more than 400 years ago: "The house of everyone is to him as his castle and fortress, as well for his defense against injury and violence as for his repose." Our Constitution bars search and seizure without a warrant and guarantees each citizen the right to restrain and deny unauthorized persons from entering his home.

Certainly implicit, if not explicit, in the Constitution is the right to prevent entry into the home of harmful materials as well as persons. The right of an individual to protect his home and his children from damaging moral influences must prevail, both in reason and in law, over the right of another to send more offensive mail into that home or to those children.

To provide this protection, to better enable Americans to protect themselves from these "smut peddlers," is the purpose of H.R. 319, a bill that has been approved by the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service and may come to the floor of the House when it returns from the two-week recess beginning this week-end.

In hearings on the bill, which was introduced by Congressman Cunningham of Nebraska, recognized authorities presented overwhelming evidence that a multi-million-dollar traffic in obscene and immoral products is still growing. Much of it is directed to debasement of the morals of the young and impressionable. Disguised as "art" or "literature" or "culture" or "education," unsolicited obscene material will go through the mails this year to more than a million school children, according to a Post Office Department estimate.

While stepping up their campaign of distribution, the traffickers in obscenity have marshaled their high-paid staffs in a massive assault on penal statutes. While the so-called "hard-core" of peddlers in smut can be successfully prosecuted, the public is now confronted by the threat of damage from the "gray areas" of indecent mailings.

Recently enacted postal obscenity laws have provided only partial protection. As the Committee observed in its report on H.R. 319, "Gray can be a very dirty color."

It was the Committee's conviction that what is now needed is a new law applied from a different direction — with a preventive rather than a punitive purpose — a law enabling the public to participate in protecting its own interests.

Among the many groups and organizations in this country supporting "clean mail" legislation are employees and leaders of the great national postal organizations, whose members must act as unwitting and willing messengers of offensive material. Said Jerome J. Keating, President of the National Association of Letter Carriers, "There must be some way to prevent the purveyors of filth from forcing their wares upon innocent victims. We know the dangers of censorship and the need of free speech. We believe in freedom of thought; however, there is such a thing as licentiousness."

The new proposed law would give any person the right, when he or his child receives mail which, in his opinion, is morally offensive, to ask the Postmaster General to notify the sender to send no more mail to him or any child of his which he himself has not solicited. The Postmaster General then must give the sender notice of the request and its content, and direct the sender and anyone acting for him to send no more mail in violation of the request. If the notice is violated, the Postmaster General may then serve a formal complaint, then request the Attorney General to apply to a district court for an order di-

How to stop being a Ghostess by KitchenAid.

You know what a ghostess is: that's a hostess who disappears right after the meal. And leaves her guests with that awkward choice—pitch in with the dishes, or try to ignore those stacks of soiled tableware.

But change the scene just slightly...add a KitchenAid automatic dishwasher...and see the hostess be a part of the party! Now she has time for gracious entertaining and living.

Why a KitchenAid? Because a KitchenAid belongs in this scene. Because the product itself is unequalled.

Ask friends that have one...or better yet, come in and ask us. We'll explain how a KitchenAid, by Hobart, washes and dries better...we'll show you the exclusive revolving power wash arm, the separate electric blower-dryer unit—no other make has either one! And don't forget to ask about KitchenAid's new decorator color line.

STATUS FOR CHEFS

VANCOUVER — Canadian chefs want and deserve professional recognition, says Gottlieb Dambach, president of the Association of Chefs de Cuisine of British Columbia.

Dambach, head chef of the Bayshore Inn here, says chefs deserve the same professional status as doctors and lawyers.

It takes longer to train a good chef than it does to train a good lawyer, he said. A chef, like a doctor, has to keep on learning.

"I'm still learning things from pot-washers."

Dambach, 33, helped organize the Canadian Federation of Chefs, now awaiting a federal charter, the first step toward professional status.

Electric Co-Op Puts New 'Snorkel' Into Quick Use

By Phil Duncan
Deaf Smith County Rural Electric co-operative put their new $30,000 hoist truck right into operation this week as the co-op crews set about the task of replacing all of the bolt-on clamps on the 2,700 miles of line served by the Hereford office. The truck eliminates the climbing of the poles by the linemen and makes it possible for the job to be completed much faster and with a higher degree of safety. This truck will enable us to complete a job in one hour, which would have normally taken over four hours to complete," Bill Craig, line superintendent, said. Craig explained that the reason for switching out the clamps was to prevent the "radio static" and damage to the lines, which results as the bolt-type clamps become loose. "We can," Craig explained, plained, "with our hoist truck, elevate a lineman to a point, where he can switch the clamps and the service is not interrupted." "This is a very important thing, especially during this time of year, when the farmers all have their wells running and pipes set." "It doesn't make a farmer too happy if you let him get his switches full and all his pipes set and then come along and cut off his power supply." The bolt-type clamps become loose due to the vibration of the lines. This occurs more during the winter months, when the lines are contracted and the vibration increases. As the clamps become loose, the line begins to arc against the clamp, melting both the line and the clamp in the process. A new type clamp is being used by the linemen. It is called a squeeze-on type clamp. It is clamped onto the line with an air-vise and according to Craig, the only way to get it off is to cut the line. Without the use of the truck, it would have taken years to complete the job of switching these clamps out, according to Craig. "Now we can keep this hoist truck crew at it full time and will have it completed in approximately 25 percent of the time," Craig said. Craig pointed out that to have a full crew on the job, before the truck arrived, it would take five men. Now two linemen are required to do the work on the line and one man stays on the ground to operate the truck. Safety seems to be the main theme in the design of the truck. Controls are on the bed of the truck as well as in the basket. Craig explained that the controls in the bottom override those in the basket, just in case the linemen get into trouble and can not bring themselves down. The baskets are completely insulated, so the linemen can handle the "hot" lines, even without gloves. The crane will go up or down, swing to either side, or make a complete revolution, and all three motions can be accomplished at once for greater speed. "The truck will service the more than 4,000 customers served by the Hereford office," Craig explained. Counties served by the Hereford office include Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro and part of Oldham. "We feel this truck will improve the service being offered to our customers by a great degree and I think it would be a very conservative guess to say that by the time and labor saved by the use of the truck, it should pay for itself in less than two years," Craig said. "This is just another effort by the Deaf Smith County Electric Co-op to offer more service to their customers," Craig concluded. There were nine below-par 70 rounds in this year's U. S. Open. Two each were turned in by Arnold Palmer and Gay Brewer. Others under par for one round were winner Ken Venturi, Tommy Jacobs, Bob Charles, Billy Casper and Don January.

'Witnesses' Set 4-Day Meeting

Lloyd Reddoch, presiding minister for the Hereford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced a four-day convention which is to be held in El Paso. "The meeting, to be held in the Sunland Park Race Track, is for advanced Bible instruction and a study of modern gospel-preaching methods," Mr. Reddoch said. The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, will sponsor the convention. It has been termed the "Fruitage of the Spirit" District Assembly and is just one of more than 60 conventions which will be held across the United States during July and August. Mr. Reddoch explained, "The gathering is not a revival, but is a regular part of an advanced ministerial training program for the witnesses and other persons interested in the Bible. Special attention will be given to imparting Bible instruction and a better understanding of prophecy, to enable Jehovah's Witnesses and others attending to apply Bible principles more fully in their everyday lives. Part of the program is especially being arranged for the youth."

A final round 68 gave left-handed golfer Bob Charles of New Zealand third place with a 283, five strokes back, in the recent U. S. Open.

High School's Biggest Show, TIL Football, To Start Soon

By Harold V. Ratliff
Associated Press Sports Writer

In just five weeks there will begin the longest march in football. This is the Texas Inter-scholastic League, largest organization of its kind in the world.

Practice starts Aug. 17 with all except one class swinging in to action. Class AAAA, the top division — the only one that has spring football — is not permitted to begin fall practice until Aug. 28. The difference is because AAAA gets 21 days of practice that Classes AAA, AA, A, B, Six-Man and Eight-Man do not have.

It will be the 45th campaign. Most of the coaches today were not even born when the first race — in 1879 — was held.

For four months the campaign will rage from Panhandle to Gulf, from El Paso in the far west to Texarkana in the far east.

There will be 946 schools playing the game this year. That is the all-time high. There were 936 last year.

Showing the intensity of competition and attesting to the difficulty of a team going through a season unbeaten and untied, there'll be only one boasting this accomplishment.

The longest winning streak is held by Corsicana, Class AAA state champion, which is 14-0.

They are doubtful that Corsicana can maintain this record for another season. In the first place, Corsicana has to move up to Class AAAA this year. It was caused by the school exceeding the enrollment limit of 975 by 32 students.

In the second place, Corsicana lost heavily in experienced players. There are only four offensive starters back and fewer than that of defensive hands.

The second longest winning streak is held by Rockwall, the Class AA champion, which is 13-0. Rockwall has 15 members of the squad that beat John Foster Dulles 7-6 for the title on hand to start fall practice. These include the brilliant Marc Noel, who caught a touchdown pass with 23 seconds to go to defeat Dulles.

The Class AAAA champion was Garland, which has a 12-game winning streak. Garland was unbeaten but was tied in its second game of the 1963 season by Dallas Bryan Adams.

Garland should repeat with the championship. Even Coach Chuck Curtis admitted that his team won the title a year ahead of schedule.

There are 25 members of the 1963 squad including 13 lettermen returning.

Petersburg was the Class A champion and had a 14-0-1 record. However, it has only a six-game streak going for it. Petersburg was tied late in the district race. But it appears capable of keeping a clean slate most of the way in 1964.

However, George West, the team Petersburg beat for the title, looks even stronger since it has that great runner, Steve Lane, back to lead a veteran crew.

It would appear that Garland and Rockwall should repeat with championships but Corsicana and Petersburg may have to get some fortunate bounces of the ball to make it.

Not since 1956 has a team in Class AAAA repeated with the championship. Class AAA has gone only one year without a repeater. Class AA two years and Class A five years.

Abilene has won the most state championships of any school in the 45 years of the League race with six. Waco is second with five and one tie and Wichita Falls is next with five. Breckenridge has four and two ties.

It is doubtful that there will be a change in the leadership situation this year. Abilene, Waco and Wichita Falls quit winning them when more than one high school started dividing the football players up in each city. Breckenridge doesn't have this difficulty to contend with but Breckenridge has been in football doldrums for four years.

1963 BUY PAYS OFF

DETROIT 15 — In 1958, Canadian Edward P. Taylor sent Nearctic here for the Michigan Mile. The colt won in 1:36 1/5 for a course record. Taking part of the winnings, Taylor visited Saratoga and paid $35,000 at the yearling sales for a filly later named Natalma.

Natalma won three races in two seasons, was retired and bred to Nearctic. Her first foal was Northern Dancer, winner of this year's Kentucky Derby.

TO THE BITTER END
TORONTO 18 — Chuckie Joe a battered old scow skippered by owner Ken Sinclair, is one of the last remnants of Toronto Island's once-thriving business life.

Chuckie Joe plows the water between the city and the island carrying essentials to the dwindling island population.

Sinclair's Island Freight Company is a haulage contractor, beer deliver, house mover and sole source of oil delivery during winter.

Once a tool designer, Sinclair yuit the drawing board in favor of the island's open air. Now he is philosophically awaiting the time when there will be no one left on the island to serve.

Metropolitan Toronto is gradually razing the homes of island residents in order to turn it into a park. In 1952, the first 638 leases were terminated and since then houses have been acquired in piece-meal fashion reducing the year-round population from 2,500 to 1,200.

Soon the island's three remaining businesses, a boat builder a grocery and Island Freight, will have folded. The gruff owner of Island Freight will be the last to go. "After it's all gone," he says, "I'll still be here."
