WASHINGTON (AP) · President Carter and Panama's leader, Gen. Omar Torrijos, met today in hopes of laying to rest some of the controversy swirling around the proposed Panama Canal treaty

The two leaders were expected to issue ajoint statement after their working session at the White House.

The statement was expected to deal primarily with the major point in dispute - conflicting interpretations of the provision for joint U.S.-Panamanian defense of the canal's neutrality after the year 2000.

Torriljo wore a tan tropical suit and

United Way Collects 41 Percent

The Deaf Smith County United Way has collected 41 percent of its goal of $98,400, according to figures released Thursday at the third report meeting for division leaders.

The United Way drive in Hereford has netted $40,485, compared to $37,739 by the end of last week. UW leaders, including president David Pruitt, are still optimistic about the drive.

'We've still got a bunch of cards out that haven't been worked," Pruitt said. "We need to thank some people for the efforts we've had so far and we've got to continue to encourage our workers to do what they've committed themselves to do, as far as working the cards."

Pruitt provided a list of names of businesses and individuals whom he said "game more than their fair share."

The list included Holly Smear, Dr. Howard Johnson, Dr. A.T. Minns, C.S. Perrin, Terry Hill, First Printing, KPAN Griffin-Brand. George Warner Seed. Summerfield Fertilizer, West Texas felephone, Pioneer Natural Gas, Deaf Smith Electric Co-op. Edwards Pharmacy, Pitman Industries and Tip-Top Oil. Others were Poarch Brothers, Whiteface Aviation, Eloise Taylor, Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic, Lone Star Agency, Davis Implement, Plains Insurance, Champion Feed Yards, Southwest Feed Yards, Allred Oil and Sugarland Feed Yards.

Carter was in dark blue for the meeting. which was devoid of ceremony.

Meeting first in the Oval Office and then joining advisors in the Cabinet Room, Carter and Torrijos were expected to concentrate on trying to clarify the meaning of the disputed language.

The hastily arranged session was requested by Carter. Torrijos is stopping off as he heads home from a trip to Israel and Western Europe, where he promoted the treaty with several heads of state.

Before Torrijos arrived, Carter held a breakfast meeting with Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and Zbigniew Brzezinski, his national security adviser.

Meanwhile, former secretaries of state Dean Rusk and Henry A. Kissinger agreed in Senate testimony today that the language of the treaty protects the canal's security and a U.S. right to defend and use it after the year 2000.

Appearing as witnesses as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee closed out a second full week of treaty hearings, they said it was unfortunate that the word "intervention" - with its special connotations for Latin America - had been injected into the debate.

Kissinger said the Senate, however, should "explicitly and formally" endorse the administration's interpretation of the treaty - "that the new treaty confers upon the United States the right and obligation, unilaterally to defend neutrality of access to the canal, and to defend the canal itself should that ever become necessary."

In any event, he said, the Senate (See TREATY, Page 2)

There was a difference, however, Both Mrs. Crow and Rose were restored to McKnight's Senate payroll this month.

Mrs. Crow received $5,923, and Rose got a $3,384 lump sum payment when the 'quit' in late August.

George McNiel and Comptroller Bob Block believe there might be dozens more. The practice is perfectly legal. But McNiel and Bullock frown on it and are trying to stop it.

Hugh Yantis retired Aug. 31, the day before merger of state water agencies cost him his job as director of the Texas Water Quality Board. He took $11,256, before taxes, with him in lump sum payments. Two days later, Goy. Dolph Briscoe appointed him chairman of the State Insurance Board, a position that pavs $38,600 a year.

Pruitt addded that two civic clubs, the Hereford Lions Club and the Hereford Rotary Club, have contributed to the drive

The drive last week had totalled $37,739 after managing $27,814 by its first report meeting two weeks ago.

Last year the United Way collected more than $70,000, which was more than it had ever raised before in Hereford.

Donors are expressly needed to replenish the account of the late Kenneth Gooch, who required transfusions of 70 pints of blood. Pints are also needed to replace blood required by Mrs. Weldon Dixon

The blood mobile's arrival in Hereford on Tuesday is a change from its regularly scheduled stop.

Persons who have required blood transfusions in the past month are asked to contact Mrs. Watson, 364-1470.

Senate Finance Committee Continues Ripping Energy Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate Finance Committee, ignoring President Carter's plea for cooperation, is finishing work on an energy tax bill that kills most of Carter's proposals.

The bill, due for a final vote today. includes billions of dollars worth of tax breaks, but none of the energy tax increases Carter says are needed to encourage conservation.

In a major vote Thursday, the panel approved a big tax credit to help factories and power plants convert to coal. Carter wanted instead to tax industries that continue to rely on oil or natural gas.

The panel's vote came a few hours after Carter reminded a nationally broadcast news conference that he has veto power, as well as the authority to oder gasoline rationing, if Congress does not approve an energy program acceptable to him.

Carter attacked the oil industry on Thursday, comparing it to those who reap enormous profits from the misery of war. He said removal of federal controls from the price of oil and natural gas could result in "the biggest ripoff in history."

Carter's remarks drew a predictable response from the oil companies - a Shell Oil spokesman called it "a damned severe attack" - and left key Republicans unhappy

Howard Blauvelt, chairman of Continental Oil Co., called Carter's remarks intemperate. John E. Swearingen, chairman of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, termed the Carter's presentation "an emotional appeal to defend a tax program that is not defensible."

The President "ought to be the first to realize that he has a turkey on his hands." said Senate Minority Leader Howard Baker, R.Tenn. Sen. Bob Dole, R.Kan., a member of the finance committee, said the only hope for Carter's energy program is for the President to rewrite it.

Sen. Russell B. Long, chairman of the finance committee, which has been heavily responsible for rewriting the program, is leading congressional forces who view the Carter plan as too dependent on conservation and too weak on increased energy production.

The Louisiana Democrat's committee wants to use tax credits - rather than the tax increase proposed by Carter - to aid conservation and provide greater (See ENERGY, Page 2)

WASHINGTON (AP) - Soviet recom naissance bombers operating off the East Coast have tried for the first time to conduse the U.S. air defense radar watching their movements. Pentagon sources report.

The Russian effort to interfere with the radar apparently failed, the sources said. In the incident four days ago, two Russian Tu-95D bombers flying out of Caba inspected and apparently photographed one of the latest U.S. destroyers as it was sailing in international waters off Boston

The Soviet planes reportedly dropped chaff - metallic strips that can interfere with radar beams and thus foil detection

Elephant Is Just One of the Family

NEW YORK (AP) - The commercials featuring animals may last just 60 seconds on the television screen, but weeks of patient work go into preparing the stars for their brief roles.

For example, the polished performance of the handsome stag who does his thing for the insurance company or of the Rodiak bear in the beer ads is the result of training by Liz and Earl Hammond, who operate an animal talent service from their Pennsylvania farm. The Hammonds, who with Elizabeth Levy have just writints in the Living Room, Bears in the Canoe, don't use the words "trained" and "tame" in connection with

"I've never seen a trained said the bearded imal " mmond in an interview. They're routined or conditioned. Every time you think you have an animal that's gong to do what you think he's going to do, he'll make you out "And there's no such thing as a tame animal in my estimation." he adds, "because when you say tame you mean it will never hurt you, and there's always that one time."

"Animals have no voice to tell you if they're overtired, overheated, overworked, and they can strike out," explains "Still," interjects Earl, "they have quite a vocabulary. They can say a lot with the flip of an ear, the flick of a whisker. It's a matter of reading body language

Liz

The personality of the animal is of major importance, and selecting the right one is 90 per cent of the job, agree the Hammonds, both 40.

"I like an outgoing animal," says Liz. "The more gregarious animas" will enjoy being the center of attention. One that's more introverted might do the job for you, but doesn't enjoy

'It's like picking a mate," says Earl. "They'll either help you along if you make mistakes or if you pick the wrong one it will play upon those mistakes

The conditioning process is - "if you came out and slow watched you'd think we were doing nothing, but a lot of it is the waiting game." In their training the couple uses food rewards or, for some animals, just affection.

The Hammonds often turn down commercials because they believe "there are certain things an animal should not be asked to do that would impose on their dignity, patience or personality. The Hammonds work togeth-- "It's more fun that way" except with the 800-pound bear, which Liz admits to being afraid of. She's afraid of other people's elephants, too, which she points out are "large and potentially dangerous," but her own Mignon has always been one of the family.

She was two months old hen we got her, and weighed about 150 pounds. She was smaller than a greyhound and her trunk was like a wet odle," she recalls of the now 2.000-pound elephant that spent its first year and a half in the Hammonds' living room. Mignon slept on a mattress covered with sheets that were changed daily and sat in a rocker to watch television, which she learned to turn on with her trunk.

"It was an incredible adventure," Liz says. "Things we never thought possible were done. She learned to control her elephant impulses, not breaking things, not crashing through things. We even housebroke her, training her to use a bucket and to rattle the handle when she had to go.

In addition to Mignon; Moose, the red deer stag: and Sasha, the bear with whom Earl has appeared as a rugged outdoorsman in beer commercials, the Hammonds have a number of other exotic animais on their Tioga, Pa., 550acre farm

The blond, soft-spoken Earl's parents were animal trainers, but dark-haired vivacious Liz grew up in New York City. She was always fascinated by animals, and started handling them in the theater.

The Hammonds, who have daughters 15, 10 and 3, and an 18-year-old son, plan to produce full-length wildlife feature films, using their own and other animals.

"But eventually," says Earl, "we have hopes of being able to put our energies and abilities to work in the propagation and rehabilitation of endangered rth American animals

The accident cost the life of one Exxon employe, William S. Faulkner, of Odem. It also injured two others, destroyed a $5 million facility and caused the loss of 20 million cubic feet of natural gas.

The NTSB said three studs, which are similar to metal bolts. were tightened three times. tigher than the manufacturer's specifications by Exxon maintenance employes.

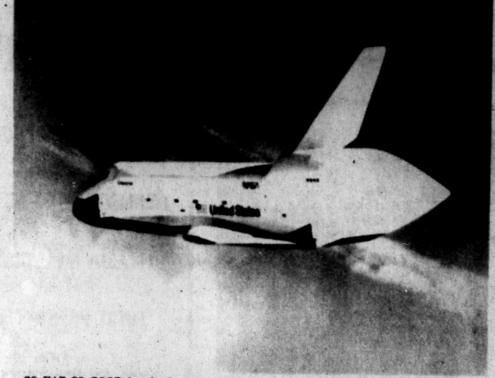

They finally gave out on Dec. 7, 1976. When they did, a 10-inch compressor valve cover came off and gas began leaking at high pressures. Faulkner died apparently trying to activate the emergency shutdown mechanism.

Several valves in the shutdown system failed to close off the flow of leaking gas. The NTSB said it was likely that a spark from the compressor ignited the gas. Explosions and a fire ensued.

The NTSB recommended that Exxon inspect its emergency systems more frequently than the current annual inspections. It said annual inspections were not frequent enough to detect potential failures in the emergency system. One valve stuck because it had not been opened in six months. Another problem occured because of mud and an insect in a small valve.

The board also suggested that the company take steps to insure that studs are tightened only to specifications, and not beyond.

Minimum Wage To Jump

WASHINGTON (AP) - It started at a quarter an hour 40 years ago, and now the m wage is about to go to $2.65, with economists and politicians still arguing among themselves over its real impact on the job market. The question that hasn't been answered yet is whether a higher minimum wage is justice or folly; a boon to the working poor or a menace to their jobs. There is no shortage of studies, dissertations and analyses of that issue. They abound

Today In History

congressional debate, on both

Given the facts of life at the supermarket, the current minimum wage of $2.30 an hour doesn't add up to much of a living for anybody who makes it and no more. It adds up to $4,784 a year.

Even at the increased rate, the minim .m will be lower than the government's poverty line of an urban family of four. The minimum wage carner would eet $5,512. In 1978, the poverty in the fine print of the level is expected to be about $6,200.

That would seem to make it all very simple: boost the rate and help the low-paid, unskilled worker. But there's more to it. for as the cost of manuel labor goes up, so does the prospect that employers will decide to make do with fewer workers. Economist Edward M. Gramlich assessed that risk in a paper published by the Brookings nstitution: "As the minimum wage is increased beyond its historical range of 40 to 50 percent of the median wage, more and more workers confront the grab-bag combination of a higher wage but a reduced probability of having a job."

The younger the worker, the worse it gets. Unemployment in September stood at 6.9 percent of the labor force - but at 18.1 the first person to fly faster than percent for teen-agers, and at In 1964, the American civil nore than twice that for black rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther teen-agers. King, was awarded the Nobel

For all their differences on the broader question of minimum wage effects, the economists Ten years ago: U.S. planes generally agree that it doesn't help the youthful jobseeker. He's more likely to be unable to find a job, or to lose one, than to get the higher hourly wage. The liberal Republican Ripon Society likens it to attempts at healing by bloodletting.

"Political Washington is about to administer to young Americans a remedy just as pernicious as medieval bloodlet-Union did not dominate Eastern ting." the Ripon analysis said. For while the law can raise the wage, it can't raise worker productivity. And if the price of an hour's work exceeds the product, the job isn't likely to ast.

By a single vote, the House rejected an amendment that Sponsors of the bill argued that there are better ways to generate work for unemployed ths. They also con that cut rates for young workers would lead some employers to hire them instead of adults.

The Hereford Brand-Friday, October 14, 1977-Page 3:

"It is unjust and discriminatory to assign a value less than the minimum wage to any person's labor." said Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J.

But it is also unjust for somebody who wants to work to be earning nothing at all, for lack of a job.

But those aren't the only issues involved. The minimum wage is a factor in the welfare equation. If welfare pays better than work, the administration's reform package is not going to accomplish much.

The arguments will continue, on those and other points, even though the law is set for at least three years, and perhaps four. The House and the Senate agree that the rate should go to $2.65 an hour next year. The Senate bill would increase it in stages to $3.40 in 1981. The House version would raise the minimum to $3.05 in 1980. Congressional negotiators are working out the differences

For the economists, there's never a last word. If there was, it should be assigned to the First National Bank of Chicago. whose economic researchers report:

'Every few years, the United States goes through the ritual of adjusting minimum wage laws. And just as regularly, the business and labor communities engage in exaggerated discussions about either the dire consequences or marvelous benefits that can be expected

"It's still a democratic society," Dr. Jarvis Miller said here. "Our job is to train students in the fields they want."

The Aggie president also said students in the wildlife science programs also face a tight job market, but the field can provide a solid background for other professions.

"It's a good education, if the student is flexible enough to take a job not necessarily in that field," he said.

The A&M alumnus added that one of the school's newest programs - the medical school is trying to steer students away from crowded medical specialities.

"Our medical school is trying to be innovative. We're emphasizing family and community medicine and trying to recruit students interested in that field of medicine," Miller said. A&M officials are trying to reduce the cost of medical training by using clinical facilities in Marlin, Waco and Temple.

Miller also supports a renewed emphasis on the A&M Corps - the traditional heart of the former military school.

"The Corps is still a very fundamental part of A&M," said Miller, a former Corpsman. "It has an influence out of proportion to its size."

The Corps has dwindled to 2,200 members, while the school's enrollment has exceeded 29,000. Until the mid-60s. ROTC membership was mandatory on the College Station campus. Miller is hoping for a 3.000-member Corps.

"We're hoping to have the Corps members be more effective in recruiting," he said.

FAITH IS AN INFALLIBLE CURE FOR SELF-PITY

e insidious disease of self-pity is one that we all contract at least once in our lives: usually following some sorrow; major disappointment or the conviction that we have failed ourselves and those around us. However, the remedy is simple and unfailing. Instead of wallowing in this morass of despair, we need only turn to faith in God in order to-see the fallacy of this waste of our resources, and to divert our energies to the positive channels of helping (c)ease someone else's misery. So stop feeling sorry for yourself and go to your Church; you will learn that there is always someone out there who needs you - and your help. It works every time!

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The New York Yankees, one big, unhappy family, arrived in the land of the gossip hound and continued to tell tales out of school.

"We have a chance to win the World Series and there's one guy out there second-guessing the manager." said Yankee captain Thurman Munson. Munson was talking about teammate Reggie Jackson, who criticized Billy Martin for using a rusty Catfish Hunter as his second-game pitcher.

"I wouldn't be second-guessing the manager," added Munson, who has been hinting broadly that he wants to be traded to Cleveland, the closest major league city to his native Canton, Ohio.is? vs a the Yankee ship. "Reggie's having enough trouble in right field to keep him from second-guessing the manager," said Martin, who clashed with Jackson and Yankee owner

George Steinbrenner throughout the season. "We're in this World Series as a team. None of our players should be talking against their teammates or the manager." Fifty years after the Yankees' Murderer's Row team spoke softly and carried big sticks, the 1977 Yankees, "Murderer's Row," was speaking loudly and carrying small sticks.

Meanwhile, over on the other side of the field, the docile Dodgers were providing an interesting contrast, performing their version of "Love Story." an ongoing story of how 25 can actually win games without controversy. The only thing similar about the Yankees and Dodgers is that they each have one victory going into Game 3 in the 1977 World Series tonight.

The Yankees will go with right-hander Mike Torrez, a 17-game winner during the regular season, while the Dodgers trot out medical exhibit No. 1, Tommy John, whose rebuilt left arm brought Los Angeles 20 victories this year.

"If I've got a good sinker, everything will be all right." said Torrez, who is playing out his option and could be making his final appearance as a Yankee.

John is also a sinkerball specialist, but he says the big factor in his game will be his curveball.

"The key will be my ability to get my breaking ball over," said John, whose career was saved by a remarkable tendon transplant three years ago. "I've also got to have my good

Bulldogs Here Tonight District Warfare Begins

By Bob Nigh Brand Sports Editor The last time the Plainview

Bulldogs invaded Whiteface Field the Hereford Whitefaces were none too hospitable in handing the visitors a 44-7 setback as they took advantage of several Plainview miscues. Sophomore quarterback Kelly Kitchens enjoyed a good night, passing to Roy Martinez for two touchdowns and running for another.

But, that was two years ago, and Kitchens, while still directing the Herd at the field general's position, is the man of experience this time around with a supporting cast of lesser-experienced, although talented, players behind him as the 'Dogs come to town tonight for their District opener against the Herd.

"We are going to have to line up and play the best game we have ever played to beat them (Plainview,") Herd mentor Fred Unshaw said earlier this week. "And, we'll have to get a break or two to win."

Kitchens, the second-most prolific passer in District 4-4A this year, will be combining with junior tailback Paul Bell in trying to offset a Plainview backfield that has an abundance of speed.

Bulldogs Jamie McAlister (QB-172-Sr.), Royce Coleman (HB-180-Jr.), and Billy Williams (HB-157-Jr.) provide Bulldog coach George Kirk with an excess of speed, a fact Upshaw is well aware of.

option much like we do, and they have some excellent quickness in their backs."

Conversely, the Herd backs will be hard pressed to put together some ball control, a facet which the coach feels is one of the keys to a HHS victory. "It will be a hard-fought contest, and we need to control the ball for five or six minutes at time to be effective." he said.

Some help is expected for the HHS offense this week. however. Junior split-end Robert Graves is expected to be back in the lineup after an absence with a knee injury.

"We'll probably use Robert ome, but slowly to let him get back into the swing of things. Upshaw said. "I don't really know how much we'll be able to use him, especially since he's missed so many workouts."

Even if Graves is only able to go sparingly the coaches can fall back on receivers Ronald Lucero and Glenn Yosten. Lucero proved his mettle in last week's loss to Dumas by snagging his first varsity aerial for a 19-yard touchdown from Kitchens. Yosten is a veteran performer after playing the offensive receiver spot along with duty at a defensive safety position.

Other able targets for the expected Kitchens aerials are tight and Greg Brockman and wingback Chris Hill, the number two and four receivers in the district. Brockman has nine catches to his credit, while Hill has latched onto seven passes this year.

Bell will be counted on to give the Bulldogs fits also. The speedy Junior leads the district in rushing with 723 yards. Kitchens has added 170 markers to the Whiteface effort.

Plainview, meanwhile, has been led by Williams, who has 315 yards on 73 attempts to rank fourth in the district.

Being able to stop the Buildogs will be a big question mark for the Herd tonight. especially with the loss of tackles Mike Kerr and Doug Josserand this week. Kerr is out for the season with a broken collarbone suffered in last

Negro, Dibiase

Cyclone Negro, who nearly started a riot among irate fans last week at the Bull Barn. headlines Lions Club wrestling again this Saturday. He faces Teddy Dibiase, who got into an altercation with Negro last week.

The 250-pound Negro, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was an amateur great in several sports, and currently holds both the international heavyweight championship, and the brass knucks title. Dibiase, former Buff footballer at Canyon, hails from Arizona, but now lives in Amarillo. He is 6-4 and 245 pounds.

Dibiase held the western states tag team title with his partner and close friend, Ervin Smith, but that championship may soon be up for grabs. Smith was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo last week in an ambulance, and may be out of wrestling for some time.

The Brute-Brute Bernard of Canada, will meet Ricky Romero in semi-final action. At 224 pounds Romero will be giving his opponent a forty pound weight advantage. Bernard is a durable and erratic protege of manager James J. Dillon.

His behavior in the ring is in keeping with his battered appearance, and he seems to hear bells unheard by others that trigger him into action.

The Angel, whose face and body are anything but angelic, meets popular Reggie Parks in second match action. Parks, at 228. spots the Angel nearly thirty pounds. The Angel professes to be from Bordeaux. France, but after a wild pier six brawl last week Dibiase claimed that the angel was from a deeper and hotter place. Parks, former Canadian, lives in Nogales. Arizona, when not wrestling.

In opening mat action, Rip Hawk meets Johnny Starr. Starr weighs in at a speedy 219, and has given trouble to many top grapplers with a large weight advantage. The squat Hawk is 245. Both are southerners. Starr is from Music City, U.S.A. -Nashville, Tennessee. Hawk is from Charlotte, North Carolina,

Last week Negro went behind the referee's back to pin Terry Funk with illegal leverage in the main event. Hawk was disqualified in a match with Parks. The evening's shocker came when youthful Bobby Pico, not much more than a light heavyweight, upset seasoned pro Jerry Kozak in a scientific and exciting match. Kozak, long a contender for the junior heavyweight crown, has long been known as "The Giant Killer". He has rarely, if ever, lost a match around his home base of Amarillo. Hereford Lions Club officials noted a new starting time this week.

Wrestling action is due to begin at 8:30 p.m.

"I didn't expect to play very well at all," said the landy Coody, a former Masters champion. "I haven't played in a tournament in about three weeks and I tend to be erratic after a layoff." Coody, playing on the same course where he won the Texas Amateur Campionship 18 years ago, sank two 40-foot putts for birdies en route to his sparking seven-under-par round Thursday.

"Naturally I putted pretty well, but other than the two long putts, I had the ball pretty close to the hole all day." said the Stamford, Tex. native.

Coody's 63 was one shot shy of the course-record 62 set a year ago by San Antonian Jim Baker, now a rookie on the pro

George Archer, another former Masters winner, also dominated the slick, undulating Oak Hills County Club course greens, finishing with a 64.

Steady Mark Hayes led a group of six players deadlocked with 67s on the par-70, 6,525-yard layout. Hale Irwin, Tom Kite, Rik Massengale and Miller Barber headed a host of golfers bracketed at 68. Oak Hills yielded 57 rounds of par or better during Thursday's open-touchdowns, and the Herd JV defense came up with two key interceptions in the final stanza as the Longhorns won their first game of the year in a 16-14 edging of Lubbock High Thursday in Lubbock.

"Everybody played super. an ecstatic JV coach Kenny Barnes reported. "The main thing was that the kids did not want to lose again. They gave everything they had."

Trailing 6-0 in the third period, the Longhorns got two points when Roy Gonzales tackled the LHS quarterback in the end zone for a safety. The 'Horns fumbled the ball away on the first play following the LHS free kick, however, and the Westerners took the ball in for a 14-2 lead as the fourth period began.

Garcia made it 14-8 on a one-yard burst midway through the final stanza, and Arthur Villegas was stopped on the PAT try. The winning score was set up with five minutes left as Terry Huffaker picked off a LHS pass on the Hereford 40. 'The kids used the last five minutes, perfectly, driving for the touchdown with less than a minute left." Barnes said. The tying touchdown came with just 21 seconds left as Garcia again crossed the goal from the one. Longhorn quarterback Kevin Bunch then scored the winning conversion on a keeper around end as the LHS defense ganged up in the middle to stop Garcia on the fake dive play. Huffaker's interception was one key play in the game, while Vllegas picked off another LHS pass on the HHS 10 to halt a Westerner scoring threat. We also converted three third down attempts and two fourth down attempts in the concentration was super on that last drive." In other games involving local

Games Tuesday had the La Plata 7th grade losing to Plainview 20-6, while Stanton's

Tony Garcia scored two late - touchdowns for the Maverick frosh, but it wasn't enough as Plainview claimed a 22-14 victory. Schumacher tallied on touchdowns of 50 yards on a screen pass and a 45-yard run.

La Plata had another chance go by the board when a fumble followed an 85-yard kickoff return by Brent Self.

"Overall we had a good effort from all the kids." La Plata coach Joe Spann said.

Playing at Whiteface Field Thursday the Stanton frosh built up a 30-6 lead at the half, and held on to beat Canyon 38-22. An 80-yard touchdown on an intercepted pass by Ricky Fuentes iced the game for Stanton as time ran out.

The Eagles pulled to within eight at 30-22 late in the game. and began the possible tying drive after a Stanton fumble. Fucates halted the threat and saved the game with his interception as he stepped in front of the Canyon receiver and raced down the sideline for the TD.

Richard Sainz also had a good game with three touchdowns for the Dogies, while Eddie Chavarria tallied on a dipsy-doodle play as the half ended.

Chavarria took a pitch out from a Dogie back at the Canyon 10 and stepped into the end zone. Stanton set up the play with a double reverse pass and the Dogie back in question found Chavarria for the lateral when seemingly stopped by the Eagles.

"Bill Dirks had a really good day throwing the ball." Stanton . coach Larry Sowers said. "And, Fuentes had an outstanding game, catching three passes on offense and intercepting two Canyon passes."

Coach Dan Guilison's 8th grade Dogies didn't fare as well in Canyon, dropping a 50-28 decision. "They were just an excellent team." the coach

Stanton got solo scores from Steve Barrick and Matt Collier. and two from Wayne High along the way.

In seventh grade action Tuesday La Plata got an 85-yard kickoff return for a score from Alfred Ball, but it wasn't enough as Plainview escaped with a 20-6 win. and Stanton clipped Canyon 16-14 as tailback Eddie Hodges scored twice. "We played well, but too many turnovers halted our momentum." Dogie coach Sowers reported. Stanton lost three fumbles and had two passes picked off in the contest.

Akers Figures On Low-Scoring Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) -With kicker extraordinaire Russell Erxleben in his corner. Texas coach Fred Akers can permit himself a smug look as he analyzes the Arkansas-Texas football game.

"If I had to guess, I'd figure on a low-scoring game." Akers said. "I'd figure on a game in which the kicking could be decisive.'

On the other hand, Arkansas coach Lou Holtz is not conceding a thing to Erxleben. He has Steve Little.

One expert says Little will be the first kicker drafted by the pros this year. That expert says Erxleben will be the first kicker drafted next year.

Both will be on display when the second-ranked Longhorns take on eighth-ranked Arkansas Saturday in Fayetteville before a national television audience.

Erxleben, who led the nation in punting last year with an average of 46.6 yards per kick, is averaging 45.9 yards per try this year and kicked a major college record 67-yard field goal two weeks ago. In last week's 13-6 victory over Oklahoma, he punted twice out of his own end zone for 69 and 71 yards. He also kicked a 64-yard field defense against scoring, giving up an average of 5.2 points per game. Arkansas is fourth, allowing an average of 6.2 points per game.

"I know coach Akers thinks it's going to be a low-scoring game and most great games are low-scoring games, but I do confident that Randy McEachthink there is going to be some offense in that football game." Holtz said. "It may not be a high scoring football game, but I just think both sides will move the ball better than what most people feel like going into the

But the Bengals have spent most of the season looking just plain bad. They managed three points against both Cleveland and San Diego, rolled over pitiful Seattle and sputtered past Green Bay.

NEED A HOUSE DOCTOR? Tomorrow's Fires Will Claim Lives

COLLEGE STATION ... grows. At 3:13 a.m., you are awakened by the sound of "Imagine that the time is 2:58 tomorrow morning," says Dr. coughing. You feel uncomfortably warm. You smell smoke, Gary S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural and suddenly you are wide Extension Service. "You and awake with the realization that your family have gone to bed as the house is on fire! You shout usual and everyone is sound "Fire!" and arouse your spouse. You open the bedroom A flame flickers in the living door with the intention of room--the beginning of a fire waking the rest of the family. that will seriously damage your The hallway is a sheet of flame house. Minutes pass. The fire and you are barely able to close the bedroom door. What will you do next? asks Nelson. What are other members of your family doing at this very minute? Your son--your daughter--and your room?

At 4:19 a.m. the fire is out. A costly accident--$5,000 damage at least. A tragedy with loss of life? "That may have depended." says the engineer, "on whether your family had an emergency escape plan for use in case of fire.

"If your family does not have mother--each in a separate an emergency escape route-plan one now." emphasizes Nelson, noting that Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 9-15. "Don't put it off until tomorrow; tomorrow may be too late. Fire destroys or damages more than 1,800 homes in this country each day-well over one-half million a year. So, be sure that each member of your family knows the peoper action to take in case fire strikes your home.

Forewarned is forearmed." cautions the engineer. In developing your family escape plan, Nelson says to consider these points: -Determine an escape route and an alternate escape route from every room in the house. with emphasis on bedrooms. Remember that hallways and stairways may be blocked off by flames or smoke. -Teach everyone to test a door before opening it, if fire is suspected. If the door panels feel warm, do not open the door. Plug the cracks with blankets jor clothing to keep out the smoke; then use the alternate escape route.

-- Decide on a meeting point outside the house so no one will make the mistake of returning for someone who is already safe. -- Practice your family escape plan frequently. Children especially need regular practice since routine fire drills lessen-the chance of panic if a real fire should occur. Nelson emphasizes that family escape plans and fire drills are a necessity for every Tamily. Consequently, you should impress your family with the importance of preparing and rehearsing a family escape plan for use in emergency. Eighteen hundred homes will

The new biography of Vivien

Leigh and the romantic adventures of an Irish family are the subjects of two books being offered this week by Deaf Smith County Library.

Anne Edwards, through extensive research, has written, 'Vivien Leigh: A Biography.' which describes the duo-personalities of the actress who won an Oscar for her portrayal of the fiery Scarlett O'Hara. The complicated scandal involving Miss Leigh and Laurence Olivier is studied through her letters and interviews with her acquaintances.

Ann. Landers Don't Keep Tabs

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Someone wrote to Dear Abby and said, "One of the most unusual letters you ever received was reported in a magazine recently. It was from a woman who was on her honeymoon. Her husband asked her to lie in a tub of cold water for about 20 minutes and then come to bed and pretend she was dead." The writer went on to say, "Boy, is that guy weird! would have been satisfied if on OUR honeymoon my wife and taken a hot bath and pretended she was alive." He signed his letter "Opposite Problem."

Abby responded: "The wife of the weirdo who likes 'em cold and lifeless wrote to my sister. Not me.

What I want to know, Ann, is this: Did you ever receive such a letter? If so, what in the world is wrong with that many anyway? Another question: Why don't

Rebekahs Celebrate Anniversary

Sunday Oct. 9, marked the 75th Diamond Anniversary of Hereford Rebekah Lodge No. 228

A special celebration was held at IOOF Temple in Hereford with 60 members, friends and neighbors attending.

Frances Green presided at the guest registry. Guests were greeted by members of the local lodge and the first thirty minutes was spent with old friends and members greeting each other and making the acquaintance of new members.

Harold Manning got the program under way with an interlude of music performed on the 'Guit-Organ,' a stringed instrument combining the sound of an organ with guitar accompaniment.

David Bridges and Manning then joined forces with Bridges playing "old-time" fiddle tunes backed by the standard guitar of Manning. Both musicians are sons of Rebekan members.

During a short intermission. Connie lvey of Dimmitt entertained with some lively piano music.

The invocation was given by Lydia Hopson, followed by Vice-Grand, Edna Mathes, giving the welcome address and introducing visitors.

Officers introduced included five Panhandle Association officers, IOOF president, Charlie Wise and Rebekah president. Wilma Wise, from Friona: secretary-treasurer. Edna- Schuster of Amarillo; chaplain. Ocie Bolton, Dimmitt; and historian. Susie Curtsinger, Hereford.

Other officers recognized were Tim Schuster, Board of Trustees Grand Lodge of Texas, from Amarillo; Thelma Turner, District No. 4 Deputy President, Amarillo; and Ursalee Jacobsen, District No. 5 Deputy President, Hereford.

Sabra Hacker, granddaughter of Noble Grand, Ola Hacker sang "I Gotta Be Me" and "I Enjoy Being A Girl," with her mother Mrs. Joe Hacker at the piano, A'special remembrance was expressed for The Noble Grand who has been seriously ill in Deaf Smith General Hospital.

Skateboarding Takes Off!

"Hot" . . . that's what a good skateboarder is called.

"Everybody is hot everywhere," that's what Stacy Peralta told The Mini Page.

Stacy is one of skateboarding's leading pros "Three years ago, there were less than "Three years ago, there were less than 100,000 skateboarders. Today there are 20,000,000 and that number is growing," an expert told us.

Skateboarding was started in the early 1960s by California surfboard riders. The skaters used boards with roller skate wheels

It nearly died out because there were so many accidents. People were skateboarding everywhere. Cities passed laws banning them from the streets.

Then a new and better wheel was invented. It was quieter and gave the skater more control.

Skateboarding sales zoomed.

But is it a fad or is it a new sport?

That's what many people are wondering. But not the ones who are opening skate parks all over the country.

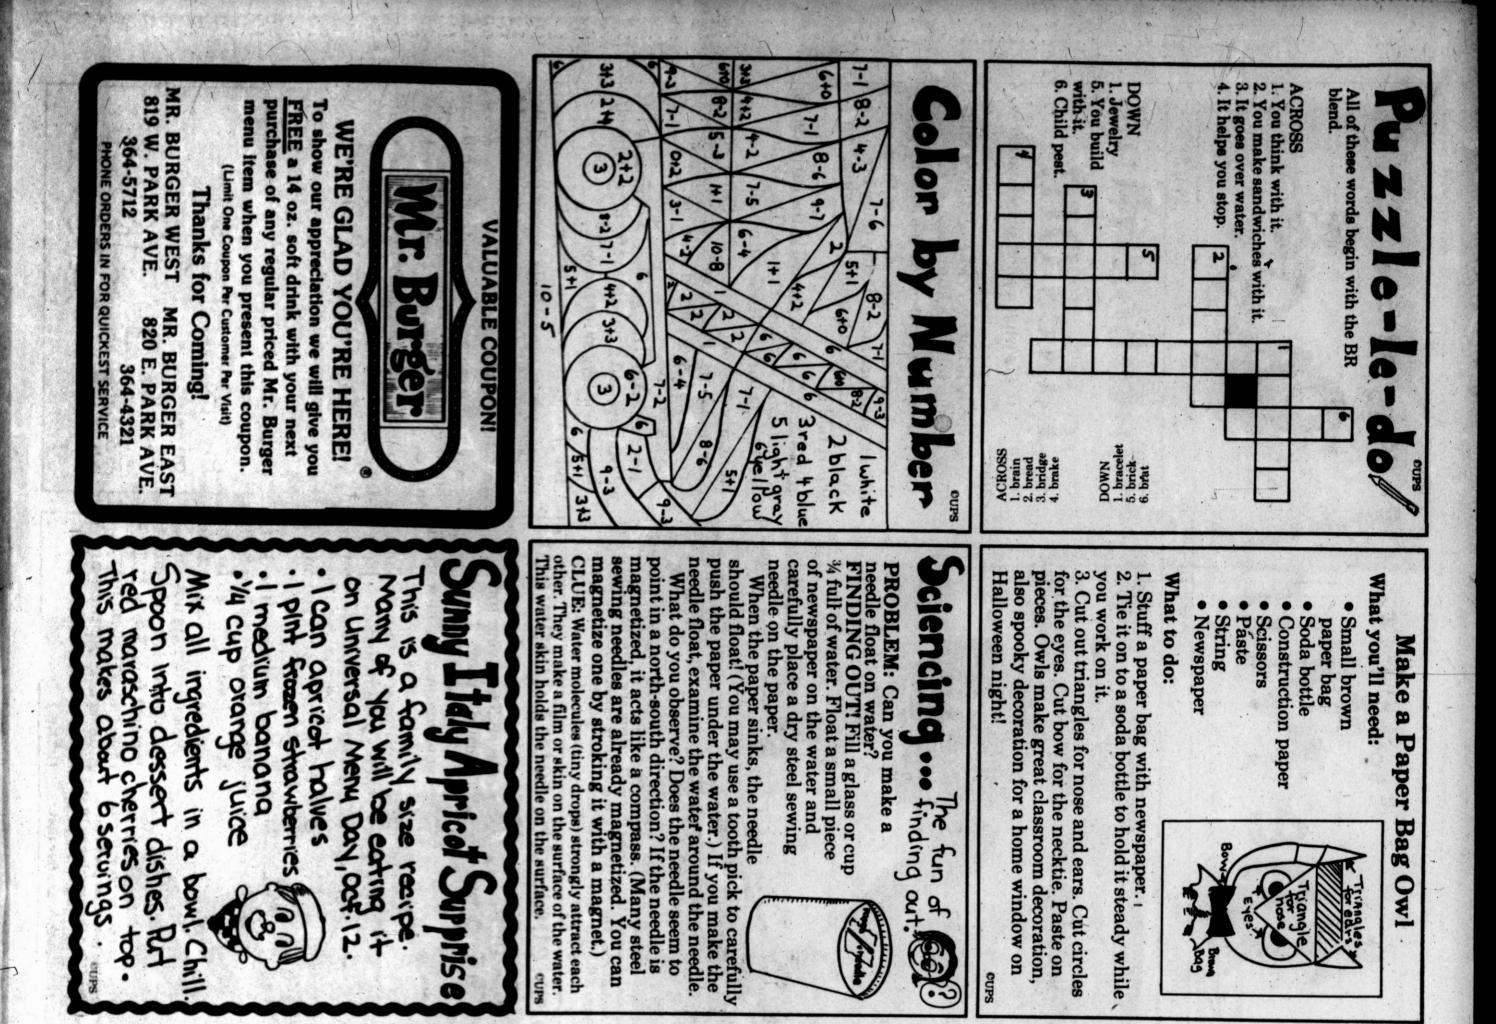

A park is a cement course with downhill runs and bowls and flat surfaces. Some of the runs are easy. Others are only for the best riders.

Maybe skateboard parks are the answer to keeping the skateboarders off the streets.

A lot of people are banking on it!

Fastest official skateboard record: 57-miles per hour. Unofficial record: 70 miles per hour.
