IN BEAUTY PAGEANT — Petite and pretty Peggy Neff, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Neff of 225 Beech St., is among entries in the "Miss Variety Park" beauty pageant slated here Aug. 19 as a feature of the grand opening of the face-lifted downtown Hereford business area. Entries are still being accepted in the event, which will see a bonanza of prizes awarded finalists in the contest. See story below. (Staff Photo)

Topping On Main Begins Today

Pageant Entries Continue

Entries are currently being sought for the "Miss Variety Park" beauty contest which will be held in conjunction with the official opening of Hereford's unique face-lifting project begun early this spring.

Final phases of construction will begin today with the black-topping of the 100 and 200 blocks of Main. The 300 and 400 blocks are scheduled to be topped tomorrow.

PLANTERS are being completed and shrubs will be planted soon, according to Dudley Bayne, city manager.

Set for August 19, the opening will be climaxed by the beauty pageant.

Charlie Bell, pageant director, said that single girls between the ages of 17 and 22 are eligible to compete for the title. Only other requirements are that the entrants reside in Deaf Smith County and that they be sponsored by local businesses. (See entry blank in this section.)

CONTESTANTS will receive a "tremendous list" of prizes according to Bell. Included is a $260 cash award to the person earning the title.

To be featured during the day will be an address by Lt. Gov. Preston Smith at 3 p.m. at 3rd and Main and the crowning of the queen by "Miss New Mexico", Miss Judy Baldwin.

SMITH will also speak at a dinner meeting that evening at the Hereford Country Club. In addition to the cash award to be given "Miss Variety Park", the following list of prizes will go to finalists:

Piggly Wiggly, $25 gift certificate; Leon's Shoe Store, choice of a pair of shoes; J. C. Penney Co., lambs wool cardigan sweater; Gaston's Popular Store, sebastian sweater; Harman's, Betty Rose Suburban coat; Dub's Man's Shop, ladies travel bag; City Drug Store, beauty salon electric hair dryer; Ben Franklin Store, set of luggage; McDowell Drug, Lavin gift set; White Auto Store, electric hair dryer; Rutherford & Co., Samsonty luggage; Twentieth Century Beauty Salon, permanent; Kester's Jewelry, diamond dinner ring; and Gunn Bros. Stamp Store, billfold.

Growing Older?

You might say they've admitted defeat (or that they're getting older, softer, etc.)

But Hereford's Jaycees won't play their traditional football game this year, proceeds of which go to a worthy cause. Rather, they have resorted to a less-demanding game of softball to raise the funds. The team will meet the TV-10 Tigers Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Pony League Park.

Admission is 50 cents, with children under 12 getting to see the ex-football players try their luck on the diamond for free.

Tannahill Fabric Mart, electric scissor, seam ripper and hem taker; Helen's Shop, $25 gift certificate; Roberts' Appliance, portable radio; Stephens-Hudson Motor Co., studio sonic rear speaker; Pioneer Natural Gas Co., $25 cash prize; Deaf Smith Electric Co-op, $25 cash prize; First National Bank, $50 cash prize; Hereford Brand, $25 cash prize; Little's, $30 sweater and skirt set; E. B. Black & Co., maple jewel case; May Dept. Store, $25 gift certificate; Hereford Hardware, Sunbeam portable travel iron; and Fair Store, necklace and ear set.

Cowan Jewelry, ladies white gold Cowan wrist watch; Rogers' Drug, cologne; The Vogue, peignoir set; Glenn's Footwear, choice of a pair of shoes; C. R. Anthony & Co., $25 gift certificate; Beauty Mart, shampoo and set; Cave's Variety, overnight case; Perry Bros., luggage; Western Auto Store, General Electric iron; Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio, "3 Steps to Beauty" gift set; Pitman Grain Co., $50 cash prize; Southwestern Public Service, $25 cash prize; Malouf's, dress; and Bruna's Dept. Gun Range Lease OK'd; City Water Wells Lag

Council Grants Two-Year Rental

Hereford City Commissioners approved a contract granting a lease to Hereford Gun Club for a portion of airport property and heard a report indicating that additional water wells may be needed by the city during discussion at their Monday night meeting.

The two-year lease granted the gun club will allow establishment of a trap-shooting range on airport property northeast of hangar facilities at annual rental fee of $25.

Terms of the contracts are subject to Federal Aviation Agency approval. The FAA recently approved the location of the proposed range after previously turning down another proposed site.

Included in the contract was provision for three renewals for periods of two years and a clause stating that the city may cancel the lease with 90-day notice should the need arise.

Also listed was the requirement that the gun club provide full liability coverage and be made liable for any injuries or property damage resulting from activity at the gun range.

City manager Dudley Bayne reported that the city's 15 water wells are currently producing 8,400,000 gallons of water daily.

"THIS FIGURE is considerably lower than in 1956," he said, pointing out that at that time the city's ten wells pumped some 11 million gallons daily.

He cited drops in water levels and decreased efficiency of the wells due to age as the cause of the lessened output.

COMMISSIONERS took no action on the report, but Bayne told a Brand reporter that additional wells will probably be required to supply the growing city in the not-too-distant future.

In other business, Bayne told commissioners of a request from a women's study club that it be allowed to use the city commission's meeting room in City Hall for regular club meetings.

COMMISSIONERS commented that they "would invite" use of the room on special occasions by local groups, but were hesitant to promise use of the facility to a group for a definite time on a long-term agreement.

Agreeing that the commission room "should be used more," the group agreed to make the room available to the club, but required that the club reserve the facility separately for each meeting.

Labor Camp Hospital Now In Slight Use

By LARRY FUHRMANN
Staff Writer

St. Joseph's Maternity Clinic, begun through the efforts of Dr. Lena Edwards, has not remained idle since the doctor's departure from Hereford on July 16.

The Rev. Eunan Walsh, administrator of the clinic and hospital located in the Labor Camp, has said that definite plans regarding the future of the complex are not known at this time.

Dr. Althea Kessler, on the staff of the Howard University Medical School, has been keeping doors of the clinic open to the patients there. She is a pediatrician.

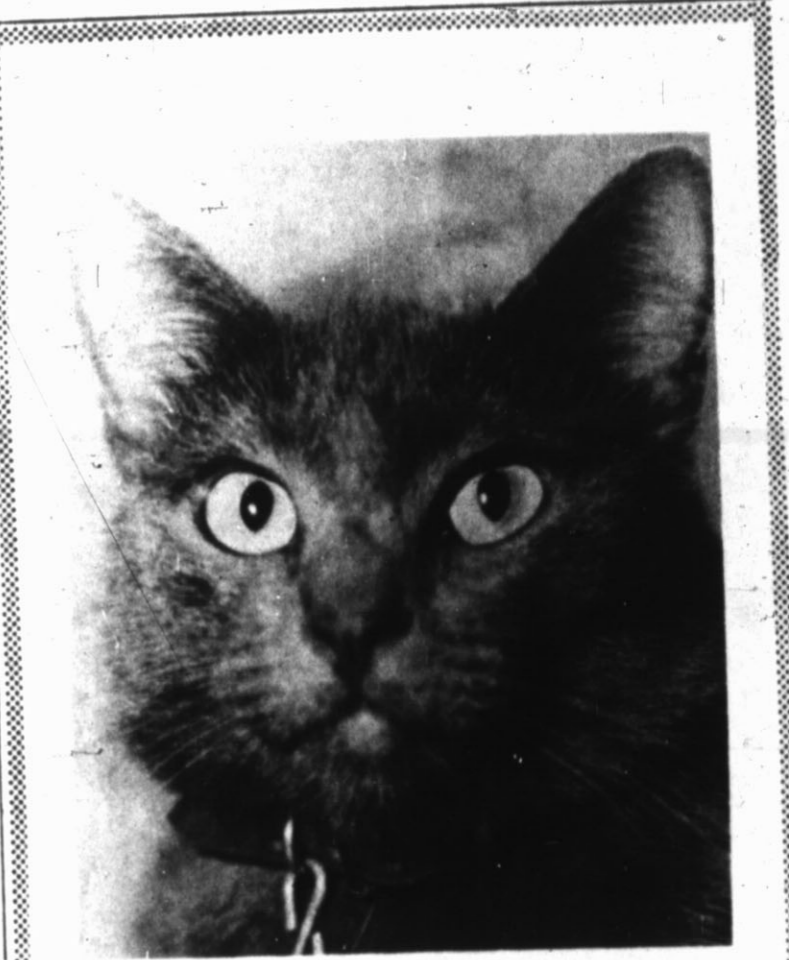

SINCE Dr. Kessler is not licensed to practice medicine in the state of Texas, her position has been one of observation in the clinic; the maternity hospital is not being used at this time.

Dr. Roy Grubbs, city health officer, pointed out that Dr. Kessler is serving in an observation position only, referring cases to Hereford's qualified doctors.

DR. KESSLER had made plans to come to Hereford with the understanding that she would be working with Dr. Edwards, Dr. Grubbs said, and found the situation had changed upon her arrival. Her stay at the camp is expected to end sometime next week; she has served there for about two and a half weeks.

The Rev. Eunan Walsh declined to comment on the fate of the hospital, which was deeded to the Diocese of Amarillo of the Roman Catholic church soon after its completion in 1962. He said definite plans would not be known until Bishop Lawrence M. Defalco of the Amarillo Diocese returned from a vacation at the latter part of this month.

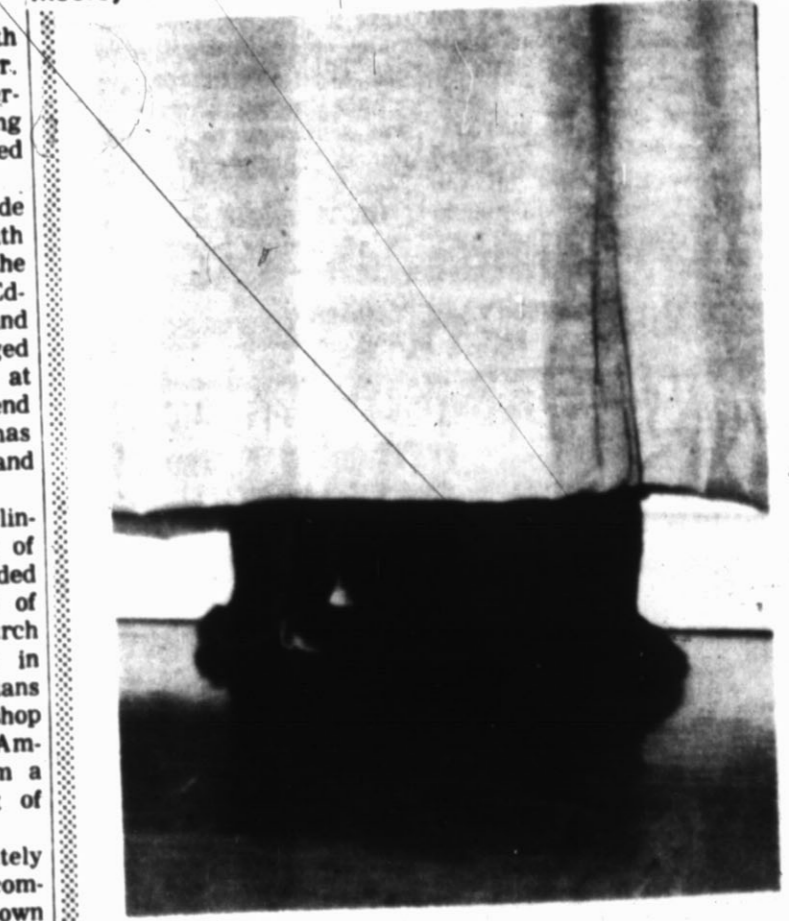

"The hospital will definitely be used," the Rev. Walsh commented, although it is not known to what extent. With the departure of Dr. Edwards, the hospital closed but the clinic remained open. Plans have not been disclosed concerning a replacement when Dr. Kessler returns to Washington, D. C.

Hospital Costs Here Said Lower Than Average

By DAVID BUTLER
Staff Writer

A conservative hospital administration saved 2,000 inpatients in Hereford's Deaf Smith Hospital approximately $181,000. 74 in 1964 over the average state hospital costs.

THESE facts and figures were given to the hospital by Blue Cross and Blue Shield Insurance Company.

T. E. Seigler, hospital administrator, said the administration did not cut costs by buying second rate drugs or groceries, but being a comparatively small hospital it maintained a small staff and used the staff to its fullest.

HE SAID that the lower costs could not be accredited to any one thing or any one person, but to many people on the staff. It was also noted that the inpatients saved approximately $100,378.32 over the average costs in the Amarillo area hospitals.

The company arrived at the figures by taking the 20 percent of patients which they had insured in the hospital as an example.

FIGURES showed that each person saved on the average of $87 per stay over the state hospital cost average and $48 per stay over the Amarillo area average.

Average costs per case statewide was $256.12. The average costs per case in the Amarillo area was $217.15 while the average costs for the Hereford hospital was $169.03.

TOTAL charges per day were statewide, $39.88; Amarillo area, $36.74; and Hereford $29.90.

The Hereford hospital also was lower on drug laboratory charges.

REPORTS also indicated that the hospital was lower in old age assistance cases.

Hospital care costs have increased only $12.06 per case in Hereford while they have increased $41.05 per case on the statewide level.

THE REPORT also indicated that there has been a slight drop in charges per day, drug, laboratory and operating room charges.

Seigler said, "An additional $87 per case or $48 per case does not seem like much money but when it is considered that last year we had 2000 inpatients the total savings to our patients is a considerable figure.

"Also gratifying to us is the fact that in the Amarillo area there are 26 hospitals with which we are compared, only five of which are accredited.

"We are pleased that we have been able to maintain our accreditation status and still not have to charge our patients a higher rate than do other hospitals not accredited," he concluded.

Hopson Brings New Breed Of Cattle To Hereford

By DAVID BUTLER
Staff Writer

"When some men get old they fish, hunt, travel, but I like to raise cattle for a hobby," said A. N. Hopson, long-time Hereford rancher-farmer.

Hopson was referring to his herd of 30 Charlois cattle which he keeps in a Bermuda Grass pasture south of Hereford.

THE CHARLOIS (pronounced Char-lay) cattle is a breed of cattle which is fairly rare in this part of the country. "I have the only herd in the county — I think the only herd near here is at Bovina," Hopson said.

Hopson spends his time breeding the Charlois cattle with other types of cattle such as the Angus.

The Charlois cattle are pure white with light brown eyes and are larger in size than the Black Angus and the Whiteface Hereford.

HOPSON'S bull, Sam, weighs between 1,800 and 2,200 pounds.

"Sam is a tame bull — I can walk right up to him and he will eat feed out of a bucket — he won't let me pet him though," the farmer said.

"The Charlois carcass and the Hereford carcass look about the same in the packing plant, except the Charlois is larger," he said. "They also take longer to feed out since they are bigger," he continued.

"I'VE BEEN told that some of the Charlois cattle will weigh as much as a ton with the bull weighing around 2,600 pounds if they are taken care of and fed well," the farmer said.

Hopson keeps the cattle in a Bermuda grass pasture which is enclosed with an electric fence.

"I planted the pasture and improved it just for my hobby, and so I could raise these cattle," he said.

AT ONE time Hopson was completely paralyzed, but now gets around nearly as well as any 62-year-old man would.

When he first began farming in Hereford he was a dairy farmer. He then went to vegetable farming and still has many acres planted in potatoes, cabbage, grain sorghum and lettuce.

TIMES CHANGE A LITTLE

STONEVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Twenty years ago letters from North Africa and Italy addressed to "Momma, Stoneville, Miss.," reached their destination.

"Momma" happened to be the postmaster at Stoneville, Mrs. Beulah M. Weilenma, whose son was serving in the armed forces during World War II.

Letters still come today addressed to "Momma, Stoneville, Miss." But these are to Mrs. Jane Weilenman Head, who succeeded her mother, and the letters are from Mrs. Head's son in college.

"But there's one difference," said Mrs. Head. "He always adds the zip code."

ROME'S NOISE MUFFLED

ROME (AP) — Rome police handed out 542 fines in a single week in June against autoists who honked too much, owners of transistor radios, juke boxes or TV sets tuned on too loud, or exuberant celebrators who made too much racket. It was part of Rome's campaign to give tourists a quieter stay here.

Sports Polls--Not Infallible

By DAVID BUTLER
Staff Writer

Some people put a lot of stock in what the annual late summer football polls say. Most of these people don't realize that these polls are not infallible and by the end of the football season they have forgotten about the polls anyway.

For instance: a recent poll was called to our attention which picked the order of winners in the Southwest Conference.

THE POLL was taken among some of Texas' top sports writers and sportscasters. They were sent a notice of the poll and asked to circle the schools in the order that they thought they would win.

Over 100 sports writers voted in the poll and selected Texas to win the conference in a close race with Arkansas.

Writers were not too sure of themselves in the lower places with only a two or three vote difference between the schools.

THE POLL last year picked Texas to win the SWC title, and selected Arkansas to come in fourth, but Arkansas nosed Texas out for the title win.

Instead of a poll, maybe these predictions could be called calculated guessing charts, for in the past 30 years, the poll has been correct less than 30 per cent of the time.

IN 1937, members of the poll said that Arkansas and A&M would tie for the top spot, yet when the season was over Arkansas was third and A&M was fifth. Who won -- Rice who had been placed as sixth by the poll. The football polls which have been most effective in the past few years are those which are done by computers.

ONE OF the television networks has a show on Saturdays which gives the scores of the weeks games and predicts the coming games.

Last year the computer was hitting between 80 and 90 per cent on wins and losses and was usually within two touchdowns of the correct score.

OF COURSE, by the time the computer polls begin rolling out

Gordon Golden
Tops City Jr.
Golf Tourney

Gordon Golden is the new City Junior Golfing Champion at the John Pitman Municipal Golf Course. Golden won the tourney Wednesday with a 140.

He scored six over par 78 on the first round and a three over par 73 on the second.

JIMMY Young was in second place for the title with a 154 scoring a 79 on the first game and a 75 on the second.

Steve Hendon was in third place with a 165 scoring 79 in the first game and 86 in the second.

Others placing were Mike Horton, 166; Russell Phillips, 174; Paul Hendon, 183; Don Maxwell, 190; Keith Kitchens, 199; and Greg Herring 275.

SEVEN of the players had not finished at press time. They were Joe Angel, Frank Bezner, James Jorde, John Jorde, Bryan Knox, Jimmy Bayne and Dickie Dyer.

The tourney is an annual event at the country club.

Monday morning at 8 o'clock the Hereford Country Club will be sponsoring a Pro-Am tourney with three amateurs and one professional playing.

most of the teams will have had time to begin early practice sessions and the strong and weak points will be visible.

Most of the people who voted in the polls including this reporter, voted according to returning starters and experience of the returning players.

For instance, Texas for the first time in years is lacking in experienced football material and Arkansas seems to have a great deal of experience among its players, so we were inclined to give the first place vote to Arkansas.

BUT TEXAS could come up with some surprises in its ranks of new players and may pull an "upset".

Many times experience won't always get the title. For instance: Texas Tech is a building school and its players want to win enough to fight a little harder.

Who knows, even Tech may win the title.

Girls Slate
Trip To NM

A hundred Camp Fire Girls accompanied by 17 adults will leave Hereford Sunday afternoon for their summer camp in Rio Pueblo in historic Indian country of Northwestern New Mexico. The Camp Fire bus will leave from Dameron Park and other girls will go in eight private cars.

Girls who go by the bus are to meet at 1 p.m. in the park to load the bus. All are to take sack lunches for the supper stop at Lake Storrie State Park north of Las Vegas. The bus will return to Hereford Saturday, Aug. 14, and is due to arrive in Dameron Park about 4 p.m.

Mrs. Philip Barkley, administrative secretary of the Camp Fire Council, announces that luggage and bedrolls must be in the Camp Fire Hut between 2 and 3 p.m. Saturday and that bedrolls or sleeping bags should be tightly rolled and tied with rope. Girls are reminded to take bathing suits.

Drivers of private cars should check departure time. Mrs. Bradley added. A girl who has any question is advised to notify her Camp Fire Guardian or telephone the office, EM4-0395. A list of girls who will ride the bus is posted in the window of the Camp Fire Hut.

STILL ARE STILLS
CHICAGO (AP) — Bootleg liquor still is a problem for U.S. agents.
More than 7,900 individuals were arrested for violations of federal liquor laws during fiscal 1964, says Commerce Clearing House.
The government seized 4,748 distilleries and 6,837 stills in a drive which netted $2.4 million worth of property affected by such liquor.

Although seizures of distilleries, stills, mash and property taken in raids were up from the previous years, the number of individuals arrested was down. Violations in 14 southern states accounted for more than 90 per cent of the distilleries seized and 85 per cent of the arrests.

In most cases, the 416 moonshiners convicted received long prison sentences.

Visitors Study Flame Cultivation Techniques

By LARRY FUHRMANN
Staff Writer

Setting a pace in flame cultivation in this part of the country, John Hicks of Hicks Oil & Gas is now acting as host to persons from across the United States and foreign countries as they come here to investigate the relatively new method of cultivation.

A representative of a gas company in the northeastern United States was in the area early this week, looking over the possibilities in flame cultivation in an effort to see how he could adapt them to his own territory.

ABOUT a year ago, Peruvians were on the premises also in an effort to investigate the possibilities of flame cultivation. Not only did they come to see what could be done, but they went home with equipment to do the job as well.

Australians were here recently, and went home "impressed," Hicks said. He also has been host to residents of New Jersey, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida and other states.

AND FROM the far northeast this week came John E. Porter of Bangor, Me., who made an extensive tour of the area during his two-day visit. Although flame cultivation has long been in use in his area, it is not used in the same manner as it is here because of the difference in terrain.

Maine — where potatoes are grown in rocky, woody country — will harvest its patches of potatoes beginning early in September, Porter said. Prices are expected to be good, and yield to be average, he said.

IN COMPARING his country with that of the Texas plains, he said he was surprised to find such large acreages devoted to potatoes.

Hicks had shown him 100-acre fields, and even had taken him to an 800-acre plot; in the potato raising area of Maine, plots are usually limited in scope to about 25 acres, Porter said.

As manager of technical services and research for Dead River LP Gas Co., Porter is here investigating new methods in flame cultivation which he could put to use in Maine. Flame cultivation has been in long use there, he says, and is especially popular in the cultivation of blueberries.

PORTER commented that he was "very much impressed" with the equipment and set-up used here. He observed a tractor with a setup whereby both tractor and the flame cultivator operated from the same fuel supply, something uncommon in Maine where the operations are much smaller.

In the rocky country of Maine, Porter said small tractors usually did the flame cultivating work; farmers try to keep the units as small as possible for maneuverability in the small plots.

Sent here to investigate possibilities of adapting Texas ways to Maine situations, Porter also toured the Halfway Experiment Station and other points in the High Plains area.

Whitefaces Picked Number Two In 1-AAA

Poll Tabs Dumas For First—Again

Hereford was placed number two in District 1-AAA by coaches in the Texas Schoolboy football poll. The Whitefaces were placed behind the Dumas Demons on the list.

Hereford coach Jack Meredith said the Whiteface club will have better speed and balance, but will be lacking in experience.

TULLA and Perryton were picked to be third and fourth. According to the poll, Hereford Tulla, and Perryton will all be strong teams and will give Dumas some rough competition for the top position in District 1-AAA.

Bill Spann, Dumas coach, said, "Hereford, Tulla and Perryton are about equal and may beat each other — Question is, can we beat those three clubs?"

MEREDITH said Dumas must be favored because of tradition and good team speed. Dumas has in the past been successful in their aerial attack with quarterback Robert David, who graduated in May. Dumas coaches say that they expect even better passing from Tim Galloway this year.

Hereford will return three starting backs on the gridiron this fall. Hereford has a strong defense with fullback Jimmy Keeling, Tulla coach, said his club should be able to produce a quicker defense than in past years.

Canyon, which is in fifth place in the poll, has a new coach this year, Jim Greenwood, who said he can't make any predictions for his team because he won't meet the boys until the first day of practice.

TEAMS will begin reporting for pre-season practice around the 16th of August.

Dumas will be trying for their fifth consecutive district title this fall. Spann said he will approach the season, as usual, with an optimistic approach. This psychology has been good for Dumas in the past with them winning the state championship in 1961-62 and getting to the quarterfinals in 1963 and to district in 1964.

VISIT GRANDPARENTS

Pamela, Deborah and Bobby, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goldsborough of Clovis, N. M., were weekend guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Smith. They also visited an aunt, Mrs. James Noyes, and her family here.

EX-RESIDENT IS VISITOR

W. J. Wilson of Albuquerque, N. M., formerly a Hereford resident, visited over the weekend in the home of his sister, Mrs. Nora Gillis, 803 Miles. He also visited his son, Mike Wilson, and two other sisters, Mrs. Iva Riddle and Mrs. D. R. Vandiver.

Shower Honors Bride Who Married In Ecuador

A bride visiting in Hereford for the first time since her marriage March 27 in Quito, Ecuador, Mrs. Ron Sheck was honored with a shower-tea Wednesday afternoon in the country home of Mrs. Roy Calvert.

Other hostesses were Mrs. W. R. Hair, Ralph Paul, J. B. Sowell, A. H. Cook and Annie Springer. The honoree is the Strange of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheck are spending several days here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strange, before going on to California to visit his relatives. Both were studying in Ecuador on Fulbright scholarships when they were married.

The bride and her mother received shower guests with Mrs. Calvert, Mrs. Rayburn Strange was at the registry table.

Mrs. A. T. Griffin and Mrs. Roland Chadwell of Amarillo, sisters of Mrs. Sheck, served punch and party refreshments

NEW YORK — Cars are multiplying faster than house holds.

Five years ago, an official of Universal C.I.T. Credit Corporation notes, there were 51,600,000 households in the United States and 45,850,000 cars. Now the figures are 56,400,000 and 55,500,000 largely reflecting an increase in two- and three-car families.

ATHLETE'S FOOT HOW TO TREAT IT

Some time this year the number of cars probably will actually exceed the number of households.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

After reading the letter from V. W. Marcontell in the Sunday Brand, I feel a surge of rebuttal bursting forth. His letter is for me the proverbial straw that beleaguers the well-known camel's back in regard to Viet Nam in particular and our foreign policy in general.

I am wondering whether Mr. Marcontell is as concerned for the "souls of our boys who will pay the supreme price in Viet Nam" as he is for the welfare of his own... hide. If it were not for the complacent bourgeoisie among us, communism would not have the foothold all over the world that it enjoys today. There are going to be some cries for vengeance on Judgment Day from some other quarters, Mr. Marcontell — Hungary, East Germany, China, Cuba, to name a few — and those cries are going to be directed at the do-nothing cowards sitting around watching their color TV sets and rubbing their full stomachs saying, "Now let's don't rock the boat — let's mind our own business." This IS our business — certainly the business of every freedom-loving, patriotic citizen who intends to see to it, regardless of personal cost, that not only those "boys" you're hollering about live to "enjoy the rich prosperity of this great land" but their children and grandchildren as well. Freedom is the business of the human race.

Pat (Mrs. Jack) Williams 121 Avenue E

McDowell Drug Here Since '53

By ANN O'DOWD
Staff Writer

"I think when you've worked so long in a drug store, there's something fascinating that keeps you there," commented Ansel McDowell, owner and operator of McDowell Drug.

McDowell was 12 years old when he went to work at a soda fountain and kept this vocation until he entered pharmacy school.

Upon completion of his schooling in 1931, the pharmacist began his career. He opened a drug store in Wheeler in 1938 after being employed several years in Wellington.

After the depression, McDowell returned to Wellington and began a partnership in a drug store. Eight years later, he sold out to his partner, and with his wife and three sons moved to Hereford.

McDowell said, "We picked Hereford because of the size town, the churches, the schools — these were the main things that impressed us."

In January, 1963, the McDowells (Ansel and his three sons, James, Ansel Jr., and Dan) were in business in Hereford at 240 N. Main. They began their move up Main Street in 1967 with a new location at 318 N. Main.

ACTUALLY, the three boys helped their dad with the business until they each went off to college.

Of the three, James is the only one to return to Hereford and the drug store business, but all are in some form of medicine. James is a pharmacist, Ansel Jr. a doctor, and in his fourth year of pre-dental medicine at Texas Tech, is Dan.

The last move of McDowell Drug occurred just four months ago. Now at 338 N. Main, the drug store is the newest in the four blocks of stores.

The bride's street-length dress had a lace bodice and lace-edged organza skirt over satin. Her veil was held by a seed pearl headpiece belonging to her aunt. She carried carnations on a white Bible. The maid of honor was dressed in jonquill yellow crepe with matching net headband.

B&PW Club Has Supper In Backyard

Relaxing in the green and blooming backyard of Kathleen Baker's home, 216 N. Texas, members of the Business and Professional Women's Club were entertained with a barbecue supper Monday evening. Mrs. Baker, club president, and Marie Sears were hostesses.

One of the few women's organizations which continue regular meetings through the summer, the B&PW Club turned from a schedule of business sessions and programs to a completely informal party where members and guests spent an after-supper hour in conversation.

Barbecued hamburgers, hot dogs, relishes, baked beans, coffee and spice cake were served at a table covered with a cloth printed in gay red roosters. Roses and perennials blooming in the flower beds provided decoration.

Club guests were Miss Lucille Hughes of Dumas and Miss Carma Thomas. Members present included Lucille Park, Bruce Rose, Marian Davis, Irene Ballard, Avis Northcutt, Della Stagner, Bea Barrett, Ursalee Jacobsen, C. Ora Cockrell, Ruby Lee Hickman and Mary Bourn.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN Women's Editor

Progress is undoubtedly a wonderful thing. For instance: In the old silent movies, you nearly always sat in front of someone who read the subtitles in a hoarse voice as they were flashed on the screen. Then we got talkies and the reader was squelched. Now the movies are shown on television, interrupted frequently by commercials in which an announcer reads the slogans aloud in a hoarse voice as they are flashed on the screen.

can get it to work. A few generations ago men caught glimpses of a girl's dainty foot and trim ankle and hoped to see more. Now they see much more, but girls who grow up barefoot or in flats too often have feet the size of a dock worker's, thick ankles, knobby knees; not worth a second glance.

SPECIAL SALAD Mix 1 package each lemon and lime flavored gelatine, 2 cups boiling water and then 2 cups Seven-Up. Let stand until syrupy, then add 1 cup pineapple, 2 large bananas, sliced, and 1 cup miniature marshmallows. Save the pineapple juice for topping.

Farm life was once so isolated and filled with back-breaking tasks that people who lived on farms and loved the land still envied 'hel' city friends the electricity, telephones, and good roads that made life easier. Now they have the conveniences but there is not much farm life any more. Farm people have moved to towns.

privileged few. So we all buy the trappings, but even the privileged few seem to be ditching the good manners which bring real grace to life. And there is still the classic example of the man-in-a-hurry who jets from here to Boston in less time than it takes him to get from the airport to his business appointment in the city.

This is not a complaint about progress, just a comment. Really, I'm for it, even if it does move in hitches sometimes. As for the younger generation, I'm all admiration, especially after talking to a score or so of assorted college students last week to find out what they are doing this vacation.

Most of them could have well asked, "What vacation?" Nearly all who weren't in school for at least part of the summer, had found themselves jobs. To get pictures of some who admitted they played at times, we had to wait until after working hours. And nobody would admit to merely loafing through the holidays, so we gave up on a picture with that theme. We hated to ask the busy people to say that they might occasionally stop to rest.

State Convention Reports Given To VA Auxiliary

Reports from the recent Texas Department convention of the VFW Auxiliary, held in El Paso recently, were given to the local Auxiliary Thursday evening at a meeting in the Rock Club House. Mrs. Alta Davis reported on the sessions which she attended with Mrs. Ada Hollabaugh, delegate.

Mrs. Naomi Murrell was advanced from junior vice president to senior vice president after the resignation of Mrs. Nola Ralston; Mrs. Catherine Higgins was named trustee and Mrs. Bertha Herzog hospital chairman. Plans were made for entertaining at the VA Hospital in Amarillo Friday evening; members who will make cookies for the party are asked to notify Mrs. Hollabaugh Thursday afternoon. A new member, Mrs. Toy Marie Burke, and six others were present.

Shower Is Pre-Wedding Courtesy To Miss Axe

Blue and white, colors which will be used at the wedding of Miss Louise Axe and Wayne Burger later this month, decorated the home of Mrs. Stan Knox Saturday afternoon for a shower complimenting the bride-to-be.

Scott, Hugh Clearman, Willodyne Brooks, J. D. Kelly, Harvey Rowland, H. E. Wester, W. T. Carmichael, J. C. Reese, Elmer Patterson, Floyd West, Lloyd McGee, Denzil Pulliam, Armon Lauderback and Ira Ott.

Miss Axe wore an A-line frock of the pastel blue she has chosen as a wedding color. Fashioned on simple lines, the dress was accented with a scalloped collar. Receiving guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. W. P. Axe, and two friends who will be her bridesmaids, Misses Kathy Knox and Linda Pulliam.

Hostesses served in turn at the refreshment table, assisted by Miss Peggy Shanks of Wellington, a house guest of Miss Knox and former schoolmate of Miss Axe.

Callers, presenting scores of gifts to the bride-elect, were greeted at the door by Mrs. Knox and registered at a book where Brenda Jolly, who will be flower girl at the wedding, presided.

White cutwork over blue covered the table, which was centered with flowers in the same cool shades.

In the hostess party were Mrs. G. W. Duncan, Charles Packard, Norman Hodges, Alton Hollingsworth, Alvis Jolly, W. H. Blevins, E. D. Hopson, Ira

Miss Axe and her fiancé, whose home is in Birmingham, Ala., plan to be married Aug. 19 in the Central Church of Christ here.

Cook frozen artichoke hearts and season with butter; serve with a sprinkling of crumbled crisply cooked bacon. Good enough for company!

WEDS AT CROWELL — Miss Sharon Chatfield, daughter of a former Hereford resident and niece of two local women, was married to Harold Keith Sawyers of Lincoln, Neb., in a recent ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Crowell. She is the daughter of Mrs. C. N. Chatfield of that city, the former Miss Oleta Elliston who was born and grew up in Hereford, and the late Mr. Chatfield. Her aunts, Mrs. George Cantrell and Miss Merle Elliston of Hereford, attended the wedding and were in the reception house party. The bride received a BA degree from Union College in Lincoln and was an instructor in sociology there. Mr. Sawyers holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Iowa University, has studied at the School of Music and Fine Arts at Fontainebleau, near Paris, and after teaching this summer at the University of Nebraska will do graduate work at the University of California in Berkeley.

Rummage Sale Racks Hold Garments With Memories

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Nostalgic occasions, these rummage sales.

Hereford Jaycee-Ettes are finding that sure as they delve into closets and chests for items they will sell Saturday at an event they plan as their major fund-raising project of this year.

The sale will start at 2 p.m. on the Justice Real Estate parking lot, Mrs. Jerry Shipman is chairman and Mrs. Jerry Fowle, co-chairman.

FORMALS worn at long-ago college proms, well, several years ago, anyway) sweaters that recall football game dates with the later-rejected campus steady, slippers worn by a bride, a hat with a Neiman Marcus label, all are appraised carefully by the young women who are now busy wives and mothers with girlhood beehing them. Maybe that hat will go for a quarter, they say.

Some of the treasures will be looked over more than once and finally put back into storage because they hold memories even more valuable than the good cause of the sale.

But many of the pieces, along with items that have no sentimental value but are outgrown by their owners, will go on the racks for the outdoor sale, to be inspected and bought by someone who has no interest in their origins.

THE PINK net and taffeta dress that Mrs. Wayne Fuller, Jaycee-Ettes president, wore to her first Sweetheart Dance at Plainview High School could possibly whirl again in a South Texas city if a girl from a migrant worker's family should buy it.

Monogrammed boots which Mrs. John Meador sported as queen of the rodeo when the new coliseum was opened at San Angelo a few years ago may be slipped into stirrups again for an eager miss who aspires to a similar title.

Boys Ranchers Begin Practice For Big Rodeo

The 336 youngsters at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch near Amarillo are getting ready for their annual rodeo, and the practice rides have already started for the Labor Day weekend event.

More Ranchers will be participating than ever. They started nearly three months before the event and the boys have signs of putting on the best performance ever. All the boys will take part in the rodeo, either riding in competition or in the many behind-the-scenes activities that are necessary to a successful rodeo.

The events range from bronc riding for the older boys to the famous stick-horse race in which the youngest boys, ages 5 to 8, navigate their mounts around barrels placed in the Ranch's arena. Professional rodeo stock is used by the older boys and calves from the Ranch's own herd provide thrilling rides for the less experienced Ranchers.

The highlight of the two-day rodeo is the naming of the Junior and Senior All-Around Cowboys. Members of the adult staff also saddle up horses and work in the chutes and the arena assisting the boys.

During the past 20 years the Boys Ranch Rodeo has become one of the most anticipated occasions, not only with the Ranchers, but with their many friends across the nation, and this year the boys are going all the way to make the 21st Annual Rodeo the best one yet.

Opera Singer Joins Cast Of Palo Duro Show

Glenn Dowlen Jr. of New York City started an appearance in the production "Thundering Sounds of the West" on Sunday, Aug. 1. Dowlen has been singing professionally for the last ten years and has appeared extensively in opera and oratorio in the East. For the last seven years he has appeared as soloist with the New York City Center Opera and has traveled with them when they made their annual tours.

Dowlen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dowlen of Happy and is visiting with them for a few weeks. He is joining the other gifted young people of the Panhandle to give his support to a development which he considers very important for the area in which he grew up. He welcomes the opportunity to sing and visit with his family at the same time. He will play the part of the resident preacher in the little western town.

Dowlen attended WTSU and the University of Texas where he received his BA degree. He obtained his masters degree from Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge. In New York City he continued his work with John Williams, Alexander Kipnis and Menotti. Among his accomplishments are appearances

HARD CHOICE — "I hate to give this up, but it's a good cause," say these five Jaycee-Ettes as they look through clothing they will give for a rummage sale Saturday to fatten the organization's treasury. HYDRO-JET ACIDIZING

What Hydro-Jet Acidizing Does To Your Weak Irrigation Wells

Water Increases Averaging More Than 50%

How Hydro-Jet Acidizing Works

The first step in Hydro-Jet's Full Flow Acidizing is to pump 8,000 gallons of water from your well into our storage tank.

Allowing time for water to rise again in the formation, we then rapidly inject 3,000 gallons of water back into the well. This rapid injection of water floods the dry sands above the static water level, and increases bottom hole pressure prior to the acid charge.

Then the acid is injected, and is forced out into the lower sands of the water-bearing formation.

Additional quantities of water are immediately injected right behind the acid to force the chemicals deep into the sands and assure maximum penetration of the acid.

After acids have time to penetrate the sands, and react completely, all foreign matter... clays, rust, shale, etc... is pumped from the well and the job is finished.

Well Analysis Service

Wells differ, and formations vary depending on location. Because of this, Hydro-Jet provides a scientific appraisal, then recommends a specific treating job for best results on your well. Bring your water samples in, (and drilling samples, if possible). We'll analyze them FREE of charge.

No Pump Pulling, No Waiting For Chemicals To React

You'll like Hydro-Jet's quick action. We tie right into your own pump (no pulling). Your equipment is left virtually undisturbed. Downtime is minimal. Acids react immediately — normally in minutes. We're in and out of your well in nothing flat... no muss or fuss. Saves you money too.

Let us show you case histories with facts and figures to back up Hydro-Jet's performance on weak wells.

HEAR THESE WORDS

...from an old Guide Book. It says we are travelers on the way. And since we pass this way but once, we want good directions.

Through the centuries, long lines of tall, serious-thinking men have cried, "Which way shall I take?"

Well, here is a man who found it. Then, won't you hear the challenge? It says that ultimately men want the rewards of one who walks a straight and narrow path, but few there be that earn them. It speaks to all.

"Keep My Commandments," but few there be that keep them.

No one questions the brevity of this book's directions. Its commands come with all the authority of Heaven and earth, from God to man...

to you. Centuries of human experience declare its words to be true. Your own soul recognizes the importance of its teachings. Then why not accept its challenge? Make all this a personal matter.

Straighten up your life. Use religious ethics in your business dealings and start going to church to prove you mean it!

You In The Church

The Church In You

— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

One of the anchors still has its wooden haft, now petrified by time and tide.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 67 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding Section 10 to the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding to said Section as presently written, the following provisions: requiring automatic retirement of certain District and Appellate Judges at age seventy-five (75) or such earlier age, not under seventy (70), as may be provided by law, creating a State Judicial Qualifications Commission and providing for its composition and the qualifications, methods of selection and terms of office of its members; and the functions and procedures of said Commission, including the duty to investigate, and hold hearings in respect of disability and misconduct of District and Appellate Judges and to make recommendations to the Supreme Court of Texas as to removal or involuntary retirement of such Judges; and the Supreme Court of Texas, in its discretion, to retire such Judges for disability and to remove them for misconduct, upon recommendation of the aforesaid Commission and consideration of the record made before it; defining misconduct as so removed; providing that the proceedings of said Commission shall be confidential until filed in the Supreme Court with recommendation for retirement or removal; and providing that the removal provisions shall be alternative to and cumulative of those provided elsewhere in the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that said Section shall hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Justices of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent ings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section 1-a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or serious misconduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to misconduct or disability of particular Justices or Judges, or of defining complaints from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

"(8) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

"(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission; Master or the Supreme Court, shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not confiscatory in character, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No Justice or Judge shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court, in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the methods of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such Judges in cases of disability."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such Judges in cases of disability."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and the Amendment shall be published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Connally's Decision Affects Candidates For Many Posts

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Gov. John Connally's future plans are the talk of the capital.

On his decision hinges the political future of many Democratic candidates for numerous federal and state offices.

NO ONE in his party wants to run against the popular Democratic party leader and top vote-getter, but there is talk of his possible retirement. This would change the complexion of many races in 1966.

Connally has indicated that he will make his plans known before the General Election in November. This in order that other state political figures, whose moves depend on his, can set their own sails.

IN THE latter category are Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr. Both want to run for governor.

A race by Smith and Carr for the higher office naturally would place their own jobs up for grabs — and plenty of candidates would file for these posts.

Connally says that neither the four-year term amendment, which will be voted on November 3, nor the possibility of a federal appointment will play a part in his decision whether or not to retire.

OTHER speculation is that he may run for the US Senate next year against the incumbent, Republican Sen. John Tower.

There also is talk that, regardless of Connally's decision, US Senator Ralph Yarborough may enter the Governor's race next year. He could do this without relinquishing his present post.

So goes the talk in the state capital where speculation always runs high.

NOT SO BAD Dr. James Schless, director of the state's TB hospital system, isn't claiming perfection. But he doesn't think the number of persons leaving the hospital against medical advice is alarming. "We don't bat a thousand," said Schless, "but a layman looking at the figures could easily get the wrong impression."

FIGURES he referred to reveal that out of the 2,914 persons who left the state's TB hospital's last year, 601 of them left without medical advice.

Dr. Schless says most of those 601 were non-contagious. They were cured and they are not a menace to public health. But they left before receiving the 18-24 months of treatment necessary to give them a 90-percent chance of never having TB again.

Those who leave before getting past the contagious stage usually are returned quickly by health authorities. After "going over the hill," such patients usually are quarantined.

ORANGE POLLUTION State Water Pollution Control Board has asked officials of the City of Orange to try again to get voter approval of a bond issue to provide funds for correcting the city's pollution of the Sabine River.

Orange voters recently turned down a $3,000,000 bond issue by a mere 29 votes. It would have corrected the city's sewer troubles.

Mayor Neil Miller Jr. admits that the city's sewer system is polluting the river at six points within the city limits. He said the city must re-submit the matter to the voters.

INTERSTATE HIGHWAY Plans for development of a section of Interstate Highway 10 west of Fort Stockton in Pecos County have been approved by the Texas Highway Commission.

Area extends from 5.9 miles west of Fort Stockton to 7 miles east on the present US 87.

HIGHWAY HEARINGS Texas Highway Commission, working on its busiest docket in years, heard 19 county delegations request $82,167,010 for highway construction projects.

By far the largest requests came from Dallas and Harris counties.

The Falcon Tourist Route Association gained a generally favorable reaction from the Commission when it asked that a 207-mile route from San Antonio to Zapata be given a single number.

They preferred that it be designated as US 283 or Texas Highway 16. Route through Bexar, Atascosa, McMullen, Duval, Jim Hogg and Zapata counties now has a number of designations.

SALES UP June retail sales in Texas were up 2 per cent over May, reports the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Ordinarily, June sales are down an average of 6 per cent from May. Bureau's only explanation for the rise was the fact that June was the state's first month of consistently sunny, pleasant shopping weather.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS Additional interim committees have been named by House Speaker Ben Barnes and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith.

Barnes appointed Reps. Paul Floyd, Wayne Gibbons, Gene Hendryx, George Hinson, Randy Pendleton, Tommy Shannon, Richard Slack, James Slider, Terry Townsend and Ralph Wayne to the Legislative Council.

Smith named Sens. A. M. Aiken Jr., Dorsey Hardeman, Grady Hazlewood and Bill Moore to the Budget Board.

HE ALSO appointed: —Sens. Tom Creighton, Ralph Hall, Jack Hightower, Abraham Kazen Jr., and Don Kennard to study elections.

— Sens. Criss Cole, Martin Dies Jr., Bill Patman, Walter Richter and Franklin Spears to study the nursing profession.

— Sens. Roy Harrington, Andy Rogers and Pete Snelson to study college faculty compensation.

TEXAS TOURISM GETS NEW BOOST A Texas movie entitled "Texas — Land of Contrasts" soon will be available for showings before civic groups throughout Texas and the nation.

It is a professional job produced entirely within the Texas Highway Department, except for the guest commentator. Its estimated value is $70,000. But the department self-produced it for $9,300.

The 28-minute production was filmed by Hal Stegman, Script was written by Kent Elliott. Dave Smith, Austin public relations executive, is commentator.

MORE THAN 100 copies of the color film now are being made by the Department.

In discussing the film Herb Petry, chairman of the Highway Commission, said: "This is Texas as it really is — a Fun-ter State — offering recreational attractions to suit every taste. It features our forests, mountains, plains, seashore, caverns, lakes and many cultural attractions."

Said Tom Taylor, director of the Travel and Information Division, "Texas is so large that to depict its many wondrous attractions in a single 30-minute film is virtually impossible. This, therefore, is the first of a series designed to make Texas better known to both residents and outsiders as a recreational center."

First to sign up for a showing was the Texas Press Association. TPA scheduled the film for its 15th Annual Advertising Convention in Galveston on September 11. Bob Warner, former newspaperman now a Highway Department information officer, will handle the Galveston presentation.

VISITORS GET BREAK Free parking for tourists who wish to visit the state capital has proved a boom.

Perennial parking problem around the capitol for years has kept many visitors away. But no more.

Where the Old Walton Building once stood, directly in front of the capitol grounds at 11th and Congress, the state has provided plenty of parking space exclusively for tourists. Two hours of free parking are furnished in a supervised lot.

Result is a noticeable increase in the number of in-state as well as out-of-state visitors.

HEREFORD SEAMAN ON COAST GUARD CUTTER

Seaman Apprentice LeRoy Williams, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Williams of 507 Avenue K, Hereford, Texas, is serving aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Gresham, an ocean station vessel operating out of Alameda, Calif.

Rotating with other cutters, she stands month long watches on various stations at sea, performing a multi-purpose task.

As part of the U. S. contribution to the International Civil Aviation Organization, she collects weather data for use by transoceanic flights and provides a navigational checkpoint for aircraft by confirming positions through radar fixes and sending out radio beacon navigation signals.

The weather data, with emphasis on conditions at high altitudes, is provided directly to aircraft and relayed to the U. S. Weather Bureau to be included in forecasts for worldwide aeronautical and general use.

On station, the Gresham also makes scientific studies of the ocean. Information collected, including water samples, wave measurements and samples of microscopic plant life, is sent to the Coast Oceanographic Unit in Washington, D. C. for use by the government Interagency Committee on Oceanography.

Search and rescue rounds out the major duties of the Gresham while on station. Located hundreds of miles at sea and beneath major overseas airline routes, she is ready to divert from normal duties to render assistance to ships in distress or ditching aircraft.
