Speaking of "There's nothing new under the agricultural sun in Deaf Smith," as we were last week, Leslie Neal dropped by to tell us that in 1917 he and his wife were invited to a dinner at the D. L. McDonald farm north of town, and the McDonalds served their guests from a loaded table, food which was entirely grown on their farm. There was beef steak, potatoes, tomatoes, green beans, lettuce, carrots, onions, radishes, corn, and a few other vegetables. There was also milk, cream, butter and eggs, also from the McDonald farm, which proves the point about far sighted pioneers.

The High School annuals are out, which explains the groups of school kids that collected all along Main Street and began automatically whipping out their fountain pens and squealing, "Oh, sign mine." There are pictures of all the "Hereford Herd," by classes, club personnel, sport shots, faculty members candid camera shots and special pictures of selected personalities. In the school colors of white and maroon with leather bindings, the books are 112 pages of memories for the kids to cherish.

The big Policeman's and Fireman's Benefit Ball will be held Friday night at the Ford Building and its going to be a family affair. Doors open at 8:30 p. m. and bring the kids to see the show because there's going to be a big square dance contest followed by a jitterbug contest, according to the fireman and policeman who are promoting the entertainment. Prizes will be awarded by local merchants. After the contests are over, there will be dancing to Rip Ramsey's orchestra. It's a dollar, stag or drag.

Sidelight on a news highlight: When Rev. Don Davidson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, walked off with his license at the Lions Club parley Wednesday at noon, and got his photo made as "Prize Winning Liar," R. C. McGilvray made a big point of telling Brand staffers he sure wanted a copy of that picture to send to the bishop in Dallas. No comment.

Tomorrow is Straw Hat day, so men, be prepared. Even notice how a hat gets to be a trade mark, like Al Smith's brown derby, Anthony Eden's black homburg, Byron Nelson's checked cap and the cowboy's ever ready Stetson? In this modern day and age there's a cap for every occasion, including town wear, casual wear, farm wear, army wear and even a Tryoleon hat for the mountain-climbing and yodeling boys and spring wear means straws. Some hats are really versatile. The ten gallon pressed felt may serve as a drinking bucket and for flagging a neighbor, the G. I.'s steel bucket was a chair and a wash pail and even the magician's topper double-duties as a rabbit hutch.

But back to strictly straws. Did you know that the most expensive Panama hats come from Colombia and Ecuador, not Panama? Panamas are made from finely divided shreds of immature, unopened leaves of screw pine and it takes 55 hanks of pine grass from 21 to 31 inches long to weave a hat. The best straw for hats comes from Italy, China and Japan, but the super straw is raised in Tuscany, Italy. Actually the straw that you'll purchase tomorrow and wear proudly all summer is made out of a variety of wheat, so it should feel right at home on the heads of Hereford. The straw is cut while the grain is still in the milk stage, bleached in sunshine and dew, whitened with sulphur fumes and braided into that hat.

Rev. Don Davidson Awarded Prize As Lion's Best Liar

As a result of the famous Liars Contest held Wednesday, the Hereford Lions Club has dubbed Rev. Don Davidson "The Biggest Liar in Town." Rev. Davidson was unanimously chosen winner by judges Jimmie Gillentine, George Graham, and Hal Blymiller after an hour long session in which Robert Thompson, Bill Warren, Jim Kirby, Grant Fuller, and Urlin Streu vied for the honor. Reward for the prize-winning tale was "A Fisherman's DeLiar," a little gadget with scales which will weigh up to eight pounds, and tape which measures 24 inches.

Reassuring his listeners as to the truth of his story, Rev. Davidson began: "I was conducting a meeting down state one time—maybe I'd better not name the place. I was supposed to sleep in the parsonage, but I couldn't. Something kept biting me all night, and I just couldn't sleep. There was a fellow down at the drug store in the town that I had known before. I went down there and said, 'Joe, you've got to help me. I simply haven't slept a wink on account of the bedbugs at that place. What can I do about them?'"

"Well, Joe had only one suggestion to make—'Buy a jar of Vicks salve, and just rub it all over,' he said. 'That'll keep 'em away.' Well, I decided I'd just as soon have bugs as that Vicks all over me, but that night the same thing happened again. Next day, being half dead from lack of sleep, I went to the drug store and bought the biggest jar of Vicks salve they had in stock. That night I covered myself with the stuff from head to foot, then went to bed. Not a thing happened for a long time, and then, just as I was drifting off to sleep, I felt a nibble on my heel. Nothing else happened until I was almost asleep again, then I felt a nibble on my knee. I thought to myself, 'Now that fellow's really had a taste of the stuff, he'll leave me alone.' So I went off to sleep—suddenly I was awakened by a big commotion in the room, and a loud cry. I came to my senses, rubbed my eyes open, and there sitting on the bed post was the biggest bedbug I ever saw. He

Commissioners Name Weigher And Tax Amusement Machines

County commissioners met Monday to appoint E. L. Lawhon, county weigher, to set a date for the joint meeting of parties interested in the proposed new road for the north part of Deaf Smith, and to agree to tax marble machines and nickelodeons.

Lawhon was named county weigher when Alton Fraser appeared to ask for the appointment of such an official. Lawhon has been the government inspector on the flour milled by Fraser for some time, and this was one of the qualifications which figured in his appointment.

The county has been without an official weigher for many years and millers and elevators believed that such an official would facilitate their getting claims through better with the railroads.

His job is to inspect periodically the scales of the six elevators throughout the county, and commissioners believed he would probably appoint a deputy at each elevator to check these scales and would oversee their work. He will be paid a salary of $25 a month, and elevators will be asked to pay the county for this service.

Also at Monday's gathering, eight farmers from the north-west part of the county appeared to plea for the opening of a proposed six miles of road in that area. They presented their arguments, but no official action could be taken owing to the fact that there was no quorum of commissioners present. G. T. Higgins and John I. Morris were the only ones who attended the morning session.

At the last meeting farmers antagonistic to the idea appeared to present their case, so the next meeting date, May 23, has been designated as the time at which parties interested in either side of the question may appear to submit their debates.

The Commissioners agreed to tax the nickelodeons and marble machines in the county. According to the law, the county can tax half as much as the state taxes these boxes. County attorney O. L. Bybee says marble machines are taxed $30 a year by the state money which goes into the state school fund. They will be taxed $15 a year by the county and the money will go into the general fund.

Nickelodeons will be taxed $1.35 a year. This money will be collected through the county tax assess-

Highway Commission Hears Hereford Men

A group of Hereford men will appear before the State Highway Commission at their May meeting in Austin next week to seek definite commitments on just how much financial aid the commission will grant on the proposed farm to market paying projects.

The plan under consideration by the county representatives calls for a hundred miles of paved farm roads throughout the county, exclusive of the Highway 51 and Harrison Highway project.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schroeter will leave today for Austin and will attend to other business matters enroute, meeting the Hereford delegation in Austin on Monday. Schroeter is chairman of the county project.

On Sunday Ezra Norton, Jim Witherspoon, O. P. Cowart, Clarence Morrison, and Troy Moore will drive down to be in Austin for the meeting early Monday.

sors and collectors office and will be effective as of June 1 according to that office. The matter of taxing these boxes was brought to the attention of the commission by J. T. Quinn, commissioner of Precinct 3.

QUESTION of the WEEK

Why do you think people drink so much coffee?

Sam Nunnally: I think it's like this, people just develop an urge to drink coffee. It's a habit with them. Then every day at that particular time they just simply have to go out and drink coffee. Why, in the store at home we used to have regular times to go, once in the morning and twice in the afternoon and then it got so people were so much we had to take a coffee pot out of stock and make our own. Then they didn't drink so much; I guess people like just getting out as much as they like the coffee. Its an excuse for getting away.

Lucille Drayns: Seems to me the reason people drink so much coffee is that it is just a past-time with them.

Joe Reinauer: Well, now, that is something I have always wondered, too. People do drink an awful lot of coffee, without ever thinking about it. Suppose the reason they drink so much coffee is because there are no bars on Main Street?

Marvin Kearns: People certainly don't drink just because they are thirsty. All I know is that is just must be a habit with some people, anyhow, in this town that's a 64 dollar question.

Cecil Guseman: People drink coffee the same way they drink Cokes or anything else. It gives them something to do; it's a social gesture. They collect in a crowd and instead of standing around chatting they decide they'd rather sit down and talk so somebody says "How about a cup of coffee," and that's the reason people drink so much.

Farm Bureau Stress Needs For Greater Organization

The Farm Bureau needs a larger membership in Texas to make it more effective in lobbying for farm legislation, said Austin Crowover, official of the Texas Farm Bureau, when he spoke to Bureau members assembled here Tuesday night for a general meeting.

Crowover was one of the officials who outlined the importance of Farm Bureau organization to the 80 people who attended the steak dinner sponsored by the local bureau.

Members and their families gathered at the Lions Rotary Hall to talk over farm problems, and join in the entertainment of the evening. Appearing on the program were Crowover and Walter Upchurch, of Canyon, delegate from this area to the agriculture conference held in Washington last week.

Clarence Morrison, president of the Farm Bureau, was toastmaster for the evening introducing the speakers Bob Wear, pastor of the Church of Christ, read the invocation. Musical selections were furnished by the Barber Shop Quartet.

"Organization of farmers for farmers cannot be overemphasized," said Crowover. "Only by speaking through groups will they ever make themselves heard by the lawmakers of the land. Even though they elect officials to represent them in Congress, when each individual farmer can speak through a group as well as individually, he really can get things done."

Texas Has Three Votes

Crowover campaigned for a larger Farm Bureau membership in Texas, pointing out that the larger membership meant more votes. Indiana, for instance, now has 11 votes through their Farm Bureau organization whereas Texas has only 3 because they have fewer people enrolled. If it came to a showdown and Indiana and Texas disagreed over policies, Texas could not stand up against the larger number of votes that belong to the Mid-western state.

He pointed out the other advantages that Farm Bureau's offered their members, including reduced rates on life and automobile insurance, Blue Cross and Blue Shield benefits, and a tentative plan to add fire insurance to the list of lowered premiums.

Crowover reviewed some of the work which the Bureau had already helped achieve, pointing out their part in establishing rural electrification service and their present campaign for rural telephones.

Price Support Necessary

He touched on price support, declaring 90 per cent of parity had always been the policy supported by the Farm Bureau and declared that a price support was absolutely necessary in today's economic set-up.

Upchurch revived accomplishments on his trip to Washington, stressed the fact that all the agriculture regions of the United States must get together on some sort of farm program.

"First, every region, for example every wheat growing region, should work out their plan. They should have the support of every farmer in that region, even though some boys will have to compromise on their own particular desires. Then when the region works out its plan, it should enter into the overall national plan. Sure its going to mean compromises for some of us, but still its better than no farm program at all," said he.

In conclusion he asked the members to support the programs of their Farm Bureau, because active support meant authority, and authority meant more power with the national government.

Benefits Are Expected From Rain Although Hail Hurt A Few Farmers

Hail damage bleached crop prospects in scattered farms throughout the county this week end, but there was a silver lining even to the hail clouds. Agriculture officials say that moisture was badly needed in some spots of Deaf Smith, and that the rainfall accompanying the hail may mean more good than bad from this storm.

The wheat farmers who were wiped out may choke on that fact, but many of the diversified crops of the area will benefit.

Even the wheat that suffered so much throughout the north-west, needed moisture, and the crops that were not completely destroyed will benefit from the additional rainfall. According to County Agent Hugh Clearman, this rain should take the wheat crops right up to harvest season.

As for potatoes, damage was expected to be slight. Fields were surveyed for irrigation and water that collected in low places on the fields can probably be effectively drained off. Major cause of any damage to the crop will be from top soil washed away by the hard, pelting rain, some of the growers believed.

No report was available on damage to the sugar beets, but since no report or severe damage had come in, officials believed fields might have withstood the storm. Some may have to be replanted because of erosion, hard packed soil, etc., caused by the rain.

Some of the lettuce growers reported their fields had only benefited from the rain. If its up and starting to grow, it will probably be all right, but plants still trying to take root may have been washed away and will need reseeded.

It is believed that little of the anticipated cotton acreage had yet been planted, and land on which it will be seeded, has soaked up quantities of moisture for the fall crop. Fields already sown may need reseeded, but Clearman said, it was usually considered too early to seed cotton before about May 10 or so in the area.

As for alfalfa, about the only crop on which harvest has begun, some report of damage was indicated, but it is only temporary damage on those fields. The feed will grow right on out and the plants are expected to recover.

One report on damage to 45 acres of onions by hail stones last week had reached the Brand office. Most of the other large plots of onions were seeded in the east and southeast portions of the county, and no hail damage was received in those spots.

As for grain sorghums, these early prospects look mighty bright, Clearman said. Practically none of the anticipated large acreage on such feeds has been planted, and all that land will benefit from the eight inches of moisture, which the county has received this year.

THE WEATHER

High and low temperatures, Sunday through Wednesday, readings taken at 8 o'clock each morning.
Sunday—High, 61; low, 46. Moisture, 1.07.
Monday—High, 70; low, 48.

Wednesday—High, 69; low, 48.
Total May moisture—4.09.
Total 1949 moisture—9.07.

Big, Aren't They?

In the foreground is a collection of hail gathered by neighborhood children and a baseball for comparison. The largest hail reported at Odessa during the May 7 storm was ten inches in circumference. The piece to the right of the baseball measures nine inches in circumference. (AP Photo).

Potato Growers Oppose Penalty On Overplanting

Nine Hereford potato growers met Monday night to discuss their part in the impending legislation regarding potato quotas and penalties for growers who overplanted the quotas, and by a narrow five to four margin voted to oppose the proposed fine for overplanting.

The proposed suggestion of the Department of Agriculture calls for a penalty of $1 a bushel to be paid by growers who overplant their allotment. With a one vote margin, Hereford growers turned down the proposal and agreed to fight against it.

Although this provision is not directly a part of Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan's current farm program, it is a part of the proposed bill before Congress.

Attending the meeting were Walter Hodges, George Jones, Jack Renfro, John Patzold, Joe Ealling, Norman Moore, Ed Adams, J. K. Baker, Herman and Fred Neff.

One DWI During Week Before County Court

One case appeared before Court Judge L. H. Foster in court this week. Leon Karr was fined $75 and costs for driving while intoxicated. He was picked up on U. S. Highway 80, Sunday. Karr is a farm laborer who just recently moved here.

Marilyn Henderson Wins Trip As County Style Show Winner

The first Four H style show was conducted at the high school auditorium Saturday afternoon and met with such enthusiastic approval from the contestants and audience that girls are planning to hold them annually.

Marilyn Henderson, 18 year old high school senior, won the right to represent Deaf Smith County in the state wide meet at College Station later this spring. Marilyn's honor was awarded her because of the dress she made and modeled in the style show.

Twenty five contestants competed in the show which was the culmination of the year's sewing project. All girls had to be members of Four-H clubs in the county, ranging in age from 7 to 21 years. They had to pick their material and patterns themselves and receive no help in construction of these garments.

Costumes modeled ranged from aprons to best dresses and included also school dresses, skirts and blouses made up in flannels, linens, cottons, rayons and mixed fibers.

Both solids and prints made up the color scheme design. Girls were graded on appearance, attractiveness of line and color, construction and poise in modeling. Accessories were also given attention.

Hour and A Half Long

Miss Sybil Gidden, Home Demonstration agent from Canadian was the official judge, assisted by Mrs. E. W. Womble, Jr., and Mrs. E. M. Cox. Mrs. Roscoe Pinnell was pianist for the occasion, playing popular songs to provide the background music for the style show. Mrs. H. H. Caraway acted as narrator. A crowd of club members, parents and interested members from home demonstration clubs attended the hour and a half re-

Mrs. E. K. Pinnell awarded the prizes and reading certificates which were also presented. The first place winner in each division was given a pair of dress making shears and second, third and fourth place winners were awarded ribbons.

Four reading certificates were awarded at the style show also to members who had completed three or more books from the selected fiction list, since Feb. 1. Winning these certificates were Ann Dyer, Thelma Epting, Patsy Townsend, and Wilma June Wilcox.

To Be Annual Event

"We are extremely proud of the success we had with this style show, and whereas it is our first, it definitely will not be our last," said Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent.

The stage for the show was decorated with spring flowers, bride wreath, tulips and iris in baskets and bouquets on stage. The models entered from the anteroom on the west and paraded across stage.

Miss Geraldine Paschel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Paschel of Adrian, was named best dressed model for the afternoon. Miss Paschel, chairman of the County Four H council, wore a sheer off shoulder dress with white accessories.

The contestants were divided into three classes: under eleven years of age, 11-12-13 year olds, and 14 and older.

Winner of the apron division for under 11 years of age was seven year old Nancy Parsons who modeled a pink tea apron, the first garment she had ever made. The first grader is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Parsons. Second place in the division went to young Barbara Dameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dameron.

Attend Mother's Day Ceremonies

Playing an important role in the annual Mother's Day observance at Texas A&M College this year was Mrs. Boyd London of Hereford. Her son, Billy, a graduating senior in May, is Commanding Officer of Company B of the Engineers. It is the tradition each year for the mother of the Commanding Officer to pin flowers on each member of the company, red for those whose mothers are living, and white for those whose mothers are dead.

Mrs. London, assisted by Billy and the first sergeant of the company, carried out the tradition at 8 o'clock Sunday morning at the College drill field. Following presentation of the flowers, a gold watch, a gift from his company, was presented to Commanding Officer London, after which he received a loving cup for his company, the highest honor in efficiency. Company B was the only company in the A&M Military Corps, which includes some 3500 students, to receive such an honor.

Round Town

they plan to bottle and sell to the unfortunate citizens who do not live here, and therefore have to buy their minerals bottled and canned.

Since Saturday's weather kept several members of the Ceremic Club from attending the meeting last week, they have announced that Mrs. Helen Harrell, instructor, will conduct a make-up lesson this Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. at the City Hall. If you missed last week's lesson, this is your opportunity to catch up with the crowd.

Dimmitt Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will be the guests of the Hereford Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges at a barbecue Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Jaycee Park.

Lloyd Pruitt is thanking his lucky stars—and the insurance company. He bought a farm Tuesday—wheat and hull insurance. Wednesday the insurance went into effect. Friday Pruitt got haled out.

Rev. Davidson

was motioning and screaming. "Come on fellows, Here's one with mayonnaise."

"The Sand Storm" Grant Fuller, expressing his contempt for the fellows who are always telling fish stories, told about what he called "The Sand Storm."

"My partner and I," he drawled, "were over in New Mexico looking for some stray dogies one day. A dry norther came up during the afternoon, and we decided we'd have to spend the night on the prairie. We took the saddles off our horses, and tied them to a bush near where we were going to sleep. The storm was raging, but we wrapped up in our blankets and went to sleep. Next morning dawned clear and beautiful. We got up and looked around for our horses, but we couldn't find them anywhere. Not even the bush they were tied to was there. All of a sudden we looked up, and there were our horses dangling from the top of a cotton wood tree, fifty feet in the air. During the night the wind had blown so hard it had uncovered that tree—really a giant cottonwood tree that had been covered up by former storms. I'd tell you how we got those horses down out of that tree, but you wouldn't believe me."

Froze To Death

Bill Warren has an uncle in Arkansas who can't seem to make a success of anything, try though he does. "For instance," said Bill, "one hot summer's day he took his mule out to work a field. Well, it was just so hot that the poor mule had a sun stroke. My uncle brought him back to the barn, and to make him feel better, gave him some corn. As I said, it was hot, and that corn started popping. When the poor mule saw the popcorn he thought it was snow, backed up in the corner of the barn and froze to death."

Robert Thompson, who qualified for the contest by admitting that he wasn't a politician on purpose, told about the fifty gallon water barrel over in New Mexico which wound up in Hereford as a five gallon keg. And Urlin Streu spun a yarn about a man up in Minnesota who stocked his lake with strange fish from Central America. "These foreign fish," said Urlin, "ate up all the other fish in this small lake. It got to be a problem what to do with them. The poor man tried everything, and finally in desperation, sent for a native from Central America, who, arrived with his equipment in a suit case. The native waited until a day when a good little breeze was blowing, then he got in a boat and went out on the lake. From his suit case he took out a bore and a bow. After boring a hole in the wave, he waited till the fish stuck his head through. Then closed the bow around his neck and choked him to death." Former champion Jim Kirby had this to tell: "I was out irrigating the other day, and had thirty-two tubes set for a ten-hour run. I noticed that the water was through on thirty-one rows, but the last one was just as dry as a bone. I walked to the other end of the field, figuring on turning the water on that row. At the entrance to the tube there was a rabbit—holding the water back. He had drunk so much Hereford water coming in there that his teeth had grown to mammoth proportions, and he was impaled into the ground by the size of those teeth."

Renner Clouts Game Winning Homer With Game Tied at 4 All in Ninth

Johnny Renner broke up a good tight ball game with a powerful four-bagger over the left field fence to give VFW a hard won 5-4 victory over Washburn of the Caprock League Tuesday night.

First up in the ninth with the score knotted at 4-all Renner laid into the three-two pitch to win his own ball game. He relieved Stan Barrett on the mound at the start of the eighth and only faced seven men, striking out five in the two inning stretch.

Hereford scored its first run on Washburn errors in the fourth after Washburn went ahead in their half of the fourth. They added two runs to the one they picked up in the second to make it three. VFW tied it up with two more runs in the fifth. George Loerwald singled with two down, followed by doubles off the bats of Flannagan and Lueb.

Washburn opened the seventh with a single, Bates fouled out to Flannagan who doubled the runner who had gone down to second on a steal with a throw to George Loerwald covering first. A single followed by a double scored Washburn's fourth run, followed by a fly to the outfield.

VFW tied it up again in the eighth when Lueb scored on Winkler's long fly after tripling. Renner set Washburn down in order in the ninth and then hit the game winning home run when he was first to bat in the home half.

One escaped uninjured and the other is in a Phoenix hospital suffering from a minor skull fracture, concussion, and two broken places in his jaw. His condition is not considered serious, however.

GENERAL VISITS HERE

General and Mrs. George Eberle and their daughter, Fran, all of Washington, D. C. were house-guests last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Webb. General Eberle, a four star general, is on his way to Japan where he will act as Public Relations director in General MacArthur's headquarters. The Eberles arrived Friday to visit with the Don Webbs and the Pat Webb's of Hereford. They were accompanied by two of Mrs. Eberle's sisters, Mrs. Guida Wilson of San Angelo and

Mrs. Lloyd Webb and her husband of Post.

The general and his family were enroute to the west coast where they will sail for Japan from the Port of Seattle. Miss Fran Eberle will enroll in a Japanese University to study while the family is stationed on the island.

During their week end visit in Hereford, informal entertainments, horseback riding and other western diversions entertained the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath and Royce Ann were in Fort Worth last week end on a business trip. The Gilbreaths left Friday and returned Sunday.

Susie Woodford returned Tuesday morning from a week end visit with her grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Lillard in Friona. Five year old Susie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Woodford, was taken to Friona by her parents, and returned by bus alone.

Seven members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department attended the 30th semi-annual convention of the Panhandle Firemen's District in Childress Tuesday.

They heard talks from principal speakers Frank Williams, head of the fireman's pension board from Austin, Olin Culbertson, railway commissioner, and Col. Brayton, supervisor of the fire schools at A&M.

Voco Club Has Spring Concert

Older members of the Voco Club will be presented in a spring concert by Miss Mattie Mae Swisher at the First Christian Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Two guest performers will assist the group. They will be Arnold Schuler, pianist, who recently won a first place in Philharmonic auditions held in Amarillo which entitles him to play with the Philharmonic Orchestra next fall. He is a junior in the Friona High School and a student at the Amarillo Conservatory of Music. Also Miss Edd Uri Talbot of Friona, vocalist, who for six years in succession has won superior rating in the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Members of the Voco Club who will appear are: Irene and Jerry Witherspoon, Dwayne Walker, David Goldston, Louise Simpson, Betty Robbins, Clayton Rutter, Fawayne Murphy, Bill Murphy, Don Nelson, Carolyn and Nancy Lee and Raymond Wells.

The church will present a miscellaneous program of art songs, church and folk songs and opera. Accompanists will be Mrs. Cliff Estes and Mrs. John Jacobson, Jr. The public is invited to attend.

Freight Rates May Be Down By Harvest

A possibility of lowered freight rates for potato growers in the Hereford area got another boost this week when H. C. Vincent, traffic manager for Panhandle and Santa Fe Railways notified George Jones and Jack Renfro of Hereford that the Santa Fe and Fort Worth and Denver would join in establishing rates from origins on the line to destinations in Illinois and Iowa.

This will effect freight rates on both onions and potatoes. Rates and routes were checked out for publication in St. Louis on May 3, and officials believe they will be in effect in time for this season's harvest. However, no effective date of the rates has yet been given.

Publication will be made from 28 stations in the Hereford, Plainview and Muleshoe areas along the Santa Fe, and five stations on the Fort Worth and Denver line and from Floydada on the QA and P line.

According to the communication, no western trunk line carriers have yet served notice of their intention to join in publication of rates from origins in Texas.

Gandy, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Henson, Robert and Ruth of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. James Sheumake Claudia and James Richard of Fort Worth, Mrs. Cecil Shaw, Amarillo, Mrs. E. D. Sheumake and Sue of Brownfield, James C. Freddy and Bobbie Gandy of Lorenzo, Mrs. May E. Simpson of Crosbyton. Per Capita Share Of National Debt, $1,917

You owe $1,917 as your share of the federal government's budget and debt, and so does every other West Texan.

Deaf Smith's share of the national budget is $1,937,920 and the county share of the U. S. debt is a cool $11,609,352, so says the West Texas Chamber of Commerce which recently compiled facts and figures to arrive at these conclusions. The study was of the present federal budget and current federal debt as it affects and relates to this territory.

West Texas alone paid more for its share in the operation of the federal government in 1948 than the entire operating expenses for the United States were in 1900, according to the survey.

Ford HD Club Meets In Ferguson Home

Members of the Ford Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, May 4 for a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. F. D. Ferguson, near Amarillo on the Canyon Hiway. Mrs. Ferguson was a member of the Ford Club a number of years and was an active worker in all club projects.

Following the noon hour a business meeting was held, presided over by club president, Mrs. H. M. Benson. In charge of recreation were Mrs. George Epling and Hilda Both. Lucky number was drawn by Mrs. A. S. Allman, a guest from Lubbock who is the mother of Mrs. Ferguson. Her prize was a lovely tea-pot.

A poem, "My Mother's Love" in keeping with Mother's Day, was read by Mrs. John Spinhirne. Roll call was answered with brief comments on the life of a woman who has promoted Home Demonstration work. Club members were asked to fill in a page of the year book.

Mrs. Earl Dyer, program leader, discussed the land grant colleges and gave a resume of the history of cooperative extension service, pointing out the broadening of the extensive service in recent years. Donations were made to the cancer and heart funds.

Members attending were Mesdames George Epling, Hardy Benson, John Spinhirne; Earl Dyer, Herman Both, M. E. Ferguson, Miss Hilda Both, and the hostess. Guests were Mrs. A. S. Allman of Lubbock, and Mrs. Doc Thompson and little son of Canyon, a daughter of the hostess.

Next regular meeting will be in the home of Mrs. George Epling on May 18.

But I want a telephone—not a cable

Telephones and telephone cables go together. You talk into the telephone—but it's the cable that carries your voice.

If you are waiting for a telephone you may wonder why we don't connect it to a telephone cable already near your home.

The answer usually is: That cable is carrying a full load right now.

It would be handy if we could hang out an "SRO" sign like a theater—"Standing Room Only"—and connect a lot of extra telephones to these full-up cables.

But cables aren't like that. When they're working 100 per cent—when every wire in them is already connected—there just isn't any more room, standing room or anything else.

So... to bring service to you and to others waiting, we must place more cables. That gives us extra wires. Then we can connect new telephones.

That's what we're doing, getting more cables in place, and faster than ever before. A million miles of cable wire this year alone. All so that we can get telephones to those waiting just as soon as we can, and to make all service better than before.

Legion Auxiliary To Make Slippers

A current project of the American Legion Auxiliary, in connection with the American Red Cross, is the making of fifty pairs of slippers. Soles of the slippers are made from men's felt hats, and the Auxiliary women are asking that those who have felt hats to donate leave them at the C. and R. Cleaners. About one hundred hats are needed, the women say.

BACK OF HOME PLATE

Central Plains League scores on opening day looked like West Texas-New Mexico league scores. Umbarger knocked off Hart 11-5, Nazareth outscores Tulla 25-18, and Canyon held Dimmitt to one run while scoring 15. Vega Hereford was 12-7, if you've forgotten.

One big difference between the leagues is that it costs the Gold Sox about a thousand bucks to postpone a game and it doesn't cost VFW a thing and it rains out, in fact they will probably be getting better crowds later in the season.

If you want to see the "Southern" Methodist-Notre Dame game in Dallas next December here is what you'll have to do unless you can get tickets through the Mustang Club, Alumni organization, Lettermen exes or something like that. For four days, starting August 1 the SMU athletic business office will take applications from the general public for season tickets and for single game tickets. They will keep the envelopes as received until the four days are up, and then start filling them on a "first come, first serve basis."

Apparently the thing to do is mail your ticket request at 12:01 a. m. August 1. Either that or work some deal where you can get in as a Notre Dame supporter.

Harrison Highway Work Is Reported Advancing

C. N. York, engineer on the Harrison Highway project reported Tuesday that his corp of men had finished the alignment and topography on Harrison and were now drawing up the deeds for right of way release.

Rainy weather had slowed them up some but not too much York reported.

There are approximately 35 miles on Harrison that are to be paved, and this stretch of road will have a 120 foot right of way, widening the right of way from the strip now paved by about 20 feet.

A crew of six men are employed here with the engineering work along Harrison.

Doris Mahaffey Joins HD Staff, Only Agent-In-Training In Texas

Now that Miss Doris Mahaffey has arrived to assume her duties in the office of Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, Deaf Smith County has the only agent-in-training in Texas.

After a three month apprenticeship training period, Miss Mahaffey will be assigned as county agent to work somewhere in Texas.

During her stay here she will assist Mrs. Draper in home demonstration club meetings, club activities and work with the Four-H girls in the county.

She arrived Friday, "washed in with the downpour or rain," she says and began work Monday.

"Getting into the home economics education field was almost the path of least resistance with me," Miss Mahaffey declared. "I have three older sisters who majored in it in college before I went to the University, and therefore I grew up oriented in the work."

Se was oriented to the work in other ways, too. Reared on a farm near Walters, Oklahoma, she was a Four H club member during her high school days. After graduation from the University High School at Norman, she attended the University of Oklahoma, from which she was graduated in January, 1947, with a degree in Home Economics education.

She has taught home economics at Tipton, Oklahoma and Wheeler, Texas. Since Thanksgiving of this year she has been employed with the REA in Wellington as the home economist.

Speech Pupil Recital Will Be Held Sunday

Mrs. D. W. Hawkins will present a group of speech pupils in a close of season recital in the First Methodist Church Sunday, May 15 at 3 o'clock. All interested friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Those who will take part in the recital are: Linda Sue and Virginia Witherspoon, John David Bryant, Katherine McDonald, Gayle Potter, Donnie Fellers, Jimmie Carnahan, Virginia McDonald, Sammy Lesly, Linda Lee West and Margaret McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Formby were in Lubbock Saturday night to attend the Jackson Day dinner given by the Democratic Party. The affair was held in the Texas Tech gymnasium and almost 2,000 people were served a barbecue dinner buffet style. Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan was the principal speaker of the evening.

Class A Schools Against Resuming Spring Practice

Three of the five Texas interscholastic league classes voted to reinstate spring football after next January 1: Class A and six-man football decided against resuming the practice.

A one-vote margin decided the issue for Class A and two votes decided against re-establishment for six-man football. Local opinions vary on the subject although it is agreed that it will put the boys in this class at a disadvantage when they play higher or lower class teams. Coach Dalton Criswell who was in Austin Saturday but not present at the meeting said downstate schools where the weather favored spring sports solidly favored the present set-up. Most coaches of this section opposed it.

One of the original reasons for abolishing spring practice was to take a little of the emphasis off football and give the spring sports of baseball, track, tennis and golf a chance. These sports have already grown immensely since the 1948 ruling, now the question apparently will be, will they slide back in comparative obscurity again?

VISITS SON

Mrs. O. W. Covington of Temple is visiting this week in the home of her son, Worth Covington and family. She arrived Monday and is leaving this afternoon for Amarillo, where she will attend the State Convention for Spanish-American War Veterans, which starts Friday. Mrs. Covington's husband was a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

Kimbrough Places Fourth In State

Neely Kimbrough ran a 2:03.6 half mile Saturday after getting off to a bad start to place fourth in the Class A state 880-yard race in Austin.

Coach Criswell said Kimbrough pulled up to third at the end of the first lap in the field of 15 runners and held it right to the finish when he was nosed out by the Kermit boy.

Wet Grounds Postpone Canyon Game VFW Plays Umbarger Here Sunday

Wet grounds caused postponement of VFW's second league game in Canyon Sunday. The date for the game will be set sometime later on.

Sunday afternoon the local nine will tangle with Umbarger, who also beat him in the Regional. Kimbrough was within 7 to 5 yards of the winner.

at 2:30 o'clock on the Veteran's Park diamond. Umbarger defeated Hart 11-5 in their opener and their second game against Vega was also postponed.

Wednesday night VFW will play Plains Chevrolet out of Amarillo under the lights. Umbarger and Vega were planning to play their postponed game here tonight but have apparently called it off.

Gerard "Smithy" Menuhin, 9-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Yehudi Menuhin, seems to enjoy the task of watching his famous violinist-father's priceless Stradivarius and Guarnerius violins, in the canvas case, while his parents clear through customs at New York's LaGuardia Field. The family arrived from London en route to its Alma, Calif., home. Smithy, who was born in Scotland, has made three transatlantic crossings.

success. The program was worth going miles to hear. Miss Elberta Reed and school girls sang "Old Black Joe." Mrs. Doyle Rose and Miss Mabel Renfro favored us with readings which were very funny and well rendered. The negro between-act play was a scream, the actors kept the audience in a roar of laughter throughout the show. The colored gentlemen were Messrs. Roberson; Bill Knox and Johnnie Biggs. After all the boxes were sold a very exciting beauty contest was next on the program. Miss Elath Eliston, Elberta Reed and Mabel Renfro were selected as entries. Miss Renfro received the most votes, being the prettiest girl present. Mr. Wolfe was the auctioneer and he made a good one too. From the boxes and the beauty contest, $73.89 was realized. The money will be used to finish paying on the piano and buy some new lights for the school house. Those who failed to be at the supper certainly missed a treat.

Local items included: "Miss Geneva Brumley arrived here Tuesday morning from Clovis;" "Mrs. H. L. Johnson and little daughter Betty Jean of Amarillo are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dyar. Mrs. Johnson is a sister of Mrs. Dyar;" "Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Tomlinson of Tulla, parents of Mrs. Henry Hastings, arrived here Tuesday morning;" "Mrs. W. T. Todd of Canadian arrived here Saturday to visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. N. M. Patton and family."

Blossoms in the Rain

Rain doesn't dampen the spirits of these Japanese children on their way to view the famous cherry blossoms in the Plaza of the Tokyo Imperial Palace. Although bad weather shortened the life of the blossoms, thousands of visitors poured into Tokyo for the annual festival of "Hanami," or "Cherry Blossom Viewing time," which amounts to a national holiday in Japan.

What Mother Means To Me

By SALLIE WOMBLE

Even though Mother's Day is past, we don't want it to be forgotten, so instead of my usual question of the week, the answers to the question have been written into a theme on "What Mother Means To Me." These answers were taken from students who have many different conditions in their home life, such as a fatherless home, a motherless home, a family of all boys, a family of all girls, a mixed family, a family with adopted children, large families, small families, and homes with step-parents. One girl told what her mother meant to her in the following poem:

What does my mother mean to me?
 All of the world, land, air and sea,
 She means my only happiness
 When I am down, and depressed,
 I depend on her for so many things,
 Four seasons of the year, even spring,
 I love her dearly, and with all my heart,
 And I dread the day when we have to part.
 "Mother" is one of the most beautiful words in anyone's vocabulary, for it signifies a wonderful person and a wonderful personality. If everyone were fortunate enough to have a mother as wonderful as most mothers, there would be less crime and wrong in the world.
 Your mother, whether she is your own mother or your mother by adoption, means more to you than anyone in the world, with possibly the exception of your father. In your eyes, your mother is a perfect genius; otherwise, she couldn't be so loving at all times, so sympathetic, happy, understanding, true, forgiving, sweet, trustworthy, encouraging, intelligent, dependable, respectable, and so willing to help you when you need her help.

Your mother is your best and truest friend, and she will go the limit for your happiness and welfare as long as it is within the limits of the right way of life. She is always willing to guide and direct you. You can be sincere with her and you may think aloud before her. She is never too tired, too busy, or too sick to try to help you with your problems, even though they may be trivial. When you are in doubt, she is always there to help you to see the bright side of everything. When you are angry or vexed, she is there to put you into a good humor. Helping you choose the right way, even though you may not feel that it is the right way, is her main objective in life. Your mother helps you to get the things that you want (if you need them). She praises you when things are going right and encourages you when things look gloomy. She never forgets that you are young and it is because of her influence in your young life that your character is being molded as it is; she is the main inspiration that makes you what you are. Your mother is always willing to care for you when you are ill, and her prayers for your security, happiness, and success never cease to be uttered, whether silently or aloud.

A mother that you love and that loves you in return is "the one" in your daily life, for if it were not for her, you probably couldn't meet your daily obligations on time and in good condition. She is continually filling your heart with contentment and joy by keeping your home-life pleasant, cheerful and comfortable. Most mothers are taken for granted by their children, and it usually takes an absence to make children realize what mother really means. Your mother teaches you to enjoy life and the respect of your mother is one of your most valuable possessions. If you are like most young people, what it takes to make your mother happy comes first, because if she is unhappy, you are unhappy, too.
 It is a shame that there is not a Mother's Day once a month rather than once a year. It surely is not because they don't deserve it, because if you showed more appreciation for what she does, she would feel as if she had accomplished more. Only God can realize what your Mother means to you. Don't you think that all young people should make their theme, so far as their mother is concerned, "Every Day I Love You Just A Little Bit More?"

Seniors Take Kuder Preference Tests

On April 21, 1949 Mr. Sullivan handed out some Kuder Preference tests to the Seniors. These tests were taken to show what vocation each person was best suited for. Some of the tests came out fairly close to the suited vocations, others were quite amusing, for instance, one girl was best suited to be a farmer, another that liked music was said to be a chorus girl in her test.
 The tests were taken by punching holes in the letter by the things you liked most. The holes were counted and put on a graph. The highest graph showed what you were most interested in and did not necessarily tell your vocation.
 Some of the Seniors were quite surprised as to some of the results in the tests. But on the whole they found it quite interesting and fun for only 35c.
 A myopic young optimist named Walter
 Led a camouflaged girl to the altar.
 A beauty he thought her,
 But soap and warm water
 Made her look like the Rock of Gibraltar.

SPORTS SLANTS

By PAT CORBETT

I'm sure most of you have heard about the great old Babe Ruth and the time he called his shot in the World Series with Chicago and sure enough he hit it over the fence where he pointed to. Well, here's the whole story.
 When the Yankees opened the 1932 world series with the Chicago Cubs, the Bronx Bombers were really mad at the Cubs because they had only voted to give their old team-mate a 1/4 share of the world series pay. On the first game Babe really gave the Cubs some talk about how cheap they were and when the third game got around there were some pretty insulting remarks being passed around. In the third inning of the game Babe came to the plate and the crowd really gave him the loud talk. Charlie Root was pitching for Chicago and he threw one across and the Babe put up one finger for the first strike and when the second strike went by he put up his hand for the second strike. After this second strike he pointed to the center-field bleachers where he intended to hit it. And that is just what he did! Yes, to the Babe the impossible was just commonplace.

One of the most unusual games of baseball was played between the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago Cubs. On May 2, 1917, there were only a few fans out to see this game because of the weather. On the mound for the Reds was Fred Toney, a 235 pound giant righthander. On the mound for the Cubs was Jim (Hippo) Vaughn, a 220 pound giant left-hander. Between these two they pitched a twin masterpiece that the diamond sport never saw before or since.

When the regular nine innings were over both pitchers had no-hit and no-run games. There had been only four men to reach first base and they were erased from there.
 The two pitchers started to pitch into extra innings but the spell was broken when Larry Kopf drilled a grounder through the right side of the infield for the first hit of the ball game. Hal Chase, the Cincinnati first baseman, hit a drive to Williams in right field but he dropped it and Kopf went to third. And up came Jim Thorpe. He swung late on one of Vaughn's pitches and hit one in front of the plate. Vaughn fielded the ball and threw the ball to the catcher, Art Wilson, but the ball went through him and Kopf, who was on third, came home with the winning run. Thus it was that Vaughn, pitching a no-hitter for the regulation nine innings, lost out, 1-0, on two dubious safeties in the tenth. But Toney had a ten-inning no hitter and the ball game.

Three Are Chosen From FHA To Attend State Convention

At last the year-long contest is over and it is decided which three F. H. A. girls will attend the F. H. A. Convention in Dallas. This year the club has a point system. For every committee a girl was on or for every type of work she did she was given a point. The three girls that hit the most points were Lola Verne Pitts with 46, Carolyn Walker with 46, and Joyce McGee with 45. These three girls with Mr. and Mrs. Don Little will leave for Dallas Thursday, May 5 at 5:00 p. m. and return Sunday afternoon. Runners-up were Annie Mae Caster with 44 points and Edith McMillan with 43.
 The schedule of events for the three days are:
 Thursday, May 5, 2:00-8:00 p. m.—Registration, Baker Hotel.
 Friday, May 6, 7:00 p. m.—Recreation program, Crystal Ballroom, Baker Hotel.
 7:30—Formal Banquet, Crystal Ballroom, Baker Hotel.
 Saturday, May 7, 9:00 a. m.—House of Delegates, Crystal Ballroom, Baker Hotel. Voting delegate, Joyce McGee.
 12:00 noon—Officers luncheon, Mural Room, Baker Hotel.

The Swish of The Tail

Well, well you lucky people, here I am again. I have more news this week.
 I guess by now all of you have seen Mary's engagement ring. It really is pretty. Must be a habit around here for everyone to have a new ring.
 I bet all of you missed Wanda Zumwalt lately—she is another one of those anemic ones who had to have her appendix removed. That must also be getting to be a habit, but I guess habits are what makes the world go round.
 The gray and white Band and Glee Club sweaters certainly do make the halls somewhat brighter. So far as I can gather everyone is very proud of his sweater.
 Have you heard anyone singing "Tell Me Why" recently. If you have it must be the Girl's Sextette, because this seems to be the favorite song for them. There could be a solo and even a giggle here and there.
 Has anyone noticed Neil's hair getting curlier by the day? Must be in love; why doesn't someone inquire around and find out who the lucky girl is? Jack S. and Billie have an extra wave here and there too—my, my, what could the matter be.
 The two sophomores helping Mrs. Little in the Home Ec. lab are really improving the place. Wonder if we could hire the girls to help us clean house some Saturday? In case you are wondering who they are; they are J. H. and M. H.

 Three of the F. H. A. girls who were hoped to go to Dallas last week-end were Lola Verne Pitts, Carolyn Walker, and Joyce McGee. I bet they sure did have a good time.
 Guess who the new steadies are? Carl and Colline can be two C's together. Nancy and Squeak are together again but not steady. Have you seen a certain senior boy (T. E. P.) with a certain junior girl (M. J. W.)? They do make a cute pair, don't you think? Who's this cute black-headed boy that has attached himself to Sallie Womble? Evidently they must have it pretty bad.
 This morning the Glee Club and Miss McMinn presented Mr. Stanford with a gift of appreciation for being so nice and making the risers for the Easter Cantata. He was given two shirts, two ties and a pair of cuff links.
 Well, I guess it is time for me to close and snoop around and find some more gossip to tell you. Be real sweet and don't get into too much trouble.
 See you next week.
 E. A. E.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

There are two new students at Junior High School this week. They are Dean Garrett and Mary Anna-Garrett both from Black, Texas.
 The fifth grade from Central School and the sixth grade from Junior High School played softball this week. The sixth grade won the game; the score was 19-0.
 Patsy Hamby and Bobby Nolan are back in school. They have been in the hospital.

Mother's Day Tea Given By Tri-Hi-Y

In the home of Bettie Jo Carnahan, May 3, 1949, the Tri-Hi-Y girls gave a Mother's Day Tea.
 The table decorations consisted of a red heart on which the word Mother was written with white spyrta. On either side were white candles on a white lace table cloth. Refreshments were served by Earlena Phillips. They consisted of red punch, squares of white cake decorated with red roses, nuts, and multi-colored mints.
 Favors consisted of miniature white booklets tied with red ribbon containing appropriate Mother's Day verses and red and white corsages for the mothers.
 The program for the first half hour included piano selections by Nancy Cagle, readings by Emmarie Turner and a vocal selection by Reba Dones.
 The guests during the last half hour were entertained with piano selections by Donna Jean Stagner, readings by Bettie Jo Carnahan, and a vocal selection by Inez Tucker and Jane Welch. The mothers were asked to help form the Friendship Circle. After singing "Blest Be the Tie," the program was concluded with the regular Tri-Hi-Y benediction.

On Philosophy

By RONNY DURHAM
 I wish every senior could visit our Trig class when we come around to the subject of philosophy. Somehow, a discussion of a mathematical problem which requires some thought always leads to a deeper realization of the wonders of this world. As Mr. Garner put it, "The more we know, the more we want to know about the why and wherefore."
 After all, is a fact always a fact? It is said that Einstein has proved that the shortest distance between two points is not a straight line. In a somewhat different sense, it used to be true that one could not go around the world in even a week. Now, of course, that so-called fact has also been disproved. Likewise, morals change with the centuries and with new developments.
 This shows that progress changes our standards physically and also morally. This leads to the question, "What is progress?" To begin with, the basis of progress is the eternal search for truth—such truths as the answer to the "raison d'etre," the reason for being. This question has long been a prominent one in philosopher's minds. But the greatest step in the development of man was the simple realization, "I am." From this step on, progress has been changing man's method of thinking.
 So, then, with the change in morals and habits, aren't the more abstract qualities, such as love, faith, and honesty, the only really unchanging factors of human development?
 Seniors, lets remember these qualities as we go about this

Graduation Day

By GERTRUDE BETZEN
 The day has come. The weather is clear. The sky is cloudless. But who cares about the weather?
 Excitement is high. The whole family seems very happy about something and everyone wants to hurry the day along.
 Afternoon has come at last and now the excitement of the morning give way to nervousness. And now evening. You feel as if you were tied in one great knot. Your heart is divided between happiness and sadness. A great milestone in your life is about to be reached.
 The drive into town is a silent one. No one seems to know what to say. Finally you're there and ready for the big moment. The music starts and somehow the marching time reminds you of business of living. Ethics, in my opinion, are the basic elements in building successful lives. For what is success with a conscience that has been submerged and beaten into a willing slave to immoral living?

 My thanks to Mr. Garner for his helpful ideas and suggestions.

Artist Is Featured On Assembly Program

A Southern School Assembly was presented April 29, by Bob Wood, artist and cartoonist. He used an immense easel, the largest of its kind, and enhanced the colorful pictures he drew by electrical effects.
 Mr. Wood wrote names on his easel; then transformed them into faces of comic appearance. Another trick with words was performed when he spelled words called out by the audience backward while writing them upside down.
 The literary side was not neglected on the program by Mr. Wood. As he drew he recited many well known works such as "Old Black Joe," "Skelton in Armor" and "East and West." The show was enjoyed by all who attended, but especially delighted were those who enjoy watching art created with colors and words.

The rise at Buffalo is supposed to have cut down on the fish biting, but one story crossing the desk points towards good fishing in some places as a result of the rains.

The big fish have been biting in the Concho River since recent rains flushed streams in West Texas.

Clarence Shropshire, San Angelo watchman, reported one of the largest catches—a 78-pound catfish. He caught the fish in the south Concho River below Lake Nasworthy Dam. And he made the catch on a rod and reel using a 25-pound test line—after a 45-minute battle.

About 100 other fishermen in the area left their lines to watch Shropshire fight the big catfish.

Fishing must be good at Possum Kingdom. Lyle Woodford, Robert Veigle, Jim Bob Allison and B. F. Cain went down for a week end of fishing Friday, planning to return Tuesday. They said they caught so many they decided to come home early and returned Sunday.

to enter Summerfield in the clean-up campaign to be sponsored soon in Deaf Smith County.

Mrs. Claude McGowan, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Mrs. Lee Curry and Mrs. J. B. Noland were appointed to a committee to look into the possibility of rural telephones.

A May Day theme was carried out in appointments for the luncheon table with a May pole made entirely of flowers as the center attraction. Members wore corsages made from their own flower gardens and in closing the outgoing president presented each member with a rooted chrysanthemum plant. She made the announcement that the newly organized garden group of the club will hold its first meeting on May 31 in the Summerfield Baptist Church and invited those interested in such a club to attend.

Members attending were Mesdames Walk Boston, L. L. Cannon, Lee Curry, Britt Clark, Jim Clark, Ray Johnson, Carl Lance, L. H. Lookingbill, Kenneth Neill, Charles Noland, Mack Noland, J.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews Visit In Sundown: See Scene of Tornado

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews and Doris Jean went to Sundown on Sunday where they learned that Mrs. Andrews's sister, Mrs. Carl Carey, Mr. Carey and their baby were unhurt in the tornado which occurred there Friday night. However, their house was unroofed and had some walls caved in. The part in which the Careys took refuge had a piece of roof about 4 feet square remaining. Most of the furniture and clothing that was not blown away was so damaged by rain and hail as to be almost a total loss. The Careys saw the young man who was killed before anyone was able to get to him, as he was blown near their house. The house in which the minister lived was across the street from the Careys' home. The Andrews reported many freakish things, such as an iron placed on top of a water heater undisturbed and the radio under the bed still working. One woman reported that she dug some of her silverware out of ground and Mrs. Carey's pressure cooker had a hole blown in its side. Many houses were completely demolished.

Skin Deep

Seeking a "different" kind of jewelry to relieve the solid black of this plunging-neckline dinner gown, designer Lili came up with this glittering leafy pattern, which is applied directly to the model's skin. Achieved by sprinkling sequins on a spirit gum base, the new decoration is not only smart-looking, but also foils would-be jewel thieves.

Lyla, spent Saturday night at the home of another daughter, Mrs. E. H. Little, as the rain caused such bad roads that she couldn't get home. Lyla had accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins on a trip to Tennessee, to visit their grandmothers and other relatives. They returned home Sunday.

Five or more inches of rain fell in this community on Friday and Saturday. Some hail damage was reported by Olin Parris and Leonard Irwin. The lake, about a mile south of the school house, is over the road and the Frio Draw has been on a rampage, flooding two bridges and hampering travel.

Spending Sunday with the Berrymans were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lowery and children of Dawn, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McReynolds and family of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dickson and family of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lowery and son and Miss Lamerlas Berrymann of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sevier of El Paso are announcing the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Sevier will be remembered as Miss
