

Questions answered on election

If you are wondering just what the special elections on Aug. 10 are all about, you are not alone.

John Hannah Jr., secretary of state, said so many questions have been fielded by his office concerning the Aug. 10 election that a news release has been mailed to news media across the state in an attempt to clarify some of the questions.

During the last session of the Legislature, a school finance bill passed which radically alters the way school property taxes are collected and distributed. The bill created 188 county education districts (CED) composed of the school districts in each county.

The local CED is composed only of Hereford Independent School District and Walcott School District. Some have groups of counties in the CED, such as CED No. 6 to the south which has Lubbock and six other counties in one CED and includes 26 school districts.

These CEDs will levy a property tax which will be distributed equally among school districts within the CED. The election to be held Aug. 10 will enable taxpayers in the CED to avail themselves of certain exemptions on their homesteads as well as open up the possibility of taxing certain tangible personal property.

What is on the Aug. 10 ballot?
There will be two elections held that day—a state constitutional amendment election and a school district election.

The state election involves two proposed amendments: (1) Proposition 1 to allow certain property tax homestead exemptions and taxation of certain tangible personal property by the county education district; and (2) Proposition 2 which allows the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue up to $300 million in general obligation bonds to fund student loans.

The school districts will conduct a local option election on behalf of the CED concerning issues addressed by Proposition 1. The school ballot will be in three parts: (1) whether to tax non-income producing tangible personal property; (2) whether to adopt a homestead exemption of 20% of market value; and (3) whether to adopt an additional exemption of $10,000 for the elderly and disabled.

What happens if Proposition 1 on the state ballot fails?

If this constitutional amendment fails statewide, the school district election whereby the voters authorize the exemptions will be disregarded. However, the governing body of the CED might adopt these exemptions under existing provisions of the Constitution.

Is a vote against Proposition 1 a vote against tangible personal property by the CED?

Yes, but is also a vote against voter authorization for the CED to use homestead exemptions and elderly and disabled exemptions. As stated previously, the CED board might adopt these provisions following procedures set up under current law.

What items would be taxed as tangible personal property?

Perhaps tangible personal property can best be described by what it is NOT: it is not real property; it is not household goods, which are exempt; it is not intangible property, such as stocks or bonds, and it is not income-producing property. The most obvious targets are cars, boats, airplanes, and RV's.

Why would a person not vote for a 20% of market value exemption on a homestead?

Districts that are largely residential would suffer losses of tax revenue and would have to raise tax rates to generate the required amount of local funding. In districts with substantial commercial property, this proposal would shift the tax burden to business.

Where do I vote?

Ballots will most likely be cast on election day at your regular precinct polling place. Some counties have worked out joint elections with the school district; others will have two voting places.

In Deaf Smith County, there will be a joint election for HISD voters, who will cast their ballots at four polling places, according to their county precinct voting number. Voting precincts 1 and 7 will be at Aikman School; precinct 2 at the courthouse; precincts 3 and 8 at Hereford Junior High; and precincts 4, 5, 6, and 9 at the Community Center.

Voters in the Walcott School District will have two polling places. The county education district voting will be at Walcott School. Voting on the constitutional amendments will be at one of the Hereford polling places, where their voting precinct number is listed.

Absentee voting will continue to Aug. 6 at the county clerk's office.

EPA adds Pantex Plant to Superfund cleanup

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Environmental Protection Agency is adding Pantex, the nation's final assembly plant for nuclear bombs and missile warheads, to a list of hazardous waste sites posing the greatest threat to human health and the environment.

Pantex was one of 22 sites nationwide that the EPA proposed adding to its Superfund National Priorities List on Thursday. With the addition of Pantex, Texas would have 29 sites on the Superfund cleanup list.

Located northeast of Amarillo, Pantex is a World War II-era ordnance facility operated by a contractor for the Energy Department. It sits atop the Ogallala aquifer, practically the only source of drinking water for Texas' largest irrigated farming region.

According to EPA, past and present waste practices at Pantex include burning of chemical wastes in unlined pits, burial of wastes in unlined landfills, and discharging of plant waste waters into on-site surface waters.

In 1988, an Energy Department contractor detected solvents and toxic heavy metals that included known and suspected carcinogens in waste waters discharged to unlined ditches and surface impoundments on the site, EPA said.

Solvents were also found in soil underlying a chemical burn pit and uranium was found in the soil underlying plant firing grounds, EPA said.

EPA said the solvent toluene is present at 329 feet below the surface in soils underlying the pit, while the Ogallala occurs at a depth of 390 to 420 feet beneath the site.

EPA also said surface water runoff from the plant is diverted to surface impoundments and freshwater wetlands. The Texas Tech Agricultural Research Station uses surface water from one of the impoundments to irrigate crops and for watering livestock.

Because Pantex is a federal facility, the Energy Department would be responsible for the cleanup, but the EPA would review and approve the cleanup plan, said EPA spokesman Roger Meacham in Dallas.

There was no immediate comment from DOE, said spokesman Larry Hart.

The EPA's decision to add Pantex to the Superfund list is the latest in a string of questions the federal government or congressional investigators have raised about safety, health and the environment at Pantex.

The General Accounting Office, the investigative arm of Congress, earlier this year said Pantex had one of the worst occupational safety records in the DOE weapons complex. In 1989, a DOE team of experts said it had found significant health, safety and environmental deficiencies, including problems with the plant's radiation protection program.

DOE and the plant's contractor, Mason & Hanger - Silas Mason Company Inc., have since taken action to improve safety guidelines and training for radiation staff, GAO said in its report.

The 22 additions to the superfund list Thursday bring to the total number of sites nationwide targeted for cleanup to 1,211.

70% wanted Hussein overthrown by US

NEW YORK (AP) - Seven out of 10 Americans think that with Saddam Hussein still in power, President Bush ended the Persian Gulf War too soon, an Associated Press poll found.

Nearly three-fourths of Americans approve of Bush's decision to go to war Jan. 16, unchanged from an AP poll taken Jan. 23-27. But only 22 percent of Americans in the new poll agree with the decision to stop short of overthrowing the Iraqi president. Eight percent are undecided or had no answer.

A USA Today poll published today also found 60 percent agreed the United States ended the war with Iraq too soon, and 33 percent disagreed. That question did not mention Saddam Hussein remaining in power.

But when the USA Today poll asked people how concerned they were with Saddam's staying power, 74 percent said they were very concerned and 17 percent said they were somewhat concerned.

The newspaper's poll Tuesday and Wednesday of 610 people has a margin of sampling error of plus or minus 4 percentage points.

The AP poll taken July 17-21 by ICR Survey Research Group of Media, Pa., interviewed a random sample of 1,002 adults by telephone. The margin of sampling error is plus or minus 3 percentage points.

In the earlier AP poll, taken the second week of the war, 59 percent supported continuing fighting to force Saddam from power, and 38 percent opposed it.

When Bush declared Iraq's army defeated on Feb. 27, his cease-fire orders froze U.S. and allied forces in positions in southern Iraq more than 150 miles from Baghdad. Half of Saddam's military forces remained intact.

Toppling Iraq's president was never the expressed goal of Operation Desert Storm. But the anti-Iraq coalition hoped Saddam would fall under the weight of military humiliation, an economic embargo, suffering wrought by allied bombardment, and the Shiite Muslim and Kurdish rebellions encouraged by the United States.

Instead, the Iraqi president suppressed the uprisings and consolidated his power.

American commander Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf told an interviewer in April he had recommended the offensive continue beyond Feb. 27. He later apologized for any embarrassment his remarks caused Bush.

On July 8, Saddam's government acknowledged it was engaged in a preliminary program to build nuclear bombs, but it has balked at full U.N. inspection of its nuclear capabilities, leading the United States to threaten new military action.

In this atmosphere of renewed tension, disapproval of Bush's decision to go to war dropped to 19

DSGH board hears plans by Methodist

By GEORGIA TYLER
Staff Writer

Deaf Smith General Hospital would seem to have everything to gain and nothing to lose in a management proposal offered Thursday night by representatives of Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

A four-man team from the South Plains hospital reviewed operations of DSGH, in effect giving a report card on operations, and outlined a proposal with these points:

-- Methodist would engage an administrator, waiving salary reimbursement, for six months.

-- A six-month accounting specialist would be placed on site, again with salary waived by Methodist.

-- Management consultants in a wide range of fields would be provided.

-- DSGH would belong to a purchasing service that could lower costs of supplies.

-- Methodist would underwrite the Mednet program that provides continuing education for hospital staff and physicians through satellite transmissions.

Another proposal for DSGH would offer expertise and services without the administrative and accounting personnel, through an affiliation agreement.

Leading the team was the vice president for regional services of Methodist Hospital, Dan Griffis.

He told the DSGH board and an audience of some 50 persons, "We can't ever run this hospital -- all we can do is assist you. It's your hospital."

Presenting the review of an operational audit of DSGH departments made by Methodist personnel, Ron Rives, assistant vice president of regional services, said the team observed both positive and negative aspects of the hospital.

Each department was studied intensively by Methodist personnel, Rives said, calling attention to the good and bad they found in each instance.

Among observations made are:
-- Radiology is in good working order but the CT scanner and mammography are under utilized.

-- Discharge planning should be instituted, including home health recommendations. "It seems people don't know home care is here ... there should be 500 calls per month and there are only 250."

-- Intensive care unit is well-run and could be expanded, especially with some new equipment.

-- Patients being transferred from emergency room to other institutions sometimes are not seen by a physician prior to transfer. "Transfer laws are to prevent 'dumping' of patients and are very strict."

-- The business office is the area that probably needs the most help. "There seems to be disorganization since Phillis Morrison (former DSGH comptroller) left."

-- Self-funded insurance program is good and there are no contract companies in the hospital, a good point.

-- The building is in pretty good shape, the esthetic improvements are nice.

-- Morale of hospital employees is "low."

The Methodist Hospital team also included an accountant, Brandon Durbin of Lubbock, who noted some procedures that need attention in the business office.

He advised the DSGH board and visitors at the meeting that "hospitals don't do enough collecting up front." He also pointed out that the computer program on accounts payables is not providing a true picture of the bills the hospital owes monthly.

The accountant also encouraged more utilization of the home health program, saying it could be a "financial bonanza."

Joining Griffis, Rives and Durbin on the Methodist Hospital team was Terry Andris, administrator of an Andrews hospital. He spoke briefly on benefits of the program proposed for DSGH.

Griffis said "all the elements are here" for Deaf Smith General Hospital. "We can do what the board and community want to do."

He also pointed out that if DSGH accepts the six-month management proposal, the board would not relinquish any responsibilities.

At the end of six months, Methodist Hospital would continue, at the request of the DSGH board, but the financial burden of administrator and accountant would revert to the Hereford hospital.

Raymond Schroeder, chairman of the DSGH board, expressed appreciation to those who attended the meeting and reminded that another Lubbock hospital, St. Mary's, will offer a management proposal at a meeting on Aug. 6.

"The board wants to act on this as soon as possible," Schroeder said. "We want to make a decision on Aug. 20."

Why wage war?

- To prevent Iraq from developing nuclear weapons, 86%.
- To eliminate Saddam Hussein's war-making ability, 85%.
- To restore Kuwait's government, 69%
- To prevent Iraq from having control of a major source of the world's oil, 72%.
- To prevent Iraqi troops from continuing to kill and mistreat the Kuwaiti people, 86%.

percent, from 24 percent in the AP poll taken Jan. 23-27.

Most Americans consider the U.S. military effort successful, despite Saddam's nuclear program and the suffering of Iraq's Kurdish minority.

Twelve percent said the effort was completely successful, and 48 percent rated it mostly successful. About a third said it was only somewhat successful and just 5 percent said it was not at all successful.

The interviewers read five possible reasons for going to war. A majority of those surveyed said each was a "good reason" and those five separate majorities overlapped to the extent that an overwhelming 97 percent agreed with at least one reason.

Pentagon stops short of putting 'fake' label on MIA photograph

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Pentagon stops just short of saying a photograph purporting to show three American prisoners in Indochina is a fake, but a military report says almost all other evidence to show the men are alive is either wrong or highly suspicious.

The Pentagon, which has said it doubted the authenticity of the photo since it surfaced more than a week ago, still isn't able to say conclusively that it's a phony.

"We don't know if the photo is real or not," Marine Lt. Col. Kerry Gershaneck, a spokesman for the Defense Department, said after the report was released Thursday night.

Families have identified the three men as Air Force Maj. Albro Lundy Jr., Navy Lt. Cmdr. Larry Stevens, and Air Force Col. John Leighton Robertson. The three men were lost in separate incidents in the late 1960s while flying missions during the Vietnam War. All have been declared killed in action, but no bodies have been recovered.

"One principal source of the photograph lies in a ring of Cambodian opportunists led by a well-known and admitted fabricator of POW-MIA information," the Pentagon analysis said.

The American Defense Institute, a private organization that has been involved in fund-raising on the POW-MIA issue, distributed a copy of the photograph last week, which it said came from a Southeast Asian source. Eugene McDaniel, the head of the institute, refused to say where he got the photo.

But on Thursday night his spokesman, John Isaf, said it came from a source in Cambodia. He also said the institute could not vouch for the authenticity of the photograph it had been handing out.

"Our argument is, alright, maybe it is a hoax," Isaf said. "We don't know. We didn't do an analysis on it."

Of the 20 reports naming at least some combination of the three men in the photograph, none was based on first-hand information, the Pentagon said. One of those reports was accompanied by an audio tape that was supposed to have been made by Robertson.

"The recording was apparently made by a non-native English speaking male reading the text of two letters sent earlier," the Pentagon report said. "Aside from the aforementioned errors in grammar and syntax, the speaker also does not pronounce his own alleged name correctly."

Biographical information on Robertson, apparently sent along to attempt to show that other material was genuine, had his date of birth and serial number wrong. Those same mistakes appeared in the biographical material on Stevens. Those facts were right for Lundy, but his place of birth, Los Angeles, was incorrectly given as Washington, D.C.

Purported letters from the men also are suspect, said the report, which quoted from one letter allegedly written by Robertson:

"Welcome! God bless you!
"Everyone in Americane is wanting to welcome you - home. To us there is noting more important seeing you back in the U.S.A. ASAP! You can help by filling out posse info belong your name or you did welcome duty in the States. Upon receipt of the photo and-or this letter we welcome imelyately to take you home. We have searched for you for 20 years. Thank you are safe.
"Date 18-10-1990."

One relative said he still holds strong hope the photo is authentic and he accused the U.S. government of trying to discredit the photo just to justify a failed POW-MIA policy.

"I don't think where a photo's from is pertinent," said Jack Fleckenstein, stepfather of Stevens. "The fact is it shows three men who are identified (by family members). Anything else, I'm willing to throw out into the wind. They're trying to throw away the photo by taking shots at the so-called supporting data."

Bingo regulation called 'hot potato'

AUSTIN (AP) - Several proposals have emerged to transfer authority over bingo in Texas, but a key lawmaker said he believes it will remain where it is now - with the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

"They're more qualified right now than anybody else," Rep. Ron Wilson, who is chairman of the committee that works on bingo legislation, said Thursday.

Wilson, D-Houston, said regulation of the game is a political hot potato because of the large amount of money involved. "Anytime you handle that much cash you're going to have some problems," he said. "It's an industry that's very susceptible to abuse."

There are about 1,800 charities licensed by the state to run bingo games, and last year bingo receipts in Texas totaled more than $620 million, according to state records.

A Travis County grand jury is investigating allegations that a Houston bingo operating company allegedly took a larger share of profits than the law allows.

Currently, there are several proposals to transfer bingo regulation away from the TABC during the special session as lawmakers consider measures to reorganize state government.

TABC assistant administrator Randy Yarbrough said the main purpose behind legalizing bingo in 1981 was to give charities another method of raising money. He said it doesn't produce much tax revenue for the state - about $10 million per year. "There are always a lot of complaints going on. Sometimes it can be a headache," Yarbrough said.

Yarbrough said his agency did not ask for bingo, but added, "If the Legislature feels like it should stay, we'll do the best we can with it."

The TABC has only been in charge of regulating bingo for the past two years.

In a controversial move in 1989, then-Comptroller Bob Bullock succeeded in pushing bingo regulation out of the comptroller's office and into the TABC.

Critics of the move, which included Mothers Against Drunk Driving, said that Bullock wanted bingo regulation transferred to another agency because it could cause controversy during his 1990 campaign for lieutenant governor. MADD said the TABC didn't have

Mesa Ltd. loss drops sharply

DALLAS (AP) - Mesa Limited Partnership lost $1.3 million in the second quarter, a sharp drop from last year's $50 million loss largely due to the sale of some of its natural gas assets.

Mesa Thursday said the loss amounted to 20 cents per partner unit and came on revenue of $44.9 million. During the same quarter last year, Mesa lost 49 cents a unit on revenue of $66.9 million.

Mesa, led by general partner T. Boone Pickens, finished a $1 billion restructuring of its long-term debt during the quarter. The effort included the sale of about 16 percent of Mesa's proven reserves. The final sale, which closed April 30, resulted in a $33.7 million gain for Mesa.

The sales resulted in lower production volume of natural gas and oil. Mesa's average daily natural gas production was 263.3 million cubic feet, down from 369.3 million cubic feet in the same quarter last year.

The partnership received an average price of $1.31 per thousand cubic feet for natural gas during the three months that ended June 30. Mesa received $1.39 last year in the second quarter, one of the slowest periods for gas demand.

Mesa received an average price of $11.73 per barrel for natural gas liquids in the quarter, up from $10 a year ago. It received $19.48 per barrel of oil, up from $17.34 in 1990.

For the first six months of the year, Mesa lost $20.8 million, 52 cents a unit, on revenue of $121.2 million. A year ago, the partnership lost $68.2 million, 79 cents per unit, on revenue of $166.6 million.

CIA conducting study of bank

WASHINGTON (AP) - The CIA is conducting an internal review of whatever dealings it may have had with the Bank of Credit and Commerce International, which is at the center of a massive worldwide scandal involving fraud and money laundering.

News reports in London, meanwhile, alleged the bank may have transmitted funds to aid efforts by Argentina, Libya and Pakistan to obtain nuclear weapons.

The bank also was used by former White House aide Oliver North to set up accounts for covert operations, officials said here.

CIA spokesman Mark Mansfield said Thursday that CIA Director William Webster told the agency's inspector general to look into any possible CIA-BCCI links in the past. Mansfield would not say when Webster ordered the probe to begin.

The review "is not based on any evidence of wrongdoing," Mansfield said. "We are looking at the records so that a comprehensive report can be shared with our congressional oversight committees."

The bank was used by the CIA to transfer money to U.S.-backed guerrillas in Nicaragua and Afghanistan, law enforcement and congressional officials say.

The London Guardian, in today's editions, quoted unnamed intelligence sources as saying BCCI was used as a conduit for payments to nearly 500 Britons on the payroll of the CIA.

The newspaper, citing unidentified sources inside and outside the bank and interviews with dissident Pakistanis in exile, reported: "The network operated for more than a decade, and was moving cash and gold around the world right up to when BCCI was shut down to provide huge sums for a series of attempts, some successful and some not, to buy nuclear bomb components."

"BCCI also arranged air freight, shipping and insurance for the components."

59 golfers participate in booster club tourney

Tom Simons, Temple Abney and Wade Easley combined to shoot 29 to win the Whiteface Booster Club Golf Scramble Thursday at Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

A total of 59 golfers participated in the nine-hole scramble, after which they were served hot dogs.

The foursome of John Sherrod, Cuby Kitchens, Bill Bridge and John Youcun finished second with a 30. The foursome of Charles Britten, David Workman, Ken Hiltbrunner and Mark Nicklaus were third at 32, beating two other teams in a scorecard playoff.

Jim Sandoval had the longest drive on No. 15, and Cal Miits won the prize for closest to the pin on No. 10.

Dickey hires ex-player as Tech hoops assistant

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - First-year Texas Tech basketball coach James Dickey has hired a former Tech player with no coaching experience to join his staff as an assistant.

Phil Wallace, 28, who was a member of the Red Raiders' 1985 Southwest Conference championship team, will leave a six-year banking career at First National Bank in Lubbock to join Dickey on Aug. 8.

The appointment of Wallace ended an extensive search for a second assistant, Dickey said. Dickey took over at Tech for Gerald Myers, who was forced out after 20 years and four consecutive losing seasons.

Wallace played one year at Georgia and one year at DeKalb Central Community College before transferring to Tech for his final two years.

Wallace started nine games at point guard as a senior for the 1985 Red Raiders, who finished the year 23-8. He scored a career-high 22 points against Texas A&M in a SWC Tournament semifinal victory.

After graduating with a business management degree, Wallace joined First National Bank.

"Phil has strong ties to our basketball program and university, and I felt he was the right person for the position," Dickey said.

"Banking has been a great experience for me but basketball always has been my life," Wallace said.

The 100th Kentucky Derby in 1974 was won by Cannonade, ridden by Angel Cordero Jr.

Veteran jockey Earlie Fires is one of nine brothers, all of whom worked at race tracks.

Subs help Cowboys tie Oilers

AUSTIN (AP) - Controlled scrimmages are drudgery to most players but Cliff Stoudt and Ricky Blake could be gainfully employed in the NFL this fall because of one.

The job-seekers for the Dallas Cowboys shined in a controlled scrimmage against the Houston Oilers Thursday night.

Stoudt boosted his chances to be the backup quarterback. His 40-yard scoring pass to rookie Damon Mays, a ninth-round pick from Missouri, gave the Cowboys a 30-30 tie with the Oilers in the scrimmage.

Stoudt is a 12-year veteran who has been a backup for Terry Bradshaw and Dan Marino in his long career. Dallas got him from Miami last year when the Dolphins gave Stoudt his release.

"Cliff performed well under pressure and I'm very impressed with him," said Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson.

Stoudt hit 11 of 16 passes for 134 yards and had two touchdown passes.

Stoudt said he needed a good game as a confidence builder.

"It gives me motivation and it's a big confidence boost," he said. "I wanted a game with no mistakes. We made some crucial plays and it felt good being in a game."

Stoudt sat on the bench last year and didn't play a down.

"I like this offense," he said. "You can make some big plays."

Houston coach Jack Pardee was pleased.

He said "the guys looked like they did in practice. Warren Moon was great. We got what we were looking for."

Moon said "we executed well. Our offense is far ahead of where we were last year at this point."

Moon was eight of eight for 127 yards.

Dallas trailed 30-18 but rookie linebacker Reggie Cooper returned an intercepted pass 62 yards for a touchdown off the arm of Mike Norseth.

Moon directed Houston's first team to two quick touchdowns.

Gary Brown, rookie eighth round draft pick from Penn State, scored on a 16-yard run for a 6-0 Oiler lead as Moon took control.

Moon hit Ernest Givens on a six-yard pass on Houston's next possession for a 12-0 lead.

Starting Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman retaliated after Dee Thomas intercepted his first pass of the night. Aikman completed a 27-yard pass to tight end Jay Novacek and followed it with a 23-yarder to rookie Alvin Harper, the first round pick from Tennessee.

Then 245-pound Blake, who was the leading rusher in the World League of American Football for the San Antonio Riders, scored on a four-yard run.

"Blake has been impressive from his first run in practice," Johnson said. "He just kind of jumps out at

you. He has an excellent shot of making this team."

Blake rushed nine times for 37 yards.

Houston's second-string quarterback Reggie Slack completed passes of 17 and 15 yards before hitting Cedric Jones with a 2-yard scoring pass, completing a 65-yard drive in 12 plays.

Stoudt ignited the Cowboys second team with an 80-yard drive climaxed by a 6-yard scoring pass to Kelvin Martin to trim the Oiler deficit to 18-12.

Former Baylor quarterback Tom Muecke got the Oilers their fourth touchdown with a 14-yard scoring toss to Frank Miotke of Grand Valley State, building Houston's edge to 24-12.

Aikman came back into the game and immediately took Dallas on a 65-yard scoring drive. Rookie Curvin Richards, a fourth-round pick from Pittsburgh, scored the touchdown on a one-yard run.

Aikman had 8 of 14 passes for 122 yards.

But Houston stretched its lead to 30-18 on a one-yard touchdown pass from Norseth to rookie Shawn Jefferson of Central Florida. The touchdown was set up on a 44-yard Norseth-to-Jefferson pass.

The Oilers and Cowboys scrimmage again Sunday night in Alamo Stadium where Houston has been training.

Del Rio signs

AUSTIN (AP) - Holdout linebacker Jack Del Rio has signed a three-year contract with the Dallas Cowboys worth an estimated $1.8 million, it was announced Thursday night.

The seven-year veteran out of Southern California was to report to training camp Friday.

Defensive lineman Dean Hamel, running back Alonzo Highsmith, and defensive lineman Daniel Stubbs are the remaining holdouts for the Cowboys.

Southwest Outdoors

with Mel Phillips

It's time to head for the mountains because (1) hatchery raised trout are biting in the beautiful, cool Rocky Mountains, and (2) except for at night, fishing is getting tougher every day.

The fishing was super-tough at the July 18 Lake Meredith Fun Tournament. Joe Valdez of Dalhart claimed first-place prize money of $285 when he weighed in a 3.39-pound smallmouth bass. Second place and $133 went to Larry Jameson of Fritch for his 1.75-pound smallmouth.

With 38 anglers, only two legal fish were presented after three hours of fishing. The July 2 Fun Tournament had 62 fishermen and only three came to the scales. Our last two tournaments at Meredith totaled 100 fishermen with only five catching legal fish. These anglers are good. They know the lake and are willing to fish hard, knowing that the chances of catching a legal fish are five percent.

Stop and think about it. A five percent success rate in a field of dedicated fishermen is some pretty sorry fishing. I congratulate the winners and just wish that part of the huge fee increase in our fishing licenses—to $13 from $8 as of Sept. 1—would go into a real program of fisheries improvement for Lake Meredith.

Authorities in the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department sit on top of their paperwork instead of picking up a pole and learning first hand about fishing. The times are changing at TPWD. Now that the fishermen and the hunters are paying most of the bills of the TPWD, it is just a matter of time until they demand better service for their money.

Right now Texans are voting with their feet, and many drive west to Ute Lake and Conchas, east to Lake Foss or south to Lake Texoma. More and more club tournaments are being held in either Oklahoma or New Mexico.

The goal is tourism and recreational fishing. We in this part of Texas will know that TPWD is serious about helping tourism and the fishermen when they implement a striped (or hybrid) program on Lake Meredith. Other lakes have both walleye and strippers. Lakes with strippers enjoy some excellent fishing in the summer.

I will personally pay the entry fees for any Texas Parks and Wildlife people who are willing to enter the Aug. 1 Fun Tournament at Lake Meredith. They should not use guides or pump our local experts for assistance.

It is time for action and the next move is up to the experts with the TPWD. Next week: the results of this Fun Tournament challenge.

This is the last call for the Moonlight Madness Tournament at Lake Baylor at 12:01 a.m. Saturday. There will be a pre-tournament meeting at 11:00 p.m. Friday. Call (806) 353-3654 to enter.

YMCA signing for volleyball

The Hereford YMCA is taking registration for volleyball leagues for girls in grades 1-6.

One league, for grades 4-6, will play regular volleyball, while the league for grades 1-3 will play a modified version in a racquetball court.

All games will be played Saturday mornings starting Sept. 14. The games are supervised and refereed, and all girls get to play. Practices start Sept. 9.

The fee for the league is $11, and the deadline is Sept. 4. All participants must be YMCA members, but membership for youth is only $20 for a year. Scholarships are available for those who need assistance. Contact Weldon Knabe at 364-6990 for more information.

Homers now norm for Eckersley

By The Associated Press

This year, nobody would be very surprised if Dennis Eckersley gives up a dramatic home run in the World Series.

But the way Eckersley is giving up homers right now, it's becoming increasingly doubtful the Oakland A's will make it that far.

Pinch-hitter Jerry Browne hit a two-run homer off Eckersley to cap a four-run eighth inning as Cleveland beat the visiting A's 8-7 on Thursday night. Eckersley (1-2) blew a save for the fifth time in 29 opportunities this season.

Eckersley entered the game with a 7-4 lead and runners at second and third with two outs in the eighth. Mike Aldrete's bad-hop single scored two runs and Browne followed with his first home run of the season. "This is right there, for my whole career. I just feel so responsible," Eckersley said.

What about the 1988 home run by Kirk Gibson, the one that gave Los Angeles a Game 1 World Series win over the A's?

"That's one I've forgotten," Eckersley said. "The pain for me has gone away from that. This was the toughest game for me that I can remember."

Eckersley has allowed eight home runs this season in 44 2-3 innings, compared to two in 73 1-3 innings last year.

"Knowing that I was struggling, I thought Eckersley would come right at me with the fastball," Browne said. "I hit that one pretty good. It kind of surprised me. I wasn't going up there looking for a home run."

Mike York (1-2) got the win for getting two outs in the top of the eighth. Steve Olin pitched the ninth for his fourth save.

Oakland had taken the lead with three runs in the eighth, loading the bases against Rudy Seanez on singles by Terry Steinbach and Willie Wilson sandwiched around a walk to Mark McGwire. Seanez, whose wild pitch had let the tying run score in the seventh, then walked Mike Gallego on a 3-2 pitch for a 5-4 Oakland lead. It was the seventh walk by Cleveland pitchers.

Ernest Riles followed with a grounder through the legs of first baseman Carlos Martinez, scoring two runs.

Jose Canseco hit a three-run homer in the first inning for the A's.

White Sox 7, Blue Jays 1

Ron Karkovice drove in three runs with a double and knuckleballer Charlie Hough ended a personal three-game losing streak with his 101st career complete game.

Karkovice's fourth-inning opposite field double against Todd Stottlemyre

(10-4), was barely fair, striking the foul line and erasing a 1-0 Blue Jays' lead.

Hough (6-6), allowed eight hits, walked one and struck out four.

Mariners 6, Yankees 3

Seattle's Jay Buhner hit a 492-foot homer over the left-field bullpen at Yankee Stadium and Harold Reynolds had a go-ahead two-run single in the fifth inning.

Bill Krueger (8-3) allowed four hits and three unearned runs in six innings.

Wade Taylor (5-5) lost, giving up six runs and eight hits in 4 1-3 innings.

Orioles 8, Angels 4

Baltimore won its first series in July while keeping California's Kirk McCaskill (7-13) winless for the month.

Mike Devereaux, Randy Milligan and Cal Ripken each drove in two runs for the Orioles.

Winner Todd Frohwirth (3-2) pitched three scoreless innings in relief of starter Roy Smith.

Twins 9, Tigers 5

Dan Gladden drove in four runs and Scott Erickson gained his major league-leading 14th win.

Erickson (14-3) gave up three runs, two earned, on six hits in 5 2-3 innings. Scott Aldred (0-1) allowed six runs on six hits in 3 2-3 innings for Detroit. Minnesota broke a 3-3 tie with three fourth-inning runs.

Royals 2, Brewers 0

Luis Aquino pitched four-hit ball over eight innings and Todd Benzinger drove in his ninth run in the last three games.

Aquino (4-2), a part-time starter, struck out five and walked none before Jeff Montgomery finished for his 18th save. Jim Hunter (0-4) remained winless.

Dodgers come back on Phillies again

By The Associated Press

Maybe the Philadelphia Phillies should do what the Los Angeles fans do at Dodger Stadium: Leave after the seventh inning.

Considering the way they lost three straight games in LA, they might do well to follow the lead of the Dodger fans - who are notorious for leaving games early to beat the traffic.

For the third straight night, the Phillies lost to the Dodgers in the late innings as Los Angeles rallied for five runs in the eighth and a 5-0 victory on Thursday night.

In the two previous games, the Phillies led through seven innings only to lose - 6-5 in 10 innings on Tuesday night and 2-1 on Wednesday night.

"It was a very tough game because neither team was scoring runs," Dodgers righthander Ramon Martinez said after his five-hit, nine-strikeout performance. "But I was able to focus and concentrate in this kind of game because if you make a mistake, it could cost you the game. I felt I just needed one run, so I just kept working very hard."

Martinez (13-5) tied Atlanta's Tom Glavine for the NL lead in victories with his fifth complete game, his ninth shutout in 74 career starts and his fourth this season. He walked one and pitched two-hit ball over the first seven innings to snap a personal two-game losing streak.

Kal Daniels' third hit of the game drove in a run and ignited a five-run eighth inning for the Dodgers off

Bruce Ruffin (2-3), who had matched Martinez through seven shutout innings.

Giants 8, Mets 1

Trevor Wilson gave up one run in eight innings and hit his first career homer.

Wally Whitehurst (5-7) gave up four runs on six hits. Whitehurst, down 3-0 before getting an out, was struck in the upper right thigh by Kevin Mitchell's line drive and had to leave after 4 1-3 innings.

Wilson (6-9) homered in the second inning and allowed six hits before Bryan Hickerson pitched the ninth to earn his first career victory against the Mets.

Cubs 5, Reds 4

Right fielder Glenn Braggs dropped Andre Dawson's fly ball with two outs in the 13th inning, allowing Mark Grace to score the game-winning run.

Cincinnati took a 4-3 lead in the top of the 13th on Billy Hatcher's run-scoring double.

Rick Wilkins opened the bottom of the 13th with a single and Chico Walker singled with one out to send pinch-runner Jose Vizcaino to third. Grace hit a comebacker to pitcher Tim Layana (0-2), who threw to second for a force but the relay from shortstop Luis Quiñones was wide as Vizcaino scored the tying run. Ryne Sandberg walked, and Dawson then lifted a high fly to right that Braggs dropped.

Heathcliff Slocumb (2-1) pitched one inning for the victory.

Padres 6, Expos 5

Bip Roberts' first home run of the season, a two-run shot with two outs in the bottom of the ninth, lifted San Diego over Montreal.

The two-run homer off reliever Barry Jones ruined Ron Darling's bid for his 100th career victory and first for the Expos since being acquired on July 15 from the New York Mets for Tim Burke.

Roberts hit a 3-2 pitch from Jones (3-7) over the left-field fence after fouling off five pitches with two strikes. The victory went to Mike Maddux (4-1), who pitched 4 2-3 scoreless innings in relief of starter Greg Harris.

Hallet gets help from Dad Too little, too late for LeMond

CROMWELL, Conn. (AP) - Jim Hallet got some help from his dad. Corey Pavin found miniature golf with his son helpful. Dillard Pruitt got help from a friend.

It helped them to good opening rounds Thursday at the Greater Hartford Open.

Hallet used his dad's chipping advice and some rain-softened greens to hone in on the pins and some timely putting to take a one-stroke lead with a 6-under-par 64.

"We just worked on my chipping. He thought I was a little stiff," Hallet said.

Ollie Hallet loosened his son up and Hallet let loose with as good an effort as he's had this year.

"It just happened," he said. "It's a nice feeling." Pavin, Pruitt, Mark Calcavecchia and Scott Hoch were tied for second, with 10 more players deadlocked at 3-under.

The rain and lack of wind made for ideal conditions on the renovated 6,820-yard Tournament Players Club at River Highlands.

Hallet, who started on the 10th hole, missed six greens in regulation but didn't have any bogeys.

Pavin, one of the top putters on the tour, said Thursday's round was his best since the U.S. Open last month and his long-distance putting was the best this year. He made four from 20 feet or more, including one of 60 feet that he said was longest ever.

He said three rounds of miniature golf with his 5-year-old son Ryan helped his putting.

Pruitt, who earned his first career victory at the Chattanooga Classic on Sunday, extended his bogey-free streak to 84 holes.

AIX LES BAINS, France (AP) - A trip to Aix les Bains and its thermal baths may be just what Greg LeMond needed.

With the mountains - where he lost this year's Tour de France - behind him, LeMond returned to a mostly flat stage Thursday and gained ground on most of his rivals. He came in fourth in the 110-mile stage that led down from Morzine to this spa.

The last time the Tour visited Aix Les Bains, two years ago, LeMond won a stage just before the last-day heroics that won the Tour for him by eight seconds.

He is out of contention now, but shaved about two minutes from Miguel Indurain's lead over him to 12 minutes, 25 seconds.

"I feel 100 percent better than yesterday," LeMond said. "I felt very tired at the start but after the climb I felt very good. I don't know why I can't explain it."

LeMond lost almost eight minutes Wednesday on a cold, wet day that smothered his hopes this year and shifted the power to Indurain.

A combination of problems, ranging from a viral infection to swollen feet, sapped LeMond's strength in the mountains.

"Yesterday and Val Louron were bad. Val Louron was the worst I have ever felt," LeMond said.

Indurain has all but wrapped up this year's race with three stages left. He has a 3:09 advantage over Gianni Bugno after holding onto the lead for the seventh consecutive day.

In four mountain stages, LeMond dropped about 17 minutes to Indurain and the other top riders.

"I don't want to quit. It would be too easy to quit," LeMond said.

Dmitri Konyshov of the Soviet Union captured the 19th stage, beating Pascal Richard of Switzerland and Eduardo Chozas of Spain. LeMond was 14 seconds back; the main pack, including Indurain, was 1:50 behind.

Hill leads Senior Open

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) - The tractor back home is going to have to wait. Mike Hill won't be mowing grass any time soon.

Hill, who knew only moderate success during his days on the regular PGA Tour, has found both wealth and happiness on the Senior Tour.

Hill has already won twice this year. He's second to Chi Chi Rodriguez on the money list with $447,543. And he took a one-shot lead into today's second round of the U.S. Senior Open.

Hill's 2-under-par 68 at Oakland Hills on Thursday gave him a one-stroke lead over Gary Player, the only other player to break par at the course Ben Hogan dubbed The Monster.

Defending champion Lee Trevino was at even-par 70 and several players, including amateurs Hunter McDonald and Dick Siderowf, were at 71.

Hill's play since turning 50 is remarkable for someone who earned only $573,724 with three wins during 20 years on the regular Tour. In those days, he played second fiddle to his older brother, Dave, and he didn't much like it.

"I can honestly tell you I didn't have much fun when I was younger," Hill said. "I was struggling with my game and I wasn't very successful. Plus, Dave was always beating up on me. I just wanted to be driving a tractor."

Hill opened a public golf course in Brooklyn, Mich., and came out on the Senior Tour looking mainly to make enough money to build another nine holes - only to discover his golf game had improved.

With that, his attitude improved, too.

Hill joined the Senior Tour in 1989. In his first two years, he won five tournaments and $1.3 million.

"When you're successful, it's funny," Hill said. "The better I played, the more I wanted to play. One thing led to another. But when it's not fun, I guarantee you, you'd better take a picture because I'll be gone again."

In 1953 only two pro golfers won $100,000 or more. By 1988 the number had increased to 112.

McEnroe loses control

MONTREAL (AP) - John McEnroe's loss of control was Derrick Rostagno's gain.

McEnroe's two temper tantrums, the second of which cost him a key point, helped Rostagno win their third-round match Thursday night at the $1.2 million Canadian Open.

The seventh seed lost his cool and cursed at the chair umpire during the final-set tiebreaker, incurring a lost point and a $1,400 fine before losing 6-2, 1-6, 7-6 (7-5).

"I don't want to talk about it" was all McEnroe would say after the match, which was delayed for two hours by rain at 5-5 in the third set.

The penalty point came after the two players split the first 10 points of the tiebreaker and gave Rostagno match point. The 10th seed then closed out the match, advancing into the quarterfinals, when McEnroe netted a passing shot.

Schramm proud of success

CANTON, Ohio (AP) - Tex Schramm isn't sure what his legacy will be, but he knows what his proudest achievement is.

"Twenty winning seasons, 18 playoffs and doing it with an organization that was looked upon as having style and class," he said. "The Cowboys personified what winning and what the National Football League is all about."

Schramm, a contributor to the NFL for 43 years, heads a five-man class that will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame Saturday. Joining him will be guard John Hannah, running back Earl Campbell, offensive and defensive lineman Stan Jones and placekicker Jan Stenerud.

Schramm was one of the first people hired by owner Clint Murchison Jr. when Dallas was awarded an NFL franchise in 1960. After a slow start - 0-10-1 the first year - the Cowboys were molded into a team that won two Super Bowls and had 20 consecutive winning seasons.

Schramm, 71, never played or coached in the NFL. That's why his inclusion in pro football's hall of fame means so much to him.

"This is something that's very, very special," he said. "When you're working through the league, as I did for 40 years, you see people who in your mind are great, who you put on a pedestal. They're your idols, your heroes. Then all of a sudden, you come to the realization you'll be joining them and that there are people in this league who are going to be looking at you like I looked at those people."

Schramm was president and chief executive officer of the World League of American Football from the time he left the Cowboys in 1988 through 1990. Despite his innovations and contributions, he says he wishes he could do more.

"My only regret is I don't have more time to do all of the things I see coming in the future," he says.

Schramm sees even more growth, expansion and interest in the NFL.

"Growth of American football to Europe and around the world is going to be very exciting," he says.

Schramm will be presented by the man he hired as the Cowboys' first coach, Tom Landry. Two other players who Schramm brought to Dallas and played pivotal roles in the team's success - Bob Lilly and Roger Staubach - already are Hall of Famers.

Campbell joins other legends

HOUSTON (AP) - Earl Campbell already is a Texas Legend. Saturday he'll join pro football legends in the NFL Hall of Fame.

The Texas Legislature in 1981 named Campbell a Texas Legend, joining heroes of the state's fight for independence, Davey Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin.

Campbell is the only designated Legend added to the list in this century and those who helped Campbell achieve football stardom feel he is deserving of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Dabbs recruited Campbell out of Tyler, Texas. Darrell Royal tutored him to the Heisman Trophy and former Houston Oilers coach Bum Phillips spun yarns about his greatness as a pro running back.

Dabbs, now an assistant athletic director for the Longhorns, watched Campbell at Tyler High School, playing running back and linebacker. He's seen nothing like Campbell before or since at the high school level.

"He was the most dominating player I'd ever seen in high school, on both sides of the football," Dabbs said. "I never saw anyone in high school use the stiff arm the way he did and his power and speed. He was a total running back."

Campbell didn't begin his senior year in high school with Hall of Famer credentials but led Tyler to the state championship. He scored 28 touchdowns and rushed for 2,036 yards as a senior.

"Frankly, I didn't see how we could go wrong with Earl," Dabbs said. "He looked like a sure thing from the beginning to me."

Royal has many poignant moments of Campbell, who led the nation in rushing his senior year in 1977 with 1,744 yards. He completed his career at Texas with 4,443 rushing yards.

"He turned a game with Arkansas around, I think he was a freshman," said Royal, an assistant to the president at Texas. "We had a hard game going. Just before halftime, they had fourth down and we ran Earl on the field and he blocked the punt."

"Doug English picked it up and ran it for a touchdown. We kicked off and held them three downs, got the ball back and on the first play from scrimmage, he broke for 60 and we go in at halftime 14-0 when it had been a very tough football game. After that time on it was downhill."

Campbell was rookie of the year in the NFL, playing for Phillips and the Oilers in 1978. Campbell led the NFL in rushing in each of his first three seasons and was the league's most valuable player in each of those years.

He played eight seasons in the NFL, 6 with the Oilers, and finished with 9,407 career yards.

A question about Campbell getting up slowly from tackles brought out one of Phillips' most-quoted comments about Campbell: "Yeah, but he goes down even slower."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What is the best way for a wife to behave when her husband's affair is over?

When "Rudy" first began seeing a friend of mine, he was argumentative and difficult. In the last six months, he has become kinder and more considerate than he has ever been in the 24 years of our marriage. Without any verbalization, Rudy has let me know that the affair is over.

We do not make much of a physical relationship, which bothers me a great deal, but I try to maintain my dignity. I don't badger him about it. We never discuss the past, which hurt me deeply, but I am frightened out of my wits that he still cares for the woman and that she is never out of his thoughts. She is younger than I am and much prettier. I can understand why he was attracted to her.

This was not Rudy's first affair but it was definitely the most serious. I thought of retaliating with a brief encounter of my own and am glad now that I didn't. It would have made me feel cheap and would have accomplished nothing.

What advice do you have for me? - Uneasy in Virginia

DEAR VIRGINIA: If your goal is to keep your marriage together, I hope you will seek professional counseling.

If Rudy won't go with you, go alone. You need to learn how to communicate with each other again. Carry on. I admire your dignity.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work at a local animal shelter. On any given day at least two dogs are brought in because they chew furniture or the owner cannot house train them. Most of the pets are then euthanized.

With the proper kennel training and patience these problems can be corrected. I adopted a wonderful little dog no one wanted. "Susie" was scheduled to be destroyed. After three months of perfect behavior, this dog did $3,000 damage to my home in four hours.

My veterinarian advised me to keep Susie in a kennel when she couldn't be supervised. I tried it and concluded that it wasn't fair to her. A friend offered to take the dog but a week later "Susie" was found running in traffic and was traced back to me through her tags. I now have three options:

1. Return her to the shelter and risk her being destroyed or adopted by someone who may beat her because of her destructive behavior.
2. Muzzle her so she can roam free in the house, but she would not be able to eat or drink.
3. Properly kennel her and work with her until this problem is resolved.

Kenneling is not a permanent solution. It is a tool to correct behavioral problems. Most dogs voluntarily go into the kennel when the door is open. If more people learned proper kenneling and training techniques, pets would not have to be destroyed. This letter in print could be enormously helpful to many. Please believe me. -- Anonymous in N.Y.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) - Philadelphia Phillies outfielder Len Dykstra, seriously hurt in a May 6 car crash, won't face arraignment on drunken driving charges until he and his teammates return from a West Coast road trip.

Dykstra, 28, is in Los Angeles for a game against the Dodgers.

His arraignment had been scheduled for today. Instead, he will appear in court Aug. 8, officials said Wednesday.

The outfielder faces charges of drunken driving, reckless driving and speeding in the accident in which Dykstra's car crashed into a tree.

Dykstra suffered a broken collarbone and checkbone and three broken ribs and missed more than two months of play. Phillies catcher Darren Daulton, who was a passenger, was out 15 days with eye injuries.

Now, a single policy with double protection.

Imagine a life insurance policy that protects your family's future in more than one way. Suppose it also protected you from the financial consequences of long term health care while you're living, without reducing the life insurance benefit.

That's the policy our independent agency recommends for many customers thinking about retirement. It's called the Total Protection Plan from the CNA Insurance Companies, one of several we represent. It's the first policy that pays the full cash value or death benefit of your life insurance even after you receive long term care benefits.

To learn more about the policy that protects you now and in the future, give us a call.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

SHAKESPEARE IN THE BIBLE?

IN 1604, KING JAMES GATHERED TOGETHER A GROUP OF LINGUISTS, PREACHERS, PROFESSORS, AND SOME 47 BIBLICAL SCHOLARS TO PRODUCE A GREAT BIBLE. IT WAS DECREED THAT ALL WHO WORKED ON THIS HOLY CLASSIC SHOULD REMAIN ANONYMOUS, HOWEVER...

...SEVEN YEARS LATER, WHEN THIS GREAT VERSION OF THE BIBLE WAS PUBLISHED (1611), SOME AUTHORITIES INSISTED THAT SHAKESPEARE WAS ONE OF THE UNSUNG WRITERS AND HAD LEFT SOME CLUES TO PROVE THIS VERY FACT!

CLUES

IN 1605 SHAKESPEARE WAS 46 YEARS OLD. TURN TO PSALM 46. COUNT TO THE 46TH WORD: SHAKE NOW COUNT BACKWARDS FROM THE END OF THE PSALM ANOTHER 46 WORDS: SPEAR PUT THEM TOGETHER: SHAKESPEAR!

WHETHER THIS LEGEND IS TRUE OR FALSE, IT'S NOT TOO HARD TO BELIEVE THAT SHAKESPEARE'S TALENT CONTRIBUTED TO THE RICH POETRY AND PROSE THAT WE FIND IN THE KING JAMES BIBLE!
