SATTERWHITE TO AGAIN BE A CANDIDATE

DEAF SMITH THROWN INTO AMARILLO DISTRICT BY BILL

TO PRINT PAPER

Begins Publication September 19. Moves Residence to Amarillo

Hon. Lee Satterwhite, state representative from Amarillo district and chairman of the appropriations committee of the House of Representatives, spent a few hours in Hereford Saturday.

Mr. Satterwhite brought three interesting news items with him. First, that he has changed his residence from Panhandle to Amarillo and, in connection with John Wright of Amarillo, will begin the publication of a weekly paper at Amarillo on September 16. Second, that the new representative district for this section, composed of the counties of Deaf Smith, Oldham, Randall, Potter, Carson and Armstrong, will be asked to support him for reelection next term and if elected he will be a candidate for Speaker of the House. Third, that the joint committee of the House and Senate on State Parks, composed of Lieutenant Governor Davidson, Speaker Thomas and others will reach Amarillo at noon September 19 for the purpose of inspecting the Palo Duro Canyon as a possibility for a State Park.

Mr. Satterwhite has not yet decided upon a name for his new paper, which will be devoted to the development of the agricultural and live stock interests of the Panhandle. He will edit the sheet while Mr. Wright will be business manager. The latter is a brother of the foreman of the Daily News and has been connected of late with the Nunn Electric Company.

The new representative district, Mr. Satterwhite thinks, gives this section better service in the house, is more compact than the old district, and is a big step forward for the Panhandle. Mr. Satterwhite's battles with the so-called "People's Club" in the recent legislature at first indicated his elimination from the Speakership race but finally turned to his advantage, his friends believe, and he is confident he will be named Speaker at the next session.

The Hereford Chamber of Commerce will be asked to send one or more representatives to Amarillo on the 19th to aid the Amarillo boosters in impressing upon the State Park committee the claims of the Palo Duro, Mr. Satterwhite advised. Every county in the Panhandle will be asked to join with Amarillo in this undertaking.

Dr. Gabbert On Way to Bedside Of Sick Mother

Dr. W. F. Gabbert, manager of the X-Ray Laboratory, had intended calling a meeting of the stock holders of that company this week for the purpose of formal organization. However, the meeting has been postponed for the present until the Doctor returns from Pittsburg, Pa., where he has been called by the serious illness of his mother.

The home of Mrs. Gabbert is in West Virginia, but she has been undergoing treatment at a Pittsburg institution. Her condition is such that he feels it necessary to go to her at once. He will leave Wednesday morning.

Doug. Fairbanks Showing Wife How to Curl a Mustache

Doug Fairbanks' supreme hour has come. He waited until he reached New York on his way to Europe to indulge it. Then, when this newspaper's cameraman was all ready—Doug gloated in his masculine way over his wife, OUR Mary Pickford Fairbanks, as shown here. "Pooh!" said Mary. "One swallow don't make a summer—neither do thirteen hairs make a mustache—I've counted 'em."

Miss Millicent Griffith, superintendent of the Hereford schools, reached Hereford on last Saturday from her summer's work in Chicago and has gone with the rest to Canyon. Owing to her absence and the sickness of County Judge W. M. Megert, ex-officio County School Superintendent, no details of the coming school year are obtainable at this time. An account of what is contemplated for the season 1921-22 will be secured from them as soon as possible.

William Weldon, a nephew of W. A. Knox of Hereford, drove in last Friday in a Curtiss airplane and proceeded to put on a few ditches, nose spins, tail curlicues, etc., for the edification of the gaping crowds on Friday and Saturday afternoons. Mr. Weldon carried several passengers while here and gave them thrills a-plenty while he was at it.

Scattered Rains Help; Hope For More Very Soon

A heavy rain cloud started up to the west of Hereford Monday afternoon, circled the town, traveling to the north and east, and finally settled down late in the afternoon to the south, where it rained heavily in Castro and adjoining counties. During the night Hereford received something like a half inch or more. Tuesday it cleared up, though threatening thunder heads are still visible in nearly every direction.

Travelers from the south report deep mud as far as twelve miles south of Dimmitt. The rain was apparently light to the west, north and east. Only a sprinkle was reported at Amarillo. A real good rain is badly needed just now and it is hoped more will be received soon.

Young Witherspoon was well known locally among cattlemen and participated in the Roundup celebrations held here last year.

The horse reared, slipped on the pavement and fell heavily on the unfortunate young man, crushing him badly.

Girl Scouts Are Enthusiastic In Praise of Camp

The troop of girl scouts who went to the Palo Duro last week for a camping and fishing trip, headed by Captain Jessie Sisk, report one of the most enjoyable outings of the year. They left Hereford Wednesday, August 31 in Leslie Brewer's truck who carried them to Canyon. From there they were taken to the M. C. Reynolds ranch at the Big Falls. Here they struck camp and remained until Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Donald was a guest of the Scouts during the entire time. Other Hereford guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McDonald and little son, Billie. There is no fish in this part of the Canyon and the girls had a good joke at Mr. Williams' expense as he brought his fishing tackle along and wasted a lot of time trying his luck.

The time was spent in lessons in how to handle a camp, how to swim, etc. The nights were spent around the camp fires, story telling, etc. Mr. Reynolds has invited the girls to return next year and hopes to be able to camp with them. During Miss Sisk's absence this winter Miss Sena Mae Mounts, First Lieutenant, will have charge of the Scouts.

Harrelson, who has been conducting a tin shop here for some time, announced Tuesday that he had sold an interest in the business to Carl Jennings and that hereafter the business would be known as the Harrelson-Jennings Plumbing & Sheet Metal Works. The new firm announces it will handle all kinds of metal, tin and plumbing work, and will specialize on radiator work this winter.

J. C. Cummings who some time ago bought the stock of plumbing material from Jno. McFarlin, has moved into the building next to the post office, where he has in stock all the fixtures required to fit up a building in modern shape.

HOMER WILKINSON BACK; LIKES NEW MEXICO'S RESORT

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wilkinson and children returned to Hereford Saturday from a ten days' camping and fishing trip to El Provenir, N. M., near Las Vegas. ## THE ONLY SURVIVOR

This eighteen-year-old boy, N. T. Walker of West Virginia, was the only survivor of the seventeen American navymen aboard the dirigible ZR-2 when it collapsed in England while on trial flight. When he failed to find a parachute he awaited his moment and jumped just before the giant dirigible hit the water in the River Humber at Hull.

Commercial Club Transacts Business at Dinner

The weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce was held Monday at the Stockmen's Cafe with twenty present. It was Labor Day and President McDonald was in Amarillo at the big gun club shoot. No program had been prepared, still quite a bit of business was transacted.

Mayor Knight, newly elected member of the board, presided. A delegation of Odd Fellows from the Amarillo lodge appeared at the luncheon and outlined the proposed trip of the Canton Drum Corps to Toronto, Canada, leaving Amarillo September 14 in a special car. They asked for literature from Hereford and any cash donations the Chamber of Commerce or individuals cared to contribute toward the expense of the trip. They believed that the Panhandle would receive quite a boost from this live and energetic band of boosters. The matter was referred to the new board for decision this week. The committee consisted of Forrest Walker, S. G. Burdine, W. C. Towns and E. R. Dandy.

The matter of establishing a landing place for the proposed U. S. airplane route from San Antonio to Cheyenne was discussed, as was the question of sending a delegation to Amarillo September 19 to help entertain the State Park committee from the legislature. All these matters were referred to the new board, which expected to organize this week and outline its method of procedure.

The luncheon will hear the report of the board at the City Cafe on next Monday.

SYNDICATE OFFICIALS SPEND DAY HERE ON BUSINESS

Geo. Findlay and Frank F. Ferry of Chicago, Judge James D. Hamlin of Farwell, R. L. Duke of Dalhart and John W. Davidson of Childress were in Hereford Tuesday in connection with business matters of the Capitol Syndicate, with which they are all connected. They returned to Farwell, Judge Hamlin's headquarters, after lunch.

HEREFORD IS STATION ON AN AIR LINE

THAT IS SHE IS WHEN UNCLE SAM'S REQUEST IS MET

LANDING FIELD

City Must Provide Field, Properly Marked to Secure Planes

If Hereford will fix up an official landing place for airplanes it is entirely possible that the city may be given a place on the first airway map of the United States government.

This information was contained in a communication from Major Carl Spatz, Aviation Service, U. S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, addressed to the Postmaster and turned over to Mayor Knight Monday.

The Major states that Hereford is on government air route from San Antonio, Texas, to Cheyenne, Wyo., as an intermediate station. Intermediate stations are those cities that are on air ways at approximately twenty five mile intervals. These intermediate stations should have a municipal landing field and markers. Major Spatz says in part:

"The importance of these airways is beyond argument and their establishment may be said to be the fundamental consideration in the development of aeronautics as a national asset, both for war and peace. The plan for their organization and development as outlined by the Chief of Air Service is comprehensive, and their ultimate development will continue over a long period of time. This work should be recognized as a continuing and important duty for you as a representative of your city.

"In the ultimate development of this project, every city and town of importance will have its landing field, with meteorological and radio stations and other facilities necessary to the successful flights of aircraft across the country for commercial and general purposes. It is obvious that it will be a long time before the routes can be finished. The first step is the establishment of a municipal landing field in each city and town that lies in the path of the airways."

The Major suggests that the name "Hereford" be painted in large letters on the roof of the local passenger station and encloses a diagram of the regulation government landing field, showing dimensions, markings, etc.

Mayor Knight discussed the matter at the luncheon Monday and the new board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will officially decide the matter in the near future.

"Appropriate decorations of late summer garden flowers and ferns, were used in the ceremonial rooms, and the beautiful double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. F. B. Shepherd, pastor of the Church of Christ, in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

"The young bride was charming in an exquisite gown of black satin with beads and carried an arm bouquet of pink bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will remain in Amarillo for several days after which they will return to Clovis, where the bridegroom has a splendid position with a bottling and ice cream factory. Mr. Sullivan's father is a prominent business man of Hereford.

"Mrs. Sullivan has been visiting for the past year with her aunt in Clovis where the pretty romance began, and together with her husband has a wide circle of friends in that city."—Amarillo News.

Miscellaneous Showers for Miss Dunlap

Hereford social life is being brightened this week by many delightful pre-nuptial affairs honoring Miss Clara Dunlap, formal announcement of whose approaching marriage to Mr. Bobo McLean was recently made. Among these, the miscellaneous shower given Monday afternoon by Mesdames Ray Barber and John Williams and Miss Mary Fox is prominently numbered.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Barber was chosen for the occasion and with its special adornment of bright-hued autumn blossoms, was most attractive.

Following a period of informal social intermingling, Mrs. F. T. Toloson very adroitly disclosed the nature of the occasion, in an effectively given toast to the bride which with its scintillating humor was a most entertaining program feature.

Consummate cleverness was evidenced in the very brief toast to the groom in which Mrs. J. Frank Potts expressed so aptly the seeming nonentity of the bridegroom in the wedding festivities.

Just as the toasts were being concluded a wail of distress called the hostess to the door where Master R. K. Bruner stood disconsolately holding by the hand little Miss Virginia Bruner dressed as a bride, and in a tear-choked voice told of the wreck of his Chalmers car on his honeymoon trip, and begged for help. At the suggestion that Miss Dunlap drove a Chandler car and might be of assistance, he rushed in, grabbed her by the hand and hurried her to the dining room where a miniature automobile was piled high with packages. The guests hastily followed and enjoyed with the bride the pleasure of viewing the wonderful array of beautiful gifts.

After registering in an exquisitely dainty bride's book the large party of guests were served with a delicious refreshment course consisting of sandwiches, devil's food cake and grape juice.

Garden Party Honors Guests of Mrs. W. E. Dameron

To Hereford society was given the pleasure on Friday of welcoming Misses Katharyn and Virginia Doane of Chicago, house guests of Mrs. W. E. Dameron, when their hostess entertained for them with a charmingly appointed garden party at the home of Mrs. W. B. Dameron.

From nature's lavish store house was drawn a wealth of charm and beauty, creating an ideal occasion replete with pleasure. The wide gallery framed in vines and bordered by beds of autumn's early blossoms, was further embellished by baskets of cut flowers effectively placed. Under wide-spreading trees flower decked tables were grouped about with easy chairs, the scene being at once an attraction and an invitation.

A pleasing touch of the formal was introduced in the long receiving line down which the guests were shown by Mesdames C. C. Ferguson and B. F. Guthrie and which included Mrs. W. E. Dameron, Misses Katharyn and Virginia Doane, Phetis Campbell of Temple, Texas, Clara Dunlap, Bertha, Frances and Marjorie Dameron, Ethlyn Cockrell, Grace Lucas, Helen Lambert, Mesdames Henry Wilkinson and Ben Allen of St. Louis, Mo. Others of the house party were: Mesdames W. B. Dameron, A. M. Jones, D. C. Laird, A. G. Monday, C. H. Dyar, Misses Ina and Lara Gregg, Dene Dunlap, Corine Jewell and Mabel Gass.

To the delights of social intercourse soft airs from the Edison added a festive note, a dainty salad-course being served to a large number of guests who called during the receiving hours from 4:30 to 6:30.

Out of Town Visitors Honored

A pretty courtesy extended to the Misses Doane of Chicago, and the Misses Dameron late of Washington, D. C., was the lawn fete and line party given Saturday by Mrs. A. M. Jones.

An informal social hour on the pretty well-kept lawn during the late afternoon was followed by a sunset picnic supper, the pleasure of which was enhanced by its lovely setting—a verdant grass plot overhung by nature's canopy of iridescent beauty seen in its perfection only in a Panhandle sunset.

The menu included meat sandwiches, stuffed tomatoes, chesse muffins, fruit salad, watermelon, and leed lemonade.

The gentlemen of the party received a plate of favors, tickets for the evening program at the Star Theatre, while floral favors were bestowed upon the ladies.

The delightful evening was enjoyed by Misses Katharyn and Virginia Doane, Bertha, Frances and Marjorie Dameron, Ina and Lara Gregg; Messrs Harry Sead, Dick Kimmons, Travis Dameron, Roy Golden, Miles Roberson, Gano Hastings, Finis Owens; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dameron.

A PLAINVIEW OPINION

Plainview, Texas, Aug. 12, 1921.

Judge L. Gough, Hereford, Texas.

My Dear Judge:

Having visited and inspected Sulphur Park, near Hereford, I am constrained to urge you to proceed with the organization of a club to take it over as a fishing ground and golf links.

In the first place, the two miles of lasting spring water and deep pools, appealed to me as a thing that has passed away from among those things that are the common heritage of a pioneer people. We are now limited to the highways for recreation. Everywhere we meet the sign, "posted" and nowhere a welcome. For that reason we must get together and, by combining, retain some of the privileges nature sought to give us.

In the second place, the two sections of choice valley land on the Tierra Blanco gives us our money's worth as an investment. As time passes, too, it means that this club will have all necessary room, a thing that is now pressing the Palo Duro Club. The beauty of the grounds selected, the room, the deep cool water, the two miles of fishing ground, all appeal to me to be what we need and I heartily endorse the organization of a club to take it over.

Your friend,
(Signed) H. C. Randolph.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE WHOSE INDIAN IS SCALPED

It makes quite a good deal of difference whose Indian is plugged full of holes.

When our own savages got busy on our frontier and burned and tortured and killed right and left, American regulars, state militia men and all and sundry who owned rifles, took to the trails and didn't finish until most Indians in that general neighborhood were good Indians—good because dead. But when the half-civilized Indians and wholly savage and fanatical Moslems of India become bloody-minded and go about assassinating, sniping and torturing whites, the "Friends of India" in New York, as well as all the radicals of both England and America begin to talk of "self-determination of native peoples." And if England shoots up a few hundred of her murderous Indians, just as we used to shoot up the same sort in the West, these funny folks raise their voices in holy horror. What a lot of bunk has been going the rounds the past few years in the name of sacred liberty!

SOURDOUGHS AND ALASKA FOOD

We are informed that sourdoughs from all parts of the world will gather at Dawson City shortly to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Klondike.

We never met a sourdough, but we understand they are the men who prospect for the riches of the earth, particularly gold. Anyway, at their celebration nothing but products of the Yukon will be served at their feast. Bread from wheat grown in Alaska; vegetables, fruit, beef, pork—all raised on the soil far up towards the Arctic.

They do grow fine wheat in Alaska, and they have no trouble raising all the fruit and vegetables they want.

Alaska is not the bleak country people think it is. Some day it will support a great population, but at present folks are not going there in any number, mostly because the territory doesn't get enough publicity.

Brother Scott Bone, the new governor, is a newspaper man, and we have a notion that he will find a way to get the folks interested in Alaska before his term is over.

My Auto 'Tis of Thee

My auto, 'tis of thee, short road to poverty... of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you three years ago; now you refuse to go, or won't or can't. Through town and country side, you were my joy and pride, a happy day. I loved the gaudy hue, the nice white tires so new, but you're down and out for true, in every way. To the old rattle box, came many bumps and knocks; for thee I grieve. Badly the top is torn; frayed are the seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells

FALLS FROM BARGE SEVERELY INJURED

Mr. R. C. Bennett, who lives two miles southeast of Lockney, received severe injuries last Saturday afternoon when he fell from a loaded barge of bundle feed. The accident occurred when the team suddenly started up, throwing Mr. Bennett backwards, and he alighted on his head and shoulder. Three ribs and his collar bone were broken, and his side and face bruised. Medical attention was immediately given the injured man and he is doing nicely, but will be confined to his bed for some time.—Lockney Beacon.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has left for Peking, China, where he will speak at the opening ceremonies of the Peking Union Medical College.

ROAD PATROLLING VS. REPAIR GANG

The road patrol system used in Grant County, Wash., is pointed out by the United States Department of Agriculture as an illustration of how highways can be maintained most successfully and economically. Other counties in the state use the "gang" system, assigning to each gang a long section, upon which they make repairs, at intervals, seldom reaching all the necessary points. In Grant County the plan is to prevent a road from getting into bad condition rather than to make repairs.

There are 13 patrol sections, each from 6 to 10 miles long, in the 87.83 miles of county highways. Each section is in charge of a patrolman, who works constantly on his piece of road, feeling that he alone is responsible for its condition. While these men work under the direction of the county engineer, the details are left largely to their judgement.

A specially constructed light road machine, called locally a "road fixer," is used. It has a long wheel base and two cutting blades rigidly connected with the carrying frame of the machine. The rear wheels are on separate axles, controlled by separate levers. The patrolman carries the necessary small tools for clearing weeds, trimming shoulders, cleaning ditches, and for handling surfacing material. He makes his own repairs in the county repair shop under the direction of a skilled mechanic.

The annual cost of this system, states the Bureau of Public Roads, averages $223 a mile, which is less than other counties pay "where roads receive attention only when they need it." Grant County has graveled roads second to none in the state, and its people are enthusiastic supporters of the patrol system.

Two girls of Dallas, Texas, are setting out to walk to California, and from there back through Seattle, Washington, to Chicago and New York. Both are artists and they plan to earn expenses by making talks and sketches along the route.

COUNTY AGENT IS HELP TO FARMERS

The problem of having running water in the house, as well as on the farm, is one which farmers everywhere are struggling to meet. The county agent of Cabarrus County, N. C., employed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State agricultural college, was able to persuade one of his demonstrators to dig out a basin on the side of a hill near his house and line it with cement instead of building a tower. The elevation was about 20 feet above the top of the house, which gave sufficient pressure. The outlay for placing water in both his and his brother's house was $400. The basin holds about 2,000 gallons and keeps the water at a more uniform temperature than would a tank in a tower, which would have cost twice as much.

A. M. COLLEGE TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 21

College Station, Texas, September 3—The fall semester of the A. & M. College of Texas will begin on September 21. Repairs to the buildings, replacement equipment, and other preparations have been delayed and about twenty cancellations in the teaching staff have occurred while the legislature delayed passage of the educational appropriation bill, but the reconstruction work has been underway by a large force of workmen for the past few days since passage of the bill and President Hazzell has been almost constantly in conference with the heads of the various departments regarding the filling of existing vacancies and he has announced that all preparations for the reception of students will be complete by that time.

Because of the distressing financial conditions throughout the state the number of requests for financial aid for students is greater than at any time since 1914, but due to the fact that the opportunities for student labor are unusually large and the relative expense of attending this institution is comparatively low, President Hazzell is certain that the financial situation will not react unfavorably upon the attendance at this college.

STEAL SAFE WITH AID OF TRUCK

Thieves Tuesday night backed a truck belonging to the Empire Laundry Co. on North Main street up to the rear of that establishment and made away with a safe in the building. The truck was driven to a spot midway between Vernon and the tourists' camping grounds east of town, and blown. Only $25 or $30 was obtained.

Entrance to the building was gained through the rear.

After taking the laundry safe, the marauders backed their vehicle up to a south window of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. building next door and forced their way into the office.

Eunice Wilson had forestalled any efforts of thieves by leaving the door of his safe open, and the robbers found no money whatever. Nothing was missed from the Coca-Cola concern the next morning. The same establishment was robbed several weeks ago.

No clue is had concerning the identity of the thieves.—Vernon Record.

Trustee's Sale

Whereas, by virtue of authority vested in me as trustee, named and appointed in said deed of trust recorded in Book 23, at Page 274, of Trust Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, executed and delivered to me as trustee on June 3, 1919, by W. P. Lupton and his wife, Mary O. M. Lupton, to secure the payment of one promissory note for the sum of $9085.00, dated February 26, 1917, due on or before 90 days from date and bearing interest from date till maturity at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, and 10 per cent thereafter. Said note executed by the said W. P. Lupton and payable to the order of C. O. Keiser, on or before 90 days from date.

And whereas, the said C. O. Keiser is the legal and equitable owner and holder of said note, and the said W. P. Lupton has failed and refused to pay said note or any part thereof, or any interest thereon save and except the sum of $1500.00 which was paid and credited on said note on August 14, 1918, and the balance of said note as well as accrued interest thereon is now past due and unpaid.

And whereas, after the maturity of said indebtedness and default in payment thereof, I have been requested by the said C. O. Keiser as such trustee to enforce said trust and offer for sale between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, in the city of Hereford at the Courthouse door of Deaf Smith County, Texas, on the first Tuesday in October, 1921, that being the fourth day of said month, the following described real estate, to-wit: situated in Deaf Smith County, Texas, and being all of the S. E. quarter of Survey 75, Block K-3, Cert. 923, containing 100 acres, with all the rights, members and appurtenances thereto belonging.

A Novel Feeding Plan

A farmer at Post, Texas utilized his big maize crop in a novel way, and got full market value not only for the grain but for the stalks as well. Maize stalks are considered practically valueless as fodder.

The Post farmer, J. W. Jackson, had a crop and the market had gone to smash, so he couldn't sell it. He purchased twenty-two head of range calves and put them on feed in a pen. He made a grinder and ground up bundle maize, stalks, grain, and all by hand, and fed the ground-up feed to the calves, adding a small amount of cotton seed cake. The calves were fed nothing else. They made a gain of three pounds each per day. When penned on January 15, 1921, they weighed 450 pounds each, and when shipped to Fort Worth on May 10th they weighed 816 pounds each.

The calves topped the market, for they were finished baby beef, stock very seldom seen on the market. Mr. Jackson's profit after charging the full market price for grain against the calves, paying the freight and commissions, was $30 per calf.

This is a feeding experiment well worth following up. Mr. Jackson is now feeding forty-two head of two-year-old steers for a period of about 120 days, and they will be finished dry-fed steers.—Canadian Record.

A livestock campaign is being put on in Bell county, Texas.
