NUMBER 34

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR EXCURSION, TUESDAY, AMARILLO TO HEREFORD

Don't forget that there is to be a special excursion out of Amarillo next Tuesday morning when it is expected that at least one hundred visitors will come to Hereford. The train will leave Amarillo in the early morning and will arrive at Hereford about 10:00. A number of autos will meet the excursion and take the visitors out for a spin around the big irrigation circle, returning in time for the visitors to get back to Amarillo for the afternoon performances at the Fair. Every effort should be made to treat the visitors royally and we have no fear but that they will be shown a good time. In this connection, let's not forget that Monday is to be Hereford Day at the Fair and that every one who intends to go should make that day their day. This will give Hereford some grounds for attention and the large number of White Faces in Amarillo on Monday and each one a committee inviting the Amarillo crowd to come to Hereford the next (Tuesday) morning, we are sure to have a good number of visitors.

Christian Endeavor to be Held in Hereford.

The Panhandle District Convention of the United Society of Christian Endeavor is to be held at Hereford, Texas, Oct. 23-24-25. The young people in the Presbyterian and Christian churches have finally succeeded in gaining this convention, but they must have the hearty co-operation of the older heads before they can make it a success. If you know nothing of the Endeavor or its work, visit the Presbyterian church some Sunday afternoon about four o'clock or the Christian church about five o'clock on the same afternoon and see for yourself. About one hundred delegates are expected, and you will be called upon to help by giving a home to a delegate for the three days or by helping defray what expense there may be attached to the convention. The state president of the Endeavor, Patrick Henry, and other good speakers will be here—it will surely be an interesting three days.

Bad Sudan Grass Seed Being Sold.

College Station, Tex., Sept. 23.—That Sudan grass seed dealers advertising their seed as "Cream hull" should be required to give a guarantee that no black blood will develop in the grass at the next harvest is the statement of Director B. Youngblood of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at the A. & M. College. Director B. Youngblood, who through the Texas Experiment Association gave Sudan Grass its start in Texas says that "Creamhull" type is an ideal and that it is impossible for the seed to be absolutely pure. When imported from Africa the seed had a certain amount of black blood in them, he says, and it will require several years of work with the grass before any grower can be certain that his seed are pure.

Harvesting the Weeds.

Since the Mayor issued his manifesto about the harvesting of weeds, a number of householders have responded bravely to the call. Tons of good weeds have been harvested and burned and the work is still going on; yet and yet, there are a number of well-meaning people who have not cut a weed this year, judging from outside appearances. They seem to have no pride in their own surroundings much less a public civic pride; they are weed bound and it will require an operation to relieve them. While the Commission has no license to practice the "art of healing" in any form, there is a remedy which can be applied not requiring the use of cutting instruments nor even rubbing, unless the application of the weed ordinance could be called "rubbing it in." Well, whatever you think about weeds, be sure you cut your own patch before you pitch into the other feller. It is a pity that a regular weed campaign must be made each year. It seems that the very nature of things would cause folks to slaughter their weeds in time, but they don't and it means they won't. Many of the non-resident owners have responded to the weed call and last year some 80 per cent of them wrote to the City Commission authorizing them to proceed with the work and they would pay the assessment.

Fred Oberthier, after spending a few days with home folks, returned to his studies at A & M last Saturday. Fred is making good at A & M and his friends are pleased to learn of the splendid progress he has been making.

AMARILLO FAIR OPENED TODAY

Deaf Smith County Well Represented; Many Other Counties There With Big Exhibits.

The Amarillo State Fair opened today with a good, large crowd present. Many of the Panhandle counties are represented in the farm exhibits. The Amarillo News, in giving a write up of the different counties, says:

"Another county that was here good and strong last night was Deaf Smith, whose capitol is Hereford. Hereford was second only to Plainview last year when it came to distributing the prizes and the enterprising people of Hereford said at that time that their exhibit did not do them justice. They promised to come back this time and do better. Well, they are here, and you'll find their exhibit without any help. Hereford has taken about the largest space of any of the competing counties and they have filled it. A feature of their exhibit is their large display of alfalfa hay. It was stated last night that their original intention was to utilize this baled alfalfa in the erection of an attractive bungalow, but the texture of a baled alfalfa exhibit called for a change in the plans. Hereford is in the shallow water belt, is in one of the progressive sections of the Panhandle and her exhibit this year will come nearer doing justice as a representation of her abundant resources."

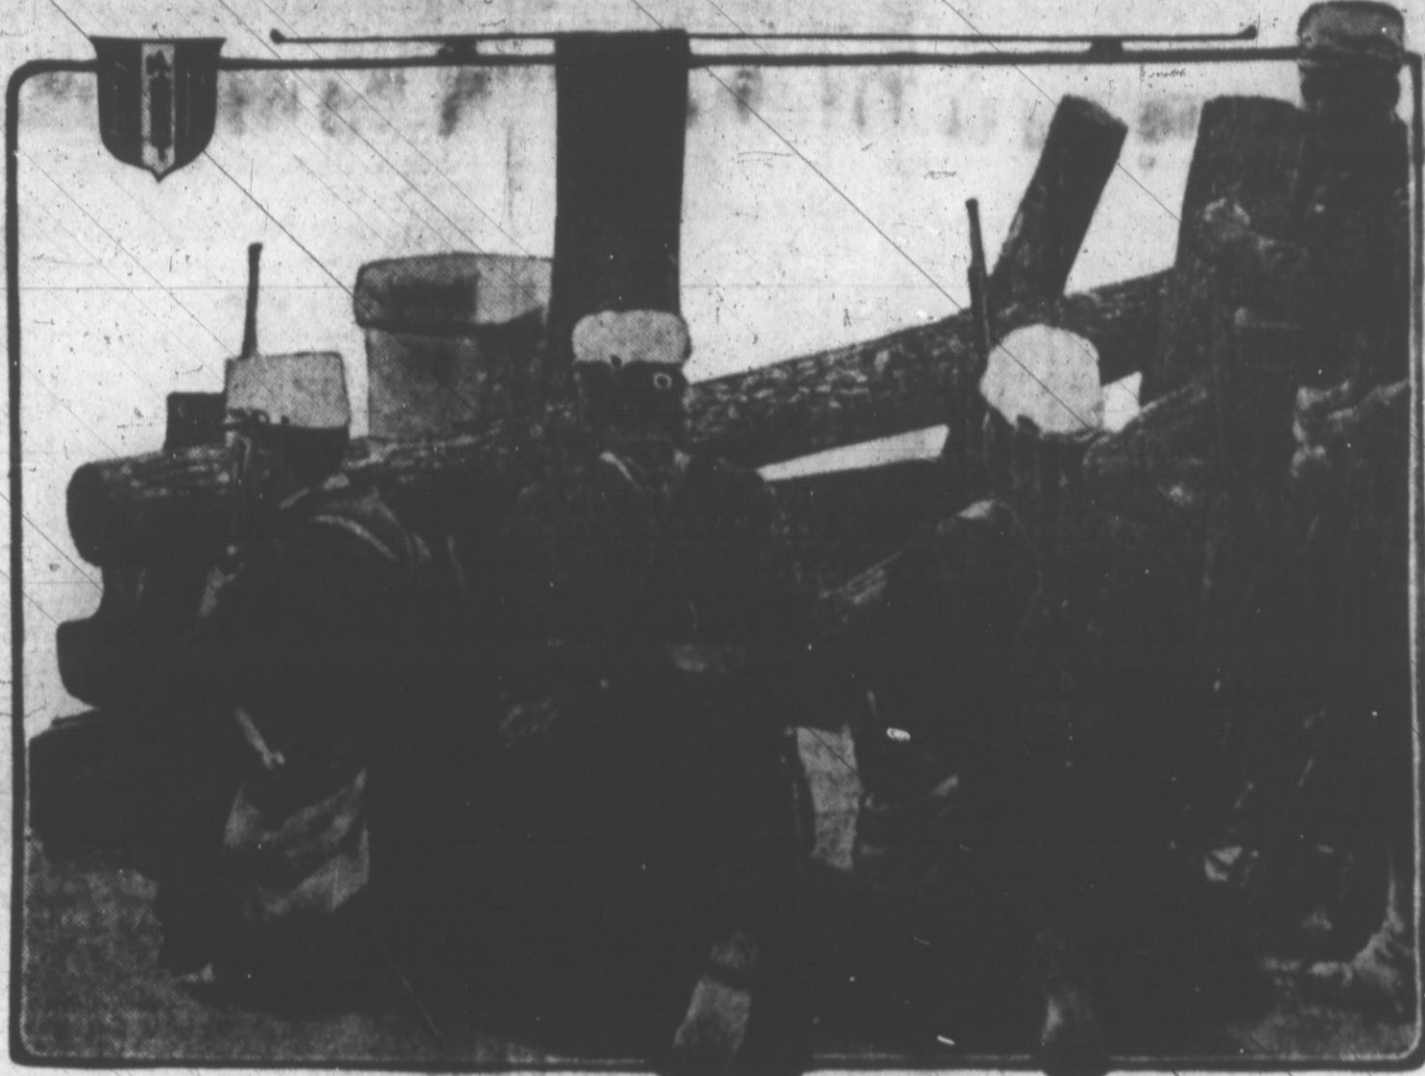

The Hereford people should not forget that next Monday will be Hereford Day at the Fair and every available White Face should be there good and strong.

Will Make More Room For Sunday School.

The old store building near the photo gallery has been moved to the Methodist church lots and will be fitted up for the Sunday school. Two rooms will be made, one for the men's class. Painters and carpenters have been busy this week getting the building in shape for use. This will add considerably to the convenience of that school.

Jas. R. Rutherford and Edward Price left Saturday to enter college. The first will enter A & M for the year, the latter will go to the Rice Institute at Houston.

Visits Battle Creek Art Gallery.

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 21.—Mrs. R. N. Mounts of Hereford, Texas, who has been visiting in the city for some time, enjoyed a trip through the Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., on Thursday afternoon. With other guests she was shown every process in the manufacture of Postum, Grape Nuts and other food products made by this firm, which is one of the largest pure food plants in the world. The art gallery in the administration building was one of the most attractive features of the visit, as the private collection of the late C. W. Post, which is on exhibition there, contains many wonderful paintings in oils and water colors by some of the world's great artists, together with valuable statuary and tapestries, including the Veiled Lady, a marvelous specimen of the sculptor's art.

Mrs. Henson of Friona, Texas, who has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roloson, has returned to her home.

HEREFORD COUNTRY EXHIBIT TAKEN TO THE BIG PANHANDLE STATE FAIR

Tuesday afternoon, a whole lot of farm and garden products were shipped to Amarillo where they will be placed on exhibition at the Panhandle State Fair, which opens there today. Every one who saw the different offerings for the Fair were agreeably surprised at the good showing Hereford and the county is to make. It is certain that a few blue ribbons will be hung on the horns of the White Faces this year. A. P. Murchison was chief in the preparation of the stuff and he feels quite proud of his efforts. The products went down to the Queen City by freight. Other stuff will be sent by express and a lot will go by auto. D. L. McDonald and J. I. Walker will have charge of the exhibit booth at the Fair and they have been there placing the products of Deaf Smith to the best advantage.

The Panhandle Furnishes the Beef.

Last week witnessed a large shipment of beef cattle from the Panhandle of Texas. Nearly every town on the Plains shipped stuff to Kansas City.

The record run so far for the year was last Monday when the supply was more than 27,000.

Of this number the Panhandle furnished 3,192 head. On Tuesday the Panhandle sales amounted to 3,194.

On Monday and Tuesday 592 Panhandle calves, averaging from 158 to 454, sold at prices ranging from 9 to 10 cents, most of them 8 to 9 cents.

The top prices for calves, 10 cents, was secured by Dorsey & Davis of Canadian, on a bunch of calves averaging 167 pounds.

The highest price on other Panhandle stuff was 8 cents by H. Hood of Miami, on a bunch of heifers that averaged 455.

Of the total number from the Panhandle, Hereford furnished 416 head. The shipments were made by four of Hereford's leading stockmen: Joe B. Collins, Silos Filled at Hillcrest Farm.

The two big 170-ton silos on the Hillcrest Farm have been filled this week. A force of men were busy for most of the week at the work, tho it required but about three days of actual filling. The cutter was driven by a big gasoline engine and it required seven barge wagons to haul the feed stuff in and then they did not keep up with the machine. S. B. Edwards, the owner, has one of the best feeding plants in this section and will again fatten a lot of yearlings or calves.

Mrs. Watkins, sister of Mrs. Geo. Garrison, left last Saturday for her home at Cleburne, after a pleasant visit in Hereford for some weeks.

RUSSIAN RED CROSS NURSES IN THE FIELD

Will Organize Band.

W. F. West and Leslie Smith have agreed to take up the organization of a band for Hereford if there is sufficient encouragement given them by the citizens and the young men who would become active members. There are a number of talented young musicians in the city who, no doubt, would be glad to join. It is not necessary that they should have been members of some band in order to join of that they can now play, but if they have the right sort of material in them as to ability and a desire to become permanent members, they will be welcome. Both Mr. West and Mr. Smith are accomplished musicians, each having played as leaders a number of years. The young men who would like to become members would do well to see either of them without delay. The first meeting will be held Tuesday night in the office of Ashbrook & Suggs.

Infant Child Dies.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Al Vaughn died at their home northwest of Hereford yesterday, Thursday, and will be buried this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The baby had been ill for some time. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their baby child.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY OUT

Southwestern Co. Adds Many New Phones In Past Six Months—New Directory Twice Each Year.

In the new phone directory for Hereford, which has just been issued from the press of the Brand Publishing Co., there will be found a number of new phones, the company, under the competent management of Mr. Lovelace, local manager, having added twenty new phones during the last six months. The directory is issued every six months in order to keep the book up to date. It contains information as to the best way to obtain the most satisfactory telephone service, but even with every provision offered by the company, there cannot be the best service without the hearty co-operation of the subscribers. They have their part to do as well as the company. The Southwestern is very anxious to bring the service in Hereford up to the highest efficiency and they ask that the ordinary business rules be observed in the use of the phones. The increase in the number of phones in Hereford indicates that the town is growing steadily and while not every one in town has a phone, the popularity and convenience of this modern household and business necessity is gradually working its way into every home and business house. No business house could hardly lay claims to being progressive and abreast modern business methods without a phone, and it will be but a short time until every concern will be connected with the outside world.

University Professor in Germany.

University Station, Sept. 24.—That the people of Luxemburg were in dire straits for something to eat during the opening days of the present European war is the statement of Prof. Bantel of the School of Engineering of the University of Texas, who was in Germany during the summer studying problems sewage disposal. Prof. Bantel happened to be in the office of the American consul at Rotterdam when a telephone message was received from Ambassador Van Dyck at the Hague telling the Rotterdam consul to get some coffee and canned fruit or meat or condensed eatables of any kind to the American consul in Luxemburg as he had received a distress call from him and was unable to do anything, as the little kingdom was simply swallowed up in the in the hostile armies.

Prof. Bantel among other interesting stories, relates also the predicament of the American consul at Amsterdam who had a much money on hand that he could not sleep at night. It seems that the Dutch Government had seized a cargo of wheat, consigned by an American shipper to a German living in Holland. The Dutch government feared that allowing this cargo to pass into the hands of a German might constitute a breach of neutrality, so appropriated the wheat and paid the American consul the market price for the cargo, the money to be sent to the American consignee. However, exchange was hard to get and the money had to remain with the consul. Prof. Bantel said that this was the only person he found after the war broke out who was suffering with the burden of too much money.

Growing Dishrag.

This county has established a reputation for growing good wheat and fine alfalfa and other field products, but it has never ventured into the dishrag industry until this year, but the first crop shows a marked improvement over the old fashioned kind. Walk Brady brought in a specimen this week. It measures about 20 inches long and has good proportions. He says that Mrs. Brady had been urging him to bring this dishrag to the Brand office for several days, but that he felt a delicacy in offering so common a thing as a dishrag to the sanctum sanctorum. But he's dead wrong; a dishrag is a good thing even to a print shop and when this one ripples, it will be pressed into service. The seed obtained from this specimen will be distributed to the lady friends of the Brand with the instructions that they teach their daughters the use of the vegetable when the crop gets ripe next year. A dishrag grown in the garden like other vegetables beats tearing up the old man's shirt, and then he will not "tear his shirt" about the dishes not being clean when he sticks his feet under and props his elbows on the table to devour the food set before him.

Dallas Men Propose Real Estate Dealers Law.

Last Monday two men from Dallas representing a new magazine published in that city were in Hereford furthering their enterprise. They were Jno. L. Brooks and a Mr. Stein and their magazine goes under the title, "The Truth About Texas." Mr. Brooks is the editor and made two speeches at the court house, one in the afternoon and another at night. The principal part of his talk was devoted to the advocacy of a law regulating the real estate business and he was especially critical of the methods of some real estate dealers, especially of the immigration companies from other states who had operated in Texas. The other part of his address was taken up with his magazine which he proposes to make tell the truth about Texas and wanted only truthful advertisements in it. The next day a canvass was made of the town and some 30 or more subscribers were obtained. With the subscription, a page ad and a free write up will be given Hereford.

Why Knock Your Town?

Barnett O'Bryan of Tulsa is preparing to start a newspaper in Hale Center. That town has become a veritable graveyard for newspapers, and it is indeed passing strange that anyone would, after viewing the graves of those that have passed away, attempt to publishing another there. The town is small, and the total business to be derived cannot begin to maintain a paper besides in the past the business men and citizens have not given the support to the papers that they should. Mr. O'Bryan is a pleasant and competent young man, and we trust that he will succeed in his endeavor.—Plainview News.

Hale Center is not a large town like Plainview, but we feel sure her citizens are just as enterprising as Plainview, except that there are not so many of them. Do you remember their heroic efforts in securing the railroad to their town? And they will support a paper too when the right sort of man comes along. It is hoped that young O'Bryan has the right stuff in himself.

When the workmen began to prize up the house, which was to be moved to the Methodist church property, J. P. Wood, who had the contract, found a bottle of booze under the said house. Full bottle, he said. And he proposes to advertise the found booze, requiring, however, that the owner describe the bottle and contents, giving in detail the brand and the smell, and then if the said owner will pay for this ad, he can have the booze; bottle and all.

The students of Texas Christian University have organized a student government of their own making. They have the regular officers: judges, peace officers, police, etc.; in fact, a regular government in every detail. Laws are passed and the enforcement is left entirely to the student officers. Any infraction of the rules is looked after by the student police. Any pupil who may be found guilty of violating the rules of the college or the laws passed by the student council is punished. Yesterday was Show Day.

Yesterday was show day in Hereford and the streets were filled with excited children and worrying elder folks, trying to keep sight of their young. The parade was announced for 11:45 and school was dismissed in order that the children might take a first hand lesson in animal geography, but on account of slight difference of some $200 between the show manager and the state authorities, the parade did not come off till 2:00 P. M. As the parade wended its way back towards the show grounds, the crowd followed, patronizing all the different features of the show from the pink lemonade and pop-corn to the main big show, the reserve seats and the after concert, all of which proved to be very much like other shows which we attend as regular as they come around. In the main the "puff-mances" were good.

A Plains Veteran Dead.

The Silverton Star tells of the death of "Old Beck," a mule belonging to W. C. Smithee, who lived until recently near Plainview. "Beck" was born in Sharp county, Ark., in 1879, and was thirty years and four months old when she died.

"In the fall of 1897 she worked to a wagon from Arkansas to the Plains near Plainview. Soon after coming to the Plains she freighted from Amarillo to Plainview and in March 1898 she freighted from Canyon and Amarillo to Silverton for about ten or twelve years; in this time she made two trips to Quanah, which is 110 miles from Silverton. She made a faithful hand and was always able and willing to go until the last few years, but has done some work every year. The condition of her teeth permitted her to eat only chops and bran, but she was always hearty."

Deahl Stewart Dies From Kick.

Deahl Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stewart of Plainview, died at their home on Sunday, Sept. 6, as a result of a kick by a horse a week previous. Mrs. Allen Powelson, a friend of the family, went over to Plainview to attend the funeral, which took place on the next day after the boy's death.

DON'T TAKE WRONG MEDICINE

If your liver gets lazy you need a liver tonic, not merely a laxative for the bowels. Many people take a simple laxative when the liver gets sluggish rather than take Calumet, which they know to be dangerous. But a mere laxative will not start a sluggish liver. What is needed is a tonic that will liver up the liver without forcing you to stay at home and lose a day from your work.

You have such a tonic in Dodson's Liver Tonic. Dodson's Liver Tonic is all that is claimed for it, because the druggists who sell it agree to hand back the money with a smile, to any person not satisfied with the relief Dodson's gives.

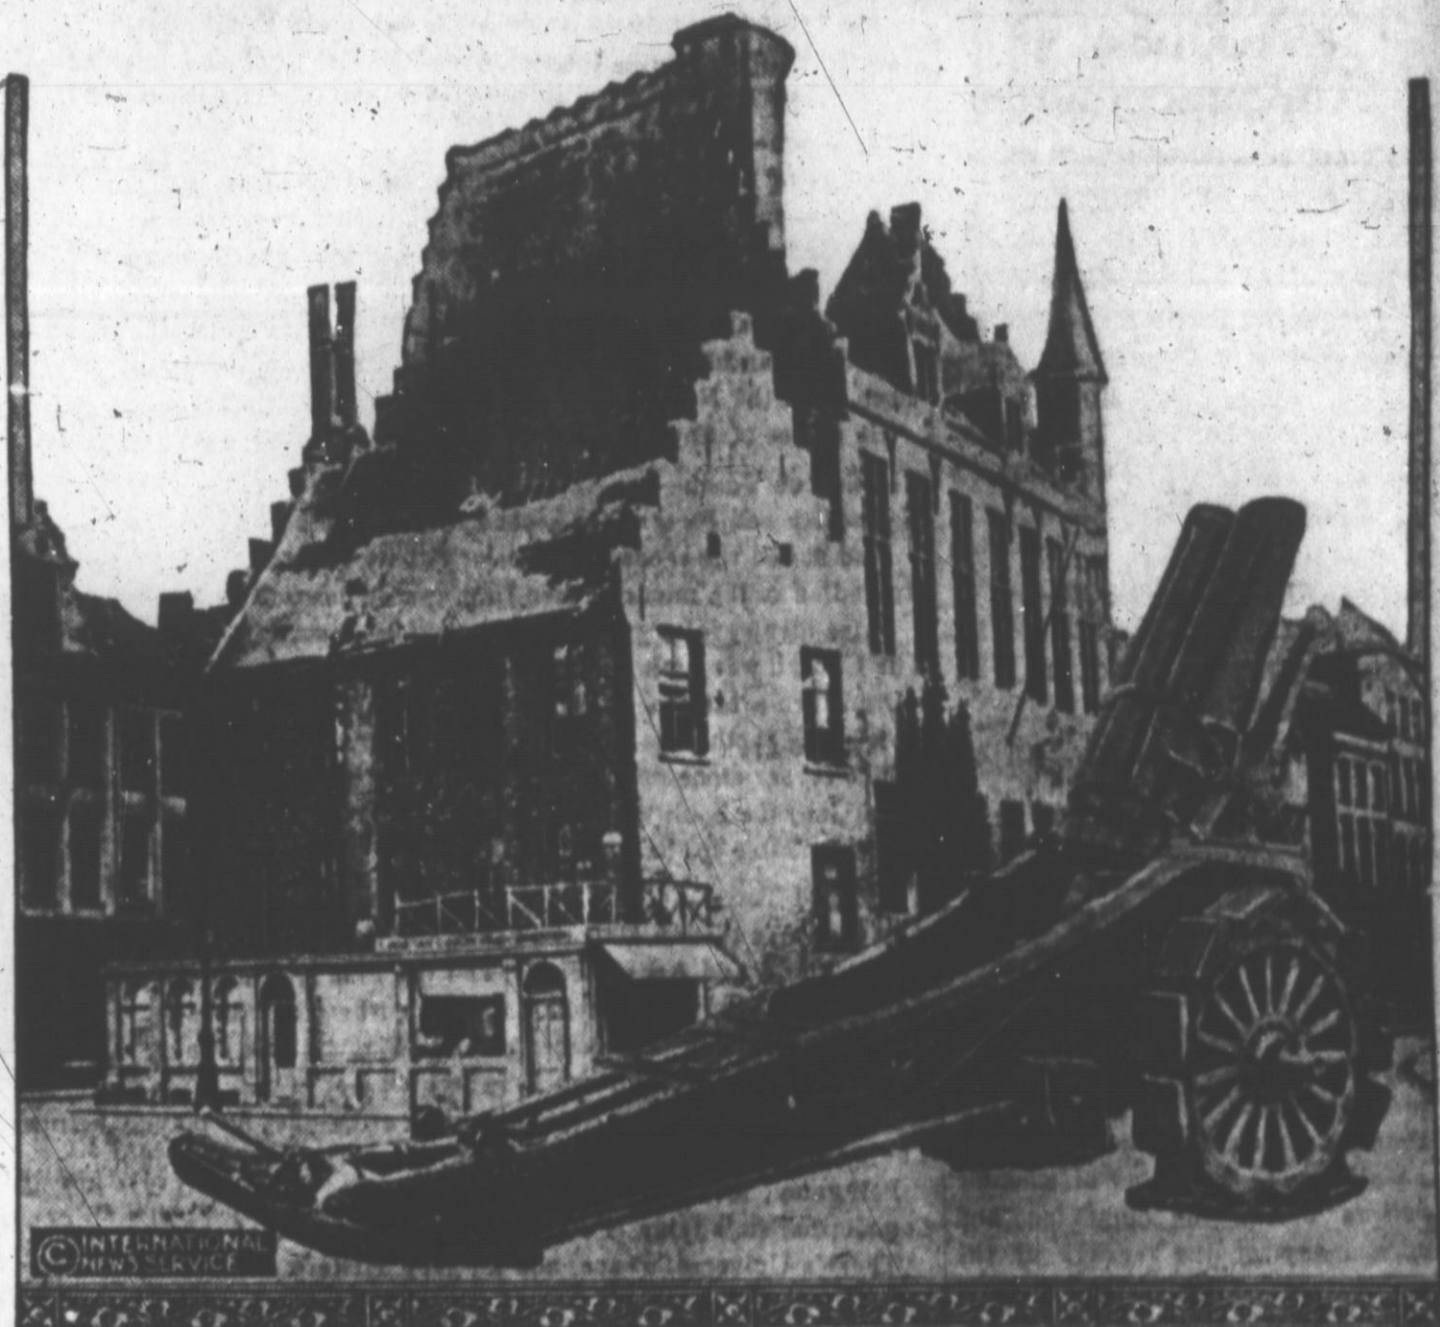

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a vegetable liquid with a very pleasant taste and is a prompt and reliable remedy for constipation, biliousness, sour stomach and torpid liver.

Do You Have Snakes in Plainview?

This is indeed a day of new things and revolutionary discoveries. Old things are passing away, and innovations are succeeding them. For untold cycles of years red liquor has been considered the only first aid to the injured in snake bite cases. Because of this many men have kept liquor close at hand as a hedge against being bitten by a snake and being close at hand it often came in handy for other purposes, for instance, in the morning when a man needed something to "open his eyes." John Barleycorn is losing out continually, and having been driven from every position, he took his last stand as the only infallible snake bite remedy. But now comes kerosene and routs him from this position. It has now been proven that kerosene beats liquor as a snake bite remedy. A Milan county man was bitten by a copperhead, one of the most poisonous reptiles. He had no liquor, but soaked his bitten arm in coal oil, and sent for a doctor. The doctor came but said he was not needed. The coal oil had killed the virus of the snake. The victim didn't have to get sober. When you hear of a man starting to Texico for a possible snake bite read him this item—and risk getting knocked down.—Editor Adams of Plainview.

Even the least of potentates creates a flurry by announcing his intention of visiting our shores. But now comes word that a king accompanied by thousands of courtiers will bring the glory of his court into our midst. Just why he comes, who will attend him; how his powers and riches will be used while in our midst is set forth in a 65 page volume regarding The King's Return. Some have told us he comes "as a thief;" others say with shout and trumpet. Some declare he comes to burn the earth, and others that he is to make it all a Paradise. Send five cents to Mrs. H. C. Dependable Irrigation

When you drive up to a McDonald Irrigating Plant, anywhere in the Hereford Country, it is very seldom you find anyone near the plant. The operator is in the field with the water where he belongs. He starts the plant in the morning and goes down the ditch with the water.

This saving of an extra man pays interest on a great deal more than the difference between the price of a McDonald Plant and the cheap kind. If a regular engineer is needed that's a sure sign of trouble. You can't afford to irrigate with troublesome machinery if you get it for nothing.

Everything depends on the water—the farmer's bread and butter, the security of the land, the ability to borrow, the sale of the land at a good price all depend on a dependable water supply. No one can afford to have anything but the best that money can buy. We could install cheaper plants but we wouldn't pay it—we wouldn't pay you. We will continue to put up the very best installations for the prices charged, which we now are consistent. McDonald Irrigating Plants cost more to install—cost very much less to operate. Figure operating cost and you'll buy a McDonald.

It's cheap water you want, not a cheap pumping plant. GET FIGURES.

Remains of Mammoth Found.
University Station, Sept. 21.—That the Mammoth once trod the Plains of Texas is now a demonstrated fact, since the teeth of an individual of this prehistoric species were found a short time ago in the Walling sand pit near Burkbarnett, Texas. Prof. Charles Lawrence Baker, Geologist of the Bureau of Economic Geology and Technology, happened to be in Wichita Falls at the time, and noticing the account in the Burkbarnett Star of the discovery of the teeth of a mastadon, went there immediately to see them. He found that they were the teeth of a mammoth, not a mastadon, although the two species belong to the same family, as does also our own elephant of the circus. The last of the race in Europe are said by scientists to have lived before historic man, variously estimated at ten thousand to a million years ago. The discovery of these teeth is quite important from a scientific standpoint. They will be eventually sent to the museum of the University of Texas.

NATIONAL FARMERS HOLD CONVENTION

Government Aid Sought in Marketing Cotton—Work of Peter Radford Commended.

Fort Worth, Texas.—The eleventh annual meeting of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America came to a close in this city today. More than two thousand delegates were present, representing the various state organizations and covering an area from coast to coast and from the great lakes to the Gulf.
President Chas. S. Barrett, presided over the sessions and introduced the various speakers. The keynote of the convention was the action of the convention in asking governmental aid in financing the cotton crop of the south.

"The greatest crisis in years brought on by the European war, faces the United States," said President Barrett, in his opening address. "There is only one thing to do and that is for the United States government to buy three or four million bales of cotton at not less than ten cents a pound from the farmers of the south to be held until a higher price may be obtained and, when sold, the profit, minus the expense of handling to be remitted to the farmers."

The convention went on record as favoring the Henry bill introduced before Congress recently, which favors the buying of cotton by the government as a relief of the present situation. This bill was drafted with the cooperation of President Barrett, who believes that it fully covers the situation.

Provision was made for the raising of a fund of $200,000 for the purpose of maintaining a committee to devise plans for relieving the depressing results of the European war. This committee will include a member from every organized state, together with the national officials and the national executive committee. The committee will be in charge of Peter Radford of Texas, who was appointed chairman, and before the adjournment of the session more than $10,000 of the fund had already been pledged.

A resolution was passed, condemning the present war and recommending the establishment of an international parliament and an international court, looking to universal peace and good will between the nations of the world.

Child Labor Condemned.
A resolution was passed endorsing the bill providing for the elimination of products from interstate commerce which are manufactured in factories employing children less than fourteen years of age or those employing children under sixteen years of age more than eight hours.

A marketing plan introduced by Harry Tracy of Texas, in which a practical system of marketing farm products was outlined was heartily endorsed by resolution.

Peter Radford Commended.
Referring to the work of the officers of the Farmers' Union, Mr. Barrett paid a high tribute to the manner in which they have cooperated with him. "They have stood steadfastly by me in every call to duty," said Mr. Barrett, "and in every endeavor for the general good. They are true, faithful and conscientious men. I want to pay especial tribute to one individual, Peter Radford. If I should be asked to name one man in the Union who has done more to lighten my own load, who stood ready day or night for service, who doesn't even wait for the distress signal, then I'd have to say Peter Radford. Men like Peter Radford keep one's faith sound, his courage high and renew belief in humanity."

Union Growing Rapidly.
President Barrett stated that the Union was fast growing in numbers and in strength. Twenty-seven states in the Union are included in its membership and the total number of members aggregate more than eight million. It is the boast of the Union that all its members are men who are actual farmers and that no one who does not till the soil, is eligible for membership in the organization.

The officials of the Union were unanimously re-elected for the coming year as follows: C. S. Barrett, Georgia, president; A. V. Swift, Vice President, Oregon; A. C. Davis, Secretary, Arkansas.

RADFORD REAPPOINTED

Fort Worth.—President Chas. S. Barrett, of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America has announced the re-appointment of Peter Radford as lecturer of the National Union during the coming year. Extensive plans have been outlined for publicity work throughout the nation to be carried on through Mr. Radford's department. This publicity work will be modeled on the lines of the educational work done in Texas on the subject of farm problems.

Q.—Did the writers of the Bible understand the things they wrote? (S. W.)
Answer.—Perfection of knowledge is not a thing of the past, but of the future; and until we recognize this fact we are unprepared to appreciate and expect fresh unfoldings of our Father's plan. True, we still go back to the words of the prophets and apostles for all knowledge of the present and the future; not, however, because they always understood God's plans and purposes better than we, but because God used them as His mouthpieces to communicate to us, and to all the Church throughout the Christian Age, truth relative to His plans, as fast as it becomes due. This fact is abundantly proven by the apostles. Paul tells us that God has made known to the Christian Church the mystery (secret) of His will which He had purposed in Himself, and had never before revealed, though He had it recorded in dark sayings which could not be understood until due, in order that the eyes of our understanding should be opened to appreciate the "high calling" designed exclusively for believers of the Christian Age (Ephesians 1:9, 10, 17, 18; 3:4-9). This shows us clearly that neither the prophets nor the apostles understood the meaning of the prophecies uttered. Peter says that when they inquired anxiously to know their meaning, God told them that the truths covered up in their prophecies were not for themselves, but for us of the Christian Age. And he exhorts the Church to hope for still further grace (favor, blessing) in this direction—yet more knowledge of God's plans.—(1 Peter 1:10-13.) It is evident that though Jesus promised that the Church should be guided into all truth, it was to be a gradual unfolding. We believe that it is possible to see more deeply into God's plan today than ever before.

Q.—If I were to study the Bible would it be possible for me to understand it, or is it only for those who have taken a special course in theology? I had only a Grammar School education. (E. T.)
Answer.—Those who will turn away from the mere speculations of men, and devote time to searching the Scriptures, not excluding reason, which God invites us to use (Isaiah 1:18), will find that a blessed bow of promise spans the heavens. It is a mistake to suppose that those without faith, and consequent justification, should be able to apprehend clearly the truth: it is not for such. The Psalmist says "Light (truth) is sown for the righteous" (Psalm 97:11), though his circumstances may have entirely deprived him of an education. "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Psalm 119:105), but it is only "the path of the just" that "is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4:18). Actually, there is none just, "none righteous, no one" (Romans 3:10); the class referred to is "justified by faith." It is the privilege of this class only to walk in the pathway that shines more and more—to see not only the present unfoldings of God's plan, but also things to come. Patriarchs, prophets, apostles and saints of the past and present have walked in its increasing light; and the light will continue to increase beyond the present—"unto the perfect day." One must have sufficient faith to look for more light or, as a result of this unfaithfulness and unconcern, sit in darkness, when he might have been walking in the increasing light.

Q.—Does not the experience of the thief on the cross indicate that the Lord will accept death and resurrection? He merely asked, "remember me when thou comest into thy Kingdom" and was promised heaven. (G. G.)
Answer.—There are several impossibilities about this passage as it appears in the King James translation from which you quote. Our Lord's words read: "Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). Jesus went to hell that day, and the thief was with him. The thief went there because he was a sinner and Jesus because He was taking the sinners' place. "He hath poured out His soul unto death; and He was numbered with the transgressors; and He bare the sin of many" (Isaiah 53:12). Of course it was the Bible hell they went to—the grave. Jesus could not have gone to heaven that day for He said several days later, "I have not yet ascended to My Father" (John 20:17). The thief could not have gone to heaven for Jesus said regarding those who will finally go to heaven, "I go to prepare a place for you; and if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself that where I am there ye may be also" (John 14:2, 3). Paradise is not heaven but is the restored earth. The key to the proper understanding of the matter lies in the punctuation. The comma should be after "today," then the verse will agree with the rest of the Bible. The punctuation of the Bible was not inspired, but was added in comparatively recent years. With this correction the text reads, "I say to thee today, thou shalt be with Me in Paradise." Jesus will be there an invisible spirit being, and the thief will be there a human being with the privilege of going up on the highway of holiness to perfection. This is the Kingdom about which he inquired.

Q.—If Jesus died in order that He might be in a position to bless the world, why did He not give the blessing as soon as He was resurrected? (J. K.)
Answer.—Christ's death did indeed secure for Him the privilege of being the world's life-giver, but God had a further plan. Hence He sent Jesus to die for the world nearly two thousand years before He was ready to deal with the world. And that long period has been devoted to the calling out of the church, to be the bride of Christ, and joint-heir in His kingdom. This church is described as a little flock, a scanty few, who through much tribulation are walking in the footsteps of the Redeemer, and ultimately will be accounted therefore as worthy to share with Him in His glories on the spirit plane. This election of the church in no sense or degree hinders the great work of God for the world. On the contrary, God in His wisdom has made the election of the church to be a helpful and connecting link in His great plan for blessing and restoring mankind to human perfection and earthly Eden (Acts 3:19-21).

Q.—Is there not Scripture for the thought that Jesus will come again AFTER we have converted the world? (T. W.)
Answer.—One of the principal texts used by those who hold this thought is, "This gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come" (Matthew 24:14). Witnessing to the world does not imply the conversion of the world. The text says nothing about how the testimony will be received. Such a witness has already been given. In 1861 the reports of the Bible Societies showed that the gospel had been published in every language of the earth, though not one half of the fourteen hundred millions living have ever heard the name of Jesus. The condition of the text is fulfilled: the gospel has been preached in all the world for a witness—to every nation. The apostle Paul tells that the main object of the gospel in the present age is "to take out a people" for Christ's name—His Bride, the overcomer Church, which, at His second advent, will be united to Him and receive His name. The witnessing to the world during this age is a secondary object. God's next work for them will be their blessing.

Q.—Is the world having its judgment day now? (C. E.)
Answer.—Whoever will consider the subject with an unbiased mind must admit that the world is not having its judgment or trial now. The terms and conditions of those now on trial are that they must have a knowledge of the only name given under heaven whereby men must be saved, and that they must believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, because without faith it is impossible to please God (Acts 14:12; Hebrews 11, 6). Surely but a small portion of humanity has ever enjoyed this blessing of knowledge of Christ during this Gospel age, and those who lived previously of course could not come to this crisis or test, and they died without it. Hence they did not for their own sins, but for Adam's sin, for they were "born in sin, shapen in iniquity," as the children of Adam. Because our Lord Jesus realized that the new dispensation which He was inaugurating was not the world's judgment day, but merely the trial day of the church, He declared, "I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me" (John xvii, 9).

Q.—Who are the "children of wrath" of Ephesians 2:3? (Argo.)
Answer.—We remind you of our Lord's words of assurance that He "came to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10). He came to seek and to save men and hence men were lost before He came, and needed saving. They were lost in the sense of having come under divine sentence of death, not eternal torment. They were lost in the sense that under this sentence they had become more and more alienated and separated from God. "children of wrath." Not only was a legal condemnation upon them but the "wrath" was upon them; they were suffering that wrath. Under the sentence, "dying thou shalt die," millions had already gone down into the tomb; and other millions felt upon them the weight of the sentence, the curse, the wrath in their sicknesses, weaknesses, aches, pains, etc. The crime was sin, the penalty was death, the dying and the suffering were the concomitants. As the Jews were taught in the law and by the prophets that they could not reconcile themselves to God—that they could not secure a resurrection or eternal life by anything they could do—that the payment of the penalty for sins would leave them entirely undone, they grasped at the promises regarding a great prophet, priest and king like unto Moses, the Messiah. The New Testament steps forward and, accepting all of the foregoing of the Old, points us to the fulfillment of those promises in Jesus. It points to Him now as filling the two-fold picture of priest and sacrifice and tells us that our Lord "offered up Himself"—the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world.

Scores of Hereford Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak. Backache and other kidney ills may follow. Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy. Proof of their worth in the following:
 Mrs. S. O. Winn, 605 Jefferson St., Amarillo, Texas, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief from backache after other remedies had failed. I was also rid of languor and nervousness and my strength and energy was restored. Doan's Kidney Pills, which can be procured at Thompson & Bros' Drug Store, are an effective kidney tonic." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Winn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 11

Meaning of "Dumdum."
 Because of a vague understanding among many persons of the exact meaning of "dumdum" bullets, the following information is given:
 "The word dumdum as applied to bullets originated from Dumdum, near Calcutta, the ammunition factory for the Indian Army. The Standard Dictionary defines the dumdum bullet as an expanding, or man-stopping bullet; specifically, a half-covered, steel-cased bullet which expands or mushrooms on impact, by reason of its soft core."
 The majority of the International Peace Conference of 1899 decided against its use in war, the United States and England, however, being in the minority.

CHEERFULLY DESTROY THEIR OWN HOMES

Cottagers of Waelham, a suburb of Antwerp, burning their own home in order that the guns in the fortifications might have a clear sweep of the enemy's lines.

Hardy fighters of the Nineteenth corps of the Algerian contingent in the French army. Their fearless, fierce attacks on the enemy seem to utterly demoralize the German gunners.

CHANGING THE FRONTIER

After waiting 40 years the French finally had a chance at the German frontier marks along the Alsace-Lorraine border, and it did not take them long to tear down the signs that bore the black eagle and the words "Deutsches Reich."

Carried Nitro in Auto "Blowed Up."
 Muskogee, Okla.—Eighty quarts of nitro-glycerin exploded when an automobile driven by Carter Thomson, oil well shooter, struck a stone culvert three miles each of Okmulgee, today and all that has been found of him are three fingers and four toes. Thomson, who had been shooting wells for forty years, was carrying the explosive in the automobile with him.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.
Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.
I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.
I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.
After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.
I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."
Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.
Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.
Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
Write for Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Cardui, instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," and in state reports. 2-28
