

THE RAILROAD PROBLEM

The consolidation of railroads is one of the most vital current problems. Under the Esch-Cummins Law, the Interstate Commerce Commission is now engaged in working out a plan for putting all the railroads into a few systems. The President of the United States in several speeches advocated railroad consolidation. A member of his cabinet, Secretary Hoover, wants the government to buy the roads so that they may be put together and then resold to whomsoever might want to buy them. Senator Cummins of Iowa wants to compel consolidation.

Commissioner Walter Slawn of the Railroad Commission of Texas has been asked by his associates to represent the Railroad Commission. He has also been requested by commercial interests of Texas to act for their interests in the matter of consolidation now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Commissioner Slawn has prepared a series of brief articles in which he traces the development of this movement toward consolidation, states the arguments that have been made in its behalf and against consolidation, gives an account of the work of the Interstate Commerce Commission and its efforts to put the roads together in a few systems, and discusses the objections to such consolidations as have been proposed.

ARTICLE IV

Texas and the Consolidation of Railways

The tentative plan which was put out by the Interstate Commerce Commission about two years ago in order to provoke criticism and to encourage the roads and the public to come before the Commission and give testimony, or as the lawyers would say, to make a record, upon which the Commission could base its findings, proposes that Texas should be served by four systems, the Santa Fe, the Southern-Pacific-Rock Island, the Missouri-Pacific, and the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt. The people of Texas, both those favoring consolidation and those opposed, have objected to these proposed systems. It is felt that if the Rock Island be given to the Southern Pacific that the Southern Pacific may lose interest in Texas ports upon the Atlantic seaboard and that we may not have in Texas water compelled rates as in the past.

Communities like Port Arthur object to the proposed Missouri-Pacific combination because the Missouri-Pacific is financially interested in New Orleans, and since the Kansas City Southern is given in the tentative plan to the Missouri Pacific, Port Arthur fears that the Missouri Pacific would route its tonnage to New Orleans and would not be as much interested in developing Texas ports. The tentative plan of consolidation proposes to give the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway to the Santa Fe. This is objectionable to most of the people served in Northwest Texas by these parties. Heretofore, as new counties and areas have developed on the Plains in the Northwest part of the State, the Santa Fe and the Denver, each has constructed a feeder of short line to protect its interest in the territory. If the Denver should be given to the Santa Fe, there would no longer be any incentive to build these short lines for all of the freight whether it should go east or west by truck would have to go out, or be brought in on the Santa Fe. If the Santa Fe owned the Denver, the Denver is now owned by the Burlington interests, which also own a half interest in the Trinity & Brazos Valley. The Burlington interests want to come into and across Texas to the Gulf and they strenuously object to being deprived of the Denver and losing their outlet to the Gulf of Mexico. It would certainly be of advantage to Texas to have a strong system like the Burlington come into the state as a competitor to such properties as the Santa Fe.

The Frisco, the Katy and the Cotton Belt are parallel and competing lines out of St. Louis and Kansas City into Texas points. The consolidation of these roads will eliminate competition that has long existed and will not constitute a system strong enough to stand up by the side of the Union Pacific, the Burlington, or the Southern Pacific, or Santa Fe. That is to say, such a system would merely perpetuate the problem of the weak road, for rates that would be sufficient to sustain the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt would bring undue prosperity to the strong systems of the West and rates that would bring a fair return to the strong systems would bankrupt the weaker Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt system.

The people in the Southwest part of Texas are also strenuously opposed to the consolidation of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass with the Southern Pacific.

Since Congress has commanded that the Interstate Commerce Commission prepare this plan for consolidation, and since there are powerful financial interests and political interests that are opposing any modification of the law, and since we do not know what the Courts will finally hold with reference to its constitutionality, it is necessary that we in Texas play safe, that is, we must get from the Interstate Commerce Commission as favorable a plan as possible, for the plan put out by the Interstate Commerce Commission may possibly be sustained and under it the railroads may consolidate in spite of all the opponents of consolidation may do. That being true, Texas is demanding of the Interstate Commerce Commission very radical changes in its tentative proposal. For example, it is (Continued on Last Page).

TUESDAYS—TWICE-A-WEEK—FRIDAYS

29th YEAR, NO. 64.

HEREFORD, DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUG. 31, 1923.

REQUIRES 17 UNITS HERE TO GRADUATE

SUPERINTENDENT DILLEHAY STATES WHAT WILL BE ASKED

EXAMINE FUTURE

Pupils Should Study the Subjects Best Fitted To Work in Life

Superintendent C. H. Dillehay of the Hereford public schools has prepared the following statement of the requirements for graduation from Hereford High School, which should be of material aid to pupils this year in selecting their courses of study:

"Seventeen year units or the equivalent thereof are required for graduation from the Hereford High School. These seventeen units must include the following: four units in English, two in algebra, one unit in plane geometry, three units in history and the social sciences including American History and Modern European History, two units in science including one year of the first two sciences offered. A foreign language will not be required for graduation but any student who has a possibility of attending college should take two units in a foreign language unless he knows that the college of his choice does not have the foreign language requirement of two units for entrance, as do most colleges.

"Students who expect to go to college should be sure to take all of the fifteen affiliated units demanded by the college of their choice for unconditional entrance. A list of entrance requirements of various colleges of Texas will be found in the office for the use of those who desire to learn the entrance requirements of any college. The student should make a tentative selection of his courses for the four years of high school early in his high school career in order that he may have a definite plan to follow and that he may have a plan that can be executed. In a general way, selections should be made in accordance with the natural inclinations of the pupil, his talents and his plans for the future. He should not select a course because it promises to be easy but he should select a course that offers the best return on his investment of time and best prepares him for his chosen line of work.

"Pupils preparing for the different professions should, besides getting a broad, general foundation, select those courses that will aid them most in their special line of work. For example, pupils who expect to become physicians should not neglect the biological and physical sciences; pupils who expect to become engineers should take a large amount of mathematics and physical sciences and some mechanical drawing; those who desire to study law should major in history and the social sciences and should take, preferably, a foreign language.

"Ordinarily a pupil will choose subjects from the year of his classification but it is permissible with the consent of principal or superintendent to choose a subject one year above or one year below the pupil's classification. Pupils who fail in any course must give precedence to making up his work in that course over any work of a higher year. Irregularities in course should be studiously avoided and immediately rectified.

Number of Subjects

"Ordinarily a pupil will take subjects or four and one-half credits, the half credit being secured by taking a course that continues through the year. If a pupil desires to take additional work to that mentioned above his request will be granted on condition that he has made an average of 85 per cent or better on four subjects already taken; but in case his grade in any subject fall below 76 per cent, he must drop the additional subject. A pupil must demonstrate his ability before he will be allowed to take an unusual amount of work. It is far better to do thorough work in four subjects than to get a smattering knowledge of more than four subjects. A senior may be permitted to take five and one-half credits if he needs that many to graduate, but in no case may a senior take more than five and one-half credits; he may NOT take six credits one term and five another term but the half credit must be some subject that continues through the year on which a half credit is offered. Seniors must take not less than four subjects during their last year.

Spelling

"Spelling will be given each day from 8:45 to 9:00 and will not be required. Those who have already had three years of spelling will be granted a (Continued on Last Page).

Labor Day to be Celebrated With Double-header Baseball Game in Afternoon and Fracas at Night

BASEBALL TEAMS FROM NAZARETH AND VEGA WILL MEET FIRST, WITH HEREFORD'S TEAM-BATTLING WINNER LATER

Band Concert Will be Given to Aid Fracas

Music Will be Offered Before and During the Various Bouts. High School Boys With Firemen to Stage Number Good Boxing and Wrestling Cards, Pole Vault

Labor Day, Monday, September 3, will be celebrated in Hereford with a double header ball game in the afternoon, if present plans go through, and with a Fireman's Fracas at the Stock Pavilion in the evening.

The first ball game planned will be between the Nazareth and Vega teams, and afterwards the Hereford team will take on the winner. Both Nazareth and Vega have strong aggregations and the scrap between them should be worth the price of admission alone.

The Fracas is being staged jointly by the Firemen and the members of the Hereford High school football eleven, which will leave Tuesday for preliminary physical training near Canyon. The net proceeds from both the ball games and the Fracas will be used first in defraying the cost of equipment for the football boys.

Programs are always more or less changeable, but up to Friday the card for the Fracas showed five short boxing bouts, two wrestling contests, a competitive pole vault and a Battle Royal between five. All of the contestants are local boys, practically all of them members of the football team. In addition to this a special band concert, under direction of L. F. Borden, will be given before and during the athletic activities.

The double attraction in the afternoon and at night are expected to draw good crowds, especially as they fall on a national holiday, and it is all in a good cause. Make your plans Monday afternoon and night to take in the festivities and get your money's worth in watching clean, healthful recreation and physical activity.

Ott Bros. Secure 5 Blooded Gilts To Improve Stock

Five beautiful Poland China gilts arrived from McLean, Texas, Friday consigned to Ott Bros. Hog men who viewed them stated that the animals were "a sight for sore eyes."

The five gilts were purchased for Ott Brothers by H. S. Hilburn of Plainview, field man for the Southwestern Poultry & Swine Breeder, at the Jack Jones auction sale at McLean Wednesday. Two of them are of the champion Liberator strain and the other three have pedigrees that are very interesting.

Ott Bros. now have about 200 high bred hogs on their ranch, but keep adding new blood from time to time whenever they can find something really worth while.

Friday afternoon it looked like a heavy rain was falling to the south and indications are for continued showers.

IMPORTANT MEETING ON NEXT MONDAY

HOSPITAL COMMITTEE TO MAKE REPORT OF FINDINGS

NEW OFFICERS

Life of Organization Will Depend Upon Selection of Progressive Men

Two exceedingly important matters are on the program for the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held at the City Cafe next Monday at noon. First, the Hospital Committee, appointed several weeks ago and who have been studying the question since and accumulating data, will make their report. Secondly, it is the date for the annual election of officers for the organization.

The hospital question is one of the most vexing and troublesome ones that has faced the community in years. This committee has taken plenty of time and should submit something upon which the people can base their conclusions. It is a matter of vital concern to every resident of this community and will undoubtedly attract the attendance of many thinking men not ordinarily among those present at these dinners.

Upon the selection of proper officials to conduct the work of the Chamber of Commerce depends the very life of the organization. The Hereford Chamber of Commerce holds a unique record among similar organizations over the country. For four years it has held together steadily, through good times and bad, without any ballyhooing, without any revivals, without any "drives", maintaining its membership and its list of accomplishments by virtue of steady daily work and the weekly luncheons. The luncheons have been the secret of the successful four years, and without them the organization would suffer at once.

Good men who are willing to sacrifice some of their time to the general welfare are needed to "carry on" for another year. Without them Hereford will be leaderless and unorganized for commercial and agricultural progress. With them she will go forward steadily in organized community effort for better things.

If you are interested in keeping Hereford in the vanguard for another twelve months come to the luncheon Monday.

RICHARD LLOYD JONES SAYS

Be of Single Purpose

It is a common practice to blame the world for our individual faults and failures. Nothing is more futile than to criticize circumstances. Discontent should be commended, but discouragement condemned. Strong men are never satisfied with their achievements nor content with their opportunities. Great men are ever eager to do greater things. The conqueror triumphs because he has learned how to concentrate effort. Talent is worthless when latent. Talents must be applied to be grown. Knowledge is nothing unless used. More information is never the equivalent of action. The man who picks up knowledge and has no idea what to do with it is as helpless as a man in a canoe without a paddle. Get a goal. It is the first essential in making a life good. A single purpose is the first essential of success. Who wants what he wants when he wants it and wants it bad enough to go after it and keep after it will usually get it. Every man is given brains and a backbone with the idea that he will use both. You develop your muscle by contracting it in the application of its power. You develop your mind by concentrating it on the mastery of a single subject. You cannot spell and multiply in the same breath. Concentration as contraction is a cultivated quality. Some of our greatest inventions have been born in the distracting din of machine shops, but where all other activities were lost to the mind and hand that were fixed on the pursuit of a single thing. The determined mind defies hindrances as a trained racer will hurdle handicaps. Resistance is essential to development. You do not sharpen your chisel by drawing it across velvet. The keen edge comes only when ground against the flinty stone. The soft soul never tackled the hard job. History has been molded and made by men who had an idea and were willing to endure whatever confronted them in their effort to reach that idea. Put yourself to work to do some worthwhile job and stick to it until it is done. That is the only way to win the success that satisfies.

Poem by Uncle John

The biggest tax we have to pay, ain't levied on our oats an' hay, nor saddled on our farms. . . . The dread exactions of the law may strip us till we're feelin' raw, but these are trivial harms. Our taxes may be bigger'n roas'-and take the widder's last red cent, an' grow with frenzied pace. . . . The sheriff may attach our polts, an' drive us off to somehwere's elze, -but that's a minor case.

It's nothin' less than truth, to say, the heaviest toll we have to pay-is on-perverted brains. . . . We pay a blame sight heavier tax on Caliban and Sycorax, than on our fertile plains. We hardly ever hear 'em quote the penalties of green-horn vote, -so deaf we seem to be. . . . It costs a sight of coin fer schools, but forty times as much fer fools, an' rascal strategy!

the open Bible await you.

RICHARD LLOYD JONES SAYS LEADERSHIP

Senior classes in all the colleges and high schools are now on what might be called the home stretch of their academic careers. After their concluding these examinations and celebrations they face the world; they confront a world that needs men and women trained in mind and body; but they confront a world which needs leaders.

Every business enterprise, every political party in town, county, state or nation, every political and economic idea, every branch of scientific endeavor and every religious movement looks to a leader.

Many a student before he reaches his senior year has learned how to concentrate and apply his own mind; he has learned how to acquire; he has stored power in himself. But he may do all this and be a pathetic failure in the world. High class-room standing never made any man great. That which does make a man great is the power to give others power.

Just to think out an idea will never advance the idea. Not until you have thought out and then fought out the idea have you made a contribution to the world. Columbus could not prove in Spain that the world was round. To do this he had to take disbelievers with him and with them fight the vast seas.

Darwin thought out the idea of world creation and evolution as he observed the sluggish forms of lower life on the teeming banks of the Amazon. But he spent a decade to convince himself that he had found a truth, then he fought through a full and busy life to convince the world that the truth he found was of use to the world.

Resolve to do something, then find something to do. If it be something new make it of use to many. By so doing you take your place among the leaders of men. If it be something old and tried that you do, do it better than it was ever done before, and by so doing show others how best to do it. Then again you lead. Both your name and your labors will endure beyond those of temporal heroes, who triumph only in the selfish successes of the hour.

Translate your information into inspiration and aspiration. So equipped, go to it. DO and then you win.

The Baptist Ladies Missionary Society met with Mrs. W. A. Tate Tuesday afternoon in their regular meeting. As it was Mrs. Tate's 65th birthday the society surprised her with a handkerchief and postcard shower. Several of her neighbors and friends were invited to meet with us and they brought various kinds of gifts also. To make the occasion more enjoyable and a greater surprise, Mrs. Tate's daughters, Mrs. C. J. Mapes and Mrs. Edwin Ramey and daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Cleve Tate, Mrs. Tom Tate, Mrs. Edna Tate, served ice cream and cake for refreshments. The Missionary program, as well as the refreshments and social hour, was enjoyed by all present and all wished "Ma" Tate many more birthdays just like this one. Those present were: Mesdames J. E. Turner, J. D. Duree, Jr., Oscar Ayres, W. T. Gollehon, J. W. Carter, N. J. Lovelace, C. H. Buttolph, B. D. Woodlee, B. B. Easter, Tom Tate, John Bell, Ester Noble, C. C. Mauldin, J. S. Lockhart, Mayes Miller, C. J. Mapes, Edwin Ramey, Cleve Tate, Edna Tate and W. A. Tate, hostess.

Mrs. R. A. Patton entertained Saturday afternoon with a party honoring her son, Billie's, fourth birthday. The home was beautifully decorated in garden flowers. The color scheme was carried out in Billie's favorite colors, purple and orange, which made the home very attractive. An elaborate basket of various kinds of fruit was presented by little Johnniebeth Tate, which made a delightful centerpiece for the dining table.

Miss Edna Galle and Miss Viola Peters taught the children many games during the afternoon, one of the features enjoyed most by the little folks was the kodak snaps made of them around the birthday cake with the four small lighted candles.

Very interesting readings were rendered by Billie Patton, Nina Lee Green and Johnniebeth Tate. About fifty-thirty delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following: John Henry O'Neal, Elizabeth O'Neal, Nina Lee, Alton and Madge Green of McAllister, N. M., Dossa May and Robert Ramey, Johnniebeth Tate, Madaline and Eugene Galle, Virginia Elliott, Miss Edna Galle, and Miss Viola Peters. The mothers and friends present were Mesdames Cleve Tate, Leonard O'Neal, Roy Green, Fred Galle, R. A. Patton, Edwin Ramey, Mayes Miller, H. J. Norwood, J. W. Alexander. As the guests departed for their homes each was presented a favor. The children were given King Tut dolls and the grownups, the King parasol.

Billie received many beautiful and useful gifts as a token of love from his friends on his fourth birthday.

On Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, a great watermelon feast was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tate and children, Mrs. N. J. Lovelace, Uncle John Kilgore, Mr. Boone Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Ansley and children, and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Woodlee and son, Brooks. Several large and deliciously sweet melons were cut, one weighing over fifty pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Turner have been entertaining relatives from Oklahoma and Texas, Mr and Mrs. Burros and children of Tipton, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Bently King of Tipton, and Mrs. W. J. Slover of Lubbock, Texas. They returned home last week.

Mrs. I. Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Grant and children, John Hacker are visiting in the home of I. D. Grant in Snyder, Oklahoma. They drove through in their car and expect to be away a week or ten days.

Misses Mildred Woodlee of Dimmitt and Lillian Cash of Canyon are visiting in Lockney this week in the home of a friend, Mrs. Estes Woodburn. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hardy and children are spending a few days in Lubbock.

Miss Viola Peters, who has been visiting in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mayes Miller, for the past three weeks, returned Sunday evening to her home in Chickasha, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLean and children motored to Lubbock Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Helen Hodges.

Dr. and Mrs. Mayes Miller visited in the home of Dr. Miller's sister, Mrs. George Doubleday, in Amarillo Sunday and Monday.

Messrs. Joe Elliott, Frank Easter, Joe Hastings are in Lubbock this week. The Methodist Missionary Society met with Mrs. Mayes Miller Wednesday afternoon. The 6th and 7th chapters of Acts was the Scripture reading.

Etiquette

What to do it
By A. Leda

Any questions on etiquette will be gladly answered in this column if addressed to A. Leda, care of this newspaper.

Dear Aleda: Is it proper for a young lady to invite a gentleman who has taken her out in the evening into her home? (2) If the parents have retired? (3) If they are still up? (4) Does the hour make any difference?—Thank you, C. P.

The hour is the whole thing. For an example, suppose a couple have gone to an early movie and are home by nine-thirty—then the girl may invite the boy in whether her family have retired or not. If, on the other hand, they have gone to a picture from which they return at eleven, she should not extend an invitation to enter. A gentleman calling usually concludes his visit between ten-thirty and eleven. Never later than eleven.

HELPFUL HEALTH HINTS

Splinter in the Skin. A needle will usually remove a splinter from your skin. First wash hands in soap and hot water and pass needle thru a flame to avoid possible infection. If this is not successful, try a pair of pliers.

Poison Ivy—Is a very treacherous plant. You may handle it at one time with no ill effects and the next time be severely poisoned. A good treatment and simple one is this: Wash the inflamed skin in boracic acid solution in water, followed by smearing some ordinary zinc ointment on the skin. Cover this with a thin cloth. The ointment should be washed off daily, using lime water. The skin should then be dried, and carbolized vaseline as an ointment applied. A good old-time remedy is made by putting a penny in some vinegar and use this as a frequent wash.

Cramps—A cramp is often caused by indigestible food or by cold, especially if one gets overheated in hot weather. Never drink a lot of cold water after some strenuous exercise, as this will often cause a spasm of the intestines and is quite dangerous. Soda mints or better yet a little hot water with a bit of syrup of ginger can be taken. For a mild cramp a hot water bottle placed on the abdomen will often give relief.

The same-day she canned a beef for Elmer Dixon. Cleo canned the only beef in Castro last year, the only hog, and beef thus far this year. Now to give you some idea of the Demonstration meeting at Cleo we will give you the four days program. On Monday at the Cleo Schoolhouse they made dress forins, dress making, cutting patterns; Tuesday morning, at the home of Mrs. Rippy, a large number of women and a few men present, the Demonstrator showed us something about culling chickens. You have some chickens in your flock that may lay two or three eggs a year. This lady can pick them out for you. Tuesday evening at the schoolhouse, millinery and sewing, which includes inverted pockets, bound button holes, decorative stitches; Wednesday at schoolhouse, canning vegetables and chickens; Thursday, at the home of Fred Galle, and entire hog was canned for Mrs. Rippy in the morning; in the afternoon a beef was canned for Elmer Dixon. The surest and safest way to conserve meat is in the cans; steak, roast, stew, chili, soup stock, hamburgers, pork chops, roast, and sausage, all ready for the table. So when you get hungry, just come to old Cleo Saturday night and Sunday.

Opinion of Uncle John

Only a little courtesy—that didn't cost a cent—a thing I've carried with me nearly everywhere I've went. . . I know I didn't use it when I could, as well as not—it's a powerful lame confession, but—blame it—I forgot!

Only a little courtesy—but there ain't no nobler debt,—which we better pay it promptly, or we're flirts with regret. . . for, to slight a feller-mortal is, to fling a pizen dart, either thoughtless or a purpose—it is sure to strike the heart!

Only a little courtesy—an' yet, how much it means, in its intimate relation to the way affection leans. . . It's a mighty happy challenge at the sentry-post of love, if we'd battle in the spirit of the angels up above!

road, distributing the load more evenly and giving 28 percent more contact. This decreases wear and increases life. 10 to 30 Percent More Cord Mileage
By reducing needless bulk and building a perfectly balanced flexible cord, Miller added 10 to 30 percent more mileage per cord tire. The supple Miller Geared-to-the-Road Cords outserve the old stiff tires.

Buoyant Carcass—Uniform Cords
Millers combine the advantages of flat tread and uniform construction with the buoyant road-resisting carcass. Prove their superiority on your car.

Miller Tubes
When you want real tire satisfaction, use Miller Cords with Miller Tubes. The Miller countersunk valve does away with troubles from leaky valves. A tough fabric inserted in the valve base, which is vulcanized in the tube, eliminates danger of tearing valve out.

Shaped to Fit Tire
Built circular shaped to fill the roomy Miller carcass. Constructed ply on ply, they have the maximum strength, toughness and resiliency.

Rob's Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs".

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel known to the drug trade as "Calotabs". Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headache and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening quality. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—doesn't all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

What Makes a Tire Wear Out

A study of causes that lead to the greatest tire improvement in recent years!

Most cord tire trouble is due to separation between the layers of cords. Heat, caused by friction from constant bending and flexing, destroyed over 80 per cent of 30,000 tires of all makes, examined in the Miller laboratory!

Important discoveries by Miller experts have reduced this danger to a minimum in Geared-to-the-Road Cords, Miller Flat Top Tread

Miller originated the flat tread that eliminates a large percentage of the bending and flexing that ruins a round tread tire. It rides squarely on the

Mrs. Housewife: This newspaper will publish "Helpful Hints" in this form at regular intervals. We suggest you clip this column and paste it in your recipe book.

Quick Hanger—In an emergency a newspaper rolled up tight and tied in the center with a loop to hang up by makes a good substitute for a dress hanger.

Meat—Did you know that paper absorbs juice? Well, it does, therefore always remove any before putting your meat away.

Grease Spot—To remove a spot of grease from wallpaper. Rub the place with a piece of flannel dampened with alcohol.

Cooking Eggs—A spoonful of flour added to the grease in which eggs are to be fried will prevent them from sticking as well as breaking.

Eliminating Moths—If you have no moth balls, sprinkle your clothing with turpentine. The moths will not come near them.

Varnish Stain—A varnish or shellac spot on clothing may be removed with alcohol.

To Sour Milk—If desirous of souring some milk just add a few drops of vinegar.

Match Scratches—Disfiguring marks on woodwork, made by scratching matches, will disappear if rubbed with a cut lemon.

Dyeing—Next time when dyeing with a cake variety of dye, use a soap shaker as sieve. It keeps undissolved particles of dye from spotting the clothes. Saves time and protects the hands from dye and hot water.

Cleaning Parchment Lamp Shades—If one wishes to clean their parchment lamp shades take any good polishing cream and put it in a soft cloth. Rub a small part of the shade and then rub off with a moist cloth. Repeat this until the shade has been gone over. You will find that your shade remains clean for a long while.

Hot Tea or Coffee Stains—Soak the stained fabric in cold water. Let it remain about twenty minutes, then wring out and pour a few drops of glycerine on each stain. After it has stood several hours wash well with cold water and dry. The stain will disappear.

BEING thicker, the famous Good-year All-Weather Tread carries you farther than other treads. And it carries you in greater safety, too. The big tough sharp-edged blocks cut deep and grip tight on any surface. They are the best tire insurance against skidding you can buy.

SPRING LAKE Axtell-Cleavinger

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Axtell, when their daughter, Miss Gladys, was united in marriage to Mr. Norman Cleavinger, with Rev. John Peyton of Friona officiating.

The home was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns.

The bride wore a lovely kinkle-net dress of a beautiful shade of blue. The bridal couple entered the rooms to the strains of "The Fairy Wedding March" played by Miss Beulah Cleavinger, sister of the groom.

Following the ceremony a delicious two course supper was served to the guests who consisted of the immediate families of the bride and groom. The couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Mr. Cleavinger is a graduate of Southwestern College of Winfield, Kansas and has grown up from childhood in this community, and is well known and esteemed by all. Mr. Cleavinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cleavinger of Spring Lake. He has had several years of college and University work and for the last few years has been doing successful farming near here.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends on their farm one and a half miles southwest of Spring Lake.
