Band ready for contest Saturday

Hereford High School's Mighty Maroon Band, led on the field by drum majors Jenny Davis, left, and Connie Jackson, will go for its 32nd straight first division rating in the UIL District Marching Contest on Saturday night at Borger.

Band going for No. 32 on Saturday

Hereford High School's Mighty Maroon Band will attempt to earn its 32nd consecutive first division rating Saturday night at the Region 1 UIL Marching contest at Borger. The Hereford band will march at 8:48 p.m., the next-to-last of 37 bands in classes A through 4A to compete in the regional contest. Hereford's Mighty Maroon Band will feature its "At The Movies" show which features the themes from many popular pictures, including music from "Batman" and "Robin Hood." The Region 1 event will be the only UIL contest for the Mighty Maroon Band. The past two years, the band has advanced to area and state contests. In a format adopted two years ago, bands in 3A and 5A will have an opportunity to advance to the area competition in El Paso (and there, to state). The bands in classes A, 2A and 4A will compete only in district contest this year. In 1993, the Mighty Maroon Band will try for state for the third straight time. Class 5A bands have competed in this competition before, but this year marched in Lubbock. The Class 4A competition starts at 8 p.m.

US, Vietnam may get friendlier

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush said today that the Vietnamese government has agreed to turn over all its material, including "photographs, artifacts, detailed records" on American war prisoners. In return, Bush announced modest first steps toward establishing friendlier relations with Hanoi.

appearance after he was briefed by members of a U.S. delegation that returned earlier this week from Vietnam. The delegation returned with more than 4,000 photographs and military documents. "Today is a day of significance for all Americans," Bush said. He announced that his administration was prepared to provide humanitarian aid to Vietnam, beginning with "modest disaster assistance for floods." "We appreciate what has been done. Now we are determined to go forward," Bush said. "We are beginning to review what additional steps we can take with Hanoi." "It pains beyond words to say we may never know what happened to each and every American, but we will spare no effort ... to determine the fate of our missing men," Bush said. "Although the developments occurred less than two weeks before the presidential election, Bush said seeking to account for all missing U.S. servicemen "must transcend partisan politics in every way." After Bush's comments, retired Army Gen. John Vessey Jr., Bush's special envoy to Vietnam, termed the agreement by Hanoi to open up its archives and files a "turning point." "This will help us recover the remains of those who have been killed... and move us faster toward a full accounting of those who have been missing," Vessey said. Vessey called the thousands of photographs and other material only the tip of an iceberg in terms of what else is available.

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says one of the best ways to save time is to read the instructions.

A guy at the coffee shop says an old-timer is someone who wonders where all the action was when he was a teenager.

Hereford and Pampa clash in an all-important district football game tonight, and the Herd hopes to have a strong following for the road contest. Pampa is favored by seven points in the Harris Rating System, and Whiteface fans could see another thriller like the one here last Friday night against Randall.

Our prediction: Hereford 21, Pampa 14.

An Aggie tells this story: An Aggie died and went to heaven, but couldn't pass the entrance exam. He was sent downstairs where, to his surprise, the Aggie encountered a real blizzard. Looking around, he found one of the red-clad attendants and asked, "What's going on here? I thought it would be hellfire and brimstone."

"Oh, haven't you heard?" came the reply. "Texas Tech is playing in the Cotton Bowl!"

We've already heard a lot of reaction over the published report that the UIL council has endorsed the idea of allowing girls to participate in high school football. The committee recommendation, which must still be approved by the State Board of Education, cited the legal problems arising from gender discrimination and the fact that all but five or six other states allow girls to play.

Gender discrimination? The predictable first question has already been asked in some newspapers—does that mean that boys should be allowed to play volleyball? I don't think so. Let's leave football to the boys and volleyball to the girls! And, let's keep our present system of having separate boys' and girls' teams in the other sports.

Personally, I don't think it would make much difference if the board approved allowing girls to play football. I doubt there are many girls who have the desire to knock heads in such a rough sport.

But, then, I'm from the old school who still believes there is a difference between men and woman. (Might I add, "Hooray for the difference!" without being labeled chauvinistic?)

Down memory lane: I was a young sports editor in Lamesa in the late 50s when a belligerent lady called me early on Monday morning. She informed me that my report on the Friday night football game was incorrect. I had reported the wrong name of the Lamesa griddler who had recovered a fumble that led to the winning touchdown drive by the home team. "Gee, I'm sorry about that," I told her. "Who was the player?" "I'd rather not say," responded the lady, who was obviously the player's mother.

I politely told her I would check with the coach and get the correct information, and reminded her that I was trying to watch 22 players in the action while she had eyes only for one. I doubt if she knew who came out of the pileup with the ball until after the game!

Facilities for sports writers are not always ideal, especially in smaller towns. I remember the time that a Lubbock sports writer lambasted the officials at Idalou because they didn't have a place for him in the press box when he went over on a Friday night to cover a big game.

The very next year, the writer received a printed invitation to cover another important Idalou game. When he arrived, someone escorted him to the press box, where he found a recliner chair had been placed just for him. Two pep squad girls provided him with sandwiches and Cokes during the contest.

Needless to say, he gave a glowing report of the treatment in his next column!

Bush narrows campaign to questions about trust

By ROBERT BURNS
Associated Press Writer

President Bush claims he's closing the poll-ratings gap with Bill Clinton, and with 11 days left before Election Day he's relentlessly pleading with voters to hand him a comeback victory by abandoning the Democrat as unworthy of the presidency. "Now we're getting down to a choice: Who do you trust to be leader of the free world and president of the United States?" Bush told an enthusiastic rally of about 500 people in an aircraft hanger at Robbinsville, N.J., on Thursday.

Bush returned to the White House late Thursday, but was leaving early today to stump in Kentucky, Florida and Alabama.

Clinton was continuing today in Republican strongholds, including Nevada and Missouri, a state Bush won in 1988 but which he is in danger of losing this year. Ross Perot, the independent candidate, had no campaign appearances scheduled today, except for a 30-minute network ad focusing on his family.

Clinton is training his verbal artillery on the Bush administration's economic record, saying the Republican is leading the "things could be worse crowd." Indeed, one of Bush's key arguments is that while the economy may be relatively weak, conditions - including inflation - would be worse if a Democrat were in the White House.

At a rally Thursday in Robbinsville, N.J., Bush said

BUSH

Clinton's economic prescriptions "sound identical" to those administered by the last Democratic president, Jimmy Carter. "We cannot go back to the failed policies of the past," he said later.

The latest national poll of registered voters showed Clinton with a 19-point lead over Bush, a bit beyond the 10-15 point edge the Democrat has maintained throughout the fall campaign. That news Thursday didn't stop Bush from claiming more voters are beginning to move into his column.

"Something is happening," Bush shouted to thousands of supporters at a rally in Ridgewood, N.J., on Thursday. "We're moving up on this guy." He didn't cite any poll results, and in recent days Bush has made a point of calling pollsters "nutty" and telling voters to ignore opinion surveys. Bush is still telling voters he's got a better economic plan than Clinton, but with that approach apparently not helping erode Clinton's lead in the polls, the president is focusing mainly on what he calls "a question of trust."

Chamber hears reports

Directors of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce heard progress reports on economic development, retail trade, and the annual election of directors during a monthly meeting Thursday.

Mike Carr, executive vice president, also discussed plans for a membership survey to evaluate the chamber's programs, goals and activities. A proposed questionnaire which will be mailed to members in November was presented to directors. Charles Greenawalt, president, said the survey will be used in the January board retreat when new officers and directors make plans and set goals for the year.

Carr reported that the economic development committee was still in contact with two companies who are planning to locate a cheese plant in the area. Both companies have put plans on "hold" at this time, he explained.

He also reported that construction is underway on a North Plains Nursing Center on Kingwood Street. The 120-bed facility will employ about 65 people when completed.

Mauri Montgomery reported the retail trade committee has made plans for special promotions during the holiday season. Florists will hold open houses Nov. 8, and all retailers will conduct special open house events Nov. 15. The annual Christmas lighting ceremony is scheduled Nov. 14. Rita Bell gave a brief report on Women's Division activities.

Carr announced that a nominating committee has named Jeff Carlile, Wes Klett, Jimmy Madrigal and Dennis Printz as candidates for new chamber board positions. The C of C will ask members for any other nominations and mail ballots next month.

Carr said he would represent the chamber at the Texas Cattle Feeders Association convention in Amarillo Sunday. He also reported that the Amarillo Chamber is sponsoring a legislative trip to Austin on Feb. 16 and is asking area chambers to join in the event. The board agreed that Hereford should plan to participate.

Croats, Muslims renew fighting in Herzegovina, strain alliances

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina (AP) - Fighting between Croat and Muslim factions is spreading northwest from Sarajevo, further straining their alliance against the Serbs.

In fierce fighting recently in Mostar, capital of Herzegovina in the west of the war-ravaged republic, Croatian forces took control of the Bosnian militia headquarters, Belgrade TV reported Thursday.

Despite the battles, nine U.N. relief planes were able to land in Sarajevo following a one-day suspension due to fighting.

Under a Serb siege for six months, the capital could suffer tens of thousands of deaths from starvation and exposure: this winter unless fighting eases to allow delivery of food and other supplies by air and road, aid officials say.

Croats and Muslims voted for independence and, at first, fought together against Serbs who wanted to remain part of Yugoslavia. But as the Serbs seized two-thirds of Bosnia, Croats have moved to take the bulk of the republic's remaining territory for themselves.

More than 14,000 people have died since fighting broke out in February. Muslim officials and civilians suspected a Croat sellout after the stunning capture of Bosanski Brod, a northern city considered a government stronghold, by Serb forces earlier this month.

AIDS-tainted blood charge sends director to prison

PARIS (AP) - The former director of France's blood transfusion network was sentenced to four years in prison today for his part in allowing AIDS-tainted blood to be given to hundreds of hemophiliacs. More than 250 of the hemophiliacs have died. Dr. Michel Garretta also was fined $100,000. His lawyers are expected to file an appeal. The sentence was greeted in the courtroom by angry outbursts from families of the victims, some shouting that the government was to blame. Garretta was visiting the United States when the sentence was announced. Asked if and when his client would return, Garretta's lawyer, Xavier Charvet, would say only: "You'll see." Garretta was the key defendant among four former health officials tried last summer in a criminal case that scandalized France. The three others received lighter sentences today. The trial was a sordid saga of doctors-turned-bureaucrats who put their annual budgets above patient care, shaking faith in France's cradle-to-grave health system. The case also further undermined confidence in President Francois Mitterrand's scandal-plagued government. There were bitter complaints that politicians were not tried. The case against Garretta was brought on behalf of 1,200 hemophiliacs given blood transfusions by the National Center for Blood Transfusions in 1985 from stocks that officials knew were contaminated with the HIV virus, which causes AIDS. More than of the 250 hemophiliacs have since died. Others testified in dramatic courtroom appearances how they and their families were coping with imminent death. Garretta and Jean-Pierre Allain, the blood center's former research chief, were charged with "deception over the basic qualities of a product," which carries a four-year maximum penalty.

Jacques Roux, ex-director of health division of the Justice Ministry, and Robert Netter, former director of the National Health Laboratory, were charged with "non-assistance to a person in danger," which carries a maximum five-year penalty. Allain received a four-year sentence, but with two years suspended. Roux received a four-year suspended sentence, and Netter was acquitted. Prosecutors painted Garretta as a cold bully who refused to dispose of the center's blood stocks, worth $40 million, even though they were contaminated. He also refused to buy expensive U.S.-made equipment to decontaminate blood, waiting instead for France's Pasteur Institute to develop its own system, evidence showed. Former Premier Laurent Fabius and his social services minister, Georgina Dufoix, testified at the trial that they knew nothing of the tainted blood.

Richards willing to seek fed aid for prison-based drug treatment

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - Gov. Ann Richards, promoting prison-based drug and alcohol treatment, says she "ain't too proud to beg" the federal government for money to help run the Texas program. "It's clear that unless we break this horrific cycle of drugs and crime and misery, we're going to be hard pressed to regain control of our streets," Richards said, speaking Thursday to federal, state and local treatment workers. People addicted to drugs and alcohol must be reached before they become emergency room or prison statistics, she said. The governor said the state's new prison-based drug and alcohol treatment program is working and could become a model for the nation. As part of a prison construction measure, the Texas Legislature in 1991 included several thousand prison beds for drug and alcohol treatment. Richards said ultimately 14,000 prison beds will be designated for the program.

RICHARDS who would benefit from a 12-step program. Richards said the prison treatment program is getting results. For example, three women in a prison treatment plan who were granted parole last month turned it down so they could finish the program. Male inmates at another prison unit turned in a guard who was bringing drugs into the facility, Richards said. "I believe in the human need and the human capacity to change," she said. "These people are saying to us, 'We want a change, and we are willing to act to make it happen.'" In a question-and-answer session, Richards was asked whether the emphasis on prison rehabilitation might take assistance away from people seeking help outside of prison. Richards said she used her speech to promote the prison treatment program because of the federal officials who were present. "It was an audience that was too great to miss," she said, adding that if more federal money is available for drug treatment it could help free up state money for the field.

The state's main challenge, she said, is to maintain the quality of the program. That, she said, could be helped with federal dollars, although she did not specify an amount. "We want every single federal cent that we can get for these very successful programs," Richards said. "We're asking politely, and as the old song says, we ain't too proud to beg." Richards spoke to a meeting hosted by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services aimed at forming partnerships among federal, state and local treatment and education programs. "Substance abuse is a personal and profoundly important concern to me. I am an alcoholic," Richards said. "I celebrated my 12th birthday (of sobriety) this year." With a laugh, she added: "I'm not the first nor will I be the last governor

Two Herd teams win in last minute

By JAY PEDEN
Sports Editor

All four of Hereford's sub-varsity football teams won Thursday, including last-minute, come-from-behind wins by both the sophomore team and the ninth grade Maroon.

The sophomores beat the varsity team at Texico, N.M., 21-20 on a 30-yard pass from Michael Brown to Jeremy Brock with three seconds left. The same duo hooked up on the winning two-point conversion.

In Hereford, the Maroon team got a one-yard run from Armando Zambrano with 29 seconds left to beat Palo Duro White 29-22.

Hereford's junior varsity beat Pampa's JV 22-6 in Whiteface Stadium, and the ninth grade White team beat Tascosa Black 21-8 in Amarillo.

Hereford's varsity plays at 7:30 tonight in Pampa. The Herd and the Harvesters are both 2-0 in District 1-4A.

Herd JV 22, Pampa JV 6

Chris Vallejo scored a pair of touchdowns and the defense had a fourth quarter goal line stand that sealed the game.

The game was called with 34 seconds left after a Pampa player apparently injured his neck on a tackle. He was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital, but Hereford coach Danny Haney said the boy was "moving everything," which is a good sign.

"He's all right. He went home last night," Haney said.

Vallejo scored on a 17-yard run in the second quarter, which was set up by Hayden Andrews' interception of a duck of a halfback pass. On the extra point, Hereford lined up to kick, but there was one problem: no kicker.

Quarterback/holder Stacey Sanders knelt to hold, but when he realized there was no kicker, he stood up and took a snap out of the shotgun. Andrews alertly ran a pass route and caught the ball behind two defenders. Pampa's one score came on a 45-yard quarterback sneak in the second quarter. The pass for extra points failed, and Hereford led 8-6. That one play turned out to be just about Pampa's only good play of the night. "The defense played great the

Few Top 25 teams meet Saturday

By PETE IACOBELLI
Associated Press Writer

Whew, finally a breather. After what seemed like weeks of top 25 teams battling each other, they now get to beat up on the rest of the college football pack Saturday.

There are only two matchups between schools ranked in the top 25, and neither of those involve the highest rated teams - No. 13 Washington State at No. 15 Southern Cal and No. 18 Clemson at No. 23 North Carolina State.

Certainly not Miami-Florida State, or Washington-Nebraska. Speaking of the co-No. 1s, both the Hurricanes and the Huskies should fatten up on weaker opponents before encountering difficult closing stretches.

Miami (6-0) has its first Big East game at Virginia Tech (2-3-1), while Washington (6-0) plays at home against Pacific (2-5).

Things then get a bit more rocky, with Miami facing West Virginia, Temple, Syracuse at the Carrier Dome and San Diego State. Washington has to play Stanford, Arizona on the road, Oregon State, and then wind up at Washington State.

In other Top 25 games Saturday, it's Minnesota at No. 3 Michigan, Mississippi at No. 4 Alabama, Baylor at No. 5 Texas A&M, No. 7 Georgia at Kentucky, No. 8 Nebraska at Missouri, Kansas State at No. 9 Colorado, No. 11 Boston College at Tulane, No. 12 Syracuse at Temple, No. 16 Stanford at Oregon State, No. 19 Georgia Tech at North Carolina, Louisville at No. 20 Florida, No. 21 Arizona at California, Oklahoma at No. 22 Kansas, William & Mary at No. 24 Virginia, and Arkansas State at No. 25 Mississippi State.

The Hurricanes have the nation's longest winning streak at 24, but Miami coach Dennis Erickson doesn't expect No. 25 to come easily.

Cowkids compete at Playday

Young cowboys and cowgirls participated in a Playday Sunday at the Hereford Riders Club Arena.

Amy Northcutt swept the Mini Pee Wee age group, winning the barrels, poles, stakes, flags and goat races.

In Pee Wee, James Richardson won barrels, rings, flags and stakes. Amanda Schumacher won poles, and Krystle Shafer won goat tying.

In Youth, Cotty Maddox won flags, rings and goat tying, while James Mathers won barrels and stakes.

In Juniors, Tommy Mather won poles, stakes and rings. Shay Henderson won barrels and goat tying, and J.J. Hill won flags.

In Seniors, Linda Kingston won poles and stakes, and Tracy Lockhart won barrels.

Smith's grand slam helps make up for last year

TORONTO (AP) - Lonnie Smith swung back. With one hard hit, he took his Braves home with hope. With many harsh words, he took on his critics.

He was the hero of Atlanta's season-saving 7-2 win Thursday night over Toronto. Then he griped about the goat that won't stop chasing him - his baserunning confusion in last year's World Series.

"I've been criticized my whole career," he said.

He's not even sure his grand slam against Jack Morris that gave the Braves the victory that cut the Blue Jays' lead to 3-2 in the Series will get rid of the rap.

Toronto manager Cito Gaston surely can't shake his rap of failing in the big games, not after his team just lost what would have been the biggest in its history.

But Morris is doing a pretty consistent job of losing his reputation as a big-game pitcher after his fourth straight rough postseason outing.

The home fans rained boos in the weatherproof SkyDome as Gaston lifted Morris after Smith's homer made the score 7-2 with two outs in the fifth and forced a sixth game Saturday night in Atlanta where Steve Avery will try to keep the Braves alive against David Cone.

"It could have been for me more so than Jack," Gaston said of the boos. "People forget real quick" how well the Jays have done this year and remember their playoff failures in 1985, 1989 and 1991.

If only Smith's detractors could be forgetful.

Morris was the hero of last year's Series. His 1-0, 10-inning complete game win in Game 7 gave the title to Minnesota. And Smith was the goat because of his mistake in the eighth inning that cost the Braves a chance to win.

Smith got back at Morris, then took shots at his detractors.

"Last year was nothing new to me. I've been criticized this year by our hometown reporters," he said.

Why? "For one thing, I'm a black man, so I'm going to be criticized. Another thing, I've been considered a mediocre ballplayer, so I'm going to be criticized," he said in a firm, even voice.

Mediocre? Smith has a .289 average in 13 big-league seasons. He's the only player in baseball history to play in a World Series with four teams, winning with all but the Braves. He hit homers in Games 3, 4 and 5 of last year's Series.

Then came the stigmatizing Game 7. He stopped near second base on Terry Pendleton's double to left-center, then was able to make it only to third. He was faked by Minnesota second baseman Chuck Knoblauch or lost sight of the ball.

"I don't think I will ever get any retribution from that game," Smith said. "People all year have brought it up during the course of the season, and even some individuals considered it to be one of the major blunders in World Series history."

Morris had been one of the major wonders of Series history, winning the most valuable player award after his spectacular Game 7 performance against John Smoltz, Atlanta's starter Thursday night.

But the 7-1 postseason record Morris' brought to Toronto after signing as a free agent is now 7-4 after he lost his second Series start. His postseason earned run average this year is 7.43 after he allowed all seven runs and nine hits.

The fans who cheered him during his 21-6 regular season booed him when he left the game.

"I think it was just the fans letting out their frustrations," he said. "I don't take it too much to heart. If I accepted every boo as 'It's time to leave, Jack,' I would have left 16 or 17 years ago. My sister booed me when I was in little league," he said.

He gave up the first run on first-inning doubles by Otis Nixon and Pendleton.

"If we got that in Minnesota, we win the World Series," Atlanta manager Bobby Cox said.

Toronto tied the game in the second off winner Smoltz on a single by John Olerud, a walk to Candy Maldonado and a double by Pat Borders.

David Justice's leadoff homer in the fourth gave Atlanta the lead again, but Toronto tied the game 2-2 in the fourth when Olerud singled, Maldonado walked and Borders, who has hit in 13 straight postseason games and is 7 for 16 in this Series, singled.

Then came the fifth. Morris got the first two batters. Then Nixon walked, stole second and scored on Deion Sanders' single. Pendleton's ground-rule double sent Sanders to third and Justice was walked intentionally to get to Smith.

"I was a little angered," Smith said, but "it wasn't the first time (a team) walked a player ... to pitch to me."

Baylor could surprise No. 5 Aggies

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

Through the glare of attention surrounding fifth-ranked Texas A&M's national championship bid there's a green and gold form taking shape and it looks like the Baylor Bears.

While the Aggies have found a way to compile a 6-0 record and remain atop the SWC standings, the Bears have been steadily climbing out of a 1-3 start and back into contention for the SWC title.

They'll get their chance against the Aggies Saturday at Kyle Field. If there's anyone with a track record to challenge the Aggies, it's the Bears. Three of the last six games have come down to three or fewer points.

"We've just sort of stayed the course and tried to get better and do what we can do," Baylor coach Grant Teaff said. "Right now, we're a pretty solid team."

to play. We usually go over there and play well."

Baylor has the nation's No. 5 ranked rushing attack, averaging 236.9 yards per game and A&M's "Wrecking Crew" defense is allowing 284.9 total yards per game, No. 17 nationally.

Texas and Houston have had explosive games in recent series history, although the Cougars have won four of the last five.

Houston is noted for its run-and-shoot offense, but Texas coach John Mackovic wanted to talk about the Cougar defense.

"They've improved tremendously on defense this year," Mackovic said. "Last year, their defense ranked 100-plus in the nation. This week they are 56th and we're 66th."

Houston has used its running game effectively this season with its top three super backs averaging a composite 8.3 yards per carry. The Longhorns' passing game has improved under senior Peter Gardere, who leads the SWC with 250.2 yards per game in total offense.

The Aggies (6-0, 2-0) are 14-point favorites over the Bears (4-3, 3-1). Texas (3-2, 1-0) is a 4(-) point favorite over Houston; Rice (2-4, 1-2) rates a 5(-) point advantage over Texas Christian (1-4-1, 0-2) and Texas Tech (2-4, 1-1) gets a 19-point nod over Southern Methodist (3-3, 1-2).

Baylor tied the A&M in College Station in 1990 for the only blot on the Aggies' Kyle Field record since a loss to Arkansas in 1989. A&M's home record of 41-3-1 since 1985 ranks third nationally.

"A&M's record there is intimidating, the way they've been so successful," Teaff said. "The thing we have to realize is it's an intimidating place to play but it's a good place whole game," coach Ed Coplen said. "They scored on a quarterback sneak, and the only reason they scored was we had some people go to the wrong gap."

In the third quarter, Vallejo scored again on a one-yarder which capped an 80-yard drive. Key plays in the drive were a 25-yard reverse by Brandon Gearn, a 25-yard run by Vallejo, and a 10-yard pass from Sanders to Andrews on fourth-down-and-six to make it first-and-goal. Carlos Cintra's kick made it 15-0.

Late in the third, Pampa returned a fumbled punt return to inside the Hereford five, but they didn't get any closer to scoring. Hereford's defense forced the quarterback to fumble and Hereford recovered. After the play, the Pampa quarterback was ejected for kicking a Hereford player.

Hereford added another touchdown in the fourth quarter, a five-yard pass from Sanders to Andrews. Cintra kicked.

"Overall, it was good to get back in the win column," coach Craig Yenzler said. The JV (7-1) lost its first game last week at Randall.

"The kids hung in there through a tough loss last week. I was proud of how they came back in practice and got themselves mentally prepared for the game."

Herd sophomores 21, Texico varsity 20

Hereford was down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter. Michael Brown scored on a four yard run but the kick failed, making it 20-13. The winning drive started at Hereford's own 20 with 2:10 left in the game, and Hereford had no timeouts. The drive included key catches by Raymond Alaniz and Harvey Martinez, as well as Brock's TD and extra point.

"It was just a great effort by everyone who wore a Hereford uniform that night," coach Joe Cabezuela said.

Hereford had to shut Texico out in the second half for the comeback to work, and they did. Texico had scored one touchdown in the first quarter and two in the second. Hereford scored in the second on a 20-yard pass from Brown to Jacob Lopez. Alaniz kicked the extra point.

Ninth Maroon 29, PD White 22

Zambrano's winning touchdown capped a long drive for Hereford. They got the ball with four minutes left with 65 yards to go and only one timeout.

"We showed a lot of character and poise," coach James Salinas said. "They never panicked. That's hard for ninth graders to do."

Zambrano also scored on runs of 33 and 17 yards, ran for two points and kicked for one. Hugo Reyes started the scoring with a 55-yard run in the first quarter.

Ninth White 21, Tascosa Black 8

Hereford scored twice in the first quarter, then added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter.

In the first quarter, Martin Martinez caught a 26-yard TD pass from Todd Dudley and Marquise Brown ran 42 yards for another touchdown. Martinez was 1-for-2 on extra point kicks.

In the fourth, Ronald Torres caught a 29-yard TD pass from Dudley. The two-point conversion was a pass from Brown to Jeb Skiles.

Coach Chris Christopher said Torres had an excellent defensive game, knocking down several Tascosa passes.

Southwest Outdoors

History repeated itself at Lake Meredith as Amarillo angler Jim Braswell wins the final Fun Tournament of 1992. Just like last year, Jim won by using a white worm (others call it the SlugGo) and pocketed $245 by fishing the deep side of the moss beds. Isn't it nice to be talking about moss beds at Meredith?

Jim also won the Big Bass competition and will be the special guest of Ron Simmons at the beautiful East Moreno Ranch, (505) 377-6911, near Eagle Nest, N.M., where the trout are sassy and tasty. Congratulations Jim, but be warned: the other anglers have decided that next year you should have to pay an extra entry fee at the final event on the '93 schedule.

Second place honors went to Hank (white spinnerbait) Jameson of Fritch. Phillip (crankbait) Whitehead of White Deer earned a third place finish. Eleven of the 35 anglers from 10 Panhandle towns caught legal bass, but it is a shock to weigh and release some of those less-than-12-inch smallmouth bass.

The best part of this tournament was that a total of $350 was raised for the Bass-in-Lake-Meredith stocking project. A special tip of the hat to each and every contributor. The bass fishing in Meredith will improve because someone cared enough to stock some Florida bass. These bass will be 3-6 inches long and will cost 33 cents each. How many bass do you want to catch? Send your donation to Southwest Outdoors, 3214 Parker, Amarillo, Texas 79109.

State Representative David Swinford (R-Dumas) helped sponsor the trophies for the final 1992 Fun Tournament. It is nice to see an elected official care about the hunters and anglers of this region. Thanks, David, and good luck in November.

Rattlers--If you throw spinnerbaits, the folks at Woodie's Cajun Lures have invented a rattling spinnerbait, and they will custom-build your favorite style and blade combinations. If you want to order direct, call (318) 640-7005. I recommend their 9/16-ounce golden shiner and the new 5/16-ounce crappie pattern with twin willow leaf blades. Don't tell your buddies about these rattling spinnerbaits and watch them go crazy on that next trip to the lake.

Quail season opens Saturday, October 31

Tip of the Week--Get some three-foot wide paper from the butcher and sight in your shotgun by drawing some bird silhouettes. Purchase several brands of shells and try them at different distances until you determine the best pattern for your gun. The right shell will definitely improve your bird hunting success.

Playa Pete observes that tournament fishing and bear hunting are easier, cheaper and safer than running for most political offices.

Mel Phillips is an award-winning member of the Texas Outdoor Writers Association. He is an avid hunter, tournament fisherman and host of a Wednesday evening talk show on KGNC TalkRadio 71.

Host family being sought

Would you be interested in keeping a foreign-exchange student in your home this school year?

The Educational Foundation for Foreign Study is seeking a host family for Tony Olstoren, a 17-year-old exchange student from a small town in Norway. He would like to stay in the Amarillo area and needs a home as soon as possible.

Tony was assigned for an academic year abroad by EF Foundation, a non-profit student exchange program based in Cambridge, Mass. Barbara Winston, EF International Exchange Coordinator in Amarillo, has been working to find Tony a new home and urges interested families to contact her at 359-4021.

"In addition to being a good representative of his country, Tony is learning about American customs and becoming fluent in English during his time here," said Laurie Mahan, EF Foundation's regional manager. "He is a very interesting young man and has become quite attached to the state of Texas."

Families interested in welcoming Tony to their homes for the next nine months should contact Barbara Winston or the EF Foundation office, toll free at 1-800-44-SHARE.

Children's scissors with comfort and control features that replace frustration with fun are a cut above the rest, educators agree.

congregation in praise and worship and the pastor's sermon will be illustrated with drama.

Also, this Sunday will mark the beginning of the city-wide H.E.L.P. (help eliminate liquor problems) effort. There will be a petition for all registered voters to begin signing in the foyer of the church. You must bring your voter registration card with you in order for your signature to be valid.

During the Sunday school hour at 9:30 a.m., Sheila Cooley will be speaking in the sanctuary. This dynamic speaker will be sharing sacred Biblical principles that are designed for marriage and "The Marriage Covenant." Several adult Sunday school classes will be combined and the public is invited to come and be a part of this special Sunday school hour.

The Nazarene Christian Academy will be sponsoring an auction Saturday, Oct. 24, with the public invited to bid on a variety of items including a snow blower, 15th St. lot, furniture, baseball cards, jewelry, saddles, appliances, etc. Lunch will also be served. Proceeds will be used for the Nazarene Christian Academy.

Teens are invited to Garth and Susie Merrick's home to hear special speaker, Sheila Cooley, Saturday evening.

Hallelujah Night is planned at 6 p.m. Oct. 31 to give parents an alternative to Halloween. Activities will include a movie, pot luck dinner and games in the gymnasium.

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Men, ladies, boys and girls are invited to the Brotherhood Breakfast at 7:30 a.m. Sunday at the church. The speakers will be Ray and Arliss Stewart of Dawn who will report on their mission trip to Russia.

At 9:45 a.m. Sunday, the congregation will be celebrating High Attendance Day in Sunday school. Everyone is asked to help make this a special day.

Evangelist Charles Broadhurst, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Friona, will be speaking during the fall revival which will begin Oct. 25-28 with the evening services being held Oct. 26-28 at 7 p.m.

Royal Ambassadors, Girls in Action and Acteens will meet at 5:45 p.m. Sunday and the Discipleship Training will begin at 6 p.m.

REV. AND MRS. MIKE EDDY

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD

The Rev. and Mrs. Mike Eddy of Winnsboro will be conducting revival services Oct. 25-28 at the church located at 606 E. 15th St. Services are scheduled at 10:45 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday and at 7:30 p.m. during the week.

Rev. Eddy is an ordained minister of the Assemblies of God. He graduated from Southwestern Assemblies of God College, Waxahachie, in 1977, with a bachelor of science degree in Christian ministry. While attending SAGC, he traveled with three musical groups and served one semester as youth pastor in Azle.

Since graduation, Rev. Eddy has shared his ministry as an evangelist, preaching revivals and youth camps throughout the United States. In December of 1988, he became pastor of First Assembly of God in Jacksonville where he resided until February.

Walter chlorination was introduced on a large scale into the United States in the early part of this century. Since then, typhoid and dysentery, as well as cholera, have been virtually eradicated in this country, reports the Chlorine Institute Safe Water Advisory Committee.

 Yesterday's Cryptoquote: AN EMPTY STOMACH IS NOT A GOOD POLITICAL ADVISER. — ALBERT EINSTEIN

In the elections of 1824, 1876 and 1888, the presidential candidate receiving the largest popular vote failed to win a majority of the electoral votes and the other guy (John Quincy Adams, Rutherford B. Hayes and Benjamin Harrison, respectively) got the job.

NEW YORK (AP) - A group angry at Sinead O'Connor for tearing up a photo of the pope hired a steamroller and crushed some of her records, tapes and CDs.

"She has every right to do and say what she wants, but decent people have every right to come together and say it's in bad taste and disrespectful," said Arnold I. Burns, president of the watchdog National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations, which arranged Wednesday's music mangling on Sixth Avenue.

The singer's spokeswoman, Elaine Schock, said, "It smacks of the same kind of censorship as burning books." O'Connor ripped up a picture of Pope John Paul II during an Oct. 3 appearance on "Saturday Night Live."

LOS ANGELES (AP) - A jury has rejected Tracey Ullman's claim that she's entitled to $2.25 million in merchandising profits from "The Simpsons" because the cartoon characters made their debut on her TV show. "The Simpsons," created by Matt Groening, originally appeared on the "The Tracey Ullman Show," which ran on the Fox network from 1987 to 1990.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS STORY

"Everybody Already Knows My Store And What I Carry."

Sound Familiar?

Advertising is news about the marketplace, if you don't advertise, you're telling consumers there's no news from your store. But your competition is fighting for the public's interest with regular ads; if you want to keep your share of the market, you need to be in the same arena, bidding for the business. You need to advertise in the newspaper. Plus, people move out of the area and new people move in. Advertise to bring new customers into the store. Sell your store and your service through newspaper advertising.

NOT CONVINCED?

Newspaper advertising is unlike any other media choice. You're reaching a friendly, receptive audience with your advertising message. So receptive that they pay to have the paper delivered to their home. No wonder consumers consider newspapers the most believable advertising medium.

Newspaper advertising can help your business. It can increase sales and in a competitive market, it can give your business and edge over the other guy.

Don't tempt fate. Join the many successful businesses who know what works for them and what doesn't. Advertise in the newspaper and get results.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

AS A THIEF IN THE NIGHT

THE HIGHLY TRAINED RANGERS-SCOUT OF MODERN WARFARE HAS NOTHING ON THE BIBLICAL SOLDIER WHO WAS ALSO TRAINED TO BE CRAFTY AND CLEVERLY BY STEALTH, EVALUATE HOW BEST TO SPY OUT THE LAND IN A SITUATION WHICH DEMANDED GREAT SKILL IN ORDER NOT TO BE DISCOVERED. THEY OPERATED MOSTLY AT NIGHT, HAVING TO OUTWIT THE KEEN-EARED SENTRIES, WHERE A CARELESS FOOTFALL MIGHT BETRAY THEIR PRESENCE AND RESULT IN THEIR IMMEDIATE DEMISE! SMALL WONDER THIS KIND OF SOLDIER HAD TO OPERATE, TO QUOTE JOB, (24:14), "AS A THIEF IN THE NIGHT"!
