Almost any hunter would go wild with joy if he suddenly found himself in the midst of the flight of thousands of wild ducks pictured here, but the ducks were safe from all except photographers. ### Justice—

An election day approaches the Democrats are getting hot and bothered about an honest count in certain heretofore Republican districts.

Federal agents have been requested for duty in at least three. They are Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Ocean County, N. J.

Democratic headquarters says there is no reason why government agents shouldn't be assigned to such business because the laws of the land require that every citizen's vote be counted.

Some requests for this type of supervision have been made direct to the Department of Justice. Others have been sent in to the Democratic National Committee and forwarded to Attorney General Cummings for action.

Pennsylvania and New Jersey are two states the New Deal would like very much to carry in the by-elections. You don't have to take President Roosevelt's political lieutenants into a dark closet to discover they are firmly convinced they won Pennsylvania in '32 but not counted out. There was a considerable disposition to demand a recount but Mr. Roosevelt's victory was so overwhelming the idea finally was vetoed.

Charles W. Akeley, Democratic candidate for the House seat now held by Rep. Isaac Bacharach, Republican, of N. J., has asked for ten federal men to look things over in Atlantic City on November 5. He has written the Justice department that only government officers very much can keep the situation in order.

Bacharach's managers, of course, are giving this idea the big horse laugh. They point out that Atlantic City has voted the into office for the last 20 years.

Mary Pickford Gives Girl Ride To School

BRECKENRIDGE, (UP)—Betty June Hickey, fifth grade student, has had the thrill of a lifetime—riding to school in a big limousine with the famous screen star, Mary Pickford. And it came about in a most surprising and unusual manner.

Betty June was walking to school one day when a large automobile stopped beside her. Despite the warnings of her father, Deputy Sheriff Ray Hickey, the girl could not resist the temptation to get into the shining car. "I don't suppose you know who I am," said a beautiful lady beside whom Betty June sat.

"Well, you look like Mary Pickford," June replied.

"Well, I am," the screen star told the bewildered but fascinated school girl. Miss Pickford was en route to the Pacific coast by automobile.

Coates No. 1 Humble Well Strikes Gas

Gas Becomes Ignited; 200 Engaged In Fighting Blazes

(Special To The Herald) Humble No. 1 J. L. Coates, being drilled in Lea county, New Mexico, two miles north of production in the Cooper pool in the center of the northwest quarter of north-east quarter of Section 10 township 24, south range 36 east, struck gas at a depth of 3370 feet early Tuesday morning. In some unexplained manner the gas became ignited, and continued to burn Wednesday, according to reports received by The Herald.

Over 200 men, including firemen from the Hobbs, N. M., and Odessa, Texas, fire department, were working to extinguish the fire, which had enveloped an area of ten miles about the well, burning the grass in that area. Gas was reported leaking through crevices about the well, and flames were shooting into the air several feet high.

It was reported the fire had been extinguished in the noon well, which had not been cased, by means of pumping mud and cement into the hole. Two shallow wells, about forty feet, were being drilled in the vicinity of the well, to relieve gas pressure. Five streams of water was played on the main well and derrick, and it was hoped to save them both.

Stabilization Of Price Level To Occur Later

Assets And Liabilities Should Be Brought To Even Relationship

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Roosevelt feels commodity prices should go a little higher before an attempt should be made to stabilize the price level.

The president was described as feeling that considerable progress was made in the last year and half to bring the nation's assets and liabilities to a more even relationship, but that the asset column should go still higher.

It was emphasized prices should be prevented from "going through the roof" and when a reasonable level is reached, attempts should be made to keep them there.

The city commission Tuesday evening voted to make necessary legal preparations for calling an election to pass upon a bond issue.

Action of the commission followed presentation of petitions asking that such an election be called for the purpose of letting the electorate pass upon a $20,000 bond issue, proceeds of which would be used to secure an additional 41 acres of land, improvement of which is contingent upon acquisition.

City Attorney Thomas J. Coffey was at work on the proposed Wednesday. Tuesday evening he expressed the opinion that only those who held a poll tax and who owned rendered property will be permitted to vote in the election. Accordingly, the petitions were being checked against the tax rolls and it was understood that those rendering property for taxation and signing the petition were not in preponderance.

The petitions were presented by Fox Stripling, chairman of the parks committee, and were said to have contained many hundred names.

It will require thirty days from the time the election date is announced until it can be held, officials said Wednesday. It was predicted that a date would be set by Monday, however.

The commission appropriated $500 with which to purchase instruments for the high school band. In so doing the commission

Five First Round Matches Played In Tourney

Football This Week

Punts and Passes

An example of Texas colleges falling to keep their best men in school in this section is Boyce Magness, former Breckenridge back and Stanley Smith, center a couple of years ago for Abilene. Both are playing for Washington state and are being picked for all-conference.

Marvin "Gut" Spain, all-district tackle for Breckenridge in 1933, was a visitor in Big Spring Tuesday night. Spain has been working in Odessa.

There is a little paragraph in Fred Erney's "Hip Pocket Football" pamphlet that all high school players should read, remember and obey.

It reads: "If a man hits you or curses you, wait until after the game to settle the matter. He may do it because he wants to get your thrown out of the game by officials."

True words! There's a story told by a Dallas writer about a scrub player who went into the game and saved his team a touchdown by such tactics.

The Blues were playing the Blacks. The Blacks had the ball on the Blue's 10-yard line, threatening to tie the score. The Blue coach called a big tobacco-chewing tackle to his side, "Red", he said. "We need 25 yards—understand?" "You bet, Coach," the redhead replied.

The tackle reported as a substitute and on the first play spat tobacco juice into the Black tackle's eye. On the next play the Black tackle retaliated with a right to the jaw. The Blue tackle was carried from the field and the Black team was penalized half the distance to its goal line and the offending player disqualified for slugging, ending their scoring threat. The tobacco-spitting substitute won the game for his team.

The Black tackle cost his team a victory by not waiting until the matter was over to settle the matter with his opponent.

Ollie Cordill, with forty-eight points to his credit in four games, should be close to the state's high scorer, unless it could be some boy on the Weatherford team. A week or two ago the Weatherford club defeated some little Class B school 92 to 0.

They tell us wrestling at Abilene pulls down three or four hundred dollars weekly.

Coach "Horse" White out at Foran says he has started basketball practice with prospects of a fair team.

In a motorcycle event held at San Angelo Sunday, Cecil Thixton of Big Spring took third place in an 80-cubic-inch novice number, with 200 feet.

The dopsters in the Oil Belt are all jumbled up now, but figure a more concrete comparison can be made this week as the Ranger Bulldogs play San Angelo and Eastland plays at Breckenridge in the first conference game of the season. The following week Abilene plays at Lubbock, while Eastland takes on Ranger. Brownwood will meet the Lobos at Cisco on Saturday of this make his way in the world could not start under a greater handicap. This doesn't apply, of course, to the stars who plunge into professional football and stay there until they get old and fat. They are living proof that something is screwy with our higher education, to be sure, but the handicap of premature fame isn't apt to bother them much.

The chap who wants to be something more than a machine for throwing forward passes or dodging tackles is put at a disadvantage.

For such a man the handicap must be tremendous. We have no right to foster a game which twists a young man's whole life out of shape.

The fame that attaches itself to an All-America halfback is a load no youngster ought to be compelled to carry through life.

A DIPLOMATIC PROBLEM

The high naval officer whose duty it is to keep his country's fleet in shape to meet any emergency, when you stop to think about it, its toughness is revealed, indirectly, by dispatches from Tokyo revealing that Japanese newspapers are all in a lather because the United States fleet is to hold its 1935 maneuvers in the vicinity of Hawaii.

These maneuvers, say the Japanese, can be nothing else than preparation for war with Japan. The Japanese fears and suspicions are heightened once more, and the harassed American naval authorities seem to be at fault.

But what is a poor strategist to do? He has to look ahead to possible war; he has to train his staff in the program that must be followed if some specific nation is the foe. If he doesn't, he isn't doing his job properly.

It is really much simpler for the French. When they hold maneuvers, they make no bones about the fact that they are anticipating war with Germany.

Other nations can't be so blunt. They must prepare for trouble—but they must pretend that they are going to fight an entirely in-

Matadors To Play Friday

Texas Tech To Engage Oklahoma City Goldbugs

LUBBOCK, (Sp.)—Crimson-clothed Matadors will bear the torch of Texas Tech for the first time into Oklahoma's capital city where Friday night they engage the Oklahoma City university Goldbugs in the first of a series of five out of state, or inter-sectional combats.

Practice this week has been equally divided between setting up a potential defense against Coach Stan Williamson's multiple attack by which the Goldbugs have gained consistently against opponents this season. A disciple of the Howard Jones method of offense, Williamson is reported to have brought into intricate system of line and backfield shifts up to a point of near perfection, although the Goldbugs' goal line punch has been lacking.

Fearful that the Oklahomans may have progressed in the matter of making touchdowns, Pete Cawthon is giving his Tech gridders plenty to do, this week.

Although they have relied on straight, power house football so far, against Texas University, Mo-

Murry and Baylor, the Matadors will likely open a bag of new tricks against the Goldbugs this week-end. Offensive drill has been aimed at improving deception and trickery, which includes a double lateral pass that adds color and speed to the attack. Gwynn Dowell, halfback and possibly the best passer on the team, Adrian Clark, quarterback and Ed McKeever, the right halfback, feature in this particularly interesting movement.

On the heels of their sensational 14 to 7 victory over the much improved Baylor Bears last week, the Matadors sparkle with vim and vitality this week that borders on over-confidence, but the practice rituals go on as usual, beginning with skull practice at dawn daily and ending with smashing bodily drills in the later afternoon.

Departing from custom, Cawthon started and used throughout the game last week only one team. Only seven substitutions were made, and reserves were used for brief periods, leading to the theory that the Tech coach may give up altogether the practice of taking chances in the early part of each game with his shock troops.

The starting combination against the Goldbugs, therefore, may read: Captain Malcolm Martin and Braxton Gillmore, ends; Alvin Katrola and Bert Williams, tackles; Gaines Davis and Truett Owen, guards; Larry Priddy, center; Adrian Clark, quarterback; Ed McKeever and Wynn Dowell, halfback and Winford Base or Leonard Curfman, fullback. It's a veteran team with the exception of Katrola, a sophomore from Taylor, Texas and Base, a junior graduate here for the first time.

Razorbacks Work On Pass Defense

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (UP)—With their conference opener out of the way, the University of Arkansas Razorbacks today began brushing up their pass defense, which was punctured for about 200 yards in total gains in the T. C. U. contest.

Coach Fred C. Thomsen, who expressed gloom over the condition of his veteran line, picked up his spirits somewhat after Saturday's victory at Fort Worth. The Razorback backfield showed versatility in the wares of Clark Jordan and Elvin Geiser, backs, who worked on plays for their annual Little Rock contest with the Baylor Bears Saturday.

W. M. Knight, representative of the Graham Paper company in West Texas, with headquarters at Abilene, was in Big Spring Tuesday. Mr. Knight said he was being transferred to Shreveport, La., and Mr. Tackett would replace him in West Texas area.

EARLY FAME MAY PUT A HANDICAP ON LIFE

For the highlight which it casts on modern intercollegiate football, the case of Pat O'Dea is unique.

Pat O'Dea, you will remember, is the former University of Wisconsin football star who found that it was impossible to get out of the shadow of his college greatness.

He starred "way back in the days of the flying wedge and the padded pants, but his fame always kept pace with him. Wherever he went and whatever he did, he was always Pat O'Dea, the former football star—nothing more and nothing less. As he himself says:

"I was merely the man who had once kicked a football. No matter what I wanted to talk about or get done, I always wound up in football or other athletics. I simply had no time left for business."

So Pat O'Dea finally had to change his name, shuffle off his old identity, and become a new person in a new role, before he could live the normal life that the normal man wants to lead.

He kept this anonymity for 15 years. People believed that Football Star O'Dea was dead; it was even reported that he was the Unknown Soldier!

A great deal has been said about "over-emphasis" in college football, and a lot of it is pure hot air. But the O'Dea case does emphasize the very great wrong which football can do to a young man.

It hands him his life wrong-end to. The summit comes right at the beginning. Everything afterward must go downhill.

And a young man going out to

Matadors To Engage Oklahoma City Goldbugs

LUBBOCK, (Sp.)—Crimson-clothed Matadors will bear the torch of Texas Tech for the first time into Oklahoma's capital city where Friday night they engage the Oklahoma City university Goldbugs in the first of a series of five out of state, or inter-sectional combats.

Practice this week has been equally divided between setting up a potential defense against Coach Stan Williamson's multiple attack by which the Goldbugs have gained consistently against opponents this season. A disciple of the Howard Jones method of offense, Williamson is reported to have brought into intricate system of line and backfield shifts up to a point of near perfection, although the Goldbugs' goal line punch has been lacking.

Fearful that the Oklahomans may have progressed in the matter of making touchdowns, Pete Cawthon is giving his Tech gridders plenty to do, this week.

Although they have relied on straight, power house football so far, against Texas University, Mo-

Baylor Cramming For Football Test

WACO, Texas. (UP)—Baylor University's football team today began "cramming" for its test with the Arkansas Razorbacks. Coach Morley Jennings, who saw his Bears fall in a last-quarter rassing attack put on by the Razorbacks in last year's game, was depending upon his backs to stop the conference leaders' surprise tactics. Jennings is widely known in Arkansas, having coached in that state's college football circles for many years.

Texas A&M Enrollment Over 3,000

Increase This Year In Enrollment Is Approximately 40 Per Cent

COLLEGE STATION—For the first time in its history, more than 3,000 students have registered at Texas A&M College during the opening semester, a total of 3,004 having enrolled through the past week-end. Registration closes Wednesday, Oct. 10.

The enrollment for this year represents an increase of approximately 40 per cent or 851 students over the past session of the college, an increase of one more than the entire freshman class for the 1933-34 session first semester. Freshman registration totaled 1293, an increase of about 64 per cent. Every class and virtually every department of the college showed increases in student totals. The school of veterinary medicine, for instance, showed an increase of 84 per cent with enrollment of 114 students.

Twenty-six states and the District of Columbia, besides Texas, and 7 countries are represented in the student body. Students from states other than Texas number 117 while students from countries other than the United States number 34. Louisiana with 41 is next to Texas in number of students. Fourteen are from Oklahoma, nine from Arkansas and eight from Illinois. Other states represented in the student body include Mississippi, Nebraska, Tennessee, Arizona, Utah, Iowa, gentlemen of Shreveport at Beaumont Saturday. Norton will endeavor to direct his charges to victory over Centenary—the team he coached through two undefeated seasons before going to the Aggie school.

To Every Car Owner in Texas

THE Continental Oil Company will within a few months celebrate its Sixtieth Anniversary. It began business in 1875. In this time it has grown from a sectional organization to a far-flung institution. And yet, we are just as local in operation as is a single store in your home town.

We are "home folks" to Texans and, I am sure, always will be. The goodwill we enjoy from the people of my division—Texas—is my greatest satisfaction. All of us—Conoco jobbers, dealers and employees—thank you for your confidence and patronage.

We try to merit this patronage by being respectful and courteous at our stations and, more important, by supplying products that fit the needs of Texas motorists. New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, for instance, was developed to give you greater motor protection and lower oil consumption.

But before we offered it to you, we put it up against five other nationally known oils in a Destruction Test on the Indianapolis Speedway. We ruined six brand new motors to show you how to protect yours. How we won out in this test is told in an interesting booklet that you can get at any Conoco Station. Please drive in and ask for a copy.

Aggies Ordered To Correct Mistakes

COLLEGE STATION, Texas. (UP)—The Texas A. & M. College football eleven today was ordered into practice with the admonition to profit by mistakes made in the overwhelming defeat at the hands of Temple University at Philadelphia. The Aggies and their coach, Homer Norton, began an uphill fight to take over the Centenary week.

A parallel between Eastland, Cisco, Abilene and Ranger teams can be drawn from the San Angelo scrap, as all four teams will have played the Bobcats by this week-end.

TEXAS TOPICS

By Raymond Brooks

By RAYMOND BROOKS
ADJUST—The legislature can pay for its new special session by passing a six line law that will withdraw the special privilege of tax evasion now enjoyed by operators of marble and coin slot machines.

For more than a year, the operators of 30,000 to 50,000 of these marble machines have escaped all state taxation, due to mistakes of a former legislative session in its effort to levy an occupation license fee upon them.

Revenue would amount to at least $250,000 a year, all out of the profits of these coin-operated devices.

Early in 1933 operators of some of these machines secured an injunction to stop the collection of state occupation taxes upon them. Since then, they have had a free ride, so far as the state is concerned, and two sessions of the legislature have failed to remedy the discrimination that now exists in their favor.

The law was nullified because it was held to be unreasonable and discriminatory. Instead of a graduated tax on penny, nickel, dime, quarter and other machines, as apply in other sections of the law, it undertook to lay a flat rate upon the machines, regardless of the variations in the coins used to operate them.

Compt. George H. Sheppard's department's hands have been tied by the injunction, and the five minutes necessary for the legislature to have started the state again collecting the quarter of a million dollars a year has not yet been devoted to this end.

Those who debated whether cost of the coming special session, devoted to creating work and public improvements, might stand in the way of the call have suggested that perhaps Gov. Ferguson will ask revision of the marble-machine tax law, so as not only to pay the whole cost of this session out of a tax on the profits of these machines, but would collect the state enough money to pay for a session each year.

Sen. Walter C. Woodward of Coleman has done constructive work in helping perfect the Colorado River Authority bill. He, as author of the general state water priorities law, helped draft the water policy section of the final bill, working with attorneys of the public works administration. He declared the final policy draft adequate to protect all West Texas water rights and interests, and that the law, as thus safeguarded, was acceptable to him as a West Texan, and as a citizen and official as much devoted to the welfare and development of his section as any living man.

It has been pointed out that debate and discussion in the recent session showed the original form of a Colorado Authority bill, as taken up in the preceding session, would not have been adequate to secure the public works loan of $4,000,000 promised when an adequate law has been enacted. Sen. Woodward voted against the former bill, because of defects he pointed out. The more recent debate, and the advice of Henry T. Hunt, public works chief counsel, and others have shown his attitude well-founded, and have vindicated his judgment then. His support, therefore, now that the bill has been perfected by his and others' efforts, is doubly reassuring to West Texans. He acted upon a thorough knowledge of water rights and safeguards, not upon either the prejudices that animate some few against the measure or the ignorance others have confessed.

PENNSYLVANIA CLAIMS ONE DAY'S 'WHITE RECORD'
MONESSEN, Pa. (UP)—Card Lange, 34, of Belle Vernon, near here, claims the world's endurance record for successive parachute jumps. Recently, he made 21 jumps in one day, from dawn to 8:20

p. m. to crack the record of Captain Garry Garrison of Bettis Field.
Lange made his jumps from a plane piloted by Harold McClintock, of McKeesport. The nearby Allen farm was the scene of the jumps.

AMSTERDAM, Holland (UP)—For a 124 barrel of "fire-water" the Indians sold Manhattan Island to the Dutch.
It long has been believed that the particular brand of gargle which so appealed to the noble redmen was whiskey—good rye, for preference.

Now it is suggested the potent spirit, with which Hudson and his Hollanders bamboozled the Indians, actually was gin.
It is pointed out that the Dutch already had been manufacturing this cocktail foundation for nearly 85 years before Hudson's voyage. But according to messages from the "spitt" world, where the original owners of Manhattan chase the buffalo in their "Happy Hunting Ground." In those days they just called the stuff "Ug-Ug," which meant, "It nearly scorches the throat, but, boy, how it warms you up."

CENTENNIAL means 100th BIRTHDAY

The stout-hearted Texans who declared Independence on March 2, 1836, at Washington-on-the-Brazos would be filled with pride to know that their efforts have not gone unrequited. Texans, today, are stout-hearted! Today they prepare for a birthday of a hundred years of achievement on the battlefield and in peaceful achievement.

Texas is a land of romance, love and adventure; of progress and memories. This hundredth anniversary will link its airways, seaports, highways and railroads of today with the oleander and jasmine of old-world towns of yesterday!

Texas started on its road of independence at San Jacinto. She fought valiantly through the years for worldly recognition and now is going to give a birthday party for the world, whose respect she has earnestly desired and so courageously won!

All Americans everywhere revere the memory of the men who contributed to the growth of our common country. We invite them to join us in holding a fitting celebration of the one hundredth birthday of Texas.

Miss Maurine Leatherwood Married To Franklin Nugent At Home Of Bride's Parents

Ceremony Takes Place Wednesday Morning In Presence Of Friends And Relatives; On Ten-Day Wedding Trip

Miss Maurine Leatherwood became the bride of Franklin Nugent at an early marriage ceremony held at her home at 8:30 Wednesday morning.

Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the officiating minister. The ring ceremony was used, the groom putting on the bride's finger the wedding ring that had been his mother's.

Under a lovely archway of ferns and yellow chrysanthemums that was arranged between the living room and dining room the young couple stood for the ceremony. The house was fragrant with roses, a beautiful bouquet of dark red roses forming the centerpiece for the dining table.

The bride was attired in a suit of two-tone brown mixed tweed made in the popular new butcher-boy design. With it she wore brown accessories. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a ten-day wedding trip that will include the Dallas Fair and visiting relatives in Shreveport and New Orleans.

The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Leatherwood who reside two miles north of the city. She was born and reared here and has a host of friends to wish her happiness throughout her married life.

The groom is the son of A. F. Nugent of Shreveport, La. He was graduated from high school in that city. For several years he has made his home in Big Spring, being employed at Couden Refinery.

Present for the wedding ceremony were a few intimate friends of the couple and relatives. Among these, in addition to the bride's parents, were Messrs. and Mrs. L. S. Patterson, L. T. Leslie, Cecil Leatherwood, Dave Leatherwood, Bart Wilkinson; Messrs. Wendell Leatherwood and Marchbanks; Miss Mattie Leatherwood and Miss Boone Gilmore; and Mrs. I. J. Robb, Melvin Choate, George Bond, Lewis Rix, Randall Pickle, Lloyd Wasson, Fletcher Sneed.

Architect Speaks To Garden Club

Mr. Newton Tells Women What Shrubs To Plant In Local Yards

Members of the Garden Club heard Tuesday afternoon a lecture on "Best Kinds of Shrubby for West Texas Yards" delivered by Harry G. Newton who is landscape architect of the National Park Service located here in connection with the development of Scenic Mountain.

Mr. Newton began with the lawn, saying Bermuda grass was the best grass for this locality since it adapted itself to any kind of soil and grew well wherever it had sun and water and that it would also fight weeds. The lawn, he said, was to the out-of-doors what the carpet is to indoors and said that Big Spring people would use their yards more and get more pleasure from them if they had more lawns. He suggested a back lawn screened in by fences and shrubbery in preference to a front lawn if one could not have both.

Of the shrubs he said that certain ones of the cedar type were well adapted to Big Spring yards, such as the arbor vitae and the Arizona cypress. Of the broad-leaved shrubs he recommended the California privet for its symmetry; the Amor River privet because it is a rapid grower and makes a good background plant, also has attractive flowers; and the lodepine privet.

The dark foliage of the Japanese ligustrum made it also desirable for background planting and the weeping japonica seemed to do well here, he said. The abelia grandiflora he recommended for its color; its leaves have one color for spring and another for fall and it bears pink bell-shaped flowers.

He also suggested bridal wreath (spirea) for foreground and honeysuckle for an evergreen vine. He considered it unwise for the home landscaper to try to use a great variety of shrubs in foundation planting. It is better, he said, to stay with the few that do well. For shady places he suggested vinca alpina, as a ground plant.

For trees he said that his opinion based on the yards he had looked at, was that the Chinese elm was the quickest grower and made the best shade tree for this locality.

He also told the members how to transplant native shrubbery and answered questions as to many types of shrubbery from other regions that might do well here. After the lecture the club held its business session and announced that yard-judging day would be on Wednesday.

Present were: Mrs. W. D. Willbanks, J. M. Morgan, R. V. Hart, Seth H. Parsons, Horace Penn, E. D. Merrill, L. E. Eddy, J. R. Mannion, D. W. Webster, L. S. McDowell, V. Phillips, Bob Elder, B. B. Harris, W. R. Ivey.

Mrs. V. Phillips will be the next hostess at her home at 1794 Austin street. Members will bring seeds of plants for exchange.

P-T. A. Council Hears Of T. B. Project

The council of the Parent-Teachers' Association met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Wayne Rice presiding. Mrs. Thomas J. Coffey acted as secretary pro-tem.

Supt. W. C. Blankenship explained the tuberculosis survey that the Howard County Tuberculosis association wants to make in all the schools this year, following its successful survey last winter in West Ward.

The members discussed sending a large delegation to Corpus Christi to the state convention of the P-T. A. which is to be held Nov. 19 to 22nd.

All wards were present and made reports.

Mrs. George Wilke Elected Teacher Of The Christian Homemakers Class

Mrs. J. R. Parks and Mrs. S. J. Shettlesworth entertained the members of the First Christian Homemakers' Sunday School class Tuesday with an all-day party at the parsonage.

The members spent their time in quilting. They quilted one quilt and put another together to send to Mrs. J. D. Wallace, a former member of the class, as a farewell gift. Mrs. Wallace is now residing in the Rio Grande Valley.

Officers were also elected for the year. Mrs. George Wilke was made teacher and Mrs. Shettlesworth, assistant teacher. Mrs. Ira J. Rockhold was elected class president.

Others elected were: Mrs. Geo. W. Hall, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Read, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Siff, treasurer and Mrs. Harry Lees, reporter.

A delicious buffet dinner with chicken for the main course was served at the noon hour.

The members also planned to send a jar of cookies to the Juliet Fowling Home in Dallas by Thanksgiving.

Present were: Mrs. J. G. Coldiron, C. A. Murdock, Geo. W. Hall, George Wilke, R. J. Michael, Glass Glenn, Ray Ogden, Earl Read, T. E. Baker, Gene Crenshaw, C. O. Watson, Robert Elder, J. H. Siff, Beulah Morrison, I. J. Rockhold, Belmont Cook, Shelby Hall and Harry Lees.

Lowly Acorn Comes To Rescue Of Deer And Wild Turkey

KERRVILLE, (UP)—The lowly acorn is coming to the aid of deer and wild turkey in the Kerr county section.

The dry season caused a short crop of young wild turkeys and fawns. Deer already are fattening on several varieties of acorns. Turkeys, unable to feed off lowland acorns, have turned to small mountain acorns.

New grass also is expected to put deer into better condition before the hunting season opens in little more than a month. Deer, forced from the ranges during the summer because of the drought, damaged irrigated gardens and grain fields more than usual, turkeys suffered from lack of huge grass seed and water. Fawns died because of scarcity of doe's milk.

This year's fawn crop was about two months late because of unfavorable conditions during the mating season. Fawns continued to appear up to the first of October. Ordinarily, they all have arrived by the end of July.

J. J. Dent, Kerrville, state inspector of game preserves, said the transfer of 150 wild gobblers to Kerr county from South Texas replaced some of the turkeys lost on account of the drought. The turkeys have been feeding on a partial crop of mountain grapes, cedar berries and early acorns.

Alfred To Name Many Appointees

AUSTIN—Incoming Gov. James V. Alfred will have the appointment, at the beginning of his administration, of several of the heads of state departments, and during the first few months of his term the selection of about 200 state officials and members of boards and commissions.

His appointments will be doubly significant as to the overlapping three and nine-member boards, in that generally the new appointees will decide the balance of power between the former appointees of the Ferguson administration and of prior governors.

In case of the state board of education the law provides Gov. Ferguson shall name the three appointees on Jan. 1. Two years ago, through the Ferguson influence, two of Gov. Ross S. Sterling's final nominees were rejected, so that should the senate not retaliate on Mrs. Ferguson she will have named a majority of this board before she goes out of office.

Chief department heads Alfred as governor will have to make at the beginning of his term, or early in the term, will be successors to these present officials:

W. W. Heath of Navasota, secretary of state.
Henry Hutchings of Fort Worth, adjutant general.
Fred G. Jan, 1, 1936
C. H. Poe of Houston, labor commissioner, effective Feb. 1.
Henry P. Edwards of Dallas, tax commissioner.
H. Y. Overstreet of Fort Worth, water compact commissioner.
W. E. Leonard of San Antonio, state service officer.
A. M. Vance of Beaumont, state reclamation engineer, July 1.
E. C. Brand of Sweetwater, state banking commissioner, Sept. 1.
Guy P. Simpson of Corpus Christi, state auditor, Sept. 12.
Guy L. Waggoner, Fort Worth, chairman of the racing commission, unless the racing law is repealed, as advocated by the democratic convention.

Term of Claude D. Teer, chairman of the board of control, will expire Jan. 1, 1936.

Some of the major board members to be named by Alfred will include the successors of: W. R. Ely, Abilene, chairman of the highway commission.
A. H. Dunlap, Barstow, board of water engineers.
Joseph Wearden, Goliad; Frank E. Tiley-Rosenberg, and E. H. Ashlin, Bryan, prison commission.
Fred S. Rogers of Bonham, board of pardons and parole.
Mrs. Epa Stanford, industrial accident board.
W. S. Pope, board of insurance commissioners.
Dr. R. A. Erickson, San Antonio; Dr. J. B. Brady, El Paso; Dr. J. M. Frazier, Helton; Dr. Joe S. Wooten, Austin, state board of health.
D. E. Colp, San Antonio, chairman, and T. L. Beauchamp, Paris, state parks board.
A. E. Wood, Austin, chairman and Murrell L. Buckner, Dallas, game commission.
Leo Callan, San Antonio; Ed Stager, Bonham; W. M. Glenn, Lufkin, livestock sanitary commission.

Board of Education
Members of the board of education whose terms expire Jan. 1 are:
Mrs. Noyes D. Smith, Austin, vice chairman; F. L. Henderson, Bryan and Nat M. Washer, San Antonio, chairman.

Educational board members whose terms expire with the beginning of the new administration are:

Things you may not know about your TELEPHONE

The telephone had its birth 58 years ago in a makeshift research laboratory, where Bell watched a tiny straw attached to the eardrum from a human skull trace wavering lines on smoked glass. Since then, the history of the telephone has been told in the countless scientific problems solved.

Bell Laboratories, "research department," has contributed developments that led to transcontinental telephone calls, 1800 pairs of wires in a single telephone cable, 4 simultaneous conversations over one long distance line, countless other inventions to help keep costs low to the user.

Entirely as by-products of this research, the scientists employed at the laboratories have invented an artificial larynx for persons deprived of speech by throat operations, produced many aids for the hard of hearing, and developed equipment for sending pictures over wires.

Inventions of the research scientists at Bell Laboratories have been devoted, not to swelling profits, but to improvements and economies that have aided this company in giving good service at a fair cost to the telephone user.

This policy has been adopted in the belief that, as much from your standpoint as from our own, it is sound and workable. It is based upon the feeling that in an undertaking planned like the telephone service for the long pull, what is best for the telephone user is in the end the course that will bring us the surer, more enduring success.

Marian Gordon

by JEANNE BOWMAN

Chapter Four
VERDICT

William Brown was deathly pale. He had affected an air of assurance which seemed almost grotesque when one noticed the twitching nerve in his upper cheek, and the quick clenching and unclenching of his hands.

Linda Brown, present at this important moment, seemed the more composed of the two, but Marian wondered if this composure wasn't a steeled defiance of Jenny Case, who sat watching—like Tabby waiting for me to put the saucer on the floor.

"Cliff shot himself?" Marian repeated.

The judge was on the bench, had questioned the jurors and the foreman was on his feet, the folded slip which contained the future of William Brown in his hand.

"By the jury," he said in his sonorous voice, "finds the defendant, William Brown, he paused impressively, "not guilty."

A roar swept over the courtroom in spite of the rapping of the bailiff's gavel. Marian, eyes intent upon Jenny Case, saw the girl's mouth open in ludicrous astonishment. She started to arise as though to protest, then sat back, jerked there by the hand of someone beside her. "But he is guilty—" her lips formed the phrase.

Marian turned to the defendant who had stood to accept the verdict. He had sank into a chair as though

SAFETYGRAMS

Keep a safe distance from the car ahead of you. Do not follow another car more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard to the speed, the volume of traffic, the condition of the road and also the condition of your brakes. At higher speeds there must be much greater spacing between cars.

minutes ago, he wants you to call the office immediately.

"Now what?" asked Marian re-appearing in a woolly bath-robe. "Watch the tub for me, will you?"

The telephone connection was made instantly. Bowen evidently was waiting for her call at the other end.

"Thank heavens I got you," he said. "Listen, Ian, you said you knew Silver Hondon well. Do you know Cliff also?"

"Yes, why?"

"He shot himself ten minutes ago. They're bringing him into Central Emergency."

"And you want me to go down there?"

"No, I want you to leave for Reno in a plane that takes off in half an hour, and break the news to Silver."

Marian, who had been perched on the arm of a divan, slid over into the divan before answering— "Cliff, shot himself," she repeated stupidly, and then, "fatally?" she asked.

"Don't know yet," answered Bowen's voice, "his ex-gardener had been released with the rest of the servants yesterday, but he forgot some of his tools and went back at night for some reason to look for them. He heard the shot, went in and found Hondon. Luckily the telephone hadn't been disconnected, so he called the Emergency."

"Now listen Ian. Estes is on the way to your place in a cab. I've given him orders on the pictures I want. You'll reach Reno at midnight tonight. Marks, our correspondent there, will meet you in his car and rush you to the resort where Silver has been living. He says he can make it in an hour and a half by taking a short cut. That gives you an hour to get your story and telephone it back here. I'll keep the wires cleared for your call. Okay?"

"Okay," responded Marian still in a dazed voice.

She placed the receiver back on the hook, then turned to find Anne studying her with apprehension. "Pack my overnight bag, will you, Anne?" Marian asked, "it seems I'm on my way to Reno on the toughest assignment I've ever tackled."

As she bathed and dressed she talked, answering Anne's questions sketchily.

"Silver...? She's the gorgeous girl I used to go to Hills with. I was a frosh when she was a junior and she took me under her wing. Oh, she had reasons, I was a perfect foil, long and lanky and freckled as them. He heard the shot, went in and found Hondon. Luckily the like? A composite picture of all the physical beauty in the world, pale, golden hair, big brown eyes, lovely real color in the most petal-like skin you ever longed to touch. She used to wear silks and satins when the rest of us were wearing serge and linen."

HARVARD UNIVERSITY ENROLLMENT DOWN

COMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP)—There are 166 fewer students enrolled in Harvard University this year than during the academic year 1933-34, but the enrollment in Harvard College has jumped from 3,429 to 3,522—a gain of 93. The university enrollment is 7,301 as compared to 7,467. The gain in the college enrollment is attributed largely to the increased freshman registration 1,081 having matriculated at the opening of the new college year.

THE COURAGEOUS MAN.

"Then pale and worn, he kept his deck,
And peered through darkness.
Oh, that night
Of all dark nights! And then a speak—

A light; A light! A light!
It grew, a starlit flume unfurled!
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.
He gazed a world; he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: "On! Sail on!"

Thus closed the poem "Columbus" by Joaquin Miller.

It was 442 years ago in the remote and half-forgotten late fifteenth century that Christopher Columbus first beheld America. How little we realize the hardships Columbus had to endure, the strain of expectancy, and the numerous vicissitudes which he had and which followed the entire life of this iron-willed, clear-thinking man who possessed such an unboundless faith.

Columbus was able to continue onward until he saw the light—significant of America for which he was looking. The date of discovery was October 12, and in accordance with the whole of the American now celebrate that day in memory of a truly great man. So why shouldn't each individual student of the high schools in North, Central and South America take a little time outside of the regular events of the day to think of the vastness of the change brought about in the last 442 years because one man aspired to prove his belief in the roundness of the world? It would be only what should be considered a duty to the greatness and achievement of a great man who suffered greatly during his lifetime.

Students Have Vacation Trips

By CLEO LANE

While many of us spent our summer keeping a close tab on the thermometer and watching the calendar and blow over to San Angelo and back a great number of times, many of our Big Spring high students were even able to sleep under a couple of blankets at some places and were not forced to greet everyone by "It's gonna be another hot one" or "This day has been a scorcher."

Mary Louise Wood traveled through Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and then on to the World's Fair in Chicago. She also visited the Field Museum.

Wynell Woodall journeyed up to Denver, Colorado. Miss Woodall went upon Lookout Mountain and also enjoyed eating ice cream on Pike's Peak.

Betty Jean Fisher went to pass her judgment on the exhibit in Chicago. Miss Fisher visited in Indiana before going on to New York city. After a visit here, she went by boat to New Orleans. Then she hurried on to the place of most interest—Big Spring, Texas.

Janice Jacobs visited in St. Louis and she too had the pleasure of viewing the World's Fair (what shouldn't we give for a peep at the fair at Dallas).

Roselle Stephens got "frittle" all of a sudden and left Julius Nvel to find other company while she was visiting in Colorado, Utah and California.

Winfred Piner spent, what I mean, all summer in California, and returned to Texas with a sun-tan and an omitted "R" in her speech.

Many got as far as Fort Worth and Intan flat, but the nearest we got to Europe was when Harold Talbot went to Paris (way Parse)—Texas, of course) but from all hear-say—Paris must be Paris anywhere!

Since we don't get to go anywhere—I guess we'll have to pull a Mae West by—
Save your nickels,
Save your dimes,
When you get two-bits,
"Come up 'n see me sometime."

Methodists Visit The High School
Officers of the Methodist church Sunday school were visitors of the Superintendent's office for the use of the student enrollment cards to get prospective members for the Sunday school.

Orders Placed For Nineteen Sr. Rings
Nineteen senior rings were ordered Monday through Earl Essel, representative of Harff Jones company. Although approximately one hundred measurements were taken the students weren't so enthusiastic about paying the dollar down.

The council will be formed from representatives of the home room classes and will meet about twice a month to discuss various school regulations and activities of the student body. It will be a high honor to be a member of this student council.

New Students

CLINTON RUSH: Clinton or, rather "Speedy," as the student body knows him, was born in Healdton, Oklahoma some sixteen years ago. He came from Ardmore, Oklahoma, in the early summer so that he might attend "death Big Spring high." Speedy previously went to school in Longview and was their basketball star. He is classified in B. S. H. S. as a junior and is taking biology, English, Spanish, and Geometry. Speedy is quite a handsome lad; 5 foot, 10 inches tall, blond hair, and big brown eyes.

LOUIE BANKSTON: Louis was born in Ellenwood, Kansas, but has been living in Tyler, Texas. There he participated in tennis and football. Louis is a junior and is taking history, public speaking, geometry and physics. He is coming out for the Devils football team this year and is making an A-1 player. He also belongs to the chess club, singing high tenor, and Mrs. Frantz says he has improved to a great extent since school has started. Louis is 5 foot, 7 inches tall, has blond hair, and blue eyes.

Chapel Day
Chapel day has officially been declared to be Wednesday, although the schedule of speakers has been rearranged as well.

New Machines To Be Bought

A definite budget had been established whereby eight typewriters will be traded for new ones each year. This means that the school will have a new set of machines every 3 years, which is the estimated life of a school machine.

This year the school is buying eight L. C. Smiths. This typewriter has, in the last few years, proved itself to be among the best in the field. Mrs. Low, typing instructor, expects these new typewriters in a few days.

Incidentally, the international contest in typing and the state contest in Austin last year were all won on L. C. Smiths. So, in order to increase the efficiency of Big Spring High students, L. C. Smiths have also been ordered for them. Five Woodstocks and three Underwoods are being turned in on them.

MOTHER MOCCASIN SNAKE CARRIED AS CHILDREN
ALTUS, Okla. (UP)—The largest snake story of the year has been recorded.

Rev. S. C. Elliot, Baptist pastor at Blair, Okla., was fishing with a companion in Lake Altus. They killed a large water moccasin.

Curious to know if the saying is true that when young snakes are frightened they run into the mother snake's mouth, they cut the moccasin open.

That sky's at once become so clear.
When weakness seems to lay its hold
Upon my life, if I hebbid
In thought, your life, so calm, so strong
And, oh, my friend, when all about
The world seems hard, with strident stoult,
And judgments harsh, if I could see
Your face before me, gay and free
Your equal, friend, the world has few.
And life's made better because of you.

Orders Placed For Twenty-Six Uniforms For High School Band

Orders have been mailed for twenty-six band uniforms and material is being purchased for the Pep Squad uniforms. These are to be made by the Home Economics department with the mothers of the members of the pep squad cooperating in making them.

The citizens committee was composed of Victor Flewelen, chairman, Dr. M. H. Bennett and John Whitmore.

The uniforms of the band will be black and gold with blouse and skirt.

The uniforms of the band will consist of cap, cape, pants, and tie. The inside of the cape will be gold and outside black.

The bandmaster and drum major's suit will be entirely different from the rest of the band uniforms.

The uniforms will probably be ready to wear by the Sweetwater game, October 20.

Grid-graph Is Very Popular

A large electric scoreboard, known as the Grid-graph has become a popular feature in the sport world of Big Spring. It is a large scoreboard on which are placed the names of the players and a sketch of the field on which the game is being played.

By use of small electric lights which flash on the name of the person playing and the play used the observer is able to watch a game of football that is taking place hundreds of miles away.

Saturday a large crowd was attracted to the Grid-graph to watch a play-by-play description of the Big Spring-Bowie (El Paso) football game.

A schedule of the Grid-graph for this week has not been made out, but it will be in use for the games of most interest to the people.

Classroom Notes

Students of Mr. Houston's 2-B English class presented a one act play, "The Beau of Bath" in class Thursday morning. Students taking part were: A. J. Prager—the beau; Jerry Lindsay—the Lady of Portraut; and Harry Blomsheld—Jepson, the butler.

The class is planning on working up other plays, and putting them on before various audiences, providing it can be arranged by the copyright holders.

Mrs. Brown's first year clothing classes have just finished study on commercial patterns and have been studying seams. The students are now constructing their first garment.

In the second year clothing classes, each girl has completed a clothing budget of her own which she plans to follow as closely as possible, living within her share of the family income.

To economize, she is making over a garment in class. Some are making skirts out of old coats, putting new blouses to old skirts, dresses from mother's or grandmother's, etc.

Perhaps these garments will never be recognized from the new ones that are worn around the halls.

The girls in the Foods I classes are learning to be good home makers by cooking breakfast. They will soon be ready to prepare a wholesome, attractive breakfast and serve to its best advantage.

Old T. & P. Engine Buried In Creek, Is Uncovered By Farmer
FORT WORTH, (UP)—An old Texas and Pacific railway company locomotive, buried in a creek near here, has been uncovered by Horace Boyles, manager of a farm through which the creek runs.

In 1878 the locomotive plunged through a bridge which had been weakened by a flood. The locomotive was never taken from the creek bed and its presence had been forgotten until Boyle, while cleaning out the channels of the creek, uncovered a part of the top of the locomotive.

It Happened At School

By Cleo Lane

Speaking for the feminine population of Big Spring High School, I really believe that for once during "Our Days" this institution is really going to have some heart breaking, nerve-racking boys. Look at MORRIS BURNS and BILLY DANNER, but they aren't all. They only head the list of a dozen or more such as E. C. BELL, the BLOMSHIELD TWINS, HARRY and JOHN, and then little HERBIE LEES. Surely the girls, who may not do that thing called "graduation" at the appointed time, won't have a thing to regret.

Wonder if JIMMY MYERS' heart jerks, and flutters as many times as does our ROZELLE STEPHENS and JOYCE NOLAN's when he strolls down the halls dodging all near ramblera, so as not to get his plastered wave out of line.

"I've 'em 'n' leave 'em" EDWARDS breaks the heart of "Ole" Read "Em and Weep" HANNA. JANE LEE desires to prove why the sudden change of affections from her to else where—(?)

Again they steal into the middle of the night and snatch from the pink and blue crib. Such is the tale of TOMPKINS and TOWLE, EDNA GRAY and JACK TINGLE. Fair hearts may never beat, but TINGLE will come again.

(Reference Enklopedia pp 9826 3-4).
The best yet, our silent ROBERT HAILEY expresses a gentle thought aloud! EVELYN RAGSDALE is one of the "Berry" girls—"Old Razy" herself.

"Some people think 'Love, Love, Oh, Loveless Love," but to JR. HUBBARD it was "Hard, Hard, oh, softless Floor" when he missed his aim in Biology class.

You'll know 'em by—DORIS CUNNINGHAM—"I never had a chance."

ELOISE KUYKENDALL—"This one's a 'Jim' on boys named JAMES." BOBBY McNEW—"I didn't say it if anybody happens to ask."
WYNELL WOODALL—"And fifty men were killed in the rush. JOHNNY RAY DILLARD—"I'm just an ole country boy." JUDITH PICKLE, "What makes you think so?"

MILTON REEVES—"Have you seen DORIS?"

More imminent girls will never be known MARY ALICE McNEW never passes up a date but the end is near when FRANCES STAMPER joins in parading around after a Pep Squad Drill carrying her shoes in her hands.

Again the daggers point to CLARINDA and "Speck." The disappointed (?) blond, EMMA JO REDDOCK, or our flashing WINIFRED PINER, holds the trump's wonder which catches this WILLIAM RADFORD YATES, JR.

Sad but true, girls, we'll have no pushing, crowding, or shoving just because the pride and joy of Big Spring High wishes to enroll again you must all remember that your turn comes next.

It really is a shame this can't go on forever, but all good things must come to an end.
So I'll say—"Good day," CLEO.

T. & P. Offer Low Rail Fare

One Cent A Mile Each Way To Dallas Fair Offered For Week-End

The Texas and Pacific Railway is offering a special week-end fare of one-cent a mile each way to the State Fair at Dallas, which according to Frank Jensen, General Passenger Agent, is one of the lowest State Fair rates we have ever put on.

"This very low rate," Mr. Jensen said, "should be particularly attractive this year because of the race meet being held along with the fair. This is the first time race have been held at the state fair in more than twenty years."

Such a low fare should also appeal to people who can attend the fair only on the week-end or who can spare only a day or so at the fair.

Week-end tickets are good in chair cars and coaches on all trains arriving in Dallas Saturday or on to 3:30 p. m. Sunday during the fair. Return limit to leave Dallas before midnight Sunday. Tickets are on sale at all Texas and Pacific stations in Texas.

The Texas and Pacific is also offering extremely low rates to the state fair every day.

BORN TO BE BAD

Back in the old home state it is estimated he has put between 4,000 and 5,000 on the payroll.

Many of the government workers in the state are with the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. Senator Reed suddenly has become aware of this situation and has demanded an investigation of the Pennsylvania HOLL.

Guffey is in an enviable position. Even if he loses next month—and Democratic headquarters here will lay you a bet he'll win—Guffey will continue to be chief patronage dispenser for the Keystone state.

Sour—If you smell anything burning, it will be New Deal collars since Governor Gifford Pinchot, of Pa., took a healthy poke at Senatorial candidate Joe Guffey and thereby lent his support to Republican Senator Dave Reed.

Pinchot already has indignantly denied it but New Dealers who should know insist that his wife, the energetic Cornelia, made several trips to the White House in a vain effort to get herself on the Democratic ticket for Governor this fall.

George Earle is the duly nominated Democratic gubernatorial candidate. Mrs. Pinchot loved with the idea of running as an independent to succeed her husband but finally abandoned it.

Comments of the New Dealers on Pinchot's stand couldn't be printed. They remember how far out of the way President Roosevelt went to give him a hand at Gettysburg last Decoration Day.

Groundwork—Merchant Marine operators and the Post Office department both got an unexpected sock on the nose the other day when Secretary of the Navy Swanson appeared before the special Post Office hearing on ocean mail contracts.

It had been long advertised that the government was subsidizing our merchant fleet so the boats could be built according to Navy specifications and thus made immediately available in time of war.

Post Office Solicitor Karl A. Crowley was questioning Swanson with a view of developing this fact.

The Navy Secretary crossed everybody's wires, however, by saying that 298 boats had been put in operation since passage of the Jones-White Shipping Act of 1920—and only 51 of them are quickly adaptable to wartime use.

Of course, Swanson may have the London Naval sessions in mind.

Axes—If November's elections go according to schedule there will be trouble brewing in Washington between three new senators and three federal office-holders who owe their appointments to the three men retiring from the upper house of congress.

Reports reaching the East say Lewis D. Schwellenbach, Democrat, is going to be elected senator in Washington state, succeeding Senator Clarence C. Dill, resigned. Dill was responsible for the appointment of Frank T. Bell as Commissioner of the bureau of Fisheries, and Schwellenbach no like.

A check of the government personnel officers would show that Guffey has succeeded in placing over 500 Pennsylvanians in jobs of varying importance in Washington.

Should ex-Governor Vis Donahue of Ohio beat the veteran Republican Senator Rippey, that Brown of the Federal Communications Commission will have an opponent for confirmation. Brown, a Republican, was appointed at the behest of James M. Cox—and Cox worked for Rep. Charles West in the Ohio Democratic senatorial primaries.

Theodore Bilbo, who is certain to be next Senator from Mississippi, has an axe to grind for Judge Eugene O. Sykes, also of the Communications Commission.

Notes—A persistent rumor in Washington runs to this effect: "Al Smith is coming down soon to take a big job under Roosevelt." Government officials some weeks ago captured communist documents indicating an uprising in Spain and tipped off the information to Madrid. A grant chorus of G. O. P. attacks upon the New Deal will begin on nationwide radio Oct. 12.

President Roosevelt will dedicate the new Roosevelt Highway in New York State on Oct. 27, Theodore Roosevelt's birthday. Indications are that the processing tax instead of being abolished will be extended to more farm products.

NEW YORK
By JAMES McMULLIN

Breach—Big-time New York conservatives who have trekked to the White House recently—by invitation—returned home with a somewhat altered impression of what goes on in Washington.

They took off loaded to the teeth with questions and criticisms. Formed sources say they didn't get many specific answers to the questions but were offered an ample and courteous opportunity to unburden their minds of pent-up grievances. In return they were given a new and revealing slant on national problems from the administration's viewpoint.

Habitually reported that the discussion has been exceptionally frank and good-tempered on both sides.

It would be too much to say that the New York conferees came back tossing their hats in the air for the New Deal. But at least they got a much clearer picture of what the other half thinks and their conviction that Washington had some completely serious has been notably tempered. The chats can hardly fall to have constructive effects. It's a case where opponents who have visualized each other with horns and tail find that it isn't nearly that bad on closer acquaintance.

The visits represent the first directly personal contacts FDR has had with active leaders of the conservative opposition since recovery's stride slowed down. The talks bring into high relief the obstacles to smooth functioning of the economic machinery when political and financial capitals are separated. They speak different languages and are mutually suspicious—largely because they seldom have a chance to swap ideas first hand. It's inconceivable that so wide a breach could have developed in London or Paris where you have geographical unity.

Women—Wise observers comment that this separation is important from another angle. It nullifies the inponderable but potent influence of women minding socially. When the wives and sisters of political authorities see the wives and sisters of bankers and business men every day you get a subtle and constant interchange of thought that helps harmonize differences. Women have played a far larger part in the solution of British problems through this type of contact than the world knows. Although British leaders are well aware of it. They can't do the same thing here because of the miles between Washington and New York.

Astute New Yorkers believe the feminine factor figures heavily in the popular success of the New Deal. They contend that men who are socially-minded have been able to put over their program against the resistance of hard-bolled individualists largely because of the political and moral support of millions of women who also think in terms of social consciousness. They argue that the foundations of the New Deal were really laid in 1913—when women were given the ballot.

Those who hold this view predict that the Republican party is sunk unless its leaders recognize social consciousness as the master key to

Vultee "Glad" To Design Airplanes
CLEVELAND—The tall, slender young man leaned across the table and spoke confidentially to his companion:
"Ann and I am planning a leisurely trip around the world, Jerry. Can you build me a good low-wing monoplane?"
"Sure, I'd be glad to. I'll build it and you won't have to take it if you don't like it."
Thus Jerry Vultee contracted to build a plane for Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in a casual meeting at the National Air Races here, some years ago—a plane that carried "Ann and Lindy" to the far east, to Europe, across the south Atlantic and through South America.

It was one of hundreds of planes Jerry Vultee has built for some of the nation's most famous fliers, augmenting his reputation as one of the world's foremost aeronautical engineers. And so it was that American Airlines went to Jerry Vultee when the company wanted a transport plane faster than any ever built.

The new eight-passenger Vultees are in regular operation between Chicago and Cincinnati, and Chicago and Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Sidelights—Political circles chortle at Robert Moses' assertion that the "power trust" will not be an issue in the state campaign. They ask if he strikes the Democrats have been stricken dumb. Ex-Mayor John F. Hyland has bought himself the Recovery party and will run himself for Governor. Lehman needn't lose sleep about the resultant Democratic split.
