

WORLD DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE IS URGED

Texas Gas Rate Reduction Order Is Upheld By The Supreme Court

Case Affects Schedule At Laredo

Thompson Hails Ruling As Presaging Lower Rates

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—The supreme court affirmed today an order of the Texas railroad commission requiring the United Gas Public Service company to reduce its gas rate for Laredo from 75 cents to 55 cents per cubic foot.

Decision Affirmed

The tribunal sustained a decision by the court of civil appeals for the third supreme judicial district of Texas which upheld the rate reduction. Chief Justice Hughes delivered today's opinion.

United Gas contended the order was confiscatory. It was issued in 1932 but made effective as of January 1, 1932. The difference in the amount was to be refunded to the customers.

Justice Reed did not participate in the decision. Justice Black delivered a separate concurring opinion.

Justices McReynolds and Butler dissented, declaring that the judgment under review should be reversed.

"Appellees (Texas railroad commission) introduced evidence," the Hughes opinion said, "tending to show that appellants' (gas company) operating revenues, calculated on the basis of the 55 cent rate after deducting the operating expenses seemed to be allowable and annual allowance for depreciation, for the years ending June 30, 1929, 1930, and 1931, and July 31, 1932, yielded net amounts of $306,815, $123,293, $91,554, and $48,225 respectively, and for the year 1933, $46,271."

Other Figures

"Appellant contends that on the basis of the 55 cent rate its net operating revenue for 1932 would have been $10,086, and for 1933, $18,468."

"We do not think it necessary, so far as concerns the validity of the order, to consider the validity of the order."

FREEZE FORECAST FOR NORTH TEXAS

DALLAS, Feb. 14 (AP)—Freezing or near freezing temperatures by Tuesday morning in the northern section of Texas was forecast today by Dr. J. L. Cline of the U. S. weather bureau.

Colder winds were due to move in today, he said, to end unseasonably warm weather.

The freeze probably would not reach farther south than Dallas, Dr. Cline said, though it probably would be cooler.

Dr. Cline's forecast included the cold wave from the Panhandle to Northeast Texas and probably rains in the south portions of East Texas and southeast portion of West Texas tonight.

RADIUM VICTIM COLLAPSES

Mrs. Catherine Wolf Donahue is carried from the room after she collapsed at an industrial compensation hearing in Ottawa, Ill., as a medical witness testified that "radium poisoning" had doomed her to an early death. The emaciated mother was key witness for 14 former employees of a radium plant who are seeking compensation.

Two Fugitives Yet At Large

One Taken At Abilene; One Nabbed In Mississippi

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Feb. 14 (AP)—Two of five men who slugged a jailer and escaped from the Hopkins county jail last week were still at large today.

Harold F. Kerns, one of the five, was captured at Abilene last night; W. E. Burnett, another, was killed, and his companion, Roy E. Johnson, captured in Clinton, Miss., as he attempted to rob a filling station.

Paul Sloan and Noel Baker were still uncaptured.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 14 (AP)—A burglar alarm and a load of buckshot enabled Police Inspector A. E. Crawford to make this report today:

Dead: W. E. Burnett, 37, Glade-water, Tex.

Jailed: Roy E. Johnson, 31, Oklahoma City.

The inspector said the one was killed and the other captured Saturday night trying to burglarize a Clinton, Miss., garage after an escape from a Texas jail and a crime spree in three states.

While the two men were prowling through the garage of Charles and Ned Ratliff, the inspector said, the alarm summoned from their nearby home the owners who shot Burnett dead and found Johnson under a car.

The two Sulphur Springs fugitives still at large, Paul Sloan and Noel Baker, are those linked by officers in the burglary of the Elmo Wasson store here Friday night when clothing and cash were taken. Discovery of a quantity of clothing, packed in bags, was thought to have frustrated other possible thefts here.

Three At Refinery Suffer Gas Burns

Jamming of a pump valve at a still at the Coaden Petroleum corporation plant east of Big Spring early Sunday morning, causing vapors to escape from the pump brought slight burns to D. E. Smith, shift foreman, and "Skeels" West, pumper. W. T. Watson, gauger, received second degree burns about the face and hands. Smith received first aid treatment at the Big Spring hospital. West and Watson remained at the hospital Monday for treatment. They were doing nicely Monday afternoon. J. L. LeBlanc, assistant superintendent of the plant, said the accident occurred when a valve jammed.

Transaction Had Figured In Recent Hearings

AUSTIN, Feb. 14 (AP)—Land Commissioner W. H. McDonald today forfeited an oil and gas lease on a 62-acre tract of public land in Laguna Madre, Nueces county.

Figured In Hearings

Governor James V. Allred recently requested the attorney general's department to file suit to cancel the lease, charging the state had received inadequate consideration for it and in addition a well offsetting production on other land nearby had not been drilled as required by law.

The tract was No. 14 and originally was leased to Herbert Mallinson of Dallas on Dec. 3, 1937. The lease figured repeatedly in testimony at hearings of a senate committee investigating McDonald's land leasing policies.

McDonald acted after receiving a letter from the attorney general's department advising the lease automatically forfeited, the lease because of the offset drilling regulation.

"I have today made an entry of forfeiture of the oil and gas lease on tract 14 in Laguna Madre, Nueces county, which was issued to Herbert Mallinson," McDonald said.

Distance Re-checked

"On Dec. 3, 1937, a well was completed on an adjoining tract. The statute provides that in such a case, if the well is within 1,000 feet of the state lease, a well must be started on that lease within 60 days thereafter."

"An employee of the land office who was sent to the area shortly after Dec. 3, reported the distance was 1,023 feet. A re-check by the land office since the 60-day period expired reveals the correct distance is 972 feet."

"The attorney general's department, through a letter from First Assistant Attorney General Scott Gaines advised that under such a condition of facts the law automatically forfeits the lease."

RADIO STATION FOR VERNON IS SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—A communications commission examiner received testimony today in the application of the Northwestern Broadcasting company, Vernon, Tex., to operate a radio station on 1500 kilocycles with 100 watts power unlimited.

R. H. Nichols, owner-publisher of the Vernon Daily Record, told the examiner the station would be owned and operated by a partnership composed of himself, W. H. Wright, secretary of the Vernon chamber of commerce, and Stewart Hatch, son of Senator Hatch of New Mexico and a former Daily Record reporter.

HOUSTON MAN SLAIN

HOUSTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—Luther McChargue, 48-year-old Houston carpenter, was fatally shot at his home this morning and his son, S. V. McChargue, 21, was named by Justice of the Peace Thomas J. Decker in an inquest verdict of murder, as the person who fired three shots into the victim's head.

Justice Decker said family trouble preceded the shooting.

RULES RUMANIA

Dr. Miron Cristea (above), patriarch of the Rumanian Orthodox church, has been named premier and virtual dictator of Rumania. His government succeeds that of the anti-Semitic Octavian Goga, resigned.

Others in congress proposed that the United States take the lead in calling an international disarmament conference, despite hints that the administration was cool toward the idea.

Senator King (D-Utah) and Rep. Maverick (D-Texas) formally advocated such a conference. They said Japan and other world powers might be willing to ease the world situation by discussing curbs on world navies.

Time Not Ripe

Senator Pittman (D-Nev.), who is close to Secretary Hull in his capacity as chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, suggested, however, the time is not ripe.

"Political antagonisms are so strong, he said, as to spoil the chances of a fruitful parity."

Maverick contended that the Japanese note of Saturday, which Hull deplored as "encouraging rather than discouraging" races in armament building, did not shut the door to international agreement.

The note, replying to a request from the United States for information, refused to divulge Japan's future naval building plans.

"Let's have a naval conference, however irritated nations may be," suggested Maverick. "It may save a war."

J. L. Johnson Is Victim Of Pneumonia

Was Operator Of Tool And Supply House At Forsan

James Lowell Johnson, operator of a tool and supply company at Forsan, and well known in oil and business circles of West Texas, died Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock in a local hospital, victim of pneumonia. Johnson, 46, had been in treatment at the hospital for five days.

The funeral service was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Eberly chapel, with Rev. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Burial was made in the city cemetery.

Native of Kansas, Johnson came to Howard county nine years ago, opening the Southwest Tool & Supply company at Forsan when oil play was at its height in that section. Recently, he became interested with a group of Big Spring men in

Farm Measure Is Approved

Legislation Now Needs Only FD's Signature

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—The administration's new farm program received senate approval today after weeks of congressional controversy.

The bulky measure now goes to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature.

The president's approval will make effective the huge effort at production and marketing controls for five major crops on which congress began work last fall.

While the truck sent after the plants was unable to carry as many as had been ordered, the chamber of commerce was ready to take further orders which might be delivered with the second load.

The original block of trees booked here for Monday was "over-ordered," committee members said.

Simple Purpose Behind Complicated Language Of Farm Bill--To Assure Good Prices For Grower

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—A simple purpose, agriculture department officials said today, lies behind the complicated language of the new crop control bill: it is to assure good prices for the farmer without gouging the consumer.

Supporters of the measure, attempting to achieve that goal, have proposed to give the secretary of agriculture power to determine just how much wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and rice should be grown to meet the country's needs.

This figure would be divided among various states, then among counties, and finally among individual farms.

If supplies are large and prices low, farmers could obtain government loans on stored products instead of selling them at the low prices. Whenever these stored supplies and indicated production

Some Solons Want U.S. To Take Lead

Administration Said To Be Cool Toward Such A Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—Representative Fish (R-NY) suggested to the house naval committee today another disarmament conference should be called and Japan granted naval parity with the United States.

Naval Large Enough?

Naval experts, he said, have stated Japan could not attack this country successfully even with a navy as large as the American fleet.

"Why can't we give Japan equality," he asked, "unless we intend to do what I think we are trying to do, and that is police and quarantine the world?"

Fish testified at hearings on the proposed $800,000,000 naval expansion program. He said he believed the navy now "is larger than necessary for all purposes of national defense."

Others in congress proposed that the United States take the lead in calling an international disarmament conference, despite hints that the administration was cool toward the idea.

Senator King (D-Utah) and Rep. Maverick (D-Texas) formally advocated such a conference. They said Japan and other world powers might be willing to ease the world situation by discussing curbs on world navies.

Time Not Ripe

Senator Pittman (D-Nev.), who is close to Secretary Hull in his capacity as chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, suggested, however, the time is not ripe.

"Let's have a naval conference, however irritated nations may be," suggested Maverick. "It may save a war."

Japan Now Wants An 'Unofficial Request'

TOKYO, Feb. 14 (AP)—The Japanese foreign office spokesman intimated today that Japan might be willing to provide naval construction information if the request was made unofficially.

Saturday Japan refused to tell the United States, Great Britain and France her naval building plans.

Asked what would constitute an "unofficial reply" on naval construction, the spokesman did not amplify his statement other than to point out that such a reply would not be "legally binding."

He answered a question on whether Japan might be willing to consider a "gentlemen's agreement" on naval building with a shake of his head and the assertion that he was not proposing anything of that nature.

TREES EXPECTED HERE TODAY

The chamber of commerce beautification committee expected a truck load of Chinese elm trees to be received here Monday afternoon, it was announced.

While the truck sent after the plants was unable to carry as many as had been ordered, the chamber of commerce was ready to take further orders which might be delivered with the second load.

The original block of trees booked here for Monday was "over-ordered," committee members said.

O. O. M'Intyre, Famed N. Y. Columnist, Is Taken By Death

Daily Writings Of 'Small Town' Boy In Big City Appeared In Over 500 U. S. Newspapers

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP)—Oscar Odd McIntyre, newspaper columnist to whom millions of Americans looked for their impressions of New York City, died today in his Park Avenue apartment.

One of the most famous newspapermen of the nation, he came to New York from a small Ohio town, and always boasted he never lost the naive curiosity of the "home town boy." For a quarter of a century his daily column, "New York Day By Day," gained increasing fame, and in recent years was published in more than 200 newspapers.

McIntyre, who would have been 54 Friday, died at 2 o'clock this morning. Cause of death was not known immediately, but his health had not been good for some time.

McIntyre's friendships ran through all classes and types of people—Broadway's great, the big city's ordinary people, each alike claimed his attention.

He lived much alone in recent years, doing his work in his richly-furnished apartment, aided in great measure by his wife, the former Maybelle Hope Small, of Gallipolis, Ohio.

First Syndicated Column

Friday also would have been his 30th wedding anniversary.

The first man to write a syndicated New York column, forerunner of the many present-day Broadway gossip writers, McIntyre began his newspaper career on the Gallipolis Journal in 1902.

Broadway was still far from his dream. He left Gallipolis to become a feature writer on the East Liverpool, Ohio, Tribune, then became managing editor of the Dayton, Ohio, Herald, and later assistant managing editor of the Cincinnati Post.

The "big town" lure finally brought him to New York as associate editor of Hampton's Magazine in 1912. In a few months he had started the brick-paved job-lings which brought him fame and fortune as one of the highest-paid newspaper writers in the world.

A Column A Day

The sledding was hard, at first, McIntyre began the column as a press agent "stunt" for a New York hotel, in return for his room and board. He gave it away free, eagerly seeking to have it circulated. Gradually it caught on until it was syndicated from coast to coast.

In later years, he was accused of portraying a New York which no longer existed but which represented the idea of "Baghdad on the Subway" to the nation's hinterland millions.

He never faltered at his daily stint, although he frequently complained it was the most arduous task in the world. His regular column, written in the Samuel Papp's manner he sometimes assumed, appeared this morning.

By coincidence, the opening paragraph spoke of his beloved Gallipolis, where he had built a fine home and, after repeated hopes of some day "going back."

7th Arrest In Mail Robbery

Man Taken Near Ranger In Connection With Case

EASTLAND, Feb. 14 (AP)—A posse of federal, county and city officers today arrested the seventh man sought by U. S. postoffice inspectors in connection with the theft of $28,950 from a mail pouch which disappeared between Dallas and O'Donnell, Tex.

Deputy Sheriff Tug Underwood of Eastland said he had been informed charges of mail robbery had been filed by Fort Worth postal inspectors against the suspect R. H. (Rufe) McNurlin, 44.

Sheriff Loss Woods and Police Chief Jim Ingram of Ranger led the officers who arrested McNurlin at his home six miles south of Ranger.

The mail pouch disappeared Nov. 4 or 5. It was consigned to the First National bank of O'Donnell from the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas.

Among others arrested in connection with the disappearance of the currency were Sidney Miller and his wife of Dallas. They were arrested recently in Atlanta, Ga., and returned to Texas.

Others held in connection with the case include Roy Cathey, about 27, who lived west of O'Donnell; Oscar Petty, about 50, also of O'Donnell; and R. T. (Buddy) Morris, 38, of Kerrville, a hide buyer.

Carl Williams was charged at Abilene with receiving and concealing stolen property taken from the U. S. mail, in connection with the case.

Togs Reflect The Grown-up World

By ADELAIDE KERR
AP Feature Service Writer

Some of the most colorful children's clothes seen in years—inspired by events in the world of grown-ups—have come to town with juvenile fashions for spring.

Walt Disney's film "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" has influenced some of them. There are crisp new frocks of blue and white dotted swiss inspired by Snow White's dress and new spring pull-over-sweaters embroidered with gay figures of Mopey, Dopey, Happy and Sleepy.

Hot Dog Designs
The recent grown-up vogue for Tyrolean clothes and boleros has had its effect on the youngsters' clothes, too. Little sister may have a gay dretail frock with a fitted peasant bodice and full gathered skirt, this spring, while big sister can step out to school in a dress of pique or cotton broadcloth which has either a real or a simulated bolero top.

The gay cotton prints which make simple one-piece dresses for them both have the most amusing designs in years. Floating bubbles, jack straws, hot dogs with long droopy ears and "Sidewalks of New York" prints showing children dancing around a hurdy-gurdy are among the colorful patterns.

Bonnets Are Smart
There is also fashion news in the coats, many of which are princess designs, fitted to the figure and flaring slightly in the skirt. Mannish worsteds, neutral tweeds flecked with bright color and flannels (blue, bluish-gray and beige) make the majority of them.

When it comes to hats, bonnets are going to be smart for youngsters of all ages, the stylists declare. In these, felts in such shades as ginger and luggage-tan are slated for popularity.

Boys' suits of cheviot, flannel or short, slightly flared, trousers and double-breasted jackets. Washable play suits for younger boys combine a shirt and trousers which button to the shirt or are topped by suspender straps.

Sweetwater Visitors

Mrs. G. W. Givens and children, Marion and George, returned Sunday from Sweetwater where they spent three days as guests of relatives.

READING AND WRITING

The fiction calendar for the week—
Monday: "Harvest Comedy," by Frank Swinnerton (Doubleday; $2.50)—richly furnished novel of four dramatic characters interlocked by life.
Tuesday: "Starting Point," by Cecil Day Lewis (Harcourt; $2.50)—four young men of Oxford act as mirrors to reflect modern England as a poet of distinction sees it; a good deal of talk, as per the English novel recipe, but it is good talk quite often.
Wednesday: "The Best Butter," by Elinor Rice (Morrow; $2.50)—high comedy in one of these towns not far from New York which are filled with economists, radio users, critics, psychiatrists and so forth; Miss Rice once ran a book shop, once read manuscripts for a publisher; still considers herself an urbanite.
Thursday: "The Clouded Moon," by Max Saltmarsh (Knopf; $2.50)—a mystery thriller of the better sort, a set on the French Riviera, which still is one of our favorite scenes for such books; Edouard Roc, Cannes, the Esterline, Juan-les-Pins and so on are smeared with murder, rocked by intrigue. Through it all Saltmarsh strews familiar, well-drawn Riviera types.
Friday: "The Big Firm," by Amabel Williams-Ellis (Houghton-Mifflin; $2.50)—novel by another of those writing Strachey's which chiefly concerns a young scientist who thought being loyal to science was quite enough, and Nicola, who caused him to think differently, with the help of circumstance; this is quite, quite English.
Saturday: "Tonia," by Yuri Herman (Knopf; $2.50)—one of the better Russian novels, in which a girl goes through the stages of life in our oddest bureaucracy and is made to seem a person instead of a puppet for propaganda; there is some of the latter, unfortunately, but at least one is spared several hundred pages of party meetings.
Sunday: "Boundary Against Night," by Edmund Gilligan (Farrar & Rinehart; $2.75)—a fine novel of action and character, the undercurrents tragic, the prose firm and often genuinely beautiful. It's set in Boston, and its atmosphere is no the violent side.

Two Affairs Are Given Honoring Three Guests

Mrs. Ed Reagan Hostess For A Bridge, Dinner
Mrs. Ed Reagan gave an afternoon bridge and 8 o'clock dinner Saturday at her home, 603 East 13th, honoring three guests from Stanton.
At the afternoon party Mrs. E. A. Purser and Mrs. Bertha Boyd were named honorees. The red and white color theme was used for tables and table appointments. Mrs. Frank Rutherford scored high with Mrs. Bill Dehlinger receiving the bingo prize. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Dehlinger, Mrs. Rose Millon, Mrs. Pat Martin, Mrs. Harry Adams, Mrs. Katie Lee Franklin, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. A. J. Conklin, Mrs. Jim Chapman, Mrs. J. N. Blue, the honoree guests and the hostess.
The 8 o'clock dinner was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Purser and Mrs. Boyd. Mrs. Reagan binged and high score was won by Mrs. Conklin.
Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Purser, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Conklin and Mrs. Blue.

commission's rate in its prospective application, to extend this opinion by stating in detail the contentions pro and con as to those estimates, questions which largely relate to the permissible allowances for operating expenses. We are satisfied that if we consider the result of appellant's operations for the entire period, 1929 to 1933, the evidence was adequate to support the judgment of the trial court."

Says Lower Rates In Sight For Texas

AUSTIN, Feb. 14 (AP)—Ernest O. Thompson, member of the railroad commission, today hailed the United States supreme court decision in the Laredo gas rate case as presaging lower rates generally for Texas.

"This decision presages lower rates for all of Texas where they have not already been reduced," Thompson said.

Hailing the court's ruling as "marvelous," the commissioner said the case was the rock on which the commission stood in all other rate cases, a number of which are pending.

It was the first gas rate reduction order to be acted on by the United States supreme court.

One of the most important of the other cases in litigation involves validity of an order reducing the rate, or wholesale, rate of the Lone Star Gas company.

Arguments on the Lone Star case will be heard by the court at an early date.

"The significance of the decision is that the method used by the commission and orders issued to bring about fair rates have been sustained in every respect," Thompson said.

"It means we now have a firm foundation for the ascertainment and promulgation of rates based on orders by this commission which cannot be overturned."

Floods

tions were not to be compared with those prevailing at Mt. Clemens where approximately 400 houses were surrounded by water and refuge stations had to be set up. A relentless February thaw and torrents of rain caused the latest overflow of Michigan rivers.

IN CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14 (AP)—The Pacific coast, worried by a prolonged siege of rain, snow and high winds that has caused nearly a score of deaths, disrupted communications, halted rail and highway traffic and harassed shipping, looked forward today to more rain, snow and high winds.

In Northern California, where the storm entered its 19th consecutive day, floods which had already inundated several low-lying areas threatened to spread.
From Bridgeport in East California, came a report of the latest known victim of the storm. Tony Sparcevic, a miner, was crushed to death yesterday in an avalanche that sent tons of snow and rocks crashing down on the Silverado mine in the Sierra Nevada.
Heavy rains along the upper Sacramento river heightened apprehension in the Colusa-Sacramento area, where levees were weakened by saturation, and where some 25,000 acres of rich farming land already were inundated.

E. M. LaVelle, chief evaluator of the Federal Housing Administration, with headquarters in Fort Worth, was a visitor in Big Spring Monday. He was en route to El Paso, where he will remain several days before returning to Fort Worth.

Violent Death Toll To 15

Traffic Mishaps Account For Over Half Of Total

By The Associated Press
Traffic accidents accounted for more than half of the 15 violent Texas deaths during the weekend.

Three died from blows, one was drowned, and one injured fatally in a grist mill accident. An inquest verdict was withheld in the death of another.

Ernest Eldridge Southern, charged with the burglary of a warehouse at Pilot Point, Denton county, last December, was injured fatally when an automobile plunged off the Dallas highway near Denton.

Herman Landreth, 21, a farmer, was killed near Fullbright when he fell off a tractor and was crushed under its wheel. Tom James, 54, Comanche workman, was found dead in water of Indian Creek in South Comanche. Justice George C. Wetzel withheld a verdict.

Ralph Fox, 37, brewery supply salesman found dead in a hotel room in Houston, died from a cerebral hemorrhage caused by a blow which fractured his skull. Dr. J. Herbert Page, county health officer, reported it initially. Roy Dancy, 47, restaurant proprietor, was charged with murder in connection with the death.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sanders, Jr., of Houston, newlyweds, were killed near Waco in an automobile collision. At Coahoma, Phillip Spears, a farmer, was injured fatally as he worked on a tractor.

William Collins, a Dallas mechanic, died after he was crushed against the column of a concrete underpass. He was riding on the fender of an automobile. Mrs. W. A. Turner, 51, of Madill, Okla., was injured fatally as she crossed a street in Dallas.

Clark W. Parrott, 32, was injured fatally when a fly wheel at a grist mill at Frankston flew from the shaft. The body of Ben Beach, 28, an attorney, was found beside his wrecked automobile near Hamilton. His automobile apparently struck the side of a culvert.

Alvin Woods, 17, attempted to swim a slough on the Trinity river 10 miles northwest of Cold Springs, Tex., and was drowned.

Marvin Anthony, 28, was killed in a fight on the outskirts of Post, Tex., and three men were jailed in connection with the death.

A. W. Kessell, 55, formerly of Shreveport, was found dead at Texarkana. Prosecuting Attorney Ned Stewart said an autopsy showed Kessell died of a fractured skull. He said a charge of first degree murder would be filed.

Test Flows After Shot

Iron Mountain No. 3 Snyder Makes 300 Barrels In Heads

Shot with 720 quarts of liquid nitroglycerine Sunday afternoon, the Iron Mountain No. 3 Snyder, 990 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of section 28-30-1a, T&P, flowed 800 barrels in several heads during a five hour interval following the shot. First head came an hour and a half following the shot.
Iron Mountain No. 4 Snyder, one of the most interesting tests in the Snyder pool area, 2,310 feet from the east and 330 feet from the south lines of section 28, drilled ahead to 2,782 feet in lime, having flowed Sunday night.
Magnolia No. 3 O'Daniel, 1,650 feet from the north and 330 feet from the west lines of section 24-30-1a, T&P, swabbed 250 barrels in 13 hours Sunday, preparatory to a potential test. Couden No. 1 O'Daniel, half a mile east extension to the pool, was waiting on pipe line connection before testing.
Moore Bros. No. 1-A Snyder, 2,310 feet from the west and 990 feet from the south lines of section 28, was drilling below 1,745 and Moore Bros. No. 4 TXL, 990 feet out of the northeast corner of section 33, was at 808 feet.
Four miles to the southwest, the Wilcox H. L. Lockhart No. 1 A. E. Huesinger, 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 27-29, W&N&W, drilled to 2,505. It had about a baller an hour from a show logged at 2,697-2,702 and had brown lime from 2,782-90, but no apparent increases. It has had seven shows altogether.

NURSE HERE TO BE INTERVIEWED FOR STEWARDESS JOB

Miss Lois L. Smith, surgical nurse at the Big Spring hospital, will leave Wednesday afternoon via American Airlines plane for Chicago, Ill., where she will be interviewed by airline officials for a stewardess position. Miss Smith formerly of New Orleans, has resided in Big Spring for the past year, where she has been employed by the Big Spring hospital as surgical nurse. Miss Smith has been an applicant for a stewardess position on American Airlines for some time, and Monday morning received official notification to appear in Chicago for an interview. One of the qualifications of a stewardess on American Airlines is that the applicant must be a graduate nurse.

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

This is the week Jack Hutchinson moves to Big Spring with his family and things are expected to buzz around Big Spring's baseball headquarters from now on.

He hired a manager for his drug business in Monahans to devote all his time to this game of baseball which shows that he really intends to make a paying proposition of it.

Jack sincerely believes that Big Spring will be a good baseball town. We'll go him one better. We'll say that Big Spring will be the best baseball town in the West Texas-New Mexico league which is saying a lot.

Lubbock and Midland have always been cities to support their teams but Lubbock and Midland don't have baseball communities like Coahoma and Fort Worth to add to their support.

Last season when the loop opened its doors in Midland for the first time, a score or more of Big Springers made the trip to the Cardinal ball park to see the leaguers in action.

Hutch has already selected the site for his proposed plant and construction can soon be expected to begin. The plot is on West Fifth and San Antonio, probably the most logical spot in town since it is only about eight blocks from the business district.

The baseball mogul wrote last week that he had not decided upon his manager yet but would probably select within a few days.

It seems that it all came about through a misunderstanding—a misunderstanding whereby the boys didn't reckon with the fact that Trainer Earl Scott would be invited to dinner but he was on one occasion last week, having accepted an invitation to dine with Clarence Barnes at the Rustic Inn. And whom did he find swinging the "Suey Q" but three of his ace swatters who were supposed to be getting their nine hours or more of sleep that eve.

One of the bright lads passed it off with, "We are taking our footwork, pal."

Floyd Burnett, who is promoting an invitational basketball tournament at Garner this weekend, will probably begin track and field practice at the school next week.

The question of Willie Dee Freeman's eligibility hasn't been settled by any means yet despite the fact that the county athletic committee ruled him out of further play in the basketball race and the stellar athlete may figure largely in the Billies' track plans the coming semester.

Thomas does everything well and will probably team with the Texas twins, R. C. and E. V., in giving Garner one of the better teams in this vicinity.

With the year's most beautiful day blossoming out Sunday, both Big Spring golf courses set the season's record with so many playing even the many courses that the crowd looked more like a gallery than it did participants.

The two tennis courts, too, experienced a Christmas rush never before seen at this time of year.

Last week came the announcement that Scott, who has contributed his services to the Golden Gloves contestants free of charge, had moved to Lamesa to make his home.

He will, however, make the trip to Fort Worth to help keep the boys in trim.

Fish Oppose Danielmen

Battle Is Feature Of Three Games In Moore Gym

Feature game on tonight's card of the Community basketball league finds Ben Daniel's Calves and Davis Fisher's Fish clashing in the Moore Gym. Both teams have been defeated once but rank with Brown as the strongest teams in the cage loop.

Other games find Moore opposing the league leading Brown quintet while the West Siders will take the courts against Garner.

The Moore-Brown duel is rated a tossup if McCullough, ace Moore guard, is in form.

Standings:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Brown	2	0	1.000
Fish	2	1	.667
Calves	2	1	.667
Garner	1	1	.500
Moore	1	2	.333
West Siders	0	3	.000

Traffic fatalities in England reached 6,891 and injuries 228,339 in 1937 compared with 6,861 and 224,885 in 1936.

NYork Boxing Commission's Action Forces Jacobs To Change Plans

Heavy Battle Now Ticketed For Chicago

Trouble Arose When Galento And Second Ruled Out

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP)—New York state's esteemed boxing commissioners have come through again in the pinch and chased another "million-dollar" gate right out of town, no doubt to the relief of Manhattan's hotel men and tavern keepers, who wouldn't want to be bothered with a lot of extra business at the start of the summer season.

If there previously had remained some slight doubt that the anticipated championship meeting between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling this coming June would be fought at Chicago, he had been removed by the commission's masterful handling of the big Tony Galento mystery of the past week.

The commission practically relieved Promoter Mike Jacobs of the necessity of making a decision on the championship site when it socked a suspension on Joe "Yusell" Jacobs, the manager of Galento—and likewise the manager of Schmeling. It was great break for Chicago, which estimates the value of the scrap at around $5,000,000 in trash money.

Up to this time, Joe, to the writer's knowledge, had been neutral. He didn't care whether Schmeling fought here or in Chicago, just so the affair drew "plenty of cabbages," as Joe quaintly puts it. But now he's all for Chicago, and he has talked Julian Black, one of Louis' pilots of record, into the same frame of mind. Promoter Mike Jacobs, worried about the New York Jewish boycott of Schmeling, was eager to be swayed in Chicago's favor, anyway.

Jacobs Out, Too

Galento, if you didn't read the breathless details, had his license suspended by the indignant commissioners because he didn't let them know he had a damaged left hand. He was to have fought Harry Thomas at the Garden Friday night, but now Jimmy Adamick the Detroit terror, is taking Tony's place.

Everything would have been all right, probably, if the alert commissioners had let things go at suspending Galento. It turned out that he didn't have a New York boxer's license anyhow. Tony is a forgotten fellow to take an extra smack at the Yussel for good measure, they blew the works. Possibly they forgot his ancient working agreement with Schmeling.

The record of the commission in its effort to keep the super-fights out of its territory is remarkable. William Muldoon, the venerated father of the body, chased the two Dempsey-Tunney bouts to foreign parts because neither Jack nor Gene would give Harry Wills a shot at the title.

It since has been pretty generally agreed that Wills wasn't anything special in the way of heavyweights, and the muscle-bound Harlem negro is on the way to being completely forgotten. But nobody could tell Muldoon that at the time.

Oilers To Play Monahans Team

FORSAN, Feb. 14—Manager Bert Cramer of the Magnolia Oilers of Forsan announced that he had matched a game with the Monahans Oilers here Wednesday night. The two teams met two weeks ago with the Monahans quintet winning.

Cramer expects to have a stronger lineup to open against the visitors, however, than made the trip to Monahans.

Texan Plays Steady Brand Of Golf To Beat Sneed, 4 and 3, For Frisco Title

Demaret Wins First Major Tournament

By RUSSELL NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14 (AP)—Jimmy Demaret, who learned his golf in Texas and still practices it there, took the lion's share of the purse and the title of San Francisco match play open champion back to the Lone Star state today.

The 27-year-old professional, born in Houston and connected with the Braeburn Country club, defeated heavy hitting Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., 4 and 3 in the 36-hole final yesterday.

Demaret, topping the field after five days of play in rain and wind, hauled down $1,000 for his end. He was the most important tournament he has won, although he is the present and three times Texas P.G.A. titleholder, and he outlasted some of the finest shot-makers in the country to do it.

In the final, Demaret played steady although not spectacular golf to take the measure of Sneed, 1937 Ryder Cup team member and winner of three tournaments during the current winter swing.

Demaret won the first hole with a birdie four and maintained his lead throughout the day. He was three up at the ninth, two up at the 18th and three up again at the 27th.

The 23rd hole, ending the match, saw Sneed concede victory after he had hooked his drive into the woods and finally reached the green in four strokes. Demaret was on in two for an easy par four.

With rain beating down, Demaret

Ben Johnson Is After 11th Win

To Run Tuesday, Will Return To Madison Sq. Garden Saturday

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP)—Ben Johnson, who has injected new life into the indoor track season with his series of record-smashing sprints, triumphs go to the mat with the old man twice more this week.

Johnson will be among the stars who will trek to Providence, R. I., Tuesday night for the annual meet of the Columbus club of the Knights of Columbus. Saturday night in the New York Athletic club meet, he will be back at Madison Square Garden and the track on which he twice broke the world's record for the 60-yard dash in the Milrose games.

Johnson has won nine straight races including heats, and is well on the way to one of the most sensational seasons ever enjoyed by an American college sprinter.

The Columbia captain won the Briggs 30-yard dash at the Boston A. A. games Saturday night over a fast field which included Ferrin Walker, Lawrence Scanlon and Herbert Thompson. The time was 5.5.

Glenn Cunningham, unbeaten at the mile, made the entry for the Bishop Keogh mile at Providence Tuesday night and then takes another shot at his favorite, the Baxter mile, Saturday night at New York.

Cunningham returned 4:10 at Boston Saturday night after running 4:15.3 Friday night over the Seventh Regiment Army's unbanked track. His best time for the Baxter mile is the 4:09.8 he turned in in 1935 and it is extremely probable that he will approach or better this figure this week, especially if Archie San Romani has recovered sufficiently from his spike wound to push the mile king.

Fighters In Last Heavy Workouts To Leave For State Finals Wednesday

Team To Make Trip By Automobile, Will Weigh In Thursday

Six local fighters, to be joined by leather slingers from Midland and Monahans, will leave Big Spring Wednesday at high noon for Fort Worth where they spend the weekend trying to qualify themselves for a trip to Chicago.

The eight mitt pushers, titlists of the recent Golden Gloves contests here, will be competing in the state finals along with the victors of 15 other district tournaments in the state.

Since the local finals were fought two weeks ago, the six who call Big Spring home have been working with Roy Stice and Kid Whittington helping Earl Scott to get the boys into fighting trim.

They are due to go out in earnest tonight, with a two hours drill slated in the Bettles training quarters. They will report back for the last time Tuesday evening to polish off their labor of six weeks of training.

The party, accompanied by Promoter Ray Simmons, Jess Slaughter and two or three other local men, will make the trip by cars.

They expect to arrive in Fort Worth around 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, taking their quarters at the Worth hotel.

Present plan is to weigh the night in Thursday morning.

Flyweight, bantams, feathers and lights will battle Thursday night with winners in the other four divisions due to have it out Friday.

All preliminary fights will be over the two-round route, it has been announced.

Scene of all the action will be the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum.

Longhorn Tracksters Report To Two Mentors This Week

Track prospects are expected to brighten up this week when Coaches Pat Murphy and Carmen Brandon take inventory this week of a dozen or more men that will report for the spring events.

The two mentors will coach the track men along with the grid squad.

Field is being cleared off in the southern part of the city and hurdles, pole vault and high jump bars will soon go up.

A dozen or more hopefuls are expected to answer the first call around Wednesday, including several regulars of last year's squad.

Doug Rayburn, weight man and broad jumper, is back along with Weldon Bigney, half miler; Red Womack, dash man; D. R. Gactman, quarter miler; and Charles Ray Settles, short dash man.

Other prospects are expected to report from the football camp, dividing their time between the two sports.

Coach Brandon indicated that a local invitational meeting might be held and that the Steers would pay visits to most of the invitational meetings the surrounding schools would hold.

Open Against Garner, Moore Is Underdog

First round games for the girls' basketball championship of Howard county will take place in the Coahoma gym Tuesday evening with Coahoma opposing Moore and Forsan battling Garner for the right to advance into the finals.

Forsan's rangy fans will take the courts the decided favorites over the Garner girls while Coahoma should come in ahead of Moore.

The Forsan outfit, boasting a high scoring lineup composed of Grissom, the Gregory sisters, Jordan and Pike among others, have captured honors in two tournaments this season and have been impressive in all their games. Four girls were recently chosen on the all-tournament team at the Big Lake tournament.

Coahoma ranks over Moore because the team from North Howard county has not been as active as have the Bulldogs. The Coahomans have never been able to beat the Forsans but they have turned in several sparkling performances.

The first game is scheduled for 7 p. m.

Expecting Tough Golf Matches

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 14 (AP)—British golfers are going to be tougher to beat this year than ever before, United States amateur golf champion Johnny Goodman said today.

Goodman, a member of the United States Walker cup team in 1934 and 1936 and unbeaten in cup singles and doubles play, termed the British golfers "sportsmen from the ground up."

This year's American cup team is the strongest that could be assembled, the amateur champion said.

"It's a very fine team," Goodman said.

"There's John Fischer, Ray Billows, Reynolds Smith, Marvin Ward, Charley Koels, Freddy Haas, Charley Yates and myself, two alternates, Tommy Taylor and Don Moe, and Francis Oulmet, non-playing captain.

"We are going to be a hard bunch to stop in the British amateur. We are all good golfers, but so are many of the British and with so many 18-hole matches, anybody is liable to get hot and win," he continued.

Money For Paving

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—Senator Connally (D-Tex) said today President Roosevelt had approved a $128,265 Works Progress allotment for paving streets and alleys at Lubbock, Tex.

Players' Howls Continue In All Camps

Stripp Wants 10 G's But Rickey Laughs Situation Off

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP)—Gather 'round, boys and girls, and get an earful of the ball-players' bliss. It's the annual spring festival of the holdout and howl singing society, with a current active membership of about 40 big leaguers. Generally, the fellows are all squawking the same tune. Their complaints have too many words and not enough figures—particularly in the space reserved for salaries.

Put it under the head of good clean fun. Take the New York Yankee situation. You remember the Yanks. That's the outfit where Joe DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig are hollering box-car numbers around $40,000. Frank Crosetti has just received his assigned contract, and several others, like Lefty Gomez and Bill Dickey, go to make up a total of eight individual headaches for Col. Jake Ruppert, who is a great guy for headaches.

But the Yanks are old stuff among the members in good standing of the H. and H. society. Let's meet some of the others:

"Bat Boy, Maybe"

There's Joe Stripp, the ex-Dodger who figures to be the Cardinals' third baseman this spring and wants $10,000 for the year. Joe took one look at the Cards' contract offer—and saw red.

"What," he demanded, "do you want—a bathtub or a ball player for that pay?"

However, despite the Stripp problem, the H. and H. society has been satisfied Dixie Dean and Ducky Medwick, Branch Rickey is bearing up.

"Joe," he tells you, "is a born holdout. He wouldn't know what to do in a training camp on the first day."

Two of the very few experienced laborers of Connie Mack's Athletics crew are on the assigned list. Shortstop Skeeter Newcome drew a raise, but wants a bonus of "a thousand or two, dependent on my batting average." Wally Moses explained, "I've had a couple of letters from Mr. Mack. He offered me so much; I asked for so much—and that's where it stands."

In fact, just about every club, with the exception of Detroit's, have ordered in fresh supplies of aspirin and are ready for anything.

R. Henderson Dies, Burial Tuesday

Veteran Interscholastic League Head Succumbs At Legion

AUSTIN, Feb. 14 (AP)—Funeral services will be held here tomorrow at 10 a. m. for Roy B. Henderson, 47, athletic director of the Texas Interscholastic league, who died at the veterans' hospital at Legion near Kerrville, yesterday.

Henderson had held his position as athletic director since 1920. He had been connected with the University of Texas since 1914, starting as an assistant director of physical education. During the World War he was basketball coach at the university.

He was a native of Winfield, Kas.

In his interscholastic league position Henderson was called upon to make many important decisions in disputes over eligibility of players but his work had made him widely and favorably known.

Roy Ledebek, a director of the league, lauded Henderson as an organizer and administrator; and said, "he had a keen sense of right and wrong and never flinched from his duty, no matter how hard a decision might be."

Henderson, 31 since November had been at the hospital since Feb. 1, under treatment for a liver disease.

Survivors are the widow; four children, Roy, Jr., 12; Lucy Ann, 17; Mary, 20, all of Austin; Mrs. R. C. Scott of Hobbs, N. M.; his mother, Mrs. Annie E. Henderson of San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Will Marsh of San Francisco, and three brothers, Ralph of Fort Worth, Harry of Fort Worth, and Paul of El Paso.

Arkansas Comes Off Home Court For 1st Time To Battle Bears This Week

Hogs Can Sew Up Race With Two Wins

Off their home court for the first time since the opening week, Arkansas Razorbacks risk their unassailed record and a chance at the Southwest conference title in a pair of predicted hair-raising games against Baylor at Waco on Friday and Saturday nights.

Strangely, they'll be turning fans away from the ancient chapel gymnasium at Waco, for basketball has the citizens as g-g-g as that football team did back in October. Only 1,500 can be accommodated in the Baylor gym. Three times that number probably will be turned away.

Team records and titular chances have their drawing power in that two-game series, but three six-footers who go around filling up basketball nets also will pull them in. Deadpan Don Lockard of Arkansas, the league's leading looper at 118 points for eight games; Hub Kirkpatrick, Baylor's great center who has pushed through 112 points in six games; and Jumpsin' Jack Robbins, Arkansas' guard who is third in the scoring chase with 100 points, will be feeding.

Baylor dropped its first game last week, a 46-48 decision to Texas A. and M. in a daffy, overtime affair that caused consternation for 15 minutes because the timer's final gunshot failed to sound.

Have Hard Time

Arkansas whetted for the Baylor series on the University of Texas.

Associated Press Sports Writer

Off their home court for the first time since the opening week, Arkansas Razorbacks risk their unassailed record and a chance at the Southwest conference title in a pair of predicted hair-raising games against Baylor at Waco on Friday and Saturday nights.

Strangely, they'll be turning fans away from the ancient chapel gymnasium at Waco, for basketball has the citizens as g-g-g as that football team did back in October. Only 1,500 can be accommodated in the Baylor gym. Three times that number probably will be turned away.

Team records and titular chances have their drawing power in that two-game series, but three six-footers who go around filling up basketball nets also will pull them in. Deadpan Don Lockard of Arkansas, the league's leading looper at 118 points for eight games; Hub Kirkpatrick, Baylor's great center who has pushed through 112 points in six games; and Jumpsin' Jack Robbins, Arkansas' guard who is third in the scoring chase with 100 points, will be feeding.

Baylor dropped its first game last week, a 46-48 decision to Texas A. and M. in a daffy, overtime affair that caused consternation for 15 minutes because the timer's final gunshot failed to sound.

Have Hard Time

Arkansas whetted for the Baylor series on the University of Texas.

Fall Doesn't Faze Texas Girl Trainer

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14 (AP) - One accident; it takes more than that to scare a Texas girl out of the saddle.

Miss Marjorie Nichols, 18-year-old "exercise boy" from San Antonio, was back on the job today, galloping horses for the Snow White stock farm around the track at Santa Anita park.

Last Friday a riderless thoroughbred crashed into her mount, but as Marjorie tells it, the accident was distinctly minor.

"I didn't even fall off. We Texans always keep our seat."

For two years, at Epsom Downs and Arlington Downs in Texas, the brown-haired five-foot miss has been conditioning horses.

She's been crazy about horses since she was a baby.

And the reason she came to California, with her parents' consent, was the closing of the Texas racing season.

"I live with Jockey Eddie Yeager and his wife. My ambition is to own race horses of my own some day," she said.

REVOLT IN ETHIOPIA

LONDON, Feb. 14 (AP) - Reuters (British news agency) dispatches from Addis Ababa said today that a large number of troops had been sent from Addis Ababa to crush a serious revolt which broke out in various sections of Ethiopia.

The outbreaks were reported in Gojjam province, northwest of the capital, and Borana, South Ethiopia. Most of the troops sent to restore order were native, Reuters said.

FIST FIGHTS CLIMAX BUND LEADER'S SPEAKING TOUR

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 14 (AP)—An organization campaign of the German-American Bund marked time today stalemated by the flying fists of American war veterans.

A 15-minute free-for-all that grew out of disputes with speakers broke up a bund rally last night. Nearly a score of police were called into service to quell the disturbance.

G. Wilhelm Kunze, representative of the bund's national headquarters, said he had "no immediate plans" for continuing his speaking tour of New York state.

An expression of regret for last night's disturbance came from George A. Mead, Erie county American Legion commander.

"We came to listen quietly and to ask questions we thought were necessary," he said. "The outburst that broke up the meeting was deplorable."

The meeting attracted 700 listeners, and by arrangement with bund officials, representatives of Buffalo's war veterans were on hand to ask Kunze questions following his speech.

A bund spokesman, flanked by standard bearers holding an American flag and a swastika emblem, was interrupted as he prepared to introduce Kunze.

"Take down that swastika!" someone shouted.

Men in the rear of the hall crowded forward, police rushed in to close the aisles.

Kunze spoke against a steady patter of heckling remarks, explaining the bund "is organized to fight subversive influences in the United States," is not a Nazi organization, and "the German element of the United States would be the last group in the world to try to overthrow the government."

Fleet Plans War Games

Hundreds Of Ships And Planes To Join In Maneuvers

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14 (AP)—The United States fleet—173 ships and 547 airplanes—is making ready for six weeks of grim war games.

Four weeks from today the most powerful fighting machine America ever sent to sea moves into the trackless Pacific. It goes out under a new commander-in-chief, Admiral Claude Charles Block.

This keen-eyed Kentuckian when he took command two weeks ago told his officers and men "our only justification for being is to be ready to fight."

There are 12 battleships, 4 aircraft carriers, 16 heavy cruisers, 27 light cruisers, 55 destroyers, 27 submarines and more than two score auxiliaries in the fleet.

Problem XIX, as this year's war games are termed, finds the security forces of the fleet sharply realigned by the newest ship weapons, the patrol squadrons of two-engine bombers. The accounting destroyers now support the battleships.

During the past year the Aleutian Islands, bridge the western boundary of the United States to within a few hundred miles of the Asiatic mainland, has come in for considerable naval attention.

Stalin Calls For Strengthening Of Soviet Forces

MOSCOW, Feb. 14 (AP)—Joseph Stalin in a letter published today called for strengthening of the ties between Soviet workers and the working classes of other countries to assure "the final victory of socialism" by guaranteeing the Soviet Union against attack.

Whether the secretary-general and leader of the communist party had in mind collaboration with foreign labor parties, non-communist as well as communist, was not specified in the letter, published in Pravda, the party organ.

He failed to mention communism, however, or advocate the overthrow of capitalism in other countries. He declared:

"The aid of the international proletariat appears to be a force without which the final victory of socialism in one country is not to be decided.

Stalin was writing to a provincial agitator of the young communist leagues who had asked him whether the final victory of socialism could be considered won.

"The first stage of socialism's victory in Russia has been achieved by the liquidation of the Bourgeoisie," Stalin wrote. He declared the exiled Leon Trotsky and others who advocated the international revolution had been shown to be wrong.

But he wrote, since Russia was not an island, but surrounded by capitalist countries, some of them hostile, "we say honestly and openly that the victory of socialism in our country is not yet final."

R. F. Vickers Succumbs

Long Illness Fatal; Funeral Held Monday Afternoon

An extended illness ended in the death, early Monday, of Raymond Franklin Vickers, resident of Big Spring for the past three and one-half years. Mr. Vickers, 53, succumbed at 2:15 a. m. at his home, 309 West Tenth street. He had been confined to his bed for two years. He worked in the oil fields until he became incapacitated.

The funeral service was to be held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, at the Eberley chapel, with Rev. Will C. House, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Burial was to be made in the city cemetery.

Mr. Vickers is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Vie of Lubbock and LaVaughn Vickers of Big Spring; two brothers and four sisters.

Total Relief Bill For New Deal Is Over 11 Billion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—Treasury accountants figured today that the extra $250,000,000 relief fund, now being considered in congress, would swell to $11,391,400,000 the total relief expenditures of the Roosevelt administration by next June 30.

This sum will have been spent in five years for the Works Progress Administration, cash relief, the Civilian Conservation Corps, and the old Civil Works Administration.

It does not include an additional $6,000,000,000 spent for other "emergency" expenditures for PWA, rivers and harbors, housing agencies, etc.

The current fiscal year's share of the total, including the extra $250,000,000, is $2,009,000,000.

ROOMING HOUSE FIRE IS FATAL TO ONE

SAN BENITO, Feb. 14 (AP)—Fire destroyed a two-story rooming house, club room and restaurant here yesterday seriously burning W. M. Crumwiede, 59, one of the lodgers. Damage was estimated at $15,000.

Crumwiede, pulled from the building by Charles Cackley, suffered burns on hands, feet, and body.

Twelve other roomers were forced to flee. Two volunteer firemen were slightly hurt by falling debris. Harlingen firemen aided a two-hour battle against the flames.

The San Benito Recreation club and Stubblefield cafe occupied the lower floor of the building.

THREE WORKERS GRAVELY BURNED

PAMPA, Tex., Feb. 14 (AP)—Three men badly burned in an explosion and fire at the Phillips Petroleum booster plant yesterday as near death in a hospital here.

They are R. F. Suttis, J. F. Lira and C. A. Bracken, all engineers at the station, which is located eight miles east of LeFors on the River in Gray county.

Cause of the blast was undetermined.

WEATHER BLOCKS RESCUE ATTEMPT

TROMSOE, Norway, Feb. 14 (AP)—High winds sweeping from the north today balked plans of the soviet icebreaker Taimyr to send planes to the rescue of the four scientists of the "North Pole camp."

Radio stations of all observation posts along the eastern coast of Greenland began special watches after the soviet government formally asked for foreign participation in rescue efforts.

(Latest Moscow reports were that only 20 miles of ice-filled sea separated the campers, off Greenland, and the Taimyr.)
