Program, mentors honored at awards assembly

By SHERRI MARTIN Staff Writer

In the nation, Hereford has the most HOSTS (Help One Student To Succeed) sites per capita, HOSTS Corp. Math Support Specialist Nancy Carter said.

"It is outstanding," Carter said. Local HOSTS programs and their mentors were recognized at the annual awards assembly Thursday night in the HISD banquet room.

Northwest Primary School and West Central Intermediate School were recognized as National Exemplary HOSTS Language Arts programs for the second consecutive year.

Hereford Junior High School and Bluebonnet Intermediate School were recognized as Exemplary Quality Assurance HOSTS Supplemental Math programs.

The HOSTS award for Quality Assurance is presented to high performing schools who achieve exemplary status for their structured mentoring programs.

The schools could not have received these awards without the work of their mentors, West Central Principal George Ochs said.

Plant explosion kills three firefighters

WEST HELENA, Ark. (AP) of a chemical plant early today, hours after heat from a smoldering bag of pesticide triggered an explosion that killed three firefighters.

The plant's owner said the pesticides in the chemical-filled warehouse were not supposed to be explosive. The blast blew out a cinder-block wall that crushed the firemen, who had been sent to the plant to assess the danger of the smoking bag.

"They were just going to take a look at what was happening," said Allen Bartlo, owner of BPS Inc., which packages dry chemicals for use on farms. "Something blew up and we have no idea what caused the explosion."

A second evacuation was ordered today for homes within a half-mile of the plant but was lifted soon

DALLAS - The brother of Republic of Texas sympathizer killed in a shootout with law officers has identified his remains, calling him a victim of the separatists' leader who had misled him. Mike Matson, a 48-year-old former Marine, will be cremated today, said his brother, Ralph Matson of Colorado Springs.

AUSTIN - Senate approval of a plan to lower local school property taxes would set up a conference with House lawmakers to determine how much the levies might be cut and how the state would replace the money. Senators were expected to approve the proposal today that would lower local school property taxes by about $2.5 billion over two years.

AUSTIN - A bill aimed at diversifying enrollment at public universities in the wake of an anti-affirmative action court ruling was sent to Gov. George W. Bush. The Senate, on a voice vote Thursday, gave final approval to the measure and forwarded it to Bush for consideration.

AUSTIN - Legislation that would allow cities and counties to use local tax money to finance sports venues was headed to the Senate after winning final approval by the House.

AUSTIN - A debate over abortion consumed the state Senate Thursday before senators voted to create a public-private corporation aimed at providing health insurance to more Texas children.

AUSTIN - A massive rewrite of what Texas students are expected to learn in English, math, science, health and social studies has received a preliminary go-ahead from the State Board of Education.

Ann Landers Initials for IRS should be MESS

1995, I mailed in my tax check for $1,035 to the Internal Revenue Service. Shortly afterward, I was informed that the IRS did not receive Iowa it. I said I had indeed mailed it in and was advised to put a stop order on it, which I did. A little later, the IRS returned my check stamped "pay-ment stopped." Evidently, somebody had found the check that had "never been received" and attempted to deposit it.

I sent in a replacement check and received a letter stating, "Your check was put in the computer and credited to your 1994 account." I wrote the IRS and said the check was intended for my 1995 account. The problem was sent to the IRS Resolutions Office, and it took eight months to fix.

During this time, I was sent a refund check for the $1,035 that went into my 1994 account, since I didn't owe any taxes for 1994. Then, I got a letter saying it was a mistake and I should return the money, which I did. Then, I was asked to fill out Form 3911 regarding the refund, which I also did. Soon, I received a letter stating my "claim for a refund" was sent to Maryland to be looked into and would require nine months to clear. I wrote and told the IRS I was not entitled to a refund and if it insisted on sending me one, I would refuse it.

Frankly, I'm afraid to send in my next tax check. They should change their initials from IRS to MESS. --Los Angeles Taxpayer

Dear L.A. Taxpayer: When the IRS screws up, it does it big time. Far be it from me to attempt to defend the IRS, but considering the number of returns it processes and the mistakes people make when filing their returns, it's a miracle the IRS doesn't screw up more often.

Bird returns to NBA as Indiana Pacers' new head coach

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Larry Bird has agreed to become the next coach of the Indiana Pacers, the club announced Thursday.

Bird, who led the Boston Celtics to three NBA championships and had been an adviser for the franchise since retiring in 1992, will return to his home state for a news conference on Monday, the club said.

"I'm very excited about this opportunity to go back home and coach the Indiana Pacers," Bird said in a prepared statement.

No other details were immediately available.

SCORES

Bird, who starred at Indiana State before his legendary career with the Celtics, stopped playing because of back pain. The sight of Bird stretched on his stomach by the scorer's table, in an effort to ease the discomfort, became a frequent sight near the end of his 13-year career.

His major responsibility for the Celtics has been scouting, but he was the one who first talked to Rick Pitino about leaving Kentucky to become Boston's new coach.

At a news conference in Boston on Thursday, Pitino said he wanted Bird to stay with the Celtics and act as a general manager who would also scout and help out in practice.

"We'd love Larry Bird to be a part of the Celtics," Pitino said. "Larry Bird epitomizes Celtics pride. Whatever title he wants, he can have."

But he added that the lure of being a coach was apparently too strong.

whether he wants to be in the front office or whether he wants to be out there coaching calling timeouts," Pitino said. "If he wants to coach, then that is something we'll wish him well on." Bird has never coached on any level, and there is some question if he can. Pacers president Donnie Walsh, who offered him a contract reportedly valued at $4.5 million a year, has no doubts. "He looks at the game from more "It's a career decision for him of of a coach's mind than a player's mind," said Walsh, who met with Bird about the job even before former coach Larry Brown resigned. "He's a very bright guy and a very honest guy, as well as a very tough guy. All those qualities add up. He'd be very successful anywhere he went.

At 40, Bird would be returning to his roots. A product of the 2,000-resident community of French Lick in southern Indiana, Bird was a two-time All-America at Indiana State. He was the college player of the year as a senior, when he led the Sycamores to the No. 1 ranking and an undefeated season until a loss in the NCAA title game against Michigan State and Magic Johnson.

The 6-foot-9 forward went on to become the NBA rookie of the year in 1979-80, a three-time league MVP and the playoff MVP in 1984 and 1986. He averaged 24.3 points, 10 rebounds and 6.3 assists a game. His total of 21,791 points is the 11th highest in NBA history.

Hawks dump Bulls, even series at 1-1

Bulls were nearly invincible a year as the Atlanta Hawks proved ago. If not the greatest team in NBA Thursday night with a 103-95 victory history, they were certainly the most that tied their second-round series at dominant, with 72 regular-season 1-1. wins and a fourth title in the '90s.

They won 69 more games this season, but now suddenly and the Bulls before and we match up surprisingly they are looking well with them," Atlanta's Christian Laettner said.

"This reiterates the fact that we can do it and we can even do it on their home court."

Atlanta, which came close to winning Game 1, losing by three after blowing a 16-point lead, beat the Bulls at the United Center, where Chicago had won 91 of its previous 95 games and had never lost in 13 previous playoff games.

Scottie Pippen, whose late 3-pointer won the opener, was blunt after the game. Either the Bulls start getting better efforts, or they'll be planning early vacations.

He had some pointed comments for bad-boy rebounder Dennis Rodman, who picked up his seventh technical foul in five playoff games. Rodman, who missed the final 13 games with a knee injury, fouled out with just five rebounds and two points.

"I'm trying to help us get over the hump. I can't say that for everyone on the team," Pippen said.

"We've got to have a big effort from Dennis. He's got to avoid the technical fouls. He's just got to play the game.

'There's a lot of other things that Dennis can do on the court. If he's not going to lead us in rebounding, don't lead us in technical fouls, because we don't need those."

The Hawks limited the Bulls to 41 percent shooting. Michael Jordan, tiring after defending Atlanta's Mookie Blaylock, had 27 points and 16 rebounds, and Pippen scored 24. Steve Smith scored 27 for the Hawks, and Blaylock followed a 31-point game in the opener with 26 more points, going 8-for-9 on 3-pointers. Dikembe Mutombo had 19 and 14 rebounds and Laettner 18 points as Atlanta successfully worked the perimeter and the inside. "We have to figure out a way of stopping Blaylock from getting so many 3-point attempts," said Pippen, looking ahead to Games 3 and 4 Saturday and Sunday at the Omni.

Pippen also criticized the Bulls' interior play that was weakened further when Brian Williams sat out the second half after hurting his knee in a collision with Toni Kukoc.

I'm concerned about our big guys. They're not giving us quality time on the court," Pippen said.

"They're not doing the things that's going to make the game easier for us smaller guys. Anytime we have to have Michael come in and get 16 rebounds, that's not called for. Then we ask him to score 30 or 40 points, and he's not going to have that type of energy, especially having to chase Mookie Blaylock around."

The Bulls didn't play well in a three-game sweep of Washington in the first round.

'We've been living on the edge the last four games, and this time we got stung," Jordan said. "But that doesn't mean we can't turn this around. In all the years we won championships, we lost games."

HOUSTON (AP) - Texas Tech's was an honest mistake. It bothers me director for enforcement, has baseball team, until last week ranked No. 1 in the nation, may have exceeded the NCAA's scholarship limit, the Houston Chronicle reported today. Red Raiders coach Larry Hays told the Chronicle Thursday that a mathematical error on his part resulted in Tech's awarding two scholarships more than the NCAA-mandated limit of 11.7, a violation of NCAA rules.

The team is the school's third to come under NCAA scrutiny as the result of a potential rules violation.

"The fact is that we have misfigured some out-of-state academic tuitions," Hays said.

"I regret that it happened, and it

Although the violation could lead to sanctions, Hays said NCAA officials told him there will be no forfeitures this year.

Officials assured Hays that Tech, now ranked No. 5 in the nation, remained eligible for next week's Big 12 tournament and an NCAA regional.

the NCAA Committee on Infractions, which would hold hearings and decide whether to assess sanctions.

Hays said school officials made a similar error in computing scholarship figures last year, but he had fewer players on the team and therefore did not go over the 11.7 limit.

Tech's athletic program currently is under an NCAA investigation focused on potential academic improprieties involving football and

New vote may force Astros to move

HOUSTON (AP) - The Houston a new arena. That also is McLane's Astros may move if the Texas Legislature requires a new referendum before a new downtown ballpark can be built, owner Drayton McLane Jr. said.

"It could delay us two years or make it so we have to move," McLane told the Houston Chronicle for today's editions. "We are deeply concerned."

The warning came hours after the Texas House voted final approval for a stadium financing bill.

The bill, which passed by a 83-47 vote Thursday, would allow Texas cities and counties to impose several new taxes to build sports and such other facilities as museums and convention centers. The bill now goes to the Senate.

It also requires Harris County to have another election if it uses any of the funding options provided under the bill.

Mayor Bob Lanier and Harris County Judge Robert Eckels said they take McLane's warning seriously.

An amendment to the bill would strip cities of the option to impose higher hotel taxes. Rural lawmakers insisted on the provision to shield their constituents from higher hotel bills when they visit Texas' bigger cities.

Eckels said there is no reason for another referendum because voters last November gave county commissioners approval to begin plans for a ballpark and to update or replace the Astrodome for football. He said the financing plan was nearly identical to that in the bill that passed Thursday.

A second referendum would likely be held in November, when Lanier also hopes to hold a citywide vote on trouble keeping the hotel tax in the cities and counties must hold bill, but both said losing the tax was necessary to pass the bill.

"I feel pretty encouraged that we got a bill out of the House," Lanier have the right to vote again," Turner said. "It's not as much money as we said. "What we approved (in the asked for or needed. It's maybe 60, 70 percent.'

Last year, McLane threatened to sell his team to a Virginia business- several state representatives who man unless Houston built a new stadium for the Astros. He agreed to stay after Major League Baseball officials made it apparent he would have to give Houston another chance, but told officials he wants ground broken for the project by this November.

While Lanier and Eckels don't want another ballpark referendum, about two-thirds of the 25 state representatives from Harris County do.

The amendment by state Rep. removes a clause exempting Harris Eckels and Lanier said they expect County from a requirement that all referendums before using the financing tools the bill provides.

"It's simple, the people should stadium bill) is different from what the people voted for in November.'

However, the Chronicle said voted for the amendment to force another referendum said privately that they hope it is removed in the Senate. Even Turner predicted that the final bill likely will not be the same one the House passed Thursday.

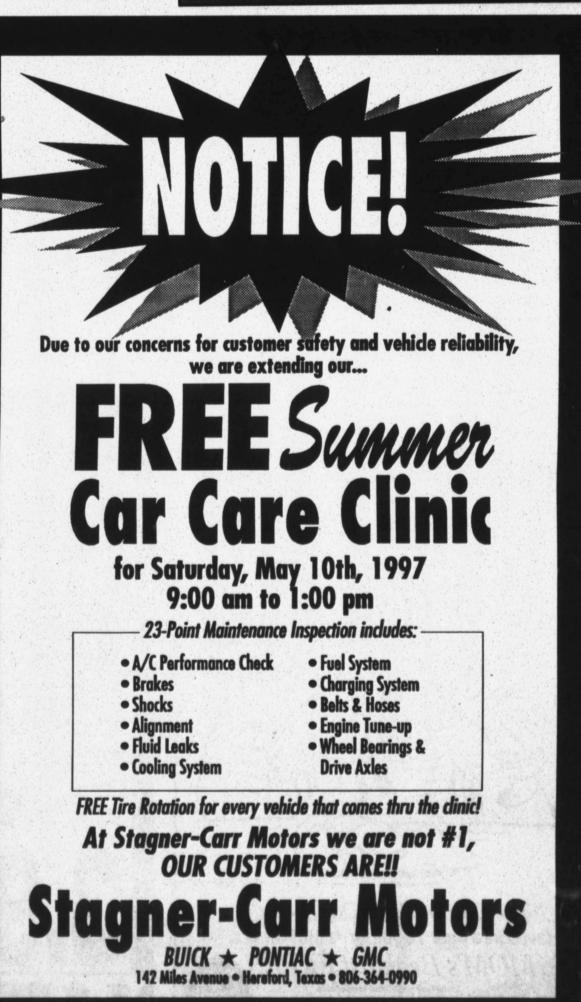

State Sen. John Whitmire, D-Houston, said a major effort will be made to reinstate the exemption for Houston. And he said he would work on getting the hotel tax included, though that one could be tough.

Brinkman, Merrick help lead NCA girls to second in finale

Denae Brinkman and Sloahe Merrick each carded rounds of 63 this past weekend in Amarillo and helped the Nazarene Christian Academy Lady Eagles close out their 1997 golf season with a second place finish at Southwest Municipal Golf Course.

Brinkman and Merrick each finished fourth in the overall individual standings

The Lady Eagles, who also garnered a solid round of 67 from Macy Hill, finished the nine-hole tournament with a score of 263 - just 21 strokes off the winning pace set by Trinity Fellowship. St. Andrew placed third with a score of 277.

"The girls played real well," said NCA coach Mal Manchee. "We were missing our No. 1 girl (Lindsee Goforth) and they still came in second. They really picked up their game with her gone, so I think they did a very good job," he added.

Lindzie Torbert and Kristen Huffaker also played well for the Nazarene Christian Academy linksters. They both turned in rounds of 70.

The NCA boys didn't fair quite as well. The Eagles A squad, despite a round of 51 Tyler Keeling, finished third with a mark of 226. The Nazarene Christian Academy B team finished fourth at 256.

"They just had a difficult day." said Manchee, noting that the tournament was played in high wind.

Trinity Fellowship claimed the boy's team crown, shooting a 196. St. Andrews A squad was second at 208. St. Andrews B team and San Jacinto Christian Academy finished fifth and sixth, respectively.

The Eagles' A team garnered solid efforts from Jacob Power and Kris Bridwell, who shot 55 and 56, respectively. Jeremy Gonzales finished with a mark of 64.

Justin Ward led the NCA B squad with a round of 57. Chayse Rives, Jeremy Henning and Jeremy Williams turned in scores of 62, 66 and 71, respectively.

Hoiles, rain delay combine to give M's Johnson first loss

By The Associated Press

The latest greatest streak in baseball is over - Randy Johnson lost for the first time in 645 days.

Chris Hoiles had two homers and six RBIs Thursday night as the Baltimore Orioles ended Johnson's 16-game winning streak with a 13-3 victory over the Seattle Mariners on Thursday night.

"Randy had a heck of a streak," Seattle manager Lou Piniella said. "He should be proud of what he's done."

Johnson might be proud, but he wasn't talking. The 6-foot-10 left-hander, who lost for the first time since Aug. 1, 1995, a string of 25 starts, stalked out of the clubhouse without a word.

Johnson (4-1) struck out 10, but gave up five runs, six hits and two walks in six innings. He was attempting to tie the AL record of 17 straight wins, set in the 1930s by Johnny Allen of Cleveland and tied by Dave McNally of the Orioles in 1968-69. He settled for the seventh ongest streak in major league history. The game might have turned after rain delayed the start of the sixth I was worried, believe me." Yankees 5, Rangers 4

At Yankee Stadium, Mariano Rivera struck out Juan Gonzalez with the bases loaded to end the game, preserving Andy Pettitte's sixth victory and gaining his 11th save.

The Yankees won their third straight game and sent Texas to its season-high third loss in a row.

Pettitte (6-1) joined Jimmy Key as the top winners in the majors. He took a four-hitter and 4-1 lead into the eighth inning before the Rangers rallied on Ivan Rodriguez' RBI single and, after Rivera relieved, an RBI double by Will Clark.

Charlie Hayes homered in the New York eighth for a 5-3 lead, but pinch-hitter Lee Stevens blooped a double with one out and scored on pinch-hitter Dean Palmer's single. Rodriguez singled with two outs and Rusty Greer walked to load the bases, but Gonzalez was caught looking at a 1-2 fastball on Rivera's 43rd pitch. Blue Jays 4, Indians 3

At Cleveland, Juan Guzman (3-2) held the Indians to three hits in seven innings, but Toronto still had to sweat out the win after David Justice hit a Chicago.

James Baldwin (1-4) survived a scary comebacker off his shoulder in the fifth to pick up his first win. Mike Mohler (0-4) took the loss and fell to 0-10 in 17 career starts.

Baldwin didn't allow a hit until two outs in the fifth when George Williams' liner deflected off his right shoulder for a single. Baldwin fell to the ground but, after a few minutes of treatment by White Sox trainer Herm Schneider, stayed in the game. Twins 10, Red Sox 7

At Boston, Paul Molitor's two-run bloop single capped a five-run sixth inning as Minnesota won for just the third time in its last 15 games.

Boston led 4-1 before the Twins' big inning, with most of the damage coming against Rich Garces (0-1), who replaced Tim Wakefield. The Twins scord four runs in the eighth to offset Rudy Pemberton's grand slam in the second and Tim Nachring's three-run homer in the bottom of the eighth.

Rich Robertson (3-1) went five innings for the win, and Rick Aguilera struck out Mo Vaughn and Nachring with two on in the ninth for

The 34-year-old Barkley was brought to Houston to help Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler, also both 34, bring the Rockets another championship. The Rockets looked old and tired Wednesday night, especially in the first half when they fell behind by 18 points. They got within two, but couldn't catch up in the second.

"You can come up with a lot of excuses, but they kicked our butts,' Barkley said.

Karl used only seven players, playing Terry Cummings and David Wingate off the bench. Shawn Kemp had 22 points and 15 rebounds, while Hersey Hawkins added 21 points and had six of Seattle's 15 steals.

"Kemp played a monster game," Drexler said. "He was the catalyst."

All-Star point guard Gary Payton said Kemp is intimidating the Rockets.

"I don't think Barkley wants to face him up and guard him because he knows he's going to get fouls," Payton said.

Payton has been struggling offensively against the Rockets. He's shooting 36 percent (13-for-36) for the series.

Not to worry, said Payton, who had nine assists Wednesday night when he played 47 minutes.

"I can sacrifice my game for us to win,," he said. "I'll just keep passing the ball."

Seattle's victory at Houston was a surprise. The Rockets beat the Sonics 113-73 at Houston on April 13 and won the series opener convincingly. Until Wednesday night, the Sonics had gone 54 days without beating a winning team.

NCAA strips UMass of wins

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) - Found guilty of NCAA violations, Marcus Camby says he'll pay back the money. What he can't do is give the University of Massachusetts back its Final Four appearance.

The NCAA on Thursday stripped Massachusetts of its 1996 tournament record because Camby accepted gifts from a sports agent as an amateur player.

The NCCA's executive committee, meeting in Pebble Beach, Calif., also ordered that Massachusetts return $151,000 in tournament money from 1996.

The 6-foot-11 Camby, now playing with the Toronto Raptors, led a team coached by John Calipari to a 35-2 record in 1995-96. It ended with a loss to Kentucky in the national semifinals.

The team's title as the school's best ever will be now show in the record books with an asterisk.

Camby apologized to his former teammates, coach and school in a telephone interview with journalists Thursday from Los Angeles, where he was watching the NBA playoffs between the Lakers and the Jazz.

"I'm really sorry," he said. "I fully intend to pay back all the money donate the money back to the school."

"People make mistakes, and I made mistakes," he added.

He also said he was "a good person" who committed no crime. He said the NCAA should consider providing some form of payment to college athletes to help stem the temptation to take gifts.

The NCAA has to loosen up the rules a little bit," he said.

UMass chancellor David Scott said he felt a "great sense of loss for the university and its supporters."

Added athletic director Bob Marcum: "It's a shame so many people who were not involved in any wrongdoing have to share in the loss." But he said the university will not challenge the decision.

According to NCAA rules, an athlete may not accept money, gifts or any other benefit for his services.

This week, The Boston Globe reported that Camby secretly repaid. $28,000 to another agent who claimed his life was in danger from loan sharks.

battle over methods of counting heads is threatening to throw the multibillion-dollar Census 2000 into chaos.

WASHINGTON (AP) - A partisan years remaining before the count, the planning is well along and tests are set for next year.

But the letter from the GOP Conservative members of leaders says, "Constitutional Congress are distrustful of the Census requirements governing the Census Bureau's plan to estimate the number leave us no choice when it comes to re of neonle they are cutting corners in order to contrary, the Census must be funded at levels necessary to comply explicitly with the Constitution." They worry that because the Constitution requires a head count every 10 years, a census using sampling might be ruled invalid by the courts, forcing a repeat of the exercise already forecast to cost more than $4 billion. The tentative plan for 2000 is to ensure that at least 90 percent of all households in each tract - an area of several square blocks - are counted via mailed-back questionnaire, telephone call or personal visit. In areas where at least 90 percent of the households respond to the initial mailing, Census workers would visit one in 10 of the remaining households. In areas with lower response rates Congress are warning the Census a larger share of the missing would get personal visits. unable to contact directly. These money; we cannot do it. On the critics want to ban that process from the nation's 21st national count.

But banning this sampling method could force a redesign of the complex national head count. It also might even block use of the long form that is normally sent to one family in six to collect detailed information widely used by business and national, state and local government programs.

"If there is no long form we will lose a tremendous amount of information about society, rural areas, cities," said Paul Voss of the University of Wisconsin.

The Census Bureau announced last month that it plans to include sampling in the 2000 count to save money and improve the accuracy of the tally by estimating some people who cannot be counted in person.

But Republican leaders in Bureau not to make any unchangeable plans.

"We must physically count each to Census Director Martha Farnsworth Riche from House Speaker Newt Gingrich and Majority Leader Dick Armey, and Senate Majority would go door to door to contact Leader Trent Lott and Assistant people who did not respond by mail. Majority Leader Don Nickles.

House seats shift after each count and the numbers are used to allocate count in rural areas and increase the urban areas, shifting seats to Democratic strongholds.

Yet no census has ever counted when President Washington number missed at least 4 million people. complained of an undercount to Secretary of State Thomas Jefferson. Some people ignore the government, others distrust it. For whatever reason, many do not want to be counted.

In 1990 the census missed an estimated 4 million people, Minorities were more likely to be missed than whites.

"The plan for 2000 was designed to meet a mandate set in 1991 by a Congress controlled by one party, but is now being evaluated by a Congress controlled by the other party," Voss said. The result is a distrustful leadership in Congress and a frustrated leadership at the Census Bureau, he said: "It is in deep trouble.'

In 1991, the Democratic Congress directed the bureau to find ways to be more accurate at less cost. The National Academy of Sciences was brought in to help and the result was the plan for sampling. With three

In recent censuses, the bureau has sent out forms and then census takers

In 1990, the bureau produced two figures: the official number based on the national head count, and an government money. Republicans unofficial adjusted number based on worry that sampling will reduce the a statistical estimate. The difference created controversy and resulted in number of people located in dense lawsuits over which numbers should be used.

The courts upheld the Census Bureau's decision to use the direct head everybody, starting with the first count, even though it admitted that "We just want to bring men from diverse racial, cultural and denominational backgrounds together as one to worship our Lord Jesus Christ." said Harbin.

The event will consist primarily of singing and prayer, along with performances by several singing groups and a short talk on creating small groups for men, he said.

"We want to encourage men to bring their wives and families, bring your blankets and lawn chairs, and any refreshments," said Harbin. "Fellowship is a big part of the reason we're getting together." Scheduled to sing at the rally are soloist Eugene Green of Greater Love Temple, the duet of Billy May and Jason Kelly, and the True to the Word singing group from Galilee Church of God in Christ.

In case of inclement weather, the rally will be postponed to another date, according to Harbin.

Study shows moms feel their mom better parent

By DONNA ABU-NASR Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - Saundra Watson is a successful professional who has raised a well-adjusted 18-year-old son.

She is often racked by guilt because she's not there for him when he returns from school to ask how his day was, go over his homework with him and eat dinner with him.

'We really have a lot of juggling to do and unfortunately ... our children suffer somewhat because of what we have to do ... to maintain a living," said Watson, 42, an accounting manager. "We're doing a worse job than our mothers did."

Watson is not alone in thinking that way. According to a study released Thursday, ahead of Mother's Day weekend, 56 percent of the women surveyed think their mothers were better parents than they are.

in the lives of women and the evolution of the American family.

"I think that parenting has somewhat taken a back seat to our lives and that should not be," said Watson. "A lot of kids are somewhat having to raise themselves.'

According to the survey, a large proportion of the women favored more-traditional family settings.

Only 17 percent said most divorced couples who split custody of their children can do a good job of parenting and fewer than 30 percent said most single mothers, stepmothers and couples in which both parents work full time can do a good job.

The study also found that more than half the mothers who worked full time were burdened with time pressures and trying to balance motherhood with other aspects of their lives compared with 18 percent of mothers who work part time or not

On a more cheerful note, most mothers said they were mostly or very satisfied with the job they're doing raising their children.

The study by the Pew Research Center questioned 1,101 women, 74 percent of them mothers. Of the total sample, 42 percent were employed full time, 15 percent part time, 21 percent retired and 22 percent not employed outside the home. The study has a margin of error of plus or minus 3 percentage points.

The researchers found that the problems and challenges faced by 1990s moms are related to changes at all. Some of the pressures cited by mothers include trying to be in three places at once, making sure they get everything done without being stressed out and having enough time for themselves. The survey found that disciplining children is a problem all mothers face whether or not they work outside the house. One in five named this as the most difficult part of being a mother.

Despite the guilt, the self-recrimination and the worry, Watson says, being a mother "is definitely worth

Two more new businesses

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies for two businesses, both located at the same site on East Hwy. 60, were held Thursday. Sid Shaw, with his son, Scott, and wife, Susan, cut the ribbon at Double S Sales(top). The firm specializes in used cars and equipment. Joe Ward, owner, cuts the ribbon(bottom) for C&W Equipment, which offers used equipment for sale. Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce members and Hustlers conducted the ceremonies.

Writing Want Ads that really sell!

Unsure how to write a Classified Ad that will get results? Follow these pointers and you'll soon have an empty space in your storage room and cash in your pocket.

For starters, look at ads which offer the same item/ products. Get a sense of going rates and ideas for how to make your ad stand out. Once you're ready to write, begin with exactly what you're selling: "Dining room set, maple, six chairs." Then, remember these hints:

--Give the price. A newspaper consultant says 70 percent of classified readers won't respond to an ad with no price.

--Use key words to describe what you're selling. The key words for a car are make, model, year, body style, color, mileage and price. If it's a house, key words are location, type of construction, number of bedrooms and baths, and condition.

-- Don't use abbreviations. It's tempting to abbreviate and save money if ads are billed by the line. Brand ads are billed by the words, so spell them out so readers won't be confused trying to figure out abbreviations.

-- Don't be misleading. Think accurate and factual when you write. Be sure to include a phone number and the best times to reach you.

Tiger attacks circus owner on Thursday

BROAD TOP CITY, Pa. (AP) -After the show, Brian Franzen stood in the rain crying next to his beloved elephants, camels and donkeys. The night before, one of the circus' tigers attacked Franzen's father, dragging him around the ring by his neck until he was dead.

The Franzen Bros. Circus, started by Wayne Franzen 24 years ago, held another standing-room only performance Thursday night. Smiling children clutching bags of cotton candy and bright balloons streamed out of the big top. Nearby, 10 restless Bengal tigers stared out from their tiny cages.

The younger Franzen said his father would have wanted the show It doesn't understand what hapto continue.

"We have to take in money," Franzen said, a slight catch to his voice. "Otherwise, I wouldn't have Bailey Circus, said tiger attacks are money to feed the animals or move rare because good trainers build trust the circus.'

To Wayne Franzen, the animals were all that mattered. He had a better among big cats. rapport with his creatures than with people, his son said.

"We have never had a cat Broad Top City, about 110 miles east trainer killed in the ring or even of Pittsburgh. The evening show went attacked." on minus the tiger act. A trapeze artist and novelty seller quit on Wednesday night, leaving 13 employees.

The circus, one of 100 such small shows traveling the country, began when Wayne Franzen quit his shop teaching job in Wisconsin and started a one-ring act.

At first, the only animals in the show came from farms - horses, dogs and goats. Eventually Franzen, who trained all the animals himself, added more exotic animals.

On Thursday, some customers returned advance tickets, but others came to fulfill promises to excited children.

"The kids seem fine," said Karen Stevenson. "I think the adults are more worried than the kids.'

Wayne Franzen was wearing a new bright suit with puffy sleeves for only the second time when the tiger apparently lunged out at the costume from behind, said James Zangaglia, chief deputy coroner of Cambria County.

The suit may have prompted the attack, authorities said. Brian Franzen and Patty Frederick, a nurse who was in the crowd, rushed the cat in the head with a pipe, but it was too late," Brian Franzen said.

Parents shielded the eyes of sobbing children, and announcers urged people in the crowd to leave quietly and orderly.

The tiger's paw punctured Franzen's lung. Cambria County Coroner Dennis Kwiatkowski said Franzen bled to death within five minutes from extensive wounds in his neck. The tiger tore apart his trachea and his esophagus.

Brian Franzen said he intends to return the 6-year-old cat named Lucca to the show when an insurance company completes its investigation.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - Being a good neighbor runs in the family for former Sen. Nancy Kassebaum Baker and her husband, former Sen. Howard Baker.

Mrs. Kassebaum Baker, a Republican from Kansas, accepted this year's Harry S. Truman Good Neighbor Award Thursday, exactly eight years after her husband won the honor.

"I looked at Howard's speech that he gave in 1989 and I thought, 'Well, I ought to just give it again," she said at a luncheon held each year on the anniversary of Truman's birth.

The award honors people in public life whose observance of the late president's "Good Neighbor" principles have "improved their community and nation.

Mrs. Kassebaum Baker, 64, retired in January. She married Baker, a
