Southwestern Bell Telephone Experts To Begin Local Survey In Preparation for More Modern Plant

LOCAL TELEPHONE COMPANY TO KEEP STRIDE WITH CITY'S DEVELOPMENT, SAY OFFICIALS

Preliminary Surveys Expected to Start Soon, Which Will Lead to Installation of Strictly Modern Service for Hereford and Vicinity. Official Speaks Highly of Possibilities of Deaf Smith County.

J. E. Patterson, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., was in the city Tuesday in conference with Chamber of Commerce officials and made an important announcement for Hereford.

Mr. Patterson stated that within the next three weeks efficiency experts and engineers of his company would be in Hereford for a survey of the city. Every business house and residence in the city will be checked and located on a new map of the city which the company is getting out.

This step, Mr. Patterson explained, is one that is being taken for the purpose of determining the "wire centers" of the city. These surveys are always made preparatory to locating a new plant or central station, and the work is in line with that which Mr. Patterson stated to President Seigler recently would be done in order that the exact place for erecting a new phone building might be determined for Hereford. He has previously stated that with the putting in of a modern common battery plant for Hereford, the company desired to erect their own building, and while no definite date has been set by officials, the preliminary work is going ahead as rapidly as possible, according to Mr. Patterson.

"Officials of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. do not consider Hereford as a 'gamble' any more," said the district manager, "and Hereford citizens may rest assured that the company will keep in line with the rapid progress now being made by your city."

Chamber of Commerce officials are much pleased with the information that was given out. Mr. Patterson was recently selected by the new City Commission of Amarillo as City Manager, and will assume his new duties April 26.

W. J. Brown Putting In Real Wheat Farm

W. J. Brown and family, formerly of Plainview, but now residing near Adrian, was in town Monday trading. Mr. Brown came here in January and has planted 1000 acres of wheat and is preparing 1500 acres on another place. He is running four tractors at this time. He says ten sections are being broken out adjoining him and that tractors and immigrants are thick in that section of the county.

They Read 'em In Iowa; They Get Results, Too

They evidently read The Brand's ads 'way up in the State of Iowa. F. Landrum, of the Hereford Brewery, this week received a letter from J. K. McGonigle, Washington, Iowa, ordering some Chinese slugs from the ad he read in The Brand!

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dillehay and children spent Sunday in Amarillo.

Stone Chain Store Open for Inspection Friday Evening; Sales Start Saturday

Formal opening of the new C. E. Stone Chain Dry Goods store will occur Friday night of this week, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, according to Manager Richerson, and their advertising carried in this issue. No goods will be sold Friday night, the evening being dedicated to the reception of the public, musical entertainment by the High School Orchestra, and the giving of flower bouquets.

The new brick is almost finished and will be in gala attire Friday night. The modern window displays will be a distinct feature. An electric sign in colors is already operating nightly and attracting much favorable attention.

Manager Richerson issues a general invitation to the public to be his guests Friday night, to listen to the music, receive floral gifts and inspect the styles and apparel displays in his windows and show cases.

High Line to Dimmitt Under Construction

Manager Fred Oberthier, Jr., of the Texas Utilities, stated Tuesday morning that the company's high line crew of thirty men arrived in Hereford Monday night, and Tuesday morning early began the work of stringing the new high line to Dimmitt. The extension began from the local power plant and this bunch of experts is slugging up that line in a hurry. It is interesting to watch them. They put out a line of hole diggers a mile long and the pole crew follows, swiftly. By the time the first mile of poles are set another mile of holes are ready.

At this rate Mr. Oberthier expects the line to be strung and ready for operation in a few days.

Mrs. Heifner to Open New Place of Business

Ashbrook and will install an exclusive hat shop, dressmaking and ladies tailoring establishment. The date of the opening of the new shop will be announced soon.

Mrs. Heifner has had many years of experience in this line of business and is preparing to offer a shop second to none in this section in this field.

Baptist Sunday School Workers Here in 1930

The Panhandle Baptist Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. Convention, comprising thirty-five counties of the Panhandle, met with the First Baptist Church of Wellington on the 9, 10 and 11 of this month. It was the largest convention since its organization ten years ago. More than 300 messengers registered. Rev. V. E. Cloyd, Rev. C. E. Saxon, Mr. and Mrs. Speegle, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Roberson, Mrs. I. I. West, Misses Margaret Gilliland, Virgil Brumley and Mary Valentine going as messengers from the First Baptist church of Hereford.

A very constructive program was carried out and all attending reported a profitable and enjoyable trip.

The convention was divided into districts nine and ten and will comprise twenty-three and eight counties respectively. Deaf Smith county will be in the tenth district which goes as far north as the south line of Oldham and Potter counties and then extends south taking in Young and Lynn counties. The convention of District No. 10 will be held in the new Baptist church at Hereford next year. Rev. V. M. Cloyd was elected president of the Sunday School Convention and Rev. O'Brien of Floydada was elected president of the B. Y. P. U. Convention.

REV. J. T. ROSS TO EASTLAND EARLY IN MAY

Rev. James T. Ross, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Hereford since September, 1925, last Sunday submitted his resignation to his congregation, effective May 1, 1929. Rev. Ross stated that he had accepted a call to the church at Eastland, in the Abilene presbytery.

The resignation and transfer to Eastland will be submitted to the Presbytery meeting to be held at White Deer, Texas, this week. The loss of the Rev. Ross will be keenly felt here. Not only in the church work, but in civic and community affairs as well he has been a leader and earnest worker from the start. The records of the church show that during his incumbency seventy-two additions were made to the church roll, 453 sermons were preached, including rural work in twenty-six communities, and fifty weddings were solemnized.

"Instant Tire Service" Good; Calls for More Room, Says Harry Rice

Harry L. Rice, local "Instant Tire Service" expert, says the autoing public is hollering so for his Brunswick tires that he is forced to spend some of the profits in enlarging his plant to meet the demand.

Accordingly, Mr. Rice is doing that very thing this week. He has the Tiefel Bros. crew at work extending his entire building on West Third Street back fifteen feet to the property line. Under the extension a capacious basement is being excavated for storage purposes. Mr. Rice says the additional storage room thus acquired will enable him to store a carload of Brunswick tires at one time and give Bob Bailey and himself enough room to work faster than ever.

Mr. Rice's business has prospered amazingly in recent years, this expansion is the necessary and natural result of constantly camping on the job.

Brunk's Comedians In Hereford Week of 29th

Fred Brunk, head of Brunk's Comedians, scheduled to arrive here April 29 for a week's stand, was in Hereford Wednesday billing the event. The Brunk boys were raised in Hereford and Fred said Wednesday that it seemed like home sure enough to get back here.

The new Kirby-Doughty building at the corner of Third and Main is rapidly nearing completion. The brick work is almost finished, and the roof and interior work is just ahead. The building is divided into three stories, two small ones on Third and a larger front one on Main. As yet Mr. Doughty has not indicated the character of the tenants he expects to occupy the three buildings.

Work On Air Landing Field Here Continues

Active work on the emergency landing field of the National Air Transport Company, located on the Kibbe place north of town, is under way. Locomotive Engineer Talks to Children

F. A. Haggart, of Amarillo, an active locomotive engineer for the past twenty-five years with the Santa Fe, lectured at the Central school Wednesday morning on the subject of "Safety First." The high school student body was being entertained at the same time by another lecturer and consequently did not get to hear Mr. Haggart. The lecturer held his audience well and gave the children some valuable information. It is his purpose, he stated, to later organize Safety Committees among the school boys and girls. He cautioned the children not to take any chances at railroad crossings, as the accident rate is rapidly increasing. Miss Edith Shields, principal of the school, said the lecture was one of the best she had heard this year.

Thomsen recently returned from a vacation in the Holy Land and the subject of his lecture will be his impressions and experiences while away.

Track Team Won Several Events In Amarillo Meet

The Hereford High track team that battled through the Interscholastic competition at Amarillo last week made an excellent showing in nearly all events, being fifth in number of points scored. But the individual record compiled by Babe Russell, Hereford High's speedster, was outstanding. Babe ran away from them all in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, winning both events easily. His closest competitor was Carol Laird, of Plainview, former Hereford boy. The other Laird twin, Harroll, won the 440 yard event.

Babe's brother, Jess, a student at A. & M., is utility man on the Aggie baseball team. Last week at Austin the University and A. & M. tied the first game, then split a double header. Jess appeared as pinch hitter in two of the games, and scored one run. He writes that if he can learn to control his throws more accurately he will get to be a regular, he hopes.

Baptist Church Ready for Use In Few Weeks

The magnificent new First Baptist church, now nearing completion, will be formally opened for worship on Sunday, May 19, according to plans revealed this week by Rev. V. R. Cloyd.

Thankful simplicity, and a quiet rejoicing on the part of the congregation and the entire Christian citizenship of the city will mark the dedication services. No special ceremonies are planned beyond an augmented choir for the day.

The regular Sabbath routine will be followed, with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., preaching at eleven o'clock by the pastor, B. Y. P. U. in the afternoon, and services at night.

The finishing inside touches are now being put into the great edifice, and soon the furniture will all be installed. A crew of men are now at work clearing away the debris outside and making the lot attractive.

Immediately following the opening day, revival services will begin at the church, conducted by Rev. Cloyd. It will be followed June 2 by a Sunday School Enlargement campaign conducted by State Sunday School Secretary G. S. Hopkins of Dallas, assisted by four of his trained helpers.

Mrs. A. H. Streu and little daughter, Helen Frances, left Tuesday for Temple where Helen Frances will go through the Temple Sanitarium clinic. They expect to visit in Temple for some time before returning home.

Deed records of the county have been worked over time, according to reports being compiled by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce. From January 1 to April 16, 1929, a period of 100 days, there were 165 transfers of real estate recorded in the volumes of the county, and a study of these transfers reveals some interesting facts. One hundred ten transfers were on lands outside the city of Hereford and fifty-five were on city property.

The 110 transfers of agricultural land of Deaf Smith county land has a total acreage of 48,175, or approximately seventy-five sections of land. Another feature is the fact that most of them are in the small farm size, the average acreage per transfer being 4.38 acres. According to those who are closely connected with the development of rural lands this is the most active period the county has ever had.

This means bringing many new home owners and citizens to the county, which soon should become one of the intensively developed farming counties of the Plains, in place of the large cattle ranges with thousands of acres. A further check of records is being made by the Chamber of Commerce to ascertain the number of farmers who have come into the county and will make their home on the lands purchased. In addition to these sales, thousands of acres have been leased and are being broken out for wheat raising.

One hundred twenty-three lots were included in the fifty-five transfers of Hereford property, according to the deed records. Of this number 110 were residence lots and 15 were business lots.

The sale price of the many acres of land was not ascertained from the records, as considerations were not correctly shown in many instances, but at an average price of land in Deaf Smith county the amount paid for farm lands alone will run more than one million dollars.

Estimates on the value of the city property changing hands are not available.

Baseball Boys Preparing for Coming Season's Play

Manager Charles Whitehead called out all aspirants for the local baseball club Wednesday afternoon for their first practice of the season. Twelve men answered the summons and a spirited workout in batting and infield practice followed. It is too early yet to forecast much about the team, but the probable lineup will be figured out within the next few days. New uniforms, white with blue trimmings, have been ordered and are expected at once. It is expected that the first game of the season will be played a week from next Sunday.

Christians Buy Lot South of Church Building

The First Christian church of Hereford has purchased for a cash consideration the corner lot, measuring 75x140 feet, just across the street south from the church building on Main Street. The lot was owned by the Gough heirs. It is the intention of the church to eventually build a modern parsonage home on this site, fronting on Main. For this summer, however, a tennis court will be cleared on the site and used by the young people of the church for recreation purposes.

6 Years Neuritis Yields to Sargon

"Sargon is the only medicine that relieved me of neuritis after suffering for six years.

"Then, I commenced to suffer with stomach trouble and everything I ate disagreed with me. I had taken so many medicines without relief and was so tired, worn and distressed with pain, that I was on the verge of despair. But I will never cease to be thankful for Sargon. If it had done nothing but end my neuritis, that would have been enough, but it helped me in every way, and I am feeling better than in years. I eat and enjoy hearty meals, and nothing disagrees with me. Every ache and pain is gone, my strength and energy have returned, and I feel like a different woman.

"While the Sargon tonic was building back my strength, Sargon Soft Mass Pills cleansed my system of poisons and ended my constipation. I can never say too much in praise of this wonderful new treatment."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. Gertrude McDonald, highly esteemed resident of 737 Melba St., Dallas.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for a continuous session of that Court—
BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Sections 2 and 3 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:
"Article 5, Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; in other matters, until otherwise provided by law, the jurisdiction of the Court shall be exercised under such regulations and orders as the Court by a majority vote may prescribe. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this State and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court, or such lawyer and judge together at least seven years. Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at a general election, shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. When this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualifications of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate."

"Article V, Section 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law, the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a Statute of the State is held void, and shall extend to such other questions as may be within the Court's Appellate Jurisdiction under the Statutes of the State in force when this amendment takes effect. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by Law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by Law, the said Court and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.
The Supreme Court shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court.
The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter, be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the Minutes of said Court, who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide."

Sec. 2. Said proposed Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of qualified electors of this State as a special election to be held throughout the State on Tuesday, July 16, 1929, at which election each voter opposing said proposed amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with a pen or pencil the following words printed on said ballot: "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for a continuous session of that Court", and each voter favoring said proposed amendment shall scratch off the ballot in the same manner the following words printed on said ballot: "Against the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

remained by him. In company with County Agent Dunkle and County Judge Wilson he has visited every school in the county and made addresses. He has been active in rural club work, on Home Beautiful committees and in Scout Work, where he held the chairmanship of the Court of Honor. He was chairman of National Music Week for Hereford two years ago, and has been secretary of the Chautauqua for the past two years. In commenting on his departure, Mr. Ross said:

"To have lived in Hereford has been a great delight to me. I have felt it a privilege to have had a humble part in the making of a community such as it seems to me Hereford is destined to become. My family and myself have extracted much personal enjoyment from every phase of the development here during our residence in Hereford. I wish most earnestly to thank the fine people of this community for their many kindnesses to us during these years. I believe in the future of Hereford and expect it to grow into a little city of happy, prosperous people. My one supreme ambition for Hereford is that it build into its whole social structure the Kingdom of God."

At Eastland, a city of 12,000 people, Rev. Ross will have a wide and attractive field for the talents with which he is richly endowed. The people of Hereford regret to lose him and his excellent family, but congratulate Eastland upon its acquisition.

CHAIN STORES

DRY GOODS · MILLINERY
READY-TO-WEAR · SHOES

BIG OPENING IN HEREFORD SATURDAY, APRIL 20

Seventeen years ago Mr. C. E. Stone opened one small store in Wellington, Texas. Within a short time he conceived the CHAIN STORE idea, for he realized that the big operators could underbuy, and therefore undersell, the one store merchant. He also realized that buying and selling for cash would mean a saving for customers. So it was there that the seed was planted which was to thrive and grow into a chain store organization with cash stores throughout this part of the country.

Today, the C. E. Stone Company not only operates a cast CHAIN of RETAIL STORES, but operates its own wholesale house and New York buying offices. Buying in large quantities for cash, and direct from manufacturers, enables them to far undersell competition. So the coming of this great institution to Hereford, does not mean "just another store" but a new, saving epoch in merchandising. Come Friday night and Saturday, or any other day expecting to find values of a very unusual nature and you will never be disappointed.

For every year that he has lived Mr. Baker has given at least a million dollars to education and other good purposes.

Everybody wishes him many more years to get and give.

Since the people do not yet know enough to develop their own resources and supply what they need, it is fortunate that they have such men as Baker, Rockefeller and others to show them how.

Otto H. Kahn, protector of grand opera, learns that his enemy is the talking moving picture. That must surprise him as much as it surprised the seventy-foot dinosaurs when the rate ate them.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer have taken Titta Ruffo from Mr. Kahn's Metropolitan Opera to sing for the movies, and it was as simple "as taking candy from a child."

Mr. Ruffo sings ten times before a recording machine, and is paid $350,000, or $35,000 for each short singing period.

Even the Metropolitan's diamond horseshoe cannot compete with that.

Marshal Foch is dead. Farewell to a great warrior, a true man. He has gone and taken his wages—a name that will live in history and the eternal gratitude of his countrymen.

In command of all the allied armies, he had 10,000,000 men under his command, by far the greatest army gathered together since man first began wholesale killing. And his motto that every man should adopt, was "THE OFFENSIVE ALWAYS."

Allons, "Let us go," was the last word uttered by Marshal Foch. It is the first word of the French national hymn that he heard so often, the hymn to which the Revolutionary soldiers marched from the south of France into Paris. "Allons enfants de la patrie," etc.

Frederick the Great's last words are supposed to be tete d'armee, "head of the army." He often spoke French in preference to German.

Pitt, whose genius kept Napoleon out of England, said as he died, "My country, how I leave thee." He was worried about the future.

What a man does while he lives is more important than what he says when he dies.

HOOVER'S HOME ECONOMY 89 YEARS, 89 MILLION KAHN LOSES TITTA RUFFO FOCH IS DEAD

President Hoover, believing that economy should begin at home, will put the Presidential yacht, Mayflower out of commission. The President will do his yachting in a rowboat when fishing. The country will save $300,000 a year, and 148 sailors that have wasted their time on the Mayflower will be assigned to new naval vessels.

The Mayflower has been added to the cost of maintaining a president ever since the days of Theodore Roosevelt and President Hoover's determination to discontinue a thoroughly undemocratic arrangement will be generally appreciated.

The people would not grudge a good President any comfort or luxury. But a $300,000 yacht tacked on to a $75,000 salary seems fantastic.

George F. Baker, dean of American bankers, ruler of the gigantic First National of New York, which is one of his minor possessions, has celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday.

Profit Makers Minneapolis Combine

—Like Minneapolis Threshers, are superior grain savers. They master unusual jobs, and I am selling this line. I consulted with good machine men and inquired what they thought was the logical machine to sell to the farmers to save the grain. The Minneapolis Combine was recommended to me as the best grain saver and light draft combine on the market.

—The Minneapolis Tractors are in great demand because they have superior power and built-in durability for the tough jobs and I will give you my word that I WILL CARRY A FULL LINE OF REPAIRS IN THE BUILDING I have rented just south of the City Hall.

—The Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co. own their OWN BUILDING IN AMARILLO, which is located at 1009 East 10th Street, and this is a REGULAR DIRECT FACTORY BRANCH HOUSE under the management of A. J. Barker, and there is a complete stock of machinery and repairs kept on hands there at all times. In connection to the Minneapolis line, I am handling the tillage line of the La Crosse Plow Co., which consists of Plows of all kinds, Listers, One-Way Wheatland Disc Plows, Disc Harrows and La Crosse Drills. I am going to give you service and see that your repairs are here if you need any. I am here to stay.

JINGLE BELLS

I sat by the roadside and told myself that I was probably one of the seven worst "fussers" in the United States and the Dominion of Canada. I had played my game like a fifteen jeweled boob. The first rule for making a girl eat out of your hand is never to let her know when you get mad. The second is not to be sorry if you do. I had a blow out in both rules.

While I sat there it began to drizzle, but I thought too little of myself to care to move, so I didn't. Instead I recollected with delightful pain how eminently desirable Maryella was.

Slim and slender and cool-looking, she was obviously the handiwork of a beauty-loving god who wanted to show what he could do. But she had eyes, dark ones, that came from no heavenly work shop. In them there was a bit of temper, or daring, and an invitation to come along that was irresistible.

If a man must lose his head over a woman, Maryella's type offers the utmost justification. If you have any curiosity and a wee bit of nerve, you made up your mind that you would have to find out whether to believe her eyes or the rest of her face.

Up to that afternoon I had been doing pretty well, too. Not having money in sales, I had started against Cooper with a considerable handicap. He worked short hours in his father's office which would eventually be his; while I plugged away for a salary—a good one, but nothing that would make the mint work overtime to keep up with me.

There is no use concealing what my job is. A good many people know already from having seen my name signed at the bottom of a column of alleged humor which I conduct daily for a syndicate of newspapers. Any one who has read my stuff knows that I work hard for my money, especially when I write verse.

Besides my syndicate work I do all the big stories for the Daily Mail, which is the principal morning paper of our city. It is pleasant because I do not have to be in the office constantly like a regular reporter. When they need me they send for me. When there is a big political convention or a disaster or a sensational murder I usually cover it.

I had been offered a job as war correspondent but I declined. Just because Irvin S. Cobb got back with all his arms and legs attached is no sign that they wouldn't be able to hit the next fat man that went over.

When I was thoroughly wet through so that it didn't make any difference what I did, I decided that I might as well start for home. It would be more comfortable to die of pneumonia in my own bed. So I got up and sloshed over to the car to get my coat, which I had laid aside when the contest between me and Grandmother began.

Just by way of a passing expression of my feeling, I gave the crank a turn.

"Bang!"

The engine started.

I stood in the rain a full minute longer, relieving my mind before I mounted to my seat and steered Grandmother Page back over the sloppy roads to the city.

What was the use now?

CHAPTER II

Our version of "Pygmalion and Galatea" would doubtless surprise you if you are at all familiar with the original, in which Pygmalion is the artist and carves the lady in the sketch out of a block of marble.

We started out to rehearse it that way, but ran into difficulties when the matter of costumes came up for discussion. It seemed advisable that the statue should wear white tights and white grease paint on the face in order to carry out the illusion. All the ladies of the club were quite content that it should be so, but when it came to assigning the parts each and every one refused to be Galatea.

For a time it looked as if we would have to fall back on some little sketch of Shakespeare's until Maryella made the practical suggestion that we change the story. Her idea was to make Galatea a sculptor who hammers a hunk of stone into a beautiful male statue by the name of Pygmalion.

Can you imagine an anti-feminist thinking up a thought like that?

Maryella's suggestion carried. As the literary man of the organization, I was appointed to doctor up the manuscript to fit the change of characters. Later, much to my surprise and in spite of my protests, the stellar role of Pygmalion was forced upon me.

Tonight was to be the dress rehearsal and on the following evening we were scheduled to give a trial performance in the barn at the Old Soldiers' Home. The trial performance was for the double purpose of getting easy in our parts and of making the old soldiers realize that war is not so terrible after all.

When I returned to my bachelor rooms in town I had only time to change to some dry clothing and hurry over to the rehearsal without getting anything to eat. Food did not appeal to me anyway. Neither did anything else, least of all rehearsing a lot of fool love talk. My own romance had suffered such a disheartening set-back that I was in no mood to enact the role of a hand-hammered Romeo of mythology.

But I went just the same. You know how hard it is to step out of the routine business of your life just because some disaster has befallen you. Your perceptions become numbed and you wonder vaguely why the sun is shining, but you go on doing the things that are expected of you just as you have always done.

"Business as usual" is not the motto of an exceptional nation. It is the underlying principle of the progress of the human race.

The Sheridan Dramatic Club had borrowed for rehearsals the stage of the local opera-house, which was vacant that week. It was there that I wended my disconsolate way.

I was late but it didn't make much difference, as all during the first act the statue of Pygmalion was a papier-mache figure. Between the acts I was supposed to take the place of the statue in the same pose so that a little later I could come to life in response to Galatea's wish.

When I came in they were rehearsing with the dummy. Everything appeared to be going well. Maryella looked absolutely ravishing in the Greek drapery, and Jim Cooper was doing the best he could to impersonate a skinny Greek warrior.

He was even thinner than I had suspected. As a Highlander he would never be a conspicuous success. Any one could tell at a glance.

The part of a young sculptor's apprentice was taken by Mrs. Henningway, a dazzling blonde, who was worth going miles to behold. In a short Greek tunic and sandals. She wouldn't have fooled any one but a blind man into thinking she was a boy, but nobody minded that. She had talents enough to get into a Ziegfeld chorus any day.

There were a dozen other parts played with intent to kill in the good old amateur way. I discovered former male friends hidden behind bushy beards that dropped off occasionally at a critical moment, leaving the actor bald-faced and speechless; and ladies I used to know disguised as Hellenic maidens by doing their hair into a Psyche knot and trimming their best nighties with a Greek key-design and an occasional Swastika.

Off stage, doing a piece of embroidery while she waited for her cue, was Mrs. George P. Lillilove, the wife of the most popular undertaker in town. In Greek roles

Mrs. Lillilove looked almost exactly like a haystack with a paulin over it.

I slipped into my dressing room unobserved. My costume was the I had not seen it before, so I was a trifle surprised at the bulk of it. The whole thing could have been put in the pocket of a dress. Walk coat without spoiling the shape of it any. It was silk and white, but it seemed awfully thin. I played safe by wearing my underwear underneath it.

Pitner's Guernseys Get Attention from Breeders

The showing made by May Rose Guernseys, owned by the Pitner Guernsey farm of this city is attracting a good deal of attention from the Panhandle-Plains Dairy cow at Plainview early in the month. The chamber of commerce receiving inquiries from parties of other sections of the state who viewed the herd at Plainview and are desirous of securing some of its famous breed of cattle.

Fred Pitner, owner, sold several of these animals at a very fancy price during the Plainview show, and the foundation herd which he started, headed by Maiden of Iron Dell, and Coronet's Golden Noble, are probably the highest and best Guernseys in the Southwest. Pitner's Guernsey farm is located one and one-half miles south of Hereford, and is claimed by all who have seen it to be one of the most modern breeding farms in the Plains section.

"Who Wouldn't Be Crazy?" Night April 26

The inside doings of a "mildly insane" Insane Asylum forms the setting of the annual high school

Senior Class Play This Year, to be Held at the School Auditorium, Beginning at 8.00 p. m., April 26.

The title of the play is appropriately descriptive: "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy?" From the best information obtainable it is rumored that the harrowing events swirl about the very modern son of a rich man who breaks into the institution accidentally and gets all ball-ed up with a couple of diamond thieves, who are faking insanity for a purpose. The rich man decides to take advantage of the situation and break the boy of some of his wild habits by keeping him inside the walls for a time. The result is confusing and funny. Claude Longbottom takes the part of the rich young man, while J. A. Tapp and Miss Ruby Thompson the characters of the jewel thieves.

It is said that several seniors show signs of growing insanity after preaching the parts and additional inquiries concerning the play are met with the exclamation: "Oh, you just have to see the play and get the spirit of this insanity to really understand how funny it's going to be!"

SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE

Tennis Courts Best Of Any School On Plains

Tennis enthusiasts of Hereford will probably have as fine tennis courts on which to perform as any city in Texas, according to C. W. Humble, athletic director of the high school activities and for the past five years vocational and agricultural teacher in the high school. Two new concrete tennis courts have been completed at the athletic field at the high school and Mr. Humble believes this to be the first high school in West Texas to construct concrete courts.

Practically all labor was furnished by Mr. Humble's vocational training class and the materials were bought by funds provided from the athletic fund.

will probably be the first school in West Texas with this feature. The new concrete courts are lighting fast, and tennis players are getting out the old rackets and limbering up for the summer grind.

Comfort for God's People

International Sunday School Lesson For April 21.

Isaiah 40:1-11

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

In the midst of troublesome times the prophet is declaring the blessed condition of the future. Judah as well as the ten tribes of Israel must be carried away into captivity but there would be a return to the land which Jehovah gave to perpetuity to his people. The day will come again when the Hebrew will regain his tribal possession in Palestine. Modern Zionism is in full accord with the teaching of the Bible.

Here is a lesson study where you will do well to consider the exact words of the text. Their content is rich in blessedness. The very sound and phrasing is quieting and is like an oasis in a vast desert of dreariness, for too often, such is our daily life. With special emphasis, by reason of the repetition, the Almighty commands the prophet-messenger to advise His people that there are restful days ahead. Therefore even now there is reason to enjoy the repose of the soul that is possible for the child of God. Turning away from God led to the captivity of Babylon. The peace that passeth all understanding was still to be the portion of His people.

The rough pathway of life was of me made easy for the pilgrim enroute to the eternal Zion. Filling in of valleys and lowering mountains sounds like modern methods of road construction. In the Orient such things have often been done to made ready for the coming of an earthly king. Now prophecy says that royal preparation shall be made for just the ordinary traveler heavenward. Withal, the glory of the Lord shall be in evidence and no one shall miss that glorious sight.

Prailly in human life is akin to the grass of the earth. The majority pass on early and few live beyond the proverbial four score years. In marked contrast the "word of our God" is presented. Here is that which must continue to abide, think of the attacks on the Bible through all the ages past. Many think it is an indication of genuine smartness to endeavor to discredit the Holy Bible. Groups and even nations have sought to show the Bible worthless. But there never was a day when this Book was more firmly established as the guide for man in this life and even unto Heaven. The product in applied Christianity is sufficient evidence for us to accept its teachings and are accordingly.

High privilege is given to Isaiah as he is told to seek a mountain, at were, for a pulpit and proclaim the glad tidings to all Zion. Through the holy city, Jerusalem, as he was to go and let his voice ring in the streets, declaring "Behold, your God!" Jewry would be great, and is marvelously so, because of their Jehovah. He gives rewards for obedience and makes joys to abound for His children. Herein is the basis for the opening words of encouragement. "Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem."

Under the simile that is repeated so often in the New Testament another pastoral scene is presented. He is the great Shepherd of His sheep and will feed them all in His omnipotence. The little lambs are likewise His constant concern. He will adjust His step to their ability and when one is too small or weak to walk he will "carry them in his bosom."

WORK OF THE VOLUNTEER FIREFMEN

The printed pages of our newspapers and magazines and the flashing screen of the movies have often thrilled us all with the brave work done by those fearless firefighters—the Paid Firemen—or our larger towns and cities. Splendid work it is, too; worthy of the very highest praise we can give them.

But, somehow or other we are apt to forget that other branch of the Army of Fire Protection—the Volunteer Firemen—who stand guard over three-fourths of the homes in the United States. Unpaid, unpensioned, working only for humanitarian reasons, these brave men from nearly all walks of life, risk health, limb and life in unselfish service to others. And how well that service is done, the nation never fully realizes for the reason that it is so well done. The "big fire" which once figured periodically in the history of every town and village, is now almost a thing of the past—at least, in the communities that have volunteer companies on the job.

There is a wonderful spirit among volunteer firemen—there's a lure and a joy in their lives. Not the mere lust of battle—but the higher, finer joy of service to others—without price—Exchange.

Lowest Costs with Three-Fuel Power

Three hundred and twenty acres plowed in 42 consecutive hours at a cost of only 6 cents an acre for fuel and oil—that's the record of a Texas Hart-Parr owner. Six cents an acre for one-way-disc plowing, 4½ cents an acre for seed bed work. Only a three-fuel Hart-Parr operating on cheap Texas low-grade fuel could make such a record, for Hart-Parr is the one tractor that develops tremendous power from gasoline, kerosene or distillate. Hart-Parrs are made for small, medium or large farms and have three forward speeds to speed up hauling and field work. Put a three-fuel Hart-Parr to work on your farm and cut farming costs.

To Make Money Requires Good Management

It requires so little ability to save money that we wonder why ALL people don't do it.

Prosperity requires dollars and SENSE.

A man or woman who is sensible enough to make money is losing the profit on his energy when he fails to save.

Business Changes Hands—

For the past four years I have owned and operated the Brumley Oil Company in Hereford as an independent oil and gas business.

On March 18, I sold the wholesale business to the Continental Oil Company. Mr. Louie Olson, who has been manager of the business, will continue with the new firm as local agent. The Continental Products will be sold at the Abo Station and the Brumley Chevrolet Company.

I want to thank my friends for their liberal patronage in the past and hope to merit a continuance of your friendship and business in the future.

What an Improvement Modernizing Makes!

You can take an old house these days, apply modern methods and materials to it and come out with as substantial and satisfactory a home as if it were new.

One of the important advantages of modernizing is that it helps to protect the original investment in homes that are run down and are out of date.

Do you own such a house? If so, we would like to help you plan the changes necessary to improve it. Our Standard dry lumber is ideal for use with the seasoned wood of the old house.
