

The 12 Traditions Of Alcoholics Anonymous

The 12 Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A. A. unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority — a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for A. A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A. A. as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose — to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
6. An A. A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A. A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every A. A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever non-professional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. A. A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A. A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

ity never fail: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away."

Fooks explained that charity was love.

But he offered nine solutions to their problem. And during this period there was muffled laughter from several ladies in the meeting room.

Fooks continued nonetheless: "Recognize the problem. Don't kid yourself. Don't cover up alcoholism in your family. Face up to the situation without self-pity. Genuinely desire a solution. Sometimes you will have to change your ideas, prejudices, life, etc. But the wife cannot be the alcoholic's therapist. Approach the problem realistically without fear. Learn how others are solving the problem. Seek help from both the professional and the layman. Don't expect the problem to go away overnight. Develop right attitudes: count your other blessings. Pray believing and with patience. You are only one person involved. You cannot solve the problem without the alcoholic's voluntarily helping himself — but know yourself, your weaknesses, your strength, your nervous dispositions, your prejudices — your emotional involvement, try to be objective. Gain maturity and understanding. You may be a large part of the problem yourself or you may aggravate it.

"There is the sufferer who enjoys the role of martyr. There is the pusher or sadist — the controller. And there is the waiver, who starts something but will not finish it.

"Create in the heart of the alcoholic the desire to solve the problem. Not by nagging, making him feel ashamed, or pointing out what he is doing to himself and his family. Never be overly protective, sympathetic nor harsh. Seek wisdom from above."

When Fooks had finished, the ladies freely admitted that they had been laughing at themselves — "You must have been reading our mail!" — and confessed that they had been guilty of breaking at least one, if not all, the rules of solution he had outlined.

They pointed out that was their reason for being in Al-Anon. Like the alcoholic next door who must learn to understand the problem of alcohol, they were banded together to learn the problems, not only of the alcoholic but the alcoholic's mate!

And they were sincere. Actually there had been tears along with the laughter.

The Al-Anon meeting then had an open discussion — and confessions — toward a better understanding. And toward deeper means of solution. This was serious.

The mates understood each other as well as the alcoholic understands another alcoholic.

According to the real-life alcoholic, the basis of their problem is resentment. Not only resentment but bitterness, anxiety and pure hatred. By and large, they are not out to make whoopee but confess a need for liquor so that they "can keep going all day." They can be argumentative, belligerent and downright dangerous at times.

The alcoholic faces public condemnation daily. The alcoholic knows this.

But psychologists (whom the alcoholic often deeply resents) have revealed some interesting data in regard to their marriages and families:

The wife of an alcoholic who knows of her husband's "illness" prior to marriage usually goes through with the ceremony and "wedded bliss" simply because she wants someone she can control — someone who can make her a martyr. This is the hardest job on earth, but she usually earns her place on the pedestal. And when the mate dies, statistics reveal, she will usually marry another alcoholic.

In cases where there are children, the mother will further dominate. She will actually "blow the father's weakness out of actual proportion" in order to be the child's only security. Psychologists reveal, in order to further the cause of complete martyrdom. Irregardless of her statements to the contrary, she has no earthly desire for her husband to quit drinking — else she would be forced to live in a less exciting capacity.

And this has a chain reaction. Through seemingly complete lack of security, the child has more of a chance of winding up an alcoholic than the non-alcoholic's children. Contrary to popular public opinion, statistics of the U. S. government bear this out completely.

At the Al-Anon meeting, three ladies who are experienced with groups of children said that there is no way of telling through characteristics of the child whether he has or has not had an alcoholic parent in his home. "Some are introverts, some are extroverts — just like any other child."

So some alcoholics find themselves (if they find themselves at all) with side problems which are almost impossible to surmount. They either do not realize such family conditions or, if they do, find themselves in a situation that seems bleak at all costs. "You can't win," one of them once told this reporter.

years than any other state. But he is promoting the junior college system. "In the near future, we won't be able to get all our children into senior colleges. There is a strong need for the junior college."

For West Texas, he said, "Our fight is for more water."

But as far as the state constitution is concerned, he told his audience that he was not in favor of junking it but was in favor of revising it. "Such things as water pollution and air pollution needs state controls," and that the constitution should be revised for these and other needs.

Barnes reported that Bill Clayton, the state representative for this district who recently suffered a heart attack at Austin, is now out of the intensive care unit there, but that doctors have said that he will remain in bed for "another two or three months."

The Sweepstakes Award is made to those choirs earning a First Division rating in Concert and Sight Reading. All records were unavailable, said Choir Director Richard Jackson, but four Sweepstakes trophies were found at the high school. They were won in 1955, 1956, 1963 and 1964.

In other competition, the Hereford Junior and Senior girls earned a First Division rating in Concert and a Second Division rating in Sight Reading and the Sophomore girls received two Second Division ratings.

The HHS Madrigals earlier this month had received a First Division rating in competition at Canyon.

Judges for the contest Wednesday were Aurelia Scroggin of Ray High School in Corpus Christi; Hoover Fischer of Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla., and George Umberson of Eastern New Mexico University in Portales. The Sight Reading Judge was Ronnie Bates of San Angelo High in San Angelo.

SEVENTH GRADE RESULTS

In the seventh grade division of the discus event, three members of the Stanton tracksters placed in the finals and these were Spearman, who collected first with a heave of 102 feet 9 inches; Moton, who was second with a toss of 100 feet 3 1/2 inches; and Hammock, who nabbed sixth with a throw of 86 feet 8 inches. In the same event, Locke of the La Plata team garnered fourth place in the finals with a throw of an even 90 feet.

Field events saw other action when Spearman, Scott, and Moton of Stanton placed second, third, and fifth, respectively in the shot put event. Spearman had a toss of 34 feet 7 inches for his second place effort. Adding points for La Plata in the shot event was Locke who collected sixth with a 31 feet 7 inch toss.

Kitchens of the Stanton squad was the only one to place in the seventh grade pole vault division as he took first place honors with a vault of 8 feet 2 inches. Lastly on the field events schedule for the junior highs was the high jump. Placing in the high jump for La Plata was Champ, McNey, and Hill as they took third, fourth, and sixth places respectively. First, and second, places were all nabbed by members of the Stanton team as Ramirez and High took these honors with Ramirez jumping 4 feet 11 inches.

In the 660 yard dash, Montano of Stanton was first with a time of 1:47.5 while Locke of La Plata was third and Ramirez of Stanton was fourth.

Stanton took the first place in the 440 yard relay with a time of 5:5 with La Plata coming in second place.

Olsen of La Plata, with a time of 16.2 took first place in the 120 low hurdles with Kitchens of Stanton getting second with the 57.2 time. A coin was flipped and Olson won the toss. Bain of Stanton took fifth in the same event with Cantu of La Plata placing sixth.

Complete results of the meet will be published in the Thursday's issue of the Brand.

Spring may have officially arrived, but frankly, most folks around Hereford have been about to freeze the past few days. Typical of West Texans, a snow storm arrived simultaneously with the arrival of spring.

And a note from Austin, signed only "Students of the University of Texas" asks this question: "Can't you Aggies learn to spell FRIENDS?" The note concerned a jumbled headline in the March 7th Brand.

Sorry fellows. But you can't put the blame on the farmers from A&M. There isn't an Aggie on the entire staff.

Oh, yes. Next time, put a stamp on the envelope. It cost us 6 cents to get your message.

And another good word for the Hereford Hustlers. This comes from Harold Hudson's column, "From the Sidelines" in the Ochiltree County (Perryton) Herald.

"We are late in mentioning this, but when we attended the West-Texas Press Association meeting in Hereford last week, we were overwhelmed by the hospitality of the Hereford Hustlers, the goodwill group of the Chamber of Commerce that wears red jackets and greets visitors. About 20 of these fellows came to the headquarters motel ahead of time and took a great deal of pleasure in greeting everybody that came in. They even carried bags to the rooms, introduced themselves, and put on such a genuine Western welcome that we from other West Texas towns were greatly impressed.

Of course, wearing special coats and greeting visitors is what our own Chamber of Commerce hopes to do, but we have a long way to go before we approach this Hereford spirit. Back about 15 years ago we attended a Jaycee convention in Hereford and were impressed when merchants came out of their stores to greet us visitors, and people went out of their way to make us feel welcome. This sort of spirit has made Hereford grow and prosper."

Mr. Hudson, by the way, is president of the Texas Press Association and was named an "Honorary Hereford Bull" by the local Chamber of Commerce while visiting here during the West Texas Press meeting. Hudson's comments are just a sample of the many that we have received from not only the visiting newspaper people, but from other groups as well.

The Hereford Kiwanis Club is now busy making preparations for a "Governor's Ball" to be held in May, honoring the chief official of this Kiwanis district. Incidentally, this particular district covers a lot of territory, and the Kiwanians are expecting a big crowd in Hereford for the event.

So again, we'll have the opportunity to demonstrate that West Texas hospitality for which we're becoming known.

We're looking forward to working with the Kiwanians to make this the best one in their history.

And from down Brownwood way, we notice that Howard Payne College has announced a policy barring "hippies" from enrollment at the Baptist-supported institution.

The Howard Payne board said those who were not hippies when they enrolled but became so later "will be asked either to change their ways or to withdraw."

It's a shame that more colleges and universities will not adopt the same policy. Actually, these people who call themselves "hippies," demanding a better world, have contributed nothing towards that goal. And we doubt that they ever will.

If these people wanted to make any meaningful contribution to the betterment of the people around them, they could surely do so by bettering themselves. Like going to work and quit trying to live off their neighbors.

When they have solved their own problems, then we would suggest that there is lots of work to be done — perhaps with the Boy Scouts, the Campfire Girls, the Red Cross or even with the United Fund that supplies money to all these agencies. There's never a shortage of projects that need to be done, but it takes a man with more standing in the community than the average hippie to get them done.

Lions Continue Auction Plans

With the deadline drawing nearer, members of the Hereford Lions Club are busily soliciting gifts for their Radio Auction, to be held April 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Lions have been soliciting Hereford merchants to give the items, for which the merchant will receive advertising during the radio auction. The bigger the gift the more advertising he will receive. Deadline for securing gifts is Thursday.

The gifts will be displayed April 1 at a location where people can see them and pick up a merchandise sheet. They will not be able to bid until the auction begins. The actual bidding will begin at 4 p. m. and last two hours at the same times each of the four days.

During those two days, KPAN radio will broadcast live from the auction location, and persons may telephone in bids. When approximately 80 per cent of the retail value of the item is reached, it will be sold to the highest bidder.

The funds have been earmarked for the Campfire and Boy Scout Building Fund, said Boss Lion Rocky Lee.

AUTHENTIC PLAY SERIES — Stage furnishings and costumes of more than a century ago added to audience enjoyment of the Stanton Junior High all-school play, Huckleberry Finn, at its two showings this week. At the parlor organ is Carol Scott as Aunt Sally, with mustachioed Carl Brown wearing constable's star and keys standing by. From left in the other photo are Dion Miller as a woe-begone Tom Sawyer, surveyed with amusement by Lester Mayes as the fugitive slave Jim and with annoyance by Harold Schmucker in the title role.

Student Actors Are Applauded In SJHS Comedy. Huck Finn

Almost filling Stanton Junior High auditorium, large audiences applauded two presentations of the all-school play, Huckleberry Finn, Thursday and Friday evenings.

The student cast directed by Horace McGuffin gave an appealing version of the well-known Mark Twain story, featuring Harold Schmucker as a one-gallused Huck.

Stage settings by the school art department directed by Jon Birdsong and furnishings loaned by Deaf Smith County Museum made an authentic period piece of the mid-nineteenth century story. Costumes added to the atmosphere.

Lester Mayes supplied much of the comedy as the runaway slave, and Martha Ann McBride as Emmeline, the fluttery, talkative smalltown reporter. In adult roles, more difficult for junior high students, Carol Scott gave a sustained characterization of harassed Aunt Sally and Janet Miller a hilarious scene as Aunt Polly, seaskiff after a streamer trip.

Carl Brown flourished his shotgun as the constable and Neil McAndrews and David Hen-see played a slippery pair of drifters involved with the officer in a noisy chase up and down the auditorium aisles which brought the house down.

Dion Miller as Tom Sawyer supported Huck in his schemes. Suzanne Solomon was a jealous schoolgirl, Carolyn Langley her pert little sister and Becky Hickman a pretty, curly-haired Becky Thatcher to complete the cast.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

According to some folks, it ought to be worth something to live in Texas. Well, it is. The Texas community property law gives taxpayers three extra income tax benefits. First, you may qualify for an additional $100 dividend exclusion. Second, you can claim an additional $1000 capital loss by filing separate returns, and third, you can qualify for an additional $228 in retirement income credit. There is also a new benefit available this year in a few rare cases — if you file separate returns you can claim an extra $150 medical insurance deduction.

Kershen Speaks To Kiwanis Meeting

Bill Thompson, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce was presented the "Citizen of the Month" award at the noon meeting of the local Kiwanis club on Thursday.

The award was presented by Clint Formby, who described Thompson as being director of the Civil Defense, deputy state director for training of MARS, president of the migrant ministry and executive officer of the Civil Air Patrol.

Speaking to the group following the presentation was Andrew Kershen, an active figure in promoting the proposed plan to bring water to the Texas Panhandle from the Mississippi River.

Tax Questions

Q — I moved when I changed jobs last year. Can I deduct any of my moving expenses?

A — You may be able to deduct some of these expenses if certain conditions are met as explained in the 1040 instructions.

A copy of Form 9903, which may be obtained by dropping a post card to your local IRS office, has further information on this deduction. Form 9903 or a statement containing the required information must be filed with your 1040 if you claim this deduction.

Q — Can I claim my wife as a dependent if she files her own return?

A — No. When she files her own return she takes her own exemption. You may not take an exemption for her unless you file jointly, or she had no income and was not another taxpayer's dependent.

Remember that when separate returns are filed, each must handle deductions the same way. If one itemizes, so must the other. If standard deductions are used, both must use the same type, either the 10 percent or the minimum.

Also, be sure to use the tax table or rate schedule for married couples filing separately. An error frequently made on separate returns is to compute the tax using the rates for married couples filing jointly.

Kershen outlined the problems and advantages of bringing water to the area, pointing out that time was of great importance. "We need to get this through Congress in the very near future," said Kershen, comment on the many friends of the plan who are now holding seats in Congress.

"People and politicians are our main problems," Kershen explained that the area needs to work together so that none will be left out of the program.

He closed his address with,

Two Citations Given In Wreck

Two citations were issued Friday night following a one-car accident on Main Street, near the intersection with Second Street, Friday night.

Officers said a unit from the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office was in pursuit of a 1957 Mercury driven by Jimmy Deluna of 335 Avenue G when the driver stopped the car in the street and ran on foot.

The car kept moving then and slammed into a rest area pole and litter barrel. There was an estimated $200 damage to the car and $75 damage to the other equipment.

Citations were issued for having no drivers license and leaving a vehicle unattended.

More Plans Announced For Cancer Crusade April 29

Mrs. Bud Thomas of Hereford has been named House-to-Door Chairman for the local American Cancer Society Crusade, by Dale Young, the crusade chairman.

The crusade here has been set for April 29, the last Monday in the month, according to Young.

With emphasis centered upon cancer's seven warning signals, the American Cancer Society is preparing to launch its 1968 educational and fund-raising crusade.

Once again, April has been set aside by Congress as Cancer Control Month. President Lyndon B. Johnson is expected shortly to make the period officially Cancer Control Month by proclamation.

According to Mrs. Armon Lauderback, president of the American Cancer Society in Hereford, the crusade will focus attention on the fact that too many people are not familiar with just which early signs could indicate cancer.

"Surveys show that too many cannot name most of the signals," Mrs. Lauderback continued. "A recent study, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, revealed that 69 per cent of those sampled could identify a single warning sign. Yet, in a similar survey, in 1965 the figure was 60 per cent, while a Gallup Poll taken in 1948 showed only 51 per cent could name a correct signal.

"A nine percentage point gain in awareness of this vital information is most welcome, but it is a slow step forward over an 11-year period. That is why the Cancer Society is stressing the value of knowing these signals."

The basic, yet simple, warning signals that could mean the presence of cancer serve as an alert to aid in early diagnosis, when cancer is in its earliest and most curable stage, it has been reported.

Plans for the all-out April crusade, Mrs. Lauderback explained, include nationwide distribution of 40-million leaflets listing the seven warning signals of cancer. Every family in Hereford and Deaf Smith County will receive this leaflet, most of them to be delivered in person by Cancer Society volunteer workers.

The seven warning signals of cancer are:

Unusual bleeding or discharge. A lump or thickness in the breast or elsewhere. A sore that does not heal. Change in bowel or bladder habits. Hoarseness or cough. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing. Any change in a wart or mole.

Should any of these signals last longer than two weeks, an early visit to a doctor is urged. Only he can tell if cancer is present.

Mrs. Lauderback said that the 1968 April crusade will bear the slogan: It makes sense to know the seven warning signals of cancer. And it makes sense to give to the American Cancer Society.

Any person interested in helping in this year's crusade should contact Mrs. Bud Thomas at 423 Ave. C in Hereford.

Other cancer information to ponder:

The leading cause of cancer death in women is breast cancer. More school children will die of cancer than from any other disease. At present rates, one in every four Americans now alive will get cancer. The American Cancer Society estimates that about 915,000 Americans will be under medical care for cancer this year.

The American Cancer Society says a Pap Test reveals womb cancer in women when it is virtually 100 per cent curable.

Since 1935, the death rate for uterine cancer has declined 50 per cent, due to improvement in detection, such as the Pap Test, and to unremitting educational programs for women. But some 65,000 new cases of breast cancer will be discovered this year.

Lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in males; cigarette smoking is the major cause of lung cancer, says the American Cancer Society. Surgery and radiation are effective in treating many types of cancer. New drugs have been used in treating a few forms of the disease. Cancer of the colon and rectum will strike 73,000 Americans this year.

About 105,000 new cases of skin cancer are reported annually. Yet this form of cancer is largely preventable through avoidance of over-exposure to the sun.

Lately-Married Couple Are Honorees At Party

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dutton, who have been visiting in the home of his parents, the W. P. Duttons, since his discharge from the U. S. Army, and who will leave soon to make their home in Tulsa, were honored at a party Friday evening in First National Community Room.

Dutton and Miss Shelley Walker of Anaheim, Calif., were married Dec. 1, while he was a patient in an Army hospital. After his recovery and discharge from military service they came to spend a few weeks here before going to Tulsa, where he will attend school.

The couple and his mother received party guests, who presented gifts for the home they will establish in Tulsa.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in blue and white flowers. Hostesses took turns presiding at the table and the guest book.

They were Mmes. Fred Boren Joe Hysinger, R. B. Hutson, C. P. Worthan, B. H. Roberts, Jack Coleman, Bill Ott, Cliff Robison, Dale Hallows, Henry Andrews, Ted Royal and E. D. Sawyer.

More men than women died of cancer last year. The American Cancer Society says this has been true since 1949. The ratio for 1968 will be about 55 men to 4 women.

CLASS FIELD TRIP — A local school class visited the Bell Telephone Company Friday to watch the work carried on there and to have various things explained to them. Trips of this sort are taken each week in hopes of helping the students learn different things that might be important to them in the future.

New Engineer Is Chosen By Corps

Maj. Col. Clarence C. Haug will be the new Southwestern Division Engineer for the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers on April 1, 1968. The Southwestern Division headquarters is located in Dallas.

Gen. Haug, being transferred from Okinawa, will succeed Brigadier Gen. William T. Bradley, who has been assigned to Vietnam.

About two-thirds of the Southwestern Division's current activities involves civil works, covering portions of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, and Missouri. Part of its program is the reconnaissance investigation of a water importation project, designed to pump large quantities of fresh water from the Mississippi River to West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

Gen. Bradley has devoted considerable time and effort to the importation program. He was a principle speaker at the Southwestern Water Conference in Portales, N. M. in Feb. of 1967, and also at the organizational meeting of Water Inc. on May 24th, 1967 in Lubbock, Texas. More recently, he attended the 24th annual convention of the Texas Water Conservation Association in Dallas on Feb. 22, 1968.

Four Hereford Men Active In ROTC At Tech

Four Hereford residents were among the ROTC members of Texas Tech to have been honored during the annual Military Ball Saturday night on the Tech campus.

The four are Steven G. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cooper of 121 Centre, a senior finance major; John S. Perrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Perrin of Route 4, a sophomore animal science major; James H. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Myers of 312 Centre, a freshman electrical engineering major, and James L. Haney, son of Johnnie Haney of 200 Grand, a senior accounting major.

Highlight of the Military Ball was to have been the crowning of Queen for 1968.

The nation's fourth largest city in land area was not on maps six years ago. Chesapeake, Va. covers 372 square miles. Only Oklahoma City, Los Angeles and Houston exceed it in size.

Chesapeake, Va., allows bear hunting within its city limits, which include a part of the great Dismal Swamp.

Hereford High School was first occupied in January 1926.

In 1925, F. H. Oberthier sold the light plant he had begun in 1908 to a public utilities company which later became Southwestern Public Service Company.

Walk and Be Healthy

"WHY DO TOENAILS OFTEN BECOME THICKENED AND DISCOLORED?"

Unusually thickening of the toenails may be due to a number of disease conditions and injuries. These disorders, in turn, produce pressure on the toenail bed, nutritional deficiencies of the nail bed or root, inflammation, infection and disease or thickening of the phalanx (the small bone beneath the toenail plate). The toenail gradually becomes thickened and a change in the coloring of the toenail plate usually occurs. The result is an uncomfortable and potentially serious problem.

Diseases such as diabetes, arthritis, and hardening of the arteries sometimes cause such nail changes. They are commonly observed with psoriasis and acute eczema. However, infections beneath the nail plate are by far the most common cause of the thickening, distortion, and discoloration of the toenails.

Fungus Infection Blamed

The most frequent is the fungus infection. In fact, so common is this type infection that many podiatrists and the public generally equate thick toenails with the presence of a fungus organism, according to an Atlanta, Ga. Podiatrist, Dr. E. Dalton McGlamry.

An article published in the Journal of the American College of Foot Surgeons stated that most of the patients having onychomycosis (fungus nails) share a common mechanical problem. That is, the majority of them have toenails that are entirely too wide for the amount of supportive tissue present beneath the toenail. This results in crowding or curling in of the sides of the toenails into the nail grooves. Such a condition makes it impossible to properly clean out beneath the nail margins. Dead skin cells accumulate in the nail grooves and remain there to decay. The decaying skin cells retain moisture and also lack the acid barrier which normal healthy skin has present to help resist bacterial or fungus infection.

Podiatrists Can Correct

This same article suggests that where thick fungus nails are present the problem may be corrected by permanently narrowing the toenail plate. If the nail plate is narrowed (by permanent sterilization of part of the nail root), it is impossible for dead skin to accumulate under the plate. Without the dead skin, the fungus has nothing on which to feed. Infected nails then return to normal thickness and color as they grow out.

Whatever the cause of the thick nails, podiatrists feel that it is essential that they be either corrected or controlled. If not corrected, they continue to gradually thicken until infection beneath the nail becomes severe and the bone becomes involved. It is not unusual in the diabetic or among the older patients for the neglect of this problem to result in blood poisoning or in gangrene. Even the loss of an entire foot or leg is not rare.

Detected early, thickening of the nails is a minor disorder which can be readily corrected. Neglect invites far more serious and possibly disabling problems.

Happy Hustlers Hold Meeting

Refreshments were served prior to the meeting of the Happy Hustlers 4-H Club held Thursday, March 21, at 4 p.m.

The Happy Hustler's were hosts to the Happy Workers 4-H Club led by Mrs. Anders.

President Donna Woodward called the meeting to order. Kay Atchley called the roll. Members present were Walter Anders, Kevin Douglas, Jim Goheen, Rex Lee, Larry Justice, Dennis Goheen, Donna Woodward, and Kay and Charles Atchley. Kay Atchley then read the minutes of the last meeting.

Reports were made by the club members on their various activities. Club leaders reminded members that county contests would be held March 30.

James Higgins presented a talk to the club on "Wildlife Conservation." Mr. Higgins impressed the need for conservation of natural resources upon the members.

Leaders present were Mrs. C. T. Goheen and Mrs. Thurman Atchley. Guests present were the Happy Workers and Mr. Higgins. Donna Woodward adjourned the meeting.

Walkers Named Chairmen Again In Local Group

The re-appointment of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Walker of Walker Refrigeration Service as chairman of the Hereford chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business has been announced by District Manager R. B. Latham.

The Federation, creating a working relationship between independent business at the grass roots and members of Congress, has the largest individual membership of any business organization in the nation.

Its membership in all 50 states is polled regularly on bills and issues affecting independent enterprise at national and state levels. Each business and professional member has a voting privilege.

Votes from members in this area are received and tabulated by Mr. and Mrs. Walker who serves on a voluntary basis. She forwards the tabulation, together with the signed ballots, to Congressman Bob Price in Washington, D. C., and also advises Governor John Connally of the results.

A majority vote on an issue determines the Federation's position. The non-profit National Federation of Independent Business is completely non-partisan, non-affiliated, and not a duplication of any other organization.

The opinion of small businessmen as expressed in the Federation ballots is welcomed by many members of Congress and government officials. Many important domestic laws have passed following ballot support by the Federation membership.

Teacher Of The Year Also Is Favorite Of Students

Mrs. Margaret Durham, Homemaking teacher at Hereford High School, has been named the 1968 Teacher of the Year. Mrs. Durham has been at the high school since the new building was opened in 1954.

The other teachers in the balloting were Ben Gollehon, band director at the high school; Ethel Womble, fifth grade teacher at Northwest; Rubye Crawford, reading teacher at Bluebonnet; and Lottie Wertenberger of arts and crafts at LaPlata.

(The Brand was in error when Ruby Mulkey was listed as candidate for the Teacher of the Year Award in its previous issue.)

Mrs. Durham has been teaching about nineteen years. She began at Baird, Texas, and then taught at Carrizo Springs, before coming to Central and Shirley in Hereford as teacher.

Prior to teaching, she had done four years of Home Demonstration work in Caldwell County.

Mrs. Durham was graduated from Austin High School at Austin and went to the University of Texas. After her marriage, she went to Sul Ross College at Alpine. Since then, she attended West Texas State at Canyon for her Masters Degree and has done graduate work at Texas Tech in Lubbock several times.

Mrs. Durham has not only been honored by her fellow teachers and the City of Hereford, but by her many students, whom she couldn't possibly estimate their number each year. But it was reliably reported that all of her many students "loved her dearly."

She is married to J. J. Durham, and they make their home in Hereford at 147 Ranger. Durham is a Texas A & M graduate and is connected with the Worley Feed Mills of Clovis. They have a son, James I. Durham, who has taught biochemistry at Texas A & M for the past two years. He is planning to complete his doctorate work there this year.

Their daughter, Mrs. Norman D. Bartlett, lives with her husband at Lubbock.

Mrs. Durham is retiring at the end of this semester. But she has plans to stay in Hereford, although she has no definite plans for future activities — other than plans to stay active!

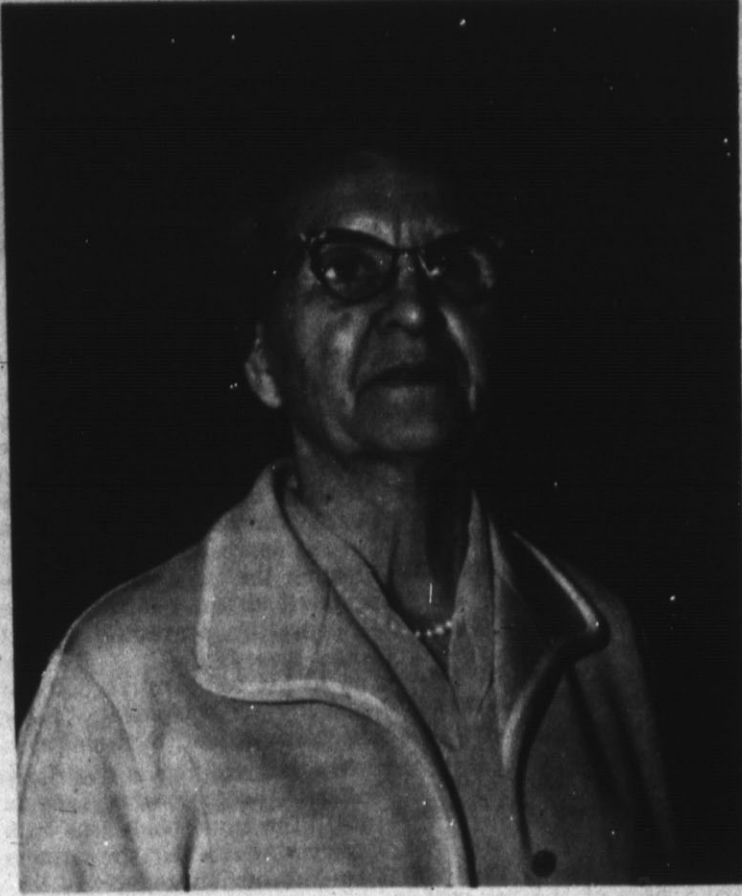

The Durhams are members of the First Methodist Church here.

Best Speakers Are Chosen By Toastmasters

Five men were recognized for their achievements following the regular meeting of the Hereford Toastmaster's Club Thursday night.

Jim Padgett was chosen Best Speaker; Jim Gilliam was named Most Improved Speaker; Tom Draper got the Best Table Topic Speaker award; Stan Knox served as General Critic, and C. Goeringer was the Best Evaluator.

Toastmaster of the evening was Ken Rudd. Al Dzuik also was speaker and Frank Prowell was a guest.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR — Mrs. Margaret Durham, the Homemaking teacher at Hereford High School.

Highway Patrolmen Show Safety Film For Circle

Highway Patrolman Glen Toles and Charles V. Moore gave the program for the Antonion Circle at St. Anthony's School auditorium Thursday evening, showing a film titled Anatomy Of An Accident, then answering questions which chiefly concerned new drivers license laws and highway rules on turning.

The film showed various causes of traffic accidents and emphasized that a driver should be prepared for anything. It defined a defensive driver as one with three C's, concentration, courtesy and control.

The new moderator for the Circle will be the Very Rev. Angelus Delahunt, S. A., pastor of St. Anthony's Parish, it was announced in the business session.

One of the program guests, Patrolman Toles, was winner of the door prize. Guests to hear the safety program were Mmes. Marvin Batenhorst, Joe Soliz, Frank Garcia and Don Foster.

Refreshments were served to them and to 22 members by the hostesses, Mmes. James Hund, Nick Yosten and Martin Reid Moore.

Income Facts Tax

DALLAS — Pay your 1967 Federal income tax by check or money order, not in cash, was the advice given today to North Texas taxpayers by Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue. Taxpayers who send cash through the mail have no record of payment in case of loss or misdelivery.

Payment can be stopped on a misplaced check or money order and a new payment made, Mr. Campbell said.

Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Internal Revenue Service. When a payment is not accompanied by a tax return or bill, write your social security number on the check or money order and state the exact purpose of the payment.

Searching Your Car

If a policeman stops you for a traffic violation, may he search your car?

This question might seem minor. But it raises some major constitutional issues. According to the Fourth Amendment, you are protected against "unreasonable searches." And evidence obtained from such a search cannot be used against you in court.

But what is "unreasonable"? Gradually, through a series of court rulings, several basic rules have become fairly well established.

For one thing, the search is not lawful if the motorist was stopped on a trumped-up charge, merely as an excuse for making the search.

Deadline Nears On Vehicle Inspection

There is still a certain amount of busy people in Deaf Smith County that have not had automobile inspection under the state law, according to the Texas Department of Public Safety, and the deadline date is April 15.

In plain words, those who have not had these inspections made now have only 22 more days until the bloody axe falls!

This year's regulations include seat belt requirements for all cars of the 1962 model or later, DPS has announced, and has issued the warning that those who do not have the necessary belts may have problems getting them, it is postponed to the last days.

Furthermore, it is recommended that even those who do have the seat belts better get on the ball. Otherwise, such motorists might find themselves in a "traffic jam" at the inspection stations.

Diabetes Group Continues Plans

Local persons interested in joining a Diabetes Lay Society are urged to attend a meeting at 7:30 p.m. April 2 in the Public Health Department Auditorium, 417 Austin, in Amarillo.

A representative group of persons, both adults and teenagers, interested in "diabetes" met recently in the home of Rev. Jack Riley of 3400 Jackson to discuss the organization of such a society for the Amarillo area.

Many opportunities for service in helping diabetics are available through lay societies. Membership is offered to diabetics, their relatives, friends, and other persons interested in diabetes.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Rev. Riley or Mrs. Winifred N. Gass at the Health Department.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Are cigarette taxes deductible if you itemize?

A — No, taxes on cigarettes and other tobacco products are not deductible for federal tax purposes. Page 8 of the Form 1040 instructions lists the taxes you can deduct on your income tax return.

Q — Are dividends from a savings and loan account considered dividends or interest?

A — This income should be reported as interest on Page 2 of Form 1040.

Q — My neighbor just received his income tax refund. How long should it take between the time you file and the time your check comes?

A — If the return is accurate and complete, it should take from five to six weeks to receive an income tax refund. To avoid delays, read the instructions that accompany the tax forms carefully.

Mistakes delaying refunds this year are inaccurate social security numbers, missing W-2 statements, and missing signatures.

If you are expecting a refund, file your return now for prompt action. Returns filed close to the April deadline take longer to process due to the large volume of returns received by the IRS at that time.

Q — I have a company pension. How much tax will I have to pay on it?

A — Your tax liability depends on how much you contributed to its cost. This is explained in the instructions for Schedule B-of Form 1040. Copies of this schedule and the instructions are available at many banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

Q — My widowed mother lives with us and her only income is interest from a savings account. Can we claim her as a dependent?

A — You may claim your mother as a dependent if you provide more than half her support and her income from all sources is not $600 or more.

Q — What are the changes on medical expense deductions?

A — There are two major changes. First, the medical expenses of all taxpayers must be reduced by 3 percent of their total income before they can be deducted. Prior to 1967, the medical expenses of taxpayers 65 and over were not subject to this rule.

Second, one half of the premiums paid for medical insurance up to a maximum of $150 may be deducted without regard to the 3 percent rule.

Q — Are tips taxable?

A — Yes, they are. Tip income should also be reported to your employer if they amount to $20 or more in any month. This will enable your employer to withhold social security and income taxes on the tips from your regular salary.

Q — Last year I sold stock I inherited from my grandfather. What figure do I use as my cost to determine whether I made a profit?

A — The cost to you is generally the fair market value at the date of the decedent's death. Your stock broker may be able to determine the fair market value for you.

Q — Our daughter was married last fall. Can we claim her as a dependent since we supported her most of the year?

A — If your daughter does not file a joint return with her husband and the other dependency tests were met, you may claim her as a dependent.

Q — On casualty losses, is the $100 minimum applied to each loss or does it cover all losses for the year? We suffered storm and flood damage last year.

A — The $100 limitation applies to each separate nonbusiness casualty. Losses which exceed this limitation and are not reimbursed by insurance may be deducted as nonbusiness casualty losses.

As the cost of living continues to rise, workers in major industries demand and usually receive wage increases to match. Most everyone, it seems, manages to add higher wages and other costs into the price of goods and services we buy. Most everyone, that is, except the farmer. Net farm income for 1967 was actually down from the year before by $1.9 billion. Farm income statistics published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in February show that realized net farm income last year declined from $16.4 billion to $14.5 billion, while farm production expenses increased $1.1 billion, and cash receipts from farm marketings declined from $16.4 billion to $14.5 billion. That represents a drop in realized net farm income of 11.5 per cent in one year.

La Plata Play To Run 2 Days

A cast of seven boys and six girls from La Plata Junior High School will present a three-act comedy, "June Mad," at 7:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday in the La Plata Auditorium. "June Mad" points out some of the problems modern day teenagers have in growing up. Mrs. Spicer Gripp is director and John Murdock is assisting. There is a stage crew of three. Dress rehearsals will be held Monday and Tuesday.

Maj. John Wesley Powell made history as the first explorer to brave the mysteries and rapids of the Colorado. The veteran of the Civil War ran the wild river with only one arm, since he had lost the other at Shiloh.

Mrs. N. A. Brown held the floating prize and Mrs. Elmer Northcutt received a game prize. Mrs. George Bumpass was a guest and other members present were Mmes. Bill Page, H. D. Buse and S. N. Thweatt. Misses Linda and Debbie Sorrells assisted their mother in serving refreshments.

PORT, graphically illustrated the sad state of American agriculture. Their report shows that agriculture is the largest of the 12 biggest U. S. industries. Agriculture leads in assets, spending for equipment and machinery and in number of workers. If farmers and ranchers had been adequately paid for their production, agriculture would be first in income and second in sales — but it is not. The article reports that agriculture sales are less than 17 per cent of assets while the next 11 largest industries have sales which average 108 per cent of their assets per year.

What other industry could survive a drop of 11.5 per cent in income in times like these? And the only way many farmers and ranchers have survived is by going deeper into debt. In fact, farm debt has increased by $20 billion during the past six years — up 90 per cent. Interest rates at record highs jumped carrying charges on borrowed money by $1.2 billion. This story could go on and on, real estate taxes up and up, a 31 per cent increase in production costs

Price Is Taking Opinion Poll

An opinion poll of 12 questions is being mailed to voters in the 31 Panhandle and South Plains Counties, Congressman Bob Price announced in Washington today.

Three of the questions are on U. S. policy in Vietnam, one on the President's proposed tax increase and one on crime and civil disorder. Others are mostly on domestic issues — the war on poverty, proposed firearms legislation, Federal-State tax sharing and farm policy.

"I would like to have included more questions," Price said, "but I believe the ones I used represent some of the more critical issues with which this session of Congress will be concerned."

Price said results of the IBM punch-card questionnaire would be machine tabulated and announced through news media.

since 1960. An Earth, Texas, farmer compares the situation in West Texas with the depression of the Thirties. He writes: "I farmed through the depression of the early Thirties, and I also farm in the depression of the middle Sixties, the same place and the same land that I farmed in the Thirties. To prove the point I offer these figures. . . . He goes on to list comparative costs of machinery, equipment, labor and farm prices, then and now. "Tractors are four to five times as high as they were even in 1941. The same holds true with everything else that the farmers use in order to produce."

"The last money farmers made was back in 1962 or 1963. In my opinion the Administration is using the farmer in such a way as to cause more trouble at home than we could ever stop overseas. When a farmer has $300,000 to $400,000 invested in farm business and can't make a good living for his family, there is something wrong with the way things are being handled. I do not believe, there is a farmer in this part of the country that is worth as much as he was two years ago. I have talked with lending agencies, and they agree with me. Unless something is done this nation is going to be hungry in a few years. This nation was built on family-size business; and when we lose that, we have lost the strength of our nation and our freedom as well."

And this is the program the President urges Congress to make permanent — even before the present farm commodity program expires at the end of next year. I believe Congress can do better, and I can see no reason to extend a program that has failed without a determined effort in Congress to substantially change farm policy and restore stability to an industry that has achieved more and prospered less than any major U. S. industry. Hue, Vietnam is a center of learning, with more than 1,000 university students. Unlike Saigon, where foreigners swarm by the tens of thousands, Hue remains almost 100 per cent Vietnamese.

Concerning Veterans

Q — This April will be the first time since I got out of service that I will file an income tax return. I am receiving disability compensation and an educational assistance allowance. Must I report these payments on my income tax?

A — No. Compensation for a service-connected disability and educational assistance allowance are tax exempt benefits.

Other veteran benefits that are exempt and need not be reported are subsistence payments for vocational rehabilitation training, grants for "wheelchair homes and automobile equipment for the severely disabled, payments to surviving dependents of deceased veterans, and compensation allowances for dependents of certain disabled veterans.

Only interest earned on G. I. insurance dividends left on deposit with VA is reportable and taxable.

Q — I understand that once payments to my beneficiary (wife) on my G. I. insurance policy contract have begun, she cannot change the plan of settlement. Is this true? Suppose her needs change suddenly after my death, what can she do?

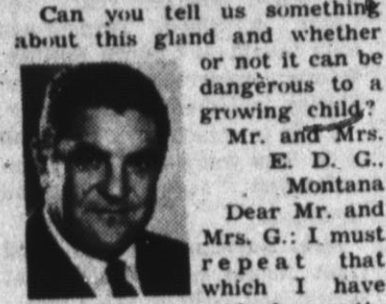

A — Formerly, once payments had begun on a selected option settlement of a G. I. insurance contract, the beneficiary could not change this option. However, under new VA regulations now in effect, your beneficiary (wife) may change to a more advantageous option if (1) the change is requested within one year of the beneficiary's initial choice of option and (2) the beneficiary's health has not changed during that interval. So your wife does have a choice.

Hue, Vietnam is a center of learning, with more than 1,000 university students. Unlike Saigon, where foreigners swarm by the tens of thousands, Hue remains almost 100 per cent Vietnamese.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.
Facts About The Thymus Gland

WE ARE in a state of confusion. We have just been told that our new-born child has an enlarged thymus gland. It sounded ominous and, when we tried to read about it, we were more confused than ever.

Can you tell us something about this gland and whether or not it can be dangerous to a growing child? Mr. and Mrs. E. D. G. Montana Dear Mr. and Mrs. G.: I must repeat that which I have The thymus gland is present in all children at birth. It lies near the heart and at birth is relatively large. Prior to twenty years ago the function of the thymus gland was virtually unknown. It was once believed, hundreds of years B.C. that the thymus gland contained the soul of a human being. Recently great interest in the thymus gland has shown that it plays a very important role in immunization against disease. It may well be that this gland holds many of the secrets that will open new horizons in medicine.

Almost always the thymus becomes smaller and smaller as the child enters puberty and then tends to disappear entirely in adolescence and adulthood. Occasionally the gland, if large, can compress the lungs and cause moderate difficulty in breathing. When this happens the size can be reduced by a short series of X-ray treatments.

The fact that your doctor made no suggestions about treatment or further study should in itself indicate to you that there is no concern and that the enlargement will disappear as your child develops. I hope that you and other readers will avail yourselves of one of the great advantages of a medical examination—a complete understanding of the problem before, not after, you leave the doctor's office.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH—A full stomach is often the cause of insomnia. Dr. Coleman welcomes letters from readers, and, while he cannot undertake to answer each one, he will use questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Coleman in care of this newspaper.

Dr. Coleman said frequently and hope that it will be impressed on the minds of many readers. A newspaper column, a magazine article, a radio or television broadcast on health is an important means of communication to almost everybody.

The interest in health is based on a simple fact. Good health is the central core of all of our social and economic structures.

The good health that we take for granted really becomes important when it is replaced by illness. The interest in medical information is completely understandable.

These means of health communication are never meant to be a replacement or substitution for the information and encouragement that can be obtained from one's own doctor. I underline this to emphasize it. Before you left the doctor's office you both should have known what the thymus gland is, what it does and whether or not its size would affect the growth and health of your child. By not asking these questions you cheated yourself of the assurance that would have relieved you of the anxious state you now are in.

Hereford Girl To Travel With Band

Every year, the United States of America High School Band tours the U. S., presenting concerts all over the country.

Patsy McCutchen

This year, the band made an offer to first chair players in the Hereford High School Band that any wishing to be in the U. S. band could do, so without tryouts.

Patsy McCutchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon McCutchen, has decided to take this tour which will leave June 21 from Memphis, Tennessee.

Miss McCutchen is a first chair french horn player in the HS band and has a background of music. She has been in band since the 7th grade, and enjoys gospel music on the piano or organ. Three years of piano lessons have given her the ability to be an accomplished musician and to play the organ in her church — The Assembly of God. Miss McCutchen also plays the french horn in the church orchestra.

Seventeen years old, and a junior in high school, Miss McCutchen has won several medals at solo and ensemble contest in Canyon. In 1966, she won a first place solo medal and participated in the All-Region band. In 1967 and '68, she won two ensemble medals and a solo medal. Miss McCutchen has participated in the All-Region band for two years.

The tour in which she will take with the U. S. band will begin in Memphis and travel from there to Dallas to the International Lions Club Convention where they will present a concert. They will then go to San Antonio where the band will be featured at the Hemisphere.

Mexico is the next jaunt, Monterrey and Juarez where they will give several concerts, then back to the states to El Paso, Phoenix, Arizona; Los Angeles, and then Disneyland — Los Vegas, Nevada; Salt Lake City, Denver, and finally back home. The trip will last until July 17th.

The art of SELF-EXPRESSION comes easily with "that Thomasville look"

Louis XV is probably the most elegant of all furniture styles. As you see above in pieces from Thomasville's Place Vendôme, it is characterized by curving lines, graceful cabriole legs, and carved motifs.

Curly acanthus leaves, popular 18th Century motifs, add authenticity to Place Vendôme. Hardware was inspired by French "ormolu" gilded metal designs.

Herd Lines

By Marshall Day

Just to start off on a different foot this week, there won't be any apologies or corrections made because we made it through a fairly good week. This is just to satisfy some certain person who had a complaint of apologies that have continually appeared in this column. If you look at it this way we wouldn't have anything to write about if we didn't make mistakes and besides, no one's perfect.

Back on the baseball scene this week it looks as if the upcoming district season might turn out to be a little wishy-washy, topsy-turvy, mixed-up thing if defeats and wins in non-conference play prove anything.

Dumas, which will certainly be in the running with the Whitefaces, throws a good deal of question on who can be picked up as the district favorite. It seems that of the four teams that both Hereford and Dumas have played these including Caprock, Borger twice, and Palo Duro-Dumas has held them to the least number of runs while Hereford has scored the most runs against them.

Just as did the Whitefaces nudge the Caprock team so did the Demons with both teams winning by one run in their respective contests. In competing against Borger, both the Dumas team and the Herd have split with the Bulldogs but the locals have the greatest run advantage as they have scored 26 against the Borger team's 12, while Dumas, also splitting with the Bulldogs, have scored 8 in two games as compared to the Borger's 8 also, with each team winning by one run.

On the other hand, against the powerful Palo Duro team, Dumas held them to no runs while getting two themselves while the Whitefaces were clipped fairly well by the Dons by a resounding 13-3 tally.

In totaling the number of runs allowed to the opponents and the number of runs collected by the two teams, Hereford leads in both categories. While scoring 34 runs and allowing their opposition 29 the Herd has outscored the Demons by 22 runs as the Dumas team has scored only 12 runs in four outings but have turned around and allowed the opposing teams only 9 compared to the Whitefaces' 29, which is fairly good.

Canyon, which is also a questionable team, seems to be as unpredictable as a March hare as they win on some upsets and lose by upsets when they shouldn't. Who knows, they may surprise everyone.

All this just goes to show that any team may beat the other on any given Sunday. The only trouble is that there might not be enough given Sundays this year.

It might be wise to remind you ball-hungry baseball fans that the Hereford Rebel baseball team has scheduled a meeting for today at Dameron Park at 1 p. m. for the sole purpose of organizing a team for the Irrigation League this year. This will be the first time for this team to be entered in this league and if you qualify in age and ability you are invited to attend the meeting.

Church League Schedules Game

Charles Skinner, spokesman for the church league basketball association, has announced plans for a league All-Star game to be played Monday, March 25th.

Eighteen players from the league's six teams were chosen by popular vote from opposing team members with three members chosen from each team. Chosen were Harold Kidds, Earl Jackson, and Frog Ferguson for the First Baptist; for the Presbyterian were Joe Kerr, Doc Hicks, and Fred Lookingbill; from the Methodist church were Jim Arney, Charles Skinner, and Tim Tucker; V. Blair A. L. Weaver, and Billy Redman from St. John's Baptist; and from the Avenue Baptist were Gary Tyler, D. Cornelius, and Roy Jeters.

It was pointed out that there will be a 50 cent contribution from adults and 25 cent contribution from school age children to help defray expenses of using the gym.

Game time is set at 8 p. m. at the high school gym.

IRRIGATION LEAGUE TEAM — For the first time, Hereford will have an Irrigation League baseball team. Most of the players pictured above competed last year but were not in the league and it is predicted that most of them will be back to play this year in the league.

Irrigation League Entered By Rebels

Chalie Moreno, player-coach of the newly formed Irrigation League team called the Rebels, has announced that for the first time, the team will represent Hereford in the semi-pro league this year.

With anywhere from six to ten teams expected to enter the league this year with these including St. Anthony's of Hereford, Umbarger, Nazareth, Amarillo, Plainview, Friona, the Hereford Rebels and possibly one or two more the league will play a schedule later after each city has had a chance to organize a team.

The regular season will start Sunday, May 5th with the first game and site to be determined soon.

The Rebels, who belonged only to an area cities organization last season, wound up the season with the first place spot tucked snugly under their belts and it is hoped that they will be strong contenders in the Irrigation League this season.

Comprised of several former Hereford High School baseball players such as Rbby Lemons, Alex Diaz, Lupe Ramirez, Terry Hill, Ray Martinez, and coach Chalie Moreno, the team is still looking for possible recruits. Moreno played on the high school team that won the district title for Hereford in both 1964 and 1965.

It was also pointed out as a reminder that there will be a meeting for all last season players and any one interested in playing, at Dameron Park at 1 p. m. today. Moreno also expressed the fact that the age limit for the league is set at a minimum of 16 years.

Diamonders Defeat Clovis For Sixth Win Of Season

By MARSHALL DAY Staff Writer

Behind the pitching of four-game winning Lynn Betts and the three-hit hitting of Barry Johnson, which included two home-runs and a double, the Hereford Whitefaces took a 10-5 win over the Clovis, N. M. Bobcats on Whiteface field Friday afternoon.

Putting the visitors down with ease in the opening frame, the Herd took their turn at the plate with lead-off hitter Randy Ragan lining one at the short-tops and getting on through an error. Following Ragan was catcher Sid Shaw who laid down a perfect bunt which advanced Ragan and allowed Shaw himself to collect a hit, thus setting the stage for the first of Johnson's two homers. On the first pitch to him, Johnson connected for the circuit smash, which gave the Whitefaces a quick 3-0 lead. Another run was added in the initial frame to lengthen the home team's lead to 4-0 at the end of the first inning.

Both teams went into the second inning and came out on the third frame, Betts allowed the Herd to take the offensive again in the bottom of the frame where they added three more runs to their score to steadily slip away for the visitors by a 7-0 tally.

The Bobcats finally caught on to Betts' pitching form for a short time in the top of the fourth frame when they began slapping the pill all around the outfield for good solid hits. Through four hits, the visitors were able to add two runs to their side of the score chart to cut the home teams' lead to five runs at 7-2 going into the bottom of the fourth.

Johnson found the grain again in the fourth when he again connected for a round-tripper with no men aboard for the only Whiteface tally of the inning. The score stood at 8-2 after four complete frames of play.

As did the second inning go for both teams so did the fifth as neither team scored.

In the sixth, the Bobcats added one more run to their score before the Herd came to bat, which made the score 8-3 in favor of the locals. In the bottom of the inning, the Whitefaces regained the run they had lost in the top of the frame and then added another just for good measure to put the score at 10-3.

Rallying in the top of the seventh and final inning proved fruitless for the visitors as they did manage to push two men across the plate before the side was retired with the Herd again coming out the victor as they added another win to their record to make it stand at six wins and two losses. Betts, who was credited with the win, now owns a won-loss record of 4-0, being the only perfect winner for the Whitefaces.

Casa de Amigos

By KEITH SCHROYER

During the Winter months there is little work for migrant laborers here in the Panhandle. With little or no income the supplying of basic necessities raises many problems. Of primary importance in this regard is food.

The majority of the work done to supply food during this time is done through County Welfare. However, from time to time due to nonfulfillment of residence requirements or other circumstances, persons are not able to obtain help by this means.

AN EMERGENCY FUND

With this in mind a food program was started through the creation of an Emergency Fund by the Hereford Migrant Ministry Board. Thereafter, when families came to the Casa needing food, The Emergency Fund was used to buy what was needed.

The food was not supplied on a give away basis, but as a loan. The source of the money as well as its limitations was explained to each family. If the money was to last for the entire winter, it would be necessary to spend it wisely and for them to repay the loan at the first opportunity.

It was explained that no one would come asking for the money. Instead they were trusted to repay when they could. In the meantime, there should be no problems in returning for more food when needed.

HELP FROM THE AIR FORCE

The food program was aided by the Amarillo Air Force Base. Just before Christmas the Base presented the Casa with a $200 supply of nonperishable foods. The food was bought on the base and actually there was much more food than could have been bought for the same amount of money on the retail market. The food consisted of flour, coffee, sugar beans, rice, grits, shortening, canned meats, canned vegetables and powdered milk. The food supply serves as the source of the nonperishable foods used in the program. Perishable foods are purchased by using the money in the Emergency Fund. The cost of the food to the families varies according to what foods are given and how much is given. However, five to eight dollars is normal.

REPAYMENT STARTS

Most of the families told us that they would not be able to repay until the work started again. The work has started and one family has repaid $17, and we feel confident that others will also start repaying.

We feel that the people in Camp respond to the genuine trust we have put in them in the same way that most people respond to a trust. They respond by being trustworthy.

Local Woman To Attend Meet

Mrs. Ruth Dobbs will attend the Executive Committee of the State Association of Young Homemakers of Texas to be held on Wednesday and Thursday at the Alico Center Inn in Waco.

The Executive Committee will be meeting to review the past year's progress and further develop plans and projects for the upcoming year.

The Young Homemakers of Texas is a State Association of young women out of high school, who are interested in improving their knowledge and skills related to homemaking. The Division of Homemaking Education, Texas Education Agency, is the sponsoring agency for this statewide group.

Mrs. Dobbs will be attending a two-day session.

Mrs. J. J. Durham and Mrs. Frank Prowell, high school homemaking teachers, and Mrs. Joe Bradley, Stanton Junior High homemaking instructor, assisted YHT members in entertaining. Mrs. Durham and Mrs. Bradley are YHT sponsors.

Jr. High Choirs Win In Contests

Friday, the Stanton and La Plata Junior High traveled to Canyon to participate in the annual contests in concert and sight-reading, which are on the West Texas State campus.

Stanton Junior High girls choir came home with two division II ratings, in concert and in sight-reading. The mixed choir received a I in concert, and a II in sight-reading. They came home with a plaque for their I rating.

La Plata choirs also did a good job with the girls choir making a II in concert and a I in sight-reading, and the mixed choir receiving a I in concert and a II in sight-reading. The girls and mixed choirs both received plaques for their I ratings.

Committee Holds Initial Meeting

The newly elected Government Affairs Committee held its first meeting Friday at noon in the Hickory Log with Harlan VanderZee presiding over the group.

Composed of some 19 persons, the committee, headed by VanderZee this year, is for the sole purpose of "not engaging in political issues, but more to just make recommendations to the local chamber board on matters that directly affect Hereford."

Highlight of the initial meeting was the presentation of the slide film, "Your Stake In '68" which was shown by Chamber of Commerce President, Bill Thompson.

The film covered the major matters and issues that are on tap for the coming year with the Vietnam war being the number one factor. Other items which appeared in the slides for upcoming events that will have a definite reflection on upcoming political matters, were racial riots, the breakdown of law and order, soaring taxes, strikes and water and air pollution.

The committee was pointed out that these were the things to be contended with this year and local matters related to these were the purpose of the committee.

LIONS HEAR HUSEYIN — One of this year's foreign exchange students, Huseyin Shevki of Cyprus, was speaker for the regular noon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday. During his talk, Shevki described the history of his homeland and how it looks today. He also showed slides of the country.

Home Is Visited To See Antiques

Visiting the home of Mrs. D. W. Palmer, members of L'Allegria Study Club inspected antique furniture, rugs and tableware Thursday in a program arranged by Mrs. Joe Lyons. Abe Davis, who has done the work of restoring some of the family pieces owned by Mrs. Palmer, acted as their guide.
He pointed out the beauty of wood grain in some of the furniture from which coats of varnish or paint had been removed, and said that a light finish is preferable to show the grain.

Davis said the U. S. customs regulations define as antique an object made before 1890, and he added that good pieces usually bear the name of their maker.
Care of furniture was also a part of his discussion, and he answered club members' questions about caring for their own.
In addition to furniture in Mrs. Palmer's home, the group was shown two chairs from Tibet, inlaid with mother-of-pearl in exquisite workmanship, which belong to Mrs. Clyde Coleman.

Wyche Club Hears Talk On Picture

Meeting at a downtown furniture store where members could see examples of pictures for home decoration, members of Wyche Home Demonstration Club heard Mrs. Lloyd McGee talk at McGee Furniture, then went to the Hickory Log Restaurant for refreshments and a short business session Thursday. Mrs. Cecil Hart was hostess.

Pictures should blend with the period of the furniture in a home, but there are no set rules for their use because no two homes are alike, and decoration should reflect the personalities of the family, Mrs. McGee told club members. Most pleasing effect usually results from hanging pictures at eye level, she said, and she briefly discussed the principles of balance and the use of pictures as accents in a room.

Mrs. Courtney Brooke was welcomed as a new member. Also present were Mmes. Leroy Bostin, G. W. Duncan, Norman Hodges, Bill Ellis, Wayne Jones, T. J. Ke'ny, C. F. Newsom, Cecil Mateson and Bob Thuett.

Meeting Change Made To Allow For Convention

A change in April meeting plans, because of the district Texas Home Demonstration Association convention in Sperman early in the month, was announced in North Hereford H. D. Club Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. A. E. Hodges was hostess in Community Center. No meeting will be held April 4 and the program scheduled then will be combined with that of Apr. 18.

Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent, gave the program titled 'What's New In Clothing', showing fabrics and patterns in new style, and discussing fashions for the spring and summer. Preceding her talk, members played a game they learned in the recent recreation workshop for county H. D. Club members.
Present were Mmes. W. J. Lueb, Clinton Ward, C. L. Whitehead, Paul Hoff, Otto Massie, Tomy Hoffman and Viola Williams.

AN UN-BIASED LOOK AT "OPEN HOUSING"

Don't Let A Basic American Freedom Go Down the Drain

This urgent message is directed towards every citizen—white, colored, or Oriental—who owns or rents any kind of real property . . . a home which he occupies himself, a residence rented to others, an apartment house or duplex, a business place, even a vacant lot.

At this precise moment, the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C. is debating a so-called "open housing" amendment to the pending civil rights bill. An identical measure has already cleared the Senate.

If enacted by the House and signed by President Johnson, this new law will forever destroy the basic American right of allowing property owners to rent or dispose of their properties as they see fit. This means that the Federal Government could force you to rent or sell to a person not of your choice. If you insisted on not renting or selling, you could be brought before Federal enforcement agencies or the Federal courts.

Forgetting the race issue, suppose you own, but don't occupy, a neat little double cottage. The mortgage is paid and you and your wife have invested considerable money fixing it up prior to offering it for rent.

Along comes some family with a half-dozen undisciplined, highly destructive children. They have just been evicted by another landlord for making a shambles of his house and now they're primed and ready to use your sparkling clean place for their own private version of Vietnam. You advise them, as diplomatically as possible, that you do not want them for tenants.

In the meantime, they find out that you and they are of different religious beliefs, and they charge you with violating the open housing act by discriminating against them because of religion. However justifiable your reasons, you could be required to assert those reasons before a Federal Agency, at your own expense.

Far fetched?? Not at all.

You're in serious trouble and you got there simply because—either innocently or unconsciously—you tried to uphold what you thought was your traditional American freedom of choice.

We are in favor of everybody being able to obtain decent housing, but not at the expense of taking away from any American his basic right of freedom of choice. This is the essence of private property ownership.

As property owners ourselves, we are anxious to know how, in the name of a free country, can any legislation such as this be seriously considered.

We think this question is being asked by Americans everywhere and that it must be put squarely before the people we have elected to serve as our spokesmen in the Congress.

If you agree, then you should take immediate action to see that "forced housing" (which is what it really is) doesn't become the law.

Send a telegram to Bob Price supporting the fight against this dangerous and unconstitutional legislation.

In addition to a wire, fill in the form printed at the bottom of this page, put it in a stamped envelope, address it to your Congressman, and send it to him without delay.

Chances are, he's waiting to hear from you.

Hon. Bob Price, M.C.

House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

I am strongly opposed to the "open housing" amendment to the proposed civil rights bill, and I urge you to work for its defeat.

Student From Finland Talks To Garden Club

Bud To Blossom Garden Club members heard Katie Laine, Finnish girl who is attending Hereford High School under the American Field Service program, talk entertainingly of her country, her city and her own home at a meeting Friday morning in the home of Mrs. W. H. Gentry. Mrs. R. N. Yarbrow introduced the speaker.

Miss Laine lives in a small town where her father is a policeman, and attended schools there before she came to America for a year of study. She has three younger brothers and her mother is homemaker for the family, she said, explaining that not many Finnish wives and mothers work outside their homes because taxes on their extra salaries make it unprofitable for all except those in higher-paid professions.

She told of differences and likenesses in the Finnish and in Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

At the Thursday meeting were Mmes. Haskell Benson, A. H. Cook, Luther Ellis, H. E. Lindley, C. H. McClure, Ralph Paul, Annie Springer, W. H. Awtry, Sr., J. L. Shirley, Nell Austin and Lloyd Battey.

American school systems as she has experienced them, sketched the history of her country, told something of its government, industries and religion.

Mrs. Herman Scheller was welcomed as a guest by Mrs. Bruce Brown, who presided for routine business. Refreshments were served from a table with a spring arrangement of daffodils and forsythia.

Members included Mmes. Bob Cooper, Ernest Kendall, Sam Long, Hubert Stoerner, Weldon Stephan and Jess Robinson.

Hereford Couple Visits Downstate

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Miller visited in Houston last week with former Hereford residents, the Max Drever and Steve Swan families. Mrs. Swan is the Drevers' daughter and is the mother of a new daughter.

Miller went to Houston on business and Mrs. Miller accompanied him so they stopped for visits with relatives in LaPorte, Dallas and Fort Worth, as well as with the friends in Houston.

American Arts Center Is Described To Club

Lincoln Center of the Performing Arts in New York City, which has been called "a monument to the survival of mankind", was the subject of Bay View Study Club's program Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Howard Gault presenting an interesting view of the still-incomplete cultural center.

A non-profit, tax-exempt business, the center has seven constituents now operating in four buildings set in parks, she said, and a building for the Juilliard School of Music is not yet finished. New York Philharmonic Orchestra and the Metropolitan Opera are perhaps its best-known constituents.

Not only performance, but education is stressed as the most important aspect of the center, which is a cultural force recognized abroad as well as in this nation.

Foreign governments are among contributors, who include big businesses and the Ford Foundation, who support the center; gifts from abroad include magnificent chandeliers from Austria which are used in the buildings, seen in photographs shown by the speaker.

It is operated by a board of 26 persons plus the mayor of New York City and the governor of New York, and a 12-member council plans cultural activities. Most of all, Mrs. Gault said, Lincoln Center is an idea — a benefit to America and the entire world.

Bay View members voted in the business session to contribute to the local American Field Service committee's fund to permit foreign students in school here to go on student trips this spring. A change was announced in the next meeting place; Mrs. Homer Powell will be hostess in her home, 117 Kingwood.

Guests included Misses Bonnie Shugart, Karen McDaniel, Billie Bain, Linda Pujlliam, Judy Orsborn and Patricia Neill; Mmes Don Moke, Leo Neill, Hazel Warrick, David Neill, Ricky Hassell and Bud Godwin.

County Museum Story Related

Bits of Panhandle history as well as that of Deaf Smith County were woven into the story of this county's historical museum as told by Mrs. Juston McBride to Farm and Ranch Club members Thursday at a covered dish luncheon in Mrs. W. W. Thomas' home.

Mrs. McBride, a board member of Deaf Smith County Historical Association which sponsored the museum, told of early planning and months of work which led up to opening of the museum last year. She has given much time to volunteer work on collecting and arranging exhibits and is still active in the outline tasks of keeping them on view for the public.

She explained the plan for making the museum a graphic history of this immediate area since the days of the Plains

Indians, including only exhibits which relate that history and the story of pioneer living in Deaf Smith County, which is emphasized in the largest wing of the building.

Plans for expansion, with use of the basement for exhibits, were sketched. Mrs. McBride mentioned that various organizations in the county have members who volunteer to serve in turn as museum hosts for its regular open hours.

In the business session, club members decided to make a trip to Amarillo for luncheon on the next meeting day, April 4. Mrs. John Hill will be hostess in her home April 18.

Present Thursday were Mmes. Buel Monroe, W. B. Nunley, Paul Rudd, C. T. Douglas, Jack Weaver, Hill, G. V. Hall and R. W. Hairgrove.

Eight Top Awards Taken By Pioneer Study Club

Eight first-place awards were brought back from the convention of Top of Texas District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, by Pioneer Study Club of Hereford this weekend, as half-a-dozen members attended the annual meeting in Borger.

Summerfield Study Club won second place in its division as a high point club and was one of three clubs in the district to receive a citation for 100 percent contributions to the Texas Federation's Friendship Garden fund.

Pioneer Club received first places for its yearbook, publicity, overall reporting of club activity, gerontology, literature, literature, reports in the education department, and Texas parks. It was also first-place high point club in its division.

Second places were won on president's report, Federation Day program, public education and library service.

Both the Deaf Smith County clubs were cited for 100 percent subscription to The Texas Club-woman, state publication. Mrs. B. M. Sims of Wellington was elected district president for the next two-year term, to succeed Mrs. Guy Crawford of Borger. Mrs. Kermit Lawson of Pampa became first vice president, Mrs. G. N. McDaniel of Stratford was named second vice president and Mrs. David Britt of Canadian third vice president.

The fall board meeting was set for next October in Perryton.

Three Hereford women had a part on the convention programs. Mrs. Ralph McCullough of Pioneer Club, as district awards chairman presented awards at the final luncheon Friday. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr., third vice president, presided for the Texas Heritage breakfast Friday and Mrs. Ray L. Johnson conducted the memorial service on the morning program. Both are members of the Summerfield and Pioneer Clubs.

Mrs. Delmar Sigle gave her report as Pioneer Club president and Mrs. C. D. Kelton as Deaf Smith County Federation president. Mrs. W. C. Hromas and Mrs. H. E. Miller, Pioneer Club members, also attended convention sessions.

Frio News

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Brand Correspondent

The Rev. Sam Ogan is conducting a revival meeting at the Channing First Baptist Church this week. Guest speaker at Frio Sunday was Gene Brock, La Plata Junior High teacher. Brock recently attended a conference on Alcohol and Narcotics at Waco and spoke Sunday evening about some of the information given at the meeting. The Frio Church was one of those responsible for sending him to the conference, which was especially planned for teachers and youth leaders.

Jackie Andrews arrived by plane in Amarillo Tuesday night after a tour of duty in the Far East beginning last June. His ship arrived Monday night and he was able to get immediate airline space on leaving ship. Mrs. Andrews met him in Amarillo. He expects to have 25 days leave before reporting back to Long Beach Naval Base for reassignment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews, Mrs. Laura Littrell and Miss Alma Andrews went to Melrose, Monday to visit the Lloyd Roberts and W. F. Andrews. The Roberts had received word Sunday of the death of their son, Freddie, in Viet Nam on Saturday. W. F. Andrews is a brother to W. H. and Mrs. Littrell. Mrs. Roberts is the W. F. Andrews' daughter. Roberts had been in Viet Nam a month, having taken basic Army training in El Paso last fall.

Mrs. Sam Ogan and Sammy and Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Andrews attended church at Channing, Thursday night and visited Rev. Ogan.

Frio Baptist Church was host to the Associational Baptist Workers Conference, Monday night. Mrs. Clark Andrews reviewed a book at the W. M. U. portion of the meeting. Supper was served to more than 100 persons. The Rev. J. J. Terry presided at the meeting. The Revs. A. L. Jordan, Bill Alexander, Leo Buscher, Dale Ward and J. L. Bass participated in the program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brooks are on a several week fishing trip on the Gulf Coast.

Mrs. Harlan Barber and Mrs. James Bullard accompanied by their cousin, Mrs. R. G. Alexander of Idalou, went to Colorado City, Mar. 16 to attend funeral services for the son of their cousin. He was Sgt. Glen Standifer, 19, who was killed when a helicopter was shot down in Viet Nam. The funeral was in First Baptist Church, Colorado City.

BSP CEREMONY — Mrs. Max Goforth, left, presents the Beta Sigma Phi flower, yellow rose, to Mrs. Joe Huckert and Mrs. Leland Dean, spring pledges of Kappa Iota Chapter. Mrs. Goforth is chapter president.

Also, Mrs. Courtney Brooke, a newcomer to Hereford, likes pets. The oldest and bossiest of her pets is an old cat named Caesar. He rules his empire at the Brooke household with same firmness as Augustus Caesar did the Roman Empire.

H.D. CHATTER Seasons Mix Haphazardly

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Apricot blooms in the snow seem slightly out of character. Too, Bobwhite quail can be heard early in the morning and robins are still around indicating the mixing of the seasons of winter and spring.

DRIVING into town, I listened to Clint Formyb philosophize on people being intrigued by danger. He thinks the danger element is of more interest to many people than some other things many consider basic.

My first reaction was to argue mentally as it seems my life has been on a fairly even tempo. About that moment, I glanced at the speedometer and was startled to see the digits slip to 40.000 miles.

Driving that many miles in eighteen months made me think that living might be more hazardous than it appears on the surface. Then in less than an hour, I got a Dutch-uncle lecture about the dangers of being overweight.

Things like these shock some of us out of our comfortable ruts. Well, I guess there will be days like this.

LAST WEEK I attended a 4-H foods committee meeting at Vega. The county offices had just moved back into the remodeled courthouse. The building is very attractive and nice. The use of the pre-finished wall paneling from floor to ceiling is very effective. You should visit the building to see the change in looks and convenience.

FOR SALE: A treadle machine in very good condition. Call the office 364-3573 for the owner's telephone number, if you are in the market for this type of machine.

THIS WEEK it was learned that John Messenger is a catist. He has a big grey cat who considers cats persons and important family members, as well as being charged with the responsibility of running the household. This cat follows John to his office and begs to be let in the office, to continue bossing John all day.

Also, Mrs. Courtney Brooke, a newcomer to Hereford, likes pets. The oldest and bossiest of her pets is an old cat named Caesar. He rules his empire at the Brooke household with same firmness as Augustus Caesar did the Roman Empire.

NEXT WEEK'S SCHEDULE:
Monday: Club reporters meeting 1:45
Home Demonstration Council 2:30
Tuesday: District meeting in Hereford
Wednesday: Ford Home Demonstration Club
Thursday: Westway Home Demonstration Club
Friday: Monthly reports
Saturday: 4-H County Contests

CARD OF THANKS

The population estimate of burros in the American West ranges from 5,500 to 13,000.

Dinner Honors Pledges Of Kappa Iota Chapter

Spring pledges of Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were complimented at the annual preferential dinner at Hereford Country Club Thursday evening.

Mrs. Max Goforth, chapter president, presented long-stemmed yellow roses, the sorority flower, to Mrs. Joe Frank Huckert and Mrs. Leland Dean, denoting their acceptance to membership. Another pledge, Mrs. Keith Henderson, was not at the dinner.

Mrs. Melvin Fowler said the Beta Sigma Phi grace after the opening ritual conducted by the president, Mrs. Dave Heck, extension officer, welcomed the new members.

A Mexican supper was served at tables decorated with sorority emblems in the black and gold colors. The year's program theme, "Turn the Key", was exemplified in a hugh gold key on a side table, with yellow roses at its base.

Mrs. Gene Larsen conducted the closing ritual, then card games entertained the group.

Cyprus Native Speaks To Club

Texas meant cowboys to Housheyin Sheki when he was a youngster, the Turkish youth from Cyprus who is a student in Hereford High School, told members of Hereford Study Club as he spoke in Mrs. S. L. Garrison's home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Garland Solomon was co-hostess and Mrs. Noble Howard in charge of the program.

Sheki said that when he became an American Field Service student scheduled to come to this city, he began to seek a better knowledge than he had acquired from American movies, and had discovered some facts about this area before he came last fall.

He is one of the two AFS students from Europe in HHS this term. He spoke of Cyprus as a country of two cultures, Greek and Turkish, to which the British have been added in recent years. Turks are generally of the Moslem religion, while Greeks and British are Christian. Courtesy is a traditional quality of the Turks, he said, and children are taught in their homes to respect their elders and be considerate of others.

Jobs are not plentiful and the standard of living is lower than in America, he added. Population averages 154 to the square mile.

Agriculture is the chief industry, with grapes and their products, wine and raisins, as the main crop. Oranges are exported also; olives, wheat, oats, barley and citrus fruits are grown. Copper is the principal mineral. The student continued. Sheep, goats and a few cattle are raised.

Although semi-tropical fruits grow on Cyprus, where there is much rainfall, it has high mountains where snow is plentiful, Sheki said. He told of schools he attended, said school attendance is optional after six years, and that study of English is compulsory.

Questions were asked by members after the talk, on many points which interested them. Appreciation was expressed to the guest for his presentation of the informative talk.

Mrs. R. N. Yarbro presided for business. Members planned to give the gold medal which she has earned in the Camp Fire Girl program to Mary Stoy, a member of the group which Hereford Study Club has sponsored since it was composed of elementary school girls.

Its members have now advanced to Horizon Club status, as high school students, and Mary has qualified for the Whoelo Medallion, highest award in the national organization, by completing numerous requirements and then doing special work in community service and personal development.

The club also voted a contribution to the local AFS fund which will be used to finance school trips this spring for Sheki and the other AFS student, Katie Laine.

Anniversary Party

LA PLATA Study Club gave one of the week's prettiest parties, when it invited guests to help celebrate its 35th anniversary. FORMER members returned, some from out-of-town, to observe the club birthday. Past presidents were the honorees among nearly a hundred guests in Community Center.

CHARTER members still in the club are Mrs. Urlin Streu, pictured at left, and Mrs. Louis Woodford, both former presidents. Highlights of her administration were given briefly by each of the 16 past presidents at the party, with humorous incidents spicing their recollections.

ORGANIZERS of La Plata Club were members of Pioneer Study Club, several of whom were present. Mrs. J. M. Gilliland was designated the Club Mother for her part in launching the new club in 1933.

Realtors Debating On Housing Bill

Dangers of the forced housing bill just passed by the Senate and it disfavor with the voters throughout the nation must be emphasized, Harold Kids, president of the Hereford Board of Realtors, declared today in calling on all citizens to join in a nationwide campaign to gain defeat of the legislation in the House of Representatives.

"Basically, the bill denies the home seller, who insists on his traditional freedom of choice in contracting for the sale or rental of his property to whom ever he chooses, the use of the professional help he needs from a broker to get the best possible price in the quickest possible time," he explained.

"Obviously the bill excludes the home owner of a single-family house from the provisions of the legislation, permitting him to continue to decide without governmental coercion to whom he will sell or rent, or not sell or rent, his personal property. But after Dec. 31, 1969 this right is drastically curtailed, and the government can force an unwilling owner to dispose of the house to someone not of his choice if he uses the facilities of any real estate broker or salesman, or, on his own, he indicates in an advertisement a preference on the basis of race, religion, color, or national origin," Kids added.

"A complainant may appeal for pressure by the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development or may bring suit in federal court which may award punitive damages against the owner up to $1,000 and court costs."

The Realtors of Hereford are joining with thousands of other members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards throughout the nation in pointing out the threat of this tricky bill and urging all citizens to contact their Congressmen to vote against the legislation which will not only set back race relations but strip owners of professional aid in the largest and most complicated transaction in the lives of most of them.

Even the most ardent supporters of the bill in the Senate had misgivings about their action as evidenced by the words of Sen. Philip A. Hart (D., Mich), floor manager, who admitted, "There was no great groundswell of influential support for 'fair' housing... What we passed today is not going to bring unblemished political advantage to anyone who voted for or worked for it. For some the advantage will be marginal at best, for others the tally might even be negative."

His analysis was seconded by a number of noted columnists, one of whom predicted that "open housing" may become a big issue in the national campaign this fall since it affects directly more voters than many other questions, said Kids. In fact, this columnist flatly predicted that voting in favor of this onerous bill could cause the defeat of some Republicans and Democrats, the board president said.

Only a comparatively few voices were raised for maintaining the basic and traditional rights of all Americans, continued Kids. Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D., Ohio), although he eventually voted for the bill, was one of those who raised a telling point so often overlooked. During the debate, he declared, "Much has been said about the right of the buyer. What about the seller, who has thriftily accumulated enough money to buy a home? He has labored for it. It is his home. And the government tells him, 'We are going to direct and control you in how you may dispose of what you have earned through thrift and labor.'"

"The Hereford Board of Realtors predicts that if the House concurs with the Senate and interferes the government this far into the private lives and transactions of its citizens, the voters will mark well those guilty of the deed and act accordingly. Every referendum, except

Farming Makes Our Country Different From All Others

While checking over an exchange news recently, we ran across a squib centering on farm controls, which concluded with the question: "Where will the family type farmer be if these things (proposed regulations and minimum supports) come to pass?"

Frankly, we cannot help but wonder what has already happened to him.

Farming, it seems to us, is tremendously big or tremendously small. Out in this country, farming is truly big business, including chemicals, equipment, labor crews and a lot of know-how. In Central Texas, for one place, you find many farmers who have jobs and farm a few acres on the side. These conditions, we feel, likely prevail pretty well all over the country.

The day when the farmer produced his own milk, butter, pork, beef, and operated in extensive garden in the back yard, pretty well disappeared along with the mule drawn plows and single row equipment. Modern farmers are required to be excellent business men, chemists, and accountants. We would venture, in fact, that a higher average of farmers in this immediate territory hold college and university degrees than do other businessmen of the area.

In addition, the probability of corporation farming is frequently a matter of discussion these days and, while we recognize several "pros" and "cons" on the subject, the situation — should it ever come to pass — would only get us back where we started with the famed XIT, and other land promotions which truly pioneered development of our territory.

If you do not believe the U. S. farmer is the envy of the entire world, ask the Russians. Nikita Khrushchev, as you may recall, by-passed Detroit assembly lines, atomic energy laboratories, and Wall Street, primarily to visit an Iowa farmer and a large super market. Farming, in fact, appears to be one of the most successful of all American industries. When compared with the early Model T, our farmers have probably forged ahead even further than have the late model automobiles.

Thanks to this tremendous change, most Americans enjoy three good meals each day, while more than half of the remaining populations of the world go to bed hungry each night. Farming, one might say, is the primary difference between the United States and most other countries around the globe.

For their own benefit and welfare, it seems to us that other Americans should wake up and realize what the farmer has accomplished during the past quarter of a century. Certainly, he deserves a pat on the back for a job well done.

Is Breaking Point Near In Government Taxation?

U. S. taxes, now around 26 percent, have not begun to approach the breaking point, according to estimates of an unidentified official, who said in an AP release this week that there are at least three nations with higher taxes. The breaking point, he estimated, is that place where the people refuse to go further.

This, we presume, is true. However, it was also interesting to note that on the same morning came the announcement that the U. S. gold policies had forced a shut-down of London banks and the London stock market.

At the risk of being labeled "old fashioned," we cannot help but wonder if the entire mess is not due pretty well to the socialistic policies upon which we have operated this nation, especially since around 1950. Furthermore, it would be our opinion that the policies have already done much toward curbing individual initiative.

While the country has undoubtedly made much progress, we find ourselves controlled primarily by tremendous corporations which are spreading into diversified fields and, when one takes the time to run down some of these corporations, he invariably finds that much of their power and financial success originated from government contracts, which in most cases are still in effect.

Deficit spending means that we are placing our children and grandchildren in bondage for generations to come. Not one of us would consider operating our own budgets or businesses on this plan, yet we expect our government to prosper under such methods. In addition, we note indolence, apathy, discontent and demoralization among the masses of our population — even to the point of rebellion and strikes at a time which is heralded as prosperous.

If the only answer is more and higher taxes, it seems to us that we should tie some strings on future increases, at least to the point where the government must operate on its income, rather than plunging us further and further into debt. If we cannot live with the present income, it is high time that we started operating on a slightly different basis — even to the point of cutting down on our spending.

Announcement of a new, multi-million dollar post office building in Amarillo seems to have drawn criticism in some areas. On the contrary, it seems to us that the new structure was badly needed, and that it will benefit the entire Panhandle, including Hereford.

Amarillo, due to transportation advantages, is unquestionably the logical site as a sectional center. The new building, in truth, means that all of us will receive and dispatch mail faster and more efficiently. In addition, we should keep in mind the fact that the population of our nation is scheduled to more than double during the next century, and wisdom dictates that planning should include this projected growth.

As one of the larger communities operating out of the Amarillo SFC, Hereford stands to gain tremendously from the proposed improvement. Additional growth would, in a few years, have seriously hampered mail distribution if some steps had not been taken to correct present weak points in the present set-up. Consequently, it seems to us that we stand to gain as much, or more, from the new installation than do the people in Amarillo proper.

Candidates Seek New Ways To Raise Campaign Money

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Political campaigning becomes more expensive every year and in this pre-election season candidates throughout the land have their hands out in quest of funds to finance their vote-getting efforts.

The money-raising drives are particularly noticeable here in Washington where those holding seats in Congress are busily engaged in tapping all available sources for the wherewithal to run for reelection. Lobbyists are a special target of the Representatives and Senators.

One trade association official here whose name is on many mailing lists has been collecting fund solicitation letters received from incumbent Congressmen. He received five appeals within a fortnight, including four identical letters on behalf of one Representative whose labor union friends are planning a $100-per-plate dinner in Washington.

In that case, the Congressman to be honored is chairman of a subcommittee handling legislation of pocketbook interest to the industry the association man serves. That makes the business representative fair game for financial support. The implication is that if a dinner ticket is not purchased, the industry will be treated harshly the next time a bill affecting the industry is under consideration.

Like most political fund-raising events, the approach is not made directly by the office-holder. A committee is formed to make the solicitation and funds raised are administered by that group, rather than by the candidate himself. Of course, the candidate really runs the show and determines how campaign dollars are spent.

Same Hold "Non-Events"

Dinners, receptions, and cocktail parties to raise campaign funds have become so common that some politicians stage "non-events." Two years ago one House incumbent invented this technique, sending out letters for a "non-party" to be held on July 4th — a date which practically guaranteed nobody would attend anyway.

This letter said: Many people in Washington have paid $25, $50 or even $100 for the privilege of gulping a few drinks, gobbling a few raw shrimp, and grasping the hand of the honored guest. But how many times have you had the chance to AVOID these gruesome rituals for the bargain-basement price of only $15?

This letter went on to explain that no money would be wasted on canapes and cocktails, and that all contributions received by mail would be utilized to buy newspaper advertising and television time, plus travel expenses. This particular "non-event" was reported to have been quite successful, with the result that other office holders borrowed the same technique.

Some letters from Congressional candidates offer no party, and do not even solicit a set amount. A Maryland Republican who was narrowly defeated for Congress two years ago sent out a four-page letter which simply asked for a "maximum contribution." This appeal did point out that $150 would pay the rent for campaign headquarters for one month, and that $8 would buy 500 campaign brochures. The Marylander's letter was unusual in other respects. It attached the Democratic incumbent by name, calling him "a rubber stamp" for all spending programs proposed by the Administration. This letter also included two pages of "tax facts" and argued that funds should be contributed to "candidates who will work to lower your taxes." (Incidentally, this letter went to a non-resident of Maryland who lives in voteless D. C.)

Scandals Swept Under Rug

Since the last national election in 1966, there have been a number of fund-raising scandals involving members of Congress. This has led to agitation for reform in financing political campaigns. However, Congress appears in no mood to take any action. Codes of ethics are proposed but not adopted. President Johnson's plan to have campaigns financed from the Federal treasury is attractive to politicians but resented by most taxpayers. A lot of editorial ink has been used to blast this scheme.

It looks as if the old fund-raising techniques of button-holing friends and those with an ax to grind will remain in favor during election year 1968.

Responsibility And The Status Quo

The recent voluntary move of businessmen to join together in licking the problem of unemployment among minority groups has been a positive factor in changing young people's ideas about the world of business. At least, it has been a start.

The aggressive and positive attitude of business leaders like Ford can go a long way in convincing college students that maybe business isn't so dull, moneygrubbing, conformist, self-centered, etc., after all. The words sound pretty bad, but they describe a popular attitude.

A prominent ad in a national newspaper last week began like this: "Unfortunately, college kids don't even dislike American business. They just 'ignore it.'" Every June, business loses more and more young people to teaching, public service, government and other non-business fields, because apparently young people feel that only in these areas will they be allowed to contribute positively to a changing society.

The sixties have, if anything, revealed tremendous weaknesses in our social structure, in our "status quo." It is unfortunate that the impression of business is one of "status quo," while that of non-business fields is one of positive social change. Perhaps the bad impression may lead to improvements in attitudes, both on the part of business and on the part of students.

Business teachers and business leaders don't help matters any as they continually berate government for anything it does. Take government away and let the private sector solve our economy's problems, say stereotyped conservative business attitudes. This is why business is linked to conservatism, and conservatism is linked to inactivity, not responsibility. Business is linked to callousness, to hard-headed attitudes about people, spending, changes. The charges are not necessarily well-founded, but the image remains nevertheless. If business wants to change the image, it will have to take the initiative.

Of course business doesn't have to change its image... it still is able to get the people it needs. Business can, as the advertisement says, blame "student attitudes" for its own shortcomings. But this approach to changing social demands will only weaken the argument for free private enterprise.

Today's young people are being challenged to more than salaries and fringe benefits. Visit a college classroom for a few class meetings and see what is being taught. College graduates are possibly too idealistic, wanting to solve problems of poverty, create better international relations, eliminate racial problems. As long as business maintains the status quo stance, always preserving what has already gone the route of history, it will lose college graduates it needs.

Business moves to actively combat unemployment, as exemplified in the example of Ford and others, are a step toward creating a responsible image in the minds of college graduates who are the nation's prospective businessmen.

30 YEARS AGO

A two-thousand-gallon-per-minute irrigation well was completed Tuesday on the W. B. Davis place two miles south of Hereford. The well was installed by the D. L. McDonald Company. The test was very satisfactory, and Davis will immediately begin to plan his crop system for the year. A quarter section will be irrigated from this one well.

Local interest in the progress of the great German drive on the Western front has been intense for the past week. Monday a report was spread broadcast that 800,000 Germans had been trapped, including the Crown Prince, and the enthusiasm reached a high pitch. In order to serve the public to the best advantage, and at the same time secure the most reliable news on the progress of the drive, The Brand arranged with a committee of citizens at Amarillo, who were receiving the Dallas News summary several times a day, to forward the same summary to Hereford. Local businessman constituted themselves a committee to finance the deal and took up a collection to pay the necessary telegraph tolls and incidentals. W. H. Ray is treasurer of the fund.

Somewhere in France

Mr. George F. Caylor, Hereford, Texas.

Dear father: I like this country better every day and am feeling fine. I think I would do much better if you would send me some "Bull Durham" as we seldom get any here, and what we do get we pay 31 cents per package for it.

This is our daily menu:

Breakfast — one piece of bread, one of bacon and coffee.

Dinner — Roast beef or stew, rice and bread.

Supper — one piece bread, jam, coffee and cheese.

I guess we get along alright though, as well as we did in the states when we ate too much.

There are many interesting things I would like to tell you, but it would not be allowed to go through. We are all in good spirits and make the best of everything.

Much love to all,

Your loving son,

25 YEARS AGO

Funeral services were held Wednesday for J. A. Fox, 72, a pioneer resident of this community. Services were held at Waxahachie. In 1898, Mr. and Mrs. Fox moved to Hereford to make their home. Because they could not find a place in the community to live or store their furniture, they moved into an old abode house on Frio Draw and remained there until they could build a small house on their own land, which was also on the Frio. In 1900, the Fox family moved to town. Also in 1900, Fox opened Hereford's first merchant store. The building was located where Hunter's Grocery now stands. In 1914, he bought a general mercantile business in Frio and moved it to Hereford, along with another large dry goods store which he owned in Erick, Oklahoma. Consolidation of these three stores marked the formation of Fox Mercantile Company.

Announcement of the purchase of the City Drug Store by W. L. Alexander and Robert A. Singer was made this week. The change in management will be effective April 1, 1963, and the firm will continue to operate under its present name.

Loss Of U.S. Natural Assets Is Club Topic

America's Diminishing Resources was the subject for La Afritas Estudio Club's program this week, and Mrs. Walter Johnson spoke of the near-crisis in such natural resources as water, petroleum and forests. Water was emphasized since it is of greatest concern here.

Conservation measures and proposals for such work as diversion of rivers were discussed by the speaker, then by the group at the close of her talk. Mrs. A.L. Hewitt led in repetition of the club collect and Mrs. A. B. Higgins, presenting the "thought for the day," listed a dozen things to do in case of accident starting with the main point, keep calm.

Members were reminded that LAE Club is responsible for supplying cars and drivers for use of Kings Manor residents in April. A group of members will report at 10 a. m. each Tuesday and Thursday, ready to play chauffeur.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Sam Morgan, who served refreshments to 12 members.

Candidates Happy: Voters Will Decide Liquor Issue

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — All those candidates for governor got a hefty bit of pressure off them when both the state Democratic and Republican executive committees decided to put the question of liquor-by-the-drink on the May 4 ballot.

With increasing concern over liquor-law enforcement and the Texas Liquor Control Board, coupled with Gov. John Connally's push for liquor-by-the-drink, gubernatorial candidates have been pressured hard for their stand on the issue.

Now, with the question being put to the voters in a referendum, all the candidates have to say is that they will abide by the wishes of the voters.

Also on the ballot as referendums will be the question of pari-mutuel horse-race betting and the creation of a Texas Dairy Commission with the power to regulate and fix the price of milk and other dairy products.

Although none of the voters' answers to the three questions will be binding, the issues do assure a high turnout of the more than 4,000,000 registered voters. It will take an act of the Legislature to put any of them in effect. Ballots will merely say: "This proposition is only an expression of public opinion and has no force or effect as law."

Legislature directed the first primary vote on local option pari-mutuel gambling. Petitions signed by 119,000 voters called for voter opinion on creating a Texas Dairy Commission with power to regulate milk prices.

Both party leaders decided the liquor-by-the-drink issue is hot enough to warrant a check on that, too. This referendum will be the first opportunity Texas voters have had to express their opinions statewide since the repeal of prohibition in the 1930s.

Campaigns already are shaping up on the high-voltage drinking and gambling issues. Opponents of a dairy commission also are organized for battle.

Anti-Crime Council of Texas, has formed to combat organized crime and defeat the racing proposition. Committee for Tourism and Regulated Sale of Mixed Drinks stands ready to get back into action. Dry spokesmen report they have organized to fight liquor-by-the-drink. Texas Racing Association is ready with a campaign for a wagering proposal.

Meanwhile, House committee studying liquor laws has asked for an attorney general's opinion on constitutional validity of a state drink local option bill.

PARKS IMPROVED — While finishing touches were applied to the $1,000,000 renovation of the Davis Mountains State Scenic Park near Fort Davis, new federal grants were approved for four other state parks. Federal funds of $104,150 matched by a state appropriation of like amount will finance a 498-acre park 14 miles southwest of Cleburne.

Federal funds of $28,500, also matched by legislative appropriation, is earmarked for Mission San Francisco del Los Tejas Historic Park northwest of Crockett, a 129-acre historic park in the Piney Woods.

Lake Brownwood State Recreation Park near Brownwood will get $117,150 federal money matched by the state for its 538-acre park.

Another federal grant of $99,900, matched by state funds, will create the 588-acre Bentsen-Rio Grande Valley State Scenic Park near Mission.

Dedication tentatively is set for March 28 of the Davis Mountains Park. Also slated for dedication by Governor Connally that same day at the Park is scenic Texas Mountain Trail, one of ten unveiled by Connally last January to lure tourists off the beaten path into Texas areas of outstanding beauty and historic interest.

SCREWORM CASES CUT — Texas' screwworm eradication program cut reported cases of infestation from 49,484 in 1962 to 1,219 in 1967. So reports Auditor C. H. Caviness in his audit of the Animal Health Commission.

Commission's share of the program has been turned over to the federal government except for security supervision of the Rio Grande Valley screwworm fly production plant and the required inspection force.

COURTS SPEAK — State won its $1,000 civil penalty suit against a Bellville contractor under a water permit law. The road builder was first permanently enjoined from using public waters without permit from the Texas Water Rights Commission.

State Supreme Court denied rehearing of decision that Hillsboro cannot enforce a peddlers and vendors ordinance against an insurance company.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a six-year probation sentence for a Houston lawyer who encouraged his client to lie on the witness stand.

Same court ordered a new trial for the man who received the death penalty for the shooting death of a potato chip salesman in Chambers County.

APPOINTMENTS — John

Stokes of Lufkin is the new executive director and special counsel for the Republican Party of Texas. He succeeds Al Allison of Dallas who resigned to accept a private business offer.

Gubernatorial candidate John Hill named Rep. Bob Armstrong of Austin as executive director of his statewide campaign.

Governor Connally appointed A. E. Fawcett Jr. of Houston and R. F. (Bob) Byers of Dallas to the Texas Water Well Drillers Board.

House Speaker Ben Barnes has appointed Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock as chairman of the House Interim Committee to study egg importation and grading.

William J. Harding will direct activities of the new Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Insurance Companies.

John Peace of San Antonio, a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas System, has been appointed by Chairman Frank C. Erwin Jr. as a member of the Board for Lease of University Lands.

MORATORIUM ASKED — The Texas Animal Health Commission has joined the Texas Farm Bureau and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in asking the U. S. Department of Agriculture to delay a proposed new regulation prohibiting interstate shipment of cattle from counties not certified for brucellosis control.

Under the proposed regulation, cattle in uncertified counties could be sold for consumption only in Texas, unless the cattleman has his herd qualified himself, which involves personal expense.

Ninety-five Texas counties are not certified, and one AHC official estimates that three years will be required for compliance. As the regulation now reads, it will go into effect sometime between May 1 and January 1, 1969.

The USDA regulation is being sought by those states which are completely certified and do not want infected cattle being shipped in from states not so certified.

City of Abilene has received permission from the Texas Water Rights Commission to divert water from the Brazos River's Clear Fork as long as flow in the Fork is not reduced to less than 200 cubic feet per second.

Wilson Firm Looks To Favorable Year

SAN DIEGO, CAL. — A favorable year in 1968 and dynamic growth for the longer range future is the prediction made by Wilson & Co., Inc., Chicago, a subsidiary of Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc., Dallas, today before the Financial Analysts Society of San Diego.

Roy V. Edwards president, said that continued ample supplies of raw materials and high levels of consumer purchasing power are continuing in 1968. For the year, Wilson predicts hog and cattle marketings will be about the same high level as for 1967, and poultry operations are expected to be profitable.

Edwards pointed out that last year domestic consumer expenditures for food amounted to $96 billion. Sales of food through retail stores were $66 billion, while restaurant and institutional feeding was a $30 billion business. An estimated 33 per cent of consumer food purchases at retail are for red meats and poultry, substantially larger than of any other food category. "It is sometimes assumed that our industry grows at about the same rate as population increases," he stated. "This is not true. The consumption of meat and poultry products on a per capita basis is increasing at the same time that population is growing — from 169 pounds per person in 1950 to a projected 237 pounds in 1980.

"The population of the world is projected to be over six billion in the year 2000. This is more than double the present level of population. As standards of living increase, people eat better — eat more meat. Thus, the need for nutritious meat and other flavorful food products will continue to increase every year."

Since Wilson will process and even prepare and cook more and more of its beef, pork and poultry, Edwards believes that its image will change during the next few years from that of a meat packer to a diversified leading food company. The company will continue to be innovative in the introduction of more nutritious and convenient meat products.

He emphasized that Wilson is more than optimistic about the future. It is enthusiastic and excited about the great new challenges and opportunities.

farmers have been given a 13-day planting extension (until April 13) because excessive rains and low soil temperatures have made planting impractical under the old schedule, says Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

State Rep. Dave Allred of Wichita Falls, who is unopposed for re-election, has taken a leave of absence from the Wichita Falls Record-News and Times to handle press relations for Dolph Briscoe in his campaign for governor.

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, chairman of the House Interim Water Study Committee, sustained a heart attack in Austin after attending a meeting of the special House subcommittee on liquor-law revision.

Attorney General Martin in a new opinion has held that the highest-ranking officers eligible for Texas National Guard Army Board membership are Brig. Gen. D. A. Thompson, Col. Lewis E. Bracy Jr., and Col. Charles A. Francis.

State Securities Board blocked dealer sales of securities of Eastridge Park Baptist Church of Mesquite.

Texas Railroad Commission set May 7 for hearing on current market price for gas used for light and fuel in the Panhandle.

Judge Sherman G. Finesilver of Denver, Colo., who has worked with the Colorado Commission on Aging, specializing in pedestrian safety and home safety problems confronting older persons, addressed the annual meeting in Austin of the Governor's Committee on Aging.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As an interested person, I want to thank Vernon Denson for the contribution of a plot of land on which the old La Plata Cemetery is located. His gift was unsolicited and was given in the interest of the preservation of historical sites. And to top it all off, the Commissioners Court most graciously erected a fence around it.

As far as I can learn, there were five people buried in old La Plata which is nearly a mile north of the North line of the old Townsite. This does not count either 2 or 3 who were buried in boothill which lies about a hundred yards South-east. They were:

H. J. Beard, the second County Treasurer of Deaf Smith County; Sarah J. Barnett, a spinster sister of Mrs. Jacob Buttram. A street in Hereford was named after Mr. Buttram which has recently been changed to Ranger Drive; Mrs. Minnie Moffett, the sister of Dow Mercer, whose body was disinterred and reinterred in West Park Cemetery; John J. Stovall, the husband of "Pink" Stovall, Vern Witherspoon's teacher at La Plata. Mr. Stovall was accidentally killed when a timber broke as he was working on the La Plata windmill;

A now unknown infant - maybe two - was buried there. Although broken, the pedestals and head stones of Miss Barnett and Mr. Beard are still there and will be restored since there is now a fence around the plot.

In going over some of the old records, I found where Jacob Buttram had presented a bill to the Probate Court with reference to the death of his sister-in-law, Sarah J. Barnett, for disbursements he had made in her behalf which included a coffin for $35.00; a head stone for $35.00 and a fence for $24.00. Old timers will remember the beautiful little ornamental fence that surrounded the grave.

My thanks to Vernon Denson and the Commissioners Court.

Sincerely,
Major Schroeter

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — The Republic of Texas was not the first nation in North America to claim the Lone Star flag as its own.

From September 23 to December 7, 1810, the Lone Star was the standard of a strip of the Mississippi Gulf coast known as the Sovereign Republic of West Florida. This republic, like Texas, had its own government, its own army and navy, its own flag and its own Declaration of Independence.

It all began with the Louisiana Purchase. When the United States bought half a continent from France in 1803 for $15 million, everything west of New Orleans became a part of the U. S. The coastal area east of New Orleans, however, remained under Spanish rule.

In 1805, the few hundred inhabitants of the area revolted against Spain without success. Five years later they declared their independence. Immediately, however, the Republic of West Florida petitioned the U. S. for admission, and after only 74 days of independence, the territory became a part of the United States.

A quarter of a century later, however, its Lone Star flag was unfurled again when Texas adopted it as its symbol of freedom.

FACTS TO FORGET — In 1897, T. Brady received the first traffic ticket ever issued in Houston when he drove more than six miles an hour down Main Street and caused a horse to run away with a buggy. The fine was $10 and costs.

MORE BACKWARD TOWNS — Readers have helped us locate three more Texas towns that took their names by spelling a common word in reverse.

Tenrag, in Hopkins County, is Garnet spelled backwards. Tesnus (Sunset) is in Brewster County. Setag, in Polk County, becomes Gates when spelled the other way.

Are there others?

COCKTAIL PARTY — When politicians come to town, it's not unusual for their supporters to entertain with a libation or two. A generation ago, however, a host often provided something much stronger.

In the late 1930's, Vice President John Nance Garner returned to his native Texas on one occasion with Postmaster General James A. Farley and the late Will Rogers as his guests. A San Antonio business executive entertained the celebrities at his ranch south of Uvalde in the Anacacho Mountains.

Barbecue and son-of-a-gun stew were the main courses. But to wash down the food, a quart bottle of bourbon was placed between each two guests at the tables.

TEXANS AT WORK — Folks who want to pay up to $6,000 for a piano they'll never play often travel to Kemah, Galveston County, and look up Bill Stewart.

Stewart has one of the country's largest collections of player pianos. He buys them from all over the world, restores them and sells them at prices ranging from $250 to thousands of dollars.

State Hospital Is Seeking Aid The Volunteer Services Council of Wichita Falls State Hospital has invited local and area residents to donate funds and other articles to patients now at the hospital.

Special Easter needs, according to the council, are clothing for both men and women, coffee, Easter flowers (real or artificial), Easter cards for the patients to mail to families, cookies, fresh fruits, punch or cool aid, and sandwiches for patient activities on 40 wards. Fellowship parties for wards also may be arranged through the Volunteer Services Department. Checks should be made payable to "Volunteer Services Council for Wichita Falls State Hospital," and mailed to Box 300, Wichita Falls, Tex. 76787.

Town Without A Toothache The world first became aware of Hereford as "The Town Without a Toothache" when Dr. Edward Taylor, Director for Dental Health for the Texas State Board of Health, told the research section of the American Dental Association in 1941, of findings in a survey of native Deaf Smith County children.

If everybody was so slow on the highways, as they are getting their '68 tags, insurance premiums would probably go down.

WHO SHOT THE DRUMMER? THE ONE THEY CALLED ROWDY— THE LEADER— O GHOST WHO WALKS.

PILOT, YOU AND THOSE TWO MEN UNLOAD THE COPTER— EMPTY THE SACKS ON THE BEACH AT ONCE— EVERY ONE OF THEM!

ONLY THIS "ROWDY"— AND THE ONE HE KILLED— KNEW THE TRUTH OF THIS PLACE.

HE USED THE REST OF YOU— THEN INTENDED TO SLAUGHTER YOU TO KEEP THE SECRET.

WHAT SECRET?

ALL UNLOADED. NOW— ALL OF YOU— EXCEPT ROWDY— GET ABOARD— FAST!

FORGET THIS PLACE— THERE IS NOTHING HERE FOR YOU— BUT DEATH!

ROWDY, YOU ALONE KNOW THIS BEACH IS GOLD. YOU KILLED TWO MEN HERE. YOU WILL BE TRIED FOR THESE CRIMES BY THE WAMBESI.

PILOT, WHAT WAS THAT ALL ABOUT? JUST FOR A LOAD OF SULPHUR?

BOYS, I COULDN'T CARE LESS! ALL I WANT OF THAT PLACE IS OUT! IT'S MURDER!

SAVED! THE HOUSE OF JADE AND THE GOLDEN BEACH OF KEELA-WEE REMAIN THE MOST BEAUTIFUL PLACE ON EARTH!

I WISH I DIDN'T HAVE THIS DATE FOR LUNCHEON AT MRS. NEWMONEY'S—

WHY?

BECAUSE SHE'S A SOCIAL CLIMBER! I DON'T FEEL COMFORTABLE AROUND PEOPLE LIKE HER—

SHE'S JUST USING ME TO BREAK INTO SOCIETY—

ON SECOND THOUGHT, I'M GOING TO CANCEL THAT DATE!

IT'S PRETTY LATE FOR THAT—

ALL THE BETTER! MAYBE SHE'LL TAKE THE HINT AND LEAVE ME ALONE—

WHAT EXCUSE WILL YOU GIVE? ANYTHING THAT COMES INTO MY MIND! THE WEAKER THE BETTER—

I'LL CALL HER NOW— MRS. NEWMONEY STOPPED BY AND LEFT A MESSAGE FOR YOU, MA'AM—

SHE CAN'T HAVE YOU FOR LUNCH TODAY— SHE FORGOT THAT SHE HAD A DATE TO HAVE HER POODLE'S HAIR CLIPPED—

OH, JUST SOME HOMEWORK I CAN'T DO. I DON'T THINK YOU COULD DO IT EITHER!

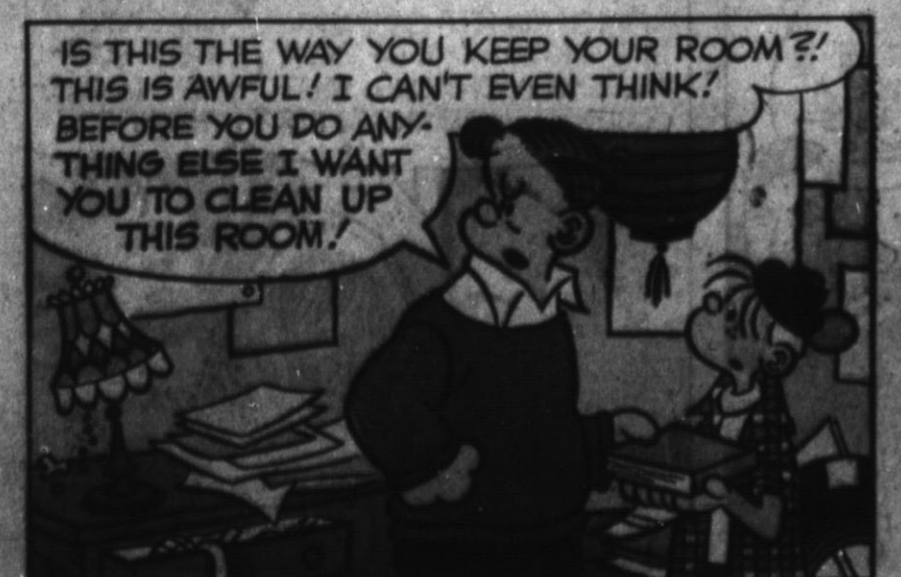

OH, YEAH?!

WE'LL SEE ABOUT THAT. WHAT'S IT ABOUT?

WELL, IT'S THE NEW MATH. YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO TAKE THIS SET, TRANSPOSE IT TO—

IS THIS THE WAY YOU KEEP YOUR ROOM? THIS IS AWFUL! I CAN'T EVEN THINK! BEFORE YOU DO ANYTHING ELSE I WANT YOU TO CLEAN UP THIS ROOM!

AND TUCK THAT SHIRT IN!

AND GET A HAIRCUT!

I KNEW HE COULDN'T DO THIS HOMEWORK EITHER.

I'M GLAD WE BUILT OUR NEW CLUBHOUSE WAY UP HERE

NOBODY TO DISTURB US

OR BOTHER US...

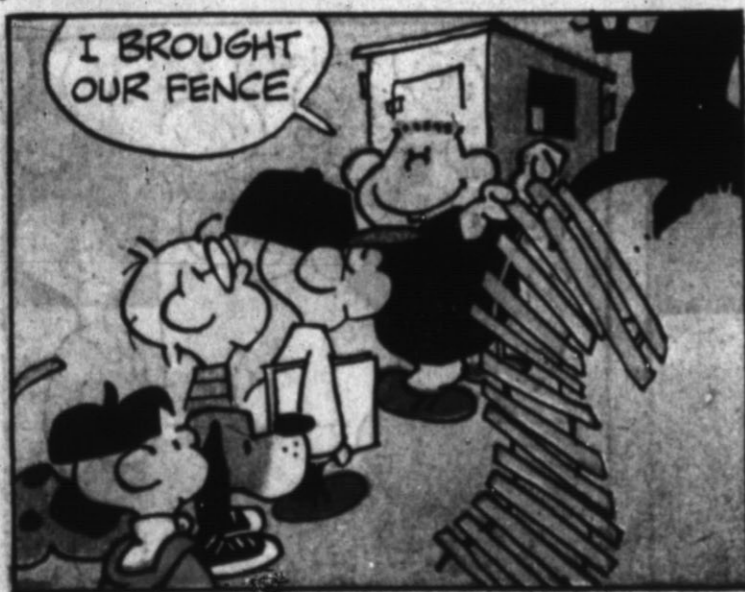

...OR TELL US WHAT TO DO

COMPLETE PRIVACY!

I BROUGHT OUR LOCK

I BROUGHT OUR FENCE

AND I BROUGHT THE SIGN FOR OUR FRONT DOOR!

STOP THAT NOISY HAMMERING!

BOY, GRANDMA SURE IS ACTING FUNNY!... LOOK!

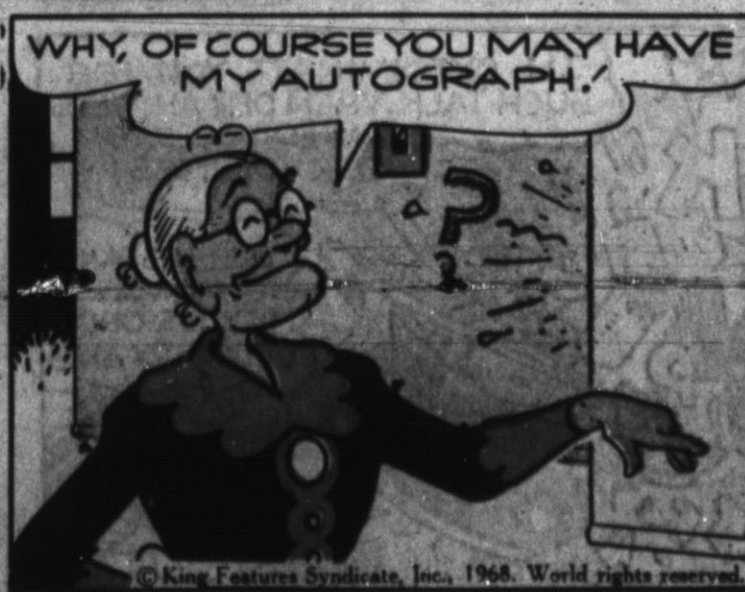

SMILE WHEN YOU SAY THAT!

DO YOU REALLY THINK I'M BEAUTIFUL?

WHY, OF COURSE YOU MAY HAVE MY AUTOGRAPH!

TRA-LA-LA

HUH... OH, HI, KIDS... I DIDN'T KNOW YOU WERE THERE!

I WAS JUST TESTING MY NEW MIRROR... AND IT SEEMS TO BE OKAY!

I'LL BE DARNED! I THINK A WHOLE FILE IS MISSING!

A FILE COULDN'T BE MISSING. WE PROBABLY SHIPPED THE MEN OUT

I KNEW YOU'D REMEMBER, SIR

YES... AHEM! COFF! WELL THEY MUST BE AROUND HERE SOMEPLACE! COFF!

WHAT IF THE PENTAGON FINDS OUT THAT WE LOST TRACK OF A HUNDRED MEN, SIR?

ONCE AND FOR ALL... THEY ARE NOT LOST!!

THEY'RE AROUND HERE SOMEWHERE!

USE YOUR HEAD! YOU CAN'T JUST LOSE A HUNDRED MEN, NOW, CAN YOU?

RIDICULOUS!

I'LL ADMIT WE'VE TEMPORARILY MISPLACED THEIR RECORDS... BUT ONLY TEMPORARILY, MIND YOU

JUST TILL THEY'RE FOUND

WHAT EVERYONE MUST REALIZE IS, THE ARMY NEVER LOSES ANYONE!

EVEN IF THEY'RE LOST!

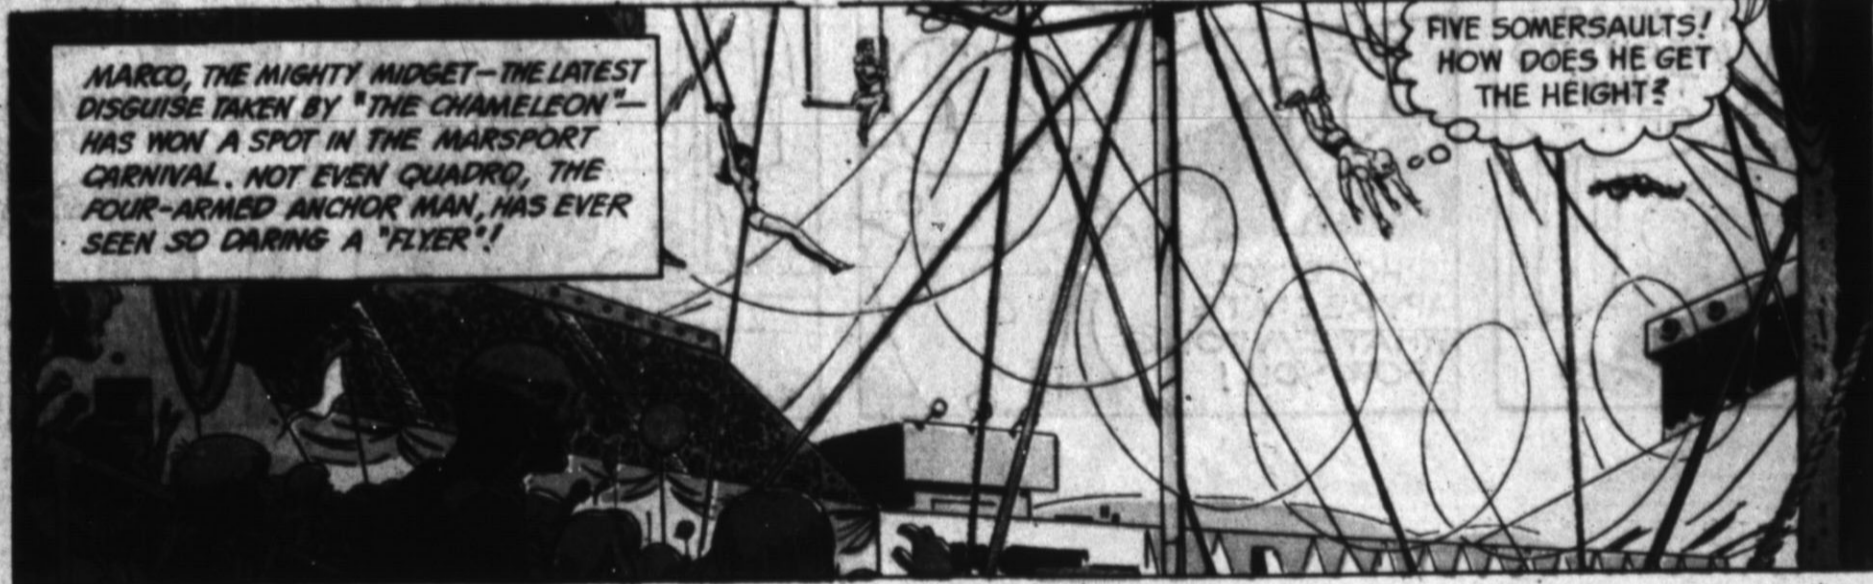

IF YOU DON'T SAY ANYTHING, MAYBE NO ONE WILL NOTICE

FLASH GORDON

MARCO, THE MIGHTY MIDGET—THE LATEST DISGUISE TAKEN BY "THE CHAMELEON"—HAS WON A SPOT IN THE MARSPORT CARNIVAL. NOT EVEN QUADRO, THE FOUR-ARMED ANCHOR MAN, HAS EVER SEEN SO DARING A "FLYER"!

FIVE SOMERSAULTS! HOW DOES HE GET THE HEIGHT?

HA-MAA! LOOK AT QUADRO'S DUMB PAN! HE CAN'T BELIEVE HIS EYES... THE SUCKER!

YOU PRETTY GOOD ACROBAT, COL. FLASH—BUT THAT, LI'L FELLA, MARCO, HE FLY LIKE A BIRD!!

IF I DIDN'T SEE IT, PANCHO, I WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT! HE DOESN'T SEEM TO BE WEARING ANY GADGETS FOR LIFT!

YOU WERE GREAT, MARCO! KNOCKED 'EM DEAD!

THANKS, QUADRO! HA! IT'S SO SIMPLE, EVEN HE CAN'T FIGURE IT! WIRES! TINY WIRES! PRESS MY FINGERS DOWN... AND SET OFF THE MINI-JETS IN MY BELT!

"THE CHAMELEON" NEVER DOES ANYTHING LEGIT, IF THERE'S A CROOKED WAY TO DO IT!

NOW TO FLEECE A FEW MORE SUCKERS!

LOOK, THERE'S MARCO, THE LITTLE ACROBAT!

YOU WERE GREAT... JUST GREAT, LITTLE FELLA!

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, DEAR FRIENDS!

NOT BAD... FOR A LITTLE SIDE LABOR! I'M GOING TO LIKE IT ON MARS!

HEY! I HAD MY WALLET... RIGHT HERE... A MINUTE AGO!

SOMEBODY SNATCHED MY DIAMOND RING!! CALL THE COPS!
