Sights and Faces Seen

The weather may have effectively squelched that "springy" feeling in the older generation, but it is still warm enough for the kids at Central School to play baseball. No less than eight games were in progress at noon one day this week.

F. H. Obertheir expressed the feeling of many Hereford citizens when he turned away from the radio Tuesday with the remark that he didn't like to hear the news any more.

Miss Ellen Bowsher is now working for Mrs. Dorothy Ross at the Hereford Retail Credit Association.

One of the prettiest yards in Hereford--that of Mrs. J. P. Slavin. The tulips are now in bloom.

Mrs. Barbara Roles is now employed as bookkeeper and cashier at the Texas-New Mexico Utilities Company office.

Firemen's wives and families are thinking of getting up a petition against any more fire alarms at two o'clock in the morning. Besides the mental anguish caused by arising at such a queer hour, there is the trouble occasioned by trying to find out if an alarm really did ring, but to mention the bruises caused by hurried trips around a dark house. Mrs. Jimmie Robinson says that it took the whole family to get Jimmie out to his fire fighting Monday morning.

Phil Radovich has completed remodeling job on the Chocolate Shop this week. A new paint job in ivory and black makes a very attractive interior.

The fellow that asked "Why was I Born?" was a sissy. After all there might be a lot of good reasons. But to ask "Was I Born?" and try to prove it in the affirmative, is a different matter as a lot of people have discovered. With birth certificates being demanded for many jobs, the county clerk's office, church rolls and family Bibles are being called into play to (Continued on Page 10)

Chamber Of Commerce Board Unanimously Votes To Send Exhibit To Texas State Fair

The Board of Directors of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce in a meeting Monday night, unanimously voted to go forward with plans for Hereford's bigger and better exhibit at the 1941 State Fair of Texas.

The enthusiasm of the Hereford directors is caused by the splendid reception given the Hereford exhibit at the Dallas fair last fall and by the fact that the exposition will give Hereford a frontage of 45 feet this year as compared with 15 feet at the 1940 fair.

The keynote of the Hereford exhibit will be in a mural eight feet high which will stretch along the full length of the booth and which will provide in picture form a digest of the story of the Hereford area. Beginning with the pre-historic era, the mural will continue with pictures of the Indian and buffalo, followed by the Texas cowboy and longhorn cattle, and then by a better development of beef cattle. Heralding the coming of agriculture, it will show the big wheat fields and the grain surpluses, and will end with a picture of irrigation and diversified farming.

Funeral Held, Mrs. Bennett

Funeral services for Mrs. L. J. Bennett, 76, who died on April 16, were held last Thursday at the Methodist Church with the Rev. M. E. Norwood officiating. Clark of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Don Kelly of Glendale, Calif.; and two sisters, Miss Oleta Bigelow of Long-beach and Mrs. Ross Douglas of Chicago.

Farm Bureau To Meet May 1

A meeting of the farm bureau Saturday at the district courtroom set May 1, at 2:30 o'clock, as the date for the next meeting of the group at which time the county organization will be perfected.

Jim Hill, county chairman, wishes all officers elected at the community meetings to attend this general meeting.

Mr. Hill, in announcing the meeting, said, "If all the farmers realized that the only purpose of this farm bureau movement is to secure the increased prices which farmers want for their products, our meetings would be better attended. You have all seen the advantages which other groups in this country are able to exercise simply because they are organized. We want to acquaint Deaf Smith County farmers with the advantages of presenting a united front on farm problems. If we want better prices we'll simply have to stand together to get them."

Boy Scouts Make Visit To Dairy

An introduction to a local industry was provided for 29 boy scouts, member of troop 1, this week, when they hiked to the Cream O' Plains dairy.

Dick Walker, manager of the dairy, showed the boys over the plant, explaining to them the various health measures required by the state and the reasons for these precautions. The pasteurization process and the cooling and bottling of the milk were demonstrated for the scouts.

"We think that trips such as this one are a great help in getting the boys to know their own community and the work being done here," said scoutmaster Urlin Streu.

Troop 1 will go swimming at the college pool in Canyon on Friday night. They will leave Hereford at 5 o'clock.

Pitman Explains Allotment Plan

Deaf Smith County farmers will vote May 31 on the annual wheat marketing quota. J. A. Pitman, chairman of the county AAA committee, in announcing the election, explained the purpose and advantages of the allotment plan to both wheat growers and consumers, saying that the plan is designed to insure plenty of wheat for every probable demand by consumers in this country and abroad.

Further explanation revealed that wheat quotas may be proclaimed only when the total supply of wheat exceeds a normal year's domestic consumption and exports by more than 35 per cent. With practically all exports shut off by the military blockade, there will be almost two bushels of wheat on hand for every one which is likely to be consumed this year in the United States.

In view of this supply, marketing quotas are necessary to protect the income of all wheat farmers, Mr. Pitman declared. In the last two years, the wheat program, principally the loan, has held the United States wheat price 30 to 40 cents above the world price. However, on the face of the large supply in prospect for the coming year, the loan needs the added protection of the marketing quota, he said. Because loans on an uncontrolled surplus would involve too much risk, they are prohibited by law when a wheat marketing quota is voted down.

If the quota is approved, farmers will be able to sell with- (Continued on Page 10)

Mr. Elkins, who first came to Deaf Smith County in 1887, and who was known in the early days as a "top" cowhand, was born in Parker County in January 8, 1861. He was married at Thorpe Springs in 1882, and after a few years spent in the Hereford vicinity, moved to New Mexico where he lived until 1926 when he returned to Hereford. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mr. Elkins is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Elkins; a son, W. C. Elkins of Ende, N. M.; three daughters, Mrs. J. M. Purcell of Ende, N. M.; Mrs. J. M. Hedgecock of Tocona; and Mrs. Annie Smithers of Hereford; 12 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, six brothers and six sisters.

Mr. Wright, who has been employed by the feed company for more than 16 years, said that increased stocks and a larger variety of merchandise will be featured in an effort to give the people of this community one of the most complete grain stores in West Texas.

Mr. Byrnes and Mr. Kearns are widely known here through their activities in the grain business at Dimmitt, where they are manufacturing feed for poultry, dairy cattle, hogs, and livestock. Their featured lines, "Castro Premium" and "Texas Pride," will be sold through the local store. They pointed out that in addition to being a well balanced feed, they are also made from grains grown in this territory and that substantial savings may be had on freight alone.

As in the past, the firm will sell Merit Feeds, garden seeds, field seeds of all kinds, minerals, baby chicks, and other items in the feed store line.

The meeting will include reports from committees on business for the past year, the election of a board of directors for the coming year and the showing of a free picture "Power and the Land."

The local R. E. A. project is one of the two largest in the United States, based on a consideration of total investment, average load and the amount of three phase line in use. The R. E. A. properties in the Deaf Smith County project represent an investment of nearly a half million dollars, with over 80 miles of three phase line and 376 miles of single phase line in use. The annual meeting serves to acquaint members with the progress of the R. E. A., and through election of a board of directors, to determine its general policies for the coming year.

A nominating committee has been appointed by the present directors and the committee has submitted a group of names for members to vote on in the Wednesday election. Mr. Hennen emphasizes that these names are not necessarily the only ones (Continued on page 10)

IT STAYS SILENT... LASTS LONGER

SERVEL GAS REFRIGERATOR

HAS IT ever struck you that there must be a mighty good reason why so many people are changing from other makes to the Gas Refrigerator? There is! And it's that Servel alone offers users the operating advantages of a freezing system with NO MOVING PARTS.

No Clothespin on this Car's Nose!

Buick SPECIAL, 6-passenger Sedan, $1006. White sidewall tires extra!

WOULDN'T a sprinter or a long-distance runner look silly trying to race with a clothespin firmly clamped on his nose?

Yet, in a sense, something fairly close to that happens in nearly every car that lacks Buick's sensational Compound Carburetion.

For your engine has to breathe in huge quantities of air to be mixed with gasoline before it is burned in the cylinders.

But single-carburetor fuel supply systems can handle only a given volume of air.

To that extent, then, an ordinary engine has a clothespin on its nose—a limitation on air supply for big power operation.

Optional equipment on the Buick SPECIAL, standard on all other models.

We remove that clothespin very simply—by having two carburetors; one that handles all casual driving smoothly and efficiently, another to jump in with more air and more fuel when you call for extra power by stepping on the gas treadle!

Simple? Very simple indeed.

And simply marvelous in the extra FIREBALL wallop it gives you and in the gas savings you get—as much as 10% to 15% over previous Buicks with the same-size engines.

Maybe you'd better go see your Buick dealer now.

Texas Slang Mystery to Out-of-Staters

Lubbock—"Sure 'nuff, you-all" may be such a common expression in Texas that people think is the backbone of the King's English, but Texas Tech Students found themselves self-consciously repeating it for the redulous ears of girls from northern and western states who are delegates to the Intercollegiate Association of Women students conference on the campus last week.

Other words which the visitors could not understand or which they wanted to hear again and again included "howdy" and "anste." The word "carry" used the sense of taking or transporting people places was novel, most of the out-of-state girls, "walk" from class, when the professor does not come or dismisses it, was unheard of among the delegates.

One girl inquired if all cowboys were named "Hi-pockets" after meeting Elbert "Hi-pockets" Overton, student who led a cowboy band at the chuck wagon supper which was a highlight of the conference. Another inquired the "cute" words he had called square dances which were demonstrated at the supper, and wondered how he made them all up as he went, until she was informed that they were stonary.

The Texas "Boys or dates" rather than "fellows" caused such comment between the pups of girls who were accused to one or the other, "making" as a term for going with someone besides one's body boy friend needed much explanation, to the visitors.

Anklets were known as "bob-socks" to the out-of-staters to "put up their hair" instead of rolling or pinning it up at night.

Continuing Mrs. Clark said, "A few years ago Hortense Odium was a busy housewife whose chief concern was her children and the exacting job of making a home. Then almost overnight she was plunged into the very center of a whirling business concern in a large city. Her husband had come into control of Bonwit Teller and Company, a famous New York department store, which was lagging behind in profits. A new viewpoint was needed and the task was turned over to Mrs. Odium. Before long she was installed as president of the company, which position she still holds." Again, it is time to split a few infinitives and I can't think of anything but the rain and the war. These showers are making me very happy, while the Grecian Campaign is making me decidedly unhappy - and I guess almost everyone around here is in the same shape.

H. D. Robbins says Chas. Williams sure is slipping. During the past week or so scores of loaded feed trucks have been parking along Third Street parallel to the First State Bank and much of the feed is falling off the trucks along the curb. Mr. Robbins figures that Mr. Williams should have at least two head of cattle out to consume this extra feed. However, if the trucks keep on parking there, Miles Roberson may hobble a couple of his horses to graze along the curb.

A new wrinkle must have been developed in the old fashioned square dance, according to F. M. Kester. Mark Houser went in the other day to have his glasses mended and said that while practicing the square dance at the Firemen's Hall he accidentally caught his glasses in a girl's hair and broke them. Some rug-cutting.

Rumor has it that a meeting of "Scouters" eventually resulted in a lengthy argument. These Scouters are men who are working with the boys and this particular argument occurred last week at Alton Miller's house. It seems that one among the group reported that cats only make two tracks. Well, it might be the truth, but they never did convince John McLean. John contended all night that cats should make four tracks, because they have four feet. I didn't hear the argument, but maybe cats step in only two tracks. I don't know, but I will side in with John, McLean. It seems only logical that a cat should make four tracks - and I'll have to be shown before I admit anything.

Cats are peculiar, anyway. A mother cat had four baby kittens in The Brand office about two years ago and J. E. Whitlow wanted some cats at his elevator, so we gave them to him. He carried them off in his car and next morning when we came down to open up, there stood the old mother cat with a kitten in her mouth. She brought all four of them back - and Whitlow obligingly hauled them back to the elevator. The second morning she brought them all back again. Whit gave up and bought some mouse traps.

Have you seen any of these new, square-toed shoes for kids? Sank Ramey and Mark Hanna were in Penney's the other morning and noticing the shoes, they got to talking about the old time brass-cap boots boys used to wear. Both said they wore this type of shoe in their younger days. Mark says he has a picture made when he was a small, chubby lad and that he wore a pair of these boots in the picture. He also said it was a long, long time ago and Sank agreed 100 per cent.

Maybe they are joking, but Bill Davis and J. C. McCracken say they are going to plant some carrots this year. John Patton said he heard of a fellow who was going to plant 1,000 acres. S. O. Wilson says last year he grew a carrot as large around as Roll call bringing out interesting comments on the North Star, laid the foundation for two book reviews dealing with life in the northwestern part of the United States, at the meeting held by the Lone Star Study Club Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jim Williams was hostess with Mrs. Ralph Smith assisting.

The books reviewed were "Powder River" by Struthers Burt and "Children of God" by Vars Fisher.

"Powder River" is a story about the Powder River country in Wyoming. It deals with the fight for grasslands between the Indians and the whites. In reviewing the book Mrs. Orpha Clark traced the agricultural development of Wyoming and development of Yellowstone National Park.

Mrs. Earl Phillips gave the name of "Children of God," which was a Harper Prize Novel, is a dramatic story of the hardships in which the reader is tried breathlessly along from beginning with prophetic visions in New York, through all the stages of the westward trek to Utah, and then through the dictatorship of Brigham Young and into the territories.

The two next meetings scheduled in the year books will be on May 13 as a final program for the year. A luncheon will be held and reports given.

Breakfast Given For Club Members and Other Guests

Mrs. Jimmie Gilentine was hostess at a bridge-breakfast Wednesday morning as a courtesy to members and guests of the Wednesday Luncheon Club.

Vivid colors, suggested by a green bowl filled with bright red tulips in the center of the table, were used in decorations and appointments.

Places were laid for eight at the large dining table with Fiesta table service in green, yellow, blue, old ivory and red emphasizing attractive color effects. Place cards, which were later used as tallies for the games, repeated the same color accents.

Mrs. Meade Halle was winner of the high score prize in the bridge games.

Enjoying the breakfast were Mesdames Oscar Easley, J. C. McCracken, Seth B. Holman, David Rodgers, Meade Halle, G. R. Lunsford, A. R. Bateman and Knox Kinard.

Tri-Hi-Y Presents "Five Portraits"

The Tri-Hi-Y Girls presented a play, "The Five Portraits," Tuesday in assembly. The development of a fine character and personality in order that success can be attainable was the theme of the play. The theme was carried out by an artist's five portraits coming to life and giving his part of the requisites of a fine character based upon a firm foundation. The artist had just finished his last masterpiece and had sat down to rest. After his wife covered him with a blanket, he awoke to find the portraits had come to life. Each painting told his phase of a fine character; and the artist, thinking that he had gained the fame that he desired, fell asleep in death. His wife entered; and finding him dead, she wept and turned to his last masterpiece and there found a painting in which all of the characteristics were represented.

The characters in the play were: the proogue—Vesta Mae Landers, artist—Rena Rae Renfro, and his wife—Jane Wilson. The characters from the portraits were: poet—Troyce Stambaugh, soloist—Lillie London and speaker for the soloist—Kathryn Acker, boy friend—Betty Jo Kendall, girl friend—Nona Deen Rose, artist—Kathryn Baize, worker—Ruth Temple Hastings, pilot—Nadyne Newell, nurse—LaNelle Farmer, light-heartedness—Rachel Ireland, boy—Mattie Lawhon, and girl—Mary Ellen Henslee.

Robert Elliston Wins Columbus Medal At Regional Meet

Robert Owen Elliston won first place in the Regional Spanish contest in Canyon Saturday. Robert, who is one of the youngest members of H. H. S. won this honor over second year Spanish people from Lamesa, Crowell, Lubbock, and Amarillo.

He received a Columbus medal, given by the American Association of Spanish Teachers to the best Spanish students of the country. The Associations also give a Cervantes medal to the first and second place winners in the district and to the second place winner of the region.

Students are chosen by the grades that they make on a test that consists of a test on grammar, an original composition, and dictation.

To County and Local School Superintendents:

Since a recent survey by the State Department of Education shows that the schools of this state are changing to the twelve-grade system in ever increasing numbers; and

Since at a state-wide meeting of superintendents in the City of Temple on April 10, the twelve-grade system was endorsed by an overwhelming majority; and

Since we believe that this type of organization is for the best interest of the school children of Texas; and

Since we can no longer operate efficiently and effectively a system of schools in which there exists two distinct types of organization; and

Since the State Board of Education has officially recognized the Twelve-Grade System by adopting textbooks for that type of organization,

I hereby officially announce that the recognized pattern for Texas public schools is an elementary school of eight grades, followed by the standard four-year high school. May I ask you to work with your school boards in putting this plan into execution in your respective districts as soon as possible?

This pattern may be changed to a six-grade elementary school, a three-year junior high school, and a three-year senior high school for those who desire the junior high school unit.

Suggestive plans of procedure are attached hereto.

Signed:
L. A. WOODS
State Superintendent

Glee Club Serves Meal To Raise Money For National Trip To Waco

How did you enjoy the breakfast the Glee Club girls gave Saturday morning at the Methodist Church? The meal was held to raise money to send the girls to Waco. The mothers and the girls worked together and it was a successful affair. The mothers cooked, some girls served, some acted as hostesses and still others were on the transportation committee. Nearly one hundred twenty-five people attended the breakfast and were served pineapple juice, eggs, bacon, toast, butter, jelly and coffee.

The Glee Club also sponsored a bake sale Saturday. The foods for sale were cakes, pies, chickens, cream and eggs. The bake sale "went over in a big way."

Ware Makes Brilliant Record At T. C. U.

Last year Coach Tommy McCollum resigned to go to Levelland to become principal of the high school of that city. Hereford then employed Mac Best, a graduate of T. C. U. to coach the Whitefaces. Mr. Best produced district champions, and no sooner was he becoming acquainted than Pampa decided that she needed Mr. Best to coach her backfield, so Hereford had to go out and find another good coach. Well, she has done just that. Out of a field of forty applicants, Mr. Logan Ware also of T. C. U. came up with the ball. Yes, Mr. Ware was co-captain last year, will be Hereford's grid mentor for the season of 1941.

Mr. Ware has left a very impressive record behind him at T. C. U. He is a three year letterman, two year regular, and captain in his senior year. Is that a record or is that a record? And the year he was not a first stringer (1938), he played under study to Johnny Hall, right halfback of the famous K Aldrich and Davy O'Brien team which carried off the mythical championship of the U. S. Mr. Ware has played side by side with some of the nation's top ranking stars, and not only that, but he has received training from the unbeatable Dutch Meyers, coach of the Fort Worth Horned Frogs.

Mr. Ware intends to remain in Hereford until Spring training is over. His comment after watching the boys work out was, "They are small but they have plenty of hustle and that is what makes a ball team; that's what I like to see in a bunch of boys." At the present he is using a single wing with no shift. This is still in the experimental stage and it depends on what prospects the boys out for football show in the way of ability.

Mr. Stanton's comment was, "He looks pretty good (Speaking of Ware) to me. You know he must be pretty good because a fellow doesn't get to be captain just because he is good looking." Taking it from Mr. Stanton, who ought to know, we can safely predict that if the Whitefaces fall next year it will not be any fault of the coach.

Watch Your Behavior; Other People Do

Can people correctly judge you by your actions in public? Is your behavior indicative of the real YOU? Do you always act in a way that will be commendable to you and your associates?

Only you can satisfactorily answer these questions. Only you can make your behavior measure up to your best.

In the halls, many of the students are unduly noisy, rough and generally disorderly. Some are thoughtlessly abusing property and meddling with materials that should be left alone.

In assembly, far too many are inattentive and distracting. They do not enter into the spirit of the program; they do not distinguish between a humorous and serious situation. On the whole, they need some lessons in manners.

If you are guilty of misbehavior, try to curb those tendencies that brand you as rude, discourteous, uncouth.

First Baptist Church Will Honor Senior Class With Banquet

Next Tuesday night at 8:00 p. m. the First Baptist Church will honor the Senior Class and the Baptist students of the High School with a banquet. All members of the Senior Class and all the Baptist Students of the high school are invited.

Around the Campfire

Betty Jo Potter: "Oh, Frankie," screamed the excited girl driver, "the car is running away!"

Frankie Potter: "Can you stop it?"

Betty Jo: "No."

Frankie: "Well, then, see if you can't hit something cheap."

Mrs. Kuper: "Marian, you really ought to wear a hat when you go out riding."

Marian: "But, Mother, I am wearing a hat; it's on the other side."

Roy Morrison: "What is your opinion of Chinese philosophers?"

Clifton Cox: "I think they're just trying to Confucius."

Clyde Neal: "Why is it that the eagle, the bison and the Indian are shown on our coins, although they are all practically extinct?"

Hardy Benson: "I suppose it is to carry out the idea of scarcity."

Then there's the story of the Scotsman who would allow his children to have only one meal at a time.

Now, what if anything, do these answers signify? At least, we hope that it enlightens some of the teachers who have been wanting to know, when, where and how the students study.

Little Theatre Players To Present "American Way" April 29 and 30

"The American Way" will be presented by the players of the Little Theatre in Amarillo on April 29 and 30. This play ran on Broadway for two years with Fredric March in the leading role.

The show tells of a German immigrant family in America. The father is very determined to rear his children in the American way.

A special rate is being offered for parties of ten or more.

A price of twenty-five cents for everyone will be charged. Since so large a crowd is expected, people wishing to see the production are urged to send in the money for their tickets ahead of time. The play is to be at the municipal auditorium at eight o'clock.

Posey Receives Explanation On Fair Pictures

E. B. Posey, secretary of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce this week received a letter from the board of the State Fair of Texas to clear up a misunderstanding regarding the showing of the Hereford exhibit in the pictures of the Dallas Fair, recently showed at Hereford.

The shot of the Hereford exhibit will be in the longer, more detailed and better picture, "Down Texas State Fair Way," which will be shown in Hereford on July 16 and 17.

Mr. Posey wrote for an explanation when a number of persons expressed disappointment because the Hereford exhibit was not shown in the picture which was here a few weeks ago.

Subscriptions, Red Cross Help Farm Family

Judge A. J. Schroeter this week told of the progress made by the Red Cross in rehabilitation work for benefit of the Wilson Wily family of Messenger, whose home was destroyed by a wind storm early on the morning of April 13.

Mr. Schroeter explained that the Hereford Red Cross will furnish everything needed over the $400 already collected to re-establish the family with clothing, shelter and materials needed to start their farm work.

"This case," said Mr. Schroeter, "is a good example of the work of the Red Cross in meeting local emergencies."

Camels Once Seen In Texas Streets

Austin, Texas.—Did you know that turbaned Turks once rode camels through the streets of Texas towns?

A reminder of those days, a long personal letter written from San Antonio in 1856, has just been presented to the Archives Collection of the University of Texas Library here.

Written by Jennie Leeper and addressed to A. Walker, Fayetteville, Ark., the letter had this to say:

"The camels have arrived at San Antonio, thirty in number. They are prodigious animals and are said to carry as much as sixteen hundred pounds and travel very rapidly. Some native Arabs and Turks accompanied them. One or two of the Arabs speak very good English. They all wear their native costume, turbans not excepted."

Miss Leeper reported that horses were nearly "frightened to death" at the sight of the strange beasts, traveling back and forth from provisioning at the Alamo and nibbling leaves from the tops of San Antonio's trees. There was no mention, however, of where the strange procession was ultimately headed, what finally happened to them.

The letter was given the library by A. W. Walker, University law professor.

Two porcupines were killed recently in Gillespie County. They were the first reported to the State game warden in that area. Recently the Game Department received word of one being killed in southwest Texas.

Among the subjects treated by Dr. Popenoe are the following: "The Changing Family in a Changing World," "Growing Up Emotionally," and "Making Marriage a Success."

As a result of his lectures at W. T. S. C. in Canyon this winter, Dr. Popenoe is already known to some Hereford citizens. The clubs which are sponsoring his appearance here hope that his lectures will fill a need for education on the important subjects of marriage and family life.

The farmer who overplants his allotment may store the wheat produced in excess of the quota. If he sells or uses it a penalty will be collected. If he stores it, he can get a loan on the excess, but at a lower rate than that available to the co-operator.

This week she went over to the county clerk's office to get a birth certificate for Frank—and she had forgotten his age. Not only that, but on a wild guess she put the figure two years low. Which proves that not all mothers have poisionously accurate memories for the offspring's age.

Ricketts of Hereford, Joe Warren of Nazareth, T. L. Sparkman of Hereford, Lester Galley of Hereford, Sloan H. Osborn of Friona, Jack Dunn of Farwell and Edwin Ramey of Dimmitt.

Following the election of officers, the R. E. A. members will see the picture, "Power and the Land," a documentary film which tells powerfully the story of the impact of electric power on many phases of farm life. Audiences everywhere have received this picture enthusiastically. Especially has it been popular with R. E. A. audiences, who know from experience what the coming of the power lines has meant to their own lives in terms of conveniences and increased working capacity. The commenary on "Power and the Land" was written by Stephen Vincent Benet, well known American poet.

In urging members to attend this meeting, Mr. Hennen said, "You will be rendering a service to your co-operative by exercising your democratic right to have a voice in its business. We feel that you will be proud of our progress, and that you will especially enjoy the picture which is included on the program."

MY COUNTRY, 'tis of Thee!

Who says it's a messy old world? Who says the U. S. A. is going to the dogs? Not the boys and girls of America! Not the nation's youth! These are the hopes of America . . . their eyes undimmed by doubts, their ideals unwavering. And so it will always be as there are free communities to grow up in, free schools to attend and free newspapers to read.

What is America? Great Rivers? High mountains Broad prairies? Is America cities? Traditions? Songs? Is it styles or movie fads, business lunches, week-ends in the country?

America is all of these.

But most of all, America is Opportunity, now and for the future. Opportunity for all. Thus it has always been, is now and must ever remain.

Opportunity for what? To earn a living. To govern ourselves. To worship, travel, read, study, vote, think and act like grown men and women, uncoerced, self-disciplined. Opportunity to pick our own jobs, to decide our own futures. Opportunity to send our children to college. Opportunity to choose our own standards, not have them thrust upon us; to develop our own art. Opportunity to be secure in our households, to have and keep arms. Opportunity for growth . . . for happiness. This is what America means!

Opportunity for whom? For all humanity. The strength, the toil, the free ideas, ambitions, zeal and criticism of every man and woman is sorely needed in this country whose great resources have scarcely been touched, whose future as a Happy Land lies still ahead, not behind us. America is a Land of Opportunity for all.

But America is a land, most of all, of opportunity for boys and girls. It is the only country left today where fathers and mothers may sit in the peace of an evening and plan and dream. America is a wondrous land for children, for youth—free schools where yesterday's standards are never good enough for today; free libraries open to all; beaches; playgrounds; sports; camps.

The pity of so much of the world is that its young people are being destroyed as ruthlessly as though they were sent unarmed to the field of battle.

Boys and girls are indoctrinated with hate. Their young minds are blighted, their souls are crippled. Youngsters born to share in and perpetuate free western civilization are warped, crushed and embittered by witch-doctor voodoo preached out of lying textbooks by teachers in fear of their lives. Most terrible of all, an enslaved press distills its poisons constantly. Young minds soak up hatreds as a sponge absorbs ink. What kind of fathers and mothers will these boys and girls, in turn, make?

Not all is right with America. We still have insecurity, absurd extremes of plenty and want. We still have greed, selfishness, corruption. We still drift aimlessly to leeward a mile for every yard we sail ahead. And our silly fads are legion.

But the American Republic is still the newest idea on earth! As in Washington's time, it is a Revolution—a Revolution against Want, Misery, Slavery, egradation, a Revolution that is still going on. American freedom is still the newest thing on earth! It rests on knowledge, on education. It rests on the four great freedoms of the Constitution: The right to speak, the right to worship, the right to print, the right to assemble peacefully without let or hindrance. Now, as never before, these four great freedoms can sustain us and protect us. Now, as never before, they are needed to assure our future existence as a free nation.

No matter how grave the hour, how seemingly great the need, a free people must not let Free Speech, a Free Press, Freedom of Worship, and Freedom of Peaceable Assembly be taken from them. He who attempts it is both tyrant and traitor. He who defends them defends the right of his children to all their future happiness.

SEEDS of ADVICE

The Garden Club

Spring to many women means more than new clothes; although the clothes problem demands a great deal of their time. To the gardener it means new landscaping patterns, new design for blossoms along the garden wall, new seeds to sow, new bulbs to plant and a thousand and one interesting problems that come with the pleasant month of May.

Mrs. W. N. Lemmon got together this material on "Harmony in Colors" for the Garden Club and we print it for those of you who need some studied advice on the subject.

To have a garden that meets your expectations in harmony of colors, you simply cooperate with nature. Nature seldom errs, but the artist finds some colors that decidedly do not go together. The more we study how to add charm to the garden, the more we are impressed with the similarity of the elements which produce beauty indoors or out.

The simple home-furnishing principles can be applied to the home grounds for the problems are the same. For example, in the garden, as in the house, we are confronted with how to make the grounds more roomy. Some kind of background is desirable for any garden and a hedge will give more apparent space than a fence or wall. The planting plan should avoid dabs-dabs of plants and dabs of color. A mass of tall growing perennials and annuals in front of the hedge will give it added interest whether as a little bit here and a little bit there may result in giving a mottled effect.

More than half the flowers of the world are red or shades of red, yet when you take red from its setting of green it is hard to find harmonious colors other than shades of lavender, purple, copper and bronze. However a border of red, white and blue salvia is always admired. Iris grouped by colors is the most effective way to use these flowers. Either they are contrasted, say a purple and a yellow, or blended together, the copper and red, the blues and the various yellows.

Yellow is such a warm and friendly color and at once we think of the marigold and the chrysanthemum which have the White flowers, being neutral, are often interspersed among those of other colors to produce contrasts or to serve as a buffer or transition zone between two distant shades. In some Oriental countries only the white flowers are fragrant and they are prized above all others. Refreshing in midsummer is a white and green border featuring snowy phlox, white zinnias and snapmore than new clothes; tuthough dragons with an edging of white alyssum or carrots. For background, use tall cosmos and white hollyhocks and if you yearn for a white rose in your snow-white corner, set out the shrubby rose, rugosa; it blooms all summer.

Perhaps your problem is that you lack space for a new border—although at the moment your eyes are full of tulips and fall effects are still a matter of foresight, get some little chrysanthemum plants now and set them out among the tulips and later you will reap one of gardening's greatest spectacles, nature's harmony of color in the fall.

Let's Cook Something

A Complete Family Luncheon Served on One Large Platter or Sandwich Plate:

If your family is large or you are a kitchenette cook, here is a suggestion for a whole meal that you should try for some special guest—someone you would like to have express appreciation of your cooking.

Commonplace foods take on new interest and conventional dishes develop new appetite-appeal when the color arrangement has been taken into consideration. This platter meal is a favorite with Mrs. Harry Seed and is particularly recommended for eye-appeal as well as wholesome goodness.

MENU

- Baked ham
- Whole stuffed apples
- Carrots
- Lime perfection salad

PLATTER ARRANGEMENT

1st—In the center of a large platter place steamed, whole stuffed apples. 2nd—Circle the cluster of apples with boiled pole carrots arranged lengthwise slightly overlapping. (A generous sprig of parsley stuck into the stem end of each carrot makes an attractive garnish for the entire plate.) 3rd—Around the carrots, forming the border of the platter, arrange alternately slice of baked ham, topped with a dab of tart jelly, and an individual serving of lime perfection salad in lettuce cups, topped with your favorite mayonnaise.

This entire meal may be served cold if preferred and is complete without desert. Serve with hot rolls, butter and preserves or jam.

HOW TO PREPARE

Core and peel the apples and allow to simmer slowly, until tender, in light syrup made with 1 part sugar and 2 parts water. (The syrup may be made sweeter according to the tartness or sweetness of the apples). Color cherry red by adding food coloring or a few redhots. When thoroughly chilled the hollow centers are stuffed with chopped marshmallows, raisins and nuts, blended with just enough leftover syrup to moisten.

LIME PERFECTION SALAD

Prepare one package of lime jello according to directions on the box. When chilled add one cup finely chopped cabbage, six medium sweet pickles (diced), one medium onion finely chopped and 1-2 cup grated or finely cut cheese. Place in tray or molds and allow to congeal.

Bake ham according to your favorite recipe and boil carrots enough water to cover, adding a pinch of salt and 2 tablespoons of sugar.

Open Forum

Conducted For Bay View Club

An "Open Forum," with Tex providing the theme for discussions, furnished an informal program for the Bay View club meeting held Thursday afternoon at the court house. Mrs. H. L. Broadwell led the son and gave a brief review of culture and art of the Little Theatre in Texas. Mrs. B. Hedrick told of the industry and resources of the state. Mrs. H. G. Conkright told of the state government and "The Press." She displayed slides of The Hereford Brand published in 1902 and compared changes made during the past forty years. Other members added interesting comments as the forum was conducted.

Plans for the closing session were announced and a change of the date was made. THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

but it's a great orchestra nevertheless

Even a great orchestra will make a musical mistake once in a while. And once in a while... out of the thousands of decent, law-abiding beer retailers in Texas... you'll come across one or two who operate disreputable establishments.

These "black sheep" retailers constitute a tiny minority. Yet they tend to drag down the good name of beer. By arousing public indignation, such undesirable retailers endanger your right to enjoy good beer. They also endanger the benefits to the public that beer has made possible.

For example, in Texas beer has created 31,165 new jobs with an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and paid $2,275,968.64 in taxes last year.

The brewing industry wants "black sheep" retailers eliminated entirely. You can help us by patronizing only the reputable, legal places where beer is sold. And by reporting irregularities to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

Defense Strike Problem Faced By Legion

H. F. Miller, commander of the Hereford American Legion Post, returned Sunday with the Hereford delegation from the district convention held in Amarillo Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Miller reports a serious meeting mostly devoted to discussion of the grave dangers now present in domestic and foreign affairs. The convention adopted the following resolution with reference to the labor situation as it affects the defense program:

WHEREAS, this organization composed of men who know what war means to our nation, including its horrible details, and who are each individually interested in living in a nation where peace, liberty and the pursuit of individual happiness is our principle wish and desire; that we believe in the principles of Democracy as we know it in America; that we believe in the entire principles of free speech, right to handle our own affairs as free men, including the right to operate our own businesses or join together in any organization for the promotion of our mutual welfare as individuals or as a collective organization without the interference of government functions so long as we pursue such actions and conduct under the principles for which this government was founded; that we believe in the sovereignty of the individual, state and nation as we understand the principles of this greatest democracy of all time; yet, we Citizens of the United States of America, and as members of the American Legion and this organization (The 18th District American Legion of Texas,) believe when the Sovereignty of the Nation, such as, must be the primary interest of all of us who love the principles this nation represents; we believe that the interest of the individual who is engaged in the production of materials of war, which production the National Government has set in motion, is not superior to the rights, liberties, interests and financial affairs of those young Americans who have been called to the colors of our nation to prepare to defend the nation against those who might assault us within the very near future; that the interest of the individual who will gain financially from the production or manufacture of these implements of warfare is not superior to the interest of the nation and the young manhood of America now in training to use such implements. We therefore believe that those individuals in labor organizations and the ownership of manufacturing industries should be caused to realize the seriousness of the international relations of our Nation and the necessity for the unhampered completion of our defense program as started by Congress and Our President; We believe that much of the delay, being evident in recent months is propagated by subversive elements that have been infiltrated into our country for the particular purpose of delaying, hindering and stopping the production of these implements of warfare and the delay of our other preparatory efforts towards preserving our democracy; we believe that our public officials should be aroused to the extent of taking over, if necessary, the production of our defense program and to handle harshly those who interfere; and in this respect we would offer our services to our Nation in anyway we might be able to assist properly to handle such necessary action, to the end that we may promote the cause of liberty, justice, freedom and democracy, all other interests (personal and financial) not-with-standing.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by this convention to go on record as above indicated, and that as much publicity as possible be given to the matter herein contained in order that the public may be aroused to a realization of the situation as we believe it to be at this time to the end that action be had without delay as herein indicated, and our public officials responsible for action be delivered copies of this resolution, including our congressmen, senators, and our state and national Legion organization.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED. This date first above mentioned. (Signed) Lewis W. Goodrich, Resolution Committee Hershel E. Miller Maynard Drake
