Firemen to back Proposition 17

By KAY PECK
Staff Writer

Firefighters from throughout the area were challenged on Saturday to support Proposition 17 slated to be on the ballot during the Nov. 7

Proposition 17 proponent

Ray Williamson of Wharton recently asked area firefighters to add their support to Proposition 17.

general election.

If passed, Proposition 17 would provide state funds for improved training and equipment in fire departments throughout Texas.

The challenge to firefighters was made Saturday during a zone meeting of the Panhandle Fire Marshalls' and Firemen's Association. The Hereford Volunteer Fire Department acted as host to this year's fall meeting. About 200 firefighters from throughout the area gathered in Hereford on Saturday representing over 70 area departments.

"You fellows have a chance to change the history of Texas forever," said Ray Williamson of Wharton, chairman of the fire political action committee (PAC) for the Texas Fire Marshalls' and Firemen's Association.

Hereford Fire Marshal Jay Spain serves with Williamson on the state PAC.

Williamson reminded his fellow firefighters of the importance of informing the public about Proposition 17.

"If people don't understand something, they vote against it. It's human nature," Williamson said.

Proposition 17 would allow for the utilization of surplus funds from fees levied against out-of-state insurance firms who wish to do business in Texas. Williamson was adamant in pointing out that the passing of Proposition 17 would not mean an increase in taxes for Texas voters.

In an interview following his presentation, Williamson added that passage of Proposition 17 would likely mean an eventual savings to a result of that program, fire insurance premiums in New Mexico have decreased 33 percent since 1982.

"If the public realizes what it is, I think the chances (of Proposition 17 passing) are real good," Williamson said.

Williamson speaks for an organization which is in an excellent position to encourage the public awareness needed by Proposition 17. The Texas Fire Marshalls' and Firemen's Association includes 1,200 fire departments with 40,000 firefighters.

In addition to Proposition 17, the association is also endorsing Proposition 15. If passed, that proposition would legalize raffles in the state of Texas.

Raffles have become a traditional form of funding for many fire departments across the country. The firefighters' association has added their support to Proposition 15 because of this potential income. property owners. Better training and equipment for firefighters means a decrease in property damage resulting from fires. A decrease in property damage means a decrease in the base rate throughout the state. This base rate determines the premiums to be paid for fire insurance.

Several years ago, New Mexico implemented a program almost identical to the one provided for by Proposition 17, Williamson said. As Adrian was one amongst a small herd of children who got a closeup view of a Hereford Volunteer Fire Department truck when that truck was parked at McDonald's last week. The truck tour was conducted as a part of National Fire Prevention Week.

UWDSC reaches 46% of goal

The funding campaign drive of the United Way of Deaf Smith County reached 46 percent of its $125,000 goal this past week, it was reported Monday by Boyd Foster, UW president.

Contributions and pledges totaled $57,817 when volunteer leaders met Monday at noon for a weekly report session. The campaign drive is scheduled to be completed in two weeks.

Foster said the UW board "felt confident" that the goal could be reached. He pointed out that one-third of the prospect cards had been returned. "If volunteers will keep calling and get those cards and pledges back in, we feel the goal is attainable," said Foster.

Joining the honor roll of companies with 100 percent "fair share" giving last week were J.C. Penney Co., Allred's Sav-A-Dollar, White Implement, Southwestern Public Service, Oswalt Livestock Products, All Star Sports Center, and Plains Insurance.

The campaign drive is set up in 10 divisions with Dr. A.T. Mims as general chairman. The divisions, chairmen and current totals are:

Pacesetters (Pat Newton-Larry Alley), $13,351; Major (Ken McLain), $12,349; Metro (Jeff Torbit), $9,343; Golden Age (Helen Spinks-Inez Witherspoon), $6,633; Special (Jimmy Bell), $5,388; Agriculture (Jane Meiwes-Pam Fellers), $2,960; Corporate Gifts (Speedy Nieman), $2,380; Whiteface East (Lee Washington), $2,236; Professional (Steve Lewis), $1,975; Whiteface West (Anna Solomon), $1,200.

Rotary tackles tough topic

By KAY PECK
Staff Writer

Despite a few embarrassed titlers, Hereford Rotarians expressed appreciation concerning a program on breast cancer presented to the club on Monday.

"When they introduce us at most men's clubs, they don't even mention the subject," said Mary Barlow, a representative of the Panhandle Diagnostic Imaging Center of Amarillo.

Barlow and Jean Whitehead spoke with no embarrassment and complete confidence to the predominantly male membership of the Rotary Club. The two women pointed out the harsh realities of breast cancer (40,000 people died from the disease last year) and of the vital need for early detection.

Although the importance of the subject was directly apparent to the handful of women Rotarians, the men were reminded that the hazards of breast cancer can be important in their lives as well. This was true indirectly -- a husband's awareness can motivate a wife to take necessary precautions -- and directly.

Men are not exempt from breast cancer. Whitehead stated that for every 100 women who develop breast cancer, one man will develop the disease.

The key to successful treatment of breast cancer lies in early detection. Barlow said there are three steps in the process of early detection:

1. Breast self-examination;
2. Physician physicals;
3. Mammography.

The imaging center representatives sought to negate two myths about mammography which prevent many women from seeking the life-saving examination.

First, the radiation from a mammogram does not cause cancer, Barlow asserted. With developments in technology, the radiation now necessary to obtain a mammogram is minimal.

Second, it is not true that the compression necessary during the mammography process can itself cause cancer. Mammography is a safe and painless procedure.

Barlow said that every woman should obtain a baseline mammogram sometime between the ages of 35 and 40. This is used as the "normal" comparison for mam-

Bush abortion veto likely

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush is prepared to veto a bill allowing federally financed abortions in cases of rape and incest, now that his spokesman says the White House is giving up efforts to find a compromise.

The White House abandoned the bid for a compromise after Chief of Staff John Sununu met for a second day Monday with leading anti-abortion congressmen.

"We have made every effort ... and have decided basically there is not any possibility to find common ground, presidential spokesman Marlin Fitzwater said.

"It's our judgment at this time that no one has been able to provide a convincing reason for the president to change his position" opposing such funds, he said. "So the president will not change his position."

Bush earlier had threatened to veto legislation expanding current law, but last week he said he was seeking "room for flexibility" to avert a veto.

"I'm not looking for any conflict over this," he said Friday. "I'm not going to change my position any. But let's see how those negotiations come out."

Congressional Democratic leaders have already conceded they do not have enough votes to override a veto of the measure, which has already passed the House.

The efforts to reach a compromise were never given much of a chance by abortion rights supporters, who won a surprise victory last week in the House and expressed no willingness to yield their position.

Fitzwater acknowledged as much after Sununu met with Reps. Vin Weber, R-Minn., Christopher Smith, R-N.J., and Henry Hyde, R-Ill., just as he did on Friday.

"I don't think really there was ever much opportunity to get close," Fitzwater said. He said "senior advisers" to the president "have recommended a veto."

Abortion rights supporters warned that a veto will hurt the Republican party in the context of what some believe is a changing political climate on the issue.

"If he vetoes it, it hurts him," Sen. Robert Packwood, R-Ore., said earlier Monday. "It hurts our party. It hurts our candidates."

Packwood said a veto could particularly damage GOP candidates for governor in Virginia and New Jersey, two states with races this fall in which the abortion issue has been successfully used by Democrats who back abortion rights against anti-abortion Republicans.

"He's misjudged badly the sentiment of the public on the issue of choice," Kate Michelman, head of the National Abortion Rights Action League, said earlier Monday.

The language dropping a 10-year-old ban on the use of federal money for abortions by poor women in cases of rape and incest is included in a $156.7 billion appropriations bill for the labor and health and human services departments.

City retains board members

Hereford City Commissioners voted Monday to retain all current members to the Building Code Board of Adjustments and Appeals, the Board of Adjustments and the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Terms expired this year for Raymond Herr and Raul Pesina on the Building Code Board of Adjustments and Appeal; Bill Lyles and Bill Bookout on the Board of Adjustments; and Bill Bankston, Doug Bartlett and Mark Andrews on the Planning and Zoning Commission.

The city commissioners decided to retain all seven men in their current positions for another term. Building Code Board terms are for four years. Board of Adjustments and the Planning and Zoning Commission terms are for two years.

The low bid for the purchase of a sanitation truck was selected during Monday's regular meeting. The contract was awarded to Stevens Chevrolet-Oldsmobile with a purchase price of $57,869.20.

Other bids received by the commission were from Western International Trucks ($60,549.71) and Whiteface Ford ($61,438.40).

Recent benefit style show successful

Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met Tuesday evening, Oct. 3, in the home of President Marge Bell.

Bell called the meeting to order with 14 members and two guests repeating the opening ritual.

Service committee chairman Peggy Hyer reported the recent benefit style show a success.

Hyer reported that preliminary totals show the style show as netting $474 but she noted that more money may be forthcoming. She thanked Barbara Cochran for being in charge of door prizes; Ruby Sanders, decorations; Carol Kelley, radio interview; Bell, welcoming speech at the show; and other members who made the annual event benefiting Lifeline and the Rape Crisis/Domestic Violence Center a success.

Roll call was taken and Melinda Henson and Vickie Kriehausen were recognized as guests.

Hyer conducted a poll concerning sorority health insurance and read a letter from the Hereford Outreach Office of the Rape Crisis/Domestic Violence Center soliciting volunteers.

Danell Culp thanked various members for acts of kindness when her daughter was born recently. Both guests expressed appreciation for rush gifts while Holly Bixler and Dona Hendrickson thanked secret sisters for gifts.

During the report of City Council, Hyer allowed chapter members to select which city council committee they prefer.

In other service committee matters, Hyer noted that local offices of the Department of Human Services still need children's coloring books, etc.

Program and yearbook committee chairman Kay Williams noted that the next meeting will be Oct. 17 with Deann Harris and Hendrickson serving as hostesses. "Starting Your Own Home-based Business" will be the topic of the program by Harris.

Social committee members said the Sept. 30 trip to Amarillo was enjoyed and plans are underway for the Oct. 28 mystery party set at 7 p.m. in the E. B. Black House.

Vice president Denise Hafliger said pledge training will begin at the next chapter meeting.

The chapter voted to donate funds to near-drowning victim Holly King.

President Bell noted that the chapter had once again been recognized as a three-star chapter by Beta Sigma Phi International for the 1988-89 year. Such recognition has based the chapter's excellence in activities, such as community services and chapter programs. She presented the top-rated certificate to last year's chapter President Peggy Hyer.

The meeting adjourned with the closing ritual and Mitzpah. Bell highlighted chapter procedure and a baby shower honoring Culp and daughter, Erika June, followed as Bell and Amy Cole served refreshments.

CATS ON CAMERA

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) - Taking pictures of cats requires patience and planning, says Jon B. Bruton, a professional cat photographer.

Bruton says candid shots are often best. He also suggests taking pictures on the floor at cat's-eye level and catching pets relaxed in a favorite chair or sunny spot.

For a look of surprise or wonder, Bruton, who takes photos for Ralston Purina cat food boxes, sometimes rings a bell or starts up a blender. For action pictures, he focuses on cats trailing or jumping at a toy mouse on a string.

Netters thrash Dunbar, 15-3, clinch District 1-4A fall title

The Hereford Whitefaces clinched their third straight District 1-4A fall tennis championship Saturday with a 15-3 win over Dunbar at the HHS Courts.

The win moved the Herd netters to 9-1 overall and 6-0 in district play.

Hereford actually won all 18 matches on the court, but the Herd was forced to forfeit the three girls' doubles matches because of a substitution infraction.

Coach Luis Zavala said the violation came when Cydney Spies and Trisha Teel, who were playing in place of Kristie Allison, Munoz' doubles partner) and the other with Robyn (Sublett, Reed's partner)."

Instead, Allison was paired with Brenna Reinauer for the No. 1 match while Sublett and Gina Alley played as the No. 2 team.

"I don't agree with the rule," Zavala said, "but at least it wasn't something that would have cost us the whole match."

Despite the ruling, Hereford had little trouble winning all 18 matches, dropping a total of three sets for the day.

The Herd will host Canyon at 4 p.m. today and travel to Levelland Saturday for the final match of the season. Hereford will compete in the regional tournament Oct. 27 and 28 at Lubbock.

Reaching out

Gina Alley of the Hereford Whiteface tennis team stretches for a two-fisted backhand Saturday during her singles match against Dunbar's Deann Johnson. The Herd netters clinched their third straight District 1-4A fall title with a 15-3 win.

Walser, Grijalva pace golfers

Hereford Whiteface golfers continued the fall golf season Saturday with the boys' team competing in a dual meet at Pampa Country Club while the girls' team played in a triangular meet at Borger's Phillips Country Club.

At Pampa, the boys outshot Caprock, 361 to 414, as all five Hereford linksters broke 100. Mikel Walser led the Herd with an 18-hole total of 84 while Robert Jones carded an 88. Anthony Gale posted a round of 92 while Jayson Mines shot 97 and David McCarter shot 99. Scores for Caprock Jason Ensminger, 97; Leonard Wyatt, 102; Dean Gollighugh, 105; Brian Archer, 110, and Andy Nevarrete, 120.

Naomi Grijalva shot an 86 on the Phillips Country Club course to lead the HHS girls. Grijalva's score was also the low score for the group which included Amarillo High and the Borger JV.

Other Hereford scores were Paula

Britten, 103; Cecelia Albracht, 124; Dusty Saul, 124, and Stephanie Wall, 138, to give the Lady Whitefaces a 437 total.

Amarillo High had the low team score for the group at 404. Hallie Snyder carded a 90 to lead the Sandies. The Borger JV shot 429 for the day, led by Kelly Chester's 103.

Both Hereford teams return to action Saturday with the boys playing at Phillips CC and the girls at the Amarillo Air Base course.

HJH spikers 1-3 at Pampa

Hereford Junior High volleyball teams lost three of four matches Monday as they visited Pampa.

In the seventh grade "A" match, Pampa scored a 15-7, 15-3 win. Brooke Bryant led the Whitefaces with four service points in the first game while Kasi Reinart served all three Hereford points in the second game.

Hereford's only win came in the seventh grade "B" match as the Whitefaces downed the Harvesters, 15-5, 15-1. Diedra Whipple had five service points in the first game and Kelly Jowell led in the second game with six.

In the eighth grade matches, Pampa held on to win the "A" contest in three games, 14-16, 15-6, 16-14, and also took the "B" match, 18-16, 17-15.

Kara Sandoval served for 15 points in the "A" match, including 11 points in the first game. Michelle Brock led the Herd in the second game with three points. In the "B" match, Edna Valdez and Jenny Davis each served for six points in the first game while Jenny Parker and Audrey Tijerina each had five in the second game.

In freshman volleyball action, also at Pampa, Hereford scored a 15-8, 15-5 win over the Harvesters. The win moves the frosh to 4-0 in district play and 5-2 on the season.

Spikers whip Randall

The Hereford Whitefaces moved within a game of clinching their second straight volleyball playoff spot Saturday with a 15-10, 15-2 win at Randall.

The win gives the Herd a 21-4 season record and a 9-1 mark in District 1-4A, good for a tie for first place with Dumas. The next best record in the district is 6-4, a mark shared by Pampa and Borger. If either team loses another match, the Herd is assured of no worse than a tie for second place in the district. It would take a total collapse by Hereford combined with either Pampa or Borger winning the rest of its matches for the Herd to miss the playoffs.

Against Randall, Libby Kosub led with seven service points while Poppy Richardson had six, Shantel Cornelius and Candee Robbins each had five, Nikki Self had four and Jill West had three. All six Herd players recorded at least on service ace during the match, with Kosub getting four and Cornelius and Robbins two each.

Kosub also led in kills, with four, and Cornelius and West each had three. Richardson and Robbins added two apiece.

"It took us a little while to get the momentum on our side," Coach Brenda Rech said, "but once we did, we kept it throughout the rest of the match."

Rech added that the Herd had an efficient attack for the match.

"Our kill percentage was very high," she said. "We has 15 kills out of 33 good attacks. Hopefully, we can keep building our confidence with each match so we can get another shot at Dumas at the end of the season."

If a playoff is needed to decide the district championship, it will be played either Oct. 30 or 31. Rech said any playoff will be held at a neutral site, probably Randall.

Herd JV at Randall JV

The Hereford junior varsity ran its season record to 19-3 with a 15-3, 15-6 win over the Raiders. The Herd JV is 9-1 against district opponents.

Breck Binder and Jennifer Bullard each had seven service points to lead the Herd. Binder also added an ace during her service.

Junior varsity coach Lynn Gilbreath said the Herd turned in another good performance.

"We played a good match," she said. "In the second game, it took a while to gain the momentum. But when we got going, Randall only scored three more points on us."

The Herd will continue its four-match road swing tonight at Estacado. Hereford's next, and final home match of the season will be Oct. 24 against Levelland.

Harriers 2nd, 4th at Dumas

The Hereford Whiteface cross country teams strengthened their position in District 1-4A Saturday with strong showings at the Dumas Invitational meet.

The girls' varsity ran what may have been its best team race of the season, according to Coach Martha Emerson, taking second place in the standings behind Amarillo High.

Teresa Castillo finished the two-mile race in 13:19, good for fifth place. She was followed by Lisa Zepeda (13th place with a time of 13:46), Sally Garza (21st, 13:55), Veronica Hernandez (22nd, 13:56), Denise Davila (40th, 14:22), Minerva Salazar (54th, 14:39) and Jill Dutton (70th, 15:10). Hereford finished with 95 points, six behind Amarillo High and 24 ahead of Randall, the closest 1-4A team.

"This is the first time this year we have beaten Tascosa (third place with 104 points)," Emerson said, "and we came close to Amarillo High. We ran well and stayed ahead of our 4A competition."

The junior varsity girls also claimed second place behind Amarillo High, scoring 67 points to the Sandies' 63.

Juanita Lucio led the Herd with a second-place finish in 14:38 while Renee Banner was third just two seconds later. Other Hereford runners were Velma Garcia (20th, 15:25), Rachel Alaniz (21st, 15:29), Hope Flores (28th, 15:41) and Mandi Tijerina (31st, 15:53).

Hereford also entered a team of eighth grade girls in the JV division, led by Rita Soto who placed 23rd in 15:29. She was followed by Belinda Murillo (35th, 16:01), Fidelia Hernandez (51st, 16:36), Edna Valdez (52nd, 16:53), Rosie Davila (53rd, 16:57) and Rachel Martinez (55th, 17:06).

In the three-mile varsity boys race, Tim Stagner was the top Hereford finisher, placing ninth in 17:01. He was followed by Henry Ruiz (21st, 17:44), Juan Martinez (28th, 18:11), Raul Dominguez (30th, 18:25), Mike Lopez (35th, 18:44), Juan Gallegos (40th, 19:11) and Blas Cantu (48th, 19:38).

The Olympic marathon distance was roughly 40,000 meters until the 1908 games when it was changed to 42,195 meters or the present 26 miles, 385 yards.

The Herd finished fourth in the team standings with 105 points behind Amarillo High (31 points), Boys Ranch (44) and Randall (68).

"Tim ran very well again this week," Emerson said of Stagner. "I was very pleased with our second, third, fourth and fifth runners as well. We're getting closer together (at the finish line)."

In the boys' JV race, Hereford finished third behind Amarillo High and Boys Ranch. Armando Garza led with a seventh-place finish in 18:14. He was followed by Chris Hart (20th, 19:33), Eric Davis (25th, 20:17), Gabriel Liscano (27th, 20:59) and Chancy Bainum (28th, 21:09).

Home run king Hank Aaron hit almost as many homers on the road as at home. He connected for 380 at home and 375 on the road for a total of 755.

Oakland has SF in giant Series hole

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The San Francisco Giants will have a little more punch in their lineup for Game 3 of the World Series. Don Robinson is hitting.

He's also pitching, and that could be the problem.

The 6-foot-4 right-hander has a sore right knee and must wear a cumbersome knee brace.

"That's not a knee brace he's wearing, that's a Lawn Boy," said Giants pitcher Mike Krukow, who is missing the Series with an arm injury.

A lot is riding on Game 3, scheduled to start at 5:35 p.m. PDT today.

Robinson will be opposed by Oakland's Bob Welch as the A's try to take a 3-0 lead in the best-of-7 Series.

Welch is 19-4 lifetime against San Francisco, including 6-0 with a 2.35 earned-run average at Candlestick. All that came when Welch pitched for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1978-87.

In the first two games, the Giants managed only nine hits in 62 at-bats, with none in 11 opportunities with runners in scoring position. They had very little success hitting the split-finger pitch off Dave Stewart and Mike Moore.

The Giants managed only one run in the first two games, and the last time that happened in the World Series was by Philadelphia in 1950.

The designated hitter rule is not being used in the National League park, so Robinson will get to swing at Candlestick.

"Don Robinson is one of the best hitting pitchers I've ever faced," Krukow said. "You can't just throw down the middle when he's hitting."

Robinson hit three homers this season and has 11 in his career. He's such a good hitter that Philadelphia gave him an intentional walk on June 22, 1984.

"Don Robinson is a good hitter, and I would let him bat in a close situation," Giants manager Roger Craig said.

"I've seen comebacks before," Robinson said. "I was down 3-1 with the Pirates (in 1979). I'm looking forward to going to our park and playing by National League rules. I get to hit and that's an advantage for us. They'll have to pitch to (Jose) Uribe and at no time this year did anyone walk him to get to me."

Robinson was mad when Craig chose Mike LaCoss to start Game 3 of the NL playoffs, but the manager was concerned that Robinson wouldn't make it very far. That concern still exists.

"We'll wait and see what happens," Craig said. "I see no reason why he can't go out and throw 85 to 100 pitches. The one thing about Don Robinson is he's got the perfect makeup for a pitcher

- he's a great competitor, and he'll battle you all the way."

Welch isn't counting on his past performances against the Giants to mean anything.

"I know my record at Candlestick is good, but I can't pinpoint why. I just happened to pitch good games against them," Welch said. "I could be 10-0 here and it wouldn't matter once I go out on the field."

Welch came to Oakland in a three-way deal involving the New York Mets and the Dodgers prior to the 1987 season, and is 34-17 in two seasons.

Welch doesn't throw as hard as he did 11 years ago, but he's a complete pitcher now.

In 1978, Welch, then a rookie, struck out the New York Yankees' Reggie Jackson to win Game 2 for the Dodgers. But Reggie hit one into the seats in Game 6 off Welch.

Robinson pitched in the 1979 World Series for Pittsburgh against Baltimore.

Both pitchers are back, although a little worn, a decade later.

Robinson began his career as a starter with Pittsburgh and moved to the bullpen in 1983.

The Giants acquired Robinson on July 31, 1987, for catcher Mackey Sasser and Craig made him a starter again last season.

Robinson was 12-11 this year with a 3.43 earned-run average.

He hurt his right knee in a start against Cincinnati in September.

Walker able to smile again with Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - It's wonderful what a change in scenery can do for a fellow. Herschel Walker testifies to that.

"I can smile now and really mean it. Before, you sort of made yourself smile," Walker said.

What he was smiling about was his new work place, with the Minnesota Vikings.

"This feels absolutely great. Sort of like now you just want to stick your chest out and walk around with a lot of pride."

He could well stick out his chest after what he and his new teammates did Sunday to the Green Bay Packers.

For the first time in six weeks this season and only the second time in his last 18 games, Walker was a winner.

It took a change of colors - from Dallas blue to Minnesota purple - for football to be a source of pride again for Walker, who was the center of a blockbuster trade Thursday that sent five players and up to seven draft choices to the Cowboys.

In his Minnesota debut, Walker ran for 148 yards, leading the Vikings to a 26-14 victory.

By escaping Dallas, which lost without him Sunday to fall to 0-6, he also escaped the pass-happy philosophy of Cowboys coach Jimmy Johnson.

Walker said Johnson's offense encouraged him to run "soft," something he definitely didn't do Sunday for the Vikings.

"Today I ran the ball the way I've been saying Herschel's gotta run," Walker said after becoming the first Viking in two years to reach 100 yards. "In Dallas they wanted me to run a little bit what they call softer, but that's not my style of running."

"My style is hitting the hole and going with it and not really worrying about what's going to happen. They kept saying they wanted Herschel to change his style a little bit."

Walker's style was certainly effective against the Packers. He averaged 8.2 yards on 18 carries.

"Herschel Walker is the running machine. Unbelievable," center Kirk Lowdermilk said. "Give him a crack and he'll go."

Vikings coach Jerry Burns hadn't anticipated giving Walker so much work. But after his new star went 51 yards with a kickoff the first time he touched the ball and 47 yards on his first play from scrimmage, "I changed my mind."

"I'm not the smartest guy, but I'm not a complete idiot, either," said Burns, who gave Walker the day off Monday to return to Dallas and clear up some personal matters.

Football was fun again Sunday for Walker.

"Here, I just felt this is football," he said. "It's a lot of fun."

It was fun to run like Herschel Walker again. It was fun to run behind a good offensive line and two of the best blocking fullbacks in the NFL, Rick Fenney and Alfred Anderson. Mostly, it was fun to win again.

Even as he rushed for an NFL-leading 1,514 yards last year, the Cowboys were going 3-13, with 11 losses in their last 12 games. The bad season and a change in team ownership cost Tom Landry - who, unlike Johnson, featured Walker in his offense - his job.

"Everybody wants to be on a contender," said Walker, who contemplated the trade for a week before accepting it. "You play football to win, you don't just go out to compete. With a team like this, we can win. We already have won one that I've been in on."

Without Walker, the Cowboys played San Francisco even for three quarters before losing 31-14. Dallas rushed for 46 yards - 1 yard less than Walker got on his very first carry for the Vikings.

"I saw the scoreboard. I kept looking up there to see what Dallas was doing," Walker said. "They're still having a tough time."

"It would be fun to call them and say, 'You all should have come here with me.'"

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (AP) - The miraculous followed the mundane for the Buffalo Bills' offense.

Bills followers expected little of quarterback Frank Reich, a four-year backup making his first NFL start in place of the injured Jim Kelly. For much of the game, they weren't disappointed, because little is what they got.

Reich underthrew and overthrew his way to a 5-for-15 passing performance in the first half, and the Bills generated as much firepower as a damp firecracker.

But Reich the wreck became Reich the redeemer in leading Buffalo to a stunning 23-20 victory over the Los Angeles Rams Monday night, knocking off the NFL's last remaining unbeaten.

Coach Marv Levy, who withstood many calls to find a better backup for Kelly, said he knew all along that Reich had the composure to be an effective pro quarterback.

"You never go wrong going with a player with great character because he can overcome a lot of things. And Frank Reich has that."

Reich kept his composure even after the chilly start and a demoralizing touchdown reception by the Rams' Willie Anderson that seemed to give Los Angeles a 20-16 victory with less than two minutes to play in the game.

The Anderson pass from Jim Everett restored the lead to a Rams team that had held it until a 1-yard touchdown pass from Reich to Thurman Thomas put Buffalo ahead 16-13 with 2:23 left in the game.

On the Los Angeles sideline, there was a feeling that the Everett-to-Anderson bomb had saved the Rams in a game that was much closer than most had predicted.

"We thought we were magicians," Rams defensive back LeRoy Irvin said. "We thought we had pulled one out of the hat."

On the Buffalo sideline, a depressed defense was met by an upbeat Reich.

"Right after the Rams scored that touchdown, the defense came off and they didn't look too happy," Reich said. "But we gave them a vote of confidence. We really felt we were going to go down and score. That's what we told the defense going off."

What followed was a story line fit for a Disney movie.

With 1:17 to play, Reich, feeding off the success he had suddenly found in the previous drive of 80 yards that led to the Thomas score, marched the Bills 64 yards downfield.

He completed seven straight passes, ending the drive by hitting Andre Reed from eight yards for a touchdown with 16 seconds left. Reich hit 16 of 22 passes in the second half.

All of this was accomplished, Reich said, despite a dislocated finger on his throwing hand that happened in the third quarter.

"Even right now I don't have feeling in it," he said. "That's why I was throwing the ball on the sidelines. I was continually throwing because I was trying to block out the pain."

The Rams were stunned. "You make a play like my touchdown, you feel like you won a ballgame," Anderson said. "We were celebrating, but then they came back and it really hurt to watch. It hurt a lot."

Overshadowed by Reich's heroics was a magnificent effort by a Bills defense that has been accused of living off its reputation of last year. With the exception of the Anderson touchdown, the defense "played, no question, their best game of the season," Levy said.

The Rams' offense, No. 4 statistically in the NFL, was limited to 266 yards. Greg Bell, the NFL's No. 2 rusher, ran for 44 yards in 22 carries.

"We hadn't been playing together and we knew it, so we had a meeting and talked it over," Bills nose tackle Fred Smerlas said. "What you saw tonight was the real Buffalo Bills defense. We were rockin' and rollin', that's the kind of 'D' we can play."

Rams coach John Robinson, whose team is now 5-1, said the loss could prove beneficial to his team in the long run.

"We are a football team that, I think, will be there in the end and we've got to be ... in a few more of these kind of games," he said.

Bills beat Rams, 23-20

'Pokes' Irvin out for year

IRVING (AP) - A knee injury suffered by Michael Irvin has dealt a severe blow to the Dallas Cowboys passing game.

Irvin, the Cowboys' No. 1 draft pick in 1988, is out for the rest of the season after he tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee in the third quarter of Dallas' 31-14 loss to the San Francisco 49ers on Sunday.

Coach Jimmy Johnson said Monday that Irvin will be placed on injured reserve and will have surgery, though no date has been set.

"We just started to do the things I wanted to do on offense," Irvin said. "It's tough. It's tough on everybody. It's just something I have to work through."

The time Irvin will need to recover is "anywhere from nine to 12 months," according to Cowboys trainer Kevin O'Neil.

Irvin was leading the team in receiving with 26 catches for 378 yards and two touchdowns. Last year, his 20.4 yards average was the highest of any Cowboy since 1981 when Tony Hill averaged 20.7.

"I hate to see that because he was really starting to fit into the offense," Johnson said.

James Dixon, Derrick Shepard or Bernard Ford, released by Buffalo in the pre-season and soon to be on Dallas' active roster, will replace Irvin. All three will see playing time, Johnson said.

Irvin was injured on the 10th play of the third quarter when quarterback Steve Walsh threw to Irvin in the right corner of the end zone. Irvin collided with 49ers cornerback Darryl Pollard.

Make curried shrimp in three steps

Don't let the length of the ingredient list keep you from making this terrific tasting skillet meal. The ingredients are added in just three steps and you can mix, cook and serve in the same skillet. To shorten preparation time, look for ingredients in the form you need them: already peeled, cleaned shrimp; bottled minced garlic; packaged slivered almonds.

CURRY SHRIMP CREOLE

- 12 ounces fresh or frozen peeled and deveined shrimp
- 2 tablespoons cooking oil
- 2 medium onions, chopped (1 cup)
- 1 medium green pepper, cut into 1-inch pieces

- One 16-ounce can tomatoes, cut up, undrained
- 1/2 cup slivered almonds
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/4 cup snipped parsley
- 1/4 cup chili sauce
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon bottled hot pepper

- sauce

HOME COSTS

BOUND BROOK, N.J. (AP) - Nothing lasts forever - as every homeowner knows.

But a knowledge of home maintenance costs, and the life-span of various things around the house, can help in planning family budgets.

Kenneth Austin, chairman of HouseMaster of America, a home inspection service, says there is a simple guide for predicting yearly costs of routine home maintenance, excluding major problems.

Upkeep should run from 1 to 3 percent of the home's sale price, says Austin, depending on its age, design and degree of prior maintenance. For example, if a house cost $110,000, maintenance should range from $1,100 to $3,300 annually.

Three-step entree

Curry shrimp creole takes just three steps to mix, cook and serve from the skillet. You can make the rice while this dish cooks on the top of the stove.

Weemes gives demonstration

Members of the Citizens 4-H Club met Thursday evening for a business session and programs.

For the outdoor enthusiasts, Tommy Weemes gave a remote control airplane demonstration on his "landing strip" located west of Hereford. He has been flying his airplanes since childhood and now competes nationwide with his self-designed planes. 4-H club members and parents were present.

Color analysis was the theme for the program held at the Community Center. Becky Horton worked with several girls experimenting with colors that enhanced their natural coloring. Gifts of appreciation were presented to the speakers by the club.

During the business session, 4-H calendars, which were donated by George Warner Seed Co., were distributed and telephone committees were set-up. Also, information for the upcoming Food and Nutrition Show and the Livestock Show was given and plans were made to tie-dye T-shirts at the next club meeting set Nov. 9.

WTSU schedules string quartet concert

The Harrington String Quartet will open its 1989-90 recital series Sunday Oct. 29 in the Concert Hall on the Amarillo College campus. The concert, based on a Russian theme, begins at 7:30 p.m.

Recital selections include "Quartet in E Flat Major" by Hayden, Quartet No. 8" by Shostakovich and "Quartet No. 2" by Borodin.

"All the selections were either written by Russians or were composed for Russian czars," Dawn Harms, first violin, said. "We hope to incorporate some kind of theme into all of our performances this year."

Since its establishment in 1981, the quartet has toured the United States and England, won the grand prize at the 1987 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition and performed a live national concert on Chicago's public radio station, WFMT. The quartet has collaborated in chamber music performances with many renowned artists including Kazuhide Isomura, violist of the Tokyo Quartet, and Lee Luvisl, pianist with the Chamber Music Society of New York's Lincoln Center. The quartet added to an already impressive list of accomplishments last year with rave reviews of its Oct. 12 New York debut performances.

In addition to chamber music competitions, recitals and concerts, members of the quartet are principal chairs in the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra and studio instructors in the West Texas State University department of music.

Members of the Harrington String Quartet are Dawn Harms, first violin; Jim Lyon, second violin; Amy Brandfonbrener, Viola; and newest member Christopher Costanza, cello.

The quartet has also scheduled Amarillo performances for Feb. 25 and May 6.

Tickets to the Oct. 29 concert may be purchased for $5 per person in advance or at the door the night of the performance.

For more information, contact the WTSU College of Fine Arts and Humanities at 656-2777.

Giving demonstration

Tommy Weemes gave a remote control airplane demonstration recently for members of the Citizens 4-H Club and their parents. Weemes competes nationwide with his self-designed planes. Examining the plane are Dominique Guerrero and Christopher Hendershot.

Pesto flavors pasta salad

By NANCY BYAL
 Better Homes and Gardens Magazine
 Food Editor

Next to garlic, the Italian seasoning I use most is pesto: a paste of basil, parsley, garlic, oil, nuts and Parmesan cheese. A little dab is delicious on fish, chicken or steak, or tossed with pasta or vegetables. Many gardeners grow basil and make their own pesto. I also like the commercial pesto that's sold in the refrigerator case in my supermarket.

This salad won raves from our tasters at Better Homes and Gardens as the best tortellini salad ever. What did they like best about it? You guessed it - the pesto-seasoned dressing.

FAVORITE TORTELLINI SALAD

One 7-ounce package frozen cheese tortellini or 3 1/2 ounces (2 cups) dried cheese tortellini

- 1 small red sweet pepper, cut into thin, bite-size strips
- 3/4 cup broccoli flowerets
- 1 small carrot, thinly sliced
- 1-3rd cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives or ripe olives
- 3/4 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
- 1-3rd cup purchased pesto sauce
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 tablespoon olive oil or cooking oil

- 1 teaspoon vinegar
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 clove garlic, minced (optional)
 - Fresh spinach leaves
- Cook tortellini according to package directions; drain. Rinse with cold water; drain well. In a large mixing bowl combine tortellini, sweet pepper, broccoli, carrot and olives.

For dressing, in a small mixing bowl stir together mayonnaise or salad dressing, pesto sauce, milk, cheese, oil, vinegar, pepper and garlic. Pour dressing over tortellini mixture; toss lightly until well mixed. Cover and chill at least 5 hours. Serve in a spinach-lined bowl. Makes 8 side-dish servings.

Ham and pecan pasta salad

Bow tie pasta is combined with strips of ham, crumbled blue cheese and broken pecans for a warm salad with a tangy taste.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm sitting alone tonight thinking that suicide would be easier than living now that my husband is dead. It has been 14 months since Ed's sudden death. He was 55.

We were married 37 years and did everything together. Ed's funeral was the biggest the town had ever seen. But where are all those people now? The couples we socialized with for years have dropped me like a hot potato. Don't they realize that I'm still the same person, only now I don't have Ed?

I joined a golf club. I volunteer one day a week at the hospital. But in the lonely hours I wonder what is the matter with me that no one invites me anywhere.

I went with a female friend to a couple of singles parties, and we both felt out of place and would never go again. I've considered putting an ad in the stopping news to find a male companion to go to the movie with, or out to dinner. I love to dance, but I won't go to a ballroom alone. Men my age want younger girls.

Ann, I'm ready to give up. Can you help me turn my life around? -- Cleveland

DEAR CLEVELAND: Unfortunately, dear, the world is not waiting to entertain and "include" widows. Most people are busy with their own lives.

Have you thought of giving some parties for your old friends? Nothing fancy -- Sunday hotdogs and baked beans -- TV football viewing get-togethers, anything to get a group together. And don't fail to include three or four extra men. Or, make the first move and invite an unattached man over for a home-cooked meal. Buy an extra ticket to a play or movie or concert and pick up the phone. This sort of thing is no longer considered out of line. What is needed is some positive forward movement on your part.

Have you joined AARP, the American Association of Retired Persons? (Inquire about their Widowed Person's Service.) Cleveland has a fine program. The bottom line is, go for it, and please let me know how you do.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have read your column since 1965. Over the years, I have noticed a reference that appears every few months, and it bothers the daylights out of me. I'm surprised that it gets by you so often because you are a pretty sharp cookie.

It appeared again in yesterday's Salt Lake Tribune, and I'm not going to let this day go by without calling it to your attention. The woman wrote, "I knew my married lover would never marry me. He is a devout Catholic." Ann, a DEVOUT Catholic does not fool around.

It bothers me to read such a statement, and I'm not even a Catholic. Please be aware that cheating and devout do not go together. -- A Fan in Utah

DEAR UTAH: Of course you are right. It's so obvious I don't know how I missed it. Thanks for the wake-up call. You will not see that gaffe in my column again.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You printed a letter about a respected family man who had an accident, was brought into an emergency room and the nurse and doctor who undressed him found that he was wearing women's panties. You assumed he was a little kinky.

Wait a damned minute. My aunt was a terrible housekeeper. Her laundry piled up for weeks at a time. When Uncle Claude was out of underwear he wore hers. -- Riverside, Calif.

Organization disbands

The Hereford Panhellenic Association met Oct. 9 in the Community Center for its fall meeting with a discussion from officers given for disbanding the association.

The disbanding was due to the lack of interest shown by the area. President Gaye Reily noted that any sorority alumnae wishing to regroup the association can contact her for details. She also said that Marsha Winget can be contacted by college-bound senior girls for information concerning the rush process.

President Reily conducted a brief business session where reports were heard from secretary-treasurer Judy McCarter and rush chairman Kim Buckley. Also, present was vice president Melinda Bridge.

Buckley noted that some Hereford collegians have recently pledged sororities. They include: Brenda Allen, Sigma Kappa at Angelo State University; Julie Allison, Alpha Xi Delta at the University of Texas; and Dana Zinser, Kappa Delta at UT.

Buckley noted that other area collegians may have pledged sororities at various colleges, but information was not available by meeting time.

Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

Examining door prizes

The public is invited to participate in a benefit Walk-a-thon for Holly King from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 22, at Sugarland Mall. Prizes, donated by several Hereford businesses, will be awarded to those who collect the most money for the Holly King Fund. There will be a concession stand set-up at the mall and bake goods will be for sale during the event which is being sponsored by the Caring and Sharing Group from St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Looking at some of the prizes to be given are, from left, Annette Albracht, Valerie Artho, Stephanie Jesko and Jessica Artho.

ATLANTA (AP) - In 1988, U.S. manufacturers produced 38.4 million tons of paper.

That was enough to supply more than two tons to every person living in the state of New York, says Georgia-Pacific Corp., a pulp and paper product company.

Some 36.9 million tons were produced in 1987. Of the paper produced in 1988, 5.9 million tons were for newsprint and 5.4 million tons were for tissue paper.

In 1914, the first electric traffic lights were installed in Cleveland, Ohio.

The cornerstone was laid for the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor in 1884.
