Hereford police issue warning about automobile 'prize' scam

Pair arrested when starters pistol discovered at school

A black starter pistol with a white plastic grip got two juveniles into trouble when one of the youngsters brought the "gun" to West Central School Wednesday.

Hereford Police described the incident as a harmless prank, but said students and at least one teacher were anything but amused when they saw the pistol.

"It looked real," said Sgt. R.V. Tackitt. "The teacher and students were quite alarmed."

Police confiscated the starter pistol, which had a two-inch barrel. They also detained the juvenile who had brought it to school and another youngster who had borrowed it from him.

The boys were taken to the Hereford Police station where charges of disorderly conduct were filed against them. Both were released to the custody of their parents.

Police get updated uniforms

Hereford Police will become the blue centurions Monday morning when they switch over to their new dark blue uniforms.

"This has been a lifelong dream for me -- to get into a blue police uniform," said Capt. Pat Michael. "All of us are looking forward to it."

Hereford officers have been wearing dark pants and light blue shirts. The new outfit, approved by the 23-member police force and Police Chief David Wagner, will be worn year-round and will be similar to the uniforms used in Amarillo, Lubbock, and Housto:

The department had its last uniform change in December 1988. Prior to that, officers wore a khaki green jacket and dark pants, said Michael.

Hereford's uniform is similar to the one worn by one of the top police agencies in the country -- the Los Angeles Police Department.

The City of Hereford pays for the uniforms, while individual police officers pay for their leather gear, weapons, and shoes. Each officer invests $700 to $1,000 to be properly outfitted.

Some Hereford officers wondered if the new dark uniform would be cool enough in the hot summer months.

"I guess we'll find out next July." said a patrolman.

Hereford child to appear in Miracle Network video

BY RICK LANNING Staff Writer

Two-year-old Quentin Ward is one in a million. Quentin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ward of Hereford, is a miracle baby after surviving congenital heart defects and open heart surgery at University Medical Center in Lubbock.

Now the tot has been selected to star in a video to promote the nationwide Children's Miracle Network, said Kent Hamilton, assistant director of development for the center.

Said Hamilton, "Each year, the network produces up to a dozen miracle child stories on video to help raise money for children's hospitals.

"The child whose life best tells the story is featured at our kickoff luncheon in Lubbock. National and local corporate sponsors attend, along with administrative personnel, doctors, and telephone volunteers.

"This year the luncheon was held January 28 and the person selected was Ouentin."

The child's mother, Karen Ward, is employed at the laboratory at Hereford Regional Medical Center. His father is a farm manager in the Hereford area.

Karen said Quentin, who has a sister, Cicily, three, is doing "wonderful" since recovering from his surgery. "He has been at the pediatrician's office five times in the last four weeks, but other than that he's doing fine," she added.

The Children's Miracle Network is made up of 160 hospitals in the United States, Canada, and New Zealand that help raise money for hospitalized youngsters.

All of the money raised in an area stays there, said Hamilton.

"Since we're a department within the hospital, we have a budget to get things done," he declared. "This means none of the money we raise goes outside the community."

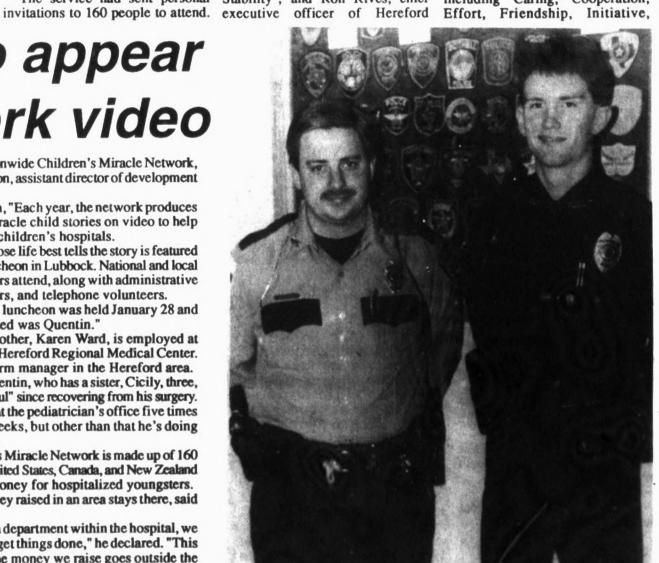

A fund-raising telethon will be broadcast June 4-5 over KCBD, Channel 11, in Lubbock.

It will be aired simultaneously with a national telethon, with 40 minutes each hour going for national programming and 20 minutes for local, he said.

So far, more than 10,000 people have viewed Quentin's video, his mother said.

'We're really proud of him and the progress he's made," she declared.

"I don't think it's being fair that you're going to tax one region for what is a national problem," said Schwebel, who testified last year on Capitol Hill against border crossing fees.

His comments came Thursday as House Republicans unveiled legislation that would add 6,000 Border Patrol agents and put up border fences and ditches to deter illegal crossings.

The proposed restrictions did little to allay the concerns of the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund. "I think that card would lead to civil and constitutional violations against U.S. citizens - and more likely than not those citizens would be those who look and sound foreign," said MALDEF's Washington director, Mario Moreno.

The INS hasn't taken sides in the debate, though agency officials testified last year that implementation of a user fee poses some logistical problems and could further slow the pace at already-clogged border crossings.

The GOP proposal was met with general favor by the INS, which last week brought forth its own plan to swiften the deportation of criminal illegal aliens and the processing of political asylum cases; and provide additional fences and lighting along the border.

"Many of the things they are proposing are similar to things the administration is proposing," said INS spokesman Verne Jervis. "There certainly seems to be a lot of common ground.

AUSTIN (AP) - Welfare reform in Texas may soon be as simple as automated banking.

If all goes as planned, Texas will begin using bank-style cards this year to electronically provide welfare benefits in a new system designed to reduce administrative expenses, fraud and theft.

"While the rest of the country is still talking about welfare reform, Texas is implementing it," Comptroller John Sharp said Thursday.

Under the program that begins this fall, a bank-style "Lone Star Card" will be given to food stamp recipients and those getting Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

He said the CRP program is expiring between 1995 and 2000, with some farmers looking to put that land back into production, while the federal government is trying to identify some playa lakes as wetlands.

In water conservation, farmers have had to learn more careful ways of irrigating the 206,000 acres not being dry farmed.

"The limits of the Ogallala Aquifer has completely changed the look" of agriculture, he said.

Carr said communities with fewer than 10,000 residents have a hard time of surviving, and that for a larger community like Hereford, there needs to be "sound and stable" growth.

Since 1991, he said, 77 new businesses have opened in Hereford, while 43 have closed.

In 1993 alone, 26 new firms located or expanded here, creating 120 new jobs.

And, Carr continued, while there is a potential for about $200 million in retail sales locally, "leakage" to other communities has lowered the amount spent here considerably.

However, total retail sales in the county have risen every year since 1986, when $75 million in sales were noted. Last year, retail sales in the county totalled $115 million.

In addition, hospitals around Texas gave $2.5 billion in uncompensated care in 1991, essentially "free" care for uninsured people.

The news here, he said, is good, in that the city has a primary care hospital, 10 physicians and a hospital district that raises about $1 million a year in taxes to help offset the uncompensated care.

Richards' staff will give the Travis County district attorney's office reconstructed copies of destroyed long-distance telephone records as soon as possible, a spokesman says.

"We will supply everything the district attorney asks for," Richards' press secretary, Bill Cryer, said after the district attorney's Public Integrity Unit requested the records Thursday.

John Fainter, Richards' chief of staff, has said he is reconstructing 32 months of long-distance phone records that were destroyed in August 1993. As of Tuesday, nine months worth of records had been reconstructed, Those records were made public to reporters. But in a Thursday letter to Fainter, the Public Integrity Unit said it had not been given copies.

The letter also asks that Fainter provide the office with copies of whatever records exist which are the basis of your efforts at reconstruction, along with names of any persons in other agencies or private telephone companies with whom you have been in contact regarding the reconstruction of telephone records."

Earlier this month, Ms. Dawson--Brown wrote the governor's office a letter saying the Public Integrity Unit was looking ir the phone records and asking for Richards' cooperation.

The governor's office phone records were destroyed a few weeks after Travis County prosecutors raided the state Treasury and seized records of Republican Kay Bailey Hutchison.

A clerk will process the card through a computer terminal, the recipient will enter a four-digit personal identification number, and the cost of the items will be deducted from the recipient's food stamp account.

"No cash will change hands," Andy Welch, a spokesman for the comptroller's office, said. At present, Welch said, change from food stamp purchases sometimes is given in cash, which then can be used to purchase alcohol, cigarettes or other non-food items.

The Texas Department of Human Services contract for providing the service went to GTECH Administrative Services Corp. Once implemented statewide, the cards will be provided for some 2.7 million needy Texans, officials said.

The state must take two steps before beginning the program, Sharp said. The U.S. departments of agriculture and health and human services must approve the agreement, and the Federal Reserve Board must make a determination concerning the state's liability for lost or stolen cards.

Harris County was chosen as the urban test site and Chambers County as the rural test site because much of the technical hardware needed to deliver the benefits is already in place at area retailers, Sharp said.

The state plans to have 16,000 retailers lined up by 1996.

SAN JOSE CATHOLIC CHURCH

On Ash Wednesday, Feb. 16, we begin another season of Lent. Parishioners are invited to help prepare the ashes by bringing to church this Sunday last year's palms that are hung on crucifixes or on the walls of your home.

These palms will be burned to make this year's ashes. The schedule for Ash Wednesday: Mass at 6:30 p.m. (Spanish); 5:30 p.m. (English); and 7:30 p.m. (Spanish). There will also be two communion services with ashes: 10:30 a.m. at the church and 6:30 p.m. at the Mission. Remind all your family, friends and neighbors to attend a service on this important day.

Any seniors who would like to participate in the Baccalaureate liturgy on May 15 must be signed up in the parish adult mentor program. Please contact Father Darryl or Deacon Jessie to get started. So far, 24 seniors have begun meeting with their mentors, and we believe that wonderful blessings will come from this process and extend beyond high school graduation. This Sunday, the adult mentors will meet at 3 p.m. for a formation session.

There will be an altar servers training at 3 p.m. Feb. 20 at the church for any boys or girls who would be interested in serving at the Sunday liturgies. Pete and Janie Galan will be in charge of training and scheduling the servers.

Continuing the custom started last year, there will be morning prayer on Monday through Saturday at San Jose Church at 8:30 a.m. This service of singing psalms, spiritual reflection and prayer that will last about 20 minutes. It is a great way to start your day. Lenten morning prayer will begin on Ash Wednesday at 8:30. Also, there will be Sunday evening prayer each Sunday of Lent at 6:30 beginning on Sunday, Feb. 20.

You are invited to a day of Renewal Sunday at San Jose Church from 2-5 p.m. with fellowship at the salon. Guest speaker will be Sister Mary Anne of Prayer Town (Disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ), and music by Noe Ramos from Plainview.

Girls' track team to count on youth

By JAY PEDEN Sports Editor

Help wanted: Young runners, throwers and jumpers needed for exciting opportunity on improving girls' track team. See M. Emerson, Hereford High School.

OK, she hasn't exactly taken out an ad in the Brand Classified section, but with only two seniors with varsity experience returning, girls' track coach Martha Emerson is hoping some underclassmen can come through.

"I'm counting on lots of help from all underclassmen and good leadership from juniors and seniors," she said. "We are a young team with not much experience, but if the young ones can come on, we'll do better at district than we've done (recently) We're going to set our sights on winning district, that's for sure."

The season starts Saturday with the Lubbock Christian University High School Indoor Track Meet. The event, which starts at 10:30 and continues with a rolling time schedule, is the only indoor meet on Hereford's schedule.

The Hereford boys' track team starts its season in two weeks at the Frenship Tiger Relays in Wolfforth.

The top senior on the girls' team is sprinter Krista West, who last year missed a trip to the state meet by less than half a second in the 200-meter dash. She won district, then came in third at regionals with a time of 26.20 seconds (25.75 took second place).

Unfortunately, Emerson said she thinks that both girls who beat West are back this year.

The only other senior with varsity experience is discus thrower Jenny Parker. She threw on varsity in several meets last year but competed on junior varsity at the district meet, winning it with a toss that would have been good for fourth on varsity.

Below the seniors, there's not much experience--only two girls who earned points at the district meet--but the numbers look better. Emerson expected to have eight juniors, 10 sophomores and 15 freshman after all the basketball players finished with that sport this week.

Junior Erin Dunn finished fifth at district in the 100-meter hurdles. Now she'll be the best hope in what recently has been a strong area for Hereford.

"I'm optimistic," Emerson said. "we have--besides Erin--eight or nine young hurdlers, and we have a chance to still do well in both hurdle events as we get toward district."

Parker and sophomore Crystal Mercer, who placed sixth at district in the shot put, lead a group of throwers with potential.

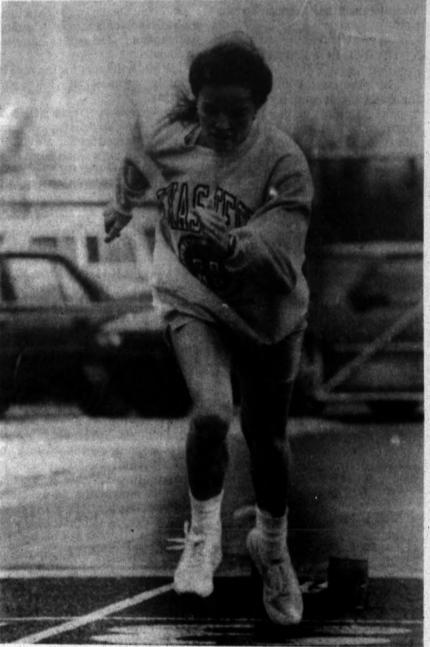

"We were 1st, 2nd and 3rd in JV discus last year and 1st in JV shot, so we have good prospects here," Emerson said.

For other events, Emerson has two especially promising freshmen: distance runner Bethany Townsend--she finished sixth in the two-mile cross country race in the fall--and Courtney Gearn, a 400-meter runner who also should help on the 1,600meter relay.

The team has several runners back from the three relay teams, including West, who ran on two of them.

"All of our relays should be faster than last year," Emerson said. "Early next week we'll begin to make decisions on those who will run the relays, although we may try different combinations early in the season to find out how to score the most points."

Emerson has more than two months to find the right combinations and the right underclassmen. The District 1-4A Track Meet will be April 15-16 in Dumas.

USOC asks Oregon court to dismiss Harding's suit

OREGON CITY, Ore. (AP) - The U.S. Olympic Committee countered Tonya Harding's $25 million lawsuit by arguing that competing in the Games is not a right but "an honor and a privilege" only the USOC can bestow.

In papers asking an Oregon court to dismiss the suit, the committee said Thursday that Congress gave it sole authority to decide who takes part in the Olympics.

Harding filed her lawsuit Wednesday, asking for damages and a court order to block a USOC hearing set for Tuesday in Norway that could get her banished from the Games for her actions surrounding the Jan. 6 clubbing attack on Nancy Kerrigan.

A judge was scheduled to hear Harding's request for a court order this afternoon. The Games begin Saturday in Lillehammer, Norway, but women's figure skating doesn't start until Feb. 23.

In its reply to Harding's lawsuit, the USOC said the federal Amateur Sports Act of 1978 gave it "exclusive jurisdiction to resolve disputes covering the eligibility for and participation in the Olympic Games."

"Selection and confirmation as a member of the official U.S. Olympic team is an honor and a privilege" - not a right enforceable by the courts, the committee said.

Despite the USOC's strong response in court, at least one committee lawyer told The New York Times there may be growing sentiment to let Harding skate.

"I think it's a case of the tail beginning to wag the dog - the dog is the Olympic Games in Lillehammer - and to have this sideshow getting center stage, I think the answer may follow from that," said the lawyer, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Harding, whose ex-husband has implicated her in the attack on Kerrigan, is seeking $20 million in punitive damages and at least $5 million in compensatory damages if the USOC prevents her from skating in the Olympics.

Among her objections to the disciplinary hearing: She doesn't have

Wilkins joins all-time top 10 scorers; Hawks win

By CHRISTINE HANLEY Associated Press Writer

Dominique Wilkins was happy about becoming the 10th-leading scorer in NBA history. He was even happier about how well the Atlanta Hawks are playing heading into the All-Star break.

The 34-year-old Wilkins surpassed Elgin Baylor on the all-time list by scoring 33 points in a 114-98 victory over the Miami Heat Thursday night.

Wilkins, in his 12th NBA season, has 23,150 points. Baylor, a former star of the Los Angeles Lakers, had 23,149 points in his career.

"Moving into the 10th spot ranks pretty high," Wilkins said. "It's really special. I never saw Elgin play, but I know I'm in good company.

teams."

More importantly, the Hawks finish the first half of the season tied with Chicago atop the Eastern Conference standings (34-13). The 34 wins is the most ever for the Hawks before an All-Star break. Their previous best was 32 in 1980.

Wilkins scored 16 of his points in the opening quarter and was 13-of-24 from the field overall. He connected on his first four shots and 6-of-7, including a pair of 3-pointers.

Glen Rice led the Heat with 22 points. Rony Seikaly added 20 points and 10 rebounds.

Rockets 104, Pistons 81

Hakeem Olajuwon scored 28 points and grabbed a season-high 20 for the Rockets' first win at The Palace at Auburn Hills.

The Rockets, who snapped a five-game road losing streak and have won six of their last nine games, enter the All-Star break leading the Midwest Division at 34-12. Detroit (11-37) heads for the break having dropped 10 of its last 12.

Houston is 1-5 at The Palace - the only NBA building where before Thursday the Rockets hadn't won a regular-season game. Rookie Allan Houston paced Detroit with 19 points and Isiah Thomas added 18.

Jamal Mashburn scored 16 points and Fat Lever set a franchise record with nine steals as visting Dallas beat Washington for the Mavericks' fourth victory in their last seven games.

With Lever leading the way, Dallas forced 26 turnovers and established a season-low for points by an opponent.

Lever broke the team record of eight steals held by Jim Spanarkel and Derek Harper. The Mavericks won consecutive games for the first time this season and also set a club record with 19 steals. Gugliotta scored 18 points to lead the Bullets.

Warriors 113, Knicks 105 All-Star Latrell Sprewell scored a career-best 41 points, the most by a Knicks opponent this season, and visiting Golden State held New York to five points in the first seven minutes of the fourth quarter. Sprewell made 14 of 21 shots from the field and scored 15 straight points for the Warriors in the third and fourth quarters to put them ahead for good.

Chris Mullin added 21 for Golden State.

Patrick Ewing had 24 for New York, John Starks 22 and Greg Anthony a season-high 19.

Sprewell's previous career-high was 36 points in an overtime game last year against the Lakers.

Tar Heels get close win over Terps

By The Associated Press

What a night for Dean Smith. His top-ranked North Carolina Tar Heels won 20 games for the 24th consecutive season. They tied No. 2 Duke for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Leading scorer Donald Williams returned from a six-game absence because of a shoulder injury and scored 11 points. And the game with Maryland was close.

That last fact made Smith happy. Honest.

"We needed one like this," Smith said of Thursday night's 95-89 victory over the Terrapins. "I told the players that during one of the timeouts. We haven't had a lot of close games and it was good for us."

The Tar Heels (20-3, 8-2) could hold the No. 1 spot for more than a week because point guard Derrick Phelps had another marvelous all-around game.

The senior had 21 points, eight assists, seven steals and five rebounds and nine of his points came in the final 2:12 as North Carolina held off a furious rally.

'I just stepped it up another level during the key moments," Phelps said. "I just had the time to show what I can do on offense.'

The Terrapins (12-7, 5-5) trailed Bruins (16-2, 9-1 Pac-10) squeaked by 18 points with 8:42 left, but went on a 21-4 run to close to 78-77.

No. 7 Louisville 65, South Florida

Clifford Rozier had 25 points as the Cardinals (19-2, 8-1 Great Midwest) won their ninth straight. Rozier was 11-for-17 from the field and had eight rebounds and six blocks and led the deciding 17-6 run over the final 6:39. Jerome Robinson had 14 points to lead the Bulls (9-11, 2-5), who had a 10-game home winning streak snapped.

No. 8 Temple 51, Duquesne 49 The Owls (17-3, 10-2 Atlantic 10) didn't bounce back impressively from their loss to West Virginia. Eddie Jones had 24 points to lead Temple, but the winning points came on a short bank shot by Jason Ivey with six seconds left. Derrick Alston had 20 points for the visiting Dukes (11-8, 5-5), who finished with a 41-36 rebound advantage and held the Owls to 24 percent shooting in the second half.

No. 9 UCLA 79, Washington 76 Tyus Edney made six free throws at home as the Huskies (3-16, 1-9) went for their second straight upset of a nationally ranked team. Edney had 22 points and Shon Tarver added 20 for UCLA, which was coming off the shocking loss to Notre Dame. Amir Rashad had 21 points to lead the Huskies, who beat then-No. 12 Arizona last weekend.

No. 13 Massachusetts 70, Rhode Island 64

The Minutemen (18-4, 9-0) remained unbeaten in the Atlantic 10 as Mike Williams returned to score nine points in 21 minutes. After collapsing in a game two weeks ago, Williams underwent a battery of cardiac tests and was cleared by doctors to practice earlier in the week. Derek Kellogg scored seven of his 13 points in the final two minutes as visiting Massachusetts was never challenged in the second half. Abdul Fox scored 20 of his 25 points in the final seven minutes to lead the Rams (8-12, 4-7).

No. 16 Arizona 77, Stanford 60 Khalid Reeves hit six 3-pointers and scored 33 points as the Wildcats (18-4, 7-3 Pac-10) beat Stanford for in the final three minutes as the the 13th straight time. Damon Marquette was snapped.

Washington. Dion Cross had 16 points to lead the Cardinal (13-6, 6-4), who dropped to 9-2 at home this No. 18 California 95, Arizona St. 78 The Golden Bears (16-4, 8-2 Pac-10) trailed by 20 midway through the first half, closed within three points at halftime and then pulled away behind the 25 points of Monty Buckley. Cal scored the first eight points of the second half and never trailed again as it led by as many as 21 points. The visiting Sun Devils (11-8, 6-4) hit 11 of their first 14 shots as they shocked the Bears early with a 34-14 lead.

No. 22 Marquette 61, Cincinnati 60 Jim McIlvaine had 18 points, 11 rebounds and eight blocked shots for the visiting Warriors (16-5, 7-1 Great Midwest) and his free throws with 2:20 left were the game's final points. The Bearcats (15-7, 3-4) missed two close

Some A&M players had been escorted to their locker room, but Barone and the rest of the team had to wade through the fans.

Scuffling broke out near Barone after he stopped to confront a fan who was yelling at him, witnesses said. At least one fan took a swing at the coach and his player and son, Tony Barone Jr., but didn't connect. Several fans also reached over the rails, trying to hit the players.

The fracas was one of two in Texas last week in which basketball fans exchanged punches with players from the visiting teams.

Just two days after the Tech-A&M fight, a small group of Angelo State players jumped into the stands and traded punches with spectators at West Texas A&M in Canyon, about 100 miles north of Lubbock.

Security will be beefed up at future West Texas A&M games, Thompson said. And students won't be allowed to sit in the front row of bleachers, located just a few feet behind the visiting bench.

Germany, Norway, Russia and Austria appear evenly matched going into the 17th Winter Games.

Germany, which was No. 1 at Albertville with 26 medals, including 10 gold, is drawing on the talent of the former East Germany, and the women's competitions could give it the edge. Gunda Niemann could again dominate long-distance speedskating. But the German sports machine

Speedskater balances Olympics, homework

By RON LESKO AP Sports Writer

HAMAR, Norway (AP) -While her Olympic teammates Bonnie Blair and Dan Jansen are ready to make history, Christine Scheels is studying it.

She's also working on chemistry, advanced algebra, English and German

A wide-eyed high school junior from New Berlin, Wis., Scheels is the baby of the American speedskating team. She celebrated her 17th birthday in Hamar on Monday, and homework has been as big a part of her first Olympics as workouts.

How could her teachers load her down with a month's worth of assignments when she is preparing for the biggest race of her life? They didn't.

"My parents want me to keep up with it, so they made me get it from my teachers," Scheels said Thursday after practice at the Viking Ship Olympic Hall.

An honors student at Nathan Hale High School in suburban Milwaukee, Scheels has been a quick study as a distance specialist since picking up the sport five years ago.

She began to believe two years ago that the 1994 Olympics might be within reach, and she grabbed the opportunity with a second-place finish in the 3,000 meters at last month's U.S. trials.

"Now that I'm here, it's better than what I expected," Scheels said. "Hanging out with Bonnie and Dan - it's just great."

Small by speedskating standards at 5-foot-3 and 125 pounds, Scheels is not considered a contender for a medal this year. But she pushes herself relentlessly, and has a steely determination - similar to Blair's - to be among the world's best skaters.

Over a period of 10 months, from October 1937, to August 1938, Henry Armstrong won the featherweight, lightweight and welterweight titles.

She skates for five hours after school, and often gets in an hourlong workout before class. On Thursday, Scheels was the first skater on the pristine Olympic oval, turning laps before anyone else had even laced up their skates. She has also given up nearly all the usual teen-age diversions, "I chose it to be that way," she said. "I get tired sometimes, but that's fun, training hard. That's what you have to do, and the results are showing." U.S. coach Nick Thometz admitted burnout is a concern with such a driven young athlete. But he said, "If she can stay interested and stay excited with the sport, she can be a real, real competitor."

Ten years ago, Blair was an awestruck 19-year-old at her first Olympics in Sarajevo. She finished eighth in the 500, then became the world's fastest woman in 1988, winning the gold medal in the 500 with a still-standing world record of 39.10 seconds.

Blair followed with golds in the 500 and 1,000 in 1992 and can become the winningest woman in U.S. Olympic history with two more golds this year.

Scheels is inspired by Blair's fierce concentration and her success. She also has learned from Jansen's ability to cope with adversity.

Jansen fell in both the 500 and the 1,000 at the Calgary Games in 1988 after his sister's death, and turned in a disappointing performance at Albertville in 1992.

"He's always been one that I admired," Scheels said, "because he keeps coming back."

While Blair and Jansen chase gold medals, Scheels will launch an international career in Thursday's 3,000.

"Like Bonnie tells me," she said, "this is just the beginning."

Henry Armstrong tried for his fourth boxing title against middleweight champ Ceferino Garcia but only got a draw.

Cathy Henderson charged with murder

Baby sitter had new life mapped out, list found in Steno notebook

By MIKE BURGESS Austin American-Statesman AUSTIN - Cathy Lynn Henderson had her new life mapped out.

The details were in a Steno notebook:

Change her hair color. Get new car tags. Rent an apartment.

Get a job. "Basically begin all over again," said Travis County sheriff's Detective Rick Wines.

Investigators do not know whether Henderson, 37, wrote the list before 3-month-old Brandon Baugh died. But Henderson told the FBI that before the infant's death, she "had been thinking of leaving Texas and coming home to Kansas City."

Henderson may have had reason for wanting a new life.

In December, she lost custody of her 11-year-old daughter. A month earlier, she had been accused of abusing the child and forcing potentially harmful anti-depressants upon her.

In October, Henderson's husband, Warren Henderson, told Travis County sheriff's deputies that his wife cut his nose and destroyed household items after an argument escalated into a fight. In September, Cathy Henderson told police her husband had beaten her and left with their 4-year-old daughter.

Whatever her troubles, one thing definitely led Henderson to abandon her life in Travis County:

"As a result of Brandon's death, I left Texas and came to Missouri,"

Henderson-allegedly told an FBI shut. agent after her Feb. 1 arrest in the In Kansas City, Mo., suburb of Independence.

Henderson has declined to be interviewed by reporters, and her attorneys have refused to discuss specific aspects of her case. She also won't speak with sheriff's investigators.

Henderson, who was charged Wednesday with capital murder, is believed to have fled her Pflugerville--area home Jan. 21 with Brandon's body hidden inside a suitcase that was placed in the trunk of her Mazda, Travis County Sheriff Terry Keel

She also took a shovel from her husband's tool shed and about $1,000 she had withdrawn from her bank that afternoon.

Thus began Henderson's life on the lam.

She drove to the Bell County town of Holland, where she left Brandon's 2-year-old sister, Megan, and There also were hints of domestic Henderson's 4-year-old daughter, Jennifer, at a relative's home.

An 11-year-old girl at the home told investigators Henderson gave her $10 to watch the children.

After dropping the children off, investigators said Henderson drove northward to find an obscure site to bury Brandon. She buried the infant in a shallow grave among a group of elm trees, off a gravel strip about two miles east of Temple.

The infant, still dressed in his pajamas, was wrapped in a yellow and white blanket and placed in a cardboard box that was then taped Investigators believe Henderson then drove north on Interstate 35.

Henderson told authorities that she stopped in Blackwell, Okla., but no records could be found to support her story. They think she was in Missouri by Jan. 22, the day Brandon's disappearance was reported to authorities.

During this time, Henderson changed her appearance using Lady Clairol No. 112 to make her hair light auburn.

In Independence, Henderson met 32-year-old Henry Thompson at a bar called the Welcome Inn, investigators said. Thompson was questioned by authorities but was not arrested.

On Jan. 25, Henderson - using the name Patricia Keith - rented a second-floor furnished apartment. The landlord, Roy Vaught, said Henderson paid her $265 rent and $100 security deposit in cash.

She wrote on her application that he worked at a bar.

Detectives said Henderson had a Social Security card bearing the name Patricia Keith. A person in Independence with that name resembles Henderson, investigators said. They are trying to find out if Henderson knows her.

An affidavit for the capital murder warrant states that Henderson was to 'begin a new life" and that one of the steps included the "procurement of false identification records."

Henderson put her Texas license plates in her trunk and used two sets of stolen Missouri plates.

One set had been stolen from the Independence Police Department impound lot, and the other was taken from an inoperable car belonging to Thompson's mother.

Henderson's apartment was neatly kept, detectives said. Combs and brushes were neatly lined on a towel. No photographs or signs of her life in Travis County could be found.

But Henderson's new life as Patricia Keith would come to an abrupt end. Acting on tips, FBI agents arrested Henderson at her apartment but could find no signs of Brandon. Documents state she "denied her identity" and provided police with false identifica-

She was flown back to Austin the next day. After being booked into jail, Henderson demanded her attorney.

Authorities said they were alarmed by the former baby sitter's attitude. "It frightened me when she was here," Keel said. "She came in with the U.S. marshals, and she was almost - the word 'nonchalant' doesn't sound right - she was almost pleased with herself."

Said Chief Deputy Alvin Shaw: "She had a little smirk about her all the time - kind of like, 'I got one up on you.""

WASHINGTON (AP) - President linton's first summit meeting with apanese Prime Minister Morihiro Representative Mickey Kantor said Clinton's first summit meeting with Japanese Prime Minister Morihiro Hosokawa was clouded by a stubborn trade dispute that threatened to push the two nations into a new, more acrimonious relationship.

Doctor describes finding burned bodies at compound

Peerwani can't place a name or even a gender on many of David Koresh's followers.

Bodies of some 80 Branch Davidians were laid on white sheets, slid inside trash bags and then placed into a refrigerated truck near the ashes of the Davidians' compound, Peerwani testified Thursday.

"What we saw at the scene was that the bodies were burned, charred and mutilated," Tarrant County's medical examiner said.

Flames erupted throughout the Waco compound April 19, 1993, ending a standoff between federal agents and barricaded Davidians.

Eleven Davidians are accused of conspiring to murder and murdering four agents who attempted to arrest Koresh 51 days earlier. Six Davidians are believed to have died in the gun battle, which led to the standoff.

Lead prosecutor Ray Jahn contended in opening statements last month that fire was part of the Davidians' doomsday plan to be "sucked up to heaven." Jahn also contended a shootout or other violent exchange was part of the conspiracy.

Testimony in the trial's fifth week has centered on the fire, which the government and Davidians blame on each other.

Peerwani was expected today to continue telling jurors how he pegged cause of death for the Davidians.

Eighteen children were among those who died of burns, gunshots and other trauma, Peerwani testified Thursday. Nine Davidians survived.

CITY OF HEREFORD, TEXAS By: Chester R. Nolen City Manager

Notice is hereby given by the Parks and Wildlife Department that a public hearing will be held at 7:00 P.M. on March 2, 1994 at the Hereford Community Center, Park Ave. in Hereford, Texas, for the purpose of gathering information concerning the following:

1. proposed Statewide Hunting and Fishing Proclamation for 1994-1995;

2. proposed Public Hunting Lands Hunting and Fishing Proclamation for 1994-1995; 3. candidate listing of state parks being considered for public hunts during the 1994-1995 season;

4. proposed regulations on Wildlife Management Association Area Hunting Lease License; 5. proposed changes to the Shrimp Management Proclamation;

6. proposed fee for a tarpon tag and red drum tag.

These proposals include establishing the seasons, bag and size limits, areas, and other regulations on the taking of wildlife and fisheries resources in the 1994-1995 season; designating the areas, conditions, and associated regulations for hunting, fishing and other – permissible activities on wildlife management areas, state parks, and other public lands; establishing a wildlife management association area hunting lease license with associated regulations; modifying shrimp harvesting times, areas, authorized gear, and placing restrictions on vessel to vessel transfer of the shrimp catch; and designating a fee for a tarpon tag and red drum tag proposed in the statewide hunting and fishing proclamation. A detailed presentation of the proposals will be given at the

The Newspaper THE HOLY SPIRIT: TEACHER IN RESIDENCE BIBLE

There is now no condemnation awaiting those who belong to Jesus Christ. For the power of the life-giving Spirit--and this power is mine through Christ Jesus--has freed me from the vicious circle of sin and death.

We aren't saved from sin's grasp by knowing the commandments of God, because we can't and don't keep them, but God put into effect a different plan to save us. He sent His own Son in a human body like ours--except that ours are sinful--and destroyed sin's control over us by giving Himself as a sacrifice for our sins.

So now we can obey God's laws if we follow after the Holy Spirit and no longer obey the old evil nature within us. Those who let themselves be controlled by their lower natures live only to please themselves, but those who follow after the Holy Spirit find themselves doing those things that please God.

Following after the Holy Spirit leads to life and peace, but following after the old nature leads to death, because the old sinful nature within us is against God. It never did obey God's laws and it never will. That's why those who are still under the control of their old sinful selves, bent on following their old evil desires, can never please God.

But you are not like that. You are controlled by your new nature if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that if anyone doesn't have the Spirit of Christ living in him, he is not a Christian at all.)

Yet, even though Christian at an., your body will die because of sin; but your spirit will live, for Christ has pardoned it. And if the Spirit of God, who raised up Jesus from the dead, lives in you, He will make your dying bodies live again after you die, by means of the same Holy Spirit living within you. Romans 8:1-11 really just a natural woman. Aretha Franklin may have 15 Grammys, 58 albums and 17 Top 10 singles, but she's not too busy to do a little work around the house

'Every now and then I have to bust a few suds, yeah," she says in the February issue of Vanity Fair, due on newsstands Feb. 14.

Grocery shopping isn't unusual either, when she's home in Detroit. "Farmer Jack, on 12th Street, is exactly where I get my meat," she said. Meanwhile, she's stopped chain-smoking, and the high notes in "A Deeper Love," her newest single, are clearer than ever.

Still, the artist - who is due to receive a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award this year - stops being ordinary at a point.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been reading your column every day for 27 years. I have noticed that your Sunday columns are invariably about heavy topics such as moral dilemmas, mental illness and consumer fraud.

How about lightening up a little and giving us something to laugh about one of these Sundays? It would be a wonderful way to start the week. I'll sign this--Your No. 1 Fan in Detroit

DEAR DETROIT: I [pay attention to what my readers say because "everybody knows better than anybody." Sometimes I'm so close to the work that my perspective gets a bit warped, so thank you for the suggestion. I think I have a letter for today's column that may be right up your alley. Here it is:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A woman wrote to you some time ago about a friend of hers who couldn't have children so she "adopted" a little puppy. All the women for whom she had been buying baby gifts through the years gave her a shower for her new puppy, and it was a huge success.

Some friends of mine in MIchigan got together and gave a shower for a goat. It seems that a woman who was not able to have children decided to fill the maternal void in her life with a "kid." She named the kid Jennifer.

The party was a huge success, and the gifts were wonderful. Jennifer received a rhinestone collar with a bell blanket, 50 pounds of goat chow, a box of diapers, two pairs of booties, a silk bonnet with holes in it for her ears, and a romper set with rubber panties. The local florist sent a centerpiece for the table made out of old newspapers and tin cans.

It was the party of the year, and people talked about it for months. I hope you are a good enough sport to put this in the paper.--Longtime Fan in Fort Wayne

DEAR FAN: Thank you for a letter that "lightened up" this Sunday. I enjoyed the change of pace and hope the readers will, too.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My daughter is not a drug abuser, an alcoholic, a prostitute or on welfare. She is a telephone solicitor. Some of the people she has called treat her as if she were on par with one of the lower forms of life.

It is no secret that telephone solicitors often interrupt dinner, romantic moments, relaxing baths, time with family, chores and naps. I cannot defend the intrusion because I myself do not appreciate it when it happens to me.

I would, however, like to remind your readers that these people are only trying to make a living so they can pay their bills. The telephone solicitor is one less person who is being supported by the welfare system. It serves no purpose to be rude and insulting. So how about telling your readers that the next time they are interrupted by such a call, they should just hang up or simply say, "No thank you, I'm not interested."--Mother of a Telephone Solicitor in Phoenix

DEAR PHOENIX: What you have written is sure to create a friendlier environment for people who try to sell things over the phone.

Personally, I find such calls annoying, especially when I'm trying to work and I get three in one night. Next time, I'll try to be a little sweeter.

and a reflector, a pacifier and a warm us, we all could have been seriously injured or killed.

Please tell your readers that a highway is no place to carry on a vendetta with a stranger. Also, tell them that if they have a car phone, they should alert the police whenever they spot an angry maniac at the wheel. Right now, I thank God I'm still alive in--Lynnfield, Mass.

DEAR LYNN: A cardinal rule for anyone behind the wheel: Whenever you spot a reckless driver, put as much asphalt between you and the lunatic as possible.

Here's a statistic that bears mentioning, relative to what you have written: You are 62 times safer in a plane than you are on the highway. As a frequent flier, I like those odds.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is for the woman whose husband was suddenly contacted by a 23-year-old girl who claimed to be his daughter. The lady wants the "daughter" to take a blood test to determine paternity before accepting her as a member of the family.

After my experience in a similar situation, my advice would be to insist on a blood test immediately. For years, we paid child support plus thousands of dollars for extra expenses to my husband's ex-wife to support a child whom he had been led to believe was his. When "Loretta" was 15, friends and family members began to point out that she bore an uncanny resemblance to the children of a man who had been a longtime friend of the family.

After this had been mentioned by at least a dozen people, we insisted on a blood test--and obtained a court order. Guess what? The tests showed that Loretta was NOT my husband's child. He felt so betrayed that he has neither seen nor spoken to either Loretta or her mother since.

My advice is to do the testing NOW. Don't wait until the girl gets married and you are tangled in wedding plans and later, grandchildren. clear the air immediately .-- Been There in Missouri

DEAR MISSOURI: It seems to me that Loretta is also a victim here. Why should she suddenly be cut off because of something that was not her fault? My sympathies are with HER.

Planning a wedding? What's right?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I had the scare of my life recently. My husband, my 3-year-old daughter and I were heading home on a major highway. We saw a car driving within the speed limit in the left-hand lane. Out of the blue, another car came from behind and flashed his high beams, a signal for that car to get out of his way.

The first driver chose to provoke him by staying in the lane and slowing down, the second driver proceeded to tailgate and keep his high beams on. As the two continued this dangerous game, I slowed down and tried to get as far to the right as possible to avoid the accident that seemed bound to happen. Sure enough, the tailgating car got fed up with the game and swung around in front of the first car. He came so close to hitting him that the first car had to slam on his brakes, swerving out of control across two lanes of traffic, and headed directly toward us.

I hit my brakes and missed colliding with that car by inches. If there had been another car behind or in front of lead role in "I'll Do Anything." Nolte rejected a title any man would be proud to have - People magazine's "Sexiest Man Alive" to persuade director James Brooks to cast him as the aging, bumbling Matt Hobbs, a chronically out-of-work actor.

The 52-year-old Nolte was afraid the magazine had blown his chances of getting the role.

Don't believe that magazine," Nolte said he told Brooks when he was auditioning for the role two years ago. "It's all bull. I'm not sexy at all."

Nolte said he drew a moustache on the magazine cover photo, added a couple of scars and crossed out the eyes. He sent it to Brooks' house with a note: "This is how I really see myself.'

Brooks said he had been concerned about the sexiest man stuff until he spoke to Nolte.
