that the shooting was murder. President Reagan said he was "shocked and saddened" by the incident and added Nicholson was not spying and violence was not justified.

But Reagan said that rather than cooling his desire to meet the new Soviet leader, Mikhail S. Gorbachev, the shooting made him "more anxious" for a summit meeting.

Nicholson, 37, a native of Redding, Conn., is survived by his wife Karyn and a daughter, both living in West Berlin. His body; which had been turned over to U.S. authorities in West Berlin, was flown late Monday to the U.S. Air Base at Rhein-Main, outside Frankfurt. There was no word on when the body will be returned to the United States.

The Soviet Embassy said Nicholson and his driver, Sgt. Jessie G. Schatz, were in a restricted zone and entered it "despite the presence of clearly visible warning signs in Russian and German." The Soviets said their guard fired when Nicholson tried to flee and that other soldiers captured his driver, who was at their vehicle nearby. The Army said Nicholson spoke luent Russian

'The officer was caught redhanded by a Soviet sentry guarding that equipment," said the statement by embassy spokesman Vladimir Kulagin, issued in response to press inquiries. "He did not comply with his orders and, after a warning shot, while attempting to escape, he was killed.'

U.S. officials said Nicholson was 300 to 500 yards away from any restricted area, unarmed, and that he was shot without warning.

Nicholson and his driver were monitoring Soviet military activities, as permitted under a 1947 agreement, Assistant Secretary of State Richard Burt said in Washington.

ABC News and The New York Times quoted unidentified sources as saying Nicholson was observing Soviet tank sheds. The State Department declined comment on those reports.

Burt said Nicholson cried out helplessly to Schatz after being wounded, but Soviet soldiers kept Schatz from providing first aid.

Nicholson's presence in East Germany was part of a "very visible" U.S. military intelligence gathering operation, reciprocated by the Soviets in West Germany, that evolved from the Allies' post-World War II liaison offices, U.S. officials said.

The United States, Britain and France have military liaison offices in East Germany and the Soviets have three in West Germany.

Indictments against Smith quashed by visiting judge

Indictments against Hereford at- tant district attorney for Deaf Smith torney Jerry Smith have again been quashed by a visiting judge.

Amarillo attorney Qlo Crum, appointed as Deaf Smith County Court judge to preside over the misdemeanor perjury cases, Monday ruled the indictments were poorly drawn and not sufficient to go to trial on.

Smith's trial was to have begun at 10 a.m. Monday, but the ruling was made as the result of pre-trial hearings lasting more than two hours.

It was the second time that Smith's attorney, Jim Brown of Canyon, convinced a judge that indictments against his client were vague and poorly worded.

Last October, felony indictments of aggravated perjury and official misconduct were quashed by Judge Pat Boone Jr. sitting by appointment in 222nd District Court.

Those charges were returned by County Criminal District Attorney Roland Saul.

One of the charges is that he denied such representation during a 222nd District Court hearing in March of 1983. According to the transcript of the hearing, Smith answered "no" to that question but then said "I take that back." Prosecutor Travis Ware argued Monday that retraction is only a defense to aggravated perjury, not perjury.

'We still maintain that the Bullard count was triable," Ware said after the hearing. "I'll maintain that till the day I die."

The "Bullard count" referred to Smith's alleged representation of Deaf Smith General Hospital ad-jury which indicted Smith for the second time Dec. 19. He said he had no quarrel with Crum's ruling, although he believes the indictments were good.

Two items on the Deaf Smith County commissioners' agenda Monday

Recent heavy rains caused some specifications are made. leakage problems at the Bull Barn and county attorney Roland Saul will be checking into the liability of the last contractor, out of Amarillo, for repairs. The commissioners also are planning to check costs for having a new roof built over the current roof. Carr also updated the commission on new rulings for application for state economic development grants and suggested the appointment of Argen Draper and Garth Thomas as co-chairmen of the county's sesquicentennial committee, upon Bill Johnson's resignation. Wes Fisher asked the commissioners to make an exception to the 100,000 mile use rule and go ahead with purchase of a new vehicle for the juvenile peace and probation officer. The current car has been worn out and juvenile peace officer Lupe Chavez said a new car would be more cost effective than constant repair.

Mike Carr, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce executive, requested the county to consider purchase of 12 tables and 90 chairs for the Bull Barn with the Rural Electric Cooperative and the Chamber purchasing the same amounts. Carr said that although the other two groups would be purchasing the chairs, the policy to not allow the equipment out of the Bull Barn would remain. In his proposal he said many of the chairs and tables were needing replaced and more were needed for accomodating large groups at the Bull Barn.

Man charged with bigamy

A Hereford man was indicted on bigamy charges Friday by a Deaf Smith County grand jury. Eight other persons were indicted as a result of the day-long meeting.

Michael Wayne Richardson, 25, was indicted on a third degree felony bigamy charge punishable by two to 10 years in prison and a fine up to $10,000. Richardson will apparently not be eligible for probation because of prior convictions of burglary.

According to the indictment, Richardson married Donna Lynn Scott at a time when he was still legally married to Teresia Renee Hunt Richardson. Deaf Smith County Criminal District Attorney Roland Saul would not discuss the par-

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Reagan waged a last-minute lobbying blitz to persuade House members that success at the Geneva arms tions." talks hinges on today's vote on producing more MX missiles.

Reagan and chief negotiator Max Kampelman, a Democrat, repeatedly exhorted House members Monday with the message that the MX system is needed as a bargaining tool in the arms talks now under way in Geneva, Switzerland.

Kampelman went further, saying a congressional decision to kill the MX would represent a serious intrusion in the negotiating process and "would inevitably delay the negotia-

But an MX opponent, Rep. Edward Markey, D-Mass., said Kampelman's mission to Washington on vote's eve was an attempt to give the MX "a sugar coating of arms control, to bathe it in the glow of Geneva." He and other MX foes argue the weapon is too expensive, destabilizing and too vulnerable to a Soviet first-strike attack.

Reagan told an invited group of more than 100 House and Senate members gathered under the gleaming chandeliers of the East Room of the White House that, "If we don't want to see our hopes evaporate, we must continue to demonstrate the resolve to carry the negotiations to a successful conclusion on a sound basis."

"If we fail, we'll be signaling to the world that on this issue we are irresolute and divided," Reagan said. "And the Soviet Union will see that, in dealing with the United States, propaganda and stonewalling are much more profitable than good faith negotiations."

Kampelman was ordered home from Geneva to try to persuade a 🔿 cluster of some 20 uncommitted House members to support the release of $1.5 billion in impounded funds to build a second installment of 21 MX missiles. He returned to the talks immediately after his emotional speech.

'Because as they enjoy the apple that falls from the tree that they did not have to pay for, they quite understandably wonder what other fruit will fall from the tree that they do not have to pay for," Kampelman said of the Soviets.

Reagan, who wants to build and deploy 100 MXs in all, said an MX defeat would erode the confidence of U.S. allies in Europe, who faced down vocal peace movements to proceed last year with deployment of medium-range U.S. Pershing 2 and cruise missiles.

"We asked them to walk through fire and brave a storm of Soviet propaganda and not-so-veiled threats,

Police say 'killing was useless'

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Three men were apprehended in connection with the death of a 19-year-old daughter of a deputy sheriff shot by two men robbing a fast food restaurant after she said she had no money to give them.

Charges could be filed against the men today, authorities said.

Police said Carla McMillen of Euless died instantly from a single shotgun blast to the chest.

"There was no reason to have killed this girl," homicide Detective Paul Kratz said.

He said the "cold-blooded killing" took place at about 1 a.m. while Miss McMillen and a friend sat in a booth eating hamburgers.

Two gunmen, one armed with a pistol and the other with a shotgun, entered the restaurant and ordered the three employees to empty the cash register, Kratz said.

The robbers then ordered customers to empty their wallets and purses, firing several shots to emphasize their demands, Kratz said. Once blast shattered a door, he said.

"She threw up her hands and said she didn't have anything." Kratz said. "They asked her to turn over her property and for no apparent reason shot her in the chest."

Miss McMillen, the daughter of Deputy Sheriff Charles McMillen, was pronounced dead at the scene.

Judge reverses rape case dismissal

PITTSBURGH (AP) - A judge who dismissed a rape charge against a man because the 13-year-old alleged victim arrived for court late has reversed his decision in the wake of courthouse protests and a backlash of public criticism.

"I think it's terrific," Carol McCullough, president of the South Hills Chapter of the National Organization of Women, said Monday after Judge J. Quint Salmon reinstated the rape charge against Geoffrey Adams, 27, of Pittsburgh.

"The attorneys are reviewing the jammed up trial list to determine when the case can be retried," Salmon said. "It will be retried as early as possible."

Adams was accused of beating and raping a 13-year-old girl in the back of a car. When the alleged victim and her mother were delayed in traffic and arrived at court between 15 and 30 minutes late, Salmon dismissed the case, saying it was the prosecutor's responsibility to bring witnesses to court on time.

Protesters responded by picketing the courthouse and Salmon's home.

Citizens shouldn't be 'locked in'

WASHINGTON (AP) - Tax-deferred Individual Retirement Accounts have been a boon to taxpayers and the nation's savings pool since they were liberalized in 1981. Now a move is under way to give depositors penalty-free access to their IRA money at any time.

"It's time to recognize that our citizens are intelligent enough to determine the best uses for their savings without being locked in," Sen. William Roth, R-Del., told colleagues last week while introducing a bill to repeal the 10 percent tax penalty for premature withdrawal of money from an IRA.

three Oscars, with the victory of Haing S. Ngor, a Cambodian refugee, marking an emotional high point in the presentations.

Ngor, who endured torture in his homeland which mirrored the agonies of his movie role as an assistant to a newspaper reporter, held his Oscar aloft in declared, "This is unbelievable. But so is my entire life."

The 57th awards went down in history as one of the shortest ever: three hours, five minutes - 40 minutes less than last year's marathon telecast. Recipients, hounded by red warning lights and threats that the orchestra would cut them off if they exceeded the 45-second time limit, kept acceptance speeches short.

"A Passage to India" and "Places in the Heart" each won two Oscars. The all-time top Oscar winner was "Ben-Hur" with 11 in 1959.

Best actor of the year, F. Murray Abraham of "Amadeus," told the TV audience of an estimated one billion viewers: "It would be a lie if I told you I didn't know what to say because I've been working on this speech for 25 years," but he said none of those speeches fit the time limit.

Abraham, 45, who portrayed Mozart's jealous rival, Salieri, expressed regret that he could not share the Oscar with co-star and fellow nominee Tom Hulce, who played the eighteenth-century Austrian composer.

"There's only one thing that is missing for me tonight and that is to have Tom Hulce standing by my side," he said.

Miss Field, 37, claiming her second Oscar for best actress as the courageous farm woman of "Places In The Heart," accepted her award through tears.

"This means so much more to me this time," she said. "I think the first time I hardly felt it because it was so new."

She won in 1979, portraying another strong-willed woman? in "Norma Rae."

The only best-picture nominee to end the night without any Oscars was "A Soldier's Story."

The widely predicted "Amadeus" sweep began early in the show with awards for makeup, sound, art direction, costume design and screenplay adapted by Peter Shaffer from his own play.

Milos Forman, the director who guided the Czech-made Orion picture, hailed the collaboration of artists in Czechoslovakia, saying, "This kind of recognition is encouraging for more than box-office reasons.

Forman, 52, who won the best director Oscar in 1976 for "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," left his native Czechoslovakia 16 years ago. "Amadeus" was his first film there since he became a U.S. citizen.

The award for best foreignlanguage film went to "Dangerous Moves," a Swiss film about a chess match.

A new generation of superstars was represented with Oscar winners in the music categories. Prince claimed an Oscar for best score, "Purple Rain," and Stevie Wonder for best song, "I Just Called To Say I Love You" from "The Woman In Red."

The idea is being pushed by the Investment Company Institute, whose members stand to gain from anything that increases savings. The institute estimates 23 million households now own an IRA and that as many as 19 million more would open IRAs if the tax penalty were removed.

A worker may set aside up to $2,000 a year in an IRA and pay no tax on that money or the interest it earns until it is withdrawn at age 591/2 or later. An extra $250 a year may be contributed to an IRA for an unemployed spouse. Early withdrawal results in the tax penalty, and often a penalty from the institution that holds the account.

Texas man files civil suit

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - A Missouri cattleman acquitted last year of criminal charges that he falsified cattle health records said Monday he had nothing to do with an unrelated cattle sale that resulted in a civil judgment against him and his family.

"I've been treated very unfairly. The federal government has got it in for me," Don Rose of Willard said in a telephone interview Monday

A six-member federal jury returned a civil judgment March 15 against Rose and his wife, Donna, and their two sons and daughtersin-law for $18,000 in actual damages and $150,000 in punitive damages.

The suit was filed by Billy D. Blue and Billy Ed Blue of Comanche, Texas, who alleged that they bought 34 head of dairy cattle from the Roses through an agent at a 1981 sale with the understanding that all the animals were or could be registered as purebred Holsteins.

The Blues alleged in the suit that the bloodlines, ancestry and eligibility for registration of many of the animals were challenged by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, which barred 20 of the animals from registration and questioned the propriety of registering the remaining 14.

"I didn't have anything to do with it," Rose said Monday

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

On behalf of Church World Service I wish to express appreciation to each of those who gave so generously to the Hereford Save-A-Life in Ethiopia Fund. The donation from your community totalling $11,067.87 has been received by our national office. One hundred percent of your gift will be used for the relief of suffering in Ethiopia.

The Church World Service response to the needs of Ethiopia has taken a dual focus: relief and rehabilitation. CWS has airlifted food, provided 20 tons of high calorie biscuits and ten trucks for food distribution, water transportation and sanitation. The relief effort has included 100,000 blankets, 6,500 tents and the placement of the first US medical team in Ethiopia.

Helping others to help themselves is the emphasis of our rehabilitation efforts. CWS will provide 3,000 tons of seeds, 50,000 packets of tools (each packet contains an axe, a pick-axe, a shovel, a machete, and a sickle). 1,000 plows, 2,000 oxen, and 500 other animals for breeding purposes. The June/July cultivation period is critical for the farmers of Ethiopia; we want them to be prepared.

May the simple word "thanks" carry with it the expression of joy your gifts will bring to the lives of others. Because you cared and shared, others are given new hope stops they are," said House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass.

The MX battle in the House is the result of a congressional decision last fall to postpone the final decision on the missile. Today's House vote is on authorizing MX spending, with a second vote on Wednesday or Thursday on appropriating the money.

In identical 55-45 votes last week, the Senate voted to approve money to build the 21 MXs.

Chemical industry safety hearing begins

WASHINGTON (AP) - Prompted production at Institute. Company by the poison gas leak that killed more than 2,000 people in Bhopal, India, a House subcommittee is launching a survey of safety procedures April - "if all goes well." in U.S. chemical plants.

The House Energy health subcommittee summoned chemical company executives to Capitol Hill for a joint hearing today with the Energy commerce subcommittee.

Heading the list is Warren Anderson, chairman of Union Carbide Corp., which last week announced the findings of its internal investigation of the methyl isocyanate leak from an affiliate plant in Bhopal last December.

Also scheduled to testify were officials from Monsanto, Du Pont, American Cyanamid and Borg-Warner Chemicals, some of the 87 U.S. chemical firms being surveyed by the subcommittee headed by Rep. Henry Waxman, D-Calif.

Anderson said the massive release at Bhopal resulted from a runaway reaction after water "inadvertently or deliberately" got into a chemical storage tank. He said procedures at the plant "were not in compliance with standard operating procedures."

Jackson Browning, Carbide's vice president for environmental affairs, has said that a Bhopal-type disaster "is inconceivable" at the firm's Institute, W. Va., pesticide plant; where production of methyl isocyanate was halted following the leak in India.

But Waxman says an independent nvestigation should be conducted before Union Carbide resumes MIC spokesman Ed Van Den Ameele said resumption of MIC production is now scheduled for the second week in

"I've gotten to the point where I don't think we can take Union Carbide's word on what happened in Bhopal or whether it could happen again in Institute," Waxman said in an interview.He said the Environmental Protection Agency and health officials in West Virginia should hold a public hearing on the question before the plant resumes MIC production.

Our family was selected as the library Family of the Year by the staff at the Deaf Smith County Library. We were quite surprised and delighed with the honor and the presentation at their annual business meeting. When we became aware of how this award was made and for what reasons, we could better understand our being selected.

We moved to Hereford in the summer of 1981 and have used the library facilities constantly since, including magazine and book checkouts, interlibrary loans, childrens story hour, monthly films and projector checkout. We have found the facilities to be very good for a smaller size town, and we have always found the library staff to be very helpful and pleasant to work

Meet Your Neighbor

By LISA BALL Staff Writer

After applying to law firms in Florida and Texas, David Stoltzner decided to come to Hereford as a partner with Witherspoon, Aikin and Langley.

"I applied in Texas because it is one of my favorite states," he said. "When I came to Hereford to talk to them I was really impressed with Judge Witherspoon and Earnest Langley. Both have helped shape laws in Texas, and the chance to come and work with them was extremely appealing."

Coming from New Orleans where he had practiced law for four years as a representative of management in labor law, Stoltzner wanted a change - a change that would allow him to practice law with a fair amount of litigation and commercial disputes.

Stoltzner gained interest in labor law when he was studying in law school. He was quickly disillusioned, though, when the actual cases were not anything like the theory he studied. Thus, while working with the corporations in labor law disputes, Stoltzner gained an insight into commercial and contract disputes, an area he is excited about today.

"In commercial disputes, someone is usually harmed or wronged in a way you can identify with," Stoltzner with a bachelor of science degree in geology.

"I wanted an undergraduate degree that didn't close doors,' Stoltzner said. "I knew I wanted a science degree, and I had toyed with the idea of going to med school."

Upon graduation, he worked as a construction superintendent in Florida and taught tennis on the side. He then decided to return to graduate school, and in 1977 received his master's of business administration in finance from the University of Florida.

From there, he put all of his concentration in law school at the University of Florida where he graduated in 1981 in the top 10 percent of his class. While in law school, Stoltzner worked at four clerking positions with general practice firms. Since he was graduated, he has attended various law seminars. In Hereford, Stoltzner will be a member of the board of the American Heart Association when the group meets in September. He is also a member of the New Orleans Bar Association, the Louisiana Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

He is attending First Christian Church where he is helping teach a Sunday School class. While in Gainesville, he taught a Bible class. Stoltzner's hobbies include racquetball, tennis, golf and running.

"I'm a serious runner even though I've fallen off a bit," he said. "I used to run competitively.

"My number one love, though," he continued, "is sailing. In sailing, you're doing something but you have a tranquil environment. It's relaxing, and you can let your mind wander with grandiose thoughts."

Jokingly, Stoltzner said his family consists of two cats. Marshall he named after the first black Justice of the Supreme Court. Sandra was named after the first female on the Supreme Court.

Amarillo edges Herd in 3-5A baseball action

Hereford's Whiteface baseball team lost a high-scoring duel with Amarillo High Saturday when the Sandies scored a run in the bottom of the eighth inning to take a 15-14 decision

The Herd scored at least one run in every inning except the last, pushing five runs across the plate in the fifth frame to take an 11-8 advantage. Amarillo bounced back to tie the game with three runs in the fifth.

Hereford then took a 14-11 lead in the top of the seventh, but Amarillo tied it again with three runs in the bottom of the frame.

Chet Bunch started on the mound for Hereford and was followed by Rodney Torres in the fourth, then Mike Scott came to the mound in the seventh.

Cotton and Suarez recorded twobest hits for the herd, and Bunch lashed out a triple. There were no home runs in the wild-scoring contest. Hereford has three errors in the game and the Sandies committed two.

The Herd also lost one of their top players after Torres and Suarez had a collision during the contest. Torres underwent knee surgery Sunday and will be out the rest of the season.

The loss left Hereford with a 0-2 on the Caprock Longhorns in a 4:30 p.m. district match.

Coaches discuss NIT final four matchups

NEW YORK (AP) - Talk about away games - that certainly is what the semifinal matchup between Indiana and Tennessee at the National Invitation Tournament will be.

"I think the team we're going to bring in here has one kid who has been here (to New York), and that's the kid from Colombia (Magnus Pelkowski, a South American)," Indiana Coach Bobby Knight said Monday at a news conference to hype the semifinals of the 48-year-old college basketball tournament.

The other semifinal on Wednesday will match UCLA, 19-12, against Louisville, 19-16, and will follow the game between Indiana, 18-13, against Tennessee, 21-14, which is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., EST.

"I doubt if I have any players w

For Walt Hazzard, the first-year coach at UCLA, the trip to New York will be a chance to redeem an 88-69 defeat by No. 3 St. John's earlier this season at the Garden.

Hazzard's Bruins are the hottest team of the surviving four in the NIT. "Our only loss in the last 11 games was to USC (Southern California) in four overimes," said Hazzard. "We just kept working on fundamentals of basketball. The only head coach absent Monday was Denny Crum of Louisville, which is in its 12th NIT, third since Crum joined the Cardinals for the 1971-72 season. Louisville won the title in 1956.

Representing Louisville at the news conference was assistant coach Bobby Dotson, and he remembered an earlier meeting with UCLA this season

Hereford's Whiteface girls showed great team strength in capturing the championship of the Canyon Reef Relays at Snyder Saturday, while the Hereford boys had one of their best efforts of the young track season in finishing fourth in the strong field. The Whiteface fems rolled up 147 points to win the title by 18 points. San Angelo Central was second with 129, followed by Plainview, 109; Midland, 106; and Midland Lee, 53. San Angelo Central won the boys' division with a massive 207 points. Abilene was next with 101, followed by Amarillo High with 68, Hereford 62, Caprock 47 and Plainview 40.

Hereford's girls recorded many of their best marks of the season in capturing the team title. Lisa Redmon flashed to a 11.96 clocking in the 100 meters; Selma Moreno won the 1600 meter run in 5:44.28, and Diana Devers took the shot with a toss of

The boys' efforts were highlighted by a first in the shot put by Lee Brockman, seconds in the 200 meters and 400 meters by Alan Dudding and Jimmy Hazard, and a first in the 1600-meter relay. The team of Dudding, Hazard, Francisco Saucedo and Freddie Gamboa clocked their season's best of 3:25.84 in the relay. Dudding ran a 22.21 in the 200 meters; Hazard clocked a 50.7 in the 400, and Brockman tossed the shot 51-9 and 34. Brockman was also fourth in the discus.

The Hereford girls scored points in every event in winning the team trophy. Stacy Sanders was third in the long jump and fifth in the triple jump; Felicia Redmon was second in the 200-meter run and fifth in the high jump; Devers won the shot and Stephanie Thomas was second in the discus and fourth in the shot; Donann Cummings was fourth in the 100-meter hurdles; Delia Rodriguez was second in the 400 and Michelle Mason was fifth; Lina Esqueda was second in the 3200 meters and Francis Flores was third.

Selma Moreno won the 1600 meters, followed by Flores and Terry Valdez in third and fourth places; Sandra Valdez was third in the 800-meter run and Eva Medrano finished fifth. Monica Devers took a sixth place in the 200-meter run. Mason, Esqueda, Valdez and Rodriguez teamed up in the 1600-meter relay for a fourth-place finish.

Monica Devers, Sanders, Felicia and Lisa Redmon were on the 800-meter relay team that finished third. All three of the relay teams had their best times of the season.

The Hereford boys will be the hosts next Saturday when the C of C Super Sports Track Meet is held at Whiteface Stadium. It will be a threedivision meet. Teams in the first division will be Hereford, Monterey, Estacado, Caprock, Tascosa, Borger, Plainview.

Division 2 teams will include Tulia, Friona, Dimmitt, Littlefield and Nazareth, Division 3 will be junior varsity teams from all classes. Field event prelims start at 9 a.m.; running prelims begin at 9:45 a.m., and the finals start at 2:30 p.m.

Judge bans night baseball in ## Chicago but decision being appealed

CHICAGO (AP) - The Chicago Cubs have been thrown out in their first at-bat for lights at Wrigley Field, but hold on baseball fans, the call is being appealed.

Attorneys for Tribune Co., owners of the National League team, have filed notice that they will appeal a judge's ruling Monday that upheld state and city laws effectively banning night baseball in a park where the game has been played exclusively in the sunshine since 1916.

The notice, filed with the Illinois Appellate Court, came two hours after Cook County Circuit Judge Richard Curry said those laws don't violate the team's constitutional rights.

Curry suggested the Cubs owners were more concerned about making money with night baseball than they were about the potential disruption to the 55,000 residents of the North Side community.

"The game of baseball may be everybody's business, but the business of baseball is greed," Curry said in his 64-page ruling. "The Cubs and the commissioner of baseball have lost their grasp of reality and perspective on values; they have apparently adopted the 'Hit 'em where they live' slogan," he added.

The ruling, which came in response to a suit filed by the Cubs in December, was applauded by city leaders and residents around the park.

"This ruling is further evidence that neighborhoods have the right to make critical decisions which affect their lives . ... ' Mayor Harold Washington said.

"It means peace and tranquility," said Alderman Bernard Hansen, whose ward includes part of the area around Wrigley Field, the only major league ballpark without lights.

But General Manager Dallas Green said in Mesa, Ariz., where the Cubs are in spring training, that he was "very, very disappointed" with Curry's ruling.

While he made no reference to rumors that the Cubs would move if they couldn't get lights, he said, "We consider this very, very serious business."

Knight and DeVoe are not strangers to New York or the NIT.

It will be Knight's third NIT appearance with Indiana. He won it in 1979. He also took Army teams to the tournament four times.

St. John's coach just happy to be among NCAA final four

By DICK JOYCE AP Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) - St. John's basketball coach Lou Carnesecca is happy that he stuck around long enough to reach the NCAA Final Four for the first time.

'Years ago you were allowed to make mistakes," the 60-year-old Carnesecca said Monday. "But not today, because of the hype, TV and the money is tremendous. There is pressure. If you don't make in three or four years, you're on your way."

No. 3 St. John's, one of three Big East Conference teams to reach Saturday's Final Four at Lexington, Ky., faces top-ranked Georgetown, a team which has routed the Redmen in their past two meetings, 85-69, 92-80. The Redmen hung on for a 66-65 win in their first contest. These were the only teams ranked

No. 1 this season. The Redmen knocked the Hoyas off the top perch and stayed there for five weeks until the the Hoyas avenged the loss Jan. 26. The Hoyas moved back to No.1 and have been there ever since.

Villanova, another Big East team, plays Memphis State in the other Final Four meeting Saturday.

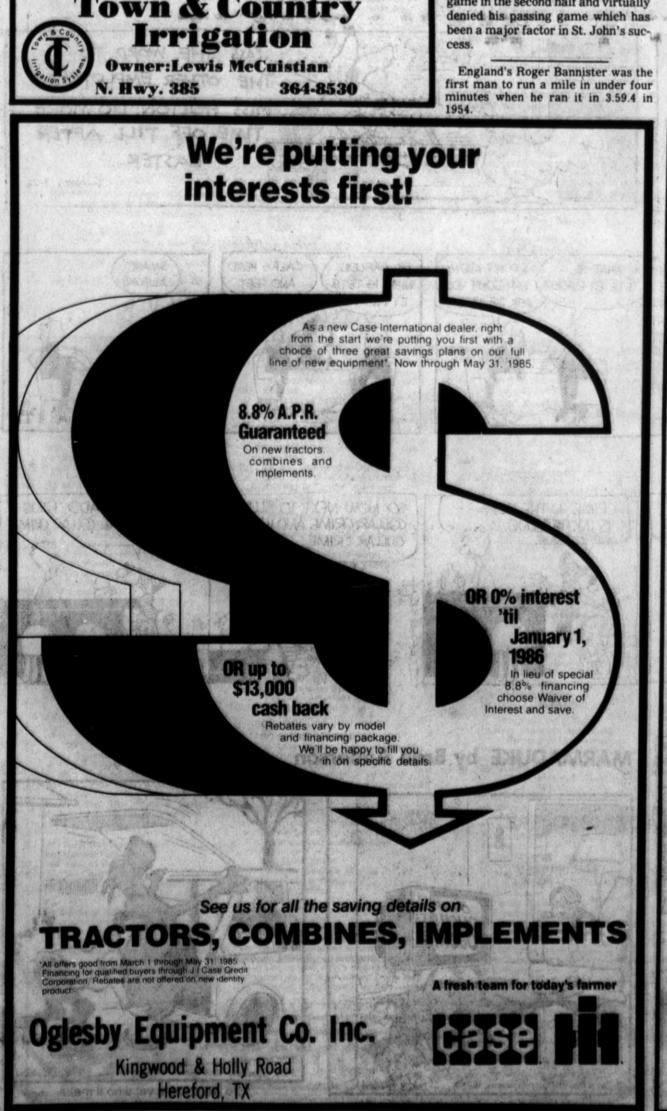

Carnesecca gave his team a day off Monday and he was presented with the Kodak National Invitation Tournament Man of the Year Award at a Madison Square Garden news conference.

"We know them (Georgetown) quite well," said Carnesecca, in his 17th season and second tour as the Redmen's head coach. "They're a great team.

'Maybe we concentrated too much on (7-foot All-America Patrick) Ewing. 'He's going to get his anyway. If you concentrate too much on the big fella, the other guys will chop you up - Michael Jackson, (Ralph) Dalton, (Reggie) Williams ...

"We've got to stop beating ourselves. That's what happened in the last two games."

The Redmen, 31-3, beat North Carolina State 69-60 Sunday for the West Regional title. It marked the first time that St. John's made the Final Four since 1952, when it advanced to the final only to lose to Kansas. No New York City team to make it to the Final Four since NYU in 1960.

"It was a tough day," Carnesecca said of the N.C. State game."It was so close. Joe Lapchick (Carnesecca's predecessor) always told me, 'The idea is to survive.' But you always want more."

The Hoyas, 34-2, captured the East Regional Saturday with a 60-54 victory over Georgia Tech, gaining the Final Four for the third time in four years. No team since UCLA in 1973 has won consecutive NCAA crowns.

Carnesecca gave his players off from practice Monday and said there would be a light workout Tuesday before heading to Kentucky.

Despite knowing all about Georgetown, he said he would review the films of the previous games against Georgetownfor what he calls "La Rivincita," Italian for rubber match. He will also look at the Georgetown-Georgia Tech film.

"To beat Georgetown, you cannot afford to have an off day. In fact, a good day won't do. You need a great day," he said. St. John's All-American Chris Mullin, who has totaled 102 points in four games, is the leading scorer in the tournament. Walter Berry, 6-8 sophomore, has 81 points.

Mullin's ball handling was a major factor in the Redmen beating the Hoyas the first time. In their last game, the Hoyas' box-and-one defense limited Mullin's shooting game in the second half and virtually

Gunslingers top Gold in lackluster game

DENVER (AP) - The bottom line, as Coach Mouse Davis and several players noted, was that they won, however unimpressive they looked in the process.

The Denver Gold, putting together three scoring drives that totaled only 49 yards thanks to San Antonio turnovers, defeated the Gunslingers 16-2 Monday night in United States Football League action.

The victory raised the Gold's record to 3-2 and kept them within striking distance of Western Conference leader Houston, at 5-0.

But a far more significant event may have occurred here Monday night. Denver fans may have soured on the USFL, which could ultimately threaten the existence of the threeyear-old franchise.

Despite perfect weather, only 13,901 fans turned out for the game a record low for the Gold. Two weeks ago, in their only other home game of the season, the Gold drew a meager 17,890, which came despite a moneyback guarantee that officials thought might attract a crowd of 40,000 to 50,000.

Gold owner Doug Spedding insisted there was no cause for undue alarm.

"I'm a patient man," Spedding said. "We just have to give this team time, and work a little harder on promotions "

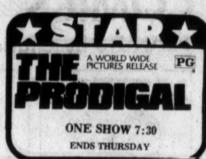

But the downward trend is unmistakable. In 1983, the Gold averaged an impressive 41,735 in home attendance, slipping slightly to 33,952 last season.

USFL commissioner Harry Usher, in Denver to attend the game, said earlier Monday that "one of the things that concerns us is the decline in attendance in Denver. I believe people will come if the quality of the product merits it. I believe it does, in Denver and throughout the league."

Several thousand Gold fans, who used to attend games but now are choosing to stay home, obviously disagree.

Gold quarterback Vince Evans, who scrambled 5 yards for one touchdown and passed for another. had some doubts of his own.

San Antonio, which crossed midfield four times in the game but got no closer than the Denver 24-yard line, was victimized by sacks, penalties and dropped passes in addition to its four turnovers. The Gunslingers finished with only 156 yards in total offense.

So -- I keep making excuses for my compulsiveness, afraid to let anything slide for fear I will fall behind and demands I make on myself and others are horrendous. I have a tendency to forget that not everyone has the high energy level that I have. Slowing down is not easy, but I'm working on it.

And now, if anyone wants a copy of that New Year's Eve column, please contact the public service department of your local newspaper. We don't have any in our office.

Dear Ann Landers: At the age of 63 I feel that my life has no meaning. When I retired three years ago I lost interest in everything. My work provided the so many goofy questions, one personal rewards I did not get more won't hurt. I am 83 years old from my family.

I am married to a humorless, unsympathetic, boorish man with have expressed a wish to be whom I have little in common. I cremated. I have lots of gold in my can confide. My children are selfish and unpleasant. At a time when I should be enjoying grandchildren, they tell me they have no interest in getting married. Volunteer work entails a great amount of travel on dangerous public transportation so that is out.

Maybe I need therapy to get me through this difficult time. I am finding it difficult to face getting old and am constantly living in the past.

Thank you for any help you can give me. -- MRS. C.G. IN NEW YORK

DEAR N.Y.: Get a part-time job -- anything to get out of the house. I also suggest therapy. You sound depressed. Let me know how you are getting along. I'd be delighted to hear you followed through and are making progress.

Dear Ann Landers: You answer and am thinking about my funeral. I've already written my will and live a great distance from relatives mouth -- put in when gold was and have few friends in whom I cheap. Please tell me who gets the gold? I don't want it to go to the cremator. He will be paid well for his work. Must I specify in my will that the gold should be evenly divided among my heirs or do the cremators automatically turn it over? -- ONE OF YOUR FANS IN K.C

DEAR FAN: Cremators are not topic of program interested in gold from the teeth of their clients. It isn't worth enough to bother about. My advice is to forget it. Just figure there may be a little gold dust among the ashes.

Ann Landers' booklet, "Sex and

Around the County

County Exetnsion Agent

Does white water rafting on the Oconto River sound exciting? How about attending people - powered bathtub races in the Shawano Lake Channel? Or would you rather spend a Sunday afternoon sailing on any of friends and learning about different Shawano county's 42 crystal clear lakes? Maybe sailing is too serene for you so you may enjoy an actionpacked day of water-skiing or watching the famous Ski Sharks perform acrobatic water stunts for thousands of water-skiing fans.

There are just a few of the waterrelated sports and activities that can be experienced when 4-H'ers travel to Shawano County this coming July. Teenaged 4-H members from Deaf Smith County are eligible to participate in this State 4-H Exchange July 11-20 1985.

Shawano County is situated in the Northeastern section of Wisconsin and is 35 miles northwest of Greenbay. This county is a leading dairycounty of Wisconsin. There are 1,243 dairy farms with 47,700 milk cows and milk sales valued at $67.2 million ranking 9th in the state and 20th in the U.S. Other crops include wheat and corn. Most of the 4-H host families are Dairy farming families--therefore, the Deaf Smith 4-H'ers will more than likely get to milk a cow or two!

Other attractions to this scenic county include fishing in over 42 lakes and 440 miles of streams. Four-H'ers can try their hand at catching anything from trout and bass to walleye and northern pike.

Camping is also in abundance as Shawano County offers campers & hikers seven county parks and 13 campgrounds. All of the parks are wooded and most have lakes, streams or beaches to enjoy.
