A CALIFORNIA MAN was injured Tuesday night when the car he was driving skidded on wet pavement into a west-bound freight train engine three miles west of Hereford at the old Prisoner of War Camp road crossing. Injuries Minor In Auto-Train Crash

Condition of Elmer Washington Brewer Jr., 34, of Bell, Cal., was listed as good at Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday noon. Brewer was injured Tuesday night west of Hereford when his automobile struck a west-bound freight engine.

Brewer's 1953 model car rammed the second engine unit of the freight train at the old Prisoner-of-War Camp road crossing at 9:10 p. m. Tuesday, according to investigating officers.

The injured man was taken to the hospital for treatment of minor lacerations and bruises. He was conscious at the time a Gililand ambulance arrived at the scene.

Brewer's automobile was demolished when it skidded into the freight engine. The car was headed north, investigating officers said. The pavement was slippery with melting snow at the scene of the accident.

The engine ripped away the left front part of the automobile. The car did not overturn.

The four-engined, 74-car Santa Fe freight was headed for Clovis from Amarillo.

L. B. Summers was engineer, and Cromer Gaut was conductor. None of the crew was injured, and the locomotive was not badly damaged.

Brewer was held at the hospital for further observation Wednesday.

Investigating the accident were Highway Patrol officers Charles Skinner and Caral Parker of Hereford and Deaf Smith County Sheriff Lowell Sharp and Deputy Kenneth Maxwell.

Ivan Dement Inc. of Amarillo Tuesday was awarded contract for paving of about 16 miles of paving in Deaf Smith County.

Low bid of $823,499.13 was accepted for the job, which will include widening and repaving of U. S. Highway 60 from the Randall County line west to the east city limits of Hereford.

The highway will be expanded to a four lane divided highway with limited access from side roads and turn lanes through Dawn.

Virgil McGee, assistant district engineer for the Texas Highway Department in Amarillo, said the base bid does not include the cost of engineering or contingencies, which will run cost of the project to $905,000.

Construction on the huge project is scheduled to start about Jan. 1 and should be completed about September, 1961, McGee said the weather this winter could either delay the completion or, if fair weather prevails, could cause the job to finish ahead of schedule.

Only change planned for the construction in Deaf Smith County from a similar project in Randall county is that an asphaltic hot mix topping will be used in this county. A shortage of funds caused the Randall County portion of U. S. 60 to be paved with a less durable seal coat topping, McGee said, however, that about five miles of the Randall County road would be repaved next spring with hot mix.

Farmers Union Elects Hoover New President

Charles R. Hoover of Hereford was elected president of Deaf Smith County Farmers Union Monday night.

Hoover replaces outgoing president, W. H. (Bill) Gentry of Hereford.

Other officers elected Monday were Jay Boston, vice president, and Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., secretary-treasurer. Outgoing officers were L. B. Worthan as vice president and G. S. Solomon as secretary-treasurer.

The election meeting was held in Hereford Community Center. Refreshments were served during the meeting.

Boston gave a report on latest sugar beet developments, urging all members to continue to write senators and congressmen in pressing for legislation which would enable local growers to produce sugar needed to meet demands of national population increase.

Delegates who attended the state Farmers Union convention in Abilene Dec. 9 and 10 were (Continued on page 2)

County Approves Agents' Reports

In special session Monday, Deaf Smith County Commissioners heard and approved annual reports from county extension agents.

J. W. Thomas, Argen Draper and Loreta Fowler presented oral and written reports of their activities for the past year and outlined their basic plans for the coming year.

Thomas also talked with the Commissioners about details for the new county barn.

A letter from the Dawn postmaster asked that the road from the proposed widened U. S. Highway 60 to the post office be paved. The Commissioners discussed the request, but took no action.

Bob Davis of Amarillo, representing Columbian Securities Corporation, presented contracts for issuance of $50,000 in funding right-of-way warrants. They were approved by the court, having been authorized during a previous meeting.

The county also voted to allocate $300 to the Wildorado-Palo Duro Cemetery Association to air in fencing and repairing facilities. The cemetery serves the northeast portion of the county as well as the southeast corner of Oldham County. The Oldham County Commission previously had agreed to match previous and present donations from Deaf Smith County.

School Reveals Normal Decrease In Enrollment

Hereford Rural High School District board Tuesday night was told enrollment in public schools on Dec. 5 was 2,837.

Superintendent of Schools P. L. Stevens said current enrollment offers "a little breathing room" in schools. Enrollment at the same time last month was reported at 2,942 students.

Members of the National Beet Growers Federation, meeting in Yakima, Wash., last week voted to ask that Congress extend the Sugar Act for nine months. This, they say, will give Congress time to work on long-term legislation that recognizes "the need for increased reliance on domestically produced sugar."

Although this request might harm the Texas Sugar Beet Growers' plan to reallocate annual increases, the long-term effect might help us.

Rotary Club president Gerald McCaskill announced the following committee assignments for the show, which will be held at the Bull Barn:

Buyers' Committee: Owen Seamonds and R. G. Peeler; co-chairmen; Henry Benson, J. W. Witherspoon, Leo Forrest, Henry Sears, V. O. Hennen, Joel Hodges, Jim Bob Allison, Louis Woodford, Ed McLeroy and Bob McLean, Dimmitt; Raymond Thompson and Mal Stewart, Vega; Sloan Osborne and Frank Spring, Friona; Otto Dinwiddie, Hart; Bill Dameron and Frank Bezner.

Herd In Amarillo Twin Bill, Hosts Seminole On Saturday

After dropping a 71-65 decision to Palo Duro here Tuesday night, the Hereford Whitefaces will tackle other Amarillo cage teams Thursday and Friday.

Entered in the Amarillo doubleheaders with Hereford will be Tascosa, Amarillo High and Dumas.

Thursday night's games will be played at the Tascosa High gymnasium. The first game will start at 7:30 p. m., matching Amarillo and Dumas, with Tascosa and Hereford to clash at 9 p. m.

On Friday night, the games will be played in the Amarillo

High armory. First game pits Tascosa and Dumas, with Amarillo High and Hereford battling in the second game.

To round out a busy week, Hereford will host the Seminole cage squad here at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Meanwhile, the B team is entered in the basketball tourney at Silverton on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. However, there will be a B team game here Saturday night as the sophomores and juniors on the team split up, if necessary.

Tom Gilley's Dons from Palo Duro continued their mastery over the Whitefaces here Tuesday night with another hot shooting night. They scored well during the first half and staved off a second half rally that saw Hereford pull within four points near the game's end.

Bruce Francis paced the Dons during the first quarter as they poured in 21 points. Hereford got 14, but gave the ball away frequently on bad passes and minor infractions. Only one foul was called during the period.

During the second period, Steve Carter found the range to help out Francis. Jackie Oldham's long shots kept Hereford in the game during the quarter. Guard Dennis Hodges fired a field goal from mid-court just two seconds before the quarter ended, but the Dons had a 38-29 margin.

Hereford whipped in 20 points during the third period, with Charlie Thomas and Hodges carrying most of the load. But Palo Duro chalked up 22 points, most of them from Sonnie Maxwell and Tobie Hall.

Down 49-60, Hereford fought back furiously during the last quarter, but it was too late. Ronnie Botkin and Hodges paced the Herd as it pulled within four points, 65-69, but Hall and Francis dropped in a charity toss each in the waning seconds (Continued on page 2)

Fifteen Hereford Athletic Club boxers will enter a five-city tournament scheduled in Levelland Friday, Saturday and Monday.

The local glovers will compete with boxers from Levelland, Lubbock, Plainview and Amarillo during the three-night meet.

A boxing meet scheduled in Hereford last Friday night was cancelled due to adverse weather conditions. Next home meet will be a two-day tournament Jan. 9 and 10 in Deaf Smith County Bull Barn, according to Hereford Boxing Coach Don McNeese.

The Levelland tournament marks the first major event in regional boxing this year.

FFA Chapter Conducting Team Wins First In State

Hereford Future Farmers of America chapter conducting team took first place honors at state F. F. A. leadership contests in Huntsville Saturday.

The Hereford High Chapter competed against 10 areas, representing 1,000 departments of vocational agriculture in Texas, in taking state honors.

The Hereford team represented Area I, Texas F. F. A., at state contests. Team members were accompanied by Jess Robinson, Hereford High vocational agriculture teacher and Chapter advisor.

Contests were held on the campus of Sam Houston State Teachers College. The college presented banners to winning teams.

Taking second place in the senior chapter conducting division was Decatur High School, and New Waverly High School placed third in the statewide competition.

The local team won first place honors in Amarillo District contests at Hereford High in November and took top honors at Area I contests in Plainview Dec. 3.

Some 300 to 350 F. F. A. members from all parts of the state competed for honors at Huntsville. Top team from each area competed in the state contest.

Slush Cuts Vote On Cotton Control

Due to slushy rural roads, only a light number of Deaf Smith County farmers voted to continue marketing controls on cotton in the 1961 Cotton Referendum here Tuesday.

By a 55 "for" and 14 "against" tabulation, local cotton growers showed surprising interest in the referendum. The worst ice storm in 19 years nearly blocked last year's referendum, when 26 voted for continued controls and three voted against the program.

State tabulations were not available at the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office in Hereford Wednesday morning. Preliminary returns from Virginia, Georgia, Florida and Illinois, however, indicated that American upland cotton growers were strongly in favor of market controls.

In this county, 36 votes were challenged. Challenged votes will be canvassed by the County ASC Committee Thursday.

Voting was held at three county polling locations from 8 a. m. through 6 p. m. on referendum day. Any person engaged in cotton production and their wives, were eligible to vote.

Polling places were open in the County Courthouse, Deaf School Cafeteria and Ford Community House. (Continued on page 2)

BIG CARL MILLER used his six feet and five inches to best advantage for this rebound shot against the tough Palo Duro quintet here Tuesday night. Miller was high for Hereford with 18 points, but Don Gilley's crew from Amarillo had too much finesse as they won a 71-65 decision from the Whitefaces. Lynn Saunders (31) and Francis Bruce (3) watch the shot as Hereford's Thomas Coffman tries to give Miller more shooting room. (Staff Photo)

Eight Grade Nips Clovis Team 22-21

BY WAIN MILLER
Brand Sports Writer

The Eighth Grade Stanton Dogies edged out Gattis Junior High in the fourth quarter to win by the score of 22-21 at Clovis last Monday night. The eighth graders from Hereford now hold a two wins-one loss record for their basketball efforts.

Stanton rallied in the third quarter to tie things up in a 16-16 deadlock going in to the fourth period during their exciting game at Clovis. The Dogies had previously faced a 6-12 deficit at the half.

Scoring was limited to only seven points for both sides during the first quarter as Frank Cain mustered two points for Stanton while Pianson scored five for Gattis.

Cain and Johnny Dowd hit for two apiece in the second quarter while Clovis totaled seven points to set the score at only 6-12 at the halftime.

Dowd and Cain both connected five Dogie markers in the third stanza to tie it up at 16 all. Gary Don Roberson, Frank Cain, and Lynn Cook all sank field goals in the final round to edge out Clovis 22-21 as the final buzzer sounded.

Return On Sugar Beets Is Stable

United States Department of Agriculture officials this week stated that 1960 sugar beet crop contracts provide for about the same sharing of returns between growers and processors as in 1959, according to Deaf Smith County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager Faust Collier.

Under 1959 contracts, beet producers received from processors an average of $11.20 per ton. In addition, producers received Sugar Act payments amounting to about $2.35 per ton.

In announcing price determination for the 1960 crop of sugar beets, USDA said sugar beet purchase contracts are negotiated annually, generally just prior to planting the crop, when current conditions can be taken into account.

The determination requires processor-producers to pay prices for sugar beets not less than those provided for in their 1960 crop purchase contracts with growers.

The Sugar Act of 1948 requires producers who process sugar beets grown by other producers to pay prices established by the Secretary of Agriculture as one of the conditions to be eligible to receive Sugar Act payments on their own production.

Public hearings on the subject were held in five cities throughout the sugar beet producing areas in December, 1959, and January, 1960.

Thursday in the Tascosa gym, then tangle at 9 p. m. Friday with the Amarillo Sandies in the Amarillo High armory. Saturday night they will be home to play Seminole. The B team will be in the Silverton tourney those three days, but the B team is to be split if necessary to play here Saturday night.

It's been suggested and should be tested that with flies on the fly. We should really try having Christmas parties in July!

B Squad Defense Shines In 62-53 Victory Over Dons

The sparkling Hereford High School Bees downed the Palo Duro Dons for the second time this season as they handed them the short end of a 62-53 score. The Herd also came out victorious by the score of 61-52 when they contested the Dons at Amarillo on Nov. 25. Hereford takes on the Amarillo Sandies Thursday and Friday in a double-header billed at Amarillo.

The Herd romped off to a 6-0 lead with two minutes elapsed in the first quarter and maintained their advantage throughout the remainder of the game. The Herd's lead was only three-tened once in the game when big M.T. Knowles sank two bonus points for the Dons to set the score at 49-16 with four minutes remaining in the final round.

The Herd's hustling defense contained the Dons to only six points in the first period of action while Hereford ripped the cords for 19 points. Palo Duro finally got things rolling their way in the second quarter as they tossed in 16 points while Hereford managed nine markers, but they still maintained a 28-22 lead at the half.

The Dons faced a 45-37 deficit entering the final stanza. Hereford scored four points before the visitors began to rally.

They sank three straight field goals before Knowles sank two charity tosses with 4:10 left in the game. This put the score at 49-16, which was as close as the Amarillo team got to Hereford.

Lynton Allred connected with a field goal and then scored another on a fast break with 3:30 left to set the record at 53-16. Knowles' tosses for two points for the Dons, Jerry Curtisinger added another point from the foul line, and then Allred stepped in to steal the ball from Knowles and passed to Randy Dowell who found the range, but the score was cancelled by an unpopular charging foul with 2:15 left to be played. Dowell added a free throw and then tipped in a rebound. Jerry Curtisinger tipped in another one off the backboard and then he sank one for charity with 1:30 remaining. Mack Cansler stole the ball and passed down court to Dowell who sank one with one minute left to end the scoring for Hereford, Palo Duro

Continental Has Option For New Facility Site

Continental Grain Company has acquired an option to purchase an 11-acre industrial tract, it was announced this week by Dennis Wosnitzky, Hereford manager.

The option was secured from Mr. and Mrs. John Moody, and the tract lies approximately one block south of Highway 60, joining the Santa Fe right-of-way. The trackage, generally, will be located west of the Lucky U Motel, and east of the H and H Furniture.

"Continental considers the tract to be an ideal site for a grain elevator facility, and has its engineers working on tentative plans for construction," Wosnitzky said. He added that no other information is available at this time.

Continental has been operating in Hereford since August, 1956, using facilities of the former Fraser Grain and Milling Company.

Stanton Frosh In Win Over Clovis

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

The Stanton Frosh downed the Freshmen from Gattis Junior High at Clovis last Monday night by the score of 38-33. Stanton now has three wins and only one downfall to their credit so far in their cage season.

Clovis edged out a 7-6 lead during the first quarter, but the Dogies gained the lead in the second period and maintained it during the rest of the contest.

Eugene Green and Jim Haney teamed up to score all but three of the Dogie points during the entire game. Earl Jackson added three for the Dogies to give Stanton their total of 38 points.

The Stanton Frosh, along with the rest of the Stanton cage teams, will participate in the annual Golden Spread Conference Tournament which will be held in the Stanton gymnasium beginning at 2:30 Friday afternoon and lasting through Saturday. The Stanton Frosh take on the Littlefield Wildcats to open the tourney here Friday at 2:30 p. m. The tourney which was originally set for last Friday and Saturday was postponed because of the snow.

He recalled the heavy snows around Vega, Texas, when he was a boy, then pointed out that many of the younger citizens had never even seen snow. I got to worrying about how the whole United States was maybe going up in flames. This, of course, was back in the days before I was old enough to worry about atom bombs, hydrogen bombs, and left-wing politicians. However, I have to admit that it was almost as good a subject as you can find today.

Anyone who ever saw Ray Conway perform in the role of Santa Claus immediately labels him as the "best I ever saw." I got to watching him the other night, and figured out why. Ray always kisses the ladies, and occasionally sits one on his lap, and he really is the best - and just to keep the record straight, I saw him put "Little J. W. Robinson" on this job the same night - and if that isn't going beyond the call of duty, nothing ever will.

The Howard Gaults are back from Idaho, safe and sound. A lot of their friends were wondering if the Gaults got snow-bound and, sure enough, Mrs. Gault says it took them a flat week to get back home. They had most of their trouble between here and Raton. It took an entire day to go from there to Clayton, where they cooled their heels for another full day. I think they sort of enjoyed it, though I am sure you would never get them to admit the fact.

You never can tell about feminine wiles. Not long ago I was wondering why women are early shoppers and men are usually late. A nice lady told me this week that she was buying a present for her husband now, so she could put on the tree - and he would keep on seeing it, and it would keep on reminding him to get her something. She said if she didn't do this, the yahoos would probably forget all about the occasion; besides, she says this is the best way to help the male population get the "Christmas Spirit." She seemed real surprised that I had never figured out the deal. I am such a naive soul that it never occurred to me but, come to think it over, and it does make a lot of sense.

The bald men of this country came into their own when Ike was elected President, and it looks as if they are still doing OK. Mr. Kennedy may have a bushy head of hair himself, but he sure is leaning heavily on the hairless wonder boys. First there is Dean Rusk, the new Secretary of State, who has less hair than Maurice Tannahill and R. G. Peeler combined. Adlai Stevenson, the new UN nominee, has little more; I would say that he falls pretty well into the Henry Sears-Russell Carver category.

The whole thing is parallel to the idea that the average man thinks he is the one who decided who he would marry and when.

Another thing that bothers me is the fact that more house shoes are sold than ever before - and you find more rugs and wall-to-wall carpeting than ever before. I guess maybe people don't want to get the nice, new carpet soiled with their dirty feet. Mostly, though, I figure we are suffering from an over-dost of prosperity.

Phil Silvers has been trying to propagandize the fact that bald men have more sex appeal, but it seems to me that he has convinced everyone but the women.

Don Moore, the choir director, has a story about what the devil would do if he lost his tail. The answer is: "He would go to Castro County, where they retail spir-its."

Don really said "France" but it sounded a lot better to me to say Castro County, so I took the liberty of changing it around. This is what you call "poetic license" when you do it yourself; when someone else does it, the term is "literary piracy." My wife says that I probably take more advantage of this liberty than anyone she ever saw; she has said it so much that the children are beginning to agree with her. I can't understand why.

One of the most delightful parts of the year at the Brand starts with the arrival of the first letter to Santa Claus. Although some are a little difficult to decipher, all are a joy to read. Most of them are straight-forward with a list of items desperately wanted. Others take time to introduce the writer, to outline a trip and point out their whereabouts on Christmas, while still others remind Santa to bring his appetite for candy, cookies, cakes and other goodies which will be left for him. Regardless, each is a love letter, filled with childish honesty and a firm, unshakable belief in Santa Claus and his never-empty sack.

Make Your Christmas Goodies Before 'Rush'

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FROM YOUR KITCHEN—The holiday season is a natural time for gift giving, for sharing the joys of the season with loved ones and friends.

Finding the right gift can be difficult, as we all know, but homemade fruitcakes and butter cookies are always "just right." They're just the right remembrance for the postman and your husband's secretary, for little Cousin Jimmy who loves to snack and for Aunt Jenny, whom you want to remember in an especially personal way.

Homemade fruitcakes, cookies, candies, preserves and jellies say you care: You save the recipe, select the very finest ingredients from the pantry and refrigerator shelves, mix and blend them into the tastiest batter, wash the bowls and beaters while the goodies bake, and then ever-so patiently you wait for them to cool.

But homemade treats bring joy to you, too. For you have the truly good time of preparing them, the fun of practicing your culinary arts as the pungent aroma of spices drifts through the kitchen and the warmth of the oven fills your home.

MAKE THEM IN ADVANCE—And there's still another nice thing about homemade goodies. You can make them far in advance—way, ahead of the hustle and bustle that appears with the holiday season. When everyone else is worrying about what to give, you can sit back contentedly knowing your fruitcakes taste even better days after they were prepared because they were made with butter. Baked foods prepared with butter even improve in flavor as they sit on your shelf. And butter adds old-fashioned richness and tenderness synonymous with fruitcake.

Aunt Jenny may like her fruitcake light, or she may prefer it dark. Satisfy her liking with either, as most recipes are filled with candied fruit, dark or white raisins, orange and lemon peel, plenty of eggs and of course flavor-rich butter. Dark cakes are more highly spiced by the addition of cinnamon, cloves and molasses; the white cake nutty with pecans.

When the cakes have cooled, wrap them securely in aluminum foil before storing in a tightly-covered container in a cool place. When ready to decorate and what's a merry fruitcake without an artful topping—mix equal parts of water and light corn syrup which has been boiled vigorously for one minute. Glaze the top of the cakes with this glistening mixture, then colorfully decorate with red and green cherry pieces, almond slivers and other nut meats. A final top glaze should again be applied of the same hot corn syrup mixture.

For the final labor of love, wrap the cakes in aluminum foil and then in the gay tissue of the season. Flute the perkiest bow you can, tying it to the ribboned package for a charming touch-up. The fruitcake recipe neatly copied and tucked into the package will bring never-ending pleasure to Aunt Jenny, who might make a cake for herself or for a loved one.

While fruitcakes are the delight of the adult gourmet, butter cookies belong to the child's world, fitting snugly into the realm of Santa Claus and Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer. Though we must say, there's hardly an adult who's not a cookie lover, too.

Crispy, crunchy butter cookies, as flavoursome and satisfying as the butter they are prepared with, are wonderful for stuffing into those tall Christmas stockings that hang so festively 'neath the tree and along the cherry fireplace. Butter cookies wrap and travel so wonderfully, too, making a sumptuous treat for a young one many miles away. Be sure to stuff a plump cookie in the very toe; then when the stocking is emptied of the upper layers of cookies, nuts and candies, there's a last luscious treat at the very end.

When the cakes have cooled, wrap them securely in aluminum foil before storing in a tightly-covered container in a cool place. When ready to decorate and what's a merry fruitcake without an artful topping—mix equal parts of water and light corn syrup which has been boiled vigorously for one minute. You'd better make plenty. That family of yours is not going to "wait 'til Christmas to open."

Bureau Issues Bulletin Condemning Deception

Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, reported that following a nationwide investigation of increasingly prevalent advertising of "two gallons of paint for the price of one," the National Better Business Bureau, with which the Chamber is affiliated, has issued a bulletin condemning "Buy One - Get One Free" deals as deceptive, if two units are always offered at a single stated price.

Pointing out that several firms in the paint business currently are offering two gallons of paint for the price of one, or for the price of one, plus one cent, as method of selling paint, the National Better Business Bureau stated:

"A question arises as to whether this method of selling paint, or any other commodity, involves the sale of one unit and the gift of another, or whether, in reality, two units at a time are regularly and customarily sold for a single stated price."

"The Bureau believes that public understanding of "Two-for-One-Sales" is that, for a limited time, two articles are being offered for the usual price at which one has been sold, as a single unit, in the recent regular course of business. When two articles are always offered together for a stated price, and cannot be secured individually in the normal course of business, the customary unit of sale is two, and to imply that the stated price is the regular price for one, and the other is "free" is fallacious. Such a scheme has the tendency and capacity to mislead and deceive the trusting and the gullible and to divert trade unfairly from those who do not use such pricing methods," the Bureau stated.

The NBBB bulletin makes the following recommendations:

"The National Better Business Bureau recommends that such terms as 'Two - for - One Sale,' 'Two - for - One, Plus One Cent Sale,' 'Buy One - Get One Free,' and terms of similar import, may be used accurately to describe limited offers, wherein one article is being offered at the price at which it regularly sells independently, as a single unit, and another article is offered without extra cost, or for one cent, as the case may be."

"The National Better Business Bureau further recommends avoidance of such terms as 'Two-

New Money Is Needed By Texas For Improvements

BY VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Texas will need $215,000,000 in new money during the next two years to pay its debts and make needed improvements.

This is the conclusion of the State Finance Advisory Commission. To get the money, the Commission is officially recommending a one-per-cent, state payroll tax as a revenue source that would grow as the state grows. Half the tax would be paid by employers, half by employees.

The Commission made a six-month study of the state's fiscal problems at Gov. Price Daniel's request. It is made up of leaders from the fields of business, labor, and the professions.

As a second choice, the Commission proposed increasing selective sales taxes. Main emphasis, however, was on the payroll tax which, it was noted, both employers and employees could deduct from federal income taxes.

In addition, the Commission endorsed several secondary methods of fattening the treasury. Among them: increasing college tuition, enacting the governor's abandoned property measure halting refunds of gasoline taxes to non-highway users.

The Commission outlined need for 1961-63 spending increases that would total approximately $189,000,000. Extra money would go to: (1) public school improvements, including $400 a year raises for teachers, (2) medical care for the aged, (3) faculty raises in state colleges and universities, (4) expansion of the state hospital and prison systems, (5) increasing legislators' salaries as provided by constitutional amendment, and (6) stepping up the state water program, parks development, tourist and industry promotion and several others. Besides this $189,000,000, the state will need an estimated $70,000,000 to cover the deficit in general revenue fund. This brings total new needs to $259,000,000. But the Commission believes increased income from present sources could bring in as much as $44,000,000, leaving only $215,000,000 to be raised.

A payroll tax, according to the Commission estimates, would bring in $217,000,000 in the two-year period ahead.

State Hospital Board has been urged to make another try at getting a new school for retarded children in the 1961-63 budget.

The Board had originally included a request for $1,500,000 for a school in the Gulf Coast area in its budget, but took it out after budget officials said the Capital budget was too big.

Harvey Phillips, president of the Texas Association for Retarded Children, said the school was badly needed. State schools for retarded children have long waiting lists of applicants.

At present the Board is seeking to expand present schools quickly with low-cost housing units. Phillips said the Association recognizes the necessity for this, but feels the state should move toward having smaller schools in more locations.

Austin Court of Civil Appeals upheld a district court decision outlawing a brokerage system for loan companies.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, who filed the suit against an Austin loan company and a Corpus Christi loan company, called the ruling "an important victory in the war against loan sharks."

According to the attorney general's charges, people who borrowed money from the Austin company had to pay a brokerage fee to the Austin loan company for obtaining the money from the Corpus Christi company. Appeals court agreed with the trial court that this was an illegal means of charging excessively for loans.

Attorney General Wilson said the Corpus Christi firm has such brokerage arrangements with about 175 loan companies over the state.

Development of a corps of intensively trained case workers resulted in a 17-per-cent drop in aid to dependent children payments, says the State Welfare Department.

In the past fiscal year the number of families receiving ADC declined from 23,147 to 19,662 for a saving of $3,103,614. The Department said specialization enabled case workers to help some of the ADC families overcome their problems.

The Department report also showed a decline in the number receiving old age assistance — from 5.38 per cent of the population over 65 to 5.29 per cent. Average monthly check for year was $52.89.

High bids totaled $6,536,606 in the first sale of drilling rights on Texas school land since the U. S. Supreme Court affirmed state ownership of 10.5 mile-wide tidelands.

Twenty of the 243 tracts on which leases were sold are in the Gulf. Largest individual bid was $1,091,188 for drilling rights on 1,440 acres in Kleberg County.

Money from the sale will be added to the $140,000,000 already in the permanent school fund. Only earnings from the investment of this fund may be spent on the schools. A sale of mineral leases on University of Texas lands had been scheduled for March, but has been postponed.

Guy B. Harrison of Waco resigned as chairman of the State Library Commission amid what he termed "a hodgepodge of confusion" over rural library programs.

The five-member Commission has been divided over whether to merge the State Library's Extension Division and the federally financed Rural Library Service.

Stanley Banks, Sr. of San Antonio will succeed Harrison as chairman.

SHORT SNORTS — Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the conviction of a Houston man for using hypnosis to treat illness.

A 30-day jail sentence and $500 fine were assessed in trial court. Jerry Sadler, who is to become land commissioner January 1, announced he will appoint Tom Stilwell of Palestine as chief clerk of the land office. Stilwell is a former House member.

Abilene State School has failed to follow recommended procedures for keeping track of money. State Auditor C.H. Cavness said in his audit report. Cavness said he had suggested before that one employe open students' mail in the presence of another, removing any money and making a record of it before it leaves the mail room. The school houses 1,577 mentally retarded children.

Gray Advisor In Test Laboratory
"A tremendous asset to Plains farmers," is Frank Gray's description of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's new Soil Testing Laboratory, which was opened in Lubbock on Nov. 21.

Gray, an active agricultural leader for many years, has served on the Lubbock County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors since October, 1953, and as a member of the State Soil Conservation Board since May, 1959. He also currently serves as chairman of the West Texas Soil Laboratory Committee, a group which has played a vital role in the establishment of this facility.

Gray called for continued close cooperation of all agricultural agencies and local soil conservation districts in aiding farmers to make maximum use of the soil testing laboratory. "Proper fertilization is necessary for the best economic returns from our soil and water resources," Gray said. He emphasized that "proper fertilization" included attention to organic matter needs as well as to inorganic fertilizer requirements.

On behalf of his committee, Gray expressed deep appreciation to the various groups whose contributions have made the laboratory a reality. They include Goodpasture Grain and Milling Company, Inc. of Brownfield; American State Bank, Lubbock

Frank Gray
National Bank, First National Bank, Plains National Bank, Citizens' National Bank, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, Farmers Cooperative Compress, West Texas Compress and Warehouse, Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock Cotton Oil Company, Lubbock Production Credit Association and Western Cotton Oil Company, all of Lubbock; Hale County Farm Bureau; The Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, and the Lubbock County Commissioners Court.

Other members serving with Gray on the West Texas Soil Laboratory Committee are John Key, Secretary, Lubbock; Grady Goodpasture, Brownfield; Arnold Newman, Littlefield; Stark Royal, Lubbock; Elmer Blankenship, Wilson; S. M. Trev, Jr., Plainview; Wilmer Smith, New Home; Roy Forkner of Lubbock, and Bob Cox of Tarzan.

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK
Incident Over the Pacific by James MacGregor is a timely bit of fiction from the Deaf Smith County Library.

Ten passengers were on a flight over the Pacific from Hawaii to Sydney, Australia. They were in a big airliner with perfect weather and a very experienced crew.

They had no advance knowledge that their flight was to take them into an atomic test area the precise moment an H-bomb was scheduled to detonate.

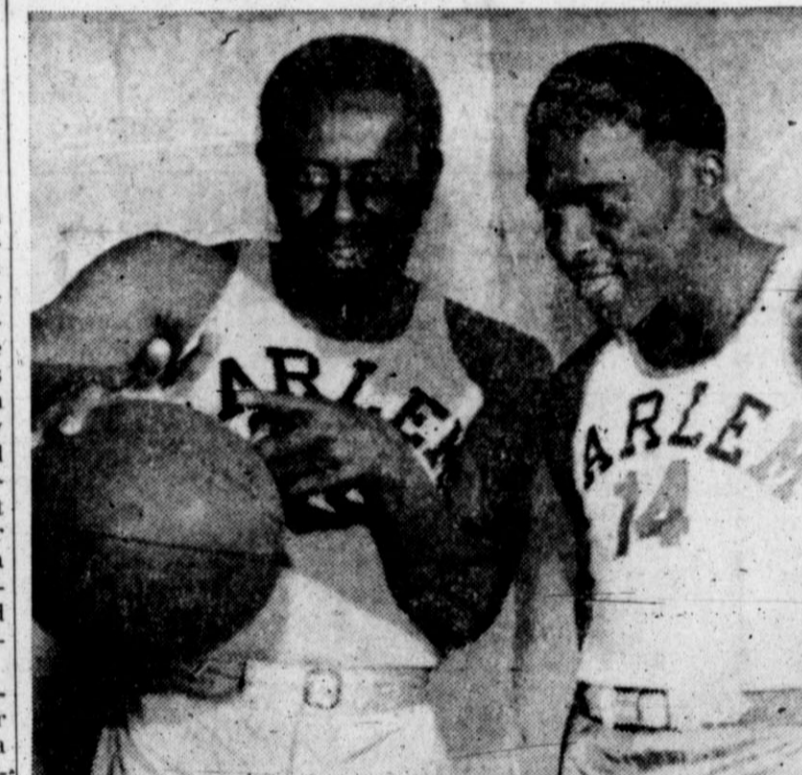

An unusual group had been carefully assembled for the fateful trip. Henry Brunwald was head of the airline and mastermind of a plot that was to involve everyone on board: the plane; Mango Robertson was one of three real beauties on board, but she was haunted by a terrible secret; J. L. and Wilma Pierce were oil millionaires, convinced they could get anything they wanted with their money; John Kolper was a brilliant young musical conductor who couldn't be convinced that he couldn't win Vera Rinkel, famous young violinist;

Heinrich Niemeier was a German rocket scientist working for the U. S.; Lee Armstrong, a luscious model whose near-perfect figure attracted men like flies but hid an unexpected code of behavior; Bob Fellowes, a handsome movie star who had been one of the he-men to play Tarzan; and Manning Maine, an imaginative writer.

Jenny Earl was the stewardess, borrowed for the occasion by Brunwald because she knew how to act calm under real stress.

With a sealed door between the passengers and the flight crew, these people were trapped into participating in a scheme that could end in death.

MacGregor has written a tensely-absorbing story that conceivably becomes true some day. In fact, it is not unlike some events which have taken place recently in the United States.

PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL'S only father-and-son team, Reece (Goose) Tatum, Sr., and Reece Jr., will be seen in action Saturday night, Dec. 17, at Buffalo Fieldhouse in Canyon when the Harlem Stars play the New York Renaissance. Satchel Paige, of baseball fame, will be one of the referees and half-time entertainment will feature top variety acts. West Texas State's Buffalo Club is sponsoring the attraction that starts at 8 p.m.

With his characterization and tight story line, MacGregor's Incident Over the Pacific makes excellent reading.

Eight Inches Of Snow Received In Community

BY MRS. S. N. THWEATT
Weather the past week was the main topic of conversation in the community. Snow began falling early Tuesday morning and continued throughout the week, leaving approximately seven or eight inches of moisture. The sun didn't shine until Friday afternoon.

The snow began to melt Sunday. No wind was reported until Saturday afternoon and night. The farmers in Garcia report that they think the snow was beneficial to the ground, since it had been drying to an extent.

Christmas Is Picnic Time In Australia

SYDNEY (AP) — The sun blazes down... men and women wear summer clothes to church crowds pack the beaches... cold turkey salad is eaten by quiet inland streams.

That is Christmas Day in Australia

The day comes to the big cities of eastern Australia 10 hours before London, 15 hours ahead of New York.

Because it's mid-summer in the southern hemisphere, the Christmas - New Year period is holiday time in Australia.

Some small firms close for 10 days or so over Christmas and New Year. Those that stay open do little business.

Schools have their longest break, varying from six to eight weeks, in December and January. Working men and women who can manage it take their annual holidays at this time.

Many thousands of Australian families spend Christmas away from home. They live in canvas tents, caravans, holiday houses, hotels, and guesthouses.

But broadly the traditions of an English Christmas are maintained in this country 12,000 miles away from the British Isles.

More people go to church than on any other day in the year. Presents are exchanged. Santa Claus arrives for the children. Families try to be together. Special meals are eaten, with a special bottle of wine.

Many families still stick to the English Christmas Day midday dinner of hot roast turkey, chicken, or duck, followed by steaming plum pudding.

But in recent years more and more housewives are cooking their poultry the day before and having it cold with salad.

Some take a hamper to the beach, have their salad sitting on the sand and wearing swim suits.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Miller attended the piano recital given Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in the First Christian Church in Hereford, given by students of Mrs. Elb's Cornies, Joleen Hamilton, granddaughter of the Millers, participated in the recital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Hamilton of Hereford.

Bruce Coleman made a trip to Lubbock Saturday and returned home by way of Friona. Mrs. Coleman's mother, Josie Busby, came home with Coleman and spent the weekend.

Guests in the home of the B. B. Hudsons Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hudson and family of Hereford, Mrs. B. E. White and children of Foot Leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown and son Tommy visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt Saturday evening, where the couples played 42. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vought of Tuttle, Okla., were guests of the Phillip Millers recently. The couples had not seen one another for eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt and Spain made a business trip to Lubbock on Monday of last week. They came home by way of Levelland where they visited Mrs. Thweatt's niece, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hagan. The Hagans have a new baby boy, born Nov. 29, and weighing seven pounds and 1 ounce. They named him George Patrick. The Hagans have four other children, Mike, Dickie, Rust and Nina.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Markham and daughter moved to Texline last week. Mrs. Markham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Buse.

Mrs. Elmer Northcutt visited Mrs. J. E. Rouse Wednesday on her way to Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Hudson and family visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hudson recently.

CARD OF THANKS

Question Of The Week

The question of the week is: What do you want Santa to bring you for Christmas?
Now this is a timely question, and it seems that one thing rates very high on the list of wants—this being a boyfriend or a girlfriend, depending of course on who was asked the question.
Dennis Rickman — "The first thing I would want for Christmas is a pink '61 Chevy, and second, like everyone else, I want a girl; but the thing I would like to have most is to spend the Christmas vacation in Juarez with Lesley, Poarch and Pavlicek."
Linda Reed — "I just want clothes, clothes, and one special someone."
David Sellers — "a date with Judy"
Charles Thomas — "I want a great big, beautiful blonde, and a state basketball team."
Judy Schulte — "A five-foot-eleven inch, dark, handsome male (unattached)."

Joe Frank Huckert — "A real good stereo."
Jerry Curt-singer — "I want a beautiful girl, and also I would like to have a state basketball title, and also a good looking girl; also I would like about a million dollars, and last, but not least, of course, I want a girl."
Dean Jones — "A nice, new car with a nice new blonde in it."
Kay Cole — "Five inches of snow and a stereo!"
Carl Miller — "I want a state basketball team, and television's Michael Anthony to pay me a visit."
Barbara Duncan — "Clothes and a pearl ring"
David Dowell — "A big mud puddle for Kay Seamonds and Jenny Holt."
Charles Kelly — "A hair dryer for Kay and Jenny"
Austin Hodges — "A head shrinker!"
Glen Nelson — "More food in the cafeteria."
Kay Allen — "An "A" in Algebra and a certain somebody."

Football Personalities

"My most embarrassing moment was one time when the basketball team was scrimmaging and Tom Coffman grabbed me by the pants. They fell off." So say Greg Combs, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Combs.
Greg, five-feet, eight-inches tall, is a senior in Hereford High School, and a guard on the basketball team. He is interested in all sports and they take first place as his hobby and pastime.
"The faculty gets mixed up sometimes, but otherwise school is all right," comments "Peek," as he is sometimes called.
Unfriendly people irritate Greg more than anything else. His favorites include Mr. Bill Phillips, as a teacher, and trigonometry as a school subject. He enjoys steak and shrimp as favorite foods.
Speedy Ronnie Caster plays guard on the Whiteface quintet. Five-foot-eight inches might be considered by some as a handicap to a basketball player, but Ronnie makes up for his lack of altitude with his shiftness on the basketball court.
Ronnie recalls one of his most embarrassing moments on the basketball court as when he was after a rebound under the net with a "bunch of great big bruisers" towering over him and the whistle blew. Without any hesitation, Ronnie held up his hand as the guilty party, only to find that the whistle was for a time-out.
"Bean," as he is sometimes called, thinks H. H. S. is a great place to attend school. He says his favorite teacher is Mr. Penner and he has the most fun in mechanical drawing.
He says he is anxious to graduate, work and save some money, and then find him a little wife, and set up housekeeping.
Ronnie likes to spend his free moments with Linda Martin and listening to good music when she's not around.
Ronnie's highest ambition is to win state. He thinks that Dumas will be the Herd's biggest obstacle this year, but he expects a good season for the Whitefaces.
Ronnie's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Caster. Ronnie, a 17-year old Senior, was born July 16, 1943, in Cleburne.

The Shadow

This week the Shadow had a hard job keeping up with our mystery girl.

Sunday was a perfectly wonderful day. She was walking on "Cloud Nine" all day long and hardly eating a thing.

Monday was an ordinary day. She arrived at school at the usual time with the usual morning passenger. During the day she saw her usual friends, including a special one. That afternoon she trudged to work at the same old place.

She went to school happily Tuesday morning, but after hearing some gossip, her morale changed. That night she had quite a few phone calls, one of which was quite disappointing.

Wednesday morning, bright and early, 7:20, in fact, she got a phone call from her morning passenger, telling her not to come by for her. At noon she made a phone call to a certain sick friend to discuss matters concerning another mutual friend.

Thursday morning she arrived at school at the usual time, only to learn there was no school that day, so she had a ball. She went downtown, shopping with her morning passenger, and met another friend who was falling down on the ice.

Mystery girl was not awakened Friday morning by her aunt because she thought there would be no school; so she arrived at school just a little before 9 a.m. Then she had to turn right around and go back home when school was dismissed at 9. It's understood that she spent the afternoon working, as usual.

As you may have already guessed, the Shadow has been following none other than PATSY FOWLER.

Christmas Tree Is In Cafeteria

Again this year, the Hereford High chapters of Future Homemakers have had the honor of putting up the Christmas tree for Hereford High School. Many clubs and organizations have asked to put up the tree, but it has become a tradition that the FHA should have this privilege. Each girl in the organization brought one ornament from home and stayed after school Wednesday afternoon to decorate the tree, which stands in the high school cafeteria this year.

Jan Reese was in charge of the purchasing of the tree, and Maribeth Gilliland was chairman of the decorations committee.

Local residents who attended the Lions Club Ladies Night party, Dec. 9, and members of the school faculty attending the Texas State Teachers' Association Christmas party, Dec. 12, enjoyed the tree as part of their decorations.

Snow Melting In Community

BY MRS. HAROLD RUDD
Most of the snow has melted off the roads and is melting off the fields also. The snow was beneficial so far as moisture is concerned but was a little rough for the cattle and other livestock. The school buses ran Friday morning but the children were returned home very soon. Most were taken home in cars.

"Just Then"

... the thought occurred, who of us can escape accident, sickness, death... the common lot of mankind? We do well to buy accident or hospitalization insurance. But only God can prepare our minds for enforced leisure and to endure suffering. His church and the inspiration of His Holy Word bring more of sunshine than of shadow. Of course the visit of a friend or the helping hand of a loved one minimizes the bondage of this wheelchair and helps us remember that the future is in His keeping. For He said, "They who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Present Dollar Crisis Is Explained By Congressman

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

Question: Is the present dollar crisis, or gold crisis, too complex for the average individual to understand?

Answer: It is not. The fact is that the dollar problem now facing this country is not unlike the dollar problem which has faced us—average Americans for a long time, a problem with which a vast majority of the people in this country are well-acquainted: more is going out than is coming in.

Of course, this seems to be all of the time, and it will be as soon as you get children in college. In other words, you are importing more than you are exporting, or buying more than you are selling.

In international finance, this is referred to as balance of payments. Until recent years, the balance of payments was in favor of the United States. That is, this country was exporting more than it was importing.

However, in recent years, due to three major forces, this situation has reversed itself and the U. S. is now putting out $4 billion more than it is taking in, creating the disturbing gap in the balance of payments. The three forces referred to are excessive imports, American investments in foreign countries, and foreign aid.

Excessive imports have been caused in a large degree by the ability of foreign nations to produce and sell many commodities cheaper than they can be produced in the United States. Many of these nations have been built up by American foreign aid, from a wartime economy to their present competitive status.

American investments in foreign countries total approximately $32 billion. These investments of American capital have been enticed into foreign countries by cheap labor, less taxation, favorable credit, nearness of potential markets, etc. Only recently the Ford Motor Company engineered a transaction to purchase foreign-held stock in the British Ford company at a price highly profitable to the foreign stockholders.

This transaction would move upwards of $200 million into foreign hands. The Secretary of the Treasury advised the Ford company, this would not be to the best interests of the United States, but that the government could not forbid the company from proceeding with the transaction. In September, foreigners held $19.1 billion in dollars; the American gold stock was $18.7. If all the holders of foreign dollars demanded redemption in gold, which they have a right to do, we would be $400 million short in meeting these demands.

Everyone is familiar with the foreign aid program of this country. There is no doubt that many of the war-torn nations had to have substantial assistance after the war in order to offset the Communist menace. The Marshall Plan afforded this assistance and, in my opinion, could have been sufficient.

However, it blossomed into an overall foreign aid program which finds the taxpayers of this country contributing to every conceivable kind of program in countries all over the world. There are many reasons why I have opposed this expanded foreign aid program, but the major one is the result which is now apparent—damage to the U. S. dollar.

Our foreign aid program has in many instances built the industrial economy of foreign countries to the point they could produce items in competition to items produced in this country. The cheap labor and long hours make it possible to produce those foreign items at a cost much less than they can be produced in this country. This has caused the difficulty referred to above from the import standpoint. The countries which have profited by this situation do not seem to be too sympathetic with the troubles which have arisen, i. e., Germany.

These foreign countries have also taken advantage of the attitude of many Americans that an item is better if it is marked imported. In fact, a number of countries have different grades of goods for export to this country and for domestic use by their own nationals. That for domestic use is a much cheaper item than the goods for export.

In some instances, the goods for domestic use have been imported from some other country because they can be obtained at a cheaper price. By doing this a country can sell their own products to this country at a high price, buy much of their needs from another country at a much cheaper price, and make money in the entire transaction.

This whole procedure can be halted if people in this country would realize that the quality of goods produced in this country is surpassed nowhere in the world, and stop being misled by the magic word "imported." We know what the problem is, we know what is causing it. The question is, whether or not this country will act effectively to cure the ailment. A family faced with an adverse balance of payments must make adjustments to correct that balance if it is to protect its credit. The same rule applies to this country, if it is to protect its credit, to-wit: the value of the dollar.

Peeler Speaker At Club Meeting

long study investigating possibilities of exporting grain sorghum to European countries, was guest speaker at the noon meeting of Hereford Kiwanis Club Thursday noon in I.O.O.F. Hall.

Peeler visited Italy, Portugal, Spain, the United Kingdom, Netherlands, West Germany, Belgium, Greece, Turkey and Israel in studying possibilities of expanding foreign markets. Chief objective of his study was to appraise and give further direction to the market promotion projects which are being conducted throughout this area in cooperation with the Foreign Agriculture Service and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

He pointed out that during periods of prosperity, a country consumes more livestock products, and that creates an outlet for feed grains. Guest at the meeting was Russell Carver of Hereford.

CASA DE AMIGOS NEWS Migrant Workers Return To Valley

This week many of the migrant workers moved south to other areas. Some stated that they planned to return to the valley, sell their homes, and become permanent residents of Hereford in the spring. Regular Campfire program will be held next Tuesday at Casa De Amigos. These girls will also meet at the Community Center in Hereford each Saturday afternoon to sing Christmas carols.

members from Lubbock, Slaton, and Plainview last Monday night in Lubbock. Miss Betty Whitaker and John Robinson reported on plans for 1961. The Texas Migrant Ministry will have only one staff worker supervised and aided by Miss Whitaker in 1961. This means that the Casa De Amigos residents will have to assume more responsibility for the local program. It will require more work for the volunteers from the five participating churches. Mrs. Ward has given trees to be used at the Casa De Amigos. Volunteers are needed to dig holes and transplant these trees. Those wishing to assist may call Herb Boardman, EM 4-0490 or Virgil Dodson, EM 4-1172. The group wishes to especially thank Mrs. Ward. If anyone has comic books to be contributed please the above numbers or they may be delivered to the Casa De Amigos. The guest book may be signed while there.

THEY WORK HARDER BECAUSE THEY RIDE EASIER!

Because they ride easier they last longer, too. They take better care of payloads and they make a long day's work a lot more pleasant for the driver. All that—primarily because of Independent Front Suspension (I.F.S.). If you think it's stretching a point to attribute that many advantages to a suspension system, you haven't driven a new Chevy with I.F.S. Take the wheel and feel its road-leveling ride, its almost total absence of shimmy and wheel fight, its ease of steering even in the big rigs. Spend hours behind the wheel and you're not nearly as tired. You're not and neither is the truck. That independent suspension soaks up the worst shock and vibration—the kind that can twist sheet metal and loosen joints and increase your maintenance costs. That's why Chevy trucks keep on working and saving for extra thousands of miles.
