HEREFORD IS HOST PICNIC AT THE PARK

FRIENDS OF THE PARK GATHER AND DISCUSS POSSIBILITIES.

EXTOL THE SITE

Speakers From Many Towns Declare Project One of Great Merit.

Stockholders, friends and well wishers of the Sulphur Park Club grounds proposition gathered at the Park on Thursday afternoon for a fish fry and social meeting. Judge and Mrs. L. Gough acted as hosts. A number of out-of-town people were invited guests while Hereford friends were on hand to greet the visitors in generous numbers. But Joe L. Pope, editor of the Amarillo News, who was present, tells the story in such a graphic way in the News that it is reproduced herewith:

"Friends gathered from various points in the Panhandle-Plains country this afternoon and evening for a fish fry and general feast in the justly celebrated Sulphur Park, that is at this time being transformed from a farm and pasture proposition, under the management of Judge L. Gough, to a preserve and outing ground in which participation will be general.

"Judge and Mrs. Gough were joined in the function by the men and women of Hereford. These supplemented the supply of fish with fried chicken, ham and many delicious viands, presenting a bill so varied and so complete as to make irresistible appeal to the hungry visitors.

"Early in the evening some of the visitors indulged in a cooling plunge in the glassy Tierra Blanca. Little journeys were made over the property and friends of other days spent the time pleasantly in chatting over the glories of the park and delights of its setting.

"Then 'supper' was called, and after W. H. Pogue of Amarillo invoked divine blessings on the diners, the onslaught began. Great measures of crisp, brown fish and other arrays of edibles were the points of attack, all the way through down to the angel food cake, and sweet, dripping watermelons.

"High Gough again called for order and introduced Judge J. D. Hamilton of Farwell, who, in his inimitable style, spoke of Judge Gough, this Panhandle-Plains Country, and finally of Sulphur Park as a beauty spot around which the people of this matchless territory may gather for many of their future seasons of contact. Judge Hamilton recounted the early days of the Panhandle, of his acquaintanceship with Judge Gough, and of the pleasures of the present occasion. He predicted unlimited success for the park campaign, and expressed pleasure at being permitted to be a shareholder in the proposition.

John M. Adams of the Plainview News was the next speaker, and through his utterances were reflected the sentiments of friendship entertained for Hereford and the park proposition by Plainview people.

"Ray H. Nichols of the Amarillo Tribune spoke pleasantly of the desirability of the park proposition, and stated that he was convinced of the oncoming success of the movement. Tributes were paid to the Panhandle people, and a future glowing with richest possibilities was pictured.

"D. L. McDonald, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, declared strongly for the park, and said that it is the only river in the world, so far as he knows, that never disappoints those who advertise a fish dinner and then go out and take the fish to make the hot good. He remained with the outstanding character of the stream, and spoke convincingly of the future greatness and desirability of the park.

"Joe L. Pope, of the Amarillo News, was introduced as a man well known to Hereford people. He said that although this was his first visit, that he is in favor of the proposition of the movement now under way, to create a congregating point for the people of this section of the state. The speaker declared that it is a herald sign, indicating the permanency of citizenship, which the people discover and begin to emphasize the beauties within their own gate.

"W. H. Pogue of the First National Bank of Amarillo, was the last speaker introduced, and made an informal talk touching the park scheme, and appreciating the character of citizens in this portion of the state. He then called attention to the fact that the United States has seen fit to close its doors to undesirable visitors. This was done as a matter of self-protection for this nation, and he strongly intimated that there be needed additional safeguards against the intrusion of foreign and undesirable blood into the United States.

WAITING TO GOBBLE IT

Ten Cases "Old Scotch" Grabbed by Bovina Man

Ten more cases of Old Scotch, two cases of alcohol and one case of beer have been seized in this section, this time in Farmer county, near Bovina. The officer who made the haul was Deputy Sheriff Press Abbott of Bovina, and the arrest was made Monday. A Stevens roadster containing two young men and the hooch was snared by the alert officer just before sundown. The men were given an examining trial before Justice of the Peace at Farwell and their bonds set at $500 and $1000. One of them made the bond but at last reports the second man was still in jail. It was a Stevens roadster that got away the night Sheriff Parcell made his memorable haul here in the spring. Reckon it was the same car?

Gentler Sex Beat Hustling Firemen to Friday Blaze

Even the ladies of Hereford are catching the infectious spirit of efficiency now rampant in Hereford's volunteer fire department. Anyone that mingles with that bunch of hustlers for any length of time absorbs the logic or whatever it is that Chief Rockwell has instilled into the bunch. An alarm was turned in Friday morning that John Williams' house was on fire. A young lady visitor at the Williams home, alone at the time, phoned the news to the Mounts home and Mrs. Mounts phoned the fire department. Mrs. Leonard Davis, wife of the truck driver, received the message. Instantly Mrs. Davis was on the job. She woke up the town with the signal right now and then started to frantically crank the engine, although the switch was not on. The boys almost had to take her from the truck when they arrived. The bunch arrived at the Williams place in a jiffy—but again a member of the fair sex had beat 'em to it. Miss Sena Mae Mounts had hiked across lots, promptly kicked in the glass window to the basement, seized the garden hose, made a record connection, and flooded that basement before you could wink an eye. Not entirely sure that her work was finished the intrepid young lady poked her head through the broken window to size up the situation just as the firemen arrived. When she straightened up outside her face was blackened with the smoke and fumes until she was almost unrecognizable and she was considerably embarrassed when the boys laughed at her. But she had put out that fire alone and there was little left to be done. The blaze started when the water heater in the basement became too hot and ignited the woodwork nearby. The entire basement was in flames for a moment. Probably nothing but Miss Mounts' quick presence of mind saved a disastrous conflagration. As it is little permanent damage will be sustained. Chief Rockwell declared after it was all over that he intended to look into the matter of organizing a Ladies Auxiliary to the Fire Department—they are setting so hot a pace for the boys that such a scheme seems unavoidable.

Small Boy Fractures Skull Falling From Tower

Toliver Thurmond, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. French Thurmond, fell from the windmill platform of his home Wednesday a week ago, broke an arm at the elbow and otherwise battering himself up. His arm was set and the first examination of the bump on his head convinced the physicians that it was nothing serious. However, the bump later showed signs of developing trouble. The boy was taken to the sanitarium last Wednesday and a second examination showed that his skull was fractured. An operation was performed on the skull to remove blood clots, and at last reports the little fellow is reported to be doing nicely.

WILEY ROBERSON MARRIES LAMESA GIRL AUGUST 31

Wiley Roberson and Miss Linnie Mae Donald of Lamesa, Texas, were married at the home of the bride on August 31. The young couple arrived in Hereford Wednesday and will live on the J. H. Wagner place northwest of town. Household goods were being moved out Friday. The bride is a niece of Charles Donald of Hereford and the groom is a son of J. P. Roberson of Hereford. Wiley has countless friends here who are congratulating him upon his good judgment.

In closing reference was made to his endorsement of the park proposition. "All of the speakers were received with enthusiasm, and the Hereford people and visitors expressed themselves as delighted with the function. Prominent among the communities represented were Amarillo, Plainview, Farwell and a number of the smaller places. Those who participated were: Judge and Mrs. J. D. Hamilton of Farwell, W. H. Pogue, J. L. Pope, R. H. Nichols and Tony Chisum of Amarillo; J. M. Adams and daughters, Miss Sadie Earl, Leslie Randolph, George D. May and Roy Perry of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Oberthier and two daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Mrs. Ben Allen, Homer Wilkinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, J. D. Bowers and wife, A. H. Elliott and wife, E. S. Ireland and family, E. H. Ramsey and wife, D. J. McDonald, Mrs. McDonald and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Lowther, J. Frank Potts and family, Arch Collins, E. T. Evans, Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, Mrs. Florence Miller, Miss Johnson, Miss Ethlyn Cockerell, Mrs. C. R. Smith, Geo. L. Mose, E. B. Pusey, Mrs. S. T. Shore, J. L. Pogue, Mr. and Mrs. Seth B. Holman.

Miss Edna Elliott Wins Reward For Preparation

Announcement of the recent appointment of Miss Edna Elliott, daughter of Mrs. E. B. Elliott, of this city, to the head of the surgical department nursing staff of Colgin Hospital and Clinic, Waco, Texas, has been received by her family. This appointment carries with it the responsibility of supervising the nursing of surgical cases in one of the largest and best hospitals of the state and is of special significance in that Miss Elliott completed her training only a few months ago and is much younger than those to whom such places are ordinarily assigned. She has already entered upon her duties.

MR. AND MRS. C. H. DYER LEAVE FOR FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dyer left Hereford Wednesday morning for Robinson, Ill., Mr. Dyer's old home. A family reunion of the Dyars is planned for the near future and Mr. Dyer stated that he was looking forward with eager anticipation to seeing members of his family from whom he had been separated for years. He expects to be away about a month.

"ROAD-RAZER" MEN HERE TO ARRANGE A DEMONSTRATION

Agents for the Avery "Road-Razer" were in Hereford Thursday arranging for a demonstration of their machine before the county and city officials. Owing to the sickness of Judge Megert and the absence of Mayor Knight, who is in court at Plainview, the exact date for the demonstration will not be known before Monday.

McQUEEN GIRLS GO HOME AFTER NICE VISIT TO FRIENDS

Misses Hazel and Mabel McQueen returned to their home at Canyon Monday after a visit with Hereford friends. They were accompanied by Miss Eloise Pitman, who with Miss Hazel will spend the remainder of the week with friends in Amarillo.

MISS GRIFFITH URGES ATTENDANCE

OF PARENTS AS WELL AS PUPILS AT OPENING SCHOOLS MONDAY.

STORES CLOSED?

Suggestion Made That Such Move Would Add Greatly to Right Beginning.

It is desired that the Senior and Junior classes of the High School report to the High School building on Saturday at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of enrollment and also to obtain text books for their respective grades. Superintendent.

To the Mothers and fathers of our boys and girls:— I take this method of speaking to each one of you of what concerns most at the present time.

On next Monday morning at 9 o'clock we expect to begin our school work for the coming year, and we desire so much that you be with us for our opening at the High School building, and then, on Wednesday morning for the formal opening at the Central building. I feel that so much depends on this "first day" with all of us, and what an inspiration to the teachers and pupils alike will your presence lend.

Many of the instructors this year are strangers among us yet, and it is due them that we get acquainted with them early, and give them a hearty welcome to our town. Then, too, your boys and girls will be so happy to have father and mother go with them to school the first morning.

What would give Hereford a greater boost than for the business men of Hereford to close their doors and suspend business for one hour for the school opening next Monday morning. Mothers, too, won't you give us one little hour?

We teachers feel that we are engaged in the greatest work on earth and we want to serve you well. To do this, we must know each other well, and more, we must work together. The school board has labored hard and long the past months to place our school buildings in good condition, and also to fill each place in the faculty with the teacher best suited for the assigned position.

I feel that every thing is ready and that the outlook for a good school the coming year is very promising. We are having a great teachers' meeting in Canyon (now Wednesday) over seven hundred teachers being present. The help and inspiration we are receiving here will be a great aid to every teacher in his or her work the coming year.

Parents, and everyone interested in the future of our boys and girls, let us begin Monday and give them our first thought, and plan for them all along the coming school year.

Your Superintendent, Millicent Griffith.

Rice's Wheat Is Selling Rapidly for Seeding Only

That good seed, summer tilling and concentration on quality rather than on quantity pays is now being demonstrated by S. J. Rice who is disposing of Kanred wheat he raised this year at good prices for seed.

Thursday Mr. Rice shipped a carload, about 1,000 bushels, to Temple, Texas, for planting in that section. He is being swamped with requests for seed to be used locally. The local grain men told him they did not want to handle his wheat except for seed purposes.

While many others were making poor yields this year Mr. Rice's well prepared ground and choice seed was standing up with the result that it panned out about twenty three bushels to the acre. Concerning the value of Kanred wheat M. B. Oates, agricultural agent for the Ft. W. & D. C. Ry., has this to say:—"The past season Kanred wheat has outyielded other varieties in Ford County from three to five bushels per acre. In the section around Amarillo, it has surpassed other varieties from three to five bushels and in almost every instance it has at least equalled other varieties. It is so promising that it ought to be tried in every wheat county in northwest Texas."

"Kanred wheat was first grown in 1906 by the Kansas Experiment Station. It is a selection from Turakey Red therefore, the name Kanred. It is a hard winter wheat. For several years it was tried out on many Kansas farms and nine times out of ten it outyielded other varieties.

"The distinguishing characteristics of Kanred wheat are high yields, high milling quality, hardness, heavy staling, resistance to drought and rust and stiffness of straw. The last, stiffness of straw, is important because it stands up much better after ripening. Also there is less loss from shattering. Kanred is injured less by winterkilling heavily that it may be seeded thinner than our common varieties.

"It has been so carefully selected and improved that its characteristics are well fixed so that comes true to type."

Brand to Secure Popular Science For Our Readers

They used to say that "money makes the mare go!" No longer true. Science makes the mare go. And money itself also works for science now.

It is amazing how rapidly science has become the rule of the world in the first two decades of the 20th century. To cap the climax, science, far more than human hands, fought the greatest war in history.

Science governs our lives nowadays from the cradle to the grave. The most successful food raising is governed largely by science. We raise our babies more scientifically. Our schools are now scientifically run. Our homes are full of scientific inventions, our tools of industry are scientifically manufactured and our amusements are marvels of science.

This prelude is to introduce our readers to a new enterprise which this newspaper is about to present to its readers as a regular feature of our news columns. Through our representative, the Autocaster service, we have made special arrangements with the Popular Science Monthly, one of the country's leading informative magazines, to print simultaneously with that journal, illustrated features of the latest and most interesting facts in current science.

Popular Science is a careful and accurate collector of scientific news of the highest interest, and it pays thousands of dollars a month for the features that this newspaper has arranged to print simultaneously with it. Our readers will now share with Popular Science readers in these interesting, entertaining and educational features.

ANNUAL CONVENTION CHRISTIANS AT PAMPA, 12-14

The Pampa church has extended a most hearty invitation to all members of the Christian Church in the Panhandle to come, accept their hospitality and together all consider the work of the church in this great territory. An excellent program has been prepared and able speakers from over the Panhandle and outside will discuss various phases of the Church life and activity. It is expected that several from Hereford will attend.

HOG CHOLERA PREVENTION BEATS CURE

VETERINARIANS WARN OF DANGER CAUSED BY CARELESSNESS.

DISEASE IS HERE

Several Cases Reported Near Here. Vaccination Best Preventative Found.

Hog Cholera, that rare disease on the Plains, has appeared in spots around Hereford of late and the Brand is informed by Dr. Bows and Dr. H. F. Lanham of Amarillo, who are working on the matter now, that unless the farmers and stockmen wake up and take preventative measures some serious losses are likely to result.

The Plains are known far and wide at the section most free from hog disease. But there is no country on earth entirely free from disease of man or animal where common sense preventative methods are not used.

The veterinarians are busy isolating different cases here and there, vaccinating, urging a clean-up of all infected places, and recommending that all owners vaccinate at once and avoid risks. Some men think that because they live several miles from the nearest herd of hogs they are safe. This is not true. Dr. Lanham says, as the germs travel and disease breaks out in the most unexpected places. Neighbors loan hogs to each other and that adds to the danger.

In short both Doctors Bows and Lanham urge all hog owners in this vicinity to quit swapping hogs temporarily, isolate all hogs that look sickly, thoroughly clean up the premises and above all—vaccinate every head as soon as possible.

John McFarlin Sent Back Home From Sanitarium

John McFarlin has been discharged from the Mayo Brothers Sanitarium at Rochester, Minn., and has gone to his old home at Liberty Hill, Texas, to await the verdict of time. This information was contained in a letter from the Mayo Clinic to Dr. Pries, dated September 6. The letter says:—"We are pleased to report that Mr. McFarlin has convalesced sufficiently to return home, and we are today dismissing him from our care. While we look for some improvement the ultimate prognosis is of course guarded." Other words the inference is left surgical skill has done all it could. Mr. McFarlin and the future question that no man can foretell. Mr. McFarlin's many friends will be delighted to hear that this much encouragement is being held out.

INSURANCE MAN IS APOSTLE OF OPTIMISM TO COWMEN

Clarendon Ions, general adjuster for the Crayens, Dargan & Roberts Company, Insurance, attended to business matters here Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Ions, whose headquarters were formerly at Amarillo, and who keeps in constant touch with financial conditions, prophesied Thursday that the market for steers would be around $70 very shortly.

Mr. Ions was urgently requested to stick around Hereford indefinitely and keep making that speech, but smilingly stated he had to hurry on.

Bridge Luncheon for Miss Dunlap
Another of the delightful social events that for the past week have centered around Miss Clara Dunlap, charming bride-elect and winsome friend of all, was the bridge luncheon and shower of Tuesday whose hostesses were Mesdames Seth B. Holman, Arch Collins, and Albert Herbst.

The very pretty affair was given at the home of Mrs. Holman. At eleven o'clock the guests were ushered into a room made exquisitely lovely with a floral decorative scheme carried out in baskets of yellow nasturtiums the pretty treatment obtaining in all of the receiving rooms.

Five tables of players found interesting diversion in the club game after four rounds of which, cards were removed and a daintily appointed three course luncheon was served. Following out the decorative idea, a silver vase of exquisite nasturtiums was an attractive embellishment on each of the six luncheon tables and hand decorated score cards were cleverly suggestive of the going away bride.

Following the luncheon a "shower" of tea towels was bestowed upon the bride, Mrs. Herbst most happily representing the club in an informal presentation.

As a special courtesy to Mesdames Tom Blain and A. G. Monday who are soon leaving for permanent residence elsewhere, and to Mrs. R. T. Evans whom all Herford so gladly welcome after a continued absence, each was made the recipient of a guest prize, the bride also being honored in this way.

Only Club members and a few other guests attended the charming function.

Surprise Dinner Party Honors Mrs. E. H. Shore

A delightful dinner party complimentary to Mrs. E. H. Shore was among the pleasantest of the week's social happenings.

The occasion celebrated the birthday of the honoree and was planned and arranged without her knowledge, her daughters, Misses Lollie, Helen, and Dorothy Shore, prevailing upon their mother to spend the morning in company with Miss Ethlyn Cockrell, a special guest for the day and whose birthday also fell upon that date. This gave ample opportunity for making the dining room and living room as beautiful as befitted the occasion with garden flowers used in profusion and very tastefully arranged.

Just at noon the large party of guests arrived each bringing something to add to the elaborate dinner. The beautifully laid table with its array of daintily prepared dishes presented a most attractive appearance when the honoree was invited to assume her place as hostess. The appetizing spread was served cafeteria style permitting just the freedom and informality which occasions genuine pleasure, the menu included delicious dessert of fresh strawberry ice cream, cake, and watermelon.

The afternoon was spent socially with music from the victrola and piano and was thoroughly enjoyable throughout. Guests of the happy event were: Mesdames Geo. Muse, W. H. Russell, A. Foster, J. J. Clark, A. H. Ellis, J. C. Cummings, W. R. Steckman, E. Guthrie, Carl Cockrell, C. R. Robinson, E. M. Vanderburg, George Gar-Ty Habermacher, M. R. Corbett, J. Alden; Misses Grace Lucas, Ethlyn Irell, Elizabeth Corbett, Ruth Elliston, Joyce Corbett, Thelma Oglesby, and Margie Bolden, and babies Foster Russell, Betty Jo Cockrell and Ruth Smith.

Miss Dunlap Honoree of Kitchen Shower

Again, on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Clara Dunlap was the inspiration of one of the most charming of the week's parties when Mrs. C. A. Skelton and Miss Douglas Wilson entertained with a "kitchen shower" in her honor at the home of Mrs. Skelton.

Dahlias and nasturtiums were charmingly combined to form the motif of a beautiful decorative design shown throughout the receiving rooms where five tables of bridge provided delightful diversion.

At the close of the games, Miss Dunlap was presented with the guest prize, a huge basket heaped high with a varied assortment of kitchen utensils such as are especially dear to the feminine heart.

While the guests enjoyed with the bride the pleasure of looking through the many packages, the tables were arranged for a daintily served salad course.

Honor guests of the pretty function besides the bride-to-be were the Misses Doane, of Chicago, and Mrs. Roberson of Rosebud, Texas, who is the house guest of Mrs. W. F. Gabbert.

McLean-Dunlap

A beautiful climax to a week of brilliant social affairs precluding the event, was the McLean-Dunlap wedding solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Thursday morning, when Miss Clara Inez Dunlap became the bride of Mr. Myers Bobo McLean.

A marked simplicity characterized the wedding arrangements—a simplicity eloquent with beauty. Just the cheery home atmosphere of everyday, accentuated by the pretty decorations; the rooms thronged with friends of both bride and groom; and all crowned with the radiance of a perfect morning. Vases of asters in varied tints of pale pinks combined with those of pure white shed their loveliness throughout the rooms. The vine wreathed archway connecting the living room and music room showed through its bordering lattice work, the same pretty blossoms and marked the spot set apart for the ceremony. In the dining room the wedding gifts of handsome silver and cut glass, beautiful household linens, and attractive kitchen appointments were displayed.

At nine-thirty, with Mrs. Monday at the piano, Mrs. John Williams sang very sweetly the pre-nuptial "Because," its final strains gliding into those of the wedding march from Lohengrin to whose silvery rhythm the bridal pair came unattended down the open stairway and stood before the waiting minister, Rev. M. M. Beavers, pastor of the Methodist Church, who read the solemnly beautiful service using the ring ceremony.

Following congratulations, an ice course in pink and white was served.

The bride wore a handsome tailored suit of navy blue with fur trimming, harmonizing accessories and corsage bouquet of asters completing a most becoming costume.

These young people represent a high type of citizenship—a high standard of manhood and womanhood. Both are cultured, capable, genial and with a rare faculty of winning friends. The bride is a graduate of Herford High School and of Southwestern University of Georgetown, her excellent equipment giving her prominence in intellectual activities. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean, of Clarendon, and a brother of John McLean, of this city. He is junior member of the firm of Jones and McLean, grain and coal dealers, and is recognized as a young man of excellent business ability and strict integrity. He has also the distinction of being one of Deaf Smith county's honored soldier sons.

The young couple left in their car immediately following the ceremony, for San Angelo where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return to Herford to reside and will occupy the Dunlap property on College street.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean and Miss Wilma McLean of Clarendon, parents and sister of the groom, and Mr. E. C. Brodie, professor of literature in C. I. A., at Denton, a brother of the bride.

Afternoon Party Honors Misses Doane Dameron

A week of social gaiety has scheduled nothing prettier or pleasanter than the delightful afternoon given Thursday by Mrs. C. C. Ferguson as a welcoming courtesy to the Misses Katherine and Virginia Doane of Chicago, and as a formal goodbye to the Misses Dameron who have since left for Washington, D. C.

Garden flowers in a riot of beautiful color and delicious fragrance gave special attractiveness to the pretty home where at four o'clock the guests were welcomed by Mrs. A. M. Jones.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Ferguson, Misses Bertha and Frances Dameron, Misses Katherine and Virginia Doane, Miss Clara Dunlap, Miss Dene Dunlap, Mrs. A. G. Monday, Mrs.

Luther Hough, Miss Phetis Campbell and Miss Bertha Wear, to these the guests were introduced by Mrs. W. E. Dameron.

Forty-two, the chosen diversion, assumed unusual interest, several rounds of the game proving especially entertaining. A delicious ice course marked the close of a most enjoyable afternoon.

Remember That It—

Won't be long now
Before the maize and kafir crop
Will be ready
To give up the ghost.
How are you fixed
For handling this harvest
And getting it out of the way
While the grain is right
And the weather's right?
How about a
McCormick or Deering Corn Binder
Or maybe a Kafir Header?
If you haven't got
One of these machines
You can't be sure of anything
When it comes to Harvesting a big row crop.

We are prepared to help you make a success of your harvest. See us.
