Home Demonstration Council Sponsors Dress and Rug Show In Hereford Tuesday, June 27

The Dress and Rug Show, plans for which have been under way for some time, will be an all-day event, and will be staged at the high school building Tuesday, June 27, and it is desired that every lady in the county enter the competition afforded by this show.

All dresses shown must be made of sheer material, such as voile, tulle, dimity, dotted swiss, or gandy, etc.

Rug entries will be judged in the morning, but will be on display throughout the day.

During the morning hours the judging will be done by Miss Katie K. Bass, Randall county home demonstrator, assisted by two Canyon ladies. Following the judging, a musical program will be given, consisting of instrumental and vocal selections.

Each lady attending is requested to bring a covered dish of food, and at the noon hour luncheon will be served.

In the afternoon the style show proper will begin. Each lady entering a dress in the exhibit will be expected to wear it and walk across the stage before the judges and audience, and awarding of prizes will depend largely on the way the dress appears on the person wearing it, along with other requirements of the score card.

The Dress and Rug show is being sponsored by the Home Demonstration Council of Deaf Smith county, and considerable interest is being manifested among the women.

Rev. W. L. Tittle Delivering Some Fine Sermons

Choosing as his subject, "God's Plan for a Revival," Rev. W. L. Tittle delivered the first of a series of sermons Sunday night in the First Methodist Church revival now in progress. Monday morning his discourse took up the subject, "The place of faith in the building of the Kingdom." This was followed Monday evening by "The adequacy of the Gospel." Tuesday morning his theme was "The place of prayer in Kingdom Building."

Tuesday evening the young people began their special meetings and Friday night there will be special services honoring the people of the community, and a large attendance is anticipated.

Rev. Mr. Tittle has for the past four years been pastor at Denton, where two large colleges are located, and he is especially fitted for dealing with the problems relative to college life. His subject Friday night will be "Flapper and Jelly Beans—Then and Now." He promises to tell you in this sermon that the flapper is not modern and that probably grandmother was a flapper—anyway he invites all to hear him and find out.

Local Bankers Attend Amarillo Convention

The 20th annual Panhandle Bankers Association was held in Amarillo Wednesday, with more than 200 in attendance. C. A. Gibson of Spearman was elected president, succeeding L. B. Steel of Dalhart.

W. L. Pier, president of the Stockyards National Bank of Fort Worth, paid quite a tribute to the Panhandle country, when he said "Livestock paper is a good bank investment. This country is known everywhere—that livestock grows and fed in this region is the best obtainable."

Those who attended the convention from Hereford were George Muse, president of the First National Bank; Messrs. Harry Frits, C. C. Acker, and Misses Eunice Giffbreath and Viola Carpenter of the First State Bank, and Mrs. C. C. Acker.

120 Seed Wheat Loan Checks Received Here

About 120 checks were received during the past few days, going to farmers who have recently made application for seed wheat and soil preparation loans. The majority of the checks were for the sum of $300 each, the amount asked for by the applicants.

C. of C. Luncheon Group Enjoys Lively Meeting

The Chamber of Commerce luncheon was held in the Christian church basement Tuesday noon. A. O. Thompson acted as chairman and introduced Mrs. Vera E. Williams, manager of the Business Mens Association; Miss Ayers, county health nurse, and Jewell Murchison. Mr. Murchison and Mrs. Williams both responded with a few words.

Dr. O. F. Loyd of Vega attended the luncheon for the purpose of explaining the fact that higher valuations must be made on Panhandle farming lands in order that those making application for financing their farm loans may procure enough assistance to save them from total loss. Dr. Loyd urged the Chamber of Commerce members and business men to extend their aid to farmers who desire to make out affidavits relative to actual crop production and the prices received for crops for the past ten years. Dr. Loyd also stressed the thought that the Federal farm loan valuations on land here of about $15 an acre was entirely too low.

About 30 members and visitors attended the luncheon.

Exploding Cartridge Wounds C. Longbottom

Claude Longbottom received minor wounds in the upper right leg and on his chest Sunday afternoon when a rifle he was attempting to load was prematurely discharged. The rifle, a 35 calibre, proved too small for the .44 cartridge he was trying to get into it, and in some way the firing pin made proper contact, scattering brass and powder with the above results. Four others were in the car, all escaping injury.

Garcia Lake Oil Test Indications Continue Good

Considerable interest here and in the Panhandle is being taken in the Garcia Lake oil test well, now being put down on the rim of Garcia Lake about 35 miles northwest of Hereford. A few minor repairs have recently been made, and the well is now drilling at about 1575 feet.

Three refining companies, it is said, have taken acreage near this test. Outside interests are said to be favorably impressed so far with the showings of this well, so much so that they have leased acreage in the northwest part of Deaf Smith county and in Curry county, New Mexico.

E. H. Blood, responsible in a large measure for this test, has stated that additional casing is on the ground ready for use when needed. With the addition of two more drillers to the present crew they will be running tower in a few days.

The formation, according to Mr. Blood, is of reddish gray sand at the present depth.

J. L. Hight of near Vega was here last Saturday transacting business.

19,390 Pounds of Hereford Butter Goes to Chicago

The large butter truck of Alton Fraser left Friday night for Chicago with another shipment of Cream O' Plains butter. The load weighed 19,390 pounds, and had to be reloaded on the Texas-Oklahoma state line. Herman Shultz, manager of the local creamery, says that quite a saving in transportation was made on the first truck load hauled by Mr. Fraser, and that practically all the butter going east will be transported by trucks.

Lloyd Edwards and J. D. Gillispie drove the truck this trip.

Hereford Territory Gets Long-Needed Moisture

Spotted rains again hit the Hereford territory, but to the north and northwest this time. Adrian reported a half inch, and it probably rained more south of Adrian, as the Palo Duro draw, a few miles south of Vega, was under four feet of water Monday evening, causing traffic to be suspended for several hours.

A good rain was reported at Dawn. Dr. Loyd of Vega also reported a good rain south of town.

Extreme temperatures prevailed Monday, ranging from 87 at noon to as low as 68 at 6:30 p. m.

Additional reports say that Mal Stewart, 25 miles northwest of town, got a five inch rain Monday night. Southeast of Adrian, reports a cloud burst, and a fall of ten inches in about two hours.

T. F. Bohanan, 32 miles northwest, reports a rainfall of at least four inches Monday evening.

Trainload Reforestation Boys Exercise Here

Residents of the east part of town were somewhat surprised one day last week when some 250 of Uncle Sam's Reforestation recruits left a waiting train for a short time and scattered over the prairie for exercise. The small cactus or prickly pear plants growing in the vicinity attracted the attention of the boys, and most of them were busy gathering them as oddities.

Many long trains have passed over the Santa Fe Railway the past several days carrying these recruits to training camps or from the camps to actual work in the lines appointed.

Friday Last Day for Wheat Loans Here

Wheat loans are due to close Friday evening of this week, according to Mrs. C. B. Bentley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

All applications must be in Dallas on Saturday, June 17, according to Mrs. Bentley.

MUNICIPAL ORCHESTRA IS TO BE ORGANIZED

A municipal orchestra for Hereford is being organized, and it is expected that final arrangements will be made at a meeting to be held at the city hall Thursday evening, June 15, at 8:30 o'clock.

All who may want to become a member of this orchestra are invited to attend and take part in the meeting. Ralph Smith, music instructor in Hereford schools, will direct the orchestra after organization is complete, and is anxious to have a large number.

The Firemen started the first inning with a bang, making three scores in their half. W. Witherspoon, first man up, made it to first on an error. A Russell singled and Carroll forced Witherspoon at third. Brock busted one for two bases, scoring Russell and Carroll. B. Witherspoon socked another double, scoring Brock. Wood went out, short to first, and Ferris was out, pitch to first.

The Odd Fellows went out, three up and three down, in the first and second, but scored one tally in the third.

The Firemen scored again in the third when A. Russell, first man up, slammed a screaming line drive down right field foul line for a home run—the only one of the game—making the score 4 to 1 in favor of the Firemen.

The Odd Fellows scored two more in the fifth on two hits and two errors, and tied the score in the sixth when Foster, first man up, singled, Young forced Foster at second. Young was safe at first on the play. Left field let Onstead's fly get away and Young scored on the play.

Hospital Management Reduces Expenditures

Many will be glad to learn that the Deaf Smith county hospital board made a very favorable financial report for the month of May. According to Judge Humble, the hospital had a loss of about $700 in one of the winter months of 1932-33, and a loss of only $40.00 for the month of May.

The county hospital board is composed of Drs. G. F. LeGrand, E. B. Thomason, Mrs. L. B. Bradley, E. S. Ireland and Criss Benfro. The board and the hospital managing nurse, Mrs. Emma Gragg, are to be complimented for their keen business judgment. ### NEW SERIES STAMPS COMMEMORATES FAIR

Hereford postoffice is now offering for sale some very nifty new postage stamps of the three-cent variety. These stamps picture a scene taken at the Century of Progress World's Fair now in operation at Chicago. According to Elmer Patterson, general postal clerk in the Hereford office, this is the third special issue of stamps within the past several months.

Judge C. W. Humble informed the Brand this week that application will be made by his office for funds to be used for the benefit of rural high school students who are unable to pay tuition for the coming school year. Also application will be made for additional funds for several rural school districts. The money will be used for aid. The money will be used for transportation, teachers' salaries, etc.

The new revised Rural Aid law provides $6,000,000 or a part thereof for the entire state during 1932-33 for the purpose of promoting public school interests of rural districts and equalizing the educational opportunities afforded by the state to all children of scholastic age living in small and financially weak districts. This fund will come from the General Revenue money. The sum of $7.50 or less is provided for each rural high school pupil.

The superintendent and county school board are authorized by this law to set up a system of transportation for the purpose of transporting high school pupils from districts where their grade is not taught to the most convenient accredited high school, and not to expend more than $2.00 per month on each pupil. Money paid toward teachers' salaries will not be paid to increase the salary, but only to pay the salary stipulated by their contract with their school boards.

Judge Humble stated that the applications for funds are now being prepared, with the proper data, and it is thought that three or four hundred dollars will be available next fall for the school funds.

THE OLD SWIMMIN' HOLE APPEALS TO YOUNGSTERS

The old swimmin' hole east of town is getting splashed often and violently these days. The youngsters enjoy the sport, but we have seen a few of the elderly boys coming in from down there with a surprised look on their faces—evidence that they are not what they used to be. Chilled, blue with cold, and otherwise done up, they are willing for the tougher generation to get all the pleasure out of swimming—but as for them—well, no thanks, never again.

JESUS RISES FROM THE DEAD

Mark 16:1-11

1. And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.
 2. And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun was risen.
 3. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?
 4. And looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great.
 5. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.
 6. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him!
 7. But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
 8. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one: for they were afraid.
 9. Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.
 10. She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
 11. And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.
 Golden Text: He is risen.—Mark 16:16.

Time: The Resurrection, Sunday, April 9, A. D. 30. The ascension, Thursday, May 15.
 Place: The resurrection, Jerusalem. The ascension, the Mount of Olives.
 Parallel passage: Matt. 28; Luke John 20, 21.

Introduction.
 The Saviour spent three days in the tomb, according to the Jewish mode of reckoning, which counted parts of days as whole days—namely, Friday evening and night, Saturday and Sunday evening and night. Then came a supernatural event. Early Sunday morning, there was a great earthquake, and a shining angel descended from heaven, rolled back the stone from the entrance to the tomb, and sat upon it. The Roman guards swooned in terror; so frightened was the event, and on their waking rushed off to tell the Jewish rulers what had occurred. "These crafty schemers saw themselves exposed to a great peril, a Jesus indeed risen from the dead, heading a host of exultant followers; but they extricated themselves from their predicament as best they could. They bribed the soldiers to say that Christ's disciples stole his body while they were asleep, and agreed to save them from punishment by the Roman authorities. And this falsehood is current to this very day."
Resurrection Morning.
 "And when the sabbath was past." The Jewish Sabbath, our Saturday. "Mary Magdalene, the woman out of whom Christ had cast seven demons." And Mary the mother of Jesus. "This was James the Less (Matt. 27:56), not the James who was the brother of John, the first martyr among the apostles." "And Salome." She was the mother of the apostles James and John, members with Peter of the Inner Circle of three apostles closest to Jesus. And probably other women whose names are not recorded. "Bought spices, that they might come and anoint him." The embalming done by Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus on Friday was done hastily, as the Sabbath would begin at sunset; and these women came to complete it.
 "And very early on the first day of the week." Our Sunday, which, on account of the resurrection of our Lord on that day, came to supplant the Jewish Sabbath (Saturday) as the day of rest and worship, thought for a time the Christians observed both days. "They come to the tomb when the sun was risen." The confusion of the time is to be observed in the confusion of the accounts, for Matt. 28:1 sets the time as "late on the sabbath day (according to the Roman reckoning) as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week;" Luke 24:1 says, "at early dawn;" and John 20:1 says "while it was yet dark." The accounts are evidently honest, and are precisely what would be reported at that dim time of day.
Needless Anxieties.
 "And they were saying among themselves." They were full of anxiety, but they continued on their course. "Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?" The tomb, as was not common, was closed by a round stone, rolling in a stone groove in the solid rock. "And looking up." Joseph's rock-hewn tomb was evidently on high ground, perhaps cut in a cliff. "They see that the stone is rolled back; for it was exceeding great." Its removal was faintly visible as far away as the tomb could be seen, it was so great. "Every obstacle was carefully removed out of the way of the women. If we go forward following the dictates of our consciences and trusting that God will smooth the path and roll away obstructions, we shall find that he does so. He calls us to no duties which he does not enable us to perform."

 —Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould.
 "Never go out of your way to meet trouble before it comes." They expected an impenetrable wall, they found a clear opening! immeasurable expense. They pictured a clod; they found a God—a God who had already gone before them, rolling exceeding great material impediments out of their way."

 —Rev. Frederick F. Shannon, D. D.
The Angel at the Tomb.
 "And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side." Luke 24:4 says that there were two men. Possibly only one of them spoke, and so was more firmly fastened in their memories than the other. Recall the two blind men at Jericho, both of whom called after Jesus and were healed by him, but only one of them, Bartimaeus, was conspicuous enough to be mentioned by Mark (Mark 10:46; Matt. 20:30; Luke 18:35). "Arrayed in a white robe." Luke 24:7 tells us that the angels were clad "in dazzling apparel," robed in light, in accordance with the uniform representation of those glorious beings.

 "Ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified." Even the angels spoke of the Son of God as "the Nazarene," for he had made that despised title more honorable, and that obscure village had become one of the most glorious localities on earth. "He is risen." This is the most momentous announcement ever made. It is the proof of Christianity. It is the evidence of immortality. It affects every soul more deeply than any other words possibly could. "He is risen, even as he said." Matthew reports the angel as saying: "They must have known that our Lord had repeatedly prophesied his resurrection."
"And Peter."
 "But go." The best thing the angels could do for the astounded women was to send them at once on an errand. "Tell the disciples and Peter." Peter must have felt that he was no longer a disciple, having denied his Lord. Poor, broken hearted man! But the message of the risen Lord through his angels was, "and Peter." The only man's name that was mentioned was the name of the man who felt that he was no longer a disciple. The Lord Jesus Christ is the same yesterday today, and forever, and he sends an invitation to every one of his children; but if there is one to receive a special message, it is the man or woman out of communion, out of fellowship, with Jesus Christ."

 —Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D. Note that it is Mark, whose Gospel is supposed to have been written in close collaboration with Peter, who includes these significant words, "and Peter."

Marvel of the Resurrection.
 We know that Jesus Christ has risen, not only because the Scriptures say so, but also because nothing else than a risen Christ can account for the facts of church history, for Christendom, for the transfiguration of human character, for the joys of a personal communion with the Living One. If ever there was a fact proved it is this: Jesus Christ has risen from the dead and is alive today."
 —Rev. George Dana Boardman, D. D., L. L. D.
An Earnest Plea.
 "My friend, give your heart to Christ. He has the right to it. You are not your own. He redeemed you. He went to the cross for you. He went down into the grave for you. He came out of the grave and appeared to Mary Magdalene and lives forever for you, your Intercessor, your Saviour. Give him your heart and let him drive out every devil that torments you, and he will fill your heart with joy and honor and blessings beyond all your dreams through time and eternity!"

 —Rev. Louis Albert Banks, D. D.
Christ Is Risen.
 "Glory to God, in full anthems of joy."
 The being he gave us death cannot destroy;
 Sad were the life we must part with tomorrow,
 If tears were our birthright and death were our end;
 But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
 And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend:

CHILDREN'S STORY HOUR HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE

The Story Hour at Mother's Park was well attended last Friday afternoon, with 44 children present. The hour will be changed from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock, as it is so hot at the earlier hour. Fern Williams, who was active in Girl Scout work in Amarillo, will have charge of a short play time in Lake Park, following the stories. This will take about one hour altogether, as it is very hard to keep the children sitting for more than 20 to 30 minutes for the stories. The hour is from 4:00 to 5:00 each Monday, Wednesday and Friday for this month, at least, and longer if the children enjoy it.

HARD NUT TO CRACK!

every third year. This will greatly prevent blowing. Much can be said about the above program and I ask that farmers, newspapers, merchants, bankers, county agents and chambers of commerce take up the refrain and put the job over.

This article has dealt chiefly with the questions of growing more and more feed but there are other things in the program published on this Farm Page that are of outstanding importance. There is a Balanced Farm Contest in progress, sponsored by the News-Globe and other local concerns and groups in which $1,000 in prizes is being given to farmers who show the most successful balanced farm operation. We should have a thousand farmers in this contest instead of the number we have. We have all to gain and nothing to lose.

A garden for the family is just as important as any other item in this program. The irrigation is the key to success in producing a profitable garden in this region. Meat, milk and poultry products are also important. For the best methods to follow in each phase of agriculture I refer you to your own county agents.

Cutting beds with tile sub-irrigation systems installed have been made by 15 women and eight 4-H club girls in Eastland county to provide places where ornamental cuttings may be rooted in quantity for distributing in the county-wide movement to beautify farm yards. The tile were made at a cost of less than one cent per foot by R. F. C. labor.

Corpus Christi feast, the feast that honors the body of our Lord hidden under the form of bread, is celebrated this year on Thursday, the 15th. A mass was sung at 8 a. m. and it was followed by benediction of the blessed sacrament from the three altars of the church.

Thursday the 13th, feast of St. Anthony, with sung mass in the morning, benediction in the evening.

The Altar society dance was well attended Tuesday last.

The ball game with the local Firemen proved exciting at times, but the final score made St. Anthony's team the easy winners.

First Christian Church

REV. E. R. McWILLIAMS, Pastor

Sunday will be observed as a day of re-dedication to Christ and His church by the members of the Christian church in their morning service. A special service of dedication is planned centering in the communion service.

This should be a time of spiritual deepening through penitent confession of our weakness and lack of loyalty, and through the repledging of loyalty to Christ and his church for the years ahead. It is hoped and prayed that every member of the church residing in or near Hereford, who is physically able will be present to answer when his name is called. All who cannot be present but desire to show their interest are asked to show some member who will answer for them when their name is called. Don't forget to bring a sacrificial offering, if possible, but come with or without the offering. You are wanted and needed.

Be present for Bible school at 9:54.

First Methodist Church

REV. E. E. ROBINSON, Pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 8:30 p. m., by Rev. W. L. Tittle. Young people at 7:30 p. m.

Preaching each day at 10:00 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. during the revival. A cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Meets at I. O. O. F. hall each Sunday morning at 9:30. Attendance and interest growing each Lord's Day. The reading of God's Holy Bible, accompanied by the Comforter that our Master promised to send will touch the hearts of men today just the same as it did on Pentecost.

Our lesson for next Sunday is John 14. Read it, meditate on the words of the Saviour of mankind. Meet with us at the appointed time and place and receive the blessing that awaits you.

By unanimous consent, from now on the ladies are considered one of us and a cordial invitation is extended for your presence, your cooperation in the work of the class, and in a special way your voices in the song service.

Our opening song will be "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." Be on time and join with us in singing this grand old hymn.

Edmond's Farm Plan

(From Amarillo Globe-News.)
EDITOR'S NOTE: The following outline, using a 640-acre farm as a basis, illustrates the program recommended for the Panhandle by the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College, and is designed in keeping with the requirements set forth by the government in granting summer fallow, wheat and spring crop loans. The article following was prepared by John R. Edmonds, of College Station, district agricultural agent:
Livestock.
Fifty per cent of annual income from the farm to be derived from livestock sources.

PASTURE: Native and permanent pasture, 240 acres.

CROPS: Wheat 200 acres (acreage rotated).

FEED CROPS: 200 acres, including oats and barley. Kind of feed crops grown to be governed by kind of livestock kept.

FEED AND SEED: Sufficient seed and feed stored at harvest time for two years supply.

GARDEN: Sufficient garden to produce vegetables and fruits for home consumption throughout the year. Sufficient food crops stored (dried, canned, etc.) for one year's supply.

MEATS, Etc: Sufficient meat, milk and eggs to be produced for home consumption the year thru. Meat to be cured and canned for summer months.

Let it be understood that 640 acres is taken only as a basin on which to work. A prosperous farmer may have 100 or 320 acres, but it should be divided in the same proportion.

It has come to the point in the Panhandle where the farmer who does not maintain his stock on his farm and provide adequate pasture for his livestock along with plenty of feed is going to have hard sailing, and it is going to be almost impossible for him to succeed.

Already we see that one of the greatest wheat producing countries in the world has doubled its spring wheat acreage over former years. In 1932 it had 24,000,000 acres in spring wheat, this year it will be about 50,000,000 acres. If this wheat makes a crop it will affect the world market materially because it will go on the market regardless of price.

The U. S. Government is now making loans in the Panhandle to farmers to reseed their lands in wheat this fall, but the government requires a reduction of acreage over last year. A loan will not be made unless this is done, so why not begin to think about what we are going to do with this surplus land. The only answer is: put it in feed and push this feed through livestock for another money crop. If a farmer sells $3,000 worth of wheat he should sell at least $3,000 worth of livestock products the same year.

There are so many options in livestock that bid us an opportunity for success. Beef cattle, dairy cattle, hogs, poultry and sheep are all suited to the local arrangement. The best thing to do is to see your county agent and have him advise you along the best line to follow under your individual conditions. I could sight many instances where a farmer has taken a herd of 30 or 40 head of beef cows and creep fed the calves along with plenty of good pasture, and had an increase of $1,200 to $1,500.

We are now hinging this whole plan on plenty of feed for livestock. No farmer in the Panhandle should think of making out a farm program for himself without providing a two year feed supply. Then if we have a lean year in feed production he will be able to carry on.

If we own a good horse and don't give him plenty of feed he will not be a good horse very long. The same holds true for a cow or sow, hen or a sheep. Plenty of feed in grain and forage is the foundation of success for the farmer. We know it is sound. The government will not make a loan if we don't promise to produce it. It is certain to make us more prosperous, so let's put the job across.

Another thing: if we do not rotate these lands with other crops now that the country is nearly all under the plow, it sooner or later will blow away or at east blow our wheat so badly that we cannot make a crop. All cultivated land should be broken deep with an implement that turns the soil at least

HOME MAKERS CLASS HAS MEETING LAST FRIDAY

The Home Makers class of the Baptist Sunday school met at the church for their regular monthly business meeting Friday afternoon. After the business session, Miss Mauldin, niece of Mrs. Gordon Engle, of this city entertained with a reading. Games were played, after which Group Three served refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and lemonade to 17 members and 5 visitors, including W. L. Alexander, R. E. McCullough, Ernest Speerle, Tom Majors, Edgar Mosley, Gordon Engle, W. A. Smith, Otto Massie, Walter Easter, Roy Thompson, Earl Lance, Frank Ball, John Renfro, Wood Vaughn, John Harvey and Herman Grey, members; Misses Mary Lou Robinson, Mary Dee Alexander, Lorraine Massey, and Mrs. Mauldin and little daughter, visitors.

In connection with the meeting the class surprised one of their members, Mrs. Frank Ball, with a lovely handkerchief shower. Mrs. Ball is leaving the city and the class regrets to lose her.

Don't forget the next regular monthly meeting and social gathering on the second Friday of each month. Visitors are always welcome.

REUNION ENJOYED BY MANY

A very unusual reunion was held last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Roberson of the Dawn community had as guests the "bunch" who at one time was known among various communities as the Tooslow family. This is the first time that this group has been together in over ten years. Back in the old days the Tooslows were very active in the social affairs of Summerfield and Progressive districts.

Each family took a covered dish or two, and at noon a real old-time chicken dinner with all that goes to make up a real old-fashioned spread was enjoyed.

The "old folks" spent the afternoon talking over old times and eating ice cream. The youngsters spent the time riding horses, tri-cycles and singing.

Those enjoying the occasion were Messrs. and Meses Earl Lance and children, Jeff Roberson and children, Joe Kendall and children, Elmo Lawson and daughter.

It is hoped another ten years will not go by without several of these reunions to its credit. A GUEST.

Imagine When They Get a Sore Neck!

New York City.—The last of the unknown peoples of the earth—the giraffe-necked women from Burma, as they appeared on arrival in New York to appear as one of the attractions of the Barnum and Bailey circus. The women are also known as the Red Karen women of the Karen-Hills Province of Upper Burma. In infancy these women encircle their necks with four or five brass bands, each about the size of one's little finger. As the child grows, a ring is added each year, so that the adult women wear 21 to 25 of the brass bands. This custom has stretched their necks to startling lengths—hence their name of giraffe-necked women.

HOSPITAL LAWN A PLACE OF BEAUTY RIGHT NOW

Hereford has many delightful beauty spots, but right now it would be difficult to find one more appealing than the lawn of the Deaf Smith County Hospital. Cool, refreshing, its green expanse of well kept grass, set off by artistically arranged walks, driveways and trees, almost makes one believe they would welcome an illness which would put them where its beauty could be enjoyed a few days.

All the city's numerous small parks have received unusual care this year, and the results are showing up. These parks cost little money, and there is no investment in which any town may take more pride. If this system of beautification continues it will not be long until these places begin to extend their silent appeals to passersby to linger in Hereford indefinitely.

HOT WEATHER OF PAST TWO WEEKS HARD ON NATIVES

It is a great indoor sport, especially on the part of the old-timers, to call to mind the "coldest days away back yonder in—" but seldom does one hear them bragging about the hottest days. If they have anything pleasant to bring up concerning the past few weeks' hot weather it would be a decided retort to all.

Just a few weeks ago snow was piled up on the streets where now the tar is running in little rivulets. That's the only consolation—if consolation one may call it—that the natives have right now... that and the fact that if we stick around a few weeks longer that same tar will again be frozen.

65,761 NEW CHEVROLET CARS AND TRUCKS SOLD IN MAY

Chevrolet dealers reported the sale at retail of 65,761 new cars and trucks for May for the largest single month's retail deliveries since June, 1931. W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, announced this week.

In May, 1932, the figure was 48,210 units, a gain of 36 per cent, and in April, this year, 53,936 units. Mr. Knudsen said.

Retail sales reported in 1933 for the five months ended May 31 totaled 226,388 new cars and trucks as compared with 209,742 in the like 1932 period, he stated.

Each one of the three ten day periods in May showed a constantly growing margin of gain over the comparable periods of a year ago. Figures as announced by Mr. Knudsen were 17,000 for the first ten days of May this year, as against 12,800 last year, a gain of 22 per cent; 21,800 in the second ten days as against 16,200 last year, again a gain of 34 per cent; and 26,800 in the last ten days as against 18,100 last year.

FRESHYTERIAN AUXILIARY HAS MEETING

The Freshyterian Auxiliary met at the church Wednesday in their regular meeting. Mrs. D. K. Robinson had charge of the afternoon's program. After the program the ladies went to the home of Mrs. Will Carroll for a social hour. Ice cream and cake were served to about 25.

OTRA VE ZCLUB ENTERTAINED

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Brady were hosts to the members of the Otra Vez club and their husbands, at their home three miles east of Hereford.

In the bridge games Miss Floyd Wilson was winner of high score for the guests. Miss Eunice Glibreath taking high for members. Dave McCurdy was consoled with low score.

A delicious salad course was served to Messrs. and Meses. J. Wallace Robinson, T. J. Carter, John Coffee, Roger Corbett, J. C. Parker, J. M. Posey, Dave McCurdy, Misses Floyd Wilson and Eunice Glibreath.

NORTH HEREFORD DEMONSTRATION CLUB

"The floor is the setting of the room and either adds to or detracts from its appearance," said Mrs. Elmer Patterson, as she gave a discussion on floors and floor coverings during the meeting of the North Hereford Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Ed Cox Tuesday, June 13.

Mrs. C. L. Whitehead gave instructions on how to care for floors and floor coverings.

"Rest is the most important factor in the treatment of tuberculosis," said Miss Nell Ayers, as she gave an instructive talk on tuberculosis and its symptoms.

Mrs. Emer Patterson conducted a parliamentary drill on main and incidental motions.

On account of the dress contest being held on the date of the next meeting, it was voted to postpone the meeting until July 3. This meeting will be held with Mrs. Arch Conklin and the program will be on "Farm Pantries." Parliamentary drill will be on motions.

He fed some of this in combination with other feeds to a beef calf which gained 600 pounds in 256 days at a cost of 2.48 cents per pound of gain.

Notice of Proposed AMENDMENT To the Constitution of Texas

S. J. R. No. 3

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be Section 3, which shall provide:

"Section 3. (1) Holding the belief that the highest degree of local self government which is consistent with the efficient conduct of those affairs by necessity lodged in the Nation and the State will prove most responsive to the will of the people, and result to reward their diligence and intelligence by greater economy and efficiency in their local governmental affairs, it hereby is ordained:

"(2) Any county having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more according to the last Federal Census may adopt a County Home Rule Charter, to embrace those powers appropriate hereto, within the specified limitations hereinafter provided. It further is provided that the Legislature, by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the total membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, may authorize any county, having a population less than the above specified, to proceed hereunder for the adoption of a Charter; however, as a condition for such authorization, it is required that notice of the intent to seek Legislative authority hereunder must be published in one or more newspapers, to give general circulation in the county affected, not less than once per week for four (4) consecutive weeks; and the first of such publications shall appear not less than thirty (30) days next prior to the time an Act making proposal hereunder may be introduced in the Legislature. No County Home Rule Charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favorable vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a Charter (unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature) the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept but collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favorable majority of the votes cast within and a favorable majority of the votes cast without such cities and towns, the Charter shall not be adopted. It is expressly forbidden that any such Charter may in any manner affect the operation of the General Laws of the State relating to the judiciary, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems, or any other department of the State's superior government. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the adoption of a Charter provision inimical to or inconsistent with the sovereignty and established public policies of this State, and no provision having such vice shall have validity as against the State. No Charter provision may operate to impair the exemption of homesteads as established by this Constitution and the Statutes relating thereto.

"(3) a. A Charter hereunder may provide: the continuance of a County Commissioners' Court, as now constituted, to serve as the governing body of a county to operate hereunder; or may provide for a governing body otherwise constituted, which shall be elective, and service therein shall be upon such qualifications, for such terms, under such plan of representation, and upon such conditions of tenure and compensation as may be fixed by any such Charter. The terms for service in such governing body may exceed two (2) years, but shall not exceed six (6) years. In any event, in addition to the powers and duties provided by any such Charter, such governing body shall exercise all powers, and discharge all duties which, in the absence of the provisions hereof, would devolve by law on County Commissioners and County Commissioners' Courts. Further, any such Charter may provide for the organization, reorganization, establishment and administration of the government of the county, including the control and regulation of the performance of and the compensation for all duties required in the conduct of the county affairs, subject to the limitations herein provided.

"b. A Charter hereunder may provide that Judges of County Courts (including that County Court designated in this Constitution), and Justices of the Peace be compensated upon a salary basis in lieu of fees. The jurisdiction of the County Court designated in this Constitution, and the duties of the Judges thereof, may be confined to that general jurisdiction of a probate Court which elsewhere is defined in this Constitution. The office of Justice of the Peace may be made either elective or appointive. Other than as herein provided, no such Charter shall provide for altering the jurisdiction or procedure of any Court. The duties of District Attorney and/or County Attorney may be confined to representing the State in civil cases to which the State is a party and to enforcement of the State's Penal Code, and the compensation of said attorneys may be fixed on a salary basis in lieu of fees.

"c. Save as hereinabove and hereinafter otherwise provided, such Charters, within the limits expressed therein, may invest the governing body to be established for any county electing to operate hereunder with the power to create, consolidate or abolish any office or department, whether created by other provisions of the Constitution or by statute, define the duties thereof, fix the compensation for service therein, make the same elective or appointive and prescribe the time, qualifications and conditions for tenure in any such office; save that no such Charter other than as hereinbefore authorized, shall provide to regulate the status, service, duties or compensation of members of the Legislature, Judges of the Courts, District Attorneys, County Attorneys, or any office whatever by the law of the State required to be filled by an election embracing more than one county. Excepting herefrom nominations, elections or appointments to offices, the terms whereof may not have expired prior to such time as a Charter provision adopted hereunder may be in effect (save as to those offices which must continue to be elective, as herein elsewhere specified), all terms of county officers and all contracts for the giving of service by deputies under such officers, may be subject to termination by the administrative body of the county, under an adopted Charter so providing, and there shall be no liability by reason thereof.

"d. Any county electing to operate hereunder shall have the power, by Charter provision, to levy, assess and collect taxes, and to fix the maximum rate for advalorem taxes to be levied for specific purposes, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, provided, however, that the limit of the aggregate taxes which may be levied, assessed and collected hereunder shall not exceed the limit or total fixed, or hereafter to be fixed, by this Constitution to control counties, and the annual assessment upon property, both real, personal and mixed, shall be a first superior and prior lien thereon.

"e. In addition to the powers herein provided, and in addition to powers included in County Home Rule Charters, any county may, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said county, amend its Charter to include other powers, functions, duties and rights which now or hereafter may be provided by this Constitution and the status of the State for counties.

"(4). Any county operating hereunder shall have the power to borrow money for all purposes lawful under its Charter, to include the refunding of a lawful debt, in a manner conforming to the General Laws of the State, and may issue therefor its obligations. Such obligations, other than those to refund a lawful debt, shall not be valid unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by those resident qualified voters of the area affected by the taxes required to retire such obligations, who may vote thereon. In case of county obligations, maturing after a period of five (5) years, the same shall be issued to mature serially, fixing the first maturity of principal at a time not to exceed two (2) years next after the date of the issuance of such obligations. Such obligations may pledge the full faith and credit of the county; but in no event shall the aggregate obligations so issued, in principal amount outstanding at any one time, exceed the then existing Constitutional limits for such obligations and such indebtedness and its supporting tax shall constitute a first and superior lien upon the property taxable in such county. No obligation issued hereunder shall be valid unless prior to the time of the issuance thereof there be levied a tax sufficient to retire the same as it matures, which tax shall not exceed the then existing Constitutional limits.

"(5) Such Charter may authorize the governing body of a county operating hereunder to prescribe the schedule of fees to be charged by the officers of the county for specified service, to be in lieu of the schedule for such fees prescribed by the General Laws of the State; and, to appropriate such fees to such funds as the Charter may prescribe; provided, however, no fee for a specified service shall exceed in amount the fee fixed by General Law for that same service. Such Charters as to all judicial officers, other than District Judges, may prescribe the qualifications for services, provided the standards therefor be not lower than those fixed by the General Laws of the State.

"(6) a. Subject to the express limitations upon the exercise of the powers by this subdivision to be authorized, such Charters may provide (or omit to provide) that the governmental and/or proprietary functions of any city, town, district or other defined political subdivision (which is a governmental agency and embraced within the boundaries of the county) be transferred, either as to some or all of the functions thereof, and yielded to the control of the administrative body of the county. No such transfer or yielding of functions may be effected, unless the proposal is submitted to a vote of the people, and, unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature, such a proposal shall be submitted as a separate issue, and the vote within and without any such city, town, district, or other defined governmental entity, shall be separately cast and counted, and unless two-thirds of the qualified voters cast within the yielding defined governmental entity, and a majority of the qualified voters cast in the remainder of the county, favor the proposed merger, it shall not be effected. In case of the mergers hereby authorized, without express Charter provision therefor, in so far as may be required to make effective the object of the proposed merger, the county shall succeed to all the appropriate lawful powers, duties, rights, procedures, restrictions and limitations which prior to the merger were reposed in, or imposed upon, the yielding governmental agency, particularly, it is provided that the power to create funded indebtedness and to levy taxes in support thereof may be exercised only by such procedures, and within such limits, as now are, or hereafter may be, provided by law to control such appropriate other governmental agencies were they to be independently administered. Such mergers may be effected under proposed contracts between the county and any such yielding governmental agency, to be approved at an election as hereinbefore provided for. In order to increase governmental efficiency and effect economy the county may contract with the principal city of the county to perform one or more of its functions, provided such contracts shall not be valid for more than two (2) years.

"b. In cases of the partial or complete merger of the government of a city operating under a Home Rule Charter, with the government of a county operating hereunder, those city Charter provisions affected thereby shall cease to control, and the county Charter provisions shall control.

"c. When any embraced incorporated city or town elects to merge its governmental functions with those of the county under the provisions hereof, such Charters may provide for defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, provided, however, that in defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, such boundaries may be extended only to include those areas contiguous to such cities as are urban in character; and as to such cities or towns and for the benefit thereof the county, in addition to the primary city and county tax herein authorized and any other lawful district tax, may levy and collect taxes upon the property taxable within such city or town as defined or redefined, within the limits authorized by Sections 4, and 5 or Article XI of this Constitution, (or any Amendment thereof) for incorporated cities according to the population, provided that no tax greater than that existing at the time of such merger or for any added purpose shall be imposed upon any such city or town unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by the resident qualified voters of such city or town.

"d. Areas urban in character though not incorporated, under appropriate Charter provision may be defined as such by the governing body of the county, provided, however, that no portion of the county shall be defined as an urban area unless it has sufficient population to entitle it to incorporate under the then existing laws of the State; and no such urban area, when created, shall be vested with any taxing or bonding power which it would not possess if it were operating as a separate incorporated unit under the then existing Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this State; and provided further that the governing body of the county for the government of such areas shall have and exercise all powers and authority granted by law to the governing bodies of similar areas when separately incorporated as a city or town, and such areas shall be subject to additional taxation within the same Constitutional limits as control taxation for a city or a town of like population. Likewise such Charter may provide for the governing board of the county subject to existing Constitutional and statutory provisions to define, create and administer districts, and have and exercise the powers and authority granted by the Constitution and laws relative to the same.

"7. No provision of this Constitution inconsistent with the provisions of this Section 3, of Article IX, shall be held to control the provisions of a Charter adopted hereunder, and conforming herewith. Charters adopted hereunder shall make appropriate provision for the abandonment, revocation, and amendment thereof, subject only to the requirements that there must be a favorable majority of the vote cast upon such a proposal, by the qualified resident electors of the county; and, no Charter may forbid amendments thereof for a time greater than two (2) years. The provisions hereof shall be self-executing, subject only to the duty of the Legislature to pass all laws (consistent herewith) which may be necessary to carry out the intent and purpose hereof. Further, the Legislature shall prescribe a procedure for submitting to decision, by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon, proposed alternate and elective Charter provisions.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"For the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

"Against the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein." Each voter shall scratch out one of the above listed clauses on such ballot, leaving unscratched that particular clause which expresses his vote on the proposed Amendment to which it relates.

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election in conformity herewith to determine whether or not the proposed Constitutional Amendment set forth therein shall be adopted, and the Governor shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

LOW PRICE CARS VS. CHEAP CARS

We do not build a low-price car: the cost to us of building our car is pretty high.
But we do sell a high quality car at a low price.
Almost every new Ford V-8 car we have built so far this year, has cost more to manufacture than its selling price was. As you buy them at only $490 to $610, we have to depend on increasing volume to make up the difference.
The reason for this is simple: — a manufacturer who gives good value must expect to lose money on the first cars he sells because he cannot charge all his costs to the people who are first to buy.
But with the purchaser it is different — he cannot afford to lose anything on a car. It must give him full value from the first, and keep on giving him full value for years.
Two things make possible our combination of low prices and high cost quality:

1. Volume Production
2. Taking only one profit

First, we set our price at what would be fair to the public on the basis of economies we enjoy in volume production. Then, in order to justify and maintain our low price we must get volume sales.
Thus it comes that a car which is really high-cost to make, is also low-cost to buy.
There is a difference between a cheap car and a low-priced high quality car.
Ford prices are always fixed at a point which makes it profitable for a customer to buy.
Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller. And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one.
It pays us to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it.

FROM THE WORLD'S FAIR

Chicago.—Travel and Transport building and dome. The dome is larger than that of St. Peter's or the Washington Capitol. The roof is formed of metal plates suspended by steel cables hung from a circle of 12 steel towers and anchored by huge slabs of concrete. It is 125 feet high and 200 feet across, without a single arch, pillar, beam or other support to break its expanse. Expansion joints permit the plates which form the roof to slide over each other, as change in temperature, wind velocity, rain or snow load cause differences of as much as six feet in the circumference. The hall at the right is 1000 feet long, and windowless.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Williams reached home Saturday afternoon after a week's visit in Gainesville and Hico. They were accompanied by Gainesville by Mrs. Williams' father, W. T. ### CITY LEAGUE into right field, the right fielder let it get away from him, and Wilson pulled up at third, scoring Clayton and Sowell. Foster singled, scoring Wilson, and Foster was out at second. Young came up and bunted one that looked like a twin to the one this Loerwald boy hit Sunday, but Ferris was after it and made a beautiful catch to end the game.

Brook, firemen catcher, led with the wood, with three licks for three times up, one being a double. The Odd Fellows made three doubles, which is not bad for the first game of the season. The Midgets and Lions lock horns Wednesday afternoon.

We didn't see it all, folks, but when we got there the score was 16 to nuthin, and the firemen had not been to bat!!! It seems the firemen made a couple of tallies in the first, and the Catholics came back two in the second. In the second the Catholics made three and the fireman made none. In the third and fourth the Catholics made none and the firemen garnered three in the third and five in the fourth, and it looked like a game on ice, the score being 10 to 5 in favor of the firemen. But these old boys from the forks of the creek came to bat in the fifth, and did they slaughter this fire outfit? Some player would walk, another would get on some way, then some guy would hit one to the creek and get the pitcher out of the hole, and when the firemen finally crossed three men out, the Catholics had 11 runs in one inning. The firemen made one run in their half and the score stood 16 to 11 in favor of the Catholics.

The firemen filled the bases in the sixth, but couldn't get one across, and the Catholics just made eight more in their half of the sixth. The firemen filled the bags again in the seventh but could only score one run, and the game ended 26 to an even dozen.

Russell and Witherspoon carried the load for the firemen, and G. Loerwald chunked for the Catholics. Seems like this team is almost half Loerwald, and did they get the scores? G. Loerwald, the pitcher, got three licks and four runs for five times up. L. Loerwald, second base, got five free trips to first, and four runs in six times up, and E. Loerwald, first base, got two hits and three runs for six times up. T. Loerwald, left field, walked five times, made four tallies for six times up. Four Loerwalds made 15 runs, two being circuit swats, in one seven inning game!!!

M. Koezler and McCall also hit for the four bases. Never saw anything like it, folks—these old boys can hit a ball further than an Arizona cow puncher can ride a horse. The firemen outfield finally grabbed some bicycles, the pitcher got a box to jump behind after he threw the ball; the score keeper ran out of paper and wore out two pencils; the umpires fainted away.

Anyway, Roger Corbett walked up in the fourth inning with six men on, struck out his chest or something and hit one over the south wall (we call the creek the south wall), and every man came in. Rod said he just wanted to show those old boys how to hit one—and he did, cause after that the Catholic boys did their stuff.

In the first half of the seventh some fireman pitcher struck out the first man up and had two strikes on the next batter, E. Loerwald, and the third one was a slow ball, and did this bird hit it, or did he hit it? It sailed over pitch, over second, over center, over the south wall, and we think over Dimmitt. Never saw a ball hit as hard. Folks, that was a lulu, an elephant's eyebrow—at least it was a home run, and no one argued about that.

Anyway, these old Catholic boys can bust the apple and I don't mean maybe. If you play with them throw the ball behind them and pay the umpire plenty and you might get them out. And, folks, they are a dandy good bunch of sports as well as ball players.

A. Russell led the firemen with the stick, led two doubles and three singles for five times at bat, and Angelo with three singles and

Sale of Tickets Assures World's Fair Special

Through a cleverly arranged schedule, those who go from Amarillo to the World's Fair on the all-expended tour sponsored by Wilbur Hawk, will have one full day and night, one whole afternoon and five entire evenings at their own disposal in Chicago.

The Santa Fe special leaves Sunday, June 25.

More than half of the minimum quota for the trip has been pledged in only four days and the maximum number of passengers will have made reservations long before the deadline, June 23, it is believed by those in charge.

Wilbur Hawk has appointed Mason King as tour manager.

Any information about the trip will be supplied by Mr. King or Miss Lois Black at the News-Globe.

Reservations may be made by paying not less than $10 down and the balance by June 20. Many of the vacationists, however, are paying the full amount in advance. After the special train leaves Alva, Oklahoma, there will be no stops except at terminal points and the vacationists will be in Chicago just 22 hours after leaving Amarillo.

By fast train time those on the trip will have six of the eight days in Chicago. The schedule and all arrangements have been planned carefully for the convenience of the patrons. Everything is furnished for the one price, $75 from Amarillo. And "everything" means transportation, all meals at the best eating places, lodging at one of the best hotels, souvenir admission to A Century of Progress exposition, two steamship cruises on Lake Michigan, a big league baseball game, theatres, sightseeing trips and other features.

Mr. Hawk, experienced in planning tours and sponsor of the Mexico City special of two years ago, has declared this trip, June 25-July 2 if one of the finest ever offered the people of the Panhandle. Every city and town in the Panhandle and points as far away as Carlsbad, New Mexico, are already represented by reservations. The News-Globe good will tour will be economical, educational, entertaining and exciting.

IMPROVED PASTURES PAY GOOD DIVIDENDS

College Station.—Texas may become a land of rich pastures with cattle on every hill and plain if pasture demonstrations promoted by county farm demonstration agents are heeded by the mass of farmers, says R. H. Bush, special agent in the Extension Service at Texas A. & M. College.

A detailed study of 72 of these pastures in the eastern half of Texas shows that average improvements on 62 of them costing 71 cents per acre, gave grazing last year worth $10.86 per acre. Two acres pastured an average of one beef cow or its equal 305 days per year without additional feed. Improvement consisted of in the main of clearing out surplus timber and underbrush and controlling weeds. The average size of these pasture demonstrations was 43 acres.

In 10 woods pastures averaging 190 acres, where part of the trees and unnecessary brush was cleared out and no other improvement made owners found that it took five acres to pasture a beef cow or its equal and that they made a net return of $3.33 per acre. The cost averaged 21 cents per acre.

In the 10 best demonstrations where at least six kinds of adapted clovers and grasses were sown in addition to weed control and clearing trees and underbrush, an average net income of $90.58 per acre was made at an improvement expense of $1.91 per acre. One acre of this type of pasture furnished yearly grazing for an average of two beef cows or their equal.

"These 72 demonstrations show about what a man can expect to get by improving East Texas pasture lands," says Mr. Bush. "For partly clearing up woods pasture to give native grasses and clovers a chance, he should double or triple the value of his pasturage. By spending a little more and controlling weeds he may expect to multiply the value of his native pasture about ten times. If he goes still further and in addition sows adapted grasses and clovers he may expect to get back $15 or more for every dollar spent in improvements. To prevent overgrazing in dry summers and to permit better reseeding, permanent pastures should be supplemented by sowing sudan grass for temporary summer pastures."

WELLS WILL BROADCAST SECOND VIRGINIA PROGRAM

On Wednesday night, June 21, American radio audiences may tune in on the second Continental Oil Company broadcast of the season to be dedicated to the nation's most historical state—Virginia.

The numberless bits of history and scenic descriptions included in the program will be combined into one colorful story and presented by Carveth Wells, well known explorer. Wells himself claims that he is almost a Virginian because his father was a resident of Bermuda, Virginia, Wells adds, is just as famous outside of the United States as it is within the States.

The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners who tune in on station WFAA, Dallas, at 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock p. m., June 21.

Pioneer Plains Minister Dies at Wellington

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Wellington for Rev. H. M.

Bandy, 78, pioneer West Texas Minister.

Rev. Mr. Bandy was the second pastor of the First Christian church in Hereford, serving from 1900 to 1904. He was the first regular pastor to serve the Amarillo church following its organization in the early '90's. He served as pastor of that church several years, and was prominent as a leader in building up the church organization and congregation.

This veteran minister organized the first of the Christian churches at Lubbock, also at Globe, Arizona, and was instrumental in the organization of the first churches at Valentine, Marfa and Alpine, Texas. He was one of the three men who marked the original town-site of Lubbock.

Rev. Bandy was born in Dallas county on November 17, 1854. He died at his home in Wellington Monday morning. He is survived by his widow, and two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Jones and Mrs. Walter Hicketts, and a number of grand children, who are well known ### in Hereford, and to many of the old-timers.

Mrs. W. M. Megart, a niece of Rev. Bandy, left Monday night for Wellington where she attended the funeral services.

It is said that surplus milk has been poured on the ground by many a Palo Pinto county farm this spring, and that perfectly good butter made well-nigh worthless by low prices has been made into soap on some farms. These practices have stopped on 800 farms where the home demonstration agents report the housewives successfully making cheese out of surplus milk.
