School Girls Aid Committee In Big Drive for the Goal

If you bought those Chautauqua tickets before Monday of this week then you have some money coming to you! Go call on secretary J. S. Jones and he will refund you some real coin of the realm.

For the war tax on these tickets has been lifted by Uncle Sam, according to a telegram received Monday and all who purchased tickets before that time will have the tax refunded them. Secretary Jones estimates that about $40 in this tax money will go back to purchasers.

This ruling making the total amount for adult tickets $2.75 instead of $3.03 and for children's tickets $1.00 instead of $1.10. All of which will help, says the committee.

A lady representative of the Chautauqua dropped in Tuesday between trains and will return here Thursday to aid the committee in winding up the ticket sale. The school girls are aiding the committee in selling and there is a growing demand for the paste-boards that mean admission to the best thing Hereford has the privilege of seeing and hearing annually. The tent crew is looked for the last of this week and all is being gotten in readiness for the big opening on next Monday, May 22.

The Jno. L. Wilson Ranch Sold After 41 Years Service

Final papers were signed this week in a deal which marks the passing from active business connections of one of the oldest cattle firms in this section. Jno. L. Wilson & Son, Mr. Wilson started in the cattle business in 1881 and is one of the best-known and most respected cowmen of the Panhandle of Texas.

The ranch, consisting of about 30,000 acres of leased land in Bailey county, has been secured by the Halsell Cattle Company; 365 head of steers were sold to W. E. Hicks, and 850 head of stock cattle were purchased by Jim Watson of Lubbock.

Mr. Wilson stated Tuesday that he had not definitely determined his course for the future but was most concerned just now about the recovery of his son, Earl, now a patient in the Mayo Bros. hospital. Earl is expected to be discharged about June 1, but it may be many months before he can enter actively into business affairs.

GARTON HAD FINE TIME AT BIG SAN- TA FE GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Garton returned home the first of the week from the "System Loss and Damage Committee Meeting" of the Santa Fe railroad, held at Denver, Colorado, beginning May 3 and continuing through the next day. Mr. Garton reports a very interesting and instructive meeting in which twenty-seven subjects relating to every phase of railroading from a hand-car to solid pullman (De Luxe) Special, and from the hombre to the president, were considered.

The Santa Fe was the first railroad system in the U. S. to hold meetings of this nature, holding the first meeting about twelve years ago. Since that time several of the largest railroad companies have followed suit. The next meeting, Mr. Garton says, will be held in Chicago in October or November.

Nestor Gass and Miss Pearl Hensley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hensley of Canyon, were united in marriage, Sunday, May 14, at the Presbyterian Parsonage in Canyon by Rev. Ted T. Hoffield. Mr. and Mrs. Gass reached home Sunday night and are now receiving the congratulations of their friends. They are occupying the J. B. Hammer residence.

"Blue Dog" Will Chase Polo Ball Instead Cattle

An odd incident in the recent sale of the Jno. L. Wilson ranch in Bailey county was related to the brand Tuesday by Mr. Wilson. Earl Wilson, raised a very fine cow pony, known as "Blue Dog," an animal of unusual quickness and intelligence. The pony will cut out a prairie dog from its hole as readily as he will crowd a cow or steer.

Jim Watson of Lubbock, who purchased the stock cattle on the ranch, also acquired the pony for $200, and will train him as a Polo pony. Polo ponies are rare and the pony requires speed, dexterity, pliability and intelligence in an unusual degree. "Blue Dog" will make a great Polo pony. It is confidently believed by those who have studied the animal.

Ousley Opposes Ku Klux; Sees No Reason for Klan

Following his address at Hereford last Thursday, Honorable Clarence Ousley, candidate for the Senate, spoke at Dimmitt at 10:30 Friday morning and at Tulla in the afternoon. Good crowds and attentive audiences heard him at both places.

The Dimmitt district courtroom was filled to capacity, the schools turning out for the occasion. He was asked to define his position on the Ku Klux Klan at Dimmitt. He readily complied, although not believing this question to be a senatorial campaign issue. He stated that two of his opponents, R. L. Henry and Sterling P. Strong, based their candidacies on this issue, for some unknown reason, and that Mr. Mayfield refused to state whether he did or did not favor the Klan. Mr. Ousley's discussion of the subject at Dimmitt is summed up in his answer to the Dallas Questionnaire on the Klan, as follows:

"I do not believe that any secret, oath-bound political organization should be encouraged," wrote Mr. Ousley, "but I do not see how it is feasible to prohibit such an organization by law. My particular objection to the practices of the Ku Klux Klan as they have been represented in public prints is the secret method of passing judgment upon the conduct of men. This is not only explicitly contrary to several articles of the Bill of Rights, but its tendency to substitute an invisible tyranny for responsible government."

"I do not see how any man can favor any organization, however worthy its purposes, that denies the right of trial by jury, the right of the accused to be confronted by the witnesses against him and the preservation of personal liberty except as it may be denied and abridged by due processes of law, as plainly set forth in both the Federal and State Constitutions."

"No Federal or State officers should belong to any organization that in the slightest degree commits him to any abatement of the sacredness of his oath of office, any indulgence of or any connivance of any violation of the law. This is fundamental and in its broadest and fullest application should govern citizens as well as officers. Obedience to law is not a matter of personal discretion; it is the supreme duty of all and its disregard is the beginning of the end of government. If our country is to remain free for any of us, it must remain free for all of us. True Americanism knows no class or creed."

Commencement Exercises This Week; Baccalaureate Address Sunday Inspiring

Commencement Week for the Hereford public schools was inaugurated last Sunday with the Baccalaureate address at the morning hour at the Christian church by Dr. E. B. Atwood, president of Wayland College of Plainview, as well as pastor of the First Baptist church of Hereford. Dr. Atwood's address was of the usual high order of thought and expression used by him in his work among the Hereford people and was attentively listened to and taken to heart by the big congregation. He took his text from the Proverbs and Matthew and his sermon centered on the thought, "But where shall wisdom be found and where is the place of understanding." He stressed the ever presence of the Father and the works of Christ for the attainment of wisdom and appealed to the young minds before him to seek Christianity as the one thing that must be attained to insure success in this world and the hereafter.

The center of the main auditorium of the church was reserved for the seniors, juniors, faculty and teachers. Miss Swisher led the choir in splendid selections and Mrs. Carl Mounts gave a solo entitled, "In Thee, O Lord, Do I Put My Trust."

City's Streets To Be Graded— Hip-Hip-Hooray!

The city streets of Hereford are to get a much-needed grading and evening up right away, following the rain, with two new pieces of street machinery received by the City Commission Monday. The new apparatus consists of a Grader and an Evener, ordered from the Russell Grader Company of Texas. The new outfit will be pulled by a tractor. The Mayor says the new purchase will get its initial tryout this week. Goodness knows, the streets need the work and the populace will hail the actual starting with delight.

ANOTHER SOAKING RAIN FELL HERE THRU MONDAY NITE

Another slow, soaking rain began falling just before midnight Monday and continued until after daylight Tuesday. It is believed to have been of a rather general nature and was the kind of a soaker that goes into the ground and stays there. The sun was out, however, Tuesday afternoon.

There has never been a better season in the ground at this time of the year and the prospects could hardly be better for grass, oats, spring wheat, "everything."

BANK OFFICIALS ATTENDING STATE MEET AT FT. WORTH

Henry Wilkinson and Johnathan Eganman left Hereford Monday afternoon for Ft. Worth to attend the Texas Bankers' Ass'n Convention, to be held at Ft. Worth on May 17, 18 and 19.

Thieves Swiped Car From Glare of White Lights

One of the boldest automobile thefts that has occurred here in ages was pulled off last Saturday night, right in the glare of the street lights near the Hardwick Theatre. The Essex touring car belonging to the First State Bank & Trust Co., was swiped while the little Wilkinson girls were in the picture show, taken out on the east road about five miles, turned around, and then stripped of its tires and everything else removable while several cars passed the bandits at work.

The coolness of the thing was perhaps best demonstrated by the fact that the thieves turned the car around while stripping it, as though headed from the other direction, and passed by secretly thought some fellow was having tire trouble. The car had only recently been equipped all around with new cord tires. These, together with a good spare and all tools and accessories, were carried off and the car abandoned. Sheriff Purcell located it after a long search in the early hours of the morning. He is at work on the case.

At the same time this car was taken George McMahon's Buick, parked next to it, escaped only through the fact that it was locked. The thieves swiped Mr. McMahon's spotlight and everything else they could find. In a hurry and make their getaway in the Essex. Henry Hastings immediately phoned to every sheriff in the Panhandle to look out for the car and was told of three other cars that were stolen at almost the same hour, one at Amarillo, one at Farwell, and the third at Clovis. The officers believe there is an organized and expert band of thieves at work and that some concrete plan must be worked out to break up the gang.

Rousing Luncheon Crowd Misses a Speech From Pope

A rattling good crowd of thirty-six Hereford men and a few visitors from nearby points gathered at the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Monday at the Stockmen's Cafe to greet the Amarillo Real Estate delegation billed to eat lunch here and aid in the organizing a local Realtor's Board. The Rentfrow's Show sent down a good orchestra for the occasion and everything was set for a big time. But the Amarillo bunch were delayed by rain and mud and did not arrive until long after one o'clock and as a consequence the crowd missed the pleasure of mixing with and entertaining them. Joe Pope of the Amarillo News was one of the delegates and a great speech was spoiled. The visitors came in late, were given luncheon by a committee, and then transacted business at the courthouse.

The music rendered by the Rentfrow Show orchestra was splendid and much appreciated by the diners. The Plainview meeting next week, the Chautauqua, the hospital election and other pending matters were discussed at the luncheon. Those present were: D. L. McDonald, G. A. F. Parker, Rev. J. R. Sharp, J. E. Hill, Elmer Dameron, Mayor Knight, J. H. Pitman, Dr. J. W. Hicks, L. W. Hough, J. B. Elliston, C. A. Skelton, C. J. Mapes, Dimmitt, W. S. Williams, Arch. Leonard and Tom Foster, J. E. Bray, F. H. Oberthier, E. S. Ireland, N. C. Vogele, C. C. Rockwell, Ed Shore, Wes Bradley, A. H. Elliston, D. F. Ashbrook, W. R. Steckman, C. R. Smith, Walter Dunlap, Emil Bowsher, Homer Wilkinson, Ed Connell, J. S. Jones, L. F. Borden, Henry Wilkinson, E. W. Harrison, Seth B. Holman.

HUNTED BUFFALOS WITH W. G. ROSS IN DAYS OF LONG AGO

REAL ESTATE BOARD FORM- ED MONDAY

LOCAL MEN AIDED BY AMARILLO DELEGA- TION OF FIVE

CODE OF ETHICS Aimed at Closer Under- standing and Better Work all Around

The Hereford Real Estate Board was formally organized Monday afternoon, at a meeting of real estate dealers of the city held at the courthouse. J. E. Hill was elected president, C. R. Smith vice president, and L. Baskin, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors for the first year will consist of Ralph Barnett, A. H. Elliston, Ed Connell and D. T. McDonald. The board was designated a committee on constitution and by-laws and another meeting will be held next Friday night to complete organization and start active work.

The new organization will affiliate with the state and national organizations, it is understood.

The new organization grew directly out of a banquet honored the Hereford dealers at Amarillo last week by the Amarillo association and Monday a delegation composed of John B. Givin, president, J. E. Gault, secretary, R. O. C. Brunley, John Crudginton and Joe L. Pope of Amarillo came down and aided the local men in their organization. The visitors explained the needs for and benefits to be derived from such organized activity and their interest and help was greatly appreciated by the Hereford men. Several of the local dealers were, out of town, and one or two did not take enough interest to attend and join, but the big majority of them put their names in the membership pot and agreed to work together for their own good and for the good of the community.

The new organization provides for a code of ethics for fair dealing with each other and with the public, and the intent is to work with the Chamber of Commerce as far as possible for the development of the general community interests. Those who composed the charter membership list Monday were: Hyrd & Hill, A. H. Elliston & Son, D. L. McDonald, Ralph Barnett, J. E. Bray, J. A. Pitman, Smith & Quinn, Ed Connell, E. H. Shore, Ashbrook & Ireland, W. R. Williams, L. Baskin.

County Trustees Discuss Uniform Basis of Effort

A uniform eight months term for rural schools was agreed upon last Saturday at a meeting of the various county school trustees held in the office of Judge W. M. Megert. Nearly all the schools of the county were represented. Some schools had eight months and some nine months and it was determined in standardize this feature in future.

Salary limits were also discussed and it was generally understood that $100 per month was a reasonable and average amount to pay. There was some discussion from this figure but the majority favored it. Another question talked over was the matter of teachers' certificates. The agreement reached was that so far as possible only first grade certificates would be considered hereafter, it being the unanimous opinion that rural schools were entitled to as high grade services as the city schools. It is felt that this feature will be easily sustained owing to the close proximity to the West Texas Normal and its abundant supply of teachers.

He was introduced by County Judge Woodlee and his discussion of current national problems seemed to please the audience. At about this time of the year, when your lawn sheds its winter coat of hardness, and the first blades of grass spring up, you're going to start thinking of a lawn-mower.

That is, if you want a neat, even growth, and know its advantages. An unkempt, shaggy lawn detracts from the appearance, and so indirectly from the value of the house.

Usco for $10.90

WHEN the "Usco" Tire announced its new price of $10.90 it carried this understood contract with the buyer—

A price reduction made in good faith—using all the U. S. advanced art of tire making not only to get the price down, but to keep the quality up.

Today $10.90 is not the uncommon price it was last November.

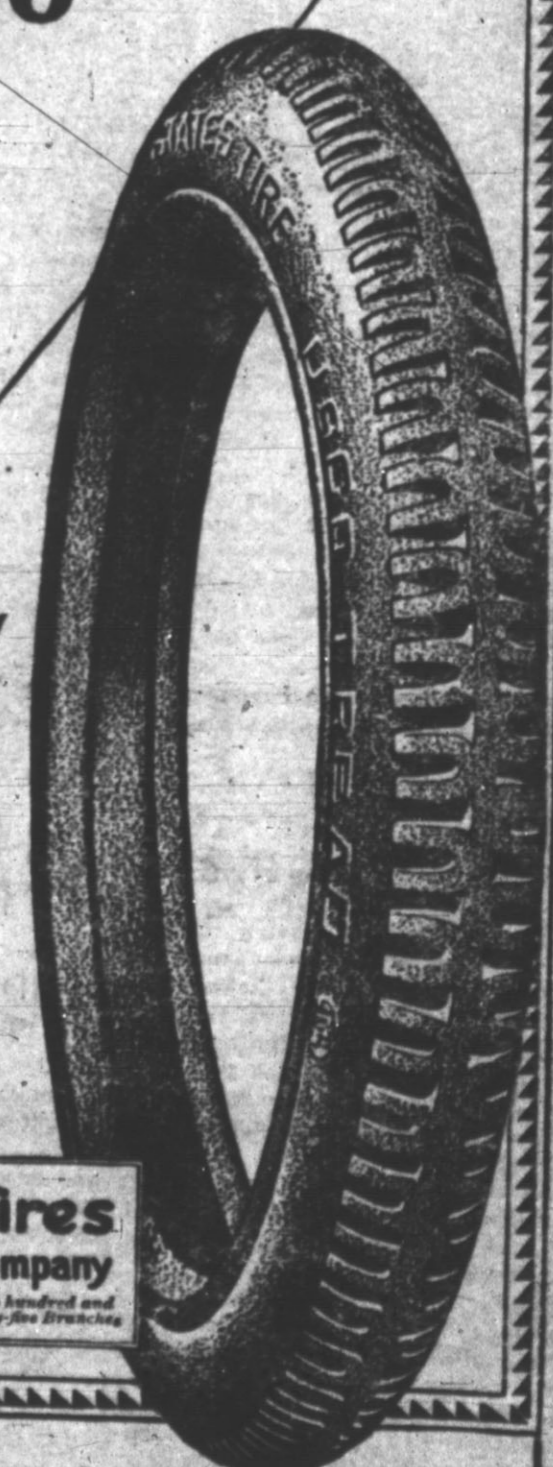

But the "Usco" Tire is still the uncommon tire value it always has been.

Because in carrying out the "Usco" price reduction in good faith, we learned something about raising the quality, too.

Greater and greater respect for the Usco at $10.90

 A negro brought before a Texas court on a charge of vagrancy claimed to be both deaf and dumb. A sudden question caught him off his guard and he answered it. The Judge said "Twenty-five dollars and costs."

FRIO
 Rev. J. A. Lindley, of Tulsa, and Bro. Frank McMinn, of Plainview, who is to graduate from Wayland College soon, spent Saturday evening and Sunday in our community, and our people enjoyed two splendid sermons preached by Bro. Lindley Saturday night and Sunday at 11 a. m. Our Sunday School was also well attended and listened to a splendid talk on Sunday School work by Bro. Lindley. After preaching Sunday a vote was taken to organize a church here, which carried. We now have a small Missionary Baptist Church at Frio with about eleven members and called Bro. Frank McMinn as pastor. Preaching services will be held the third Sunday evening in each month at three o'clock. Everybody is invited to come on.
 Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hogan and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Hunter spent last Sunday in the home of C. H. Webb of Cleo.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thompson and children attended Sunday School and preaching at Frio last Sunday. Also Robt. Moore and family, who live several miles south and W. J. McMinn and family of Summerfield, who visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Robinson after services.
 Mack Johnson of Cleo community, made a business trip to Hereford last week and stopped over night with his old friend, W. S. Dixon, on his return trip.

Planting is the order of the day in our little community. Since the nice rains and the warm weather the weeds are coming in a hurry and look as though they will make a fair crop without much cultivation.

We Now Handle the Hudson Super-Six and the Essex

It is an ambition we have long held.

Our selection as Hudson and Essex dealers marks an important step forward for us as automotive merchants. We prize it as the highest recognition of worth.

For no company weighs a prospective dealer more carefully than the builders of these cars. Most important among their requirements is the ability to organize and execute service to owners, of a high character.

To Serve Two Great Cars

For buyers today consider not only the qualities of the car they get, but the character of dealer association they thereby form.

and by a price advantage that makes it the best value among fine cars, by a wide margin.

Yet it is also true that no such dealer organization, as Hudson and Essex have built, could have been gathered about cars, that in themselves had not established a great public following, with abiding faith in their qualities.

And you already know what owners say of the economy, long life and reliability of the Essex. Certainly no car of its price was ever so widely compared in essential qualities to costly fine cars.

It is our wish to pledge the public a service that in all respects will match the uniformly-high character of Hudson and Essex service, and be in all ways worthy of these two great cars.

The Hudson Super-Six is now in its sixth year as a leader among the world's fine cars. It holds its place rightfully by mechanical superiority, fine quality and appearance,

Misses Livingstone and Swisher Entertained

Ponce De Leon failed to find the "Fountain of Youth" for which he risked a voyage to an unknown and untried continent, but he simply had the wrong system. It is not to be found of course, anywhere in the world—a hole in the ground filled with physical youth-giving properties, but it may be found anywhere, any time by all who will locate or create an atmosphere of friendliness, neighborliness, good will, pleasure-giving to others.

Such a fountain was discovered on the lawn of the Potts home last Thursday afternoon by a merry crowd of all ages, who seemed to have forgotten the very existence of such a thing as age. Seats and cushions placed for the "older folks" were ignored and unused and it was necessary to glance up at the hoary heads of some of us to be sure the rest of us were properly chaperoned.

"De occasion ob de occasion," as Uncle Remus used to say, was a lawn party given by the Y. P. M. S. girls of the M. E. church, to their leader, Miss Livingstone, and to Miss Swisher, as an indication of their appreciation of the work these young ladies have done during the past year.

Other invited guests, besides the honorees, were the mothers of the Y. P. M. S. girls, the ministers of the town and their wives. Four ladies from the adult Missionary Society assisted Mrs. Potts.

A delicious and beautiful supper was spread on the lawn and served picnic style.

After an all too brief period of pleasant conversation and jolly games, year.

a setting sun reminded us of home and home duties and that we must say goodbye, which we did, unanimously expressing our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Potts and the Y. P. M. S. girls, and wishing that Misses Livingstone and Swisher may be with us another year.
