ANOTHER BIG CROWD AT FINE LUNCH

"PEPPY" MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HELD

Another good crowd, numbering thirty seven were lucky enough to attend the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce at the Stockman's Cafe Monday; they are called, lucky because they participated in a good, peppy meeting that was for their civil souls, and because they got away one of the best lunches yet served the club by any local restaurant since Heck took his out of a bottle.

President Overton read some gratifying statistics prepared for use at the Dallas Fair, as follows:

Since January 1, 1924, Hereford Has Shipped Out:

Cream and Butterfat	$54,450.00
Eggs	$24,130.00
Poultry	$19,721.00
Maize	48 cars
Wheat	188 cars
Barley	2 cars
Oats	24 cars
Kafr	22 cars
Cattle	540 cars
Hogs	84 cars
Sheep	16 cars
Hay	7 cars
Cotton Seed	6 cars
Wool	2 cars
Maize Heads	11 cars

Chairman Walter Dunlap of the Automobile Committee reported that so far every merchant in Hereford with the exception of two had signed the agreement to offer three automobiles for more business this winter, and these were expected to come in shortly.

President Overton brought up the matter of the Camp House, recently voted a nuisance and ordered moved. Mr. Overton stated that a lot of people favored maintaining the camp and a lot favored its abolition; and he prayerfully asked that quick action be taken one way or the other, or he would leave town. Geo. L. Muse, chairman of the cotton committee, to whom the camp house was awarded, said that as soon as the committee could locate a suitable site for a cotton yard the house would be moved. A. O. Thompson read a communication from representatives of the Santa Fe railroad, which owns the land desired for the cotton yard, in which it was stated it would take some time to secure a lease on the ground wanted. But Mr. Thompson said he thought it would be O. K. to go ahead, and it was so ordered.

President Overton announced that hereafter each Monday some one individual would be asked to make a speech on "What is Good for Hereford," and that he had selected D. F. Ashbrook to make the first one, and that instantaneously. Somewhat surprised but game, Mr. Ashbrook made a dandy good talk, describing experiences back in his home town in Missouri where merchants picked out "leaders" each week, advertised them, and developed the mercantile business of the town amazingly. He suggested the same idea might apply here. Dr. Overton announced that next Monday Geo. L. Muse would make the speech for the week, and that G. A. F. Parker and Judge W. E. Dameron would be standing alternates to fill in when any weekly speaker on this subject defaulted.

E. W. Harrison, chairman of the highway committee, made an excellent report of the visit of himself and committee to the Texas-New Mexico Highway meeting last week, detailed account of which will be found in another column. E. C. Eubanks and D. F. Ashbrook also made brief talks about this trip.

Chairman Overton said the meeting would close with the Benediction by Uncle John Estes. Uncle John convulsed the audience with the request to be enlightened as to the difference between the "Benediction" and the "Doxology." Those present were: Dr. Overton, G. A. F. Parker, E. B. Black, Jno Moseley, F. H. Oberthier, Rex Tynes, Chas Bennett, Uncle John Estes, C. C. Rockwell, Seth B Holman, G. M. Suggs, N. C. Vogele, Jim Robinson, G. W. Brunley, W. E. Dunlap, Phil Arthur, A. L. Biggs, Rev. W. R. Hill, A. O. Thompson, H. H. Hawkins, John McLann, L. Baskin, Geo. L. Muse, D. F. Ashbrook, E. S. Ireland, W. R. Steckman, O. S. Hastings, E. C. Eubanks, C. A. Skelton, Judge W. E. Dameron, Chas Paddock, Herman Gray, J. C. Allred,

Canyon Eagles to Play Game Here Friday Afternoon

The Canyon High school Eagles, said to be a strong and aggressive eleven, will play the Hereford High school eleven an interscholastic league contest, on the Hereford grounds, beginning at 3:45 o'clock sharp Friday afternoon. The people of Hereford are being urged by the students to turn out in large numbers and give the boys the benefit of their presence and their support. This ought to be a cracking good game and the loser will be eliminated from the race for the championship of this district.

Although the wind was annoying, Hereford High football eleven played the beefy Dalhart High a great game at Dalhart last Saturday afternoon, neither side scoring. A feature of the game was the support given the Hereford boys by their Girls' Pep Squad who, nine strong, made the trip to Dalhart and gave the natives a demonstration of snake-dancing and organized rooting that showed up splendidly. A member of the Hereford eleven gives The Brand the following account of the contest:

"It was a good clean hard fought game all the way thru. Dalhart has the cleanest bunch of sports we have ever met. We hope to have them here before many weeks to play the tie off, and we expect to show them we can be just as hospitable, if not more so, than they were to us. The features in the game were the end runs and line bucks by "Tate", Thurmond, and the beautiful punting of Artis Russell. Still the best defense was played by Thompson and Wade at guard and tackle. Thompson, according to the coach, is the best football player in High school, to be a first year man, and especially to be his first game. He certainly had much "pep" and fight. Also Phillip Wilson did some pretty tackling. There was some real head work used in the game, by Capt. Hines. And some pretty passes pulled and gotten by with. We are confident of winning against Canyon Friday. Hines says "we are going to cage that bunch of Eagles."

LUMBER GOING OUT FOR NEW COUNTRY HOMES AND SHEDS

An encouraging sign of the times can be seen almost daily now: loaded trucks and wagons hauling out new lumber from the yards for new country homes and sheds. The Rockwell Bros. Lumber Company has just recently provided lumber for three new homes. H. T. Bartlett, about five miles southeast of Dimmitt, is building a six room house. T. H. Sparkman, eight miles southeast, is also erecting a six room dwelling. W. A. Springer, nearby, is building an Adobe house.

District Attorney Lloyd Fletcher of Amarillo, and Mrs. Fletcher, came down on the train with Governor Charles Bryan last Friday and returned to their home on the eleven o'clock train.

Stork Specials

GOV. BYRAN SPOKE HERE ON FRIDAY

LARGE CROWD TURNED OUT TO GREET CANDIDATE

Governor Charles Bryan of Nebraska, candidate on the Democratic ticket for the vice-presidential nomination, made a brief address to a Hereford crowd estimated at over 1000 last Friday morning, standing on the lower step of his Pullman car. He was introduced briefly by Carl Giffland, who with Homer Wilkinson, T. K. Wilson and A. O. Thompson, had gone to Amarillo the night before to secure his consent to make this impromptu talk. The Governor was courteous to Albuquerque, N. M., for a political meeting.

He could not say very much in the short time allotted him before the train departed, but left a happy impression upon his audience. He referred to abuses in the national government under Republican leadership and predicted victory in November and relief from these political evils. He thanked Texans "for what you have done for the Bryan family during the past twenty five years," and said he hoped they would continue such support through the coming election.

President Overton of the Chamber of Commerce told Governor Bryan that "we are encouraging Republican enlargement here from the doubtful states so as to help the situation," which caused the Governor to laugh. He told some of the local people that Hereford gave him the largest platform crowd of his entire trip, eliminating those stops where he was advertised to make a set speech.

Body of Mayor is Laid to Rest by Side of His Wife

G. A. F. Parker returned Wednesday from Glasgow, Mo., where he accompanied the body of Mayor William M. Knight. Mr. Parker states that he arrived at Glasgow about noon Tuesday and that the body was staked in charge by relatives and by the Glasgow lodge of Masons. Burial services were held in the afternoon and the body interred by the side of Judge Knight's wife, who died several years ago.

PURCELL HOLDING BIG SALE OF FINE JERSEY MILK COWS

Sheriff C. S. Purcell is advertising a big sale of Jersey cows, twenty-five head, at the Purcell barn near the depot Saturday, October 18, beginning at 2:00 o'clock. He has some very choice stock in this sale and those desiring real milk cows will have a golden opportunity here to get what they want at their own price.

FARMERS ARE BRINGING IN LOTS OF MAIZE HEADS

Maize Heads are being brought in in huge quantities by the farmers and are bringing from $16 to $20 per ton, depending upon the quality. There are several buyers in the market. Geo. L. Muse has shipped two cars to a man in Nueces county, on the coast, who has placed an order here for eight car loads of these heads, through Mr. Muse.

EDGAR WEBB GOES TO HOT SPRINGS, ARK. FOR HEALTH

H. B. Webb accompanied his son, Edgar, to Hot Springs, Ark., Thursday, where Edgar will try the healing effects of the hot water in an effort to overcome the effects of his recent illness.

REX TYNES AND FAMILY IN DALLAS ENJOYING FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Tynes and children left Thursday afternoon for Dallas, where they will spend several days enjoying the State Fair.

Miss Gladys Beavers, who has been stenographer for her brothers here for the past five months, has returned to her home in Canyon, where she will probably attend the W. T. S. T. C. next term.

Eubanks Named as Secretary Texas N. M. Highway

E. C. Eubanks, of the Western National Bank, is the new Secretary of the Texas-New Mexico Highway Association, and the next meeting of the association, May, will be held in Dimmitt.

This was announced by E. W. Harrison, D. F. Ashbrook, E. B. Handley, Dubbe Pitman and Mr. Eubanks upon their return last week from attending the highway convention held at Mosquero, N. M. The delegates reported a banquet at Tucuman Thursday night and a splendid meeting at Mosquero Friday. The Texas mountains, playground of the nation, are at the other end of the trail, the New Mexico government is gradually ironing out all the bad places along the route, and the Hereford delegation is much impressed with the future of this line as a tourist route to a magnificent summer camping ground. The Texas end of the route runs from Plainview through Dimmitt, Hereford, over the Harrison Boulevard to the state line and thence through Grady to Tucuman. On the southern end the Highway lies on at Plainview to the F. F. Highway, coming up through Ft. Worth from South Texas.

HEREFORD HAS FIRST COTTON BREEDING PLOT ON PLAINS

Louis Scheb, registered cotton breeder of Lockhart, Texas, who is conducting breeding experiments with pedigreed seed in cooperation with D. L. McDonald, was here this week checking up on the cotton situation and conferred with Mr. McDonald.

Mr. Scheb is one of the five cotton breeders given a certificate by the State Department of Agriculture, out of thirty seven applicants.

Mr. Scheb selected single stock breeding plants from the plot on Mr. McDonald's farm and expressed himself as well pleased with the first year's work along this line. He will continue the experiments another year. This is the first breeding plot of the kind on the Plains.

Mr. Scheb says he finds conditions on the Plains about the same as here with the boll worms bad everywhere. He estimates that Hereford should gin at least 3,500 bales of cotton.

C. W. SOWERS AND SON WILL HOLD SALE OF MILK COWS

Another milk cow sale is advertised in this issue for October 25. C. W. Sowers and son will on that date offer twenty head of Holstein and Jersey milk cows, several bulls and other classes of stock, twelve head of horses and mules, and forty-five head of hogs at public auction. The sale will be held at the Sowers farm, one and one half miles south of Hereford on the Dimmitt road.

LITTLE MISS RUTH MARIE HOSTESS TO THIRTY FRIENDS

Little Miss Ruth Marie Mounitz very charmingly acted as hostess to about thirty of her little friends at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Lambert, Saturday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of her tenth birthday. The youngsters played games, all pertaining to a chicken, which created much merriment, and prizes such as marbles, bathing beauties, whistles, dolls and bracelets were presented to the winners of these contests.

The little honoree received many beautiful gifts. A dainty two course luncheon consisting of creamed chicken in patties, potato balls, sandwiches, pickles, hot chocolate with whipped cream, ice cream and cake, was served by the mother of the little host. The table was made attractive by a large birthday cake, adorned with ten little candles and a profusion of chrysanthemums. The occasion will long be remembered in the hearts of the little ones.

Those present were: Lueta Borden, Billie Hill, Katherine Poff, Mozell Groner, Wilman Joe Jones, Bruce Jones, Ellen Bowsher, Virginia Cox, Nancy Conkwright, Louise Jewell, Eva Fay Womack, C. J. Borden, Joe Huckert, Johnny Womble, Frank Wilkinson, R. K. Bruner, Andrew Habermacher, Harold Broadwell, Owen Miller, Waldon Beene, Keller Muse, C. P. Grimes, J. W. Witherspoon, Glover Chapman, Carl Dean Mounitz and Ruth Marie Mounitz.

Mrs. Geo. Culwell while on her way to Albuquerque, where she is going to make her home, stopped over Thursday to visit Mrs. Ralph Smith.

J. E. Hill Injured When Car Wheel Crushed at Turn

J. E. Hill, county commissioner, is in a sanitarium at Amarillo with a badly lacerated head, slowly recovering from an automobile accident last Monday night in which he had a very narrow escape from more serious injury.

Mr. Hill had visited his farm, which lies near Vega in the extreme northern part of the county, and found need for binder supplies. He went to Amarillo from Vega and brought back the supplies. Starting on home he turned on his lights just before reaching the double turn in the road south of town. Twilight made the lights ineffective for a few moments and he forgot just where the turn was. He saw he could not turn without going over so took the bank on his right. The wheel crumpled and Mr. Hill was evidently thrown against the woodwork or glass of his car and stunned. A deep broad gash about four inches long was smashed in his forehead, and will probably leave a scar for life. He recovered later, staunching the flow of blood as best he could, and walked the three miles and a half back into Vega, where he was hurried to the Amarillo sanitarium. It is believed Mr. Hill will be able to return to his home within a day or so.

REV. J. M. ASHELL IN HERE-FORD ON BUSINESS VISIT

Rev. J. M. Ashbell reached Hereford Monday of this week to attend to private business. Rev. Ashbell has been located at the Oklahoma State School in Alva, but recently Fayetteville, a university town in Arkansas, has called him to their assistance. They have never heard or seen Brother Ashbell but they sent for him because of the reputation he has created among the young people of the Oklahoma State school.

Fayetteville is at the foot of the Ozark Mountains and affords wonderful opportunities for Brother Ashbell and his "pep."

DIMMITT PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION ON THE JOB

Dimmitt, Oct. 15.—Dimmitt boasts of having one of the best Parent-Teacher Association in the State of Texas. It was very effectively organized early in 1923 and immediately started on a program of making a better and more attractive school for Dimmitt. Last year the association succeeded in getting the men of the community and the vocational agricultural boys to donate enough labor to level the campus grounds, a much needed improvement, as heavy rains had started a number of small gulleys near the building, which in time would have ruined the campus for play ground purposes as well as its attraction.

It is said that after women get started in civic improvements it is very hard to stop them and living up to this reputation the women here did not stop with the leveling of the grounds. A drive was made and funds were raised to set out seventy five thrifty locust trees around the campus. This added very materially to the appearance of the grounds and will be a monument to the Parent-Teacher Association of this place for years to come.

Another drive was staged near the close of last term and funds were raised to place a steel fence around the campus, which cost nearly four hundred dollars. At the beginning of the present term a very enthusiastic meeting was held and plans were outlined for the year's work. At the meeting the leaders called attention to the fact that the Dimmitt high school should be classified and accredited. They stressed the fact that the community was ready to spend some money for equipment in order to place the school in line for classification.

The faculty is planning to ask for both classification and accrediting this year. The school board will buy the necessary equipment for the laboratory and the community will raise the funds for the library. If successful a large part of the credit will be due the P. T. A. of this place.

In the last week or ten days the following cattlemen have returned from market: Jim Crawford and Mr. Perkins, St. Joe Mo.; W. L. Johnson, St. Louis; and J. L. Fuqua, Nebraska. Mr. Fuqua is now in Kansas City with cattle; Geo. W. Cloyd, Kansas City.

WON FIRST ON OATS AT DALLAS FAIR

SEVERAL OTHER RIBBONS TAKEN BY OUR EXHIBITS

Secretary George R. Overton of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, who, with J. B. Elliston, installed and has had in charge since that time the Deaf Smith county exhibit at the Dallas Fair, wired his wife Thursday as follows:

"We won first place on oats, second on maize, third on kafr, third on speltz, third on pumpkins, out of eight entries. Prizes on county exhibits will be awarded tomorrow."

This is splendid news, and much better than was expected. It must be remembered that winning first on oats and second on maize was done in the keenest kind of competition against the very best products and careful selections from every progressive county on the Plains.

Little hope has been held out here for a prize on the exhibit as a whole, due to the fact that nearly all the other competing counties have their exhibits selected and handled by trained County Agents, against whom it is hopeless for Deaf Smith county's amateur talent to compete.

Secretary Overton and Mr. Elliston have performed nobly and deserve a vote of thanks. Mr. Overton will return home Saturday, being relieved by G. M. Suggs for the remainder of the Fair, sharing the work with Mr. Elliston.

JEFF D. THOMPSON SUFFERING—CANCER OF STOMACH

The many friends of Jeff D. Thompson, pioneer citizen of this community, are distressed over his condition, said to be hopeless. Mr. Thompson is suffering from quick cancer of the stomach, and even the most optimistic members of his family admit that the end is near.

It is also reported that Mrs. Jim Beck is dangerously ill at her home here. Col. E. T. Woodburn, who is 81 years of age, fell and hurt himself last Sunday, while attending religious services at the Courthouse, and has been quite sick since. He is reported as improving somewhat today.

Amarillo Hillcrest Club Pours It On Our Local Golfers

The Hillcrest Golf Club of Amarillo sent down a team last Sunday afternoon that won seven out of eleven matches played with the local club. Hereford's top men were practically all off form. However, the day was ideal for playing and everyone enjoyed the matches. The results were as follows: The Panhandle champion, W. W. Woolsey, defeated Brack Williams, 3 up; Williams tightened on the last round and shot a thirty six, but the lead Woolsey obtained on the first nine could not be shaken. Woolsey was in rare driving form. On number 2, a 288 yard hole his drive missed the green by just ten feet. And on Number 3, 296 yards, he almost rolled it on in one. Hitting from Tee eight his drive cleared the creek.

Sikes beat Frank Marris one up, but it took him nineteen holes to do it. Greenhill won a close match from Arch Foster, 3 up, and Olds defeated J. J. Clark four up. Leonard Foster was badly off form and Edmission beat him seven up. Herbst was also in the dumps and went down before Basket, 5 up. Doug Fox had a lead of three holes on Reed in the first nine and then "blew" losing the match 2 up. Steenham came through with a victory, licking Satterwhite 2 up. Johnathan Pitman had an easy time with Crosssett, 7 up. Mercer cleaned Secretary Clements, 4 up, and P. W. Price gained the decision over Howren, five up.

Miss Lara Gregg returned Thursday morning from Amarillo, where she spent Wednesday taking dictation from J. E. Hill, who is in the sanitarium there.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of gripe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess Calomet tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomet, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

10:30 o'clock a. m. sharp.

PLACE—Hereford, District Court Room for program, basement for lunch.

PROGRAM—A splendid program has been arranged containing something for the Teacher, Pupil, Trustee and Patron.

WHAT TO BRING—Yourself, your school, your community—especially every patron. Do not forget the lunch to be spread in basement at noon hour.

WHAT TO DO—Work up a lot of interest, talk it to your pupils, to patrons and in the community generally—it is your meeting for your benefit, let us make it worth while.

Co-operation is the thing, it puts a town, a county or a people on the map. It will do a lot for our schools, are you willing to assist in this undertaking? We know you will be and are therefore counting on your best efforts.

Sincerely yours,
W. E. DAMERON,
County Superintendent.

TO THE TEACHERS AND TRUSTEES OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY SCHOOLS

October 14, 1924.

You are engaged in the most important work in the county—you have a big task for it is a large undertaking to be charged with the responsibility of training and educating the youth of the community.

We have been doing good work but it is possible to do better, we need more interest, better methods, a clearer purpose and a more unified effort along educational lines in our schools. In order to promote all of these important factors in our rural school life, The Deaf Smith County School Board has called a big "rally day" where all the schools will meet for a big educational revival.

WICHE ITEMS

Sunday school will begin at 10:30 a. m. next Sunday. Everyone invited. Mr. J. W. Dugan and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dugan of Widorado last Sunday.

Our regular "42" party was Saturday night. A large crowd was present to hear the good program the committee had arranged. The little play Frio, brought over, "Wanted—Colored Conductor" was appreciated by all. The readings given by Miss Morrison, Mrs. Jim Sanders and Mrs. Doyle Rose were enjoyed beyond measure. Miss Grace Woolery gave us several selections on the piano which were well rendered and we hope she will come again. The play given by the girls was fine. They all acted their part to perfection. After the program, "42" was played until eleven o'clock.

Surprise dinners and suppers seem to be very popular out this way at present. All the Sunday school visited Mrs. J. C. Williams one Sunday and Mrs. R. W. Hough the next Sunday. Every one brought a basket dinner and all had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Penn and family except Willie have moved to Plainville. Willie is holding down the place until after harvest.

Miss Jewel Applegate has been on the sick list the last two weeks.

A real tackey party was given at the Decker home Friday night. Butch Ellison dressed as Aunt Dinah, and Miss Dalphine Morrison, received a cake, each, for being the "tackiest" boy and girl present. This was a very enjoyable party and everyone had a splendid evening.

Mrs. Jim Sanders and Leo Wolfe visited Monday afternoon with Mrs. G. F. Branson and Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. M. Cox.

The visitors in the Cox home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cayroll, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Miss Mabie Renfro, Messrs. Johnny Biggs, Wilson Gyles and Wilbert Carroll, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gyles. Later nearly all went to Happy, returning home about sundown.

We are very glad to have Mrs. Green visit our Sunday school.

The school is moving along fine under the management of our new teachers, Mr. Charlie Greer and Miss Elberta Reid. Next Friday, October 17, 2:25 p. m. will be time for the next Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

IS ALL BASEBALL CROOKED

The country will look to Judge Landis to make no halt until the truth of the baseball scandal is smoked out and the people definitely satisfied that the sport is cleaned of any semblance of crookedness.

There should be no delay in prosecuting a searching inquiry into the situation and less delay in condemnation of every player or possible executive who may, in the slightest degree be tainted with the brush of corruption. Baseball must remain clean unless the whole fabric of American sport is to be torn into tatters. Indeed, it seems a pity that a complete reorganization of our ethics of play is not brought about forthwith. Horse-racing has developed into little short of a gambling saturnalia, the honesty of which is questioned in almost every race; boxing is getting almost as notorious as wrestling, which no longer holds a shred of public confidence; even college foot-ball has developed to a point where young men are taken into colleges because of the thickness of their skulls and the agility of their limbs rather than because of the standard of their intellects and education. Many find their places on the campus because they are able athletes. Without that requirement they never could poke their noses within a mile of a college lecture hall. College executives, however, close their eyes, admit them to the roster, and then the team goes into the field as an honest offering to college ability and sport. We have reached that point where victory is the objective—victory at any price—victory with any sacrifice of moral standards, and we need to make a change. If the national game of baseball is not fit to be the second husband of Caesar's wife, we might as well take the word sport out of our dictionaries.

HON. WM. M. KNIGHT

Whereas the Mayor of Hereford, Hon. Wm. M. Knight, has passed away at a ripe old age; it is fitting for those among whom he spent the last seventeen years of his life, to tell to all the world what manner of man he was.

The son of a Baptist preacher and an eminent educator, and himself a college graduate; he was both by heredity and by acquirement a lover of the finer things of life.

He loved music, flowers, art, good literature and above all, he loved his fellow men.

He was always interested in bringing to Hereford good yecum, chautauqua and musical entertainments.

He was deeply interested in all movements for better education. For years he was head of our Red Cross Chapter. He was the leader in all three efforts to secure a county hospital, and rejoiced greatly in our final success. He was one of the sixty men who established the private hospital where he was cared for in his last illness.

As a lawyer he was able, faithful, fearless and always fair and honorable. Before coming to Hereford he had served Bosque county as a county attorney, member of the Legislature, and had been first civil assistant to the attorney general.

For the last twelve years of his life he had served the people of Hereford as Mayor—much of the time without pay. Finally over his protest a small salary, much less than the work was worth, was voted him by his fellow commissioners.

As mayor he devoted himself first to putting our finances upon a sound basis. He worked continually to improve the sewer system. He established our water system, the best in all the Panhandle, and gave the people an abundance of water at remarkably cheap rates. Under his leadership our sidewalks were built, our streets paved, the planting of trees encouraged and our fine system of parks established.

He was ever ready with voice and pen to cast the weight of his great ability in aid of any measure for the public good.

He forgot his own interests in seeking the good of the public. His thoughts were ever for others. Patient, even cheerful, under afflic-tion he was always the true gentleman, the boon companion and the loyal friend.

Some good man will seize the flag and carry on but our white plumed Knight has fallen, and his place cannot be filled.

PROGRESSIVE

Miss Berta Walker entertained the young people Friday evening in a well planned game social. The guests arrived at an early hour. After being separated into two groups the fun was on for the evening. Each side trying to out do the other in stunts and clever maneuvers. The one gaining the most points, was entertained by the losers. Such consisted of an orchestra of home talent—tin pans, buckets, etc., being supplied in the absence of the instruments usually used on similar occasions. Delicious refreshments of cake and cocoa with whipped cream were served to the happy guests at a late hour.

Horace Hershey will have charge of the program at singing for Sunday night, which reads as follows: "How Selfishness May Be Overcome."

Scripture—Lois Thompson.
Comments—O. L. Sharp.

WORK STARTS ON NEW BUILDING GYM FOR W. T. S. T. COLLEGE

Canyon, Texas, Oct. 15.—That the West Texas State Teachers College is to have a new $14,000 gymnasium was announced by President J. A. Hill Wednesday, October 8, at chapel. Work is to begin this week, R. A. Terrill being in charge of construction. The new building will be built of steel, brick, and concrete and will be fire-proof. When complete it will have a seating capacity of 1400.

The building of the gymnasium has been looked forward to for sometime, but it is due to the co-operation of townspeople, students and faculty that this dream has been realized. C. H. Barrow of the Canyon Lumber Company and Senator J. W. Reid, have in a large measure, made immediate building possible.

WHICH HAS TO DO WITH MARRIED MEN

"Go easy with Warren," continued Ellie, after a moment's contemplation. "That's all I can tell you now," glancing at the maid who was passing back and forth with towels. Then she closed the door softly, leaving me to wonder what she could possibly have meant by her words of warning.

The hop at the Navy Yard was indeed a brilliant affair, with the sparkle and glitter of the officers' uniforms and the gentle fro-frou of soft silks and laces, and over all the fragrance of a hundred perfumes subtly alluring. This was the first important event of the season and there was that noticeable newness about the women's gowns that is always pleasing. Because my frock was imported, and both in color and model extreme, it was the topic of conversation, and even the officers with whom I danced had something to say about its unusual appearance. The red heels too, came in for their share of admiration.

There are times in everyone's life, I suppose, when they feel that they are the cynosure of all eyes on certain occasions. I felt that this was my hour and the feeling was distinctly satisfying. To a man, sensationalism brings embarrassment but to feminine beings it means little flutters of intense pleasure.

"Voulez-vous promenade avec moi ce soir?" sang a voice in my ear and looking up, I recognized Warren Fisher.

"A walk?" translating the little French song the boys had sung so much during the war. "I'd be thrilled to death. Two orchestras are very grand but it makes marathon dancers out of us, and after a few hours, even as much as I love dancing, it's good to rest one's heels occasionally."

"Even if they are red and adorably different?" he retorted as we made our way through the brilliant assemblage. "Shall I get your wrap?" he inquired solicitously as we reached the doorway.

"Please don't," I begged, stepping on to the porch. "I want to feel this glorious night. Why, it's positively gentle. Nowhere on earth do they have such Indian summers as we do right here in Florida. Just think," I chattered on, "right at this moment the theaters are turning out on Broadway and all the women's fur coats are covered with snow-flakes."

"I don't want to think about Broadway and snow, I want to think about you and the harvest moon out yonder," looking into my eyes and then out toward the pier that made a fairy pathway through the water. "Let's walk right straight into it," he suggested and arm-in-arm we started to follow his suggestion. We found a rustic bench and soon faced a semi-dome of star light and a bay that was changed into frivolous moonbeams.

"I feel so sorry for you," Warren Fisher began talking.

"Why?"

"Because you can never see yourself right as you are this very minute," he replied. "You have no right to be so enchanting. I watched you all evening," he avowed, "the proud turn of your slender shoulders, your fresh, unspotted enthusiasm. There's a sort of nerve about you that makes you stand out like a vivid tropical flower in a room of pallid roses." He caught up my hand but I disengaged it.

"Please, don't," I began, and my voice sounded weary.

"I know. It sounds platitudinous, but after all, there are no new ways to express our real impulses and emotions. It will probably be impossible for me to convince you of the impression you have made on me but now that I have whisked you away from that throng of clamoring suitors, I can at least compel you to listen.

"I must tell you that I think you are the most captivating creature I've ever seen and I've traveled the world over. Your little slender wrists, like chiseled marble, your quick repartee, your bright mind,—like tinder. Oh," he sighed, "you're altogether lovely and everything that's desirable." Then raising my hand very tenderly, he kissed its palm and folded my fingers together.

"Speaking of gifts, Mr. Fisher," I responded drawing away my hand, "you yourself have a very decided one. It is more commonly known as the—er—gift of GAB!"

"See there, you're delicious," he exclaimed. Then we both laughed. It was nice to have him say beautiful things to me and I compared him with Curtis Wright, whose compliments had a pretty turn but were always impersonal.

I wondered what he was doing and became very angry with myself for giving him a thought. There was a spirit of what the Italians call "dolce far niente,—a sweet nothingness," in the night and still within my heart, a sense of restlessness. My companion's voice, low and musical broke in upon me.

"How I would love to have you with me, away from the beaten track in some of the far-away places. To sit with you on a sunlit slope of Lake Garda or," he mused, "to have you with me above Amalfi looking through the flower-decked colonnades of some ancient convent at a picture-village. Or we might wander through a certain bazaar in Stamboul with its stuffy odor of musk-roses. Dream with me, Adoree." I was wafted away with the spell of the night and the canvasses he painted. "Together we could"—he was saying when footsteps fell behind us.

"Too bad to break up your little party," said a sarcastic voice, "but even a wife dislikes being entirely disregarded."

I had headaches and dizzy spells, too. I took Doan's Pills and they soon cured me of this trouble. I have had no return of it."

Don't Hide Your Light Under a Bushel of Dust

Light cannot come through an electric lamp that is covered with dust and grime. Careful attention is often given to the design of installations and very good results are obtained. But that is not enough. It is necessary to keep the shades and lamps clean to secure best results—in fact you are throwing a good per cent of your money away to allow your lamps and shades to become dusty. It is well to clean your lamps and shades regularly. This can easily be done with a towel dampened with soapy water—wipe them clean without removing them—with the current turned on—as the filament is tougher when hot and less apt to break. We want our customers to get full benefit of the current they buy.

Since then, the ever-increasing demands of modern business have made the various functions of the bank a necessary part of every-day life. Banks are truly Pioneers of Progress in their relation to the up-building and advancement of every community.
