RESULT IS SPLENDID MUSIC FOR UNION CHURCH REVIVAL

GETS RESULTS

Local Teamwork so Strong That Effect is Bound To Long Endure

There's a singing contest on between Rev. L. N. Lipscomb of the Methodist church and Rev. Paul J. Merrill of the Christian church in the big Union Revival now in progress in Hereford. Rev. J. R. Sharp of the Presbyterian church cannot sing, he says, and the other two ministers take turn about leading the splendid joint choir. The spirit of rivalry is high and each service sees the leader striving to outdo his competitor of the service before. The consequence is that the choir members have entered into the spirit of the affair and the meeting is getting the most spontaneous, most hearty, most inspiring music that has perhaps ever before been heard here. The Christian church literally rings with the chastened harmony of the old stand-by hymns familiar to all.

The meeting is getting results. The prayer services, both among the men and women, are drawing well and doing a vast amount of good. Morning and night the people of Hereford and vicinity turn out in astonishing numbers for the twice-a-day services, and the power of the Gospel is growing steadily in the hearts of the community, day by day.

The meeting will continue through next week and Hereford is bound to be a cleaner, better, more moral and christian community than she was before this happy inspiration of the threelocal pastors.

Miss Olive Wilson Weds C. S. Morris of Vega, Tex.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L Wilson, on 25 Mile Avenue, Thursday afternoon at five o'clock occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Olive Wilson to C. S. Morris of Vega. The ring ceremony was appropriately said by the bride's pastor, the Rev. W. R. Hill of the Baptist Church.

A large gathering of relatives and friends was present and witnessed the beautiful service. Refreshments were served to all the guests.

Mrs. Morris is one of Hereford's lov-Hest young ladies, and a favorite with her many friends here. For the past months she has been teaching at Adrian, and proved herself a very successful instructor. Mr. Morris, a young business man of Vega, is in every way worthy of the fair bride he has won.

It is understood that Mr. and Mr. Morris will make their home in Yega, and they carry with them the best wishes of their many friends here. Mr, and Mrs. Morris immediately left for Amarillo,

The out of town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morris, Miss Susie Morrfs, Mr. Pulliam, and Mr. and Mrs. Godwin all of

Big Family Reunion at J. H. Nix Home This Week

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nix are entertaining at a family reunion this week the following relatives: Mr. and Mrs. R. Edwards of Electra, Texas; R. T. Nix, a son, of Bryant, Oklahoma; Mrs. G. M. Lockett, a daughter, and family of Tneumeari, N. Mex.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris and family of New Mexico, and Sandy Morris of Hopse, N. Mex., a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris. Two sons, one from California, the other from Kansas, and one daughter of Arizona, were not here. Mrs. Edwards is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nix.

Mrs. Q. B. Hill of Houston Arrives for Visits

Mrs. Q. B. Hill of Houston, Texas, an aunt of Mesdames D. C. Laird, H. C. Baird and Seth B. Holman, arrived here Thursday for a visit this summer with her various relatives. She was brought over from Canyon by Mrs. Harvey Cash: Mrs. Cash is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Ireland, wnile Mrs. Hill is with Mrs. Seth B. Holman der the rules of the U. S. Civil Service for the time being. In addition to vis- Commission for the position of Clerk iting the three nieces mentioned Mrs. Hill will also spend part of her time while here with another niece, Mrs. J. W. Alexander of Dimmitt.

The New Hot Point Iron

We have just received a shipment of them. There are several improvements—larger handle ball and socket attachment, plug-body of iron a little more gracefully shaped. There could not be a great improvement as the Hot Point was so nearly perfect already. No increase in our selling price -still lower than other dealers, $6.00, fully guaranteed.
